I am so grateful that You not only brought us to a safe place, but You did so many incredible things to ensure we would continue to serve You in peace while we wait. It is not peace as the world would see it, but peace as I view it. To me, peace is when my heart rests in Your hands and is subject to no man. You set me free here. You provide the small things too, things that delight me.

For instance, when a married male couple became our neighbors, knowing we were Christians, they continuously made themselves visibly present. When they first began to excavate the field next to ours, they decided to camp together in complete view of our windows. Their desire was to visibly display their relations right at the edge of our property. They could have pitched their tent away from us, but instead they put it within a few feet of a small ditch that divided our two properties.

In response to my pleas as we prayed at the dinner table to keep them from camping there, and within minutes as we dined, they were attacked by horseflies. They then quickly decided to abort their camping altogether. What makes this so remarkable is that no one in our family has ever been attacked by horseflies since moving here. This was a new thing that God did there for us.

This type of thing also happened when they later began to get ready for the foundation of their house. The excavators soon found out that the sight of their property was a former swampy garbage dump. Construction was then halted and the removal of the debris began. After this, at least 30 or more dump trucks poured fill to the point they could finally start their foundation. There were many more delays.

When the home finally went up, I asked You to somehow build a massive ten-foot hedge so that our view of them would be blocked. You then told me that You would. Knowing natural growth would take years, I went to a landscape company to ask them how much tall cypress or arborvitae would cost. It was an impossible amount of money, so the thought was abandoned.

So, how would God do this? Flash forward to just a couple of months later and God's plan was set in motion. An epic rainstorm came. We had flooding. The water carved out ravines in our yard. The ditch between our two properties then became a new waterway. However, in Your great way, You transported an abundance of tree seeds to this area and made them grow supernaturally fast.

Within a miraculously short time period, we now have a fourteen-foot-high tree wall. The trees are beautiful, consisting of maple, sumac and birch. While I was not happy about the flood, You created answered prayers using Your higher ways. As for this couple, their relationship ended in late June 2021. Their home was sold. They broke ground in the spring of 2018 and they were gone by the summer of 2021.

Father, You answered our prayers. This is Your land. We only rent all that we see as You own all that is before us. We are thankful for You. You care about all that we care about. You already know that we are okay to stay here if it is Your Will. I never want to step outside of Your Will. When I do, it never goes well for me.

Our children have struggled here as the world continues to chip away at their faith and innocence. You are fully aware of all of this. Our young adults are surrounded by such bizarre people. So many of their co-workers are truly lost souls. Just yesterday You had me advise my older son to remain at his job until You call him to move. He had several requests of You in his prayers.

When he told me what his prayers were, I could literally hear You say, 'No, No, No!' This was because all of his prayers were coming from the wrong direction. I had to explain to my son that when God tells you to wait, then don't move. This is because He is working on something. I explained it this way to my son...

Me: "You are not to speak about these matters with your co-workers anymore. You are not to leave until the Lord directs you to. I am sorry this makes you uncomfortable, but hang in there as answers are coming."

I dropped him off and proceeded to drive home. I then received a text five minutes later that he hadn't been paid for the prior week. I prayed. You told me to turn around and go to the manager and make known my position as my son's guardian given his autism. I then went to his place of work and asked to speak to his manager. The manager came out confused. In short, she is a biological male dressed as a female.

She could not look me in the eyes. Oh wait... excuse me... the correct label is 'they' and so shall it be written. I then stated that my son has autism and is uncomfortable with touch. While I was kind about it, I stated that there seems to be miscommunication about varying issues. My son had told others he was uncomfortable with touching and then his hours were cut. It seemed like 'they' were retaliating against him.

I then gave 'them' a bit of our background. 'They' then quickly became an advocate and confessed to me that 'they' were also high-functioning autistic. I then reminded 'them' about the Disabilities Acts and other laws in the books. I told 'them' I had no issue with escalating any abuse against him to the authorities. It completely disarmed the enemy when I told 'them' we had unlimited means to fight. Even though I said it nicely, 'they' assumed we meant financially when I really meant You! Father, You are limitless.

As we were wrapping up, 'they' told me that they were going to give him more hours and responsibilities. When I asked 'them' if this meant a pay increase, 'they' said, 'In time.' However, by simply establishing my position as his guardian, I watched this clearly lost soul change 'their' demeanor. It changed everything. After that, 'they' elevated my son and have been very nice to him ever since.

Father, You are amazing, brilliant and oh so clever. As I drove home, You told me that the disabled are placed in the laws above the transgender movement...at least for now. While this manager thought 'they' were untouchable, 'they' is fully aware now that we stand behind him ready to fight. Father, with You behind us, the giants will all topple.

I then told my son later that evening that he must stay separated from gossip with co-workers as their battles cannot be his cause. After this, and for the first time in a long-time, he had a restful sleep. Thank You, Father, for, at least for now, my son will not lose his job. Overall, the stories our kids are coming home with now are so bizarre.

Pagan practices are everywhere as these young people are confused about who they are. We are in the three-week time period (or 21-days) of mourning starting from the 17th of Tamuz to the 9th of Av. Father, my husband and I are using this time to deny ourselves certain foods. Mine is more extreme, more like a fast than a diet. I feel I need this right now to focus more on You and the tasks You have for us.

As of right now, we have no idea how You will take us from the wilderness to Bend OR. However, in obedience, we are planning a trip there in September. Not sure how You will do this, but You already do. You have it all in Your Plans. In the meantime, we continue to do as You instruct, moving forward in faith.

In the meantime, I am increasingly concerned about our nation, especially when I read Jeremiah 2:26-28 and 2 Kings 21:6 as we are clearly there...

Jeremiah 2:26-28: "26As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed: they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, 27 who say to a tree, 'You are my father,' and to a stone, 'You gave me birth.' For they have turned their back to me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they say, 'Arise and save us!' 28 But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you, in your time of trouble; for as many as your cities are your gods, O Judah."

2 Kings 21:6: "6 And he (Manasseh) burned his son as an offering and used fortune-telling and omens and dealt with mediums and with necromancers. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking him to anger."

The Book of the Law had been stored away in the Temple, so the kings knew nothing about what was written in it. This is why, instead of worshipping the God of Israel as it was written for them to do in Scripture, images of Baal were erected in the Temple, the place where God said His Name would be placed forever. God warned the people continuously and Manasseh was taken prisoner. (2 Chronicles 33:2-11).

While Manasseh was a prisoner, he repented and called out to God. God then restored him to his reign. He then returned with his grandson, Josiah, to Israel. However, their efforts were lost as they were not able to start a revival. Father, I pray that Your revival soon comes. I pray that You are able to turn hearts and humble the proud and arrogant. In my dream two nights ago...

Sub-Dream 1 "The Car-Sized Fireball" begins...

I was in a very hilly city neighborhood. There were abundant trees, landscaping and homes close together. I was up at a neighbor's home looking through storage bins of broken porcelain when, all of a sudden, a fireball the size of a tiny smart car flew in at a 45-degree angle in between the homes.

There was a large explosion and debris scattered everywhere. In this dream, I did not know that I was this home's neighbor. While it completely missed our block, I could see the debris had started many fires. The fireball seemed to come out of nowhere.

Sub-Dream 1 over..

Then in my dream from last night...

Sub-Dream 2 "Hispanic gangs rule the neighborhood" begins...

We were living in a ranch home with a flat roof in a community with similar homes with stucco siding. I had an office window facing a parking lot for the guests of this community. We heard yelling and could see two rival Hispanic gang members yelling at each other.

There was a total of four gang members. Then out of nowhere, one of the members took a baseball bat across the face of his rival. The hit was direct and shocking and it shattered his frontal skull. Two members ran up to our door to demand we let them in. I went to the door.

Gang member: "Call an ambulance."

I agreed. The other member stared at the inside of our home for a bit too long for my comfort. When they heard the ambulance coming, they ran. The ambulance came to the fallen young man and I walked outside. The driver placed a sheet over him as he was now dead.

Ambulance driver: "Did you let them into your home?"

Me: "Sort of. Two of them were standing at my door when I opened it. They seemed to take quite the interest in looking around. There was nothing I could do to stop them."

Ambulance driver: "They will come for your home next. They have taken over the southern portions of the community and stolen the homes and contents. Yours and this block are next. They will come. Don't delay, understand?"

Me: I knew he was right. "Yes. I will do as you say."

We decided to take only important items. Even so, it still filled a large U-Haul. We supernaturally moved everything. Nothing was left. We did this all in a day. While we warned our neighbors, they didn't heed our warning. When nightfall came, we returned to drop off our keys and saw the gang trying to enter our home. They didn't see us. When they entered, they saw that our home was empty of anything they would want.

They were extremely mad and called out to some others to hunt us down. However, we were gone. We had completely disappeared. They could not find us. I didn't know how that was possible (them not finding us) as we were now observing them in clear view. While it seemed like this was some place like Nevada or Arizona, I was not sure.

Sub-Dream 2 over...

I have had so many dreams of destruction and trouble coming to the land. It is really difficult to think of leaving, especially with so many obstacles.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Why do you think I would call you back to the place of your brokenness (Bend OR)?"

Me: "Well, I believe it is because I loved this area so much. I loved it despite the enemy's victories there. Still, I always felt I would be back one day under different circumstances. I just thought it would be as a changed, transformed, strong, young person, not as I am currently. As I am, I am willing, my heart is ready, but my body is weak and our financial abilities are weaker. It just seems impossible. This will truly take a God-sized miracle!"

Jesus: "Well, good then. Let Me go to work for you because God has already put your house in order and a miracle is coming. Erin, stop thinking."

Me: Laughing. "Okay, Lord. However, if I stop thinking, I won't be able to drive a car."

Jesus: "You are funny, Erin. Now, I am with you and My promises are true. As you have prayed for others, I have granted them their prayers also. Even as wave after wave has come to the shores, I will not stop. The ocean continues to meet the sand and God calls it to only go so far. This is so it does not consume the beaches and swallow the people for good. Now, why does God allow the moon and the tides... the rising of the sea and even their retreat?"

Me: "Is it because man cannot control these?"

Jesus: "Well, yes... even though they try. The waves on the shoreline is a reminder of how God harnesses the sea and keeps dry the land as a dividing line. He promised not to cross again as man cannot survive in the water for long. The days of Noah reminds people of the wrath of God. Tides are My way of showing the world the power of God. The sheer force moves the water according to the moon."

Me: "Gravitational force?"

Jesus: "Yes. While 'gravitational force' is the scientific explanation (that is, removed as being from God's power), it is ultimately all in the hands of God. The enemy cannot control the waves of the sea nor the power of the sun. This is Mine to control. While the enemy can strike against God's Creation and the children of God, ultimately all of these decisions are My Father in Heaven's to make and He has given Me charge over all things.

"It is by My authority that the sun continues to shine by day and the moon at night. I am about to pull the hearts of the lost and the children of God by gravitational force of their hearts back to Mine. As this is My Will that no sheep shall be lost as the Shepherd is over them, I am about to do something God-sized and with Great Force. The land and hearts will be greatly humbled. Suddenly and with no warning, all will change.

"The voices of those whose hearts are not on Me will change as a result. Those who now say, 'There is no God. He doesn't care anyway even if He did exist. This is clearly the case as you can see all the suffering of the people.' will then say, 'Where is God? Help us! Save us!' Well, here I am and I send My Army. Since I am in My Army and work through them, hearts will then change."

Me: "We have been expecting something soon."

Jesus: "I know, Erin, I know. Do not be afraid as I am with you. I have not forgotten you. My recompense is with Me. If I can harness the waves of the ocean, then what is impossible for God?"

Me: "Nothing, Lord."

Jesus: "From your view, it is impossible. All of it. However, I am generous and My promises are true. I will move you where I call you. Now rejoice as I am with you."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for me being able to breathe clearly. Thank You for my family and friends. Thank You for our Nest. Father, bless these journal pages and make my pen have the most wonderful ink to date. May I always have a pen with ink in it, in Jesus' Name, Amen!

Father, what an odd summer we have had. We have had extreme heat, humidity and torrential downpours. With this though we have had no mosquitos, bugs or even spiders. However, we have had an abundance of earwigs. We also have had new additions to our feeders and they are nesting nearby... catbirds.

We have also had many babies this year, including groundhogs, squirrels (both gray and red), downy woodpeckers, hairy woodpeckers and sapsuckers. My recent favorite has been one lone little red squirrel baby that is so adorable. We also have one last baby groundhog left that we have named 'lucky'. I recently discovered that our neighbors have been trapping the groundhogs. So many have disappeared.

As for the orange cat, it still roams and hunts here. There has not been much we can do because this apex predator has changed its routine. This cat adjusts to any deterrents we set up. In my devotionals with the Lord, He has had me study the patterns of predators based on this one orange feral cat.

I discovered that there are several types of predators. Apex predators have the distinguishing pleasure of being at the apex, or top, of the food chain. This means there are no natural predators in their respective environment. Most known are killer whales, sharks, tigers, lions, bears and so on. Also included are king cobras and wolves. The full list can be found on various websites.

Apex predators hunt without fear of anything higher than them. They are to be feared. Humans are not apex predators because we eat a variety of meats, veggies, fruits and so on, making us omnivores. When armed, we are 'apex-like', but are easy prey in a lot of natural environments if unarmed. There are also medium sized predators called meso-predators. These include raccoons, skunks, foxes and so on.

The reason the Lord had me look at these is so I understand that, when He sends signs in nature to us, He is also giving us analogies or descriptions of how the enemy works against us in our daily walks.

My daughter had a horrendously large spider outside her window. This is because her window provides a perfect wall whereby bugs or moths would fly to the light in her room. The spider's web provides the perfect trap for the innocent, especially at night, a web to deceive. We were unable to kill the spider as it is unreachable. It has become fat as a result.

Outside spiders don't bother us much as they decrease the mosquito and bug population from entering our home. Towards the end of summer, they will become chickadee food as the birds start to hunt them. However, the Lord allowed this spider to be ominous and ever present outside my daughter's window above her head as she slept. Why? The Lord told me to go ask her why this was being allowed.

My daughter: "The Lord is allowing this as He is revealing that the enemy is looming around me constantly and that I must continue to pray. I also know that this spider can't get to me as God has me."

We then prayed together. The next morning, she realized that the spider had been removed. This just happened on Thursday. Sometimes the Lord wants our attention in a matter. That very same night of Thursday, I killed three spiders. The torrential downpours had drawn them inside our home. I then went on the hunt with an extendable pole tipped with a reverse ball of duct tape.

While I then had success with my hunt, the success was not always immediate. The first spider fell and we thought we had killed it. However, it looked different than the one we were going after. My husband spoke up...

My husband: Laughing. "Don't worry about these spiders. If it is not the right one, just be patient. They always reveal themselves soon enough."

His cavalier attitude made me worry less and I agreed with him. As we retired to bed, I noticed another spider on the ceiling overhead. I got my trusty hunting device and got him on my second try. However, when we looked at the tape, we could not see it. Thinking it was hiding in a tape crevice, my husband smashed the tape. There... it is over! Relieved, I went to take the pole to the hallway.

Well, guess what... my husband was right... the original black spider was right there, the one that had dropped earlier. I called out for him to spot for me as this one was too big to be around the house. Got it! The spider massacre was finally complete. Later that night, I had a dream. This dream was highly unusual though as it had no visible subject... or at least one I could see...

Sub-Dream 1 "The dream without a visible subject" begins...

I was being watched and hunted by someone I could not see. It studied me. It studied my comings and goings. It studied all of my activities. It studied when I got up and when I went to sleep. It studied when I fed the animals. It studied what I did both inside and outside of the house. It was monitoring the when, what, how, why and where of all my activity and only my activity.

Why? In my dream, I only became aware of it via the Holy Spirit and instinct. In my dream, I began to work to block its ability to gather information. The Lord told me to do simple things to avoid their abilities and confuse them. In the dream, I changed my patterns. In turn, the Lord created His own 'Dome of Covering'. Then one morning, I felt that this presence was completely gone. In my dream, I went to lock the front door.

Sub-Dream 1 over...

I woke up suddenly and it was 5:15am. I then fell back asleep.

Sub-Dream 2 "The coyote and the orange cat" begins...

I kept spotting a white coyote in the woods. However, it would disappear faster than I could take a photo of it. It seemed supernatural. I alerted my husband and our kids to watch for it and be on guard when arriving home from work. I kept spotting it when I was home alone. However, I was not afraid of it. I prayed to the Lord to protect us. I was watering some flowers out front.

I turned and this white coyote sprinted toward our yard and the plant I was just watering. I then heard a death rattle. The coyote looked at me with the orange cat in its mouth. The cat had been right next to me hunting the little birds and animals on the side of our home and had gone unnoticed.

When the coyote got to the woods, it turned and looked at me one last time with the cat and it vanished. I cried. For some reason, I felt bad for the cat, but relieved it was finally gone. As I walked back toward the house, birds and animals came out in celebration. I am not sure how I would know when a bird or squirrel was praising God, but clearly they were.

Sub-Dream 2 over.

I forgot that dogs or coyotes could kill a cat. That is how my cat, Paige, died, as well as my kitten, Jupiter. However, I know that I will see them again in Heaven one day. As for this dream, the Lord allowed the orange cat to be hunted by a predator larger than itself. This cat had been spotted at our home several times over the years. However, I thought it was helping with mice, not hunting anything else.

I woke up at around 8:15am and was very startled due to the dream feeling so real. As I was writing in my journal this morning, I received a call about a strange charge on my debit card. I phoned the customer service number. They had tried to phone me and called to confirm a $1 charge. I confirmed it. The bank then removed the fraud hold on my card.

Shortly after this was finished, I received a similar call. However, I never saw the pending charge for $8.64 on my account nor did I receive an email from my bank. I checked the phone number, but it was the bank's number. My heart was pounding just as fast as it was for the dreams I had last night. I am sure the bank blocked whatever it was. This is scary though. In the end, all was confirmed to be resolved and safe.

Last night, my husband and my older son both had dreams about their employers and they weren't positive dreams. Predators are everywhere now hunting us down and even like that orange cat does before it devours its prey. It plays with it as the little one tries to run. However, it eventually succumbs to the cat. It is so discouraging.

We stopped attending our church here because they were bending to popular culture. Pastors everywhere are so glad to have their churches open again. In fear of losing their congregants, these pastors are now falling away from God's truth... the truth of Your Holy Bible.

If we don't stand for God, we stand on behalf of the world. If we don't believe the Bible is truth, then we believe the lies. If we don't believe in Jesus as our Savior from sin, then we are truly lost. I had a dream that I couldn't remember no matter how hard I tried. However, the Lord has now brought this dream back to my memory...

Sub-Dream 3 "A flood of milk comes to our vineyards" begins...

A dam had broken during a storm somewhere near a land of vineyards. I did not recognize the location I was in. A neighbor came over and knocked on our door. Both my husband and I answered the door.

Neighbor: "Welcome to the neighborhood. We live next door. I have some good news and some bad news."

My husband: "Yes, go ahead."

Neighbor: "The dam broke and your property is now a waterfront property. That's the good news. Now the bad news. Your vineyard is flooded."

We walked out onto our front porch and there was a massive vineyard. What was odd was that it seemed to be flooded with something that looked like milk.

Me: "I had no idea we even owned that vineyard. Is it now ruined? Why milk?"

Neighbor: "That is our question too. The grapes will still produce wine, so no worries."

As we stood there, the water or milk receded and the milk made the ground white. It was very odd.

Sub-Dream 3 over.

Father, what do grapes and milk have in common?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have had a rocky day so far."

Me: "Yes, and on our day of rest."

Jesus: "Do not worry. This will come to nothing. There is a reason I tell you to remain alert and watchful. This is because the enemy of the children of God studies and prowls around as does a lion seeking someone to devour. It is just like this orange cat. Remember that evil is patient.

"Evil studies the path of the traveler or the unsuspecting. When the opportunity then comes to pounce, it does and swiftly. He does this when the victim is off-guard and unaware. Right now, the world has been preparing for its 'savior' to arrive. So many have been groomed, dressed and prepared for the coming of the Beast."

Me: "Oh, do You mean the Beast System?"

Jesus: "Well, this is being assembled now and, just as Christians and the children of God have prepared for the coming of the Son of man to appear... Me, then wouldn't the sons of Beelzebub and daughters even prepare themselves for the arrival of their 'savior'. These times are here now. They are attacking the innocent, attacking those with great faith and attacking the children.

"This rise in evil is prevalent as the enemy is seducing the world in the great falling away of truth. As you have experienced, law and order are gone. Truth is gone. The definition of who God knit in the womb is gone. However, one thing remains... and I know this is hard for some to believe... but this remains... God is still in complete control! I am here. I can send a white horse or a coyote. No matter what, you are Mine. The enemy can't steal what is Mine."

Me: "Lord, should we just shelter ourselves and enter a monastery? You created the world and declared it good in the beginning. You made man and declared it 'very good'. (Genesis 1:25,31)"

Jesus: "Yes, but this was before the fall of man. This is why I (God) created a separate people as witness to the lost that, if you see these, My people are blessed and prosper due to their fruits. Holy. They are separated from the unholy or clean from the unclean. God's chosen people. They were to be a beacon of light to the world.

"A Savior then came to redeem and the chosen people of God did not recognize Me so I called out to the gentiles and formed a church of believers. I came as My Word of Truth so that those who believe in Me shall not perish, but have everlasting life. However, as I am Holy, I cannot sin, so I ask those who confess their sins and turn from their wickedness to follow Me.

"These are forgiven. Those who are forgiven much are grateful much and never want to return to the former things. They become as you have... a light in the dark. So then, why would I place a lantern under a bed or hidden in a closet? I would not. However, many throughout time have decided they are better to separate themselves from the world than remain a part of it."

Me: "Hmm, in Art History of Europe, this is the Dark Ages."

Jesus: "Yes, but My light was not visible to the lost. They loved God. However, they removed their light away from others. They later only allowed My Words of Truth to flow through a foreign language (Latin). People were then easily misled in their search for truth.

"What you see now is a great resurgence of the Dark Ages. The youths are isolated, alone and in great despair. Those who followed God became discouraged during the shut off period and still remain isolated. Many churches failed to revive hearts because pastors were tired and weary and falling away themselves for lack of faith."

Me: "Lord, please stop this. We are losing this battle here. Please send help. Please! Rise up and go before us! Have I isolated myself and hid my faith?"

Jesus: "Actually, it is I who brought you to the wilderness to rest, but I have given you a great light in your dreams, visions and writing. You are at work."

Me: "But I miss church and corporate worship. I miss my children having joy and laughter. We have been here and isolated. You have instructed us to stand down, right?"

Jesus: "Yes, during these last few years. However, this is about to change. I see the enemy continue to expand in evil as he has continued to increase from the day of permission for the purposes soon to be revealed. However, remember that I know the plans of the enemy and that I am God over all things. Remember that I am in control even when the world seems out of control. Remember what I have instructed you.

"The enemy and all its workers are calculating. They study and watch for patterns. They are together in unison to prepare for their little horn to rise. However, the mistake My people make is they think the enemy is dim and unorganized. I can assure you that they are not. They are like the orange cat. They study patterns and lurk along paths.

"They seek the weak and even wait to reveal their position on a lesser mouse when they could instead pounce on a more sizable object of provision. They are cunning opportunists. They hate, but declare themselves loving. They seduce and entrap. They ensnare. Therefore, be diligent. I am here with you. I am here and I will soon reveal My position. Not one will dispute that I am God."

Me: "Lord, what about the milk and wine? What is this?"

Jesus: "A dream of great blessings to come. Do not fear as I am here."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for time. You do all things perfectly. I am sorry if at times I sound as if I doubt You. I can't doubt my Father in Heaven who does all things in His time and for His purposes. I only doubt myself. I fail. I am human. I am youthful in Spirit, but weak in years. I am knowledgeable from my failures, but easily put hope in my own abilities and suffer quickly from these missteps.

I sometimes try to act as if I am able on my own strength. I fail to recognize that it is only through Your strength in me that I am capable. I have gone through so many things the last couple of weeks that I can't believe I am finally sitting here to meet with You in this beautiful place and on my comfortable chair. Your voice in me is my constant companion. You talk to me throughout each day and instruct me in the ways I should go.

I just haven't been able to get to the Nest to answer emails or to even breathe. All things are for Your glory and purposes. Father, I am so thankful for You. We have been at war. It is obvious now as I look back at the days leading up to today. Every one of my spiritual warfare signs were visible. I then dialogued with the Lord...

Me: "Are these all just circumstantial? Are these all just common to man?"

Jesus: "Define 'common' in your life."

Me: "The battles are common. Warfare is common. Troubles are common. All of this is no surprise to me or to You, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, but you sense that something is different this time. Erin, what is different about this time?"

I didn't answer right away. In fact, I took quite some time to reflect on all of our events. I then realized it was the first time there was no open 'sin door' in which the enemy has the ability to enter with more. I then began to study the Book of Job. Job was minding his own business and gave glory to God. He was blameless and upright (Job 1:1-5).

Well, You now certainly know that I fall short of Job. Father, Job was much better than I in his zeal to follow Your statutes. Satan then responds and the Lord allowed all that Job had to be placed in Satan's hand (Job 1:12). However, he was not allowed to touch Job. Then I saw something else I had not ever noticed...

Job 2:1: "Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord."

What I had not noticed before is that it appears that time had passed from the first round of testing to the second round of testing.

Job 2:2-3: "And the Lord said to Satan, 'From where have you come?' Satan answered the Lord and said, 'From going to and fro on the Earth, and from walking up and down on it. Then the Lord offered up Job again.'"

These attacks came to our house right after a time of spiritual renewal in our house. This started on the 33rd day after the Lord had given me a great gift, a wonderful visit with Christian friends and acquaintances. This had filled my heart with such joy and wonder. During this, He then promised to take us back to the place of my heart in Bend OR. He then gave us instructions to prepare our home.

We were instructed to do various things to ready our house for changes. We also began to prepare physically for this. I removed certain items from our diets. However, my diet is more of a fast. Because of our goals, in order for us to be ready for great changes, the enemy has begun to attack every aspect of our lives to see if my family or I would turn on God as we endure these storms. The list of our storms is extensive...

- We have had plumbing issues.
- We have had automotive problems, both for us and our children.
- Money issues have then arisen due to these plumbing and automotive issues.
- We have had issues with some roof repairs that cost us a staggering amount.
- My older son was propositioned physically by a trans manager at his work, causing him to resign while an investigation now ensues.
- My younger son had a simple parts repair done on his car and now the electrical system has failed and may need to be shipped for repairs.

- When troubles like these come to young adults with autism, the entire house becomes consumed by the ensuing drama.
- Both my daughter and my stepson have been enduring conflicts and infighting at their workplace.
- My daughter has an actual self-declared satanist as her manager and this manager has performed textbook attacks against her.

I have seen the heavy toll this is taking on my daughter's well-being. When I have appeared at the store, the manager could not look me in the eyes. She stands far away from me when I try to come over to her. The atmosphere at her place of work has completely changed. The workers are all having personal troubles, headaches and other unexplained illnesses.

The district manager who hired her has been called away because her mother is suddenly sick and dying. Her evil manager has scheduled my daughter to work ten days in a row and always working on Sundays. She has planted the seeds of resentment against my daughter. In turn, all of the great relationships my daughter had have now become full of mistrust, gossip, resentment and hate.

This all began on Saturday, June 10, 2023 and has gradually become a great stronghold there. In the meantime, my daughter has applied for other jobs. She received four offers and she has now accepted one of them. However, there has been a delay in processing her acceptance offer letter in order for her to finalize her start date with this company.

Then something astounding happened to my daughter last week. She received a text message from the managing partner of a Christian record label. He remembered meeting her from before. He asked if she would be interested in a job they now had available that would involve touring with Christian artists and overseeing radio and media schedules for the record labels, as well as their national social media.

If offered to her, this would be a dream job, like a lottery win and a once in a lifetime offer. However, it would require her to relocate to Nashville. We have been praying that, if this is in the Lord's Will, she will get this position. This would truly take the power of God to happen as there are literally hundreds of applicants for this position. Oh Father, if it be Your Will, please grant her this position.

My stomach has been turning for her. If she is successful, we would have to see her move to Tennessee. However, she has a good alternative if not successful. The excellent offer she has can be transferred to Bend OR and her podcast could then be launched. There have been divine delays on these fronts as well.

You then reminded me about the works of satanic activity. I know You are greater than all of this. Father, You love us. Please protect us from these continued attacks. Satanists attack anything you or the Lord loves, anything you think about and anything that you are afraid of.

Satanists are slightly different from witches. Witchcraft is a tool of a satanist. Satanists hate Christians and are basically an apex predator of all things holy and innocent. While witches are troublemakers, satanists are devourers. Satanists enjoy harming. They love to publicly display their power. Satanists have an even higher level of hate than do witches.

My daughter had been asked by her satanic manager about what car she owns. Sure enough, her vehicle began to have trouble right after. Father, remove my daughter far from this evil, in Jesus' Mighty Name. This same manager managed the place where my older son worked and now he had to leave his job because of this transwoman (who is a biological male).

As for my stepson, he is enduring harsh conditions at the plant nursery he works at. It has been extremely hot there. Also, as the planting season is now ending, there has been tension and infighting amongst the seasonal workers. We are praying that this concludes quickly.

As for my husband, his sales job now has a Muslim sales manager. This is an odd hire as the business had only employed Christians. This new manager actually hates all of the sales force. While my husband has complimented the manager, he does not reciprocate or engage. The manager treats them like they are a waste of his time. We believe he will be purchasing the business as the mosque is just down the street.

This comes on top of plumbing, roofing and now our deck stairs becoming unstable. We have been under attack on the home front. I am also a taxi right now as our kids need to get around. We have also had workers at our home. In one instance, a habit for humanity van came to pickup items for donation. They refused to climb our deck stairs to move some items.

My husband and I then agreed to walk these down instead. Well, in the middle of this, an accident occurred. Something heavy crushed my right foot. While I didn't say much immediately, I knew it wasn't good. After they left, I explained to my husband what had just happened to my foot. While I limped a bit, I was able to walk and stand on it. This was all on Friday. As for today, my foot looks black, blue and red, but is surprisingly perfectly fine. Truly a miracle. While it looks really bad, I can still walk fine.

My husband and I then had a spat later that night. This was highly unusual for us as we never fight. We then talked that evening and worked everything out. As a result, the enemy didn't win this strategic battle. There is so much more that I am leaving out.

It has been so hot here. We then had torrential rain. I have never encountered severe weather on a continual basis for this long. During this heat, I was in a home hardware store recently and I overheard two men talking at a checkout:

Man 1: "I am telling you that this is the axis powers up in the north. They are causing all of this."

Man 2: "Are you saying they can control the weather?"

Man 1: "Of course. My grandpa talked about the governments doing this back in the 60s. I think there was a law passed whereby countries agreed not to do this. Nonetheless, they are still doing it. I call this global 'war'-ming."

Man 2: "You think all of this is on purpose? That (expletives deleted) me off."

They suddenly became aware that there were a few of us listening to them and they quickly stopped talking. I thought about it and then saw a feed from my friends of what they were enduring south of us. I was troubled. I later went to the Lord as I remembered a particular Scripture from the Book of Daniel about this. The following is from the JPS Tanakh 1917 version...

Daniel 9:27: "And he shall speak words against The Most High, and shall wear out the saints of The Most High; and he shall think to change seasons and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time."

These weather patterns, as well as breakouts of fire, have become amplified. Father, thank You for helping us find the source of our flooding last year to fix this. Show us what to do. Do we sell our home? The move to Bend OR seems impossible. On our own, we are unable.

All of what we have saved will now go to repairs, not including our rickety stairs. Our communication has also been down again. Our tower has been offline and I have been too tired to battle more phone calls and worker appointments. At least I had another dream two nights ago, even though it was very strange...

Sub-Dream 1 "The Black Dragon to soon rise" begins...

I saw a very large Red Dragon swimming in the waters of the Earth. Anytime it hit an immovable object, it moved right through it. It had no cares other than certain areas that were restricted to it. One was the east coast of the USA and Canada into the Gulf and the Atlantic up to the Mediterranean. It could swim past the coast of Africa down south and around the cape, but cut across from Madagascar to India and down around Australia and the Pacific Ocean, the Caribbean and down around South America.

In the restricted areas, I saw another form in the waters. This one was black and it was deep. As it hadn't risen yet, I could not see it clearly. Even so, this entity controlled the Mediterranean Sea, the eastern USA and Canada, the Gulf of Mexico and the Arabian Sea. It also controlled the Red Sea. This black entity had not risen yet as the Red Dragon was to swim alone until a designated time.

When the Red Dragon had finished its final trip around the world, I was finally able to see the black entity. It was the Black Dragon. The Black Dragon had now risen to the surface of the Arabian Sea. It then went under the water again. The Black Dragon was able to swim at such a deep depth that it could not be detected. It was hidden. I then saw it resurface again on the east coast of North America. It was treacherous and quite frightening to see the size and scope of these two entities.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Yesterday morning, I went outside to feed the animals and perform my watering. We had a torrential downpour the night before and there was damage everywhere to plants. As I was cleaning up, I turned to pick up the garden hose. There was what I thought was a large black dead rat about 6" long. As I looked more closely, I could see it was a mole and not a rat. I took a picture of it. It was fully intact.

While it looked bloated, it had no incisions. The meant it was not killed by a predator. Perhaps it had just died and fell down? Who knows? I had my husband dispose of it for me when he got home (LOL). As I moved around our yard some more, I could see feathers on the ground. This was evidence of a struggle, an indication of the presence of a predator. That night (last night), I had a very odd dream...

Sub-Dream 2 "Five Curtains of Rain" begins...

I was on my gravel driveway bathed in sunshine. From here, I saw some lifeless animals. As I began to walk toward them, a curtain of rain stopped me. It was like a curtain of water from an automatic carwash arm.

Even though I stepped through this curtain, I did not get wet. Then another came and another until the 5th came and the rain stopped.

I stood there with a feeling of shock as I was pounded by rain that then came to nothing. I looked at the fallen birds and other little animals and asked God to lift them up and awaken them from their sleep. They began to wake up. I then looked up and saw a sparrowhawk observing all of this. It turned and flew away.

Sub-Dream 2 over...

Father, thank You for dreams. Please help me. This fast has been a difficult one. I am praying that I honor You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My voice in you is not an illusion. I promise you good things all the days of your life. I send you dreams, visions, words and signs. Remember though that I am in the midst of them all. I have given you and your house the instructions to prepare your home. Though you worry about this, I will also make a way for you. In addition, there will be no cost to you.

"I have a purpose for these things and for your interactions right now. You are not suffering needless struggles for no reason. There is a reason for all things. I even placed you in line to hear what these men were discussing at the home store. Was this just random? No. Everything you encounter now has significance. I know you have had many demands placed upon you. So, Erin, when was the last time you experienced such things in these ways?"

Me: "2014! There were so many things happening. We were preparing to leave the desert. We battled and battled. I could not believe all that was happening. It was impossible. Impossible. During the month of July 2014, I watched all of my enemies come after me. I had people I thought were friends turn on me, family even. It was like torrential downpours of troubles."

Jesus: "Okay, what happened next? Just asking for a friend."

Me: I laughed so hard at this. "Oh Lord, You showed up in a huge way. You delivered us from them all. All of this happened right before midnight on the very day You foretold us that You would (August 23, 2014). I am sorry to ever doubt You. As such, we will continue with our plans as You instruct."

Jesus: "Good. Very good. Now, you discovered a new little animal in your yard."

Me: "Yes. It was very odd, but it was dead. It was a star-nosed mole. They are adaptable to many conditions and they eat all of the bugs that I hate. I think they are pretty good. I am not sure what killed it. I didn't know they even existed."

Jesus: "Yes. This is because they are moles. Erin, these rely on all their senses for their purposes. They are extremely fast and go underground. They cannot be detected easily. Did it ever occur to you that the very animals and birds you encounter, and even the prey, that you might understand them so well because I will soon give you all of the same abilities?"

Me: "So... uh... wait..."

Jesus: "I can hear your thinking. In nature, all is in sync with God. Each one, each bird or animal, on land and even fish in the ocean, all are provided for by Me. They know when storms approach. They know how to shelter and prepare. They do not worry about food as I provide for them. They earn no living. They have no investments other than their nests, dens, caves or tunnels. They tap into senses man no longer has, but once did.

"At one time, all of Creation were dependent on God for all things. Man now depends mostly on man or the things of the world. When your change comes, you will be in sync closer to the skills of the animals rather than that of man because I will be in sync with you as I also care for them and you will be able to understand them better. More than this, you will increase in knowledge, wisdom and power from on high. Nothing shall be impossible for you. Using these skills:

- You will run fast.
- You will scale a wall.
- You will leap over buildings.
- You will know the plans of the wicked.
- You will see what is not seen.
- You will see from far away as an eagle does.
- You will see fine details as if you were using a microscope.
- You will be able to see in the dark.
- You will hear something coming from far off in the distance.
- You will not hunger.

- You will not thirst.
- You will have compassion for the lost and the lowly of heart.
- You will be able to think of a thing and it will be done for you.

“These skills will be granted to you, not because you have done anything to earn it, but because I will work through you for My purposes. Now, I am outlining all of these skills because you are limiting your scope of possibilities. However, always remember that nothing ever limits Me. I do all things in accordance with My Word. I was there in the beginning. I Am Who I Am. Nothing can take My life. The enemy can plot or plan, but it has been written as to what they will be doing. As for the one leader (Red Dragon):

- He covers the seas.
- He believes himself God.
- He harnesses the power of a little sun.
- He tries to change seasons.
- He manipulates the clouds for his own gain.
- He claims to govern the stars, the moon and all of what you see.
- He has written testimony to honor himself.
- He thinks of himself as smarter.
- He takes down leaders.
- He deposes those who take his bounty.
- He promises great things in exchange for power over land.
- He claims to harness the wind.
- He creates war by the clouds.
- He even detonates power below the surface.
- He was made wealthy by foreigners and their merchants.
- He amasses power over the nations.
- He claims to be there to help, but, in reality, he is instead taking stock of his future plunder.

“As for the Black Dragon you see, he will be patient a bit longer while the one leader to the north teams with both leaders.”

Me: “Lord, please stop them. Can’t we go back?”

Jesus: "Erin, the plan is to eliminate all of those whose allegiance is to God... Me. It is a massive undertaking. There are several nations working together. They have weapons to use against the world."

Me: "There are so many possible weapons they could use..."

- They could manipulate weather events and temperatures.
- They could send plagues.
- They could limit food via famine.
- They could limit water via poison.
- They could limit and be selective on medical care.
- They could force us into isolation via imprisonment.
- They could steal our wealth.
- They could control information.

"Oh Lord, there are so many frightening things they could do."

Jesus: "Yes, and there is even more. The war is here now."

Me: "What can we do?"

Jesus: "Look up at He who saves and that is Me. While the enemy doesn't control all of these things, any control the enemy does have is only as allowed by Me. However, even this is only for My purposes and My purposes alone."

Me: "Even so, Lord, this is so scary."

Jesus: "You were made known about the four horns."

Me: "Yes. Four horns and four craftsmen. This is in Zechariah..."

Zechariah 1:18-21: 18 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he said to me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." 20 Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen. 21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one raised his head. And these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Jesus: "These are the powers who scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem. These are the powers that struck out against the children of God and fought to destroy them. Horns are instruments. They are constant powers against the people and caused them to scatter the tribes across the Earth."

Me: "Then what are the craftsmen? Smiths?"

Jesus: "These are people gifted and skilled with a purpose. A rebuilders or restorer. They rebuild what the horns destroyed. You are My Bride, but you are also My Craftsman. Your presence will dishearten the wicked and terrify them. What the horns tear down, My Craftsman will restore and rebuild. All their evil work will have been undone.

"Now, this is a great gift. Erin, this is why I will work through My people for this purpose. As you will display awesome deeds, your presence is as if My judgment is there also. You will be a beacon of light for those in the cover of darkness. You will be a floodlight of warning to those who dwell there. Now rejoice and do not worry. I am with you.

"Now, I will give you all that you need. Nothing shall be over you, not even a bank or government power or principality. This is because I am in you and with you. I am God over all things. Do not worry. I see what is happening. I have allowed the enemy to advance, but only in accordance with My Plan and with My Word. As I am God, he is already a defeated power. I love you, Erin. Do not worry as I am here."

715 – 4000 Days of the Feeding of Evil

Received on Sunday, August 6, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for the great care You have given to our family. We are so blessed. It has been a very difficult week here... well, really the last three weeks. It has been an up and down rollercoaster of a ride. Any good news is quickly followed up with bad news. Whenever some good is sprinkled in to rekindle our joy, joy is then soon doused with a cover of discouragement.

Father, I have tried to keep myself focused on Your promises. However, I am weary with all that has occurred over our house. When troubles come, I find myself looking at old photographs. I see joy on the faces of our family and I think to myself, 'All of them look so innocent and carefree. They never would have imagined days like these.' I would have never imagined the world like it is today.

When I was a young adult, I truly had very little to worry about. I didn't need to worry about death because I had so much life around me. I had so much to live for and enjoy. As for here and just this last week, I watched You 'burn down the former houses' of the places two of my children work. This seemed to come out of nowhere. Two of our children left abruptly.

At one place, my daughter was assistant manager under the new satanist manager. She announced to my daughter that she had big plans to give her an action plan for all of her weaknesses so she can better serve the store. In the meantime, she leads in sales, is never late, has a great work ethic and has never been told she was in trouble for anything.

Her manager knew that the district manager was on vacation and that my daughter would be unable to go to her to make her aware of these things. Then her friends there at work that she has known for years suddenly and out of nowhere turned on her. This too was from the false seeds planted by this wicked manager. In the meantime, my daughter has received several offers from other companies.

We are praying for one opportunity in particular. This opportunity involves a record label in Nashville. While she just accepted a new offer locally, she also is keeping her name in the mix for this record label job. Since hundreds applied for the record label job, she had determined to continue to move forward as if she would not get this job. She left the company she had been with when an incident occurred there. My daughter first took some sick days to pray about it.

After praying about it, she still felt she needed to go and that it couldn't wait. When the district manager read her resignation letter, she tried everything to get her back and was devastated that she was leaving. My daughter was then candid with her about all of the reasons for her departure. The district manager then offered her an open door to return for more pay any time she wanted to and she would give her a letter of recommendation if she wanted one. Overall, this meeting went well.

On the very same day, my daughter received an email from an executive at this record label. She was told that she is one of the finalists for this position. This was such shocking news and so exciting. As for her new job, there have been great delays and divine rescheduling. It seems like the Lord is making it so it will not be hard for her to leave her new job for the record label position.

My daughter now must wait until her next interview on Wednesday, August 9, 2023. In the meantime, she had told her evil manager from her previous job what car she was driving. Ever since, her car has had great troubles. She can't even drive it until her service appointment on Tuesday. Father, please heal her car and, if this is Your Will, grant her this special job in Nashville. To us, this seems divinely appointed by You.

In contrast, my older son has had major setbacks. He is struggling to understand his emotions and is angry at God for 'doing things against him'. He is angry that the company he worked for would not give him his job back now that they got rid of the trans manager who was touching him. He had stepped out of God's Will and wouldn't stay and allow the process to play out as God had instructed him.

This is like trying to explain to a nine-year-old in a 25-year-old body that he has to give this to God as he is unable to change the outcome on his own no matter what he does. It is heartbreaking. After this, he non-stopped followed me around, moping and complaining the whole time. After days of this, I was at my wits end. He was like an unruly hunk of clay with a mouth.

Even though he was on the Potter's Wheel, he was constantly barking commands to God as to what he wanted to happen next.

After repeating the same things over and over and then comparing his situation to others, primarily my daughter, I had enough. While we don't fight in our house, we now did. I told him that he was free to move back west with family. I told him I was tired and exhausted. I then did something unthinkable... I told him that I had to give up on him and he would need to rely on God fully. I was that tired. I had reached my end.

Oh Father, something had broken in me. I realized my own limitations. I looked back at photos and my once higher functioning son had regressed so far. He had gone from strength and great development to complete regression. In contrast, my younger son is functioning at a 20-year-old level, over ten years greater than the age 8 or 9 expected of him by doctors. He is responsible and able to be independent. While he isn't perfect, he could live on his own with success.

Father, please help my older son. He has declined. His photos tell a sad story. Please heal him for my sake. Thankfully, he has just had a breakthrough moment. He did all You instructed him through me. He believes so much in Your Words and Your miracles. Father, he believes You will instantly turn things around for him. Since he doesn't understand patience, could You please grant him a spark of good and lovely things. He is doing his best. Please carry him, Father. Forgive me for my loss of patience.

When days like this happen, my thoughts go to a different world. In this world, my husband and I are the only ones living in a small, cute home. This home is tucked away in a retirement community on a golf course. We drive a golf cart to church and to shopping centers. We eventually have visits from grandchildren. Well, Father, I already know this is not in our destiny. It is just fun to think about.

No matter what though, I will continue to serve You and You alone. I will do as You Will for me. Oh Lord, I never want to be ungrateful for all You have done for us. I have to believe that You have allowed my older son to experience these setbacks to save him from something much worse. Please help us. Strengthen and heal me for this length of my path.

While driving around with my younger son yesterday, we started receiving alerts that violent thunderstorms were coming our way. We proceeded home to prepare for the storms. I walked out onto the deck and looked down on our lawn. There in the grass was a very dead starling. I was so sad. This was at 5:30pm. I thought I would let my husband know so that he could pick it up for me.

The Lord then told me that He had the starling and to not worry. Well, right there in front of my eyes, he flew up into the sky. It was a miracle as it was surely dead. It was sitting there lifeless for more than an hour. As we later sat at the supper table, we could see the storm clouds gather. In the midst of them, a large hole appeared. It looked like a door.

I alerted the table as it looked amazing. The sun then showed through it. It looked like a room of clouds. When everyone went back to eating, I then noticed what looked like either the Lord or one of His angels. When I took a picture of this, this entity looked more like a smudge. When I got up to look above the trees, sure enough there was only a rainbow remaining. I then heard You talk to me.

Jesus: "Erin, My promises are true. I am here and I am with you. I am the God who gives good gifts. I am the God in the storm, the One who calms the seas. While I am in the clouds, I am also in you. Now rejoice as I haven't forgotten you. Do not worry as you are Mine."

Oh Father, it has been a difficult summer so far. On the morning of Tuesday, August 1st, I smelled fall. We had a cold spell and this provided some great relief from this extreme heat. Even more alarming is that the leaves are already beginning to change. As I looked out of my devotional chair, I saw a bald eagle with a young eagle. Thank You, Father, for this is always a great sign. You send me so many blessings and I am grateful. Thank You for signs!

My dreams have consisted of various things lately. Demons seem to be a common theme in some of them. I recently had a dream on this...

Sub-Dream 1 "4000 Days of the Feeding of Evil" begins...

I saw an angel of the Lord sound a shofar. The gates of hades opened and these spirits came from below and went into many people who had been operating in evil. There were millions and they came as dark translucent entities and entered some famous people. Over their hearts, I saw a type of cellar door that appeared like an entrance. Some doors remained open long enough to host several evil spirits.

I saw the date of December 22, 2012 (Tevet 9, a Saturday). I heard an angel of the Lord proclaim, 'When the days number 4000, the feeding of the evil will cease. The army of God will rise and these will flee.'

I then counted 4000 days including December 22, 2012. When counted inclusively, the 4000th day lands on December 4, 2023 (Kislev 21, a Monday). This is just three days before the start of Hannukah, which begins after sunset on December 7, 2023 (Kislev 24, after sunset on a Thursday).

Me: "Father, did You grant the enemy 4000 days to feed evil and to build his army? I pray You raise up Your Army now as none of us will survive against this evil increase. This is almost 11 years of rebellion. It has been painful to see this increase of such great evil."

Sub-Dream 1 over..

Our borders are being invaded. Our government is now corrupt. Our President is senile. Our military is growing weaker. Our food is becoming horrible. The good has been labelled bad and the bad good. The lies spread on the airwaves are difficult to hear. I have stopped watching. My screentime is now only 22 minutes per day. I don't miss it as it only created anxiety. I am sad as so many of my friends on the Nest are experiencing great troubles right now. Oh Lord, please help all of us.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, calm down. I have also sent you good dreams. I am here with you."

Me: "Yes, Lord. You gave me a dream that made me smile. I really didn't understand the dream..."

Sub-Dream 2 "The Miniature Border Collie" begins...

I was looking at an adorable miniature border collie. It looked like it weighed about 12 pounds. It had one light blue eye and one dark brown eye. It could do amazing things. I could see it both here and in Heaven.

Sub-Dream 2 over..

Jesus: "Your dreams have been all about fighting battles yet to come. I have instructed your heart to have the ability to stand against the enemy. They will remain far from you and they will prefer to be far from you. Even so, you will still chase them away like stray dogs and sorcerers. They will not touch you."

Me: "I also had a dream of two vicious dogs..."

Sub-Dream 3 "Vicious Dogs Attack" begins...

I saw two vicious dogs in attack mode. However, when I went after them, they fled. One was fast. When I prayed for one of his legs to be removed, it was. The dog then fell. The other dog then laid down and they were both subdued. There seemed to be some demonic influence in play here.

Sub-Dream 3 over...

Jesus: "Do not forget that I also sent you a dream of dogs being your special companions. Not all dogs will turn to evil. I allow dreams for training in the ways you should go. Right now, you have been very busy preparing your house for reasons you do not fully understand. You are to continue to do so in full faith that My plans are good. All of My plans for you are good! You burden yourself when you take on too much. Give this to Me."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I am struggling with various people that we are experiencing now. They don't care. They are self-centered, self-indulgent and self-elevating. I experienced such a person when I was at Walmart getting dog treats. I was waiting in the aisle for a woman to clear the dog treat section. She then saw that I was going for a particular treat bag.

"She then proceeded to clear off the shelves of almost all of them, leaving me just one. She snickered at me. I grabbed the one remaining bag and told her that was all I needed. I went down another aisle for food and then came back in the same direction. She was now putting all of the treats back on the shelf. It was pure evil. She only took these treats because she thought I was after them. Who does this?"

Jesus: "Erin, this woman has many demons. I never said that any of these days would be easy. Remember that I chose you. Those called have been chosen by Me. While these days are not easy, I have given all of you what you need."

Me: "Father, I sometimes get angry. Perhaps it is my age, but I lose patience."

Jesus: "While it is okay to be angry, it is not okay to let anger get a grip over wisdom. This is a sin. This is a weapon like a sword that needs to be wielded properly. Standing down is best for now. When enduring an increase in anger, it is best to remain at home as much as possible. You are better off at home when you are angry. What do you usually do when you are in this state of anger at home?"

Me: "I usually do what I like to call 'Rage Cleaning'!"

Jesus: "Yes. Do this. This is a far more productive use of your time."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "I have been where you are and I know your thoughts. Keep your eyes fixed on Me."

Me: "Lord, was that You in the clouds?"

Jesus: "What do you think?"

Me: "Yes. I saw You."

Jesus: "My promises are true. Do not trouble your heart. Good News is coming your way. Very good and great will be your joy. I have already begun a good work. I am preparing you for what is coming. You will be overjoyed. Do not worry as I am with you. I will not leave you. I love you."

Dream over.

716 – Trust the Ultimate Foreman to make a way

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all we have. Thank You for my husband, my family and our Nest friends. Father, You are our miracle and grand treasure of our hearts. You have called me the apple of Your eye. However, You are the apple of all of our eyes. I am so grateful for Your love. It has been a very difficult year for our family here. Changes are in the air and not just an early fall season.

For the first time, patience has been wearing thin in our children. One of our children said to us, 'I have been waiting for nine years for the Lord to grant the promises He has had for me and instead I have become worse off. Perhaps my prayers don't matter?' This is a heartbreaking thing for the house here because this was one of the children that was on fire for the Lord. He is now making arrangements to go live with family out west.

We are not fighting his wishes. Father, You told me, whether he stays or goes, You will be with him. He has grown weary in the waiting. The lockdowns here have changed the hearts of many young people. We have seen it. None of them see You at work. While I could spend all day listing the miracles You have given to our house, they are still free to go at the end of the day. We cannot keep any of them.

I have told all of our children that we will welcome them back with open arms no matter what. My other two children reminded my older son of the furnace he will be walking into there. They warned him. He has made up his mind and has made arrangements. The surprising thing is the rising up of our younger son.

He began to declare all that the Lord has done for him. He then promised to spend more time with him in the hopes he would not leave. However, his efforts have been in vain so far. This side of the family has never accepted his autism. He has become worse. I am not certain how any of this will go. However, You are God and You are with him. I give him to You. I trust You more than anyone in this world. Your Will be done.

As for my daughter, she had her third formal interview with the record label. When she asked the interviewer if there was anything that is holding him back from considering her, he expressed some concern about her age. He also told her that she would be the youngest staff member to date. He also considered how far from home she would be.

While she had excellent answers to his questions, she went from being very hopeful to now losing hope. His words were along the lines of 'there are many who are older and with greater qualifications.' Father, You told us this was the case, but please then make another way for her. She has worked so hard at all she does. She stands with You and her love for You is an open book. Qualify her in Jesus' Mighty Name.

My husband and I recently watched an old episode of Pool Kings before bed. Father, You often use random illustrations in the natural to carve out a supernatural dream. This was my dream from last night...

Sub-Dream 1 "Trust in the Foreman" begins...

I was given a property consisting of rocky terrain. My house was being built into this rocky terrain. The foundation of the house was carved into solid rock and the four-square frame consisted of iron and steel construction. The home was to be unshakable.

As the construction of the home continued, I had to decide about the location of the inground pool. Our property was rocky everywhere. It seemed impossible to find a suitable location. I went to the Foreman (really Jesus)...

Foreman: "You need to stop trying to figure out how my crew and I will perform our jobs concerning your property. Stop focusing on the impossibilities of the rock and allow us the challenge."

In other words, they know what they are doing. They are fully aware of the challenges involved. It was time to trust in the experts. All I needed to do was to tell them where to begin. I was free to pick any spot as I liked it. I stayed in my lane when I replied...

Me: "Over here! While in my mind this all seems to be an impossible dream, this is the ideal location of where I would like this to be built."

Foreman: "Yes! Now you've got it. We will get this done. Now surrender this task to Me and My crew. I promise you that you will love it."

I felt happy as I walked away. However, as time went by, I started to doubt and sulk. After even more time went by, I fully expected a phone call telling me it was impossible after all. When the phone finally rang, I braced for the worst.

Foreman: "Can we have seven days of uninterrupted access to your property? This will allow us to do the solid work required to finish the work."

Me: "Oh yes, absolutely. I will take a short vacation to resist any attempt at micro-managing You. I am actually happy about this as I hate the sound of bulldozers hitting rock or even shovels hitting rock. This gives me the crawls."

After seven days of waiting, I received a phone call asking for my presence to approve what they had done. I was so excited to see it. When I arrived, I was in shock. It was so grand and perfect. The pool had fountains and a waterwall pouring into the pool. The pool was illuminated with invisible light sources. It was so much greater than I had ever imagined. The entire project should have cost me millions, yet it was done free of charge. The amount of work performed was impossible for only seven days.

Me: "How is this even possible? How?"

Foreman: "This is possible because you trusted in our process. My promises are true. Now, we also found a natural spring and an upper pool. Here is Healing Water. These are like springs into the lower pool."

There were eight vessels coming from the rocks that poured water continuously into the pools. It was incredible!

Me: "I am speechless. I am so sorry for doubting. This is greater than I imagined."

Foreman: "Erin, trust the process. I have built everything on a great foundation of Solid Rock. What I won't do for the one who loves Me and declares My Name. What I won't do."

Sub-Dream 1 over...

I woke up to my husband's alarm and immediately went to my devotional chair.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Trust in Me, the God who was and is and is to come. I am here. Do you believe Me?"

Me: "Of course, Lord, of course. I don't know what I am going through. I am exhausted, embattled and a bit disheartened. You have told Me and Your Words say, 'Teach your children in the way they should go and, when they are old, they will never depart from it (Proverbs 22:6).' I am scared, Lord. My heart breaks."

My dream was briefly interrupted by a phone call from my younger son. He had a dream about his sister that he needed to tell me. This has never happened before quite like this and I felt it was a good idea to include his dream here.

Sub-Dream 2 "My younger son's dream about my daughter" begins...

There were not as many candidates for my daughter's job. There were also more young adults who worked there. They asked the question about her age to get a response that they were searching for from her. She was definitely one of the main people they wanted.

Sub-Dream 1 over..

Jesus: "Erin, I send dreams. Yes, I even send dreams to your younger son. Now, trust the process in all aspects of your life right now. I promise you that I will complete a good work, a solid build. Nothing is impossible for God. You have prayed and brought your case to the Courts of My heart and there I have found you worthy. I have extended My Scepter to hear your pleas, to hear your anxious thoughts and to witness your tears.

"When others would have disqualified you, I made you qualified. I shaped you for My purposes. You have made your case in My Court. I will calm the storm of your thoughts. I will remove your tears to be of use as fountains of Living Water. I know your worries. I know your heartbreaks. I have purposely kept your son as a child so he does not fall. I will not fail in doing a good work when I heal him.

"A sincere prayer is accepted by Me and answered by My Will and for My purposes, all according to My time. Prayers are not control buttons that tune a greater signal to Me. While I hear each prayer, I don't always grant prayers in the ways of man's will, only in God's Will, understand?

- If the answer is no, then no is for a good reason of which the person praying does not fully know.
- If the answer is not fulfilled according to the urgent need of the prayer, it is again because of a divine delay. While it can appear as a no, it may still remain in the process.

“This is the most difficult part. My promises are true. However, I tell you to never cease praying. Do not give up. This is because there is either a natural visible answer coming or there is an eternal unseen answer. You will one day then understand what had been fulfilled.

- Then there is a prayer fulfilled quickly and as a Grand Yes. Yes is yes. This is a visible answer to the prayers of saints with the divine assistance of earthly saints, heavenly angels and the finger of God.
- Some yeses are immediate and some seem delayed, but they are still yeses.

“With your older son, I have said no to him more than yes because his prayers have many elements and conditions. With youths, very few have simplicity of thought. Things are conditional. It is like carving a pool made of solid rock. They have a way they expect and want a ‘microwave god’. They want a ‘genie in a bottle’.

“This comes from an excess of thoughts. This is why finding salvation, signs, wonders and miracles are difficult in the American Way. My Voice is easier to hear and understand when I am as important as Living Water, understand? I am restricted here.”

Me: “You are God, Lord... You have no restrictions, other than truth. You stand on truth. Heal our youth, Lord. Heal our land.”

Jesus: “I am with you and your family. I am with your Nest friends. Do not worry. I am about to do the impossible for you.”

717 – To Bend and Beyond

Received on Sunday, August 13, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for one more day here! Thank You for Your love and grace. Your mercies are new every day. Father, please take our burdens. Please heal the grief of my heart. Please calm my anxious thoughts. Strengthen me for all that comes in the next few weeks.

Note: The flights for our trip to Bend OR are now booked. As directed by the Lord, we will keep the exact details of our travel itinerary in confidence until we report on it during or after the trip (as per the Lord's leading, of course). That being said, our trip will be in September and with a similar timeframe as the dates we had for our trip to Bend OR in September of 2021. As with our previous trip, only my husband and I will be going.

Father, You are greater than all of our fears. You are mightier than the noise of many waters, mightier than the mighty waves of the sea (Psalm 93:4). My soul is in a storm right now. Father, please calm the seas and clear the storm. You are my Creator, the only God of all things. I will declare Your Name in all of the Earth.

I have seen storms in my older son's eyes. He is about to embark on a journey You showed me in a dream years ago. Father, I know that he is Yours as You told me he is Yours. Since You made him, You know every part of him. While he is confident and fearless one moment, in the next moment he asks if we should have a 'safe word' in case he is in trouble. While I won't be close to him in the Tri-cities, You will still be.

Father, You are always close to him no matter where he is. While my son is so talented in writing and languages, he is naïve socially. He is easily manipulated by kindness. He doesn't see the hidden deception in others. He has been hurt and tricked so many times. He now travels to the master deceiver's house. Once there...

Well, Father, well up in my son and grant him supernatural strength for the coming storms. Many red flags have appeared. Please, Lord, keep him safe in all of his journeys. You are the only One who can. We are helpless against the enemy without Your Divine Intervention.

As for my daughter, she will soon find out if her third interview will result in her traveling south as a finalist. Since she was not eliminated after her interviews, I am sure that she will know her outcome after the company's meeting tomorrow. While she still has hope, the mood here is somber as we all wait.

In the meantime, she has been training all week online for her new job, her 'second choice position'. During this training, she has discovered the intense new age core values that serve the gods of this world. All of this is so heartbreaking.

As for Bend OR, I have spent some time looking at both homes and apartments available there. I soon had to stop though because, as it stands today, this is 100% impossible. Father, I place all of this in Your hands. My husband and I are traveling out there in a few weeks.

As of right now, we are still unsure as to how this all will look like. Well, Father, You know all things and we are in Your hands. All we do is as You instruct us. We do this in full faith in You as we continue forward on this unknown path.

With so many tumultuous days ahead, You continue to speak to me and calm my anxious thoughts. On Friday, when I picked up my tablet, one of my photo apps popped up. My iPad often makes movies of special moments in time or people. This one was titled, 'Chance through the years'. The song attached to this was a Glen Campbell song titled 'Times Like These'.

I broke down crying as I watched the video. It summed up my son's journey with his autism and the path that leads him to You. It has been both difficult and rewarding. It has been both frustrating and fulfilling. I have seen You at work constantly. No matter what the journey, You are there with us. I just pray that I am there to see the healings come. It would be the greatest of gifts. Anyway, here are the lyrics to this song...

"I, I'm a one-way motorway, I'm a road that drives away, then follows you back home. I, I'm a streetlight shining, I'm a wild light blinding bright, burning off alone. It's times like these you learn to live again; it's times like these you give and give again, it's times like these you learn to love again, it's times like these time and time again. I, I'm a new day rising, I'm a brand-new sky, to hang the stars upon tonight. I, I'm a little divided, do I stay or run away, and leave it all behind? It's times like these you learn to live again, it's times like these you give and give again, it's times like these you learn to love again, it's times like these time and time again."

I then watched a YouTube video of him when he was performing with his children on the Jay Leno Show. It made me cry with such joy to see this elderly man being able to sing with his children in front of millions of people. Truly amazing!

Oh Father, I am so excited for Heaven! What a glorious day this will be when You call us into the Beautiful. No matter what happens here, Father, please take us into the Beautiful. I have been sobbing today. My tears are as heavy as the storms outside my window. I come to You today using the Prayer that You taught us...

"Oh Father, Who is in Heaven, Great and Mighty and Hallowed be Your Name. Please let Your Kingdom come. Please let Your Will be done just like it is in Heaven. Grant us this day our Daily Bread and please forgive us our trespasses even though there are many. Forgive us as we forgive those who have trespassed against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, forever and ever, AMEN!"

Time passes so quickly. My heart breaks at the lost moments. I had quite a dream last night of my two sons...

Sub-Dream 1 "A Flashback to September 2000" begins...

While all of this was in my dream, it mostly mirrored an actual time and event that I had with my two sons back in September 2000. My two sons were little again. There was so much wonder and joy in them. They had so much laughter. My older son was almost three and my younger son was only 13 months old.

We were walking up the steps of the townhome that we lived in. While my younger son was unsteady as he walked, he was still able to carry a small pumpkin. My older son was holding a cup of water. However, as he walked up the stairs to our front door, the cup fell and the water spilled out...

Older son: Crying. "Mama, I can't pick up the water spilled. It won't go back in."

He was soon wailing so hard that his younger brother soon started wailing just as loud with him. While I smiled, I also began to cry as I could see their very real anguish. I couldn't reverse time. The water was gone. I hugged them both and knew just what to say to help them get over this...

Me: "Do not worry. God used that water to help little grass seeds that were very thirsty. Now, come with me and we will get some more to water these seeds."

This helped both of them change their focus. They then happily went back and forth with little cups of water to help out these 'little grass seeds'. After doing this for a while, I decided to really make both of their days...

Me: "Well, now that these little seeds have the water they need, let us go to Shari's Restaurant. How would you both like to have pancakes for dinner tonight?"

I knew this would be a hit. This restaurant was only two blocks away and was one of their favorite spots. They loved to color on the kid's placemats. When the server came to get our drink order, one of my kids made a quick clarification...

Older son: "No water! No grass! No water!"

Me: "Yes, no water for him. Bring him a chocolate milk instead."

Older son: "No! No one gets water. No one gets water!"

Me: "Oh yes...no waters for any of us. I will have a coffee though. My younger son already has a bottle, so nothing for him."

The server was very pleasant and continued to be. At the end of the meal, she brought both of the boys a balloon. I tied them to their wrists and we walked home. When we were almost at the townhouse, my younger son's balloon got loose and flew up into the sky. My older son became terrified and panicked.

Older son: "Mommy, get it back!"

Me: "I can't! The balloon has gone up to the angels in Heaven. They love balloons."

Older son: "I now hate balloons!"

Both the water and the balloons were such a tough thing for my older son. While I could pick up many things, I could not collect his water. While I could bring back many things, I could not retrieve his brother's balloon. All of this was so painful.

Sub-Dream 1 over...

Me: Oh Father, why have You let me remember these painful memories?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I was there with you then and I am here with you now. I am with your sons, both then and now. I was and am with your daughter too. I have never left."

Me: "Oh Lord, my heart is grieving."

Jesus: "Do not grieve what is not lost."

Me: "Time is lost. I can't get it back no matter what I do. Lord, I can't get it back."

Jesus: "While time is the greatest of mysteries to man, it is not to Me. Time has a different measure in eternity. Time here frames a second, a minute, an hour, a day, a week and so on. It is the framework of living. However, you are to remember that I am no respecter of time as you know it. This is because My Father in Heaven knows the various times. He determines this or that based on precision.

"Erin, God's order and timing is always perfect. Now, if I can't know exactly the hour, but My Father does, do I stress about this and worry that I could miss something? No, of course not. I see the signs and know the order. This is because My Father in Heaven and I are One. He sees all things and knows the order. I trust in My Father to determine the hour."

Me: "But, Lord, there is nothing beyond You. You have charge over all of the Earth. You must know."

Jesus: "In wisdom, you ask and make your case. However, you do not have knowledge of Kingdom Order. To you, this is to remain a mystery until the day you are Home. For now, trust in Me. Trust in My Father in Heaven over all things and trust My Voice, the Holy Spirit in you, that all works together for the good of those who love Me."

Me: "Lord, cover my children. Bless them with good things. They are not worldly. I pray You give them keen awareness to discern from the enemy's schemes. Please heal my older son's liver and heal his medical issues. Please grant me this miracle for both of my sons. My younger son is not good with social skills. He is also not the sharpest.

"As for my daughter, could You please give her this dream job? She would have so much joy. Please. Please do this even though her third interview did not go as well as the first two interviews. Even so, she still hopes that they will hire her. Even though I am tired, I still pray for all three of my children with great fervor."

Jesus: "I know that you pray constantly. I hear your prayers and they are good. They reach the Courts and Throne Room of Heaven and God answers them in His perfect timing."

Me: "Lord, my heart is breaking. I am scared for my older son. I spoke with my greatest enemy and he now has a ministry. However, he has never apologized to me or the children for all of his trespasses against us. It is difficult to send my older son out there knowing the trouble he will endure. Please protect him."

Jesus: "Do you trust Me?"

Me: "Of course."

Jesus: "Then trust in the process I have put in place to carve out My Great Plan. I placed leaving on your son's heart. I am God, Erin. Stop feeling guilty for allowing something you are not able to control. You are trying to micromanage Me."

Me: "I am sorry. Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "I know all of the parties involved better than you do. I know the treachery of your enemy. His idea of change is a ministry. He thinks this even though he thought just six months ago that I had called him to pour spirits at a local establishment. I did not and I would not. Erin, your greatest enemy doesn't hear from Me. As for your older son, I have a Great Plan. Can you trust My process?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, I certainly can't trust mine."

Jesus: "Very good. I will then continue to do a good work. Now, you have other concerns."

Me: "Forgive me in advance as I don't want to get my hopes up. I am afraid about dreaming of Bend OR as it is just so out of reach for us in so many, many ways."

Jesus: "I am God and I know Bend OR. I remember your heartbreak there. I remember your war. I remember your tears. I remember your pleas to help you find a home so that you could live safely there. Your children had great joy there. You worked hard. Still, it just wasn't your time. Your memories are still there... the places you once went."

Me: "Yes, but my children are adults now. They have no interest in parks there. Everything has now changed."

Jesus: "I showed you something in a dream about Bend OR when all the walls were closing in on you there. Do you remember this dream?"

Me: "Yes. It doesn't hurt that You just refreshed my memory as well..."

Sub-Dream 2 “An old new dream of a Giant Board Game” begins...

I saw the area of Bend OR on a giant game board. I then saw Your mighty arm sweep everything away. Nothing was left. I then heard You speak...

Jesus: “This is Mine to do so with what I please!”

At that moment, I knew that You were in control over what was happening and I was not.

Sub-Dream 2 over...

“Oh Lord, I was so alone. I then watched the enemy destroy me bit by bit. I was helpless to stop it. I then forgave my enemies. I prayed and fasted. Finally, we had to leave for the desert. Once there, I was tricked and then attacked for five years. I had still kept a storage unit in Bend OR for our return. However, I finally let it go and the contents went to auction. I signed the contents over to the owner even though I was fully paid up. A big chapter had then closed for me there. All of it was so bittersweet.”

Jesus: “I was there with you. I am here with you. Erin, it’s okay. You were clinging to dreams I had placed upon your heart. It was Me. Erin, I am creative and I own the cattle on a thousand hills. You are not to be subject to the world. You are a subject of Heaven. I promise you that what I have planned there is much greater than anything you have imagined. Worry for nothing. Allow Me to carry you, okay?”

Me: “Yes, Lord.”

Jesus: “Remember that this (Bend OR) is the place I called you to originally and that I can call you there again. Great will be your joy. I will restore what the enemy has stolen from you. Now, trust My process as this will be good, understand? As for your daughter and this job, remember that they contacted her first. Trust My process to do a good work. While you do not know all of the differing elements to this, I do.

“I know hearts and I fashion each person’s way. Now rejoice as you are My Bride in Gold of Ophir. I could never forget you. You long to do My Will. I will therefore make your way perfect. You are unafraid to declare My Name. What I will do for the one who loves Me in the open. I promise you good things all of the days of your life. You have walked away from the wide road that leads away from My Will and into destruction.

“Erin, your children will follow you on the narrow road that leads to Me. I promise to guide them because I will always be walking beside them. As you know, the narrow road is not an easy one. However, I promise it will continue to be a treasure filled journey along the way. I have found you to be My Special Treasure as I have chosen you (Deuteronomy 14:2)."

Me: In tears. "I love You, Lord! Thank You! Thank You!"

Jesus: "You are welcome. Now, do not be afraid. Great will be your reward on Earth as it is in Heaven. I am with you always."

Dream over.

718 – Praying for Those Who Curse Us

Received on Tuesday, August 15, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for watching over us. Thank You for our wonderful Nest and of course the Sparrows. Father, I have been in great distress today as we are clearly under attack. These attacks are coming from several different areas. Our Nest is blocked from so many Sparrows overseas and we have been unable to identify the issue.

You have created so many safeguards for our ministry and our household. I know that all we have is Yours. You are in complete control. Historically, You have allowed these things because You are preparing us for the time we believe is soon to come. We are faced with impossible circumstances coming up. We have no idea what will happen. At this point, we must trust fully in You to provide for us in all things. We love You and all we have is yours.

As for my daughter, she did not get into the final two for the job. Well, only one will get the job, meaning the other will fly out and still not get the job. I suggested that we pray for the one left to soon be eliminated and she agreed. If my daughter was to be the unsuccessful one, I would rather her not travel to Nashville for such disappointing news. Either way though, You instructed my daughter to draft an eloquent response to her email with the bad news.

While she first thanked them for the opportunity, she then wrote something so clever. She said she would love to be considered for the future, even if it was to scrub toilets, just as long as she was able to help further the organization. I know it was You helping her write this because it was written perfectly right after we prayed on it. There were no corrections needed. Still, and no matter what happens, You are God our Father and You love us no matter what. Thank You for all of this.

As for my older son, my tears stream when I think of him leaving. He is walking into the biggest warzone that didn't have an actual physical war. Oh Lord, I am so scared. I am sorry that I am scared, Father. It is just that I know this enemy and none of us are a match against his schemes. He is so evil.

Nonetheless, I know You are with my son and this brings me comfort. I just need strength here. My dreams in the beginning had my son older and out west. I had seen him changed and healed before You had ever mentioned a thing about transformation. This means that I know that this time must surely be coming soon.

Me: "Lord, please help me as the impossible is coming. I am up against the same things we faced before. Please protect our health, our children and our Nest friends' health and their children. Please protect our home, our property, our ministry and our finances. Please protect all of our pets. These are perilous times and we need You now more than ever."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not worry as I have a Great Plan. Now remember that I bless those who are kind to the poor and helpless. They are the first ones I help in times of trouble. I preserve, keep them and protect them from any harm. Their enemies will be defeated while I lift and exalt them above evil. When you are sick and suffering in your bed, I am the God of Restoration.

"I will raise up the infirm again and restore them back to health. You then say to Me as you weep, 'Lord, be my Kind Healer. Please heal me, both my body and my soul.' You then drove in your car earlier today and reviewed and confessed your sins to Me. You then prayed for your enemies knowing full well they have prayed for your death in return. Your greatest enemy even exclaims, 'Shouldn't Erin be dead by now?'

"While many of your old acquaintances claim to be your friends, they say horrible things about you. They are liars. Their hearts are bent on your destruction. Well, Erin, I am God and I see through it all. The world is filled with evil, slanderers and rumor spreaders.

"You remember when you were at your lowest point when they said of you, 'She received what she truly deserved. It is finally over. She can never do what she loved again (golfing, etc.). She is cursed. She will always be a failure. The spirit of poverty and death is upon her.'

"Well, Erin, they cursed you continuously and I heard all of it. Even though you trusted them, shared supper with them and gave good gifts to them, they still tarnished your reputation every chance they could. They then triumphantly pranced around victoriously. They were thrilled as they watched you fall.

“Well, Erin, I have been with you through it all. I have brought your sons back to you. I restored what the enemy stole from you and gave you back much more. I increased your tent pegs. I added friends and family from all over the world. They can no longer say, ‘Erin has no friends.’ Even more so, I saw your humiliation, your brokenness and your great heartache through it all.

“Even though you now know all of this, you still prayed for those who hurt you. You even asked Me for mercy concerning them. Erin, I have never forgotten this. I then promised you that I would restore you. I promised to care for you all of the days of your life. I promised to grant you a beautiful home in which to raise your family and to continue to keep your eyes fixed on Me. I will not stop blessing you.

“Though the times are perilous, I am about to take you and those I have called to new heights. Once there, I will keep you as My Bride, but also as a beacon of light for those who are lost in the darkness. I am in you now and I am the Flame. I am the Spirit who shines within you. I am your Creator. I am the Lover of your soul. Do not be alarmed at what appears as the enemy succeeding in doing evil. I promise you that I will move in a way to stop the course of the wicked and they will flee.

“Now, it is wisdom to strengthen your walls. It is wisdom to prepare for the coming storms. Bless the poor and needy. Pray for the sick. As you do this, I will, in turn, do the same for you and your house. Do not be afraid. Take courage as I am with you.”

719 – Conspiracies Are Becoming Realities

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for being our God! Thank You for one more day in this battle. Thank You for all we have. We are grateful. We are dealing with truth vs lies. Father, how does one know what truth is in a sea of lies? I am grateful for truth. I hate lies. What are they? As a child, I learned that lies are used to mask the truth. Lies are used to cover inconvenient historical truth. If used long enough over time, lies can replace facts.

My memories as a child are very vivid. I remember sights, sounds and smells of an event. I also have physical reactions. I was living in fear at what was turned against me by adults as exaggeration and paranoia. Over time, liars are able to go to each of those in a circle of family, friends or acquaintances and cause seeds of doubt against the person who recalls, remembers and refutes the lies.

Entire groups can be turned against one person based on the work of a gaslighter. I still have PTSD concerning what I remember and what was done to discredit me. I soon became quiet and then moved away as quickly as possible. Family holidays all ended up as great divisive exercises. I quit subjecting my children to this when I found out they had each been sequestered individually and a different story was inserted.

However, there was a problem with this. I had never discussed anything with my children at all. This left them in shock when they then heard what was told to them. When I discovered this, I confronted the culprits in full view of all. I then told them this would be my last trip to visit them. Still, I take comfort that God knows all things and that truth is His.

I was clearly a victim of gaslighting. As for the definition of gaslighting: 'It is a form of psychological manipulation in which the abuser attempts to sow self-doubt and confusion in their victim's mind. Gaslighters typically do this to gain power and control over the other person by distorting reality and forcing them to question their own judgment and intuition.'

As for our house now, we are 'gaslight free'. We don't tolerate any of this and I am thankful. When I was a child, I blamed myself for everything. I believed the lies told to me about myself. However, in my heart, I held on to my memories, the real ones. Father, You then instruct me in my dreams. You reveal mysteries and hidden things. You then send confirmations in my waking hours.

Over the years, my children have occasionally kept things from me. However, You always reveal it to me and I confront them. I then remind myself that not one of us is perfect. Given that we all sin and fall short, the way I handle all of it then helps my children know that I am doing things in love for them individually. I try to not hold the past over them by listing out their shortcomings after we have already reconciled these.

As for last night, I recalled two vivid dreams...

Sub-Dream 1 "A Frightening Spider is eaten" begins...

This dream had to do with the revelation of hidden truths beneath a massive web of lies. I saw a frightening sight of a large white spider. While it was shaped like a black widow spider, it had a yellow underbelly and stripes of yellow with white on its legs. It had reddish pink eyes. While it was quite beautiful for a spider, it was still terrifying to me personally. It was constantly spinning webs.

It was in front of the light and trapped many innocent creatures in its web. When looking in from the outside into the lit area, it actually appeared as part of the glow of the light itself. It appeared as part of the light. I had never seen a spider so easily attract so many victims. It had much more than it could even eat.

Then out of nowhere and without warning, a bird that looked like a white dove flew in and took the spider. This was odd as doves don't eat spiders. Another bird then swooped in and cleaned up the web, leaving no trace of its existence at all. It had all vanished. I then praised God.

Sub-Dream 1 over..

Sub-Dream 2 "The Separation of the Wheat from the Tares" begins...

I was either in a wheat field or a barley field. It was tall and soft to touch. I was young and there with my daughter. We walked through the beautiful fields. The small path we were on ended on a sandy lake beach. We looked across the lake and there were fields burning with thick white smoke. We saw a fisherman standing on the shore.

Me: "Excuse me. Do you know what is burning?"

Fisherman: "Yes. It is the fields of tares."

Me: "I thought the tares were planted with the wheat?"

Fisherman: "In this instance, the tares and weeds are together and burning. As for the wheat, it has no threat of fire as a great body of water separates them. Even if they were together in the field, the threshing floor is the proven choice for discovering faith. As for consuming a tare, this leads to illness. Even though it looks like wheat, it can't feed the people. It is false. While it is disguised as good food, it clearly is not. This lake sanctifies the wheat field, separating it from the imposers."

Sub-Dream 2 over...

Me: "Father, these dreams have a common theme. The spider camouflaged itself as a light source to kill the unsuspecting. Its goal is to trap the innocent in its web of deception, thus leading to death. The second was the tares vs the wheat sanctified by water. Lord, please send revivals. You sent a bird and fire to remove these threats. Help us. I thought that the weeds and the tares grew together until the harvest or the wheat could be harmed (Matthew 13:24-30)."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Your dream of the wheat and the tares is a good one. Why? This is because they had been separated, sanctified by water. The wheat was untouched by the tares and weeds and remained pure until harvest. God had separated these into two fields. The one field had imposter wheat, consisting of the tares and weeds. The other field had good wheat ready to be harvested.

"It is a truly evil man who plants tares amongst the wheat on purpose. The person who does this is jealous and does so with great hatred. He who sows good seed are children of the Kingdom of Heaven and display My righteousness. The tares are the sons of perdition whose seeds produce acts of evil meant to destroy the wheat. The evil one harvests fire at the end.

"There are many false Christians who have misled others into practices that are not holy. This is meant to confuse the elect of God. These false teachers bend the Laws of God to their will. They then ignore full chapters that they deem to be 'hateful'. Well, God has never been hateful and He will never be hateful.

"As for these two dreams, these were given so you can understand the lateness of the hour. Even though the time is near, there is still time to turn from evil and remain true to God. This is why I have warned those I have called to repent and renounce any evil. Still, this hour passes quickly and there is no 'reverse time' feature."

Me: "Just in case we are missing something, please reveal it to us. While it has been a difficult time, my heart is on You completely. Oh Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, a great change is coming. People are waking up against the veil of evil. Things once thought of as conspiracies are now reality. Even so, you are to remain focused on Me as I am with you. There has been a great evil come across the nations and an increase in hatred. You have seen a rise in temperatures and an increase in burning. The storms have increased as well. However, I am over all of this.

"Now, I have shown you that much of this was brought by man against the people for the purposes of hate and unrest. Pray and I will reveal what is soon to come. However, you are to remember that, if My people would turn to Me and humble themselves, I would gladly accept their prayers and heal the land.

"You are in a war unlike a battlefield war. Food, medicines, drinks and even water are made by foreigners and are meant to destroy you. They are designed to kill you over time. There are full armies doing this, all to destroy the children of God. However, you are not to worry a I see it and I will vindicate and heal you."

Me: "Lord, should we prepare our house for more troubles?"

Jesus: "It is always good to be prepared. You and your husband are making great strides. A great humbling will come to the USA. All will change. I am here and changes are coming. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. You would not believe all what I am about to do. I love you!"

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Dream over.

Dream 720 – Erin... Eras... Eris... Eros...

Dear Father,

Thank You for a good night's sleep! Thank You for a beautiful new day. You are my Good Father. You are brilliant and wonderful in all Your works. I woke up this morning from a dream that I could barely recall.

To make matters even stranger, Father, I must admit that I didn't have You in my schedule today. Actually, that is not quite true. In reality, You are on my schedule 24/7. You are on my mind in all that I do. What I meant was that I had a personal agenda that didn't include my journal.

It is such a beautiful morning today. Perhaps You could give me a nice day every day over the next week? I have a morning routine. I learned a long time ago that routines are important for me in order to keep my joy and make my days more fulfilling. This is especially true when I am in pain.

As I made my bed this morning, I quickly realized that the random words in my head were anything but random. I woke up shortly after my husband had gone to work with these words in my mind. I am not sure if it was the front door that woke me up, but these were the words in that order..

Erin... Eras... Eris... Eros...

Erin... Eras... Eris... Eros...

Note: I will later have these four words come to me again at the end of the dream, but now to be listed in reverse order.

As I prayed on these four words, Jesus spoke to me...

Jesus: "Erin, let's talk this morning."

Well, here I am. I obviously recognize 'Erin' as it is my name. I recognize 'Eras' as these are periods of historical times. I vaguely recall 'Eros' from Greek Mythology. I had learned about this in college at Penn State. As for 'Eris', I don't recognize this at all. As for Greek Mythology, it is a way to stir up the worshipping of the gods of old.

I realize now more than ever that these are actual princes and powers of darkness over regions. There is a hierarchy of evil and these are spirits related to the fallen. Only 37 years ago in my Greek Mythology class, these were all mythical creatures and the stuff of fairytales. They were not taken seriously.

Even as a New Age disciple back then, I rolled my eyes over these Greek and Roman gods. They seemed so primitive and obsolete. After all, who would sacrifice their own child to fire on the altar of some statue? Who would even do this? At this point, it seemed ridiculous. However, just ten years ago, it seemed almost plausible. Fast forward to today and suddenly I get it. It is here.

These are real spirits. These are armies of demons who have gone in through open doors into the population. This door is mostly opened through continued bitterness. Bitterness seems to be a key that opens the doors of hate, anger, revenge, deceit and all that lead to spiritual death.

These armies of anti-good and anti-God have had permission to destroy the Lord's saints. They wish to destroy the innocent and sacrifice their own for the greater good. They wish to remove law and order. They wish to bankrupt churches. They even deny history and call Your Word hate speech.

Well, Father, the gods are back. They are forcing all of us to be dependent on them for all of our needs. They are calling on Your people to accept this new era or die. It is evil, but in Tsunami form. We are in a war that is against unseen forces, forces that have inhabited at least half of the global population.

The local news in our countries is so all encompassing, we barely know about the persecution of thousands of Christians per month or even more. Father, how did these fires start? Why do so many of them only burn homes, but not the trees surrounding them. Lord, please help us!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. I am God over the Earth and there is no other. There is none beside Me. My Father is on the Throne in Heaven and in His Courts. I do the Will of My Father over all of Creation. Go back to the beginnings of My Word. The Word was with Me and the Word is Me. Remember all of this:

"In the beginning, My Spirit hovered over the waters. All things were created by Me (John 1:1). So, Erin, if I now be with you and My Spirit is in you, what are you to be afraid of? Why do you fear? When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned. Years ago, I showed you that I carried you and your children through the raging waters to the peaceful shores. Have I stopped doing this?"

Me: "No, Lord."

Jesus: "My Word tells you 'DO NOT BE AFRAID' each day of your calendar year (365 times). I knew from the beginning that your calendar would change. Which of the 'gods' knows this? What spirit of the fallen would know this? Erin, they would not. They are limited and bound even though their vile acts are on display. This is because great evil has increased. Still, the enemy's army is small compared to My Army."

"Now, you have questions about these mysteries. What do the gods and their evil practices all have in common?"

Me: "Child sacrifice? Control?"

Jesus: "There is a deeper hidden anger against God. These angels were once part of Heaven. However, they then found themselves to be prideful and they turned away from our Father God in Heaven. They were then cast out. All of their ranking angels were cast down from Heaven, including their 'angel of light'. They then continued to compound their transgressions against God. They displayed the five stones of grief."

Me: "Oh, is this denial, anger, bargaining, depression and acceptance?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, you know the rest of the story. Angels in Heaven are created beings who serve God and carry out His Goodness. These are different than humans. Humans were created to worship God and be subjected to Him. They were to share in His love and goodness. These were then to separate orders of created beings. Animals are another order."

"However, none of these beings are to 'know' each other apart from their orders. This is an abomination to God and forbidden. When the fallen saw women as good to marry, it was an unholy union not meant as a marital covenant before God. This is a form of genetic perversion as their children were an abomination to God."

"These were not of God. They were instead a result of a grave sin against God's Holiness. The evil offspring defiled the land as they consumed with great unyielding appetites everything in their path. I tell you all of this now so that you understand the origins of these evil spirits. You now see."

Me: "Eros is wicked. With Eros, it is not a pure Godly love, but instead it has been perverted."

Jesus: "What you see today is not love. Remember that the definition of love for one another is a pure unconditional love. This is in contrast to the love now on display, a love for self and for self-worship. It is not love. Love used to be in the form of marriage before God, a Holy Union. It is now about what this evil Eros god represents and how to sacrifice to this. This same appetite came upon the offspring of the fallen."

"All manner of satisfaction of the flesh was opened and on full display. This was so much so that they no longer had control over their limbs. This is because the flesh became subject to this evil. However, you are not to worry. This is because it will not continue. I see the vile practices and I am angry and grieved to see it. This is the Eros god that they worship and sacrifice themselves to."

Me: "While I have heard of Eros, I have never heard of Eris before. What is this?"

Jesus: "Years ago, I showed you a meeting in a tower in a distant city. There were ten kings at this meeting. Some of the kings were without countries. You were shown in your dream a carcass of a turkey. Then it was an eagle. They then devoured it."

"However, upon closer observation, the carcass looked like bad meat. It was off-color. The plan for this meeting is to destroy Israel, the USA and all Christian nations. Evil leaders and governments in the shadows are about to send another plague, a plague named after the goddess of discord and strife."

Note: I looked this up and it is the goddess Eris. My computer kept switching it away to other spellings. After struggling for a while, I finally found it. The goddess Eris was the goddess known for starting the Trojan War. This spirit is also known as Daimona.

Me: "Lord, this is frightening. Please stop this evil about to be unleashed against Your people. I don't want another lockdown or illness."

Jesus: "The Trojan Horse is a way to get control over the opposition, a final blow to set up a new power. However, I have a great plan here. If My people will humble themselves and turn to Me, I will heal their land. The enemy has placed a timeline on the agenda to destroy most of the population. They plan to unleash their horses and their uprisings by Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023). Their plan is to destroy Jerusalem and to overtake and invade North America."

Me: "Lord, it is being allowed by You. Please stop this. You can! Please!"

Jesus: "Erin, I have a great plan in place. I will not delay in doing good. Chaos is planned and coming from the enemy. Their goal is to destroy all life as you know it prior to My miracles and display of power over all of the Earth. Remember to take heart and do not be afraid as I am with you. I am greater than all you see. I am over the waters, the wind, the land, the air and all that is in these. Do not be afraid. The time you have been waiting for is here. Rejoice as I am with you. Erin, you are My Bride of peace!"

Note: I was then to list the four words from the beginning of this dream in reverse order:

- Eros: Self love & perversion. Happening now.
- Eris: Chaos, strife, new plague, wars. Happening soon.
- Eras: End of this age.
- Erin: Bride of Christ. Represents God's Bride.

Please also note that it would never be my attention to elevate my name in any way, shape or form. The Bride of Christ was not alluded to because I have the name of Erin. Instead, the Lord had my mother give me this name because He knew He would be using me in this fashion later on (which is now here).

721 – Nothing is Impossible for God

Received on Sunday, August 27, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! What a beautiful day You have made. If I was still married to my greatest enemy, this would have been our 29th anniversary. However, and on a much happier note, this is also the 9th anniversary of us arriving in the land of the trees. Thank You for this. This has been a great place to raise our children together.

We have had a year of repairs here. We pray a few major appliances are healed supernaturally as we simply... well, Father, You are God. Since You can heal flesh and grow bones, we know You can also fix appliances... smiles. Still, nothing today is built to last, especially things with moving parts. While some items give 'lifetime warranties', the fine print then shows something entirely different.

Our fridge is one of our problems. It does not have a simple fix. The warranty doesn't count anymore because the company who made this fridge is no longer in operation. To make matters worse, this could cause us to either purchase a small unit or cut out cabinets. The repair person says that he can't fix it. We therefore have learned to live with the constant leaking. It has been going on for around three years now.

Oh Father, please heal our fridge so we don't have to worry. Please heal our oven too. These are items we have used for at least 3,300 days since arriving here. Can You please let them last the rest of the way for us? Perhaps You can do another miracle healing? I am also referring to the recent events regarding our website.

We have had issues with our website. Something was causing the site to be blocked to various parts of the globe. Many of our Sparrows were in distress as a result as they were not even able to find us. Well, something major happened at the home server that made them open up all avenues. It was a firewall security fix that wasn't going to happen just for us. When it happened to over 80 other sites, the fix had to be made.

Thank You, Lord. It has been a year of storms and storm surges. While there have been electrical power surges and breakdowns here, all in all, You have kept us going. Bless You and thank You, Father. For as many disappointing issues there have been, there have been just as many, if not more, good news outcomes. We are so thankful!

Right now, the most looming issues that have me grieving lately is the uncertainty surrounding my older son leaving and the promises of Bend OR. While I have been anxious at times, the idea of all of it is truly overwhelming and so impossible to us. This is so much so that I have no choice but to give it all to You. This is because every scenario I can think of meets with a dead-end.

Bend OR has become a safe haven for wealthy Californians, so much so that homes are now ridiculously expensive there. There is no way that my husband and I can finance a purchase there on our own. I also have PTSD over what happened there twenty years ago. My dreams were shattered there. The people who claimed to be my friends and my children's friends were anything but our friends.

While many of these people have now left Bend OR, this is still nerve wracking. While there is not much keeping us here in the land of the trees, we have made staying here a workable situation. That being said, I know that jobs are better for all of them out west. There is better pay, better opportunities and better schools. Still, my dream from last night was alarming. It had to do with my greatest enemy and his family.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with You. I am God and you are not. You can do nothing on your own here. As of today, you have been here in the land of trees for nine years. Although there have been struggles for you that are common to man, you have weathered each storm. Why?"

Me: "Prayer?"

Jesus: "Yes, but more than this. It is because you have given Me all of your troubles. You believe that I will answer each prayer with a 'yes', a 'no' or a 'no for now'. In turn, I have cared for you and your house. It is Mine. I built it for you. I prepared it and built a home that you didn't know would be perfect for you, but I made it so it was. This is because I know of all things in advance.

"In the beginning, I had called you to do some things that you dismissed because they seemed as if I didn't call you to do them. Because of this, you have suffered certain struggles. However, you then recognized what you did and came to Me. You fell to your knees and repented. In great compassion, I reached down to comfort you. I then healed these struggles.

"Now here you are, years later, and faced with the impossible. Since you cannot do anything on your own and because you have no other options, you now have no choice but to surrender all to Me. While I have watched you try this or that, it all meets an end. Now, let Me introduce you once again to Me, your God, who loves a good dead-end story. To Me, a dead-end is an opportunity to witness My miracles.

"Erin, My promises for you are true. I will part the seas, split the Earth and open the sky for a great outpouring. I am the Restorer of shattered dreams and broken hearts. I have been with you through it all. I watched as you were stripped and laid bare. I saw the innocence of your children stolen and weaponized. I saw all of it and I never forget.

"I then delivered you and your children. Your greatest enemy could then not reach you no matter what angle he used. And on the very day of the anniversary day of your wedding to your greatest enemy, I delivered all of you to a safe land, a land far from his grip. He had destroyed all that you held close. All innocence was destroyed by his evil and I do not forget.

"It was I who veiled him to sign and have your release verified by earthly courts. It was I who created miracle after miracle. When your vehicle wouldn't start just before your promised departure date of August 23, 2014, it was your eldest son who turned the key. Four days later (on August 27, 2014), you entered your new home. This is a miracle!"

Me: "Oh Lord, I sometimes forget these things. I am so sorry! You have done miracle after miracle. I am sorry to ever question this."

Jesus: "Erin, what is more impossible... the great release of your children on the exact date I told you that you would be leaving or providing you with a new home in Bend OR under your current conditions?"

Me: "Oh Lord, You are so brilliant! Of course, releasing the children is the more impossible of the two. You gave us an exact date, August 23, 2014, a Saturday. My enemy signed our release before a notary on the morning of this Saturday. In exchange for this, I waived child support. Later this day, and just 15 minutes before midnight on August 23, 2014, our car started and we were officially on the road and free.

"This was an incredible miracle! My enemy was so confident he would get them back, he signed his own written letter. Much to his amazement and disgust, our marriage has lasted (he had counted on it lasting less than a year). The children have now enjoyed the difference between war and peace so much that they have stayed with us here in peace. They have healed and grown here. Oh Lord, this is all thanks to You.”

Jesus: “Now, I gave you a dream last night. Describe your dream...”

Me: “Yes, Lord...”

Sub-Dream 1 “Court Filings and Counter Court Filings” begins...

I was about 43 years old, but very young. My children were 8, 10 and 12. We lived in a distant city. We were living in a small apartment. While we appeared financially stable, I had very little. Behind the scenes, most of my money went to rent and the car. It reminded me of 2009 and 2010. It was a horrible time. Every time I would get a little ahead financially, another invoice from my lawyer would arrive. While I couldn’t afford to pay his invoices, I needed to still pay him in order to fight to keep my kids.

In this dream, I then received a phone call from a high-end attorney who was hired by my enemy and his family to destroy me completely. I then listened to his proclamations that all papers needed to be reversed and that I needed to now pay my enemy and his family damages for the children’s dislike for his family. They were going to file the papers in both Benton County WA and Multnomah County OR.

I was then told that failure to appear would lead to my arrest. My heart raced as I listened to this attorney read the bogus charges. I then realized that my children were now adults. In this dream, I was now older and had no assets to fight. As the call was about to end, I could hear my greatest enemy speaking in the background...

Greatest enemy: “I finally got her! I need my older son out here now. I will now completely destroy her.”

My hand was shaking as I hung up the phone. This man’s need for revenge and his hatred for me is greater than his love for his children. In the dream, my son had already booked his ticket. I then spoke to my husband and to all of our children...

Me: “Pray for my safe travels to Bend OR. I now have no choice but to go to Bend OR in Deschutes County to file what needs to be filed.”

Sub-Dream 1 over.

“Oh Lord, I have questions about this dream. What was this dream all about?”

Jesus: “In your dream, your enemy tricked you by luring your older son.”

Me: "Yes, Lord. He is doing this right now. Am I to go and file court documents?"

Jesus: "No. However, the threat of you being there again alarms his family. However, this is not about that. The dream is a warning that your enemy has not changed. He is not different. He does not change. Now, here is your gauge on this... while evil men and evil women always command apologies from their victims, they never reciprocate apologies unless they are forced to. They then create a non-apology that goes something like this..."

- "Yes, I am sorry too, but I would have never done this if you hadn't..."; or
- "Yes, I am sorry you did this too."

"Again, these are not apologies. Instead, these are promises that they will now punish the victim even more. Remember that the gauge of true repentance is a heartfelt apology. This is because the Holy Spirit demands this in order for My Spirit to dwell completely free in a heart. This heart cannot also house evil. A house divided cannot stand. True repentance is led by true humility and true surrender to truth.

"My Spirit is a light that extinguishes darkness, secrets, deceit and all hidden deeds. You can't expect God to forgive if you aren't seeking forgiveness for your wrongs, your sins. To a truly repentant heart, much is forgiven. However, to a deceiver, they believe I just forget all that old sin and they then have a free pass to continue to judge others. Well, there is no forgiveness until changes occur here on behalf of the sinner.

"Now, your older son is walking into a trap. What father hears a son apologize and then doesn't apologize or take ownership of his grave sins in return? This man fights against God. Your dream shows you that nothing has changed in all of these years. Well, Erin, I do not change. I remember everything done to you and your children.

"I remember every wicked thing. I do not forget. I dismantled the agency involved and dispersed those responsible for their evil all throughout the system. I have never forgotten how they robbed you. Even though you and your children never received justice according to the laws, I will now send you recompense for all you are entitled to and even more.

"Erin, My promises are true. I have never forgotten what was stolen from you and how broken and full of shame you felt. You felt guilty for crimes that you didn't have any part of. You are to now trust Me in this. You are not to be afraid as I have you. I also gave you another dream about the sun rising on the horizon. You felt the warmth on your face, but you were not hot. It did not harm you.

"I am rising as the sun rises. I command the sun to rise and to set. A new dawn is coming. Erin, your sun shall not go down or your moon shall not withdraw itself. This is because I am God, your Everlasting Light, and your days of mourning shall end. Your sun shall never set. I will be your Everlasting Light. Your days of sorrow will end!"

Me: "Lord, this is Isaiah 60:19-20 (The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give you light; but the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.)

"However, Isaiah 60:18 is what is happening now (Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.) Isaiah 60:21 is about us (Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.) Isaiah 60:22 is what we will be like (The least one shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the Lord; in its time I will hasten it.)

Note: As I was writing this, I received a notice on my phone that Tropical Storm Idalia had now formed. Idalia means 'Behold the Sun'!

Jesus: "Erin, who chooses these storm names anyway?"

Me: "Well, Lord, since You are always in complete control of all things, You not only name them, but also outline their precise timing and path."

Jesus: "For clarity, who then harnesses the sun?"

Me: "God does! You do!"

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. I hold the power of the sun. I command the moon and the stars. If I can do all of this, and I do, can you trust in a promise I granted you twenty years ago about some day owning a home in Bend OR? Hmm, is this too much for Me? After all, do I not own all of that land? Did it not come into being by My Word? Were not the mountains shaped and the ground carved by My Word?"

"Is there even a small portion of that land that I created that I can't give to you? Can I not do this for the one who is unafraid to declare My Name? You are My Bride, the Beloved of My Heart. My Father in Heaven can declare it. While you think small, you dream big. Erin, I am the Fulfiller of even bigger dreams. I love you and I have never stopped loving you. Erin, I will never stop loving you.

“I will also not stop blessing you. I will hold you and keep you for all eternity. I am with you. Now, you travel soon to the land you love (Bend OR). Walk there every day and remember all that I promised you long ago. I have never forgotten how your heart was trampled there. I am your Healer. I am your Divine Physician. Great will be your testimony.”

Me: In tears. “Thank You, Lord. Thank You for these reminders. This trip feels so extravagant right now. If You hadn’t called us to do this, we wouldn’t have booked...”

Jesus: “Remember that all you have is Mine. None of what you have has been earned aside from Me. It is I who declares a thing. It is I who holds your recompense that I now bring to you. Now rejoice and celebrate. Do not grieve. You are to go there by My Authority, for the business of the King, God, our Father on the Throne, who owns the cattle on a thousand hills. Once there, you will do as I instruct you. All will be provided. Rejoice, Erin. This will be a beautiful time to travel west!”

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all that You do. Thank You for our family and friends. We feel very blessed by You. I had a very vivid dream last night.

Sub-Dream 1 “Winning my bent putter back for a dollar” begins...

I was living in an ‘efficiency apartment’. It had one room, a bath, a kitchen and a closet. It was sparsely furnished. I had given everything away except for my golf putter from 1980, a pair of pajamas, a steamer from my old clothing store and two sets of high-end Anichini towels. I had purchased these towels in High Point NC at the Furniture Mart in the spring of 1996.

I had two entire formal sets of towels. Each set had a washcloth, a tea towel, a hand towel, a bath towel and a bath sheet. I was a dealer at the time, so I purchased them at cost (in reality, I still own just one of these towels). These towels were now in various spots all over the apartment. They were worn and old. I was gathering all ten towels together. I placed them next to a black garbage bag.

I sighed because I knew it was time to part with these. As I stacked them, I saw a robe that I had also purchased. It was really heavy because it was made of thick cotton damask. It was definitely the epitome of designer pajamas. I placed it in a pile. I shook my head and laughed. It was practically brand new. I hardly wore it because it was literally too heavy to wear.

I then got a call that I needed to take out the rest of my items because the collector was arriving in minutes. I decided to just place everything into a black bag and proceeded to the door of my apartment. I glanced at my old gold birds-eye putter. I couldn’t recall if it was a Christmas gift from my mom or if I had won it in a tournament. I was pretty certain I had won it.

I picked it up and lifted it up to sight the shaft. I then chuckled when I realized that the shaft had been bent at some point. I was not sure how it was bent as I never had a temper while playing. I never weaponized my golf instruments. I shook my head at the wonder. What if I had missed so many putts because my putter was crooked?

I set it down and began to walk out the front door when I turned to pick up the putter and place it in the black bag along with the other useless relics. I walked out to the garden area and placed the bag with my other donations. I laughed when I saw a woman challenging competitors to a putting contest on what she called grid glass. She was holding the putter that I had just disposed of. It was an impossible putt. Putting on glass isn't fun. I went up to her.

Me: "Do you mind if I try this putt?"

Woman: "You can, but you first need to bet a dollar."

I gave her my dollar as I knew she was about to putt with my crooked putter.

Me: "Please go first."

Woman: "I will. However, if your ball falls off the edge after mine than the house still wins."

Me: "Okay. No problem. That doesn't bother me. Let's do it."

Sure enough, the woman did not compensate for the bend on the shaft. The ball missed the hole completely. She still seemed confident though. This is because I knew that she thought I was going to miss as well. I looked at the horrible putter she gave me. She could tell that I hated it.

Woman: "Alright then, here, use mine instead."

I gladly received my old bent putter for the challenge. I somehow knew how to calculate for the flaw. I tapped the ball gently and it rolled into the cup. The cup lit up and made sounds.

Woman: "Hey, you win. You win the putter, but I keep the dollar. It is a win-win."

Me: "That's fine with me. Thank you."

This was so odd. I basically just paid a dollar for the putter that I had just donated. The only items I then owned were the putter, my designer pajamas and a clothing steamer. They were basically all useless items. This all felt supernatural.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Father, I want to get everything in my life aligned with Your Will. Please forgive my trespasses against You or others, both in the past and in the present. Please help me to finish a good race here. Please let me never hurt my relationship with You. Please keep the enemy free from our lives completely.

This means our house, our lives, our animals, both domestic and wild, our family, our children and our friends, both near and far, and their families. Father, to see the past appearing in various ways in the present can mean two things and both are barriers:

- I need to seal off any open doors or remnants of the former things. I don't wear designer pajamas now. They appeared in my dream, along with other items that I once had valued.
- I am being tested by the enemy to see if I still value these as I once did.

Father, I enjoy craftsmanship and quality. As a result, I often keep things that are old because they are built better and will last. To replace them means higher prices and questionable quality. New is not always better now. One thing is certain... I can't wait for eternity where there are no garbage dumps or worn out anything. My mom was so wise about these things, as was my grandmother. They both had very small wardrobes.

However, what they did own was expensive and made to last. They loved so many natural and beautiful materials, such as wool, cashmere, cotton, leather and silk. Buttons were made of seashells, mother of pearl, leather, wood and glass. Some were made from fired handmade clay.

Even so, it seemed like everything after 9/11 changed. Life changed. Quality changed. Quality of life in general changed. Many years ago, I had a dream...

Sub-Dream 2 "Unloading an overloaded bicycle" begins...

I was riding a bike. It was loaded with baggage. There was even a car behind me. However, as I cycled down the road, I began to become labored in my abilities. Bit-by-bit, things that once seemed important began to fall away. With each dropped item, I could peddle faster. Eventually, I was completely free from my burdens. I was fast and mobile again. It was so freeing.

Sub-Dream 2 over...

If there is anything more that I am clinging to, please help me to let go. Hebrews 12 & 13 were 100% written by You. Oh Father, thank You for Your Faithful Instruction!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Surrender all of your burdens to Me and I will make you steady, sure and clear of the past. Now, you sometimes sit in fear. Why?"

Me: "Lord, I see the enemies taking their positions against the children of God. I then wonder if You are seeing all of this, even though I know that You do. I just see such unbelievable things now. Incomprehensible events in the news. It is hard to watch."

Jesus: "I know. However, I am with you. You are not alone. Surrender all your worries, cares, burdens, obstacles, impossibilities and lack of means. Surrender all of it. Many of these are all the same thing, but under different names. No matter what these are, they are heavy and they weigh you down. When you can do nothing concerning them and you are heavy of heart, you must then give all of it to Me. Erin, this is important. Old self-ambitions can be made new only by will and knowledge concerning a matter."

Me: "Lord, I am just a gentile according to the world. I am not entitled to anything. I am so thankful for You and honored for anything, even scraps."

Jesus: "Wait! Did I reduce you to begging like a dog? No! It is God who determines entitlement... or, for that matter, any title of a man. Those who I humble I also exalt. I determine this. Now, leave this to Me."

Me: "Lord, I have been experiencing a real, actual separation from things of this world that I once enjoyed. All has changed."

Jesus: "All has stayed in its natural progress. It is you who is changing. Now rejoice as this is a necessary part of your journey. You are part of all that is coming. Do not worry as I am with you."

723 – The Mountain of God’s Presence

Dear Father,

Thank You! Each day offers new mercies. I am thankful for each new day. Each day brings common struggles. Please help us to not grumble and complain when we don’t see Your miracles in light of the all-consuming darkness around us.

Father, please help me to not have fear of the threats coming against us. When these threats come, You call me to look up above it all to You. You are the God over all. You consume us with Your promises and great love. You are great, Father, and no earthly god is like You. I had an incredibly vivid dream last night.

Sub-Dream 1 “The Mountain of God’s Presence” begins...

An angel of the Lord came to me as I slept. I heard him call out to me...

Angel: “Arise and come with me! Erin, awaken! I must show you some mysteries.”

I was clothed in white pajamas consisting of a tunic and short pants. I looked with wonder at what I was wearing. The angel knew my thoughts.

Angel: “While you were once naked and exposed, you are now clothed in pure linen.”

I looked down again at my hands as they were young. My skin and nails were beautiful. While I could not see my full self, I could still see my hair. It was like silk and appeared like that of lamb’s wool, but pure white. I could breathe effortlessly. I was so amazed at the changes that tears started to fall down my cheeks.

Angel: “Erin, do not focus on these things as this is a gift of God. In His presence, you are changed. This is because your body is no longer subject to death around Him. This is how God created you. He did not create you for decay, but for everlasting life.”

The angel then took me to a mountain that I recognized from my first open vision with Enoch and Elija from over 23 years ago (February 23, 2000). The mountain was commanding and unclimbable for man. While there was snow, it wasn't cold. I could breathe with ease. I was so small next to this large angel. The angel squeezed my hand and we were at the platform, a sort of Heavenly train station.

However, there were no metal tracks, only rails made of light. Again, hard to describe. I then heard a beautiful sound that overlapped like an echo. It was unlike anything that I had ever heard before. A tram, or a type of train, but smaller, then appeared. It was being led by what looked like horses, but with wheels of light. There is no earthly comparison. These horses were both beautiful and frightening. There were four horses altogether.. two looking forward and one to each side.

I simply don't know how to adequately describe that which I don't understand. The angel of the Lord waived and the train, although a short train, came to a stop. The door then opened and the angel brought me into the train. It then sped off faster than the speed of sound. Within seconds, we were at another platform.

When the door opened, I could see thousands of saints, each one dressed in white. When the door opened, they all cheered. While I then somehow knew that my name was being announced, I did not know the name I was being called (a name I can no longer recall). I knew them and they knew me and we all cheered together.

Angel: "Erin, come with me. I have more to show you."

I waved goodbye to what I knew to be my friends. I then looked down the light rails and could see more short trains coming. Each added saints to the group. I suddenly realized that I had not spoken aloud yet. I must have been still in complete shock.

Angel: "You are to observe all that I will show you. You are then to scribe this with your pen to paper."

I nodded in agreement. As we travelled on this train, I could see fields of flowers and perfect vineyards. I could see fields of wheat, barley and something that resembled hops (but I am not sure). I was in a place in Heaven that I had never been to before.

Angel: "You are on the Mountain of God's Presence. He owns thousands and, here, all is His and His land is Holy. This is where He meets with His workers and His armies. This is The Great Assembly Place."

I could see workers in the field. I wondered why they were working and harvesting here.

Angel: "This is where God's Army of saints and His angels work together for God's Glory and to prepare for what comes."

We then travelled again at an incredible speed through the most beautiful of lands I had ever seen. The train chariot then came to a stop. The angel took my hand, the door opened and we stood on a platform of hewed stones. These were very large cut stones with beveled edges. These cuts were so precise that even a laser cutter or water jet couldn't cut like this.

Angel: "These were cut and made by hand."

I smiled and laughed as I walked onto the platform / path. I was in awe. I then noticed that the grout was... no, it couldn't be. I bent down and touched it. It was...

Angel: "Yes, Erin, it is gold. Now look around you."

The stones on this avenue were overlaid in gold. It was not just gold though. It was a translucent overlay of gold so that the essence of the life of each stone and its gold veins could be seen. The depth of each stone was incredible. When I looked across at all of them, they jointly appeared as a street of gold. I wondered if I was in God's Golden City now.

Angel: "You are in the outer courtyards of God's Courts."

I could see beautiful greenery, flowering vines and fountains. Along the sides of this street of gold were two channels of water. The water was the color of glaciated water. It was absolutely beautiful. I could hear birds and I saw nests in the trees.

Angel: "Even the sparrow finds a home and a swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young at the Altar of God."

I looked into the angel's eyes and smiled. He smiled back. I still hadn't spoken a single word out loud. Clearly, this was my Psalm 84 moment. I soon realized that we must be near God's Courts and in His Presence as I continued to not speak. Even so, I could tell that the angel knew my thoughts.

As we continued to walk, I could see a massive building with open courts ahead. I could see the foundations set in cut faceted jeweled stones. The presence of this building was something that left me awestruck. My knees became weak and my spirit faint. I had the fear of the Lord overcome me. This was God's Court.

Angel: "You are not here because God is about to judge you. Erin, you are His. You are wearing His garments of salvation. Do not be afraid." I was gripping the angel's hand quite tightly at this point. "Erin, He has something to show you."

He gently squeezed my hand and we were in a massive room. It was something I had never seen before and this room, really a stadium of sorts, could easily seat thousands. There were so many angels surrounding the parameter. I could tell that these were orders of angels.

The floor of the room was a living stone of sapphire, the sapphire blue sea. I was now up on a balcony-type area. I then saw angels gather over the entire area. I could not see them in the front of the room. I then heard a massive choir of angels singing. They sang in complete unison and it was breathtaking...

Angels: "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

All the angels bowed before the Throne. I then heard the voice of God tell them to rise.

God: "Rise! The hour is late! Assemble the horses, My Army and saints!"

I then heard a Great Voice bellow out in an overwhelming tone of power. It echoed loudly and with force throughout the entire room (really a small stadium).

Great Voice: "Fear God and give Him Glory! The hour of judgment has come! Worship Him who made the Heavens, the Earth, the seas and the springs of water!"

The resounding tone of this Great Voice soon had my heart pounding in excitement. The angels continued to bow before God.

Great Voice: "Heaven will be visible throughout the Earth and the light of God's Glory will shine throughout the darkness and the darkness shall be no more! Rise!"

The angels rose up and they all cheered together. The angel again squeezed my hand (always gently) and we were back to the landing from the start.

Angel: "Do not be afraid of all you see as these things were foretold by the prophets. The defeated gods of old have risen up so man would turn from God and be consumed in fire. They even sacrifice their own children to gods whose sole purpose on Earth is to defile man so they are so far removed from God that He says 'depart from Me' to them.

"This Mountain of God's Presence is where God prepares His Armies. This is also where the enemy longs to be. However, he is banished, along with his army who fell. So, he continues his blasphemies as God continues on His way so He is glorified and revered throughout the nations.

"Now, God brought you here to show you that He is very much in control over all you see. With great speed, wicked and vile practices are now coming into full view of all who see. You have become weary and tired and your hope is waning. However, do not be afraid and do not grow weary in doing good. Keep looking up as there is the Glory of God over you. Nothing shall be impossible for you. God will provide for you.

"Now, knowing the times are near, the enemy will create great fear and no man shall work (John 9:4) and no man shall go to church. Do not be afraid as God is with you. He will cover you with His Glory and evil will be far from you and your house.

"Now, this Mountain is Holy. From here, you will be equipped with Provision and Divine Gifts that can only come from God. The Lord God is with you. Rejoice, Erin, for you are Beloved of the King!"

Sub-Dream 1 over..

It was now 9:00 am and I had slept in. I went to my journal to write all that I had just experienced. This experience was truly different than any of my experiences in the past dreams up to now.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Do not be afraid. Do not grow tired or weary in doing good. The world is now filled with thieves sent to rob, kill and destroy. However, I am building an army of restorers who will reveal hidden things, return what was lost, heal the broken and form from the ashes things of beautify, all for My Glory. This generation is now lost and downcast.

"There is very little hope for them as the enemy continues to dismantle what was built. I promise you that I have a great plan as the storms approach, the fires burn and the earth shakes. Do not fear as I am with you. Remember that the dead will rise and witness against the evil. Those who were blind will see, the deaf will hear and the mute will speak, both the young and the old."

Me: "Lord, is another pandemic coming?"

Jesus: "Erin, it is here now and spreading. It is meant to destroy people and all that is God's. However, you are not to worry as great is the Army of God. The angels you saw are only the captains of vast armies of angels."

Me: "So those angels in Your Courts were heads of their divisions? Whoa, there were thousands and thousands of these angels."

Jesus: "Yes, so be encouraged. I will provide all you need in all things."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Thank You for today. I needed this so much. I know that the Nest did too. I love You."

Jesus: "I love you too."

724 – God Sees All the Evil Done in Darkness

Received on Thursday, August 31, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for dreams and visions. These are a special gift from You and a Priceless Treasure to me. The last dream, Dream 723, was a great gift to me. It gave me a new joy and my anxiety faded. Thank You, Father. Still, the enemy again ramped up against me individually just yesterday.

During a rainstorm at a parking lot in front of our grocery store, I hurried to get the groceries in the back of the car. I then reached down to grab my purse and take the cart to the return when wind or something caused the back hatch to come down on the back of my cervical spine. This then saddened me greatly as I had been feeling so much better physically lately.

I didn't truly realize the severity of that impact until today. I then tried to stay busy and keep my muscles limber just in case. This blow undid so much. My left side is now in great pain. I then felt called to read Psalm 30. In this chapter, David was being personally hammered. He then cried out to You in Psalm 30:8-10. Using this, I will plead my case to You, along with the cases of so many of those here on our Nest...

To You, Father, I cry and I plead for mercy. What good is my death to You? If I go down to the pit, will my dust praise You? Will it tell of Your faithfulness? Hear, O Lord, and be merciful to me. O Lord, be my Helper!

It then appears in the very next verses, Psalm 30:11-12, that David then had his prayers for help answered seemingly immediately. Either this or he rejoiced no matter what You decided. Father, I would like to believe You helped him. This sounds like a miracle to me. Using this, I will praise You in advance for what You are about to do for us...

You have turned my mourning into dancing: You have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, that my glory may sing Your praise and not be silent. O Lord, my God, I will give thanks to You forever!

While it has been a while since I have prayed for my own physical healing, I now need Your Divine Assistance. You know the pain I am in. Oh

Father, You also know how much I love You. Please have mercy on me and be my Healer. Yesterday, we were attacked in every enemy pattern again.

After every good and perfect thing from You (like, say, Dream 723), why does trouble then come right after? I guess this is a good gauge for doing Your Will. Please hold me close. Please hold our family, our Nest friends and their families and our homes. Please send angel armies to help us. Oh Lord, it even hurts to bow my head to pray.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you in this storm."

Me: "Lord, I had been feeling so good lately. I had even been joyful. However, this pain has now overcome me once again because the enemy was allowed to have his attack against me succeed. I was so distracted last night that, while taking my Tylenol, I ended up accidentally taking a double dosage. Oh Lord, I am so sorry for anything that I may have done!"

Jesus: "Hold on. I am right here. I will heal your neck. It will feel better as the day passes. You are here with Me right now and all will be well. Do not worry as I am here. In anger, the enemy sought your very life. Because I had shown you the meeting of angels (in the last dream, Dream 723), the enemy and his elect now know that the times of the Glory of God are soon to come."

Me: "Lord, can I selfishly ask for 24 hours to go by without some sort of attack?"

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. Was I not also attacked daily in some form? These are common for those whose hearts are fixed on the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. You know better than I do in all things. We are struggling here. There is very little relief. For now, my older son is staying here. Ever since he has been away from his place of employment, he has completely changed back to what we have always enjoyed in him. Thank You for this!"

Jesus: "It is easy for the enemy to attack the weak and weaponize their weaknesses against the strong. You also see this in war. This is not uncommon. Remember where the rabble chose to walk with the Israelites in the desert. They planted seeds of doubt and discouragement there and it spread quickly."

"The rabble then constantly complained and were able to convince the weaker of God's people that God and His miracles were not enough. They then convinced the weaker amongst them to vocally complain. The rabble were responsible for much of their troubles. The same is true with your son. He is now far removed from those whose true cause is hate."

Me: "Lord, my back now feels better."

Jesus: "This is good. Now, there is a great army of angels that will bring you strength and provision for the days to come. The enemy has very little time until he is restrained."

Me: "Lord, time is such a mystery to me. I had a dream last night of two spiders..."

Sub-Dream 1 "A Spider Killing Another Spider"

I saw a weakened daddy longlegs spider being devoured by a smaller, faster, deadly spider. It specifically devoured its two lower left legs first. It then bound the entire spider in a tight web so that it would suffer a slow death.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Jesus: "The one spider is old. He is an old opportunist that prays on decaying things. It looks scary at first until you realize it doesn't even spin a web."

Me: "We played with these when I was little. There was a tale that if you pulled on its leg, it would point to the cows. It pointed with the upper legs. It was probably scared."

Jesus: "It is best to not pull on the legs of any creature now or in the future. In your dream, a faster young spider then paralyzed the old spider and spun a web around it."

Me: "Is this our current President?"

Jesus: "This is a good guess. Wait and see what comes and with whom. There are several old leaders who are becoming infirm. As for those that I have appointed, they remain strong."

Me: "But, Lord, it is You who appoints all leaders."

Jesus: "Yes. I am over all things. However, the leaders there now are diminishing to expose the one who spins webs in darkness. Since I have not blessed them, they are subject to great confusion. They fall asleep when called to. My judgment is coming and I'm preparing the fields, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Above the spiders, all of them, the deceivers who spin webs trapping the innocent and the weak in lies... well, there is something greater over them all as I see. I am the Light of the world and all who operate in darkness will be exposed. Darkness now operates in full view for all to see.

"Now, when I say darkness, I speak not just of nighttime. I speak of hidden and secretive things. One former ruler has never stopped ruling and one ruler who is still the rightful ruler is subdued. The one there now is a shadow of the enemy, a reflection of the decline of My favor against the once great nation."

Me: "Lord, please stop this. Please don't allow the enemy any more success. Please!"

Jesus: "Do not worry as I see. God sees. The stench has reached God's Mountain and a warrant has been given in God's Courts. The angels will serve the order. You have seen these. They are the Mighty Army of God. While there will be some rabbling and anger, do not fear. I am with you and no harm will come to you. I gave you the former dream (Dream 723) so you would have comfort and joy. Do not worry as I am with you. Do not be afraid. My gifts are coming!"

Dream over.

725 – The Importance of Psalm 37

Dear Father,

Thank You for this beautiful cool summer day. Thank You for being God. Thank You for Your patience with us. The world is a frightening place now. All the things You warned us about years ago are now coming to pass. While time sets up seasons, this is only by Your hand. The sun rises and sets only by Your command. Nothing else has the power to set up the sun, moon, stars, tides and the currents... only You, Father.

I receive the Christian persecution reports from two sources. They are global watch groups. Well, these reports break my heart. Father, we are so blessed by where we are. However, the times are changing. The times of the Bible we were told to watch for are now coming to be. Please hear the cries and prayers of Your people. Please send angel armies to rescue those who love You.

Vindicate all of us before our enemies succeed in our destruction. Please don't forget us. Please don't hide Your face from us. Never has there been a time when the whole Earth, all of Your children, have cried out for You to save us. Father, I recently read some of Charles Spurgeon's writings. His prayers, studies, teachings and sermons on the Psalms from the 1800s are still so insightful today.

Luke 11:9-10: "And I say unto you, ask and it shall be given you; seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you. For everyone that asks receives; and he that seeks finds, and to him that knocks it shall be opened."

In Spurgeon's writings, he says this: "None have been more ready to pray in time of trouble than those who have ridiculed prayer in their prosperity. In fact, probably no prayers have been truer to the feelings of the hour than those that atheists have offered when in fear of death."

Jonah 1:5: "Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god."

Well, Father, You are the only God who saves. You then say, 'Here I am!'

When I feed the animals in the yard each day, they all run and hide when they hear my voice greeting them. The only ones who run to me are the ones with the greatest needs. They trust that I have what they hunger for and their hunger far outweighs their fear of my voice. While I am not angry at them for doing this, I am sometimes sad because I want that relationship of trust and safety with them.

I long for Heaven, a place where nothing runs in fear. God has given me this yard to care for so I could know the heart of My Father towards His love for me. I know there must be times when I make You smile and say, 'There is Erin, look at what I have done with her. She makes my heart glad.' Well, I live to please You, Father.

However, I also know there are times when I must disappoint You by my actions. I pray I never grieve You. It makes me cry to think that I could. There are times when I grow weary and tired as I toil daily. It seems when pain comes, I begin to question my position as Your child. Then when extra bills or troubles loom, I take stock in my faith in You and even in myself. Satan then whispers horrible lies into my ears:

- You are no one to God.
- He has better Christians to care for than you.
- You can stop now.
- You are getting so old.
- God doesn't care about you.
- You upset Him.
- He won't protect you.
- Give up now.
- If He cared, His promises would have been fulfilled by now.
- Are you even seeing His promises at all?
- Are you not worse off now than you once were?
- Don't even your children now want to leave you?
- You are turning them over to me.
- Your (older) son even prefers his father over you now.
- You are an embarrassment.
- You are no writer.
- You don't even know the Bible like we do.

- He didn't choose you.
- You are insane.
- You conjure darkness to shed light.
- Give up now as you will be in hell soon.

At times, fear then settles in as a result of these bold-faced lies. Oh Father, I then avoid You. I do this even when You do the following to comfort me (a partial list at that):

- You continue to be faithful and true.
- You speak to me tenderly and in love.
- You send miracles and wonders.
- You seek me and pursue me even when I run from You.
- You provide for me daily and never stop.
- You allow my humility so that I come back to You.
- You hold me and place my feet on a firm foundation of love.
- You continue to be the solid rock of security in Your promises.

Oh Lord, thank You for keeping my heart fixed on You. In my discouragement, I ran to hide from You. Even then, You turned and removed my troubles and left me with blessings. I then offer You a blessing in return. Oh Father, I am so sorry for ever doubting my place with You.

As for Spurgeon, he makes a note about a father who had prayed many years for his sons and daughters. However, they then became worldly instead. His time came to die and he gathered his children around his bed. He had hoped to bear such a witness for Christ that he would be blessed to witness their conversions. Instead, he became deeply distressed and started to doubt his own interest in Christ.

As he lay dying, he became unhappy. Above all, his worst fear of his mind was that his distress would be seen by his children and cause them to be against God. After dying, he was buried and his children came to his funeral. God heard the man's prayer that day for, as they went away from the grave, they talked quietly amongst themselves...

1st brother: "Brother, our father died a most unhappy death."

2nd brother: "He did, brother. I was very astonished at it for I never knew a better man than our father."

1st brother: "If a holy man such as our father found it a hard thing to die, it will be a dreadful thing for us who have no faith when our time comes."

After this, all of the children of this man were saved. His prayers were heard and answered by God in a miraculous way. Oh Father, please help us and comfort us. We pray and believe for impossible things. We ask for miracles when the world provides nothing for us. I had a couple of dreams last night...

Sub-Dream 1 "Fleeing Danger in Oregon" begins...

I was younger and had my younger son and my daughter with me. We were in the middle of some emergency that had just hit Portland OR. We were traveling west on Beaverton Hillsdale Highway. When we reached Hillsboro, I decided we needed to turn left on a side road into an undeveloped area.

The first turn was a road that went from paved to gravel to dirt. It then kept narrowing. I knew this was a dead-end, so we turned the car around. Another road required us to abandon our vehicle and travel on foot. I knew that this too was a trap because we had safety while staying with our car. Our car had a safe cover, provisions and a full tank of gas. We decided to go back to our familiar routes.

I took several roads south to get to Newberg, Dundee and areas far from the trouble. I instinctively knew we had to get east, but not to go to the coast. I then remembered the Capital Highway from somewhere. We would travel to Salem and go east over the Santiam Pass. I then noticed that my gas gauge was always reading full. It never dropped.

My daughter: "Mom, you won't believe what is in this cooler."

My younger son: "Wow, mom, this food is incredible."

As we drove and looked behind us, we could see that the I-5 was full. No vehicles were going east... only north, south and west. Even though we had been eating and drinking, our bodies never needed to stop at a rest stop. It appeared that the Lord did not want us to stop driving no matter what. We arrived home at dawn. We were relieved to be safe and back at home.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

In this dream, I did not actually see our home. Father, thank You for this divine rescue dream. Is this dream a dream of things to come? I then had a second dream last night.

Sub-Dream 2 "Trusting the scorpion with my son" begins...

I was in a dimly lit room. In reality, I was now in total darkness. While I rarely dream of my greatest enemy at all, he was there in this room with me. In this room, he was gathering my son's belongings together to leave for good. While I was so upset, I didn't let my emotions show.

Enemy: "If you commit yourself back to me, I will not harm any of your children. If you do this, I promise not to hurt your (older) son."

Me: "But what if I say no? I am happily married to my husband."

Enemy: "This has nothing to do with marriage. I am asking for your commitment and loyalty to me in exchange for the safety of our children."

Me: "So wait... are you saying they won't be safe if I don't?"

Enemy: "Do you want to test me?"

Me: "Give me the suitcases. I am taking him back home."

Enemy: "It is too late. The tickets are booked. Sorry about your stupidity. Haven't you had enough of the scorpion and the frog scenario?" He began to laugh at me. "How many times will you be so stupid?"

Me: "Not this time. God is with me!"

In my dream, I then did something so unbelievable. However, I can't recall it now nor even a thing about it. I only saw the ending of it. I saw my enemy then shrink with fear and trembling.

Enemy: Now pushing my older son towards me. "Here, you can take him home."

While I couldn't see what was doing this, something then took him on both sides and threw him outside. My son then hugged me. We gathered his things up for him to come home. His trip had now been canceled by God.

Sub-Dream 2 over...

Me: "Father, my son has changed his mind and now wants to go out west to be with his father again. This does not sit right with me. He is scheduled to leave in early October to go with his dad. I believe that this is a bad idea. Please go before my son and take care of him in all he does."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Remember that your children are Mine. Fear not for I have redeemed them. No arrows formed against them shall prosper. My favor is not on your enemy. He claims to know your son better than he knows himself. This is a reptilian tactic.

“What he means by this is that he believes, based on patterns, based on things common to young adult men or based on his own wicked thoughts and actions, that he knows and understands. However, these are really based on knowledge of past sins.”

Me: “But, Lord, my son has not seen his father in nine years. He is the child who confronted him. He was then told by the enemy that he would know the truth one day.”

Jesus: “No. This is a lie. You have always been truthful with your children with what had occurred. This is because it aligned with what they had directly experienced for themselves. They eventually drew their own conclusions based on personal experience. The scorpion was consistent and you held your tongue as I instructed.

“Your children remain where you are. As for your (older) son, he has not been well. He is sad and weary. However, he will one day be healed. Times have been difficult, so, in desperation and to feel better, he has agreed to travel with the scorpion.”

Me: “I can do nothing, Lord. I have stated my case. So has his brother and sister. However, he still...”

Jesus: “Stop! I will handle all of this. I will expose evil plots and I will stop your enemy’s assignments. I have allowed your son to forget the former things. However, he will now remember. Nothing has changed... only time.”

Me: “Doesn’t time heal?”

Jesus: “A wound, yes, but this is different. Think of it like this... an open gaping wound that is left over time becomes infected. The infection of the blood then goes to the heart of the matter. Infection causes an open wound to fester. To the children of God, the fruits of the spirit are on display. Because of these, wounds are healed and forgiveness replaces anger. Even though scars remain, hearts are healed and love overcomes all of it.

“The Holy Spirit seals off a gaping wound and makes all things brand new. Time replaces bad thoughts. Your son is simple. He is but a youth in his thinking. He is easily excited and happy and just as easily sad and disappointed. He calls out to Me and I am here, but he wants his wants to be the same as his needs and they are not. He keeps stepping ahead of wise counsel.”

Me: “Oh Lord, the wait has been so long. All of our children are struggling now. Please help us, Lord. Please help us to provide a way so we can let my son swim in safe waters.”

Jesus: "I will do this. I promise you, Erin. Be anxious for nothing.

"Now, when you go to the land I am sending you (Bend OR), do not be afraid of the giants you see. I promised you a home here years ago and this has not been removed. See the good. Walk your former places and pray. You will be blessed beyond measure.

"As for your sons and daughters, I know that they are discouraged. While they doubt their places, I do not. I have a great plan. In the book you read, what have you made note of?"

Me: "The ravens. I was laughing because I had once hated crows. Well, we now have a whole family here who watch over our yard. I feed them. They are very clever birds. I was reading about them last night while I sat outside and prayed after dinner..."

Psalm 147:9: "He gives to the beast his food and to the young ravens that cry."

Luke 12:24: "Consider the ravens; for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouses nor barn; and God feeds them: How much more are you better than the fowls?"

"Well, Lord, since You hear the young ravens, will You not also hear me? The ravens are considered to be unclean birds and they make horrible noises. Despite this, you still care for them. In general, these ravens are quite unliked by the world. I too at one time wanted them all erased. This was before I lived near them and came to like them. They had seemed to be such a useless creation.

"However, and according to Your Word, 'Consider the Ravens!' You care for them. I love this. When we cry out, we have a divine warrant from divine exhortations to approach the Throne of God in prayer. Even so, ravens are nowhere commanded to cry. Their petition is unwarranted by any specific exhortation from the divine mouth.

"This illustration from Spurgeon was brilliant. If a rich man would open his house to those who were not invited, he would surely receive those who were invited. Ravens come without being invited, yet they are not sent away empty. In contrast, we are Your invited guests!"

Jesus: "Erin, there are many parables in your daily walk and all around you. I provide for all living creatures. However, man can still go away hungry for solid food and thirsty for living water. Their flesh can then shrivel and die. Many do not cry out to Me. Many refuse what I have to offer them."

Me: "Psalm 37..."

Jesus: "Erin, if only My people would read just this one chapter (Psalm 37) and believe Me for these promises, they would know Me and never need for anything."

Me: "The following translation really hit home for me (that is, Psalm 37 from The Passion Translation). Thank You for this..."

1Don't follow after the wicked ones or be jealous of their wealth. Don't think for a moment they're better off than you. 2They and their short-lived success will soon shrivel up and quickly fade away, like grass clippings in the hot sun. 3Keep trusting in the Lord and do what is right in His eyes. Fix your heart on the promises of God, and you will dwell in the land, feasting on His faithfulness. 4Find your delight and true pleasure in Yahweh, and He will give you what you desire the most. 5Give God the right to direct your life, and as you trust Him along the way, you'll find He pulled it off perfectly! 6He will appear as your righteousness, as sure as the dawning of a new day. He will manifest as your justice, as sure and strong as the noonday sun. 7Quiet your heart in His presence and wait patiently for Yahweh. And don't think for a moment that the wicked, in their prosperity, are better off than you. 8Stay away from anger and revenge. Keep envy far from you, for it only leads you into lies.

17For the Lord takes care of all his forgiven ones while the strength of evil men will surely slip away. 18Day by day the Lord watches the good deeds of the godly, and He prepares for them His forever-reward. 19Even in a time of disaster He will watch over them, and they will always have more than enough no matter what happens. 20All the enemies of God will perish. For the wicked have only a momentary value, a fading glory. Then one day they vanish! Here today, gone tomorrow. 21They break their promises, borrowing money but never paying it back. The good man returns what he owes with some extra besides. 22Yahweh's blessed ones receive the land, but the cursed ones will be cut off with nothing to show for themselves. 23When Yahweh delights in how you live your life, he establishes your every step. 24If they stumble badly they will still survive, for the Lord lifts them up with His hands.

25I was once inexperienced, but now I'm old. Not once have I found a lover of God forsaken by Him, nor have any of their children gone hungry. 26Instead, I've found the godly ones to be the generous ones who give freely to others. Their children are blessed and become a blessing. 27If you truly want to dwell forever in God's presence, forsake evil and do what is right in His eyes. 28The Lord loves it when He sees us walking in His justice. He will never desert His devoted lovers; they will be kept forever in His faithful care, but the descendants of the wicked will be banished. 29The faithful lovers of God will inherit the earth and enjoy every promise of God's care, dwelling in peace forever. 30God-lovers make the best counselors. Their words possess wisdom and are right and trustworthy. 31The ways of God are in their hearts and they won't swerve from the paths of steadfast righteousness. 32Evil ones spy on the godly ones, stalking them to find something they could use to accuse them. They're out for the kill!

33But God will foil all their plots. The godly will not stand condemned when brought to trial. 34So don't be impatient for Yahweh to act; keep moving forward steadily in His ways, and He will exalt you to possess the land. You'll watch with your own eyes and see the wicked lose everything. 35I've already seen this happen. Once I saw a wicked and violent man overpower all who were around him, a domineering tyrant with his prideful and oppressive ways. 36Then he died and was forgotten. Now no one cares that he is gone forever. 37But you can tell who are the blameless and spiritually mature. What a different story with them! The godly ones will have a peaceful, prosperous future with a happy ending. 38Every evil sinner will be destroyed, obliterated. They'll be utter failures with no future! 39But the Lord will be the Savior of all who love Him. Even in their time of trouble, God will live in them as strength. 40Because of their faith in Him, their daily portion will be a Father's help and deliverance from evil. This is true for all who turn to hide themselves in Him!

Jesus: "What does this mean to you?"

Me: "This appears to be Your order for the transformed of God. This is the warrant of the promises from You. To me, this reads like a manifesto!"

Jesus: "This is good food for My Elect. Now rejoice, Erin, for I send good gifts to those whose hope is in Me. Do not worry! I love you!"

726 – God’s Wrath is Soon to Come

Received on Monday, September 4, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You all we have... our families, our friends and, most of all, You. Without You, we are truly captives of this world. I had quite a dream last night...

Sub-Dream 1 “God’s Wrath is soon to come” begins...

We lived in a raised-up valley that gradually dipped into a body of water. I was looking over a meadow even though it could have been even closer to being a lowland. There was a home on this wet meadow. To the left and to the right of us were two mountains with beautiful trees. Where we lived, people liked to visit. However, there were very few permanent residents.

I then received a knock on our door. There was a server / barrister at the door. He was holding papers and a key.

Barrister: “Are you Erin _____?”

Me: “Yes, I am.”

Barrister: “The home in the meadow before you is now yours. Please sign here that you acknowledge my service and you accept the home, the property and its contents.”

Me: “What? Why would anyone just give this to me?”

Barrister: “Here is the title, the deed and some more information. The value of the assessed property is almost $1 million. The owners want you to have it.”

Me: “I don’t understand?”

Barrister: “Here are the keys, as well as the codes to the security system. There is also a key to a safety deposit box that contains other valuable documents and letters, as well as a few other items.”

Me: “Where did the owners go?”

Barrister: “While they own several properties, this one was special to them as God was there with them.”

Me: "Are they still alive?"

Barrister: "Yes. However, they want to remain anonymous. Congratulations, Miss Erin!"

I was now in complete shock. I phoned the county title office stated on the paperwork. Sure enough, only my name was now on the Transfer of Title. I was surprised that all had been verified. With this, I decided to walk down the gravel road to the meadow house. It was lovely. It was all white with a beautiful porch. I walked up to the door and unlocked it. As the alarm was set, I entered the security code.

I then looked around and was in complete shock. I expected a rundown house with bad 70s furniture, complete with cobwebs. Instead, it was decorated like it could be in a design magazine. It was better than I ever imagined this house would look like. It had always been behind some trees, so I never paid much attention to it.

As I walked around, I noticed that the house had now been lifted up onto a more solid foundation. It was no longer in a wet meadow / wetlands area. I walked out to the back porch. There was a wonderful chair with cushions. It did not look like an outdoor chair. There was a card there...

Sit down here, Erin!

I laughed to myself. I sat in the chair and thanked God for such a gift. I could now see more clearly. The water contained a large rock that looked familiar. Why had I not seen any of this from our home before? In fall, the entire view was different. I suddenly smelled the pines of Lake Tahoe. Was this on Lake Tahoe?

I got up and walked to the end of the deck / porch. I then peeked behind the house at our home and it was there. I am not sure how I didn't see this property before. I couldn't wait to show Jeff and our kids this place.

I walked back and sat in the cushioned chair. It was the perfect temperature outside. The fragrant pine smell and the warmth of the sun brought me peace. I must have fallen asleep as I then found myself awakened by an angel of the Lord.

Angel: Smiling at me. "Erin, God has something to show you. Come!"

Me: "Where is Uriel?"

Angel: "He is in the presence of the Lord God at His Altar. I am also an angel of God's Presence. However, my name doesn't matter."

He reached for my hand and we were immediately up on God's Mountain / the Mountain of God's Presence. We were in the Courtyards of His Courts. There was so much activity. Multitudes of angels were training and receiving assignments. I saw one army that was named something that I didn't understand.

Me: "Who are they?"

Angel: "This army of God are the angels of the storms. Over here are the angels of the seas. And these over here are the angels of the skies. These all work together. Over here are the angels of the shaking. They shake the lands, the nations. These are God's Great Army of humbling and humility over all things. Their assignment is to turn man to God and not to turn man to man."

Me: "When will this all be?"

Angel: "It is ongoing. These armies work constantly under God's command. The enemy's armies have weaponized man against God's Laws. He does this so man looks, not to God in humility, but to the children of God to lay blame. This is an intense war as man is weaponized against God. Instead of offering up allegiance to God's Altar of Holiness, he offers up allegiance to the enemy's decrepit altars. However, you must know and understand that the same wrath that was sent by warrant to Nineveh is soon to come to this wicked generation."

Me: "Oh angel, is there anything that can be done?" I was then called to read a section of Nahum that speaks about God's wrath against Nineveh. "Oh wow, these armies are preparing together to send great calamities soon."

Angel: "You are correct. However, there is even more to this. Come!"

He took me to the overlook where I could see the heavenlies. Once there, I could see an army of angels who had charge over the stars, the sun and the moon. I could see them working on various alignments that I did not understand.

Me: "What is this?"

Angel: "THE DAY! Erin, the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord is about to come. This will be a day of darkness and despair."

Me: "Please stop this!"

Angel: "This has to happen in order to fulfill the Words of the Prophets. It is because of the increase in evil that has spread. This evil now even surpasses Sodom and Gomorrah. While that was a vile time, it is nothing like these current times. Evil practices of altar sacrifices and children being tortured are not of God. Now see this..."

He showed me a massive festival. It looked like a city from up here. I chuckled as it almost seemed like a map of the Death Star from Star Wars. It was in the desert.

Me: "Is this 'Burning Man'?"

Angel: "God has no part in this. It is a mockery by the fallen angels to God and His Army. By these fallen angels manipulating man to sin without repentance, they know that man will then burn in the same fire as they will. God sent His Army to bring torrential rain and mud to the desert as a sign against the evil spirits that God is God over all things and that He is Holy. This thwarted their ceremonies and their unholy alliances and worship. These same evil spirits are now confining and tormenting these mud dwellers and the stench of excrement is now over the area."

Me: "All of this seems like such a weird movement."

Angel: "Well, God sent streams in the desert and, instead of looking at themselves and humbling themselves, they sent curses to God with their lips. However, this is just one warrant given by God. Many more are coming upon the lands."

Me: "Is there anything that those who love the Lord God can do? Many of us are becoming so discouraged."

Angel: "Erin, you have been shown just a small portion of God's wrath soon to come. This war is ongoing. This is the time of the Days of Awe. Be careful to observe His Feasts... this time more than any other.

"Now rejoice. God is good and He has great love for His children. Take these days and be obedient to His Voice. Repent and do good and God will reward you the likes of which you haven't even conceived in your imagination. He is over all things. Rejoice!

"Oh yes... He hasn't even revealed all that He has planned for His saints. The sons of Jacob were only a foreshadow of what is soon to come."

The angel squeezed my hand. I then woke up in the new chair at the house that I didn't know existed.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

This was quite a vivid dream! Thank You, Father, for all of this!

Dream over.

727 – BRACE FOR IMPACT

Received on Wednesday, September 6, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Sometimes with dreams, I receive only bits and pieces of a larger picture. Please clarify all I see. This morning, I woke to three very loud words...

BRACE FOR IMPACT

This was just after I had a very vivid dream...

Sub-Dream 1 "BRACE FOR IMPACT"

I was somewhere I did not recognize. I heard three interpreters. Two of the interpreters were official ones. As for the third interpreter, he was a verifier, also called a 'cup bearer'. I did not know the languages being spoken other than suspecting they were eastern in nature. One seemed like Russian. The other two were different.

The 1st Leader was boasting about owning the nations of the world. This leader was speaking remotely. He stated his great accomplishments, all due to the stupidity of the USA. This 1st Leader stated that he had done the following:

- Paid off all surrounding countries to the south.
- Claimed power in the seas.
- Purchased lands.
- Poisoned the young fighting men.
- Penetrated military bases of the mainland, as well as of the ally to the north.
- Created punitive accusations in social media to attack children.
- Used social media to cause race wars and to divide and weaken.
- Set up a parody President owned by the party to destroy the military, the government and the laws.
- Plundered military powers.

- Purchased seized guns through shadow organizations owned by the military.
- Disarmed citizens.
- Removed the privacy of the citizens by purchasing sensitive information.
- Purchased debts via banking partnerships.

2nd Leader: "They are spending themselves dry militarily on the war. All of that money in proxy accounts can be used to weaponize against them. With them now weakened in this manner, it will now be easy to remove them."

3rd Leader: "Yes! We have the capability and we have a great plan."

1st Leader: "Even though they are expecting you, they still laugh at you. You take the first shots and we will then pretend to help them. We already have an army inside their borders. We will then control the power grid, water supplies, information and food supplies. Hospitals will be closed and fenced. It will be quick. We have the waterways of the Gulf, the south, the east, the west and have full access through the north."

2nd Leader: "We can help by attacking the country to the north as well. However, we would need to do this before the winter."

I then saw a flash of light. The plans of the enemy were then suddenly placed on hold. While this was a surprise to them, I was not sure exactly what this surprise was.

2nd Leader: "What happened? I thought this President was really yours."

1st Leader: "He is! This is unprecedented. We must strike now."

I then woke up with the words, 'BRACE FOR IMPACT'...

Sub-Dream 1 over.

When I was making the bed later on that morning, I pleaded with the Lord.

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop them! We need more time! Please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Come to Me."

Me: "Here I am, Lord. What is going to happen?"

Jesus: "I am with you. Do not worry. The enemies that surround the USA and Israel plot to destroy them. Instead of making their own countries better, they find the destruction of God's lands more satisfying. They then plot in the north and in the east. I will send angel armies from on high.

"Now, the leader in power by proxy is now more evil than all of the kings of Israel combined... even Ahab. At least Ahab submitted to God at times. As for this President, he only submits to evil. The leaders in power have been confused by the hand of God. Their weakness and their evils are on full display. Is it not written that this would be a war unlike any other?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "The nation once dedicated to God has fallen from grace. Even worse, it is defiling all that was holy and set apart. What foolishness of the leaders to allow the enemy to become so wealthy. They even allowed the enemy to purchase fields of fruit trees, wheat and corn. They then allowed them to build fortress factories. They continue to allow spies in from the south, north, east and west. They are thieves of the highest order. They even change My Word and publish it."

Me: "Is there anything we can do to stop this, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes. Pray. Erin, pray! Pray for the lost. These evil leaders have destroyed and partitioned off the nation dedicated to God. This President is a goat. He is shallow. His name means what he is."

Me: "His name could either mean 'button maker' or 'shadow valley'."

Jesus: "Shadow is closer as all evil operates in darkness. If only My people would turn to see the judgment that has fallen upon the nation. If they did, they would humble themselves and turn back their faces to Me."

Me: "Lord, You said by Your own words that this man operates in the shadows, in the dark, in a dark valley. How can Your children stop what is in darkness when it is hidden from us? Since You are God, You see what is in darkness. We can't do this. If we are to focus on lovely things and Your promises as You command us to, how can we then also focus on the plans of the enemy, especially since You, Lord, along with Your angel armies, are much greater than any plans hatched in darkness?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, you make a good case! I have told you to stay vigilant and watchful. The news you hear now is mostly lies. I have told you to pray instead. Erin, keep your focus on Me."

Me: "Lord, I kept hearing emphasis on the words 'BRACE FOR IMPACT'! Should we expect a nuclear attack soon?"

Jesus: "The idea of the 1st Leader (in the sub-dream) is to keep the land beautiful and to then occupy it for himself. As for the other two of the three leaders, they want it destroyed. The nations surrounding Israel also want it destroyed. As for the main leader in opposition to the other two leaders, he wants to take captive slaves and to kill the weak, infirm, elderly and young. They plan to take the entire nation, as well as the entire lands to the north and the south. By controlling money, they can displace all the peoples from their homes and pillage their wealth. They can then claim their lands."

Me: "Stop them! Oh please, Lord, stop them! You still have millions of believers here. So many of us still love You with all of our hearts."

Jesus: "Do not worry. Erin, I am here and I am with you. Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world."

Me: "I am scared, Lord. My children will be forced into war if this happens before winter."

Jesus: "Calm down. Erin, calm down. Many are the plots of the wicked. However, God's plans are greater. Remember that the harvest is coming. Praise God for He is worthy and over all you see."

728 – A False Crown for a False King

Dear Father,

Thank You for another glorious day here! While things here are no paradise, they keep our eyes looking up to an eternity with You. My husband and I are to travel soon. The most difficult thing about traveling is leaving our kids. Drama is mostly non-existent here unless we are away.

The enemy enjoys when I am unable to enjoy rest or even sleep. This time has been no different as all kinds of issues have emerged. I give these to You, Father, as all we have is for Your Glory and not necessarily for our personal comfort. A huge storm came last night. This was not a surprise as it has been unusually hot and humid the last several days here.

As for last night, our entire area was pounded by one long six-hour storm. The thunder was deafening and woke up everybody in the house. The lightning strikes literally lit up the skies for minutes at a time. I have never experienced a storm that simply hovered there without moving. While my husband slept through a lot of it, I struggled.

Our circuit breakers tripped several times during the storm. One clap of thunder literally sounded like You were splitting the skies open. The rumble started from down the valley and then came right to the house. As the rumble hit us, the skies lit up yet again. I was terrified. I started to pray. This was roughly three hours in at around 2:30 am.

As for earlier that day, I had quite an argument with my older son. You then reminded me that he truly has no understanding, that You allowed for this for a specific reason and that it is me who is able to change given that his autism does not change. Yes, I know that I must change until You make supernatural changes with him.

Even though I am normally patient with him, I still got quite angry. I then repented for my loss of faculties enabling my patience to take a vacation for 45 minutes. I then had to separate myself before saying things that I couldn't take back. Unyielding words are like spilling water from a cup. Only God can reverse, heal and fill our empty cups.

Overall, it was a rough day for me, wherein this day was later capped by the huge storm above me. This all was an extremely humbling day for me. I now understand what they mean by 'peels of thunder', as well as 'the splitting of the skies'. The rumbling shook the ground itself and the sky lit up like it was day. I certainly had no power to do anything about it. I just prayed. I then heard Your voice...

Jesus: "Erin, I have you. There is an epic battle over you. I have already showed you the armies of angels."

Me: "But, Lord, this storm isn't stopping. It isn't moving through. It continues."

Jesus: "Picture an inverted valley above you."

Me: "Oh... wars in the heavenlies."

Jesus: "Yes. The weather scientist will then explain things away. However, I told you that I am in the storm. As for you and your household, nothing was harmed. You are fine."

After dialoguing some more with the Lord, I fell back to sleep. However, I was shaken up by one last overhead thunderous crack that shut off our breaker. Both of us then woke up again and now it was 4:00am. My heart pounded. Our little dog, Snigglet, ran up to us and was shaking so hard that it was difficult to comfort her. After about 20 more minutes, I fell asleep again and had a dream. This dream was very clear...

Sub-Dream 1 "A False Crown for a False King" begins...

I observed about twelve children in a library. They were ages 5, 6 and 7 years old. They were all in a story time area on pillows crisscross in a circle. Even though the cart was already there, the 'Storyteller' had not yet arrived. Among other items, the cart had at least 50 or more crowns on display. The librarian then placed each of the crowns in the center of a circle.

Librarian: "Each of you can try on as many of the crowns as you would like."

I was astonished as I even recognized some of the crowns. One of the crowns had been on Queen Elizabeth's casket during her funeral procession. There were other priceless crowns, but there were also some that were not as valuable. Altogether, the crowns were easily worth tens of millions of dollars. The children were so cute trying on these huge crowns. Almost all of the crowns were too big for their heads.

Librarian: "Okay, Children, please place the crowns back in the center of the circle. The Storyteller has now arrived."

It was the former President (not Trump). He came and sat at a large chair set up for him. Once he sat, he looked down at the children...

Storyteller: "Hello, children. Who liked placing the crowns on your heads?"

A few of the kids raised their hands: "Me, me! I love these! They are pretty."

One of the boys: "They are too big for my head."

Storyteller: "That's right. They are too big for you. They don't fit you because you are pretenders. You are not kings, queens, princes or princesses. All of you are just kids. You will never wear a crown."

One of the girls: "But we will receive a crown when Jesus comes!"

Storyteller: "Well, look around you. There is no Jesus here passing out crowns." The girl then looked sad. "However, I am here now."

He then placed a crown on his own head, a crown unlike any that I have ever seen before. It had many spires and each was encrusted with valuable jewels. The crown was large and I somehow knew that it once belonged to a prominent king in history.

Storyteller: "Okay, so now what do you see?"

Little girl: "I see the crown of a king."

The Storyteller seemed pleased with her answer. However, this didn't last long.

Little boy: "But you're playing dress up too. You're a pretender."

A different little boy: "Yeah! You are just a pretend king."

Storyteller: "Well, here is the difference..."

He then paused to wave to the librarian and her helpers to bring some snacks. They began to place some sort of dessert in a circle between the children and the crowns. It looked like pecan pie or something similar. It didn't look tasty. They were each wrapped in plastic wrap and served to the children on paper plates.

Storyteller: "The difference is that none of you... not one... will ever wear one of these crowns. This is because you are not worthy. They aren't yours. As for me, I can take this crown off or I can wear it, but, no matter what, I am still king. As for you, and no matter how hard you try, you will always just be pretenders."

Little boy: "You don't even look like a king."

Storyteller: "Well, you definitely don't. Regardless, I am still king over all of you. I am king over all that you see. As for all of those crowns here..." He pointed to the crowns and sneered. "...I own all of them. They are all mine." The kids were now beginning to get scared. "Now eat your snack."

Little girl: "I don't like that pie."

Little boy: "Yuck! This looks gross."

Storyteller: "Now do you see why you can never be kings, queens, princes or princesses? You don't obey orders."

He then nodded his head toward some special ops to the side and addressed them.

Storyteller: "Okay, it is time to show these kids that I am truly king. Throw them off the cliff immediately."

This was horrible and unexpected! The parents had entrusted their children to the Storyteller. As they walked towards the cliff, the kids started to scream and cry. There was a wooden pier jutting off the cliff. There was a very long fall into the ocean from the end of this pier. The children were to be thrown off the pier into the ocean like garbage.

Just as the kids were being led to the end of the pier, a portal suddenly opened in the sky. There was Jesus wearing His Crown. He was there to gather the children.

Storyteller: "Curse You! Curse You!"

Jesus gave the Storyteller a stern look. He then gathered the children to Him in the portal.

Jesus: To the children: "Okay, children, time to smile and wave at the bad man!"

They all smiled and waved at the Storyteller just as Jesus told them to. The Storyteller now had an even greater rage. The portal then closed up. All the children had been safely removed from the Storyteller's evil grasp of death.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Father, this dream was so vivid. There was no mistaking any elements of it. It was very clear. Father, please help us. Things are becoming very scary now. There are quite a few sick people all around us in town. There is so much talk of masks and new vaccines. Please stop all of this. Oh Father, we love freedom without fear.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid for I am in you. Do not be dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with My Righteous Hand. You are My Bride in Gold of Ophir. I sit at the righthand of My Father. You are a princess and will wear a crown. The enemy cannot strip you of your title even though he tries.

"Since I am at God's righthand, I have been given power and authority. This means I am over and above all principalities, authorities, powers and dominions, as well as all other names. I am over and above them all, both in this world and in the next. I then have the power to subdue My enemies. By the authority of God and His Word, I am seen seated in Heaven next to My Father. Due to My position in Heaven, I am in power with authority.

"Now, your dream... there is no majesty in having children harmed or declaring they will wear no crowns. I see the end from the beginning. As such, be ensured that My justice will therefore be swift and clear concerning the wicked. As for anyone who causes one of My children who believes in Me to sin, it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be thrown into the depths of the sea.

"Now, the enemy cannot strip one of Mine from Me. He cannot strip titles nor can he determine a man's day. Why? Because he does not have eternal authority. He can only lie, discourage and threaten. Hoping for destruction is not an act of redemption. I redeem. I save. I carry. I remove sin. I love unconditionally. I promise good things. I deliver an eternal Home in Paradise. I crown the saints.

"As for the enemy, he tries to remove by stealing authority. However, here is the good news... when I offered up My Spirit on the Cross, I took with Me the keys to unlock those held captive. I took away the power of death. The victory is Mine. The enemy thought he had taken My life, but I instead offered up My life. As such, he does not have the authority."

Me: "I kind of understand. It is simple, yet quite complex as well."

Jesus: "Right now, you are experiencing the war of the enemy and his armies against the saints, the children of God."

Me: "Oh Lord, please don't allow him to conquer all of us. Please step in and turn this around. Please make footstools of the enemies of Your Kingdom."

Jesus: "Do not be afraid as I am with you. I am mighty to save. The children reside here with Me. Their crowns fit. They aren't pretending. They are custom made for each one. Each one is special to the King. Do not worry as I am here and I am with you.

“I am the God of the watches of the night and day. I am the God over the skies, the land, the sea, the storms and the waters. I am with you. You are Mine. I have a Great Plan and the enemy will not even expect what is coming. Now rejoice, Erin, for I love you. You are the daughter of the King.”

729 – Hearts to be healed

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! What a beautiful place this is. This is a place You made. It is the place of my heart. People are happy and courteous here. They smile. We smile. It is safe here. People ask us if we need help. All are offering us conversation. We are treated with kindness and joy.

The grocery stores have fully stocked shelves. We couldn't believe what was available to eat. Food is much less expensive and there is no sales tax. Restaurants have friendly staff and offer an abundance of choices. Portions are large. Food is fresh and the taste is perfect. We have been limiting our food intake to two meals per day.

My report is so good, Father. It is much better than I remember it ever being before. When I lived here years ago, I was ill. My dreams personally were much greater than my physical abilities. I was broken here. I lost everything here. My pain was great here. I was rejected and reduced here.

My children were with me and we struggled financially. We moved from home to home as builders after one year of renting a new home they could save the taxes by selling after renting. While we were offered to purchase a few of them, I could never qualify for a home loan.

I was stupid here. I made bad decisions because I was in shock at the extreme broken state I was in. Oh Father, I was in such denial. I couldn't believe all that was happening to us. We were walking through a heavily guarded minefield. We couldn't find relief, even in the foxholes.

Those around us who once sympathized for us turned on us. I had very few who knew the truth about what had happened to us and they stood for us when others turned. Still, I was losing heart here. I lost myself here. I died to my hopes and dreams.

I was barely hireable because the schools kept calling me out of work for the boys. I went from a producing worker to a slave then a liability. It is painful to be here to relive the pain. Still, amid all that pain, we loved it here. We had so many adventures here.

There was so much we could do for free. It was so much fun. It sometimes masked that we were all slaves. It was so difficult. While the courts and the system should have favored me as the victim, my enemy's money made him superior. He essentially had unlimited resources. I couldn't do anything to stop them.

We were eventually driven out. I needed work to care for my household. This led to my slavery in the desert. I was underpaid and overworked. That was 14 years ago. It was beyond painful.

Well, Father, here I am. My husband is with me again. You called me back here to report to You our findings. It is beautiful. It would be a wonderful place for all of us. However, the giants are here and are among us. The giants are the homes. They are beyond our abilities.

Well, Father, You are over all things, including over the land and homes. You have said we have a home here. We both believe You will deliver one to us. You even said it would be greater than we could ever imagine.

Oh Lord, we give everything to You. As we drive around, I cry. It is amazing. I know that, one day, all we see will come to an end. In the meantime, we will live in joy, knowing You are our wonderful Father and the Maker of Heaven and Earth. Bless You!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I never forgot your tears there and your brokenness. The enemy pushed you out and made you believe you were worthy of nothing. However, I see and I am God over all things. It is I who delights in you, not in your perfection as you have lack.

"However, this matters not as I see your desires to do My Will, the God who sent you. Erin, I know full well the cost of all things. I know the enemy profited over your demise, as did so many over your small wages. You were bankrupt and broken, deserted and your children abused and abandoned by the evil gains of the wicked.

"Well, Erin, I delivered you from everyone. I was there. I never forgot it. Instead of your bitterness in your brokenness, you came to Me and Me alone to bind up your brokenness. You then taught your children to forgive those who continued to harm you.

"You then prayed together. I heard it and saw you. I was there. You told your children to forgive them because they didn't have Me and that God would one day turn from them. You told them not to forget what they did as no one could forget what they did. You then told them that time will remove the memory of the evil stuff sometimes. Well, Erin, do you remember this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. It was so painful. I was so broken. I was so broken that my heart began to fail me. All that mattered to me is life with my children and laughter one day."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, this place is your home. It is a place where you will no longer be a footstool for the wicked who profited off of your work."

Me: "I love You, Lord. Will this be now or when the New Earth is formed?"

Jesus: "Hmm. Perhaps both. What does it matter now other than I have promised you good things all the days of your life. As for today, imagine the places you will go, but not as a traveler, but instead as a resident. Begin to plan as if all had already been done as I have promised you. What have you thought of?"

Me: "Perhaps a local phone or a P.O. Box. Perhaps see what opportunities are here for our kids."

Jesus: "While you could do these, how about instead continuing today to roam around and write down your favorite places? This is good for today. Do not feel guilty for this.

"Remember this... if an evil man gains the profits of God's land and continues to prosper there, then what is it for My Bride, the Daughter of the King, to hold a residence in the land I promised her years ago?"

Me: "Well, it just seems evil prospers today. It is fun to imagine a beautiful home here."

Jesus: "Well then, allow Me to work. Don't think small like before because these were modest dwellings imagined from a broken woman who would've taken anything.

"Instead, look at it from My perspective. I am God over all this land. When you see various places, write these down. At the end of the day, bring these before Me and we will discuss these places."

Me: "Okay, Lord. I will bring all of this to You with my husband and we will pray."

Jesus: "Have a great day today. I made this day for you. I love you!"

730 – A Huge Storm heading for home

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for this beautiful place. It is truly a land created by Your hands. The weather has been amazing. Although it is the same as it is normally at home, there is no humidity here. It feels perfect.

In the meantime, we have a freezer at home that needs prayer to keep working. We could lose quite a bit of food if this does not work properly soon. We could use prayer for both our fridge and for the storm rapidly descending on our home.

Father, I am coming to You this morning because of two very clear dreams I had on Sunday, September 10, 2023. I now believe these were a warning of what is coming.

Sub-dream 1 "A bad match for a groom" begins...

I was young in my mid-20s and friends with a young man who expected me to be his bride. However, I had no interest in him that way. To me, we were friends only.

In this, he had taken me to a very large mall. It was his family who owned several very fancy shopping malls throughout the USA. At the one we were at, their office headquarters were attached to it. It was familiar to me as the King of Prussia Mall in Pennsylvania.

While he wanted to introduce me to his family, I was not aware that his intentions were to get his family's approval to take me as his bride. I was not aware of his intentions. When we arrived at these offices, we had to wait in a seated waiting room.

In this room was a strange type of television. The television was tall, on wheels and had some screen all around the unit. We were watching a rom-com movie, but I wasn't interested since I had seen it before.

Finally, his three family members came out to greet us. I could tell that they loved their son. When they saw he had brought a friend, his parents were upset. He then introduced me to the three of them...

Friend: "This is my mother, Kala. This is my father, Kronos. This is my brother, Onos."

I could tell they hated me with an unreasonable amount of hate. While they acted courteous in front of me, I was able to listen them behind closed doors...

Mother, father, brother: "Are you out of your mind? She is not one of us. This can't happen. You have a legacy to fulfill!"

I then realized that my friend wanted more from me. When he came out with them, the mother looked at me with hate and disgust. I stopped her before she could speak...

Me: "I love your son as a friend only. I am already spoken for."

This angered them. They now looked like they wanted to kill me. I heard a large slamming door that woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Sub-dream 2 "Warding off a rapist" begins...

I was walking away from my car in a parking lot. None of the cars could start. I couldn't find my husband. It was completely dark except for one parking lot light. I could hear people screaming in terror.

I was wearing something I needed to remove to put on clean garments. Suddenly, a shower stall with a curtain appeared in the parking lot. I quickly went into the shower and cleansed myself. I was safe and naked behind the curtain.

Or so I thought! When I went to grab my fresh, clean garments, I saw a demon possessed man coming towards me to rape me. I yelled at him in my prayer language louder and louder. He still wasn't turning away.

I finally acted crazy as I shouted my prayer language. Something then turned him away. I was free. I yelled so loud in my dream that it woke my husband up in real life.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, these dreams were very clear. While I am not sure what the names mean, I knew the specific names from the first dream because they were listed on the office door. The sign was backlit and the names appeared on the light...

- Kala: Strife, black, a moment or measure of time, moon phase, god of time, princess, death.
- Kronos: The youngest of the Titans, to cut, also god of time, to strike.
- Onos: Grief, god of storms and floods, small field.

This dream has been affecting me the last few days. I then had a dream last night that I don't remember all the details of...

Sub-dream 3 "Our home in the storm" begins...

Our home was in the center of the storm. There were high winds. I heard my children's voices...

- Mom, I'm scared.
- Brace for impact.
- Mom, it's totally dark.

I then heard the voice of an angel of the Lord...

Angel: "Batten down the hatches and ride out the storm. We're here!"

I knew it would be okay. I woke up when something hit the outside of the room I was in.

Sub-dream 3 over...

Father, Hurricane Lee is coming our way. We are out here and our children, now young adults, are home alone. Please protect our home.

Please hold back the three very large trees from falling on our home if the storm comes straight to us. There are three storms in the Atlantic right now...

- Lee: Clearing, meadow, clearing in the woods, describes our home in the woods.
- Margot: Might turn and hit our area as well. Pearl, of the sea, comes of the sea, not formed of land.
- Nigel: Black, dark, cloud, champion, dark night.

Father, please watch over our area. Turn these storms out to sea or at least get us home safely so that we can help if there is trouble.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Remember that I am in the storm. I am over all things. You are hated by the gods of this world because you serve the God over all things and eternity. There is a great war in the Heavens right now.

"While you are not to worry, it is wise to prepare as you are able for what is coming. You live in the house I built for you. To prepare for issues that could arise is smart.

"Now, prepare a list for your children to do to your house for this storm. I will also send the angels to watch over you. The storm will batter the area."

Me: "Lord, can you just turn it out to sea or have it change course?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but storms go to where humbling is needed."

Me: "But many Christians are hurt when these occur."

Jesus: "Christians are My witnesses to show My love and compassion. They are hands and feet from My Courts. This life is not a life of full comfort. The times you are in are not enjoyable for most. However, My love abounds.

"Perhaps you need to see in advance of storms how prepared your house is to weather the storms."

Me: "Oh please, Lord, we are absent."

Jesus: "No, you are not! Erin, can you trust Me with your children and your house?"

Me: "Yes, Lord, of course."

Jesus: "Then pray. See if they don't all turn back to Me in this. While they rely heavily on you, they need to know who I am. Let Me carry them. You will be surprised how well their listening skills have been over the years.

"Now, how will they know Me. Erin, you have three with unshakable faith. Now rejoice as I am with you. Continue to enjoy your time there. Your reports have been good. Trust Me for the impossible. I love you!"

Dream over.

731 – The Sign of the Black Widow Spider

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for our wonderful trip out west to Bend OR. Had You not instructed us to go, there would be no way we would have gone. As of this morning, I still don't fully understand the reason for the trip other than to give You a good report. I am sure there were many other reasons as well. Some of these could have been about our children, now young adults, remaining at home base.

They first had to prepare for the potential loss of power during Hurricane Lee. They then had to ride this storm out. They took care of everything that we instructed them to. However, all of us were unprepared for the freezer breaking down during the trip. We had so much food stored for meals, as well as ice. This was difficult. Since we have an odd sized space, we won't have a new freezer that actually fits until mid-October.

Our old freezer just couldn't be repaired. While this has been distressing, it is still manageable. While our trip was relaxing, it was also mysterious. Neither of us truly knew what we were there for. However, You told us to go there and walk, so we did. You told us to go here and there and we drove. You then told us to write down what we discovered and pray about it. We did. We then realized how much we loved it there.

We both now want to make it our home there one day. This will have to wait for You though as this is impossible for us in our current situation. The trip was physically difficult for me. I am exhausted. The temperature has dropped here and I am very tired. I have been cleaning up here and realize that I have some work to do with our young adults.

I need to teach them how to care for various things more in case of our absence again or if they move out on their own soon. As I was cleaning the inside of the window jams, my paper towel picked up something moving very quickly. I immediately placed the paper towel on the dining table. I grabbed a canning jar and captured it before it could crawl further. To my shock and horror, it was a male black widow spider.

I put the lid tightly on the jar. I haven't had to deal with a black widow since the desert in Washington State. I have never even seen one here. I know we didn't bring it home with us because I could tell from the bug carcasses and the web that it had been here possibly all summer or longer. The good news was this is a male. Still though, Father, this is an epic sign for me and frames major troubles in the future.

When You have had me encounter black widow spiders in the natural, each time it marked two separate problems with two different places of employment soon to come and, sure enough and within three months, troubles came in a shocking way. It always came before a major move away from the status quo. With both of these, I was the victim. In reality, I could do nothing about what was coming my way.

Both times, I found these spiders in carpet sample racks... but in two separate states and in two separate businesses. This was a horrible sign for me when looking back, especially because I knew what had happened behind the scenes to hurt me. All in all, Father, these were the best things even though they were paralyzingly painful at the time.

Another time was outside on the foundations of my greatest blacksmith's house. There was not just one black widow, but at least ten in various webs. I warned all of my children to stay away from them no matter what. I was shocked that he had allowed this as one of his greatest fears is spiders. He claimed he had a pest control person coming. He made good on his word and all of them were gone a week later.

However, shortly after that, I found one outside one of our boy's window in our Richland WA home rental. My landlord had it removed and sprayed. However, at the time, it too was a sign because less than a year later, we were all gone from the Washington State desert to the Land of the Trees out east. This spotting of the black widow spider now to me trumps any of these other signs because it was inside my own home.

Oh Father, please help us. I killed the spider. It is gone now. However, wisdom is proved right by her actions. I pray that I have wisdom. Wisdom is proved right by the actions of her children. I pray that each one has learned and is wise. With me being away all this time, the cat returned, and most of the animals are now gone. The birds also left as there was very little feeding of seeds while we were away.

Still, I believe You will bring them back soon though even though changes are coming. It is a warning. I feel it now. When you are older, change becomes harder. When you have autism like my sons, it is even more difficult. My older son leaves in less than two weeks to go out west.

We need to drive him to Boston MA. Even though I know You have a plan in this, I am still so sad.

As for my stepdaughter, she is now thinking of attending a school far away beginning in January. She is our youngest. My younger son hasn't fared well with all of the changes. While I thought he was the most independent of my two autism spectrum sons, I now realize that he might be the worst at changes. I am concerned as he is quickly spiraling. While he is relieved that we are home, I see genuine fear in him.

People are moving and this isn't sitting well with him. If everyone moves away, then certainly this is too much home for us to manage. I struggle to keep up with cleaning. Without the kids being here, this would be hard for me. Father, please continue to watch over us in all things. The upcoming changes seem so overwhelming that I just can't imagine how this will play out.

Note: Today's dream doesn't even address all of the sub-dreams I have been having lately! Perhaps the Lord will have me bring these up in the future. You just never know with Him as He is such a mystery!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left your home nor have I left your children. I am aware of all things hidden. There is nothing that is a surprise to Me. However, you must not be afraid of this spider. He was undisturbed and content with where he was. He had no cause to search for victims. They came to him. He had plenty.

"Now, consider the wisdom of small creatures. You consider the larger ones and you then view them in wonder. There is an ominous feeling when thinking of a spider, especially a deadly one that is under your roof. However, remember this...

"It taketh hold with hands and is in kings' palaces. She weaves silk threads where she dwells and she dwells even in lofty places such as a king's palace. Her hands toil and take her there. She does the impossible and scales walls. She works hard to spin her web. She never runs ahead. She is steady on her course and finds success.

"Erin, I know what you are thinking now."

Me: "I am thinking about Proverbs 30:28."

Jesus: "There are many spiritual warfare parables in a spider and its web. The venomous spider paralyzes its prey, trapping the unsuspecting in its web prior to devouring it."

Me: "Yes, Lord. This is how I look at it."

Jesus: "It is an obvious sign about this evil generation, a foolish trapping of the unsuspecting in a web of deceit. However, all is not always as it seems."

Me: "Lord, all I know is that has never happened before. We don't see these often around here. It just doesn't seem good."

Jesus: "Not all things are leading to a treacherous ending. First of all, I am here with you. You discovered the problem and quickly removed the threat. It is over. There is no other in your home. It would not have survived long anyway because of the changes in season and your cooling system soon to be removed. It didn't come from your luggage or another way from your hand. It spotted a castle and decided to live with the King. You provided a great light source inside at night. It was simple."

Me: "Do I need to repent? Well, Lord, I will anyway."

Jesus: "I am here. It is always good to have a contrite heart and an upright spirit. This is wisdom. Still, I don't believe I am calling you to repent."

Me: "Lord, the trip felt extravagant at a time when money is a giant for us."

Jesus: "I called you here on faith. I provided for all of it, as well as provision for your freezer. Since you are unable to provide these things without debt to a bank, you are much better to be in debt to Me."

Me: "You are the Lender of my life and I am just a mere borrower."

Jesus: "Well, I am different because I offer high interest in you, with you giving all of your debts to Me. I will pay them. A bank of this world has high interest, yet has no interest in you. This is because it is heartless and wants you to give your whole income to them at a high price. They are now geared to bankrupting the borrower and enslaving them in order to change the landscape."

Me: "But doesn't bankruptcy make it so the bank doesn't even get their money back?"

Jesus: "Oh, they do. They profit. The goal of the New Order is to take all a man possesses. All of it. Their goals are lofty. However, they forget the very God they no longer fear or trust in. Well, I will change all of this. Erin, change is coming."

Me: "So, what do I do, Lord? What was all of this about?"

Jesus: "Erin, continue on your course. I will give you further instructions. Every trap the enemy has tried to ensnare you in has failed. This time is no different. As for your sons, they struggle with the unknown. They enjoy simple patterns and simple plans. Their expectations are full of faith. When they sound the alarm, they do so in fear. Give them to Me. I am God over them.

"I will take hold of them and will watch over them all of their days here. However, and even more so, I will heal them and deliver them from their struggles for understanding things that are foreign to them. I have them. While this will be a struggle for you, do not worry. I will well up in them and strengthen them. I am with you. Now, do not be afraid. I am with you. Changes are coming. These are good. I am with you. I love you."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I love You. We are so thankful for all You do. Our family and our friends are such a blessing. We are overcome by Your goodness."

Jesus: "Good! I am about to set you free in a miraculous display. Celebrate!"

Dream over.

732 – Behold Yom Kippur

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! I am not thankful enough. No, Father, I truly am not. I forget Your miraculous works so easily when troubles come. You gave me two autistic sons so I would understand Your unique love and patience that You have for us. With autism, there is a daily struggle to understand ways and thinking processes that have no clear path of understanding.

I realize this may sound confusing. However, I come back to the day of spilled water on the ground. I had to help my older son understand that the water spilled could not go back into his cup. Barring a miracle from God, time can't reverse. Moments are gone and only memories remain. The sting of loss leaves wounds, sometimes gaping holes, that can only be filled by You. With autism, there are more questions than I have answers for.

My sons are struggling right now with great changes that have been thrust upon our home suddenly. In this instance, fear is trying to face something outside the status quo of familiarity and sequence. The natural order of predictability is upset when logical patterns are suddenly gone. Then the question becomes why over and over again. Fear then sets in.

I then need to be that common element, a strong thread, of a calming voice. Our house came under attack on Saturday. The sign of the Black Widow Spider was 100% from You as a warning that something undisturbed was about to be revealed. The broken freezer was the beginning of troubles. Something so small became so large so quickly, then expanded.

My younger son worked so hard to prepare for Hurricane Lee while we were away. It even took him away from work. He was trying hard to prepare for something that could be really bad or nothing at all. It is interesting that Lee means 'clearing in the woods'. However, it didn't clear away anything in the physical. It was about clearing away in the spiritual.

While we were gone on our trip, our outdoor visitors changed...

- Our last two groundhogs disappeared.
- The partner chipmunk of the one killed by the cat is gone now too.
- Two red squirrels remain out of 12.
- Four grey squirrels remain out of 20.
- The hummingbirds have left for the season.
- There are only five turkeys left of the 11.

While I am not sure about all that had happened in the eight days we were gone, I do know that my 'safari place in the woods' has been cleared out dramatically. However, and even more importantly, something happened with our children here while we were away. Well, Lord, I have now truly placed this in Your hands.

You have since given us instructions about preparing the house for appraisal. While this doesn't necessarily mean we are to sell it, He wants us to prepare as if we were. You then told me that You would instruct us as we go. We have been given our directives as to how. Lord, please strengthen us for the changes coming.

My husband and I are celebrating Yom Kippur today. My husband took the day off, and so did my younger son. September is normally my most favorite month of the calendar year. The humidity goes away, the nights become cool and the days warm. The days become like those in Heaven. The colors are clear and vibrant as the atmosphere is perfectly defined by the light of the sun. While hard to describe, it is so beautiful.

I had my asthma return a few years ago and it seems that September often kicks off my season of breathing more clearly. It is also the time of preparation for what comes next – WINTER. As for fall, this season goes too quickly for me. I love the fall colors and the crisp autumn air. I love farmer's markets and football season. It marks the end of summer, the end of activity, and prepares us to go inward. This last year was one of my most difficult to date since moving to the land of the trees...

- Even though storms came, You were there each time.
- Secrets were revealed.
- Some hidden and lost things were found.
- I had to give up on some things that were gone forever.
- Some in our house drew closer to You, while others grew further apart.

- My husband became stronger this year.
- I have become stronger this year.
- Our young adult children have become stronger.
- Changes are coming.

Father, please help me. I went to bed last night with pancreatic pain. I haven't had this since December 2001 to January 2002. I was scared. My husband and daughter prayed for me and it was gone. I then had a deep sleep last night. This morning, I woke up to an angel of the Lord...

"Erin, seven more years! Seven years from today!"

I woke up suddenly and went to my journal. I don't get dates often. Seven years from today is September 25, 2030 on the Gregorian calendar. Using the Hebrew calendar, seven years from today is Yom Kippur in 2030. This starts at sunset on Sunday, October 6, 2030 and ends at sunset on Monday, October 7, 2030. Of the two dates, the Hebrew calendar seems to make the most sense... at least to me and my husband.

I had an alert on my phone that there is a frost warning tonight. I wrote down all of the sins of the house and mostly my sins to atone for. Father, what does the 'seven more years' refer to? Does this mean the time of the end or does it mean the time of the new beginning? Perhaps it is both or neither! Oh Lord, please help me on this.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with you always. I will not leave you. Remember that all of My promises are true and they will be fulfilled according to My Words. However, remember that it won't always unfold as you perceive that it should. This is because you have a limited scope over all you see.

"While you can imagine, you can guess, you can speculate and you can conclude based on patterns, you really cannot have fullness of understanding until it unfolds before your very eyes. This is My mystery... that I do the Will of My Father in Heaven and on His perfect timing.

"Remember... what good can come if you know more than you are capable? However, this I can promise you... I am over all things and I am in you... therefore, I am with you in all things, great and small.

"Now, I rerouted the winds set to come against your property as an answer to your prayers. This storm came to nothing outside. However, a storm brewed inside. I have allowed all of this so that all things hidden were revealed just before this day has come (Yom Kippur) so that you and your house will be blessed beyond your understanding for this coming year. It will be this way as I have declared it.

"Though changes are scary to imagine, I promise you that they will be beneficial beyond measure. The times in My Words are here. I am bringing all of My people to the places that I have prepared for them. Even when all you experience seems impossible, you are to remember that I am the God of the Impossible. I am the God who saves and is over all things.

"If I can call down a tempest and redirect a storm, if I can burn out a firestorm or stir up a great sea, then can I not also stop a wicked nation in its tracks or take the mighty beast down to Sheol's depths? Can I not also then control time and space? Who controls the sun, the moon and the stars to align?

"Man cannot do any of this. Only I can. Only God can. I can do all of this. In addition to this, I can also create a new thing. See, I watch the wicked plot. They have evil in their hearts and no regard for life. Their idea is to destroy all that is good for their own evil end. Two nations are in the crosshairs of the enemy... the Jews and the Gentiles."

Me: "I thought it was Israel and the USA?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are centering everything on land mass vs God's children. Right now, there are mass persecutions and atrocities that you know nothing of. The invasions of the lands all over the world by foreigners in places where all was dedicated to God is happening right now.

"Where My churches are burned, My Words removed and My people killed or soon to be killed, is not just subject to two nations once under God (Israel and the USA). These invasions will destroy all that was good and turn it into even greater evil.

"One leader dwells in darkness and is quite pleased at the destruction of his country (the USA) and Israel. He has called the foreigners to invade all of the nations of God. He cannot control his glee at his success.

"In the meantime, the great Red Dragon comes from the seas and is over many of the ports of nations. It has allied with forces it intends to bankrupt and control in the end. This leader expects to be God over all of the Earth."

Me: "Lord, please stop this! I know You do in the end. I know You then take Your seat over all things. However, what of Your great times of miracles, reversals, restorations, repairs, healings and rendering hearts back to You? Please let this be Your time of display. The world has never known Your time of power on display."

"Revive and shake Your churches. Wake them from the dead. Dry bones come back to life. Foundations rebuild themselves. The lost are found. Lord, of all of the times spoken of in Your Word, there are none like these. There are such self-centered, self-indulgent psychotic people everywhere now."

"They are self-entitled selfies with no need of a Savior. This is self-evident and on full display. Please help us. This generation has not seen a world war. So many have never even cracked open a history book. They have let social media, electronics and screens train them. Can anything even be done now?"

Jesus: "Erin, remember that I spoke of what the end would be like?"

Me: "Well, in 2 Timothy 3:2: 'People will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful and unholy.'"

Jesus: "Yes. These are symptoms of a void in their hearts that was founded by evil. It is a root symptom of a greater cause."

Me: "Forgive me, Lord, but did I mishear? I have always heard it as 'it is a root cause of a greater symptom'. I think I may have just misheard You?"

Jesus: "No, you didn't. The root symptom is the heart of evil. The greater cause of evil is to remove all that makes the heart turn to God. What makes a heart bad is that there is no room for good, or Me, God, understand? The prime object for all that fell and were cast down from Heaven, the number is 1/3rd, was to destroy all the good in man and, in turn, defile all their hands touched. This is because they (the fallen) all knew that God had sealed their fate. Their objective was then to create their own method of atonement... to sacrifice all of God's children in the fires of hell so that none would be saved. This was and is their 'greater cause'."

Me: "Oh Lord, please put a stop to them. They are succeeding."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have a great plan. Erin, distress is coming to Jerusalem. It must be so. However, the multitude of foreign foes shall be like small dust and the multitude of the ruthless shall be like passing chaff. In an instant, suddenly, you will be visited by My call. This will be accompanied with thunder, an earthquake, a great noise with whirlwinds, a tempest and the flame of a devouring fire.

"The multitude of all the nations that fight against Jerusalem, the lion of God, and her stronghold and distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision in the night, as when a hungry man dreams and beholds he is eating and he wakes with his hunger not satisfied, or when a thirsty man dreams and beholds he is drinking and wakes faint with his thirst not quenched.

"So shall the multitude of all nations be that fight against Zion. Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind; be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with strong drink; for I will pour out upon you the spirit of deep sleep. I have closed the eyes of the prophets and I have covered the heads of the seers."

Me: "Lord, does Jerusalem get bombed? Why allow this?"

Jesus: "You are only given a small portion of a larger picture. The nations are setting up to divide Jerusalem and are set to drive all the Jewish people away to their death. One evil nation has been plotting to remove Jerusalem completely off of the map and doesn't care about losses of their own because of their greater cause.

"Now, understand this... anyone who comes against Jerusalem shall be as dust blown away as chaff. However, here is the good news... I will build the Temple and there I will take My seat. I will not share it with another temple."

Me: "Oh, so the Dome of the Rock will be removed too so all will be as it once was?"

Jesus: "Even greater."

Me: "Lord, You quoted the first ten verses of Chapter 29 of Isaiah. What of verses 11 to 24?"

Jesus: "Restoration and healing comes for the House of Jacob. Now, you ask what happens for those who are God's children (other than Jacob)."

Me: "The Gentiles, Lord?"

Jesus: "My promises are there (the book of Isaiah). A great and powerful move of My Spirit is coming across the nations and borders. Evil kings and rulers will go into exile. The people of the Earth shall rise up and display awesome deeds. Do not worry about what is occurring now and what is soon to come. All of this must be fulfilled... a Great and Terrible Day of the Lord."

Me: "Lord, I am scared! What about Your Words in Mark 13:19-27:

Mark 13:19-27: "19For in those days there will be such tribulation as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, and never will be. 20And if the Lord had not cut short the days, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21And then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there he is!' do not believe it. 22For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. 23But be on guard; I have told you all things beforehand. 24"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, 25and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. 26And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27And then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven."

"So, Lord, please help! Are things going to get better and then worse? Does everything get destroyed first, then restored, then evil strikes again and You gather in Your Elect?"

Jesus: "My Word and its order should never be confusing. While it is a mystery to you as to the details, it is not to Me. Do not worry about these things that you can do nothing about. Come before Me instead. Bring Me your troubles and I will accept your prayers, your offerings and, in turn, I will heal you and free you from your debts. Now rejoice as this is a great day for you and your house."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. I love You. You have enriched my life and changed me. What was once important is now secondary to a life surrendered to You. I look around at our home You built for us. While it is still the same foundation, the same walls and the same rooms, time has adjusted its appearance.

We have cracks on our concrete floor. The woodwork and various surfaces show the wear of a home lived in daily by a large family. While the structure remains strong, there are battle scars and stories that come with them. Our children have grown up with us and are now young adults. Their rooms evolved through the years. It just seems like yesterday when simple trends and passing fads took up residency on their shelves.

We grow older every day. We change. However, You never change. I am so thankful for this. As for my older son, he has now packed up all of his belongings. All of his shelves are clear and empty. All of his memories are stored away and labeled. I know some will tell me that I am just experiencing empty nesting. Perhaps, but, with my sons' autism, I am their mediator, their instruction manual and their advocate.

However, and more importantly than any of these things, You, Father, are their Savior. The world isn't kind to people with special needs anymore. The world has changed in the last few years. Father, You know that I need to be near where they are so I can help. I am worried about my older son not having me around.

I pray that I have given all of our children the proper tools in this life. I pray that You are pleased that I taught them to worship You in all things. Our children have experienced great signs, wonders and miracles. Still, Your promises have not yet arrived. For those who are young in age, this long wait is too much. This comes on the heels of the three years of delay, in a worldly sense, caused by Covid-19.

In the last year and at various times, we have watched depression and anxiety come and go on every one of our children. We watched their friends pass away in various situations and even a few suicides. Many of their friends married and began new lives. As for where we live, it is remote and not an easy place to be a young adult.

My husband and I encouraged our children to work and save as we didn't have money to supplement their schooling. However, we were able to provide room, board and basic transportation. While my daughter went away for a year out west, she returned when she discovered things were not so great out there alone. She missed family and her local friends.

As for my stepson, he also went out west. He went there to work after finishing forestry school. While there, he encountered harsh conditions in the place he was contracted. While he was out in the field at work one day, his rental home was broken into. All of the valuables were stolen from each of his forestry roommates. They took all of their technology, money, passports and other items. There were many drug addicts in a camp nearby their rental home.

After his contract was up, he came back home to work from here until one day he receives a better offer in a safer place. He might now join my stepdaughter for a season to help her set up at a school. She is moving there because of a boy she plans to marry. While we are supporting her decision, she shocked her closest house friend, my younger son.

They did so much together, such as building projects and playing video games, we asked that she break the news of her plans slowly and with care. Instead of going slowly as we had requested, she did the opposite. While our home is now experiencing less drama due to her absence, my younger son is acting like a death has occurred. We are all trying to help him understand the changes.

My younger son is now physically ill at times. He is not eating or sleeping normally. However, within the last 24 hours, we have begun to see hope in him coming to grips with her departure. My stepdaughter, the youngest of our children, is staying with another family friend until she leaves. There were hurtful words spoken. These words were like spilled water from a cup. These words, like spilled water, can't be reversed.

Oh Father, we need some miracles. Even my daughter is experiencing troubles. A young man in the ministry that she was interested in recently told her that he was 'not uninterested, just busy'. To me, this seems like a nice way for him to say 'no' to her. She has been so sad as more of her friends are now engaged to be married. We now pray that You soon send her the perfect one.

As for all of this, I simply have no answers, just hope in You. Our home is beginning to shrink. We still have no ability to move to Bend, OR. We really have no ability to do much of anything right now. Even so, You have always been faithful and You have never stopped blessing us. Please forgive my sadness here as I do not want to take away from the fact that everything surrounding us is what You have created.

I place my trust in You. We will drive my older son to Boston this coming week. He might never come back. Father, please be with him always. He has rededicated his life back to you. He told me yesterday that life without You is not worth living. Thank You for the gift of my children. Please be my son's advocate, mediator, comforter and friend. I know You will do all of these things as You created him.

As for the rest of our house, please grant us strength as we navigate its 'shrinking state'. Please fill our home with laughter again. Please strengthen those left behind to cope with our vacancies. Thank You for all You do for each one of us here. We know that we could not walk safely in this world without You.

While fall is here, it has been an unusual one so far. This last week has been sunny and cool. There has also been an overcast canopy overhead. It begins with dense fog and dew in the morning. The fog then leads to this filtered sun-filled sky. As for the leaves, they are not changing normally. The leaves are spotty and almost look like they have blight.

While most trees have remained green, only a few have had their leaves dry up. While the changing of the colors began in August, it seems to have been suspended. Very few trees have turned to their fall colors so far. Oh Lord, You seem to be working on something. Please watch over us. Please take us to where You would have us. Please strengthen us. We love You, Father!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I do not leave My people to wander in darkness alone without Me. I am with you day in and day out. Your children are Mine and I am with them also. I am your shelter. I am your cover from rain and storms. I am your place of refuge. I am also your shade and tent of cooling in the noonday sun.

"While you have been struggling with all that surrounds you, did I not tell you that I would change hearts and lead you to the place I have prepared for you? All you do is as I have called you. You are now overwhelmed at the tasks that are before you. You consider interest rates and prices. You consider packing and moving. You wonder about all of the work and the overwhelming projects before you.

"These are too much for you. If I was not with you, not one thing you worry over could be overcome. All of this would be impossible. Now, I want you to understand this... I could have all your debts, all your various tasks and all your worries about your move and the home I built for you... all removed in a single day.

"Yes, I know what you are thinking... but, no, this will not be by your death. Erin, you worrying about all of these things does you no good. You have been instructed to thin out, pack away, give away and ready your home for what I am doing next. You are now wondering why I would have you do all of this now."

Me: "Yes, I am. All of this is so nerve-wracking."

Jesus: "I have a purpose. Can you trust Me a bit longer concerning all of this?"

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I am getting older rapidly. Our arrows in the quiver of Your care are becoming scarce. The thought of all I need to do is too much for me. It is easier to stay put. Without You performing a miracle, I can't even imagine this. Please don't let my life stop here. Lord, You promised to take me out of the wilderness to wide open spaces someday.

"Lord, I want my family and me to be healed and changed. I want my Nest friends to be healed and changed. We have now gone from our beautiful gift of a trip into a very difficult situation here after the storm. I am sorry for my tears. Oh Lord, I am so sorry for being so sad."

Jesus: "Do not worry. Now, is there something else?"

Me: "Yes. Both my husband and I have had nightmares of invading armies across the USA. Millions have invaded the USA. It only takes a..."

Jesus: "A Savior, right? Were you about to say Savior?"

Me: "Yes, of course."

Jesus: "I am God over all things. The Word is My promise. You read My promises daily. There is much to be afraid of here... wild beasts, savage men and foreigners who hate you because of Me."

Me: "Lord, in my dream of 'Seven More Years', is this tribulation or the numbers of my years left here?"

Jesus: "This remains a mystery... for now. Even so, if you look at all the signs and wonders around you, you know you are in due season. It is a rare thing in your day for a storm to come suddenly and without warning. So, it is now in the world that you see the evidence of what I warned you as one day it will come to be and now has come to pass."

Me: "There is such an increase in hate. Lord, I don't want to leave safe for unsafe!"

Jesus: "Erin, hearts have waxed cold. Many hate because the seed of bitterness has opened the door to demons and with them all evil is manifest. Truth is now considered to be lies and lies are now considered to be truth."

Me: "Hmm, it seems easier for us to just stay put."

Jesus: "On the surface, yes. However, there is so much you cannot see where you are. I see. You see only as things are now and guess about the future. I have given you all you need. I am preparing you for the promises I have given you. Allow Me to work. Do as I have instructed you and all will go well.

"Now, you worried like this 11 years ago too (when these dreams first started)! You also worried about moving from the desert to the place where you are in the trees, more than the dreams even. Both were impossible if not for Me. Now, this time for you is no different. Allow me to carry you and your children. I have you. Rejoice, Erin. I love you. Do not worry!"

Dream over.

734 – The Surprise Attack on Israel

Received on Sunday, October 8, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for Your people. Thank You for our family, children, friends and their households. Thank You for Your Word. Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Israel was attacked in the early hours of Saturday, October 7, 2023!

The Israeli Security Cabinet has officially declared war. Israel's enemies have surrounded her. They have breached her border communities to the south. There are reports of brutal rapes, kidnapping and the slaughter of innocent families. There are bodies of slain elderly and children in the streets. The IDF ground offensive has begun against the terrorists.

The leader of Israel's greatest enemy has proclaimed that a 'great ring of fire' will surround Israel. The ring of fire has been declared and entails six fronts of aggression. This is coming. Father, I am so sad about this. I had a dream last night that was about a war event on USA soil. It was so real that I checked the headline news to see if it had actually happened.

Oh Father, won't You please come now! You see all of this. You know and see. You warned us in advance that war was coming to Israel. War is also coming here as well. The USA's feckless response to these attacks on Israel seem to be paving the way for this. Father, please don't punish the people who love You and pray because of the actions of a few.

If the governments are corrupt, not even voted in by the people and even the news is corrupt and full of lies, then shouldn't Your wrath fall only upon the corrupt so that Your righteousness is on full display? While I know troubles come to all of us in this life, please help us. You speak to me while I sleep and confirm these things to me when I wake. How do I speak? What can I write? I had two very vivid dreams last night...

Sub-dream 1 "USA Citizens told to Shelter in Place" begins...

We were staying somewhere in a desert region in southwest USA. The Hoover Dam, a major USA dam, had just been sabotaged. It was the first of several small attacks against various utilities across the USA. There was a massive Army Corp of engineers who were called to the area to repair it. While working there as laborers, they were immediately called to a major USA city in the east.

These young men were a mighty force and there were thousands of them. They were called out and armed. Equipment accompanied them. As they travelled through each town, the people cheered for them. With each town they came to, their numbers grew. Farmers, ranchers, truckers and laborers put down the tools of their trade and took up fighting weapons to join them to defend the country. There were reports of insurgent activity at various places.

The young men were asked to join the UN peacekeepers instead and surrender their weapons. These thousands of young men then refused this request. A call was then made. The new world army was called by their phone alerts to arm and invade farming communities and small towns. (What just happened in Israel in this sneak attack is what is coming to the USA – targeting soft targets.)

Citizens of the USA were then called to shelter in place in their homes and await further instructions. It was the shelter in place command that made everything easier for the enemy attacks. This new world army was not the Chinese or the Russians. The USA then became so wrapped up in trouble that no one knew what had just happened in Jerusalem – it was catastrophic!

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up from my dream sick to my stomach. I went back to sleep.

Sub-dream 2 “Feeding the Hummingbirds for 6 More Weeks” begins...

It was late fall. Even though I had not seen a hummingbird since the first week in September, I had not yet taken my hummingbird feeder down. As I was cleaning the seed trays, I kept hearing humming. Even though I kept seeing a hummingbird out of the corner of my eye, it quickly disappeared when I turned toward it.

I knew this hummingbird shouldn't be here. It had 'six weeks' before the temperature dropped to freezing. I am not sure why I kept saying 'six weeks'. I decided that I would keep the feeder up for six more weeks just in case. I then went inside and looked directly at the feeder at my kitchen sink. The leaves were almost off the trees from the wind.

As I looked out, a bright light, like the light of the sun, appeared. However, I could not look at it. Then right in front of it, a moon came. However, it was low in the sky and there, in front of both of them, was a hummingbird in a black silhouette against the light. It looked frozen. Then suddenly the light of the sun burst open and I could see the hummingbird in full iridescent colors.

It then looked at me while it took a drink of nectar from the feeder. It stared at me and then it was gone. I ran back outside and looked for the sun and the moon. However, both were hidden by cloud cover. I then looked down at my feet. My feet were bare. My feet and hands had changed. I was changed. I yelled, "Thank You, Lord!", at the top of my lungs. I woke up mumbling!

Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, You are a mystery. This has been a dark last three days. I have cried more than I have cried since my mom passed. This day will also be a difficult one. Please help us all!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Just remember who I am. I am the God who loves you. I am the God who is over all things. I see it all. The evil plots in secret against the innocent. The hearts of those who have been raised up in hate and darkness do not know Me. Their mothers hate the children of the righteous more than they love their own sons and daughters they gave birth to.

"Their hate is based on following a false religion birthed in jealousy and defiance. The founder of their religion was rejected by the Jewish leaders hundreds of years ago. Their goals are lofty and they are being used to destroy the crown jewel of God, Jerusalem, by force, erasing the children of God. Since they also know that the nation who is also dedicated to Me stands with Israel, they plan to strike fear in the hearts of the people.

"Now, there was a proposal of peace by a prince just days before. Even though these were 'just declarations', they have a greater plan in place and it is this... 'There can only be peace when the nation of Israel is removed and the USA is subject to the Arab Nations.' While they will then declare peace and safety, I will turn upon them with total destruction instead. What was planned in darkness will come back upon them suddenly."

Me: "Lord, is this around our Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023)? Is this the time of troubles for the USA?"

Jesus: "Well, this is the plan of the enemy... while families are shuttered inside their homes, troubles come door to door. The leaders of the USA have invited the enemy in. What is happening to Israel is just the beginning of a greater plan of evil already in the works."

Me: "Lord, can You stop all of this? You are greater than any of their evil plots."

Jesus: "You must understand that you see very little of the great plans of the wicked. You are sheltered from this because very little is told through the news. You learn of events as I show them to you. I do this because you become fearful when you see these things come into being. It is not good for your heart to be so troubled. I have therefore told you that you are Mine.

"I have you. I have your children. I have said your house is Mine and I have it. Erin, do you not then trust Me to keep it? Erin, why worry about a war you did not start and cannot end? Do you not trust that I am the only God over all of it? Do you not trust that I am the God that can end all wars? I am. If you can do nothing, then pray. Prayer activates armies. Prayer gives you peace if you ask for it.

"This is why I say, 'Believe that you have received what you have asked for because I am God over all things.' You then say, 'Should I stop my daily activities and save energy and money for the coming days ahead?' Why would I require this of you? Do you not trust that the God over you in all things can provide for your every need?"

"Does your worrying even add a single hour to your life? Erin, do not worry about tomorrow as I have and will continue to provide for your needs. What you are sowing here into My Kingdom will be visible here as it is in Heaven. Stay with Me. I know things don't appear good, especially when bad reports come."

Me: "I love You, Lord. Please watch over all of us. Please watch over Israel and those of us who have been greatly deceived by those in government."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. Remember that I allowed these corruptions to take place. These were put in place before the fall of the towers. The Ten Kings plotted to take down the Great Beast, which really means nations under God. The war on Climate Change is really a direct declaration of war on God's Wrath.

"When they say, 'No one is above the law!', they are really saying that no one is above the evil leader who attacked and turned on the citizens of the USA and set to destroy all that has been dedicated to Me and also God's land, Israel (where this refers to a former president still in the news).

"When they declare someone illegitimate, they declare the thing they are. They accuse you of the very thing they are doing. There have been so many waves of lies that the people believe them after a while. There is a government in full operation not voted in by the people or for the people. This government is tied to pure evil."

Me: "Lord, please rise up and show your power and love to those who still love You. There are many."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a great plan. I see what is being done to the dead in the streets. The dead are being raped so that their defilement is on full display. Those who do this to a corpse, well this will turn back upon them and this evil will follow them to the depths of Sheol. Once there, they will be subject to eternal torment over and over without end."

"Now, you see an increase in evil as many who have harbored in their hearts 'bitterness' have opened the prime gateway to all the other bad fruits in this due season. Their demons have increased. Do not entertain these. Pray instead. I will keep them far from you. The plots of the wicked are the means by which I will allow their punishment."

"The wicked plot against the righteous of God. As they rain down evil upon the innocent, I will turn and make their lands desolate. I will dry up their rivers and make their water bitter to taste. As for My Bride, she will never thirst nor will she hunger. I will provide for her in the midst of this."

"Now, you will see miracles the likes you never imagined. Your sorrow will turn to dancing. Those who plot evil will be in great fear at the sight of just one of you. Now rejoice! Your prayers avail much! I am with you!"

Dream over.

735 – Woe to God’s Enemies...

The Darkness Comes

Communion

Dear Father,

Bless You, Father, my God in Heaven and upon the Earth! You are above all else in power and glory; yesterday, today and tomorrow. You give dreams and visions. You humble the proud and You obliterate all that is against You. We only exist at Your pleasure. You owe us nothing. You do not exist for our pleasure. You do not serve us. Every breath we take is because You allow it.

We fail You, Father, as we are a sinning people. We deserve all that comes to us. However, for the sake of those who love You, for the children of the slain and the children of those about to be slain, consider and remember us. Remember Your promises to Your people. Have mercy on us as evil gains control as a stronghold over us all.

Where are we to run that we can’t be found? Where can we hide from these enemies? We are not at the mercy of our pursuer, but only at Your mercy. We have displeased You as a people. Please remember us as children before the worldly consumes us. Have mercy on Israel. Turn back this evil done unto them.

Hear and bend Your ear to the slain in Your Courts who wail and cry out for justice day and night. Don’t hand Your children over to godless leaders. Father, please! Please do this for all of Your people here. You have turned against us because we have failed to fully recognize Your great power. The nations are now serving the gods of Baal.

Amos 3:3-11: 3 "Do two walk together, unless they have agreed to meet? 4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from his den, if he has taken nothing? 5 Does a bird fall in a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing? 6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does disaster come to a city, unless the Lord has done it? 7 For the Lord God (You, our Father) does nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken; who can but prophesy?" 9 Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see the great tumults within her, and the oppressed in her midst. 10 They do not know how to do right," declares the Lord, "Those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds." 11 Therefore thus says the Lord God: "An adversary shall surround the land and bring down your defenses from you, and your strongholds shall be plundered."

Father, You are God over all things! Nothing is beyond You. We are prey to our enemies, so we pray on our knees to You for You to rescue us. I had a very intense and vivid dream last night that really shook me to the core of my being/

Sub-dream 1 "Two Angels on a Hill and One over the Sea"

All I could see (or couldn't see) was absolute darkness. I could not see a single star up in the heavens. I could not tell if it was day or night. I then heard an ominous sound. I heard something like a belltower or a lighthouse. The light was so faint that I could not see it. I then put my hand out with my palm facing up. I felt something like powder. I shuddered when I realized that this was ash.

I then looked to the north and away from the waters. I saw the silhouette of God's Mountain. As the bell of a distant tower rang out, I looked up. There were two angels on a hill holding lanterns. One was to my left and the other to my right. I then saw a mighty angel over them, but nearer to the sea. This mighty angel hovered over the waters. I then heard a voice that terrified me.

The Voice of God: "Kneel! You are on Holy Ground." I immediately fell to my knees. "I am God over all things. I do not share My Throne with another. I am jealous for My land. Write this plainly."

Note: It soon became clear to me why God wanted me to write this plainly. A lot of references and terms are ones that I am completely unfamiliar with.

Angel to my left: "The Day of the Lord's Vengeance is near. The Great Day of the Lord is near and fastly approaching. The sound of the Day of the Lord is bitter. Even the mighty men cries aloud there."

Angel to my right: "A day of wrath is that day. A day of distress and anguish. A day of ruin and devastation. A day of darkness and gloom. A day of thick clouds and thick darkness."

Angel to my left: "A day of the trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and the lofty battlements."

All the while, the mighty angel over the sea and surrounding area continued to hover ominously. A powerful voice again rang out.

The Voice of God: "I will bring great distress and travail upon mankind so they shall walk like the blind because they have sinned against Me. Their blood shall be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on this day. In the fire of My jealousy, all the Earth shall be consumed. For a full and sudden end – all the inhabitants of the Earth."

Angel over the sea: "Before this day of darkness, the day of the anger of the Lord, seek the Lord. All you humble of the land, whose ways are upright and obey His commands, seek righteousness and seek humility. For those who seek and obey the Lord, perhaps He will then have mercy on this day of anger and you will be hidden."

Angel to the left: "Gaza shall be deserted and Ashkelon shall become a desolation. Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted."

Angel over the sea: "Woe to you, inhabitants of the nation of Chereites. The Word of the Lord is against you, oh Canaan, land of the Philistines. The seacoast shall become the possession of Judah."

The Voice of God: "I am angry. This is the season of 4. For the 3 transgressions of Damascus and for 4, I will not revoke punishment. They have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron. So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael and devour the strongholds."

Me: I spoke as I trembled and I trembled as I spoke. "Oh Father, who is like You. My very life is like dust. I am no one. I ask You now for permission to speak even though I don't deserve it." I was still trembling. "Clearly Your prophets of old knew of this that has come upon us. Surely it is now and soon to be. Still, Father.. please do not forget Judah, Jerusalem and Your people who love You. Please have mercy on us!"

The Voice of God: "Erin, I do not forget. Foreigners have invaded My land. They have done this, not by their own power, but by Mine. This was allowed so that these things would be a measure to those who look upon the land and its people. How many will cry out to God and beg for mercy? How many will beg for justice against the enemies of My people.

"Who will fight for her cause and stand for what is just? Who looks upon the atrocities against My Holy Land and rejoices for its destruction? What nation proclaims to help and stand, yet does nothing? I will promise that any nation who does not look upon what they see with deep sorrow, I will come against that nation with a worse fate. Their leaders will be led away with hooks in their mouths.

"I will humble Edom. Your mighty men will be dismayed, every mighty man slaughtered. Because of your violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you and you shall be cut off forever. You stood stagnant and ineffective as foreigners entered the gates, stole the wealth of your brother and cast lots for Jerusalem. You were one of them. Now My warning is this:

- Do not gloat over the day of your brother's troubles.
- Do not rejoice over the ruin of the people of Judah.
- Do not boast in the day of their distress.
- Do not enter the gate of My people in the day of their calamity and loot their wealth.
- Do not gloat over his disaster.
- Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off the fugitives.
- Do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress."

Me: "Father, who is Edom?"

God: "You do not know? Woe to Edom. Foreigners will ravage your cities and destroy all you have built. What you have done to My people, it will be done unto you. Woe to Edom."

I then heard the bell tower strike. It was even louder than before. I saw the angels moving their lanterns back and forth. They called out the woes over the nations surrounding Israel. It was a loud Judgment Call. I woke up suddenly when something seemed to hit me hard from my left in the dream.

Sub-dream 1 over.

This made me wake up suddenly. I quickly went to my chair and prayed. Father, these were woes I have read about before. These are in Hosea, Obadiah, Amos, Joel, Micah, Isaiah and Jeremiah. Lord, please help me to understand all of this!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry or be afraid. I am God over all things. Now, these things must come to pass and are a warning to the nations surrounding Israel. While these nations claim to know and serve Me, they know nothing of Me and instead serve the gods of this world. These are void of God in all of their actions.

"You now ask, 'Why has this been allowed?' Simple. This is so the Words of the prophets are fulfilled. You then ask, 'But, Lord, we don't know these enemies today. These are ancient enemies.'" No. These are still active today and still originate from the same roots of evil from the beginning. While a name of a nation could be the same or it could be different, evil is the same and does not change. Make no mistake about this.

"Now, this dream humbled you. This is because you understand that, in this dream, something horrible had just occurred and you could not see except for what God allowed you to. You stood before the Mountain of God at the base. This Mountain is near God's Holy City and on His land. Therefore, anything that attempts to destroy God's possession will in turn be destroyed. It is simple.

"Now, in the guise of peace, Israel, God's land, has been broken off like a piece of bread. The enemy sees it is good and blessed by God. The enemy then demands just a piece of the bread and then more and more and more. Even though they eat more of the bread, they are still left hungry. There, in the midst of Israel, are over two million of her enemies.

Note: According to Israel's Central Bureau of Statistics, the Arab-Israeli population in 2023 was 2.1 million, representing 21 percent of the country's population. The majority of these citizens identify themselves as Arab or Palestinian by nationality and as Israeli by citizenship.

"While they seem to live in peace with them, they do not know Me. They will turn upon them and have begun their quest to trample Jerusalem underfoot. They will rape the women, the children and even the dead. They will take them into captivity for ransom in exchange for prisoners.

"All of this is evil. My land has been defiled and trampled. Prophets, where are you? In the beginning was the Word and the Word was God and God is the Word. Who consults God and proclaims it?"

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sad. You are so wonderful. If they only knew how wonderful You are, they would turn to you... all of them."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, maybe some. Now, this is the Wrath that come upon the nations surrounding God's land. I have a Great Plan... a Great One. While it is a Plan that has been written in several books, few understand it. However, it comes. My Day comes!"

Me: "Is this Your Mighty Army, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes. I am jealous for My land and I will turn and have mercy and bless the people. Now, Erin, you wrote exactly as instructed. Those with eyes to see and given knowledge from on High will know and understand all of what I instruct. I am with you always. Do not be afraid. You are loved."

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day to write on these pages! Thank You for another night of dreaming. Thank You for Your clear voice. Thank You for all of this time with You. You are such a gift to me, Father. You are my treasure, yet You call me a jewel in Your crown.

Please have mercy on Your children.

Protect Israel. Protect the USA. Protect the nations who still stand on the side of righteousness. The hearts of Your children are greater than anything on this Earth. You are greater than any gold, diamonds, rubies or silver. You are greater than any perfect pearl. Nothing can compare to the heart of God in Your children.

If I have learned one thing in this life about the enemy is that, when they plot evil or even propose it, even if shocking, we are not to dismiss this. They are actually giving you their plans for destruction in advance and take great pleasure in doing so. Don't believe it when they then pretend to reverse course and say, 'I didn't really mean that' or 'It is your fault for making me say these things.'

Well, here is truth... unless this enemy has repented on his knees for these evil declarations and completely humbles himself before God, then goes to their offended brother or sister to apologize and make things right... unless this happens... make no mistake... this is your enemy and he has hate and bitterness in his heart. God has no use for this kind of heart.

This kind of heart is cold and made of stone. This heart has no ability for God to shape it as clay. This kind of heart will crumble as dust. Only the hand of God Himself can reverse and revive such a heart.

Esau is the enemy of Jacob. Esau and his sons believed Jacob and his sons to be illegitimate, receiving no rights to the land of his father. Esau was a hunter and had many sons. They all lived by the sword.

Genesis 27:39-42: 39 His father Isaac answered him, "Your dwelling will be away from the earth's richness, away from the dew of heaven above. 40 You will live by the sword and you will serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck." 41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob." 42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is planning to avenge himself by killing you."

This is one of the main roots of this war against Israel. From this there is hate, bitterness, jealousy and a call to wipe all of Israel off the face of the Earth. The plots and the evil games still continue to this day. This is not just against Israel, but also the USA, her greatest ally. 45% of Jews live in Israel, 40% in the USA and 15% in all other countries combined. Father, please protect Your people. I had a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Gathering Flowers for the Banquet" begins...

There were two long tables made of wood. They were whitewashed over pine or a wood grain like pine. It looked like fresh paint. The tables were not together to make one long table. Instead, only one corner touched, forming a V position. The tables were both set for twelve. Instead of using individual chairs, long benches were used.

These long benches were colored white and blue in a large, checkered gingham pattern. Linen cushions were built onto the tops of these benches. Over each table were large tree canopies from two ancient trees. The setting was beautiful. There was a Banquet Host who stood between the tables in the center of the V shape. He directed the workers to prepare for His guests.

The Banquet Host then stood in the V between the two tables and took up a large piece of bread. He blessed the bread and held it out in front of Him. He broke the bread into two halves. One half was for one of the tables and the other half was for the other table. A worker brought the Host a pitcher of wine and the Host poured Himself a cup. He tasted it and nodded His approval. He looked up to Heaven and said a blessing to those who will attend. The sun was behind Him on the mountains and the light shone upon the valley.

Suddenly, there were so many children running around the tables and under the trees. They laughed and chased each other. As they played, they took care not to harm any of the tables. While the Host of the banquet should have been irritated by the children interrupting the preparations, He instead was delighted in this. He addressed the playing children...

Banquet Host: "Go to the fields of flowers in the valley. Gather up the most beautiful flowers you can find. Once you have gathered the flowers, bring them back to Me. Our guests are soon to arrive."

The children were excited to do this. The children, which included little toddlers and young children, all ran to the flower fields. It was the most wonderful sight. I heard a Voice call out to me...

Voice: "Erin, wake up! Erin, let the reader understand! Let the reader understand!"

Sub-dream 1 over.

Oh Lord, please help me. You called me to my Cephher Bible, 1 Maccabees, Chapter 1. Just as I was reading, I heard a thud against the window behind my head. A grey squirrel was there even though it was high up. He was clinging to my window screen. While the squirrel then tried to jump on a branch, it lost its grip and fell to the ground.

I then went back and read this first chapter. Wow, some of this is happening right now. As I was in my chair, I looked outside. I then saw six turkeys grazing in the grass on a hilly slope area in our yard. As I looked out, a vision took its place...

Sub-dream / vision 2 "Jerusalem goes black" begins...

I saw armies surrounding Israel. I saw a type of general yell out, 'For the sake of God and from the hills to the sea, Zion will be no more!' It was in a foreign language. Another said, 'God brought them in one place so we could kill them like cattle.' Then something swift and black fell upon Jerusalem. While the inhabitants ran, they could not escape what swept down over the city. I then saw a young girl running frantically up a steep hill. She was terrified.

Sub-dream / vision 2 over.

A set of Scriptures then immediately came to mind (all similar, but with some interesting differences)...

Mark 13:14-16: 14 "When you see 'the abomination that causes desolation' standing where it does not belong — let the reader understand — then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15 Let no one on the housetop go down or enter the house to take anything out. 16 Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak.

Matthew 24:15-18: 15 "So when you see standing in the holy place 'the abomination that causes desolation,' spoken of through the prophet Daniel — let the reader understand — 16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17 Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house. 18 Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak.

Luke 21:20-21: 20" When you see Jerusalem being surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country not enter the city.

Father, the USA is next. Please have mercy on Your people. Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 23, 2023, seems to be significant. Kislev 15, Tuesday, November 28, 2023, does too. I can't seem to shake this. While I don't recall all the details, I remember some of a dream I had a few years ago...

Sub-dream 3 "A Thanksgiving Slaughter" begins...

I saw children playing in a schoolyard in the USA. Extremists from the Middle East then swooped in and slaughtered all of them. This was a vision for Thanksgiving.

Sub-dream 3 over.

The enemy is here within our own gates. People are home gathered with family during this season, especially on major holidays such as Christmas and Thanksgiving. Only Covid lockdowns have a similar thing happen. What is happening to Israel is coming to us. Our own weapons will be used against us.

Me: "Oh Father, only You can reverse this! You can! Does our enemy hate us more than You love us? Oh Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not be afraid as you are Mine. Now, there are several signs I have sent you that point to various events unfolding now and in the near days to come. By My Words, I told you that many false prophets would arise and proclaim the way to salvation is this or that and yet one religion is opposing all that is good.

"This religion proclaims evil, death and destruction to be good. They proclaim that to die for their reward is even holy in nature. Now there are wars and rumors of wars soon to rise up even more. Then there are famines and earthquakes. There are people who hunger now.

"Many earthquakes are shaking the nations even as you write. Then there are the persecutions of the children of God in death, including public displays of torture and defilement. They even burn them alive. Not even animals are burned alive! Then there is the great turning away from all that is holy in favor of sin and forgetting who I am."

Me: "Lord, people became greatly discouraged during the Great Reset that shut people in their homes. The government shut the door on worship."

Jesus: "Well, it was the great restructuring of eliminating God and the covenant promise to 'love God with all your heart, soul and strength and to love your neighbor as yourself'. This adulterous generation left Me at the Altar."

Me: "Then the enemy was claiming a great victory over Your people in the battle."

Jesus: "Erin, don't you understand? Look at what happened. Look at what was set in motion. While people were shut in, the leaders in various cities made their hatred known. Their position in support of division was made public. The enemy tried to start a massive war by testing this first in a few cities and schools. Nation against nation is a race and culture war.

"The enemy then recruited an army of the lawless to ravage and destroy the peaceful nation and prepare it for what is a greater plan. Remember that you know the enemy's plans from what he declares from his mouth. His actions then follow... they always do. They devised a scheme to take down America and flood it with foreigners.

"The same is true for Israel. This was funded by Israel's greatest and wealthiest enemy. Erin, please understand... evil is here. The enemy has moved through the gates and, when all seems peaceful, then sudden destruction comes.

"Now you say 'stop this', but did I not tell you all of this is about the heart. Anyone who hunts Israel like they are dogs and those who sit back and allow it and are not horrified at this... well, I will turn My back on them. This also includes those who call themselves children of God and Christians and then look upon Israel and make them into heathens.

"This is why I say bless the Jewish people and you will be blessed. There is a great divide as right now Israel is a measure for the world. This is My possession. I am jealous for My people and the land that is Mine. For whoever touches you touches the apple of My eye (Zechariah 2:8), understand?

"Now, the enemy has declared that, in two days, their wrath will fall on Israel. They have called on all nations who support evil to strike out against all those in support of Israel. I will send the same sign that was sent in 2012.”

Me: “Lord, are You referring to the ring of fire eclipse this weekend? A ring of fire eclipse also occurred on Sunday, May 20, 2012 to Monday, May 21, 2012. A ring of fire eclipse is one of the rarest of the various eclipses. Sunday, May 20, 2012 was Iyar 28. Iyar 28 is the Hebrew date for the liberation of Jerusalem in 1967 in the Six Day War, now referred to as Jerusalem Day. As for Monday, May 21, 2012, this was the 44th day of the Omer count. As for the ring of fire eclipse this weekend, this occurs on Saturday, October 14, 2023?”

Jesus: “Erin, these are warning signs to the people. However, they are for those with wisdom to turn to God. I promise you that I love you, I am with you and nothing shall prevail against you. The events that come now are for a greater purpose under Heaven. It is the season of the sickle, a time of reaping.”

Me: “Lord, what about the Great Harvest? What about the signs of Your miracles and love? How could death and destruction possibly be a sign of You?”

Jesus: “Oh Erin, remember that God is within her and she will not fall. Remember that God will help her at the break of day. All that I have promised you is soon to come to pass. You will have great joy. However, before that is My Great Reset, the darkness before the dawn breaks! Even so, do not worry. What the enemy has planned will be turned back upon them. Great will be their horror and travail.

“Now, this will be humbling. I am God and I am over all things. I am the Lord and God of all flesh. Is anything too hard for Me (Jeremiah 32:27)?”

Me: “Nothing is, Lord. You can reverse the sun. You can bring an eclipse when none is scheduled. You can tear down the Temple and build it back even better in three days. Death cannot defeat You.”

Jesus: “Now pray! Do not worry! I have you!”

Dream over.

737 – Sweeping Clean the Unclean Lands

Received on Thursday, October 12, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day, another dream! You are Holy, Father. So many of our generation are an adulterous people who reared their children to turn to idols, not to You. So many were too afraid to take a stand on Your Solid Rock of Truth. Society then tried to cover up their guilt by changing laws, government, schools and other governing bodies to get rid of You.

It is now hateful not to accept these common evil practices. These practices are taught to our children from so many sources. Father, we pray that all of our children turn back to You fully and recognize Your sovereignty. There is so much opposition bred by the enemy in our homes.

Oh Father, please have mercy on us in the coming days. Please turn children back to their parents and parents back to their children. Most importantly, please turn us all to You. Turn us back to You. Have mercy on all of us.

My dream last night was vivid and sobering...

Sub-dream 1 “Sweeping Clean the Unclean Lands” begins...

I awoke in a foreign land, a place that I didn't recognize. It was at dawn. There was a wasteland as far as my eyes could see. I then heard two distinct sounds...

- One sounded like a broom sweeping, a sound that requires no further description.
- The other sounded like a tile floor being scraped off of concrete. This is often done using a heavy tool called a floor chipper.

As I could only hear these sounds, I decided to go towards it to see if I could have a look. Just as I started to walk towards the sounds, dawn began to break. There were heaping piles of ash in organized groupings. I then saw the source of the sounds.

There were two large angels. The first angel had a giant broom. The second angel had a chipper and was peeling up tile mosaics. I went up to them to talk...

Me: "Hi! What are you doing? Where are we?"

While they both glanced at me, they promptly went back to their tasks. I then heard a noise behind me. I turned to look and there was an angel with a massive blower. While hard to describe this blower, the best I can think of is that it looked like an incredibly powerful super high-tech leaf blower or vacuum.

Angel 1 (with the blower): "You will need to stay clear of this area until this job is finished. It is unclean."

Me: "Where is this? What are they doing?"

Angel 1: "Preparing the lands. We are removing all iniquity for the coming of the Lord."

Me: "What is the chipper doing?"

Angel 1: "Removing graven images and sanctifying the ground. This is unholy dirt and these relics are like photographs of a bitter people who worship the gods behind them."

I then addressed the angel with the broom...

Me: "What are you doing?"

Angel 2 (with the broom): "I carry with me the broom of destruction of the Lord, our God. While this was once a great city, it has now been laid to waste. This is the place where the remnants of evil altars, graven images and molten relics have been made dust. There are no graves to spread the dust upon as all of Israel's enemies and their images are as dust."

Angel 1 (with the blower): "For the Lord God has diminished them to fine dust, the finest of the Earth. He crushed them as mire and scattered their remnants across the seas."

I then saw the angel suck the dust up. Other angels then came to carry the dust away. They scattered the dust away from this land.

Me: "What place is this?"

Angel 1: "You know this place. This is what is left of the great armies who came against Israel. We have much to do to prepare for the great multitudes."

The sun rose over a distant mountain range.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up just as the sun in my dream rose. I couldn't go back to sleep, so I got up and started to pray.

Me: "Father, grant me wisdom to write all You instruct me. Have mercy on Your people. Save us from the evil that is here and soon to be on full display. There is nothing we can do to stop what is in motion."

I then found a Scripture:

Isaiah 14:21-23: 21 Prepare slaughter for his sons because of the guilt of their fathers, lest they rise and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities. 22" I will rise up against them," declares the Lord of hosts, "and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, descendants and posterity," declares the Lord. 23 "And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," declares the Lord of hosts.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Now, you are wondering about the broom from the broom tree."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Is this a juniper tree?"

Jesus: "Please understand what is to come. Erin, Elijah sat under a broom tree and asked of Me, for God, to take his life up. He had just displayed awesome deeds. I was there when he called down fire. I worked through him and the power of God shown upon him. However, he then realized what had just occurred and knew that he was now set apart and alone and now had a treacherous enemy.

"He then fled to avoid Jezebel's wrath. He then considered resting under the shade of the broom tree. Consider the broom bush. It is a Chosen Bush. Elijah could see into the realm of the enemy and knew he could not do anything without God. He then went to the shade of the Bush of God. This is the Bush that burns hot and sustains its heat."

Me: "Is this Bush the same Burning Bush as used for Moses and Abraham?"

Jesus: "Yes. Now, understand this... why did Elijah have fear?"

Me: "Because Jezebel called for his death."

Jesus: "Yes. However, what then discouraged Elijah?"

Me: "I am not sure."

Jesus: "Elijah had both fear and faith. He had faith in the awesome powers of God through him as he was given authority to display these deeds. However, he also had fear as he saw what the enemy was capable of. Behind every graven image, every evil altar, is the host of these images... evil spirits.

"These evil spirits are capable of displaying powers also. This is why people that are easily led fall into their lies and deceptions and worship the images, even sacrificing their children and lives to this false belief. Elijah was alone and fled. He soon found himself surrendering to God. The shade of the Broom Tree was his rest. He was fed and strengthened there. I met him there.

"Now, the broom in your dream... this broom signifies My sweeping destruction and judgment over the area. This includes evil kings, evil leaders and evil practices – all against the children of God.

"Erin, I am here in your midst. My Voice is in you. Even so, you still have fear. While you have great faith, you also have great fear. Your faith and fear are sometimes equal."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry that I do this at times. I have seen what I believe is coming and I am terrified. I hear Your Voice. I love You and serve You. We went to worship service last night and the leaders there prayed from a position of not ever knowing war firsthand. In turn, I prayed that they understand that their enemy is here and that it is only by Your grace that they are held away by You for an appointed time.

"Yes, I am afraid for the innocent and unsuspecting people who drive to Starbucks for their pumpkin spice lattes and their shopping excursions. They drive their school-age children to basketball and hockey practices not knowing what is soon to come, if not almost here now. Oh Lord, they have no idea what is coming. Lord, this is now coming to those nations who allowed the enemies in. These enemies have invaded pretty well all of the lands, with possibly the exceptions of China and Russia.

"So, here we are. I am sitting here in my comfortable devotional chair overlooking a beautiful maple tree with leaves like flames of fire. Please bring those who need a Burning Bush moment with You to Your Mountain. Grant us supernatural strength to endure all we will see. Even more so, grant us each a double portion of Your signs, wonders and miracles. Please fill our vessels, Lord. Please make us like branches of Your Broom Tree!"

Jesus: "Then I will strengthen you! I will grant you a double portion of faith. Your fear will soon be removed. Elijah fled to the wilderness in a day and came to rest. He rested another day and an angel fed him and he drank. He then rested another day and an angel told him, 'Arise and eat, for the journey is long!' That food and drink sustained him for forty days and forty nights to the Mountain of God. So, then what happened?"

I went to 1 Kings 19:9-18. I then summarized what I found there which was illuminated to me, knowing, of course, that Jesus knew every detail.

Me: "Elijah went to the cave and brought his concerns to God. You then instructed him to go out and stand on the mount before You. You then passed by and three great events came in a specific order..."

- A great and strong wind tore the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord, but You, Lord, were not in the wind.
- After the wind was a great earthquake, but You were not in the earthquake.
- After the earthquake was a fire, but You were not in the fire.

"It was only after the last event, the fire, that You then spoke in a whisper."

Jesus: "So, what have you discovered?"

Me: "A great wind, an earthquake followed by fire. Lord, are You in a whisper and not in any of these other scary events?"

Jesus: "I am over all events. However, My Voice is to those whom I call, those whom I am with. No enemy can hear Me as I speak in you as a whisper. Now, I have given you all of this so you would have comfort. You are not alone. I am God over all things. No enemy can contain God. Every threat the enemy declares is about to come back upon them.

"Even the 'puppet-king' of your land will fall as his master is exposed. His master is the one pulling all the strings and he will be exposed. Even though all of Israel's enemies will come against her, I have a great broom in which to sweep the area and rid it of this evil. Now, trust not in your chariots and trust not in your horses. You are to instead trust in God alone. I am with you and My judgment will soon be on full display."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for Your Great Love in the midst of the hate in this world. I am so sad at the record number of lies that have surfaced ever since the attack in Israel eight days ago.

When my husband and I travelled recently, we did not tell anyone where we were going other than our children and they had no contact with anyone out west. On our final day enroute to the Portland OR airport, we stopped to say hello to one of my friends who runs a ministry. We had contact with only two people and no one surrounding that office knew who we were. Meanwhile, I was just glad to see my old friend. We embraced and cried. It had been many years.

Last night, my older son played ignorant when questioned by my ex-husband's family. He told us about this last night. While I laughed it off, it still alarmed me personally. This family has vilified me out west. Even strong Christians never thought to pick up a phone and call me to check if these rumors are true.

They purposely didn't look at both sides nor did they judge by the fruits they saw. They instead believed them and sided with those who somehow benefited them the most. They favored those who lived in proximity with them. They favored those who they saw on a regular basis. It is easy to turn on those who have no social media presence or whose case makes their story too difficult to defend.

Inactions and silence are still a big part of support for a smear campaign. Well, for these, God's Light shines onto the exact location of their position. What were all these people told to make them turn to believe harmful lies spoken about me and about my children? I was in great pain last night. Does my enemy own the Pacific NW? Am I no longer allowed to dwell there?

After years of us being hammered in Bend OR and the Tri-Cities WA, You extracted me and all three of my children to move out east. My kids were not kidnapped. The agreement stated that my ex had to pay no child support of any kind in exchange for their release. While access, visitation, phone calls and regular vacations were agreed to, the vacations had to be paid for by him.

We signed and agreed and had it notarized. Attorneys and judges agreed to the terms and conditions. While they agreed, they were not happy that there was no financial support from my ex for the kids. The enemy then banked on my failure or hopefully my death. This didn't happen and, in turn, my children prospered here with me.

Every trip my kids took to visit these people was focused by them on making their case against me. They wanted their cause to be justified. This backfired. The children instead returned with great disappointment of the evil behavior of this family towards me. My daughter summarized their behavior succinctly.

Daughter: "Mom, they hate you so much that they can't just enjoy their time with us. They make it about interrogation and they then try to brainwash us. I think they hate all of us!"

The years went by and they showed their lack of love by their actions and inactions. We continue to pray for our enemies because hate causes spiritual decline and eventually can lead to spiritual death. I prayed before I went to bed last night...

Father, we are watching a great rise in evil all over the world. Just seven days after the enemy struck out against Israel, the world is beginning to sympathize with their enemies. These enemies proclaim that Israel must be wiped off the face of the Earth. I thought, in my instance, that eventually time would heal and old battles would be met with peace.

Oh Father, I hoped and prayed for peace and a truce. However, hate is like a flame with embers that are never extinguished. These embers reignite a flame into a great fire. Hate is an all-consuming fire. Father, I am exhausted here. I pray for Israel. I pray for all of us. Protect us from all of those who seek our lives. There is more than I can imagine.

I had an unpleasant dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Drafted into War" begins...

All of my children, and even my husband, were called up to fight in a war. They were drafted and had no choice. I was alone there now. Since there was no information available, I went about my days preparing for bad news. I cried out to God day and night for all of them to return home safely one day.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up heavy and sad. I went to pray.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Are you surprised by all you see?"

Me: "No, not really. I am just sad to have so many people hate me with a hatred so beyond normal. The same is true for the people of Israel, the Jewish people. There is such hatred. They are calling for their annihilation off the face of the Earth. It is so ridiculous."

Jesus: "It is by a man's actions in this world against God and His children that determines his eternal home. Will it be eternity with Me or a thousand elsewhere? Who is more grateful... a man saved from the fire or the man who runs into it?"

Me: "The one who is spared from the fire."

Jesus: "Now, what does it mean to be a people chosen of God?"

Me: "It means we are set apart."

Jesus: "Yes. It is a royal priesthood. This means that, when you are set apart, you must keep God's commands. You must pray for those who persecute you for My sake. This does not mean you pray for the punishment and afflictions to increase and that God would prosper the works of evil against you. No! You are praying for the person that comes against you that, through their afflictions, they will turn away from their evil. You are to pray that they turn and be healed of hate so that they might be saved from the great hour of judgment soon to come.

"Now, I stirred this up in you as a reminder. Unless a person comes to you and confesses what they have done to hurt you and asks for forgiveness, then their course of evil and hate continues. It does not stop. The spirit of evil, jealousy, rage and hate still burns within them.

"You are witnessing the plans of the wicked against the children of God now coming against the people of Israel. However, it is now all over the world. They chant to the gods of this world for death to Israel and death to the USA. Now, I want you to remember a recent picture that was sent to you to understand what I am to reveal."

A meme immediately came back into my view. It was an Israeli soldier fighting in front of a baby stroller in order to shield the baby. On the other side was a Hamas fighter hiding behind a baby stroller, using the baby as a shield.

Me: "Yes, Lord, this is so true!"

Jesus: "This is how you know and understand evil. It is by their works. It is by their actions. Now, remember the story of Solomon and the two mothers."

Me: "Yes. This is in 1 Kings 3:16-28. The true mother would rather give her child away than see him harmed and cut into pieces. The mother of the dead baby called for the baby who was not hers to be cut into pieces. Solomon then determined that it was the mother who wanted to save the baby that was the true mother of the live baby."

Jesus: "It was a story of the victory of truth over lies, good vs evil and life over death. Now, use this picture and see it with your own children vs your enemy. If you both fight to protect your children, this is a disagreement that can be resolved. However, it is not. While you protect your children, he does not. He uses them to advance his attacks. I now want you to look beyond your personal situation and even what the people of Israel face in order to understand the war you cannot see."

Jesus then gave me a vision.

Me: "Oh wow, this is amazing. I see You in front of millions of baby carriages with Your angel armies and Heaven above. I then see the enemy of God, Satan and his hoards of demonic armies, using children as shields against You. He attacks and hurts the people. He turns man against You. He even weaponizes babies against You."

Jesus: "Now you understand that you are hated because of Me."

Me: "Will You not soon rise up and show Your mighty signs and wonders?"

Jesus: "Of course! I am active. I am not visible. My miracles, signs and wonders will be on full display. Truth is with Me. My Words and promises are true. I do not lie. Can you endure just a little longer?"

Me: "I am a fighter, Lord, but this is just so painful. This war already feels long."

Jesus: "War will be ongoing and increase as it is written as this is the times you are in. Pray, Erin, as the separation of My Sheep from the goats continues. However, a great wind is coming and it brings great change with it. Now, remember that it is I who uses a plumbline. It is I who levels the ground in order to lay a foundation with flush walls. My plumbline is a form of measure, the measure of truth. I will return to Jerusalem with compassion and My house will be built in it. My measuring line will be stretched over it as justice comes. My righteousness will be the level. No lie will be near My Walls."

Me: "Lord, please protect us from the hour of judgement that comes. Please keep our sons and daughters safe. Shelter us. Oh God, please do not allow for evil to advance against Your people. You are our Shepherd and we are Your Sheep. Lord, please cover us."

Jesus: "Do not worry or be afraid. I am with you. Pray for Israel, My measure!"

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for calling out to me and sending Your great love to the one once called forgotten. Thank You for so many friends and their families. Please protect them and cover them under Your wings. The world is on the precipice of WW3.

Our family has been in drama and crisis mode ever since my husband and I came back from our trip out west.

It has been such a time of grief for me as I try to communicate with my 24-year-old son. Nothing I say or do changes what has happened. Father, I give all things to You. I surrender. I surrender all of it and all of me. We have not experienced troubles like this here. It has been nine years of relative peace. All of a sudden, we have a war.

My husband and I have let all the parties know that we love and support them in their decisions and that we cannot hold back anyone who wants to leave. That is where we stand. This means it is not going well for the ones who don't like change. I am witnessing the five stages of grief on a continuous loop.

This is on top of our troubles with our water pump again and roofing issues as we prepare for winter. The house has two less occupants, so sometimes it feels lonely. On the bright side, I don't have to drive into town daily anymore. I have more time for chores and, more importantly, more time for You, Father.

I have been extremely exhausted the last few days. Every fiber of my being is tired. On top of all this, I discovered some family information that was a betrayal against me. I confronted this head on all by one question. It was as if a floodgate I never knew was there opened and all this sludge flooded through.

I listened to the story unfold as my heart was broken. I was in shock. I became quiet. This doesn't help any health issues I may be having right now. My potassium levels have been low. I increased my intake and added more fluids. I pray that I can recover soon.

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A safety deposit box and cheap expensive furniture"

I was traveling back west alone. I had to meet my husband as he was already there. I had taken a bus to a hotel where I had one night, a Saturday, to spend before flying out early on Sunday morning. I came up to the front desk clerk in order to check in...

Me: "Does the room have a safe to lock my valuables in?"

Clerk: "We do have safes, but they are all here in the lobby."

He then pointed to a wall of what looked like safety deposit boxes. Each had a key slot. The clerk handed me a special key that had a plastic pull tab covering the teeth on the key.

Clerk: "Your box number is #1126."

I then noticed this was the number punched on the pull tab. Before I went to my room, I went to the safety deposit box to store my identification and other valuables. What made this a bit concerning is that I was doing this as people were walking all around me. To add even more to my stress, my safety deposit box was right over the coffee machine and the water cooler.

It was a very public spot and everyone could see what I had just placed in my safety deposit box. I then pulled the tab of the key and exposed the key teeth in order to lock up my unit. It was successfully secured. I placed the key in my bag and proceeded to my room. On my way up, I received a text from the airline...

"Your flight has been moved up one day. You now need to board the plane by 8:00pm for a red-eye flight."

I quickly went to the lobby to gather my valuables. However, I couldn't remember what I had done with my key. I looked everywhere. I pulled out various keys, but none were 'the key'. In frustration, I finally went to the front desk clerk...

Me: "Sorry to bother you, but I need a duplicate key to unlock my safety deposit box and retrieve my valuables."

Clerk: "Unfortunately, a technician is not in until Monday. You will have to wait."

I kept pulling out key after key from my purse, which seemed so strange that I had so many. I didn't even recognize a lot of the keys. I was getting so frustrated. I then recalled it was a small gold brass key. This seemed too good to be true because it was in a spot I wouldn't even think of putting a key. The key opened the safety deposit box and I pulled out my belongings. I walked to the clerk and handed him the key.

Clerk: "What is this for?"

Me: "That is the key that unlocked my safety deposit box."

Clerk: Laughing. "No, it can't be."

Me: Yes, it is. I used it to take my valuables out."

Clerk: "That is impossible. This isn't even a key for these safety deposit boxes."

Me: Holding up the key. "Do you want this or not?"

Clerk: "No."

Me: "I have to get to the airport."

Clerk: "Are you leaving behind your valuables?"

Me: "No, I am not. These are with me."

Clerk: Now angry. "I don't believe you."

Me: "Not my problem. I have to run now."

Clerk: "You are still being charged for your room."

Me: "But I didn't even... oh, fine."

I stayed to make sure I was charged the right amount. I then proceeded to the shuttle. I barely made it. I then met my husband in a city I didn't recognize. We were at a large furniture warehouse. I didn't fully understand what we were doing there.

Husband: "You made it. The good stuff is going quickly. School is just starting too. This means there are a lot of people buying."

Me: "What is this place? There are new and used items."

Husband: "You don't know? These are orders that were to be shipped, but there is no zip code to send them to."

Me: "I don't understand."

Husband: "Where have you been? Come, we have to hurry."

I then saw beautiful pieces of furniture.

Me: "What are we furnishing? Is our zip code okay to deliver to?"

Husband: Laughing. "Of course! Our house is out here."

Me: "Well, okay then."

Every time I would decide on a grouping, it would be purchased out from under me. I was now so discouraged that I sectioned off an entire area with tape and a sign saying 'Sold'. The workers came to write up all the items and handed us the bill. My husband paid for it immediately. It was easily over $50,000 worth of furniture for but a few hundred dollars.

After we paid, several people kept trying to take what we had purchased. They then stopped themselves when they looked at my husband because he was now quite intimidating. They then walked away empty handed. As we were leaving with the movers, I saw my stepdad. While he said hi, he was so busy that he barely acknowledged us.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this was such a clear, but strange, dream. Please protect the coasts of our country. Make sure our zip codes are intact. Please also protect Israel. It is very difficult to hear the chants from Israel's enemies to wipe out all the people from 'the river to the sea'.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are anxious and tired. Big changes are coming. These are good. You will not be harmed."

Me: "Where is the safest place to be when WW3 breaks out?"

Jesus: "With Me and wherever I send you. I am over you. I have you and I am your safe place. You see all that is happening around you. You then have fear and have many questions."

Me: "Oh Lord, this is so true. I don't want to move anywhere. Millions of men who are foreigners have come across our borders. Many of them are terrorists. The times in my dreams of destruction, home invasions and the plunder of the wealthy are soon to arrive. There will be much death in our cities and small communities unless You step in, Lord. It will be a slaughter."

Jesus: "Calm down. Erin, what times are these that you are in? This is about salvation of the Jewish people and the power of God. All those who witness this will be humbled and changed. This is not about personal comfort in uncomfortable times. The spread of lies, even when truth is visibly recorded, is evil. This will also be dealt with by Me. Truth will prevail overall."

"Now, it is easy to imagine the worst when all you see is bad. However, look and see the good around you. See Me working. I promise you that I will never stop. I am active."

"Now, remember that you know evil by its roots and its fruit. The branches are long and they weave in and out. The fruit is rotten and this is if there is fruitfulness at all."

"Now, your enemy has continued to advance against you. However, understand that, those who are Mine, I am also with. Therefore, any advance of evil will meet its end."

Me: "Lord, I am exhausted. Everything I do is met with great resistance. Simple tasks are now struggles. It is difficult to find friendly people now. Perhaps people are just tired of this place?"

Jesus: "Erin, things will become more difficult before it becomes better. These are not easy times. My measure has always been Israel. This has not changed. However, the world is against all of the children of God, as well as Israel. Their hate continues to expand. As trees grow a canopy and are far reaching, so too is the enemy and his army. You know this to have many branches.

"Now, you have been under personal attacks. You have heard horrible things said of you on account of Me. Erin, this is good because you show yourself Mine by your actions towards others. Even the things you do that no one sees, but especially these, show that you care for Me, the one who sees.

"When you serve others, you have the thoughts, 'I would want this for myself or my own children. I will therefore do this for this person or that.' See, I know when you do something for someone else that others cannot see. When you don't draw attention to it, what you did to that recipient and you do this without a thought, then know that I see you.

"When you smile and do something and expect no recognition, great is your reward up in the storehouse of Heaven. One day when I say to you, 'Remember the time you did this or this? Well, I saw it and here is your reward!' While you won't even remember it, I will. Great will be your joy and reward. To Me, these are not small!"

Me: "I always wondered about that. There are days when I am tired and I do my chores as if I was my own picky boss. When family comes home, and sometimes even my husband, not one person notices. While it makes me sad, I would be in even more shock if they noticed. However, You see and know, so I can't be sad. Thank You, Father, for remembering our service!"

Jesus: "Now, I want you to see what is happening in Israel. One side complains about great oppression and victimhood. However, they are truly evil. Even their acts they film and call humanitarian are a struggle for them. This is because doing good is not part of their spirit of evil. They call releasing a hostage humane, yet they kidnapped the victims to begin with.

"The focus is not on all the good that the children of God do. There is so much of that, yet very little of this is recorded. However, I see it. The world then praises one act by an evil regime perceived as good. One small piece of tasteless fruit is then enlarged as a 'miracle' in the midst of war. However, they fail to mention all the evil that is in the open that they display.

"The news reports then call this an equal disagreement that needs peace. Well, it is not equal. It isn't. It is one-sided. That is My land. This is God's land. These are My people and this is the land I gave them. Now, I am the God of Justice, so do not worry. All will be plumb. I will measure it. Watch and see that I am God over all things.”

Dream over.

740 – Judgment isn't coming, it is already here

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for fresh journal pages and ink in my pen. Fall here is dragging out. We still have trees with green leaves. It is beautiful. Thank You. It has been a difficult time for me. Two of our children have moved out. However, not everyone understands it all. The magnitude of grief and loss is something I never thought I would see in my youngest son.

He has always been very private and quiet. He is very responsible and meticulous with what he has. He takes good care and pride in his work. He has lost more than 30 pounds in just five weeks. He is still eating, but very little. He has regressed in his great milestones. While I thought he could actually live independently not that long ago, I am now not certain of this at all. I am exhausted. My heart has been having some strange reactions and I am extremely tired.

I have been able to stay home and rest more. This is a new thing for me. However, I was awakened last night by my younger son at around 2:30 am. He said he needed to talk to me. I got up and met him in the hallway. He told me that some unusual occurrences have been happening in his room and asked me to pray. I went downstairs to his room. He told me everything that had happened.

He was quite scared. I prayed against these enemy attacks. I then asked him if he had introduced anything new into his room. He said no. As we were praying, his computer suddenly acted strange and froze. Still, I didn't have a sense that it was the enemy. It felt more like an angel of the Lord humbling him. Oh Father, You know all things. Can we please get Bryce back to normal? Please help us.

I had an epic dream last night after I went back to sleep...

Sub-dream 1 "Judgment isn't coming, it is already here" begins...

I saw a beautiful valley with grass surrounded by mountains. It was lush. A river ran through the valley. The colors were changing from fall to winter. I then walked to an upper plateau so I could get a better view. Tears streamed down my cheeks. This was a peaceful place.

Just then, an angel of the Lord appeared. He was holding a lantern in one hand. It had a single candle and a flame. Even though the flame was very large and bright, I noticed that the candle itself was not melting.

Angel: "Come, I must show you what has come to the beautiful land, the Land of Promise, that was given to the people chosen of God."

We were instantly in darkness. It was complete darkness. It was frightening. After some time, the darkness abated a bit and I could then tell that we were in a city. However, it was still way too dark for me to see which city this was.

The angel then moved the lantern across my eyes and I was able to see through the darkness. I could see people frozen in fear. I heard gunshots and screaming. It was as if people thought they could shoot through the darkness.

Me: "Are my children okay?"

Angel: "Yes. This is what is to come to humble the nations."

Me: "Is this God? Is God allowing this?"

Angel: "Yes. This is in the beginning of the Word."

Me: "In Genesis 1:3, God commanded light into existence. Does this mean that the darkness must come before the light?"

Angel: "What just happened to Israel has now come to your land. The enemy has risen up during a great day of rest and thanksgiving to God for all that these have been given. This is a day set apart from other days, a day when so many families are together in their shelters."

Me: "Oh angel, won't God relent and have mercy? Please!"

Angel: "This war in Israel is a measure that God is using. This is His plumbline of judgment, understand? Understand that the enemy has come into the promised land through the gates. When given the orders, a great multitude of an evil army will destroy the land..."

- This will be from the river to the seas.
- This will be from east of the great river to the eastern sea.
- This will be from west of the great river to the western sea.

- This army was sent to destroy the villages, towns and cities.
- This enemy was sent to slaughter all the people, to dash the babies against the stones and to rape and pillage the lands.”

Me: “Oh angel, please stop them. Please don’t allow this.”

Angel: “The lands were given over by the government. The government is not of the people, for the people or by the people. As Israel was broken apart and sectioned apart, so too is this land. This was done by great evil... leaders so evil and with hate for all those who don’t hate as they do.”

Me: “Please stop this!”

Angel: “You must understand that all mankind are liars. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints. Who is the Lord’s servant? Who will offer the sacrifice of Thanksgiving and call upon the name of the Lord?”

All nations are to praise the Lord! All people are to extoll Him. His love endures forever. His faithfulness endures forever. Great is His refuge for those who cry out to Him. One day, all will travel to the House of the Lord. Every knee will bow and every tongue will profess praises to our Lord.”

Me: “What a glorious day! I was led by your lamp to read Psalm 119. There is instruction in there for us today.”

Angel: “There is a day coming when all will proclaim the Great Gift of God’s Grace!”

Me: “Is there anything we can do to stop the judgment that is soon to arrive?”

Angel: “No, Erin, not soon to arrive... judgment is already here. The evil men will burn the beautiful land and the riverbeds will be dry. There will be great fear and sorrow.”

Me: “But what will happen to the children of God?”

Angel: “The Lord is your refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. The leader who spoke this over the peoples is the enemy who leads the armies of destruction. He is the great deceiver and liar. He stands with those surrounding Israel and calls for Israel’s destruction. Do not worry, Erin, as the Lord has given you eyes to see.”

Me: “Yes, but also with the help of your lantern.”

Angel: “Erin, the Lord will light your path.”

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up suddenly. A woodpecker was tapping on the side of our house. Oh Father, I was so frightened by this dream. Please help us.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Remember Psalm 119..."

My note to all of you: Please read PSALM 119! There is great wisdom in this Psalm!

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Father, I am tired now. I am sad. The news is distressing. There are so many lies. Please help me. What I see while I dream is so real. I wonder if I am seeing through a divine windowpane. I miss the days of dreams of Heaven. I miss the dreams of the miracles and promises set in place by You, Father. You are our God who loves us.

Yesterday's dream (Dream 740) reminded me that Psalm 119 is my declaration and prayer. While there are days that I fall short, my heart remains fixed on You. I love You, Lord. My heart breaks for the horrible evil that has come against Israel. I never thought the modern world could be so barbaric as to chop up babies and burn them. This evil has no rules and no boundaries as they continue on their course forward.

They do all of this with such great speed and seemingly endless success. There is so much evil against Israel now. As for my current dreams, I am also being shown what is soon to come against America. The enemy calls the USA 'The Great Satan'. We see what is happening to Israel and it is 'Coming Soon' to here. It is horrible. I had quite a dream about all of this last night...

Sub-dream 1 " LAST CALL! The Kingdom Comes!" begins...

The premiere for a much anticipated Hollywood movie was soon to begin. While very few knew what this movie was to be about or even who starred in it, social media was already abuzz about it. While there were no details, there was much speculation and theories about the content. The movie was titled, 'Coming Soon'. While there were many rumors about various potential story lines, no one truly knew.

The title of the movie was posted everywhere, including Times Square in New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Houston and Seattle. The list of the cities and towns it would be playing at seemed endless. Since the news in the USA seemed to encompass no more than the mystery movie premier 'Coming Soon' and the war in Israel, people weren't paying attention to what was happening domestically.

At some point before the opening, more troops from the USA were called up to the Mediterranean Sea. The munitions went with them. Even the National Guard was called up to fight. Troops were called up from middle America and all of the countryside areas. All of this seemed to take about two weeks. This all took place while the border to the south was still open.

Since all of the young fighting soldiers were now gone, an enemy army inside our borders easily rose up. They were going door-to-door to kill the elderly, children, babies and women. While there was some resistance, there was not much. During these home invasions the power was out in each targeted area. After first gaining control over the countryside areas surrounding the cities, these cities themselves were then invaded.

There was a lack of information and warning systems, all on purpose. All of the communications were scrambled. The reports that did manage to go out were direct lies that the reports of home invasions were confirmed to be false. As a result, people did not heed any warnings from other sources. The people were confused and believed the false narrative.

The invading armies of foreigners were then given further directives and locations on their government-supplied phones. They were directed to various areas that had stockpiles of arms that they could take up. Many of the weapons supplied were ones they were familiar with. Several armies of foreigners had emerged. They seemed to be circling the country's army bases and were awaiting further directives.

I then saw that there were container ships off the shorelines to the west and to the east. However, these were not what they seemed. The USA was now surrounded by the enemy. In addition to the enemy on the coastlines, the USA now contained evil regiments of invaders. These invaders were seeking the complete annihilation of all who were representative of the children of God (Jews and Christians). I then saw a mighty angel of the Lord call out from his horse...

Mighty Angel: "LAST CALL! LAST CALL! The Kingdom comes! LAST CALL! Who will take His Name? LAST CALL!"

I then woke up suddenly from this horrible dream.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Oh Father, please help us! Please remember Your people. The government was overtaken. The people only have You. You are everything.

You are our only hope. Our only hope is in You! Oh Lord, please don't forget the harvest. Please don't forget Your time of miracles on display!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you!"

Me: "Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, be at peace as I am here and I am with you! Your story as written through these years of pages is My love letter written on the tablet of your hearts. This is so those I have called come to know Me. This is so the Bride chosen for the Groom comes to love the Groom as unconditionally and as surely as the Groom loves His Bride.

"While waiting, I sent dreams, visions, messages and great gifts to the ones who wait for Me so you would not only know the heart of your God who created you and loves you, but what I also have prepared for you in eternity.

"While I know that the wait has been long and you have grown older and full of years, you are still just as beautiful to Me. You are Mine and you are beautiful in the gold of Ophir. I pray that, over the years, you have grown to love Me with your whole heart."

Me: With tears welling up in my eyes. "Oh yes, Lord. I love You so much. You are incredible!"

Jesus: "You will hear horrible things spoken of Me and My angel armies led by Michael. You will hear lies spoken about you, those you love and all who serve Me. However, do not be afraid. I have a great plan in place. The enemies of God and His people will be terrified and severely humbled. Now, pray and rejoice as the times that have been written by the Words of the Prophets of old have come. These continue to come and are unfolding before the eyes of the world."

Me: "Psalm 83 is happening now! It is happening right now, Lord!"

Jesus: "There are even more than this. Focus on the next Psalm (Psalm 84) as this is a gift of God and a promise from Me to you. Now do not worry. There is a great slaughter planned all at once all over the world to every place invaders were allowed. This scenario came into being due to kindness given to strangers during a time of need for the recipients of this kindness. Nations welcomed people who are taught from birth to hate the children of God and to hate the very countries who accepted them.

"All of these lands are now filled with their hate. This hate leads to violence and uprisings. Erin, a peaceful people who are given much are grateful and desire to adapt to the new lands they are given. They then become God-fearing, law-abiding citizens who practice peace. In contrast, these children of death demand much, but offer very little in return. They call for death to all of those who dwell peacefully in the land. I tell you the truth... they will never enter My rest."

Me: "Lord, why allow them in?"

Jesus: "This is because 'The Times of the Fullness of the Age' have come. While I know you wanted things to go a certain way, this is not what is written. In order for those who do not know Me to turn to hear My Voice is for them to search for Me. If they look now for other things to save them, they will not turn to listen to the One who saves. As for right now, they trust in their chariots and are easily led by the bit of their rider. There has been a great war against the peoples of the Earth. There has been great damage done to prepare for what comes."

Me: "Oh Lord..."

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry. I am God over all of the Earth. This is like the Days of Noah. Violence has filled the Earth."

Me: " Hamas equals violence!"

Jesus: "Yes. However, the armies now surrounding Israel and America are the armies who desire the complete destruction of all that is Godly and Holy, all things that I delight in. This hate is unreasonable. The union of the kings of hate is forming (the Caliphate) and violence will go out amongst the nations. This is against God and against all that God has declared as His. This land is My land. Jerusalem is Mine. I will not share it. One day soon, all of them will bow to the King of Jerusalem, the King on the Throne, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Me: "That's You, Lord! What a Great Day!"

Jesus: "It is 'Coming Soon'! Now rejoice, Erin, as a Great Harvest will be over the whole Earth. My miracles, power and glory will be over all of the Earth. Now pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Pray for the peace of the nations under Heaven. I am with you!"

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for this beautiful land that You have given to all of us, especially the natural beauty portion. Thank You for the sun, the moon and the stars in the sky. Thank You for the little animals who come to stay here. Thank You for the beautiful birds who call our place home.

I am spending so much time at home now. I have had a lot to do recently with two children now gone. There has been the packing up of memories. One more is possibly leaving soon too. So much accumulates in nine years. It is hard to believe that this much time has now passed.

One of the issues of being at home more is that we have no cell service. I then keep my phone in one spot and rarely go to it. My screentime is now down 89%. I feel more free and I am able to achieve more. It has been a blessing. September and October are two of my favorite months. However, I am not sure this year.

I was awakened by a terrifying dream on Thursday morning, October 26, 2023...

Sub-dream 1 " My younger son receives stern directions"

An angel of the Lord gave me very direct instructions for my younger son to follow. It was instructions on something that needed to be dealt with and removed within three days. This was to be removed quickly or great trouble would fall upon our house.

Sub-dream 1 over..

My resolve was immediate and very direct. There was no hesitation, none at all. While I can't always know specifically everything that occurs in our house, I sometimes put too much trust in the occupants. I gave definitive instructions that, if this was not removed, he would have to pack up and leave after the three days had passed.

After informing my younger son of the dream, he immediately sprang into action. Within less than a few hours, all was removed. After completing this task, we discussed this.

Son: "Why didn't God say something about this sooner?"

Me: "God loves us. He wants us to have a great life here free from drama and pain. However, He also told us that we would have trouble in this life (John 16:33). He never said it would be easy for us. However, if we have things, view things or participate in things that He sees as sinful, He calls out to us to make changes. While something in us knows that it is wrong, we continue despite this.

"God likes when we make the corrections of our own free will. He waits on us to do so as He doesn't want us to miss a great blessing. Sometimes this takes a while until, one day, He says 'I am angry. I am losing My patience. I will turn My face from them because they are rejecting Me.'

God then made me aware that a problem existed. While He didn't say what it was, I immediately acted. It was a test from God for me to see if I would forsake Him to appease the occupants of the house or if I would follow His instructions.

While my son seemed to then 'get it', I was not entirely sure. I had to remind myself that I am dealing with someone who truly was clueless on the magnitude of the situation. We made sure to do a last sweep last night before the three-day period ended this morning. We received confirmation that God was pleased.

Father, all of the children who live in this house know You, know that Your promises are true and they have witnessed miracles. However, time desensitizes them. While I understand that the enemy works overtime, this was 'next level' warfare stuff. Please forgive me for not enforcing specific rules, laws and orders. Truth in the darkness exposes lies and evil.

Attacks can come from all areas. Our well tank and valves all needed to be replaced. That happened on Tuesday. It was expensive, but necessary. The water pressure to our house was like a trickle. We had a leaking unit. Interestingly, this was near my son's room. All has now been replaced and the troubles have been removed.

As for one of our family members, she did not follow our rules and easily manipulated the one who has limited knowledge. My stepdaughter chipped away constantly at my younger son's child-like faith. Her manipulations were so great that he was convinced that You, Father, didn't care about anything they did. I am so sorry, Father. Autism is a stubborn illness. While it is not an excuse, it is a reality.

Satan can use someone to consistently question all they have come to know. Good had been labelled as bad and bad had been labelled as good. This all had to happen and it started during our trip to Bend OR. This was a trip we had both now questioned as to what its purpose was. We were not sure why we were going when we did.

Well, besides being a wonderful trip, we were greatly blessed there. Both of us agreed that this would be a wonderful place for us when God opens the door. When we returned to our home, so much change occurred that we didn't even realize it until later. This is Your house, Lord. Please keep me strong in Your Will in all I do.

It has been a week of discovery. All that was in darkness has now seen the light. Oh Father, please keep hold of our children. Please lift the veils of deception and open their eyes fully so they can see. If they are unable, open doors for them to go their own way. I would sooner this happen than to lose our way in our own house.

I had a vivid dream last night...

Sub-dream 2 " All will be supernaturally provided" begins...

My husband and I were in a distant city area out west. While not sure, it seemed to be a suburb of Portland OR. I had an event to attend and I needed specific clothing. I went to a shop that someone had recommended to me for this. When we arrived, the shop had virtually nothing in it. I found myself spending too much time trying to make remnant pieces work into the outfit. I finally turned to the clerk...

Me: "While this shop came highly recommended for what I am looking for, there is nothing to purchase here. It's sad."

Clerk: "That is because you have not been to the Owner's place across the hall yet. As for this place, it has been looted."

We walked from that shop across the way and into a beautiful, fully stocked shop.

Me: "Well, this is more like it!"

Clerk: "We only unlock this for certain customers."

Me: "I walked right by this shop without seeing it!"

Clerk: "That's good! This means that the looters won't see it either."

Me: "There is so much inventory."

Clerk: "Enjoy it as all of it is free to you both. The Owner insists!"

I looked over at my husband and he looked as surprised as me that all of this would be free. When we turned to look back at the woman, she was gone. In no time at all, I found an outfit. We then locked the door behind us. As for the other part of the store that was empty, it was now dark and abandoned.

Husband: "Was that even there?"

We then turned back to look at the store that was fully stocked. It was also now gone. I still had the outfit though. We then left and saw a gas station abandoned with a 'NO GAS' sign. Across the road was a different gas station. It was full service and had inexpensively priced gas. After the man filled our tank, my husband went to pay.

Gas attendant: "This is free. This is on the house. The Owner insists."

Husband: "No, we insist."

Gas attendant: "Sorry, sir, but we don't take money here at all. It is free and runs clean. Your car will thank us."

We were in shock. After we drove away, we turned to look back. The gas station was no longer there! When we then looked at the fuel gauge, it showed as completely full.

We then decided to find some food. We went to a coffee shop similar to a Starbucks. We went to the order board, but no one greeted us. We decided to drive up to the pickup window. There was a man with a headset.

Man: "Sorry about that. Our order intercom is not working. What can I get you today?"

Husband: "We will take two vanilla lattes and two breakfast sandwiches."

Man: "Sorry but we are out of milk and cream and we have no food left."

Husband: "Does this mean that you are only serving black coffee right now?"

Man: Hesitating. "Yes, sir. However, the same Owner has opened a new place across the street. They have everything. Sorry we couldn't help."

Husband: "No problem. Have a great day."

Man: "You too!"

We drove across the street to the recommended restaurant. It reminded me of The Original Pancake House. We parked the car and went inside. While it was crowded, we were seated right away. We ordered our favorite... Dutch Babies. We addressed the server as she walked by...

Husband: "We are ready for our bill."

Server: "This is not necessary. This is on the house. The Owner insists."

We were in shock. We then got into our car. I turned to look at the busy restaurant, but there was no one there anymore. It was just an empty parking lot with no trees and no people. We then went back to the drive thru of the first coffee shop. There was a sign that wasn't there before.

Sign: "Closed Until Further Notice!"

As we drove around, we noticed that there were many businesses that were now abandoned. We drove near a mall. Since we saw cars there, we decided to go in to see if anyone knew anything.

The mall was huge. However, most of the shops had cages over their entrances. We then noticed that many of the big-name stores had been completely wiped out of inventory. A store similar to American Eagle was completely out of business.

We then noticed a store similar to Macy's. It was fully open and had many shoppers. We then noticed that the stores on the outer perimeter of the mall were open and those on the inside of the mall were all dark and out of business. We walked into the Macy-like store. On our right-hand side was a section selling family shoes. A salesperson then rushed up to us.

Salesperson: "We are running our 'If the shoe fits, wear it' sale today!"

Me: "What is that?"

Salesperson: "If the shoe fits you perfectly, you can wear it home at no charge."

Husband: "We can pay though. We would like to pay."

Salesperson: "You don't understand. We don't take money here."

Husband: "If you give shoes away for free, you will then be out of business like all of the other stores."

Salesperson: "Oh no, no, no! You don't understand. The Owner owns all you see. The Owner allowed these stores to be liquidated or looted. This is because they were not blessed by God. Come over here and look at these. These would look great on you."

Me: Even though he was addressing my husband, I was confused. "But those are really expensive shoes!"

Salesperson: Still looking at my husband. "You look like a size 12."

Husband: In shock that he had correctly guessed. "Yes, I am."

Salesperson: "Then try these on."

Husband: Hesitating as he tried them on. "Oh wow! I have never felt shoes like these. These are the most comfortable shoes I have ever tried on."

Salesperson: "Perfect! They are now a part of you. Wear them with a smile. Since the shoes fit, wear them."

The salesperson then did the same for me. The shoes he had me try on were perfect.

Salesperson: "Beautiful are the feet who bring Good News, right? Take care, folks, and have a blessed day."

My husband and I were in shock as we walked out to the mall lobby. When we looked back, the store was now gone. It had disappeared.

Sub-dream 2 over..

I woke up to the sound of something hitting the house. Just after I wrote this, I went to the kitchen and there, through the window overlooking the birdfeeder, was a female cardinal. She left before I got back with my camera.

Father, I need help. This has been a rough time. I have not been prepared. I went to see a new pacemaker crew at a different hospital. The screen was locked. A message came up that my pacemaker unit needed a key code to unlock it. The technicians had never seen this message in their history of thousands of pacemaker appointments.

They called the rep for my unit and he said that I would have to schedule a new appointment because this key code is secure and not available for him to access remotely. Apparently, it was under lock and key. The creepy screen read as follows:

Screen: "This device may contain features that are not approved and/or are investigational in some markets. Do not continue without contacting us."

There was then a place to click "END SESSION". This was the only option given.

Me: "Oh Father, I have been watching the war in Israel. I have been in complete shock at the response of supporters for Hamas. It has been so disheartening."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have done what I asked of you and so too has your (younger) son. I will bless him and give him great joy. I will remove all the wicked things that have come against him. Great will be his healing.

"Now, I know that you are waiting for news. You are worried as winter is soon to set in. What this dream showed you is this... the world you have come to know is dying. Commerce is coming to a close. This has been done intentionally on bad false reports.

"However, I will soon... very soon... destroy the plans of the wicked against all that is good. I send help to those I love. I send signs, wonders and miracles. I remove enemy assignments and strongholds. I turn the weapons sent against the innocent back upon the evil leaders and their armies.

"Now, war is coming to the nations. The weapons they have chosen will kill off the lands, slowly destroying what you breathe in and what you consume."

Me: "What about the great miracles You have promised us? Lord, these promises haven't come yet!"

Jesus: "Do not worry. Erin, I showed you a view of all the nations and the lights that shone in the darkness. A great miracle is coming. You are now seeing schemes and plots against God's land, Israel. All the nations are turning. However, those who continue to pray for Israel will continue to be blessed. I have created all you see. The enemy plans to remove all of it off the face of the Earth in one day.

"They are calling on the removal of all God's people. However, you are not to worry as I have a Great Plan. Well, I see all of it. All who try to hold Israel back from completing what they were called by Me to do will suffer. To delay the fight is to give the enemy time to redirect its own attack.

"Now, the Red Dragon has enough time to position against the USA and Israel. They have sent mighty warships and arms. The leader to the west appears old and feeble. This weak leader continues to take marching orders from below."

Me: "Is there anything we should do to protect our homes?"

Jesus: "I am with you. Pray. There is none greater in strength than Me and I am the God who loves you. Do not worry or be afraid. When you see all things from beginning to the end, you will stand amazed. Now rejoice. To those who love Me, I will send supplies, provisions, clothing and shoes... all from on high. Erin, I will bless all of those who truly love Me!"

Dream over.

Dear, Dear Father, Who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Your Name. Let Your Kingdom come, let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Grant us this day our daily bread. Please forgive us for our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, forever and ever, Amen!

Daniel 4:2-5: 2 It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me. 3 How great are Your signs, how mighty are Your wonders! Your Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and Your Dominion endures from Generation to Generation. 4 I...was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace. 5 I saw a dream that made me afraid. As I lay in bed the fancies and the visions of my head alarmed me.

Thank You, Father, for Your love and all You have done. You are King over all things and Your Kingdom, Your Dominion, rules for eternity. I take comfort that You are over all things. You are gracious and enduring. Your love never ceases because You never cease. Who else can proclaim this? Father, such evil has spread all over the world. While the spread began slowly, it has now left us in shock.

Some refuse to believe You would allow this. More then came and it is like a tidal wave. Evil after evil. We are now witnessing things we never thought could happen in our generation. It is even worse than all of the generations before. The reports and eyewitness accounts of attacks on the Jewish people in our country, Europe and other nations are rising. However, what has happened in Israel is heartbreaking.

I now reminisce about simpler days, even from just three years ago. This includes planning my days, running errands and performing daily chores. I enjoyed the laughter here. We had a relatively worry-free home. I actually miss the days when I couldn't wait for the routines to end. I now long for those days.

Father, I am so sorry that I didn't appreciate the simple times. I didn't grasp them enough. I wasn't 'still' in those moments. I wasn't present. I could make excuses as to why I was distracted, but I truly needed to be still more and remember You. Father, please forgive me! Times come and go. Memories are burned within my soul. These are all part of the story You have written on my heart.

Well, I have become older now and I miss my children when they were younger. I miss our activities and adventures together. What I wouldn't give for a week of parks, Legos, movies and pizzas, long drives, laughter and stories at bedtime. Technology, screens and phones were not as available back then. There was more time for interaction and time spent together having fun. I now grieve for these times.

I ask You where all of it has disappeared. Where did it go? They are now all grown up. I am watching the fruits of my labor unfolding in their adult lives. I pray that the memories of Your promises, Your miracles, are forever etched on their hearts. I see the evidence of Your goodness all over their lives and ours. It is hard to let go and let You takeover. Well, You have always been in control of absolutely everything.

Father, for my sake, no matter what happens, please be with them in all things. My older son has been asking if the grackles have returned to the feeder in our yard since he has been gone. Well, for the first time, and on my daughter's birthday, a grackle appeared. The female cardinal returned on that same day. They came briefly and not for enough time for me to snap a photo. Father, thank You for sending them to us!

My older son has not been treated well by certain people out west. Surprisingly, my main enemy is actually not one of these. As for the others, my son is hated because they hate me so much. They literally curse me. His stepmom is blaming me for his Autism as it has become worse recently. They refuse to acknowledge his condition at all. To do so would mean they would be guilty of his mistreatment when little. They really do owe him an apology, not more curses. To them, pride is greater than You are.

The stepmom's grandmother and her last remaining relative went home to be with You yesterday morning. That side of the family has been under the spirit of death since I have known them. There has been tragedy after tragedy. It is very difficult to hear about these tragedies. I pray for this family to have changed and healed hearts. Please bless my son in the midst of all of this as only You can.

As for my younger son, he is traveling out west this month. Father, please be with him. If he comes home from this trip (which he is scheduled to), please make this trip change his heart for Your glory. With only four here, dinners will be much simpler.

Father, my daughter has now launched her blog as You have instructed her. Please bless this for her divinely and show her that You are in this. Please grant her great opportunities for all of her hard work.

Father, please protect Your people. Please show Your love for Israel. Send Michael to cut down these vile enemies. Stir them up from their underground holes and caves. Protect the people, including elderly, babies and children. Father, please release the captives.

I also have a health issue that I need prayer for. I once again had a sharp pain right where my pancreas is. This was followed by nausea. I vomited for twenty minutes. I had to abruptly end my conversation with my older son. Father, I was scared. I don't want to end up in a hospital from this. The worst pain I ever had was pancreatitis after my daughter was born. I was even placed in the terminal ward.

Me: "Father, I love You. However, I am now wearing out. I hate what has happened to this world. Oh Father, please rise up!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I never promised you that these times would be easy. However, I promised to be with you through them. The minute you ask, I will always answer. I will also speak even before you ask. Erin, what you are witnessing is the evil Kingdom rising up in the Earth, along with its kings. It is different from all of the other kingdoms.

"I gave you a dream years ago about a machine that operated in darkness that moved through the land dredging up and destroying all things. This is a government that has tentacles and moves in many different directions. This is like a Great Upheaval of all things good of God. What you are seeing is wars and rumors of wars. However, there is something else.

"You and all of the children of God are at war as this machine and its rulers have waged war against the saints and have called your children theirs. In this war, they are prevailing over them. Children are turning away from their parents and parents are turning away from their children.

"You are at war, but not as you expect. The Nation of Israel is at war. This one has been designed by the enemy to be the final stand to end all Jewish occupation off the face of the Earth. What you are experiencing right now are the beginnings of the worst in humanity.”

Jesus: “Lord, You can do something about this situation. Please don’t forget about the Great Harvest. All of us are looking forward to Your awesome displays of power.”

Jesus: “Erin, I have a Great Plan. Now, continue to live each day well. Be still and know I am God. I have no rival. I have no equal. I have weapons of mass destruction greater than any earthly weapon. I have angels to call down lightning. I have angels to shake the heavens and the Earth. I can cause the sun to hide behind the moon. However, and even more than this, I can cause a veil of thick darkness to fall over all the luminaries in the sky and even on the Earth. Erin, nothing is beyond Me.

“Now, I know it is discouraging to be a child of God and My Bride in these days. You are now seeing a great threat of destruction moving into position. The world is turning on the Jewish people openly. However, notice this... they are also beginning to turn on all those who stand for Israel.”

Jesus: “Lord, is it Christians next?”

Jesus: “Yes, but soon will come the race wars. The final push of the mass migration, really the invasion of foreigners, needed to come across the borders of the USA to weaken it. These migrants from all of the nations will then turn to strike out against all of the native citizens. They will plunder, steal and burn their homes and churches. They will destroy all of the good land blessed by God.

“This all began with a war that was started by the leaders against their citizens (Syria). Evil leaders then called out for the world to help with the migrants. The nations to the west and to the north then did so. However, it wasn’t enough. The foreigners also wanted their churches there to pray to another god. They then began to destroy and rule by sheer force and number all throughout the world.

“The only place they then needed to still invade was the USA. They did so primarily from the southern territories (that is, from South America). Again, this is to remove those of European descent, but especially Christians, Jews and any race with light skin. This will ensure that there will be no problems in the future.”

Jesus: “Are You talking about ethnic cleansing?”

Jesus: “Yes. However, it never stops there. China will turn on Russia and then the darker the skin the greater the slave.”

Jesus: "Oh Lord, will it come to this?"

Jesus: "This is their plan. Nation against nation means ethnicity (ethnos vs ethnos). Ultimately, this is about wiping man off the face of the Earth. Now, just because these are the plans of the enemy, it doesn't mean this will come to pass as they have planned it. Just know they have momentum and are so excited about their rise in power. People are now too fearful to stand against it.

"The overall goal of the enemies of the children of God and Israel is to completely remove them from existence. Remember that there are really two sides – good vs evil. The people of God have constantly sought peace. The pathway to peace for them is compromise and to agree on a mutually beneficial plan. The good side has no intention of betrayal or lying for gain. They then sacrifice part of their ways or land in order to have peace.

"As for the evil side, the children of Baal, Edom, they say, 'They are so stupid. We will take up their offer and break our deal. This is an opportunity and open door for us to take even more and we won't stop.' At one point, Israel was even given the land of Jordan. The map of the Promised Land given to them by God looked very different.

"However, they continued to harass Israel, the Jewish people. The Jewish people were finally given the worst, most barren, land. The enemy then broke apart Israel into patches. However, I blessed the land of Israel and even this angered the enemy. As for the saying 'From the River to the Sea', this is code for wiping God's people off of the face of the Earth... and they will try. However, let Me explain something...

"All of those who divided up My land will be divided and their punishment swift. It will not go well for the enemies of God as they practice all the commands of God. They will read My Word and they will partake in My Feasts, both in the spring and in the fall. They will be forced to worship the God of Israel and they will have no choice. This will be horrible to them at first. However, they will then remember all they did and be humbled. In the meantime, things are ugly."

Note on the last paragraph: From the Scripture Zechariah 14:16: And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

Jesus: "Oh Lord, I am already exhausted!"

Jesus: "I know. You have already been experiencing these foreigners who hate you. Do not worry though as all is about to change. They will not touch you because I am with you. While I know this is difficult, stay vigilant. I am with you in all things!”

Dream over.

744 – We have witnessed the Great Falling Away

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my husband, our children, our house and, of course, the blessing of my ministry. What You have done in our lives is a miracle. I don't thank You enough for all You do and have done and soon will do. I am so blessed by You, Father. I am so thankful for You. I pray that my life song sings to You, Father. It has been painful to see the ways that the world has changed.

All the promise for a great world for my children here has faded. We now instead focus on the place You have prepared for us, the beautiful place that You have made for all of us to enjoy for eternity. Every lovely thing here is just a small glimmer of the amazing marvels You have created for all those who love You. While this world is tough, it used to still be comfortable. There was still church, hope and open prayers.

When I was a little girl, other children would ask, 'What church do you go to?' I didn't go to church, so I said 'methodist'. This is because that is where my grandparents went to church. When we would visit them, I would go to Sunday school at their church. As for now, no one mentions anything about Christianity anymore. This is because the land is no longer safe for children or adults to speak of their faith.

Father, You have been shoved out of society! It is now forbidden to speak about You unless referring to god with an s on the end. They now only want us to speak of the gods as meaning multiple deities. I remember when I became a Christian in the early 90s. I rolled my eyes at the thoughts that societies here in the west (USA, Canada and Mexico) would ever depart from God. Sadly, here we are.

When a nation removes God and His Word, even silencing His people and eliminating testimonies of His evidence in our lives, then God, You, Father, turn Your face away from these nations. You remove Your favor when the people reject You! How do I proclaim Your miracles, Your signs and testify of Your Wonders and Glory if my hands are tied from even lifting them to worship You?

In the United Kingdom, even silent prayers near abortion clinics are illegal and people are arrested and then charged. Father, all of Your goodness in this world has been broken up and destroyed. The hearts of Your people have been broken. We miss our freedom to openly praise and worship You without fear of losing a job or being arrested and persecuted.

So, Father, as You know, my daughter has started a Christian podcast ministry just as You instructed her to. You alerted us that her prayers openly on the airways were going to be squelched on the radio. However, we thought that would still be a few years off. Sadly, within one week of Your warning, I overheard the manager of the Christian radio station say that, if they wanted to keep their broadcasting license, they would need to keep the Jesus talk to a minimum.

I was so sad. I informed my daughter and, within a few days and several confirmations that the radio station was no longer under God, she left. While she had just been given all of these interviews with Christian artists, she had no outlet for them. While she began to assemble all she would need to launch a site, she was then approached to interview for a record label in Tennessee as a representative for the company.

While it was a dream opportunity, it was not meant to be. Then her world began to crumble and she became so discouraged. There were months of delays and then, finally, on her birthday weekend, You welled up in her and placed it on her heart to begin again.

She launched her podcast trailer on her 22nd birthday, on Monday, October 30, 2023. Father, please bless her endeavors. She loves You and is unafraid to share her position with all who will listen. Please let this glorify You and bring a spark of goodness into this dreary landscape!

Father, the children our generation have raised have been so easily lured by the enemy into traps they are unable to be removed from 'save the Hand of God only'. Please keep all of our children turned to You in these dark days. Please let Your hand be over all of our children and our works to glorify Your Name!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your daughter and your children. I am with your friends and their children also. For your sake and the prayers of the saints and as I have promised, I will not leave them. It is I who is God over all things. It is I who can multiply loaves of bread and fish to feed the multitude. While this is impossible for man to do, it is not impossible for Me.

"I will therefore take this bread and, through your daughter and many other youths, I will feed the hungry My truth... THE TRUTH! I will cause those who thirst to be quenched with the fullness of Living Water. My plans are to open the floodgates of My glory very soon. The angels I have appointed at My Gates will keep the enemy removed.

"Now, with the youth of this generation comes troubles as the enemy has laid claim to all the youth as a new army. This is because the youth of this generation are lost and know nothing about salvation or what they do know is that My Name is a name their parents use to curse others from their lips. I have become a powerless god to them. So many have no filter, no gauge, no rules, no peace and no sleep. Their minds are filled with anxiety, fear and darkness.

"No hope for a Savior or a Father to love them and rescue them leads to great rebellion and lawlessness. It also leads to the desire to sin openly because they believe there are no consequences. Hatred is their savior and lies are their truth. They are cold and their hearts are as stone. They hate and loathe themselves and treat others how they too have been treated. They are lovers of themselves. This has been prophesized.

"Now, I know what is needed before you even ask it. I know what is needed for your daughter in this late hour and I have a great plan in this. I have given her a great gift. My Word, My Story, is old. It is an old story and her job is to bring new life to others through My Story. In great humility, My people are found by Me. I am here in the simple things. I am here in the subtle moments.

"My Voice is heard in quiet spaces. My Voice is in the stillness of your day. As you know, Erin, when you dream, I instruct you. In your daily prayers, I hear. In your journal, I scribe. When you ask... and even before this... My voice is heard. You have spent many hours trusting Me in these pages. There are times when you have had your candle begin to burn out.

"When you feel unrecognized and afraid when all of this doesn't pay the bills, then suddenly when you look back, all was covered. This is because you surrendered in full faith all of these journals, their pages and your pens to Me, all for My purposes. This is all done so that I am glorified through your mistakes, not your glory and personal recognition, but Mine.

“This is what walking a life for My purposes is like. It can mean a path that you cannot see where you are going. However, if you choose this way, My way, I promise you that I will walk with you as you step and I will light your path. While you had great ideas in the beginning of how this all would look, you never stopped when all those around you told you to stop. You had fear. You were threatened.

“The enemy tried to squelch what I was doing through you at every turn. You have prevailed. You have shown your love for Me here and, in turn, My love has spread throughout the multitudes of those who search for Me. I am found by them there. I will therefore bless your daughter with even more for your sake and the sake of those who long for truth but cannot see it.

“Now, you have witnessed the Great Falling Away. It is before your very eyes. The world is growing cold rapidly. However, keep your eyes fixed on Me. I am about to bring into My pen all the sheep who decided the pastures were better elsewhere and wondered away from My care.

“Many others will see My workers gathered and the angels over them and they will run to Me as it is better with the Shepherd than away from them in a den of wolves with sheep clothing. Erin, I am here and I am with you. Rejoice. You are greatly loved. Are you ready now? Peoples get ready!”

Me: “I love You, Lord. Thank You.”

Jesus: “Get ready! Be ready!”

Dream over.

745 – Humbling the Proud Using the Invaders

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Divine Goodness. We are so thankful that You are God over all things.

I am not well these days. I am extremely exhausted on top of all of this. Please help me finish this miracle of a race here. Please protect all of us in all things.

I had a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 “Door Dash Delivering Death” begins...

I drove to a lighting gallery in town. When I arrived, they were about to close. I spoke to a salesclerk that I already knew.

Me: “Where are all the lights? I noticed that all of them were boxed and all of the fixed showroom lights were being removed.”

Clerk: “We don’t need lights anymore. They will just draw attention here and people are no longer purchasing lights. No one wants visitors.”

Me: “But don’t people need lights in the darkness?”

Clerk: Sarcastically. “Where have you been? In this war, you are better off in the darkness. So, this is what we sell now.” She went to several large boxes. “We just got all of this in, but I need to warn you that these are going fast.”

She pulled out goose down comforters and other blankets and pillows.

Me: “Down bedding? Why?”

Clerk: Angry now. “Well, look around this city. You need to be comfortable in the darkness. Who knows if one will even wake up from their sleep at all.”

Me: “I don’t really need bedding.”

Clerk: “We are about to close. I will give you a queen comforter or do you need a king?”

Me: "I don't need either."

Clerk: "Okay, so you need a King Comforter."

Me: "I think we all do."

Clerk: "Oh, so you are a Christian. How nice for you. It is time to close now."

Me: "How much? I am just curious."

Clerk: "$412 including taxes and I'll even throw in 2 down pillows."

Me: "While that is generous, I need to think about that."

Clerk: "Well then, we are closing."

She began to show me out the door and locked it behind me. The whole place turned dark. A sign was placed there that read 'Out of Business'.

After that, I began to drive north towards a grocery store. I could see Door Dash and Skip the Dishes delivery drivers everywhere stopping at various homes with deliveries of dinners. I noticed immediately that the drivers were heavily armed and looked like foreigners. When I arrived at the grocery store, there was a doorman.

Doorman: "What is your name, your address and the number of occupants?"

I knew this was evil, so I gave false information and increased my house size so I could purchase more food. I knew something was wrong, so I quickly purchased what we needed and a little more. When I went to checkout, the cashier slipped me a note with my receipt. I pretended to arrange my wallet when I was really reading the note...

"Drive home another way. They are killing everyone in their homes."

When I then looked back at the cashier, she looked terrified. I acted nonchalant and proceeded to the door. I heard the Voice of the Lord...

Jesus: "Tell the door attendant 'God Speed'. They will not follow you."

The doorman looked at me with sheer hatred. His eyes followed my movements.

Me: "God Speed."

Doorman: "Uh, excuse me... please repeat."

Me: "God Speed."

Doorman: "Thank you, ma'am."

He immediately got on a walkie talkie and, in a foreign language, called off the attack dogs from the parking lot. No one followed me. As I drove back up the road, I could hear gunshots firing everywhere that I could see these delivery vehicles. As I drove, I came across a mom with a baby and two little children. The mother looked extremely scared. I pulled over..

Me: "The four of you... get in my car now."

The four of them immediately came into my car. I drove forward quickly.

Me: "You seem shaken up. Are you okay?"

Mom: "No. They shot my husband and son. We are Jewish and have nowhere to go."

Me: "Okay, now listen carefully. I need you all to get down and stay down. I am going to take you home to my house."

As I was driving past the lighting gallery that I started out at, I saw the owner and clerk now standing out front. I pulled into the parking lot and rolled down my window.

Me: "How much for the 'Queen Bundle'... the queen comforter and the two free down pillows?"

Clerk: "Sorry, but you are too late."

Me: "Okay."

I began to drive off.

Clerk: Calling out to me. "Wait! Wait! I have a Queen Bundle right here for $412."

Me: "Hey, wait a minute... that was the price of the King Comforter."

Clerk: "Well, you should have bought that when you had a better deal. By the way, you aren't hiding any Jews in your car, are you?"

Me: Speaking with authority. "What are you even talking about?"

Clerk: "There are bounties now. Turn in Jews for cash."

Me: "What about all of those delivery drivers? Are they going door to door?"

Clerk: "Yes. When placing the order, the question they ask you is how many are in your household. If you give them an answer, you get $20 off your order. Pretty well everyone answers the question for the discount."

Me: "Wait. So, these delivery drivers are armed because they are killers? Are they getting delivery drivers to do this because they almost always get an open door?"

Clerk: "Yes! Door dashing."

Me: "Okay, I will purchase the Queen Bundle."

I handed the clerk $420 cash and she gave me back $8.

Clerk: "God Speed."

I immediately knew she was one of them and was fishing to see where I stood.

Me: Without hesitation. "God Speed to you too."

Both the owner and the clerk seemed relieved.

Clerk: "Thanks. Goodbye, Erin."

I waved and drove off. We soon arrived at our neighborhood in the country. While we still heard gunshots, it was relatively quiet down in our area. There was a notice on our door that our home was clear. There was a symbol sprayed on our front door. When we went inside, I turned off most of the lights. As I did, I saw a note from my husband...

"We were called up, armed and forced to fight. Pray for us. I love you!"

I was now alone with the mom, her baby and her two children. I took her to the basement to show them around.

Me: "You will need to stay here in the basement in my son's room. It only has one window and the drapes are already closed. It also has a hidden closet that you should go into just in case there is trouble. I am going to go upstairs and prepare some food. You must be hungry."

I heard a knock on the front door and I quickly went upstairs to the door. I could see through the window on the door that it was a delivery driver. I immediately became scared. Thankfully, I then heard the Voice of the Lord again...

Jesus: "Tell them that your husband and sons are fighting for the cause and then tell them 'God Speed'. Do not open the door. Speak through it."

When I approached the door, I could see that the man was trying to hide his assault weapon.

Me: Speaking through the door. "What can I do for you?"

Delivery man: "Where is your husband and the rest of your family?"

Me: "They are fighting for the cause. God Speed!"

This delivery man was extremely evil. I could tell he really wanted to break down the door and harm me. Just as he was going for the door, he suddenly left in a hurry. It was almost comical how fast he sped off in his car. I turned off all of the lights and brought food to the family. I woke up when the ground shook in my dream.

Sub-dream 1 over..

The shaking in this dream felt more like an earthquake than an explosion. However, I could not tell for sure. I also had another dream two nights ago...

Sub-dream 2 "Massive Explosions at Europe's Attractions" begins...

There were massive explosions near every large tourist attraction in Europe. I saw the London Tower drop its clock arms to six. Another explosion then rocked the area. The London Tower then fell. I could hear screaming. As I looked, I saw a small black cloud. However, the black cloud didn't stay small. The black cloud swiftly overcame the entire area. I could hear the screams of so many...

"London has fallen! Brussels has fallen! Paris has succumbed!"

I could hear screams of terror coming from everywhere. I could see thick smoke everywhere. I then saw a sight hard to adequately describe. A massive chunk of black pavement with yellow lane markers appeared to float in the air. I knew that, when it fell, all those below it would be crushed.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, these dreams are terrifying. While don't receive deliveries here, there are many foreign utility workers who ask a lot of questions. I don't like feeling like we are being watched and counted. It is disturbing. Officials are now calling the invasion from the southern border 'Seasonal Migration', like they are some sort of animal or bird flock that are free to come and go as they please.

Me: "Oh Lord, a war is coming and it is unlike any other war. This is because it will not be them fighting against our army, but instead directly fighting families in their homes."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Be diligent."

Me: "Lord, what about these dreams? Both of them were horrible."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, these are not easy days ahead. Understand what has occurred. Here is their plan, much of which has already unfolded..."

- The migration went out into all of the nations. Most reporting of various incidents against the citizens went unreported. Since crimes against Jews and Christians were covered up, no one really paid attention.
- Powerful leaders invested money into leaders in business and government to gain power and change the narratives. The leaders in place at the top of these governments have been paid to look the other way and tell citizens this is false reporting when a bad report comes.
- They needed to disarm the population. Instead, more people purchased guns. They now plan to confiscate each weapon that has been registered to a location.
- In the meantime, while the plague shuttered churches and the people indoors, registries of vaccines also went out.
- Foreign governments put their leaders in power over the people.
- Their main goal is to harm the great nation over all nations (the USA) and the nation of Israel.
- They plan to hunt down and kill anyone who are opposed to them. They plan to invade their homes and steal their properties.
- They wish to displace the citizens by death or slavery and take over all they lay claim to.
- They wish to remove all of the Jewish people and all of the Christians.
- You will see the rise in the countries of northern Europe first. It will then spread from there.

“This is how evil operates. They integrate or penetrate peaceful regions and then appeal to the goodness in the citizens. When the citizens then change for the foreigners, troubles begin. This is often referred to as ‘compromise’. Erin, you know this... there is no negotiating with people whose main objective is to destroy all that is good and die as a martyr in the process. However, you are to remember this... I see it. I have allowed this because the people turned their faces away from Me.”

Me: “How did this happen?”

Jesus: “When a foreigner comes into a host country and says, ‘Poor me, your churches and your God make me feel uncomfortable and are signs of hate.’ The country then throws away their principals under God and seek to appease the foreigners and their beliefs, thereby elevating them. They even place their evil gods on signs for all to see. More are then allowed in and the cycle continues and accelerates.”

Me: “But, Lord, our government is not a real one. How then can the people be blamed for all of this?”

Jesus: “If the people would turn back to God, turn back to Me, in fullness, then I will no longer hide My face from them. I will turn and heal the land.”

Me: “Lord, please! Your people love You and pray. Please don’t punish all of us for the actions of those who do such evil.”

Jesus: “Do not worry as I have a Great Plan! Erin, I am about to do something in your day you would not believe even if I told you. Now, this doesn’t mean doom and gloom as you put it.”

Me: “It sure seems that way to me.”

Jesus: “There are events still to come. Remember that it is always the most discouraging before good news comes. It is darkest before the dawn and the dawn comes quickly. Now, remember that I am God over all things and that all of My promises are true. I am here and even at your door. I deliver the best news, food and drink, but more so I deliver you.”

Me: “I love You, Lord!”

Jesus: “And I love you. Just keep your focus on Me. All evil will be exposed very soon. Be ready! Are you ready?”

Me: “As ready as I will ever be!”

Jesus: “Good then... BE STILL! Be at peace knowing that I am God. I am the God of Justice and Mercy!”

Dream over.

746 – Prophecy to the Cave of Bashan

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for peace in our home as a war wages in Israel. It is difficult to imagine what the Jewish people are enduring with the evil nations surrounding them. Father, please bless Israel. Please protect them and keep them from the enemy's desire to wipe them out. Please turn and smite the enemy with the very evil they plot amongst the innocent.

I have not been well lately. If this pain continues, I plan to go to the hospital. I woke up with nausea in the middle of the night at 2:00am. I then fell back to sleep. I woke up from my dream around 4:00am and finally fell back to sleep only to be awakened suddenly by a loud 'bang' outside on our property. When I got up, I couldn't see anything. The dream I was having was quite vivid...

Sub-dream 1 "Prophecy to the Cave of Bashan" begins...

I was traveling with my daughter and one of my sons. We were fleeing Portland OR by ground. We made it as far as Silver Falls on foot. We were then met by two indigenous men in a city park. They were taking us to one of their sacred places. We were walking on a dried mud road with extremely deep grooves.

The grooves made traveling by foot challenging. We finally came to a small village on an outcropping with white stucco dwellings. It was a very arid place. We were no longer in Oregon. It seemed to be someplace in the Middle East. There they pointed to a distant ridge with a massive church-like temple. It looked uninhabited.

Man 1: "This is as far as we can take you. The rest is up to you."

Me: "How will we get there?"

Man 2: "You won't make it. It has not been done."

Me: "Is there a road or trail?"

Man 1: "Yes. However, they are extremely dangerous. Pray to your God."

Man 2: "You can go up the road over the first ridge. From there, you will need to leave this road."

Me: Looking at my kids. "You can't go with me."

Kids: "We insist. We wouldn't leave you no matter what."

Me: Reluctantly. "Okay, but you need to be careful."

We walked for hours before reaching the first ridge. We looked across a deep valley between the ridges. It was thick forest leading to dry arid land.

Daughter: "Oh mom, look closer!"

She pointed to the floor of the valley. What I thought were bleached pieces of wood and sticks were actually bones. I could tell from the small size of the bones that they were mostly from children. I became sick in my dream and the nausea came in real life. I woke up. I heard the Lord's Voice...

Jesus: "Prophecy to the Cave of Bashan!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Father, what was this dream about? What is Bashan?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I stand at the Gates of Hell and I will shut it. I will destroy it. It is there where I proclaim that I am God and that I prevail over darkness. I am the Light of the world. Whoever follows Me will never walk in darkness. They will have the Light of Life instead.

"Now, where did I state this? Where did I proclaim that this rock would be the place I built My church upon and that the Gates of Hell will not prevail against it."

Me: "I realize I know so very little about Your time here, Lord. I just had a crash course on Caesarea Phillipi. I am so sorry."

Jesus: "Erin, My Church is vacant and all the sacrifices of the children of those who love Me are here. They are here along with the children of the wicked Baal worship. Where is this?"

Me: "Well, from my dream, those traveling to Your Church as pilgrims were slaughtered, along with their children. They lay in the same place as those who sacrifice babies to Baal."

Jesus: "You are partially correct. The trouble coming from this place of history still continues as the Gates of Evil and all its hosts go to and fro.

They seek to control My Rock, My Church and My people. They rejoice through death. However, I hold the keys to death and Hades and it is I who has the final say.

“This place is where I revealed who I am. I am the Light of the World. This is also where I proclaimed another name for Simon and this is Peter and that on this rock I will build My Church and the Gates of Hell will not overcome it. Note that I didn’t say that all Hell won’t try to, just that Hell will not prevail to overcome it. Now, I declared something else... a mystery.”

Me: “I looked in Scripture to find this...”

Matthew 16:13-19: 13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” 14 And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” 15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” 16 Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” 17 And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in Heaven. 18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My Church, and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. 19 I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on Earth shall be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth shall be loosed in Heaven.”

“I believe that verse 19 might be the mystery.”

Jesus: “Yes. This is about authority over all of this... the permission, the signet ring, the key, the ability to forbid a thing or permit a thing. However, it means even more than this. Now, you ask Me often, ‘Lord, are You sure You can’t find a better person than me for Your purposes? I don’t know much except that I love You!’”

Me: “Yes, Lord, I say this all of the time.”

Jesus: “Do you think that I didn’t know you from the beginning... how you were and are and how I made you to be? Of course I did and I don’t make mistakes. Who in My Story is perfect and has a perfect lineage or history?”

Me: “No one.”

Jesus: “Well, it is perfect in My eyes for My purposes. However, man judges and sits on the judgment seat of popular opinion. Now, I chose Peter absolutely knowing in advance that he was to deny Me three times. Even so, I still chose him to build My Church. Now, you have questions.”

Me: "Yes, Lord, many and always. Am I correct when I read that Peter ended up being persecuted too?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, through him, My Church was established. Sometimes it is through death that new life springs forth."

Me: "But, Lord, You said something to all of the disciples that hasn't happened. This is from Scripture too..."

John 14:12-14: 12"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I do (raising the dead, blind to see, the lame to walk, the lepers healed and so on); and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. 13 Whatever you ask in My name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask Me anything in My Name, I will do it.

"Well, Lord, here we are and we are asking in Your Name for us to be healed and Transformed and for our service in Your Holy Army to now begin!"

Jesus: "Ah yes... you wonder about this and when this is to be?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. The disciples didn't do anything more or greater than You. This has not happened yet. Since we are coming to the end soon, it means that this must be happening in the near future for those who You will soon raise up! Again, we ask for You to soon raise us up for Your Mighty Purposes and for the Glory of God, our Perfect Father! Oh Lord, all of us on Your Nest can hardly wait!"

Jesus: "Prophecy to the Cave of Bashan. Declare it shut."

I then looked up the location of the Cave of Bashan. Bashan is outside the Golan Heights in Syria.

Me: "I am still unsure of what this means."

Jesus: "It is at the base of Mount Hermon. Declare it closed! Pray! I am about to shut this Gate and throw down the mountain over it. The activities of evil will be held back. Now, pray that this be stopped because the evil prince of this area has come against Israel and a great army is soon to be released.

Me: "Of course, Lord, You are God over all things. Your Gates, the Gates of Your Church, shall be open continually. These shall not be shut day or night. In Your Church, there shall be no darkness there. However, woe to the people who practice darkness at the Gates of Bashan, those who sacrifice their children to Baal, those who keep the Gates of Hell open day and night to pray for the destruction of God's people.

"Today, their Gates will be close and evil spirits, powers, principalities and all that operate in darkness will not be able to open the gate that God has shut. Lord, call down the mighty mountain of Bashan over it. Do this for all the evil contracts made there against the children of God.

"Oh, how many plots were hatched there at the Gates of the Fallen at Mount Hermon. Close this Gate, Lord, and let not these evils come against Your people. You are God, our Father, and the Lord over all things. I declare this in Your Mighty Name, AMEN!"

Jesus: "Very good! Then this will be done. Now, you don't understand fully what this is yet, but soon you will. Rejoice, Erin. Do not worry. I am with you. Be ready!"

Dream over.

747 – The False King is Soon to be Exposed

Communion

Dear Father,

You are wonderful and glorious in all of Your Works! Thank You for another day here. Thank You for all You do. Thank You for my family, our home and our Nest. Bless the works of the hands who love You and the pen that serves You. My sleep was difficult last night. My very soul is in a state of unrest. My body is rejecting food and water.

Father, I am sick. My sleep was disturbed and broken up with illness and restlessness. Please don't allow the spirit of death to fall upon our house. I ask for death, illness and the spirit of poverty to flee our house. I declare life, vitality and abundance here over all of us. I pray for this in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!

I awoke from my first dream (written below) to Your Voice...

"Speak to Pergamon as My Sword is a double-edged one!"

I then awoke from my second dream (also written below) to Your Voice...

"Prophecy over the Valley of Jezreel. Prepare this ground in advance, for what is sown there shall be reaped by Me and the Armies of Heaven. The Mountain of Megiddo will be no more!"

I am clearly receiving a complex Bible geographical lesson. I know a little of Pergamon and I have seen the name of Jezreel in the Bible. Please show me how to prophesy to these. All of this seemed to relate to two dreams I had last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The 'real' king and the mannequin king" begins...

I saw an altar of Pergamon with a throne. It was all staged. It was like a theater for a big event. While the actors were modern day, the stage and place had ancient origins. The main actor was dressed as a 'king of the people and for the people'. However, he was not actually from the native land of the people. It was all lies. While he then proclaimed he was 'for the people', he actually wanted their death.

However, he didn't just want their physical death, he also wanted the death of their souls. All were called to attend this theater and they had no choice. As I saw this theatrical scene play out, I could see the faces of the actors changing back and forth. I saw an audience of thousands and thousands. All were captivated by the 'king's' speech. However, the way this all unfolded was confusing.

I saw half of the people fall down before this acting king. They were literally worshipping him. These were once principled people who were well-educated and knew history and religion. However, they were ashamed of Christians and even Jews. A common part of their speech was to proclaim, 'I was raised Christian, but...' This resulted in them being easily led away.

The other half looked upon this theater as false. It was not real to them. They felt that this could never happen to them and it was merely folly. Despite this, they still saw the danger in sprinkling truth into a script of lies.

Most people in both halves noticed that the king was so believable in his speech and acting that they believed that many could turn from their beliefs and morals in order to follow such a way. After the first two acts, there was an intermission... a pause. The audience got up to stretch and move around. The actor playing the king soon became very angry at the audience for not giving him the praise he had hoped for... he then dropped the microphone.

In response, he told the other actors that he was going to go 'off-script' and give the audience more. When the audience then returned for the 3rd Act, a mannequin king was sitting on a footstool next to the real king's throne (but obviously really a false king compared to Jesus, the True King). Several other actors made the mannequin king move in many different positions according to the real king's orders.

The real king then became angry at the audience's reaction. One side laughed and cheered. The other side knew this actor was no longer acting. This half sat and watched in silence as the entire act played out. The real king made the mannequin king hurt anyone opposed to the real king. Jokes were made that insulted those who were quiet. All the while, the other side was stirred and mimicked the real king's movements.

In the 4th Act, the real king started to call for the removal of those in the audience who stood for God. The audience then suddenly became quiet. The audience who had supported him suddenly became aware that they had a decision to make. They became self-aware that they had been deceived. Many of them then stood next to the other audience. This left only 25% of the audience to support this king.

This evil actor king then called upon the audience to sacrifice themselves and their children to him. As some in the audience didn't like this, they went over to the majority side. The king called them all hypocrites. I awoke when the entire stage was lit up by lightning.

Sub-dream 1 over.

As I mentioned before, I awoke from this dream to Your Voice...

"Speak to Pergamon as My Sword is a double-edged one!"

Father, it seems like Pergamon is a place of wicked speech. Please remove the enemy's ability to deceive. As I watched this king, I saw how much hatred he had in his eyes. He enjoyed manipulation. He enjoyed speaking hate and dividing. This 'king' has divided the world against Christians and Jews.

Please strike down this evil stage and throw it into the sea. It is as if Hitler has risen by another spirit, another name and another religion. The audience seemed to compromise their love for You, Father, to follow this false acting king. As for the second dream, there was a scene that I was familiar with...

Sub-dream 2 "Your time has come!" begins...

I was once here at this place years ago. I woke up in a place where I was hidden away. I was young and in a white linen tunic dress. I was in a bright room. I heard a bird chirping in the room, so I got up to follow it. I walked through an opening down a short hallway. Since the area was all white rock, I could see an opening.

I saw the bird perched on a wall blocking the entrance from view. The bird waited for me to follow. I then turned to my right and I could see a massive plain or valley. There in the center were some ruins and large boulders that had destroyed whatever was once there. There were columns of smoke.

Someone then sounded a shofar. I looked all around and saw others coming out of their hidden places. On the ground by my dwelling was a white rock with an inscription on it. I then noticed that each person had one. I then saw a mighty angel of the Lord on a beautiful large white horse in the valley. I then heard a thundering voice...

"Come out, come out! Your time has come! The Kingdom comes!"

He had his horse prance in the most amazing way. He had incredible control over his horse. Thousands of God's people were gathering. It was dawn.

Sub-dream 2 over..

As I also mentioned before, I awoke from this dream to Your Voice...

"Prophesy over the Valley of Jezreel. Prepare this ground in advance, for what is sown there shall be reaped by Me and the Armies of Heaven. The Mountain of Megiddo will be no more!"

Me: "Father, these dreams were very clear even though I am still not sure about the second dream. All I know is that a great battle occurred there. You once told me this was near Mt. Carmel. I don't know this area."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Remember that I am God over all things. I am the Giver of Good Gifts and the Keeper of Mysteries. I am also the God who brings revelation. Now, understand how Israel has been compromised over the years. This is My Land. This is the Promised Land of My Chosen People.

"However, those who are the ones sacrificing their own children to their evil causes are not peaceful inhabitants. They hate with a deep, vile hatred for the land and the Jewish people. This is the land of the sons of Jacob. Any other truth is not to be believed. The root comes from the fallen and from the chiefs who made a contract together to destroy God's children.

"These spirits and princes are all throughout the land. Then to the north is the seat of Satan and there is his lying spirit, his stage. There at this place, he hatches plots and schemes with others to remove this or that. While he acts as god, I know his seat. I know where he is and what he is about to do.

"He also knows where I am and believes he knows Me. However, he does not know Me. If he knew Me, he would never come against Israel and stir up the audience of the world against her. He has multiple paths to take to achieve his ways. However, I have a better way and he will not prevail. Erin, be clear about what you see and about what has happened."

Me: "I have seen someone rise who claims to be a Christian. However, You have told me that there is something to someone's name. This man changed his birth name to a Muslim name and never went back to a Christian name. By his name alone, he serves a false god. His speech was smooth and he came out of nowhere just sixteen years ago. He seemed like a bright and shiny star. He rose up to lead the people of the USA. His first order was then to take out the enemy responsible for 9/11.”

Jesus: “He knew that enemy, Erin. They knew each other.”

Me: “I didn’t know that.”

Jesus: “It was a martyr’s death. This incident then neutralized all of those who doubted him. Many then removed their best instincts and followed him. His hatred for his people then grew. He benefitted from evil. He sent money all over the world to prepare for his rise over the world. He took a pilgrimage to his holy Mecca. Everyone made excuses about him doing this and people believed the lies.

“The people of the nations have been deceived. Many have been given over to these deceptions. When I give you a specific location, wisdom as to why I have pointed to this place is important. Look at the original gods that worshipped in this area. Look at the places where replicas have gone out from these ruins.”

Me: “Oh my, there are a number of these! There is Berlin in Germany. In the USA, we have Denver CO. There is Turkey. There are even places in New York City. Then there is the Ishtar Gate!”

Jesus: “Now, understand that these are evil altars. The fallen angels came from heavenly places. They knew God, His Throne, His Altar, the Altar of His Presence and all that is with God in Heaven. This altar and seat of evil on Earth is a counterfeit designed to mock God. There is always a deeper meaning behind every action directed at Me and My angel armies. This is Satan’s seat. You have seen the Throne Room of God in Heaven. Did you forget?”

Me: “No, of course not, Lord. I could never forget this. However, I could not see fully because God’s Glory is greater than my ability to see. However, I do recall rows of columns and the majesty of the architecture. The Blue Sea, the Living Stone of Glass, is impossible to forget. However, this Pergamon is not even close to Your architecture. It is a poor-quality replica and of a much smaller scale. Lord, there are so many facets to Your story. Help me understand what I can do. How do I pray?”

Jesus: “This leader is now over your land. Most of the Earth is his ‘oyster’. Even though he has established himself as for the people, he is not of the people. His tongue is dull and he thinks himself clever. He has caused nations to rise against nations. He has called for criminals to rise up and for terrorists to come to the land of opportunity. He has prepared God’s lands for his great reaping against Me. Well, Erin, he will not prevail as I have a Great Plan.

"Now, prophesy that his seat is overthrown by God and that the evil on Mt. Carmel come back upon them. Let us decide in the Valley of Jezreel as I remove the Mountain of Megiddo in the place of My reaping. My River Kishon runs through this. It will be through My River of Living Water that judgment shall come. The Living Water of God is in My people and My army. This is the final battle and My victory."

Me: "I speak for God's victory, along with His angel army, to completely destroy the Mountain of Megiddo which contains the hidden places of evil practices by those who long to harm God's Land and His people. Fill every cave and hidden corridor with the light of Your judgment and let the light of Your presence and goodness be harvested here. Lord, let Your River of Living Water give life to those who love You and stand with You and let those who waver be exposed.

"Let all of those against You be judged and their lives be no more. For anyone who comes against Your people, Your Land of Israel and all the nations dedicated to You under Your Rule, let them know that they are coming against the very apple of Your Eye. Let the Valley of Decision be Holy Ground and the River of Living Water wash away the blood evidence of evil against Your people. The victory is Yours, Father. Forever and ever, Lord. Heaven is Your Throne and Earth is Your Footstool. I pray this in Your Mighty Name, AMEN!"

Jesus: "Very good, Erin. I accept your declaration of prophecy."

Me: "Lord, could You give me Divine Wisdom concerning these places? I only know my land, our homeland."

Jesus: "Look to where the enemy has set up his replica seat and his foundation stone. This is where he called up his army. He will be exposed soon as what happens to Israel will follow the nations who did not stand with her. The enemy is taking an account."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this. Your miracles for all to see have not been seen. Create Elijah-type miracles throughout the nations to come against this swarm of evil. In Your Name, let Your Kingdom come, let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Jesus: "Hmm, another declaration. This is good! I agree. Proclaim it and believe it will be done."

Me: "I do. Oh yes... one other thing, if you would... Lord, send all of the wicked people back to their lands and hold them there. Then send salvation to those who call out to You in all of the lands. Then in our land, let it be repaired and miracles be on display.”

Jesus: “This is good. I will consider this even though things might be in a different order. However, your outcome is accepted. Now rejoice, Erin, as your prayers have been heard.”

Me: “Lord, one other thing... I am not well. I also have friends and family who need miracles. Could You please...”

Jesus: “Erin, I have declared that healing is coming!”

Dream over.

748 – Mountains of Lessons to Learn

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for all things! Thank You for both the mountains in our lives and the valleys in our lives. These are the places that we are found by You. You are our everlasting Father, our Creator and our Best Friend. We have been created for Your pleasure, not the other way around. Even so, You delight in those who delight in You. You then make our hearts glad. Father, we love You.

This wait has been a long one. It has been filled with hopes deferred. Each day we open it and think perhaps today You will show Yourself to us and fulfill Your promises. Then at the close of each new day, when we rest our heads and lie down on our pillows, we thank You as we take an account of our day and reflect on ways we need correction. We then ask for another dawn to come.

Still, Father, if this is not Your Will, we then pray that the angels from on high take us to be with You in eternity, the beautiful place You have prepared for those who love You. Thank You, Father, for another new day. Please take my day, but really Your day, and use me for Your Glory, Amen. I awoke to the Voice of the Lord:

“Come to My Mountains of Truth – Horeb & Sinai – Arise & Come!”

I had quite the dream last night that related to this...

Sub-dream 1 “Horeb and Sinai are Separate Mountains” begins...

I was traveling south on a road from Israel. There were thousands of us walking this road. We were all dressed in white. The entire area was desolate and with no growth. The place was useless for a city or anything else. The dirt was blown at us when strong winds came from the south. Despite this, our clothing never became dirty.

While it was hot, not one of us was sweltering in the sun as we walked. While we could have arrived at our destination faster, we instead all understood that this physical journey was one of reflection and instruction from God. We were all quiet and somber. All of us had seen horrible things.

As we came closer to our destination, we saw road signs that called us away from the destination that God had set for us. There was also a tourist trap near this place. One of the angels of the Lord announced to us in a voice and language that all of us could hear and understand...

"This is the roadway that leads to lies! Although this sign says 'Holy Site', it is an evil altar set up with graven images! Many have been deceived by this road!"

Then one of the saints made an announcement...

"Let's remove it, crush it and destroy their altars and graven images."

We all cheered. The angel then shouted out, "Let us go!"

We soon arrived at a site that had a religious church with painted images. There were tourist items on display. There was also a replica of 'the burning bush'. There were other things that we saw. We stood together and called a mountain down upon the tourist site and the evil church. The mountain shook.

We all cheered when the evil church was leveled. We then went back to our original road. There was singing and joy after all of these were removed. Finally, we arrived at a beautiful place. There was a beautiful oasis in the middle of this desolate area between two mountains.

Angel of the Lord: "This is the mountain Horeb and this is Mount Sinai. These are two separate mountains. Where you are standing is Holy Ground. Now, wait on the Lord God. He has done marvelous things here. Drink from the wellspring of life. Rejoice, sing, eat, rest and be glad... for the Lord has done marvelous things for you."

Before our very eyes, the valley was suddenly beautiful. There was lush greenery and trees with fruit. There was also meat to eat and fresh bread for us. The temperature was perfect. We all praised God and waited on Him.

Sub-dream 1 over.

When I got up, I heard the Voice of the Lord make an announcement...

"Come to My Mountains of Truth – Horeb & Sinai – Arise & Come!"

Oh Father, I heard You yesterday when I woke up tell Me: "Consider Mount Horeb!" I was unable to come to You yesterday as work was being done to repair our roof. It was too noisy and distracting to give focus on You fully.

I referenced Mount Horeb and it is related to Elijah (1 Kings 19). After my dream last night, I looked up Mount Horeb and Mount Sinai. The material I found on this falsely outlines that Mount Horeb and Mount Sinai are the same mountain. Mount Sinai is known for Moses having his burning bush experience with You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "This is a grand illusion. While there are clearly two mountains, they are met by a pasture. Evil men used the other false mountain location for convenience and commerce. They traded lies as truth and many a child of God purchased this illusion. However, this was allowed by Me. But this... this place is sacred. It is Mine. It is separate and apart from all mountains.

"Elijah knew this place and ran there for shelter and answers. Moses was over at the other mountain where he received My Commandments. Both of these mountains are where I am. I am in the mountains and the valleys here. Elijah traveled 40 days and 40 nights to flee his greatest enemy. This too was My journey of testing in the desert."

I paused here when a blue jay hit my kitchen window. Its neck was backward and it looked dead. I could see that it was barely breathing. I lifted it up and sat it in my hands for ten minutes or more. It was windy, rainy and 44 degrees, so I took it to the cover over the front steps to rest.

It wouldn't leave my hands. Finally, I was able to have it go to the porch landing outside our door. It stood staring at me. I went to retrieve a small towel. It flew off my hands and is still resting. I prayed that God would heal him and care for him. I then went back to the Lord.

Jesus: "Erin, I send you signs and wonders. You are hesitating to write because you are concerned you will have opposition or arguments from those who find you unschooled in the Bible. However, I sent you a great sign. Write what I tell you to write and great will be your reward. This was a message of blue skies on a dark day, a clear message from Me.

"The enemy sends counterfeits to lead astray those who long for truth. The dream showed you how well-meaning people of faith in Me can be led down another path. Priests, scholars and travelers love to hear themselves talk. They claim to have had visions there and miracles at the false sight. They then have a green bush that they declare as a burning bush.

“Well, how can this be when man still has to care for it. If this was truly from Me, the bush would be taken care of supernaturally. They present this so that people have an empty wallet instead of believing in the empty tomb. This is a museum of icons and relics. What is the difference between this and a golden calf?

“The enemy led all visitors astray again. This is a fallen root of the Gates of Bashan. Don’t believe it. That is fine though as this is My place to bring those whom I call friends, those for My purposes. This is the place of refreshment and celebration. This is a place of renewal. This is the place of the power of God and My goodness.”

Me: “I thought that the blue jay hitting my window was a sign to stop writing.”

Jesus: “Well, the pause in this instance was beneficial, especially for that little bird. He won’t forget you. Now, I show you all of this to reassure you that I am with you. While I know all of this is foreign to you, these are important to Me and soon also to you. Now, you are witnessing the world turning away from Israel. Many who claimed to stand for her are now turning to run. Great division and upheaval are coming to the nations.”

Me: “Lord, You led me to a Scripture that is for now... Isaiah 63:18-19: 18 Concerning Israel, Your Holy People held possession for a little while, our adversaries have trampled down Your Sanctuary. 19 We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those who are not called by Your Name.

“Then there was Isaiah 64:3-4: 3 When You did awesome things that we did not look for, You came down, the mountains quaked at Your presences. 4 From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides You.

“Lord, You are looking for those who look to You. We are looking. Your judgment is coming and man is not in fear. They want to destroy all Jews and Christians. Please help us.

“Then there is Isaiah 64:10-11: 10 Your Holy Cities have become a wilderness, Zion (the USA?) too has become a wilderness and Jerusalem a desolation. 11 Our holy and beautiful house where our fathers praised You has been burned by fire and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

"Is this also for now, Lord? While I know Your Temple hasn't been rebuilt, will Jerusalem be destroyed? Will all the places of Your evidence here on Earth be destroyed?"

Jesus: "The evidence is My Word. Much has been gathered as evidenced. The wicked are calling for the destruction of specifically two nations. One nation represents Christians (USA) and the other represents Jews (Israel). Jacob + Judah. Erin, in order for people to be humbled, it is often through the removing of all that was good. Those who live by the sword die by the sword and they inherit no Kingdom of Heaven. They have hated for no reason other than they were raised to hate.

"Now, your prayers avail much for the lost. For those in Jerusalem and in the Promised Land, I have a great plan for redemption. Pray for this. I am with those who fight for what God has given them. I am not with those who pretend to shed tears, yet then allow their own children to go before them in battle and they stand behind them. I am not with them. They will be exposed.

"Those who stand with evil will soon find themselves kneeling before evil. The war continues on against Me and all those who stand for Me. However, do not be fooled by liars who claim to know Me better than I know Myself. Only My Father in Heaven knows Me better. I therefore do His Will. This will not be an easy time.

"Understand this... the days of destruction precede the days of miracles and, if it was not done this way, no one would then care about the God of Miracles. As for now, these are the great days of alternate truth. Do not believe this evil. Continue to stay true to My Voice. Do not doubt or be dismayed. One day very soon, you will be at the Mountain of God."

Me: Smiling. "I suppose You could also mean 'mountains'... well, technically, right?"

Jesus: Laughing. "Good catch! Either way, you do not need to prophecy over My Mountains today."

Me: "Can I pray and prophesy against the counterfeit mountains?"

Jesus: "Certainly!"

Me: "I speak the following from Isaiah in Your Name..."

Isaiah 65:8-16: 8 Thus says the Lord: "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for My servants' sake, and not destroy them all. 9 I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah possessors of My mountains; My chosen shall possess it, and My servants shall dwell there. 10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for My people who have sought Me. 11 But you who forsake the Lord, who forget My Holy Mountain, who set a table for fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for destiny, 12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in My eyes and chose what I did not delight in."

13 Therefore thus says the Lord God: "Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame; 14 behold, My servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for pain of heart and shall wail for breaking of spirit. 15 You shall leave your name to My chosen for a curse, and the Lord God will put you to death, but His servants He will call by another name, 16 so that he who blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and he who takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hidden from My eyes.

"Lord, I declare these things and the blessings You have bestowed upon Your children who love You. Remove all of the evil. I ask this in Your Mighty Name, Amen!"

Jesus: Laughing. "Hmm, some of this was a bit dark here and there." His Voice then became serious again. "But, yes, of course, by My declaration in My Word, I will accept this."

Me: "Lord, it feels so different in the world now. I don't want to leave my family alone here. I also don't want to miss anything."

Jesus: "You won't. I have a Great Plan. However, remember this... just as Damascus is 'no more', so too is Babylon. Many evil armies are plotting to not only remove the Jewish people, but also Christians. They want their cities to also suffer the same fate."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a Great Plan! Do not worry. I am with you."

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for being God and good in all things! We are so blessed by You. We are thankful. Our hearts will be forever grateful that You called us and that Your hand is over all we do. Yesterday was Veterans Day. This is the day we remember the ultimate sacrifice that was made so that we could live free and die free. However, the news is not on honoring the brave today.

Instead, the news is all about the riots that have broken out in our cities. While these riots are against the Jewish people, they will soon be also about the Christians that support them. We need to believe what they say against us and that they intend to fully carry out what they say. Foreign governments are coming forward and testifying that they were aware of the coup d'état in America in 2020.

However, they were too scared to report on it. Father, when You told me a few years ago to watch the activities of our then leader before the transfer of power, I didn't fully understand the magnitude of what was occurring. 2020 was manufactured at the leadership of this ex-president. The Trump then sounded the alarm like a clarion call and the world was offended. Perhaps the world was told to be offended?

In 2012 to 2016, the enemy set up its plan, a great one. It even had a Jezebel figure rise up to even greater power. They didn't expect that You would hurt their plans. Your Trump card drew them out of hiding. They then proclaimed outrage and anger against all of the people who voted for him. They then continued to plot against America from within. Evil operated greatly, but more so in the shadows.

Our most trusted leaders then reversed the propaganda ban that had been in place in our country since the 1950s. This allowed our government to control the media using the CIA. However, when searching the information, it is interesting to find it carefully veiled. Only one former president was actively involved in all of media. He has influenced every aspect of what we see, including news, movies, music and social media.

Oh Father, how can we know anything to be true? The enemy uses lies sprinkled with a little truth in order to bend eager and itchy ears. Way too many years ago, people mostly spoke truth with just a few 'mistruths' sprinkled in. All of the lies came upon us so very quickly. We are watching the fall of the world happening right before our eyes. Everything that is Yours is being attacked right now.

Father, Israel is Your land and You gave this land as an inheritance to the Jewish people. This once included even Jordan, all of the West Bank and Gaza too. Activists in countries all over the world have been risen up like a massive army against the Jewish people, but also Christian 'Zionist' sympathizers. These activists are calling for the extermination of all Jews and 'Zionists'. We are talking complete genocide!

All of the media is now activated as an arm of the global military against all of God's people. However, who is God's? The Jews are God's measuring line or plumbline. So too are those who are Christians. I believe You have a special plan for the salvation of the Jewish people as they are Your special possessions. However, we also know the following words from You...

1 John 2:23: No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father as well.

This is the truth! We as Christians fight amongst ourselves over petty things like interpretations or personal beliefs about the Word of God. However, it is essential to remember that our primary belief should be that our only salvation is our belief in You, Lord! Our brothers and sisters in Christ are not our enemies. We also know the following from the Gospel...

John 11:26: Everyone who believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?

We are therefore to understand these things. The sins we commit here that are unconfessed will all go before God. All will one day give account to the Father for all of our sins. The Lord then gave me some insight about the hate for the Jewish people by the Muslims. This is actually much greater than the hate the Nazis had. The following characterizes the attacks that were made against the Jews by the Nazis...

- The Germans tried to coverup their crimes.
- The soldiers who executed the Jewish people were so guilt ridden by their crimes that they drank at night.

- The German people did not know the extent of the crimes of Hitler because so much was hidden.
- While many of the Germans were taught to hate, most of them didn't know why they believed Goebel's Nazi propaganda.

However, the army of Islam that has now risen against Israel and all those who support her have even harsher characteristics than the Nazis...

- The vast majority in this religion have been raised to hate Jews from their birth.
- They believe every lie they have been told about them.
- They commit their crimes in full view of the world and are proud of it.
- They do not hide their great joy and glee over their horrific bloody displays of hatred of the Jewish people.
- They are so proud of their sadistic acts that they even filmed it on go-pros.
- They are like locusts of hate with iron teeth who are stripping the world of anything good.

Father, Islamic leaders have warned us that we in the other nations (Europe, Canada, USA, South America and so on) 'are next' and that they are coming for us! Their sole ambition is to spread fear and violence throughout the nations. While they have powerful leaders, there is one in particular (a former president before Trump) who has weaponized the media against Israel, Christians and anyone opposed to them.

We are to always remember that, whatever they accuse us of or claim, they themselves have done or plan to do. The people of Gaza claim that the Jewish people have committed genocide against them. However, the stats show the opposite. There is a boom in births. Over half of their population are young people. In a genocide, a society never prospers via their young people. It is the opposite of what is happening in Gaza.

Father, we have no hope unless You help us. Please don't forget Your Great Harvest. Many of my dreams have been of wars lately. In most of them there is a common theme, I am left alone here. All the young men, the old men and the young women have been called up into a draft. The war against Your people has been really from the beginning. However, You placed signs hidden in plain site before our very eyes. Still, so many never see these as signs.

You then reminded me that there is something in a name and that a person's name is important. You also reminded me that all of this has been allowed by You. We are here at the times of the end. Each protest is labelled peaceful by the media. However, it is not peaceful. What we see is anything but peaceful. The rise in lies, propaganda and hate are alarming.

All of this is so extreme that it will definitely lead to the call for genocide against Your people. How will we endure without Your divine help? This is a battle unlike any other and it is being waged on so many fronts, yet still in complete unison. They have attacked on three primary fronts as follows...

- Front 1 – The Downgrade of America: They did this and are doing this in so many different ways...
 - The first order of business for the enemy was to downgrade America in the eyes of the world.
 - This included high inflation, the invasion at the borders and the weaponization of the media against citizens.
 - They discredit churches and anyone with conservative values.
 - They now overthrow the elections by deception by making them so close that there is 'plausible deniability'.
 - People are then left uncertain and confused.
 - Government officials who are truly guilty are never held accountable.
 - They have replaced the national flag with BLM flags, Pride flags and Palestinian flags, thereby bringing down a country's sense of allegiance.
 - They continue this war to shame a whole nation – this is happening now.
- Front 2 – Take Down Israel: At first, I thought they would need to take the USA out first to take down Israel. However, I now see that this is not required. They instead needed to have the USA, Canada, Europe and other democratic nations weakened by foreigners first. The take down of Israel is now in full operation.
- Front 3 – Take Down the Church: Take down the church by attacking Christians throughout the world. Command them to give allegiance to the Black Dragon or die. This is already happening in many countries. Eventually, all will need to receive 'The Mark of Two Swords' or die. This has been in play for many years and will only ramp up.

Oh Father, I can see that we are so very close to the end now. Please don't forget Your promises. So many of our friends, as well as us, need all of Your promises now. I had two dreams last night. Here is the first dream...

Sub-dream 1 "Elijah & Enoch readied for Greater Service" begins...

I saw two Olive Trees. They were beautiful and perfect. They stood on the mount overlooking Jerusalem. I then saw a beautiful river. It was the River of Life in Heaven. I was just an observer of something so beautiful and incredibly joyful that it is difficult to adequately describe.

Gathered together on all sides of the River were the saints of God, both those who were once Jews and accepted Jesus as their Messiah and those who were gentiles who had accepted Him. All were gathered in white robes on the banks of the River. I then saw the angels of God behind them and over them.

I then saw the Lord in His majesty. He was clothed in the robe of the King and had His Crown on. He had amazing white garments on under his robe. He took His robe off and stepped into the beautiful River of Life. I saw the Heavens open and beautiful songs of worship to our King were over all the people. A multitude of white doves with wings of gold and silver feathers then came from the Open Heavens over all the area.

I then saw a ray of light shine down upon the area as 'Glory, Glory, Glory' was sung upon our King Jesus. I then saw Jesus take His two arms and stretch them out to the left and to the right of the River. I then saw what looked like Enoch and Elijah going into the River of Life. While I could not hear what was being said, they were being baptized in God's Living Water.

They were both then filled with the Divine Nature of God for His purposes. The Lord then brought both of them to the banks of the River and anointed them with priestly oil over their heads. Jesus then hugged them both. The crowds of saints cheered. I then saw angels with horses and a chariot like fire.

Note: I cannot adequately describe what this chariot was made of. It was like gold and bronze, yet also like flames that I knew would never go out. It was breathtaking!

I then saw Enoch and Elijah board the chariot. I somehow knew that this was a huge sign and that all of Heaven knew the times and all cheered for them. I then saw them move so quickly that it was followed by a sound like a sonic blast. While the sound of this sonic blast was somehow exhilarating, it woke me up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I sat straight up in bed. After taking a sip of water, I laid back down on my pillow. As I laid there, tears streamed from my eyes. I prayed the Lord's Prayer and then fell back to sleep. I then had my second dream from last night...

Sub-dream 2 "Elijah & Enoch arrive in Jerusalem" begins...

I saw stormy black skies over Jerusalem. The city was now half gone in smoke and fire. It appeared as if there were Two Trees looking over the area. These Two Trees were intact and so beautiful. As I turned to look towards Jerusalem, I heard a strange sound coming from the city. When I couldn't identify what this sound was, I turned back to the Two Trees.

I was now in complete awe! Elijah was now at the base of one Tree and Enoch was now at the base of the other Tree. Their appearance was like that of a flame, like the radiance of God. They appeared to glow like embers that would never burn out. The entire area grew darker. It was essentially now all black with the only exception being the light coming from Enoch and Elijah.

Evil crowds then started to gather against them. They all started to call for the Two Trees to be cut down, along with the two strangers (from their perspective). The voices of the Two Witnesses of God then completely caused the evil army to fall backwards to their death. This was on display for all of the nations to see.

Many then became terrified when these Two Witnesses spoke about each leader and each of their sins. I then woke up to a loud Voice making a grand shout out...

"INCOMING!"

Sub-dream 2 over..

I was too stirred-up and I couldn't get back to sleep after this.

Me: "Father, I know very little about the Book of Revelation. However, it now seems as if so much has already begun!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid in this late hour. I am the God over all things. You are witnessing the rapid rise of hate being established throughout the nations. However, the times of unhindered evil are coming to a close. Pray, Erin.

"You are attacked individually right now because anyone who is sounding the alarm and proclaiming that I am over all things is deemed a threat. The rise in evil is so pervasive that it will be difficult to discern who is against you. Therefore, be careful of what comes from your lips right now until I call you. This is wisdom. Pray. While you are not to be afraid, just don't disclose your position to those who you do not know theirs.

"Make no assumptions. When in doubt, keep your words few. Remember that the snake sells snake oil. While he makes salvation claims, it is still a snake. Snakes swallow their victims whole. Your signs of warning will be made obvious so there can be no doubt. Your signs of blessings will be clear and there shall be no doubt.

"Pray over the weakest and the young in every household as they are more easily led astray by the snake. Now, in so much as the Golem will not save the Jewish people, neither will meaningless idols, relics or symbols save you. However, be assured that the enemy will display these fully to deceive many to lure them out."

Me: "What is 'the Golem'?"

Jesus: "It is similar to what is a modern AI (artificial intelligence) figure that will disguise themselves as savior. Do not be deceived as this will not be Me. Be also careful of the Word of God as it gives you this as a primary example of how many will be deceived. The copies of My Words in books (book form) are more reliable going forward, so be careful. I will give you My Words of Truth when you ask.

Note: From Wikipedia, a golem is an animated, anthropomorphic being in Jewish folklore, which is entirely created from inanimate matter, usually clay or mud.

"Erin, the seas of lies are growing. It is better to dismiss them fully than to take in even a little. Remember that truth is the opposite of lies. This is wisdom. I have already told you many times that things would be bittersweet right now. The enemy thinks himself more clever than even the people and even more clever than God. However, I see. I see what he did to the innocent in Israel.

"Now, if they had been killed in the act of an ongoing war, then that would be one thing. However, this was even worse than a violent war breaking out suddenly. This was so vile that all of Heaven cried out in the Courts of God. Erin, I tell you the truth... those who did these vile things against the innocent will be no more. Their homes will be in the place of fire (the Lake of Fire). Once there, they will remember with no end their crimes and they will be forever in torment. Their glee will be completely removed."

Me: "Lord, I am scared. This 'migration', as they call it, is really an army invasion coming primarily from our southern border that will come after us all. What they want to happen to us is horrifying."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have a Great Plan. Their time of destruction undeterred is ending. All will be changed. Now, who wins... the 'two swords of the enemy' or the Two Lampstands of God? Rejoice and pray, Erin. Do not worry. Oh yes... there is a sign for you in your yard."

Me: "Yes. We have one tree with green leaves in our yard. All of the other trees everywhere no longer have any leaves. They are barren and sleeping for winter. However, this pretty little 12-foot maple tree still has green leaves."

Jesus: "It is out of due season."

Me: "Lord, what does this mean?"

Jesus: "This is a sign for you. Do not be weary of doing good in due season as you shall reap. Due season is like apples of gold in settings of silver. Even when all is cold and dreary and the days are short, My promises I have given you will still remain. This is all in the due season."

Me: "I was worried that this was like the fig tree."

Jesus: "This maple is not a fig; it is a maple. Its changes are clear and visible. This one in your yard is a sign of blessing. Erin, it is visible where you see it several times a day (that is, in direct view of my kitchen window). The birds shelter on its branches and the sun shines upon it."

Me: "Lord, it looked funny when snow fell on its green leaves."

Jesus: "Take it as a blessing and a sign. I am a Creative God and I can do things in dormant seasons. I can keep time current and I can move it back. I can call upon the sun, the moon and the stars to move at My Voice. Erin, there is absolutely nothing that I can't do!"

Me: "I am so grateful that this is true. Lord, You are amazing!"

Jesus: "Then do not worry! I am with you. I love you. You are Mine!"

Dream over.

750 – The Enemy Has Great Plans

Communion

Dear Father,

I love You! Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Word of Truth. Thank You for my family and our friends. Please continue to keep us and our house safe. Please keep all of the Nest Sparrows and their houses all over the world safe. The times are becoming worse. Your Will be done, Father, on Earth as it is in Heaven.

You have shown me several signs today to make me alert to something urgent coming. The last word from my dream on Sunday was 'INCOMING!' I am not sure if these are personal warnings or warnings for all of us. I had a broken night of dreams. I was up at 2:30am and couldn't sleep. My last check of the time was 3:15am. I then had a dream...

Sub-dream 1 "A Boom followed by Great Wind" begins...

I was with my family. The world around us were going about their daily routines. We then heard a boom followed by a great wind. I heard someone yell...

"BRACE FOR IMPACT!"

Just then, darkness fell over the area.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up from my sleep. It was so real. I got up out of bed and I was relieved it was a dream. I looked at the digital clock and shook my head. It read 5:05am, which looked a lot like SOS. I was tired so I fell back to sleep and was awakened at 7:00am to an unusual and unfamiliar alarm. I have an alarm clock that went off and it made no sense as I had never set the alarm to sound. As a matter of fact, I have never even used the alarm feature on this clock yet.

Not only that, but now I couldn't even get the alarm to stop. My husband tried to stop it as well, but he was also unable to. The clock kept saying 'pairing' in flashes. It was trying to pair up with my phone. I finally got fed up and unplugged the alarm clock altogether. My husband's alarm then went off shortly after I fell asleep again. I decided to get up and go about my morning routine. I went and fed the various birds and animals outside. I then made our bed.

I noticed that the atmosphere outside today was dark and overcast. It was unusually dark, even darker than normal. There were virtually no creatures waiting for me today. This is also unusual. I looked up in the trees for a hawk or eagle watching the area. Predators usually cause little birds and animals to retreat.

This is an amazing feature of God's alert system for animals and birds and one that surely must be overseen by angels appointed to them. I went inside to make my bed. I decided to flip up the rebellious clock of mine after I plugged it back in. I was in shock as the time now read 9:11am, another warning. Okay, surely this is a God thing.

Father, help! I now have a racing heart and a bit of fear. I went to my devotional chair and my side table. My Bible references suddenly flipped over and fell for no apparent reason, creating quite a mess. However, had it not flipped over, I would not have seen a note that I had written. As for when I wrote this, I didn't recall. It read as follows...

"When I worry and have doubts, I allow these to become larger than God in me. Instead, wield the weapon of faith and trust as He who is in you is greater than he who casts the weapon of fear against you."

I then read this in my devotional this morning: 1 Samuel 14:6-7;13-15...

6 Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that the Lord will work for us, for nothing can hinder the Lord from saving by many or by few." 7 And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Do as you wish. Behold, I am with you heart and soul." 13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him. 14 And that first strike, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, killed about twenty men within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land. 15 And there was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and even the raiders trembled, the earth quaked, and it became a very great panic.

Father, You are so brilliant and wise. However, in my heart, I am still uneasy. I have been staying home more and more. My two children who used to need daily rides into town are now officially out of the home and off on their own adventures. This has freed up several hours to many of my days, so I am thankful. I needed this as I have had to complete so many projects. I know that these completed projects please You.

I am grateful to be finally free to go through mountains of paperwork, photos and other things. I tackle a few projects every day. I am able to rest when I need to. I finished all of the Christmas decorations early this year. This too was a wonderful feat. With every project finished, there is a bittersweet feeling that comes over me. I am now finishing things, including labeling and sorting.

However, I now wonder even while I am doing these projects if any of this will matter at all soon. Father, if You choose another way to fulfill Your promises for me, I can make my life transition easier for all those I love who remain. With the warnings so far on this day, I asked for protection over our family, my husband, our children, our pets and our outdoor little winged and furry visitors. I also pray for Your protection and glory to fall over all of my friends and Nest sparrow families.

Me: "Father, help! Please help!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. The warning signs are from Me and they concern the world."

Me: "I am sick to my stomach."

Jesus: "Erin, the enemy has breached every area of life all around you... the food you consume, the air you breathe, the water you drink and the medications you ingest. In what was first a slow drip is now a rushing torrent of evil coming."

Me: "We take great comfort in knowing that the times for the enemy dismantling our way of life will soon be stopped by You stepping in, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember that demons don't have physical mouths until one day they do. As for now, they must use others who are spiritually apart from Me to do their working."

Me: "But they are all over now."

Jesus: "Yes, evil has increased. The hearts of many have grown cold. This is the increase. Lies and great deception have increased in leaders all over the world."

Me: "I had another disturbing dream last night..."

Sub-dream 2 "The Heads of the Red & Black Dragons Speak" begins...

The great deceiver, a former President and head of the Black Dragon, was standing on a platform bragging...

Global Leader 1: "I was easily able to take down America in less than ten years."

Next to him was another global leader, head of the Red Dragon, who was also bragging...

Global Leader 2: "Well, I was responsible for taking down the world in even less time."

Global Leader 1: "The USA is made up of stupid sheep. While they need a leader, the flock mostly needs to be thinned out so that others who are chosen can rise up. This is why I sent wolves in sheep's clothing. I wanted to take down the flock from within. It was so easy. I did it all from my couch. I was the shepherd behind the wolves. I hate those things anyway. They bleat out day and night. Anyway, I gave them the grand illusion. I changed history, times and the seasons. Whatever I tell them, they do. I then tell them to be still and know that I am god."

Global Leader 2: "Well, I am the end. I am in all places and took away their great armies and weakened their fighting men. They wear dresses and have never fought. We poisoned their fields by purchasing their farms. We now have control over all of their resources. It is the same with all of the world. The world will bow to me."

Global Leader 2 then slammed the religion that Global Leader 1 is head of...

Global Leader 2: "As for you and your army, they will be no more. This is because you blow yourself up for your god. As for your children, you blow them up too."

Global Leader 1: "I am the Mahadi! I am their savior!"

Global Leader 2: Smiling and nodding. "We will see!"

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: "Oh Lord, this was all so real. They were frightening."

Jesus: "Remember that I am greater than these. I see. I am the God of Justice and I am the only one mighty to save. What is coming must come before I do. My angel army is ready. Both these leaders and their armies will celebrate. However, great will be their shame and humiliation instead. I promise this will not go as they expect. Now, continue with your day and trust in Me, the God of your days. I will continue to provide for you. I have you. You are greatly loved.”

Dream over.

751 – The Great Worm Invasion

Received on Sunday, November 19, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Note: This is one of the shortest dreams I have ever posted onto the Nest. It is only 4.5 journal pages long. I Haven't been feeling well today and could use continued prayer. Even so, this dream contains so much...

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Great Love for Your people. Thank You for rest. Thank You for my dreams and visions. I had quite a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The Great Worm Invasion" begins...

I saw a massive parcel of farmland next to a massive orchard. The orchard was to the west. The farmland was just to the east of the orchard. There were vineyards to the north. There were farms and cattle ranches to the south. I saw a naked crazy man running frantically around in circles...

Crazy man: Bellowing. "The worms have come to the land... the cutworms, the wireworms, the earworms, the roundworms and even to the forests... but the cankerworms have invaded the reserves!"

I looked and saw all of the cattle, fruit trees, wheat, corn and vineyards dying because worms were sent to destroy all food. I then heard the sound of the shofar. I saw a mighty angel of the Lord...

Angel: Announcing. "The Army of Restoration is coming... the Army of God from amongst His people. God Himself will rid the fields, the orchards, the vineyards and the pastures of worms and locusts... for God has seen the suffering of His people."

Immediately, all foreigners, their possessions and all those who cursed God alongside them, were taken each to their own lands and nations of origin and there their worm followed them there. Then an angel stood to the east with a Lantern...

Angel: Proclaiming. "Woe to those who heaped up for themselves wealth and power and riches untold... who stole from those who worked overtime and reduced them to slaves. LOOK!"

I saw massive piles of silver and gold. In behind these piles were worms with iron teeth. Water oozed out of their grotesque mouths and destroyed both the value and the luster of these treasures.

Angel: "This is the hoarded treasure stolen from the poor. This is their worms... more vile than any other worm. THIS is the great equalizer!"

Crazy man: Yelling. "Cankerworm! Canker!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

When I woke up from this dream, I was alarmed. It was simply horrible. I went to the Lord in prayer and with my racing thoughts...

Father, we are in the last days similar to Noah... 'For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage (this includes marriage proposals and/or 'sexual contracts'), until the day that Noah entered the ark and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the son of man be.'

Father, please don't forget Your promises! Great evil has come upon the nations. Anarchy is here and is spreading throughout our nation. T. DeWitt Talmage, in his sermon series written in 1886, 'A Battle for Bread', wrote somewhat of a playbook of what to look for as set up by the wealthy against the working class. Today, it is a war to abolish the middle class and the American 'dream of ownership'.

When my Bible table was knocked over last week, under my chair was my antique book 'The Coming King' ca 1907 by James Edson White. I purchased it a few years back at a thrift store. I found it interesting that the author made a case for rapture to occur any day based on several events at that time.

However, he failed to recognize that Israel needed to be established again and that the Jewish people needed to return to their home of the physical state of Israel. Even so, there was something that I discovered in this book when I was sitting down this morning. The book opened to a page that contained the following...

"Anarchy is the abolition of the rights of property. It makes your store, your house and your family mine and mine yours. It is wholesale robbery. It is every man's hand against every other man. It is arson and murder, rape and lust, and death triumphant. It means no law, no church, no defense, no right, no happiness and no God. It means hell let loose on Earth and society a combination of devils incarnate. An anarchist owns nothing but a knife for universal bloodletting and a nitroglycerine bomb for explosion. An anarchist believes in no God, in no government, in no Heaven and in no hell, except what he can make on Earth.”

Father, this is happening now! We were lied to and our media has said the opposite of what we know to be truth.

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: “Erin, I am here and I am with you. Don’t focus so much on the damage made by the worms that you fail to see My miracles. I will call a Great Army of Restorers from out of the people. From the midst of this, you are called. Judgment is Mine... fair judgment vs the enemy who uses false testimonies and unfair weights and measures. Erin, I see it. The enemy has turned the nations against Israel.

“The enemy and his army then increased these lies and denounced the truth as a greater deception over her enemies. Now, do not concern yourself as justice will be swift. You do not fully see what is occurring because the world is veiled. The enemies of Israel and the enemies of any other nation under God are targets of their orders. There has been a plan in the works for more than 22 years.

“Now, a great deceiver has risen and I see him. I see! Who does he serve and who serves him? Who hates Me? Who hates Israel and the United States? Who raised up nations and armies to destroy all that is good and took the money from the people to do it? See, I know his agenda from the beginning. I have seen him even now. He longs for destruction and hates to no end.

“Well, Erin, I will expose him. However, even with this evidence captured on film, many will still say, ‘No, this is computer generated AI. He is our savior!’ So many will still be deceived. However, I have a Great Plan in all of this!”

Me: “Lord, a Global Festival of Your Lights would be good.”

Jesus: “We will see! The enemy still continues his war on Christmas.”

Me: “Perhaps on Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023)? Perhaps on Black Friday (Friday, November 24, 2023)?”

Jesus: “Erin, expect unrest and theft. Expect fights and killing. This is his war on Christmas. It doesn’t matter that My birthday is on another day. However, this is not known by many. Now, look at the declarations this enemy has made. Who does he answer to? Who answers to him? Do not worry, Erin, as I am here and I am with you. Soon, very soon, all will change!"

Dream over.

752 – The Return of the Four Angels

Received on Thursday, November 23, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Today is Thanksgiving in the USA! I am thankful for another day! I am most of all thankful for You. You are the Greatest Blessing to me. However, not just me, all of Creation. Most people don't even know how truly incredible You are. I am so grateful that You called me and I turned to hear... or, really, listened for Your call. If not for You, where would I be?

You are our Treasure! A million treasures could be buried all over the world and You would know the location of each of them. Nothing is hidden from You, great or small. More importantly, the wealthiest people in the world are those who discover the treasure of knowing You. This is a gift that no man can steal, no bank can charge interest on and no scheme of hell can overturn.

You give freely of Yourself. In exchange, we give You back our hearts to shape for Your purposes. I look at treasure hunts this way. There are two types of unearthing hidden treasure hunts. One is discovered by accident. The other is a quest, and possibly perilous, adventure to discover it.

When I think of an accidental treasure find, I think of a man who discovered an 'ugly brown rock' at a park in Arkansas. This actually turned out to be a 3.29 carat diamond. There are countless other treasure stories just as miraculous.

As a Christian now who was once a non-believer, I think of how a person can one day be minding their own business and then suddenly be changed from something they didn't know was there all along, discovering they were heirs to God's Kingdom and His untold treasures which He shares with all of us. These are miracle finds. He found us and pursued us until we turned to discover Him.

Another type of treasure hunt is a search for something that you know exists due to the evidence, including maps, clues, historical accounts and lost treasure. However, even with this, you still can't find where it is buried or hidden (the Curse of Oak Island). Some people search for their whole lives and take risks that could cost them their lives. Even so, based on their great faith in a potential discovery, they venture out into the unknown.

In the times of the great explorers, they had sponsors or patrons. These sponsors were often from Spain. However, other countries also invested in these explorers and their ships, crews and supplies. They would then go out into the unknown, often based on nothing but rumors. These went out on the coattails of many a great explorer...

- There was Leif Erikson from 970 to 1020.
- There was Marco Polo from 1254 to 1324.
- There was Christopher Columbus.
- The 1400s to 1500s was a great time of setting sail into the unknown to hopefully claim great treasures for their sponsors.

Many of these stories were heartbreaking. So many died before ever seeing what they had hoped to see. I compare these to the lost, those who never see what their heart imagined or hoped for. However, they knew there was something, but didn't know what. They searched, but never found it.

Then there are those who will cut down anyone who stands in the way of finding their treasure. They will kill and steal for this. Then there are mutinies, deaths and destruction from storms. Countless treasures, along with many amazing stories, can all be found at the bottom of the deep blue sea, surely never to be found.

However, this I now know with certainty... the only treasure in this life worth hunting, worth the perils of discovering, even if it means your life, is the process of giving all you are over to the Ultimate Treasure Hunter, God. Our hearts are His treasure and His love for us is priceless. Nothing can compare! Jesus gave up His life. God's only Son died a horrible death as the blood sacrifice for our sins.

Through accepting Jesus as our Lamb of God to atone for our sins, we are then set free. We know He was the Son of God because death could not hold Him. The tomb was empty and the stone rolled away. God had raised Him from death and, with Him, 5000 others. These thousands were raised up with Him and appeared to many.

The authorities then tried to hunt Him down. They spread false rumors that the disciples had stolen His body to match the prophecies spoken about Him. Many people bore false witness. However, Jesus ultimately could not be held by death. The evidence of His appearances and eyewitness accounts are now written in so many places. Historical evidence of these events matches the other evidence, such as the ensuing earthquake and eclipse of the sun.

Until we are finally Home, we will not know the full extent of all God had done. So many stories and individual testimonies of witnesses are lost. However, one day, when we are Home in Heaven, God will show all the people all that He had done from the beginning until the end. The treasures of this world truly have no meaning because they have no lasting value beyond our lives here.

I could discover gold or even be given it by someone, but this world then lays claim to it. People want it. People believe they deserve it. People plot to steal it. Governments want a piece of it. Neighbors and families even. In the end, you struggle with earthly wealth as its comforts are temporal, not eternal. Even those who live a debt-free life here still often do not have an easy road. Other problems usually exist.

Now, it is not God's Will that we would be slaves to our lenders and that we would toil daily and struggle. However, it is because we are poor and lack what the world calls achievement. This is because we are to serve God even as we go about our daily work and life. The world then hates us because of this. The enemy longs to enslave God's people and punish us for not serving the gods of this world.

This is why I count my Treasures... the Son, the Father and the Holy Spirit... each and every day. We should not do this for gold, silver or currencies as He knows what we need in advance. I instead give thanks for the Treasury of God. We believe You when You tell us that we would have countless treasure stored up in Heaven by obeying You. We then invest in Your wealth of love and not gold or diamonds.

The Lord stores up special things for us that are unique to us. Things we lost here on Earth are returned ten-fold better than before in Heaven. As for things we had hoped for, but never received... well, God has this for us too. Perhaps it is something in our heart that we were never awarded, but we sacrificed everything for it. This may be a sports goal, a promotion or some other achievement.

In Heaven, God completes this for us. Somehow, His recompense for us is with Him. He has it for us. Perhaps we lost a child or someone close to us that broke our hearts. In Heaven, I believe our prayers here activate angels to go to that person at death and minister, opening the door to Jesus before them. With a baby or child, Jesus always carries them Home. He takes all of them.

This is my belief... one day, those who went before us will be there waiting for us to come Home. Through death and loss comes new life. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever (Psalms 73:26). One day, God will wipe away our tears (Revelation 21:4).

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on Earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroy and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Matthew 6:19-21).

Today is Thanksgiving Day in the USA. I am so thankful for You, Jesus! I am thankful for You as You are, quite simply, my Greatest Treasure! I had a couple of vivid dreams last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The Four Angels over the Four Corners" begins...

I saw four angels of the Lord go out to the four corners of the Earth... one to the north, one to the south, one to the east and one to the west. There was another angel over all of them and he sounded the alarm. I then observed these four angels at the four corners of the Earth. I recognized them and knew their names...

- Phillipi: One angel was over the waters, both above and below. I recognized him to be Phillipi.
- Tenney: I then saw another angel over all of the saints of God. The lights he was over were growing dim. He was a shield and helmet bearer. I recognized him to be Tenney.
- Beryl: I then saw an angel that shined like a jewel, like a lighthouse in the darkness. I recognized him to be Beryl.
- Xavier: I then saw an angel that I could not tell what he was over. However, he held a treasure contained in a box. I recognized him to be Xavier.

The angel over these four angels then made an announcement to them...

Overseeing Angel: In a thunderous voice. "And you shall minister to the saints and show them the Father's love!"

After he finished saying this, a great horn sounded and darkness filled the Earth. Three horns then sounded and the ground shook. I then saw the lights of the saints across the globe.

Pertinent Note: While this was a frightening dream, it was good to see these angels again. I discussed these angels back in Dream 38 as received on Friday, January 11, 2013. I wrote the following in this dream: "For my birthday in January of 2012, the Lord revealed to me during a dream that this would be my year of Jubilee. He showed me four angels and reminded me that He would come on the heels of these. These angels had names and they were Xavier, Beryl, Tenney and Phillipi." This is the first and only time I discussed these four angels as a group since back in Dream 38.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Then there was my second dream...

Sub-dream 2 "A Prophecy for Our Enemies" begins...

I was tracking several enemies and doing things physically I could never do in the current state I am in. I was hunting some extremely evil people. When I arrived outside of a cave-type area, a group of people were hiding in the cave. I began to prophecy to them...

"Within the next year and a half, you will lose everything you have. You will look for help and will not find it. You will be taken to the dredges and great will be your anguish there. You will lose everything. You will remember back to this day! You will beg for mercy, but there will be no one there to hear you."

I was in great shape again, much better than even when I was in my 20s. I spoke boldly. This scenario seemed somehow so familiar to me. These evil people then came out to take my life. Before they could, the Lord moved me elsewhere.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: "Father, these two dreams were so real. So many of us are struggling right now. Please keep us close to You. Our children are having so many troubles and this affects us. Please help all of us, including our friends on the Nest."

Jesus: "` Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am near to the brokenhearted. I do not leave!"

Me: "Lord, so many of us need help right now."

Jesus: "I know. All is in My timing. Only I can create a miracle. Patience is a difficult journey. I am with you. You are not alone."

Me: "Lord, so many are anxious for what is coming."

Jesus: "Do not worry. I have a plan. You all must be patient. I have great blessings. Now, you see the times and the seasons. You see My Word unfolding before your very eyes. Since you know what is being presented before you, you are not caught off guard. I will continue to watch over you in all you do as I am with you."

"At first, all will seem discouraging and fear will begin to set in. Then immediately you will be strengthened and all will change. Great will be the anguish of the nations. However, those I have called will go forward as soldiers of righteousness among the disheartened and lowly of spirit."

"Now, today... give thanks... as I will accept your prayers of healing and blessings over all you declare... all those I call you to in My Name!"

Dream over.

753 – 12 Judges, 12 Courtrooms, 12 Dockets

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that You do. I am so thankful for each and every day that I am alive. Still, there are days that, at the end, I wonder why I am alive and for what purpose. I then lay my head down and dream at night and, in the morning, I wake up and understand why I am still here.

Lord, tomorrow is the busiest travel day of the year for the USA. This is the case with every Sunday right after Thanksgiving Thursday. Please oversee this day as only You can and are able.

My dreams last night were odd...

Sub-dream 1 “12 Judges, 12 Courtrooms, 12 Dockets” begins...

I was called to a courthouse with twelve judges. I was supposed to report to the public using SnapChat. I soon arrived at the courthouse steps. It felt familiar.

Note 1: I don't even use SnapChat as I believe this particular app is a tool of the enemy. As for the courthouse, I recognized this place from when I was a child growing up in the San Francisco Bay Area. It was either the City Hall or the Civic Center, but I don't remember which one.

Note 2: The original as posted used the word SnapHat. However, SnapHat should have read Shaphat. This was meant to be corrected but was overlooked as it looks so similar. Shaphat's meaning is that of Judge. Shaphat is also the name of the father of Elisha. In the Strong's Hebrew, it is to judge and govern.

As I stood looking at my phone to see which courtroom I was proceeding to, a popup showed up on my phone. SnapChat had suddenly become Shaphat. I looked at the Shaphat app again and walked down the stairs. As I went down the stairs, Shaphat became SnapChat again. I then heard the clock in the townhall chime 11:45am.

I knew that court started at high noon. I knew that time was running out, so I ran back up to the lobby. I was now inside trying to find the court dockets or schedule for this important day. I was able to find a security officer after searching for one. I was hoping that he may be able to help me.

Me: "Could you please tell me where I am to attend the courtroom hearing?"

Security: "Are you with the media?"

Me: "Yes."

Security: "Take your pick. There are twelve judges... six major courts and six minor courts. What is your venue for reporting?"

Me: "I am to use the horrible SnapChat." We both laughed.

Security: "Ah, you must therefore be in Judge Elon's court. This is a minor court."

Note: Here is something amusing I recently found in the Bible... Judges 12:11: "After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years." Still have a smile about this. Yes, God truly has the best humor!

Me: "Elon... as in Elon Musk?"

Security: "Well, he has been appointed by God to go to war against the others."

Me: "Oh, against big tech such as SnapChat, AI and Facebook?"

Security: "Well, yes."

Me: Looking down at my phone again. "Do you know why my App keeps changing to Shaphat instead of SnapChat?"

Security: "Oh, that is the verdict. The verdict is in. It will be on the others too."

Sure enough, both Facebook and Instagram were calling themselves Shaphat.

Me: "What does Shaphat even mean?"

Security: Laughing. "What? And you call yourself a reporter? The verdict is in and pending by the Judge. These represent twisted speech, including concealed lies and deception. God's judgment is in. The Judge is the defender of truth and they fight with the sword of truth."

Me: "So, what is in the other courtrooms?"

Security: "The other judges. These are appointed by God also to stand for truth until the Lord comes to render His Sentence."

I started walking past a few of the courtrooms and read their dockets. The even numbered courtrooms were on the opposite side of the hallway as the odd numbered courtrooms. The security officer was walking with me.

- Courtroom 1 Docket: False religions and unclean churches.
- Courtroom 2 Docket: Gender perversion and children.
- Courtroom 3 Docket: Corrupt judges and attorneys.
- Courtroom 4 Docket: Land and property theft – banks, appraisers and surveyors on trial.

Me: “What are all of these?”

Security: “Twelve judges appointed by God to defend the righteous ones of the Lord and to render judgment against evil in court. Now, let’s go in.”

He walked with me into the courtroom. I was in shock because there was no roof or ceiling over this courtroom.

Me: Pointing to the roof. “Why is there no roof?”

Security: “So all of Heaven can see the proceedings.”

While I then saw several drones over the area, all of them soon fell from the sky and broke. One fell right in front of me. This startled me out of my sleep.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Sub-dream 2 “Evil Leaders Sleeping with the Enemy” begins...

I saw a massive area of mattresses. There were no tents over them. They were exposed to the outside elements. There was a horrible creature in each bed. Each bed had a different creature. I then saw many government and business leaders lay down next to these creatures on their mattresses.

Some were unaware they were even lying next to such evil. Others knew the creatures were there and they were fornicating with them without any fear of being seen. It was disgusting. From my perspective, it looked like hell. I woke up and could not go back to sleep.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, these dreams are complex. I feel like it is possible that I am leaving out some details that might be pertinent. I love You. I have been depressed lately. There are still so many beautiful things that You have created. There are still so many and all are good and perfect. Still, things are being destroyed at a rapid rate. Father, things are now becoming so dark and sad.

There is also news of a coming pandemic that is far worse than Covid-19. It is attacking children. This seems to be timed for the next presidential election. They are following the very same pattern as they did for the last presidential election. There is even a mysterious illness that is striking dogs. Since many of us have crawled back from great losses, this is greatly feared.

I spoke with one woman who was unable to arrange a funeral for her husband. There are so many stories like this that happened during Covid. What a crime. My older son's friend died in a work accident and, because it was during Covid, no closure occurred. There was no ability to honor those who lost their lives. It was horrible to have no ability to say goodbye. Father, this life is painful.

Me: "Oh Lord, it is so difficult to watch evil succeed. Please stop this. Please strengthen all of us for what is coming. With what has happened in Israel, we know what the enemy has planned for the rest of us."

Jesus: "` Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know this is a difficult time to be a watcher on My wall. You see what is coming because I granted you wisdom on this wall of Mine. You see much but not all that is coming."

Me: "Lord, this world will be in shock at all that is coming."

Jesus: "Well, they shouldn't be. Evil advances quickly when it is being pursued by something more powerful than they are and that is Me and My Kingdom. Now, I know My people want specifics of what will come next. They also want to know when this or that will be. However, I remain quiet. Well, Erin, this is good... that is, until I am no longer quiet, understand?"

Me: "Lord, I keep having dreams that I am an intruder in the house of someone I know. When I am discovered, I am horribly embarrassed."

Jesus: "Those particular dreams are personal fear dreams sent by the enemy to disarm you and make you feel out of My leading. Now, would you ever do this in your waking hours? Do you plot about your neighbor?"

Me: "No, of course not. I would never do that."

Jesus: "The enemy tries to disqualify you. However, I qualify you. Erin, I equip those I qualify. The enemy has been attacking you. However, all of these attacks will come to nothing. Do not forget this.

“Now, the dream of leaders and their beds. They lie in these beds right in the open. No one is shocked by it anymore. Nothing is done to stop their open fornication. They even fornicate in the public square. Wait until they actually see what they have done. Erin, remember that, when someone lies down with unclean spirits, permission is then granted for many more to come and join in (Matthew 12:43-45).

“Now, the dream of Judges. I will remind you again that there is something in a name. It was the same in the beginning and so too is it today.”

Me: “Lord, are You doing the same thing today? Are these the Judges over the Tribes of Israel?”

Jesus: “Well, I am over them. However, I send out the spirits of these former Judges with My angel armies to test and defend. They carry swords as a measure. The tongue is a sword. See, I am over all you see. I am truth. Evidence is collected and presented in My Courts. These cases can then be argued and verdicts rendered. However, since I see all things, these cases need not be defended.

“Instead, judgment by Me has been given based on visible evidence by My own eyes. Just know that the courts of public thoughts, opinions and lying words have no place in My Courts. I have appointed rulers to judge with fair measures. I will vindicate them. However, for the evil ones who present false witness testimony and swear by it, I see this. I know where their seats are and who sits in them, understand? Now rejoice, Erin, as I am in charge.

“Now, I want you to have peace. If I have given you words, then write these. If I have had you repeat words, then there is a reason. If I have you declare a thing, then declare it. Do not be afraid in doing good as I am with you. I love you, Erin, because you remember Me. While I know these times have been difficult, I am with you. You will soon truly understand who I am in even greater measure than you currently know Me. You will receive all that I have promised you... Erin, I promise!”

754 – Twelve Angels, Twelve Opposing Demons

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all those You have sent around me and our house. Thank You for my children, our pets and my husband. While we are not perfect people, we are perfectly imperfect for Your purposes. My dreams last night were amazing as per usual.

I was struggling with pain and breathing yesterday. It feels like the insides of my body are at war with something. Lord, something is not right here. It was either the plague released against the world, the vaccine or both. Either way, a great war has been waged against the people of the Earth by hidden enemies.

Father, please protect us. When I was forced to take the vaccine, You said, 'Do not worry. I am with you in this. What is done to you is also done to Me. Since I am here, nothing foreign that comes against you will prosper.' So, Father, I cling to this and I am grateful.

Now, my two dreams...

Sub-dream 1 "Reversing the Market Terrorism" begins...

I seemed young again. I was attending a festive celebration nearing the winter season. There was music, art vendors and beautiful lights everywhere. Shots then suddenly rang out. Shortly after, vehicles started ramming through the crowds. They were running over women, children and the elderly. Something hit me and I fell to the ground.

The next thing I heard was the choir of heavenly angels. Right there in front of me was an angel of the Lord. It looked like Breakthrough and he did not speak. He put his hand out to prevent me from entering. He then held up one finger and I knew to wait.

His two hands were then cupped in front of him. Water suddenly came from above him into his hands. The water poured out until overflowing. I began to walk toward him and he nodded 'no'. I then just sat there. As I did, the water poured out over me. Even though I had been wounded in the chaos, I did not feel any pain. I saw five large bubbles of light. They had an appearance like mercury glass.

Me: "Lord, are You there? Where are You?"

The bubbles grew very large. One of the bubbles then came over me as if I were inside a private room. There was a door inside this bubble. The light was so bright.

Me: "Is that You, Lord? Am I dead?"

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

The bubble was then gone. I was back in this open market celebration. However, my wounds had now disappeared.

Jesus: "My voice is in you. Now get up. Get up! We have work to do!"

Just as I got up off the ground, I had a ringing in my ears. There was complete chaos as several shooters were gunning down innocent people.

Jesus: "Walk up to the gunmen."

I did exactly as He instructed. While they promptly opened fire on me, the bullets from their automatic weapons simply dissolved. They were freaked out.

Jesus: "Erin, dissolve their weapons. Melt them and the molten metal will fall upon them."

This felt so real. I did exactly what Jesus told me. The horror in their eyes was unforgettable.

Jesus: "These are enemies. Do not mourn for them. Now, speak this, the words I give you, and do not delay."

They were crying out in horrible pain and fear. The Lord welled up in me with His words.

Me: Speaking to these evil enemies. "For what you have done, for what evil you have plotted, know this... God sees your works and your place is in the everlasting fires of judgment of the Lord God, Yeshua, the God of Jacob."

Jesus: Speaking to Me: "Now, turn your back to them. We will now raise up the dead and heal the injured."

Me: "Oh Lord, that was fun."

Jesus: "Do not rejoice when the wicked are condemned. Focus instead on those who will be changed because of this. Let us restore the joy here."

As I walked by the dead and the injured, Jesus spoke through me.

Me: "Get up! Rise up! You are healed."

All the wounds disappeared. The blood on their clothing was removed. Any illnesses they had prior to this day were completely healed. Those who were in terror and screaming now cried out in rejoicing. It was so fun. I then looked back at the terrorists. They were in agony watching all of the kills they accomplished be reversed to new life.

When everything was healed and restored at the market, the evil men and their vehicles were completely dissolved. They were no more. Only the place they stood with their footprints in molten gun metal was evidence of their existence. Each footprint outlined along with the words 'Enemies of God', along with the date of their destruction. When I tried to make the dates out, the Lord blurred them.

Jesus: "Now, on to the next adventure. Ready?"

Me: "That was fun!"

I woke up suddenly to what sounded like something hitting our internet tower outside. When I looked out, everything appeared normal. I fell back to sleep.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Sub-dream 2 "Twelve Angels, Twelve Opposing Demons" begins...

I saw a massive wheatfield with broken shafts from an early freeze. Since the wheat had not been harvested prior to the cold snap, the wheat was not harvestable. When I then looked down the hill to another field, all the wheat had been perfectly harvested and the ground ready for the now harsh conditions. In the distant horizon, I saw mountains as far as my eyes could see surrounding these fields.

The mountains were snowy. I then saw the sky turn pink as dawn approached. In front of me was a path through the frozen wheat field. As I walked, I heard a whistle behind me. I looked and there were twelve angels of God on one side of the path. On the other side of the path were twelve demonic entities. I heard a whistle again and I saw that it was coming from Breakthrough. I then saw a ladder in the field descend.

A Loud Voice: "Hurry! Run!"

Behind me were these evil demonic angels coming at me. Breakthrough was waiting for me and helped me climb. He motioned for me to close my eyes. Just then, an arm came down from above and brought me up. My heart was pounding. It was the Lord. He was smiling at me and my heart melted.

Me: "Lord, it is You! That was scary."

Jesus: "I know. Now, I have some things to discuss with you. You have questions that I can answer."

Me: "So many."

Jesus: Laughing. "Yes, I know. However, there are a few in particular. Now, what did you just see?"

Me: "A frozen field of wheat destroyed and not harvestable. Mountains with snow. Twelve angels of Your army from Heaven and twelve who were evil. Breakthrough then showed me the ladder to You. So, here I am. However, the twelve evil demons wanted to kill me."

Jesus: "Yes. They have gone to war against God, His Kingdom and you."

Me: "Me? Who am I?"

Jesus: "Come with Me. Let us walk."

He took my hand and we walked down a beautiful tree lined path of white aspen trees with silver and green leaves. The ground was like carpet. It was green moss. It was beautiful. The Lord spoke to me as we walked.

Jesus: "You are one of My remnant. You have been redeemed and reserved for My purposes. I want you to understand that, for every good and lovely thing of God, there is an opposite of this. Now, you saw twelve head angels who are over the Tribes of Israel from the sons of Jacob. Now, there were changes made, but you saw twelve."

Me: "Changes?"

Jesus: "Well, enhancements from Heaven. Now, with every angel over the Tribes comes an opposing enemy. Their sole role is to destroy the Kingdom of Righteousness on Earth... God's chosen people. These evil fallen angels have sent out their armies to destroy all of Israel, all who are chosen of God, His Remnant, and to defile the Earth. They are an army set against all that is good.

"Now, just as there are lead angels of God over each Tribe of Israel, there are twelve who are the opposite. They are led by another chief of the fallen. Their time is running out as they know that My army is greater than their army. Well, they don't even know a fraction of all that will come against them. However, My reason for bringing you up here is this..."

He stopped to look at me. He had purpose in His eyes.

Jesus: "Erin, I am not a figment of your imagination. I am with you. My voice is in you. When I show you specific things, write these plainly. These are important. While it is okay to question what you do not know, don't question God, understand?

The alarm rang out and woke me up.

Sub-dream 2 over..

I got up after I couldn't fall back to sleep. I went to my chair and prayed.

Me: "Father, You didn't finish."

Jesus: "` Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, shall we continue?"

Me: "Wow, can we? That was awesome!"

Jesus: "Yes, but first... what is going on with you right now?"

Me: "Lord, I have been sad. My breathing is poor. I have been so sad (sigh). Things wear out and I don't want to replace them. I have been waiting for miracles and stalling. It is difficult to trust workers to come to the house. People are not as honest. I am seeing what is happening in Israel and my stomach is sick. I have been shown what is coming to us here and... well, I am sad over all of it. I didn't embrace the great moments before they were gone forever."

Jesus: "Things were not very great for you, Erin. These moments you cling to aren't life preservers or floats in difficult seas. Only I can save. I promise you that I have a great place prepared for those who love Me. Remember, you are a citizen of Heaven, not hell. You are an alien on Earth. All of this is temporary. All of it. You are seeing the fall of the world as you have known it."

Me: "The lies and horrible news is very difficult to hear continually. I thought something wonderful would come at Thanksgiving, but it didn't."

Jesus: "This was an enemy plan. They like to strike on significant dates that are important to God or that send fear into the hearts of many."

Me: "You don't give me calendar dates. When You have, these have been incredible."

Jesus: "Erin, in a war, going into a great battle, the head or commander doesn't give away certain details so as not to alert the enemy. For instance, the two sides don't go out into the battlefield and say to each other, 'Okay, who is going to fire the first shot? What are the weapons you will be using against us and how do we prepare for this battle? How many do you plan to kill? When will this attack against us commence exactly? Where will the attacks come from?"

Me: Laughing. "That would be both funny and stupid!"

Jesus: "Look at what the enemy has done to the people of Israel. Their enemies are great deceivers. Their intentions are to have mass graphic casualties, with their goal being the extermination of the Jewish people. This will not go well for them from my vantage point. They are going after all who are standing for Israel and God. They will not win this."

"Now, you worry about things I have shown you because you are not at your best physically. You worry that I am going to pull My favor and leave you."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord, it is just that... well... my dreams are often of tribulation and I am alone going from place to place. I see all of the suffering..."

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are observing, not suffering. You are there for a reason. It is the last of the harvest. Remember that the sweetest wine is at the end of the harvest. The late grape thrives into winter under harsh conditions, then it is harvested suddenly and all at once so none will be lost."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but it is sad."

Jesus: "Why? They come through it, Erin! They find a way and you and many others will assist them as witnesses."

Me: "Lord, are we part of the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel?"

Jesus: "I am the Good Shepherd. I go after My lost sheep. No matter where they are, I find them. They are Mine and this is written. Just as I have power over life and death and I came to set those who were captives free, I also am the Groom who comes for His Bride. As God is in covenant with His people who were adulterous and they were cast out and the world said, 'Lost forever!'

"Well, remember this... I know where all that is lost can be found. The Ten Tribes are like the Ten Virgins as well. Some of the attendants to the Bride are loyal and keep their promises and their lanterns are lit at all hours to assist the Bride to watch for her Groom. I promise you, although these are attendants and not a Bride, they are still part of her party and will attend the Wedding Feast."

"However, the Five Virgins who were foolish and lazy were not believing the Groom was coming at the Appointed Time. They became bored with the wait and decided not to watch and assist the Bride and be part of the Bridal Party and Ceremony. They therefore are not allowed to attend. While these are those who knew the Bride and the Groom, they loved their own pursuits more. They were then lost to the Wedding Party.

"The Lost Ten Tribes are the same. However, I have a covenant with them that cannot be broken. I am the Good Shepherd. I pursue My lost sheep until they are found by Me. Now, you see these twelve evil chiefs. They know about the things of Heaven and of God. They seek out and hunt down the 99 sheep while the Shepherd is chasing the one.

"However, they don't know that there are thousands on hand disguised as sheep that will chase them down. See Me here... when you see Me, I am not worried. However, I am angry at the celebrations of the evil and the rapid increase of the wicked. Still, I am here with you. Now, Erin, what do you witness?"

Me: "You are in control and confident, as if You already won. You see the end from the beginning and the beginning from the end. Because You are omnipresent, You are in all places 24/7. They must really hate You for that. That was genius. However, more than this, Lord... when I am with You, You have joy, peace and strength because You have already won."

Jesus: "Erin, you are Mine. I made a covenant with you. I will not leave you. You are My Bride and You were one of My sheep who was lost. However, I pursued you and saved you from devourers... you and your children. My promise had no conditions because you recognize Me as your Savior and Shepherd. You have cast away the love of the world to serve Me. However, even more than this, we are as one. The moment you ask Me, I answer.. at least when you remember that I am there."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I have not been wanting to bother You over small things. Even so, I need Your help right now. My little dogs are both sick. Zoey because she is near the end of her lifespan and she doesn't move like she used to and gets sick sometimes with blood. Snigglet today was behaving odd and was sick. I took her to the vet and she is joining me with pancreas issues but hers is full blown. Please help us. The timing is horrible for us in so many ways."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. However, I do not want you to worry. Your worrying does nothing but make you ill. Give your dogs to Me."

Me: "I know they are better with You than they are with me anyway, whether here or in Heaven. The pain of this place here just continues. There is a cost for everything we do here and the enemy loves when Your people are discouraged."

Jesus: "Well, as you know, things here are uncomfortable for all of the children of God because the enemy knows that I am coming for him. Erin, I just don't leave the 99 to chase the one lost sheep. I remove the enemy involved in the process. So, understand that, this time, I come as a King and Bridegroom and vengeance is Mine. This should bring you comfort to know that I am with you.

"Now, do not worry as I will care for all your needs. Now, the angel Michael is over Israel with a vast army. The enemy is luring Israel into a great deception. Any nation who participates in this deception and promotes Israel as guilty of anything other than wanting to avenge these crimes and remove the criminals will be guilty by My hand.

"Any leader who participates in this injustice against Israel will meet their demise and this will be swift. Those who live by the sword will surely die by the sword. Anyone who harms a child... well, you have seen what plight awaits them. I promise you, Erin... My justice is swift and fair. 10,000 will fall at the sight of just one of whom I will send. Fear will fall upon those who create the weapon of fear.

"They will search for death, but will not find it. They will know torment. They will be subjected to their own methods against the innocent. Erin, I am God and My justice will be fair. I give mercy and I administer grace. However, when dealing with these, mercy and grace will not be an offering 'on the table'. Well, really more like an option not for them.

"Now, this is a good time to open Revelation to see what awaits the wicked during the tribulation. Understand this! Reader, understand!"

Me: "Lord, I have never heard You like this."

Jesus: "Evil has taken an uptick. I see it. I will remove the wicked. They will flee."

Me: "What I am going through seems so small in comparison. I am sorry."

Jesus: "Don't be. This is good. Erin, really? You should know to come to Me in all things. Now, these twelve chiefs have their armies. They have ranks. They govern evil. There are things you never imagined because so much is hidden..."

- Occult: One is over great evil, witchcraft and the occult.
- Weapons: One is over weapons, but also weapons of social media. It is the angel who knew how to wage wars who fell. He is responsible for death in many forms, including technology, arms and missiles.

- Drugs: One is over pharmaceuticals, medicines and vaccines. He is also over great illnesses and plagues.
- Entertainment: One is over entertainment, sports, music and gambling.
- Spirits: One is over drinking of spirits and taking of drugs.
- Children: One is over children and destroying them with lies. This includes confusing them over how they were created.
- Religion: One is over religion, including grey areas and false teachings.
- Vanity: One is over vanity and perversion. This includes tattoos, piercings, and make up used to self-idolize.
- Division of Family: One specializes in dividing families. This includes divorce, separation, defilement and other forms of the destruction of the union of man and woman.
- Death: One is over death, suicide and crimes against nature.
- Race: One is over race division, genocide and genetics. This includes weaponizing trusted officials to carry these out. All to destroy man.
- Satan's Helper: One is an assistant to the main liar who proclaims the opposite as good and bad. He helps the chief liar and is a facilitator to Lucifer and his promotion of lies."

Me: "Wow, this is unbelievable."

Jesus: "This isn't even close to all of it. You will be in shock at what all they have done to destroy all of Creation. However, I am God and I see it. Erin, these go to the Lake of Fire, so do not worry. Their times are coming to a close.

"Now, My angel army is more vast and more powerful than all of these. Your prayers activate angels. I will discuss this with you later. Now, rejoice, for I am God over all things and you are Mine. Take comfort. You are loved by the King and your Savior."

Dream over.

755 – Water, Water, Water Everywhere

Communion

Dear Father,

Who is like You? Thank You for another day! Thank You for a life of dreams while I sleep at night. Thank You for miracles, signs and wonders in my waking hours!

- Blessed be Your Name in all of the Earth.
- Blessed are You who never sleeps and Your love abounds upon us.
- Blessed are the Sparrows, for even though they are the least of the birds, Your eye is still on them always.
- Blessed are Your children who remember, that when we are chastised in life, it is because of our Father's love that we should lack no good thing.
- Blessed are those who believe in You, Father, as when troubles of this world come, we know that all of this will soon pass away.

I have had a really awful last 2.5 months. Our trip to Bend OR was the last time we had peace. When we arrived home, the attacks began and have not stopped even for a moment. They have cost us so much and even to the point of spiritual exhaustion. As a parent, I can struggle with answering spiritual questions my grown children now sometimes ask...

- Why is all of this happening to me (or us)?
- Where is God?
- Now that I have repented, when does He actually forgive me?
- When does the pain stop?
- Even though I have prayed and I know God hears me, is He still mad at me?

Well, I have been the sounding board to our children for a few weeks now:

- My daughter's faith is strong and doesn't waver much.
- My older son's faith is building and he is learning to hear from God in Scripture and in signs in his walk.
- My younger son just rededicated his life to God and what a spiritual battle has come against him. The enemy has sent the proverbial dark rain down upon him.
- My stepdaughter doesn't see God right now and is happy to go into the world without Him by her side... at least for now.
- My stepson explains away with logic troubles and blessings as random chance. I am not sure if he hates God and is angry with Him or if he doesn't believe at all.

Everyone sees God through their parents. It is through our faith and testimony that we display the awesome miracle of the love of You. A life of believing that everything is a miracle is a beautiful way to love. It is so wonderful in comparison to believing that nothing is a miracle and that we are not special to our Father.

I love You, Lord. I knew about miracles from an early age. As for my mom, she thought with incorrect logic because of her schooling at Berkeley that Jesus was merely a prophet and that the Bible was written by oppressive men who hated women. Even so, there was one small portion of my mom's life that contained miracles. She said this consistently up until the time she left this Earth. Here is a typical conversation...

Mom: "Strange! No matter what happens, a check in the mail or a bonus or a large tip at work comes in every time we are about to fail financially. I can't explain it. There is some force that sees and provides for us no matter what. We have never gone hungry. We have never had the lights or gas cut off. We have always had a home and all that we need."

I clung to these words of hers. She knew. She knew. This is God. This is You, Father. While You don't give us everything we hope and pray for, You give us even better. You know all of the parties concerned. You give us what is best for us. You have great plans for us. Even so, troubles suck...

Illnesses... attacks... dark brown water... then no water at all... no heat... sick pets... invaders... family arguments... division... hurtful words... unanswered prayers... financial hardships...

The list goes on and on (sigh). Now there are questions that I have, not the children. However, the overall question remains... Father, what is going on here? The week began with a sick dog... she now has pancreas troubles. This is exactly what I have been trying to keep from being full blown in my own body. Since I hadn't been feeling well, I had been staying home to try to rest.

My younger son, who had rededicated his life to Jesus, has been struggling. Something had happened and it triggered him. He then began to workout in the middle of the night with weights. This triggered my stepson, kept up by the loud workouts, and words were exchanged. Tensions then escalated. I found out what had happened the next morning. I then needed to deescalate tensions to restore peace.

There were many absolutes spoken. It hurt. There were two days of battles. I had a fever one night. I prayed and You removed my fever. Thank you. My body is trying to fight infections. Then after a seemingly good day on Thursday, it began to take a turn for the worse. We got home at 4:30pm, but didn't discover until 5:30pm when I began to work in the kitchen that we had big problems.

The tap water was brown and cloudy, like muddy river water. I fumbled after that. I didn't know what to do. I prayed and nothing. We prayed. Nothing. Then the water stopped. No water! My younger son called me downstairs and we killed a spider on the way. My daughter killed a spider at the exact same time. Enemy attacks! I went to pray for my younger son.

He then went to apologize to all those he had hurt with his words. This felt like a huge breakthrough. Dinner was difficult to clean up without water. There is no way I would have chosen spaghetti if I had known. We then went to bed after I had to make the noodles twice. This is because, when I was straining the water, my hand gave way and all the noodles spilled into a dirty sink. Not good. Not usable!

My stomach was now not doing very well. I was so disheartened over all of the events. My husband had fallen asleep when I received a text from my younger son that there was a loud mouse in the ceiling. I then went down to hear it. What I heard was no mouse. It sounded much larger, like a squirrel or a bat. My younger son then joked around that it was three demons stuck in the ceiling tormenting him from getting sleep.

After praying for him, I went to bed. Well, my sleep was brutal. I tossed and turned. I didn't feel well. Everyone went to work Friday morning and I waited for the well workers to come to help us. While they said they would be here at 11:00am, they didn't come until around 12:45pm.

However, at 10:00am, a miracle happened. I had been praying and worshipping then without thinking I turned on the faucet. The water started and it was clear. I was so excited. I began to clean the toilets. I kept checking the water. While the water then went back to a trickle, at least the water was still clear.

The workers then had several items they had never experienced before on any other residential job. The water meter was giving out sounds that they had never heard before. They then found no water above 44 feet. As they were talking about it, I knew in my heart that this was a spiritual warfare issue. The main worker & supervisor remembered our system because he had installed it when the home was built. It has two spillways for overflow and the area is like an octopus with tentacles at the point of the pump underground.

They decided to pull up the pump and check where the failure was. They had hoped to repair it and put it back down again to complete the job for us. However, the pump would not come up. They became worried that it would break apart. We would then have no water at all and even our trickle would be gone. They broke it to me that they would need to bring in a boom truck to pull it out. I then became depressed.

Supervisor: "I am sorry to say that we will not be able to come back until next week. It could be as early as Tuesday, but even as late as Friday."

Me: "How much will all of this be?"

Supervisor: "I don't like to ballpark these things anymore as everything is 40% more than it used to be before Covid. How much did it cost you for the pump last time?"

Me: "For everything, it was about $3,000. That was six years ago."

Supervisor: "That is too bad that it wasn't five years or less. If it had been less than five years, it would have been under the five-year warranty. You just missed it."

Me: "It sounds like we are looking at a hefty bill?"

Supervisor: "Adding increased labor, the boom truck and the 40% increase, we are looking at around $5K altogether depending. I am sorry that this is happening on a Friday."

Me: My stomach now feeling ill. "Yes, it always happens when nothing can be done."

Supervisor: "And you are now at the mercy of the boom truck availability."

Me: "Thank you for coming out to see us."

Supervisor: "We will see you next week."

After they left, I went inside, sat down and cried. I cried so loud that even my dogs laid next to me and sulked. I began reviewing my week and all of the troubles. I felt out of options.

Just the day before, my husband and I went to an auctioneer who sold some of our junk after Jeff went into forced retirement a few years back. We thought that, with kids moving away, this was a good time to do this again.

When we arrived, he didn't greet us with his normal kindness. I approached him to ask if we could get on his schedule. He was so mean and sarcastic with his response. I was in shock. He was very mean to me. My husband stuck up for me, but it was too late. I was hurt. When we got back in the car, my husband told me that we would not be going back to him again. I agreed. This man spoke like Satan to me.

As I reviewed all the events while crying at our dining table. I went to the Lord in my sorrow, brokenness and sickness and pleaded -pouring my heart out before him.

Me: "Father, You're my Best Friend. I love You. Why are You allowing all of this? What if I can't physically recover? What if this pump... well, Father, I bargained with You. I asked for it to be healed. We can't do this right now. Why are You allowing this? Why? When I pray for someone else, You answer their prayers. Lord, we need help here and right now!"

I am crying even as I write this. It is so disheartening. I had to drive to town to purchase water and groceries. I had to stop in to pay for snow tires. By the time I was driving home, I was at the end of my prayers and still feeling so sad. My older son then phoned. I try to talk to him once a day. While his dad has been acting really strangely, that's a different rant for a different day.

My older son then told me of an incident that happened to him. He felt as if he was awake in his bed when he was attacked by three demons in the form of black Dobermans or a hybrid with Rottweilers . He finally called on Jesus and they disappeared. However, he had never experienced anything like that. I then realized that both my sons spoke about 'three demons' on the very same day.

All of us have now had attacks. This is classic spiritual warfare! I then had two separate dreams last night that seemed to reflect my recent troubles...

Sub-dream 1 "Bitter Water vs Living Water" begins...

I was walking in a city at night. There had been a flashflood from a downpour after a time of very little rain... a drought. There was brown water rushing into sewage drains. The drains from the building's rooftops added to the high water in the drains. Some spouts then began to run out into the sidewalks.

The rain came faster and faster and with great volume. It was flooding the water sources with brown water. All the water taps of the people of the city were filled with brown opaque water. The water was undrinkable as a result. The rain kept going. Some people came up to me.

Woman: "Hey, where is this God of yours? How about clearing this water up for us? We are thirsty. We were told that you contained water. Since you have it, you are going to give it to us. Come on now, out with it."

Me: "I don't have any water. It's not like that. I only have the Living Water that God would fill me with to pour out. I don't have what you are seeking."

Man: "Then you are useless to us. Come, let us drink the brown water instead. We are better off doing this than relying on God and His kind for drinking water."

Me: Praying. "Oh Lord, please clear up this water and stop this torrential rain."

Jesus: "In this particular circumstance... no."

I became so sad as I had wanted God to show His power to these people. I saw them all fighting around me. My very presence made the crowd grow angry. They soon came after me and I was scared.

Me: "Ah, Lord, a little help here please!"

A bottle of clear water instantly appeared in my hand.

Jesus: "Drink this in the open."

The crowd became really angry when they saw me drink this water. They were then struck down before they could reach me. Once on the ground, they started vomiting out the brown water that they had drank. Out of this vomit came an army of demons. They appeared as brown figures and they left. The rain then stopped and the ground dried up. A large fountain then appeared with Living Water.

Jesus: "Instruct them to get up and drink."

Me: To the crowd. "Get up and drink. You are thirsty and this fountain will bring life."

Most of the people got up to drink. They were then healed of their illnesses and were changed. Those who didn't drink became even angrier at me, but more so at God for allowing them to suffer. They would not turn to drink the good water. I then saw black entities, perhaps ten per person, come and enter those who were bitter.

Me: I spoke over them "Into your bitter hearts bitter demons enter. Bitter water ingested leads to death."

I then looked over at those who had drank the Living Water. They looked healthy and were splashing in the fountain. This brought a smile to my face!

Sub-dream 1 over...

Sub-dream 2 "As in the Days of Noah" begins...

I was walking on a dimly lit path after a storm. Large flat stones lined the path. Since I was looking for a key, I was turning over each stone. While I could see clearly, I became frustrated with the process of turning over these stones. As I turned one over after the other and soon more than I can even remember, I found the key I had been looking for. Before me was a bright light on this path. There was an angel of the Lord right there in front of me...

Angel: "Erin, God is not angry at you. The enemy is striking out against the children of God. These are perilous times as in the Days of Noah. Concerning your well, the enemy had no permission to enter your home. They instead attacked you from below to cut off your water and steal what provision you have."

Me: "Why would God allow this? He is my Best Friend. Why?"

Angel: "There is a great war. If you knew what had been planned against you and your house, you would think that this water issue was small in comparison. Now, I have a message for you from God... 'Be patient. Ride out these storms even when the world tells you there is no hope. Continue on your course in doing My Will in all things. All of this will come to nothing and your blessings will be multiplied.'

"Now, I was there with Noah. He was ridiculed, scoffed at and his very life threatened. He was disheartened. His own family were concerned for their very lives. Evil men plotted in town to dismantle his ark and use it for firewood. They called for vile things against him and his family for no reason other than they existed. God then sent angels to confuse their evil plans.

"He then made them drunk with wine as the animals came over the course of days and filled God's Holy Ark. Now you can imagine what it was like when the storm came. Waters came from above and below. The scoffers' voices then became like those of beggars. They were then drowned out by the rising waters. Now, think again about Noah. He followed the instructions and the Will of God.

“He built a boat on dry land, not having an understanding as to why or for what purpose. However, he knew, because he was building a boat for Him, that he believed it was for the purposes of God, understand? Now, you see the times of evil expanding quickly as a flood rising and overcoming all that was good. It has been a plot of evil, the reverse, if you will. The promise of a rainbow in the sky was taken for evil means and purpose.

Me: “Oh... so... Heaven is the Ark?”

Angel: “Well, yes, but there is dry ground here. There are fields and these need harvesting. The Temple of God is with His people and there He will take His seat. However, He has also planned a Great Wedding Feast. You are gathering as a Worker and Bride – a List Bearer and Witness to bring those to the Great Celebration. What God has planned will be celebrated here as it is in Heaven.

“There is still a battle here, Erin. When these attacks come, it is not because God is angry at you. It is because the enemy has come against you with all its resources and because of who you are to the King. Now, rejoice, as this is a good thing! Now, soon all will change. God has placed a plan on your heart. Now bring these into God’s presence and before Him, He will bless them.

“God planned the Ark and gave Noah the heart to build it and the faith and fortitude to see it through to completion. He then believed God for the rest. In God, you must trust. Now, all of what the prophets have written and spoken of for this time is now here. Watch and see the Power of our God!”

Sub-dream 2 over..

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Me: "Father, what was the key I was searching for?"

Jesus: "Praise in the storms... prayer in the midst of these... faith to believe in Me for the outcome! Erin, I love you and I will send you all that you need! I am God and I hold the Key!"

Dream over.

756 – Jesus Meets Us at Our Level

Received on Sunday, December 3, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

No matter what, I will praise You in this storm! Thank You for another day. Thank You for all that we have. While we still have heat, at least for now, we do not have any water pressure at all. Father, this is the house You built for us.

As a little girl, I remember not having any home problems. While there was an occasional inconvenient power outage from storms, that was really it.

My grandparents' home had the same appliances and the same heating system, all without any issues. However, nothing is built to last past the warranty. If there is truly a case to be made for our environment, why are they not required to make appliances, computers and printers last longer. Our landfills are overrun with broken technology.

We now live in a home that is 11 years old. Ever since we have lived here, we have had major breakdowns. Almost all of our appliances have failed at some point. Our water and heating systems have had constant problems. We make frequent use of all of our appliances, so this wear and tear are indicative of a large family.

While this makes sense, some of this is still just so ridiculous. The appliance repairman declined to fix our oven because he said that the technology is tricky now and that he would likely charge more in labor than the price of purchasing a new one. What a waste of metal. Oh Father, nothing is made to last anymore.

I find it interesting that all You created is made to last. This includes man, animals, the trees, grass, stars, the moon and the sun. Of course, there is still the cycle of life and death, but all of this was made perfectly by You. You built everything here to last for Your purposes and an eternity with You, with those who choose You now.

In Matthew 24:35, You said: "Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but My Words shall not pass away!" Every written translation of this verse stays consistent and the wording does not vary by translation.

We take comfort in You, Father, as You are our everlasting God, the Creator of Heaven and Earth!

I spent many years designing kitchens and specifying appliances to fit clients' needs and budgets. The great changes in the industry are when all manufacturers quit producing in their own homelands and were subject to quality consumer regulations. Name brand companies now send their manufacturing to nations who pay local workers low wages and produce low quality merchandise in order to maximize profits.

No decent guarantee is offered as a testimony to proud craftsmanship. If one is offered, there are so many fine print exclusions, it is laughable. Every part of our lives around us is wearing out and failing. The only pure guarantee is the one You give us. The guarantee is, if we give our heart to You, You promise to have a place for us with You in Heaven, where nothing can wear out.

Oh Father, I am so thankful that not one thing will ever break down in Heaven. My heart races and my breathing quickens in amazement at the beauty of Heaven with You. Yet another example of this is when I became sick again last night. Nausea without plumbing is horrible. I took some pills and prayed. My inner plumbing is the same as my outer plumbing... nothing is working correctly right now.

With our bodies, I now know that the choices I made when I was younger have caused many of my illnesses today. I am guilty of abusing the very body You gave me. I ignored problems and refused to address certain things when troubles started. When you are young, you think you are superhuman, that you just need to power through the pain or you ignore whatever it was until you have no choice but to get help.

God designed us perfectly to last and to live in joy. He wants us to not worry and to praise Him in all situations, both good and bad. These are keys to healthy living...

- Praising God for all He is, has done and is doing.
- Praying to God for others and for His Will to be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.
- Praying for protection against enemy schemes.
- Praying for the love and the blessing of God, our Father, over every aspect of our lives and all that we have around us.

Father, this life is not a simple one like my grandparents had. When we were little, it was really fun. We played outside. We were rarely indoors. The food was real and usually homemade. However, the one great exception was Velveeta cheese from the market. Boy, did I hate that stuff. It seems like our lives are now filled with things to worry about. Still, You tell us not to worry. Well, I am trying.

It is just that... well, while I have full faith in my outcome, I don't necessarily have as much faith on 'my chosen way' during this journey. When I am sick, it is really hard to focus on anything else but the pain I am in. Pain has a megaphone and often drowns out Your still small voice. When grieving a loss, the pain of the heart is so great that turning to You can sometimes be an afterthought.

When hit with bad news and there is no solution and no way out, the immediate reaction is deep despair and personal bargaining. Finally, when all else fails and we are at the end of our human options and solutions, then we finally turn to You. I am sorry. I then go to You immediately in prayer.

However, when the trouble and pain is louder than Your Voice, the focus goes to this immediate feeling in Me. This happens in wave after wave until tears come. I then surrender all to You, Father. I am ready for some miracles and I know others are as well. All of these thoughts seemed to feed into one of my dreams last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Jesus plays Lego with my sons" begins...

I was spending time with my sons. In my dream, my younger son was eight and my older son was ten. They were playing with Lego and they were both laughing. I had already known their lives would be difficult in this world. While I was trying to prepare them, they were not really listening to me fully.

I then got up and went to the kitchen. I then heard them talking to someone. I turned the corner and saw that Jesus was now sitting with them. He was playing with the Legos as my sons listened intently to Him speaking.

Jesus: Addressing my older son. "You will be away for a while. You will be scared and you will miss your family. However, know this... your mom will come for you. She loves you. Do not believe what is said of her. These are lies."

Older son: Nodding as he listened. "Why do I have to leave?"

Jesus: "Because I have a great plan for you. I will make you smart and your memory full of knowledge. You will one day be healed. Now, I have great plans to bless you. However, you must remember all that I tell you."

Older son: Nodding in agreement. "Okay, I will."

Younger son: "Can I go with my brother to protect him?"

Jesus: "No, at least not for now. You will after a year though. Now, I have allowed all of this to happen to both of you because I have chosen you for a special purpose."

Younger son: "People tell me that I am dumb. They hurt me. I don't talk well."

Jesus: "I know and I see. They will be held accountable one day. You will be blessed by your hands and you will be a keeper of your words, even when others don't keep theirs. I will grow you tall and you will no longer be little. The enemy will then be afraid of you. I will heal you and your enemies will run at the sight of you."

Younger son: Laughing as he played with his Legos. "I like that!"

Jesus: "Now, you will both witness and account for all you see. Your memories will serve both of you when it is needed. The abuse you suffered at the enemies' hands will return back to them. When you are older, you will witness the difference between those I bless and those I release to their own will. You will both serve Me."

He was speaking to my sons in a cloud, but almost more like a bubble of light. This is hard to describe. While He instructed them on more things, I could not hear it. I rubbed my eyes and then He was gone. The boys were still playing though.

Me: "Hey, how are you both doing?"

Younger son: "Mom, Jesus came and said hi!"

Older son: "Yeah, it was cool. He played Legos with us."

Me: "What did He say?"

Older son: "Oh mom, He said 'Jesus Stuff'. We can't tell you."

Me: "Oh, okay."

Younger son: "Hey, what's for lunch? Can I have a corndog?"

I went to the kitchen to fix lunch. When I came back, only my younger son was there. I turned and took my older son's plate back to the kitchen. I was then in our next place... a townhome... and my younger son was now also gone. All of this happened just as Jesus said it would. I sat down and wept in my living room.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I can barely remember certain aspects of my next dream...

Sub-dream 2 "The Clay needs to trust the Potter" begins...

I was sitting next to Jesus. He was at His Potter's Wheel.

Jesus: "Erin, does the clay ask the Potter, 'Why are You shaping me like this and for what purpose do I serve?'"

Me: "Often, yes, Lord, but we really shouldn't."

Jesus: "When this happens, I either reshape the clay by beginning again or I let the clay sit on the shelf and dry up. What would be the best thing?"

Me: "For the clay to instead fully trust in the Potter's hands."

Jesus: "Okay, then trust Me for the outcome." He then pointed to a beautiful vase. "Remember, it is filled with Living Water from My very hands. It is not a display vase to sit dormant. It is functional on many different fronts and it is you. By My Will and by My hands, this is Your Vessel."

He reached over for my hand and smiled at me.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: "What is going on, Father? What is happening?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I have not forgotten you! I am with you and My Voice is in you. Now, why did I give you the dream of your sons?"

Me: "I am not sure. It was painful."

Jesus: "So that you knew that I am on this journey with you. However, not just you, I am also with your sons and your daughter. Now, if I ask you what your greatest gift from Me is, what would you say?"

Me: "My children."

Jesus: "Those who know Me, and even many who don't, cherish their children as a great gift. So many have judged you over the years not knowing all that I do. Based on appearances and enemy lies, you were found guilty of poor parenting. You didn't understand fully what the enemy had done to you.

"Now, your sons were taken from you based on great deception from an evil seat. You had to fight back until you were found to be truthful and until you had evidence to present. While your sons were returned fully to you, great damage had been done during their times away from you."

Me: "My older son's 26th birthday is today and my younger son is now 24."

Jesus: "Your older son is now in his 27th year and your younger son in his 25th. These are good years for release from captivity. They have seen the world in child-like ways. However, the world has sent attacks against them. Just as I was there with them from the beginning, I am still with them. They have had great troubles navigating the world around them.

"Erin, your sons will soon be a proud banner for you. You will testify to My goodness. Do not worry. As for your personal troubles, I am with you. Even though you are under attack, I have sent angels concerning you. All of this will come to nothing as I will provide for your every need. Continue to praise Me in these storms and I will answer your prayers. You are greatly loved.

"It is easy to question everything when troubles arise. Just don't question the God who loves you. I used your sons against powerful enemies. Their faith in Me has been with a childlike heart. As a result, I will bless them with far greater than they even imagined. Now rejoice, Erin. Do not worry as I have a great surprise for you.

"You will be overjoyed and in great awe at first. I have never forgotten My promises to you. However, neither has the enemy and this is why he discourages you and draws you into pain and sadness. However, I will release you from this captivity to a beautiful place I have prepared for you and your family.

"Now, the uptick in evil has drawn out their great plans against God's people. You are witnessing the great stage being set for the destruction of the children. However, this is because children are a gift from God, so the enemy hates them. Little does he know that 'Act 1' will feature a move of God and My Army that the enemy never saw coming. You will be a part of this.

"Now, rejoice and pray, Erin, as I have you. When you receive discouraging news, know that better news is already decreed and soon to arrive. I am with you. Be excited. As for all those I have called: GET READY! Times like no other are here!"

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I am exhausted. Every part of my being is tired. My fingers are cracked. My skin is worn from using alternatives apart from soap and running water to keep things clean. I have been humbled, Father.. not that I am humble, just that I am made to be humbled in my circumstances.

We have been in quite a spiritual warfare battle and we, as a house, are adjusting. Father, we have breakthrough finally here today. Please help us restore our normal way of living again. Praise You, Father, with all of these things that could have financially broken us in the worst-case scenario. Well, the worst did not happen!

Instead, it ended up being fixed with no further troubles. Thank You! Thank You! I am thankful for clear running water. I am thankful for hot water and heat in general. Perhaps we had taken these luxuries for granted. As for the western world, we think nothing of something like water and plumbing. At least until all of it is gone.

Father, I am sorry for ever taking our daily common conveniences for granted. It is a reminder to give thanks to You for water, heat, lighting and safety. This is what our home You have provided for us gives us. I am grateful to You. Oh yes... please bless the men who worked on our system. By Your divine hand, our water was restored.

I had to travel to see a heart specialist yesterday. While we were on a long wait list, there was a sudden opening in his schedule. A miracle. My husband rearranged his work schedule and drove me on this three-hour journey. My pacemaker reading is still locked down until December 13, 2023.

As a result, they have a special monitor placed on my chest, along with a cell phone in hand, to monitor my heart beats. This is, by far, the best care I have received in ten years from any other heart physician I am so grateful for this. I feel blessed to have both clean clear running water and a heartbeat today. This is good news compounded.

As for my younger son, he has rededicated his life to you. He has also been fasting and praying for the last four days. You then answered his prayers, but also mine, for a sign that You are God in control of all things. Father, You have done this for us and I cannot thank You enough. I have never seen my son so completely joyful. My jaw dropped in shock. My heart monitor skipped as it was reading my beats. You are amazing and I am so thankful that You are truly in control of all things.

On a side note, my heart is troubled by some of the things You have shown me. While I am unsure about the timing of these things, I know they are coming. Father, You said that You are God above all things. You said that nothing the enemy does is done apart from You allowing this and is ultimately for the good of all those who love You. You have reminded us that, in this life, we will have troubles.

Despite this, You have reminded us to take care as You have overcome the world. You also said that the enemy must make known his plans in advance to those who are subject to the attacks. Mark 4:23-24: "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.. pay attention to what you hear; with the measure you use, it will be measured to you and still more will be added to you."

Father, I feel in my heart, more than at any other time, that You gave me and my husband knowledge of the enemy's playbook soon to come against America. We are still in shock and awe over the gall and arrogance of he who is most likely the antichrist. What is planned against us is rooted not in conspiracy theory, but in truth, hidden in plain sight. It is just that very few see or refuse to see it. It is a frightening display.

Anyone who sounded the alarm on the comings and goings of this person or on his strategies going forward, using his own words, actions and true context in execution of all of this in the future, has either been cancelled or removed completely. Just a week ago, we watched a trailer of an upcoming end of the world movie titled "Leave the World Behind". Some interesting notes on the background of this movie...

- The main executive producers are the ex-President and the former first lady.
- The production company owned by this same couple and that bankrolled this movie is called "Higher Ground Productions".

- The ex-President had a huge say in editing the script, therefore indirectly showing his exact vision for how he sees the USA being destroyed.
- This movie is laced with multiple playbook references. It is essentially the evil one's script on how he sees the USA being taken down.
- One of the movie's trailer read as follows and seems to be a subtle dig against all who are watching for the Rapture: "Deep Down... You Knew... That This Day... Was Coming..." Disturbing images were shown at each pause.

Oh Father, please rise up and help us! Please rise up and save Your people from what is coming against us. We watched the movie last night after praying for Your hands of protection over all we would see and hear. This was unusual for us as we try to only watch Christian movies or those that have a redemptive message. Of course, I still love my Hallmark movies, even though I am sad about how woke they can be at times. Well, Father, this movie was just so evil and for so many reasons:

- It showed that false propaganda and lies would begin the USA's collapse.
- The movie focused on an attack on our technology from foreign hackers.
- The enemy had formed the fall of America from within the government.
- False narratives caused divisions to help further the collapse of society.
- A multitude of designated foreign immigrants then seized power through violent acts, all mounting into a coup d'état.
- These infiltrators primarily came from China, the Middle East and North Korea.

This movie was really dark and lacked any hope at all. It was spiritually dead. I saw quite a bit of symbolism. The dialogue between the actors was obviously meant to give power to their evil agendas. Oh Father, when? When will You rise up and silence Your enemies? Please! I had a dream last night that seemed to comment about all of this...

Sub-dream 1 "The Great Turn Against the Enemy" begins...

I saw God's people being led into the desert and away from what they had come to know. I then saw an army descend unto God's people and tempting them. However, God was in His people and alerted them to the enemy's schemes. Finally, and after 40 days, the people rose up and turned on the enemy. They chased down this wicked army. I saw them flee to caves.

I woke up suddenly because my heart monitor alert kept sounding on my heart device.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Oh Father, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I do not want you to worry. Now, you noticed something important about this movie that frames it."

Me: "Yes, it was spiritually void."

Jesus: "Then understand who the producer is. It isn't God. If it were My Playbook, then there would always be a redemptive story and good news. The enemy hates good news and seeks to destroy all hope and joy. Do not focus on the essence of the enemy because evil is at the heart and root and always leaves you empty.

"Now, here is My take, My review, on exactly what you are seeing... you see a man behind the scenes rising to take his seat as ruler over all things. However, I am standing in his way. He knows Me and knows I will not sit back and do nothing for long. He then taunts Me by using common things. He calls evil good and good evil. There is no excuse or justification for this promotion of hate. This is the opposite of love.

"He has a vengeful mind and sows great bitterness through false narratives. He is silent on evil against the innocent. Instead, he is vocal on the rights of the guilty. He vows to set them free. He turns them into martyrs. He is silent on the true martyrdom of God's children. He instead encourages the evil against them. He enjoys his lavish homes and parties. He enjoys his celebrity friends who dare not speak against him out of fear. Well, I see him. Erin, do not worry... I see him.

"Now, there were many more strikes against his enemies in this movie than you had even noticed. However, with him, this is personal. He hates you. He hates who you are because of Me. He hates the Jewish people. He hates all people. All that you have come to think you know is truly much worse. A leader can do great harm to the world in 8 years... even 16 years.

"The first 4 years was preparing his field for planting. With proper backing, a farmer planting seeds of destruction of the land can bring a record harvest of great evil. Watch that which you cannot see, that which is not easily heard. However, you have known about this for a long time because I have shown you his plans over the years."

Me: "Oh Lord, it is hard to watch someone destroy our country. All that was good is now called bad and vice versa."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, I built this. All of this is Mine and is dedicated to Me. The people began to turn away because they grew tired of hoping in something they cannot see."

I paused here when my husband phoned me with some bad news...

Me: "Oh Lord, we just found out that our primary vehicle was stolen in a distant city. My husband is not doing well. Father, this is disheartening."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am not mad at you or your husband. However, these things are humbling. This is a measure. I tell you the truth... things will not go well for those who stole it."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but why did You allow this? We are still tired from all of the water stuff. We just finished this. Now this? We have never had a car stolen before."

Jesus: "Erin, the car is part of an operation that will ship it overseas."

Me: "Oh Lord, then please protect our personal information."

Jesus: "This group believes it is doing a good thing... stealing from the unsuspecting and sending it away. While the government is aware, it does very little because they do not want people to drive cars, or for that matter have any freedom. It is being done as part of a much larger plan. It is a big operation. Do not worry though as this is also about your stepdaughter and your stepson. This is for many purposes.

"You and your husband must pray. You understand that you can do nothing in this situation other than pray. You are to always remember that I am in control over all things. Sometimes personal comfort must be traded for the things of Heaven. In other words, souls are more valuable than wheels. Erin, I know your needs and I will provide much better for you. No weapons formed against you shall prosper.

"Now, stay diligent and surrender these things to Me. Continue to do all things in which I instructed you. I have plans to bless you."

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that we have. Thank You for my husband, our children and our families and friends. While I was stronger about the events that transpired yesterday, I am broken today. All of the 'what ifs' are coming at me now. My paranoia is structured in reality. Why? Our best vehicle was stolen yesterday. According to the insurance companies, very few are ever recovered.

The police were not at all hopeful for any sort of recovery. In fact, they told us that our vehicle would already be on a container ship bound for Africa and the Middle East. The rise in auto thefts is due to organized crime. However, the Lord told me that the governments are slowly and quietly allowing the removal of gas vehicles by sending them to areas that have gas available and a lack of automobiles.

This is all part of the undeclared war on all of us in the western hemisphere. So, where do we go? Where are we safe from crime? Some of our personal information was in that car. Apparently, a new trend is to steal the replacement car later. This is a warning to all of those who think it couldn't happen more than once.

I have been crying today as a result. Oh Father, I am so tired now. While I know this is 'just a car' to You, it is a safe means of transportation to us to get in and out of town. My husband needs this to get to work every day. We need this to haul things. The interest rate has now more than doubled since we purchased this. Father, now would be a really great time for some of Your promised miracles.

I think of the song 'Homeward' by Benjamin William Hastings. This has been a repeat song in my head the last few days. Here are the lyrics...

"I'm out here in the open, trying to stay the path; Somewhere in between the promise and the place it comes to pass; Who knows what it'll cost me or how long it'll last; But I told You I would follow and I'll never take it back. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward.

I've asked You more than once to hurry up the plans; But what if where You want me is exactly where I am because what I learnt from waiting is waiting never lasts; You didn't bring me this far just to bring me back; No, You're too good for that. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward.

Sometimes I feel You; And sometimes I feel like I don't; But faith's more than feeling; It's like seeing the invisible; And yet somehow I see it; All that lies at the end of the road; And I don't know the timing; So I'm guessing it's not mine to know; Lord, help me believe it; All those days when I feel like I don't; I've learnt faith isn't fearless; It's just trusting when you fear the most; And someday I'll see it; Reach the house at the end of road.

Should that road leave me lonely; Well, I know that I am never alone; Oo-oooh, oo-oo-oooh; I am never alone; Oo-oooh, oo-oo-oooh. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward; Call me homeward."

I know that we are measures and witnesses for others. However, perhaps You could strengthen us. I am tired. Father, all of these dreams and journal pages are a record of Your story through me. Please help me make the best of all of this when I am not feeling the best.

My younger son leaves Tuesday, December 12, 2023 for Seattle until he returns on Sunday, December 17, 2023. He is not very familiar with downtown Seattle. While I used to be, Seattle has changed so much since then. I know that crime is very high now. Please protect him and his friend. They are going to some hockey games there. While he is excited , he is now also cautious.

Both my son and my daughter told me that they won't roll their eyes at me when I tell them to secure their belongings and to not tap your payment at the gas pump and so on. Father, what happened to us is a major thing. Why? Why do this now? I know You said 'souls before wheels', but still! I had a dream last night that seemed to relate to the helpless feeling that comes with being robbed from...

Sub-dream 2 “My Stuff is Stolen” begins...

I was going on a flight. I was in the security check line. I had placed all of my belongings on the conveyor belt in bins. I had to go for a special screening due to my pacemaker. They then put me through a horribly invasive search. They were shaming me as they kept telling me to take off more and more articles of clothing. I finally said, ‘No more! That’s enough!’ They laughed at me as they finished up.

I then went to the bins to collect my belongings. Every one of my items had now been stolen. This included my identification, passport, luggage, medication, phone, credit cards, cash, jewelry and clothing. To make matters worse, they even stole my shoes and ticket. I addressed the security team that should have stopped this.

Me: “Uh, excuse me... where are my things?” They laughed at me. They then spoke to me in an accent too heavy for me to even understand them. “All of my belongings are stolen. My identification, ticket and even my shoes are gone! Please help me!” I woke up mumbling.

Sub-dream 2 over..

As a child, our cars were broken into many times. Our home was broken into at least three times. We had no insurance for these items because it wasn’t available in the early 1970s. We often lived without any TVs or record players. My friend even stole all of my jewelry and the end of my flute so I couldn’t play it. While I never caught her in the act, she also never denied doing it.

Later, when I was older, I had my purse stolen. I then had it stolen a second time. This had so many of my personal belongings. This was a nightmare. However, this time it is a car. Really? Still, at least it is easier to replace than other things.

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: “Erin, I am here and I am with you! I know that your loss is troubling. However, the enemy’s gain will lead to great destruction as the cost of this will be on their heads. Please understand that this was allowed by Me as I am over all things. Right now, everything seems very dark and foreboding. However, I have a Great Plan.”

Me: "I know, Lord. It's just that... well... I am so tired now. This is all becoming too much for me. Perhaps You should give up on me as I am exhausted and not doing well anymore. I am supposed to remember my past no more, but a flood of memories and tears come back to me when I recall the feeling of having items stolen."

"It feels like You are drastically reducing our household in many different ways. I am overwhelmed. I would just ask that You will remove us to a safer place. Did I bring this on because I caution my kids too much to be more street smart?"

Jesus: "No. You have information and experiences that are important for your children to know. However, no matter what, there are schemes and great traps planned by a hidden army against its citizens. You will be unable to prepare for this according to the world. All you have is Me."

Me: "Oh Lord, then please help us! We are unable to fight against the enemy of the children of God."

Jesus: "What did you discover from the authorities concerning your vehicle?"

Me: "That it is gone and it is part of a larger operation to remove cars from the people."

Jesus: "You are correct. It is part of a larger operation. Erin, this is so that insurance companies end and nothing you have is secure in this life. The enemy is draining the assets of the people and sending it to foreign governments. The foreigners who have come here will then be sent to rob and take all that remains door-to-door."

"Now, nothing is reported on, so the people are unaware for lack of understanding. Many are in shock and refuse to see what is right before them. You then ask, 'Why did You not give me a warning?' Well, I did... for you to pray as you are in the middle of a great battle, a battle that did not conclude with the restoration of your water well."

Me: "Did I let my guard down in prayer?"

Jesus: "No, Erin. This stolen car has a greater purpose. Will you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, could You please help me? I need help. I am scared and I don't want to leave our house."

Jesus: "Erin, I have you. I will bless you through this trouble. You are still waiting on your promises. However, you are to remember that I will fulfill every one of My promises. I am faithful to deliver you. I have seen your troubles and I promise that these will come to nothing. I know you need healing. I know you are now fearful. However, remember to only fear God, not man. Erin, I am here!"

Dream over.

758 – A Sad Prayer in the Storm

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have given us. Thank You for my family, our friends and our Nest. We are blessed. In this life, we will have troubles, but we are so encouraged that You are over all things. Outside, we are experiencing torrential rainfall. Our culverts are full of water rushing from fast melting snow. Yesterday was filled with tears. I feel broken even this morning.

We as a household are under attacks from all sides. Even so, other than our stolen car, it has mostly been nuisance attacks. My heart monitor kept me up last night. It wasn't reading properly, so it kept sounding the alarm. I believe I resolved it, but not after several rounds of trouble during the night.

My younger son leaves for Seattle tomorrow. He just rededicated his life to You. The enemy hates this. Could You, for my sake, give him a fun and worry-free time there? Could You please do this for me? Could You protect him from all enemy assignments against him to rob, kill and destroy his life? Show Yourself to him in greater strength. I pray and ask for this, in Jesus' Name.

With our stolen car, could You make it that the insurance will pay for it completely and they don't try to undervalue it so we owe money? Also, our heating shut down in one room. We are not sure what is happening, so if You could supernaturally heal this, that would be awesome.

I had an odd dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The Designers mingle with Gang Reps" begins...

I walked up to a show home. The front yard of the home was freshly mowed grass and a long driveway wide enough for multiple cars. Across the road was a massive cornfield with stalks 6' or more in height. I entered the show home. When I walked through this house, it was somewhat confusing as it had many rooms and multiple levels.

In this house were several of my old rivals in the interior design field. Each one had bedrooms with very mediocre designs. I was amazed to hear them compliment each other over and over. I noticed that all of the furnishings were low quality and dated. Despite this, they were advertised as 'cutting edge modern designs'. One of the designers came up to talk to me...

Designer: "You seem familiar to me. Oh well, never mind."

She was puffed up and so obviously proud of her own work.

Me: "Isn't all of this furniture used?"

Designer: "Where have you been? Reuse, recycle and reimagine! There is no 'NEW' anymore. Seriously?"

She was becoming angry because she could tell that I was not impressed at all.

Me: "Where did the furniture stores go?"

Designer: "Are you living under a rock?"

Me: "Perhaps (standing on the rock of Jesus)

Designer: "All manufacturing has stopped. Then all stores, warehouses and design centers were plundered. Then the rest was destroyed. If something breaks, too bad... you live with it. The lucky ones are my clients who are so wealthy and powerful that they are untouchable. No one can take what they have."

Me: "Oh, so, is this the great wealth transfer?"

Designer: "Yes. As for this show, it gives people ideas."

Me: "But it looks like you live here."

Designer: "I do. That is the rule for the show."

Me: "Then who buys tickets?"

Designer: "Representatives for the wealthy." I then noticed several different vehicles pull up with rival gang members. "Oh, the reps are here. I have to get ready."

There was absolutely nothing here to envy. It was the saddest dream. I then noticed that all of these designers were crawling into bed with the reps. I was in shock.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Oh Father, while I am not sure what this dream means, it felt like these people were so void of God. There was spiritual death all around me.

This morning, I was reading Scripture and Psalm 100 in particular. This Psalm was about Your steadfast love that endures forever. Father, love is now waxing to coldness here. I cling to this short chapter and I am grateful for Your promises and You, Father. I then read Psalm 101 right after. You have put on my heart something very serious...

Psalm 101: 1 I will sing of steadfast love and justice; to you, O Lord, I will make music. 2 I will ponder the way that is blameless. Oh when will you come to me? I will walk with integrity of heart within my house; 3 I will not set before my eyes anything that is worthless. I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cling to me. 4 A perverse heart shall be far from me; I will know nothing of evil. 5 Whoever slanders his neighbor secretly I will destroy. Whoever has a haughty look and an arrogant heart I will not endure. 6 I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me. 7 No one who practices deceit shall dwell in my house; no one who utters lies shall continue before my eyes. 8 Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all the evildoers from the city of the Lord.

Then Psalm 102 outlines a prayer of one afflicted and when he is faint and pours out his complaint before the Lord. Verse 7: I lie awake; I am like a lonely sparrow on the housetop.

Me: "Father, please help me! Please help us. Let us be upright in Your presence. Let us always praise You, even when things become more difficult. Please don't forget me. Please don't forget our house."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You worry about many things, but do not worry. The enemy knows his time is short, so he attacks from a distance. In the case of your water, this was an attack from below. In the case of your car, this was an attack from afar."

Note 10:45 am: The power just went out. The winds have picked up. The culvert is almost overflowing.

Lord, we need some help here. Please restore our power quickly so we don't lose heat, water or endure the loss of our fridge and freezer contents. Father, I come against many curses, are any of these attacks or permissions? Please help us. Please protect our house, in Jesus' Name.

Me: "Oh Lord, am I in need of repentance? I am so distraught. We are taking a beating right now. Now I am afraid to have my younger son go on his trip."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I am with you! I am in the storm and in this darkness with you. Remember that these are perilous times. However, I am over all things and nothing that comes against you will succeed."

Me: "Lord, it seems like the enemy is winning. They have our car. They removed our water. The winds have picked up and the power is out. The roads are beginning to wash out and the culverts are overflowing. Our dogs are even crying. Please help! I love You!"

Jesus: "I promise to take the darkness you find yourself surrounded by and I will bring light to it. All will be restored. Do not be afraid. Erin, can you restore the power? Can you stop the rain or the flood? Can you return your stolen car? Can you stop the wind?"

Me: "No to all, Lord. The rain is causing flash flooding."

Jesus: "Then give this to Me."

Me: "Lord, my daughter had to leave to drive into town to finish her work online since we have no power and no internet right now."

Jesus: "Hmm, just like the pioneers of old?"

Me: "Oh, You are so funny! You are right, Lord, this is small in comparison. We are of these times in this modern world. I can't even imagine the hardships the pioneers endured. This is nothing in comparison."

Jesus: "Well, each generation has their troubles and trials contained within. Each one has their portion. Now, with your younger son... as he travels, he must be aware that the enemy is afoot with schemes. However, I am with him and he should not worry."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Oh yes... please don't let any of our trees fall. Please keep them firmly rooted. The largest one is next to the rushing water. I am concerned since the ground is very wet."

Jesus: "I have dispatched angels, Erin. The lands there are being humbled. I will protect you. However, tomorrow is a new day!"

Me: "I pray that our lights are back on before tomorrow!"

Jesus: "Again, do not worry as I am with you. Continue on your course. Remember... when I give you clear instructions to complete a work, then do so with vigor. The enemy does not want this."

Note: Torrential rains were still battering our home. The rain hit the window heavily as I wrote. I decided to stop in order to inspect the property. I started to rant...

My rant: "The culvert is breeched. Our driveway is taking on the brunt of the road runoff. I am not physically able to do anything to stop this. I tried cutting trenches in the rain to stop the flow of water. I tried everything. We have no power. We are in the dark. Father, Lord, why have You forsaken me? Lord, please take me Home if I am about to fall. I love You. I prayed. I did everything in my own power, but in full faith. Still, my prayers remain unanswered. Nothing I am doing seems to be helping. I am broken here, Lord. Forgive me. Forgive all my sins. Lord, I am not always good. I get mad sometimes. I am exhausted and weak. Won't You strengthen me? Strengthen my faith, Lord. I am so sad."

I then went back to My devotional chair. I felt a bit embarrassed about my rant, but I wanted to be honest with the Lord. This is what He wants from us... honesty!

Jesus: "Hmm, this after I just gave you a word of encouragement before your troubles? Do you not remember this from even one hour ago? Did you forget?"

Me: "Lord, storms have always been compounded in my life. However, everything is now coming at me. Your Voice is in me. Still, I prayed in faith and nothing happened. I guess all of this is Your Will. I have no authority unless You grant it in me. It is getting colder in our home. The power has now been out for four hours. Please keep our food cold, Lord. Please keep our home from flooding or even worse."

Jesus: "I am here. Go above the storm, Erin. Do you see Me? I am here. I am not unaware. All of this will soon pass."

Me: "Your enemies mock me, Lord. They say, 'Look at little fool, sparrow. We will hurt her and her faith. She will then turn and curse God.' Well, I won't, Lord. It is just that I am so exhausted. As such, I will speak no more today. As for the sun, perhaps it will shine again tomorrow and there will be light. Perhaps all will then be still. But, for now, I cry..."

Note: The power came back on at 8:45 pm. My husband had already come home early to help with the flooding situation. He helped to calm me down. He then pointed out that the Lord really did limit the water and wind damage to nothing but superficial things. He then pointed out that my prayers were actually answered. Well, once again, thank You, Lord... yesterday, today and tomorrow!

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done and all You are about to do. I have had some troubling days recently. Demonic activity around us has had an increase. Yesterday was so difficult, so my prayers have increased for our protection every day.

I traveled for an hour to Houlton ME yesterday for medical purposes. I arrived early and I thought I would go fill my tank only to discover I had left my wallet at home. I had barely a quarter tank of gas and not enough to make it home. I phoned my daughter as she was off from work. She then kindly took 2.5 hours out of her day to 'rescue mom'.

My first appointment came with some disappointing news about four internal issues and a mass on my kidney. This means that I will need further tests. However, my second appointment came with a miracle! The doctors were finally able to get into my pacemaker account. They then discovered that my heart had somehow healed and strengthened itself (obviously, this was God... smiles).

Doctor: Shaking his head in amazement. "Hmm, I believe this phenomenon occurs in only 1% of cases worldwide. Your heart is beating on its own again. This is a miracle!"

Thank You, Father, for this great news! Even so, I still cried a lot yesterday. I have been going through such sadness after all of our troubles. It has shaken me to the core of my being. I am grieving the former way. This is when I was so joyful and stated fearless declarations about the Kingdom of Heaven and how none of us will experience this 'hell on Earth' about to be unleashed upon this world.

Things I had hoped and dreamed of are taking shape just as the Lord told me they would. It is just that I wanted it to be a more 'kinder gentler version' than what it has become. As for my dreams lately, they have clearly road-mapped the coming of the Antichrist. However, I want more Jesus dreams, dreams of the angels of the Heavenly Army and dreams of God in His Great Power.

Certain aspects of my dream last night made my stomach sick...

Sub-dream 1 "The Three Beasts, The Three Mighty Angels" begins...

I was walking through the woods. It was winter. While I was searching for something, I don't recall what. As I walked, I saw a beautiful Bald Eagle overhead. I smiled to myself as this was a sign from the Lord. I then saw the eagle dive after something. I then heard it cry, along with the sound of something horrific. I walked toward the area of commotion. I suddenly stopped in horror as I knew that I would be next.

In a clearing, there stood three massive animals. There was a polar bear, a white tiger and a white lion. They were devouring this eagle alive. It had been quartered. The only colors present in this dream were white, grey and the red blood of the eagle. However, the eagle wasn't enough to feed these massive beasts. I then noticed something disturbing...

The three were joined together by their hind feet. The lion was in the middle and shared hind feet with both the tiger and the bear. I shifted my body further behind a tree when something alerted them to my presence. It must have been a sudden change of the wind. All three of them then looked up from their kill and came at me together in unison. I turned and ran but I was no match for their speed – they were still coming after me.

I tripped and fell down face forward. I lied there waiting for them to kill me. I was shaking visibly and even vomited. I then heard an angel of the Lord.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Erin, get up! Come!"

Me: "I am sorry?"

I then saw that he was carrying a bow and arrow. With lightning-fast movements that I could barely comprehend, he used these weapons against these three beasts.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "There, we got them! Come!"

He reached for my hand and took me to a clearing. There in front of me were the three dead predators - The lion, the tiger and the bear.

Me: "Thank you!"

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "You are now discouraged. You are searching for answers to your questions. However, these will draw attention to you as a target to devour. God has sent us to watch over you in all you do. You are not to be afraid.”

The angel then whistled. It was a signal to the other angels. Several more angels then revealed themselves. We were surrounded by angels. Another angel then came over.

Angel of His Presence: “I am the angel of His Presence. The Lord has sent me to show you what is planned against His people. The three beasts you saw are one and the same. They work together. Now, even though the Lord is with you, you have, at times, wondered if you are actually hearing His Voice. Well, I am here to tell you that this Voice is truly the Lord’s. Erin, His Word of Truth is your Greatest Weapon. You are not to live in fear, oh Child of God, as He is mighty in saving you. Now, we are here to refresh your Spirit as you have been lowly in countenance.”

Me: Crying. “When will Jesus strengthen us and heal us? So many of us are now so tired and sad. I see all of this.” I pointed to the half-devoured eagle carcass. “What about our hopes and dreams? This is getting to be too much for me.”

Angel of His Presence: “God sees! The Lord knows. He loves you. He has done all of this for you. He has shown you Great Mysteries so you would never lack knowledge of His Kingdom Come and this fallen world.”

Me: “Even so, I am still experiencing multiple attacks.”

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: “It is difficult at the final stages as you are pregnant with the Truth of God. These final stages are the birth pangs of labor. Grief and even worry then set in when there appears to be no movements. Contractions then suddenly come and the water breaks.”

Me: “I don’t know what is happening to me. I have been angry even though I really don’t get angry. However, I am now angry with something that I do not understand.”

Angel of His Presence: “Erin, this is good. It is strengthening you with the heart of a warrior. It is okay to be angry at what you are seeing and experiencing. The Lord has shaken you awake. Now, come, let me show you what is here.”

We walked together over to the eagle. Another angel then appeared.

Angel of New Life: “I am the angel of new life.”

The angel then blew upon the remains of the eagle. Right before my eyes, the eagle was then alive and whole again. The eagle was even better than before. The eagle then walked around the carcasses of the predators.

The eagle then started to tear into them. The eagle suddenly stopped and regurgitated their flesh. The angels laughed.

Angel of New Life: "Even though you can devour them, sometimes there are better meals than unclean flesh." The eagle nodded in agreement and then flew off.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "See, those beasts... or, really, the beast... baited the eagle and then divided it up into quarters. It then devoured the eagle. This is the plan of the Antichrist. The eagle represents both Israel and the USA. The enemy has shown you their intentions in advance. Believe them. They have great plans to destroy most of the people of this world.

"Erin, this kingdom they have begun is more evil than all of the others before them. We know who the enemy is and so do you. Do not look to the enemy for information on who they are because they want you to consume fear. Their plans are to spread lies and fear."

Me: "This movie I recently watched (Leave the World Behind) was an eye-opening confirmation of their plans, as well as so many digs at God."

Angel of His Presence: "Erin, God is aware of this. The things that are revealed are an attempt by the enemy for his audience to believe he is over them. He wants them to believe that there is no one in control to save the people. This message is dark as it is outside of the Lord and His Great Plans. The enemy's plans are to do all of this quickly. The enemy wants this former leader, who is actually really still the one in charge, to then reveal himself as 'the savior of the world and the peace czar'. However, he is actually the opposite of peace."

Angel of New Life: "He is also the opposite of life. His message is a message of captivity, enslavement and death."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "They will now try to remove all means of communication. Their goal is to have control over the networks of all technology and information. All of the things they have done are warnings in advance so that those who see understand and those who hear know what arises from this."

Me: "The ex-President put control over ICANN out of the USA's hands and placed it in the hands of Dubai. He then removed beautiful light bulbs that mimicked heavenly lights and replaced them with LED lighting. I hate this. What was this about?"

Angel of His Presence: "God has given you knowledge here. It isn't a personal guess. What did He tell you?"

Me: "That the light no longer mimics the stars twinkling. This is true for Christmas trees now. This lighting is a very poor counterfeit of what we once loved and came to know. However, and even more than this, certain LEDs are designed to cause anxiousness and sleeplessness. Many are now used in children's rooms. It is upsetting."

Angel of His Presence: "God, our Lord, is the Light of the World. As for this fallen angel, he was 'the angel of light'. This is why the area of lighting was one of his first strikes. He is also the chief liar. He is very involved with the news. If anyone goes another direction and speaks the truth of all that is occurring, they end up destroyed. He has a very large army and has been working to spread his workers throughout the world. He needs to take power from the people and give it to his army. However, his true goal is to start a civil war. He is the very opposite of peace."

Me: "Will you please stop him? Can we have God flatten all of them? If there is no hope of redemption, why even have them here?"

Angel of His Presence: "It is not going to go according to the plans of the enemy. It will only be on God's terms and by His timing. This entity is an 'O-bam-a-nation' against all that is holy. Understand this by the Lord's Words... He witnessed Satan fall like lightning from Heaven (Luke 10:18). Always remember that God is fully in control of all things all of the time."

Me: "I have been taught by the Lord that there is something in a name."

Angel of His Presence: "Yes, there is."

Me: "This man declared war on Christmas."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Then believe his declarations as he enjoys announcing his plans in advance."

Me: "Yes, but he is a liar."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Yes, but this is why you have the Voice of the Lord's Spirit in you... to have understanding. Know that, even if it is stated as 'a joke', the enemy has purpose in it. He is already in a war against the day that people believe the Prince of Peace was born. Believe what he is saying. His great evil is being exposed now. Understand that the 'One Religion' he will seek to implement will be implemented by force of death. It is the opposite of Christian. It is anti-Christian."

Me: "Okay, I now know without a doubt that you are referring to the 'Religion of the Black Dragon'."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "This will continue to be the great falling away. Now, do not worry as God has a Great Plan."

A sound I heard then woke me up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Father, what is happening? What can we do?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know that you are worried about many things. You are in pain and in sorrow. Remember that the enemy has revealed himself in great arrogance and vanity. This is the reason he fell to begin with. He thought himself higher... on 'Higher Ground'... than God Himself. He labels everything he does in the complete open. His exact intentions will continue to be revealed very soon.

"Those who sound the alarm right now are dismissed as liars. They are dismissed even though they tell the truth. Now, give your worries to Me as today is a new day and a good one. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. As for this enemy of My people, he can...

- Come after your communications.
- Listen in on you and watch you.
- Threaten and try to silence you.
- Judge you by the color of your skin.
- Take all that you own.
- Even threaten your life.

"However, at the end of this day, he will come to nothing. His agenda is short-lived. He will face judgment, along with all of his army and any of those who follow him. He is exposed and will continue to be exposed. He has special 'Lake Property'. Now, remember that I am God over all things. I love you."

Dream over.

Note: Yesterday's (Saturday's) dream was more of a personal dream than one strictly for the Nest. Even so, we felt it would be good to share how the Lord guides us in these difficult times. Perhaps this will shed some light on what some of you may be experiencing. As for the story of the evil woman, this reflects ongoing curses from a distant relative and the cleansing of these curses. As for today's (Sunday's) dream, it is definitely a Nest dream. Both of these dreams are definitely pertinent for today! There is even a fun 'surprise dream' from my husband at the end.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for us. Dear Father, I need Your help! I am scared about my younger son. He has just rededicated his life to You and he has completely and noticeably changed. He is joyful and happy. He is kind and thoughtful. He is in Seattle WA and has been dizzy the last two days. He hasn't touched bases with me for about 12 hours and I am worried.

When I woke up at around 4:00am, I texted him, but I have still not received a response. Please don't take him before I am able to see good things, Lord. I know he is Yours and not mine, but I can't imagine going through such a horrible loss of a child. You are a better caretaker than me. Please take care of him. He is so excited about meeting his friend today. They have such a fun day planned.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your son."

Me: "Lord, I went to the Word this morning. I learned that it is better to be simple of heart and mind than to be complex of mind and a worrisome mess."

Lord, You know all things from their beginnings to their ends. This life and this world have even grown more painful than I ever thought possible and even frighteningly so.

"I ask this today... please let the sun, Your Son, Your Light, shine on my son this day as I cling to Your promises that he would one day have a heart of gold and focus on You. Please answer my prayers, Lord, and please answer his. Please instruct him in the ways he should go. Please do this for my sake. Lord, please!"

Jesus: "Erin, your prayers are good. Your son has turned to Me and I will bless him. My plans are to prosper him and make his way good. This is so he testifies to My goodness and to My miracles. You are not to worry as all that occurred has been for a divine purpose."

Me: "Yesterday, while I was cleaning, I felt something in the spirit that was atmospheric, like a suction of air, but powerful. Then the steam cleaner I was using made a very loud sound and removed black, thick water from an area I had already cleaned. It quickly filled the tank and the brush foamed white. When it was finished, I heard Your Voice declare, 'Erin, you and your house are free.'" However, the attacks then got worse."

Jesus: "This is a difficult thing to understand. However, you obeyed me and did not hesitate. By the 15th day, you completed what I asked of you. There was a strong spiritual hold, a stronghold, over your house. It is now gone and it will not return again. Did you notice that I did not add, 'But only if you do this or that'? Now, with all things that you cannot see, there is residual as there is a fight upon eviction. It's like this..."

"An evil woman has rented a room under contract for a long-term stay. While there, she is horrible, unclean, swears, hates the landlord and makes life hell for the others living there. She curses at night and keeps things unclean. She is bitter, angry and vile. One day, the landlord uses his authority and serves her an eviction notice. This notice states she is to evict the premises immediately.

"However, she drags her heels, kicks and screams. She then suddenly starts acting nice and doesn't collect her things, all hoping to keep an open door to return. Instead, the landlord calls men to come and remove every last item. They then sweep, clean and then clean a second time for good measure. The house now feels better to all who live there.

"However, the evil woman then discovers that all she owned was removed and the doors closed to her. She then curses, screams and calls on others to help her attack the landlord, the family of the landlord and even the house. However, the door is shut and all of this comes to nothing. This door is now shut to her and all of this will come to nothing. This is because the angels surrounding you are greater than all of the evil coming against you."

Me: "Thank You for guiding me in this. I am glad to have this door shut. Now, what about my son. As You know, he is in Seattle WA. Will he be okay?"

Jesus: "I will strengthen him and heal him today. However, when he arrives home, he must change his ways for things to come. He is off-balance and his body is reacting to this. There are forces at work that have caused many to be sick. While this will be rectified, it will be difficult to witness the many who will suddenly fall."

Me: "So, is my son still sick? Please heal him for me, Lord!"

Jesus: "The enemy has gone out to attack the children of God all over the world. The attacked include the young, the fighting age men, the sick and the elderly. However, these enemies will be held accountable. In the meantime, pray!"

Me: "Could You have my son reach out to me soon, Lord? I am worried as he is not returning my texts or my calls."

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry as I am with you. Your son will be fine."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "As for your daughter, she must stay her course and believe in Me for her miracles. I am with her in this. If she is uncertain about something and seems blocked, she must wait, pray and return again on a new day. She must keep joyful in the midst of all of this. The enemy hates this.

"Now, the stronghold has been broken and all will now come supernaturally fast. Do not worry. Erin, I have not forgotten you even a single time. I am with you. Do not worry."

Note: My son was not returning my messages as he was in a deep sleep. When he finally answered my phone call, he was dopey, but feeling much better. He later sent pictures of the activities he was doing and he looked so happy. Thank You, Lord!

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for a safe home and heat. Thank You for water. Thank You for Your Word of Truth. Your Word is our guiding light in the great darkness that surrounds us. As Your children, we are easily led away like sheep. We can be corrupted by liars and those who want to harm us. This was once easier to discover and correct.

It was simpler just ten years ago to root out a source of sin in our lives and then immediately turn and make amends with repentance. However, there is now so much coming at us that we have a hard time knowing what is good for us to ingest or consume. Well, Lord, this is impossible without You. Please be our Shepherd in these times. Please speak loudly to us. Please instruct and correct us with great speed so that we are able to stand upright before You.

When I reflect over the course of the last few months, I truly have no words. You always told me that, when these times of great troubles came against the peoples of this Earth, the signs and events would be so obvious that even someone with little understanding would see and know beyond a shadow of a doubt that we are in the last days. My two dreams last night reflected this and were difficult ones...

Sub-dream 1 "The Black Rider spreads death" begins...

I saw a horseman on a fast horse. It was black. The rider wore all black, including a black cloth covering over his head. He wore an armband of green, white and red. While the horse was very strong and beautiful, it represented death. This is because death followed wherever it passed. This messenger horseman sent notices not to eat the food or drink the water.

This message was not well received because the people were starving and thirsty. Notices called for an assembly to ration food amongst the community set up by local leaders and others. The 'others' were evil. When the people of the community arrived, they were shown a great banquet of the best food and the freshest water. However, there was a condition, a wicked one...

In order to feast from the banquet, they had to pledge allegiance to the New Religion and denounce Jesus or any other God apart from their god. Many were so hungry, they agreed to the condition. Those who did not agree with this condition were taken outside and beheaded. An odd thing then happened when some of the beheaded people came back to life. This was happening throughout the rural areas of the USA.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Sub-dream 2 "Ex-President reveals himself to be the False Savior" begins...

I saw a massive stage set up like an altar. There was an ex-President speaking. There was an apparition, a ghost-like figure, of a false Jesus over him that was endorsing the religion of the Black Dragon. The Bible had now been changed to blaspheme God. The ghost of the false Jesus then used Scripture to endorse this ex-President. They claimed that Mark 1:7 was actually meant to endorse the ex-President, not Jesus:

Mark 1:7: "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie."

They were making their case that this falsely written Bible was proclaiming that the founder of their religion to be 'the last great prophet' and the ex-president to be 'the savior'. After this horrible display, people worshipped the ex-president. Some even fainted. They then pledged allegiance unto death to him. There was literally smoke, mirrors and holograms of people who had died, claiming in virtual reality, that he was 'the true savior'.

Hologram of the false Jesus: Announcing loudly. "Forget the former things! Forget your former house! Behold 'the light of the world!'"

Everyone cheered. The ex-president stood there looking very confident. He also looked smug, defiant and arrogant. Even the Jewish people were worshipping him as 'the savior of the world'.

Ex-president: Speaking loudly. "This is the 'final call'! This is your final call! You must step up and proclaim your position!"

An angel then appeared, but it was an evil angel, not a heavenly angel. People believed it was an angel from Heaven and were thereby deceived.

Ex-president: "Again, this is the 'final call' to be saved! Come on, folks!"

There was a heaviness in the room. The atmosphere was thick and dark, as if all of the oxygen had been sucked out of the room. The people now looked void of thoughts. I woke up suddenly when I saw the faces of those who went to worship the evil angel. When I woke up, I was bothered and anxious."

Sub-dream 2 over..

Please, Father, protect us from the coming storms. So many will pay the ultimate price. My stomach is sick and I have been deeply disturbed. Everything we do is electronic. Everything is on our screens. All things run via technology, including all of our communications. Without these, we are in trouble. These things can be manipulated so easily... and they are.

I woke up feeling the urgency to prepare. But how? If I can't prepare adequately for normal disasters, nor can really anybody when it comes to things going wrong for many months or even several years, how can I prepare for this? I have truly never had a time period like this where I feel 100% completely reliant on You. I am truly nothing without You. Can I do anything? How should I prepare for what is coming?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! You are anxious about many things. However, the life of a recorder of dreams and visions and messages from Me is a difficult one. You worry. You are scared for those around you, including your extended family and friends. You wonder if you are to stay or go. Bad news then comes and you then go into great despair. Well, I come to speak joy and life into Erin.

Remember that I am the Light of the world, the One True Savior and the Everlasting God. Many scurry around and call out false prophets. They live in fear of not having knowledge. However, they must instead understand that I make everything clear and simple for those who are simple, but also for those who think with more complexity.

"Now, who is the False Prophet? He will be in the same spirit as the One Great False Religion. He will speak the opposite of My Truth and the life everlasting that is the free gift of My Saving Grace. He will meld himself with a few different religions so people who follow them listen and recognize a common thread. However, he then puts it under a greater covering of a dark religion where, if you do not follow it, you will die a painful death.

"Notice what I said when I told the disciples who walked with Me that, when they go town-to-town, whoever does not receive you or hear your words, then shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town (Matthew 10:14). Did you notice that I did not say, 'Take swords and cut off their heads.' This is the difference... I give people a free offer to accept My gift or reject it. I do not end their lives if they don't. However, in the end, those who reject Me will lose everlasting life."

Me: "Lord, who is the False Prophet?"

Jesus: "He is soon to rise up. Now, you are beginning to see events written about in My prophecies now coming to light daily. You now understand that great evil has increased. However, I am about to do something in your days that you would not believe even if I told you."

Me: "Well, Lord, even if I would not believe it, could You please give this a try?"

Jesus: "You are doing all that I require you to. Even though I know you are already exhausted, I am not going to wear down the saints."

Me: "Lord, I am enthusiastic about very little now. I do not love the things I used to love. I need Your help as I am frozen in a state of sorrow. I am not well. My sleep is disturbed. While my waking is then welcome, I don't want to waste my moments on things that don't matter. My light is growing dim, Lord. I love You. Please strengthen me. Please help us and keep Your hand over us. Something ominous is coming."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, what in My Word did I lead you to look over earlier today?"

Me: "You gave me Psalm 144, 2 Timothy 3, Revelation 6-18, Zechariah 14:5 and Jude 14. I also kept getting the words 'Shock and Awe' every time I would get up in the night."

Jesus: "Well, these have a common thread. Study these. As for 'Shock and Awe', this is an old battle strategy. However, it will be one that is soon to come by My hand and it will humble the enemy. Erin, do not worry as I will prepare you for My Divine Purposes. Since you love Me and you look to Me for all things, I am found by you.

"Now, the enemy will try to do some things to create great fear. He will try to start a war amongst the people. However, this will not work as well as they had hoped. Great resistance will weaken them. They have a 'final call date' on their calendar of 12/19/2023 (December 19, 2023). Pray as they will be blocked from their plans."

Me: "Who is the 'they' here, Lord?"

Jesus: "It is the One False Religion (Is-lam). Erin, do not worry as I have a date even greater than theirs."

Me: "Lord, why does Nimrod have his birthday on Christmas?"

Jesus: "Only sometimes as his birthday was measured on an older calendar and his practices are pagan (that is, a moon-based calendar). He defiled the things of the Lord and he was a mighty man of old. This same spirit is at work today. You see it tearing down all that is good. Remember that I told you that, as this age comes to a close, the enemies will try to turn back to great unholy practices.”

Me: “What of the Great Harvest?”

Jesus: “Do not worry. While evil lays down in their bunkers underground, nothing can save them from what is coming.”

Me: “Lord, we received a high wind warning for our area in the next 48 hours or so. Please protect our home and get my younger son home on the plane prior to the winds shutting down flights or cancelling them.”

Jesus: “Do not worry as I have him and My hand is over him. I am with him. Now, you worry about many things on this day of rest. Have peace, Erin. Be at peace. You are loved!”

Oh yes... I should also mention that my husband had a fun dream this morning. The following was as written by him (not me)...

My Husband’s Sub-Dream “A Path Made Straight” begins...

I was near to the lead of a large group of people. I believe this group of people was myself, Erin and our Nest friends. However, I was unable to see any facial features of those around me as this was not to be the focus of this dream.

We had been moving forward on a path that was really more of an obstacle course. The path had many elevation changes and was covered in a thick forest blanket. There was a tiny, barely discernible trail that we kept to. Because of the thick forest and the hilly nature of the trail, it was exhausting for all of us. Even so, we were making headway every day on what was turning out to be a multi-year journey for many of us.

There were many forks in the path, but there was always some sort of sign there telling us which way to walk. There were many steep inclines, but we somehow were always able to make it to the top safely, but with some scratches. There were also many steep declines, declines that are easy to stumble on, but we always made it to the bottom safely, but also with some scratches. It was a long, hard journey, but still satisfying.

This all came to an abrupt halt when a massive piece of farm equipment blocked our path. It was larger than anything you would see on the field; about 50 feet wide and two stories high. There was no way around this piece of equipment on our own. I had a thought that I would climb up to the control center and tell whoever it was to move aside. When I looked up, all I could see was a kind smile and a happy wave.

This piece of equipment then moved aside, revealing a long, smooth, straight path with evenly harvested wheat (or something similar) outlining the path on both sides. The path was no longer crooked and hilly. The path was no longer forest covered. The path was no longer treacherous. It was a beautiful path with clear, straight forward directions. It was the opposite from what we had been experiencing for so many years.

The person with the kind smile and a happy wave climbed down from the vehicle. All we could see was His back. He started walking down the path and we could see, from the back, that He was wearing a beautiful white robe. We realized that He was Jesus. We watched in awe and just stood there as He walked forward. We only saw His back though as He was facing away from us.

I then noticed that there were a multitude of paths joining ours here in this clearing. There were now thousands of people joining us on this path. While the path was wide enough for all of us, it was not 'The Wide Path' that leads to destruction, but just the opposite. The Lord then motioned with His right hand for us to follow Him in His exact footsteps. We all did just that! He had now made our paths smooth!

I should note that I did not get a clear look at the Lord's face as He was either facing away from me or He was behind the dark glass of the farm equipment.

My Husband's Sub-Dream over..

761 – God’s Army to Arise in Power

Received on Thursday, December 21, 2023

First, an update as of the evening of Friday, December 22, 2023, 36 hours after Dream 761 was first received: Well, good news! After 96 hours in the chilly darkness, we just had our power restored to our house earlier this evening. We are so grateful to the Lord for sending the powerline workers to our location to make this happen. It has been a very cold experience for all of us. Just this morning, our house was only 51F. While the cold was hard on us all, our poor dogs were shivering. Zoey was in a lot of pain. Even so, the Lord is faithful to our MANY prayers to have this restored. We are now particularly thankful and humbled by this bone-chilling experience. Thank you for all of your Nest prayers for us throughout this trying time!

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for our home. Thank You for our family and friends. Even though we have been in darkness for days, You remain our Light. Thank You, Father. December 2023 has been horrible for us so far and we are only 3/4s into it. Just 21 days. I am exhausted. The first week, we had no water, no plumbing and a moderate amount of heat. This lasted for several days because of our well pump.

Then on December 8, 2023, my husband and I drove to a heart specialist in southern Maine. I was given a heart monitor to measure my heart activity for two weeks leading up to a second appointment on December 13, 2023.

On December 9, 2023, our nice car was stolen when my stepson drove my stepdaughter to school around 8 hours away. We are praying that our payout is sufficient to cover the outstanding loan amount. We are optimistic about this based on discussions we have now had with our insurance company.

Then a storm came that lasted from Sunday, December 10, 2023 to Monday, December 11, 2023. We experienced a short power outage of about 12 hours at this time and was a precursor to our current blackout. This meant we lost a portion of our food. I was so stressed and exhausted physically. I was alone at our house when our home was hit the hardest by the extreme warmup and snow melt runoff.

I saw the water breach the banks of the culvert on one side and only threaten our house to the left. However, on the right into our driveway, it became a mud river. We had no power. I went outside in the pouring torrential rain to try and cut channels with a shovel. While I could penetrate the first three inches of surface mud to make this channel, anything below this was frozen ground. I soon became frustrated.

A river now surrounded our house and was so precise that it looked like a three-foot-wide moat had been installed. While I used everything I could to divert the flow, nothing worked. My prayers seemed to do nothing. I stopped when I realized I was completely helpless. I went inside our dark home with no power and cried and cried and cried.

Me: "Father, we have no power. I have no power. You hold all the power. I am powerless to do anything. Even my prayers have no power."

Well, Father, You know the rest. I was in a very low place. Despite my position, I had promised You that I would complete a project that had major spiritual repercussions. As You promised, once this was completed, breakthrough would happen.

As for my younger son, he left for Seattle WA with his friend on Tuesday, December 12, 2023. He had saved up for this trip for a long time. He arrived with no troubles. However, his friend's girlfriend in Seattle brought along her friend who was a man that is now a woman. While the trans-woman asked if he could 'crash' in my son's room, he firmly said no. He did it nicely and without incident. He then arrived back home on Sunday, December 17, 2023. I was so glad he made it back safely.

On Wednesday, December 13, 2023, I had good news and bad news about my health. The good news was a miracle regarding my heart. My heart muscle was somehow strengthened and is beating on its own again. I was so happy about this miracle. However, the other appointment was not as positive. I have a mass on my right kidney. My lower spinal column has an extreme offset that explains a lot.

I also have something unusual in my lower abdominal cavity. I now have a CT Scan with dye all set up for Tuesday, December 26, 2023. As for this day of travel, something unusual happened in that I drove out to Houlton ME without my wallet. I had to have my daughter come with it. She really bailed me out and I was so grateful.

In between the first blackout ending on Tuesday, December 12, 2023 and the second blackout beginning on Monday, December 18, 2023, we were living in the light. In this period, I had junk removal crews come and remove the storm debris and trash. I finally felt accomplished. Then the heat went out in one section of our home during this time.

Although discouraging, I was still so grateful to have lights and warmth in most of our home. Then came the extreme warm temperatures of Monday, December 18, 2023. It was so warm and incredibly windy that day. We lost power on this night and are still without it as I write down this dream. Temperatures have now dropped to 22F this morning. This is so cold.

On the evening of Tuesday, December 19, 2023, we decided to build a fire in our fireplace that we rarely use. After about 30 minutes, I was able to create quite a blaze of welcome heat. That was until we smelled something resembling the smell of burning rubber and insulation. I ran outside to see if our home was on fire. I could not tell as it was pitch black. My son and daughter agreed that they could smell this as well. I decided to call 911...

911: "What is your emergency?"

Me: "I started a fire in the fireplace, but something is wrong. Even though the flue is open, a strange smell is in our home. I am worried about the rafters. I am worried there could be a hidden fire."

911: "Explain the smell. Could it just be from the fireplace?"

Me: "It smells like burning wires on another end of our house."

911: "Please confirm your address. They are being dispatched. Please quickly exit your home. Take any pets outside with you."

I grabbed some important papers that I have easily accessible in case of emergency. We secured the dogs in the car and the fire department came within fifteen minute. The firemen came with sirens. Once in, they used an infrared sensor to detect hidden heat. No unusual heat was detected, so they left. Before they left, I apologized and thanked them for taking the time to check it out.

In the meantime, I was having a bit of a breakdown because we had lost all of our refrigerated and frozen foods. I couldn't keep the food at home as it stank too much. If I put it outside, the raccoons would have a hay day. Because of this, I drove my son's truck to the dump yesterday while everyone else was working. I was not the only one to lose food, so there was quite a line up at the dump.

I backed up near to the edge of a small cliff. There were hundreds of seagulls there and at least twenty eagles. It was shocking. I almost didn't do this because I had to step in thick dark grey mud to get out of the truck. It was disgusting. Despite this, I hurled my garbage over the edge of the small cliff. As I was about to leave, I noticed that there was a bald eagle sitting on a small ledge appearing to be laughing at me.

Me: Addressing the eagle. "Well, I might be struggling here, but shouldn't you be fishing at the lake? Instead, you are eating dumpster food with the seagulls."

He then turned away from me as if he was annoyed with my reasoning. After this, I had to drive to the grocery store. I was loading supplies that do not require refrigeration or freezing into my passenger side door when I was approached by a man wearing a hoodie. He must have come up quietly as I did not hear him until he was near me.

Man: "Hey, I have a pizza for sale for $12. Are you hungry?"

I took my head out of my trunk and turned to look at him. He turned white as a ghost. He backed away from me.

Me: "No, thank you. I am not interested."

He walked backwards so quickly that he almost fell. I turned back behind me and nothing was there. I looked at myself in the mirror, but I didn't think that I looked that scary at all.

Me: "Hmm, this must have been angels. Thank You, Lord, for my protection."

It was evident that this man was not carrying any sort of pizza. I then assumed that 'pizza' must have been some kind of code for drugs or something. I had been nervous about leaving the house for too long because I have noticed strange vehicles down our road. With outages come looting.

Today, it is very cold in the house. Father, please return our power today. If our temperatures drop into the high 40s tonight inside our home, we could be in trouble. The winds are supposed to kick up for three hours this afternoon. However, they have already started. It will worsen line repairs for the power crews. The ground below is very wet and soft, so please keep our trees firmly rooted.

Oh yes, I had a wonderful dream the night before last...

Sub-dream 1 "A Glimpse at Transformation" begins...

I woke up in the morning to take my medication. However, I felt different. I was fully mobile and not in any kind of pain. I looked down at my body. My legs, arms, hands, feet and torso had changed. My skin had no imperfections. I giggled in happiness.

Me: "Thank You, Lord. This will be the best day ever!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

I was excited for a few minutes, then sad again at my current state of being. Even so, I am very grateful for this dream, as well as the healing of my heart muscle. Could You please continue to heal me? Please heal our family and our Nest friends and their families. Father, we have been under attack here. Someone from China has been working very hard at hacking into my accounts. Please keep this safe.

Evil never stops. However, Your mercy never fails as it is new every morning. You are greater than the sum of all evil. Please help us as we are unable to fight the enemy on our own. These small inconveniences are nothing compared to what is coming. These are only a small prelude. At least You know that I still come to You and pray every day. I love You so much! Lord, I love You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know that you have been experiencing many troubles right now. This happened even though this is after I told you that a great time of breakthrough has now come. It is an overlap between what has been contractually declared and the delivery of this promise."

Me: "But, Lord, You are here with me right now. This means that You can make this happen right now if You wanted to."

Jesus: "Yes. However, this comes on the heels of something greater. I am your Comforter. My Voice in you reminds you that I hear you and I will defend you. The enemy will not succeed in his plans to destroy you. Erin, the man who approached you in the parking lot had a different plan for you. However, his demons saw who you were and that I am with you. As a result, he was unable to speak and fled.

"Now, the storms that hit your entire area affected many families, many of whom are not as equipped for troubles as you are. Thousands were troubled by this storm. Erin, do you think it would be good for all those around you in the dark and cold to see that you are not? As at this time, this would not be a good thing.

“During the daytime, the sun shines on all of you. However, if only your home shined at night, they would curse you. They would curse you as they would be drawn to your home like a moth is drawn to a flame. Until you are physically stronger and set apart, you are to be as a common man... even though you are clearly uncommon.”

Me: “But this is hitting us so hard, Lord, seemingly even harder than most of our neighbors.”

Jesus: “This is true... and many of them look down on you and scoff.”

Me: “Especially those that have powerful generators.”

Jesus: “They will be judged for their cruel words. However, you have done nothing against any of them. Anyone who laughs when calamities hit the children of God... well, they will have to contend with Me. So, pray for them.

“Now, you have really not been overcome by these troubles. You have instead weathered them. In the midst of these, I have blessed you. I have provided for you. You stopped crying and instead praised Me for the good.

“Now, this is all very difficult to understand. However, you are in the number of My Great Army, the children of the sons of Jacob. You will be strengthened and ready for battle.

“As for the sons of perdition, their army will fall to God’s Army. They will be no match for you. Just as the enemy has prepared for a war unlike any other, so too will I prepare for a great victory unlike any other. While they will then run to their holes and caves, they will be unable to hide from God or His Great Army.”

Me: “When, Lord? When will You reveal Yourself again?”

Jesus: “Erin, I am very close. Please trust in Me and My Words of Comfort. Just because your power has gone out all around you, My Light, My Power, is in you and no enemy nor scheme of hell will prevail against you. Your great breakthrough is coming. I have calmed the wind. The sun shall warm your home. Your power will be restored. However, your Flame, your Candle, will never go out.

“I love you and My Power is in you. Smile and wave at your neighbors as their generators give them power only for a moment in time. They will be unprepared for what surely is soon to come. No generator will bring power. However, you and your house will shed My Light to all those around you in darkness. Rejoice as this is a good day. It is the day that I have made!”

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and grace. Father, a special thank You for not allowing an illness that suddenly came upon my daughter from becoming much worse. When I was traveling to Houlton ME on Tuesday for medical tests, my daughter facetimed us to show what had occurred. The left side of her face was swollen. She had difficulty opening her mouth.

When we arrived back home, she had a fever. We were concerned about waiting as much as eight hours in ER to be seen. We then decided to go to a farther ER the next morning instead since we knew it would have a significantly less waiting time. We arrived shortly before their 8:00am opening time. Unfortunately, there were already twenty or so more patients waiting ahead of us.

We were then told by the screener that there was only one doctor on duty. We then found out about a walk-in clinic nearby and raced over there. Even though we arrived at 8:30am and they didn't open until 10:00am, we were still number 10 in line. Finally, we were in a room by 12:30pm. A nurse then looked over my daughter and recorded her symptoms. A physician's assistant (PA) then came in.

When he came in, I realized that I had never experienced such an openly demon possessed man like this in the field of medicine. He had a thin build and a similar haircut to Hitler. He was anxious and couldn't look at me. His eyes were scary... a light blue with tiny black pupils. I kid you not that he even had a tattooed sleeve of snake scales. When he left the room to get an ultrasound machine for my daughter's swollen cheek, I whispered to her..

Me: "Be prepared for him to come back to tell you that there is nothing wrong with you. He will then disregard your fever."

When he came back with the ultrasound machine, I could tell he was angry that we were even here. After a scan with the ultrasound machine and nothing else, not even a simple blood test, he spoke as predicted...

PA: "Look, your daughter is just fine. If the doctor wants to see her, fine, but I know that he will 100% back up my recommendations."

Me: "And exactly what are your recommendations?"

PA: "That nothing else is required as she is simply having minor flu symptoms. In other words, she is just fine."

When he left the room, it seemed as if he and the nurse were arguing. She came back after the argument must have ended and spoke to my daughter..

Nurse: "While I see it, this guy clearly doesn't. You are sick and you have a fever."

She then left the room. The doctor, the PA and the nurse then all came back into the room at the same time. The PA was defensive and wouldn't stop babbling in order to try to justify his rush prognosis. I could tell that the doctor was both kind and sound.

Doctor: Addressing my daughter. "Well, if your swelling was hot to the touch or if you couldn't open your mouth, the diagnosis would be remarkably different. But in this case, this is viral, not bacterial. You have the flu and sinusitis."

The nurse and the doctor then left the room together, leaving us alone with the PA.

PA: "Well, you can both go now."

Me: "Okay, but what do we do next? Are there any exit instructions? Is there a medical note we can receive to provide to her workplace?"

PA: Now even angrier. "No. We are busy here. We don't do that. God... really?"

So, this is what we were left with... six hours of waiting around with very sick people... and all for just this. Father, I know this had to be another attack on us. These attacks just never stop. This has been the worst December on record that I can remember and it is not even over yet. We have been hammered over and over again. I am tired of stating this. As for my daughter's prayers, they have largely remained unanswered.

In contrast, both of her brothers have had miracles and breakthroughs lately. My younger son now prays to You in every little thing. Even though many of these things are very simple, You have answered every prayer of his quickly. These movements by You in his life have made his faith increase even further. I have never seen nor imagined how this most difficult curmudgeon I know could have ever changed so completely. He is now mostly normal and fun to be around... kind even.

He is also both apologetic and respectful. He smiles. He is up early to go to work. He isn't complaining. He engages in conversations. This is a true miracle. My husband is so amazed by his changes that he has been left speechless. Father, if it took our difficulties to change our son, let it be as You have done. This is a blessing I have prayed for years for. My prayers have been answered. Praise You, Father.

As for my older son, he has a job and has now been taken off of one of his horrible medications for anxiety. He seems so happy. While I miss him, I know that You did all of this for him and for Your Divine Purposes. Praise You, Father! He is even studying a difficult language right now... the Hebrew language. I am excited for him. As for the rest of us, we are still under various attacks. I am now fending off an illness that is ever looming. I pray that this does not become full blown.

As for last night's dream, it was really quite unusual...

Sub-dream 1 "A Strange Collection of Animals Gathers" begins...

We lived in a home with a back porch and an open door with a pet gate. I was packing up some things in the house because we were going to be moving soon. I knew it was now around early springtime as I could see green grass and some trees budding. A hailstorm then suddenly snuck up on us. This hailstorm continued loudly and was at least 45 minutes in length.

I suddenly realized that I had left the back door open. When I walked back toward the door, there were a strange bunch of animals huddled outside together in my path. They all seemed quite terrified by the storm. This was a strange collection of animals...

- A black lynx (which doesn't even exist, at least to my knowledge).
- A fox.
- An opossum.
- A yellow Lab Retriever with the American flag tattooed on its fur.
- Two large squirrels.
- A cat.
- There was also a terrifying beast that had been injured. It looked like a cross between a badger and a wolverine.

It was so weird that this strange collection of animals were all huddled together. When I came by, they wanted to follow me into the house because of their fear of the hailstorm. I instead spoke to them and fed them outside. I had three large packs of red meat that I was going to dispose of because we were leaving. The carnivores dove into this and devoured it. As for the non-carnivores, I fed them some cereal I had instead.

Once they all ate, they started to wander off. It appeared that they were somehow trying to thank me at the same time as they walked. I then walked outside to look at the damage. While both our home and property were fine, the hail had stripped whole branches from our trees. It also broke some of the windows at our neighbors' homes.

I then decided to closely examine the hail. To my astonishment, the hail was perfectly round balls of around two inches in diameter each. This hail seemed to be a grey color instead of the usual white color. The hail was so perfectly round that they looked handmade by skilled hands. I woke up when I noticed that the lynx was next to me and was inspecting the hail with me.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I had been watching a show with my husband last night. At one point, I must have fell into a deep sleep as I had a vivid dream during this show...

Sub-dream 2 "The Black Hole Breathes" begins...

I saw the rock at the holiest city of the Black Dragon. I saw thousands in white praising this stone. I saw them reaching for this black hole surrounded by a band of silver. As I watched, this black hole moved to the ground. A strange purplish light then started to emanate from the black hole. It was a portal.

Worshipper 1: Yelling. "It's a miracle!"

Worshipper 2: Also screaming out. "It is a portal to paradise!"

After these two worshippers screamed this, thousands of other worshippers willingly jumped right into the black hole. However, I then noticed something frightening. The hole seemed pliable. It then seemed to enlarge on the ground as it appeared to contract. It almost seemed to be breathing. The black hole then closed. All who had gone into it were now lost. I stirred awake quickly and jerked my body awake.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, I do not pray for the lost enough. It is hard to pray for those I don't like. It is even harder to pray for those who hate You, the God I serve. They are deceived. When my brother served in the air force, he was stationed in Bahrain. When he and his air force buddies would go to the markets, people would spit on them and call them white devils. When I see immigrants from the Middle East today, they look at us with great hate. There were quite a few of these immigrants when we went to the clinic yesterday.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry about these things as I am God over all of them. I see. God sees. Do not forget."

Me: "Lord, what is this month all about? Why are we not seeing breakthroughs?"

Jesus: "It is always darkest before the dawn. You are witnessing the world grow cold rapidly. Erin, look back to the time in which I walked there upon the Earth. I came as a Light, as a Savior, to the Jewish people. However, they could not see Me. Even so, some did and likely even knew that I was the One spoken of in the synagogues.

"However, they refused to believe it because I was not what they had hoped I would be. After I ascended, word then spread to those who witnessed great miracles and they believed. This included those who were grafted in... the gentiles. Destruction then followed their persecutions. What you are experiencing is the reverse of all of this. This is happening right now."

Me: "You gathered back to Israel the Jewish people who had been scattered. You then gave them back their country right after their great destruction in the Nazi Holocaust. However, the Third Temple has still not been rebuilt. If all of this is now happening in reverse, this means there is still a whole lot that needs to start happening and soon."

Jesus: "I want you to pray for the lost that they may be found by Me. There is a group that has planned the destruction of the majority of the people. They have started a universal false religion (Note: I feel that Jesus was referring to the 'climate crisis movement' here). It is one void of Me. It is void of love. It is void of life everlasting in Heaven with Me. They have lofty plans for this coming time.

"However, you are not to entertain these. As you know, these lead to fear. Fear is the basis of this religion. The playbook of the patterns the enemy will take is in My Word. These are from My Pages, not on screens, understand? Your tangible copy of My Word is your Sword of Truth.

"Now, take comfort in the peace of My Word. Erin, you are to pray in quiet places. You will go from strength to strength here. The enemy has no permission to illuminate My Words falsely to serve his destructive initiatives. This is why I am there in My Truth. However, and even more than this, My Voice in you will strengthen in magnitude.

"Your healing will come, but more than this, a double portion of youthful strength will come upon you. You will be shown mysteries and wisdom concerning these, as well as knowledge from Kingdom Courts that would otherwise be impossible for you to know. Even though you are attacked where you are, you are never overcome."

Me: "Yes, but these attacks still make me angry. Lord, this makes me really angry."

Jesus: "I will use this anger in righteousness and judgment against the evil plots upon the innocent. However, right now, and until I come in full measure, you are to stand down. You are no match against the enemy to fight physically, so give this to Me."

Me: "I will continue to stand down."

Jesus: "Now, I realize that you come away with more questions than I give you answers for in these dreams. However, this has been and is intentional on My part. Just know that I will continue to provide for you in troubles and these will not overcome you or your house. Troubles will not overcome your children. Troubles will not overcome your friends and their children."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "You are welcome. Erin, I love you. You have not been abandoned. Your troubles have been used for My greater good. Now rejoice and ready yourselves."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here!

Thank You for all we have. Thank You for a warm home and power during the ice storm yesterday. The snow came during the night and every branch of every tree and bush was covered. This is such a beautiful sight.

Father, I have been struggling physically and spiritually. I have been experiencing such grief and immense sorrow. This month has been unkind. I am not saying that a given month in a calendar has any power.. it doesn't... but December was just brutal. I think I have gained a little wisdom over the years on spiritual warfare and how to battle the unseen realm that is always at war with Your children.

However, for this month, I must admit it has been a 'pile on' of extra troubles. I have prayed for extra wisdom and knowledge in hopes that I could understand and even record all that has happened. As of yesterday, my daughter still had a fever. The ice storm hit our house right when she had to travel for work. We took this as a clear-cut sign she was to take one more day off.

After this rest, her whole gregarious larger-than-life joy came back. Thank You, Father! Even so, my joy still did not return. Our little pom-chi, Zoey, is still not doing well. She is displaying all the end of her days signs. My heart is breaking and I cannot let her go. I can't do it, Father. I cling to Your promises and these include our dogs. However, she is old now, just over 15 years.

It hit me hard last night when she would not take her night treat. I then sat with her and I prayed. I cried and she stared at me. She was studying my emotions. She was with me during my toughest trials, during my late-night prayers and my petitions to God. She was there when I was sick. She was there when I wrote the first two years of dreams sitting on my devotional chair next to me.

That dog knows so much. Even though she has lost most of her sight, she still watches over the house and sounds the alarm if anything foreign approaches the house, both incoming and outgoing. Lately, she doesn't always wake up like she used to. Oh Lord, please heal Zoey.

When I retired to bed last night, I realized I have lost quite a bit of strength in my left hand. I could not pick up my medication at bedtime or grip my water glass. As of today, my left hand has still not recovered. Father, I could use the use of that hand please. Please heal my hand at least. As for last night, I had quite a dream...

Sub-dream 1 "The Huge Blueprints are approved" begins...

I was in a building with a glass ceiling. The ceiling was beautiful and resembled an old ship's prism. It was shaped not as a hexagon, but it had seven glass panels. While I was there, the owner came up to me and handed me a piece of paper.

Owner: "Congratulations, it is yours. All of this."

Me: Now laughing. "Okay, but why do I need..."

My husband came over to us and disrupted me before I could say anything more. I was a bit confused as he usually would not do this.

Husband: "This is so generous. Thank you."

Owner: "We should have everyone out of here and all the offices vacated by tomorrow. Of course, we will also clean up. You should be able to move in by Monday."

Husband: "Thank you for this. This is so generous."

I was still confused. I then saw two women drawing up plans on a massive drafting table. I am quite sure that a table this size doesn't even exist. I walked over to see what they were working on. They were quite proud of their work.

Woman 1: "We are almost finished. It has been a long project... the biggest project of my life."

I was surprised at the size of these blueprints, larger than I had ever seen.

Me: "Where will you go next?"

Woman 2: "You retired us. We can now rest."

Me: "I retired you?"

Woman 1: "Yes, and we are grateful to God for this."

Me: "What is this?"

They both smiled. I was so confused. Just then, my husband came around again.

Husband: "Come on, Erin, let's go. They have a lot to do."

There were so many workers packing up their things in boxes. Everyone was happy and smiling. It wasn't sad, it was celebratory. People waved and thanked us as they wrapped up.

Husband: "Hey, let's go look down the hall."

We walked down a hallway of doors. Each opened to a room of glass windows. Each office was beautiful.

Me: "What is all this for?"

Husband: "This is the headquarters. This is Eagle's Nest."

Me: "What?"

Husband: "Erin, wake up!"

He began to gently shake me by my shoulders. I suddenly woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

This dream seemed so real. A Christian song then began to play in my head. It was Phil Wickham's song 'Till I found you'. Here are the beautiful lyrics...

I searched through the Earth for something that could satisfy; A peace for the hurt I had buried deep inside; Knees on the floor, I finally found everything I needed; You lifted my soul and opened up my eyes; And I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You, 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You, 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning;

Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; Gone are the days I'm chasing after what won't last; I'm done with building these castles that crumble like sand; Oh, knees on the floor; I finally found that everything I needed was always right in front of me; You changed everything; I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning;

Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You, 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning; Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning; Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You.

I also had an unsettling dream on Thursday night...

Sub-dream 2 "Mic Drops, Crystal Ball Drops" begins...

An ex-President was at a podium. He was making an exit address.

Ex-President: "Peace out. I am signing off."

He then placed two fingers over his lips and blew a kiss as he dropped the mic with his left hand for all to see. However, just as he dropped the mic, the screen split into two halves. The mic was dropping at the same time as the Crystal Ball was dropping in Time Square. It was nearing to the end of the New Year's Eve countdown. A TV host then appeared that looked a lot like Ryan Seacrest.

TV host: "Leave it all behind! Everything changes here!"

I woke up suddenly just before the mic and the Crystal Ball fully fell.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, every day seems like a good day. However, something has happened or is happening and the people of the nation are doing nothing. This is because they see the powers in control that are the opposite of what our country stands for. We do nothing because those who attended the January 6th protest in Washington DC are in solitary confinement with no court dates in sight. This was done so the people would be afraid and would not be in peace. Those invaders at the border are a quiet army of fighting men. Where are we safe? What are they really here for?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember that I am the Good Shepherd who watches over His Flock. I create a sheepfold at night and I am also at the entrance, the door of the fold. No predator can enter my fold to devour My flock. These are Mine. Erin, take comfort in this. Though predators circle, plot and search for an opening, they will have no success. Be encouraged that I am your Shepherd.

"Now, remember that the enemy plots 24/7 and is very crafty. However, I am over him and so are My angel armies. I know this one and so does My army. He was only repeating his great drop from Heaven. In an instant, he and a third of his company were shot down from the hand of God like lightning.

"Great has been his fall. All that he does is clever and subtle, all to mock God and His army. However, his drop continues. He considers himself the prince of peace. However, he knows who I am. This is My battle. This is God's battle."

Me: "Lord, when will You and Your angel army stop them? Harvest has to happen soon, doesn't it?"

Jesus: "The enemy has set a deadline for his goals. In order for him to achieve these, he must work with great speed. He believes he has seven days or one week in which to destroy the children of God (Note: Based on the context, it is possible that each day represents a 360-day prophetic year, but we are not sure). Although Judah has returned from the scattered nations, Israel has not returned."

Me: "Has Jerusalem been trampled yet?"

Jesus: "Good catch and question. The city has been defiled, but not according to the plans of the enemy to destroy it. Do not worry about this. Gentile nations surround her and I am with Judah. Now, the enemy knows the events and alignments of these. However, he doesn't know exactly what is about to occur. As a result, he is working on several modes of attack. Even though the enemy can plot and plan and mock, My plans are greater than his."

Me: "I have been struggling this month to keep a Chinese-based hacker away."

Jesus: "Well, they have been unsuccessful. Do not worry. Erin, I have told you that I am the Good Shepherd. You are in My sheepfold. I have you. You are safest in My arms. Now, I will bless those who I call into My fold as Jacob blessed his sons and even Manasseh and Ephraim his grandchildren.

"It is written... come together so that I might tell you what is to befall you in the end of days. Assemble and listen, oh sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel, your father. Each son was given an inheritance and blessing from their father based on the individual. This is why it is important to understand the heart of the Father for His children. You have been called as a holy people, not as a perfect people.

"You were lost and now you are found by Me. You are a royal priesthood gathered from all nations. I will bless you with a double portion of the sons of Jacob as you have come forth out of the desert in your spiritual journeys and those who continued to follow Me and hear My Voice saying, 'This is the way... walk in this', and you followed. This is who I will give this inheritance."

Me: "Lord, I grumbled, cried and complained."

Jesus: "Oh yes... you did. However, you continued and you did not stop. Now, all of this is a great mystery right now. You do not understand what this means. However, I tell you the truth... you will be hated at first as if you are wearing a coat of many colors. Still, though they grumble and question, those who thought themselves a better choice... you will pray for them instead and look upon them with compassion."

"However, you will not apologize or entertain their questions. If they knew Me as they claimed to, then they would know to come to Me. Your earthly resume does not qualify you in their eyes. All that matters is that you are Mine. Remember that there is something in a name. Your name from birth means peace even though you have had very little peace."

"However, you will soon understand that where your feet step, peace will come. Mouths will be unable to curse you and stones will be unable to be thrown at you. Strongmen will drop in fear and they will run and hide because they will know and understand that I am over you and with you in all things. Now, with peace comes healing and turning hearts to the Father, the Good Shepherd."

Me: "I can't wait. Lord, could you please..."

Jesus: "I know what you are going to ask before you say this. Erin, My promises are true."

Me: "Well, it is just that... well... we have seen so many changes here in a very short span of a few months. Because of this, I know that You are working divinely."

Jesus: "I have not stopped working. I will not rest until My Father tells Me to. Now, continue to do all I instruct you to. David had his mighty men and so too will I have Mine. You are close to Me. We are friends. You are My Bride."

Me: "You are more than just a friend, Lord. You are my Door, my Cup and my Portion forever. I love You more than words. Every breath I take is a gift You give me. I will therefore keep breathing until You determine my last breath."

Jesus: "You haven't begun to breathe yet. In fact, lately, I give you breath and you hold it as if to preserve it. Well, Erin, the breath I give you is the breath of life. Rejoice as My inheritance and blessings have been given in Heaven and soon to be realized on Earth. Rejoice, Erin, My Princess and Bride of Peace."

764 – The Blueprints for His New Great Temple

Received on Sunday, December 31, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for peace in our home. Thank You for laughter and rest. Thank You for lights, running water and heat in the winter. Thank You for our children, family and friends. We are the struggling blessed. While I am not totally sure what I mean by that, it just feels so accurate.

To top off all of the troubles of this month, my older son just received the results of his bloodwork. He had an appointment to review this with his new doctor. Based on these blood panel results, he will be seen immediately on Tuesday morning. His liver is worsening and he has diabetes. Oh Father, I am praying for a miracle here. He is too young to have all of these health issues.

As for my daughter, she still had a fever of 100.4F this morning. We can't seem to get rid of this. She has to work today. Please protect her and get her home safely this evening. New Year's Eve is always a time to be cautious of other drivers.

I had a dream last night that seems to relate to all that we have been waiting for...

Sub-dream 1 "Blueprints for the New Massive Temple" begins...

I had a meeting to attend. I was also scheduled to attend an even bigger meeting, including a presentation, right after this. In this first meeting, I met with someone important whom I did not recognize. Even so, I somehow already knew him. I know this doesn't make sense. We were meeting in a dark room with two lanterns and a red and white gingham or checkered cloth table topper.

This person then rolled out a map, along with some blueprints. He was explaining the importance of all of this. I said nothing. Instead, I simply listened carefully to everything he said. He started with a map of what seemed like Jerusalem, a place I have never actually visited. He then placed a transparent piece of etched vellum (transparent overlay paper) over the map.

Man: "This was what it once looked like and this is what it looks like now."

The vellum showed where the Temple should be. He then placed another vellum sheet over the vellum sheet we were examining.

Me: "How can this be? How will the Temple work here?"

Man: "Okay, let us begin again."

He removed the two vellum sheets from the map of Jerusalem. He then placed the first piece of vellum over the map. Jerusalem had clearly changed. After I nodded in agreement, he removed the current Jerusalem vellum overlay and I observed what it is to be. I was tongue-tied.

Me: "But... wait... how can this be?"

Man: "God will excavate and clear away all of the rubble. This will then accommodate all of the people of the world. Now, here are the blueprints. However, you are not to focus on the foundation and framework as you will be part of the finish work."

Though I didn't understand what he meant by this, I nodded at him in agreement. He then rolled up the entire plan map and blueprints. All were on state-of-the-art archival papers... perfect and with no flaws. The only thing that was parchment brown was the original map of Jerusalem.

Man: "Now, you are to take this scroll to those who are awaiting my instructions."

He rolled all of the pieces tightly in his hands. He then sealed the papers with three red wax seals. I did not recognize the seal he was using as it was in Hebrew.

Man: "I see that you are studying the seals. One is aleph – master or master architect. These you will deliver to three mighty men of God who are appointed for this time. All are superior craftsmen who were raised for a time such as this. Of the three; one is a master stone mason, one is a master carpenter / engineer and the last one is a master overseer who is also a friend of God and familiar with His Courts."

He then tied two pieces of linen and jute... one between the first and second seal and one between the second and third. He then placed them in a beautiful architectural tube and capped the end.

Man: "Now, these cannot be burned. Nothing will destroy these plans of God, understand? You will hand-deliver them to the three. You are to remain near for three days and then you will be called on the third back to meet with them. No one is to know in advance of this meeting." After nodding in agreement, the man reached over and hugged me. "Now, do not worry, Erin, as God is with you."

The lanterns went out and I woke up suddenly at around 2:15 am.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I fell back to sleep and went back into what seemed like a continuation of sorts of my first dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Traveling on Eagle Transport"

I was leaving a marketplace of antiques. They were some of the finest antiques that I had ever seen. They were easily museum quality. I then received a call from my husband on his cellphone...

Husband: "Where are you? You don't have much time. I am driving you to the airport in a couple of hours and you are not even packed yet."

Me: "How did you even know that I was leaving?"

Husband: "I got the call."

Me: This was puzzling to me as I had not called him. "Okay, I will be right home."

We lived out west on a type of overlook. Below us was a type of river ravine. It was beautiful and had trees, grass and a beautiful rushing river. I saw the Cascade Range out in the distance. It was near Bend OR. When I arrived, my husband and two of my kids were already there to greet me.

Daughter: "Hurry, mom, you have to pack. You can't miss this."

Younger son: "I can't believe you are cutting this so close."

Me: "Listen, do not worry... I am still right on time."

My husband had my suitcase opened and had packed some of my things.

Me: "I need something smaller even though I am going to be there at least three days."

Suddenly, a smaller suitcase appeared. It was packed with everything I needed. It even had a pull handle.

Husband: "Okay, it is time to go! We are barely going to make it."

I was crying and smiling at the same time as I hugged my children. I had the architectural tube slung around my back. The strap fully crossed my torso. When we arrived at the airport terminal, a man greeted us with my name on a sign.

Husband: "Who are you?"

Man: "She is traveling on a private plane."

Husband: "And who are you with?"

Man: "Eagle Transport. It is best that she travels with us than with any other airline."

Husband: Turning to me. "Okay then, I will see you soon." We hugged. "Call me when you arrive. I love you!"

Me: "I'll call. I love you too!"

The man took my bag and we proceeded to the aircraft on the tarmac. As I began to climb the stairs, I looked back to wave goodbye to my husband. He waved back.

Man: "Come, we must take off on schedule."

I turned to wave one more time to my husband, but he was now gone. Sub-dream 2 over..

Father, these two dreams were very clear and precise. I don't feel I am to detail exactly what You have shown me, but only that Your Temple will encompass almost all of Jerusalem. It is massive and greater than any temple ever built. It is just so incredibly beautiful. Even though I fully trust You, I still have many questions for You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry or be afraid. Remember that I am God and I hold the keys to life and death. I am The Key."

Me: "Oh Lord, just yesterday, You were The Door. You are The Door that You open or shut and You are The Key in which to unlock these doors. You are amazing, Lord."

Jesus: "Remember.. even though the world is in tumult and waves of fear grip the people, I am still God over all things."

Me: "Lord, is the USA Babylon?"

Jesus: "Well, this is a country composed of many small states. My Word is clear.. Babylon the Great will fall and this is a city. This city affects the nations of the world because of her wares, her businesses and her trades. There have been two major prophetic warnings and the third will be the fall. Erin, look outside. What do you see?"

I looked outside and the landscape was beautiful. The ice on the trees glistened in the sun. Over the horizon was a massive line of dark clouds. It looked like a blanket. The edge of these clouds had a bright white silver lining. I took photos.

Me: "Even though there are dark clouds sweeping the skies, they still have a beautiful white silver lining."

Jesus: "Very good. This represents a promise from Me, okay? Now, Babylon will fall in flames. This is as it is written and the whole world will mourn. They will mourn because this is a foreshadowing of the end of the luxuries of the Earth. Fortunes will be lost in a day that had been built up for a century or more. Many will stammer and stumble in darkness. Many will be lost and confused as they have no shepherd."

Me: "Lord, what about California and all of these 40-foot waves that are hitting the coast? They have been coming for three days to all the places we would surf when I was a child. There is Pacifica, Los Aptos, Santa Cruz, Capitola and so many others."

Jesus: "Yes, I have sent angels to stir up the seas. Wise men go inland and away from the danger that is too great to stand against. However, the foolish are voyeurs and gawkers of My Wrath. These are shepherds feeding themselves of their own sheep; waterless clouds swept along by winds; fruitless trees in autumn, twice dead, and uprooted.

"They are Wild waves of the sea cast up the foam of their own shame. They are wandering stars for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been received forever. These are the ones who come after you, swearing by God and cursing the angels. Since they have no fear of God, they see themselves as gods. This is a place where you grew up."

Me: "Lord, there are still 'on fire' people of God who love You here. I believe there are many that do. Please have mercy on Your people."

Jesus: "My people are sheep who hear My Voice. When they do, they run from the wrath preserved for others. They don't go to it like a moth to flame. God's wrath is upon the nations right now. My strength is on display. However, this is not in full display yet as My judgments are soon to come against those who worship the god of this Earth... they call mother. Now, it is written in Isaiah 11:11-12.

"11 In that day, the Lord will extend His hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of His people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. 12 He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the Earth."

"Now, there are prophecies about what I will do to the nations surrounding the nation of Israel. It will not go well for those who come against My children. It will not go well for the ruler of Babylon. Remember who he is. Now, it is written in Isaiah 14:12-20.

"12 How you are fallen from Heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low! 13 You said in your heart, 'I will ascend to Heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north; 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.' 15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the far reaches of the pit.

"16 Those who see you will stare at you and ponder over you: 'Is this the man who made the Earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, 17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who did not let his prisoners go home?' 18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb; 19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like a loathed branch, clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit, like a dead body trampled underfoot. 20 You will not be joined with them in burial because you have destroyed your land and you have slain your people.

"Erin, he was king and still is king over a blessed and mighty nation. This nation was dedicated to Me and was a blessed land under God in Heaven. However, he came to destroy it as he is the great deceiver. He brought plagues, curses, invasions and great poisons to slowly kill the young men and women. He is now preparing for the deaths of many by sword house-to-house and door-by-door. He hates his people. He hates all of the people. His great revenge is to destroy all that you see."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop him. Please don't allow this. In this Scripture, it seems that Babylon is not just a city, but could also be a country. However, I am not sure."

Jesus: "I want you to understand this first... I am God over all things, even the fallen one. He does not prevail. However, what you cannot see is his power over all of the nations of the Earth. His army is an entire population and religion. Many on the outside comply simply to preserve their livelihoods. Remember that there is something in a name... he is named. He is active even when most 'former kings' retired. He instead travels throughout the nations. He moves to and fro across the earth and up and down upon it. Do not be deceived as he is the destroyer of Israel and the destroy of the New Israel."

Me: "When You say, 'New Israel', are You referring to the USA?"

Jesus: "Yes. But more so, he is causing an uprising and a war between the sons of perdition, his army, and the children of God."

Me: "This is depressing, Lord."

Jesus: "I know. However, take great comfort as I see and I know all that he does. I know his plans, his schemes and his lies. He hates with great hate. His army is wicked. He has no regard for children, babies or the womb of the mothers. They lack compassion. They are void of any care or love. His army has been sent out to defile the Earth and make all that was good bad. His army rests their salvation on the death and torture of the innocent."

Me: "Oh Lord, today's message seems to be quite a dark message."

Jesus: "Erin, I am telling you what the enemy's plans are. However, God has a greater plan. My Great Plans are not the enemy's plans."

Me: "Lord, what were my two dreams all about? They seemed related to each other."

Jesus: "Ah... this shall remain a mystery for now. However, there is a Great Plan in place. Erin, I have a Great Plan. Now, it is written in Jude 14-15.

"14 It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His Holy Ones, 15 to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

Me: "Hmm... okay, this part actually sounds like fun. It is so difficult to watch evil increase and so quickly that there is no remedy at all!"

Jesus: "Take heart, Erin, and remember that you are in My Sheepfold. I will carry you! I love you!"

Dream over.

765 – Packing Up for our Next Assignment

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! 2024 has arrived and another year, 2023, is now behind me. When I consider all that You have done to sustain us, I am eternally grateful. Bless You, Father on Earth as in Heaven, the Creator of the Universe and our eternities. Let this year, 2024, be the Great Harvest of souls.

Let the lost be found by You. Revive us. Breathe into us from on high. Let not one of Your sheep, Your children, be lost. We love You! As many know, I often focus on Psalm 23. The following is an outline of Psalm 23, Notice how perfectly it seems to summarize what we have all experienced during the year 2023:

Psalm 23: 1 The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. 3 He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

My husband then pointed out something that flowed into Psalm 24. Psalm 24 is about You, Father, our King of Glory, and how You will guide us into our long-awaited season of change. With further reflection, You illuminated some items in Psalm 24. It's another outline of what will be needed to be a part of Your greater glory when You call us into Your presence.

- Clean hands and a pure heart.
- A soul that is not lifted up to that which is false.
- A mouth that does not swear deceitfully.

These shall then ascend the Hill of the Lord! These shall stand in His Holy Place! Those who continuously seek the face of the Lord will be blessed. They will receive blessings from You, along with righteousness from the God of our salvation. Here is Psalm 24 in its entirety...

Psalm 24: 1 The Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein, 2 for He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers. 3 Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in His Holy Place? 4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. 5 He will receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of his salvation. 6 Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. 7 Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of Glory may come in. 8 Who is this King of Glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle! 9 Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of Glory may come in. 10 Who is this King of Glory? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of Glory!

Psalm 24 is such an awesome Psalm and so full of hope! The Lord will open the gates to those who earnestly seek Him. As for last night's dream, I had another one of packing things up...

Sub-dream 1a "Packing up to go – Part 1" begins...

I was packing up some boxes. My last box had some of my most favorite personal items. However, they no longer had a place for the journey I was about to embark on. I had a deadline of 4:00pm to drop the balance of my items off at a local charitable thrift store. While I had hoped my younger son could do this for me, it was his last shift at his work and they had planned a small party for him.

In the meantime, I was wrapping up things at home. This included painting everything white. This included white walls, white floors and white ceilings. It looked opposite to anything I would actually do here on Earth. I then took time out of my schedule to deliver the last pieces to the charity. I also knew that there were some people coming to look at our home at 5:00pm.

I checked every closet and space one more time. When I looked into one of the last closets, there was my stepdaughter's very colorful prom dress hanging there. I had no place to put it in nor a box to store it in. I decided that I would wait to figure out what to do with it until I got home from dropping my items off at the charity. I felt that I had enough time to get back home before the guests arrived.

Sub-dream 1a over...

As I was writing this dream, a 'breeze' came and flipped my Bible pages to parts of Psalm 31, along with all of Psalm 32. Since the window was fully closed, this was a clear sign that I was to address this before writing down the rest of my dream. I knew, via the Holy Spirit, that this was related to now...

- Psalm 31:23-24 contains more instructions from the Lord.
- Psalm 32 contains instructions on those who further seek the Lord's face. This seems urgent in my heart.

Psalm 31:23-24: 23 Love the Lord, all you, His saints! The Lord preserves the faithful but abundantly repays the one who acts in pride. 24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!

Psalm 32: 1 Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. 2 Blessed is the man against whom the Lord counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. 3 For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. 4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. 5 I acknowledged my sin to You, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. 6 Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to You at a time when You may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach Him.

7 You are a hiding place for me; You preserve me from trouble; You surround me with shouts of deliverance. 8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My eye upon you. 9 Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you. 10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the Lord. 11 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

After outlining the above, I then went back to my dream of packing up to go...

Sub-dream 1b "Packing up to go – Part 2" begins...

It was now 3:45pm and I had to be at the charity before the collection deadline of 4:00pm. When I arrived just five minutes before the deadline, they were already beginning to close the collection area. I had one box that I needed to hand to the manager whom I knew so these would be priced by an appraiser.

They took the larger items and told me to go near the checkout where the manager was helping a new cashier. When I went inside, I was in complete shock over the volume of high-end pieces on display. I flipped a vase over and it had a mark from the 1800s Netherlands. It was priced at only $20. A female picker came up to me...

Woman: "Beautiful vase, right?"

Me: "Yes. It is worth about $3,500 or perhaps even more. Do you want it?"

Woman: "Oh no. This is not my style. Thank you though."

Me: "Do you know where all of these high-end items came from?"

Woman: "Yes. These items came from the wealthiest man on the East Coast. He donated it all to several charities. I guess he must have found Jesus."

Me: Chuckling. "Wow, that's awesome! That is a man after God's Heart."

Woman: "Well, we think he is just plain stupid. How foolish. You work your whole life to acquire all of this and then you just give it away?"

Me: "Well, none of this will really matter at the end. Perhaps he was offered something much greater for all of it."

Woman: Now angry at me. "Oh, so, you are one of them!"

She began to shout and scream at me. As she did, I made a closing gesture with my hand. Her mouth was then instantly sealed. I didn't even have to touch her at all. She now had a terrified look on her face. I looked at the vase again and laughed at our God's amazing humor. I then noticed that the painting on the vase was 'the woman at the well'. I did not set the vase down.

This angry woman then began to topple things. Her arms and legs then suddenly froze. Since she looked even more terrified, I now felt bad for her. As I stood there, I felt the Lord well up in me. The vase I was holding was now filled with Living Water. I walked back over to the woman and held the vase out to her..

Me: "God is now going to release your mouth. You are to drink this Living Water and your arms and legs will return to their use. However, do not mock God or His people again. Now, if you drink this, you will be healed."

She reached over to take the vase and drank all of it. God instantly restored her. She dropped to her knees and began to weep.

Me: "How do you feel?"

Woman: "I am sorry, so sorry."

Me: "Don't apologize to me, only to the Lord. Now, I suggest you keep this vase as a reminder. Fill it and drink from it whenever you feel thirsty."

Woman: "Thank you! This vase is suddenly both in my taste and in my style. It is a beautiful vase." We both laughed. "So, what is your name?"

Me: "This is not important. Now, back to this wealthy man's story. This sure took a great turn, right?"

Woman: "What am I to do now?"

Me: "Find the man and show him the vase. He will give you his testimony and you will then be friends. He does not have many friends except for God and us."

Woman: "Yes, I will do that. Thank you."

Me: "It was nice to meet you. I will see you again under different circumstances."

I turned around. I was still waiting for the manager. It was now around 4:20pm. I stood by a counter. On the counter were three porcelain English figurines of animals. Two of the three were otters; one wore a suit and one had none. Both were standing on their hind legs. I didn't pay attention to the third animal; a pig.

I picked both of the otters up to look at their marks. These were more items from the wealthy man's estate. The price of the otter with the little suit was $40. The price of the otter without a suit was $60. All of a sudden, people were interested in what I was holding.

Man: "Hey, wait... that is the one I had wanted."

I became angry at him. I looked over at the manager and she looked back at me. She must have now known that I was waiting for her as she gestured with one finger up that I only had to wait for her another minute or so. I addressed the man.

Me: "Hmm, I didn't see your name on them, sir."

Man: "Well, I was coming back to them."

He then tried to grab the two porcelain otters out of my hand. As he did, his hand and arm instantly withered. He then started to call me the 'b-word'. Before he could scream this word out fully, I saw the hand of an angel literally grab hold of his tongue. He could no longer speak a word. I then heard God...

Voice of the Lord: "Not this one."

Me: Inside my head. "Yes, Lord."

The Lord then had the angel release his physical hold on the man's tongue.

Man: "Are you going to also give me back the use of my arm and hand?"

Me: "No."

The man began to follow me. He kept pleading with me for his arm and hand. I was still holding the two porcelain otters when the manager waved me over. The Lord then had the angel usher the man out of the store.

Manager: "Hi, Erin, how can I help you?"

Me: "That crazy man who just left had wanted to take these two porcelain otters away from me."

Manager: Laughing. "They are yours. Take them at no charge. They are quite rare."

Me: "I am giving things away, not buying things. I have this small box here. I want to make sure before you price these that they go before your appraiser. There is jewelry and other items."

Manager: "That is so generous. As for these two figurines, please take them and give them to someone who is in need. Perhaps to a child who needs a smile. The person who donated these figurines would much rather you have them than the likes of these." She pointed to the rude man who was now standing outside looking in through a window. "The foundation would demand this too. Please take these so that you remember me."

Me: "Well, okay, but I will see you again."

Manager: "No. I am sick and this cannot be cured this time."

Voice of the Lord: "She is Mine. Touch her arm now."

I reached over and touched her arm. She was instantly healed. She could feel it.

Me: "I will see you soon. You are well because God is good and you are His. Confess your sins, give them to God and He will turn and forgive you. You will then be saved from what comes."

Manager: Now crying. "Thank you!"

Me: "It is the Lord who you must thank."

I turned and gave her $120 for the two porcelain otters. I waved and left. It was now 4:45pm and I was late. When I arrived home, some people were already in the house. I still had not boxed up the colorful prom dress in the closet. It was now the only thing with color in the house. I woke up when there was a knock on the door in my dream.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, you had a difficult night..."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I kept worrying that I was out of favor with You. I have been feeling down and very sad. There are days that I wonder about who I am and why. Can I just be a fantasy writer instead?"

Jesus: "Stop talking like this right now. I am God over all things. Erin, cling to My promises for you. I have never stopped. If you were crazy, surely these letters from Me would sound crazy by now. If you were a child of the enemy, great hate for Me would have surfaced after just a few letters. Instead, every one of your dreams points to My love. While it is okay to doubt your human abilities, do not doubt that God can use anyone for His purposes under Heaven.

"Now, I can guarantee you this... that if the scribes of old had journal books, lined pages and pens with ink, there would be thousands of writings from Me. However, this is about you and this is the way I have chosen for you. While I have called others before you, this did not work out as they felt that what I was doing with them did not fit into what others believed to be My character. They proclaim that God would never do this as if they somehow knew the very heart of God. Well, they do not.

"Many also stopped because people told them they were unable. As for you, you have continued with Me because we are friends and I speak through you by this way. This is so you do not forget what I tell you. This is so you have records of this. This is how I chose to have a relationship with you. However, I have also increased this by My Voice in you. Just because others say this is not of God does not mean that they hear from Me to know this."

Me: "I know, Lord. It is just... well, it is just... oh, someday, I just feel..."

Jesus: "In the beginning, you cried out to Me to hear from Me. When you didn't hear My Voice, you fasted and prayed. During your urgent request to Me, you fasted with no food or water. When you were going on your fourth day of your fast, I called on you and an angel woke you up. When you cried and prayed for help, you had an open vision.

"In this vision, the Two Witnesses I had sent then told you that you must first die to yourself before you were called to greater service. This was several months after you made a vow surrendering your life to Me. I had a great plan in place for you and I still do. For twelve years, I then allowed you to go through great afflictions before I called you up for greater service. Now, what did the vision show you?"

Me: "The vision showed me that I was 100% of this world and that I was selfish. The vision showed me that I needed to die to myself prior to my greater service. Oh Lord, all of this has been so painful."

Jesus: "Yes, I know as I was with you. You lost many friends. You experienced the worst in Christians and in people around you. You experienced great shame and humiliation enroute to Me. However, you made it. Now we are great friends. Do not forget this. I share secrets with you and things you have seen in My Heavenly Courts. You write what I scribe to you. You keep records.

"Erin, I love you. Do not forget this. I will continue to bless you in all you do. I am with you. While there are others who are jealous of you, they know Me in different ways. However, and very soon, all of those I call will be in unison and in perfect step."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I just get scared sometimes of ever doing the wrong thing or hurting You. I would never want that."

Jesus: "Come to Me when you are thinking this way and I will give you rest. The enemy wants you to stop. However, I can assure you that I will cause you to write a playbook for those who want to know Me personally. I am with you. I will never leave you. I gently rebuke you when you go the wrong direction.

"I talk to you about staying your course. Do not let those who do not care to know the God who loves them determine your gifts from Me. I have not made them the Great Voice of God who determines a thing. Pray for them to know Me more so they can hear from Me too. Now enjoy this day as it is the day I have made. I love you, Erin!"

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love. Thank You for all You do and the miracle of the goodness of You. So far, 2024 has been off to a rocky start. Each day has been difficult and clearly a continuation of December's troubles. The enemy is never defined by the calendar, be it the day, the night or the year. He never stops. Father, I am so glad You are over all things. I will instead focus on Your miracles, not the small achievements of the enemy to chip away at me personally.

As for my youngest son, he has undergone an extreme change. Literally within fifty days, it has been a miracle of epic proportions, a miracle that we really needed here. Praise You, Father. He has a friend who was about to make a huge mistake, something that could not be reversed if she went through with her plans.

He wanted to prevent this, so he started to fast last week. When he found out for sure she was planning to follow through with her plans, he fasted without water starting at 10:00 pm on Thursday, January 4, 2024. After he continued worshipping and praying, he had a major breakthrough on Friday night, January 5, 2024. There was a measurable change in what direction his friend was now going to go in instead.

We all witnessed this miracle when his friend decided to back out at the last minute. When my son shifted to no water, his faith increased exponentially. He is now completely changed. He is kind, engaging and joyful. There are just so many words I can use to describe his change, but an illustration of this upgraded time was underlined when I ran errands with him on Saturday, January 6, 2024. He was helpful, considerate, kind and even bought us a round of Starbucks.

Where he used to barely make it in time for work, he is now earlier than he has to be. He now gets to work with plenty of time to spare. He even inspired my daughter so much that she too is fasting right now for her Podcast, among other things. As for our dog, Zoey, she is having surgery on Friday, January 26, 2024. We are also praying for a miracle here too. Despite various inconveniences, we are still a grateful household.

As for me personally, I have been under attack. A new neighbor has moved in and he is pompous. While I don't want to disclose too much information, he reminds me of a specific client that I had in the past. With clients, everything I designed or specified was questioned and researched extensively. All the while, I was not paid in recompense for his education into my field.

I was questioned the same here by this neighbor and it was uncomfortable. The conversation ended with me making the decision that I want no contact with him unless You tell me too. He somehow knew way too much about us and asked too many questions. These things begin a day and then they often become all encompassing. Everyday has been like this.

On Friday, Zoey had a swollen nose and I took her to the animal hospital. They recommended a costly surgery. Without this, she would likely die a very painful death. This surgery could prolong her life and give her comfort. We then agreed this would be a good idea. The earliest we could have this done was in around two weeks or so. She is now on their schedule.

It has been rough for all of us. We all feel like You are wrapping things up here. This feels very similar to our move of 2014. As a result, we are now in the stage of heart preparation. Having friends here who are not for us and neighbors who we don't like certainly makes things easier for us to move. Father, can our move please be this year? While we are ready, we are unable to do anything without You.

I had a very vivid dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Purple Sugar and Useless Ovens" begins...

I was visiting a client that seemed like a cross between a former boss and a former client. She was wealthy. I drove to her home to check on her. In my dream she now lived in a different home at the end of a cul-de-sac overlooking rolling hills of wheat that looked like velvet. I arrived in the early evening and the night sky was crystal clear. However, it had an odd purple cast to it.

The moon was bright and full and it illuminated the hills of wheat. The landscape continued on as far as my eyes could see. There was a small breeze that looked like the hand of God was petting the hills of silk-like velvet. It was similar to when you run your hand across velvet and you can see the nap follow your hand. It was a breathtaking sight.

When I got out of my car, I noticed that the air was now bitter cold. It was also very dry. I walked up to the door and my client was there with several guests. She had arranged the space for a banquet. While she had five children, only two were at the table. While she had place settings for five of her children, only two were there. When I looked back at my client, I knew something seemed really wrong. My client did not look right.

While she was talking with several guests, she was acting like she was in complete shock. The very expensive oven she had special ordered was from Europe. For some reason, this oven was pulled out of the wall and placed on a pedestal. While she kept placing food in it to cook, nothing cooked as there was no gas to the oven. The client then looked at me and addressed me as if I was her subordinate...

Client: "Erin, could you please be a dear and fix me a bowl of cereal? I have to eat. My glucose levels are off the charts."

I reached over for some frosted shredded wheat and poured it into a bowl. There was some milk in a pitcher that I poured over it. She was not coming to eat right away as she was now desperately looking for something in her kitchen drawers.

Me: "Can I help you? Your cereal is now soggy."

Client: "I can't find my purple sugar for my cereal. Erin, please find it. Please help me. I am losing everything here."

I looked around and soon found the purple sugar in a junk drawer.

Me: "Here it is. I will let you pour it though. I have never seen purple sugar before."

I then went to the room adjacent to this banquet area. There was a beautiful glass atrium with windows facing the wheat hills. Above me was a beautiful custom iron canopy with flowering vines. I then overheard two of the guests talking...

Man: "She has lost it. Even though there is no food, she holds a banquet. There are place settings for people who are not coming. She is trying to cook food even though all of the gas has been shutoff in the area."

The woman nodded in agreement as she listened. I then suddenly knew what had happened with my client. My client and two of her older children had been left behind... they missed the Rapture. I then saw that my client was still trying to cook in this oven.

Client: "I waited on a list for two years for this thing and it won't cook."

I then recognized that her oven was a La Cornue Gas Range with value easily of $100,000. This was top of the line!

Client: Now crying. "Erin, where is my purple sugar? Erin, where is it?"

I looked over and the whole bowl of cereal was now purple, even the milk.

Me: "The purple sugar is already on your shredded wheat."

Client: "But where did my children go? Erin, where did my children go?"

Me: "Heaven. Your children left in the Great Harvest."

Client: "Then why are you still here?"

Me: "I was sent by God to pay you a visit and point the way Home."

Client: "But I can't get there! What about my new oven?"

One of her remaining kids, who looked around twenty, addressed her..

Young man: "Mom, screw the oven. It is an oven. It is useless here now." He then turned to me. "What do we need to do? How do we get out of here?"

My client's other child, a twin to the young man, also around twenty, would not stop crying. She was completely distraught.

Me: "While there is one last harvest of God, you must be strong and patient in the midst of great troubles." They all listened intently. "What God has planned is so much better than all that you see here. The Lord has built us mansions of beauty greater than this... yes, much better."

Client: "But why can't we go right now?"

Me: "Because it is not God's timing. Instead, pray to God while you wait on His perfect timing. Now, the worst is yet to come. If you take heart and pray before God, He will come for you. I must go now." They were still listening intently. "Remember that Jesus is your Savior and your King. You must turn away from where you were and seek Him. Seek Him and He will be found by you."

I then woke up suddenly to the front door slamming shut.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, there was such an awful void in that house. It was horrible. My stomach was sick.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. In your dream, you saw unharvested wheat fields on the hills. This is the promise of a final harvest after the first. However, very few will seek Me. In your dream, you witnessed a scene just moments after the Great Harvest of Souls (the Rapture).

"You will be called by Me (post-Rapture) to go out where I call you to let those people who are in shock know where their loved ones have been taken to. This will be a difficult thing to see. My Spirit and all that was good will have been removed. Only those who I call to appear in various places familiar to the lost will testify to Me. Erin, those who are called will be an army.

"Now, you will not be of this world, but instead of My Kingdom in Heaven on Earth. Nothing can harm you. However, this is still a very difficult call. It is not glamorous. At times, it will turn very ugly. While I will say no more about this today, just know that you are in My number and I will prepare and strengthen you for this. Do not worry."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Oh yes... why purple sugar?"

Jesus: "No matter what she did or consumed, no matter what she cooked with or the color of her sugar, what this all came to was still very cold. Even her wheat cereal was bitter. Nothing she did could warm her coldness or give her back her sweetness."

Me: "Oh wow... now I see the great symbolism in all of this."

Jesus: "There is even deeper symbolism in this dream. Pray for wisdom, Erin."

Me: "Oh, regarding the wheat hills and the full moon?"

Jesus: "I have given you wisdom to discern a situation and knowledge to know the works of a matter. When you are in a state of unrest and not well, then you are not at peace. You have been restless and worried about many things. When I am behind a situation, then straight and sure will be your way, your path made clear. This is the way.

"When there are broken plans and an uneven path, then this is not the way. I am the Way and the Waymaker. When I am planning your course, then there is a clear path and a sure way forward, understand? Trust in Me and My Way. This means trust also in My timing for all things under Heaven. I am with you. Now complete your tasks."

Dream over.

767 – A Purpose Even in the Cancer

Received on Sunday, January 14, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for me and my house. I see Your hand working in all things for the good of all those who love You. I promised many years ago to be honest with You. To be truly honest with You, Father, is difficult because You can determine my last breath. Or if You grow tired of me, You could stop my heart.

Years ago, I poured out on paper everything I thought You would want to hear. I did this to appeal to You so You would turn and bless me, heal my sons and vindicate me. In my journal pages, I poured my heart out with truths about You in Scripture. I wrote these in my 'Dear God' letters, all in hopes that You would change my situation. At the time, I was seeing a Christian counselor. I then read all that I had written to You. She was wise and reflected Your heart. Well, Father, she called my bluff.

Counselor: "Erin, stop it. Do not lie to God about how you feel. Don't mask your true feelings about what God has allowed you to endure with scriptural gibberish that you are struggling to believe. You don't believe that God has anything good for You. Tell Him the truth. He already knows how you feel in your heart. It is time."

This was in 2009. We were faced with so many obstacles. My sons were not returned to me at Christmas 2008 as was promised by my enemy to both me and the courts in Oregon. I had no means and no money whatsoever to fight. No one at church believed me except those who were in attendance at my enemy's trial. I was treated as a crazy woman and was avoided. I was now out of earthly options.

I barely had enough money to keep the power and the gas going. People were taking advantage of my state. Clients were suddenly wanting 50% off my hourly rate and taking full advantage of my weakened position. They sensed that my daughter and I were struggling. My daughter was only 7 years old at the time. Something finally triggered me. I could not sleep. I knelt on the floor and I wept.

I went to my empty journal and I told You the truth about my state. I told You how angry I was at You for destroying me and allowing this evil to come to my sons in 2004 to 2005. The abuse was unfair to us. You then gave my sons over to the abuser because he had more money than me. Do You hate me, God? Did I do something wrong? I repent for hope in something You obviously will not do.

I repent for telling You what I thought You would want to hear. I have done everything I know, to appeal to You. Hello? Are You there? I am knocking, but You refuse to answer. I was better off as a non-Christian. At least I was successful and thought I was having fun. Well, none of this is fun at all. You must hate me. I am disgusted with my stupidity. I am stupid. I have lost my fight. I am sorry. I am tired.

I then saw my counselor the next day. She prayed. I showed her what I had written. The Lord then spoke to her to tell me that 'to be a good friend of God, you must be truthful. To be His close friend, you must trust Him in all things, even when it seems the darkest.'

Well, I have been mad at You, Father. I am sorry, but I am discouraged. This is a big surgery. I don't know everything here. However, in the film I was shown (and I have seen so many I know what to expect), there was a golf ball sized mass in the very center of my right kidney. It was as clear as day. There was no disputing this film.

A winter storm and my doctor's illness kept us from seeing him on Thursday, January 4, 2024. We received the phone call on Wednesday, January 3, 2024 that the doctor needed to go over the results of my CT Test with dye and it was urgent. As we were driving to Houlton ME, we got the call that the doctor had called in sick.

At the time, I knew something was up as his urgency was not normal. Through a series of events, my doctor finally saw me on Thursday, January 11, 2024 with my husband. The doctor spoke to me about some hernias they found. He seemed to be stalling until he finally came out with the bad news.

Main Doctor: Tearing up in his eyes. "Now, your pancreas is clear. This is not the problem. You have cancer of the kidney. You have renal cancer in your right kidney. I am so sorry. I am referring you immediately to a specialist. He will look at this to confirm your prognosis."

Since I had never seen this particular doctor behave this way before, I knew this was serious. Then he tried to sound encouraging. However, I just knew that he didn't truly believe what he was saying.

Me: "I am not afraid to die here. I am good. Do not worry."

We then talked about You, Father, as he is a solid Christian. We left assuring him that everything would be okay. He said he would call us with the next phase. This was at 5:00pm on Thursday, January 11, 2024. He phoned us as we drove up the road.

Main Doctor: "Could you come tomorrow morning at 8:30am before the specialist leaves town after his surgery?"

I agreed and drove up the next morning on Friday, January 12, 2024. The specialist met me at the hospital in scrubs. He cut to the chase.

Specialist: "I looked over the film and this is quite serious. This mass has a 99.5% rate of malignancy. There is urgency to this based on both the size and the density. While we could likely save your kidney if it was growing on the perimeter, it is not. It is directly in the center of your right kidney."

Me: "That's fine. Just remove it then. I don't want to wait."

Specialist: "This is to be done in Portland ME where they have robotics and less risk. You should hear from the surgical group in Portland ME on Monday, January 15, 2024. I am so sorry to have this news for you. I know kidneys and this here..." He pointed again to the cancer in the film. "...needs to be removed. We need to hope it hasn't spread. From what I can see, it hasn't. This is good. I am going to walk you out because I need to make the call and arrangements for this urgent referral."

Me: "Sure. Okay."

Specialist: "You are young. We have got this."

I nodded in agreement. I said goodbye and drove home. When I got home, I began to pack up all my things in my devotional room. I cleared out all distractions. While I have a little more to pack, I took down everything off the walls. For the most part, all that is left is the windows to the outside and my chair and ottoman. It seemed the perfect time to do this.

Father, I will be truthful here... I am not happy. I am sad. I am really sad. However, I know that You know best. I just don't like it. I have so many surgical scars, it is ridiculous. I have been so sad. I was planning to tag along with my daughter to interview some more Christian artists. We also had hoped to move soon. What are You doing? Father, please help me!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are not forgotten nor abandoned by Me. I know you have great expectations and none of these include what ails you. Then instead ask this... how did they discover all of this so quickly unless I caused them to search you for answers? Now, I realize this is difficult to understand, but you already knew you were ill. I had told you this before, but the timing is now right.

"Erin, let Me be God in this and know that I am with you. My favor has not been removed. Since I called you into this battle, I will also fully equip you for it. I will provide for you in this in advance. Your faith will then be strengthened greatly. Now, I know that you are discouraged."

Me: "Oh Lord, I recently laughed with a friend that I am Your tool."

Jesus: "Yes, and a useful one to Me. However, you are more than a tool. While you don't see it now, you are a great army and will be a great harvester of the ready souls that are soon to come. While great is the harvest, few are the harvesters. Just one of Mine will do the work of thousands. I have been preparing My fields and I will soon send the rains in due season. Now, what have I placed upon your heart?"

Me: "I have been packing things up. I have been patching holes in the walls and painting them with fresh paint."

Jesus: "Yes. You are now preparing for what I am calling you to."

Me: "Yes. I feel an urgency now to put away the former things. I want to hear from You completely free of distractions."

Jesus: "I will honor this. Erin, I delight in you. Though you continue to search yourself for a cause to your troubles, you will only need to talk to Me, the God who allowed this for your greater good. I have a purpose in this and, no, this isn't rooted in sin and punishment. Now, can you trust Me in all of this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Trials don't always come to those who you feel could use them. Sometimes they come because I am able to use your trials to show My miracles and My glory through them, understand? Because I have allowed this, I will also provide you with all you will need in this battle. Now, continue on your course. I will complete a good work in you. Be encouraged."

Dream over.

768 – A Declaration for Our Healing

Received on Wednesday, January 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! There is fresh snow, white clouds and a bright blue sky. What a beautiful sight. Thank You for the gift of Your divine landscape painting. Today is the first day in four days in which I have had no fever. I have been tired and depressed. I have kept myself busy so that I don't sit around and think too much.

In just three weeks, I have been seen by three doctors. To me, they are moving so quickly to take care of this new unwanted tenant in my body. I am so thankful that I am in great hands. I know You have a plan here. However, just in case, God, I will not be arrogant or foolish and not prepare. Having packed many of my favorite things away prepares us to either move or at least reduces distractions caused by clutter.

At this time, this last year especially, You have prepared me for great changes. What changes I do not know. You have always been 100% accurate without telling me what changes exactly are coming. To prepare as if I were a wise wife and mom is Your Will going into this. To turn my back from preparation and claim You won't allow this or that, then this means I am confident to know Your plans for me when I truly don't fully know.

So of course, I recite Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you DECLARES THE LORD." A declaration from You, Father, is a big deal. You don't make declarations, contracts or promises lightly. You are not flippant or say anything without truthfully meaning every word. Your promises are true. By Your Word in Psalms 145:13: "The Lord is faithful to ALL His promises and loving toward ALL He has made."

And this in 2 Kings 17:39: "Worship the Lord, Your God; it is He who will deliver you." I don't claim to know Your plans, Father. You are a mystery in Your ways. However, I do know this... now that I have You, I now have a Father to adore. I am now a doting daughter who looks up to You. I never knew unconditional love until I was saved by You. My condition, my stone heart, was broken, but You revived me.

You reshaped my heart and put a new Spirit in me. Recently, You even healed my heart by a miracle. Since You are my Healer, will You, if You are willing, heal my kidney and remove this malignant squatter who has taken up residence in my body? You have done miracle after miracle in my life, Father. You still write on the tablet of my heart. Please don't stop now. I surrender myself to You. I believe for my healing miracle. You have declared it.

I had a fun dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "A Beautiful College Dorm Room" begins...

I was moving into a college dormitory. I arrived a few hours later than the others and, for some reason, the rooms were not assigned, so you had to find an available room. I quickly noticed every room on every floor was already taken. I felt hopeless and a bit panicked that classes were about to begin and I would not be settled in yet beforehand. I went up to the Hall Advisor / RA...

Me: "There are no rooms left. What should I do?"

The RA took out a clipboard of names and asked for my name. I gave my name to her.

RA: Smiling. "Come with me. You have a great room!"

She led me down a hallway behind a security card door. There were a series of doors. She then led me to the back right door. She opened it up. It was a beautiful room with windows overlooking a courtyard fountain with trees. There was a beautiful oak tree just outside my other window with birds. The windows had cranks that could open them for fresh air.

Me: "This is beautiful. I have no words. Thank you. Do I owe more money?"

RA: "You paid a premium in advance. Now, you have your own bathroom here also, as well as a small study area. You have all you need for success here. You have our full support. Our resources are fully available to you."

Me: "Who else lives on this hallway?"

RA: "People who are here for the same program you are enrolled in. It is important that you are together. You will also dine together too. You are also to remain separated from the general occupants (GOs). Do not listen to taunts or anything the GOs have to say. Do not react to them now is not the time."

Me: "Okay."

RA: "Now, the dining hall opens at 6:00pm for dinner. However, there is only a short window until the doors shut."

Me: "Okay – thanks again."

She smiled and waved as she closed the door. What a beautiful room. I was excited.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, I know that You are preparing me for something, so I will rest in You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am giving you a new course and a new perspective. Remember Hezekiah's illness and recovery. For the Lord God said to Isaiah: Go and say to Hezekiah thus says the Lord (a declaration), the God of David, Your Father, I have heard your prayers, I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add 15 years to your life. But more than this, Erin... I will deliver you to the land I promised you."

Me: "That was from Isaiah 38. You then sent a sign. You turned back the sun ten steps on the sun dial. Hezekiah then wrote a poem in Isaiah 39:20: The Lord will save me, and we will play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives at the House of the Lord. After this, Hezekiah made some bad mistakes."

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are not Hezekiah. Now, why did I bring this Word to your attention?"

Me: "To let me know that You are in control over all things."

Jesus: "Well, yes, but there is a different meaning in which I am revealing. Hezekiah was guilty of some grave sins. Some he had not even acted on yet. However, here I am, the same God over Hezekiah, King David and you. I am the same. If I can do these miracles for Hezekiah even though he did not hear directly from Me, but through a prophet, Isaiah...

"...and then David, whom I love, whom I welled up in even, and he performed awesome deeds... then if I am the same God and you speak to Me, then are things better to remove you off the battlefield at this time or keep you here for My purposes? Did I not promise you many things that have still not come to pass. So now, let us revisit a declaration of God again."

Me: "I felt prompted by You to examine the word 'declaration' and its definition. 'Declaration' is the formal announcement of the beginning of a state or condition. Or this... a written public announcement of intentions or the terms of an agreement. Then in the Biblical sense, it is the same in Greek as in Hebrew. The meanings are the same... 'to make known', 'set forth', 'explain', 'to make plain or clear'."

Jesus: "Okay, so I AM making it clear to you that My promises are true. I have declared them. I have more for you to do here until the day I am finished with you and you are instead with Me in eternity. As for right now, you feel downcast because you had a big idea about how all things would be. Even so, you are still thinking small. Remember that I am God over all things and My plans are much greater than your ideas of how all of this shall be—your imaginations. Are you excited?"

Me: "I am trying to be, Lord, but only You know my outcome and I know where my eternity is with you. So, I take comfort in You and Your declarations, Your healing power and Your love. If this is all I have, then I truly have everything, right?"

Jesus: "That is the perfect attitude to have. You are in full faith that I have you... and I do. Rejoice and do not worry. I will cover you. You are under My wings and I will provide for your every need. Do not worry. One other thing, I answer you before you even think a thing or ask, even before you have a need – pay attention to this as you dismiss this as your imagination often. It is My still small Voice. Remember you are not so bold as to do this or that with such confidence... this is Me."

Dream over.

769 – The Perfect Equipment for the Perfect Hole

Received on Thursday, January 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

NOTE: With my devotional room now cleared and all set up, I saw the below dream with incredible clarity. I could see lines on the clubs and even the blades of grass in detail. Even though this dream is nine journal pages, it flowed onto the paper in less than an hour and a half. And now... to the dream...

Thank You for another day here! I feel blessed. Even though I know changes are coming and we are moving at some point, the beauty here is breathtaking in its own right. There is not a cloud in the sky today.

I had an exciting dream last night (well, at least it was exciting for me)...

Sub-dream 1 “The Perfect Equipment for the Perfect Hole ” begins...

Before commencing this sub-dream, here are a few notes for you to read over that will give more context...

- The Shotgun Start: A Shotgun Start means that golfers are assigned to different holes to start the game at the same time. Normally there are four golfers to each hole and eighteen holes in all. This amounts to 72 golfers in total. Each golfer’s round begins at the sound of the starting pistol going off, in this case at 1:00pm. As an example, if you were assigned to be on the 17th hole to start, you would play your round in the following order: 17th, 18th and then back to the 1st to 16th.
- The Back Nine: There are eighteen holes in all. The Front Nine are the 1st to 9th The Back Nine are the 10th to 18th holes.
- A Scratch Player: Each hole is designated a number of shots that a typical pro would finish it in. The more shots designated, the further the tee is from the hole. Holes can be a Par 3, a Par 4 or a Par 5. A scratch golfer would be someone who usually hits the designated number of shots and typically not more or less. If a course designates that a pro should complete the entire 18-hole course in 72 shots, a scratch golfer would therefore usually score around 72 shots. In golf, the fewer shots you take, the better is your round of golf. The lowest score wins.

- Spending $84,824.00 on a set of clubs: I would never personally purchase a set of anything at this price unless this was a supernatural occurrence with many.

My husband and I were visiting a place I didn't recognize. It seemed to be somewhere out west. Since there were some eucalyptus trees, it seemed likely that it was California. I was not certain though. We had been invited to join as guests in the Fall Classic Member-Guest Tournament at an elite Golf Club. It was the last big tournament of the year for the club after the Club Championship.

We were told to arrive by 9:00am and that our tee time should be logged in. We were to be paired with the members who invited us to play. My husband struck up a conversation with a couple of gentlemen. He motioned that he would catch up with me in a little while. I waved back to him as he started walking off with them. I went into the clubhouse pro shop to talk to the pro there.

Me: "How can I find out what our tee time is?"

Pro: "It is all digital now. We no longer book tee times from here."

Me: "Well, we were invited to come to play by another member."

Pro: "Oh, I know. You are here on my list of invitees."

Me: "Sorry, I just thought..."

Pro: "Here, let's see if you are on my tee time screen."

He pulled out a small tablet and showed me the screen. As smart as I thought I was about how to read tee times, it was completely nonsensical.

Me: "I am so sorry, but I have no idea what I am even looking at. It makes no sense."

Pro: "Well, the Shotgun Start is at 1:00pm. I believe you will be starting on the Back Nine. One of the holes on the Back Nine is the most difficult hole we have. It will be exciting though."

I then realized that I had no clubs, no balls, no bag and no glove. I had absolutely nothing to golf with.

Me: "I will need some equipment."

Pro: Pointing to the back. "The ladies' section is over there."

I walked over and laughed at the display. It was not serious and a complete rail against women golfers. Everything was in pink, including the balls, golf bags and the gloves. I then walked over to the men's area.

Pro: "Ah, excuse me, but this area is only for very good golfers. Over here is the elite grouping. This is for those who hit from the black tees. This is where the pros hit and is the farthest from the hole. This is therefore way above your abilities."

While I was offended by his condescending tone, I kept quiet.

Me: Bluffing. "I realize this. However, I am shopping for my husband right now. He is a black tee golfer."

Pro: "Oh really. And what exactly is your husband's name?"

Me: "He likes to remain anonymous."

Pro: "Makes sense. Come on over. I will show you what we have here. As for me, I am an elite pro myself."

The Lord told me that the pro was lying. I decided to have some fun with it.

Me: "Oh really. So, what exactly is your handicap? Also, are you a touring circuit pro or a teaching pro?"

Pro: "Oh, you do know a little." He suddenly began to stammer and trip up his words. "I am a scratch player and a teaching pro."

I decided to say nothing and simply nodded. I then proceeded to look at the elite equipment section. It was so far above all the rest. The shafts were feather-light carbon/something and the grips were so soft. One set was particularly beautiful.

Me: "I will take this one, this golf bag, that glove and a box of these balls. I will let my husband pick his own shoes though. However, I will take these size 8s for myself."

The pro started talking back to me, but in a mumble. He spoke just loud enough for me to hear what he was saying. He was grumbling about me.

Pro: "Even I don't have a set of golf clubs like these. Some people think they own the universe. They literally point and purchase. It is so ridiculous."

He then spoke loud enough for me to know he was now formally addressing me. He also spoke loud enough that the crowd in the pro shop could all hear him. He was hoping to embarrass me as these clubs were very expensive.

Pro: "How will you be paying for all of this? You do realize that this is our highest end and most elite set? These are each even signed and numbered. This set of clubs took craftsmen a whole year to make."

All of a sudden, people were gathering around to see who was purchasing these clubs. I nodded confidently. All I knew was that I was supposed to purchase the best they offered here. The pro was clearly nervous and upset at my purchase.

Since there was no price on the clubs, I had to take a guess via my Holy Spirit that this bill was going to be ridiculous. I pulled a white card out of my small bag. I laughed as I knew this was God's account. I slid it across the counter towards him.

Pro: Snobbily. "So sorry, but we do not take Visa."

He slid the card across the counter back to me. He seemed relieved that my payment method would be rejected.

I slid the card back across the counter towards him. I was smiling. The card suddenly changed from a Visa card to an Elite Edition MasterCard.

Pro: "Hey, wait." He shook his head as the crowd spoke to each other in hushed whispers. "Okay, that will be $84,824.00 with tax."

He grabbed my card and quickly ran it through. He was hoping it would be rejected. It wasn't. He thought that, if he gave me a chance, I would take the card back before being humiliated by it being rejected. I knew this was on God's tab, so rejection was impossible on any level. Everyone that had gathered around was left speechless.

Me: "Wow, amazing. Thank you. Please have them set up my golf bag for me... uh, for my husband. Thank you."

The pro did this himself as I continued to look around the pro shop. The crowd of people were still stunned as I then strapped the bag on my back and walked out with my new state-of-the-art equipment. It was now just an hour before the 1:00 pm Shotgun Start, so I walked down a cart path through the eucalyptus trees.

I soon came up to one of the Back Nine holes – the 10th hole. Since there appeared to be no one around, I decided that I was going to tee up a ball on each of the five colors of starting tees. I wanted to start at the easiest color and work my way backwards to the hardest color. The colors from easiest to hardest are outlined as follows...

- Red Tee Box: For women. Closest to the hole.
- Yellow Tee Box: For seniors. 2nd closest to the hole.
- White Tee Box: For average players. Medium distance from the hole.
- Blue Tee Box: For low handicapped players. 2nd farthest to the hole.
- Black Tee Box: For elite pros. Farthest to the hole and sometimes farthest by a wide margin compared to the other colored tees.

When I reviewed the final color, the Black Tee, it was comical. This tee box was easily 600 yards from the hole on this Par 5 (where around 500 yards is typical for a Par 5). It was also behind a large oak tree (where no course designer would design this to be just a few yards in front of the tee box – it would be so dangerous that people could be killed by a drive hitting the tree and bouncing off it). Since the oak tree was so large, it would also be impossible to hit over.

I decided to start at the Red Tee Box, the closest to the hole. I pulled out a driver. Even though I haven't golfed in more than twenty years, I hit it purely. I then moved further away from the hole to the Yellow Tee Box. I once again hit a perfect shot.

Me: "Well, Father, this equipment really makes a difference. This is like nothing I have ever shot with before."

I then went back to the White Tee Box and then even further back to the Blue Tee Box. The White Tee Box was about 520 yards from the hole and the Blue Tee Box was about 550 yards from the hole. Both of my shots from these two Tee Boxes were perfectly hit and effortless. I then went to the Black Tee Box. It was more than 600 yards away from the hole... a whopping 620 yards away to be precise!

Me: "This is ridiculous. Who can hit through this huge oak tree? Hitting a driver here is not an option. For that matter, hitting with a wood is not an option either. I will do something I would have never done before. God, I am so glad You are with me."

I then pulled out a 3 Iron. I teed the ball up. I examined the branches of the oak tree and made a strange decision. I decided to not tee up the ball and hit directly off of the grass. I thought I could punch the shot through the branches and pray it would make it through. I visualized where I wanted the ball to go. I took a few practice swings. I then addressed the ball and prayed.

Me: "Oh Lord, I am going to need another God-sized miracle here."

I hit the ball perfectly and it went right through the huge oak tree. This was as amazing as it was impossible. I then picked up my clubs and walked to see the results. I was in shock as the balls were literally lined up and all within a short iron to the green and a putt in. I was so thankful for these clubs as they made such a huge difference.

When I finished playing all five balls, I had two birdies (which is one under par) and three eagles (which is two under par). That has never happened to me before. I then proceeded back to the pro-shop in the hopes of finding my husband before the Shotgun Start at 1:00pm. When I arrived back, people were staring at me. A member soon approached me...

Member: "Excuse me, but could you please sign my golf bag?"

Me: "Why would I do that? I can't do that. I am nobody!"

I then walked around the corner. There were camera crews and reporters waiting for me. I was in shock.

Reporter: "You had three eagles and two birdies on the Widow Maker Hole. How did that feel? Who are you and what is next?"

I tried to ignore them as I walked. I kept walking and went back into the pro shop. I went up to the pro.

Me: "I am looking for my husband. Have you seen him?"

Pro: "Wow, lady, you really sandbagged me here. You had told me that the clubs were for your husband, not you."

Me: "I didn't sandbag you. That is the wrong term. I wanted better than what you offered me. Since you would not have let me purchase the best, I had to say that I was purchasing them for my husband instead."

Pro: "Look, we have you here on camera."

Sure enough, they must have had drones overhead and field cameras set up down the fairway. I thought I was alone. I shook my head.

Me: Looking up at God in Heaven. "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Pro: "Look, our club would like to sponsor you for the tour. The club maker is also going to sponsor you, as well as the ball company. They want to do a special signature collection. We are talking over half a billion dollars in endorsements."

Me: "No thanks. I have everything I need. I just wanted to play for fun."

Pro: "Fun? FUN? This is beyond 'fun'. The Owner's Association at the club are going to invest in you and also offer you a beautiful custom home on the course."

Me: "I need to speak to my husband."

Just then, the phone at the pro shop rang.

Pro: Speaking with the utmost respect to whoever was on the other side of the phone. "Yes, sir. I understand. That is an honor. Thank you. Amazing!"

The pro then looked over at me.

Pro: "Okay, Erin... can I call you Erin?"

Me: "That would be fine."

Pro: "That was the President of the United States who just called. He has invited you to play with him and Tiger Woods. I have never had anything like this happen before. I have never seen it. Incredible."

Me: "Well, it is almost 1:00pm. It is time for your Shotgun Start."

Pro: "No one cares anymore. You defeated the Widow Maker Tree. It has never been done... NEVER! The film of your golf shots has now gone viral. Erin, the cat is out of the bag here."

I was now tired of all of the attention. God, please help! I made a mess here. Where is my husband?

Just then, I heard the roar of 'The Shotgun Blast'!

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: Now crying. "That was quite a dream. It was fun, but scary too. God, thank You as I was clearly changed and in a new body. Who knows... perhaps You will allow me to golf again someday. It was an amazing dream. It was fun, but I still had to wake up from it. Father, have I now gone mad? Why would I have a dream like this? I don't know if we will be doing things like this again! Really, Lord? Still, how incredibly fun would this be!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Did this make your heart glad?"

Me: "It was so real and detailed. I could clearly see to the very last detail. While my hair was French braided similar to how I used to wear it when I golfed, it was different... better. I must want to swing a club again. I had hoped that I would be able to take golf up again in my senior years. However, the doctors told me this was a 'Big No'! It would surely take a miracle of God, a God-sized / Savior-sized miracle."

Jesus: "Erin, you will play again. You will. Greater than you ever imagined. I delight in you. I remember your heartbreaks and disappointments. I remember your dreams that were never realized. All of them. The world would label you as a failure. However, you are not a failure. I am with you and I have always been there.

"Had you been an earthly success in many of these areas, then they would have been a god to you, an idol to worship. You instead worship Me. I am your hero, friend and Savior. You carry My 'Elite Status'. Though you were judged, mocked and ruined by others, I still chose you. You are Mine. Now take comfort.

"This dream I gave you is not as a fantasy, but a hopeful encouragement of what will be because I am with you. Erin, the God of the Impossible dwells in you. Those I call for My service will be overjoyed at what I have planned for them. There won't be a dry eye when you hear the testimonies and review each one's credentials to serve. My qualifications are different.

"Now, do not be sad about a dream like this. Look at your abilities, your capabilities, instead. Look at who is with you. Now rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. I love you."

Dream over.

770 – Obey God even in the Uncertainty

Received on Sunday, January 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

It is a beautiful blue-sky winter's day here! Thank You for another day. Please continue to watch over our house this week. Each one of us is facing battles right now. Please place Your hand of protection over all that we do. Father, we are in Your capable hands as we go about our schedules this week...

- We leave tomorrow, Monday, January 22, 2024, to travel to a specialist in Portland ME. We will be gone for one night, returning on my birthday on Tuesday, January 23, 2024. My appointment is on the morning of Tuesday.
- While we also considered traveling south for interviews for my daughter with an artist later in the week, we are still not certain about this even now.
- My younger son leaves Thursday, January 25, 2024, to travel out west for three nights, returning on Sunday, January 28, 2024.
- Zoey has her surgery on Friday, January 26, 2024.

In reality, we are not certain about any of this. In all things, Father, please let Your Will be done! My uncertainty seemed to be reflected in the two dreams I had last night...

Sub-dream 1 "An offer too good to decline" begins...

We were preparing our home for listing it for sale. We had a listing agent come over to talk to us about the listing. For some reason, he decided to stay here at our home to hang around and make sure we stayed true to the to-do-list he gave us. His list of 'to-dos' was both long and tedious. He wanted all of our things removed from our home. This included all valuables and anything inside drawers and closets. On one of the days, I overheard this agent on the phone talking to an associate of his...

Agent: "I am essentially moving them out so it will be easier to close the deal."

While I was irritated by this, I found it clever as we had noticed that a few of our neighbors who had sold homes closed immediately and their move out date was very fast after following similar advice. However, after about the third day of this man being here at the house, it was becoming too much for us. He was even going through things in our bedroom and was getting very personal with us. When we called him out on this, he had an immediate reply...

Agent: "Look, every person who comes through that door will be going through your private things. This is why I am so direct with you here."

He then became angrier as the days went by because I was going too slow for him on completing the to-do-list. This delay was occurring because we no longer had any place to put our items that were packed. We did not yet have a new home. We discussed this with our agent...

Me: "All of this is becoming more and more difficult for us. I am so sorry, but we have decided to cancel the listing."

Agent: "Well, you can't cancel. We had a bidding war and I accepted an offer on your behalf. It is final."

Me: "Well, I am sorry, but no deal."

The agent then blurted out the selling price he had received on our behalf. My husband and I were left speechless, but not for long. We then both said the following at the exact same time...

My husband and Me: "We accept!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, while I did not hear the offer, it must have been a really good one.

Sub-dream 2 "Fixing up an old Tiny Home" begins...

I was residing in a tiny cottage that I had once rented in Coeur d'Alene ID. The entire back wall of the little 560 square foot home was now all glass. I was in the process of removing all the former things that hindered my views. While I had this view all along, I had never realized it. I was removing things that I was never attached to or took up too much room for no good reason.

I even removed an upright piano that I didn't even know how to play. Once I removed everything, I painted. However, I had some opposition from some workers working in the front of the home. They had liked the way the home was even though I knew that my new way would be better. My kids even helped me paint. We then shopped for a few new things. It was fun.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Oh Father, both of these dreams seem to point to changes soon to come. The home from the first dream is our current home. The home from the second dream is a home that I had lived in when I was only 19 years old. I rented this tiny home for just $175 per month and this was expensive at the time. It is funny how life changes.

Father, You are in charge of all homes; past, present and future. Our desires are to keep our current home because this is the home You built for me. You built it with things I never thought I needed. However, You knew in advance of this. This place is so special to all of us.

My heart is heavy right now. I am anxious even though I am trying not to be. I am thankful for all that You have done in the last twelve years since these dreams began. Oh Father, You have blessed me more than I ever thought possible and I am so grateful to You and will be for eternity!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, here is a good rule to practice... if you are uncertain and truly at a Crossroads, you must then wait on Me for your assurance and your direction. Allow Me to be God over all things. You cannot be in two places simultaneously. Even the angels, the demons and the adversary cannot be in two places simultaneously. As for Me, I am in all places all of the time."

Me: "Lord, I have to be truthful here... I don't want to let go of our home. I say this even though I am ready for what is next, yet we have no ability to move. Even so, You are preparing me. Part of me would prefer to keep everything here as it is and not go. However, our kids are adults now and are planning to leave. This is too much for me and my husband to look after. Oh Father, please advise us."

Jesus: "While there are many things to consider, you have no good solutions and I have not made clear your direction. Truly I tell you this... time spent wondering and creating different options are useless. This is because I am over all things. However, at the proper moment, you will say, 'Now! Now is the time to move!'

"However, and even more than this, you are thinking small and are therefore weighing small options. This is because you cannot imagine another way. However, I am the God of the Greater Option, the Better Way.

You then worry about the small issues. You prepare just in case for this or that. I would think it is because you are worried about not being able to do things when I do move.

"While you believe in Me for some things, you do not believe in Me for all things. Well, I have not placed a prayer limit as if it is a punch card at the feed store. That is not Me. I do not say, 'Well, Erin has now used up her blessings and I must now cut back. This is too much for Me. After all, I do have limits here.' Erin, do you see how ridiculous this sounds?"

Me: "Yes, it really does sound ridiculous!"

Jesus: "It does, Erin. Surely it is your enemy that would say such things. If I am the God of all things as you believe in Me to be, and I am, then how am I limited? I am not. So, one is given this and the doors open supernaturally on that and yet another receives healing and another is raised back to life from death. Be always joyful when you hear of these things because your day is coming even as I knock at the door.

"Now, continue on in doing good. Give as I have given to you. Treat others as you would want to be treated. Love with no limits those I have sent into your life. Even when people are unkind, still react to them as I would call you to and as I would do.

"Now, there is one thing to remember... I told you that this life of yours would soon be dramatically different and that I would move you to the place I prepared for you, the place of your heart. Once this happens, your return will disturb many.

"However, I have still not confirmed whether you will be removed from your home here. You ask Me for the right reasons because of your love for the home I built you, the place I prepared for you to meet with Me daily, where you could raise your young at My Altar and even care for the birds and little animals. This has brought you joy.

"Now, this home you are in is unrivaled in your area. Again, since you do not know My plans here, you continue to prepare as I have instructed you. This is wisdom. You are then subject to Me and My plans as yours lead to difficulties aside from Me. Now, can you allow Me to continue to be God over you?"

Me: I laughed. "Of course, Lord. I am so sorry."

Jesus: "While to plan is human, to wait on My plans is divine."

Me: "Then I will wait, Lord."

Jesus: "I am God here and I am with you. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you tomorrow, today and each day after. I love you. Give your days to Me."

771 – Praying to our Great Healer

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for the wonderful weather and safe travels on our journey yesterday. Thank You for this beautiful day. Thank You for another birthday. I must admit that it was an unforgettable day. It was also one of the weirdest and surreal days. I don't have much to say really. My life should have been over years ago... well, in reality, so many different times.

I am just glad to be here and to be of value to You, Father. It is always Your choice to allow us our days here. You ultimately know our days and determine our steps. I am not ready to go though. Oh Father, You promised. While death is not painful, living in this dying painful state is a hard thing. I thought this would be simple as my cancer seemed to be caught early. However, I learned yesterday that it wasn't.

If I am being honest, I am both disappointed and upset. I am mad and angry at this situation. I am sorry too. I am sorry for being mad at You. While I had plans, these plans did not turn out the way I thought they should. Even so, while You did tell me a year ago that I was sick, I just had no idea with what. After speaking with my surgeon yesterday, I even contemplated doing nothing and just waiting.

However, the doctor then replied that I might have two years to live at best. It would also be a very painful road. He advised removing the kidney and praying that it hasn't spread to my bladder or elsewhere. This would mean aggressive chemo. I am not a fan of facing this fight. I need a few pre-op diagnostics before my kidney is to be removed somewhere around the first week of March 2024.

Oh Father, do You still love me? Have You grown tired of me? Am I no longer of use to You? You are God over all things, including my kidney. You made my body. You are the Architect. Please remodel me. Please fix me. Please fix me so that I can live and testify.

As I said these things, I looked out of my window. In the tree to my right was a crow and a swallow. I don't see swallows here. I then looked at the clouds and they formed a chain straight across the horizon.

What are You telling me, Father? Where are You? Have You forsaken me? All of the money we have saved for various emergencies will now be used for medical purposes. I need to get my house in order, including an advance directive and a will. Why? Because a wise man prepares for these things for the sake of his family.

Maybe Bend, OR is just a future 'New Earth' promise or a Transformation thing. I will take my attention off of the future things, including my imagined hopes and dreams, in order to fully focus on the here and now. Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery and today is a gift... that is why they call it 'The Present'.

Me: "Father, in light of this bad news, please show me how to do all of this. Grant me wisdom to prepare my house and my heart for what comes. Do You still love me, Father?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I love you. I have never stopped and I never will. I am the Chainbreaker. Now, I know that you are discouraged. Nothing has gone the way you have envisioned it would. This pathway was not on your roadmap."

Me: "Why wasn't it, Lord? I will tell You why... because I thought You were going to bless me because my troubles were over. Instead, these are just beginning. I am so sad, Lord. Please help me because I am scared here. While I believe You for the miracles in all things, I just don't know how You will use me through this."

Jesus: "So, in other words, are you still surrendering your life to Me for My purposes or are you selecting surrender from a menu of what you will order or not order?"

Me: "Lord, I have eaten from the appetizers. I have tried them all. I agree with You. I want to pick and choose what I will order here. Or how about I just enjoy the fruits and desserts? This is impossible. I have only two options..."

- Option 1: Go ahead with the surgery and then there are still problems;
or

- Option 2: I will live two years at best and will then suffer a painful death.

“Well, Lord, I instead choose Option 3.”

Jesus: “There was no Option 3 offered by the doctor..”

Me: “You, Lord! You are my Option 3! Since You say You love me unconditionally, I stand on my full faith boldly believing for healing and miracles. This is Option 3!” I was now crying. “Oh Lord, please... Option 3!”

Jesus: “Erin, surrender all of this to Me. There is nothing you can do. This is out of your control. Can you trust Me with your body?”

Me: “You are my Architect. I would be foolish not to trust You. I love You.”

Jesus: “Then let us settle something between us right now. It is okay to grieve bad news. I do not require you to be glad that you are sick. Anyone who claims that God is expecting your complete joy in these things has not truly studied My Word and is a fool. This would be a lie. I know that this is not a joyful thing. If you were joyful during this initial news, I would question it. Job was not joyful at his troubles.

“Now though, at some point, you will be at peace with the direction I take you. Then your joy soon after will be complete. This is difficult to understand right now. However, if you trust Me to carry you on this uncertain path, I will be your lamp to light your way and you will not be fearful. Remember that this life is not about you... it is about bringing the lost into My light. It is about My plans, not yours.”

Me: “Could I ask a favor then, Lord?”

Jesus: “Yes.”

Me: “I don’t want to go through chemo. Please! Could You confine everything to that one kidney? The doctor thinks it has spread. I don’t want to have a permanent catheter. Lord, please! I will be focused more on myself and certainly less of You.”

Jesus: “I know what you need before you ask it. I know you are scared and uncertain. The news is fresh. In your time of prayers, remember Me in worship and focus on all that I have promised you. Remember that you surrendered your life for My purposes. There is no more beautiful love you give Me than your life for My purpose. This is a special gift. Now, will you trust Me?”

Me: “Yes, Lord. I love You.”

Jesus: "I love You too. Now, continue to do good. I am with you. Oh yes, besides the signs in the sky, the little swallow visited your tree. It was perched near the crow."

Me: "Why, Lord?"

Jesus: "Even though this swallow was not in due season, I still sent it to you. It was following the crow. The crows here have been watchers on your walls, your property. They keep the small birds and animals safe from predators. The swallow is a swift flyer and much different than a sparrow."

"This can be a point of study because sparrows have been your focus. In this season, you are more like a swallow, but still at My Altar is your Nest. This was a special sign from Me today. While you couldn't see yesterday, you are no longer blind today."

Me: "It was tears, Lord! Tears made my vision bad."

Jesus: "I know. Now, enjoy these days, Erin. You have been so happy accomplishing your tasks."

Me: "All of my days are numbered, right, Lord?"

Jesus: "Every person's days on Earth are numbered. Erin, this is written. However, I didn't say, 'Be joyful and enjoy each day because I plan to take your life'. Erin, I have never said this. I am with you. Great is your reward! Be happy and do your lifting now."

Me: "Lord, can You heal me before my surgery? Lifting now? Will I lose my ability to lift?"

Jesus: "No, lift your head and see where your help comes from! Let Me work, Erin. Finish building your Nest at My Altar. I am with you."

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for a new day here! Thank You for another day of life. It snowed all day yesterday. I arrived home at noon and it began to snow shortly after. It didn't stop until 3:00am. This morning was so beautiful to see. Fresh powder and sparkles of diamond light reflected in the sun.

It was too wonderful not to step outside for fresh air. I brought a fresh seed tray and I could hear birds communicating in the trees. Maybe they were saying, 'She's here! We will now eat a great breakfast of dry seeds!' While I don't know what they say, I would like to think it is a thank you. I just don't know.

Father, I have been silent lately. I have been staying busy so that I have no extra time to think. Anything I say to my kids about the situation upsets them, so I stay silent. There really isn't anything to say. My stepdad had two favorite quotes; 'If wishes were horses, beggars would ride' and 'Silence is golden'. Well, I agree that silence is golden when nothing good can be said.

We dropped off little Zoey at the vets for her surgery yesterday. I signed all of the required forms. She was shaking. Amber was with me, so we went out for breakfast afterwards. I hadn't done that in a while. After this, we went to the Christian bookstore. I prayed that maybe there would be some books on miracles. I picked up a book titled, 'How to hear from God when He is silent.' I heard the Voice of the Lord...

Jesus: "Erin, this is ridiculous! I am here with you. To hear from Me, just speak and I will answer. There is not one book here, other than My Word which I authored, that will tell you greater things than I can. It is a chasing. No books, only My Word. Now, about this book you just chose on wanting to hear from Me. Really? Has it really come to this?"

I laughed so hard that my daughter asked me what was so funny. I told her what the Lord had just said and we both laughed. As we were walking toward the movie section, I caught a glimpse of the title of a book. It was about keeping a 'Cancer Diary' while battling cancer. I heard the Lord's Voice again.

Jesus: "No, Erin! Don't even think about it. I am all you need. I am your book. My Word is your Lamp. I am God."

Well, this was certainly settled now. I left the book where it was and walked away. We then found a movie to watch and the Lord didn't protest. I then received a phone call from Zoey's veterinarian as we moved to the check out.

Vet: "Hi, Erin. Regretfully, we are not moving ahead with Zoey's surgery. Her bloodwork showed a new issue with her kidneys. Her levels are so high that we are not comfortable putting her through surgery. Her liver values are also 200 points higher than when we last tested. We are sorry."

Me: "How much longer does she have?"

Vet: "I am not comfortable giving a time because animals are different than humans. Our estimates can be off. However, we did notice that Zoey is so happy and energetic right now. I will send you home with antibiotics for if she flares up and of course pain medication. She is 15 now and could have more years. We just don't know. However, I will say this... she had bloodwork six months ago and both her liver and kidney panels are 200 points above where they were. You can come to pick her up anytime."

We drove to pick her up and arrived home shortly before the snow fell. Zoey seemed both happy and energetic. This was such a relief!

As for my dreams, they have been quite strange this week. I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Great America Closes Permanently" begins...

I was in a massive amusement park. It was Marriott's Great America. This park is normally open all year round. However, the park was now closing permanently. There was an announcement that rides will stop operating at 5:00pm and exiting the park must be completed by 6:00pm.

There were young people in their teens and 20s hurrying to the wild rides and rollercoasters. Families were waiting in line at the family rides. People were not excited though. Many of them were crying. I heard one parent talking to another parent...

Parent: "I came here with my parents and they came here with theirs. Now what will happen? Look, even the workers are crying. They will now have no income."

(I had personally attended the very first opening of the Santa Clara, California on May 20, 1976 for my 8th grade class trip).

After hearing this, I went back to my room at a nearby hotel to pack my things to leave. I was younger in my dream. Since I had so many garments with me, I decided to leave the majority of them for anyone who wanted them. I proceeded to check out with only a small bag and one change of clothes. I went up to the front counter..

Me: "I am checking out."

Clerk: "Oh, you can't check out. Everyone's bill is no charge. We are closing. I will no longer be paid in just fifteen minutes she pointed to the clock overhead. New people are coming in to take over."

Me: "New?"

Clerk: "Yes. Great America is closing permanently."

Me: "Do you mean the park or the park along with all of America?"

Clerk: "Look, we were all warned. However, no one did anything to stop the enemy. This hotel will now house the new army that is taking over. You had better leave while you can. We are all leaving now."

I could see that she was panicking. I left the lobby and began to walk away from the area. I then ran into an old acquaintance.

Acquaintance: "Erin, come and see some of your family that are still around here. Some of them still live in the same old home."

Me: "Okay, I will."

She then proceeded to take me to a place that I had not been to in around twenty years or more. I saw my brothers and their families there. They seemed oblivious to what was happening all around them. They were in the process of relocating their household to another area.

Me: "Where are you moving to?"

My Older Brother: "Away from the coastline. We are heading up to the mountains. Since we have the room there, why don't you come along with us? We will have enough power, sewer and supplies there until all of this blows over."

Me: "Okay, we will go."

We then heard a very loud announcement on the park's speaker system.

Park Announcement: "The Marriott's Great America is now permanently closed."

There was a bright light in the sky followed by some fireworks. All of the horizon then went dark. I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "An Exam for thee, an Exam not for thee" begins...

I was late for a final exam at a prestigious university. I was in my car, but having a hard time finding a parking spot. I then realized that almost all of the cars were abandoned and hollowed out. They had been stripped of all value.

I decided not to park in the lot. I found a utility vehicle road and parked there. After I parked, I rushed off to my exam room. When I arrived at the door of the exam, the door was already locked. I looked at the time. I had missed the exam window by just one minute. Before I could leave, I saw the proctor rush over to unlock the door..

Me: "Please let me finish the test. I studied."

Proctor: "Okay. However, you must promise to complete the exam at the appointed time. Do you have a pencil?"

Me: "No, I only have a pen."

Proctor: "Well, then, that says confidence. Come on in. Do not disturb the others."

I nodded in agreement. I was surprised to see only half of our class there. There were about forty people there taking the exam. I sat down and began the test. The questions were extremely easy and really dumb. They even had one question that asked what 1 plus 2 was. I went to turn in my completed exam after only twenty minutes.

Proctor: "Wow, impressive."

I then turned to leave the room.

Proctor: "Hey, wait a minute... I accidentally gave you the test meant only for certain members of the class, a different demographic than you. In other words, I gave you the wrong test."

Me: I sighed in discouragement. "Okay, but I will now have twenty minutes less time to complete this exam."

Proctor: "I will give you extra time."

She had a smug look on her face as she knew I would struggle with this different exam. I took the test and walked back to my seat to begin. I flipped over the page. When I scanned the questions, my mouth opened in shock. There were questions there impossible for me to know. This wasn't even class material being tested. I knew I was in big trouble here. (Like quantum physics)

I took some deep breaths and prayed. Suddenly, the answers were now written in light, a type of illuminated script. This light was on the paper, yet floated above it at the same time. Hard to describe. When I ran my fingers over the answers as I read them, the illuminated answers turned to ink and in my handwriting. I finished the entire test in around ten minutes. I went over to the proctor to turn it in.

Proctor: In complete shock. "Oh, wow! Please... wait just a minute..."

She got up and went out into the hallway. I could overhear her speaking to a couple of security guards.

Proctor: "Okay, she's one of them. We got her."

I then saw them turn to come back in the room. Before they could see me, a bright light flashed. I was suddenly in my car outside leaving the campus. I was safe.

Sub-dream 2 over.

The other dreams I have had have a consistent theme. I am doing normal business with store owners who fail to see that half of their businesses has been blown up. They are then in a state of shock when I point this out and they still refuse to see it. The stores I have seen in these dreams include grocery stores, gas stations and other retail places. It is always so sad to see.

Oh Father, I have been quiet lately. I don't have much to say right now. Things are not going well for me. I have done everything You have instructed me to do. I am so very sad. I feel like my candle is burning out. We are struggling here, Father. We are not just struggling financially, but also in other ways.

I am waiting for something that still has not come. Even so, everything You have instructed me to do has come in full faith. These times now are so scary. I won't make it as I am right now. Oh Father, we won't make it without You. Please grant us not just a trimmed wick, but a new wick with a fresh flame. All of our hopes are in You alone.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Then this is all you need. I am all you need, Erin. I am with you. I love you."

Me: "Lord, America is about to fall. Please help us. Please stop all of this."

Jesus: "I have allowed this visible corruption for all to see. Evil now advances out in the open. An army of men who hate America now advances. These men were taught to hate America and the people there from the beginning. The enemy has plans to destroy all things. Hate has increased and so too has all evil in full display. There is no good news reported on because this is a war strategy. Now, think about this... 'The Audacity of Hope'."

Me: "This was the title of a book written by a former President."

Jesus: "Yes. However, he seeks to increase audacity and remove all hope. It was based on a lie and also a dig to God. Audacity is a double-minded word. Now, you have lost hope in your plans or what you thought My plans are."

Definition of Audacity: 1. A willingness to take bold risks. 2. Rude or disrespectful behavior; impudence.

Me: "Yes, Lord, I have. I just want to be here to be a part of everything. I have come so far. This is an impossible part of my journey unless you take it."

Jesus: "So, are you giving this to Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. We are in trouble here, Lord. Unless You step in, we will have limited choices. How will I afford the medical bills? They bankrupted me in 2012."

Jesus: "You will not be bankrupt. I will care for you. I offer you great benefits, vacation and a full medical and dental plan. I have not pulled My favor from you. I will not stop now. Can you hang in there with Me a little longer here? You have acted on full faith. You have pursued Me and have given your plans to Me.

"However, you are now sad because of the unknown. You are sad because you have 'hope deferred'. However, My blessings for you and your house are not deferred. Have you thought about each thing, each event, though tragic to many, has benefited you and is for your good? Will you be patient a little longer?"

Me: "From our perspective, all of this is taking such a very long time. We are all growing older. My child-like ways are disappearing. My joyful skip and delight in little things seem to have left me."

Jesus: "Erin, how long have you been at this with Me?"

Me: "Well, I am going on 12 years."

Jesus: "Hmm... I have been at this for thousands of years. You are here at the time of the end, the time when you are witnessing all that is good now fading fast. However, this is different. Why? Because I am here with you. All that you are going through is so that My glory will be visible through you.

"Erin, not your will be done, but My Will be done in you. Just because you don't see Me working doesn't mean I have stopped. I have not stopped nor will I stop. I will continue to bless you. Erin, you are Mine. Now, remember this... I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if you were told."

Me: "That is happening now with the evil."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, but I have not yet moved in My miracles in the ways you all are waiting for. I am not dead. Erin, I live. Now, I know you have few words right now. However, I will send you signs, wonders and miracles that cannot be refuted. Your joy will soon return. Allow Me to carry you on this portion of your journey. Erin, I promise to keep you close to My heart and under My care. Now, will you surrender yourself to My arms?"

Me: "Oh yes, Lord. I miss when I was in toddler form in the beginning of these dreams, I would lay my head on Your shoulder. This was in a heavenly place, a place where the sun was warm and the atmosphere was clear like crystal and vibrant with intensity. I smelled Your garments and touched Your curls. I then slept in the safety of You, my Savior. I was at peace. Oh Lord, there is truly no other place that I would rather be."

Jesus: "Well, then this is settled. I love you, Erin. I am with you and you are with Me. You are loved."

Dream over.

773 – Great Hope in the Midst of the Darkness

Received on Sunday, January 28, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It seems as if each day is now a divine mystery. People are growing colder. Even when you smile at someone these days, they look away instead of smiling back. Isaiah 60:2 rings loudly in truth: 'See, darkness covers the Earth and thick darkness is over the peoples.' Darkness has descended upon the Earth.

I watch for goodness around me daily and now there are days in which seeing anyone being kind or thoughtful is very rare. It is my gauge or measure to test time. Father, are we on Your calendar? I am weary. My candle is at low levels. My bright outlook I had just a few short months ago has faded. Emails I receive from friends asking for prayers are so many, so urgent and so sad.

Daniel 7:25: "He shall speak words against the Most High and shall wear out the saints of the Most High and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times and half a time."

Daniel 12:7: "And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the water of the stream; he raised his right hand and his left hand toward Heaven and swore by Him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times and half a time and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things would be finished."

Father, define shattering... sigh. How bad will all this become? Please have mercy on Your people. All of us are experiencing attacks and these are relentless. We are under attack here, as are our children. Each is experiencing impossible situations where they are and I have no answers. Each one of my children have said, 'When are God's promises coming, mom?'

The only word I have is this, 'His promises are true and they will come at the Appointed Time.' I then come privately to You, Father, and ask, 'When?' My sons are particularly disappointed with their lives right now. They feel defeated with their hopes deferred. Father, You are a mystery.

There are wars happening against Your people all over the world. We are overtaxed. We are silenced by insane people. We are attacked physically or harassed. Our properties are damaged and items are stolen. We are told to stand down when we see crimes committed like shoplifting or looting. We are constantly securing our bank accounts, our social media, our websites, our email accounts and even our phones. Hackers are everywhere now. Then there is Artificial Intelligence (AI) that can now impersonate others.

Then there is bullying. My daughter has had several people block her for no reason other than she has a Christian Podcast. She is losing momentum and she feels her Podcast is about to die out. Many of the Christian artists liked her Podcast privately, but not publicly to share it with others. She has worked so hard on all of this. Well, Father, now all things are up to You.

Then there is my husband. While his sales have been moderate, the owner has hostility towards him. To work for someone who truly hates you and wants you gone every single day... well, after a while, it is difficult to keep your chin up.

On the positive side, we finally received the payment from the insurance company to pay off the balance of our stolen car to the bank. However, we have decided not to purchase another car. Although it will be a challenge, we are going to work with what we have.

The car theft took a lot from me personally. I have fear leaving the car to go into the store for groceries or other errands. We purchased a steering wheel bar / club that makes me feel better that I have done all that I can do.

I remember as a child, our home in California was broken into so many times. While we never had anything of real value, thieves took anything we did have, especially electronics. I remember the unsafe feeling of having anything new or special. Someone was always there to take it. This robbed you of any joy and created fear.

With me, OCD kicked in. This was a hidden demon that would resurface when I had no control over my situation. Bringing order in behavioral patterns seemed to create the illusion that you are able to control the chaos. When I had nothing to obsess about, arrange or rearrange, I then began to punish my body by denying myself food and increasing my exercise. This all happened later in life... in my early 20s and all came to a head when I spent six weeks in the Meadows Psychiatric Center – Eating Disorder Wing. This changed my life as I learned about surrender.

Thankfully, my mom moved us out of California to a safer place when I was a teen. This was a place where we didn't even need a lock on the front door.

For many years, my new friends in this safe Northern Idaho town called me paranoid. I still took so many precautions to guard my bike, purse, car and on and on even when I knew I didn't really need to. I grew up in an environment that shaped me to be hyperaware of activity around me. It was not always healthy. This was truly a demon playground of affliction daily. This finally left when I became a Christian.

While troubles still came, I felt safe being in My Father's arms. This is the best place to be. As for the troubles today, they come from all directions. These are wars waged against the children of God unlike any other war. We have been under attack for some time now. However, the attacks have now increased even more.

Laws are being changed and not conformed to. There is no justice in the courts. The USA Constitution is dying. The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms are being trampled. The Bible is being condemned. The Word of God is being labelled as hateful. We are being robbed of our freedoms, our liberties and our values daily. Darkness is descending.

The Bible is forbidden in certain countries, including Saudi Arabia, Afghanistan, Libya, Maldives, Morocco, Somalia and Yemen. It is censored in China and certain versions in Russia. Shockingly, it is forbidden in the USA military and in USA schools. This is from Wikipedia and has not been updated because even Canada and other European countries have deemed certain Bible verses to be offensive.

I had some interesting dreams last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Darkness on a path is replaced by light" begins...

I was walking along a dimly lit path. It was a dangerous one. I knew that there were people along this road that hated me just on my appearance. As I walked faster, the atmosphere became thick and heavy. Darkness was all around me. I could hear distant screams. I decided to stop walking as I was worried about stumbling in the darkness. I sat down and closed my eyes.

Surprisingly, there was more light when my eyes were closed than when my eyes were wide open. However, it was now becoming harder to breathe. I cried out to God as I could feel so much evil that my body could not take the overwhelming presence of hate. I then saw a pinhole of light. The light then became larger and larger. I then saw an angel of the Lord in stunning bright white. He reached out his hand and I took it. We were suddenly in the light of Heaven. Tears were now streaming down my cheeks.

Angel: "Erin, I have a message for you from God. Darkness will accelerate, but do not be discouraged. Glory will fall upon the nations and expose the darkness and all that is lurking there into the light. All will be changed in an instant and all will know that the Lord is the Great I AM. While it will seem hopeless and dark at first, hope will then be restored in an instant and joy will replace tears.

"Now, you worry about many things. Give these over to God. He promises to restore all you have lost and heal you in an instant. This will be a moment that is undefined by a clock and will mark you as His. What seems like a mystery right now will suddenly be known."

Me: "I don't fully understand."

Angel: "You will. Now live, Erin, and praise God from the heights and even the depths as He is with you. You and others will soon be used for His purposes under Heaven."

A bright light then flashed. I was now on a bright pathway. It was so beautiful. There was no darkness.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "A Day Trader sees Doom" begins...

This was about a former roommate of my daughter's. In this dream, this roommate was a day trader of penny stocks. She had two legal sized folders with notes written all over them. I came over to speak with her.

Me: "What are you up to right now?"

Roommate: "The market is about to crash in the 6th to the 9th months. It is a leap year. It will be a bloodbath."

Me: "What do you mean?"

She flipped over her legal file and there were notes...

Roommate: "The Great Fall is coming! I just wasted years of my life studying this. All of this will happen somewhere in around a three-month window. It is all there. Look, it is all right there."

Me: "Are you okay? Do you need sleep?"

Roommate: "No. I get an extra day this year as it is a leap year." She opened her legal folder. "Look, I found out all of this. All of this is just a façade. There is no financial backing. There is no treasury. It has been drained to overseas markets. They believe there will be a shift in power. They will correct the shift and size and silence all who rise against them.”

My husband then came into the room and walked over to us. He had overheard the last part of the conversation.

Husband: “How could you possibly know all of this?”

Roommate: “Statistics and insider information. War and blood come when they realize they cannot win. Somewhere between the 6th month and the 9th month. They have planned to destroy the USA and Canada. God confirmed it right here. Then there is the Last Trump.”

While she then showed us a Scripture, I could not make it out.

Me: “Are you okay?”

Roommate: “I am tired now. I am going to sleep. I have to wake up soon to trade again. I am a day trader of penny stocks. Did you know it is a leap year, a crash year, and that the pennies have been cancelled?”

She was delirious and suddenly fell asleep. My husband reached over to look through her folder.

Husband: “Wow, she seems legit. This is real information. I don’t know where she got it from though. Regardless, she really needed to sleep.”

Just then, my daughter came in.

Me: “What is with your roommate?”

My daughter: “We have been praying for her for days now. She is afraid to leave the apartment. This is the first time in days that she has actually slept. We don’t know anything she is talking about. She must have been excited that you were listening to her. It was over our heads.”

Sub-dream 2 over.

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: “Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. At times, these dreams give you more questions than answers. Now, why didn’t you write the third dream.”

Me: “Sorry, Lord, it was because it was so strange...”

Sub-dream 3 "Million dollars of jewelry for $31.50" begins...

My husband and I were invited out west to a friend's jewelry store called DeValued Diamonds. His friend was a dealer of diamonds in the diamond district of New York. Something happened and the entire district had relocated to Portland OR. When we arrived at his opening, it was chaotic. Diamonds were hanging in mass quantities on cheap dime store racks, along with other designer brands.

There were glass cases containing famous celebrity jewelry. Each invitee had two hostesses to shop with. As I walked with them, they assembled a clothes bag of items and didn't stop to discuss what they had placed in the blue satin cloth bag. While the bag was full, I wasn't really interested. I was scared of what the final price would be. I estimated it would be around a million dollars using today's market pricing.

Hostess: "Okay, so, the total for all of these items is $31.50."

Me: "$31.50? But these are priceless?"

Hostess: "These do not hold the same value anymore. Enjoy."

My husband gave them $40 and told them to keep the change for a tip.

Sub-dream 3 over..

Jesus: "Hmm, that was interesting."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but what does it mean? Bread will cost more than diamonds."

Jesus: "It means that things that were once important will very soon not have any real value in comparison to today's market prices."

Me: "Oh, wow, this happens in times of war!"

Jesus: "Remember that I am over all things. There are plans in place to steal and rob the people of their will. They have tried to cause division by skin color and religion. They have tried to control the news with lies. They have tried to steal children and kill babies. They have lied. They know the people hate them. They are corrupt and evil.

"While there is so much you do not know, all will soon be exposed. All that they have planned for evil will be reversed and turned upon them. They will be bound by their set rules and corruption while the children of God are free to walk about and live in the wide open. Their teeth will gnash at this.

"They will also curse and plot even though they will live in great fear and hiding. My Glory will then be on full display until it is removed. Now, I know you worry about many things. However, do not. Keep your head up. Erin, I am with you. Now, 31 is a good number and quite remarkable.”

Me: “Oh Lord, You are such a mystery. Thank You for keeping us safe. Thank You for these mysterious dreams.”

Jesus: “Focus on the Good News that I bring. The dream of an angel of God is hope in the midst of the darkness and a sure message. I am with you. Do not be disheartened. I have you.”

Dream over.

774 – Haunted Houses and Ghosts are Real

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for always going before us and showing Yourself faithful in all things. You truly are our Miracle Worker and my Best Friend.

My youngest son has been out west and travelled so far to see this young woman who has his heart. He was there three full days plus one travel day there and one travel day back. Problems arose almost immediately when she revealed she suddenly supposedly had to work while he was there to visit her. They met only briefly and my son walked around town and spent some time with her instead on Saturday.

They went to a big convention in Tacoma WA and had a really fun day. They parted ways around 10:00 pm and she ghosted him after that. He told me he was a complete gentleman and never even kissed her. He said it was clear after more than a year of her pursuing him that she was now not interested in him because now he was interested in her. He called her a few times, but she kept hanging up on him.

She had told him she worked Sunday so that she would not be able to see him. He waited and then asked me what he should do. He had at least wanted to say goodbye to her. He then went to her work to say goodbye, but then discovered that she was not working at all. She had lied to him. He phoned again for my advice. My advice was for him to go back to his hotel and pray.

This was so odd as she was the one that had invited him there to Tacoma WA to spend time together. While they were supposed to spend a lot of time together and meet her family and everything fell through. I then questioned my son thinking that he did something accidentally. From their communication, he did nothing wrong. After he read all of their communications to me, he felt he should apologize even though he doesn't know what he did.

Father, You told us that this girl has a divided heart and that she is double-minded. She is a non-believer, so maybe her demons picked up that my son is Yours. As the hours passed last night here, which is in the afternoon there, my son was now on the phone distraught. He then started an extreme fast and had now gone to his knees. He struggled with the Words You gave him and worried that You were not with him.

You promised to go before him and prepare his way. You were to bless him. However, he felt that he was not experiencing this blessing from You. I explained that sometimes the blessing is not what we pray for or believe God will do for us. We often assume that our will for our blessing is also God's Will. I explained this to my son as follows...

Me: "Let's say that God said, 'Erin, today I will bless you abundantly!' Let's say that I then go out and purchase a lottery ticket thinking that what God really meant was that He would bless me with a winning lottery ticket. I then, 'in faith', go out and purchase this lottery ticket. While of course God could make it a winning ticket, this particular ticket is not a winner. So, where was this blessing from God? Why?"

"Well, it then turns out that the blessing was in me NOT winning as this was not His Will for me. However, because I was so focused on this one thing, this faith 'Hail Mary' long shot, I failed to see all of the other small, wonderful things prepared for me by my Father, God.

"Well, this could be because your friend is not the Lord's yet. Maybe she is not what God has planned for you, at least for now. Right now, this young woman is not a believer. Because of this, the enemy then used her to afflict you. You know the enemy is at play when the actions of the person are confusing. There is no logic to the attack. This left you questioning God's ability and your faith in Him."

After hearing this, my son agreed with all that I had just said. I then prayed for him for breakthrough. After this, he spent hours praying to the Lord on his knees. This in addition to his fast commencing. Well, when I woke up this morning, there were two texts from him. The texts reflected a complete change of heart. He was now at peace. I 'hearted' his texts. He then asked if he could call me.

I phoned him right away and he said something happened to him halfway through his prayers. He said he felt the presence of God fall over him. He knew at that moment, no matter what, God was with him and He had control over all things. He said, 'God is faithful, He knows what's best, so I will give everything to Him!' We then made a plan for him to get to the airport early for check in so he wasn't stuck in Seattle WA's Monday morning rush hour.

This was amazing! Father, thank You for this miracle. My son declared to me that You blessed him and that it was a great trip! 'No matter what, this trip was God's!' Oh Father, thank You for all of this. I pray that his trip home goes well and You will get him home safely today. I pick him up at Midnight tonight.

I had a very clear and graphic dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Huge Terror Attacks in Las Vegas" begins...

I was staying with my family at a very large resort hotel out west. Based on the size of it, I believe it was a casino in Las Vegas. Our room was a beautiful suite with five rooms. We were set up to stay one week. Two things were worth noting:

- Our children now seemed the same age as my husband and me.
- My stepfather was also there, but staying in a different room.

Note: My stepfather was much more of a father to me than my biological father ever was. He committed suicide when I was twelve years old. It is important to note that I did not communicate with him at any time in this dream. He never said anything either. He would just come out of his room every now and then and check in on us. I can't recall having anything quite like this happen in any of my other dreams. So, I was not conversing with the dead!

When I looked over at my younger son, he was caring for four adult birds. Each one was a variety that I had never seen before. They were nesting in his room. Each bird had hatched two babies... one medium bird and one mini-bird. They felt safe in his care. A few days into our stay, we received a knock on the door from the manager..

Manager: "You need to vacate the hotel immediately. While there is a fast-moving fire, the fire alarms were disabled by some evil people."

My husband and I gathered up everyone and exited the building. We could smell smoke, but only lightly. We soon reached ground level...

Me: "Oh no, I have to run upstairs to get something." Everyone protested. "Look, the smoke is still light. I will hurry."

Note: In the following part, I am approached by the children's grandma. This woman is my ex-mother-in-law and the mother to my greatest enemy. Her being friendly to me would be a miracle in itself.

They went out the door. Just then, I was approached by the children's grandma.

Grandma: "Erin, you need to hurry!"

Just as I was trying to find my way, I noticed there were whole areas where people had no idea that the Casino Resort was on fire. There were char-burned bodies everywhere. They were dropping from an atrium area. Despite this, many people were simply ignoring the bodies. I got to my room and retrieved what we needed.

I then checked on my stepdad's room. The door was open and he was gone. The little birds were gone as well. I made it out with some items in a small shopping cart or something like it that I was wheeling. I called out to Grandma as the power was now out in the hotel. I saw her in a utilities area near the back of the hotel...

Me: "Okay, I have what I needed to retrieve. Let's get out of here."

Grandma: "Oh good, I was hoping you would make it." She then pointed to the roadside. "Look, there are so many bodies everywhere now."

Me: "What about my husband and the kids? Are they safe?"

Grandma: "Do not worry. They are all safe. This was a terror attack. They hit several areas."

I looked around and there were now three resorts burning. The smoke from the fires rose up as columns reaching high up into the sky. The lights from the Las Vegas Strip then illuminated these ominous columns. It was an eerie sight to see. I woke up when a burning body fell right next to us.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Me: "Oh Father, what a night! This Las Vegas dream seemed so prophetic. Thank You for all You have done for my younger son. Please get him home safely."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your children. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, I needed to witness the good work You are doing. You have shown me the child-like faith of my younger son. I cannot believe how amazing and wonderful it is to see. I needed this."

Jesus: "Yes, you did. Erin, all you said to your son was true. The enemy used his friend to remove his faith, turn him away from Me and you and drain his resources. However, what the enemy planned for evil, I turned to good. Your son experienced My presence as I came to him in power while he prayed. I gave him perfect peace and full knowing in faith that I am God over him."

Me: "Lord, not many people experience this their whole Christian walk, yet my son has now completely changed."

Jesus: "You are correct and this is something you must believe Me for. You understand this feeling as I am with you, but you are now seeing the fruits of your labored prayers. He fasts and he prays. He believes in Me for the miracle. He knocks and he receives.

"Now, the enemy had hoped that your son would have sinned. However, I sent angels ahead to remove this strategy. The next strategy of the enemy was for your son to be crushed and turn away from Me. However, instead of losing faith and turning away from Me, your son instead ran to Me. I found him there and I am with him.

"Now, this young woman has demons. These demons struck out against your son and removed her so she would not be in My presence. I allowed this so that your son would experience more of My power. While he does not understand this now, he won a great battle here. I gave him a great victory over an enemy assignment.

"Now, your son will not go again as he is now. However, he will see her again under different circumstances. However, he should not go again until I call all of you there together. It will then be much different. Pray and I will make a way for the young woman. She will then turn to Me because of your son and all will change for her. However, your son will then have a different focus and so much joy."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, your son does not need to worry. I will provide for him. He must continue to work and do good and press into Me and I will bless him. This is a promise. I am pleased with his faith. One day soon, he will pray for you, Erin, and you will be healed by the strength of his faith in Me."

Me: "Do I not have this faith, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes, of course you do. However, where two or more are gathered, I am not only there, but I hear, and, by your faith, I answer your call. I have a great plan here. Remember that I have great arrows in My quiver concerning your family.

"Now, your son must focus on Me. I will grant him a new purpose and focus. He will turn heads and he will have his head turned to Me. With his attention away from this young woman, she will then turn back to your son."

Me: "Okay, I see. So, You have something planned for my son. Will this young woman contact my son?"

Jesus: "She feels guilty as she was unkind to him. While he should be a friend, he should not be trapped by her. The demons around her play games and use her to harm your son. This is frustrating to your son and he should not be lured into their games. Instead, pray for her to activate angels over her. This is a better strategy. Your son will then live in great peace and joy.

"Now, this dream... do not worry as I am not sending you to Sin City. However, it is also a warning for the lost. The country will come under attack. Those who are oblivious to these things, but especially Christians who sit in judgement, might find themselves in trouble also. Many who claim to be children of God act as judge, jury and even call out the verdict guilty. They then call many as guilty by association.

"Many would not even recognize Me if I were standing right next to them. Judgment is coming to the land. In your dream, there were those who heeded the warning to vacate. I then sent you back in and you observed those oblivious to those dead and burning right in front of them. People still continued to live for themselves. You then ran to check on your dead stepfather."

Me: "Yes. Lord, why was he even there?"

Jesus: "The demons that haunted your stepfather are now like disembodied spirits who wander. I speak of this in My Word. Your stepfather was a violent man. He was tormented by demons and he hung himself. He heard voices. In My Word, I cast violent demons out of two possessed men. This is what the demons said, 'If You are going to cast us out, send us to the herd of pigs.'

"I therefore did and they came out of the bodies they were occupying and went into the pigs. The entire herd of pigs then went off a steep bank and into the sea and drowned. The disembodied spirits then search for a new home. A ghost is therefore an evil spirit who wanders. When you hear of a 'haunted house', this is actually a place where a person or people died suddenly or violently by the hands of another.

"Even though many of the victims are then taken up to Heaven, because this was a violent death at the hands of another, the demons surrounding the evil act are bound to afflict that homeowner, along with all of the generations who follow after. These spirits mimic the events and the people involved and they are trapped or imprisoned in this place until the generational curse is broken.

"When people remained in the same dwelling, these occurrences worked to point directly to the issue and a reminder to turn back to God to break these curses. Erin, darkness that originates from the past can affect the present."

Me: "Okay, so, ghosts are disembodied evil spirits or demons who, when the people died, were mimicking the dead and reenacting the scene of the crime to afflict the homeowner and subsequent generations who live in the home. Are these therefore wandering demons with no permission to repossess from You, so they are stuck in certain areas of some of these homes?"

Jesus: "Well, you are somewhat correct. Remember that the demons who were driven out of the men had no place to go. As a result of this, they asked to go into the pigs instead."

Me: "Okay, so, where did they go when the pigs drowned in the sea? Did they go into some sharks? Whales? Fish?"

Jesus: "A mystery for now, Erin. Remember though that your prayers route demons to go here or there. This is a gift. Now, about your stepdad being in your dream. He committed suicide even though I had a plan for him. His demons then no longer had a host after he committed suicide."

Me: "Our home was haunted! It wasn't our imagination after all. I knew it, Lord!"

Jesus: "Erin, if he had not taken his own life, he had planned to kill all of you. However, this was not My plan. His demons were then set free from your home when your mother took his ashes to the sea a year after his death. Your home was then no longer afflicted. I then moved all of you. However, a generational curse had fallen on your youngest brother."

Me: "Oh Lord, please remove this in Your Name, in Jesus' Mighty Name!"

Jesus: "I will and I will do a great work when doing so. Now, the dream was that this spirit had no host to enter. The demon was unable to find a place in any of you."

Me: "That was such an odd dream."

Jesus: "While you went back to save him, he was not there. All who you could save from the fire decided to either stay until they burned even with evidence to that end or who were taken from there before it. In the dream, there were burning columns of black smoke. It had a stench of sin and was a signpost warning. There were three pillars of fire and smoke at night. Even so, they still did not turn to be saved."

Me: "That was such a sad dream."

Jesus: "It was actually a good dream and a warning to the lost. The sons of perdition are planning great evil against the people of the nations. Still, I tell you the truth... those who remain will bow down before Me and confess. Your ex-mother-in-law will have a changed heart. She will feel guilty for all she said and did to hurt you. This is good. Your son will save the least of these and care for them. They will avoid the fire."

Me: "Oh, was this represented by the birds he was caring for in this dream?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, I have blessings for each of you. Do not worry. Now enjoy the day. I am with you."

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for bringing my younger son home safely. Bless You, Father, in all things. I am thankful for all You have done in my life. I realize that I have been a difficult child at times... well, a lot of the time. I love You. No matter what You do with me, no matter my finishing length of Your race and no matter Your path for me, I will praise You in all things.

I know who I am and I am small. My life is a tiny pearl of a drop in a massive vast ocean made by Your Words. You spoke this into being. You are my Father who shaped my life and I pray that I remain useful for Your purposes. This brings me to my surgery. My surgery, a Nephrectomy (nephro = kidney, ectomy = removal), is scheduled for Thursday, March 7, 2024.

Prior to this, I have a procedure called a cystoscopy. This is so the doctor can detect bladder cancer. It is basically to see if the cancer has spread. Based on the size and composition of the mass, the odds are against me. Oh Father, I still cling to the visions and dreams You gave to me many years ago. I cling to these in the hopes that my healing miracles are coming.

Each day now seems to be in slow motion. The doctors have prepared me for what I will not be able to do after this for about a couple of months, with lifting being the main activity to avoid. I will work to have the house cleaned and organized beforehand so that I can rest and recover. However, I am still praying for a healing miracle to make it so that I do not need the surgery. I want this cancer to simply vanish, never to return.

While I had several dreams last night, this is the only one that I could recall...

Sub-dream 1 "The Five Demons that Harass" begins...

I saw a certain man who had lived a simple life. He went to church every now and then. He was in his 20s. He worked two jobs: one at a hardware store and the other cutting firewood for side money. While he had friends, he was lonely. While he was unaware of this, he lived with some demons.

His parents had been killed in an auto accident by a drunk driver when he was around 12 years old. The man who did this to them was set free with parole. However, true recompense or justice was never served. I saw into the spirit realm around him. I could see the five demons that lived with him harassing him day and night...

- One wanted him to drink to feel better.
- One wanted him to drive after drinking.
- One called for him to just end his life.
- The other two mimicked his parents and called out to him for justice and to avenge their deaths.

Every now and then, the last two demons would manifest by copying his deceased parent's voices in another room or they would leave something where he knew he hadn't set it out. The young man didn't know what to do because people would think he was crazy if he talked about it.

While I watched these demons constantly torment this young man, I did not fully understand why. Each day, he woke up with the same routine. The alarm would go off and he would rise. This one morning, he sat up in bed and said his thoughts out loud...

Young man: "Lord, no one cares if I live or die. I am lonely and tormented day and night. I am mad at You. You left me. I live with ghosts in my head. Help me."

I then saw into the spirit realm that these demons were dancing with glee until he asked for the Lord's help. The attacks then became worse. The young man phoned in sick to work. He had planned to drop off a cord of wood to a family in need down the road. He decided to phone them and say he would be unable to make it today. He then thought about ending his life.

Young man: "God, do You even hear me?"

Just then, a flash of light flooded the room. I saw Jesus reach out and hug the young man. I then saw the Lord command the demons to flee this young man. Although they protested, Jesus said, 'Off of this property and off of all the works of this man's life!' They screeched as they fled.

I could not see where they went to, but I knew they were 100% under God's Authority. While I then saw Jesus speaking to the young man, I could not hear what was being said. I then saw something like chains, but spiritual chains. These chains that had shackled the young man simply faded away completely. He was now healed. Our front door then shut suddenly and woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Father, this was interesting. Where did these demons go? If You routed them, then I am sure they had no choice but to go."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. You are also discouraged and tired. Do not allow the enemy a foothold."

Me: "Lord, how many of these demons are around us and how do we deal with them. These are things that dwell in a realm we cannot see. We are veiled."

Jesus: "As I am God, I do not answer to demons. I have all authority over them and over the realms of the seen and unseen. In the same way, I am also over all things in Heaven, the heavens, the Earth and even below. This is because My Father in Heaven has given Me all authority. This means that you, as a child of God, must come to Me to seek Me with your whole heart.

"Erin, I hear you. I assign angels concerning you in all you do. Nothing... neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor even past, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature... shall be able to separate you from Me, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "There is an order to all things by My Authority. Even now, when you see disorder and lawlessness, injustice and evil of every kind, this too is by My Authority to allow such things. However, those who cannot see in the unseen realm know that a time comes very soon when My patience comes to a close concerning them and the Courts upon Heaven and the Earth will be open day and night and justice will be fair and swift.

"Now, let Me review something... and even remember by My Words when I appeared in the flesh... I did not come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. So then, whoever shall break the least of these commandments and teach others to do the same will be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven. However, whoever shall keep the Laws and Commandments and teaches these, he will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. Erin, what am I saying here?"

Me: "Are we to go back to Leviticus?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, among other Words of old. This is because I am the Word. All that was old can still be made new and can be applied to your daily lives. Now, there are important instructions concerning bridges to the unseen realm."

I went to Leviticus 19:26. You must not eat something with the blood in it. You must not try to tell the future by signs or black magic. 19:31... Do not go to mediums or fortunetellers for advice or you will become unclean. Then there are multiple verses about touching a dead body and unclean spirits.

Jesus: "Erin, you are wise to obey these Laws."

Me: "Lord, my grandma and I were very close. She taught me about cleaning, organizing and personal grooming. She worked her fingers to the bone in all that she did. She was obsessive and worried. She never seemed to have peace. Her funeral was an open casket. She died shortly after my stepdad did. I remember touching her dead body and crying. I had nightmares after this for many years. Did I take her demons? Were they transferred?"

Jesus: "You don't have a possessed body. However, yes, you became a host for a few back then because you were open as the eldest grandchild. There is a period of time when the demons of one host no longer can shift to another. Again, this is a Law that is wise to study. When you have questions about My Word and relevance, you only have to go to the root to discover why this was written to begin with. This is why Enoch's writing was also of note.

"As the angels who fell had fear of God, so they sought out Enoch as a type of medium to intercede for them. This is forbidden as angels are an order of God's Creation to police the unseen and the seen realms. They are appointed for the assignments of God and are not subject to man nor are they to converse with man other than to do the Will of God who sent and appointed them, understand?

"Then these angels acted as disembodied spirits and were unable to return to Heaven. They had fallen. When they did not like their position, they thought that the women of the Earth were pleasing. They then took them for themselves. Even so, they still thought they could return if they could be heard by God.

“They saw that Enoch was with God and decided he could plead their case. However, this was a matter that changed the course of things since they had now broke the final covenant for angels and their orders.”

Me: “So, bottom line... don’t touch the dead, don’t converse with the dead or pray or declare to the dead. These are a different order now than the living, right?”

Jesus: “Well, here is the bottom line... those who have died are elsewhere... I have them where they will be. They are no longer amongst the living. What remains is an unclean spirit disembodied or unassigned... essentially, he is unemployed and needs a new job.”

Me: “Oh, that’s easy to remember!”

Jesus: “This is why you will often hear that places of the dead are haunted, places like cemeteries or funeral parlors.”

Me: “What about insane asylums?”

Jesus: “While this is a whole different discussion, yes, these too are filled with tormented spirits. Let’s return to this another day. Now, mediums... people flock to them because they claim to hear from the dead and they then become a verbal communique for dead people.

“However, let me be very clear here... the demons impersonate loved ones, but are never the loved ones. These demons are experts at mimicking tragic events. They even use mediums to speak in the voice of the dead with 20% accuracy.”

Me: “Only 20%?”

Jesus: “The unseen realm is under My order and, by My order, their words are confusing. However, people who are willing participants in seances and meetings of the dead are easily led astray and so too their pocketbooks. This with just 20% accuracy.

“However, the next trend planned by the unseen realm is more accurate. This is allowed by Me. Many who claim they are Mine and many who are looking for answered prayers or miracles will also soon go to this master of illusion.”

Me: “Are You speaking about Artificial Intelligence?”

Jesus: “Yes. So many will participate willingly or even unaware. Now, be careful as these are perilous times.”

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for all of this."

Jesus: "Just ask. I am here. Also, for those who have participated in these practices, these are an abomination to Me as to Me there are no strangers, no outcasts, nothing lost, no orphans, no widows, understand? I am God and I know where the heart of each man is. I know when he comes, when he goes and who he worships."

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you. Your heart is on Me."

Dream over.

776 – Even More Lessons on the Unseen Realm

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another blessing of a day! It is beautifully sunny, but extremely cold out. My days are filled now with phone calls and tasks to finalize. It has been exhausting and I mean really exhausting. I have had no quiet time just to worship and pray. I have been blessed to have dreams every night that usually take a couple of hours to write down as You call me back to a vision. It takes even longer with interruptions.

Oh Father, please grant me strength. I don't want this next procedure nor the one after. I don't want chemo. I like my long, full, curly hair. It makes me smile and makes me feel like a kid again. It is the fun thing that You have blessed me with that requires next to zero maintenance. I guess having no hair at all would be very low maintenance too, but I don't want to find out.

With my mom, when her hair came back in after chemo, it was changed. It was never the same again. It did not grow the same. Even so, I know that I am not my hair. My hair does not define me. I have very little personally about my physical appearance that I am prideful about. However, I still like this body You gave me, Father. Forgive me for my flippant digs at certain parts of my being. While I wish my appearance was different in certain facets, forgive me for cursing myself.

Father, today was the first day in a very long time, maybe ever, that I went to my knees concerning myself. I did this to make a petition solely from me to You. I prayed for a miracle for myself. I had been on my knees many times before, sometimes for what seemed like hours, praying for my children, my family and/or my friends. However, I never really went to my knees specifically for me.

I think I always felt guilty praying for myself. I rant about things and write in these pages about stuff daily that I am going through. I pray for the pain from my neck to go away so that I can cook dinner or go run errands. I pray for a great parking spot at the market. My prayers here are pretty basic, such as, 'Lord, get me through the day so I can do this or that' or 'please help me with this or that' or 'we need a miracle for this or that'.

Well, I am not talking about this. I am instead engaging in a 'TED Talk' prayer with You, Father, about my situation here. This is about me. I am putting it all out there. I recited all the ways in which I go a different direction from what You have reminded me of. Things like not shaving off any hours from My Shabbat. This could mean me not resting or making lists of things I need to do for when that clock hand chimes 6:00pm and Shabbat is over.

It is like missing the last 15 minutes of a class lecture because you are so focused on the clock and what you need to do when you are out of there. God, I am sorry that I do this at times! I am so sorry! Thank You for giving me that excruciating pancreatic pain because, without it, the doctors would not have found this cancer. While You could have just healed it or never allowed it to begin with, it is Your Divine Will to allow all of this for Your Glory.

I had another dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Some Chimps Ruin a Cake Party" begins...

I was invited to a 'Monkey Cake Party'. The invitation told me to wear clothes that can get dirty. However, it said to not be late because the doors will close when the cooking begins. This was so weird. I then went to what looked like a warehouse district with brick buildings in a city that I did not recognize. I soon arrived at the party.

When I entered, everyone was preparing to bake cakes in a massive commercial kitchen. This was an island table made of stainless-steel. There were already baked cakes waiting for frosting. It was hectic. There were at least thirty attendees and some camera crews. As I put on my apron, I was approached by the party's hostess.

Hostess: "Hi, Erin. I am so glad you could come."

I was in shock as she did not look as I had expected. Instead, she looked like a mirror image of Betty White.

Me: "Are you...?"

Hostess: "I already know what you are about to say, it doesn't matter. As for today, I am Betty Crocker. Go on! Hurry! The monkey handlers will be unleashing the monkeys in an hour."

I walked over to the baking area and was instructed by the other guests to begin frosting the cakes. The cakes were beautiful and had pretty colors and decorations of flowers. Each cake also had a little monkey topper. There were twelve cakes in all, with four monkeys covering their eyes, four covering their ears and four covering their mouths.

Me: Laughing. "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil. That is so odd."

I then looked back over at the hostess. I noticed a young woman becoming aggressive with 'Betty' in an inappropriate way. Some guests removed the young woman off to the side. The bell then rang...

Betty: "It is time for the monkeys!"

There were twelve beautiful cakes now lined up on the stainless-steel island. A woman then came out with two chimpanzees. Another woman then brought out their baby in a party cap. The chimp parents were clapping as everything was going well. Then the other handlers brought in several varieties of primates. However, these unruly primates ended up ruining the party. The little baby was now crying as these others were destroying the cakes.

When the handlers tried to stop these primates, they became violent. They then turned on their handlers and the guests. There was screaming and people were chased and hit with cake and other projectiles. It was funny at first, then shocking and then terrifying to be a part of. I looked and saw the camera crew trying to film at first, but then having to turn to leave to assist Betty.

Betty was once again being harassed by the lesbian woman. I went over and scared the woman away. I then assisted Betty out of the building. I looked back and sharp objects had been flying. Blood was now everywhere. I awoke when a primate jumped on my back and I was suddenly jerked. It was scary.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, I must have eaten something funny before bed. I went back to sleep and had another dream...

Sub-dream 2 "An Abomination at a Party" begins...

I was attending a celebrity party. At this party, they were sacrificing a young actress at an altar. They had cups at the base to collect the blood so they could drink it for their youth, beauty and strength. It was so disgusting that it is hard to even write about it.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: "Father, could You please send me dreams of Heaven instead? This was awful!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. First of all, I have received your prayer. Do not worry. Your miracles are coming."

Me: "I was hoping before the surgery, Lord, not after. I just received a call. My doctor moved up my appointment for a referral for the cancer screen of my bladder tomorrow. They are moving so quickly and I am in shock. Even though I think this is a miracle, I am scared. In the past, my medical treatment has been so slow. It was hurry and wait. As for now, they are going so fast. My sorrow is so great, Lord. I am working to stay busy so I don't think. Thinking is not my friend right now."

Jesus: "Then choose Me. Choose wisdom. Can you trust Me a bit longer?"

Me: I was both crying and laughing. "Yes, but define 'a bit'."

Jesus: Ignoring my query. "You manage to keep upbeat."

Me: "I am trying."

Jesus: "I know. Erin, I promise to carry you. Oh, and by the way, you had a God talk, not a TED talk. I was there. Now, I realize these words from Me haven't been easy."

Me: "These are good. I always have questions about the unseen realm."

Jesus: "You have learned about covenants and the importance of keeping your word. I have also spoken to you about the importance of letting your words be few. Do not swear by something or use a declaration as a vow. Also, let your 'no' be 'no' and your 'yes' be 'yes'."

Me: "The big word I would use that activated my testing was the word 'never'. Never say never. I have nightmares about this. I used to say, 'I am never late.' Well, wouldn't you know it, something would cause me to be late that very day. The worst was declaring I never lie. A situation would then happen and I turned into a liar to appease a client. Horrible stuff. I only started seeing the pattern after a few years of this. It was You, Lord. You are brilliant and I am thankful You convicted me."

Jesus: "This is how demons are routed to you. Words are powerful. Words activate in the seen and the unseen realms."

Me: "Show me how to route angels instead."

Jesus: "I route them for you. Your prayers activate events you cannot see. I order angels concerning you in all matters, especially now. This is because you have reached a low point in your journey."

Me: "Yes, it has been a very difficult last several months. Lord, I can't help but do my own personal inventory. I thank You for the trip to Bend OR. This trip was so relaxing. We then came back home to a bunch of changes. There was heartbreak and all went so quickly. We have now been in turbulence for so long. Will it let up or is it becoming worse, Lord? If You could just..."

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. I have a Great Plan."

Me: "I will stop asking, Lord. I am sorry."

Jesus: "It is okay to ask. Erin, never stop asking Me."

Me: "Never? Okay."

Jesus: "Now, about your first dream. It was a party that seemed fun. However, there were rowdy guests that turned on their trainers, the guests and destroyed all the good that was done. You are witnessing odd behaviors now in people. They refuse to use their common sense. They prefer to remain blind, deaf or speechless. They seem to be in shock over the state of things around them. They are numb to the hidden dangers surrounding them."

Me: "I have been like this. I am refusing to comprehend what is happening. I am mourning what once was just a few short months ago even."

Jesus: "This dream signified a different scenario. The cost to put together such an event, as well as a media crew for public display, shows that this is a wealthy group. They baked elaborate cakes for show. They then brought in monkeys to act like humans and eat their cake, to be a part of a celebration they weren't accustomed to and to then expect great results.

"The primates, as you reference them, weren't prepared for the show, so they became violent. They instead desired to hurt the guests and even draw their blood. It was chaos. However, It is a preparation dream for what is coming. There are foreigners who can't interact with society because they were trained for a different purpose. They are an actual army. They were trained to destroy the way of life you have come to know.

"In the midst of this scene, a young woman was aggressively pursuing the elderly hostess. It was confusing because this is the type of lawlessness that occurs when void of God. Demons are active in all of these situations.

There is a disregard for everyone. Nothing is off limits for them. There is no law that will stand because no one does anything to stop this."

Me: "It is horrible, Lord. I thought it was just a crazy dream."

Jesus: "Well, it isn't at all."

Me: "This must have been in California, maybe near Hollywood."

Jesus: "It doesn't matter as this type of activity is now widespread and worldwide."

Me: "Oh Lord, please wake people up."

Jesus: "Oh, I will... do not worry. Now, have you continued to study the Laws?"

Me: "Yes. In Deuteronomy 22:5, women should not dress as men and men should not dress as women."

Jesus: "The world has now fallen into great sin. Things that were forbidden are now common. Why? This is because all that is Godly has been removed. It is much worse than you can even see or know of."

Me: "It makes my stomach sick. Very sick."

Jesus: "Lawlessness doesn't just apply to law and order, it also applies to God's Law and what is written in My Word. Sin is now on full display. Now, the second dream you had... this was about blood and drinking blood. This is forbidden as it was I who shed My blood as atonement for the sins of man. I was the scapegoat to do away with the Temple sacrifice. My covenant was a new one... a heart covenant. The old covenant was written on stone tablets.

"However, the new covenant is written on the tablets of the heart. My Laws are written on your heart. I instruct you because My Spirit is in you to guide your way. As for those who choose to drink blood, they are making a binding covenant with the very act of the gods they are serving. This is a serious thing. Therefore you, being a child of God, should not drink human blood, animal blood or blood of a bird of any kind. This activates troubles and removes the favor of God."

Me: "This is awful, Lord. When I was a young child, I used to do silly blood covenants with my friends if we both happened to have cuts on our hands. At the time I was clueless about any of this. It seems even funnier to me now because I can see that these friendships never did last. However, I know that what You are talking about here is far more serious."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. This practice originated from the fallen... the demons. There would be no need for any of these Laws unless people had been practicing these. My blood is to be sufficient."

Me: "So, vampires..."

Jesus: "Wicked and evil. This is vile, truly vile. Do not be entertained by these practices. This is demonic."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "I am revealing all the orders of the unseen realm that have come to man in various forms. All are sins and these multiply, so much so as to defile all of the land even."

Me: "Oh, this is why the Earth has to be burned. This is because all is defiled and unclean."

Jesus: "Do not worry about these things. Keep your head towards Heavenly promises and do not worry. I am here with you. Now, I sent you a sign today."

Me: "Oh, yes... the fighter jet with the streams going straight up to Heaven. It was so much fun to see this."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, you are a fighter. Do not give up on all that I have promised you. I love you!"

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! It is early. I went to my knees this morning. I need a miracle. You know what is needed. Oh Father, please help me. I love You. There is too much to do here. Please have mercy on me. Please keep my feet on Your upright path. Please make my steps sure and my way straight. More than this though, be with me. Father, please hold my hand.

We are foreigners and aliens here. I am a citizen of Heaven who lives here on Earth at Your service in these times. Each one of us has a unique assignment or blueprint on how this will come to be, which only you know. Various people are placed here to travel this journey with us. If this were theater, then, ideally, we would be heroes or heroines who serve the Master Superhero... YOU!

In this scenario, we are set up with friends who come and go in waves. There are constant players along with us who are our family members and the main support actors in each scene. Then there are the people who come and aid us during the play sent by either our Master Superhero, You, or the master supervillain, Satan. These people could be bankers, pastors, doctors, teachers, accountants and so on.

These people have important roles to our journey and shape each scene of the play. Heros and villains have a constant push and pull relationship. The MercyMe song titled 'Flawless' suddenly came to mind...

"Then like a hero who takes the stage when we're on the edge of our seats saying it's too late."

However, I also love these next few lines...

"Well let me introduce you to amazing grace. No matter the bumps. No matter the bruises. No matter the scars. Still the truth is... the cross has made... the cross has made you flawless. No matter the hurt or how deep the wound is, no matter the pain, still the truth is, the Cross has made, the Cross has made you flawless."

I am so grateful for God's Grace and His amazing unconditional love for us. I am a player in the Lord's Play and I am thankful. It is like being picked by a captain at a kickball game at recess or selected from a large pool of people for a purpose. It is exciting, shocking and then a bit of panic sets in when you wonder if your abilities as the one chosen will match the expectations of the one who chose you.

The "what ifs" then set in. Hopefully the game begins before the insecurities play out. No matter what, Father, I will love You. There are no conditions...

- I loved You when I had nothing.
- I loved You in poverty.
- I loved You in wealth.
- I loved You when my talents were taken from me.
- I loved You when my training as an artist was no longer applicable.
- I loved You when my hopes and dreams as a professional athlete were taken, even where I can't just enjoy this recreationally.
- I loved You when I discovered horrible things had happened to my children at the hands of someone I trusted.
- I loved You when I was falsely accused... even when my mental abilities to parent were questioned before a judge & courtroom.
- I loved You when we lost all that I had spent my time working for.
- I loved You when I was falsely accused of bad work.
- I loved You when I was passed over for promotions.
- I loved You when others took awards for all the work I had done and I received no credit.
- I loved You when I received bad news.
- I loved You when my prayers didn't line up with your will.
- I loved You when I felt unloved.

I still loved You. You have a better way. I loved You through all of this and I will not stop. Since I won't stop loving You, maybe You can call off the pesky demons on this one. You love me unconditionally. I love You unconditionally. Can You grant my request, Father? Would You consider healing me?

I had a very elaborate dream last night. When I woke up, it was 6:00am and I chased the dream. I lost it except for a few scenes. This too is Your Will, Father, so I will take what remnant You left with me...

Sub-dream 1 "A Mad Young Man in an Amazing Church" begins...

I was with my daughter in a very large church even though no church like this even exists in the Northeast. We were in the Worship Center Wing. There was a recording studio and a choir room. There were also several rehearsal rooms that looked like instrument classrooms in a music college. I could tell that this was a worship-centered church with a very large budget.

My daughter: "Mom, there is an elite group of artists and musicians nearest to God's Altar. It is a special Army of God who is led by the angels of God."

It was truly amazing. As we walked through the area, the smell was a smell that I can only define with the label of 'brand new'!

Me: "So, this is where miracles are orchestrated."

My daughter: "The miracles are conducted by God. All of us are His instruments. The healing comes in worship and praise. It is okay to dance and sing now!"

Just then, a young man who is a worship leader we know was in one of the recital rooms. He was wearing a woven knit crocheted sweater of many colors with holes in it. He was complaining and knocking over music stands with sheet music. He was cursing God's Worship Center.

Young man: "This is stupid. They think they are so great. I am so much better. I do it all. So stupid."

Me: "Is that 'young man's name'?"

My daughter: "Yes. I guess he wasn't selected. Now we know why."

Me: "His thoughts are way out there. He can't keep them inside."

My daughter: "I am not surprised. He is jealous and prideful. You can now add angry."

He kicked a French Horn and this woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Me: "Father, How many Christians are under demonic strongholds and have selfish ambitions?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. There is a mystery soon to be revealed as God's Army is revealed. As there are orders and ranks in the demonic realm, so too are there greater ranks in the Armies of God. What you saw is the Worship Center in My Holy Temple soon to be."

Me: "Does this include a recording studio?"

Jesus: "Why not? My music will go with My people and it will be here as it is in Heaven."

Me: "This is wonderful, Lord! I am excited!"

Jesus: "I have wonderful plans prepared for those who love Me and even for those who didn't know they could love Me.

"Now, there will be many who believe themselves deserving of these works. However, they never really sought Me. Although Christian, they gave themselves over to the gods of this world. These gods drew their attention away from Me and lured them to self-love and self-edification and to the trappings of darkness that has fallen upon My churches.

"Now, when I am working through a pastor with My Message, there is no reason to edit God from the pulpit. There is no shame in the truth. There is no need for a point and click sermon online to purchase. This is cheating."

Me: "Point and click sermons?" I then looked this up. "Oh, my goodness... whoa... shocking... Oh Lord in Heaven! How would anyone even know?"

Jesus: "I can still work with a message even though it is cheating."

Me: "So, this is cheating?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. They are cheating themselves out of a close relationship with Me. If I can write a Word through a man in hour, just think what I could do with a five-day work week. So then, are they surprised when they are not called?"

"I would much rather have a broken pastor come before Me in great humility and confess he is burned out and void of Me than one who rises to the pulpit and condemns the sins of those who sit in the pews. He is a good actor and even cries at will while he sells someone else's words from God. This pastor is on life support."

Me: "Oh Lord, there are so many churches like this now. It seems many messages are insincere."

Jesus: "Erin, you remember this in seminary. All the young pastors were more concerned with pop culture than 'boring old Me'."

Me: "This is true! The Matrix was all the discussion focus in theology. I wasn't a fan of the Matrix though. I did my presentation on 'Veggie Tales: Jonah Movie' instead. I then received one of the only A grades because I used Biblical characters and related it to believers today. In contrast to my A, I was scoffed at by the young pastors. That was in the spring of 2003."

Jesus: "Who is more relevant to God... Jonah or.. hmm, what was the other thing?" The Lord pretended to be absent-minded, which, of course, He is never. "Here today and relevant and gone tomorrow in the blink of an eye. These are the same ones who grasp onto pagan practices in culture to remain popular from the pulpit. Removing God is the trend these days."

Me: "This makes me sad."

Jesus: "A lamb should never have to question whether its shepherd will send it off into the wild to entertain wolves. It should never wonder if its shepherd would abandon it or worse, understand? This is why I hold those who preach My Words to a higher standard. I expect My Words to be Mine and the delivery of My Words to come from the heart of the deliverer, understand?"

"So, yes, there will be some angry lazy workers. Another order of demons was then routed to blind them and give them 'god over all' complexes. They build up their own pride and self-importance, their power and their trivial humor. Erin, it is difficult to see all that occurs in God's house at the hands of evil."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this. Please stop this as only You can."

Jesus: "Erin, in order for people to turn back to God, they must experience evil firsthand and then remember what it was like for them to be under My care as their Shepherd. Wolves can't shepherd sheep. Wolves run with their pack of wolves and eat sheep, tearing at their flesh. However, I promise you though... I will not 'observe' long before administering justice. Soon the wolves will devour their own flesh and drink their own blood."

Me: "Yuck! Oh Lord, You are so very strong with Your Words today."

Jesus: "I am the same God over all things. I tell you the truth here... pray for that young man."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. We will."

Jesus: "Now, I have you. You are in My capable arms. You are loved."

Dream over.

778 – Only God Can Stop The End-Time ‘Migration’

Received on Saturday, February 3, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day!

I had a disturbing dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 “Carving up a Dead Eagle Carcass” begins...

In my dream, I was asleep in my bed when an angel of the Lord that I recognized was over me.

Angel: “Arise, Erin. I have been sent to show you the plans of the evil leaders so you can pray.”

He reached for my hand. I was now in a conference room observing men. There were no women. They had just finished an exotic meal consisting of roasted eagle on a silver platter. There was one chief leader who was remote and spoke from a black screen monitor. The room was extremely high tech and the furnishings were custom. It was unlike anything that I had ever seen.

A server came to begin the clearing of the plates. A crew of personal servers then came into the room. They were all men. They wore black suits, white gloves and a white linen tea towel draped across their forearms. These were formally trained butlers. The main butler addressed the darkened screen...

Main butler: “Shall I commence, sir?”

Head leader: “Yes. And have this sent to me after the preparations.”

Main butler: “Of course, sir.”

He then proceeded to take a large heavy cleaver out from under his towel. The cleaver was so heavy and sharp that it was unlike anything I had ever seen. It had a Damascus design. He proceeded to take this cleaver and sever off the head of the bald eagle carcass. It was so fresh that the head looked alive. The head was not cooked or harmed, only the body was cooked.

The butler placed the head of the very large eagle on a repousse silver platter. It was small and ornate. I could not tell the pattern. Each butler then took the plates from each of the attendees in precise order and timing. It looked perfectly choreographed and executed. It was so perfect that one would need to have a flaw specifically pointed out to notice it. To me, there were no flaws.

I then noticed that two of the walls of this room were all glass windows from floor to ceiling. However, I couldn't tell where they were. I then saw each of the attendees had some type of virtual screen agenda that was from the conference table. The agenda was lengthy. The table leader began the meeting...

Table leader: "Europe is close to collapse. Canada is simple and on track to fall shortly. Mexico has been easy. The Crown Jewel is being consumed as we speak."

Attendee: "How quickly can we expect the USA to fall?"

Table leader: Addressing the dark screen. "Sir, what should we expect?"

Head leader: "While there have been minor issues, timing has been critical. Rome did not fall in a day. Geographically, the USA has not been easy. I have almost all of my army prepared." Now addressing a different man. "What are the logistics?"

Man 1: "As you know, we have been able to infiltrate every aspect of concern and have armies unlike any war ever fought. While we had hoped the pandemic would have led to a more widespread civil war, this didn't happen as quickly. We are now nearing our three-year marker to finish our work.

"We have been able to manipulate information and channel this for what the reporters believe to be the greater good and that is to defeat Trump. We have had to silence any dissent and remove information that is not in sync. Now, as you know, we had hoped that civil war would have broken out and been more attention grabbing.

"Because this did not occur as we had hoped, we increased our strikes against the majority of the population to remove their power and raise up the minority groups. This still hasn't worked as quickly as we had hoped.

"To make matters worse, many minority groups have now become sympathetic to the majority and have joined their party. As a result, we have increased the invasions to the borders from crime ridden countries and increased the recruitment incentives.”

Head leader: “Where are we with the UN?”

Man 2: “We have incentivized recruitment from Africa, South America and the Middle East. As you know, the (black dragon) Holy Book requires that mass migration will result in their promised land. All of the lands are for the followers of the prophet. All Christians must be removed and their places of worship destroyed. To them, Christians are easily removed. Once this army is called into action, we will take the nation. Once it starts, this should be easy.”

Man 3: “Using the plausible deniability and gaslighting techniques, we have been able to change and confuse the narrative. We have armies of influencers across all platforms. We are powerful. Look how easy it was to manipulate the Israel situation. We have Palestinian sympathizers everywhere similar to the antifa support. We have weaponized legal systems and the population is becoming scared. Fear is setting in. It won’t be long. Any narrative can be changed. We can blackout any uprisings or dissent. We are even calling in our specialists to ‘X-Out’ issues.”

They all laughed together. The angel then reached for my hand again and we were instantly over several USA cities. They were now unrecognizable.

Me: “Oh my, this is horrifying.”

The angel then brought me home.

Angel: “Erin, what appears to be incompetence is actually being done with great precision. This is coercive engineered migration. It is an act of war. You are in a war. These people are voluntarily leaving their countries to invade and coerce the people of God and the inhabitants of the land. They are forcing and overrunning the governments to replace them. If it isn’t seen, you cannot know. Their goal is to force submission.”

Me: “What about my dream of the mall in the Tri-Cities WA and the horrible conditions that are coming?”

Angel: “These things are the beginning of woes. Now, it is not too late for people to turn back to God. The people must turn back to God as He is the only way. The plans of the wicked are increasing faster than they can be discovered. The meeting of men that you saw showed you what happened a while ago. This is so you would not be surprised when these things come to pass.”

Me: "So, our vehicle was allowed to be stolen for God's purposes of revelation?"

Angel: "Well, yes, but those with eyes to see can see. Those with ears to hear can hear. Those with lips to speak are silenced. The car was taken because this was part of a greater plan at play by the enemy. You need to understand that a blueprint was engineered and there is a bigger project.

"However, attention is drawn instead to a bad nail in one corner of a small room so that no one notices what is being built here. There is a war. The war is against the children of God by the sons of perdition and the armies of perdition. Their methods are evil and vile, so vile that asking for mercy triggers them to do even worse things."

Me: "Can't the Lord just stop this? What about..."

Angel: "I am only here to warn you of the evil planned against the people of the land and the children of God. However, God has a greater plan to save and redeem."

I heard a bell and he was gone. I sat up in bed awhile disturbed about all that the angel had just shown me.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I thought about a part of this dream that I was not to write down and I was so sad. If they can control the food, the power grid, the water and the medicine, there will then be mass casualties. If they are allowing the auto thefts and the car jackings, they then stop transportation. They want to force us into homes in the inner cities.

Years ago, I saw abandoned hospitals with patients left there to die. They had no care and no medicine and then no food and no water. They cut their power, water and heat off. Our family had personally experienced a very mild version of this in December 2023 when our power went out for days. It was so stressful.

I then fell asleep and had another dream...

Sub-dream 2 "A Giant Global Earthquake" begins...

I could see from a bird's eye view all across the globe. I then heard several shouts of angels and the sound of a trumpet, or horn, of an epic size. Just then, the entire globe shook. Tall buildings fell. Landmarks cracked. The ground split. Ancient buildings fell into the sea.

It lasted eight minutes. Wave after wave. Not one area was left unshaken. Whole mountains were leveled. I heard another trumpet blast and then it stopped. I heard a very loud voice shouting...

“Three hours until darkness falls!”

I could hear alarms. There were fires all over the place. People looked like zombies or in a catatonic shocked state. I woke up suddenly when I saw a beautiful Mediterranean city in white stucco completely fall into the sea. It happened so fast.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: “Oh Father, this was so sad.”

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: “Erin, I am here and I am with you. The rise in evil has increased quickly by the order of a few wicked leaders against their own people. In the first dream, you can see they have great influence and money. When caught individually, they act indignant and offended with false outrage and humility. This is theater.

“Erin, their goal is to kill the population by using great suffering, shame and humiliation. While removing God was their first tactic, I can’t be removed by man or anything else. I am God. This is an inconvenient problem for the evil leaders, especially when I well up in My people and rise.

“Now, you were sent an angel to show you the plans of the wicked. However, there is more. All of the leaders in most of the countries of the world were placed in their positions against the will of the people in order to change the order of things and to remove My Laws, and My Word. They want to destroy the citizens by enslavement.

“However, I am in control over all things and it is I who rules, not them. Even so, this is a pivotal year for their great agenda. These are their goals..

- They will continue to allow the ‘Great Migration’ to increase foreign influence and decrease those who love their lands.
- They must then remove the threat of the people voting to throw out the government as it is.
- They have various plans in place to remove the threat and intimidate the people.
- They have another illness plague sent to kill and even a way to threaten citizens with this.
- If they can overwhelm and frighten the people by coercion, they will.

"Erin, these are their plans. However, you are to remember this... God is the Great Equalizer and it is I who controls all things."

Me: "Lord, please don't allow all of this. It is painful to be here right now. My children and all the young adults, teens and children are being robbed of the life we had when we were young and worshipped and honored You. We played and didn't worry about all the threats there are today."

Jesus: "Each generation has struggles. However, you are correct... the end of the age is different."

Me: "I am sad, Lord. While I know I should be excited, I am sad instead."

Jesus: "I have you, Erin. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, all has changed. How will we make it?"

Jesus: "You will make it because you are Mine. I have promised to never forsake you. I will never leave you. One other thing... the sons of perdition are an army unlike any other and are rising."

Me: "You told me not to worry. These are killers with no morals and no care."

Jesus: "I know who they are and where they end up. Very few are redeemed as their idea of Heaven involves anything but. They will have their fill of sin and evil."

Me: "They have no conscience. They are like sociopaths."

Jesus: "Well, they aren't social. Now, I have a plan in place and, in an instant, they will be removed."

Me: "Thank You, Lord! I love You!"

Jesus: "I love you!"

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! There is not a cloud in this beautiful blue sky today. I feel so in awe. I can even see the faded moon in the sky. I am grateful that You reminded me that a better view was right in front of me all along.

As background, I have a small devotional room with windows. Before the home was built next door to us, I looked over a beautiful field with trees. I loved it. However, when the two men moved in, I put in a workshop table and plants to obstruct the view of their home and property. I did this because they were not nice to me. Since they have now divorced and moved, I have been clearing things out and rearranging my space.

I am thinning out and organizing to keep my mind from becoming preoccupied with all of the events soon to come at me. Well, wouldn't You know it. You told me that You had a beautiful view for me all along. However, I was so fixated on blocking what I didn't like, I failed to see what was right there in front of me. This view was amplified by just changing the wall location of the chair.

The windows with the view I speak of have a mullion across it. I think it is actually two separate windows with a bunch of wood molding. Anyway, when I sat down for my first dream with my new view a few weeks ago, I could not believe it. All of that wood molding blocked the neighbor's home. This gives an appearance from my devotional chair that there is no house there. This blocking décor was there the entire time.

I could not see it until the Lord told me to see it. This is a treasure. Let me explain from an interior designer's perspective... if I had a client who wanted a chair the exact height so that the cushion, when you sat on it, factored in with the window molding, blocked the neighbor's home from their view... well, I could do it and over the years, I have had interesting requests similar to this...

However, I could not guarantee that I would not have to add fill to the cushion depending on the client's height from sitting eye level in this chair. It would be a potentially expensive struggle. Yet here I am with a chair I have had for nine years having no idea all along that this is precisely how God had designed it for me. I am grateful. Father, You think of everything and I am so thankful.

Now, about my younger son. I am still getting used to his new relationship with You. My heart is overwhelmed and so grateful to You, Father, for this gift I had prayed to see. Isaiah 54:13 comes to mind... '(Your sons and daughter) will be taught by the Lord and great will be your children's peace.'

Then there is Proverbs 22:6... 'Train (your sons and daughter) in the way (they) should go and when (they are) old, (they) will not depart from it.' Well, Lord, I have now witnessed one of the greatest miracles. My heart wells up with great joy. My younger son has now been shaped into an arrow for Your purposes. He fasts and prays to You and You answer him. He was lost, Father, but now he is found.

As for me, please keep me here to enjoy the fruits of answered prayers and my labored pleas. I am still in shock and awe at all You are doing with my son. Protect his faith, Father, and strengthen him every day. While my other children also have strong faith, life's daily blows seem to chip away at Your promises for them... or at least at their perception of this. Even so, our house stands with You, Father.

I had a fun dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "An Old Man & a 1970 Pontiac GTO" begins...

I was looking to purchase an old Pontiac. This was strange because that would not be my first choice for an old vehicle. In fact, I still have a fantasy vehicle in mind... a 1947ish Chevy truck in pearl white, but all computerized and rebuilt. I want this to be a brand new 'God-Edition' and super-fast. I still smile when I think of this.

Anyway, in this dream, I was with my younger son and daughter shopping for an old Pontiac. We went to a home that was very run down. An elderly man greeted us at the front door.

Man: "You the ones searchin' for a Pontiac?"

Me: "Yes, sir."

Man: "Okay then, follow me."

The elderly man reminded me of Dennis Quaid, except for his hands. His hands were all gnarled from years of work. We followed him out to a massive steel building. This building was being used as an industrial garage and had several old cars – maybe 20.

We saw him pull down a massive handle from the wall plate to turn on the lights. This switch is often referred to as a Frankenstein lever due to its large size and mechanical on-off lever (the Jurassic Park movie also had one in it -per my husband). When he pulled the lever, all of these mercury glass industrial lights then switched on all at once. If sold today, these glass fixtures alone would be worth a small fortune.

Man: "So, what year you lookin' fer? I have a 1969 beauty over here." It was black and dusty. "She's a beauty, eh?"

Me: "Wow, it is beautiful and in mint condition."

Man: "Unfortunately, her motor was stolen years ago. The new motor...been sittin' on blocks there... ready for her, but time's gotten away from me."

Me: "Ideally, if we could find one that runs that would be perfect."

Man: "Oh, you'll love this one." He walked over to a car covered in a canvas cloth. "How much ya got? You like blue?"

Me: "Yes." He took the cover off and dust went everywhere. "Oh wow, I love this one! This is it!"

Man: "This is a rare 1970 GTO original. It has a custom white leather interior, not vinyl. It is worth a pretty penny. It even has air conditioning."

Me: "Well, I am not sure that I could afford this one."

Man: "How much ya got?"

Me: "Not enough. This car is worth thousands and I don't have that."

Man: He became quite stern. "How much ya got? I'm not askin' again here."

Me: "I am embarrassed as I only have $4,000. I am aware that these cars are worth a lot of money and I..."

Man: "Shh. You got cash?"

Me: "Yes."

Man: "Well, I got no family left. My son overdosed on some drugs. Never had a drug in his life, not even an aspirin. A friend gave him a pain pill and he died. My daughter became sick after my wife passed and now she's gone too. They're all gone now. Sometimes I walk around my property and I still hear them like ghosts. I hear laughter." He started to choke up. "I worked hard all my whole life. I had plans. I saved for our big dream. But at the end of the day, none of that really matters if you got no one to share your stories or your day with. It can be awful quiet round here.”

My younger son: “Well, we will be your family now! Do you need some help around here?”

My daughter: “Yes. We can help. We can clean up and cook for you and have you over for meals. Maybe even for Christmas?”

Me: “Yes! You are invited!”

Man: “No one’s offered before. No one’s wanted anything to do with me before. Here, these are yours... please...” He handed me the keys to the GTO.

Me: “Oh no, I can’t accept this.”

Man: “Don’t insult me. It is mine to give and I’m giving it over to you. Title. Keys. All of it. Keep your $4,000 to use on other things.” We were all teary eyed at that point.

Me: “Have others answered your ‘Pontiacs for sale’ ad on social media? I am worried...”

Man: “Oh no, I don’t advertise. I don’t even have tech stuff. No computers.”

My daughter: “Wait though... we answered your ad on Facebook.” She then scrolled on her phone, but could no longer find the ad.

Man: “Yep, that doesn’t exist. I am not advertising. No one come here unless the Lord God sends ‘em. He sent y’all. he Lord sent ya’. As for this car, it is for you. Come to think about it, it always has been. It has been here waiting for this very day.”

I was now crying in the dream and even as I type. The old man then said my name even though I had not given it to him yet.

Man: “It’s okay, girl, He’s with you. Erin, He knows.”

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up suddenly. The dream was so real that I was stunned. I got up when I couldn’t fall back to sleep. Thank You for dreams, Father! I love You! I am thankful to have stories to share and people who will listen and read these dreams. Thank You, Father, for our Nest!

Father, I just discovered that one of my abusers I had continued to fear just died three days ago. I continued to fear him because I did not know if he would pop back into my life to terrorize me again. While not a logical fear, it was still a fear I had. As a teen, I was shaken to the core by him. Thank You, Father, for Your Shelter. He died on February 1, 2024 of cancer in Florida. One major giant is gone. I can breathe, Father.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. As a child, the enemy sent troubles, but My angels have always kept you. However, it didn't mean that troubles never came. Accidents, deaths and illness can surround a child. However, I sent angels concerning you to guard you for My purposes. While the enemy petitioned for your life many times in My Courts, his requests were denied."

Me: "Lord, all the monsters in my life have lived long lives here. According to the doctor, if I do nothing, I may have just two years left to live. I am sorry, Lord, but that is just not fair. If I didn't want to be here, I would then do nothing. However, I want to live. I long to see Your promises. As for this enemy that just died, it is just hard to forgive some things."

Jesus: "I protected you here and the enemy did not prevail concerning you. You must let go of this last thing here. Time to forgive and pray, Erin."

Me: "Okay, Lord. Please forgive those who have trespassed against us. In the end, something bad must have occurred to cause all of this."

Jesus: "I explained to you before about open doors. This particular man had many demons and great hate. Abusers want their victims to feel their pain experience and the same haunting thoughts. Erin, give Me your memories of this man, including what you saw and what you heard. I promise to take this away. This is now a closed chapter. His afflictions were not just to you, but to many others.

"Now, let Me be clear here, Erin... I did not tell you to get your house in order because you are soon to die here. I know what your doctors are saying. This is because this is truth to them based on other patients with your same presentation. However, you are to standby here."

Me: "Do You mean that I should do nothing?"

Jesus: "No, I didn't say this. Continue on your course as there is a reason. Do all you would normally do in these circumstances. Prepare and I will be God over you, these doctors and all of the diagnostics."

Me: "Okay. Thank You. I am not ready to die, Lord."

Jesus: "Then live. Continue on your course. We have much to do still and I am with you. I will send angels to guard you. I will send people to you to help you. I will not abandon you."

Me: "Oh Lord, please remember Hezekiah for my situation. You had sent the prophet Isaiah to tell Hezekiah that he would die and not recover, and to put his house in order. Hezekiah then turned his face to the wall and prayed to You... 'Remember, O Lord, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.' Hezekiah then wept bitterly even before Isaiah left the court.

"Your Voice then spoke to Isaiah... 'Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, this is what the Lord, the God of your Father, David, says... 'I have heard your prayers and seen your tears. I will heal you. On the third day from now, you will go up to the Temple of the Lord. I will add 15 years to your life.'" Oh Lord, please don't forget me!"

Jesus: "This was a good plea and I reversed My course for Hezekiah and administered healing. However, even more so than this, a miracle as a sign followed."

Me: "Oh Lord, please do this! How exciting! Look, I am not as righteous as Hezekiah, but I pray You remember me the same."

Jesus: "I have you. Remember that I am God and all the children of God are important to Me. You and I converse daily. We are close. Give Me all of your worries. I have you. You are loved."

Dream over.

780 – Give the Lord Space to Work Here

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I need Your help today, Father. When I lay down, I struggle to breathe. Panic then sets in. Inhalers aren't working. Please help me. Please forgive my fear as it stems from when my mom struggled with breathing and swallowing. Please don't allow this with me. You are my Best Friend, Lord. Please don't sit by and watch me suffer through this. I love You. I was fine a few days ago.

I had a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Renovating a Small Home" begins...

Several families were living in my tiny Oakland Bay Area home. I had to work around several people in order to paint the walls and remodel it for sale. It was impossible. Various owners over the years had differing textures of material & plaster on the wall. In order for everything to work, I needed to use primer paint first as a foundation throughout the house before adding my base coat.

With one room, I discovered that the primer I had just applied was buckling and peeling off. I had painted over something oily. Instead of using another coat of primer, I decided to remove whatever the underlying cause was, thereby exposing it. I then determined that I was on a time schedule since several of the families had children attending school. I knew that the children would be let out by 3:00pm and would be here by 3:30pm.

I then decided to use a very wide skimming blade to remove all the layers that were causing problems. When I moved the skimmer down the wall, all that caused the problem just fell off and left was the old plaster walls and even surfaces. I then went through the house and checked all the areas I had primed. These were perfect. As I was about to finish, I then realized that all of the families were now gone. They had completely disappeared.

These families were real obstructions that had made completing my work very difficult. Imagine painting a room or even trying to cook in a kitchen with multiple people blocking your every move. With all of the inhabitants of this house now gone, I was able to finish painting within an hour. It also helped that it was a very small home.

I then ripped up the carpet. When I did, it exposed the most beautiful wood underneath. It was amazing. I only had to buff it to furnish and stage it for the sale. Something amazing then happened. The moment I thought of a need for a desired piece, it instantly appeared in front of me. With this happening, I was able to finish the entire project by sundown. I completed a walk-through to check everything one last time.

Satisfied with my job, I then packed up my tools to go to my next home. However, when I sat in my car thinking on this some more, I realized that this place was the last place needing remodeling. All of the other places had no reason for me to fix them. I looked above me and there was the BART Train overhead near the old railroad tracks. It was so loud that it woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, am I white-washing events that occurred in that home when I was a kid? I believe I have faced all of these giants and taken these down years ago. Based on the families dwelling there, they were not welcome house guests. They were in my way instead. I have to believe these represent barriers or familial curses causing my current daily troubles. Could You go before me and expose these?

Father, I would really like to remove these barriers so that I am free to work. Maybe this childhood home represents what is happening inside my body. Maybe my body needs a fresh coat of paint and the removal of things that once worked and now needed to go. Maybe these are items like the carpet being removed to expose something wonderful underneath or other obstructions keeping me from freely operating in Your miracles.

Oh Father, You are so wise. You long for a close relationship with Your children. Please help me to see what is in my life that needs to go so that I can experience the fullness of free movement. I want to breathe fresh air. I want to finish this race healthy and strong, on Earth as I am in Heaven with You. If there is any more I must clear out, please show me right now and I will do it.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. It is wisdom to not dismiss something like this dream as being foolish. It is wisdom to press into God for the answers to these mysteries. In life, like this little home you grew up in, it is sometimes easier to cover over imperfections, ignoring things on the surface that requires attention. Before going to the final steps, the finishing touches, there are certain steps you need to perform...

- You need to remove uneven undulations on a surface.
- You need to sand areas that are stubborn.
- You need to make the area smooth, level and ready for what comes next.
- You need to prime it and then paint it.

"Once these steps are performed, you can then move to the final steps. In a similar fashion, with life, there are always obstructions to work around. A person can become so accustomed to obstructions that they simply adjust for these and accept their positions. However, this is foolish. You must recognize how these came to be in the first place and remove them. When you do, all will fall quickly into place."

Me: "Are You speaking of my cancer, Lord, or something that I have not dealt with from my childhood?"

Jesus: "Well, why does this need to be one over the other? Does a remodeler only focus on one small task or does he transform the entire space?"

Me: "Well, of course he transforms the entire space. Oh Lord, if there is anything else in me that needs changing, please reveal this to me. I want to let go. That place, that home, was the house of pain for me. I cannot think of any other place we lived in that hurt as much as this did. My heart grieves. Lord, please!"

Jesus: "It took a great tragedy to prompt leaving. Your mother was searching for a fresh start and safety. I called her out to do this. After your stepdad's suicide, you went on this long trip (lasting about three months). The long trip you took around the country was actually your mother searching for a new home. In the end, I led you to the north.

"Now, curses came upon you at your home before you moved. However, you have now taken each of these curses captive and broken them at My Altar, removing the stronghold over you. These familial / generational curses were struck down. However, as in a war or a final battle, there are still memories you have taken with you, as well as the scars of the battle."

Me: "Lord, if any of these disembodied spirits have followed me, please strike them down and send them back to the pit where they belong. I pray this in Your Name, in Jesus' Name. I repent, renounce and break them of their power over me and our house. Oh Lord, please bless us."

Jesus: "Erin, you are free. Your children are free. This is a good dream to prompt you to take inventory, to take account, of anything that you need to bring before Me. Bring this before Me and we will remove these. It takes you to bring it and Me to break it. This is good. Now, as for the other matter... your cancer... can you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Then let Me remodel you. I have you. I am in you. You have called upon Me to do a good work. Don't be like the type of client you complain about. When you are trying to complete your project, they would look over your shoulder and examine your every move, as well as the workers, and say things such as:

- Why did you do this?
- Why don't you do this?
- What are you doing next?
- Should you not be doing this next?
- Did you miss a spot here on purpose?
- You are not done for the day yet, are you?"

Me: I was laughing so hard now. "Lord, You are so wise. You are right. I will trust You with what comes."

Jesus: "Now, about your airways... this is environmental. You just need to make a small change in your room."

Me: "I just switched my pillow out. Is this the issue? I also have a room scent that could be an issue?"

Jesus: "The scent is the source, see?"

Me: "Thank You, Lord! I thought it was my cancer.."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, worry does not help you here. Worry only serves to make things worse. Give Me your worry and I will replace this with My peace. I love you!"

Me: "I love You too!"

Dream over.

Dear Father,

Thank You for this beautiful sunny day! Thank You for another day here. I want to really thank You for this today. While I have a little more energy this morning, the last few days have been difficult. I am physically so tired. It is not like me. I am very pale today. My daughter remarked that she had never seen my skin so void of color before. I have ruddy skin, reddish in tone, but I have always appeared tan.

I am not sure where my color went. I have always been able to 'Keep Calm and Carry On'. I have always played through. I have kept my eyes fixed on the ball... once with golf, now with Jesus! When I have fallen, I have always been able to jump to my feet and dust off the dirt. I was quick to 'shake it off'. When I woke up this morning, I felt so labored in my steps. I decided to go back to bed.

When I then drifted off to sleep, and in that brief moment, something amazing happened...

Sub-dream 1 "A Highlight Reel of My Life" begins...

A highlight reel of my life flashed. It flashed from the time I was young enough to recall things up to when I was an adult. I was even able to see moments that I have no recollection of. At some point, we lived on a farm. I had some small little yellow furry baby chicks. I felt one with my hand. I had to be no older than three years old. The memories then kept flooding in:

- The first time I had cinnamon toast.
- The smell of spring.
- The sound of my grandpa's lawnmower.
- The excitement of walking barefoot in freshly mowed grass.
- Laying down in the grass and watching clouds.
- The smell of fresh rain after it stops.

- The search for rainbows.
- The atmosphere when storm clouds gather.
- Preparing for a coming storm.
- Helping my grandpa put small suet bags on the tree branches for the birds.
- The smell of Ponderosa Pines in the Sierra Nevada.
- My mom's beautiful long hair and her smile.
- Driving in a Mustang convertible with hot seats from the sun combined with cool air and so much laughter.
- Picking a tiny bouquet from my grandma's flowers to make a posy basket.
- Cutting paper snowflakes.
- Daily prayer in our school at the start of each day.
- The celebration of holidays in elementary school.
- Arts and crafts.
- The anticipation of field trips.
- A new puppy, my husky, Sasha.
- A new kitten.
- Counting stars and butterflies.
- A new park to explore.
- Riding a bike.
- Learning to drive.
- Riding a horse.
- Zephyr's Cove.
- Panning for gold.
- Fishing in the Truckee River.
- Rafting for miles with friends.
- Riding my bike across the long bridge to Sandpoint ID.
- Having a flavored coffee with my mom.
- Sunday drives.
- Dancing, dancing, dancing.
- Golfing when no one is with you but God.

- Golfing with friends.
- A perfect game.
- A perfect shot.
- A perfect day.
- Sunning on the beach.
- The end of a difficult day.
- Hard work.
- Accomplishing what others said you couldn't.
- The impossible.
- My first date.
- My first break up.
- Ice cream.
- Good friends.
- Wedding day.
- My children at every stage of their lives.
- A separate little mini-me in my daughter.
- Being in love and being loved.
- Promises and hope.
- Of course, my Hero, Jesus!
- The promise of a new life everlasting with Him.

There were literally hundreds of moments that flashed. There were also some hard moments. I then woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, please let me live. Please let me finish this race as You have promised. The wait has been long and sometimes difficult. However, the good outweighs the bad. Please forgive me for being sad. When I have no energy, it is difficult.

My urine test was abnormal and was positive for blood and cancer. My first procedure is Tuesday, February 13, 2024. Time is not waiting for me. It just continues. Father, please strengthen me these next few weeks. Father, please create a miracle where there seems to be none. I love You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left you. I am that Voice you hear calling. Before you speak, I hear and answer you."

Me: "Lord, why did You have these moments flash before my eyes? Am I going to die?"

Jesus: "So you remember. Everyone of those things were sent to you by Me. Do you notice anything about these?"

Me: "We were poor. However, by reading these, you would think we were rich."

Jesus: "How so? Very little cost a price but the wealth of the fullness of the experience. I met you with good things even in your poverty. You were wealthy (in experiences). You even danced despite the darkness of troubles that had come and were always present. Instead, you recalled the wonders you experienced. You recalled the things you delighted in.

"You loved pools and fountains. Erin, all the things that you delighted in in this life is all waiting for you in Heaven. Even so, this is only a fraction of what I have prepared for those who love Me. I delight in you. I delight in your joy, your laughter and your faith. I have never forgotten one promise that I have given you. Not one."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry that I have been so sad. I am going through very little compared to when You walked here. You have been so kind and gracious with me. I am so grateful. The night before You were crucified, You prayed to Your Father in Heaven that He take this cup of suffering from You and choose a different way. You never lacked faith in Your Father, only Your suffering at the hands of man, the betrayal by close friends and the physical torture soon to come.

"What I am going through is nothing compared to this. I am so grateful that You went to the Cross, Lord. You fulfilled the prophecies and so much more. With me, I just don't want to lose any more body parts. I had hoped this would not happen. Even so, I trust You with my life, Lord. You are my Savior and Best Friend, so I will surrender to Your plans and not to my despair and perceived punishment."

Jesus: "I am with you, Erin. I am with your children. I am with your husband. I am with your friends and over all you do. When I sent you these moments in time, these were gifts of love to you. However, this is not the end, Erin. There is more. I have shown you events in the future and you are a part of this, not separated from this."

Me: "Lord, I know You can heal. You are the Divine Healer, Deliverer and Savior over me. I am like a child who is excited about a coming camping trip or grand vacation. However, right before, a great threat comes to ruin everything. My attention then fixates on what else may come against us. As an example, my parents frequently had car troubles and this was always a problem with our plans... a fun spoiler. Well, this kidney cancer thing is a huge fun spoiler!"

Jesus: "Erin, what was that saying you have involving a storm?"

I knew He knew, but He was now reminding me.

Me: "The darker the storm, the brighter the rainbow."

Jesus: "Ah yes...that should have been a Psalm of David based on his great faith and his great troubles. Erin, I have never once come to you and said, 'Because you did not do this or that, I will remove My favor.' So, either you are a mad woman or you are a Vessel I have filled for My purposes. Well, Erin, you are My Vessel.

"Now, consider this day and rejoice as I am with you. I love you. You are My Bride in gold of Ophir. Your time of miracles has not yet come. Rejoice, Erin, for it is surely coming and will not delay."

Dream over.

782 – The Incredible Throne of our Great God

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that You have done. I am grateful for You, Father, for all of the little things. I love You. You have given my life so much value. The things that I thought truly mattered in life before I knew You are now worthless. The days are short and the years are fleeting. My body is older and doesn't match the age of my being. In my heart, I am still young.

I used to see a mountain and think, 'I could climb that.' Based on the forestry trail map, I would then consider things like, 'Could I finish before lunch or is 2:00pm more realistic?' As the years went by, I was instead thinking, 'Do I have all day to climb?' And now in my current state, I think, 'Hmm, beautiful mountain!' and no more. I no longer consider the climb. It is impossible for me now.

There was a time when I was literally glued to a basketball. I was around 16 to 17 years old at the time. While I was good, I had lost my desire for the sport when we lived in California. I was on the Jr. Varsity team in my freshman year and was called to suit up for the Varsity team occasionally. I was a very aggressive point guard. I was fast and was known for my ability to steal the ball from the opposing team.

This also meant that I led in assists and layups. The problem occurred one away game when the other team's players decided to hurt me on the court. I was targeted and therefore drew fouls. I then drew fouls in retaliation. Then when a technical foul was called against one of the players, three girls decided to gang up on me to physically teach me a lesson. They began to punch me. I got up and punched back.

While they were ejected, so was I. I was ejected because I had lifted an elbow to fight back. It was then publicly humiliating. I had to wait in the upper bleachers. I was heckled by fans. The coach then sent me to the bus. I then quit the team. The end. My mom moved us a few months after this. The coaches then decided that I still deserved to 'letter', so they mailed me a note, a photo of the team and my letter. A letter is earned, not guaranteed, I didn't deserve it but they believed I did.

In the fall of 1977, all I remembered was the Varsity coach saying, 'I could have used you. I considered you a bright star.' While I was still a good ball handler, my mom and brothers teased me that I was now a girly player who cared more about boys, makeup and hair. Well, the truth is that they were 100% correct. Even so, I spent a great deal of side time trying to do tricks with my basketball.

I soon moved on from basketball. My tomboy years were gone. In my heart, I can still play softball, basketball, golf, dance and play pool. However, other than dance and perhaps golf at one point, my mom and brothers always seemed better than me. Oh Father, sometimes this feels like just yesterday. I was such an angry kid. I displayed unsportsmanlike conduct as a badge of honor until that final day of basketball.

The humiliation I experienced was worthy of a prompt move. To make matters worse at the time, I was not selected for homecoming court. However, my five best friends were. According to the voting results, I finished tied for sixth. I only knew the results because I was the freshman class president. But this was a disaster because during homecoming week, all the class presidents had a pie eating contest. This was a tradition at our school.

On the table were lemon merengue pies, one of my favorites. Unfortunately, mine was not lemon, but actually horseradish. Despite this, I still won the contest. Even so, I promptly made a best friend with a garbage can nearby. They called me a 'good sport' and I was awarded tickets to the Star Wars movie. This was a brutal time for me. These moments were cemented in photos in the yearbook. It was a humbling experience.

When we moved, mom said to me, 'You can now completely change your story and start fresh at the new school.' I was still mad at her for having to leave my friends. However, in truth, it was a gift from You. It was time to leave the painful path and move from the house of pain to Idaho. Just think, in Heaven, these painful things will be gone. All that will remain will be love and joy.

I have been tired lately. I have been dopey and weak. I told my husband that I felt like the little old lady in the heartbreaking opening montage of the Pixar movie 'Up!' All the hopes and dreams fading. I still have faith though. I truly still have faith. I literally have almost 20 to 30 stories throughout my life of moments when I reached my limit.

I would be all in and dedicated, but then, over time, I lost faith in either my abilities or a clear path moving forward, when pride is cast aside. Do I walk away before I fall into prideful humiliation? Even when I wasn't a Christian, I was smart enough to see when doors were closing and I needed to redirect my focus to something that added greater value to my life.

Father, sometimes You close doors and seal them with concrete and various locks so that I would never go there again. You have done this so I will go to another door that You opened. Why are we so prideful to say never when You say let Me be the God over your 'nevers'? Humiliation is working for someone who you thought you would never work for but having too anyway. I am referring to my last position.

However, because I obeyed God in the middle of this desert experience... Well, He began a miracle and a new work in me. This was the fall of 2012. He got me out of there as He promised He would. He did so much for me and my children.

It was as if I had won 'The Answered Prayer Game Show Prize'! He has never stopped showing His love to me, the one once called unlovable and despised. To top this off, You healed my heart muscle. So, what is impossible for You, Father? Nothing.

I had a fun dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Three Weeks until Thanksgiving" begins...

My daughter was called to Seattle WA for a convention. She asked me to join her for the Hacky Sack Tournament. I was excited to play. We were changed as I was able to dribble that tiny bean sack on my foot and flip it over my head. My daughter was even better than I was at it. My husband was laughing at our antics. However, he couldn't stay long because he was off to some foreign country for a convention where he was a keynote speaker.

Daughter: "Mom, let's go in three weeks."

Me: "Okay."

Husband: "Wait. That's Thanksgiving. You can't go."

Me: "You are right. We actually can't go then."

Daughter: "I agree. I forgot about the timing."

Just then, my husband's alarm went off and woke me up.
Sub-dream 1 over..

When I got up, I could hear the turkeys outside gobbling. They were in the yard flapping around and their rear tails were up and fanned out. They had never fanned their tails like this before. I had always wondered what this would look like in real life. Since the seed trays were empty, I went outside to fill the trays with corn.

They came back down the hill and ate. However, two of them were touchy and kept fanning their tails and puffing up. I did not get a photo. I told my husband that I thought it was odd that my dream had Thanksgiving in it and that the turkeys reappeared after me not seeing them all week.

Oh Father, You are a Grand Mystery. I have questions. Yesterday afternoon, I fell asleep in my chair. I had been reading my Bible. I had a dream...

Sub-dream 2 "The Incredible Throne of our Great God" begins...

I saw God's Courtroom in Heaven. He was on the Throne dressed in the power of the sun. It was so bright that I could not see His image. Below His Throne and down several steps was a clear glass floor (I had always seen this as deep blue). Behind Him dressed in white robes like judges were several saints. However, I could not see how many. Above the Throne and to God's left and right, there were winged creatures.

My attention was then drawn to something I had never seen before. There were two large gyro graph wheels that were living. They had wheels within wheels and could move in all directions. The wheels were made of something like a metal alloy. I somehow knew it was stronger than silver, brighter than bronze and with elements like platinum. It breathed! There were eyes on the wheel bands.

These eyes were greenish blue and had eyelids with lashes. While they didn't speak, they could see. They hovered over the glass floor of the Courtroom. They were a terrifying type of angelic being. I say terrifying only because they had capabilities that made them scary. They recorded everything. Maybe they were like God's Court reporters or witnesses? The eyes could see everywhere.

I then saw Earth below through the clear crystal glass floor. I could see layers in the heavenlies. I then saw over the area of North America. However, the focus was over the USA. The Lord then focused my attention on these judgment windows and these angelic beings. God then spoke in thunderous tones. Lightning came from His Throne. His Voice went through me in an indescribable way.

God: "My Commandments have been broken and trampled. Even My lesser Laws have been reversed. My Judgment is over the nations and great will be My Wrath. Render the charges."

I could hear a voice or voices in unison. I thought they could be lesser judges or the 24 elders. Maybe they were over territories. They were behind the Throne. Anyway, they spoke in unison...

The lesser judges: "We find the peoples of the nations under corrupt authority apart from God guilty and in rebellion of all the Laws set forth on Earth in accordance with God's Laws as given to Abraham and Moses."

God: "What is the count, the census?"

One of the lesser judges: "We are nearing a quarter, including the unborn who were sacrificed to the gods, those who died by wars, those who died by plagues and those who died by lack. It is close."

God: "Then prepare the next sentence."

I then saw angels of God go out from Heaven. There were thousands and thousands of angels. I then heard God speak like thunder...

God: "It is time!"

I woke up suddenly. Sunset was just starting. Tears were streaming down my cheeks.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Me: "Oh Father, I am scared. I am really scared. Please make my hand write clearly and my memory from things of You always be surrendered to You."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: Crying. "Lord, I am really scared here. This cancer is a 'Turbo Cancer'. Please heal me, Lord. Most Stage 4 cancer patients are given at least five years to live. Why was I given less than two years to live?"

Jesus: "Wait! Oh no! I thought I was God? Is this doctor god?"

Me: "No, of course not. I am sorry, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, My Will be done in you. Let Me be God. Let Me work. When you are tired, you are to rest and pray. Your blood is off. Your body is tired from fighting an alien invader, this cancer. Now, go out and enjoy your days. When you are sad, then cry. It is okay to grieve in a war.

"Now, this small dream that was more of a long vision... it is based on the enemy reversing all of God's Laws and Commandments as given to Abraham. It is also based on the enemy reversing all of the lesser laws as given to Moses. The Commandments have been thrown out of the courts of the nation. Corruption is like a plague because of this. When God is removed, something else comes, understand?

"This is the opposite of Law and Order. What then occurs? The Laws set in place for the lands and the peoples are then thrown out because the lands have been given over to sin and hate. My Word is the sword of truth, yet no one wants to be judged by truth. Lies are rampant. Fear increases and evil of every kind."

Me: "Almost everything in Leviticus 19 is ignored."

Jesus: "Oh, it is much greater a sin than these. However, the Court of God and the Throne of Judgment is over all men and all is recorded."

Me: "God's Judgment?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, something greater comes from this. The hearts of fathers turn to their children and children to their parents. The wicked flee. However, those whose hearts are on God are humbled and turn back to God. There is more. Erin, My Word is true. Evil will flee to hide, but they are found by Me. Nothing is hidden from My sight. Now do not worry. I have you. I am with you."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Yesterday was a difficult day. I was not well. I had a broken sleep that night and did not do well during the day. Father, I went to bed last night thinking about the magnitude of things here left undone. I think of the labels I need to place on various items, things that might have greater value than one would think possible. I want to be a blessing to my house, not a burden.

I then realized that I needed to stop this self-talk now, as in immediately. This is because the more I stressed, the worse I became. I had no peace. Well, Father, I come before You today. You healed my heart. No act of man was able to make my physical heart healed, only You. Of course, this applies to my spiritual heart as well. All of this makes me realize even more that I am here to serve You at Your pleasure.

If I were to serve myself... well, I can only dread how that might look. I surrender my body, my heart, my mind, my kidneys and all that I am grateful to have to You. However, I don't just surrender my body to You, I surrender all You have given me. I surrender everything because there is nothing of value on this Earth unless You assign value to it. Nothing is certain here.

I spent time in 2 Chronicles this morning. I read about the kings of Israel and the prophets whom You sent to come alongside the kings in truth and wisdom. In 2 Chronicles 26:4-5, in reference to Uzziah who reigned over Judah, "and he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that his father, Amaziah had done. He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah who instructed him in the fear of God, and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him prosper."

Then in the days of Hezekiah was the prophet Isaiah to minister and pray with him. He had restored the House of the Lord. I love this small nugget in 2 Chronicles 29:36: "and Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had provided for the people, for the thing came about suddenly.”

Then there was an issue during Passover. Many of the people had not consecrated themselves and were not considered cleansed. Hezekiah then prayed to the Lord in 2 Chronicles 30:18-20: “...may the good Lord pardon everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the Lord, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary’s rules of cleanness. And the Lord heard Hezekiah and healed the people.”

The life of Hezekiah and all he had accomplished to restore Israel was truly a miracle. His success came because he had yielded his heart to God and sought wise counsel from Isaiah. The Lord delivered Jerusalem in 2 Chronicles 20 to 23 in an amazing miracle involving the king of Assyria.

When Hezekiah later allowed pride to overtake him during his illness, he recognized this and humbled himself before the Lord. He recognized the pride of his heart and God had mercy upon him. However, God continued to test his heart and to know all his inner thoughts as in 2 Chronicles 32:31.

Father, I surrender all that I am to You. I give You all that I have in sacrifice to You. I even give You my burdens and the things I have store housed. Lord, please use all of this for Your Glory. Bless my mess and I give all of this to You. I give You these dreams and ask You to bless them. I ask that You spread these dreams as seed so they are sown. Let all that I am be as seed to sow.

Please make all of my troubles, all of my tests and trials and all that I have written be a blessing. Please let every journal page be evidence of Your hands, Lord. Let You Will be done, not Mine. Since You have now healed my heart both physically and spiritually, then I know You can do anything. You even use my nightmares as seeds to plant for Your Glory. The Book of Job has so much wisdom... Job 7:13-14,4...

“When I say, ‘My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint.’ Then You O Lord affright me with dreams and with visions terrify me. In bed I say, ‘When shall I arise?’ But the night drags on; and I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.”

Father, it is not my heart that causes a restless night, but my kidneys. You have used them to wake me from one dream to the next. So, You have blessed them. You have made my heart pliable. You have molded and shaped me. You gave me a new heart.

In Psalm 18:33 and Habakkuk 3:19, You are my Strength. You make my feet like the deer so that I can climb these difficult heights. These are seeds sewn as evidence of Your Story sewn into our hearts.

I had a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "A Room Full of Doors & Windows" begins...

I was in a home with many rooms. In the center of the home was a sunken family room with windows. In the middle of the family room was a soft bed with white sheets. Above the bed was a ceiling of glass. I laid down on the bed and I could see up to heaven. The glass windows surrounding the bed to the south were blackened and I could not see out.

The windows to the east were filled with the light of dawn in pinks and purples. All around the family room were doors. I then realized that these doors were 'memory doors', like bridges. I got up out of the bed and walked past several doors. They no longer held me captive.

These doors had no lure or intrigue. These doors no longer had any hold on me. Just then, I realized I had circled the room on a landing. Finding nothing, I then returned to my bed just as the sun rose to the east. The windows to the south and above me were now all shining from the light of the sun. I could now see clearly.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Your life is a gift to Me. I have sewn seeds in you and these have been planted in My House. I have made you for My purposes under Heaven. As a child, you asked the God you thought might hear several questions, such as... Why did You create me? Why are You punishing me? Why are You not letting me see breakthroughs?"

Me: "Yes. I even asked, 'Why am I me?' I was inside me looking out. I also asked, 'Why am I not someone else outside of me? What do they see when they look at me?'"

Jesus: "These are all good questions to ask when you don't have understanding."

Me: "Well, I am still asking these questions now, Lord. I also ask why this kidney cancer is even happening right now. The cancer is perfectly round and right in the center of my kidney. Forgive me, Lord, for all of my sins..."

every one of them. I was ignorant even when I knew that I was sinning. In hindsight, I tried to rationalize these sins by saying these sins are so small compared to the immense love of Jesus.

"Oh Lord, who even does this? At times, I feel like my illness is due to my failures. I have failed to trust You. I failed to keep hope alive. I failed to be at peace. I failed to turn two of our children to You because I called them out. Maybe I needed to do my own self-examination. I occasionally snacked at night when You told me it is best for me that I not do this.

"I kept saying, 'Okay, just tonight I will eat these Twizzlers, maybe two, maybe three and tomorrow I won't. This just gives me something to chew on.' So, why would I need to do this? Because of my anxious thoughts. While not every night, there were many nights like this. I do this even though I know what is best for my body.

"While I am glad to be talking about all of this with You, I already know that there will be many who will judge me based on me admitting that I ate some Twizzlers. I will then get emails about how harmful these are to the blood sugar levels and so on. The thing is, Lord, is that I already know all of this. This leads to an obvious question... why then did I still do it?"

Jesus: "Your kidney issue was not caused by these red rubber sticks. Now, tell Me what you recently discovered with your animals?"

Me: "I have been feeding my dogs healthy food these days. Although it costs more, I have been using food as medicine. Their energy has since come back. It is a miracle. All of this happened very quickly."

Jesus: "So think of this... all that you consume with your lips also has a path, a course, that it takes in your body. Your body was created to handle many different battles. However, if your mouth receives weapons of destruction, then certain parts of your internal army become wounded from these weapons and are attacked.

"Now, the enemy of this world is clever. He has introduced things to destroy man through various means that, over time, effects your inner most army and its ability to fight back against invasion. This is why there are increases in cancer. While there are other factors as well, these are your essentials for living right and these I give you:

- Clean water to drink.
- Fresh air to breathe.
- A body with functioning parts able to move.
- Food grown on trees, bushes and from the fields.

- Pastures filled with animals for food, milk and other products related to these.
- Fresh poultry.
- Bread, seeds and nuts.
- Olives and their oils.
- So many other good foods.

Me: "Well, Lord, I have something to confess... I love sugar."

Jesus: "There are other ways to sweeten. Consider honey. Can man produce honey?"

Me: "No. He can only mimic it."

Jesus: "Then remember this... don't eat anything you can't pronounce. If it is not good for your dogs, then it isn't good for you. The enemy has destroyed man through hunger for things that do not serve as good for the body. To make matters worse, illness causes a need for medicine to cure it, understand? This is cyclical and shortens the life. Erin, you knew all of this before, correct?"

Me: "Yes. I was very fit. I avoided eating any bad stuff."

Jesus: "So, somehow, now that you are older, wiser and full of years, you somehow decided that the bad is now good?"

Me: "Well, I guess it is more convenient. Quicker. Oh Lord, I will make changes!"

Jesus: "This is good. I will bless these, Erin. Now, let us go to your kidneys. Kidneys can cause restless sleep. Your heart is a muscle and your kidney is a filter of the blood. It purifies your blood by removing the waste and sending the blood back into your body. It is an important function and two (kidneys) are given.

"Now, My Word speaks of kidneys often because the function is so vital to the body. When you sleep under duress, your kidneys are under pressure to maintain their purpose to filter the bad from the good. More stress can cause more waste more often and the need to get up during the night more in number."

Me: "I never used to have this, Lord. What happened?"

Jesus: "How often do I tell you to remember to breathe?"

Me: "All of the time."

Jesus: "You were not taking in enough clean air. Your blood was not getting enough oxygen. The enemy was able to choke off your functions."

Me: "So, can I still save my kidney?"

Jesus: "Can you save yourself?"

Me: "No. No, I can't. However, You can."

Jesus: "I will tell you what... let Me be God over all of this. I am glad you came to Me over all of this today. This is good. Just so you know... I allowed this in you for My purposes. Now, because you cannot save yourself as you would surely lose that battle, then give Me back your body. In turn, take in that which is good. I will help you. When in doubt, throw it out. Even though the bad is more cost effective at market, don't buy it. Buy the good and I will strengthen you in the preparations."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "You are suffering. Give all of this to Me. I accept your prayers and I will bless you. It is always best to take in what is good with your mouth, your nose, your ears and your sight even though much of what comes now is not good. Give all of this to Me and, like Hezekiah, I will make clean all that is impure.

"However, this does not mean I will make sin holy. I am a filter for sin. By My Blood, you are made Holy, your sins removed like kidney waste. I make all things new. When changes come, all markings (tattoos) and piercings will be removed and fall away as these are impure to the body. All desires for spirits and lusts of the flesh will also fall away. Since I am God, I will not share My Temple with an idol."

Me: "I will work harder to stay on track."

Jesus: "Erin, make your yes 'yes' and your no 'no'. Now, your dream was your current state of your dreams. However, even though you are ill, soon your morning will shine like the dawn and all will be made brand new. Remember that God is within you (Psalms 46:5). You will not fall. I will help you at the break of dawn. I love you."

Me: "I love You too, Lord. Take the seeds of my story, which are really yours, Lord, and plant them to be sewn for Your purposes under Heaven."

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin, as you are Mine!"

Dream over.

784 – Great Miracles Will Come From Your Suffering

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It is beautiful outside with some fresh snow. However, it is also extremely cold and windy. I was up a bit late this morning and saw six turkeys in our yard. Their gobbling prompted me to feed them corn. They came right up to me. We have established a connection. It is like the groundhogs. It was so fun when the groundhogs would see me and come running.

You reminded me of Your delight when Your children run to You and seek a relationship with You. With me, You feed me and I need You. I am excited to commune with You daily. With the turkeys, I feed them corn. However, with You, You feed me with faithfulness and great variety. I am so blessed by You, Father. I am running to You today to ask for another miracle.

Thank You for clarifying that my cancer is renal cell carcinoma and has not spread to my bladder as per my cystoscopy. That was such a blessing. I had a CT scan of my chest yesterday and the results made it in time for my appointment in the afternoon. Everything looked good until the part about my shoulders and the possibility that the kidney cancer has moved to my bones.

I am now waiting to hear from the surgeons if a bone scan prior to surgery needs to be performed. This has put me in a type of holding pattern today. Scarily, of the 15 signs of bone cancer, I have 14 of them. I had just dismissed these because I thought it was related to either my neck, my shoes or the weather.

Anyway, I am praying for some God-sized miracles and soon. Oh Father, only You can heal me. Please consider me for one of Your awesome miracles. I also pray for my general doctor, my surgeon, my urologist and the entire team of people that You have assembled so quickly. My daughter then placed a song on my music playlist by Brandon Lake titled, 'Count 'Em'. It is very uplifting for the time I am in right now.

As I was writing this dream, I received a few medical calls to try to set up my appointment for my new test. The doctor does not want to delay the kidney removal to wait on the findings of the bone test. Oh Father, I have kept things together here, but this one? This coming possibility of bone cancer frames my remaining days and even numbers them.

I had a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "An Old Friend / Enemy Dances" begins...

I had a dream of an old friend / enemy and her husband dancing in my hospital room. They were in elegant formal clothing. The entire room had been set up by them to put the focus completely on them. It was a Christmas theme with these fuzzy green and red garlands with lights. They then asked me how I was. However, I could tell they really didn't care about my answer as they didn't even wait to hear it.

They instead continued to laugh and dance. When I told them loudly so as to be heard above their dance music that I had cancer, they didn't even acknowledge me. They instead continued to dance. They had now transitioned into doing a ballroom dance of sorts around my bed. They laughed as they gazed into each other's eyes.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Oh Lord, this dream was so strange. As for these people, I would not be surprised at all if they would do just this and dance at the news that I have cancer.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have you here for people like them. You being sick garners no sympathy because the world has grown colder. Now, no matter what news comes your way, remember who I am in the midst of this. Look at what I have done for you so far, along with all of the evidence that I am with you. Keep your eyes focused on Me.

"Do not look at those who seem to have physical health and envy them as they have a terminal condition worse than cancer. They do not even know Me to consider Me. Remember that darkness and the gods and princes of this world have spread a plague of evil that should have caused man to turn from the effects of this condition to a cure. I am the One Remedy that waits for man, the only cure for their heart of stone, their Healer, Savior, Comforter and Friend!

“However, instead of relying on Me, they rely on their own comfort from their self-edifying behaviors. Erin, miracles are coming and there will soon be no choice but turn to face God and see that I am fair, just and do all things for the good of those I pursue. Your dream is about them, not you. Erin, I have you and I am with you. It is by My hand that I will use you for My purposes. Can you trust Me a bit longer?”

Me: “Of course, Lord. However, I am in a great deal of pain. I have good days and bad days. I can’t always do what I hope to do. Can You strengthen me, Lord?”

Jesus: “I will. However, you will first need to endure some personal storms while I work on My ‘Full Spectrum Rainbow’. Can you do this for Me?”

Me: “Yes, Lord. While I don’t like it, I can do this.”

Jesus: “When you see the great miracles that will come from your suffering, you will then have great peace and joy.”

Me: “Yes, Lord.”

Jesus: “I will strengthen you today. Remember that, when you are tired, you are to rest. Finish your fun project. I am with you.”

Me: “Thank You, Lord. I will.”

Dream over.

785 – My Promises are True and My Ways are Higher

Received on Saturday, February 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Let me really thank You sincerely. I am grateful to be here, Father. I am grateful for our Nest friends, our home, our dogs, the animals outside, my children and my husband. Most importantly, I am thankful for You, Father! You are both the Author and the Finisher of my story in my journey here.

Yesterday was a difficult day for me. While I stayed home, it was still a struggle. I cried and cried. I felt a stabbing pain deep in my body. I had no peace. To sit and rest or even lay down, the random pain in parts of my body that never cried out before became too much. As long as I kept moving, the pain faded. I went through boxes of paper that I knew I needed to deal with someday. This felt good.

Each day, I hope to achieve as much as I can physically until I can't. Father, my neck pains now seem like nothing in comparison. The other things just don't matter anymore at all. While everyone is at work, it is nice to have the home to myself to putter and pray. I sing, I speak in my prayer language and I cry. I give this day You have given me back to You for Your Divine Purposes. You are better at being God than we are.

When I now walk by my clothing closet, I shake my head and think, 'I have no use for most of this.' When I see my shoes, I think, 'Why do I need most of these?' Many of these things I have had for years, like beautiful vintage clothing. I remember my trips to Los Angeles CA Fashion Week for buying for my clothing store. I have beautiful hand-woven pieces that I had always hoped to wear someday.

Well, these 'somedays' have come and gone and it is literally madness to keep them. This is like torture from the enemy calling out to me, 'I told you that you would never wear these!' My next order of business is to let go of these. When mom died, she left her clothes. I kept some of the items that I remembered her by. Up until a couple years ago, they even still had her smell.

It wasn't the sweaters or the T-shirts that held my interest. It was the memories of her taking me to the Bridge in Sandpoint ID or the Coldwater Creek Store to shop. It was these outings that made me have a connection of something fun with my mom... the perfect day! I now find myself prioritizing what I need to do next, prior to my surgery or our Transformation (whichever comes first).

I decided to start by removing the 'nevers' still taking space in my life. Things I 'never' wore, projects I 'never' completed and books I will 'never' likely read... those types of things. I feel like this would bring You joy, Father, and it would streamline my closet and office / craft room. More importantly, it gives my heart a focus other than my current situation. It feels satisfying to give things away. It makes my heart glad.

In essence, it helps to remove my sadness. Well, Father, no matter what happens here, I still cling to Your promises. I remain hopeful as I know You are faithful to the promises You have given all of us. I am still thankful for our trip to Bend OR. It was my favorite time of the year, Fall, and it was so much fun. What a blessing to be able to have gone on this trip. I thank You for this, Lord.

In hindsight, I see the incredible brilliance of You. You told me that I was sick last year and then You moved mountains to prepare everything knowing I would be going through this. The surgeon I have is a brilliant one who was just recently brought to Portland ME. He was brought to the Maine Medical Group in the spring of last year right when You told me that I was ill. In the last six weeks, I have watched You remove my planned trip with my daughter to Orlando. In its place, I have seen You line up appointment after appointment with great precision. I am not certain how You did this because each appointment seemed to be a miracle in itself. Almost every time, I have heard, 'We were fully booked for the next few months, but just happen to have a cancellation!' It has truly been amazing so far.

This assures me that, whatever You are planning, this too will be a miracle. I am then reminded of this... I should not fear my weakness even though I am weakening day-by-day from this. I must instead remember that You, God, are my Strength in weakness. This I know and I am sure of. However, I fear something else. I fear these days when I somehow believe I am strong on my own, these daily moments when the 'I cans' come in apart from You.

As a child, I grew up in adversity. I lived in uncertainty so much of my time growing up. I learned to expect trouble and I was hyper alert to it. My mom then often told me that I was just being paranoid. However, if the stuff you are concerned about has happened to you before over and over again, then wouldn't you also still be hyper diligent and watch for troubles to avoid them? I call this being street smart.

My mom then used logic and probabilities to give me the percentages and statistics so I could logically be at peace. While this would have been great for my husband, this somehow wasn't a comfort to me. This is because feelings are based on the memory of past trauma or experience and the emotions surrounding these things. What I have learned over the years is that feelings are often just as valid as logic.

Well, Lord, here I am! I surrender all that I am in my weakened state for Your Divine Purposes under Heaven. You have given me advanced directives from the beginning. You have mapped my course and kept me on this path. Along the way, You have rescued me from evil foes and those who would cause me to stumble. You have guided my way and put me on a clear path that has always led to You.

Miracle after miracle, wonders here as they are in Heaven, so many signs... all confirm You are here with us. You showed me what waits for us in Heaven and all You have put together there for us. Even so, this is just a fraction of a fraction of the wonderful things waiting for us there. I am so excited. You gave me a glimpse of our rewards of an eternity with You so that I can keep my focus on You here.

As You well know, Lord, I have been hit with some very bad news about possible bone cancer. This is something even the best doctors can't remedy, only You, Father. If this is the case, Father, I just know You have a greater way planned for me. While I know all of this is going to hurt in these days to come, I will rely on You to keep me in Your strength. I thank You in advance for Your mercy, love and grace.

Father, I had an amazing dream last night, but I can't recall it. Maybe You will illuminate this again when it is in Your Perfect Timing. All I know is that I woke up with a huge smile on my face. This dream obviously made me wake up happy.

On a more somber note, something disturbing happened on my way to one of my appointments last week in Houlton ME. I passed a young man carrying a young woman up a snow berm. The snow berm was about three feet high and the young woman appeared to be dead. I was on the phone with my daughter and told her to hold on as I was going to see if 'they' needed help. I slowed down to pull in front of the car.

When I did, I locked eyes with the young man. Chills instantly went up and down my spine. He looked at me as if to say, 'Don't even think about stopping.' I then heard Your Voice, Lord, tell me to 'Drive!' Well, I certainly didn't need to be told twice and drive I did. There were then two semi-trucks behind me who passed the scene right after me.

I took the offramp and was now stuck at the stop sign. I was worried that this young man was following me. I then drove straight to the sheriff's office in Houlton ME and reported what I had seen. It was a scary thing. They told me there were many drug related incidents and that they would see what they could find. After that, I was in shock. The world has become such a horrible place. Lord, please keep us safe.

I then went to my appointment and spoke with my doctor. He had moved up here with his wife and six children from Miami, FL. He told me that they had left Miami because some scary things were happening and he was looking for a safe place. We both remarked that Houlton ME was still safe and the people still kind.

Father, I still have times during the day in which I forget that I have this illness. When it then sinks in... well, please forgive me... but I am still afraid. I am scared. I missed out on some things I had hoped for. Nothing in this life is promised. Nothing is certain. What is certain is that I know where my finish line is and that I won't be alone. You will take me to the place You have prepared for me. I am so grateful. I receive a lot of messages about Your promises and I know that You will fulfill every one of them.

I am just hoping for a 'sooner' miracle to avoid some of the intense pain that I know is coming. While these dreams seem to show that I am Transformed while in some sort of pain, I am still praying it doesn't become much worse than the pain I am already in now. I am praying for a miracle, a miracle that I already know is coming. I am praying for something so incredible and so God-sized. I love You, Father. Everything about You is perfect, including Your Plan for me and Your Perfect Timing in all things.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember... My Voice is in you. I speak tender mercies to you during your day so you know I am here and haven't forgotten you. I know you are worried and are in pain."

Me: "Could You please take away my pain, Lord? Could You please heal me?"

Jesus: "My Promises are true and My Ways are higher. This means that I have an eagle's eye view over your situation. I know all things concerning you. I have sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do. I have sent your doctors and cleared your schedule. I have created openings for you to receive all of your tests. The doctors are continuing on a fact-finding mission. They gather as much as they are able to before they continue on."

Me: "Lord, bone cancer as a result of renal cell carcinoma is very bad. I just pray that You do this miracle before I am unable to breathe or even function at all. I am scared, Lord. If it were something I knew more about because my family had a history or something like that, I would feel better. However, with this... well, the doctors wasted no time and all has been immediate.

"Just please, Lord, make this a great miracle so that my children, my husband and his children, my Nest friends and their families, my brothers and their children, my nieces and nephews, so many others too... so no one becomes disheartened and falls away. Please guide my life as it is already Yours. While I know there can be no testimony without a test, this is a hard test for me to face.

"Lord, please don't let me die a painful death. While I would do this for You if this were the way You chose for me, You said that I would live instead. I therefore cling to Your Promises on this. You are my Lord and my Savior. You are my Prince and I am Your Bride. You are our Prince and we are Your Bride."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. I know what it is like to endure pain at the hands of My adversaries. I suffered greatly and for all to bare witness to this. My trials were documented. Even though I knew ultimately the Great Reward that was coming and that the grave could not hold Me, still the night before I wept alone.

"I wept alone and petitioned to My Father in Heaven for another way. However, I knew what was coming and what I would have to endure. Erin, I would do this all again if called to, but my death has already atoned for the sins of man and... well, you know the rest."

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, this is different. I am just a common woman. I am no one."

Jesus: "You are not common to Me. You are unique to Me and certainly uncommon in your ways. You have shared My story through your life and this is not over for you. Erin, you are not finished. I am not finished with you. Since God is with you, then nothing shall be impossible for you because I am here. Now, it is okay to grieve. It is okay to have fear. I see your tears."

Me: "Lord, so many of my ailments have been related to this. I had no idea. Could I have caught this earlier?"

Jesus: "It is I who called you to these doctors. I told you that you were ill. I have put everything in place. Remember that I have already healed your heart (first spiritually and now physically). However, even this is still not complete. The evidence will be overwhelming and all will know I am God in this.

"Now, you are to trust in Me as there are many witnesses and much evidence. Your suffering will yield a great harvest of healing miracles. I have you, Erin, and I am with you in all things. I have sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do."

Me: "While I am trying to rest, my sleep is horrible. Lord, can You please grant me sleep? I get waves of panic and then my heart races. I become afraid."

Jesus: "I know. However, I minister My peace to you, Erin. I am here."

Me: "I am not ready for any of this, Lord."

Jesus: "Ready or not, here I come. Sometimes surrendering your life to Me means that I do the unexpected and My Glory reveals My position in this so nothing can be explained other than by the hands of God. This means a miracle by its very definition. Erin, I have never forgotten you. Do you see all that I have done here? I have not brought you this far only to stop now."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but I am still scared."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but give your life to Me for My purposes. I am here with you."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! It is sunny with a beautiful bright blue sky. Despite the bitter cold, buds have formed. The buds are still closed though and I assume they will stay this way until the freezing cold finally ends. I have been watching a small very plump female finch on one of the branches. She has been there for a while.

I guess my eyes were focused on just one little bird when I soon realized there were quite a few blending into the tree branches. I am doing the same thing with this cancer stuff. I am focused on it while so much is happening all around us now. Oh Father, I can't do anything on my own strength.

My days are unpredictable as I don't know how I will physically be. My body is under attack and can do nothing. Father, my body is Yours. I come against this foreign invader, this thing that is coming to destroy all that is good in my physical being. I come against this in Your Name, in Jesus' Name, and ask for a healing miracle and reversal.

My body wasn't at peace last night. I was sweating and I don't sweat. At 1:40am, I woke up as in my dream a mighty wind gust opened our front door. I woke up suddenly and the wind was blowing outside. I was unsure if it was a dream or real, so I got up to check on our front door. I could see that the front door was locked and shut. I went back to sleep and woke up again at 4:30am from a very clear and frightening dream...

Sub-dream 1 "The Foreign Armies are already here" begins...

I was in the USA watching the rise of two foreign armies. They were both already here. One was a militia army from Africa and the Middle East. They were dressed in dark green uniforms with berets. Some were blue and some were green. What seemed to stand out to me was that they wore bright white T-Shirts underneath. This was occurring near the northern border of the USA and it seemed like summer.

They had assault rifles that were so high tech and I had never seen anything like them before. Some of them had flamethrowers. They were speaking a language that I did not recognize. They were transporting munition boxes. They were large black metal boxes. They were hiding some of them in culverts and bridge locations on several highways. While they had clearance badges, I didn't know how they got them.

I then saw an army being formed originating from the Land of the Red Dragon. They had been sent in advance into the USA through the southern borders. They were training in either the California or Nevada deserts. I saw a command center in communication with the leader of the Land of the Red Dragon.

His army planned to destroy the power grid and poison the water supplies. The command center said they would take hold of the satellites to blame this on another foreign country. The leader of the Land of the Red Dragon would then announce that the USA had fallen to him. One soldier then asked about the army to the north.

Leader: "We will easily overcome them. We will force them to dig graves."

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up at 6:40am. I then went back to sleep and had another disturbing dream...

Sub-dream 2 "A Slaughter is planned at Red Rock" begins...

I was in a building with polished concrete floors and dim lighting. A young executive was panicking because he had no one to look after his five-year-old son while he was away at a conference. I went up to him...

Me: "I will watch over your son while you are away."

Father: "Oh, thank you! However, here is the issue... he needs to be at Red Rock for his camp with the others from his church. It is a day camp on Saturday."

Me: "No worries. I will take him there."

The boy was so adorable and well behaved. The father was very thankful. I took the little boy home and we had a lot of fun. On Saturday, I drove to Red Rock to his church camp. When I arrived early, I saw some very scary people setting things up. I approached one of the workers there...

Me: "Excuse me. I am here to..."

Woman: "Ah, he just couldn't come here on his own. He has you doing his dirty work. (Referring to the boy's father) Well, then, come with me."

The boy then became nervous. While I wanted to leave, I was now surrounded by these people. They took me to an amphitheater. At the base was an altar of red rock, a top slab and two supporting heavy base legs. It was high and had deep channels framing the surface.

Me: "Where are all the other camp children?"

Woman: "You are early. They are coming. There is a great concert. The festivities will then begin."

Me: "Okay. However, I would like to stay with him."

Woman: "Hmm, are you a Christian?"

Me: "Yes."

Woman: "Great. We would like as many as possible to pack this venue. Suit yourself."

The woman walked off. The boy remained with me. He stuck close to me.

Little boy: "Ms. Erin, please don't leave me."

Me: "No matter what, I will not leave you."

He gripped my hand tighter. At the base of the altar was a small black indented hole. I could see some movement in the shadows of this hole.

Me: "Come on, let's see what is living there. Let's explore."

I knelt down to take a look. I saw two birds and a baby bird.

Me: "Come on out."

The little birds came out. They had light grey wings, white breasts and yellow beaks. I had never seen anything quite like this. The little boy laughed in delight. The birds came up to us and began to talk to us. While the little boy could only hear chirping and singing, I heard a voice of the bird speak to me in clear English.

Bird: "They are building holes for mass graves. The boy is to be sacrificed on this altar. The Christians will all be killed. You must warn everyone now."

Me: Nodding. "Thank you."

The bird nodded back. It was odd. I have never had a talking bird dream before. I took the little boy's hand and knelt to pray.

Me: "Come on, I am going to take you for ice cream. What do you think of that?"

Little boy: "Yes, please."

I took his hand to walk back to my car. We were stopped by the woman.

Woman: "Uh, excuse me, but where do you think you are going?"

Me: "I thought I would get us some ice cream."

Woman: "Well, you do have some time before the event begins. However, I really can't let you leave with the boy."

Me: "Why not?"

A man then nodded at her and she nodded back.

Woman: "Okay, the two of you can go, but can you be back in half an hour?"

Me: "Oh, sure! I can't wait for it to begin!"

Woman: "You will want to get here early for front row seats."

Me: "I wouldn't miss it."

I hadn't noticed until now, but the birds had followed us. We let them in our car. I drove out of the gate.

Little boy: "I don't want to go back there. Can we leave for your home?"

Me: "Yes. However, I have something to do first."

As we drove down the winding road out, I got out of my car and prayed to God.

Me: "Lord, please have this mountain come upon the area so that their evil plans fail."

I heard a rumble and several rocks fell. The mountain then fell over the entire area. All of the graves that had been dug were now filled with the bodies of those who were digging them. I then went back into my car. That seemed to be the easiest solution. I was still not sure who was all in on this.

Me: "Oh Lord, thank You for calling down this mountain."

As we drove, a billboard read 'Thank You for Visiting Red Rock! Isaiah 32:1-2!'

Sub-dream 2 over...

I then woke up for the day. I went to my devotional chair and prayed. I thought about the Scripture referenced in this dream...

Isaiah 32:1-2: "1 Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice. 2 Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.”

Me: “Father, I am sick to my stomach. These dreams were so real. Please take my pen and write plainly through me.”

Jesus: “Erin, come up!”

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: “Erin, I am here and I am with you. Many are the plots of the enemy. His armies have invaded this once great land. They are training in hidden areas and their plans are to destroy this nation. The people fail to believe it because this has never happened in its history.”

Me: “Lord, no one will survive this. Christians are already hated.”

Jesus: “In this dream, you were different. Certainly, you were changed from your current condition.”

Me: “Lord, why Red Rock and Isaiah 32:1-2?”

Jesus: “For it is written by the prophet Isaiah ‘Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.’ Well, I am the King and you are a princess. Along with other princes and princesses, you will rule in justice against the wicked of the land. Because I am in you, My Voice speaks clearly through you and My Power is upon you than ‘each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.’

“Erin, in your dream, the enemy planned to kill all the Christians who came to be refreshed with hope and to worship in truth. The enemy also planned to sacrifice the boy in front of all who were there and then kill them all.”

Me: “Is this planned? Is this a real plan? The big Christian Concert is set for August 5th, 6th and 7th this year. That is in the summer.”

Jesus: “Erin, many are the plans of the wicked this year. Christians are the target all over the world as evil increased. Now, be encouraged about your role there in the dream. Isaiah had no idea he was prophesying to a time such as this.

“Now, the nations are currently turning away from Israel. They quickly forget through false narratives what truly happened there (the slaughter on October 7, 2023). The leader I allowed into power in your nation is not of sound mind. While this is similar to Nebuchadnezzar, this man will not be humbled. He is a prop of a leader, a front man. However, the strings are being pulled in the shadows.

“The people have been silenced and fear grips the nations as the once great nation is being broken apart by its enemies. However, I am God of ALL the Earth. They will not triumph. I am exposing their positions. I will raise up an army unlike any the world has ever seen. They will not be touched.”

Me: “Lord, I am scared. What if I have written any of Your Words or dreams wrong?”

Jesus: “I would tell you. I would stop you. I would correct the wrong. Do not worry.”

Me: “While I know this isn’t speaking of these dreams, Revelation 22:18-19 speaks of terrible consequences if Your Words are purposely added or subtracted from what You have to say. I pray that I haven’t done this here in these dreams with You. You are everything to us and we do not want to disappoint You in any way!”

Jesus: “Oh Erin, hell is not for the Children of God. I love you, Erin. I have called you. Now, I know your illness is terminal according to man. You will receive a number to your days and your hope will be diminished. If you could trust Me with your life, I will keep you.”

Me: “I do, Lord, I do. However, I sometimes feel I will fail You with my lack.”

Jesus: “Erin, you continue to come to Me every day. This is faith. You are troubled by things coming that you cannot know. You have learned in your life that I love you. I am faithful and I am with you. My breath of life is in you.”

Me: “You are still my Hayah, my Great I AM.”

Jesus: “Yes... and how could you know such a word in Hebrew had I not placed this upon you?”

Me: “I read an article about seven Hebrew words every Christian should know. My older son is studying Hebrew right now...”

- SHEMA: Hear, O Israel. Deuteronomy 6:4. To hear and obey. To take action.
- HESED: God’s unshakable love. Isaiah 54:10. It means undeserved love and generosity. Love in action. Covenantal love.
- EMUNAH: The assurance of things hoped for. Hebrews 11:1. Emunah is faith that results in faithfulness. Amen also shares the root. Amen means ‘so be it’ or ‘may it be so’. Faith in action = Faithfulness.

- RUACH: God's holy rushing tide. Isaiah 59:19. This verse Hebrew word 'breath' is Ruach, which means 'Spirit'. I love this... Isaiah is saying that, when God shows up in a situation, it is with an unstoppable power of the Spirit with Him.
- NEPHESH: The breath of life. Genesis 2:7. 'And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living (Soul) Nephesh.' Nephesh = Soul.
- YIRAH: Beginning of all wisdom. Proverbs 9:10. The awe of God. Awe = Yirah. Reverence and worship. However, it can also mean fear.
- TESHUYA: Returning to God. Joel 2:12. The Hebrew word for repentance. Guilt or regret feeling. Enough to return to God with your whole heart.

"So, Lord, here is my prayer to You:

"You Hessed me, love me, every day by Your Spirit, Your breath, in me, Your Ruach. I pray and come to You. I come with Emunah, faithfulness, daily and You give me Your Words and I hear You, Shema, and write as well as practice what I hear. I am in awe of You, Lord. In Yirah, I submit myself to You and worship You in reverence. When I complain or, in sorrow, I avoid You, even when I sin, I Teshuva and turn back to You with my whole heart. With You, Lord, my Soul, my Nephesh, is at peace. Let my prayers be pleasing to You, Lord! Amen!"

Jesus: "This is a good prayer and one that I accept. These words here have even deeper meanings. More than this though, we are as one, you and Me. I am in you with My Spirit and I refresh Your Soul with Living Water. My Breath of Life is in you. I intend to keep it with you."

Me: "Please, Lord. Oh, please do!"

Jesus: "This is very good. A Scripture that is commonly misunderstood and weaponized is this one... 'Without faith, it is impossible to please God.' Study Hebrews. Faithfulness pleases God. Faithfulness and obedience require the faith to believe in something that, by My Voice, I am telling you, a promise. You listen and hear Me. You then come to Me. You come to seek Me daily and it is here that I am found by you. Erin, you remind Me of Elijah at times and Enoch at other times."

Me: "Do You mean that I have similar struggles as Enoch and Elijah?"

Jesus: "Well, yes! While they had doubts in their circumstances, they never doubted My Voice. Enoch came to the Mountain of God and there he was found by Me. He was afraid. Could you imagine Enoch being approached by these fallen angels powerful enough to physically harm him if he didn't give them the right answer?

"Elijah went to the broom tree and the cave to hide. He was afraid. Think of Elijah before the prophets of Baal. He did all that I instructed him to do. This is faithfulness. It is an action. With you, you do something for Me even when you don't want to. However, you still do it because you love and fear Me more than the things I tell you to do. This is faith in action. I gave you the examples of Enoch and Elijah because they make your heart glad."

Me: "Oh Lord, I could never be as holy as them or really anyone You have called in the Bible."

Jesus: "Remember... do not use the word 'never' here. Now, who makes a person holy? Is it the person or God?"

Me: "You do, Lord!"

Jesus: "Okay, so, again, let Me be God."

Me: "Oh Lord, I just fail You on so many accounts. I don't feel holy."

Jesus: "Holiness does not come from your failures. Holiness comes from your desire to love Me with your whole heart, your righteousness and your desire to make My Heart glad by your personal faithfulness and acts of love, your desire to keep upright in your walk. Holiness does not mean perfection! Now, Erin, you are holy and set apart from sin. However, this does not mean you are without sin or sinless, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I am with you. Do not be afraid. Man has given you a bad prognosis and numbered your days. However, I am God. With Me, your prognosis is good. I have been given the true number of your days. You are with Me in eternity."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Please help me with how best to spend my days before the surgery. It has been difficult. I want to honor You in all I do. I want to care for my family also. Please help me. I am scared. I don’t care what anyone says as they are not me. I am scared. In my heart, I want You to do everything a different way.

What if I cancel this surgery, Father? I don’t want it. However, what if the cancer has spread or will spread? Then how will this be for my family? All I know is I am suspended in time. I want to spend each day well. I have no interest in the things that seemed mindless before. I now just want to experience what You have for me. I am trying not to worry about what is coming, only what is here now.

I haven’t responded to emails in well over a week. I have been so focused on preparing for what is coming. I went through my 32,000 photos. These are moments in time over the last twelve years. Every photo has a memory, a story or a dream. These are records of my life that coincide with my journal pages.

I also found a letter from my Great Grandma Jeanes from August 8, 1970. In this little note, she wrote a thank you to me after I had sent her a small card with a bird. She spoke of how she loved birds. There is very little that I know of her and her life at all. My mom held onto information because Jeanes was her grandmother and she didn’t feel I needed the information. When my grandmother died, I was given a jewelry box with all of the items Great Grandma Jeanes wanted me to have.

My mom was hurt that she was not given these items. Since I was only eight, I didn’t fully understand any of this. Well, over the years, all that was in that box had been removed little by little by someone and all that remained was the box. When my Great Grandma died, so too did her story.

The story of her life was now gone as well. I have this letter. I have photos of her. I remember her home even though I was very little.

Her father even named a street after her. It is Olive Street and this memorializes her in this little town of Varna IL. It is so sad to think of so many generations we know nothing about. Maybe some leave a legacy or some monument other than a tombstone. However, most of us know very little about our history. All we have is what remains... a tombstone with our name and a beginning date and an ending.

The story is in the dash and our stories, God's story, is written in the tablets of our hearts, but now six feet under in the grave. While we are here, did we make an impact for good? How long will anyone care? History is erased. Thank You, Father, for knowing all things. You know each of us and You keep us. You hold us. Because we are children of God, we are not orphans.

I have spent so much of my life in lawfare. This includes legal battles, health wars and personal wars. All of these events have taken a great toll on my physical wellbeing.

When I was young, I was competitive and a perfectionist. I had expectations of myself that were impossible to meet. I had goals that, to most, would be unattainable. However, to me, they were probable goals. I worked hard and I was dedicated.

'NO' was not an option, even if it meant I would work several jobs to afford the equipment or the training. When a door would slam shut, I would go another way. When I would stop, I would then turn my attention to a new goal. I was healthy physically until the car accident in 1997 when I realized that I was breakable.

When I realized that I needed God to take over all of me, my story changed. My journey to bring me closer to God began at my breaking. While my accomplishments and awards sound impressive, the true miracles and the real stories are found in my failures. My quiet time of humility is when all that I am is laid before God. When I was first a Christian, I was in the midst of legal battles.

This was how the enemy created anxiety and personal wealth drain. I noticed that every time one case was settled, the settlement money would go to the next legal battle. In some of these, I had no choice but to be the pursuer in the cause of justice. However, and as with my health, the drain on my finances and my will became an issue and I had to let go of some of these. I even had someone steal my designs.

I also had an employee embezzle $30,000 while I was in the hospital. It was as if the gates of hell opened and unleashed lawfare against me. It was an ugly time and not one I would ever want to repeat. These continued to come at me for many years. These finally officially ended in 2022. While my health issues continued, my legal battles finally ended. When I think back, the anxiety comes.

At times, I fought hard in hindsight. It was a chasing and, at time, I had a clear-cut case and should have fought. I didn't. I disengaged and it wasn't easy. Even so, my children were worth the fight and I was willing to remove child support so we could live in peace. This is how I chose it. I knew that if he paid a dime towards the children's care, he would want control. I removed his ability to do this.

Looking back, I think I could have done everything differently. It was foolish, young and naïve. When God didn't answer fast enough, I would then 'step in for Him'. What a fool I had been! He has always been here. I am a shining example of God showing up for me in my darkest of moments. He has met every one of my needs. He has stepped in and provided for us. He covered for me.

I now realize that He allowed some of the troubles so that He could be seen visibly to Me in these times of darkness. Father, I need You now. I am scared. If I do nothing, I have less than two years. If I go forward, I could avoid an even worse fate of this spreading to my lungs or bones. This Wednesday, we will know for certain if the cancer has spread. It has been grieving me.

I know the promises You have given to me. These are good. I just thought... well, we have come through this great obstacle course and such difficulty only to see all of this ahead of us. The financial burdens are more than we are able to endure without You sending a miracle. Oh Father, I need a miracle! I don't want another surgery. It is here in ten days. Just ten more days. In two days, I find out how bad this is.

I then remembered a song by the Beatles... 'ob-ie-di, ob-ia-da, life goes on'. This was on their 1968 White Album. I remembered this from when I was a child. Things were not so great even when my parents played this album. Life goes on around us continually. Unless something makes someone reflect, no one stops to consider each fleeting moment.

I had a dream two nights ago.

Sub-dream 1 "A Message from God via Uriel" begins...

I was walking up the road to see the little horse that stays in the pen that Dusty once occupied. It was winter still. The skies were blue and it was cold. I walked up to the little horse and I stroked the side of its face. It stared at me and I began to cry. Just then, the horse stood on its hind legs. I felt a hand on my shoulder. I turned and there was Uriel. I reached over and hugged him. I could tell that he was uncomfortable with this hug. I believe it was because it drew attention to him.

Uriel: "Erin, I have a message for you from God."

Me: "It has been a long time since you have visited with a Word from God."

Uriel: "God is with you, Erin. Do not give up hope. Your miracle is coming."

Me: "Uriel, should I go through the surgery? Is this God's Will for me?"

Uriel: "God has placed you in the care of those He has called. After this coming test, you will know more. You are stepping out in full faith and God will provide for your every need. Worry does no good to your body. Remember that God is not finished with you yet despite reports."

I felt the horse nudge me. I turned back to look at Uriel, but he was now gone. I saw that there were some footprints in the snow, but only where he had stood. The sheepdogs began to bark and I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I fell back to sleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Supernaturally Cleaning Complete Filth" begins...

I was visiting my daughter at work. In this case, the store where she worked had cleared away. Only one wicked assistant manager remained. I was there to help my daughter open the store. I was wearing an all-silk blouse and wrap. The color was a light purplish gray with large white magnolias on it. Some former employees had stolen most of the merchandise and displays, barely leaving a functioning store.

At one point, I checked the restroom. They were disgusting. One employee pushed me and my silk scarf wrap fell into an unflushed toilet. When I pulled the scarf out of the toilet, it was supernaturally cleaned as nice as it was before. I then walked out and prayed. The entire store, including the restrooms, became spotless and sanitary. I then prayed and the entire store was changed and replenished. I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over..

I have never had a dream of a silk scarf falling into excrement before. It was disgusting. I went to my devotional chair.

Me: "Father, please show Your grace and mercy to me. I cry out to You all hours of the day and night. I will not let You go unless You bless me (Genesis 32:26). If a widow bothered the unjust judge so much that he granted her request just to keep her from coming to him, then how much more would You grant me, Father?"

"I am coming to my Father, the Just Judge, who rules in righteousness and majesty over all mankind. The Lord said, 'Will not God grant justice to His chosen ones who cry to Him day and night? Will He delay long in helping them? I tell you; He will quickly grant justice to them (Luke 18:1-8).

"My younger son fasted again without water and food. He drank water last night and remains with water for the balance of this week. Father, please grant him the desires of his heart. He has sought You with such zeal that I never had even during my darkest days. Please do this for me even if... Wait!

"Oh Father, never mind with that. You promised to grant us the desires of our heart when we seek Your Will with our whole hearts (Psalms 37:4). Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord and trust Him and He will act (Psalms 37:5).

"So, Father, I stand on these words from You and I won't budge. Please do this for me. As for my illness, it seems Your Will is for me to continue on as, so far, I have received no word that I am to stop seeking the care of doctors. Uriel said, 'God has placed you in the care of those He called.'

"So, these professionals have been called by You, Father. I am sad though. My lower back near my kidneys is in great pain. My sleep is broken up and I am unwell. Could You please consider healing me soon?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are suffering and not just physically. You are grieving."

Me: "It is aging me, Lord. I don't know if it is worry about the unknown. Well, actually, I know what it is. Did I do something wrong to bring about my illness? If I did, I repent. Lord, I am sorry."

Jesus: "Hmm, then what kind of Savior would I be if I didn't tell you to stop. In fact, would I commune with you daily and not say, 'Erin, stop what you are doing!'"

Me: "You have before, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes... and what happened?"

Me: "I stopped immediately... R2B2!"

Jesus: "Okay. So, when I told you awhile back that you had a terminal illness, did I say, 'If you stop this or that?'"

Me: "No, Lord. However, I did act on something involving one of our children that had caused so much anguish. It was ongoing rebellion."

Jesus: "Yes, this is true. However, I moved this situation completely away from you so you would have peace and so would your house. I sent your needy son out west for a short while to give you peace as well. I took over the reins of your rebellious son and he now prays, fasts and consults Me first. A miracle.

"Your daughter has become a helper and a prayer warrior during this great time of need. Your stepson is apart and bothers no one. See, I commanded the angels concerning you to do these things... to tie up loose ends, clear out clutter and continue to come to Me in your time of great need.

"Now, this you must know... I have not stopped. The enemy attacked your household in the 12th month relentlessly hoping the findings of your medical test would be lost in the noise of the battle. Now, I know what you are about to say, Erin."

Me: "Yes, Lord... why not just heal my body? I finally have the house completely finished and a new oven that actually cooks and now I cannot enjoy this? I can't live free from all of these troubles? Now I must plan in the event You choose a different way?"

"Lord, You are my Best Friend. You know me. You know the good and the bad, the healthy and the sick. I feel forsaken. We are barely sustaining here. Please, Lord. How would my... oh, never mind."

Jesus: "Death? Erin, I promised you that I am with you. While this has a great ending, it is a beginning, not the end. You do not end. Now, you have things left to do and I will provide your strength and your means. I have never stopped my miracles in your life. When I speak to you, I speak in truth. Why would I stop now?"

Me: "Because You have grown tired of me?"

Jesus: "Wait! I am God. I created you. You are My Bride. I have spent all of your life to prepare you for My service but now I am tired? I don't grow tired of those I call friend. If I don't grow tired of my friends, then how much more would I love and long to be with My Bride? Erin, am I a double-minded God?"

Me: "Of course not, Lord. I guess I am tired of being me in my body. I am tired of these battles. I am tired of crushed dreams and ongoing attacks. I am ready for the good stuff in my dreams. The world is becoming dark so quickly. Evil repays kindness with horrible deeds. We have been fooled as a people with a wicked leader whom You have allowed to rise that is destroying the nation, Israel and Europe... but really the world."

Jesus: "Yes, these leaders are allowed because people have fallen away from God. Evil has come in through the open door and evil begets more evil. The father of lies is here now, Erin, and the people still don't go to the God of all Truth, the One and Only God of all of Creation.

"Now, as you know, an invasion of the land once called 'Blessed by God and the Land of the Free' is now occurring. I see the wicked behind this and all that evil has planned for those living in the once safe land. The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at them.

"However, I laugh at the wicked and I see the day that comes against them. I shall break the arms of the wicked and I shall hold the arms of the righteous. The very wicked they plan against My people will be the very wicked that befalls those who plot in lofty places. I see. I am the God who sees.

"I promise you that they will scatter like roaches at the coming of the dawn and cry out for the darkness to cover them so they will not be exposed and found. However, I see which cavern they scurry to and which crevice they wedge themselves into. I am coming and, with Me, tens of thousands of My Saints. They will work for Me across the land to administer and enforce truth, justice and the Law of God."

Me: "Lord, I want to be in this number please!"

Jesus: "You have already been there."

Me: "Past tense, Lord?"

Jesus: "Appointed from the start. Now, when you see these evils, understand the nearness of the hour as the increase is swift and comes like a flood across the land. The father of lies has appointed himself over the government for a purpose."

Me: "As the Artificial Intelligence (AI) Czar, right?"

Jesus: "Yes. This is so he can rewrite all history and wipe out the laws, the truth and all that is evidence of God. He plans to burn up libraries and all historical evidence in museums even. It is a form of control that is outside the Laws of God. All historical evidence is stored in the Courts of Heaven by angels. One day, this evidence of truth will be used against evil.

"Now, he also has plans to cheat these elections in favor of his party. He also plans to hunt down and destroy all in opposition to him, even seizing properties, valuables and children and giving this over to the foreign invaders. He has plans to remove Christians, offer them up in courts and render them guilty with no fair trial and put into slave camps. Their children will then be taken from them to either be sold or killed."

Me: "This is awful. Oh Lord, please stop this!"

Jesus: "These are the plans of the wicked and is not necessarily what will come. This is all to destroy the nation under God and give her over to the enemy. They will then destroy Israel as there will be no defense for Israel.

"Even so, they who worship the black rock will soon know who the God of Israel is, as well as the Creator of all mankind. They will be speechless and their heads dropped in shame. Just know that all of these who are wicked are on the clock. Their time is coming and My Judgment will be swift."

Me: "You seem angry today."

Jesus: "Erin, I see such evil. I see so many evil things, and not just in secret, but also out in the open. I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if you were told. Now, you are to remember that I see. My angels are recording. Nothing is hidden. The evidence of evil is vast. So too will My Justice be widespread and swift."

Me: "What do we do in the meantime?"

Jesus: "Pray! Erin, I am with you. Many of those holding positions of power did not gain power from the people. These are positions that are ill-gained and ill-gotten."

Me: "Oh, by cheating!"

Jesus: "Yes. All of them will be exposed. It will be detailed and graphic. The people will be in an uproar over all of it. This was allowed because the times of My Judgment are forthcoming."

Me: "Scary!"

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin. This will be a time of shock, awe and great joy!"

Communion

Dear Father,

A GREAT NEWS Update! The assistant doctor to my surgeon, both based out of Portland ME, called us this afternoon with information regarding the Bone Scan that was performed on me yesterday in Presque Isle ME. She informed me that my Bone Scan showed NO SIGNS of Bone Cancer!

This is wonderful news as Bone Cancer patients rarely make it past five months...and, yes, I recognize that I have Jesus personally telling me that death is not in my future regardless of whatever this diagnosis had turned out to be! Even so, this is such GREAT NEWS and a profound relief! The Lord is worthy of all our praises!

And now...back to the dream, a dream that I had received before receiving the great news of NO Bone Cancer...

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my family, my friends, my medical teams and even the little animals in my yard. I am grateful to You in all things.

I had three dreams last night. The first two dreams seemed to be tied into each other...

Sub-dream 1 "The Keys to Many Doors" begins...

I went back for a visit to the Oakland Bay area in California where I grew up from age 6 to age 13. This neighborhood I grew up in was now dangerous. I was young and in my 20s. I had returned to visit some areas that I had remembered as a child. However, I no longer recognized the new landscape. Everything had changed. I was beginning to leave as I found no one whom I felt needed a visit.

I decided to go look at my old home instead. It was then that I suddenly noticed that I no longer had the deep feeling of pain that I once had. I was not tied to it anymore. My old home was situated about 60 feet from the railroad tracks. Closer to my home and above were the elevated Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) tracks. Below these elevated tracks had once been a beautiful grass area and walking path.

Instead of this beautifully grassed area, it was now a massively long homeless camp. Above our old home was a ladder. It was situated above our old garage where my Stepdad had taken his own life. The ladder went straight up above the clouds. I was curious, so I climbed the ladder. When I got to the top, there was a vast home of glass. I could see inside.

While there was a key entry to open the door, I had no key. Since I didn't have a key, I decided to back down. When I stepped down onto our driveway, I was approached by what appeared to be a homeless man or woman (I couldn't tell his or her sex). While he or she gave me the keyholder's name in the dream, I could not recall the name to write it down now.

Person: "You are looking for the keyholder. He is looking for you too."

He or she then pointed me in a certain direction and motioned me to walk down the street. I then walked an old familiar sidewalk a few blocks down. I remembered a different time here, one not like this. However, I was now somehow able to not attach myself to feel sorrow at all. Even so, I was still sad for those who were stuck here.

I must have walked five city blocks to a main street. The homeless encampments were everywhere. There was a horrible stench coming from them. Even so, the sun shined like it always did and the temperature was perfect. I then heard a voice...

Kind man: "Erin, I have been looking for you. Here are the keys."

I turned and there, in front of me, was a kind looking man about the same age as me in appearance (both of us looking to be in our 20s). He held out a set of keys. His eyes were a piercing blue green color that was quite similar to the eye color of Jesus.

Kind man: "Everything you need is waiting there for you. Your daughter will soon join you."

Me: "Why do I need so many keys?"

Kind man: "In order to open several doors."

He then put his hood up over his head and left. He instantly blended into the crowd.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Something then woke me up. I then moved into my second dream, a dream that seemed similar to my first dream...

Sub-dream 2 "Two Massive La Cornue Ranges" begins...

I was young again. I was in a massive restaurant. It had a huge open kitchen with at least ten food prep crews. The kitchen crew was preparing to receive two new ovens. I recognized these as La Cornue ranges. These were extremely high end. I only had one client who owned one. Even though many others had wanted one, the lead time to receive one of these ranges was ridiculous.

I then noticed that the kitchen was poorly laid out. They clearly had no designer. The way it was set up made it ridiculously hard to even function as a kitchen. There were many top chefs running around struggling to get their creations through the cooking stages to the plating. A woman in white chef's clothing then called me over to her..

Chef: "Since you say you are a designer, help us figure this thing out."

She pointed to one of the two new massive La Cornue ranges. It had several compartments and was clearly not simple to operate.

Me: "I have never operated one before, only specified one. Look, I need you to know that I am not at all comfortable..."

Chef: Interrupting me. "I don't care about your comfort. Just get it done. I've got several turkeys in these ovens. Look, we are at crunch time here!"

I then realized that this was Thanksgiving. There must have been a massive crowd to feed. In the back of the kitchen, there were several rotisserie ovens like the ones used at Costco to cook chicken, but were instead supersized to cook turkeys. I walked up to the La Cornue range and opened what once was the small door to place spices and flavorings. I noticed that when I opened the spice door that turkey skin was coming out.

I then noticed that the steam oven was now at maximum pressure. I tried to get someone's attention as several alarm bells were now ringing. The steam gauge continued to rise. Several chefs ran over and pushed me out of the way. They were angry at me. Two of the chefs then turned toward me in great anger.

Chef 1: "You hit grind mode!"

Me: "No, I didn't. I didn't even know there was such a thing as grind mode."

One of the chefs turned the oven off and opened the compartment. The turkey had completely been obliterated into mush. They all turned to blame me. I stayed silent. Even though they had hundreds of other turkeys cooking just fine, they were focusing entirely on this one and were so angry about it.

Chef 2: "This one was for a special delegate. It was perfect for him. He chose this one turkey out of your yard and he wanted this specific one served to him."

I felt the Lord tell me that this 'special delegate' was actually quite evil. I began to become stronger in my demeanor. I must have then appeared differently suddenly as these two chefs now seemed scared of me and backed down. I then heard my name called from behind me. It was the same kind man with blue green eyes from the first dream. He again looked like Jesus in quite a few ways.

Kind man: "Erin, I am here. Here are your keys. Take them and use them. You didn't grind the turkey. They pressured it and it exploded under their watch. Now, you are to leave this place as there is no one here to hear."

I nodded and then instantly disappeared.

Sub-dream 2 over..

I was only awake for a very short time before slipping into my third dream...

Sub-dream 3 "Perfect Rooms at the Old Grain Elevator" begins...

I was young again. I was traveling north to a train depot. It seemed to be somewhere like northern Maine, maybe somewhere near Calais ME. I just couldn't clearly tell. There were three young men traveling alongside me. While I didn't know them, they insisted on following me, so I let them.

When we arrived at this town, the sun in the sky above the horizon line of hills seemed to indicate that it was about 3:00 pm in the afternoon. While I somehow knew that I was correct about the time of day, I had nothing to confirm it like a phone or watch. The town was painted, but more like whitewashed. Every building was painted with white primer. All of the windows were boarded up and painted white.

Even the railroad tracks and depot were all white. Each building had one functional clear window and an entrance. As we walked down the street, I peered into a few buildings. I could see people working at their desks. The desks were Formica topped with a banding of chrome. The drawers were made of oak. I only noticed the desks because I had never seen desks like these before.

I thought it to be odd that none of the clerks had computers. They instead had light green graph paper and were working on complex geometric problems. I knocked on a door, but no one answered. I decided to open the door anyway. A woman was there to greet me. While I didn't know her, she somehow recognized me.

Woman: "Erin, it is so good to see you. Never mind us. The town is excited about the projection of the path which should cut right through our sleepy little town. The train arrives bright and early in the morning at the depot. We have a small room prepared for you at the grain elevator for tonight."

Me: "Grain elevator?"

The clerks were all laughing. One of the clerks turned to address me. She had a round metal ring of gold with several skeleton keys on it...

Clerk: "It is beautiful and has such a grand view. You will have some rest here. You will then be ready for the grand journey. Now, come with me!"

Me: "Do you have any room for my friends?"

Clerk: "What friends?"

I turned to point to the three young men who had been following me. They were gone.

Me: "Hmm, I guess they must have left."

Clerk: "Oh, do not worry... they are nearby. Since they followed you this far, they certainly wouldn't leave you before the big show. Now, come with me!"

She walked me to the edge of town where there was a massive grain elevator. The elevator was painted all white. It looked very dramatic against the golden wheat fields and the blue sky. There was a staircase on the side that led to the very top. It was quite a climb.

When we arrived at the top, the clerk used her keys to open a beautiful door. The door was made of carved white oak and sandblasted. She opened the door and there were windows all around the room. The room had a view of the entire valley and the surrounding mountains. In the room itself was a lofted white ceiling and a white painted wooden plank floor.

There was a thick feather bed on a small four-poster bed. The pillows and bed were so lush that I had never seen anything like this. It was perfect. There was even a small very fancy modern polished chrome wood stone fireplace. She went over and started a fire supernaturally quickly.

Me: "This is so lovely! Thank you!"

Clerk: "You are in our VIP Suite, the best we have to offer you."

I cried. There were flowers and a Bible on a little chair. The view was stunning.

Me: "I feel very blessed. Thank you." I hugged her.

Clerk: "This came straight from the top. Now, sunset is near. Enjoy the view. Your train arrives at the depot bright and early."

I woke up when she closed the door.

Sub-dream 3 over..

Father, in these dreams, I feel alone. I woke up sad. While I found these dreams to be interesting, I just don't understand them.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. I love you and I am with you. Do you need Me to repeat this again? I will. I love you and I am with you. Do not worry. Now, you are concerned about many things. You are worried about this and that and the number of your days. You sit in silence and try to carve out joy. Erin, there is something I want you to know... I am here!"

Me: "Lord, these dreams seem like a transition from this life to another. Oh Lord, I don't want to die. I want to stay for all of the excitement."

Jesus: "Hmm, these dreams seemed more like you were already Transformed, not in some 'in-between universe'. Erin, you understand that, for you, there is 'the here and now' and then there is 'eternity with Me'. However, let Me be clearer.. you are already here with Me now. Be strong and courageous."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am trying to be. I am just so sad. This illness has stripped me of my joy. I am trying to feel good and have joy here, but nothing satisfies."

Jesus: "I know, Erin. However, anything that comes your way, and I mean anything, then this has been allowed by Me for My purposes. Even though some of these things seem counter intuitive to what you would expect, know that I am with you in all things. I have a Great Plan with your life. Erin, did you 'catch' this? I said 'life'."

Me: Crying. "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. I love you and you are Mine. My purposes are not for you to worry about because, with all things, I have a great reason. It is about My Great Harvest of Souls. You are residing in an upper room, in one of My grain storehouses. There, I give you more than you can imagine.

“Erin, you delight in Me and I delight in you. Do not be burdened. Delight in Me in all things and I will give you the desires of your heart. I love you. Trust in Me when it seems I am making no sense. I promise you that all will be made clear to you very soon. Now, enjoy this day. I have a reason for all things. It will bring you joy!”

Dream over.

789 – Almost at the Top of God’s Mountain

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I love You and I am grateful for You. I traded a life filled with fear, doom and gloom for a life filled with peace, promise and hope. I am forever and ever thankful. Father, what can I do when I take comfort that You will go before me, yet I don’t take comfort in where You are now taking me? Even so, I just know and trust You because I love You and I desire to do Your Will.

While I know that You could cure my cancer instantly, I have to accept that You may have a different way than my desires in what is about to happen. I am not sure how we will face what is coming up. I have no idea what all of this will be like. I had a dream last night and it was similar of my Near Death Experience (NDE) on 11.22.2004 (November 22, 2004).

Sub-dream 1 “Reminiscent to my 2004 NDE” begins...

I stood at the base of this Mountain. As I was making the climb up the Mountain, You spoke to me loud and clear. It was dawn. Since there was a thick fog above me, I could not see my destination. There was a beautiful and complex geometric pattern stamped in the soft red powdery dirt on my path. I heard Your Voice...

Voice of the Lord: “Erin, climb!”

I hesitated out of fear that my feet were going to destroy the complex pattern in the dirt.

Me: “But my steps will ruin this pattern, God.”

You then responded with something I will not forget...

Voice of the Lord: “Erin, sometimes patterns must change in order for you to climb.”

In reality, in order for me to come to Your Mountain, I needed to make changes in my walk. I wanted to hear more from You. I wanted clarity. However, I had to be willing to let go of the aesthetics, the optics, of what this would look like. My feet stepped on this pattern and completely changed the path before me. From my perspective and in my honest opinion, this seemed to wreck it.

However, I was willing to do as God asked me because I wanted Him more than anything. As I climbed the Mountain to God, I had a piece of luggage with a handle. It was on wheels. It was useless and slowed my climb. Since I was climbing up God's Mountain, I knew 100% that He would have everything I would need for the journey to Him. I decided to drop my bag of belongings altogether.

Once I did, I didn't look back. After this, my climb became so much lighter and easier. I had always thought my suitcase specifically meant material items. However, I now realize that it also symbolized the need to belong... belongings. The need in my Christian walk to be esteemed and admired by others was clearly wrong thinking.

At my old church, I had no standing at all. The only way I could get this standing was if I had a large sum of money to donate to this church. I obviously did not have this sum to donate. This means that, as I was, I was a complete nobody. That being said, there were a few things that I did do for this very large church...

- I made the flower arrangements for the pulpit.
- I selected the fabrics and the carpets for the sanctuary.
- I selected the choir robes for the 100+ singers.

However, because of jealousy and politics, I was asked by the higherups to keep silent about my involvement. They were right to do so as I heard horrible things said of my selections. Even so, I am convinced that, no matter what was selected, they would have argued and complained. I chose navy blue and burgundy with gold and saw this as perfect for this venue. I feel like I would pick the same colors even today.

All of this underlines that I sometimes looked on other Christians instead of God for my 'belonging' as a Christian. Had I not removed this useless piece of luggage, I would have been negatively influenced by opposing voices to God's instructions. I therefore chose the lonely road that led to You.

After a while, I noticed that my climb no longer seemed to progress. Since the fog was still only lifting at the same rate as my climb, I still had no idea where I was going. I didn't know how long it would take. Since I knew I shouldn't look back, I didn't know how far I had come. When I almost looked back despite knowing better, I heard Your Voice again...

Voice of the Lord: "Allow Me to carry you!"

Me: "But I don't know where I am going or how far.."

I almost looked backwards, but again stopped myself (or God did).

Voice of the Lord: "No! Do not look back to see how far you have come. Allow Me to carry you!"

Me: "Oh Lord, where am I going?"

Voice of the Lord: "You must trust Me."

This particular part of my journey was exhausting and long. It seemed as if I was going nowhere. However, You knew. Father, You knew things would be different and my climb would be lonely. You told me to allow You to carry me. That meant there would be times when I could not see the end in my sights.

It meant it could be lonely and I could lose my belongings. It meant I would likely lose everything before You would bring Your blessings back. However, if I would allow You to carry me when I was tired, fearful and sick, You promised to carry me. I once again called out to You...

Me: "But, Father, I can't see where I am going. The fog is too thick."

Voice of the Lord: "You must trust Me. I see!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

Well, Father, here I am. While I also had some other dreams last night, I do not fully recall them. However, it was based on this time with You. Father, I trust You. I just don't like not being able to see through the fog. I am still scared.

I suppose that, in honor of my dream last night and my memories of my 11.22.2004 NDE, You allowed it to be a foggy day outside of our home. Well, I can clearly see that even fog can be pretty. The snow has melted very quickly and rain is in the forecast all week. Please keep the rain mild with no wind, Father, so that we have no disasters while we are away for my surgery.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, on your journey, where did you find Me?"

Me: "I found You the moment that my foot stepped out to climb Your Mountain. Your Voice was loud."

Jesus: "So, what was the purpose of My Mountain in your vision while you slept?"

Me: "It signified a long climb."

Jesus: "I am the Mountain. I am your Climb. The Fog is My Cloud, a Spirit of the Dew of Blessing. You were going to no longer rely on what you could see with your eyes, but instead through My Spirit. Oh Erin, you are priceless to Me."

Me: "I am so thankful that You see something in me that pleases You! Oh Lord, sometimes I think that I am as dense as this thick fog. I must not be that bright as none of this occurred to me before. I never examined the whole NDE dream in greater measure before."

Jesus: "Then this is the Appointed Time right now. For everything, there is a season, and a time for every matter under Heaven. This was written by a wise king, the son of David (Solomon). He did not know then that he wrote this about the Great Tribulation and the New Kingdom."

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8: 1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under Heaven: 2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Me: "Oh wow, I never knew this."

Jesus: "Read this as if it is both here and soon to come. Now, you are to also reread what you wrote in your journal yesterday about waiting. You had great understanding."

Me: "Okay, Lord, I will..."

From my journal as written yesterday begins...

This waiting is difficult. Waiting on You is difficult. Waiting on promises is difficult. While some waiting is extremely short, some waiting can be much longer. Some waiting on Your promises in this life remains just this... promises realized, but elsewhere for eternity.

In these times of instant gratification all around us today, it is hard to remain patient while we suffer. Each day presents hope. Even so, hope can then turn into discouragement when it is deferred yet another day. Sometimes You seem silent even though we know You are in the waiting. Father, please help me. When someone is older, and since I am now older, I have grown accustomed to the waiting.

Even my devotional today was about waiting. Waiting on God does not mean sitting around hoping. Waiting means believing He will do what He has promised and then acting with confidence. How can we be so sure You are telling us things that are going to happen? Then why didn't they happen as we thought they should? As an example, why didn't You tell me sooner about my cancer? Or maybe You did?

From my journal as written yesterday over...

Jesus: "Erin, the Mountain is Me and the waiting for your promises. At times, the promises I gave to you are like a never-ending climb. Well, I now ask you this... are you climbing to know Me in deeper relationship or are you climbing in search of something?"

Me: "Why does this have to be one or the other? Lord, my journey has been to seek You and know You more because I have sought You with my whole heart. In doing so, I have forsaken family and friends. Well, looking back, they never really approved of me to begin with.

"Those closest to me now know that I love You and You are first in my life. However, I would propose to You that I both seek more of You and search for answers. You are fascinating and I am never bored by You. You satisfy all of my longings and all of my 'belongings'."

Jesus: "Then you have great wisdom. Now, you have waited only to face this next obstacle. You are correct... I could heal you instantly. However, I have a Great Plan and Miracle. Will you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, I don't want another surgery. This one is a major one. Could You at least make it comfortable and heal me supernaturally? I don't want to be bed-ridden."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I know. I understand that you don't like this part of your walk... but, really, your climb. I promise to be with you every step. I will carry you. I will bless the doctors, the nurses, the instruments and even the medicines. I have not forgotten you. I love you. I will care for your every need. I am in your waiting. I am in your climb. My Glory Cloud is over you and goes where you go. You are almost to the top of My Mountain. Take courage. I am with you. Do not worry."

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. My Voice is in you."

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! I feel very blessed to have so many loving friends around me. I feel blessed for my children and also for my husband. I am so grateful for all that You have done for me. Everything! Even though I have many valleys to face, I know who resides over the valleys and the mountains. You! You do as You are my God over all things.

You care about Your children and You remember us. While generations forget other generations, You are our Father who never forgets anyone. You make possible what would otherwise be impossible for man. You designed our bodies. You created us. You selected where we would be born and who our parents are. You select everything right down to the very last detail.

From here, You guided us along the path we were to take to get us where You called us to be. You sent angels concerning us to help us in all that we do. You treasure us and hold us close even when we are unaware You were near. You made sure we always had enough to eat. You kept our power on and You help us stay warm. You fulfilled our needs and often even before we even ask You.

There has been nothing beyond Your reach in our lives. Father, You are the Greatest Gift I didn't even know I had until just a few years ago. While I knew You were there, I had no idea what an amazing Dad You are. You are the Father who is faithful and loves us unconditionally. You love us through it all. The only thing that keeps us from You is us. I run and hide when I am scared or uncertain about the outcome of a battle.

Even so, You still find me. You run after me. You are not the God who runs or the love who got away. You are here right now and there is no place I would rather be. I am safe in Your arms and You are my strength. Father, bless my friends who pray for me. Bless them today where they are. Thank You for sending them to help us during the difficult portion of this journey.

So many are in uncertain situations. They are facing health wars, lawfare in courts, family struggles, oppositions at work and even against other Christians. Since I have been averaging only twenty minutes a day on my technology, I don't respond quickly these days. However, I am so thankful to all those who send prayers and notes.

It is my hope and prayer that all of my friends will understand that I will have trouble responding quickly after this Thursday's operation. It would be so nice to be able to respond to all the notes and prayers I am already getting and others that I know are still to come. In the meantime, I will continue to pray for each of you that God will bless you abundantly and that He opens Heaven over you.

I pray that all of my friends experience the miraculous love and gifts of our Father. I command by God's Authority that the miraculous promises of God be manifested over our Nest and all those who call upon our Lord Jesus in their time of need. It is so odd to think that this is my last entry with both of my kidneys unless the Lord intervenes miraculously. Either way, I am ready for Him and what His Will is for me.

By His Authority and in the Name of Jesus, I speak divine life over my body. I am not finished yet. There is so much left to do. Father, I cling to Your promises. Even though I do not want this surgery, I will do this with courage because I know that You go before me. You are always with me and Your Voice is always in me. You will personally command the doctors, the nurses, their instruments and even the robots.

Please watch over our home while we are away. Please watch over the little animals and birds. Please watch over our children and our pets, Zoey and Snigglet. Please protect all of them from any enemy schemes. Please protect our Nest, our family of Sparrows. Please strengthen us for the journey and protect our car. Thank You, Father!

My dream last night was a simple one...

Sub-dream 1 "So Much to be Thankful for" begins...

We were now living in a home that was on level ground and was welcoming. It was our new home. The landscape was beautiful. It looked more like a home in the south. There was a massive deep wraparound porch and open glass doors throughout.

There were many people visiting us and so much activity. We were preparing for a big event. It felt like it involved a wedding or engagement for my daughter. So many people came by to congratulate us and visit. There was music and food and joy. It seemed like summertime.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, let this dream be so. It was wonderful. In this, it seemed like others were helping with the preparations. This made it so I had time to visit with our guests. This is not like I usually am as I am usually very hands on. However, this seemed more like a catered affair. I remember how beautiful the weather was. The atmosphere was crystal clear and the sun was warm.

Me: "Father, thank You for dreams. Thank You in the midst of such a dark world that You would grant me such a beautiful dream. Bless You, Father, in all the Earth. Let Your Name be praised. I love You!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I will not leave you. I have promised you many things and I will do as I promised you. I will also bless all of those who have blessed you. I will remove all of those who curse you. They will be no more. I have called upon your children. Since they have turned to Me, I have abundantly blessed them. I will bless those who bless them and say nice things of them."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. You are my Blessing and the Love of my heart. I am so grateful for You in all things."

Jesus: "Erin, the world around you is changing quickly and even faster than you understand. The moment you hear something significant on the news, something else then comes and replaces it. The news only tells of certain things. However, there is something that is not spoken of. Do you know what this is?"

Me: "Maybe AI. Well, it can't be AI as they already speak of this. Hmm, I don't know, Lord."

Jesus: "God. I am moving in the midst of this, understand? They have no power unless the evil is allowed the power to bring in the purposes of God and My Kingdom. Because of the evil that has spread rapidly, people are turning back to God. When they cry out to Me, I will be there to save them."

Me: "Lord, if You do nothing, the enemy will be able to throw this election through corruption and AI."

Jesus: "AI is controlled by the enemy. Since the enemy doesn't win, AI doesn't win. There is a great deception that is here now and a plan to destroy any and all opposition. However, they cannot destroy God. I cannot be defeated. Their plans are to modify truth and even emulate My Voice.

This is where false messiahs, false prophets and great deceptions all come from.

“Remember, if they say, ‘there he is in the wilderness’, do not go out. If they say, ‘here he is in the inner rooms’, do not believe it. Remember the parable of the Landowner who planted a vineyard. He prepared His property to protect it. He built a wall around it. He dug a winepress and even a watchtower. He then rented it to some farmers and moved away.

“When the Harvest Time approached, He sent His servants to the occupants to collect his fruit. The occupiers seized His servants. They beat one, killed another and stoned a third. The Landowner then sent many more of His servants. The occupiers again treated them in the same manner. At last, He sent His Son to them thinking, ‘Surely they will respect My Son.’

“However, when the occupiers saw the Son, they said to each other, ‘This is the Heir. Come, let’s kill Him and take His inheritance.’ So, they took Him and threw Him out of the vineyard and killed Him. So, what do you think should be done to these occupiers who robbed the Landowner of His land, harvest, His workers and disrespected His Son even to death?”

Me: “These are wicked! They must pay!”

Jesus: “Erin, God sees. The land is Mine. The harvest is Mine. The workers are Mine. My chosen Bride is also Mine. So, evil steals, occupies the wilderness and the inner rooms and calls out as a savior. However, those who are wise will heed My warning and not go out. Do not believe it. Why? This is because My Voice is in you and I won’t take you there. However, many will be deceived into believing the lies of the enemy.”

Me: “That parable seems like it is also for now... for this time we are in.”

Jesus: “Make no mistake... you are hated for My sake. Many are abused, beaten and killed by the wicked. They do this to My servants whom I sent. When I was there in the flesh, they even killed the Son of God. However, they can no longer take My life as I already gave up My life and I live.

“Now, even though it seems as if evil is winning, they are not. I will soon come with thousands and thousands of My Chosen Ones and judgment will be swift. Be encouraged, Erin. My Words are true and My justice will be swift. Now, take heart as I am with you in all you do. I have a divine purpose under Heaven. Rejoice and be of great courage. I am with you!”

791 – My Surgery is Canceled by the Lord’s Authority

Received on Saturday, March 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! Thank You for home. I am glad to be home. I am not sure how to feel today. While I had now prepared for such a big event as best as I could, this simply came and went. I am still in shock about my Thursday, March 7, 2024 surgery being canceled literally at the last minute. We drove down to Portland ME the day before (March 6, 2024) for my pre-op meeting.

While things seemed to go well at my pre-op meeting, something in my Spirit was off. I became hyper aware of our surroundings. That night, the night before the surgery, we had to run to pick up some toothbrushes as I had forgotten to pack them. The place we went to for this was filled with the strangest of men. It was around 5:00pm and the place was filled with demonic activity. My hair was standing on end.

One man with a shaved head had tattoos on his neck and face. I saw him look at two other men. They nodded at each other as they separated down two different aisles. This man was parked next to us in the parking lot and was watching us. It seemed off. We were only at this store for about fifteen minutes and then we left. While they could have been stealing together, I am not sure. Regardless, I was glad to leave.

We then encountered some other odd strangers at our hotel. I worried about our car. My husband then reminded me that God was in complete control. I then had a difficult time sleeping that night, the night before my surgery. I had stopped taking my pain medication (Excedrin) last week, so I was particularly sore. Sleeping was not easy.

To make matters worse, I was up every 90 minutes and had no peace. I was preparing for the surgery and all that might or might not occur because of this. I just wasn’t prepared for what another surgery would bring. I prayed continuously to You, Father, and, as I did, I had a couple of vivid dreams...

Sub-dream 1 "Commanding the Seas" begins...

I was sailing into unchartered waters and a storm was coming. I saw rough seas and a massive storm ahead with lightning. I drifted off toward the storm in the small dingy I was in. This dingy had no motor or oars. It was being pulled into the storm. I sat helplessly as the storm drew closer and closer. I could do nothing. I prayed to God for help. I heard His Voice call out to me...

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, command the seas to be at peace. Quell them by My Authority in you."

Using my Authority in Jesus, I put my hands out in front of me in a blocking motion similar to what an offensive lineman in football might use. I prayed in my Spirit. I then faced my palms downward as if I was smoothing out sheets in a bed. I saw the seas in front of me calm down immediately.

Voice of the Lord: "This is the Authority I have given you. Now go out and go forth!"

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up and then began to pray with Authority for You to heal my cancer and calm my body to sleep. I fell asleep and had another dream...

Sub-dream 2 "Spiders in a Bathtub" begins...

I saw a massive porcelain bathtub. It had not been used in some time. I decided to clean it, remove the dust and then take a bath in it. I then saw some slight movement in the dust. It was an almost transparent spider. It was barely alive. It looked like a Cellar Spider. As I moved to wash it down the drain, I noticed an even larger Cellar Spider on the side of the tub. I killed both of them instantly and sent them down the drain.

While I then went to hunt for more spiders, there were none to be found. I finished washing the tub and filled it with warm clear water. I added some bubbles before stepping into the tub. It felt healing, like a warm rush, from my feet to my head. I then woke up. However, this dream was so real, I was worried that I had actually fallen asleep while taking a bath.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Morning had now arrived and I was to be at the hospital by 7:00am. It didn't take long to get ready and we left shortly after. They were ready for us when we arrived. While I then prayed with my husband, something still felt off compared to all of my other surgeries. The staff was happy and confident as they continued to process me. My husband was with me for the pre-op routine. I reminded the crew about my neck to make sure they stabilized it with a pillow.

The anesthesiologist was confident this would not be a problem. I was now dressed in a surgical gown with an IV started in my hand. I was then given a shot to my torso. The nurse then wrote a note there for the doctors. All was moving forward quickly. My surgeon then came in and was ready and confident.

Me: "While I am not worried, I just wanted to remind you to keep my neck stabilized for the entire surgery."

Surgeon: Now hesitating. "What is wrong with your neck?"

He was searching his computer and his chart on me for any notes he may have on this.

Me: "I have an injury at C8-T1, but opted out of any neck surgery."

Surgeon: "Hmm, I will need to talk to our team here before we proceed. As an option, my plan was to take your kidney out, cut it open, possibly remove the tumor and then retransplant it. I had booked you for a six-hour procedure just in case. You will be on your side and tilted for a long time. I normally would need a sign off from your neurosurgeon. I could contact him. It says here that he is based in Seattle?"

Me: "Well, he was. However, he has since transferred to San Francisco."

Surgeon: Suddenly looking even less confident. "I'll be back. Sit tight."

Me: "It's okay. I am not worried. I know that I need to have this surgery. Maybe you can just proceed with a pillow?"

Surgeon: "I will confer with my team."

He left, but then soon returned with the anesthesiologist.

Surgeon: "We are not going forward with the surgery today. I am sorry."

Anesthesiologist: "Yeah, sorry... I thought you would be on your back for this one."

Surgeon: "I am so sorry. I will make some calls, get the referrals and I'll have you seen by a neurosurgeon here in our system. We also need current images. Maybe you will get that surgery before this too? Who knows?"

Me: "Oh, okay."

Surgeon: "Yes. I am so sorry. I have some calls to make. We will talk later today."

My surgeon was visibly upset as he left. The crew then came into the room and removed my IV. The nurse seemed stunned that my surgery was canceled.

Nurse: "You can get dressed now."

After getting dressed, the nurse returned and guided us out the back door right to our car. It was an extremely fast decision, declaration and departure. My husband and I then sat in the car in complete shock at what had just happened. I was relieved as the whole thing seemed off.

Since we had already committed to the hotel for a few more nights, we were going to be charged for that night if we left now. We decided to stay one more night and make a mini holiday out of it. The surgeon then phoned us later that same day...

Surgeon: "I spoke to a neurosurgeon and he has flagged you for an expedited appointment and images. It is even possible they could see you tomorrow (Friday, March 8, 2024)."

My husband and I then spent the day exploring Kennebunk ME. We drove around and took some photos. After staying the night in the hotel, my surgeon called me again the next day.

Surgeon: "I am so sorry that this didn't work out. All of this is on me."

Me: "It's okay. It was just not meant to be. That's fine."

Surgeon: "Do not worry. I will fast track all of this."

Me: "Thank you for being cautious with my condition."

My husband and I then drove home.

While I don't understand all of this, I know You have a Great Plan here. While I am happy and relieved, I am also physically exhausted. My neck actually hurt last night and it affected my entire body. I then had another dream last night...

Sub-dream 3 "Foreigners Thefts Reversed in Time" begins...

I was entering my information at a kiosk before I was able to get my surgery. The surgery kiosk kept reading out 'DECLINED'. I went to a receptionist to discuss this with her. She looked me up on her system:

Receptionist: "How many times did you re-enter your information after the first decline?"

Me: "At least five times."

Receptionist: "Some foreigners have taken your information, billed your insurance and have taken your place in line."

Me: "Wait... what? Do you mean that they are having their kidneys removed?"

Receptionist: "While one is, there are other procedures too."

Me: "But we drove all this way. How can my information like this be stolen? How could you even allow this?"

Receptionist: In a snobby tone. "Are you upset by this? You should instead be thankful that you have helped all of these people. You are being so selfish."

Me: "Okay, so, let me get this straight... my information was taken over, my insurance was stolen and now I can't have my surgery because someone else has taken over my appointment... and I am not to be upset by this?"

Receptionist: "Are you now surrendering or are you mad enough to fight?" I could now see that she was very evil. "Don't bother to fight as you can't win. If I were you, I would submit your defeat now!"

Me: "God is telling me to submit to His Authority and rise up instead. You are cursed."

She then began to walk away. I prayed and she froze. I then prayed that all of the stealing be reversed. I then prayed that the world would have no more wicked invaders and that God would send all of the evil foreigners home to their native lands. I then felt an odd atmospheric ripple or wave. While I then felt like time itself was bending, I didn't know how I could possibly know how this would feel.

I could somehow then feel time bending. I then saw people moving backwards with supernatural speed. I saw foreign prisoners back in their old cells in their own native countries. All of a sudden, I was now in real time and in the current day. The receptionist greeted me. She was kind and directed me to my doctor's appointment.

Me: "Wait? Don't I have surgery?"

Receptionist: "No. Just a checkup."

Me: "What about my kidney?"

Receptionist: "What is wrong with your kidney? I have nothing in your chart. Maybe eat more kidney beans?"

She walked me down the hall.

Sub-dream 3 over..

Me: "Father, I love these dreams from You. While some of them are quite hard to go through, I still thank You for each of them."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, worry for nothing as I am in control of all things. Now, you wonder if this day (of the canceled surgery) was not a good day for you. Well, it was certainly not the day your doctor thought it would be."

Me: "Lord, You are over all things. It was Your Will to stop this."

Jesus: "Yes. This was not to be and this is good. This will remain a mystery for now, but there was a problem. Since the enemy was afoot, I removed the threat completely. I have a Great Plan here. Now, do not worry. Continue to move forward. These images are good as evidence presents the case for a Greater Miracle. Erin, rejoice! Now, you still have cancer until you don't. Be encouraged as this delay is Mine and it is a good one. Remember to keep up your strength. When you are tired, rest."

Me: "Thank You for these dreams, Lord. I then had to look up what the word 'quell' meant as I never use this word. The word 'quell' is defined as putting an end to a rebellion or other disorder, typically by the use of force or to subdue."

Jesus: "Hmm, then you must become quite familiar with this new word because this is part of you now. I will call you into Greater Authority. Rejoice, Erin, as the enemy is removed far from you. As I am in you, My Voice is in you. Rejoice today. You are loved!"

792 – Illegal Immigrants Intend to Take Over

Received on Sunday, March 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do for us. This last night, You placed me in a very deep sleep. I woke up late and You called me to immediately come. I was not even to do my normal morning routine. The dream I had last night was, at first, happy and normal, but then it turned ominous...

Sub-dream 1 “Illegal Immigrants intend to take over ” begins...

We were traveling to a distant city. The city seemed comparable to somewhere on the west coast (Portland OR or higher up into California). The landscaping in the suburbs was lush. There were no longer hotels or resorts to book rooms at. There were also no other forms of places to stay. Those who traveled had to rely on an underground network of vetted places to stay where background checks on both sides were done.

These vetted places consisted of high-end estates. These estates needed to have ‘family’ living in every part of the estate to avoid occupiers taking over their properties. We were on our way to a distant city to visit a relative at a hospital. Travel had become extremely dangerous. Travel curfews were even set up as there would be no police or highway patrols after dark.

No one dared pull over to the rest stops as they were controlled by human traffickers and drug dealers. At night, these areas were void of law enforcement and became markets for every kind of sin. These were run by the cartels. The only customers who would go there had such extreme addictions to various things that they were willing to pay even the ultimate price to obtain it.

This was happening not only at the rest stops, but also at truck stops. The criminal activities taking place there were never reported on by the mainstream media. You could only find out about this using other means. Any innocent person stopping there, especially if they were with children, would likely never come out.

All of this seemed like late summer, maybe the end of August. While I can't say for certain what the year was, I felt like it could have been this year of 2024. As we traveled, it was difficult to find places that would take cash. This was particularly true as we approached the estate that we had booked our rooms in.

When we came within a 30-mile radius of our rental home, we turned off all of our technology. We even had a scrambling device on our vehicle so we would not be marked on a map. There were four of us traveling together. We soon arrived at a beautiful large home and property. We were greeted by a home manager..

Manager: "Welcome! Please park your car in the back behind the garage. Once you have parked, please come in."

We did as he requested. He was waiting for us when we entered the home.

Manager: "Here is a new car key so that you can use the owner's car. Since all of the trackers are still on the car, nothing will seem unusual. I will show you to your rooms."

The home was massive, easily 14,000 to 20,000 square feet.

Manager: "Now, the owners are at their summer house. You are the last stay here."

When I looked around, I could see that the place was an absolute mess. There were bottles and dirty dishes covering all of the counters. It was truly unlivable. The manager could see the disapproval on my face as I looked around.

Me: "Who was here last? This is so bad. The owners will be so sad when they return. Was there a party here?"

Manager: "Well, you could say that. At least they didn't steal anything. In terms of the cleanliness, the house staff chose to stay away until the owners return to the house next week. If you clean this, your stay will of course be discounted."

Me: "We will have to do laundry and clean up before we can even rest here. This will take hours."

Manager: "You are welcome to leave or do as you wish. Let me make a phone call."

As we continued to look around, we felt even worse for the homeowners. The manager finished his phone call and came back to us.

Manager: "The owner said your stay is free. However, there has to be people moving about the house at all times."

Me: "Understood."

After the manager left, we toured the rest of the estate. As we did and with prayer, we made all the sheets and bedding clean, as well as all of the carpets. For those areas with cameras, we physically did the chores for that particular area. The kitchen was the worst and had a camera, meaning I had to physically clean this. The bathrooms had no cameras so, through prayer, they were cleaned and sanitized instantly.

Two of us then took one of their fancy cars to the hospital. As we drove out of these gated communities, the atmosphere became very dark. Places I had been before as a kid were now unrecognizable. People were lining the streets in tents. Most were insane. Even though our car was fancy, no one came near it. This surprised us.

We went into the hospital and began to secretly and quietly heal people. There were very few staff. After this, we got back in the car and drove back to the gated community. Darkness was approaching, increasing the evil we felt in the atmosphere. While we should have been in danger, our car was supernaturally undetectable. My husband and I suddenly realized that our car was not visible to any of the criminals.

We saw people being dragged out of their cars and their cars then taken. However, our car was completely overlooked. The homeless encampments bordered these gated communities. However, the fencing around our area was guarded at all hours. In addition, the fencing was electric. High voltage warnings were on display.

When we drove down the road, we noticed that one of the homes was being taken over by occupiers and the owners removed. There was a court order posted and these foreigners had moved in and displaced the owners, two elderly people, to the street. We drove up to the elderly couple.

Me: "Do you need help?"

Woman: Sobbing. "My grandkids were coming to visit, but they never arrived. They blocked them. And now we have lost our home."

My husband and I were furious. The home was beautiful. It was a Georgian style home. It was extremely traditional with a grand entry. We prayed to the Lord and He gave us instructions.

My husband: "Pretend that we are your relatives. We will then enter the home."

After the couple agreed to this, we hugged them and then walked up to the front door. When I opened the door, there must have been ten people, all men. They were making themselves at home. Sitting on the entry table were a bunch of UN Badges of some kind, perhaps for UN Peace Officers. I figured that this must be how they got in through the gate. The men seemed furious that we were there and quickly approached us.

My husband: Bluffing. "We are the heirs to this property. Those are our relatives."

Evil man 1: "Oh good! Let us kill you and then there will be no heirs."

Evil man 2: "Give us your wife. You can come too."

Evil man 3: "Yes, you can come too. We prefer males here."

They all had extreme accents and were from a foreign country. My husband reached over for my hand. We squeezed each other's hands as we prayed together. In an instant, all of the men were struck down. We prayed again and their bodies and any trace of them being there were instantly removed.

Me: "Let's pray that their grandchildren come now and that they are okay when we leave the front door."

We both laughed as we walked outside. We told the couple that the threats were removed and that their home was now safe again.

Elderly man: "Thank you. They are so wicked. They were sent door-to-door to check for anyone violating the occupancy statutes."

My husband: "What is that?"

Elderly man: "That these larger homes have families in them. Otherwise, by the new bogus law, occupiers have sovereignty to take over any and all properties."

Elderly woman: "Then they kill us or send us through the gates of hell after curfew."

My husband: "How come they don't invade the community and take it over?"

Elderly man: "Because they want our money and backing to go to the ruling party."

Me: "They will take it anyway."

Elderly woman: "We know. However, we are all just hoping for a miracle. This is hell."

My husband: "Well, they are all gone now and they won't be returning."

Just then, their relatives came. It was their grandchildren and great grandchildren. They thanked us and wanted to give us gifts. We refused. Their home was now safe and filled with family. We left their house for our rental home. When we arrived back at our rental home, the manager was waiting for us there. He walked out to point us to the garage. After parking, we walked up to him.

Manager: "The owners are coming home early. However, they want you to still stay with them. We believe there have been some changes. We think that all of these estate owners have been tricked."

I reached over for my husband's hand and we prayed. The Lord revealed to us what was occurring. The 'Occupation of Relatives and Heirs Act' applies to all properties owned by the wealthy. This Act called for all of the inhabitants to be relatives and heirs to the estates. They are calling all of them home to take a census. However, they have sent some 'UN Peace Officers' in advance to check each home to make sure there is compliance to the Act.

My husband: "We encountered officers planning on going door-to-door. However, they became greedy at their first estate and decided to make this their headquarters. Their plan is to gather up all the wealthy and their heirs and kill them. They will then take the spoils."

Me: "They have a plan to change the countries in which the leaders don't like the values of the people. If they can remove the influential and the most wealthy, then everything else will fall."

Manager: "Most of us thought that this was all about 'one-party-rule'!"

Me: "Well, this is the goal. However, they decided to remove all threats so that no one will rise up."

When we walked inside the home, we were a bit surprised that our children had already supernaturally cleaned up. Just then, the homeowners arrived. It was a husband, wife and six children from ages 2 to 18. They came running in. After the manager greeted the owners, they came up to us.

Man: "Thank you for all you have done for us. We would love it if you would continue to stay with us."

Me: "We will, but just for one more night."

They then took us to a four-bedroom guesthouse. It was beautiful. We could see the children playing outside. They had a bouncy castle and a swimming pool. When night came, we could see men we didn't recognize go up to the main home. We all decided to go in the back door to make sure they were all okay. We overheard the 'peace officers' asking about us. We saw one man taking their little two-year-old toddler as collateral. When we stepped forward, we startled the 'officers'. The men drew guns.

My husband: "Put the baby down now."

The man refused to do it. When I went to take the baby, the man's arms turned white with leprosy and shriveled up. The other officers became terrified. Our kids gathered up all of the children and took them away from the scene. We then prayed again. All of those who were holding guns had their arms instantly turn white with leprosy and shrivel up. Even though they were in great pain, one of the men still threatened us.

1st evil man: "More and more will come for you!"

My husband: "Perfect. We will go to them instead because greater is God in us than your entire wicked army."

2nd evil man: In great pain. "This is bigger than God."

Just then, his tongue fell right out of his mouth and onto the floor. The other men became even more terrified.

Me: "Nothing is greater than God. While your plan is to kill all of these people, you will not succeed. You are on the wrong side. You will then be condemned to eternal punishment."

3rd evil man: "No, no, I beg of you. Jesus is Lord. He is my Lord and Savior. They have my family. Please don't condemn me."

My husband: "Why do you hurt others? Since you have confessed that Jesus is your Lord and Savior, today you will be with Him."

The man was instantly killed, struck down by a massive heart attack.

1st evil man: "Why? He confessed to the Name of the Lord."

My husband: "Yes, but he was still capable of all of this evil. He was still part of it. Perhaps God will speak to him in the secret room. As for here, you speak to us."

1st evil man: "Wait! No, no! Please! Jesus is our Savior!"

My husband: "You can't just say this if you don't believe it just to spare your lives. You still work for evil. God will return you to the place you have come from to be a witness to what you have seen."

The evil men instantly disappeared. There was no trace of them. The owners of the home were grateful.

Me: "We must go. It would be good for all of you to pray."

Woman: "We will. We are Christians. All of us are Christians."

Our kids then came back. We all said goodbye to our hosts and got into our car. We were instantly home. We were glad to be home.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up this morning at 10:47 am. I have not slept this long in months. While I am not sure how I fully know this, the enemy is positioning themselves all over the world. People we once thought were good are now evil. All sense of morality is fading and very quickly. The borders are being opened to redistrict the population.

They want to change the voting maps because the last election revealed that the majority of Americans voted overwhelmingly more for the other party. They are in fear of the rise in Christians and others who love this country. The same is true in Canada. The powers of the enemy have called for these changes and for the invasion by foreigners and foreign adversaries.

The invaders were first sent to sanctuary cities and then to outer areas. The call is now for them to go out into rural areas for work and for opportunities. This is designed to overpower all of the voters. Any who switch parties will be counted in the registries and their assets taken over. All others who speak out against the dominating party will be marked for removal and quietly killed.

This is happening all over the world right now. The last hold outs were the USA and Canada. However, this is the year of the enemy's great plans. The media will report the election results as if these are close, even though they aren't. The opposition party was removed in Brazil. The people had really voted for the good leaders. The evil leader only received the required votes through corruption. It was a testing ground.

Canada has also been a testing ground. There has been a quiet takeover during the last four years. There is now a rural resettlement program for foreigners to work on farms and other community operations. The real idea is to make the population believe this is morally fair and acceptable to the majority of the voters and that this is a fair democracy. Well, it isn't. It is wicked and just the opposite.

We instead have stolen elections, stolen properties and stolen rights. This then leads to captivity and then death. The plan in place is for our destruction. Father, this dream was so real. Please strengthen us and protect us from this invasion of evil. It is wicked and horrible. The gods of old have taken the land because people have allowed it. Father, please stop this. Please rise up or we will all be in great trouble.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry but be strong and courageous. The enemy's plans are loftier than you even imagined. This is worse than what happened to the Jewish people in Germany. This is much worse than this. The enemy has already declared his plans for a Red Wedding. What is a Red Wedding? Well, it is the sacrifice of the Bride in white and all the saints, a sacrifice of their blood.

"Their true goal is not just to sway a corrupt election in their favor. It is instead to overthrow the children of God and create the terror state they long to have. The whole world will be in an uproar. However, their plans will come to a sudden halt. They plan to slaughter all Christians and millions of other people.

"They plan to begin this all with a grand sacrifice in order to bring about the rightful king to reign over all in his authority over the nations. He will have one religion and this religion is the opposite of Christianity and completely wicked. What it says in their 'holy pages' is a road map to their exact plans. Their savior (a former president and obviously not Trump) is their great hope that will lead to their destruction.

"Anyone who is not useful to their cause will be publicly executed for the cameras so that fear spreads. This is the time of the Two Witnesses in Jerusalem. They will be very inconvenient for them. Now, Erin, you are not to worry about all of this. The land is too vast for invaders to go out in all of the areas."

Me: "Lord, You must have a plan for now, right? This stuff is coming this year and it is an election year."

Jesus: "Remember that I am God over all things. My Army and Power is far reaching and overarching. This will not go well for the enemy. His Red Wedding will instead consist of a vast White Wedding with all the regalia and pageantry. He will be forced to watch and take this all in. Do not worry as God prevails. I am about to shake the Earth. Erin, I am with you. My plans trump the enemy's schemes.

"Now, your dreams will become even clearer. I will also expand these dreams to others so that you are in unison. While the dreams will be different from each other, those coming from Me will have a similar message. Pray on this.

“Now, the enemy wants to take down the west. They have been slowly and painfully taking down Europe and South America. However, I have a Great Plan and I am over the nations. I hear their plans and these are not life giving. While the wicked leaders hate all of the Americas, these are Mine. I am over Israel and this is Mine.

“I have sent the wise. They are silent until I strengthen them and raise them up so all will know I am God over all of the Earth. I will be victorious. Pray and do not worry. Be at peace knowing that you are Mine and I am over your house. Rejoice as the enemy will not prevail.”

793 – Renovating the House of Seven Gables

Received on Monday, March 11, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for the wonderful divine delay for my kidney removal. If You would, please just heal me so I won't even need this operation. Father, please let one of these new tests reveal that this tumor is completely gone.

I had a vivid dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Renovating the House of Seven Gables" begins...

A little background on the House of Seven Gables from Wikipedia: The House of the Seven Gables (also known as the Turner House or Turner-Ingersoll Mansion) is a 1668 colonial mansion in Salem, Massachusetts, named for its gables. It was made famous by Nathaniel Hawthorne's 1851 novel The House of the Seven Gables.

The house is now a non-profit museum, with an admission fee charged for tours, as well as an active settlement house with programs for the local immigrant community including ESL and citizenship classes. It was built for Captain John Turner and stayed with the family for three generations.

I had just purchased the House of Seven Gables. However, in this dream, it was larger than what the House of Seven Gables actually is. The outside was very dark and the home was positioned in a quiet sea cove. The landscaping was beautiful. The north side of the home had a porte-cochere.

However, instead of an entrance for horse drawn carriages, a train track ran through it. When I looked out to where the train tracks went, I saw that there was a turntable toward the sea in the ground that was used to turn the train around. It had to be a single car operation, like a trolley car. It was very specific.

I then went inside the house. It was dark inside and not inviting at all. I knew it would be quite a task to remodel all of this. One day, I received a knock on the door. When I opened it, there was a crew of expert artisans and remodelers standing there.

Head contractor: "We were called here by an angel of the Lord to help you with this great task of bringing this into this century. This will be the last renovation of the house and you will be the last tenant and owner."

Another craftsman chimed in: "Let's do this justice!"

Me: Laughing. "Well, since the Lord sent you, I am in great hands. Come on in!"

I opened the door to the workers. I had some blueprints that I had been revising.

Me: "The Lord has called us together to make this current Home greater than the former house."

Another artisan: "God's Glory will be upon this Home and nothing shall come against us!"

Just then, we heard a knock on the door. When I opened the door, there stood a woman all dressed in black. She was gaunt and had black-rimmed glasses. She held an official looking paper.

Woman: "Excuse me, but are you the woman who purchased the Gables Museum?"

Me: "Yes, I am the woman. I am the new owner of the Gables."

Woman: "I see you have contractors."

Me: "Yes. We are remodeling with only the very best."

Woman: "Well, this paper I am holding is a cease-and-desist order as this home is on the historical register."

Me: "While this is true, that is the old way, the former house. This wasn't working. The entire place had fallen into disrepair. No caretakers. No budget. No museum. Hence the sale of the Home to me, the purchaser."

I pulled out my bill of sale and showed it to the woman.

Me: "As you can see, it says here that the only thing that must remain is the exterior footprint and the placard. All museums have now been closed. All museums across the land have now been pillaged. We are all professionals here.

"Besides, I can see that this document you have presented to me has been altered, possibly forged, and not even notarized by a judge. In addition, an officer of the court would be serving me personally, not a private citizen."

The woman became noticeably nervous. She was shifting from foot to foot.

Me: Now looking straight into the woman's eyes. "Are you from the witch's museum just down the road? I would turn and leave right now and not come back."

The woman looked at me with great hate before turning in a huff. A few of us then prayed together after the woman left that none of her kind would come against our work again. While many of the town folk said the house was haunted, we never encountered any of this.

As I reviewed what was being done, it was easy to see that there had been many remodels over the years. Because it was so piecemeal, we decided to change all of it. We first removed any unnecessary walls to open up the space. We then added beautiful rustic wood beams and hand scraped wood floors.

The walls were re-plastered with a venetian finish and were flawless. The finish carpenters were the finest I had ever seen. Every detail was covered and we were as a team "one" in our goal. There was laughter, no bitterness, no jealousy and no shortages of materials. It was a dream team and we all became friends in the process.

While it took around three months altogether to remodel, the home was so beautiful once it was finished. On the final day and into the evening, we had a great celebration and praised God for such a supernaturally perfect project.

While celebrating we saw from one of the windows a startling sight. A strange boxcar was coming on the railroad tracks towards our Home. There were flames billowing out of the windows. It was coming straight for us. When we all then prayed against this, the boxcar suddenly changed directions and went straight back to the witch's museum where it had come from.

As time passed, we made many new friends. However, we also made many new enemies. Even so, this Home finally had what we needed... less of the world and more of God. While this Home had been cursed and bankrupt, it was now blessed and prosperous.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Thank You, Father! I remember going to see this house when I was a child. When I was in this house, the hair on my arms stood up. It felt like such a depressing home to me. While I don't recall any of the individuals' stories, I just know that this dream seemed both hopeful and fun. In reality, owning this house has never been a thing that I have ever aspired for. I am not sure what any of this even means.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. This dream was symbolic of you and your house. Though your beginnings were small, your latter days will be great. Why? Because I am in you. When you were young, you never imagined that anything of great value would come to your days, so you fought.

"Despite your station in life, your lot according to the world, you saw yourself as small. However, with Me in you, you are no longer small. Your tent pegs will expand as I call you together for My purposes. This new House will be greater than the old house. I am about to shake the nations, Erin."

Me: "Lord, what about Job 8 and Haggai 2? You are speaking of these things here..."

Job 8:1-22 (Bildad Speaks: Job Should Repent): 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said: 2 "How long will you say these things, and the words of your mouth be a great wind? 3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert the right? 4 If your children have sinned against Him, He has delivered them into the hand of their transgression. 5 If you will seek God and plead with the Almighty for mercy, 6 if you are pure and upright, surely then He will rouse himself for you and restore your rightful habitation. 7 And though your beginning was small, your latter days will be very great.

8 "For inquire, please, of bygone ages, and consider what the fathers have searched out. 9 For we are but of yesterday and know nothing, for our days on earth are a shadow. 10 Will they not teach you and tell you and utter words out of their understanding? 11 "Can papyrus grow where there is no marsh? Can reeds flourish where there is no water? 12 While yet in flower and not cut down, they wither before any other plant. 13 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless shall perish. 14 His confidence is severed, and his trust is a spider's web. 15 He leans against his house, but it does not stand; he lays hold of it, but it does not endure.

16 He is a lush plant before the sun, and his shoots spread over his garden. 17 His roots entwine the stone heap; he looks upon a house of stones. 18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it will deny him, saying, 'I have never seen you.' 19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the soil others will spring. 20 "Behold, God will not reject a blameless man, nor take the hand of evildoers. 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouting. 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will be no more."

Haggai 2:1-9 (The Coming Glory of the Temple): 1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet: 2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not as nothing in your eyes? 4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the Lord. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the Lord. Work, for I am with you, declares the Lord of hosts, 5 according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not. 6 For thus says the Lord of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. 7 And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the Lord of hosts. 8 The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, declares the Lord of hosts. 9 The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the Lord of hosts.'"

Haggai 2:10-19 (Blessings for a Defiled People): 10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came by Haggai the prophet, 11 "Thus says the Lord of hosts: Ask the priests about the law: 12 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches with his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?'" The priests answered and said, "No." 13 Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before Me, declares the Lord, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean.

15 Now then, consider from this day onward. Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of the Lord, 16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. 17 I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and with mildew and with hail, yet you did not turn to Me, declares the Lord. 18 Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider: 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you.”

Haggai 2:20-23 (Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet): 20 The word of the Lord came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, 21 “Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth, 22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall go down, every one by the sword of his brother. 23 On that day, declares the Lord of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, declares the Lord, and make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you, declares the Lord of hosts.”

Jesus: “Erin, then study My Word. These are true. However, these are for now and what is to come in these times. I did not bring you here to this point with no guidance, no words or no map. Now, what do you need to proceed with your changes?”

Me: “Blueprints. Blueprints! Blueprints are the beginnings of everything.”

Jesus: “You already have the Blueprints. However, I will now call in the craftsmen and the artisans to work with you. You will be restorers of My Walls on the Foundations I have made. Rejoice! Greater is My Glory in this, My House, than in the former house. Rejoice, Erin. Rejoice as I am about to do some groundwork.”

Me: “Shaking?”

Jesus: “Yes! Preparations to ready hearts, humble the proud and make the wicked tremble! This is good!”

794 – Our God is mightier than The Purge

Received on Tuesday, March 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! We feel so blessed by You. Thank You. My husband has had some time off due to my kidney removal surgery that was scheduled to happen on Thursday, March 7, 2024. It has been odd because there was so much upheaval surrounding this cancer and my surgery that I am not sure I realized how much I miss just normal daily things.

While my cancer is still here, the pain of a surgical recovery is not. Father, I am so relieved and grateful for this Divine Pause. I now wonder if the enemy was afoot before when this surgery was still in the works. Sigh... I won't truly know until one day all is revealed by You. Even so, I am thankful to still have all of my body parts. Thank You!

I had a few extremely vivid dreams last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Helping out my son's friend in Tacoma WA" begins...

I went to a different city with my younger son to help him find his friend. We were now in the city of Tacoma WA. The whole city was extremely dark. As we walked around, someone came up to talk to us. I could tell he was friendly.

Stranger: "Listen, you need to be cautious because the police stations are now closed between the hours of 10:00 pm and 6:00 am. No one is answering calls during this time."

Me: "Thank you for telling us this."

We had no need to be concerned. Even though there was crime everywhere, both of us had zero fear as we were now different. Jesus was now with us in all ways. People were breaking into homes. We even heard gunshots coming from various areas. It was eerily similar to the horror movie called 'The Purge'. After we searched all of his friend's known places, we noticed that there was a high school basketball game.

The place was quite crowded. Even though we both agreed that it seemed a bit late for a game to start, we went inside. The gym was crowded with citizens. They were all gathering together in large numbers instead of staying in smaller groups in their homes. We went up to one of the people who seemed to be an authority. He looked like a security guard and was heavily armed.

Me: "What is your roll here?"

Guard: "I am an off-duty policeman. We are all throughout this building. We are keeping people safe during the no-protection time blocks. Since the people here have no means of protection at home, no guns, they gather here instead."

As we spoke, my son continued to go throughout the building calling out his friend's name. After no response, he eventually came back over to me.

Son: "Mom, I have done everything I could do. She doesn't want to be found by me. Let's go." He was so sad. "God has her. I will see her again soon."

Just as we were about to leave the building, his friend called out my son's name twice. She continued to call out to us.

Friend: "Wait! Please don't leave! Help!"

We turned and went in the direction of her voice. After a short search, my son was once again reunited with his friend. The lights in the gym then went out. My son and I then supernaturally turned them back on. I then spoke to the crowd there.

Me: "I am here to warn all of you that evil people are on their way here right now to attack all of you. Everyone remain in here for your own safety. We will look after this threat with the Lord's assistance."

My son and I went outside. There was a large group of people coming towards us. They had rocket launchers and flamethrowers. My son put up his arm and all of the vehicles they were coming in suddenly flipped backwards and exploded. We then went to hunt the others down.

We found hundreds of them. We struck them down in great numbers. As dawn broke, hundreds of bodies of the evil people remained. However, in just a moment of time, all was removed and the city completely cleared of the wicked. With the three of us now together, we then went to another city in the west.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Sub-dream 2 "The Stars play together in the Sky" begins...

I was looking out my window over a yard filled with snow. It was dark. I kept seeing animals in the brush that I had never seen before. They would appear and then disappear. I saw two dogs chasing each other. I then saw a large bear facing the dogs. From a large rock, I looked over to the side and there I saw a lion, perhaps a mountain lion, pouncing on a running mouse. It was bizarre.

I then went to the western view of my house and saw all three of these in the stars over the sky. However, there was no sign of any mouse. Sub-dream 2 over..

Sub-dream 3 "Hired despite my Dirty Laundry" begins...

I had to leave for a trip quickly. I had very little time to pack. I gathered up a pile of dirty laundry and carried it with me to where I was going. At one point, a potential Employer and a Big Deal wanted to speak to me. This was so odd in that I was still holding onto my dirty laundry.

Several articles of clothing then fell out of my hands to the ground. The entire pile of clothing soon laid at His feet. I was mortified because one of my dirty undergarments was right there in front of Him. While I tried to cover it up as much as I could, I simply couldn't. Despite all of my dirty laundry, this Employer still hired me.

Sub-dream 3 over..

Thank You, Father, for my dreams. What a blessing these are!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. I am the 'Big Deal Man' in your dirty laundry dream (Sub-dream 3). Despite your past, your lack of training and even your lack of preparations, I chose you... dirty and soiled laundry included. I love you and I chose you. This covers your shame. Nothing is hidden from Me, the God who pursues you.

"Now, the dream of the animals in your yard at night in the snow (Sub-dream 2) is a direct timing marker. Look to the horizon at night. The stars are marked. When I give you a dream such as this, you usually focus more on the animals. However, these are also symbols of various other things, such as stars as constellations in the night sky and their order and position. They can also represent the heavens, countries, peoples or enemies.

"Erin, write all of this plainly and in proper order. Become in touch with these as I instruct you.

"Now, the very first dream (Sub-dream 1) is what is coming to the nation by wicked rulers. The safety being removed means that I was removed far before this. This is what occurs when the government collapses. This collapse could be physical or because of other reasons as allowed by Me. The enemy gave you a foreshadowing of this time of tribulation in popular culture. This is so you know the enemy's plans to take down society."

Me: "Yes. There are so many movies now. Three that come to mind is The Purge, The Hunger Games and the Obama movie ('Leave the World Behind' on Netflix)."

Jesus: "Yes. However, once it is void of all things holy, 'The Purge' is then at all hours of the day. All holiness then disappears, along with any remnant of God in their midst. All fair justice, mercy and grace will also then disappear. All that is good that remains then also leaves. This is the enemy's great plan."

Me: "In the first dream, why were my son and I there?"

Jesus: "This was in the beginning of the end. You were there to find certain people and restore temporary order until the last smaller group of remaining saints are gathered. This doesn't include those who come through the tribulation of these days."

Me: "I have so many questions about the Rapture and these chosen workers and this gathering."

Jesus: "Think of it this way... trouble comes to a Farmer right before He has finished His Harvest. His Harvest was so bountiful with ready crops that His Crew needed to rest as a sabbath day before the final harvest of crops in the outer reaching fields. Because of varying factors, such as difficulty of terrain and harsh conditions, the Harvesters needed to be rested and strengthened on the day following. When they went out, they were fully strengthened, focused and swift in their work to gather the balance of harvest for the Farmer."

Me: "What was the trouble that came to the Farmer, Lord?"

Jesus: "Trouble to the lands."

Me: "As an act of man or as an act of God?"

Jesus: "Well, all things are only as allowed by God. However, nothing can stop the Farmer's Harvest."

Me: "His Workers are called to rest because the Harvest is bountiful. This is good, right?"

Jesus: "Think of the day's events at the Cross. Darkness fell. A Great Wind and an Earthquake then came that opened the graves and took down the Temple. While my body had been in the tomb, I then rose and appeared to many. So too it will be like this here."

Me: "Oh! Same events, but in reverse?"

Jesus: "Study this then to know what comes."

Me: "I can't truly know unless You reveal it, Lord."

Jesus: "No matter how a person prepares for what is coming, truly no one is really prepared. You can be excited though as your Vessels, your hearts, are on Me and your sins are confessed. This is good. However, when all of these things happen, it will be something you would not believe even if I told you now. Now, do not worry as My Plan is a Great One! To tell you all things in advance is to bring undue fear to you and your house.

"You are instead to be at peace knowing that I am God over all things and not one who is lost can't be found by Me... that is, if they want to be found by Me. Shame will not keep anyone from the love of God. Those who you will seek as I send you out together will be those hiding in fear, worry and great shame. However, you will find them and nothing will stop you."

Me: "Oh yes, the lost sheep! The ones sold into sex slavery and other things!"

Jesus: "Yes. They are not far from the hand of mercy and grace as I will make them as white as snow. I am in the midst of them and I see. Now, write plainly! This is a good day! You are loved by the King, Erin!"

Dream over.

795 – The Old Earth is Remodeled

Received on Sunday, March 17, 2024

Note: I wrote the following on Friday morning, March 15, 2024. This was meant to be my personal 'rant'. I was not planning to share this with the Nest. However, when writing down today's dream on Sunday, March 17, 2024, I felt pressed by God to include my 'rant' as a prelude.

Communion

Dear Father,

I am so thankful for You! I am so sorry for crying so much for the last 12 hours, if not more. I just can't seem to stop. All the anxiety over everything has reached a sad place. Father, You know the days I have here. I have grown tired from all of the legal stress and medical issues that I have had for at least thirty years now. This is basically half of my life. If I wasn't being attacked financially through my enemies, I was being attacked physically with my health.

Something snapped yesterday and it made me not feel like doing anything. I didn't feel like having any more surgeries or tests. Father, I love You and I believe in Your miracles. You have always cared for me. Right now, I feel like I need to keep things together and be strong as I have several people who call me an inspirational Christian. While they see me as brave, I am really terrified right now. I feel like I can't tell people I am terrified because I preach faith and courage.

While I love You and I have faith in Your miracles, I am clearly panicking and under attack. Father, please help me. I am lost, scared and hurting. You dwell in me and I have given You my Temple, one that is in need of a great remodel. My heart grieves. I am so sorry for being so weak. You have given me the life of a princess. I love our dwelling and my husband, children and Nest family. Still, I feel as if I have missed out on so many aspects of life.

Is my heart good? Did I do everything I could in this life? I want to be here for all that You have promised. I don't want to miss one moment. Lord, You wept in the Garden of Gethsemane. You saw what was coming and your heart was grieved. Well, I am now so grieved by this world. I am so saddened by it. My tears and suffering do not honor all You have done for me. I am so sorry. I love You, Jesus. Sigh... sometimes I even forget what You look like.

Now, back to today's dream.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for holding me close and wiping my tears. I have experienced the great anxiety of the major surgery that didn't even happen. Father, You are saying, 'Not right now!' I am thankful and grateful for this time. My Spirit in me, Your Spirit, is grieving. One day last week, Thursday into Friday, I didn't stop and couldn't stop crying.

Everything came to this moment in time in terms of the buildup, the prayers and the preparations. This was all to get my house in order for what might come. Well, it has been rough. While I have had medical setbacks over the years, including well-documented injuries, all of this has come at a time when I was focused on other things, not the state of my existence here.

Father, I am thankful for all things. I am grateful for a journal and a pen. I am grateful for my dreams that instruct me at night and Your Words that guide me at daybreak. I wish I could go back a few years ago and make changes. At the least, I would like to deal with the issues that plague me the most, especially my C-Spine neck injury. In so many ways, this was an easier injury to deal with than this new internal issue.

I have been grieving and bargaining with You. My saving grace is the example of Jesus in Hebrews 5:7. While Jesus was here on Earth, He offered prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears, to the One who could rescue Him from death. God heard His prayers because of His deep reverence for God. Jesus knew what He would be facing in advance.

Or this... Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, You, Father, and he said, 'Oh, that You would bless me and enlarge my territory. Let Your hand be with me and keep me from harm so I will be free from pain.' You, Father, then granted his request.

First, I had to come to grips with crying. Over the years, I have had a few tears on my pages. However, these were next level tears, the kind of crying where I can barely breathe. My vision then becomes blurred with tears and I am inconsolable. I can't be comforted when I am like this. My children then text my husband behind the scenes to find out how to handle me. In some ways, it is kind of amusing.

However, this is between me and you God, the only One who knows every part of me because you created me. I have struggled with coming to you the last several days. It is as if I had stopped hearing from You. You then stepped in, Father. You sent me help. Then Lord you did something I never thought you would... You spoke to me through my younger son.

I knew it was truly from You because I recognized Your mannerisms. Since my son knows very little about these dreams or the Bible, I knew the things he was telling me were impossible for him to personally replicate.

I then received a Word from someone I don't know in Africa. I did not recognize his name nor did I personally even want to open up my Facebook page. However, the Lord told me to open my Facebook for a Word He had sent from this person from Africa to me. This is the Word You said was for me...

"For someone... I restored Your Spirit, soul and body to the person I created and said, 'This is good', and restored to you all the enemy had stolen killed and destroyed. And then, I placed you in high places, seated you with kings, brought you into the presence of the Great and laid a table before you in the presence of your enemies. When it seemed like it was over, you were just beginning!

I am the Author and Finisher of your story and I promise you this is how your story will end. Isaiah 46:10: Only I can tell you the future before it even happens. Everything I plan will come to pass, for I do whatever I wish. You are in the process now. Don't give up. This will be your testimony to the world. Look up. Your salvation is near! I am coming suddenly! I will help and strengthen you.

Isaiah 60:14... the descendants of your tormentors will come and bow before you, those who despised you will kiss your feet, they will call you the city of the Lord, and lion of the Holy One of Israel. Though you were once despised and hated, with no one traveling through, I will make you beautiful forever, a joy to all generations.

Jeremiah 30:17... 'I will give you back your health and heal your wounds', says the Lord, 'For you are called an outcast – for whom no one cares.'

1 Corinthians 1:25-29... This plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength. And He chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful. God chose things despised by the world, things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important. As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

Your Beloved who loves you deeply – Jesus”

I just knew this was from You, Lord! You then confirmed that it was.

Last night, we watched a movie about a woman who became blind after a tragic accident. She could only see distorted images. They were disorienting. I became sleepy during the show, so we ended it for a good night's sleep ahead. My husband prayed for me and I barely recall what he said. I then had an incredible dream...

Sub-dream 1 “The Darkness Arrives” begins...

I woke up to a beautiful spring day. The sun was warm and the grass was green. The sun shined in the late morning sky. I looked outside and could see hundreds of birds in my yard acting strangely. Even though there were so many different kinds of birds there, they were all huddling together on our front yard on the grass not in the trees. I then decided to get my camera in order to capture this moment in time.

This was not to be! As I turned to go back in, all around me was plunged into complete darkness. I could see nothing. There was only blackness. When I held my hand out a few inches from my eyes, I couldn't even see my hand. However, I still had no problem hearing and what I heard was disturbing. I heard everything with such clarity...

- The Birds: I could hear the birds crying out together in their massive huddle. Since I couldn't hear any flapping of wings, I knew that none were flying. All remained together there on the ground.
- My Children: I could hear my children calling out to me. I then yelled out to them, 'Stay where you are. God will soon bring us His Light.'
- Our Neighborhood: I could hear crying and wailing coming from all over our neighborhood. It was unsettling as I could hear the sheer terror in their voices.
- My husband: I could hear my husband's voice call out to me, 'Erin, it's here! The darkness is here! This is even scarier than I thought it would be!' I then replied to him, 'Yes, this is frightening!'
- Our dogs: I could hear our dogs whining and yelping.

We then saw a light like an orb come down upon our house. We all could then see again. However, this was not the case for our neighborhood as we continued to hear people crying and screaming in terror in the distance. We huddled together in our main room and prayed. While no one else in our neighborhood could see us or anything at all, we somehow could tell that we were now in the middle of the day.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I woke up suddenly when I began to cough. I got up and walked to the bathroom for some water. I was amazed at how easily I could see in the dark under normal conditions. However, to have total blackness, as if struck by blindness... well, this would be frightening. I decided to test this out by walking back with my eyes completely shut. Because I knew the route, I was able.

Even so, areas I had been confident in avoiding, I was way short or long in steps. When I finally arrived at my bed and opened my eyes, I was short of where I thought I should be. I hadn't measured my steps properly. I then turned on a night light and laid my head down. After a while, I fell back asleep and had another dream...

Sub-dream 2 "The Old Earth is Remodeled" begins...

I woke up in a room with high ceilings and windows. It was not here, but somewhere else. It was beautiful. It was breathtakingly beautiful and very much like my dreams of Heaven itself. While this felt like Heaven, it somehow still felt different. I walked out the large windowed wall through the French doors of glass onto a type of veranda overlooking a small lake. The landscape was lush with flowering vines and the sounds of birds singing.

I was amazed at how beautiful it was. I could now breathe so deeply. I felt fully alive. I had peace. I looked back through the doorway at this bed I had been on. It was the most comfortable bed I had ever slept on. It wasn't from this world. My feet were stepping on stones cut from onyx or translucent marble. It was cut and installed with perfection... again, out of this world. The beauty here was amazing.

I then heard a knock on the door. I bounded for the door. I then realized that I was now in a different form. I was young again and changed. When I opened the door, Jesus was there. I reached over and hugged Him.

Me: "Did I die, Lord?"

Jesus: "No, Erin, you were just sleeping. Come, I have much to show you." I turned to look for my shoes. He stopped me. "Come as you are."

He reached out His hand. When I took His hand, my clothing changed. He took me to a horse stable that I am quite sure would never exist like this on Earth. The horse's quarters were better than most humans. There were no doors to the stalls. All was open. Each horse had a soft area to rest.

At the end of the stable area were two horses. These two horses came out to greet us. I recognized the one as Jesus' horse and the other was a foal or offspring of His horse. The horses bowed to receive us as there were no saddles. After mounting the horses, Jesus went first through the doors of the stable and I then followed.

The horse I was riding on was in step with me and followed Jesus. We rode through the most beautiful terrain I had ever seen. He then stopped at an overlook with a beautiful tree. There was fruit in the tree and fresh grass underneath. There under the tree was a small table with settings.

Me: "Oh, are we having a picnic, Lord?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but it is still morning. As such, we are partaking in 'Break-Fast' instead." He motioned for me to sit at the table across from Him. "Erin, look at this view. Do you know where we are?"

Me: "Heaven? Lord, this seems like Heaven."

Jesus: "Look at your hands, Erin."

I looked at them. They were my hands, but there were no longer any aging signs. My forearms were solid. The nailbeds on my fingers shined like pearls.

Me: "Lord, I am healed. Are You sure I am not in Heaven, Lord?"

Jesus: "Erin, this is the New Earth! I remodeled it. Do you like it?"

Me: "It is amazing! Incredible!"

Jesus: "This is only a fraction of what I have planned for those who love Me. Now, enjoy some of your favorites..."

He pointed to the table. In front of us were the most incredible looking pastries, fruits and other things like sausages and eggs that I had ever seen.

Me: "Lord, is this pork sausage?"

Jesus: "No, but equally satisfying. Take a bite."

Me: "It tastes just like it, but..."

Jesus: "Better... and much better for you. Now, enjoy breakfast. I then have places to show you."

We ate and laughed. I think I cried too. We spoke about the horses. The horses then turned to look at us and then appeared to converse with each other. They then laughed together about us.

Jesus: "Hey, you two... I can hear you."

The horses turned to Jesus. He laughed. I had never seen anything like this before.

Me: "Wait! You knew what the horses were saying to each other?"

Jesus: "Yes. You will all be as one and like it was in the beginning. You will converse with the animals and birds. They will converse with you. Erin, My Kingdom for My people is like that of the Garden of Eden. However, this is even better. I walk amongst you and I am visible to you. You will be as one with Me, the King. You will be in step with all that I give you, each according to their portion.

"You will have your heart's desire here. All that you were robbed of from the enemy will be as a recompense from Me here for you. All the promises I gave you will be realized here with Me. This is important. Be encouraged because you have so much to look forward to. There is no need to worry about how God can possible do this or that within this timeframe.

"You mourn for your children and become sad that they will have lost all that time to be able to do things that you were able. You become sad for your sons and daughter and wonder how they will ever be married or have children. You yourself mourn for the grandchildren you never had.

"Well, Erin, you will enjoy the fruits of your labor. Here, these are realized on Earth as it is in Heaven. I have shown you the place I have prepared for you... on Earth as it is in Heaven. You can go to both here. Now, look over this wonderful valley. Erin, look at those mountains."

Me: "Lord, is this the Cascade Range? Is this Bend OR? Wait, is that a golf course?"

Jesus: Smiling. "Yes, Erin. All of this is yours."

Me: "Are You giving me Bend OR?"

Jesus: "Well, you will need to share this with others. However, I have a beautiful place for you here, along with your most favorite things you lost. Here, they accompany the new things you never knew you wanted. It is not just material items though. It is the place I restore broken dreams and lost hopes. It is here, Erin.

"Your children will also be here to raise their own families and have their dreams restored. All of this is My recompense I give to you. Now, all that was lost or stolen will be returned. You will have no sickness here and no loss. The moment you ask, I will answer. My Voice is with you and I walk amongst you."

Me: "But what happened to our old home?"

Jesus: "You can visit this also. It has changed and been upgraded. What the enemy stole will be returned and better. Now come with Me and I will take you to the streets of Jerusalem. The enemy had no hold over My dwelling place."

I had never been to Jerusalem before. While I had only seen photos, what I was now seeing was truly the next level.

Me: "This is massive, Lord. How?"

Jesus: "You are part of this here. All that was stolen from you, they also stole from Me. Now look at all of God's Land..."

"From beyond the River to the Sea, all of My people are free!"

Me: "Wait! Did the enemy destroy Israel?"

Jesus: "They tried to destroy the whole Earth. However, I am in control over all things."

Me: "I no longer see the Dome of the Rock!"

Jesus: "It is interesting that the enemy had made this the main focal point for all to see. What I replace this with is much better and will give a God's eye view."

We then walked into an open-air museum of ancient artifacts restored behind clear glass on the route to the Temple Mount. The greenery and flowering vines were breathtakingly beautiful. As we approached the steps of the Temple, I saw the Ark of the Covenant to my left and the wooden Cross that Jesus died upon to my right. I stood still as I was in shock and awe. The Cross still had Jesus' bloodstains on it. At the base were the nails, squared off rectangular heads and about 6" to 8" in length. Tears streamed down my cheeks. I was now speechless.

Jesus: He was smiling as He tried to 'snap me out of it'. "Erin... Erin... I am here... I am here... This is a reminder of Truth. This is the walk of My story. The Temple is built here where the Cross ended. Erin, I am alive. I am here now with you. This is My New Kingdom. All those who come here to worship, and all will come, they will walk past the evidence and remember Me and remember God. The whole Earth will take part in My Feasts and observe My Holy Days.

"Now, we still have much to do and people to see. I brought you here to encourage you and to share in My promises for you. You will wake up and remember what I showed you. You will write this down plainly and then rejoice. I love you, Erin. I never once forgot you. I haven't forgotten My promises to you, not one, and I will fulfill all of these... some for now and many more for eternity.

"I am with you. I am yours and you are Mine. My Kingdom will consist of My Chosen, My Bride, and the saints of old and those who have come from the Great Tribulation. All those who are to reign with Me are those whose hearts have been refined through My Refining Fire and been made new. We will walk together for 1000 years and into eternity together as one.

"Now, I know you will have many questions. However, all that is occurring is part of a greater plan. All the wicked, the evil and the vile are being brought out into the open for all to see it. Those who participate and revere them will follow them. All of those who are opposed and focus on righteousness will be rewarded with truth and will witness the miracles of God. Erin, the Great Divide is here I am with you. Do not be afraid. God is over all things!"

Me: "I choose You, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. Now, you will show the lost how to find Me. Rejoice! Dry your tears. I am with you!"

Sub-dream 2 over..

Thank You for these two dreams! What a great encouragement to all of us showing us that You are working quickly now. Well, You always are and always have been. Thank You for all You do for all of us all of the time.

Dream over.

796 – Even More About the New Earth

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for time, a grand mystery. Thank You for answering my questions while I sleep. This world is filling up so quickly with things occurring now that we could have never imagined just five years ago. I can't even speak about certain things as they are so horrific and awful. Father, while I know You are in control of all things all of the time, this stuff is beyond wicked.

The reports of evil and the intensity or magnitude of evil just increases faster than I am able to comprehend it all. You showed me Your Clock and Calendar and clearly this is 'the time of great speed'. It is truly traumatic to be a part of this. Even so, this will become even worse over time as explained in Scripture...

Matthew 24:21-22: "21 For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. 22 And if those days had not been cut short, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short."

Father, squatters are taking peoples' homes now. These illegal aliens are calling for displacing homeowners and taking their properties. This is right after all of the car thefts. In Toronto, the police are calling on its citizens to leave their key fobs on the front porch nightly to avoid armed intruders. This is happening and it is scary. The government will soon call on all of us to hand our house keys to foreign invaders.

This is all so horrific a thing. While I can't imagine it, this is the beginning of mass displacement, destruction and death. This is the globalists desire to depopulate the planet by several billion people as soon as possible. It seems as if all this scary stuff seriously increased with the sneak attack on Israel by Hamas on October 7, 2023.

There is a lunar eclipse of the moon on Monday, March 25, 2024. The moon is also turning red from rust from the composition Hematite. Hematite means blood in the Greek language. This means that the moon is literally turning blood red as we speak. It soon won't even require a lunar eclipse as You are changing the moon's color to blood!

I had an uplifting dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Even more about the New Earth" begins...

I was loading groceries from my car into the house. My dogs bolted past me to our lawn. Zoey is going blind, so I knew it could be dangerous. I put the groceries down and went after the dogs. I called out to them. As I turned toward our small creek, there was an angel of the Lord and my two dogs at his feet. I then saw the bridge appear.

I believe that this angel was somehow related to Raphael. However, I could not tell for sure. The light was so bright all around us. My dogs turned and ran across the bridge. They both instantly disappeared. The angel could tell that I was a touch concerned when he addressed me:

Angel: "Erin, do not be afraid as both of your dogs are well. They have crossed over to be strengthened."

Me: "Are you taking them Home, angel?"

Angel: "They are at your home here and safe. While the increase of evil has come to this Earth, the Lord has created a place of peace for you. As for this..." He pointed across the bridge into a beautiful, lush, forested area. "...no evil can enter here. The Lord will walk amongst you and you will find rest."

Me: "I thought this was for Heaven, not for the New Earth."

Angel: "This is the place where the two will be joined for a thousand years. The valley in which you live, the vineyards and the lake... all of this is here. However, so too are your small companions. You have cared for many animals over the years and they are all here waiting. Come, I will show you."

The angel reached for my hand. In an instant, we were in a beautiful field of flowers. There was a clearing up ahead with incredible trees. In the center and cutting through this was a channel of water with cut pavers on either side lined with stones. The channel was lined with what looked like gold metal. The base of the channel under the water were gemstones of all colors.

The light of the sun created the most incredible sight. I saw fish in the water jumping up and swimming. They were alive and jumped out of the water as if it were a salmon run. I then stopped suddenly when I saw all of my dogs I have ever had right there. They were playing with each other.

They were playfully tackling each other as they came over to see us. I then saw all of my cats. I bent down and cried so hard at the sight.

I realized that I missed each of them so much. However, they were now healthy, young and playful here. I looked over to the angel. He had an owl on his left shoulder and a kestrel on his right shoulder. The kestrel came up to me on my shoulder and nuzzled my cheek. The owl came up and did the same. I had rehabilitated these two at the Birds of Prey Rehab Center in PA. Tears continued to stream down my cheeks.

Angel: "Erin, look over to the trees and to the orchard floors."

I saw all of the birds I had fed over the years, as well as all of the wild animals from our property. They ran up to me as well. None of the animals or birds were attacking each other. I somehow also knew what each was saying to me.

Me: Addressing all of the birds and animals at one time. "I can't wait to come and spend more time with you."

Angel: "You will have plenty of time to catch up."

Me: "Is my Home here loaded with animals?"

Angel: "They care for themselves because God provides for them. However, they are here because they all have you in common. With you, they have found their Home here. They will communicate with you. They also have their own places around your property. Do not worry as you don't spend eternity cleaning up after them. Just note that they are all here."

Me: "Wow, Heaven must be crowded with pets."

Angel: "This is Earth as it is in Heaven and there is plenty of space. They love you, Erin. They chose you. They are here waiting."

Me: "So, Zoey and Snigglet are now gone?"

Angel: "There will be a time of gathering soon where they will come. Do not worry as this is good. The animals, birds and other creatures God has called will be gathered and will then enter into the Promised Land here."

Me: "All of the dreams I thought were of Heaven... maybe they were actually about the New Earth. The pools. The flowers. The forests. Even the beautiful villages. The Golden City of God. It must be here then?"

Angel: "Some were in the Training Ground, some were in Heaven and some were in this Kingdom. Now, there are so many things to look forward here..."

- This is where Jesus walks among you.
- This is the place where you find peace and rest from your enemies.

- This is where you have joy in contrast to your sorrow.
- This is the place that the Lord has prepared for all of those who love Him.
- This is where you will have an abundant life.
- The air is clean here and the water is living here as all will be made new.
- There are gatherings, festivals and great celebrations.
- This is where the pages of the prophets come to life.

Me: "So, do things become much worse then?"

Angel: "Yes. However, you are not to be afraid as God is with you. He has sent angels concerning you to guard you in all of your ways."

Me: "I don't want to leave all that is happening here on Earth right now. I want to stay and be part of God's Army."

Angel: "This is good. This is because you don't want to miss what the Lord has planned here. Do not worry though as He is always with you."

Me: "I read Jeremiah 30-31 recently and it seems like this was meant for this time."

Angel: "A mystery for now. God has prepared this beautiful land for those who love Him. All will reign with Him here. Each will be given their own portion... His recompense and His reward."

Me: "So, who is here together?"

Angel: "The Remnant, the Saints and His Bride."

Me: "Oh, so three groups."

Angel: "It is written..."

- Those who are gathered up.
- Those who are raised.
- And those who are with the Lord in His service.

Me: "I still don't know who all of these are."

Angel: "This is good then. It takes the Glory of God to conceal a matter and the honor of kings to search it out."

Me: "I can think of hundreds of dreams about this New Earth now. I am in awe and excited."

Angel: "Not much is written on this. However, this is a Great Gift from God. Even the angels will find rest in this beautiful land that the Lord has prepared for all those who love Him.

"Now, you are here in this time and this is important. Keep your heart set on Him and He will grant you the desires of your heart. Your dogs, animals and birds are all here. Erin, rejoice, for all that was lost will be found here.

"Look at the Word of the Lord now with deeper understanding. You will be joined here with those who scribed and served God. Now rejoice, Erin, as this timing of the close of this age is visible. Do not worry as those who lost children will see them here and all will be reconciled. Erin, rejoice."

There was a flash of light and I was instantly back in my yard. I called out for my dogs. They were barking at the front door. I turned back to the area again and it was muddy and brown. It was lackluster as Spring hadn't sprung greenery here yet. I woke up suddenly!

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, I am so thankful for these dreams. I am so grateful.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. There is much to tell you and much to show you about what is to come. This is your reward for remaining with Me when things did not look good around you. This keeps your eyes fixed on Me and the Works of My hands instead of the works of the wicked. You know this time has come because all of the nations have now turned against Israel.

"All of the nations have now also come against America. Evil leaders have allowed foreigners to invade the good lands. Because this nation has called for the division of My Land of Israel, I have then called for the division of America. While these nations are God's, their leaders have abandoned Me and removed My Name. For the sake of those who pray to Me continuously day and night, I will turn My face back and have pity on those who had no part in this."

Me: "But, Lord, most of Your people who stood for You are being removed from having a voice at all."

Jesus: "I hear, I see and I know the truth. Evil is increasing quickly. The lies are so prevalent now that no one can keep up with them. The wicked shadow leader will rise, along with his great army. His plans are lofty. He plans to kill by violent methods all of those opposed to him.

“He has called all invaders to take, seize and occupy by force all the people have. This includes removing their homes, properties, cars, horses, livestock and money. He wants these invaders to remove them to prison, great torture and/or death. What was done to Israel (on October 7, 2023) was only a small test in comparison.”

Me: “Please stop this, Lord!”

Jesus: “Erin, remember that I am God. The land is Mine and the children of God are Mine. It is I who determines a man’s days. The evil leader knows who I am, so he strikes out against the people and longs to defile the people and God’s land. A call will be given to kill all with a certain skin color (Caucasians), Christians, all of those who support the opposing government of old (Republicans and true Democrats) and all of those who support the original laws (the Constitution).

“Little does he understand that when he made the gesture of the speaking device falling at the end of the term that he was gesturing that his loud voice would now be in the shadows and he was finished with the status quo. However, this was only a half-truth because he continues to love to speak. However, his dropping of his device was significant of his fall and his restrictions God imposed upon him.

“He has now become angry as things are not going at the speed he had hoped. As a result of this delay, he has begun a great war unlike any other before. This is not being fought on battlefields, but instead using lies and words. Remember that the tongue is a force of mass destruction. He is a liar with a sharp instrument. However, very soon, his plans will be cut down by truth.

“My Truth is the Truth. My Word is the Truth. My promises are true and he will soon ‘enjoy’ his new place at the lake that I have prepared for him (the Lake of Fire). Now, take courage, Erin. Do not be afraid as I am with you. I know the plots of the wicked. These will come back upon them. Now, rejoice, and I will continue to show you the place that I have prepared for all of those who love Me.”

Dream over.

797 – The Convergence of Many Holy Days

Received on Sunday, March 24, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Everything outside today is white with a very thick blanket of snow. My older son's favorite bird is the grackle. We had not seen any since the day before he left in October of 2023. Well, there were now two in our yard. It made me cry because he missed seeing them. Then yesterday, late afternoon, I had just hung up the phone after speaking to him, and suddenly an entire flock of grackles came to our yard.

The snowstorm was continuing, so my texts weren't sending and my photos weren't covering the entire event. They are jumpy birds and shift around quickly, so it was not easy to capture a good photo. The snowstorm left at least 12" here, with a layer of ice in between. The grackles have decided to hang around another day as they are perched in the tree by my devotional chair.

I am praying that the turkeys are okay. There has been one lone turkey all week coming to feed alone. Last night during the snowstorm, three turkeys ran through the trees to the trays to eat. However, they were unusually jumpy. There are a few maple syrup camps up the road and I am concerned that some of the larger turkeys were an opportunity many off-season hunters couldn't resist. I am praying that I am wrong.

Father, please continue to protect our home and property from the enemy. Things have been scary around here. The word is out that strangers are coming into people's farms and properties to invade them. We have very few periods of time when no one is here. Even so, we fully rely on You, Father, to protect our home from invaders. Lord, we are all so grateful for Your protection.

Today, You have brought me back to the pages of Isaiah and so much there is for this time. My daughter had some more trouble at work and finally, after much prayer, decided to give her two weeks notice. They had abused her and didn't value her as a Christian. Under her contract, she was to have two consecutive days off each week. However, they did not fulfill this despite numerous requests.

They would not let her have Sundays off either. In addition, every paid holiday that came was counted as her day off. They didn't do this with the other managers. When scheduled this way, she could never schedule appointments or run errands. Things like the bank were often closed due to these being holidays. She had taken them at their word several times that they would improve this for her. However, she has now finally realized that this will never change.

Their new rule on tardiness was also a ridiculous policy. Even if there is ice, a snowstorm, a flood, a closed road or even the theft of a vehicle, none of these are considered excuses for being late. It didn't matter even if these were well-documented and even in the news. If late, this was marked against the employee. If a person had seven lates in a given calendar year, this is grounds for firing and the employee is dishonorably dismissed.

Where we live, sometimes even if you leave hours before the shift, you could still beat the snowplows. Even though she was never late, this safety rule loomed and brought senseless worry. The company was essentially putting its needs above the safety and security of its employees. Employees then began to phone in sick rather than risking being written up for being just three minutes late. There is even more to this saga.

As for my husband, he has been encountering similar situations at his work. Many others I know have been experiencing the same. There is little grace given these days. Father, this won't get any better unless You make it better.

In Isaiah 58, it is difficult to reach out to the poor and offer bread as we no longer are confident that they won't turn and rob us in return for our kindness. As for the naked, they no longer want to cover themselves. We can even be condemned for handing them a blanket. It is difficult as we are now forced to not speak ill about the wicked and their deeds. When we point a finger at a wicked person and state what we witnessed, we can become charged for our tongues.

Father, we all have burdens now. We must carry these burdens now and our tongues must remain silent. We therefore hold out for the day that Your Glory shines upon us and we will be like a watered garden and a spring of water that continuously flows.

In Isaiah 58:12, Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt and You shall raise up the foundations of many generations, You will be called the Repairer of the breach and the Restorer of streets to dwell in.

There are further instructions about keeping the Sabbath Day holy and not going our own ways of self-satisfaction. If we do this then we will delight You, Father, and You will make us ride on the heights of the Earth. You will feed us with the heritage of Jacob, our Father. I take this to mean we will be strengthened like the sons of Jacob. This means being both changed and strengthened.

I had been sad for our children and many other young Christians who won't have some of the same rites of passage as we had. Those who love their children want to see them going to school, enter the workforce, get married, buy a home, have a family and enjoy a safe and prosperous life together under You. This now just seems like a shut door for many. Still, You are just and perfect and so worthy of all of our praise.

I had a couple of interesting dreams last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The Government seizes property" begins...

My daughter was to marry a kind and handsome Christian young man. She already had her wedding dress. I went with her to find a gown for her rehearsal. This seemed odd as most shopping venues were closed for the day. After successfully finding her a rehearsal gown, we had to stop by her fiancé's family estate to finalize one detail. We arrived at around 9:00 pm. We looked across a massive parcel of land to his house.

Since I had never been there, I was surprised to see this large beautifully maintained green and white house completely lit up with lighting inside and out. It was very prominent and clear that the home was occupied. As we drove near, my daughter told me that his family once owned all of the land we could see. However, the government had now decided that they didn't need so much land.

The government then began to seize parcels of land bit-by-bit. While the government was still allowing them to use their driveway and road, they felt it was only a matter of time before this 'privilege' was removed. As we approached the home, I saw a horrible chain-link fence surrounding their home allowing them just ten feet of grass and landscaping around their home.

I then saw a swimming pool in the back filled with black sludge. The government had seized the pool area. This, along with so much of this property, had now been designated for an open graveyard. Other parts were to become an open city dump. They were literally building open pits of trash. All of this was just so disgusting.

Me: "Why do they stay?"

My daughter: "Mom, don't you see it? Come on in and I will show you."

As we approached the front door, all of a sudden from my view, all we could see was a beautiful parcel of grassy land and a wonderful fragrance. It had changed.

My daughter: "You need to see what all God has done and will do. Mom, it is incredible! Their house now has a hedge of protection like our house has."

We went up to the front door. Just as my daughter knocked on the door, I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Sub-dream 2 "Witnessing to a Jewish Synagogue" begins...

I was in a place that I wasn't welcome. There was a Torah reading. The Rabbi conducting the Torah reading had a left hand that was a golden yad. He had this instead of a hand of flesh. He had a prosthetic limb of silver but had this golden yad at the end of it for reading the Torah. They had pulled out a massive scroll and opened it.

However, when the Rabbi's hand went over the script, it began to disintegrate. His golden yad hand was also melting. While his hand pointed at one script, his tongue was saying something completely different. It was a false reading about our Lord. I went up to the Rabbi. I was young again, a gentile and a female. I placed his Torah aside. The Rabbi was shocked into stunned silence.

I then proceeded to take out three ancient Torahs and read from them to the congregation. All three Torahs matched up. I then pulled out the fourth Torah again, the original one that the Rabbi was reading. Much had been removed from it. The Rabbi called on his guards to have me removed. Just then, an angel of the Lord appeared. He spoke as one of them.

Then in front of the entire synagogue, the angel showed all of them how the enemy of the Jewish people had robbed them of God's Promise. A giant screen then appeared that showed all of them the real historical events as they had actually taken place. Many of the congregation became angry and left the building. They didn't want to hear what was being shown or told to them. However, some stayed and heard.

Angel: "It is time for the Witnesses to testify in the streets."

The Rabbi with the golden yad hand stood motionless. He then began to confess that Yeshua is Lord. As he did, his arm and hand grew back. He was made whole. There were gasps in the congregation as his arm and hand were completely healed.

Angel: "Now go and witness to the people about the power of Yeshua as He will soon take His seat here."

Rabbi: "Many will not listen. They are stiff-necked."

Angel: Addressing the Rabbi. "Then you will prepare them for the good or for the evil that they will face. It is simple." Then addressing me. "Erin, you must go."

I nodded. As soon as I nodded, I was in a whole different place.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, these dreams seemed so real. You remind me in Isaiah 59 that society has begun a fast descent into darkness. Isaiah 59:10: "We grope for the wall like the blind; we grope like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in twilight, among those in full vigor we are like dead men."

This Word then continues about injustice and then judgment and then redemption. It is about how the Lord will repay us according to our deeds. This feels like the times we are in right now.

Father, I am sorry. I confess that, at times, I become crabby. It is not like me. Crabby attitudes and pain from ill-health leads to bitterness. I confess that sometimes when I am like this that I act like someone I don't like or even recognize. I become weary.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Take courage and do not worry."

Me: "Lord, all of these events are converging..."

- Purim: Today is Purim. I learned that Purim comes from the word 'Pur' and means a lot or lots, a method of choosing or deciding by chance. In the Persian culture, the Pur (a lot) was used to seek guidance from pagan gods or drawing lots. Haman drew a lot that fell on Adar 13. The edict was then issued that the Jews should be annihilated on the 13th day of the 12th month (Esther 3:7,12-13).

- Palm Sunday: Today is also the day celebrated by many as the day in which You rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. The people recognized You as their Messiah. The Jewish leaders then plotted Your death.
- Lunar Eclipse: Tomorrow is the lunar eclipse. This is Monday, March 25, 2024.
- Good Friday: This coming Friday is Good Friday. This is March 29, 2024.
- Easter: This coming Sunday is Easter. This is March 31, 2024.
- Easter Monday and April Fool's Day: Easter and April Fool's Day both happen on the same day of Monday, April 1, 2024.
- Total Solar Eclipse: The Total Solar Eclipse is on the afternoon of Monday, April 8, 2024. This completes the X over the USA when combined with the Total Solar Eclipse that occurred on August 21, 2017. The Path of Totality will pass over two of the eight places in the USA called Nineveh: One in Indiana and one in Ohio. The other six Ninevehs will experience only a Partial Solar Eclipse.
- New Year for Kings and Festivals: While Nisan 1 is the beginning of summer on the Hebrew Calendar, it is also the start of the New Year for Kings and Festivals. Nisan 1 starts on the sunset of Monday, April 8, 2024 (right after the Total Solar Eclipse ends) and continues to the sunset of Tuesday, April 9, 2024.
- Last day of Ramadan: The last day of Ramadan is on Tuesday, April 9, 2024 and will officially end at the sighting of the New Moon.

"So many Holy Days are converging now. This is very interesting. Not only that but my children and my husband are all having dreams. There are so many signs of something coming now. Lord, I pray for the Jewish people. Send a hedge of protection around them. Send one around all of Your people."

Jesus: "Erin, I told you a while back that when you see the following signs that the something you are waiting for is soon to come:

- When you hear the wicked calling for the death of billions of people.
- When you see young leaders eroding the foundations of the nations' cornerstones against their own people.
- When you see punishing laws and taxation for you, but not for those who come as foreign invaders.

"Erin, you will derive more information from old warning books published decades ago than from any of your sources now. Why? This is because the older books require the checking and vetting of their source information. This had to be given.”

Me: “One of my mom’s favorite sayings was, ‘Site your sources.’”

Jesus: “Now is the time of black water and muddy truth. You must only use Me for your truth. If you read something, pray and ask Me and I will verify what you are reading as truth. Now pay attention to ‘Three Days’ as this is important.”

Me: “Lord, for the first time, and I have said nothing to my children about it, all of them have been having dreams about The Three Days of Darkness coming soon. They have never been interested in this type of stuff before, but they all are now.”

Jesus: “Understandably. This will be a scary event for most of the Earth. However, it will be a necessary tool to divide the goats from the sheep and to soften the hearts of stone to begin to question their position and turn to Me. The wicked will just become more defiant like Pharaoh. I don’t want you to be afraid as I will be with you.

“Years ago, you had the dream of lights across the nations. Some were bright and some were dim. At that time, you asked Me what could cause some lights to go dim. This is because the land has become so dark that when the darkness falls so too does their hope deferred. Erin, I am God over all of the Earth. I am in control of all things.

“The wicked enjoy their new power. However, make no mistake, this is short-lived. Now continue on your course as I am with you. Also, when I give you a dream or vision, write this down plainly and make time for Me. Now more than any other time, this hour is the most important. Rejoice and take heart as I am with you.”

Dream over.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have. Bless You, Lord, in all of Your Great Works. You are God over all things and no thing, no man, no god and no scheme will ever be successful against You. This is because You are greater than all of these.

I had a very vivid dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 “The Ballerina Angel” begins...

Before me was the White House. There was a massive American flag over the White House. It was actually more like a massive decal over all the columns and the body of the building covering exactly half of the White House. The day was beautiful with bright blue skies.

Then suddenly, as I stood in a crowd of people, I could see a dancer, a ballerina, dressed in tights and a tutu. The pattern of her outfit was that of the American flag. She was in perfect shape. It then hit me that she was actually an angel. This was quite a treat as I rarely see female angels.

Note: While I will try to accurately describe this angel, there are no words adequate. She was a ballerina of the very highest rank of skills. She was the star dancer. In turn, the star dancer is the etoile. Everything she did was to point to the Lord’s Glory.

Angel: Singing loudly and in perfect pitch. “Trump! Sound the Trumpet! For he is with God and God’s favor is upon him. God is over the land. He is God’s!”

As she danced, her legs and arms created something like colorful jet streams. Vivid color streaks rocketed from the points of her ballet shoes into the sky and straight over the White House. I just knew this dancer had to be an angel as the moves she was performing were just so perfect. I had never seen anything quite like this before.

She then performed an exquisite move technically referred to as a battement. In this incredible move, she moved her leg against her head and then moved into a backward type of scissor kick. She then spun in the air. All the while, these color streaks like jet streams continued to come from the tips of her ballet shoes. As she floated in the air, she addressed the crowd.

Angel: Looking down at the crowd from above. "God is in control and He is God forever more! Believe it!"

She then shot up into the air like a missile. When she came back down, she landed with a tremendous thud that made the ground quake. Despite the huge noise this made, she landed with grace and in the most epic of superhero poses. The crowd was exhilarated by this. After the crowd cheered for many minutes at this awesome sight, they started cheering to the Lord.

Crowd: Shouting. "Etoile, etoile, etoile!"

I then heard a trumpet blow. It echoed throughout the land in an almost frightful manner. This energized the crowd even more.

Crowd: Shouting. "Trump! Trumpet! Trump! Trumpet! Trump etoile!"

There was a great celebration now taking place. The crowd showed no signs of tiring out. It was breathtaking.

Sub-dream 1 over..

With the news being so gloomy these days, this dream felt somewhat out of place. One of the biggest marker signs for me personally is anything where the USA turns against Israel. When the whole world turned against Israel yesterday at the UN Security Council, including the USA by abstaining, I just know that America is about to fall.

Father, what can we do to appeal to You. Corrupt leaders who rose due to their corruption made decisions that the majority of the people don't agree with. What can we do? Is there anything we can do? No, there really isn't. Only You can step in now, Father. Only You! My heart hurts when I think about the beautiful land I was born in. What a miracle it is. What a Divine Gift. Father, please have mercy on our nation.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Now, My Word is true. Those who bless Israel, I will bless, and those who curse Israel, I will curse. This has been the pattern over thousands of years and will continue. They follow the same steps..."

- The evil leaders first treat those being oppressed (Israel) as the oppressor.
- They then dehumanize them (Israel).
- They then make all of God's children like a stain and remove them (whether it is the Jewish people or the Gentiles, it doesn't matter).
- Their plans are lofty and they want to wipe out Israel and crush America.
- In order for their greater agenda to work, millions must be sacrificed.

Me: "So, America will fall, Lord?"

Jesus: "I have been very clear. While I will save those who do not turn their backs on Israel, I will turn my face from those who turn from Israel. You will now see many more harbingers. These are warnings meant to humble the land."

Me: "Was the bridge falling last night a sign?"

Jesus: "Remember that there is something in the name and in the timing of this."

Me: "There are quite a few things here when you look into it further..."

- Maryland is nicknamed 'The Free State'.
- Baltimore is the town of 'The Big House'.
- The bridge was named 'The Francis Scott Key Bridge'.
- Francis Scott Key wrote 'The Star Spangled Banner', the National Anthem for the nation of the USA.
- The bridge was hit by a shipping vessel / container ship from Singapore.
- The ship is named 'The Dali'.
- The ship is owned by Grace Ocean and managed by Synergy Marine.
- Maersk chartered The Dali and is a Danish company.
- The Port of Baltimore is one of the largest in the USA for roll-on/roll-off ships carrying trucks and trailers.
- There were 22 crew members on The Dali.
- The crew sent a mayday alert about losing power right before the crash.

Jesus: "Well, this is good sleuthing, Sparrow. Take this a bit further. If this is a harbinger, what does this mean?"

Me: "Well, Baltimore used to be so beautiful. I visited there a few times in the 1980s and loved it. However, it has become different now and it is so sad. This bridge falling is huge. The namesake of this bridge wrote 'The Star Spangled Banner'."

Jesus: "This city became corrupted many years ago and it spread like cancer throughout. Now, this happened as this is the beginning of the end. This is where God was removed. The enemy rose instead and took his pulpit here. This is where the division gained power. Remember the enemy and those who enjoy their prominence. They enjoy shaming all of those who gave them rise. However, you only need to look at the forgotten people who dwell there.

"While they forever condemn slavery, they do nothing to invest in their communities. Instead of promoting the value of human life, they promote the killing of babies (abortion) there. Those responsible will be held accountable. They removed the power and sanctity of My Holy Name. They sacrifice to Baal instead. They turned their backs on God and Israel there. This is not a blessed city."

Me: "Have You removed Your favor from Maryland too, Lord?"

Jesus: "I gave you a Word about bridges some time ago. This is a harbinger. Now, what is a bridge?"

Me: "A structure mostly over water or a place that would be impassable without a means to cross over it. It is a structure of cross over from point to point. Travel would be difficult, sometimes even impossible, without it."

Jesus: "Well, yes. Remove the bridge, remove the way. I am the Bridge, Erin. Without Me, there is no way. Read the entire script of the song written by the namesake of the fallen bridge..."

Me: "Sure, I will include this now..."

NATIONAL ANTHEM OF THE UNITED STATES – "The Star Spangled Banner" – Francis Scott Key (1814)

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
thro' the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep, As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses? Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam, In full glory reflected now shines in the stream, 'Tis the star-spangled banner – O long may it wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore, That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion A home and a Country should leave us no more? Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution. No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave, And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation! Blest with vict'ry and peace may the heav'n rescued land Praise the power that hath made and preserv'd us a nation! Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, And this be our motto – "In God is our trust," And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Jesus: "It is written there, 'In God is our trust'. Well, who trusts in Me now? It is simple. Trust Me or trust something else. Lies are compounded. False testimonies are bearing false witness. These things I hate. Foreigners have invaded America's borders. What is allowed and done to Israel is now being allowed and done to other nations. I have raised up an evil root to punish the nations. This evil root is an invasive vine, an invasive species, that bears no fruit. Wherever it is planted it destroys all else."

Me: "We have a plant like this in our yard. While it is pretty, it suffocates the other plants."

Jesus: "I realize this is not an easy thing as you see Me in love and you know My heart of compassion and grace."

Me: "Lord, You love unlike I can love. If I had only a fraction of Your heart, there is nothing I couldn't do. You are kind, generous and fair. You grant us our portion. For those who do not realize all You promise here, You will fulfill this in Heaven. You are patient with the wicked and the foolish until you are not. I would not be so patient.

"Lord, You are loving and gracious. You are strong and wise. Your smile lights up my heart. You can see into my soul with Your eyes. Lord, please have compassion on all of those who were tricked by the snake's tongue. Maybe they haven't heard Your message of salvation."

Jesus: "Most have, Erin. While I have a Great Plan, I don't take lightly those who have been given reign over others and publicly shame Israel as if the Jewish people have no rights to freedom."

Me: "Oh Lord, I just found out the leaders in Singapore just accused Israel of a hateful post they had made that was factual about the Koran."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. The last two days have not been good for those who come against Israel. I am now sending more troubles, more harbingers."

Me: "Lord, what else was on that container ship?"

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin."

Me: "What is coming next to America?"

Jesus: "Remember that I am in control and over all you see. Take comfort and do not worry."

Me: "Lord, every empire that has come against Israel has fallen..."

- The Babylonians.
- The Persians.
- The Assyrians.
- The Greeks.
- The Romans.
- The Soviets.
- The Nazis.

"Lord, could You please step in now to keep the USA off of that list?"

Jesus: "Erin, there is much to do and a Great Harvest with My Chosen ushering in My Kingdom. Before Great Victory comes a defeat. There can be no victory without the enemy being defeated. Any enemy of the children of God and my righteousness must be defeated in order to have victory. The victory has been won and now this is the minutia. As it stands, corruption has replaced fair judgment. Justice has no blindfold and uses uneven weights and measures. Remember that they are not in control. I Am.

"Now, My hand has been over Trump as I have sent him. They know I have sent him and they are now calling for his death. However, I am God. I am the I AM. I know the plans I have for you. Now, rejoice, as you have waited a long time for this time. I love you!"

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Good Friday! Thank You for every new miracle soon to be revealed. It has now been raining non-stop for a few days. It has also been quite foggy.

My husband and I traveled for more medical appointments for me yesterday. One of them was a scary one for me so I was given some medication prior to the test to keep me calm. Never in my life have I had extreme anxiety to the point of refusing a test until the last few weeks. My body is saying, 'No!' Father, I could really use that miracle now.

A fox came into our yard and sat right there in the broad daylight. It was purposeful. It was hungry. The rain was pouring down. Its bright orange and red fur glowed in the snow. Father, this is a sign from You that the little foxes are working behind the scenes. It was also a stunning sight. It was rare, beautiful and ominous at the same time. My daughter was the first to spot it. I was able to capture a photo or two before it disappeared up the road.

I am thankful that another Good Friday has arrived. Good Friday follows what I like to call 'Anxious Thursday'. What a week leading up to this day, the day of the Cross. This is the date for this on the Christian calendar. Biblically speaking, the true date of His death is at Passover in the month of Nisan. This isn't until the second half of April.

Every time I go into a surgical procedure or when I had to undergo great pain, I often remind myself that what I am going through is nothing compared to what You went through. I take comfort in this for my trials and my personal suffering. I am so grateful to have a Father in Heaven who blesses me, who loves me and makes me His own. I am thankful to be grafted into His Kingdom.

John 15:1-16 speaks more on this...

1 I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. 2 Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Already you are clean because of the Word that I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. 5 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in Me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in Me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

7 If you abide in Me, and My Words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8 By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be My disciples. 9 As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Abide in My love. 10 If you keep My Commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's Commandments and abide in His love. 11 These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. 12 This is My Commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

13 Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are My friends if you do what I command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his Master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in My Name, He may give it to you.

Abide means to dwell, remain, be patient and to be held and kept. I take this to mean trusting in You fully and trusting in Your Timeless Words. It also means to remain and endure over time no matter the circumstances. Abide means faithfulness to remain in Jesus. I take this to mean not give up no matter what the foxes say or do. Foxes spoil the vines.

Song of Solomon 2:15: "Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom."

Over time and little by little, the foxes ruin the new blossoms in spring before the vine comes to bear fruit. Since the foxes are beautiful, you might be tempted to ignore them as small or nothing harmful. However, after time, they will destroy the vine. This was confirmation for my daughter, as well as the position of many other Christians, who feel worn down by attacks from foxes using deceit to remove all of the good.

There is just so much coming at God's people right now. Many all over the world are being condemned for their love of God and persecuted. I often think of the news media as foxes. We are tempted to look, watch and listen, but their lies are so discouraging that it is difficult to trust a wicked message that bears no fruit and no good news.

I had a disturbing dream last night. It woke me up and I was so upset by it.

Sub-dream 1 "My Purse is Stolen" begins...

Background on this dream: I keep my purse across my body and zipped up. As an extra precaution, I keep RFID chip scramblers all throughout my purse and wallet. In other words, I am very cautious about having my purse or my identity stolen.

I was traveling with the following items in my purse...

- My wallet containing:
 - Various cards.
 - Various memberships.
 - Medical alerts.
 - Driver's license.
 - A small amount of cash.
- Various keys.

In this dream, my purse disappeared at some point. Even though I never took my purse off of my body, it was now gone. I no longer could do anything. Without my purse, I had no power. My purse held all of my identity, the proof of my belonging, even the proof of my worth and where I came from. Without this, I had nothing...

- No car to drive.
- No money.
- No phone to call family.
- No proof of who I was.
- No record of me.

I then searched everywhere. I eventually learned that my purse had been stolen. Someone else had now taken over my car, my home and all of my possessions. Worse yet, no one believed me. No authorities believed me as I had no visible proof. I woke up suddenly when I called out to Jesus in this dream.

Sub-dream 1 over..

I have seldom had such a vivid dream like this. Father, have I become too dependent on the things of this world? I fell asleep and this morphed into my second dream...

Sub-dream 2 "The Betrayal of the Mega Wealthy" begins...

I was young again, seemingly in my 20s. I was invited to some country club event for off-the-charts wealthy young people. Most of these people had a level of wealth that was completely out of my scope of understanding. They all seemed to know each other. There was so much bragging and displaying of their personal material wealth going on that it was so ridiculous. All of it was because of their parents' wealth.

I somehow knew that this was a very elite Spring Party surrounding a ceremony of some kind. Something then occurred that caused the club manager to bring the entire body of attendees into the shelter below this elaborate building. It seemed like a major enough event to do this based on the reactions from the terrified workers who were also called to shelter below to continue to serve the attendees.

When all of the young people were ushered into the basement, a giant steel door shut behind them. All of the young people were unphased and continued to snap group selfies and party on. The servants were called to different areas in which there were small cafes set up in advance, as well as working kitchens. The whole area seemed like a hardened underground city.

The floor was polished concrete in rainbow iridescent paint. It was wet with fresh rain. It might also be that the floor had just been power washed. I couldn't tell for sure. The café stations had the most elaborate food I had ever seen. I could tell all of this had been planned for these rich children in advance. The attendees could eat anything they wanted. There was enough food to last a very long time.

I then looked down at the floor. I saw some extremely large ants in one particular area. I then saw some of the names on the nameplates. The last names of several of the attendees were the same last names as some of the wealthiest families in the world. As the hours continued, the attendees started to become noticeably impatient. I then heard two of the attendees and the club manager talk to each other..

Attendee 1: "Like, what is really going on here? I am ready to go."

Attendee 2: "Me too, man. This is so uncool."

I began to see these young people go from partiers to panic mode in just seconds.

Club manager: "Your parents want you safe, so you will stay and make do with all of this gourmet food."

While the attendees then tried to use their cellphones, there was no service. They were becoming angrier and demanded to be let out. The club manager addressed the entire group of attendees in a loud and stern voice...

Club manager: "This room is guarded by a door as thick as that of a bank safe. There is no getting out right now as this door is on a timed lock. It is impossible to open before the right time."

Young female attendee: "Do they want us dead so that they can take our money or do they want us alive so that we can save the world?"

Male attendee: Laughing. "Well, we certainly aren't their best and brightest here. I would therefore pick that they want us dead so that they can take our money."

I began to see all of them panic.

Female attendee: "This is the first step to hell. My grandmother warned me to stop mocking God. I am screwed. All of us are screwed. This is because God doesn't care about our name or money or the number of our followers on our sites."

All of these young people then went to their knees on the floor. They wept and cried out for God to save them. Three of us from God's Army then came out of the crowd and stood next to the steel door. The Lord suddenly made the three of us bright and shining. The three of us then began to share with them about what the enemy had deceived them with. I then informed them of their future as planned by the Lord.

Me: "Listen, it is God's desire that you all will be saved by His Son, Jesus. You will then live with Him in a more beautiful place than here."

Young man: "But where are our parents?"

Another of the three: "They have been killed." They all began to cry and weep uncontrollably. "Their money has been stolen. All of you are marked to die as they want to eliminate any heirs to their wealth."

Even though they were very upset about this, the entire room of young adults of the wealthy were saved. This was Great News in the midst of their terrible news. Once they all had been saved, the steel door to the underground bunker area disappeared. They all desired to go home. We needed to explain the impossibility of this...

Me: "I am so sorry, but not one of you have any homes here anymore."

Young man: "They can't do this to us. We all have hidden wealth. We will go after them."

Young woman: "Don't you get it? Our parents sacrificed themselves so we would live. The wicked in power instead killed our parents and framed all of us for it."

Once she finished saying this, their cell service came back. After searching the news sites, they realized everything that this young woman had stated was true. They looked back at the three of us with such sorrow.

Me: "Do not worry as God will make everything right. The Lord controls all things all of the time. As for the enemy, he thinks that all of you are now dead."

They didn't listen to us as they now had revenge on their minds. They all jumped into their cars and drove off with the goal of punishing whoever had done this to them and their parents. I looked at one of the other of us three...

Me: "Do you think they will make it?"

One of the three: "I don't know. Only God knows."

I heard something behind me and I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over...

Both of these dreams were so real. Father, You are a Grand Mystery. I am so grateful that You are in control of all things all of the time.

Lord, I am really excited about something that I have always dreamt about happening. This has never happened to me before. I had taken a canvas oil painting that was of a grassy hill of white daisies above this were beautiful clouds and blue sky. This painting was signed 'William Lee'. It had a bad frame. I purchased this painting at Value Village for about $14 over nine years ago.

While I loved the greens, blues and whites in this painting, I wanted a lighter frame. I took it to a Michael's craft store to have it reframed. It didn't cost much, so I didn't think You would mind. I then picked this up on Tuesday, March 26, 2024. As soon as I walked up to the framing department, the assistant manager came over to me...

Manager: "I have a great surprise for you. You remember how we had to re-stretch the canvas of your painting?"

Me: Thinking it had ripped. "Uh, yes..."

Manager: "Well, there was a painting underneath your painting and it is beautiful. Several of the workers here wanted to keep it, but ethically we couldn't do this to you. This painting is beautiful."

The manager opened the paper covering this painting and my jaw dropped. It was a beautiful oil painting of Perce Rock, along with five small wooden fishing boats in the cove. The rock structure was painted in blues, greens and whites. It was so beautiful! It was signed by a 'Kent' in red paint. I knew this previously hidden painting was an older one because this rock has worn down considerably since he painted this rock.

The painting could be about 70 years old. While I had always heard about hidden paintings, I had never seen one. I can't find a thing about either of these two artists nor can I find any other of their works. I am so delighted to have collected two pieces such as this during my prior searching. I have always found these items in thrift shops and knew very little until I did some research.

A few years ago, I acquired some beautiful paintings from a friend who collected vintage toys locally. He took them on consignment for the daughter of the artist who died. She was also very sick and had hoped to get $300 for eight paintings. The story got to me. My friend told me that he had no intention of taking any fees.

I felt You say, 'Purchase these.' I did and asked him to let the daughter know these are going to a good home and one day they will be important. I also told her I would keep these together. The paintings were of Cornwall, England. There were villages and a beautiful sandy harbor with boats.

I know the quality and talent of an artist and these are stunning. While their frames are outdated, all are preserved. When I told my husband years ago what I had done, he was skeptical. However, he saw how beautiful they were and how important these would be to this family either here or in Heaven. One day, You will show us the true worth of all of these art pieces.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have been busy."

Me: "Not really, Lord. Just living to dream." I heard Him laugh at this.

Jesus: "I delight in you and love to see your joy. I want you to understand something... all along, that secret (the painting of Perce Rock) was hidden there waiting to be discovered by you."

Me: "Lord, this is a huge sign for me. Another one of my hopes was answered and with witnesses too. How awesome!"

Jesus: "You actually have a few more too and soon you will discover these."

Me: "Lord, please don't forget about Your people. The world is being plunged into darkness. It is scary."

Jesus: "You know where you are going and have no doubts. You even know that I have prepared a place for you to be with Me for eternity. There are many who have no eyes to see nor ears to hear and this will be a difficult thing. Now, I keep you moving. I keep you focused on things of Heaven and on things of the God who loves you. To others, these seem small and unimportant.

"However, these are special and unique between you and Me and they strengthen your faith. While wicked men make evil plans, I see it. God sees it. The angels in Heaven see it. Nothing is hidden. Now, if God sees the wicked planning his course, how much more will God bless you on a course meant for good? The wicked and their evil will be turned back on them. They will be exposed. This is coming."

Me: "Lord, I don't want the surgery. I don't want cancer. I am tired. While I want to live, the world around us is crumbling."

Jesus: "I am your Healer. In Me should be your trust. Stay with Me and do not worry. Erin, I love you. The Kingdom of Heaven will soon be visible! Keep looking up!"

Dream over.

800 – Isaiah 61 Is Our Resurrection Day Treasure

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for such a beautiful sunrise today! It is clear with blue skies. I actually woke up at 8:00am for dream 800 and I took this as a sign to come and worship You for all that You have done. The number 8 is the Biblical number for New Beginnings.

When these dreams started, I was 49 years old. While my hands were still young and strong, they are now weak and gnarled a bit. When these began, nothing could stop me from writing in my journal and typing the very same day. I even worked full-time as a single mom. While it has never been easy, I am reminded this morning in my devotional time that You never once promised us that life here would be easy.

Here are just a couple of Scriptures related to this that stand out...

John 16:33 (NCV): "I told you these things so that you can have peace in Me. In this world, you will have trouble, but be brave. I have defeated the world!"

Matthew 11:28-30 (NCV): "28 Come to Me, all of you who are tired and have heavy loads, and I will give you rest. 29 Accept My teachings and learn from Me, because I am gentle and humble in Spirit, and you will find rest for your lives. 30 The burden that I ask you to accept is easy; the load I give you to carry is light."

The 11th Chapter of Matthew is a testament to the resistance that Jesus and the disciples experienced when going out to spread the Good News into various towns. In Chapters 20 to 24, You criticized the cities where You displayed so many open miracles. You condemned many of these cities for their negative reception of You.

While it is brutal to read, I am thankful, Father, that You are the God of Judgment and Mercy, as well as the God of Grace. While things were bad back then, I believe that the world is now guilty of much worse sins now than ever before –almost 2000 years later.

When I think of the worst day in history (His-Story), Your Story, I think of the horrifying day of Your betrayals and trials leading up to the Crucifixion. What is so truly amazing is that You knew what was coming and You still were willing to endure this for us. Those who walked with You scattered and left You. Those You trusted served You up or abandoned You.

You were then subject to lies and false testimonies against You. You were mocked and cursed. You were spit on. A crown of thorns was then forced onto Your head. You had nothing to say in Your defense because a verdict had already been rendered. You were then found guilty and Your life exchanged for a murderer instead of You being set free. You were then led to punishment that no man could endure.

You were bloodied and battered beyond recognition. You then had to carry the Cross in which You would be nailed to and hanged. In the same way a Sacrificial Lamb says nothing before their sacrifice, You remained silent in Your defense. You saved a thief there and offered for him to join You in Paradise. You then offered up Your Spirit.

Lord, this was the most horrific event in history. You came to save us. You came to share Good News when there was hopelessness. You came to commune with us and walked this Earth in flesh. You came to show miracles, signs and wonders. You came not to condemn the world, but to extend Your Divine Grace and Love. However, this is what the world did to You in return for all that You came and did for us.

Well, You won! This worst day then ended up as the Best Day! This horrible moment of sorrow birthed a promise of eternal joy and life. While we were once slaves, we are now free. Father, only You could do this! Only You! I am even reminded that You have taken every disaster and failure in my life and You turned these into tools of the Redemption of Your Love and Your Saving Grace.

This horrible plunge and this freefall of this world is happening right now. It is so dark and so void of You, Father. It is scary, really scary. The news seems all bad now. The wicked and their gods they serve have torn apart all of our good things. They have desecrated our special holidays, our memorials, our altars, our churches and Your Word. There are now search engines used to hunt down all who love You.

Our freedom to worship You is now being condemned and assaulted. Even so, Father, millions in this world still love You and remember You daily and serve You. We pray for the lost and for Your Divine Rescue of them.

I was then reminded of something you said to me a few days ago when I was upset over some bad news...

Jesus: "Erin, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. What seems like the end is actually a New Beginning. Can you see it?"

Me: "No, Lord, I can't see it right now."

Jesus: "I am in the midst of you. My Power and Dominion is rising within you. Look up as your Redeemer comes and My Recompense is with Me. See, I come with 10,000s of My Righteous Ones. I am God and My Holy Name will not be profaned. I ride a swift horse and I am Faithful and True. Erin, this is not a metaphor... this is soon to be!"

Me: "Lord, come quickly!"

Jesus: "I come at the proper time. I promise you that you will ride with Me on the clouds dressed in fine linen and you will follow Me into battle."

I am so grateful for these Words of Encouragement from the Lord, especially now.

I had quite a dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "The Lord took His lashes out of love for us" begins...

I had an open wound. It was bleeding. I was looking for something to cover it in the hopes that the bleeding would stop. I then realized that I had many more wounds than I previously thought. It was an impossible situation. There was no one there to help me stop the bleeding long enough for the blood to clot. There was no one to sew the wounds closed.

Even though I eventually found some bandages, I realized that they were not going to stop the outpouring of blood. I was losing blood and hope. I was weak and tired. I decided I would just go to sleep now and wake up in Jesus' arms. As my eyes were growing dim, I saw a bright light. The hand of an angel was visible. After I reached for his hand, I began climbing a ladder through a dark tunnel to the light at the end.

I then smelled something like sewage behind me. The stench made me hurry my climb to the light of Heaven. I recognized this place! There waiting for me was Jesus! Jesus was sitting on a rock. While my clothing had been dirty and blood-stained, it was now as white as snow. His arms were stretched out to receive me. I ran straight to Him and He hugged me in His loving arms.

Me: "Lord, I love You!"

Jesus: "I am here, Erin. I am here. Your wounds have been healed. You are reconciled to Me. Do not worry. You are here with Me."

Me: "Lord, did I die from gunshots? What was that?"

Jesus: "It does not matter. Wounds are wounds. What you meant to give as love and Good News, truth and grace, you were punished as the world rejected you."

Me: "But, Lord, I don't feel sorry for myself. I have let those painful memories go. I forgave them and gave this to You. Did I take them back?"

Jesus: "No. However, understand what you will be called to do. While some say that I had 39 lashes as in the Jewish tradition, this would only have to be true if My punishment had been carried out by a Jewish soldier. To be clear, these were Roman soldiers and they were not subject to Jewish laws. They saw Jewish laws and commandments as suggestions. I then had to endure more than 39 stripes.

"The very notion that it could be no more than 39 would be something that the rabbis would have noted. Why would the rabbis do this if they hadn't just realized that they had persecuted the Son of God for all to witness? Think of the terror at the hour of darkness, the Earth quaking, the Temple falling, the graves of the dead opening and the Great Wind. Think of this day and of this hour. How could any of this be made right again? How could any of this be explained?"

Me: "I have no idea, Lord."

Jesus: "They thought that, if I truly was the Son of God, I would save myself. They were looking for the miracle of the pillar of light or the cloud in the desert. They were looking for the same God who parted the sea with Moses' staff. They questioned why I didn't stop this madness. They questioned why I didn't pass their tests. They questioned why I gave no defense.

"Well, this was My message to them... an open tomb and a folded cloth! A dinner guest is not finished and will return when he leaves the cloth folded. Erin, I am not finished yet. There is much to do. Are you ready?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, what of my wounds?"

Jesus: "Ah yes... they mark things in your life that hurt you either physically or in other ways in which you never saw justice or recompense for. These hurt you and I have never forgotten these. These cases in God's Court are still open. They are not finished. I am your Kinsman Redeemer and your Lawyer and I will make right these wrongs. In turn, you will be satisfied and I will give you charge to administer My Righteous Judgment over those who have done horrible things to the children of God."

Me: "Oh, this will be fun! But, Lord, I haven't dwelled on any of this stuff."

Jesus: "Well, neither have I. I have forgiven those who hurt Me because they truly had no idea what they had done. However, I still bear the scars as the evidence."

Me: "Oh, I see now!"

Jesus: "Remember the long line of those who afflicted you and never received their judgment. They administered their judgment to you and punished you. They will be reminded. Now, you understand evil. You have seen it and you have experienced it. This is why you are in My number... because you have not sought revenge and have instead kept yourself focused on Me.

"You had no abilities to administer judgment. Even with evidence, the judge did not give you fair restitution. Well now, this is different. Pray! Pray for these because they think themselves like Pharaoh... a god unto themselves."

Me: "Lord, You are amazing. You show love with so much strength. Your steadfast bold resolution of justice brings chills to my body. They should fear You, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, I have a Great Plan. Erin, do not worry. You will see."

Sub-dream 1 over..

I quickly fell asleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "God's Army to soon be Trained" begins...

I saw an angel of the Lord. He stood on a plateau looking over a valley. He raised his arms and shouted. I suddenly saw one large eagle and then even more eagles added to the first one. I saw baby eaglets go from fledglings to powerful strong eagles within seconds. I saw old eagles strengthened and made powerful. All were flying in a large group.

I then heard the angel shout a second time. I saw a great storm of dust on the horizon. I then saw thousands of wild horses in all different colors and varieties coming in this dust storm.

I then heard the angel shout a third time. It was a loud cry. All of the horses immediately turned white. The horses were perfect in shape and could run so fast.

I then heard the angel shout a fourth time. To his right, the Earth opened and out of it came molten steel like from a volcano, only different in a way hard to describe. I then heard clanking of hammers coming from a massive cloud.

I then heard the angel shout a fifth time. The cloud lifted and thousands of bright and shining swords were stacked there. Each had a name on it. Along with this name was something I didn't recognize, but I knew it was a symbol for truth etched on the blades.

The angel was in full armor with wings. His wings were massive and his sword long. When he turned more fully towards me, I recognized him as the angel, Michael. He then went into the air above the area. He was preparing for the gathering of God's Army for training. He then let out a mighty shout...

Angel Michael: Shouting. "We are ready, Lord! Bring in the Saints!"

There was a massive flash of light and I immediately woke up.
Sub-dream 2 over..

Just then, a bald eagle flew in front of our window against the beautiful blue Easter sky. I went over to my chair and took communion.

Me: "Lord, these dreams were so clear it was as if I was there. I could smell the sewer at the beginning of the dream. I could then smell victory roses and sweet fragrances in Heaven when I was with You. When will all of this be?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry as I am with you! Mass casualty events are planned daily by the wicked. However, I have risen and I have charge over life and death. Erin, all of their plans for evil are about to be undone. You will see. Do not worry. What I have planned and what I have prepared for those who birth evil, no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor human heart conceived.

"However, in as much as I will administer justice and right the wrongs, I will also save those who cry out to Me. I will embrace those who ask for forgiveness. I will show My love to those who will receive it. I will display miracles, signs and wonders to those who have prayed.

"I have prepared a place where I will walk among you. I promise you all will be made brand new. It is here where I will wipe away every tear from your eyes. You will spend each day in joy everlasting. All of My promises were true then, are true now and will always be true. Lies will be no more and liars will be no more."

Me: Crying. "Lord, is this my last dream from You?"

Jesus: "Do you want this to be?"

Me: "No, Lord, of course not."

Jesus: "Good then. I am with you. You may continue, but I promise you that your wait will not be long. Rejoice, Erin. You did not stop at 50 (dreams posted) when some told you to stop. You instead kept your eyes on Me. Your prayers were heard by Me. Your pen was My sword here.

"Erin, I am about to call upon My Army. The Vessels have been prepared and filled by My hand at the River of Life. My Temple is soon to be rebuilt in record time. Rejoice! You will be called priests of the Lord and ministers of our God. Erin, look up this Scripture. You will find this there."

Me: After looking this up. "Lord, this is in Isaiah 61:6. I love Isaiah!"

Jesus: "Yes... and you are now 61 years of age. Erin, Isaiah 61 is what will be now. Read your new version if you have doubt."

Me: "No, Lord, I don't doubt! Isaiah 61 is filled with so much promise..."

Isaiah 61 (NCV) – The Lord's Message of Freedom (aka The Year of the Lord's Favor): 1 The Lord God has put His Spirit in me, because the Lord has appointed me to tell the Good News to the poor. He has sent me to comfort those whose hearts are broken, to tell the captives they are free, and to tell the prisoners they are released. 2 He has sent me to announce the time when the Lord will show his kindness and the time when our God will punish evil people.

He has sent me to comfort all those who are sad 3 and to help the sorrowing people of Jerusalem. I will give them a crown to replace their ashes, and the oil of gladness to replace their sorrow, and clothes of praise to replace their spirit of sadness. Then they will be called Trees of Goodness, trees planted by the Lord to show his greatness. 4 They will rebuild the old ruins and restore the places destroyed long ago. They will repair the ruined cities that were destroyed for so long.

5 My people, foreigners will come to tend your sheep. People from other countries will tend your fields and vineyards. 6 You will be called priests of the Lord; you will be named the servants of our God. You will have riches from all the nations on Earth, and you will take pride in them. 7 Instead of being ashamed, My people will receive twice as much wealth. Instead of being disgraced, they will be happy because of what they receive. They will receive a double share of the land, so their happiness will continue forever.

8 I, the Lord, love justice. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. I will be fair and give My people what they should have, and I will make an agreement with them that will continue forever. 9 Everyone in all nations will know the children of My people, and their children will be known among the nations. Anyone who sees them will know that they are people the Lord has blessed."

10 The Lord makes me very happy; all that I am rejoices in my God. He has covered me with clothes of salvation and wrapped me with a coat of goodness, like a Bridegroom dressed for his Wedding, like a Bride dressed in jewels. 11 The Earth causes plants to grow, and a garden causes the seeds planted in it to grow. In the same way the Lord God will make goodness and praise come from all the nations.

Me: "Lord, I am just excited!"

Jesus: "Then, Erin, be ready for more excitement! Study this!"

Dream over.

801 – O Dia Antes da Grande Eclipse Norte-Americana

Recebido em domingo, 7 de abril de 2024

Comunhão

Querido Pai,

Obrigado por mais um dia! Obrigado pela minha família, pelo nosso Ninho e por todos os Pardais que olham para Ti em todas as coisas. Somos um povo abençoado e estamos agradecidos. O mundo às vezes parece tão pequeno. Porém, outras vezes, o mundo parece tão vasto, como poderíamos saber tudo o que somos capazes de saber?

Minha mãe me criou para localizar minhas fontes. No entanto, isso também significava verificar primeiro sua credibilidade. Quando eu era criança, aprendi a confiar que o que me diziam era a verdade. Por que? Isto porque havia muitos jornalistas e grupos de integridade de periódicos mantendo a verdade com relatos de testemunhas oculares. Não existia uma enorme rede de informações entre mentiras e verdades como existe hoje.

Naquela época, em vez de evitar a dura verdade das notícias, os responsáveis pela informação simplesmente a omitiam. Uma forma de mentira é a omissão ou a verdade editada. Eles veem isso sob o pretexto de “manter as pessoas seguras”. No entanto, será mesmo? E quem determina esta censura e quando ela deve ser aplicada?

Na Alemanha nazista, havia um Departamento do Ministério da Verdade. Existem agora versões disso em todo o mundo, em muitos países. Estes são formados para orientar o povo na direção definida pelo seu líder supremo. Isso começa com uma mentira com algumas evidências plausíveis, mas falsas. Isso o torna crível e então se transforma em crença. Mentiras mais evidências se transformam em crença ou verdade percebida. Isso é frequentemente usado para propósitos malignos.

Uma coisa que minha mãe também me ensinou é ‘errar na verdade em todas as coisas’. Em outras palavras, é mais fácil dizer a verdade do que encobrir continuamente uma mentira.

Quando criança, minha avó me ensinou isso; a verdade é como uma semente plantada no solo que se transforma numa linda flor. Com cuidado, sol e água, ela floresce. Esta foi uma analogia com “a verdade”. Em contraste, uma mentira é como cavar a terra em busca de uma nova verdade para crescer, mas nunca a encontra. Em vez disso, é como ter que preencher constantemente buracos cavados na terra com terra fresca. Assim, tudo fica enterrado. Mentiras são sujas.

Bem, agora estamos vivendo em tempos de mentiras e mentirosos. Rumores e mentiras estão se espalhando mais rápido do que nunca. É uma campanha para forçar as pessoas a acreditarem em qualquer coisa, porque os nossos cérebros estão a ficar cansados de trabalhar constantemente para filtrar os factos da ficção. A medida de onde estamos na Bíblia nunca mudou. Nosso padrão como cristãos é Israel. Quando Israel é abandonado pelo mundo, Deus então aparece...

Miquéias 5:3: “Portanto, Israel será abandonado até o momento em que aquela que está em trabalho de parto tiver um filho, então o resto de seus irmãos retornará para se juntar aos israelitas.”

Isaías 60:12: “Pois a nação e o reino que não te servirem perecerão; essas nações serão totalmente devastadas.”

Salmo 83: 1 Ó Deus, não fique calado; não fique quieto nem fique quieto, ó Deus! 2 Pois eis que os teus inimigos fazem alvoroço; aqueles que te odeiam levantaram a cabeça. 3 Eles traçam planos astutos contra o teu povo; eles consultam juntos contra Seus entes queridos. 4 Eles dizem: “Venham, vamos exterminá-los como nação; que o nome de Israel não seja mais lembrado!” 5 Pois eles conspiram de comum acordo; contra ti fazem aliança: 6 as tendas de Edom e dos ismaelitas, de Moabe e dos hagarenos, 7 Gebal, e Amom, e Amaleque, a Filístia e os habitantes de Tiro; 8 Assur também se juntou a eles; eles são o braço forte dos filhos de Ló. Selá 9 Faça com eles o que você fez com Midiã, como com Sísera e Jabim no rio Quisom, 10 que foram destruídos em En-Dor, e se tornaram esterco para a terra. 11 Faça com que seus nobres sejam como Orebe e Zeebe, e todos os seus príncipes como Zebá e Salmuna, 12 que disseram: “Tomemos posse das pastagens de Deus”. 13 Ó meu Deus, faze-os como pó rodopiante, como palha diante do vento. 14 Assim como o fogo consome a floresta, como a chama incendeia as montanhas, 15 assim os perseguirás com a tua tempestade e os aterrorizarás com o teu furacão! 16 Encha os seus rostos de vergonha, para que busquem o teu nome, ó Senhor. 17 Sejam envergonhados e consternados para sempre; deixe-os perecer em desgraça, 18 para que saibam que somente Tu, cujo nome é o Senhor, és o Altíssimo sobre toda a terra.

Pai, Suas promessas são verdadeiras. Embora haja uma grande angústia nas nações, aqueles que você chama serão libertos disso. Suas promessas e favores estão sobre Seus filhos e Seus escolhidos. É por isso que somos odiados pelo mundo. Os planos do inimigo nunca mudaram. Ele está sempre zangado com Deus porque Deus não permitiu que Satanás/Lúcifer fosse exaltado acima do próprio Deus. Os planos de Satanás para destruir todos os seus filhos nunca mudaram.

Estou muito grato, Deus, por você ter o controle de Satanás. Contudo, quando Satanás caiu, ele decidiu travar guerra para sempre contra os filhos de Deus. Ele começou esta guerra contra os filhos de Deus no Jardim do Éden. Ele foi capaz de fazer o homem (e a mulher) cair para que Deus se mantivesse fiel aos Seus princípios e fechasse os Portões do Jardim para Adão e Eva. Isso os afastou de andar entre Deus e vice-versa, tirando assim a nossa comunhão com vocês.

Isso tornou mais fácil infligir e testar os filhos de Deus. Deus prometeu que a semente da mulher machucaria a cabeça do iníquo (Gênesis 3:1-15). Embora esta seja uma maldição para Satanás, esta é também uma profecia positiva sobre o que Jesus faria continuamente ao Seu e, portanto, ao nosso inimigo. A Primeira Vinda de Jesus seria para morrer pelos nossos pecados e redimir a Criação.

No entanto, a Sua Segunda Vinda será para amarrar Satanás no final da Tribulação e estabelecer o Trono de David, o Seu Trono, em Jerusalém e governar durante o Reino do Milênio. Depois que Satanás iniciou sua campanha para corromper o homem, Deus enviou um dilúvio, mas preservou Noé e sua família. Satanás então tentou destruir todos os bebês nascidos em Belém. Ele então tentou outras coisas contra Jesus, até mesmo Sua morte na Cruz.

Mesmo assim, Deus permaneceu fiel às Suas promessas. Satanás então tem estado em guerra contra o povo judeu, tentando destruir Israel para que Jesus não possa governar lá. Satanás tentou impedir que os judeus se tornassem uma nação, destruindo-os no Holocausto. No entanto, por causa do Holocausto, aqueles que sobreviveram receberam a Terra Prometida de Israel do mundo e contra todas as probabilidades. Mesmo assim, a sua luta pela sobrevivência continuou desde o estabelecimento da Nação Judaica em 1948.

O inimigo nunca deixará de tentar destruir Israel até que Tu, Pai, dê um fim final e completo a isso. Depois, há os cristãos – aqueles de nós que acreditam que Jesus é nosso Senhor e Salvador. Os cristãos são uma ameaça para Satanás e sua ordem. Visto que os EUA (o Novo Israel) e Israel (o Novo Judá) são ambos dedicados ao Senhor como nação, ambos estão sob ataque contínuo.

De forma semelhante, cristãos e judeus também estão sob ataque contínuo, pois também são dedicados ao Senhor como indivíduos. Por que esses ataques contínuos estão ocorrendo? Isso ocorre porque o inimigo odeia tudo o que Você ama! Os seguidores do inimigo estão reivindicando nossa terra, terra que Tu nos deste por direito como uma terra abençoada. Eles estão fazendo com que não seja mais nosso, mas deva ser entregue a eles.

O inimigo também está a trabalhar para deslegitimar o direito de Israel existir como nação e como povo. Eles agora estão fazendo o mesmo conosco. O inimigo está tirando nossos títulos de herdeiros do Reino de Deus, eliminando-nos da história. Estão a alterar os relatos factuais e a substituí-los por provas falsas. Estamos sendo desumanizados.

Da mesma forma que Israel está sendo atormentado pelo inimigo, assim será feito conosco. Tudo foi projetado para nos tornar menos seguros. O plano do inimigo é destruir-nos completamente para dar origem à geração de Satanás, os filhos da perdição.

Então, estes são fundamentais – tirar as terras – Ezequiel 36:1-2 – O inimigo de Israel está reivindicando a terra. No entanto, em Ezequiel 36:5 – Você diz que os inimigos de Israel provocarão a sua ira quando disserem que a terra de Israel pertence a eles. Em Ezequiel 36:12 então Deus deu a terra a Israel para sempre, mas os árabes estão reivindicando-a. Suas reivindicações estão irritando Deus.

A propriedade da terra é uma decisão Sua, Pai, e não cabe a qualquer outra Nação ou Grupo Mundial decidir. Em apenas 3,5 anos, Satanás destruiu as nações que anteriormente apoiavam Israel. Enquanto Satanás tentou destruir o mundo antes, Gênesis 11 é a Tua Aliança através de Abraão. No entanto, a terra dada a Israel deverá também incluir a totalidade ou parte da Jordânia, Síria, Líbano e Iraque.

Pai, o vírus Covid-19 foi enviado para destruir milhões de pessoas. A vacina veio então para nos enfraquecer ainda mais. Mais disso ainda está por vir. Não tenho estado em paz nas últimas semanas. Houve uma grande finalidade em meu Espírito de que tudo está prestes a mudar no mundo. Deus está chateado. Você está chateado! Pai, vejo tudo isso como um ponto de inflexão que já foi muito longe em Sua balança de justiça.

Depois, há o terramoto que atingiu Nova Jersey/Nova Iorque durante o Conselho de Direitos Humanos da ONU, quando votaram contra a capacidade de Israel de receber armas para se defender no futuro. Fizeram-no apesar de a Ucrânia ainda receber milhares de milhões de dólares e ninguém saber para onde vai tudo isso. Quando isso ocorreu na sexta-feira, 5 de abril de 2024, ocorreu um terremoto de 4,8.

Na noite anterior, quinta-feira, 4 de abril de 2024, um raio atingiu a Estátua da Liberdade. Então tive um sonho naquela noite que de alguma forma parecia relacionado com esse raio...

Sub-sonho 1 "Mais três! Mais três!" começa...

Um anjo estava chamando: "Mais três! Mais três!"

Sub-sonho 1 acabou...

Eu não conseguia me lembrar de mais nada desse sonho.

Então, na tarde de segunda-feira, 8 de abril de 2024, ocorre o Grande Eclipse Solar Total da América do Norte. O que torna isto particularmente interessante para nós é que estamos no Caminho da Totalidade. 8 de abril^o também pode ser escrito como '4:8'. Agora vamos olhar para duas Escrituras que parecem possivelmente pertinentes para o Eclipse Solar Total de amanhã...

Êxodo 4:8: Então o Senhor disse: "Se eles não acreditarem em você ou não prestarem atenção ao primeiro sinal, poderão acreditar no segundo..."

Algumas especulações escritas por meu marido no versículo acima: O primeiro sinal poderia ser o Grande Eclipse Solar Total Americano de 21 de agosto de 2017? Poderia ser amanhã, 8 de abril de 2024, ótimo Norte Eclipse Solar Total Americano, 6 anos, 6 meses, 6 semanas e 6 dias (inclusive) desde 21 de agosto de 2017, o Grande Eclipse Solar Total Americano, será o segundo sinal? Depois de ponderar sobre isso há algum tempo, testemunhei um evangelista de televisão fazer perguntas semelhantes a estas hoje cedo.

Apocalipse 4:8: E os quatro seres viventes, cada um deles com seis asas, estão cheios de olhos por toda parte e por dentro, e dia e noite eles nunca param de dizer: "Santo, Santo, Santo, é o Senhor Deus Todo-Poderoso, quem foi, é e está por vir!"

Então tive outro sonho ontem à noite...

O sub-sonho 2 "A Celebração do Céu Celestial" começa...

Eu estava em um prédio alto voltado para o oeste. Eu estava em uma cidade à beira-mar/porto. Éramos cerca de oito pessoas lá para uma festa para celebrar o céu celestial. Fomos convidados por uma mulher que se parecia muito com Katy Perry. Estávamos agora na cobertura dela para assistir a um evento celestial... um buraco negro redondo estava prestes a engolir a lua e depois o sol.

As mulheres que nos convidaram falavam de signos astrológicos como Vênus retrógrado e Saturno fora de controle. Eu não conhecia ninguém aqui. Eu não reconheci ninguém. Ela então continuou falando sobre as casas dos signos na astrologia. As pessoas que se reuniram ao seu redor para ouvir ficaram maravilhadas com seu conhecimento. Enquanto ela continuava a falar, ela usou um controle remoto para começar a tocar 'Bad Moon Rising' da CCR.

Tipo Katy: "Oh, olhe, o evento começou! Shiva agora destruirá todos vocês!"

Eu podia ver a lua se movendo sobre o buraco negro. Em um instante, a lua foi engolida. A lua havia desaparecido. O prédio em que estávamos mudou de repente e todos nós gritamos. Contudo, nossa anfitriã ficou feliz, quase tonta, com essa mudança. Ela então tocou no controle remoto e a música 'Here comes the sun' dos Beatles começou a tocar ao fundo (observe que ambas as músicas foram lançadas em 1969).

Tipo Katy: "Agora vamos lá! O sol está nascendo! Aí vem o sol!"

Inesperadamente, o sol não estava sendo engolido pelo buraco negro. A anfitriã ficou horrorizada porque isso também não estava acontecendo como ela queria. Eu então acordei.

Sub-sonho 2 acabou...

O nome Shiva continuou vindo até mim. Então ouvi as palavras: 'Três dias, Shiva! Três dias, Shiva!' Houve os 'Três Dias' novamente, mas agora com a palavra Shiva.

Nota sobre Shiva: (1) Shiva é um período de luto de uma semana no Judaísmo para parentes de primeiro grau. (2) Em hindu, Shiva é uma deusa poderosa.

Então adormeci e tive outro sonho...

O sub-sonho 3 "O Senhor tem acusações contra os governantes iníquos" começa...

Ouvi batidas na nossa porta da frente. Coloquei meu roupão e chinelos e fui até a porta. A luz era muito forte, quase como se um holofote quente estivesse vindo direto para a nossa entrada. Quando abri a porta, lá estava Uriel! Eu estava tão animado para vê-lo.

Uriel: "Erin, venha! Deus solicita sua presença."

Ele pegou minha mão e estávamos instantaneamente diante da porta de Deus no céu.

Meu: "Senti sua falta, Uriel."

Uriel permaneceu bastante sério enquanto colocava pomada em meus olhos.

Uriel: "Nós também sentimos sua falta. Eu e todos os anjos aqui gostamos de suas visitas. No entanto, um dia você terá comunhão com santos e anjos aqui, então não se preocupe. Para nós, já se passaram minutos, mas para você, já se passaram semanas. Não se preocupe. Vir!"

Ele abriu a porta para o Tribunal de Deus. Era lindo e perfumado com cheiro de rosas e cedro. Embora fosse uma combinação incomum, tinha um cheiro maravilhoso. Eu podia ouvir o coro multifacetado de anjos enchendo esta enorme corte/catedral.

No entanto, algo incomum aconteceu hoje. Sobre o Mar de Vidro, em frente ao Trono, numa nuvem de Sua Presença, havia milhares e milhares de santos chorando diante do Trono de Deus.

Uriel: "Venha e tome o seu lugar, Erin."

Uriel me conduziu para perto do Altar de Deus. Lágrimas escorreram pelo meu rosto. Minha respiração era plena e profunda, sem dor no peito. Não senti nenhuma dor além do meu coração doer. Eu estava chorando junto com os outros. Eu sabia coisas lá que não sabia aqui. Este conhecimento não foi transferido para cá na Terra (pelo menos ainda não). Todos nós adoramos a Deus juntos e cantamos: "Santo, Santo, Santo!"

O Senhor Deus então falou em Seu Trono com uma voz profunda e gutural. Sua voz consumia tudo.

Deus: "Ouvi seus gritos dia e noite e noite e dia. Eu sei o que você suportou para estar aqui. Eu liguei para você desta vez. Não tenha medo quando esses problemas surgirem, pois foram preditos pela Minha própria Palavra. Estou prestes a abalar as nações e a preparar os campos, pois estes estão maduros para a colheita. Eu sou Deus e não serei ridicularizado. Tenho acusações contra esses governantes perversos, juízes corruptos e seus trabalhadores.

"Tenho acusações contra os inimigos do Meu povo e atacarei todos os que vierem contra Israel. Pois hoje é para a Minha terra, amanhã é para a Minha cidade e para sempre para o Meu povo. A terra é minha. A cidade é Minha. O ouro é meu. O ar é Meu. Tudo o que é Santo é Meu. A terra dos EUA é Minha, pois foi dedicada a Mim.

“O homem não pode recuperar o que é de Deus nem pode transferir o direito da Minha propriedade para outro, pois Eu sou Deus e não há ninguém acima de Mim. O Destruidor agora vem para destruir. Porém, sou maior que tudo isso. Eu sou Deus e reino sobre todas as coisas. Agora levante-se e regozije-se, pois tenho um Grande Plano. Eu estabeleci isso.”

Sub-sonho 3 acabou...

Jesus: “Erin, suba!”

Ele mais uma vez falou comigo enquanto eu estava sentado em minha cadeira devocional. Sua voz era muito clara.

Jesus: “Erin, estou aqui e estou com você.”

Meu: “Senhor, todo o meu corpo está com muita dor. O que está acontecendo?”

Jesus: “Erin, não se preocupe. Eu estou contigo. Eu tenho um ótimo plano.”

Meu: “Senhor, estou ansioso... muito ansioso. Meu Espírito não está em paz.”

Jesus: “Eu sei. No entanto, pense nisso: fique em paz sabendo que estou acima de todas as coisas. Eu sou seu amigo e o amante de sua alma. Eu estou contigo.”

Meu: “Senhor, dois urubus continuam voltando para nossa casa. Um voa a poucos metros da minha janela. Estou sendo julgado?”

Jesus: “Não. Se fosse assim, eu te diria. Esses dois urubus simbolizam o julgamento de Deus sobre duas nações. Agora, explique-Me o que você testemunhou com este par.”

Meu: “Bem, eles voltaram duas vezes em busca de animais mortos. Eles estão circulando de perto. Eles voaram juntos. O sol então apareceu. Isso é bom porque não vemos o sol há muitos dias.”

Jesus: “Bem, não havia carcaças para se alimentar no seu quintal. Isso é bom. Mesmo assim, o julgamento está chegando. Meu julgamento está chegando.”

Meu: “Já está aqui? Senhor, o que simbolizava o relâmpago na Estátua da Liberdade?”

Jesus: “Que estou prestes a pôr fim ao progresso de uma nação.”

Meu: “Por favor, em vez disso, remova os responsáveis, esses líderes em quem não votamos.”

Jesus: “Esta estátua é de um deus que não deve ser adorado. Ela representa liberdade e liberdade. Eu sou Deus. Eu sou o Deus que liberta os cativos. Eu não elevo uma estátua nem a adoro. Quando um raio cai do Céu, isso é um sinal de progresso de seus adoradores, parando um novo começo porque Deus está aqui.

“Agora, sua tocha não é mais um farol no escuro para iluminar o caminho dos navios em seu porto. Embora muitos sejam os pecados desta cidade, esta ainda é a sua porta de entrada. Embora eu não tenha dito que estes tempos seriam fáceis, eu sou o Caminho, a Verdade e a Luz. Em breve todos verão isso. Agora alegre-se, Erin, pois o mal será abatido rapidamente.

Sonhe.

802 – The Day of the Path of Totality

Received on Monday, April 8, 2024

Note: I had this dream prior to the beginning of the Path of Totality. When this dream was posted, the Path of Totality had already ended. The Path of Totality lasted approximately 3 hours and 17 minutes. It started at 12:39 pm Eastern Time and lasted until 3:56 pm Eastern Time. Put another way, it started at sunrise 6:39 am CKT in the Pacific Ocean and lasted until sunset 6:56 pm UTC-1 in the Atlantic Ocean.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I love You! I am grateful for You!

I am sorry that I didn't know You in my college years and when I was young. I truly believe I did know You somehow anyway because, when I accepted You, or rather when You called me, I felt at Home. With You, Father, I am Home. I love You and nothing I could say or do could equal Your recompense in my life.

While I had two dreams last night, I will start with the more vivid of the two...

Sub-dream 1 "A New Day, A New Career" begins...

I was recruited by 'The Developer'. The Developer offered me the job of Chief Designer & Lead Project Coordinator. Basically, a project would come up and my job was to do the following:

- Create the concept based on the Developer's guidelines.
- Present it to the clients.
- Implement the design through teams to complete the project.
- Handling the project from concept to creation to finish.
- This included finally handing over the keys to the clients.

When I was hired, I knew this would be a big job. Upon hiring, I was given a start date of a couple of weeks away, but this suddenly changed. I now had to be on the job by 9:00 am sharp the very next day.

When the next morning arrived, I was a bit nervous as I had not toured the facility or been on site in any way. However, when I showed up for my 9:00 am start time, my Boss, the Developer and Owner, was there to immediately greet me. He was so kind and I felt that, no matter what, He had my back in all things. I trusted Him completely. While I was now younger looking, I still had all of the knowledge over all of these years to do this job.

Boss: "Listen, there may be issues with some of the employees because we moved up your start date so suddenly. Prepare for problems from those who have been with the company for many years and are upset that they have not been offered this promotion instead of you. Otherwise, the employees here are satisfied in their roles.

"I am taking the Company in a different direction. Although all of the same foundations are still in place, there will be pushback.

"Now, when I introduce you to the existing staff, you will not be received well. However, you are not to worry as you only answer to Me. In addition, the quarters will be a bit tight at first until the new offices are complete. Whatever you need, just let Me know and it is yours. I give you full authority to get what you need. I am glad you are here.

"Oh yes, one other thing... rumors have created anger and fear. These people, your coworkers, have been here a long time. They also suspect that you will be making double their salaries to start. They also know that they will now need to make an ample space for you and they will be unhappy about it. I tell you all of this in advance so that you are prepared for their reaction to you."

I nodded in agreement as I went into the main office space with Him. Because this was a temporary office space, it was quite tight.

Boss: "Hi, everyone!"

Staff: Looking noticeably upset. "Hi..."

Boss: "Everyone, I would like you to meet Erin. She is My Lead Designer. Please make her feel welcome. She is important to this Company."

They were all so upset that they could barely even look at their Boss. However, I could also tell they felt secure with the Company and were also loyal to the Company.

Boss: Turning to me. "Erin, you will need supplies. Please go and purchase anything you need."

Me: "I have a hydraulic lift drafting table at home that I could bring in."

I then heard one of the staff repeat what I just said, but in a mocking tone. The women then broke out in laughter. The Boss was not at all pleased by their behavior.

Boss: Handing me a type of credit card. "No, Erin, that will not be necessary. Take this and shop for a new table. Spare no expense." I heard the women gasping air at the shock of it all. "Also, feel free to spread out and make any changes here that you find necessary. This New Project takes priority and is urgent. Anyone who is an impediment to My New Way will need to find a new way."

He then pointed to the door. The women all gasped again. I then heard someone crying. This was not a good day for them.

Boss: "Now, this is the final word I am going to give on this matter." He then turned towards me and addressed me loud enough for the staff to hear. "Erin, I know you. I trust you as I have known you for a long time. You were created just for this at this time." He then turned and addressed the others. "Understand? I know her and her works. She is important to Me for My purposes under this Company.

"Now, I suggest that all of you get used to these changes as there will be many more here as others are coming also. Again, if this is too much, then take a few days away to decide if My Company and this New Direction is for you. However, choose wisely as I will give you only two choices... be here or not. It is simple. This work is much greater than all of the others."

One woman: "But I have done so much. I have been loyal. Why was I not..."

Boss: Interrupting her. "...elevated over Erin? Well, it is because you are smug and stagnant. You gossip and spread rumors. I know this because you were one of the first employees of My Company and I know what you do."

He started looking around the room. He then pointed at another of the women.

Boss: "You... you arrive late and never early. You leave early and never stay late. You take more lunch than anyone and then you condemn others when they don't adhere to the rules you break. You can't be trusted with anymore than you have been given."

Pointing at a different woman. "You... you are lazy. You perform the bare minimum and no more. You then complain and demand this and that. I can't trust you with more if I can't depend upon you when given very little."

Pointing at another woman. "You... you talk a big game. You inflated your worth and lied on your resume to land the job. When you came on, you quickly realized the job was more than you could handle. Instead of stepping up and coming clean, you worked behind the scenes sabotaging the Company. Actually, now that I think about it... gather your belongings. Today is a good day for you to start fresh somewhere else. I can see the anger in your eyes and this is no longer where you should be. Go."

The staff gasped even louder than the other times. The dismissed worker started to swear and slam things around. She suddenly couldn't speak and her arms began to shrivel up. She promptly left in a panic.

Boss: "Is there anyone else?"

A different woman: Raising her hand. "How can I help?"

Boss: "Perfect! Assist Erin to find a place here among you. I am busy with this New Direction. I have given the new workers, Erin included, a direct line to Me day and night. I also give them the authority to remove anything that is not in line with this New Direction." He then turned to me. "Can I speak to you outside for a moment?" I nodded yes and we stepped out of the office into the main hallway.

"I mean this... if you are mistreated in any way, this is a heart issue and I will not tolerate it. Use your authority and be the change I have called you to be. Now, your living expenses, debts and all else have been paid. You are free. The burdens of your daily life have been removed. You now have no master other than Me and God on the Throne. So, are you ready?"

Me: "Yes. However, I am learning as I go. I am nervous to go back in there."

Boss: "This is nothing compared to the jealousy soon to come. Now, anytime the status quo is shaken up and changes made faster than the old guard can comprehend, there is then resistance. However, once they are humbled and their resistance is removed, there is then nothing that the body of the Company can't do together. It will be unshakable and unstoppable. Remember.. get your space in order. I will supply all you need for the project. You got this. You were created for this. I am with you."

I turned and walked back in. The women had now made a space for me. A woman then came up to me.

Woman: "Would you like me to accompany you to purchase a new drafting table?"

Me: "Thank you, but that will not be necessary."

There was still grumbling. This made sense though as the changes were still fresh.

One of the workers: Mumbling under their breath. "I guess this is what twice the pay looks like."

The worker looked shocked that I had heard this. I turned toward the worker.

Me: "Actually, in reality, it is more than twice. However, your salary is still more than most. Quit focusing on me and instead change the things our Boss pointed out to you. Make changes now because I feel like spreading out my space and it will only benefit me to not have to deal with your negativity."

There was gasping. There was shock and awe from the others. I promptly got up and headed out to go shopping.

Me: "Gotta run now!"

I could hear angry voices and gasps as I closed the door behind me.
Sub-dream 1 over..

This dream was so clear, it was as if it had actually happened. The women in the dream reminded me of old office workers, especially bookkeepers, that I had encountered in my past. They reminded me of old guard church ladies. They reminded me of so many people who treated me like garbage over the years. Many served God on their own terms. This had similar attitudes as what I saw being given to the Boss. The Boss even looked like Jesus.

This dream was much clearer than my second dream...

Sub-dream 2 "Refusing to Eat Garbage" begins...

I was refusing to eat what people were serving me. I was being offered different dishes to eat at a party. While I should have been hungry, I had no appetite for the dishes. Each server was presenting a plate with garbage meant to look appetizing. It even had some garnish on it. I refused to consume it. A server came up to me...

Server: "Look, even Jesus would eat this."

Me: "No, He would never eat garbage or poison. He would eat what is good, not what is forced upon Him in evil."

A server then threw the plate at me, but I woke up before it could hit me.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Listen to Me... judgment has come to your land as I will halt the plans of the enemy and their advances. I am about to humble the hearts of the people to turn to Me. This will happen quickly. Do not be afraid as this must occur in order for the prophecies to be fulfilled.

"Those I have called will be safe here and in My arms. Fear is a tool of the enemy to gain compliance to their agenda. However, I am about to turn the tables on the enemy and they will be in great fear. I am God and I am over the nations. My Name will not be profaned nor will My people who cried out to Me in great distress be abandoned to fear."

Me: "Is this today, Lord?"

Jesus: "A sign of judgment and the signature of God. This is My land and not the enemy's. Rejoice and pray, Erin. Look up. Your Savior is here!"

Dream over.

803 – The Lord is Against the Wicked Evil Doers

Received on Friday, April 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

You are my everything! Thank You for another day. Thank You for every breath. Thank You. I have been keeping overly busy. I have not been alone to myself for what seems like a few weeks. Since I am alone today, I have this day to reconcile my feelings before You in solitude. Father, I have been hurt. My heart hurts. I had a good cry today. I needed this. You comfort me and care for me.

With each new day, I try to carve out a mark or complete something I can feel good about. You then send love and surprises and joy to me even when I cry. This world is becoming darker. People are becoming more and more mean spirited and selfish. The selfish believe they deserve more self-indulgence and use self-medication through acts of self-compensation to continue feeding their selfish desires. Anyone who gets in their way is hurt and publicly shamed.

My phone has been missing. It is funny because I didn't realize how isolated I feel when I don't have it. My time with the Lord has been missing lately even though this is infinitely more vital to me than a cellphone. You strengthen me and add to me. You nourish my soul and make my heart glad. My phone is a reminder of all I am unable to do.

There are things I miss. There are people I need to connect with.

The trouble is that the news I bring is usually not great news. As for my phone, I am sure that it is going to be found today (it was). I am tired, Father. I want to be healed of this terminal illness. I am depressed. However, being sad doesn't help my spirit. Please be with me today, Father, as I long for You.

I am sorry for running off Your path lately. I want to go back to my path from five months ago when all of my issues were things like a power outage and pump problems. These were easily fixed in comparison. Well, what about me? I need You. You are my Best Friend and my Creator. I know You are here. I know it.

My dreams the last two nights have followed a theme which I will combine into one dream as follows:

Sub-dream 1 "Intimidation by My Greatest Enemies"

These dreams seem to center around my ex-husband. The first night, it was with his sister. Then last night, my enemy was with his father. His father was wearing silver mirrored aviators. He never said a word.

Even so, the intimidation I felt was overwhelming in both dreams. These people were demonic and angry. They continued to pursue me with hate as if I had stolen something from them. All I could think of was my children's hearts.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is still in you. I have not left you. Your enemies are angry because you have found something that has eluded them... Me! Despite everything, you remain in Me and I in you. Your children are also on Me. Their faces are turned towards Me. This is difficult for your enemies to reconcile. This is because they have painted a picture of you to others that you are unaware of.

"They are able to do this because you live so far away. They have bended willing ears of gossip in My Church. Even so, many have seen them by their fruit. They then have questions over what they witnessed over the years.

"Now, you have been preparing to leave for Oregon one day soon. In preparing around you, you have also had to prepare for the enemy's advances against you. Time has not lessened their bitterness. There is more compassion in the camps of Esau against Jacob who stole his birth rites than you who bore this evil man's children. There will be no compassion given to you by this family.

"Erin, this is the fig tree that bears no fruit in due season. Your enemies count it as divine justice from God if you were to shrivel and die. Well, justice is Mine and My Voice is in you. Gossip and false testimony done against you are also done against Me. They will not be blessed.

“Erin, they have held charges against you for many years. This marks the 30th year. False things were said of you. Hidden rage and misplaced loyalties struck out in secret places and behind closed doors. Lies were spoken of you... a myriad of lies too numerous to count.

“You have been cursed and mocked for 30 years. However, I am now setting you free from them. They have continued to do the same all these years. They have angered Me because they refused to give you to Me. They have instead held you captive by spreading lies to so many, thereby muddying the truth.

“They told everyone that, when you returned, you would be alone. They desired that all they told of this would fully believe their ‘vision of truth’. For doing this, I have given them over to their demons. Those who believe their lies will be confused. However, you are free, Erin. I have set you free today.”

Me: “Thank You, Lord. However, I am still sad. I am sad for my children. How will coming home be?”

Jesus: “Do not worry. You will be elevated above those who harmed you because I am with you. They will be speechless when they witness all I am about to do. Your wicked (former) employer will receive your pacemaker in a box as he asked you for it as a joke for years and he will remember what I haven’t forgotten. I do not forget and, in this instance, I will repay evil with more evil. I will not repay evil with good. Now, when you go (to Bend OR), you will be free and clear with no hold upon you.”

Me: “When will this be? This has been disheartening and I am growing weary. My light is burning low.”

Jesus: “I know, I know. I delight in you, Erin. You have done all I have asked and I have not forgotten. I don’t forget even when you have been so downcast.”

Me: “I had another dream last night...”

Sub-dream 2 “Five Dead Mice” begins...

I had a pile of five dead mice to deal with. The last of the five mice was the largest of the bunch. This mouse was almost the size of a rat.

Sub-dream 2 over..

Jesus: “You had these in reality also. This is meant as a sign that this great evil, the destruction that has devastated you, is now finished. The uncleanness that has destroyed most of your years is over. That which silently invaded your life in hidden spaces has come to a close.

“The obstacles that held you – the prison walls of torment and the shackles of pain and poverty – are now loosed and have been removed. You are free. I am about to expose all of the hidden works of your enemies. The prophet Obadiah reveals hidden truths for you now...”

1 The vision of Obadiah. Edom Will Be Humbled – Thus says the Lord God concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the Lord, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: “Rise up! Let us rise against her for battle!” 2 Behold, I will make you small among the nations; you shall be utterly despised. 3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty dwelling, who say in your heart, “Who will bring me down to the ground?” 4 Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down, declares the Lord. 5 If thieves came to you, if plunderers came by night— how you have been destroyed! — would they not steal only enough for themselves? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? 6 How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures sought out! 7 All your allies have driven you to your border; those at peace with you have deceived you; they have prevailed against you; those who eat your bread have set a trap beneath you — you have no understanding. 8 Will I not on that day, declares the Lord, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau? 9 And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

Edom’s Violence Against Jacob – 10 Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off forever. 11 On the day that you stood aloof, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them. 12 But do not gloat over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune; do not rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their ruin; do not boast in the day of distress. 13 Do not enter the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; do not gloat over his disaster in the day of his calamity; do not loot his wealth in the day of his calamity. 14 Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off his fugitives; do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress.

The Day of the Lord Is Near – 15 For the day of the Lord is near upon all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you; your deeds shall return on your own head. 16 For as you have drunk on My Holy Mountain, so all the nations shall drink continually; they shall drink and swallow, and shall be as though they had never been. 17 But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy, and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions. 18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor for the house of Esau, for the Lord has spoken.

The Kingdom of the Lord – 19 Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah shall possess the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. 20 The exiles of this host of the people of Israel shall possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb. 21 Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau, and the kingdom shall be the Lord's.

Me: "Wow, I never paid much attention to Obadiah before."

Jesus: "Well then, start today. Now, a remarkable thing has been done to you. Rejoice. All the enemy has stolen from you will be returned."

Me: "The first night's dream was about my greatest enemy's sister. She was wearing my jewelry that I had sold to a pawn broker. What did this symbolize?"

Jesus: "Guilt and responsibility. You were stripped of these things. However, there was a root cause of this and it is very evil."

Me: "What about my dream with the five dead mice?"

Jesus: "I gave you mice in the natural and five were trapped and killed. You removed them as I told you to and anything associated with this has been removed and will not return. Your younger son is experiencing attacks and so is your daughter. However, they are free today. All who were shackled are now free. You will no longer be the subject of cursing. Rejoice, Erin, as this is a Great Day.

"Now, about the five dead mice in the natural and the five dead mice in the spiritual. This means it is finished. Now let yourself out. I am with you. My recompense I bring with Me. Your old garments will be changed into something greater. I love you, Erin. I have heard your cries and I will dry your tears. Oh yes, your older son and your husband too. They are both free."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "You all must be diligent according to the physician's orders until you have proof of your changes. However, you are not to worry as you will know of this quickly. Do not worry as I am with you. Erin, be encouraged. I love you!"

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for granting me one more day! Thank You!

This morning is an extremely still morning. It is as if the landscape is frozen in time. Or maybe it is like You have a remote control and have everything around us paused. Personally, I would like You to delete the bad movie we are in right now and put us in a better one. The world is falling fast. I cried over and over yesterday and I couldn't get a grip on my lamenting.

My husband and I watched the last couple of hours of the Masters Golf Tournament last night. I was grateful that this Christian player won as he has been dominating the tour this year. He is unapologetic in his faith for Jesus. However, something else hit me as we watched this tournament. This felt like the last one. I felt the same was true for so many of the other popular shows on TV.

For me, I had built my hopes and dreams around a career in golf. While I couldn't really afford to play golf, I loved it. I loved the smell of the grass. I loved the sounds of the birds. I loved the sound of the sprinklers. I even loved the sound of lawnmowers in the early morning. I found these so comforting to me.

While I had big dreams for a career in golf, I had then accepted that I would not likely realize these in my lifetime. I had a pivotal moment in my career after college. I was offered the chance to come home to northern Idaho as the assistant golf pro at a resort. It didn't pay much. For some reason that I do not recall, they had left the position open for me for one year. I then declined the position.

My life would have looked different had I turned to golf in 1988 and continued. I instead worked several jobs and never went back. My USGA handicap continued to climb. The last recorded number was 9.8 in 2007. The end. I struggled with injuries and never truly used those beautiful Titleist DT Irons my mom had bought me for my birthday.

These irons were custom made for me. I enjoyed a brief few rounds where I had backspin on the green. This had never happened before and it was definitely attributed to the clubs. With this cancer and my neck injury, all hope of even having a retirement at some point where I would just be out on a beautiful golf course again in a normal world... well, this is gone! Only you God can make changes here!

As for the Masters, I hadn't really watched it in a few years to pay attention. While watching it this year, they showed the old masters hitting their shots. There were some of my old golf heroes, golfers like Tom Watson and Jack Nicklaus. I still remember watching them play when I was a kid.

I came from a different world. We had no money for dreams like these. It is like skiing or tennis, the equipment is expensive. Those called to these arenas are those God has called to them for a very specific purpose and all was provided. For me, God – you said 'No, not this way, Erin I have a better way'. This hurt as I worked so hard for this and then it abruptly ended. A door so large and heavy closed that I couldn't even open it a crack.

When I watched this Masters, I cried. Over the last 48 hours, I have had the smell of dust. The air hasn't felt fresh even though everything is clean in the house. Something is wrong with my sense of smell. My vision has been poor. I have been experiencing nausea that is off the charts. This recently happens in the morning. It is as if I am pregnant. I am not sure what this is about.

My Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is in full defensive mode. It is as if something is coming that will make the former way of living or doing life completely change. It is like high school graduation. You spend multiple years of your life preparing for this day and then you reach your 12th Grade. However, you are still never certain of what all of it will look like. The ability for me to live at home to wait and figure it out was never an option.

My brothers and I were prepared to move out and move on. This was the way. However, now – this feels like this, but what is coming is not promising, like the possibilities of a future of exciting opportunities at the age of 18. This is the opposite. Father, I had hoped for the Rapture before all of this became so dark. If this was the last Masters Golf Tournament, then this will be the last football season too.

This will be the last spring of flowers and summer of activities and yardwork before the trees drop their leaves. I am grieving the way things will go. Will there still be time to have my kidney removed? What about Bend OR? This is impossible unless we rent a tiny place. Should we? Should

I try to have one last season in the place I love, Father? Father, please help all of us!

These dreams seem similar to working our way through Grades 1 to 12. For these dreams, Grade 1 started in the fall of 2012, the same season school starts. The Lord said 'it is finished' in my last dream. This makes me think that school is almost over and that it is now time for us to graduate. In this analogy, and as it is in real life, Grade 12 ends in the spring of 2024. 12 grades from the fall of 2012 to the spring of 2024!

I had another dream last night...

Sub-dream 1 "Working at a collapsing Target store" begins...

I was around people that I do not know. I was moving items from one place to another when I realized I didn't want to live where I was going to. I was moving into an old Victorian home that needed a remodel. The plumbing wasn't working and it had an old smell. It was one of my worst nightmare situations.

I was working at a Target store that was failing. Each time the shelves emptied, the rows of shelves were then pushed together into the center of the store. They had done this shuffling so many times that only the outer perimeter rows of the store had products. This was also happening because there was nothing new arriving.

I arrived at my 'new home' after work. Instead of staying, I packed up what I needed and left. There was a storm coming. I was able to arrive back at my current home to be safe before the storm arrived. Since the home and the Target store seemed like it was in San Francisco, I was relieved to be away from there and back home.

Sub-dream 1 over..

Father, I couldn't wait to be away from this nightmare. For me personally, I do not like Victorian-era architecture. I just pray I don't do something stupid like move without your leading!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not worry as I don't dwell in stupid. This dream was given to you because you are wrestling with what could have been, a former way that never was. You were removed from an even worse fate."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I am grateful for the life I have now."

Jesus: "Yes. However, the current way is about to change and you understand this. You are grieving."

Me: "Yes, Lord. It is only by Your Grace that I am still here. You have shown me Heaven or the New Earth or the New Heaven and the New Earth. I am not sure how this will go, but I rest in Your assurance that You are with us. I love You and I know You are in control. However, all of this feels unsettling in my heart. When I had hopes and dreams, I was 'Passed Over' by You. You had a better way for me.

"Lord, unless You do something miraculous with me, I will die unrealized and forgotten. Even the actual dreams You have given me will be lost to those who could use the encouragement that there is a wonderful God who loves us personally. Your love is intoxicating. You are worthy to be loved and pursued by Your Creation. However, it is You who loves us enough that You died for us.

"You are alive with us now and long for a relationship with us. While I never realized my personal dream, I had some amazing special miraculous moments from You. I have had over one thousand dreams and words from You when I include my personal dreams. I have had a dream-life greater than I could have ever imagined.

"While I had thought myself small, You had big plans for me. You brought me up from nothing to where I am now. You gave me two sons and a daughter who all love You. You even gave me a husband who loves You and his children too. Even though You have not healed my whole body, You did heal my heart muscle. I am grateful! Lord, what is next?"

Jesus: "Erin, your use of the term 'Passed Over' is interesting! I didn't take you the normal way. I instead took you out from a way that led to death and into a better way. You are no longer a slave. You are free. I have removed the chains that bound you and I have set you free. I have not 'Passed You Over' in a negative sense. I have instead marked you for My purposes.

"Now, I know that the angel I sent gave seven more years. You then wonder if these seven more years are for your life or is it for something else? You wonder if it could even be for both? Not long after this, you then received the confirmation that you have a terminal illness. Well, Erin, in this life, you are born and then you are terminal here. I am God. It is I who determines a man's way and his days."

Me: "What is Free Will?"

Jesus: "Free Will is to choose one way or another. However, this is still the course of the Way I have made."

Me: "So, is anything in my control or in my ability to choose?"

Jesus: "Good question. Yes. But this is of no surprise to Me. If you choose to be one way, I am still with you in it. If you choose another way, even then I am with you. However, because I love you and want the best for you, because I know and see the hidden things, I then send angels to guard you in all you do.

"I shut doors that cannot be opened and I open doors that cannot be shut. Don't spend your time trying to pry open a door that I have sealed shut. Even a locksmith can't open what I lock. While I will allow you to try, it will be discouraging when you know in your heart that My Will guards the door.

"When an open door is presented by Me, well, that door would be made clear with angels, music, lights and every manner of sign. You know when I have opened or closed a door. You know when I am calling you to pass through an open door."

Me: Crying. "Lord, open some doors soon. As a house, we are growing tired. Evil is advancing. It is difficult. The doctors are finalizing my surgery schedule now. I had hoped that You would have reached down and opened the door of a healing miracle by now. I am hurt as I love You and I don't understand it. I know You can..."

Jesus: "Thank you for being honest. Now, I will be clear with you. You surrender to Me and then you take it back. You do this because, as troubles begin to loom, you question your position with Me."

Me: "You are right, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you no matter what, Erin. I delight in you. You surrender your life to Me and I work through you. I do not plan to destroy you in this life. Even so, what if I did allow this?"

Me: "I would still love You. Whatever You choose for me, it is the best way, Lord. Whatever way You form is The Way that leads to life in eternity."

Jesus: "Then give Me your life. I promise good for you all of your days... you and your house."

Me: "I have come to the edge of an impossible sea. My enemies pursue me. I am an easy mark for destruction. They ride on swift horses. They have powerful weapons and strong chariots. I have nothing. As I stand here, You are my God who parts the sea so that I can pass through it on dry land. You then remove my pursuers. They are no more. I am free.”

Jesus: “You are free, Erin. I have declared it. You trust in where I take you. You trusted Me for your deliverance and therefore I have blessed you. I will continue to care for you because I am with you. What I won’t do for the ones whose hearts are set on Me like the rising of the sun at dawn to the setting of the sun at the end of day. Since you think of Me even in your sleeping hours, My heart is also upon you.

“Erin, I love you. I am here with you. I am about to present a door unlike any other. Only I can open this door as no man can shut a door I open. Not one. Rejoice, Erin, rejoice! This is a good day, a day unlike any other. Though you are weary, tired and discouraged, I promise to carry you.”

I then looked up out of my window. There appeared to be cloud writing in the sky. If this is writing, my husband and I could not figure out what it said. I took a couple of photos for all of the Nest to now see...

Dream over.
