There, done! You are all-knowing, everywhere at all times, all powerful, all good and void of evil. You are worthy of our full praise. We are creatures created by You to worship You and to live in the fullness of Your love. We are meant to be prosperous, healthy, multiply and produce all the Fruits of the Spirit that You have given to us. There are very few of us who look to You now.

Brief dream / vision: You showed me a dream / vision of the Earth rolling off the side of an embankment into darkness. It was a literal plunge into an abyss void of You. It was frightening.

We who watch for You are like the moon shining in the darkness. However, we are in the waning phase now and we are growing dim. This world has fallen so quickly into great upheaval. There are so many bizarre news stories that are now real, not fabricated. The newspaper now reads like a ridiculous tabloid. It is so mixed-up, backwards, upside-down, inverted, convoluted and jumbled. None of this is good.

However, You can turn this around! Father, You can do all things. I never thought I would see a day when it would seem worse than the days of Noah. Well, I am sorry to say that 'worse' isn't almost here, it has now fully arrived.

I am struggling to think of leaving to go out west in my current condition. We are in a relatively safe place and we know what to expect. We have become comfortably uncomfortable here as we wait on You. I promised You a long time ago that, if You delivered me and my children to a safe land far from those who long to hurt us, I would forever be in Your service here and in eternity. Well, here we are!

I am so grateful that You not only brought us to a safe place, but You did so many incredible things to ensure we would continue to serve You in peace while we wait. It is not peace as the world would see it, but peace as I view it. To me, peace is when my heart rests in Your hands and is subject to no man. You set me free here. You provide the small things too, things that delight me.

For instance, when a married male couple became our neighbors, knowing we were Christians, they continuously made themselves visibly present. When they first began to excavate the field next to ours, they decided to camp together in complete view of our windows. Their desire was to visibly display their relations right at the edge of our property. They could have pitched their tent away from us, but instead they put it within a few feet of a small ditch that divided our two properties.

In response to my pleas as we prayed at the dinner table to keep them from camping there, and within minutes as we dined, they were attacked by horseflies. They then quickly decided to abort their camping altogether. What makes this so remarkable is that no one in our family has ever been attacked by horseflies since moving here. This was a new thing that God did there for us.

This type of thing also happened when they later began to get ready for the foundation of their house. The excavators soon found out that the sight of their property was a former swampy garbage dump. Construction was then halted and the removal of the debris began. After this, at least 30 or more dump trucks poured fill to the point they could finally start their foundation. There were many more delays.

When the home finally went up, I asked You to somehow build a massive ten-foot hedge so that our view of them would be blocked. You then told me that You would. Knowing natural growth would take years, I went to a landscape company to ask them how much tall cypress or arborvitae would cost. It was an impossible amount of money, so the thought was abandoned.

So, how would God do this? Flash forward to just a couple of months later and God's plan was set in motion. An epic rainstorm came. We had flooding. The water carved out ravines in our yard. The ditch between our two properties then became a new waterway. However, in Your great way, You transported an abundance of tree seeds to this area and made them grow supernaturally fast.

Within a miraculously short time period, we now have a fourteen-foot-high tree wall. The trees are beautiful, consisting of maple, sumac and birch. While I was not happy about the flood, You created answered prayers using Your higher ways. As for this couple, their relationship ended in late June 2021. Their home was sold. They broke ground in the spring of 2018 and they were gone by the summer of 2021.

Father, You answered our prayers. This is Your land. We only rent all that we see as You own all that is before us. We are thankful for You. You care about all that we care about. You already know that we are okay to stay here if it is Your Will. I never want to step outside of Your Will. When I do, it never goes well for me.

Our children have struggled here as the world continues to chip away at their faith and innocence. You are fully aware of all of this. Our young adults are surrounded by such bizarre people. So many of their co-workers are truly lost souls. Just yesterday You had me advise my older son to remain at his job until You call him to move. He had several requests of You in his prayers.

When he told me what his prayers were, I could literally hear You say, 'No, No, No!' This was because all of his prayers were coming from the wrong direction. I had to explain to my son that when God tells you to wait, then don't move. This is because He is working on something. I explained it this way to my son…

Me: "You are not to speak about these matters with your co-workers anymore. You are not to leave until the Lord directs you to. I am sorry this makes you uncomfortable, but hang in there as answers are coming."

I dropped him off and proceeded to drive home. I then received a text five minutes later that he hadn't been paid for the prior week. I prayed. You told me to turn around and go to the manager and make known my position as my son's guardian given his autism. I then went to his place of work and asked to speak to his manager. The manager came out confused. In short, she is a biological male dressed as a female.

She could not look me in the eyes. Oh wait… excuse me… the correct label is 'they' and so shall it be written. I then stated that my son has autism and is uncomfortable with touch. While I was kind about it, I stated that there seems to be miscommunication about varying issues. My son had told others he was uncomfortable with touching and then his hours were cut. It seemed like 'they' were retaliating against him.

I then gave 'them' a bit of our background. 'They' then quickly became an advocate and confessed to me that 'they' were also high-functioning autistic. I then reminded 'them' about the Disabilities Acts and other laws in the books. I told 'them' I had no issue with escalating any abuse against him to the authorities. It completely disarmed the enemy when I told 'them' we had unlimited means to fight. Even though I said it nicely, 'they' assumed we meant financially when I really meant You! Father, You are limitless.

As we were wrapping up, 'they' told me that they were going to give him more hours and responsibilities. When I asked 'them' if this meant a pay increase, 'they' said, 'In time.' However, by simply establishing my position as his guardian, I watched this clearly lost soul change 'their' demeanor. It changed everything. After that, 'they' elevated my son and have been very nice to him ever since.

Father, You are amazing, brilliant and oh so clever. As I drove home, You told me that the disabled are placed in the laws above the transgender movement…at least for now. While this manager thought 'they' were untouchable, 'they' is fully aware now that we stand behind him ready to fight. Father, with You behind us, the giants will all topple.

I then told my son later that evening that he must stay separated from gossip with co-workers as their battles cannot be his cause. After this, and for the first time in a long-time, he had a restful sleep. Thank You, Father, for, at least for now, my son will not lose his job. Overall, the stories our kids are coming home with now are so bizarre.

Pagan practices are everywhere as these young people are confused about who they are. We are in the three-week time period (or 21-days) of mourning starting from the 17th of Tamuz to the 9th of Av. Father, my husband and I are using this time to deny ourselves certain foods. Mine is more extreme, more like a fast than a diet. I feel I need this right now to focus more on You and the tasks You have for us.

As of right now, we have no idea how You will take us from the wilderness to Bend OR. However, in obedience, we are planning a trip there in September. Not sure how You will do this, but You already do. You have it all in Your Plans. In the meantime, we continue to do as You instruct, moving forward in faith.

In the meantime, I am increasingly concerned about our nation, especially when I read Jeremiah 2:26-28 and 2 Kings 21:6 as we are clearly there…

Jeremiah 2:26-28: "26As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed: they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, 27 who say to a tree, 'You are my father,' and to a stone, 'You gave me birth.' For they have turned their back to me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they say, 'Arise and save us!' 28 But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you, in your time of trouble; for as many as your cities are your gods, O Judah."

2 Kings 21:6: "6 And he (Manasseh) burned his son as an offering and used fortune-telling and omens and dealt with mediums and with necromancers. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking him to anger."

The Book of the Law had been stored away in the Temple, so the kings knew nothing about what was written in it. This is why, instead of worshipping the God of Israel as it was written for them to do in Scripture, images of Baal were erected in the Temple, the place where God said His Name would be placed forever. God warned the people continuously and Manasseh was taken prisoner. (2 Chronicles 33:2-11).

While Manasseh was a prisoner, he repented and called out to God. God then restored him to his reign. He then returned with his grandson, Josiah, to Israel. However, their efforts were lost as they were not able to start a revival. Father, I pray that Your revival soon comes. I pray that You are able to turn hearts and humble the proud and arrogant. In my dream two nights ago…

Sub-Dream 1 "The Car-Sized Fireball" begins…

I was in a very hilly city neighborhood. There were abundant trees, landscaping and homes close together. I was up at a neighbor's home looking through storage bins of broken porcelain when, all of a sudden, a fireball the size of a tiny smart car flew in at a 45-degree angle in between the homes.

There was a large explosion and debris scattered everywhere. In this dream, I did not know that I was this home's neighbor. While it completely missed our block, I could see the debris had started many fires. The fireball seemed to come out of nowhere.

Sub-Dream 1 over…

Then in my dream from last night…

Sub-Dream 2 "Hispanic gangs rule the neighborhood" begins…

We were living in a ranch home with a flat roof in a community with similar homes with stucco siding. I had an office window facing a parking lot for the guests of this community. We heard yelling and could see two rival Hispanic gang members yelling at each other.

There was a total of four gang members. Then out of nowhere, one of the members took a baseball bat across the face of his rival. The hit was direct and shocking and it shattered his frontal skull. Two members ran up to our door to demand we let them in. I went to the door.

Gang member: "Call an ambulance."

I agreed. The other member stared at the inside of our home for a bit too long for my comfort. When they heard the ambulance coming, they ran. The ambulance came to the fallen young man and I walked outside. The driver placed a sheet over him as he was now dead.

Ambulance driver: "Did you let them into your home?"

Me: "Sort of. Two of them were standing at my door when I opened it. They seemed to take quite the interest in looking around. There was nothing I could do to stop them."

Ambulance driver: "They will come for your home next. They have taken over the southern portions of the community and stolen the homes and contents. Yours and this block are next. They will come. Don't delay, understand?"

Me: I knew he was right. "Yes. I will do as you say."

We decided to take only important items. Even so, it still filled a large U-Haul. We supernaturally moved everything. Nothing was left. We did this all in a day. While we warned our neighbors, they didn't heed our warning. When nightfall came, we returned to drop off our keys and saw the gang trying to enter our home. They didn't see us. When they entered, they saw that our home was empty of anything they would want.

They were extremely mad and called out to some others to hunt us down. However, we were gone. We had completely disappeared. They could not find us. I didn't know how that was possible (them not finding us) as we were now observing them in clear view. While it seemed like this was some place like Nevada or Arizona, I was not sure.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

I have had so many dreams of destruction and trouble coming to the land. It is really difficult to think of leaving, especially with so many obstacles.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Why do you think I would call you back to the place of your brokenness (Bend OR)?"

Me: "Well, I believe it is because I loved this area so much. I loved it despite the enemy's victories there. Still, I always felt I would be back one day under different circumstances. I just thought it would be as a changed, transformed, strong, young person, not as I am currently. As I am, I am willing, my heart is ready, but my body is weak and our financial abilities are weaker. It just seems impossible. This will truly take a God-sized miracle!"

Jesus: "Well, good then. Let Me go to work for you because God has already put your house in order and a miracle is coming. Erin, stop thinking."

Me: Laughing. "Okay, Lord. However, if I stop thinking, I won't be able to drive a car."

Jesus: "You are funny, Erin. Now, I am with you and My promises are true. As you have prayed for others, I have granted them their prayers also. Even as wave after wave has come to the shores, I will not stop. The ocean continues to meet the sand and God calls it to only go so far. This is so it does not consume the beaches and swallow the people for good. Now, why does God allow the moon and the tides… the rising of the sea and even their retreat?"

Me: "Is it because man cannot control these?"

Jesus: "Well, yes… even though they try. The waves on the shoreline is a reminder of how God harnesses the sea and keeps dry the land as a dividing line. He promised not to cross again as man cannot survive in the water for long. The days of Noah reminds people of the wrath of God. Tides are My way of showing the world the power of God. The sheer force moves the water according to the moon."

Me: "Gravitational force?"

Jesus: "Yes. While 'gravitational force' is the scientific explanation (that is, removed as being from God's power), it is ultimately all in the hands of God. The enemy cannot control the waves of the sea nor the power of the sun. This is Mine to control. While the enemy can strike against God's Creation and the children of God, ultimately all of these decisions are My Father in Heaven's to make and He has given Me charge over all things.

"It is by My authority that the sun continues to shine by day and the moon at night. I am about to pull the hearts of the lost and the children of God by gravitational force of their hearts back to Mine. As this is My Will that no sheep shall be lost as the Shepherd is over them, I am about to do something God-sized and with Great Force. The land and hearts will be greatly humbled. Suddenly and with no warning, all will change.

"The voices of those whose hearts are not on Me will change as a result. Those who now say, 'There is no God. He doesn't care anyway even if He did exist. This is clearly the case as you can see all the suffering of the people.' will then say, 'Where is God? Help us! Save us!' Well, here I am and I send My Army. Since I am in My Army and work through them, hearts will then change."

Me: "We have been expecting something soon."

Jesus: "I know, Erin, I know. Do not be afraid as I am with you. I have not forgotten you. My recompense is with Me. If I can harness the waves of the ocean, then what is impossible for God?"

Me: "Nothing, Lord."

Jesus: "From your view, it is impossible. All of it. However, I am generous and My promises are true. I will move you where I call you. Now rejoice as I am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-713/

713 – A Mix of Wine and Milk

Received on Sunday, July 16, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for me being able to breathe clearly. Thank You for my family and friends. Thank You for our Nest. Father, bless these journal pages and make my pen have the most wonderful ink to date. May I always have a pen with ink in it, in Jesus' Name, Amen!

Father, what an odd summer we have had. We have had extreme heat, humidity and torrential downpours. With this though we have had no mosquitos, bugs or even spiders. However, we have had an abundance of earwigs. We also have had new additions to our feeders and they are nesting nearby… catbirds.

We have also had many babies this year, including groundhogs, squirrels (both gray and red), downy woodpeckers, hairy woodpeckers and sapsuckers. My recent favorite has been one lone little red squirrel baby that is so adorable. We also have one last baby groundhog left that we have named 'lucky'. I recently discovered that our neighbors have been trapping the groundhogs. So many have disappeared.

As for the orange cat, it still roams and hunts here. There has not been much we can do because this apex predator has changed its routine. This cat adjusts to any deterrents we set up. In my devotionals with the Lord, He has had me study the patterns of predators based on this one orange feral cat.

I discovered that there are several types of predators. Apex predators have the distinguishing pleasure of being at the apex, or top, of the food chain. This means there are no natural predators in their respective environment. Most known are killer whales, sharks, tigers, lions, bears and so on. Also included are king cobras and wolves. The full list can be found on various websites.

Apex predators hunt without fear of anything higher than them. They are to be feared. Humans are not apex predators because we eat a variety of meats, veggies, fruits and so on, making us omnivores. When armed, we are ‘apex-like’, but are easy prey in a lot of natural environments if unarmed. There are also medium sized predators called meso-predators. These include raccoons, skunks, foxes and so on.

The reason the Lord had me look at these is so I understand that, when He sends signs in nature to us, He is also giving us analogies or descriptions of how the enemy works against us in our daily walks.

My daughter had a horrendously large spider outside her window. This is because her window provides a perfect wall whereby bugs or moths would fly to the light in her room. The spider’s web provides the perfect trap for the innocent, especially at night, a web to deceive. We were unable to kill the spider as it is unreachable. It has become fat as a result.

Outside spiders don’t bother us much as they decrease the mosquito and bug population from entering our home. Towards the end of summer, they will become chickadee food as the birds start to hunt them. However, the Lord allowed this spider to be ominous and ever present outside my daughter’s window above her head as she slept. Why? The Lord told me to go ask her why this was being allowed.

My daughter: “The Lord is allowing this as He is revealing that the enemy is looming around me constantly and that I must continue to pray. I also know that this spider can’t get to me as God has me.”

We then prayed together. The next morning, she realized that the spider had been removed. This just happened on Thursday. Sometimes the Lord wants our attention in a matter. That very same night of Thursday, I killed three spiders. The torrential downpours had drawn them inside our home. I then went on the hunt with an extendable pole tipped with a reverse ball of duct tape.

While I then had success with my hunt, the success was not always immediate. The first spider fell and we though we had killed it. However, it looked different than the one we were going after. My husband spoke up…

My husband: Laughing. “Don’t worry about these spiders. If it is not the right one, just be patient. They always reveal themselves soon enough.”

His cavalier attitude made me worry less and I agreed with him. As we retired to bed, I noticed another spider on the ceiling overhead. I got my trusty hunting device and got him on my second try. However, when we looked at the tape, we could not see it. Thinking it was hiding in a tape crevice, my husband smashed the tape. There… it is over! Relieved, I went to take the pole to the hallway.

Well, guess what… my husband was right… the original black spider was right there, the one that had dropped earlier. I called out for him to spot for me as this one was too big to be around the house. Got it! The spider massacre was finally complete. Later that night, I had a dream. This dream was highly unusual though as it had no visible subject… or at least one I could see…

Sub-Dream 1 "The dream without a visible subject" begins…

I was being watched and hunted by someone I could not see. It studied me. It studied my comings and goings. It studied all of my activities. It studied when I got up and when I went to sleep. It studied when I fed the animals. It studied what I did both inside and outside of the house. It was monitoring the when, what, how, why and where of all my activity and only my activity.

Why? In my dream, I only became aware of it via the Holy Spirit and instinct. In my dream, I began to work to block its ability to gather information. The Lord told me to do simple things to avoid their abilities and confuse them. In the dream, I changed my patterns. In turn, the Lord created His own 'Dome of Covering'. Then one morning, I felt that this presence was completely gone. In my dream, I went to lock the front door.

Sub-Dream 1 over…

I woke up suddenly and it was 5:15am. I then fell back asleep.

Sub-Dream 2 "The coyote and the orange cat" begins…

I kept spotting a white coyote in the woods. However, it would disappear faster than I could take a photo of it. It seemed supernatural. I alerted my husband and our kids to watch for it and be on guard when arriving home from work. I kept spotting it when I was home alone. However, I was not afraid of it. I prayed to the Lord to protect us. I was watering some flowers out front.

I turned and this white coyote sprinted toward our yard and the plant I was just watering. I then heard a death rattle. The coyote looked at me with the orange cat in its mouth. The cat had been right next to me hunting the little birds and animals on the side of our home and had gone unnoticed.

When the coyote got to the woods, it turned and looked at me one last time with the cat and it vanished. I cried. For some reason, I felt bad for the cat, but relieved it was finally gone. As I walked back toward the house, birds and animals came out in celebration. I am not sure how I would know when a bird or squirrel was praising God, but clearly they were.

Sub-Dream 2 over.

I forgot that dogs or coyotes could kill a cat. That is how my cat, Paige, died, as well as my kitten, Jupiter. However, I know that I will see them again in Heaven one day. As for this dream, the Lord allowed the orange cat to be hunted by a predator larger than itself. This cat had been spotted at our home several times over the years. However, I thought it was helping with mice, not hunting anything else.

I woke up at around 8:15am and was very startled due to the dream feeling so real. As I was writing in my journal this morning, I received a call about a strange charge on my debit card. I phoned the customer service number. They had tried to phone me and called to confirm a $1 charge. I confirmed it. The bank then removed the fraud hold on my card.

Shortly after this was finished, I received a similar call. However, I never saw the pending charge for $8.64 on my account nor did I receive an email from my bank. I checked the phone number, but it was the bank's number. My heart was pounding just as fast as it was for the dreams I had last night. I am sure the bank blocked whatever it was. This is scary though. In the end, all was confirmed to be resolved and safe.

Last night, my husband and my older son both had dreams about their employers and they weren't positive dreams. Predators are everywhere now hunting us down and even like that orange cat does before it devours its prey. It plays with it as the little one tries to run. However, it eventually succumbs to the cat. It is so discouraging.

We stopped attending our church here because they were bending to popular culture. Pastors everywhere are so glad to have their churches open again. In fear of losing their congregants, these pastors are now falling away from God's truth… the truth of Your Holy Bible.

If we don't stand for God, we stand on behalf of the world. If we don't believe the Bible is truth, then we believe the lies. If we don't believe in Jesus as our Savior from sin, then we are truly lost. I had a dream that I couldn't remember no matter how hard I tried. However, the Lord has now brought this dream back to my memory…

Sub-Dream 3 "A flood of milk comes to our vineyards" begins…

A dam had broken during a storm somewhere near a land of vineyards. I did not recognize the location I was in. A neighbor came over and knocked on our door. Both my husband and I answered the door.

Neighbor: "Welcome to the neighborhood. We live next door. I have some good news and some bad news."

My husband: "Yes, go ahead."

Neighbor: "The dam broke and your property is now a waterfront property. That's the good news. Now the bad news. Your vineyard is flooded."

We walked out onto our front porch and there was a massive vineyard. What was odd was that it seemed to be flooded with something that looked like milk.

Me: "I had no idea we even owned that vineyard. Is it now ruined? Why milk?"

Neighbor: "That is our question too. The grapes will still produce wine, so no worries."

As we stood there, the water or milk receded and the milk made the ground white. It was very odd.

Sub-Dream 3 over.

Father, what do grapes and milk have in common?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have had a rocky day so far."

Me: "Yes, and on our day of rest."

Jesus: "Do not worry. This will come to nothing. There is a reason I tell you to remain alert and watchful. This is because the enemy of the children of God studies and prowls around as does a lion seeking someone to devour. It is just like this orange cat. Remember that evil is patient.

"Evil studies the path of the traveler or the unsuspecting. When the opportunity then comes to pounce, it does and swiftly. He does this when the victim is off-guard and unaware. Right now, the world has been preparing for its 'savior' to arrive. So many have been groomed, dressed and prepared for the coming of the Beast."

Me: "Oh, do You mean the Beast System?"

Jesus: "Well, this is being assembled now and, just as Christians and the children of God have prepared for the coming of the Son of man to appear… Me, then wouldn't the sons of Beelzebub and daughters even prepare themselves for the arrival of their 'savior'. These times are here now. They are attacking the innocent, attacking those with great faith and attacking the children.

"This rise in evil is prevalent as the enemy is seducing the world in the great falling away of truth. As you have experienced, law and order are gone. Truth is gone. The definition of who God knit in the womb is gone. However, one thing remains… and I know this is hard for some to believe… but this remains… God is still in complete control! I am here. I can send a white horse or a coyote. No matter what, you are Mine. The enemy can't steal what is Mine."

Me: "Lord, should we just shelter ourselves and enter a monastery? You created the world and declared it good in the beginning. You made man and declared it 'very good'. (Genesis 1:25,31)"

Jesus: "Yes, but this was before the fall of man. This is why I (God) created a separate people as witness to the lost that, if you see these, My people are blessed and prosper due to their fruits. Holy. They are separated from the unholy or clean from the unclean. God's chosen people. They were to be a beacon of light to the world.

"A Savior then came to redeem and the chosen people of God did not recognize Me so I called out to the gentiles and formed a church of believers. I came as My Word of Truth so that those who believe in Me shall not perish, but have everlasting life. However, as I am Holy, I cannot sin, so I ask those who confess their sins and turn from their wickedness to follow Me.

"These are forgiven. Those who are forgiven much are grateful much and never want to return to the former things. They become as you have… a light in the dark. So then, why would I place a lantern under a bed or hidden in a closet? I would not. However, many throughout time have decided they are better to separate themselves from the world than remain a part of it."

Me: "Hmm, in Art History of Europe, this is the Dark Ages."

Jesus: "Yes, but My light was not visible to the lost. They loved God. However, they removed their light away from others. They later only allowed My Words of Truth to flow through a foreign language (Latin). People were then easily misled in their search for truth.

"What you see now is a great resurgence of the Dark Ages. The youths are isolated, alone and in great despair. Those who followed God became discouraged during the shut off period and still remain isolated. Many churches failed to revive hearts because pastors were tired and weary and falling away themselves for lack of faith."

Me: "Lord, please stop this. We are losing this battle here. Please send help. Please! Rise up and go before us! Have I isolated myself and hid my faith?"

Jesus: "Actually, it is I who brought you to the wilderness to rest, but I have given you a great light in your dreams, visions and writing. You are at work."

Me: "But I miss church and corporate worship. I miss my children having joy and laughter. We have been here and isolated. You have instructed us to stand down, right?"

Jesus: "Yes, during these last few years. However, this is about to change. I see the enemy continue to expand in evil as he has continued to increase from the day of permission for the purposes soon to be revealed. However, remember that I know the plans of the enemy and that I am God over all things. Remember that I am in control even when the world seems out of control. Remember what I have instructed you.

"The enemy and all its workers are calculating. They study and watch for patterns. They are together in unison to prepare for their little horn to rise. However, the mistake My people make is they think the enemy is dim and unorganized. I can assure you that they are not. They are like the orange cat. They study patterns and lurk along paths.

"They seek the weak and even wait to reveal their position on a lesser mouse when they could instead pounce on a more sizable object of provision. They are cunning opportunists. They hate, but declare themselves loving. They seduce and entrap. They ensnare. Therefore, be diligent. I am here with you. I am here and I will soon reveal My position. Not one will dispute that I am God."

Me: "Lord, what about the milk and wine? What is this?"

Jesus: "A dream of great blessings to come. Do not fear as I am here."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-714/

714 – What The Horns Tear Down, We Will Rebuild

Received on Sunday, July 30, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for time. You do all things perfectly. I am sorry if at times I sound as if I doubt You. I can't doubt my Father in Heaven who does all things in His time and for His purposes. I only doubt myself. I fail. I am human. I am youthful in Spirit, but weak in years. I am knowledgeable from my failures, but easily put hope in my own abilities and suffer quickly from these missteps.

I sometimes try to act as if I am able on my own strength. I fail to recognize that it is only through Your strength in me that I am capable. I have gone through so many things the last couple of weeks that I can't believe I am finally sitting here to meet with You in this beautiful place and on my comfortable chair. Your voice in me is my constant companion. You talk to me throughout each day and instruct me in the ways I should go.

I just haven't been able to get to the Nest to answer emails or to even breathe. All things are for Your glory and purposes. Father, I am so thankful for You. We have been at war. It is obvious now as I look back at the days leading up to today. Every one of my spiritual warfare signs were visible. I then dialogued with the Lord…

Me: "Are these all just circumstantial? Are these all just common to man?"

Jesus: "Define 'common' in your life."

Me: "The battles are common. Warfare is common. Troubles are common. All of this is no surprise to me or to You, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, but you sense that something is different this time. Erin, what is different about this time?"

I didn't answer right away. In fact, I took quite some time to reflect on all of our events. I then realized it was the first time there was no open 'sin door' in which the enemy has the ability to enter with more. I then began to study the Book of Job. Job was minding his own business and gave glory to God. He was blameless and upright (Job 1:1-5).

Well, You now certainly know that I fall short of Job. Father, Job was much better than I in his zeal to follow Your statutes. Satan then responds and the Lord allowed all that Job had to be placed in Satan's hand (Job 1:12). However, he was not allowed to touch Job. Then I saw something else I had not ever noticed…

Job 2:1: "Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord."

What I had not noticed before is that it appears that time had passed from the first round of testing to the second round of testing.

Job 2:2-3: "And the Lord said to Satan, 'From where have you come?' Satan answered the Lord and said, 'From going to and fro on the Earth, and from walking up and down on it. Then the Lord offered up Job again."

These attacks came to our house right after a time of spiritual renewal in our house. This started on the 33rd day after the Lord had given me a great gift, a wonderful visit with Christian friends and acquaintances. This had filled my heart with such joy and wonder. During this, He then promised to take us back to the place of my heart in Bend OR. He then gave us instructions to prepare our home.

We were instructed to do various things to ready our house for changes. We also began to prepare physically for this. I removed certain items from our diets. However, my diet is more of a fast. Because of our goals, in order for us to be ready for great changes, the enemy has begun to attack every aspect of our lives to see if my family or I would turn on God as we endure these storms. The list of our storms is extensive…

- We have had plumbing issues.
- We have had automotive problems, both for us and our children.
- Money issues have then arisen due to these plumbing and automotive issues.
- We have had issues with some roof repairs that cost us a staggering amount.
- My older son was propositioned physically by a trans manager at his work, causing him to resign while an investigation now ensues.
- My younger son had a simple parts repair done on his car and now the electrical system has failed and may need to be shipped for repairs.

- When troubles like these come to young adults with autism, the entire house becomes consumed by the ensuing drama.
- Both my daughter and my stepson have been enduring conflicts and infighting at their workplace.
- My daughter has an actual self-declared satanist as her manager and this manager has performed textbook attacks against her.

I have seen the heavy toll this is taking on my daughter's well-being. When I have appeared at the store, the manager could not look me in the eyes. She stands far away from me when I try to come over to her. The atmosphere at her place of work has completely changed. The workers are all having personal troubles, headaches and other unexplained illnesses.

The district manager who hired her has been called away because her mother is suddenly sick and dying. Her evil manager has scheduled my daughter to work ten days in a row and always working on Sundays. She has planted the seeds of resentment against my daughter. In turn, all of the great relationships my daughter had have now become full of mistrust, gossip, resentment and hate.

This all began on Saturday, June 10, 2023 and has gradually become a great stronghold there. In the meantime, my daughter has applied for other jobs. She received four offers and she has now accepted one of them. However, there has been a delay in processing her acceptance offer letter in order for her to finalize her start date with this company.

Then something astounding happened to my daughter last week. She received a text message from the managing partner of a Christian record label. He remembered meeting her from before. He asked if she would be interested in a job they now had available that would involve touring with Christian artists and overseeing radio and media schedules for the record labels, as well as their national social media.

If offered to her, this would be a dream job, like a lottery win and a once in a lifetime offer. However, it would require her to relocate to Nashville. We have been praying that, if this is in the Lord's Will, she will get this position. This would truly take the power of God to happen as there are literally hundreds of applicants for this position. Oh Father, if it be Your Will, please grant her this position.

My stomach has been turning for her. If she is successful, we would have to see her move to Tennessee. However, she has a good alternative if not successful. The excellent offer she has can be transferred to Bend OR and her podcast could then be launched. There have been divine delays on these fronts as well.

You then reminded me about the works of satanic activity. I know You are greater than all of this. Father, You love us. Please protect us from these continued attacks. Satanists attack anything you or the Lord loves, anything you think about and anything that you are afraid of.

Satanists are slightly different from witches. Witchcraft is a tool of a satanist. Satanists hate Christians and are basically an apex predator of all things holy and innocent. While witches are troublemakers, satanists are devourers. Satanists enjoy harming. They love to publicly display their power. Satanists have an even higher level of hate than do witches.

My daughter had been asked by her satanic manager about what car she owns. Sure enough, her vehicle began to have trouble right after. Father, remove my daughter far from this evil, in Jesus' Mighty Name. This same manager managed the place where my older son worked and now he had to leave his job because of this transwoman (who is a biological male).

As for my stepson, he is enduring harsh conditions at the plant nursery he works at. It has been extremely hot there. Also, as the planting season is now ending, there has been tension and infighting amongst the seasonal workers. We are praying that this concludes quickly.

As for my husband, his sales job now has a Muslim sales manager. This is an odd hire as the business had only employed Christians. This new manager actually hates all of the sales force. While my husband has complimented the manager, he does not reciprocate or engage. The manager treats them like they are a waste of his time. We believe he will be purchasing the business as the mosque is just down the street.

This comes on top of plumbing, roofing and now our deck stairs becoming unstable. We have been under attack on the home front. I am also a taxi right now as our kids need to get around. We have also had workers at our home. In one instance, a habit for humanity van came to pickup items for donation. They refused to climb our deck stairs to move some items.

My husband and I then agreed to walk these down instead. Well, in the middle of this, an accident occurred. Something heavy crushed my right foot. While I didn't say much immediately, I knew it wasn't good. After they left, I explained to my husband what had just happened to my foot. While I limped a bit, I was able to walk and stand on it. This was all on Friday. As for today, my foot looks black, blue and red, but is surprisingly perfectly fine. Truly a miracle. While it looks really bad, I can still walk fine.

My husband and I then had a spat later that night. This was highly unusual for us as we never fight. We then talked that evening and worked everything out. As a result, the enemy didn't win this strategic battle. There is so much more that I am leaving out.

It has been so hot here. We then had torrential rain. I have never encountered severe weather on a continual basis for this long. During this heat, I was in a home hardware store recently and I overheard two men talking at a checkout:

Man 1: "I am telling you that this is the axis powers up in the north. They are causing all of this."

Man 2: "Are you saying they can control the weather?"

Man 1: "Of course. My grandpa talked about the governments doing this back in the 60s. I think there was a law passed whereby countries agreed not to do this. Nonetheless, they are still doing it. I call this global 'war'-ming."

Man 2: "You think all of this is on purpose? That (expletives deleted) me off."

They suddenly became aware that there were a few of us listening to them and they quickly stopped talking. I thought about it and then saw a feed from my friends of what they were enduring south of us. I was troubled. I later went to the Lord as I remembered a particular Scripture from the Book of Daniel about this. The following is from the JPS Tanakh 1917 version…

Daniel 9:27: "And he shall speak words against The Most High, and shall wear out the saints of The Most High; and he shall think to change seasons and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time."

These weather patterns, as well as breakouts of fire, have become amplified. Father, thank You for helping us find the source of our flooding last year to fix this. Show us what to do. Do we sell our home? The move to Bend OR seems impossible. On our own, we are unable.

All of what we have saved will now go to repairs, not including our rickety stairs. Our communication has also been down again. Our tower has been offline and I have been too tired to battle more phone calls and worker appointments. At least I had another dream two nights ago, even though it was very strange…

Sub-Dream 1 "The Black Dragon to soon rise" begins…

I saw a very large Red Dragon swimming in the waters of the Earth. Anytime it hit an immovable object, it moved right through it. It had no cares other than certain areas that were restricted to it. One was the east coast of the USA and Canada into the Gulf and the Atlantic up to the Mediterranean. It could swim past the coast of Africa down south and around the cape, but cut across from Madagascar to India and down around Australia and the Pacific Ocean, the Caribbean and down around South America.

In the restricted areas, I saw another form in the waters. This one was black and it was deep. As it hadn't risen yet, I could not see it clearly. Even so, this entity controlled the Mediterranean Sea, the eastern USA and Canada, the Gulf of Mexico and the Arabian Sea. It also controlled the Red Sea. This black entity had not risen yet as the Red Dragon was to swim alone until a designated time.

When the Red Dragon had finished its final trip around the world, I was finally able to see the black entity. It was the Black Dragon. The Black Dragon had now risen to the surface of the Arabian Sea. It then went under the water again. The Black Dragon was able to swim at such a deep depth that it could not be detected. It was hidden. I then saw it resurface again on the east coast of North America. It was treacherous and quite frightening to see the size and scope of these two entities.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Yesterday morning, I went outside to feed the animals and perform my watering. We had a torrential downpour the night before and there was damage everywhere to plants. As I was cleaning up, I turned to pick up the garden hose. There was what I thought was a large black dead rat about 6" long. As I looked more closely, I could see it was a mole and not a rat. I took a picture of it. It was fully intact.

While it looked bloated, it had no incisions. The meant it was not killed by a predator. Perhaps it had just died and fell down? Who knows? I had my husband dispose of it for me when he got home (LOL). As I moved around our yard some more, I could see feathers on the ground. This was evidence of a struggle, an indication of the presence of a predator. That night (last night), I had a very odd dream…

Sub-Dream 2 "Five Curtains of Rain" begins…

I was on my gravel driveway bathed in sunshine. From here, I saw some lifeless animals. As I began to walk toward them, a curtain of rain stopped me. It was like a curtain of water from an automatic carwash arm.

Even though I stepped through this curtain, I did not get wet. Then another came and another until the 5th came and the rain stopped.

I stood there with a feeling of shock as I was pounded by rain that then came to nothing. I looked at the fallen birds and other little animals and asked God to lift them up and awaken them from their sleep. They began to wake up. I then looked up and saw a sparrowhawk observing all of this. It turned and flew away.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

Father, thank You for dreams. Please help me. This fast has been a difficult one. I am praying that I honor You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My voice in you is not an illusion. I promise you good things all the days of your life. I send you dreams, visions, words and signs. Remember though that I am in the midst of them all. I have given you and your house the instructions to prepare your home. Though you worry about this, I will also make a way for you. In addition, there will be no cost to you.

"I have a purpose for these things and for your interactions right now. You are not suffering needless struggles for no reason. There is a reason for all things. I even placed you in line to hear what these men were discussing at the home store. Was this just random? No. Everything you encounter now has significance. I know you have had many demands placed upon you. So, Erin, when was the last time you experienced such things in these ways?"

Me: "2014! There were so many things happening. We were preparing to leave the desert. We battled and battled. I could not believe all that was happening. It was impossible. Impossible. During the month of July 2014, I watched all of my enemies come after me. I had people I thought were friends turn on me, family even. It was like torrential downpours of troubles."

Jesus: "Okay, what happened next? Just asking for a friend."

Me: I laughed so hard at this. "Oh Lord, You showed up in a huge way. You delivered us from them all. All of this happened right before midnight on the very day You foretold us that You would (August 23, 2014). I am sorry to ever doubt You. As such, we will continue with our plans as You instruct."

Jesus: "Good. Very good. Now, you discovered a new little animal in your yard."

Me: "Yes. It was very odd, but it was dead. It was a star-nosed mole. They are adaptable to many conditions and they eat all of the bugs that I hate. I think they are pretty good. I am not sure what killed it. I didn't know they even existed."

Jesus: "Yes. This is because they are moles. Erin, these rely on all their senses for their purposes. They are extremely fast and go underground. They cannot be detected easily. Did it ever occur to you that the very animals and birds you encounter, and even the prey, that you might understand them so well because I will soon give you all of the same abilities?"

Me: "So… uh… wait…"

Jesus: "I can hear your thinking. In nature, all is in sync with God. Each one, each bird or animal, on land and even fish in the ocean, all are provided for by Me. They know when storms approach. They know how to shelter and prepare. They do not worry about food as I provide for them. They earn no living. They have no investments other than their nests, dens, caves or tunnels. They tap into senses man no longer has, but once did.

"At one time, all of Creation were dependent on God for all things. Man now depends mostly on man or the things of the world. When your change comes, you will be in sync closer to the skills of the animals rather than that of man because I will be in sync with you as I also care for them and you will be able to understand them better. More than this, you will increase in knowledge, wisdom and power from on high. Nothing shall be impossible for you. Using these skills:

- You will run fast.
- You will scale a wall.
- You will leap over buildings.
- You will know the plans of the wicked.
- You will see what is not seen.
- You will see from far away as an eagle does.
- You will see fine details as if you were using a microscope.
- You will be able to see in the dark.
- You will hear something coming from far off in the distance.
- You will not hunger.

- You will not thirst.
- You will have compassion for the lost and the lowly of heart.
- You will be able to think of a thing and it will be done for you.

"These skills will be granted to you, not because you have done anything to earn it, but because I will work through you for My purposes. Now, I am outlining all of these skills because you are limiting your scope of possibilities. However, always remember that nothing ever limits Me. I do all things in accordance with My Word. I was there in the beginning. I Am Who I Am. Nothing can take My life. The enemy can plot or plan, but it has been written as to what they will be doing. As for the one leader (Red Dragon):

- He covers the seas.
- He believes himself God.
- He harnesses the power of a little sun.
- He tries to change seasons.
- He manipulates the clouds for his own gain.
- He claims to govern the stars, the moon and all of what you see.
- He has written testimony to honor himself.
- He thinks of himself as smarter.
- He takes down leaders.
- He deposes those who take his bounty.
- He promises great things in exchange for power over land.
- He claims to harness the wind.
- He creates war by the clouds.
- He even detonates power below the surface.
- He was made wealthy by foreigners and their merchants.
- He amasses power over the nations.
- He claims to be there to help, but, in reality, he is instead taking stock of his future plunder.

"As for the Black Dragon you see, he will be patient a bit longer while the one leader to the north teams with both leaders."

Me: "Lord, please stop them. Can't we go back?"

Jesus: "Erin, the plan is to eliminate all of those whose allegiance is to God… Me. It is a massive undertaking. There are several nations working together. They have weapons to use against the world."

Me: "There are so many possible weapons they could use…

- They could manipulate weather events and temperatures.
- They could send plagues.
- They could limit food via famine.
- They could limit water via poison.
- They could limit and be selective on medical care.
- They could force us into isolation via imprisonment.
- They could steal our wealth.
- They could control information.

"Oh Lord, there are so many frightening things they could do."

Jesus: "Yes, and there is even more. The war is here now."

Me: "What can we do?"

Jesus: "Look up at He who saves and that is Me. While the enemy doesn't control all of these things, any control the enemy does have is only as allowed by Me. However, even this is only for My purposes and My purposes alone."

Me: "Even so, Lord, this is so scary."

Jesus: "You were made known about the four horns."

Me: "Yes. Four horns and four craftsmen. This is in Zechariah…

Zechariah 1:18-21: 18 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he said to me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." 20 Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen. 21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one raised his head. And these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Jesus: "These are the powers who scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem. These are the powers that struck out against the children of God and fought to destroy them. Horns are instruments. They are constant powers against the people and caused them to scatter the tribes across the Earth."

Me: "Then what are the craftsmen? Smiths?"

Jesus: "These are people gifted and skilled with a purpose. A rebuilder or restorer. They rebuild what the horns destroyed. You are My Bride, but you are also My Craftsman. Your presence will dishearten the wicked and terrify them. What the horns tear down, My Craftsman will restore and rebuild. All their evil work will have been undone.

"Now, this is a great gift. Erin, this is why I will work through My people for this purpose. As you will display awesome deeds, your presence is as if My judgment is there also. You will be a beacon of light for those in the cover of darkness. You will be a floodlight of warning to those who dwell there. Now rejoice and do not worry. I am with you.

"Now, I will give you all that you need. Nothing shall be over you, not even a bank or government power or principality. This is because I am in you and with you. I am God over all things. Do not worry. I see what is happening. I have allowed the enemy to advance, but only in accordance with My Plan and with My Word. As I am God, he is already a defeated power. I love you, Erin. Do not worry as I am here."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-715/

715 – 4000 Days of the Feeding of Evil

Received on Sunday, August 6, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for the great care You have given to our family. We are so blessed. It has been a very difficult week here… well, really the last three weeks. It has been an up and down rollercoaster of a ride. Any good news is quickly followed up with bad news. Whenever some good is sprinkled in to rekindle our joy, joy is then soon doused with a cover of discouragement.

Father, I have tried to keep myself focused on Your promises. However, I am weary with all that has occurred over our house. When troubles come, I find myself looking at old photographs. I see joy on the faces of our family and I think to myself, 'All of them look so innocent and carefree. They never would have imagined days like these.' I would have never imagined the world like it is today.

When I was a young adult, I truly had very little to worry about. I didn't need to worry about death because I had so much life around me. I had so much to live for and enjoy. As for here and just this last week, I watched You 'burn down the former houses' of the places two of my children work. This seemed to come out of nowhere. Two of our children left abruptly.

At one place, my daughter was assistant manager under the new satanist manager. She announced to my daughter that she had big plans to give her an action plan for all of her weaknesses so she can better serve the store. In the meantime, she leads in sales, is never late, has a great work ethic and has never been told she was in trouble for anything.

Her manager knew that the district manager was on vacation and that my daughter would be unable to go to her to make her aware of these things. Then her friends there at work that she has known for years suddenly and out of nowhere turned on her. This too was from the false seeds planted by this wicked manager. In the meantime, my daughter has received several offers from other companies.

We are praying for one opportunity in particular. This opportunity involves a record label in Nashville. While she just accepted a new offer locally, she also is keeping her name in the mix for this record label job. Since hundreds applied for the record label job, she had determined to continue to move forward as if she would not get this job. She left the company she had been with when an incident occurred there. My daughter first took some sick days to pray about it.

After praying about it, she still felt she needed to go and that it couldn't wait. When the district manager read her resignation letter, she tried everything to get her back and was devastated that she was leaving. My daughter was then candid with her about all of the reasons for her departure. The district manager then offered her an open door to return for more pay any time she wanted to and she would give her a letter of recommendation if she wanted one. Overall, this meeting went well.

On the very same day, my daughter received an email from an executive at this record label. She was told that she is one of the finalists for this position. This was such shocking news and so exciting. As for her new job, there have been great delays and divine rescheduling. It seems like the Lord is making it so it will not be hard for her to leave her new job for the record label position.

My daughter now must wait until her next interview on Wednesday, August 9, 2023. In the meantime, she had told her evil manager from her previous job what car she was driving. Ever since, her car has had great troubles. She can't even drive it until her service appointment on Tuesday. Father, please heal her car and, if this is Your Will, grant her this special job in Nashville. To us, this seems divinely appointed by You.

In contrast, my older son has had major setbacks. He is struggling to understand his emotions and is angry at God for 'doing things against him'. He is angry that the company he worked for would not give him his job back now that they got rid of the trans manager who was touching him. He had stepped out of God's Will and wouldn't stay and allow the process to playout as God had instructed him.

This is like trying to explain to a nine-year-old in a 25-year-old body that he has to give this to God as he is unable to change the outcome on his own no matter what he does. It is heartbreaking. After this, he non-stopped followed me around, moping and complaining the whole time. After days of this, I was at my wits end. He was like an unruly hunk of clay with a mouth.

Even though he was on the Potter's Wheel, he was constantly barking commands to God as to what he wanted to happen next.

After repeating the same things over and over and then comparing his situation to others, primarily my daughter, I had enough. While we don't fight in our house, we now did. I told him that he was free to move back west with family. I told him I was tired and exhausted. I then did something unthinkable… I told him that I had to give up on him and he would need to rely on God fully. I was that tired. I had reached my end.

Oh Father, something had broken in me. I realized my own limitations. I looked back at photos and my once higher functioning son had regressed so far. He had gone from strength and great development to complete regression. In contrast, my younger son is functioning at a 20-year-old level, over ten years greater than the age 8 or 9 expected of him by doctors. He is responsible and able to be independent. While he isn't perfect, he could live on his own with success.

Father, please help my older son. He has declined. His photos tell a sad story. Please heal him for my sake. Thankfully, he has just had a breakthrough moment. He did all You instructed him through me. He believes so much in Your Words and Your miracles. Father, he believes You will instantly turn things around for him. Since he doesn't understand patience, could You please grant him a spark of good and lovely things. He is doing his best. Please carry him, Father. Forgive me for my loss of patience.

When days like this happen, my thoughts go to a different world. In this world, my husband and I are the only ones living in a small, cute home. This home is tucked away in a retirement community on a golf course. We drive a golf cart to church and to shopping centers. We eventually have visits from grandchildren. Well, Father, I already know this is not in our destiny. It is just fun to think about.

No matter what though, I will continue to serve You and You alone. I will do as You Will for me. Oh Lord, I never want to be ungrateful for all You have done for us. I have to believe that You have allowed my older son to experience these setbacks to save him from something much worse. Please help us. Strengthen and heal me for this length of my path.

While driving around with my younger son yesterday, we started receiving alerts that violent thunderstorms were coming our way. We proceeded home to prepare for the storms. I walked out onto the deck and looked down on our lawn. There in the grass was a very dead starling. I was so sad. This was at 5:30pm. I thought I would let my husband know so that he could pick it up for me.

The Lord then told me that He had the starling and to not worry. Well, right there in front of my eyes, he flew up into the sky. It was a miracle as it was surely dead. It was sitting there lifeless for more than an hour. As we later sat at the supper table, we could see the storm clouds gather. In the midst of them, a large hole appeared. It looked like a door.

I alerted the table as it looked amazing. The sun then showed through it. It looked like a room of clouds. When everyone went back to eating, I then noticed what looked like either the Lord or one of His angels. When I took a picture of this, this entity looked more like a smudge. When I got up to look above the trees, sure enough there was only a rainbow remaining. I then heard You talk to me.

Jesus: "Erin, My promises are true. I am here and I am with you. I am the God who gives good gifts. I am the God in the storm, the One who calms the seas. While I am in the clouds, I am also in you. Now rejoice as I haven't forgotten you. Do not worry as you are Mine."

Oh Father, it has been a difficult summer so far. On the morning of Tuesday, August 1st, I smelled fall. We had a cold spell and this provided some great relief from this extreme heat. Even more alarming is that the leaves are already beginning to change. As I looked out of my devotional chair, I saw a bald eagle with a young eagle. Thank You, Father, for this is always a great sign. You send me so many blessings and I am grateful. Thank You for signs!

My dreams have consisted of various things lately. Demons seem to be a common theme in some of them. I recently had a dream on this…

Sub-Dream 1 "4000 Days of the Feeding of Evil" begins...

I saw an angel of the Lord sound a shofar. The gates of hades opened and these spirits came from below and went into many people who had been operating in evil. There were millions and they came as dark translucent entities and entered some famous people. Over their hearts, I saw a type of cellar door that appeared like an entrance. Some doors remained open long enough to host several evil spirits.

I saw the date of December 22, 2012 (Tevet 9, a Saturday). I heard an angel of the Lord proclaim, 'When the days number 4000, the feeding of the evil will cease. The army of God will rise and these will flee.'

I then counted 4000 days including December 22, 2012. When counted inclusively, the 4000th day lands on December 4, 2023 (Kislev 21, a Monday). This is just three days before the start of Hannukah, which begins after sunset on December 7, 2023 (Kislev 24, after sunset on a Thursday).

Me: "Father, did You grant the enemy 4000 days to feed evil and to build his army? I pray You raise up Your Army now as none of us will survive against this evil increase. This is almost 11 years of rebellion. It has been painful to see this increase of such great evil."

Sub-Dream 1 over…

Our borders are being invaded. Our government is now corrupt. Our President is senile. Our military is growing weaker. Our food is becoming horrible. The good has been labelled bad and the bad good. The lies spread on the airwaves are difficult to hear. I have stopped watching. My screentime is now only 22 minutes per day. I don't miss it as it only created anxiety. I am sad as so many of my friends on the Nest are experiencing great troubles right now. Oh Lord, please help all of us.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, calm down. I have also sent you good dreams. I am here with you."

Me: "Yes, Lord. You gave me a dream that made me smile. I really didn't understand the dream…

Sub-Dream 2 "The Miniature Border Collie" begins…

I was looking at an adorable miniature border collie. It looked like it weighed about 12 pounds. It had one light blue eye and one dark brown eye. It could do amazing things. I could see it both here and in Heaven.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

Jesus: "Your dreams have been all about fighting battles yet to come. I have instructed your heart to have the ability to stand against the enemy. They will remain far from you and they will prefer to be far from you. Even so, you will still chase them away like stray dogs and sorcerers. They will not touch you."

Me: "I also had a dream of two vicious dogs….

Sub-Dream 3 "Vicious Dogs Attack" begins…

I saw two vicious dogs in attack mode. However, when I went after them, they fled. One was fast. When I prayed for one of his legs to be removed, it was. The dog then fell. The other dog then laid down and they were both subdued. There seemed to be some demonic influence in play here.

Sub-Dream 3 over…

Jesus: "Do not forget that I also sent you a dream of dogs being your special companions. Not all dogs will turn to evil. I allow dreams for training in the ways you should go. Right now, you have been very busy preparing your house for reasons you do not fully understand. You are to continue to do so in full faith that My plans are good. All of My plans for you are good! You burden yourself when you take on too much. Give this to Me."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I am struggling with various people that we are experiencing now. They don't care. They are self-centered, self-indulgent and self-elevating. I experienced such a person when I was at Walmart getting dog treats. I was waiting in the aisle for a woman to clear the dog treat section. She then saw that I was going for a particular treat bag.

"She then proceeded to clear off the shelves of almost all of them, leaving me just one. She snickered at me. I grabbed the one remaining bag and told her that was all I needed. I went down another aisle for food and then came back in the same direction. She was now putting all of the treats back on the shelf. It was pure evil She only took these treats because she thought I was after them. Who does this?"

Jesus: "Erin, this woman has many demons. I never said that any of these days would be easy. Remember that I chose you. Those called have been chosen by Me. While these days are not easy, I have given all of you what you need."

Me: "Father, I sometimes get angry. Perhaps it is my age, but I lose patience."

Jesus: "While it is okay to be angry, it is not okay to let anger get a grip over wisdom. This is a sin. This is a weapon like a sword that needs to be wielded properly. Standing down is best for now. When enduring an increase in anger, it is best to remain at home as much as possible. You are better off at home when you are angry. What do you usually do when you are in this state of anger at home?"

Me: "I usually do what I like to call 'Rage Cleaning'!"

Jesus: "Yes. Do this. This is a far more productive use of your time."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "I have been where you are and I know your thoughts. Keep your eyes fixed on Me."

Me: "Lord, was that You in the clouds?"

Jesus: "What do you think?"

Me: "Yes. I saw You."

Jesus: "My promises are true. Do not trouble your heart. Good News is coming your way. Very good and great will be your joy. I have already begun a good work. I am preparing you for what is coming. You will be overjoyed. Do not worry as I am with you. I will not leave you. I love you."

Dream over.

716 – Trust the Ultimate Foreman to make a way

Received on Thursday, August 10, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all we have. Thank You for my husband, my family and our Nest friends. Father, You are our miracle and grand treasure of our hearts. You have called me the apple of Your eye. However, You are the apple of all of our eyes. I am so grateful for Your love. It has been a very difficult year for our family here. Changes are in the air and not just an early fall season.

For the first time, patience has been wearing thin in our children. One of our children said to us, 'I have been waiting for nine years for the Lord to grant the promises He has had for me and instead I have become worse off. Perhaps my prayers don't matter?' This is a heartbreaking thing for the house here because this was one of the children that was on fire for the Lord. He is now making arrangements to go live with family out west.

We are not fighting his wishes. Father, You told me, whether he stays or goes, You will be with him. He has grown weary in the waiting. The lockdowns here have changed the hearts of many young people. We have seen it. None of them see You at work. While I could spend all day listing the miracles You have given to our house, they are still free to go at the end of the day. We cannot keep any of them.

I have told all of our children that we will welcome them back with open arms no matter what. My other two children reminded my older son of the furnace he will be walking into there. They warned him. He has made up his mind and has made arrangements. The surprising thing is the rising up of our younger son.

He began to declare all that the Lord has done for him. He then promised to spend more time with him in the hopes he would not leave. However, his efforts have been in vain so far. This side of the family has never accepted his autism. He has become worse. I am not certain how any of this will go. However, You are God and You are with him. I give him to You. I trust You more than anyone in this world. Your Will be done.

As for my daughter, she had her third formal interview with the record label. When she asked the interviewer if there was anything that is holding him back from considering her, he expressed some concern about her age. He also told her that she would be the youngest staff member to date. He also considered how far from home she would be.

While she had excellent answers to his questions, she went from being very hopeful to now losing hope. His words were along the lines of 'there are many who are older and with greater qualifications.' Father, You told us this was the case, but please then make another way for her. She has worked so hard at all she does. She stands with You and her love for You is an open book. Qualify her in Jesus' Mighty Name.

My husband and I recently watched an old episode of Pool Kings before bed. Father, You often use random illustrations in the natural to carve out a supernatural dream. This was my dream from last night…

Sub-Dream 1 "Trust in the Foreman" begins...

I was given a property consisting of rocky terrain. My house was being built into this rocky terrain. The foundation of the house was carved into solid rock and the four-square frame consisted of iron and steel construction. The home was to be unshakable.

As the construction of the home continued, I had to decide about the location of the inground pool. Our property was rocky everywhere. It seemed impossible to find a suitable location. I went to the Foreman (really Jesus)…

Foreman: "You need to stop trying to figure out how my crew and I will perform our jobs concerning your property. Stop focusing on the impossibilities of the rock and allow us the challenge."

In other words, they know what they are doing. They are fully aware of the challenges involved. It was time to trust in the experts. All I needed to do was to tell them where to begin. I was free to pick any spot as I liked it. I stayed in my lane when I replied…

Me: "Over here! While in my mind this all seems to be an impossible dream, this is the ideal location of where I would like this to be built."

Foreman: "Yes! Now you've got it. We will get this done. Now surrender this task to Me and My crew. I promise you that you will love it."

I felt happy as I walked away. However, as time went by, I started to doubt and sulk. After even more time went by, I fully expected a phone call telling me it was impossible after all. When the phone finally rang, I braced for the worst.

Foreman: "Can we have seven days of uninterrupted access to your property? This will allow us to do the solid work required to finish the work."

Me: "Oh yes, absolutely. I will take a short vacation to resist any attempt at micro-managing You. I am actually happy about this as I hate the sound of bulldozers hitting rock or even shovels hitting rock. This gives me the crawls."

After seven days of waiting, I received a phone call asking for my presence to approve what they had done. I was so excited to see it. When I arrived, I was in shock. It was so grand and perfect. The pool had fountains and a waterwall pouring into the pool. The pool was illuminated with invisible light sources. It was so much greater than I had ever imagined. The entire project should have cost me millions, yet it was done free of charge. The amount of work performed was impossible for only seven days.

Me: "How is this even possible? How?"

Foreman: "This is possible because you trusted in our process. My promises are true. Now, we also found a natural spring and an upper pool. Here is Healing Water. These are like springs into the lower pool."

There were eight vessels coming from the rocks that poured water continuously into the pools. It was incredible!

Me: "I am speechless. I am so sorry for doubting. This is greater than I imagined."

Foreman: "Erin, trust the process. I have built everything on a great foundation of Solid Rock. What I won't do for the one who loves Me and declares My Name. What I won't do."

Sub-Dream 1 over…

I woke up to my husband's alarm and immediately went to my devotional chair.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Trust in Me, the God who was and is and is to come. I am here. Do you believe Me?"

Me: "Of course, Lord, of course. I don't know what I am going through. I am exhausted, embattled and a bit disheartened. You have told Me and Your Words say, 'Teach your children in the way they should go and, when they are old, they will never depart from it (Proverbs 22:6).' I am scared, Lord. My heart breaks."

My dream was briefly interrupted by a phone call from my younger son. He had a dream about his sister that he needed to tell me. This has never happened before quite like this and I felt it was a good idea to include his dream here.

Sub-Dream 2 "My younger son's dream about my daughter" begins…

There were not as many candidates for my daughter's job. There were also more young adults who worked there. They asked the question about her age to get a response that they were searching for from her. She was definitely one of the main people they wanted.

Sub-Dream 1 over…

Jesus: "Erin, I send dreams. Yes, I even send dreams to your younger son. Now, trust the process in all aspects of your life right now. I promise you that I will complete a good work, a solid build. Nothing is impossible for God. You have prayed and brought your case to the Courts of My heart and there I have found you worthy. I have extended My Scepter to hear your pleas, to hear your anxious thoughts and to witness your tears.

"When others would have disqualified you, I made you qualified. I shaped you for My purposes. You have made your case in My Court. I will calm the storm of your thoughts. I will remove your tears to be of use as fountains of Living Water. I know your worries. I know your heartbreaks. I have purposely kept your son as a child so he does not fall. I will not fail in doing a good work when I heal him.

"A sincere prayer is accepted by Me and answered by My Will and for My purposes, all according to My time. Prayers are not control buttons that tune a greater signal to Me. While I hear each prayer, I don't always grant prayers in the ways of man's will, only in God's Will, understand?

- If the answer is no, then no is for a good reason of which the person praying does not fully know.
- If the answer is not fulfilled according to the urgent need of the prayer, it is again because of a divine delay. While it can appear as a no, it may still remain in the process.

"This is the most difficult part. My promises are true. However, I tell you to never cease praying. Do not give up. This is because there is either a natural visible answer coming or there is an eternal unseen answer. You will one day then understand what had been fulfilled.

- Then there is a prayer fulfilled quickly and as a Grand Yes. Yes is yes. This is a visible answer to the prayers of saints with the divine assistance of earthly saints, heavenly angels and the finger of God.
- Some yeses are immediate and some seem delayed, but they are still yeses.

"With your older son, I have said no to him more than yes because his prayers have many elements and conditions. With youths, very few have simplicity of thought. Things are conditional. It is like carving a pool made of solid rock. They have a way they expect and want a 'microwave god'. They want a 'genie in a bottle'.

"This comes from an excess of thoughts. This is why finding salvation, signs, wonders and miracles are difficult in the American Way. My Voice is easier to hear and understand when I am as important as Living Water, understand? I am restricted here."

Me: "You are God, Lord… You have no restrictions, other than truth. You stand on truth. Heal our youth, Lord. Heal our land."

Jesus: "I am with you and your family. I am with your Nest friends. Do not worry. I am about to do the impossible for you."

Dream over.

717 – To Bend and Beyond

Received on Sunday, August 13, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for one more day here! Thank You for Your love and grace. Your mercies are new every day. Father, please take our burdens. Please heal the grief of my heart. Please calm my anxious thoughts. Strengthen me for all that comes in the next few weeks.

Note: The flights for our trip to Bend OR are now booked. As directed by the Lord, we will keep the exact details of our travel itinerary in confidence until we report on it during or after the trip (as per the Lord's leading, of course). That being said, our trip will be in September and with a similar timeframe as the dates we had for our trip to Bend OR in September of 2021. As with our previous trip, only my husband and I will be going.

Father, You are greater than all of our fears. You are mightier than the noise of many waters, mightier than the mighty waves of the sea (Psalm 93:4). My soul is in a storm right now. Father, please calm the seas and clear the storm. You are my Creator, the only God of all things. I will declare Your Name in all of the Earth.

I have seen storms in my older son's eyes. He is about to embark on a journey You showed me in a dream years ago. Father, I know that he is Yours as You told me he is Yours. Since You made him, You know every part of him. While he is confident and fearless one moment, in the next moment he asks if we should have a 'safe word' in case he is in trouble. While I won't be close to him in the Tri-cities, You will still be.

Father, You are always close to him no matter where he is. While my son is so talented in writing and languages, he is naïve socially. He is easily manipulated by kindness. He doesn't see the hidden deception in others. He has been hurt and tricked so many times. He now travels to the master deceiver's house. Once there…

Well, Father, well up in my son and grant him supernatural strength for the coming storms. Many red flags have appeared. Please, Lord, keep him safe in all of his journeys. You are the only One who can. We are helpless against the enemy without Your Divine Intervention.

As for my daughter, she will soon find out if her third interview will result in her traveling south as a finalist. Since she was not eliminated after her interviews, I am sure that she will know her outcome after the company's meeting tomorrow. While she still has hope, the mood here is somber as we all wait.

In the meantime, she has been training all week online for her new job, her 'second choice position'. During this training, she has discovered the intense new age core values that serve the gods of this world. All of this is so heartbreaking.

As for Bend OR, I have spent some time looking at both homes and apartments available there. I soon had to stop though because, as it stands today, this is 100% impossible. Father, I place all of this in Your hands. My husband and I are traveling out there in a few weeks.

As of right now, we are still unsure as to how this all will look like. Well, Father, You know all things and we are in Your hands. All we do is as You instruct us. We do this in full faith in You as we continue forward on this unknown path.

With so many tumultuous days ahead, You continue to speak to me and calm my anxious thoughts. On Friday, when I picked up my tablet, one of my photo apps popped up. My iPad often makes movies of special moments in time or people. This one was titled, 'Chance through the years'. The song attached to this was a Glen Campbell song titled 'Times Like These'.

I broke down crying as I watched the video. It summed up my son's journey with his autism and the path that leads him to You. It has been both difficult and rewarding. It has been both frustrating and fulfilling. I have seen You at work constantly. No matter what the journey, You are there with us. I just pray that I am there to see the healings come. It would be the greatest of gifts. Anyway, here are the lyrics to this song…

"I, I'm a one-way motorway, I'm a road that drives away, then follows you back home. I, I'm a streetlight shining, I'm a wild light blinding bright, burning off alone. It's times like these you learn to live again; it's times like these you give and give again, it's times like these you learn to love again, it's times like these time and time again. I, I'm a new day rising, I'm a brand-new sky, to hang the stars upon tonight. I, I'm a little divided, do I stay or run away, and leave it all behind? It's times like these you learn to live again, it's times like these you give and give again, it's times like these you learn to love again, it's times like these time and time again."

I then watched a YouTube video of him when he was performing with his children on the Jay Leno Show. It made me cry with such joy to see this elderly man being able to sing with his children in front of millions of people. Truly amazing!

Oh Father, I am so excited for Heaven! What a glorious day this will be when You call us into the Beautiful. No matter what happens here, Father, please take us into the Beautiful. I have been sobbing today. My tears are as heavy as the storms outside my window. I come to You today using the Prayer that You taught us…

"Oh Father, Who is in Heaven, Great and Mighty and Hallowed be Your Name. Please let Your Kingdom come. Please let Your Will be done just like it is in Heaven. Grant us this day our Daily Bread and please forgive us our trespasses even though there are many. Forgive us as we forgive those who have trespassed against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, forever and ever, AMEN!"

Time passes so quickly. My heart breaks at the lost moments. I had quite a dream last night of my two sons…

Sub-Dream 1 "A Flashback to September 2000" begins…

While all of this was in my dream, it mostly mirrored an actual time and event that I had with my two sons back in September 2000. My two sons were little again. There was so much wonder and joy in them. They had so much laughter. My older son was almost three and my younger son was only 13 months old.

We were walking up the steps of the townhome that we lived in. While my younger son was unsteady as he walked, he was still able to carry a small pumpkin. My older son was holding a cup of water. However, as he walked up the stairs to our front door, the cup fell and the water spilled out…

Older son: Crying. "Mama, I can't pick up the water spilled. It won't go back in."

He was soon wailing so hard that his younger brother soon started wailing just as loud with him. While I smiled, I also began to cry as I could see their very real anguish. I couldn't reverse time. The water was gone. I hugged them both and knew just what to say to help them get over this…

Me: "Do not worry. God used that water to help little grass seeds that were very thirsty. Now, come with me and we will get some more to water these seeds."

This helped both of them change their focus. They then happily went back and forth with little cups of water to help out these 'little grass seeds'. After doing this for a while, I decided to really make both of their days…

Me: "Well, now that these little seeds have the water they need, let us go to Shari's Restaurant. How would you both like to have pancakes for dinner tonight?"

I knew this would be a hit. This restaurant was only two blocks away and was one of their favorite spots. They loved to color on the kid's placemats. When the server came to get our drink order, one of my kids made a quick clarification…

Older son: "No water! No grass! No water!"

Me: "Yes, no water for him. Bring him a chocolate milk instead."

Older son: "No! No one gets water. No one gets water!"

Me: "Oh yes…no waters for any of us. I will have a coffee though. My younger son already has a bottle, so nothing for him."

The server was very pleasant and continued to be. At the end of the meal, she brought both of the boys a balloon. I tied them to their wrists and we walked home. When we were almost at the townhouse, my younger son's balloon got loose and flew up into the sky. My older son became terrified and panicked.

Older son: "Mommy, get it back!"

Me: "I can't! The balloon has gone up to the angels in Heaven. They love balloons."

Older son: "I now hate balloons!"

Both the water and the balloons were such a tough thing for my older son. While I could pick up many things, I could not collect his water. While I could bring back many things, I could not retrieve his brother's balloon. All of this was so painful.

Sub-Dream 1 over…

Me: Oh Father, why have You let me remember these painful memories?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I was there with you then and I am here with you now. I am with your sons, both then and now. I was and am with your daughter too. I have never left."

Me: "Oh Lord, my heart is grieving."

Jesus: "Do not grieve what is not lost."

Me: "Time is lost. I can't get it back no matter what I do. Lord, I can't get it back."

Jesus: "While time is the greatest of mysteries to man, it is not to Me. Time has a different measure in eternity. Time here frames a second, a minute, an hour, a day, a week and so on. It is the framework of living. However, you are to remember that I am no respecter of time as you know it. This is because My Father in Heaven knows the various times. He determines this or that based on precision.

"Erin, God's order and timing is always perfect. Now, if I can't know exactly the hour, but My Father does, do I stress about this and worry that I could miss something? No, of course not. I see the signs and know the order. This is because My Father in Heaven and I are One. He sees all things and knows the order. I trust in My Father to determine the hour."

Me: "But, Lord, there is nothing beyond You. You have charge over all of the Earth. You must know."

Jesus: "In wisdom, you ask and make your case. However, you do not have knowledge of Kingdom Order. To you, this is to remain a mystery until the day you are Home. For now, trust in Me. Trust in My Father in Heaven over all things and trust My Voice, the Holy Spirit in you, that all works together for the good of those who love Me."

Me: "Lord, cover my children. Bless them with good things. They are not worldly. I pray You give them keen awareness to discern from the enemy's schemes. Please heal my older son's liver and heal his medical issues. Please grant me this miracle for both of my sons. My younger son is not good with social skills. He is also not the sharpest.

"As for my daughter, could You please give her this dream job? She would have so much joy. Please. Please do this even though her third interview did not go as well as the first two interviews. Even so, she still hopes that they will hire her. Even though I am tired, I still pray for all three of my children with great fervor."

Jesus: "I know that you pray constantly. I hear your prayers and they are good. They reach the Courts and Throne Room of Heaven and God answers them in His perfect timing."

Me: "Lord, my heart is breaking. I am scared for my older son. I spoke with my greatest enemy and he now has a ministry. However, he has never apologized to me or the children for all of his trespasses against us. It is difficult to send my older son out there knowing the trouble he will endure. Please protect him."

Jesus: "Do you trust Me?"

Me: "Of course."

Jesus: "Then trust in the process I have put in place to carve out My Great Plan. I placed leaving on your son's heart. I am God, Erin. Stop feeling guilty for allowing something you are not able to control. You are trying to micromanage Me."

Me: "I am sorry. Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "I know all of the parties involved better than you do. I know the treachery of your enemy. His idea of change is a ministry. He thinks this even though he thought just six months ago that I had called him to pour spirits at a local establishment. I did not and I would not. Erin, your greatest enemy doesn't hear from Me. As for your older son, I have a Great Plan. Can you trust My process?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, I certainly can't trust mine."

Jesus: "Very good. I will then continue to do a good work. Now, you have other concerns."

Me: "Forgive me in advance as I don't want to get my hopes up. I am afraid about dreaming of Bend OR as it is just so out of reach for us in so many, many ways."

Jesus: "I am God and I know Bend OR. I remember your heartbreak there. I remember your war. I remember your tears. I remember your pleas to help you find a home so that you could live safely there. Your children had great joy there. You worked hard. Still, it just wasn't your time. Your memories are still there… the places you once went."

Me: "Yes, but my children are adults now. They have no interest in parks there. Everything has now changed."

Jesus: "I showed you something in a dream about Bend OR when all the walls were closing in on you there. Do you remember this dream?"

Me: "Yes. It doesn't hurt that You just refreshed my memory as well…

Sub-Dream 2 "An old new dream of a Giant Board Game" begins…

I saw the area of Bend OR on a giant game board. I then saw Your mighty arm sweep everything away. Nothing was left. I then heard You speak…

Jesus: "This is Mine to do so with what I please!"

At that moment, I knew that You were in control over what was happening and I was not.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

"Oh Lord, I was so alone. I then watched the enemy destroy me bit by bit. I was helpless to stop it. I then forgave my enemies. I prayed and fasted. Finally, we had to leave for the desert. Once there, I was tricked and then attacked for five years. I had still kept a storage unit in Bend OR for our return. However, I finally let it go and the contents went to auction. I signed the contents over to the owner even though I was fully paid up. A big chapter had then closed for me there. All of it was so bittersweet."

Jesus: "I was there with you. I am here with you. Erin, it's okay. You were clinging to dreams I had placed upon your heart. It was Me. Erin, I am creative and I own the cattle on a thousand hills. You are not to be subject to the world. You are a subject of Heaven. I promise you that what I have planned there is much greater than anything you have imagined. Worry for nothing. Allow Me to carry you, okay?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Remember that this (Bend OR) is the place I called you to originally and that I can call you there again. Great will be your joy. I will restore what the enemy has stolen from you. Now, trust My process as this will be good, understand? As for your daughter and this job, remember that they contacted her first. Trust My process to do a good work. While you do not know all of the differing elements to this, I do.

"I know hearts and I fashion each person's way. Now rejoice as you are My Bride in Gold of Ophir. I could never forget you. You long to do My Will. I will therefore make your way perfect. You are unafraid to declare My Name. What I will do for the one who loves Me in the open. I promise you good things all of the days of your life. You have walked away from the wide road that leads away from My Will and into destruction.

"Erin, your children will follow you on the narrow road that leads to Me. I promise to guide them because I will always be walking beside them. As you know, the narrow road is not an easy one. However, I promise it will continue to be a treasure filled journey along the way. I have found you to be My Special Treasure as I have chosen you (Deuteronomy 14:2)."

Me: In tears. "I love You, Lord! Thank You! Thank You!"

Jesus: "You are welcome. Now, do not be afraid. Great will be your reward on Earth as it is in Heaven. I am with you always."

Dream over.

718 – Praying for Those Who Curse Us

Received on Tuesday, August 15, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for watching over us. Thank You for our wonderful Nest and of course the Sparrows. Father, I have been in great distress today as we are clearly under attack. These attacks are coming from several different areas. Our Nest is blocked from so many Sparrows overseas and we have been unable to identify the issue.

You have created so many safeguards for our ministry and our household. I know that all we have is Yours. You are in complete control. Historically, You have allowed these things because You are preparing us for the time we believe is soon to come. We are faced with impossible circumstances coming up. We have no idea what will happen. At this point, we must trust fully in You to provide for us in all things. We love You and all we have is yours.

As for my daughter, she did not get into the final two for the job. Well, only one will get the job, meaning the other will fly out and still not get the job. I suggested that we pray for the one left to soon be eliminated and she agreed. If my daughter was to be the unsuccessful one, I would rather her not travel to Nashville for such disappointing news. Either way though, You instructed my daughter to draft an eloquent response to her email with the bad news.

While she first thanked them for the opportunity, she then wrote something so clever. She said she would love to be considered for the future, even if it was to scrub toilets, just as long as she was able to help further the organization. I know it was You helping her write this because it was written perfectly right after we prayed on it. There were no corrections needed. Still, and no matter what happens, You are God our Father and You love us no matter what. Thank You for all of this.

As for my older son, my tears stream when I think of him leaving. He is walking into the biggest warzone that didn’t have an actual physical war. Oh Lord, I am so scared. I am sorry that I am scared, Father. It is just that I know this enemy and none of us are a match against his schemes. He is so evil.

Nonetheless, I know You are with my son and this brings me comfort. I just need strength here. My dreams in the beginning had my son older and out west. I had seen him changed and healed before You had ever mentioned a thing about transformation. This means that I know that this time must surely be coming soon.

Me: "Lord, please help me as the impossible is coming. I am up against the same things we faced before. Please protect our health, our children and our Nest friends' health and their children. Please protect our home, our property, our ministry and our finances. Please protect all of our pets. These are perilous times and we need You now more than ever."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not worry as I have a Great Plan. Now remember that I bless those who are kind to the poor and helpless. They are the first ones I help in times of trouble. I preserve, keep them and protect them from any harm. Their enemies will be defeated while I lift and exalt them above evil. When you are sick and suffering in your bed, I am the God of Restoration.

"I will raise up the infirm again and restore them back to health. You then say to Me as you weep, 'Lord, be my Kind Healer. Please heal me, both my body and my soul.' You then drove in your car earlier today and reviewed and confessed your sins to Me. You then prayed for your enemies knowing full well they have prayed for your death in return. Your greatest enemy even exclaims, 'Shouldn't Erin be dead by now?'

"While many of your old acquaintances claim to be your friends, they say horrible things about you. They are liars. Their hearts are bent on your destruction. Well, Erin, I am God and I see through it all. The world is filled with evil, slanderers and rumor spreaders.

"You remember when you were at your lowest point when they said of you, 'She received what she truly deserved. It is finally over. She can never do what she loved again (golfing, etc.). She is cursed. She will always be a failure. The spirit of poverty and death is upon her.'

"Well, Erin, they cursed you continuously and I heard all of it. Even though you trusted them, shared supper with them and gave good gifts to them, they still tarnished your reputation every chance they could. They then triumphantly pranced around victoriously. They were thrilled as they watched you fall.

"Well, Erin, I have been with you through it all. I have brought your sons back to you. I restored what the enemy stole from you and gave you back much more. I increased your tent pegs. I added friends and family from all over the world. They can no longer say, 'Erin has no friends.' Even more so, I saw your humiliation, your brokenness and your great heartache through it all.

"Even though you now know all of this, you still prayed for those who hurt you. You even asked Me for mercy concerning them. Erin, I have never forgotten this. I then promised you that I would restore you. I promised to care for you all of the days of your life. I promised to grant you a beautiful home in which to raise your family and to continue to keep your eyes fixed on Me. I will not stop blessing you.

"Though the times are perilous, I am about to take you and those I have called to new heights. Once there, I will keep you as My Bride, but also as a beacon of light for those who are lost in the darkness. I am in you now and I am the Flame. I am the Spirit who shines within you. I am your Creator. I am the Lover of your soul. Do not be alarmed at what appears as the enemy succeeding in doing evil. I promise you that I will move in a way to stop the course of the wicked and they will flee.

"Now, it is wisdom to strengthen your walls. It is wisdom to prepare for the coming storms. Bless the poor and needy. Pray for the sick. As you do this, I will, in turn, do the same for you and your house. Do not be afraid. Take courage as I am with you."

Dream over.

719 – Conspiracies Are Becoming Realities

Received on Sunday, August 20, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for being our God! Thank You for one more day in this battle. Thank You for all we have. We are grateful. We are dealing with truth vs lies. Father, how does one know what truth is in a sea of lies? I am grateful for truth. I hate lies. What are they? As a child, I learned that lies are used to mask the truth. Lies are used to cover inconvenient historical truth. If used long enough over time, lies can replace facts.

My memories as a child are very vivid. I remember sights, sounds and smells of an event. I also have physical reactions. I was living in fear at what was turned against me by adults as exaggeration and paranoia. Over time, liars are able to go to each of those in a circle of family, friends or acquaintances and cause seeds of doubt against the person who recalls, remembers and refutes the lies.

Entire groups can be turned against one person based on the work of a gaslighter. I still have PTSD concerning what I remember and what was done to discredit me. I soon became quiet and then moved away as quickly as possible. Family holidays all ended up as great divisive exercises. I quit subjecting my children to this when I found out they had each been sequestered individually and a different story was inserted.

However, there was a problem with this. I had never discussed anything with my children at all. This left them in shock when they then heard what was told to them. When I discovered this, I confronted the culprits in full view of all. I then told them this would be my last trip to visit them. Still, I take comfort that God knows all things and that truth is His.

I was clearly a victim of gaslighting. As for the definition of gaslighting: ‘It is a form of psychological manipulation in which the abuser attempts to sow self-doubt and confusion in their victim’s mind. Gaslighters typically do this to gain power and control over the other person by distorting reality and forcing them to question their own judgment and intuition.’

As for our house now, we are 'gaslight free'. We don't tolerate any of this and I am thankful. When I was a child, I blamed myself for everything. I believed the lies told to me about myself. However, in my heart, I held on to my memories, the real ones. Father, You then instruct me in my dreams. You reveal mysteries and hidden things. You then send confirmations in my waking hours.

Over the years, my children have occasionally kept things from me. However, You always reveal it to me and I confront them. I then remind myself that not one of us is perfect. Given that we all sin and fall short, the way I handle all of it then helps my children know that I am doing things in love for them individually. I try to not hold the past over them by listing out their shortcomings after we have already reconciled these.

As for last night, I recalled two vivid dreams…

Sub-Dream 1 "A Frightening Spider is eaten" begins…

This dream had to do with the revelation of hidden truths beneath a massive web of lies. I saw a frightening sight of a large white spider. While it was shaped like a black widow spider, it had a yellow underbelly and stripes of yellow with white on its legs. It had reddish pink eyes. While it was quite beautiful for a spider, it was still terrifying to me personally. It was constantly spinning webs.

It was in front of the light and trapped many innocent creatures in its web. When looking in from the outside into the lit area, it actually appeared as part of the glow of the light itself. It appeared as part of the light. I had never seen a spider so easily attract so many victims. It had much more than it could even eat.

Then out of nowhere and without warning, a bird that looked like a white dove flew in and took the spider. This was odd as doves don't eat spiders. Another bird then swooped in and cleaned up the web, leaving no trace of its existence at all. It had all vanished. I then praised God.

Sub-Dream 1 over…

Sub-Dream 2 "The Separation of the Wheat from the Tares" begins…

I was either in a wheat field or a barley field. It was tall and soft to touch. I was young and there with my daughter. We walked through the beautiful fields. The small path we were on ended on a sandy lake beach. We looked across the lake and there were fields burning with thick white smoke. We saw a fisherman standing on the shore.

Me: "Excuse me. Do you know what is burning?"

Fisherman: "Yes. It is the fields of tares."

Me: "I thought the tares were planted with the wheat?"

Fisherman: "In this instance, the tares and weeds are together and burning. As for the wheat, it has no threat of fire as a great body of water separates them. Even if they were together in the field, the threshing floor is the proven choice for discovering faith. As for consuming a tare, this leads to illness. Even though it looks like wheat, it can't feed the people. It is false. While it is disguised as good food, it clearly is not. This lake sanctifies the wheat field, separating it from the imposers."

Sub-Dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, these dreams have a common theme. The spider camouflaged itself as a light source to kill the unsuspecting. Its goal is to trap the innocent in its web of deception, thus leading to death. The second was the tares vs the wheat sanctified by water. Lord, please send revivals. You sent a bird and fire to remove these threats. Help us. I thought that the weeds and the tares grew together until the harvest or the wheat could be harmed (Matthew 13:24-30)."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Your dream of the wheat and the tares is a good one. Why? This is because they had been separated, sanctified by water. The wheat was untouched by the tares and weeds and remained pure until harvest. God had separated these into two fields. The one field had imposter wheat, consisting of the tares and weeds. The other field had good wheat ready to be harvested.

"It is a truly evil man who plants tares amongst the wheat on purpose. The person who does this is jealous and does so with great hatred. He who sows good seed are children of the Kingdom of Heaven and display My righteousness. The tares are the sons of perdition whose seeds produce acts of evil meant to destroy the wheat. The evil one harvests fire at the end.

"There are many false Christians who have misled others into practices that are not holy. This is meant to confuse the elect of God. These false teachers bend the Laws of God to their will. They then ignore full chapters that they deem to be 'hateful'. Well, God has never been hateful and He will never be hateful.

"As for these two dreams, these were given so you can understand the lateness of the hour. Even though the time is near, there is still time to turn from evil and remain true to God. This is why I have warned those I have called to repent and renounce any evil. Still, this hour passes quickly and there is no 'reverse time' feature."

Me: "Just in case we are missing something, please reveal it to us. While it has been a difficult time, my heart is on You completely. Oh Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, a great change is coming. People are waking up against the veil of evil. Things once thought of as conspiracies are now reality. Even so, you are to remain focused on Me as I am with you. There has been a great evil come across the nations and an increase in hatred. You have seen a rise in temperatures and an increase in burning. The storms have increased as well. However, I am over all of this.

"Now, I have shown you that much of this was brought by man against the people for the purposes of hate and unrest. Pray and I will reveal what is soon to come. However, you are to remember that, if My people would turn to Me and humble themselves, I would gladly accept their prayers and heal the land.

"You are in a war unlike a battlefield war. Food, medicines, drinks and even water are made by foreigners and are meant to destroy you. They are designed to kill you over time. There are full armies doing this, all to destroy the children of God. However, you are not to worry a I see it and I will vindicate and heal you."

Me: "Lord, should we prepare our house for more troubles?"

Jesus: "It is always good to be prepared. You and your husband are making great strides. A great humbling will come to the USA. All will change. I am here and changes are coming. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. You would not believe all what I am about to do. I love you!"

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Dream over.

Dream 720 – Erin… Eras… Eris… Eros…

Received on Tuesday, August 22, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for a good night's sleep! Thank You for a beautiful new day. You are my Good Father. You are brilliant and wonderful in all Your works. I woke up this morning from a dream that I could barely recall.

To make matters even stranger, Father, I must admit that I didn't have You in my schedule today. Actually, that is not quite true. In reality, You are on my schedule 24/7. You are on my mind in all that I do. What I meant was that I had a personal agenda that didn't include my journal.

It is such a beautiful morning today. Perhaps You could give me a nice day every day over the next week? I have a morning routine. I learned a long time ago that routines are important for me in order to keep my joy and make my days more fulfilling. This is especially true when I am in pain.

As I made my bed this morning, I quickly realized that the random words in my head were anything but random. I woke up shortly after my husband had gone to work with these words in my mind. I am not sure if it was the front door that woke me up, but these were the words in that order…

Erin… Eras… Eris… Eros…

Erin… Eras… Eris… Eros…

Note: I will later have these four words come to me again at the end of the dream, but now to be listed in reverse order.

As I prayed on these four words, Jesus spoke to me…

Jesus: "Erin, let's talk this morning."

Well, here I am. I obviously recognize 'Erin' as it is my name. I recognize 'Eras' as these are periods of historical times. I vaguely recall 'Eros' from Greek Mythology. I had learned about this in college at Penn State. As for 'Eris', I don't recognize this at all. As for Greek Mythology, it is a way to stir up the worshipping of the gods of old.

I realize now more than ever that these are actual princes and powers of darkness over regions. There is a hierarchy of evil and these are spirits related to the fallen. Only 37 years ago in my Greek Mythology class, these were all mythical creatures and the stuff of fairytales. They were not taken seriously.

Even as a New Age disciple back then, I rolled my eyes over these Greek and Roman gods. They seemed so primitive and obsolete. After all, who would sacrifice their own child to fire on the altar of some statue? Who would even do this? At this point, it seemed ridiculous. However, just ten years ago, it seemed almost plausible. Fast forward to today and suddenly I get it. It is here.

These are real spirits. These are armies of demons who have gone in through open doors into the population. This door is mostly opened through continued bitterness. Bitterness seems to be a key that opens the doors of hate, anger, revenge, deceit and all that lead to spiritual death.

These armies of anti-good and anti-God have had permission to destroy the Lord's saints. They wish to destroy the innocent and sacrifice their own for the greater good. They wish to remove law and order. They wish to bankrupt churches. They even deny history and call Your Word hate speech.

Well, Father, the gods are back. They are forcing all of us to be dependent on them for all of our needs. They are calling on Your people to accept this new era or die. It is evil, but in Tsunami form. We are in a war that is against unseen forces, forces that have inhabited at least half of the global population.

The local news in our countries is so all encompassing, we barely know about the persecution of thousands of Christians per month or even more. Father, how did these fires start? Why do so many of them only burn homes, but not the trees surrounding them. Lord, please help us!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. I am God over the Earth and there is no other. There is none beside Me. My Father is on the Throne in Heaven and in His Courts. I do the Will of My Father over all of Creation. Go back to the beginnings of My Word. The Word was with Me and the Word is Me. Remember all of this:

"In the beginning, My Spirit hovered over the waters. All things were created by Me (John 1:1). So, Erin, if I now be with you and My Spirit is in you, what are you to be afraid of? Why do you fear? When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned. Years ago, I showed you that I carried you and your children through the raging waters to the peaceful shores. Have I stopped doing this?"

Me: "No, Lord."

Jesus: "My Word tells you 'DO NOT BE AFRAID' each day of your calendar year (365 times). I knew from the beginning that your calendar would change. Which of the 'gods' knows this? What spirit of the fallen would know this? Erin, they would not. They are limited and bound even though their vile acts are on display. This is because great evil has increased. Still, the enemy's army is small compared to My Army.

"Now, you have questions about these mysteries. What do the gods and their evil practices all have in common?"

Me: "Child sacrifice? Control?"

Jesus: "There is a deeper hidden anger against God. These angels were once part of Heaven. However, they then found themselves to be prideful and they turned away from our Father God in Heaven. They were then cast out. All of their ranking angels were cast down from Heaven, including their 'angel of light'. They then continued to compound their transgressions against God. They displayed the five stones of grief."

Me: "Oh, is this denial, anger, bargaining, depression and acceptance?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, you know the rest of the story. Angels in Heaven are created beings who serve God and carry out His Goodness. These are different than humans. Humans were created to worship God and be subjected to Him. They were to share in His love and goodness. These were then to separate orders of created beings. Animals are another order.

"However, none of these beings are to 'know' each other apart from their orders. This is an abomination to God and forbidden. When the fallen saw women as good to marry, it was an unholy union not meant as a marital covenant before God. This is a form of genetic perversion as their children were an abomination to God.

"These were not of God. They were instead a result of a grave sin against God's Holiness. The evil offspring defiled the land as they consumed with great unyielding appetites everything in their path. I tell you all of this now so that you understand the origins of these evil spirits. You now see."

Me: "Eros is wicked. With Eros, it is not a pure Godly love, but instead it has been perverted."

Jesus: "What you see today is not love. Remember that the definition of love for one another is a pure unconditional love. This is in contrast to the love now on display, a love for self and for self-worship. It is not love. Love used to be in the form of marriage before God, a Holy Union. It is now about what this evil Eros god represents and how to sacrifice to this. This same appetite came upon the offspring of the fallen.

"All manner of satisfaction of the flesh was opened and on full display. This was so much so that they no longer had control over their limbs. This is because the flesh became subject to this evil. However, you are not to worry. This is because it will not continue. I see the vile practices and I am angry and grieved to see it. This is the Eros god that they worship and sacrifice themselves to."

Me: "While I have heard of Eros, I have never heard of Eris before. What is this?"

Jesus: "Years ago, I showed you a meeting in a tower in a distant city. There were ten kings at this meeting. Some of the kings were without countries. You were shown in your dream a carcass of a turkey. Then it was an eagle. They then devoured it.

"However, upon closer observation, the carcass looked like bad meat. It was off-color. The plan for this meeting is to destroy Israel, the USA and all Christian nations. Evil leaders and governments in the shadows are about to send another plague, a plague named after the goddess of discord and strife."

Note: I looked this up and it is the goddess Eris. My computer kept switching it away to other spellings. After struggling for a while, I finally found it. The goddess Eris was the goddess known for starting the Trojan War. This spirit is also known as Daimona.

Me: "Lord, this is frightening. Please stop this evil about to be unleashed against Your people. I don't want another lockdown or illness."

Jesus: "The Trojan Horse is a way to get control over the opposition, a final blow to set up a new power. However, I have a great plan here. If My people will humble themselves and turn to Me, I will heal their land. The enemy has placed a timeline on the agenda to destroy most of the population. They plan to unleash their horses and their uprisings by Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023). Their plan is to destroy Jerusalem and to overtake and invade North America."

Me: "Lord, it is being allowed by You. Please stop this. You can! Please!"

Jesus: "Erin, I have a great plan in place. I will not delay in doing good. Chaos is planned and coming from the enemy. Their goal is to destroy all life as you know it prior to My miracles and display of power over all of the Earth. Remember to take heart and do not be afraid as I am with you. I am greater than all you see. I am over the waters, the wind, the land, the air and all that is in these. Do not be afraid. The time you have been waiting for is here. Rejoice as I am with you. Erin, you are My Bride of peace!"

Note: I was then to list the four words from the beginning of this dream in reverse order:

- Eros: Self love & perversion. Happening now.
- Eris: Chaos, strife, new plague, wars. Happening soon.
- Eras: End of this age.
- Erin: Bride of Christ. Represents God's Bride.

Please also note that it would never be my attention to elevate my name in any way, shape or form. The Bride of Christ was not alluded to because I have the name of Erin. Instead, the Lord had my mother give me this name because He knew He would be using me in this fashion later on (which is now here).

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-721/

721 – Nothing is Impossible for God

Received on Sunday, August 27, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! What a beautiful day You have made. If I was still married to my greatest enemy, this would have been our 29th anniversary. However, and on a much happier note, this is also the 9th anniversary of us arriving in the land of the trees. Thank You for this. This has been a great place to raise our children together.

We have had a year of repairs here. We pray a few major appliances are healed supernaturally as we simply… well, Father, You are God. Since You can heal flesh and grow bones, we know You can also fix appliances… smiles. Still, nothing today is built to last, especially things with moving parts. While some items give 'lifetime warranties', the fine print then shows something entirely different.

Our fridge is one of our problems. It does not have a simple fix. The warranty doesn't count anymore because the company who made this fridge is no longer in operation. To make matters worse, this could cause us to either purchase a small unit or cut out cabinets. The repair person says that he can't fix it. We therefore have learned to live with the constant leaking. It has been going on for around three years now.

Oh Father, please heal our fridge so we don't have to worry. Please heal our oven too. These are items we have used for at least 3,300 days since arriving here. Can You please let them last the rest of the way for us? Perhaps You can do another miracle healing? I am also referring to the recent events regarding our website.

We have had issues with our website. Something was causing the site to be blocked to various parts of the globe. Many of our Sparrows were in distress as a result as they were not even able to find us. Well, something major happened at the home server that made them open up all avenues. It was a firewall security fix that wasn't going to happen just for us. When it happened to over 80 other sites, the fix had to be made.

Thank You, Lord. It has been a year of storms and storm surges. While there have been electrical power surges and breakdowns here, all in all, You have kept us going. Bless You and thank You, Father. For as many disappointing issues there have been, there have been just as many, if not more, good news outcomes. We are so thankful!

Right now, the most looming issues that have me grieving lately is the uncertainty surrounding my older son leaving and the promises of Bend OR. While I have been anxious at times, the idea of all of it is truly overwhelming and so impossible to us. This is so much so that I have no choice but to give it all to You. This is because every scenario I can think of meets with a dead-end.

Bend OR has become a safe haven for wealthy Californians, so much so that homes are now ridiculously expensive there. There is no way that my husband and I can finance a purchase there on our own. I also have PTSD over what happened there twenty years ago. My dreams were shattered there. The people who claimed to be my friends and my children's friends were anything but our friends.

While many of these people have now left Bend OR, this is still nerve wracking. While there is not much keeping us here in the land of the trees, we have made staying here a workable situation. That being said, I know that jobs are better for all of them out west. There is better pay, better opportunities and better schools. Still, my dream from last night was alarming. It had to do with my greatest enemy and his family.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with You. I am God and you are not. You can do nothing on your own here. As of today, you have been here in the land of trees for nine years. Although there have been struggles for you that are common to man, you have weathered each storm. Why?"

Me: "Prayer?"

Jesus: "Yes, but more than this. It is because you have given Me all of your troubles. You believe that I will answer each prayer with a 'yes', a 'no' or a 'no for now'. In turn, I have cared for you and your house. It is Mine. I built it for you. I prepared it and built a home that you didn't know would be perfect for you, but I made it so it was. This is because I know of all things in advance.

"In the beginning, I had called you to do some things that you dismissed because they seemed as if I didn't call you to do them. Because of this, you have suffered certain struggles. However, you then recognized what you did and came to Me. You fell to your knees and repented. In great compassion, I reached down to comfort you. I then healed these struggles.

"Now here you are, years later, and faced with the impossible. Since you cannot do anything on your own and because you have no other options, you now have no choice but to surrender all to Me. While I have watched you try this or that, it all meets an end. Now, let Me introduce you once again to Me, your God, who loves a good dead-end story. To Me, a dead-end is an opportunity to witness My miracles.

"Erin, My promises for you are true. I will part the seas, split the Earth and open the sky for a great outpouring. I am the Restorer of shattered dreams and broken hearts. I have been with you through it all. I watched as you were stripped and laid bare. I saw the innocence of your children stolen and weaponized. I saw all of it and I never forget.

"I then delivered you and your children. Your greatest enemy could then not reach you no matter what angle he used. And on the very day of the anniversary day of your wedding to your greatest enemy, I delivered all of you to a safe land, a land far from his grip. He had destroyed all that you held close. All innocence was destroyed by his evil and I do not forget.

"It was I who veiled him to sign and have your release verified by earthly courts. It was I who created miracle after miracle. When your vehicle wouldn't start just before your promised departure date of August 23, 2014, it was your eldest son who turned the key. Four days later (on August 27, 2014), you entered your new home. This is a miracle!"

Me: "Oh Lord, I sometimes forget these things. I am so sorry! You have done miracle after miracle. I am sorry to ever question this."

Jesus: "Erin, what is more impossible… the great release of your children on the exact date I told you that you would be leaving or providing you with a new home in Bend OR under your current conditions?"

Me: "Oh Lord, You are so brilliant! Of course, releasing the children is the more impossible of the two. You gave us an exact date, August 23, 2014, a Saturday. My enemy signed our release before a notary on the morning of this Saturday. In exchange for this, I waived child support. Later this day, and just 15 minutes before midnight on August 23, 2014, our car started and we were officially on the road and free.

"This was an incredible miracle! My enemy was so confident he would get them back, he signed his own written letter. Much to his amazement and disgust, our marriage has lasted (he had counted on it lasting less than a year). The children have now enjoyed the difference between war and peace so much that they have stayed with us here in peace. They have healed and grown here. Oh Lord, this is all thanks to You."

Jesus: "Now, I gave you a dream last night. Describe your dream…"

Me: "Yes, Lord…

Sub-Dream 1 "Court Filings and Counter Court Filings" begins…

I was about 43 years old, but very young. My children were 8, 10 and 12. We lived in a distant city. We were living in a small apartment. While we appeared financially stable, I had very little. Behind the scenes, most of my money went to rent and the car. It reminded me of 2009 and 2010. It was a horrible time. Every time I would get a little ahead financially, another invoice from my lawyer would arrive. While I couldn't afford to pay his invoices, I needed to still pay him in order to fight to keep my kids.

In this dream, I then received a phone call from a high-end attorney who was hired by my enemy and his family to destroy me completely. I then listened to his proclamations that all papers needed to be reversed and that I needed to now pay my enemy and his family damages for the children's dislike for his family. They were going to file the papers in both Benton County WA and Multnomah County OR.

I was then told that failure to appear would lead to my arrest. My heart raced as I listened to this attorney read the bogus charges. I then realized that my children were now adults. In this dream, I was now older and had no assets to fight. As the call was about to end, I could hear my greatest enemy speaking in the background…

Greatest enemy: "I finally got her! I need my older son out here now. I will now completely destroy her."

My hand was shaking as I hung up the phone. This man's need for revenge and his hatred for me is greater than his love for his children. In the dream, my son had already booked his ticket. I then spoke to my husband and to all of our children…

Me: "Pray for my safe travels to Bend OR. I now have no choice but to go to Bend OR in Deschutes County to file what needs to be filed."

Sub-Dream 1 over.

"Oh Lord, I have questions about this dream. What was this dream all about?"

Jesus: "In your dream, your enemy tricked you by luring your older son."

Me: "Yes, Lord. He is doing this right now. Am I to go and file court documents?"

Jesus: "No. However, the threat of you being there again alarms his family. However, this is not about that. The dream is a warning that your enemy has not changed. He is not different. He does not change. Now, here is your gauge on this… while evil men and evil women always command apologies from their victims, they never reciprocate apologies unless they are forced to. They then create a non-apology that goes something like this…

- "Yes, I am sorry too, but I would have never done this if you hadn't…"; or
- "Yes, I am sorry you did this too."

"Again, these are not apologies. Instead, these are promises that they will now punish the victim even more. Remember that the gauge of true repentance is a heartfelt apology. This is because the Holy Spirit demands this in order for My Spirit to dwell completely free in a heart. This heart cannot also house evil. A house divided cannot stand. True repentance is led by true humility and true surrender to truth.

"My Spirit is a light that extinguishes darkness, secrets, deceit and all hidden deeds. You can't expect God to forgive if you aren't seeking forgiveness for your wrongs, your sins. To a truly repentant heart, much is forgiven. However, to a deceiver, they believe I just forget all that old sin and they then have a free pass to continue to judge others. Well, there is no forgiveness until changes occur here on behalf of the sinner.

"Now, your older son is walking into a trap. What father hears a son apologize and then doesn't apologize or take ownership of his grave sins in return? This man fights against God. Your dream shows you that nothing has changed in all of these years. Well, Erin, I do not change. I remember everything done to you and your children.

"I remember every wicked thing. I do not forget. I dismantled the agency involved and dispersed those responsible for their evil all throughout the system. I have never forgotten how they robbed you. Even though you and your children never received justice according to the laws, I will now send you recompense for all you are entitled to and even more.

"Erin, My promises are true. I have never forgotten what was stolen from you and how broken and full of shame you felt. You felt guilty for crimes that you didn't have any part of. You are to now trust Me in this. You are not to be afraid as I have you. I also gave you another dream about the sun rising on the horizon. You felt the warmth on your face, but you were not hot. It did not harm you.

"I am rising as the sun rises. I command the sun to rise and to set. A new dawn is coming. Erin, your sun shall not go down or your moon shall not withdraw itself. This is because I am God, your Everlasting Light, and your days of mourning shall end. Your sun shall never set. I will be your Everlasting Light. Your days of sorrow will end!"

Me: "Lord, this is Isaiah 60:19-20 (The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give you light; but the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.)

"However, Isaiah 60:18 is what is happening now (Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.) Isaiah 60:21 is about us (Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.) Isaiah 60:22 is what we will be like (The least one shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the Lord; in its time I will hasten it.)

Note: As I was writing this, I received a notice on my phone that Tropical Storm Idalia had now formed. Idalia means 'Behold the Sun'!

Jesus: "Erin, who chooses these storm names anyway?"

Me: "Well, Lord, since You are always in complete control of all things, You not only name them, but also outline their precise timing and path."

Jesus: "For clarity, who then harnesses the sun?"

Me: "God does! You do!"

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. I hold the power of the sun. I command the moon and the stars. If I can do all of this, and I do, can you trust in a promise I granted you twenty years ago about some day owning a home in Bend OR? Hmm, is this too much for Me? After all, do I not own all of that land? Did it not come into being by My Word? Were not the mountains shaped and the ground carved by My Word?

"Is there even a small portion of that land that I created that I can't give to you? Can I not do this for the one who is unafraid to declare My Name? You are My Bride, the Beloved of My Heart. My Father in Heaven can declare it. While you think small, you dream big. Erin, I am the Fulfiller of even bigger dreams. I love you and I have never stopped loving you. Erin, I will never stop loving you.

"I will also not stop blessing you. I will hold you and keep you for all eternity. I am with you. Now, you travel soon to the land you love (Bend OR). Walk there every day and remember all that I promised you long ago. I have never forgotten how your heart was trampled there. I am your Healer. I am your Divine Physician. Great will be your testimony."

Me: In tears. "Thank You, Lord. Thank You for these reminders. This trip feels so extravagant right now. If You hadn't called us to do this, we wouldn't have booked…"

Jesus: "Remember that all you have is Mine. None of what you have has been earned aside from Me. It is I who declares a thing. It is I who holds your recompense that I now bring to you. Now rejoice and celebrate. Do not grieve. You are to go there by My Authority, for the business of the King, God, our Father on the Throne, who owns the cattle on a thousand hills. Once there, you will do as I instruct you. All will be provided. Rejoice, Erin. This will be a beautiful time to travel west!"

Dream over

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-722/

722 – Out With The Old, In With The New

Received on Sunday, August 27, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all that You do. Thank You for our family and friends. We feel very blessed by You. I had a very vivid dream last night.

Sub-Dream 1 "Winning my bent putter back for a dollar" begins…

I was living in an 'efficiency apartment'. It had one room, a bath, a kitchen and a closet. It was sparsely furnished. I had given everything away except for my golf putter from 1980, a pair of pajamas, a steamer from my old clothing store and two sets of high-end Anichini towels. I had purchased these towels in High Point NC at the Furniture Mart in the spring of 1996.

I had two entire formal sets of towels. Each set had a washcloth, a tea towel, a hand towel, a bath towel and a bath sheet. I was a dealer at the time, so I purchased them at cost (in reality, I still own just one of these towels). These towels were now in various spots all over the apartment. They were worn and old. I was gathering all ten towels together. I placed them next to a black garbage bag.

I sighed because I knew it was time to part with these. As I stacked them, I saw a robe that I had also purchased. It was really heavy because it was made of thick cotton damask. It was definitely the epitome of designer pajamas. I placed it in a pile. I shook my head and laughed. It was practically brand new. I hardly wore it because it was literally too heavy to wear.

I then got a call that I needed to take out the rest of my items because the collector was arriving in minutes. I decided to just place everything into a black bag and proceeded to the door of my apartment. I glanced at my old gold birds-eye putter. I couldn't recall if it was a Christmas gift from my mom or if I had won it in a tournament. I was pretty certain I had won it.

I picked it up and lifted it up to sight the shaft. I then chuckled when I realized that the shaft had been bent at some point. I was not sure how it was bent as I never had a temper while playing. I never weaponized my golf instruments. I shook my head at the wonder. What if I had missed so many putts because my putter was crooked?

I set it down and began to walk out the front door when I turned to pick up the putter and place it in the black bag along with the other useless relics. I walked out to the garden area and placed the bag with my other donations. I laughed when I saw a woman challenging competitors to a putting contest on what she called grid glass. She was holding the putter that I had just disposed of. It was an impossible putt. Putting on glass isn't fun. I went up to her.

Me: "Do you mind if I try this putt?"

Woman: "You can, but you first need to bet a dollar."

I gave her my dollar as I knew she was about to putt with my crooked putter.

Me: "Please go first."

Woman: "I will. However, if your ball falls off the edge after mine than the house still wins."

Me: "Okay. No problem. That doesn't bother me. Let's do it."

Sure enough, the woman did not compensate for the bend on the shaft. The ball missed the hole completely. She still seemed confident though. This is because I knew that she thought I was going to miss as well. I looked at the horrible putter she gave me. She could tell that I hated it.

Woman: "Alright then, here, use mine instead."

I gladly received my old bent putter for the challenge. I somehow knew how to calculate for the flaw. I tapped the ball gently and it rolled into the cup. The cup lit up and made sounds.

Woman: "Hey, you win. You win the putter, but I keep the dollar. It is a win-win."

Me: "That's fine with me. Thank you."

This was so odd. I basically just paid a dollar for the putter that I had just donated. The only items I then owned were the putter, my designer pajamas and a clothing steamer. They were basically all useless items. This all felt supernatural.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Father, I want to get everything in my life aligned with Your Will. Please forgive my trespasses against You or others, both in the past and in the present. Please help me to finish a good race here. Please let me never hurt my relationship with You. Please keep the enemy free from our lives completely.

This means our house, our lives, our animals, both domestic and wild, our family, our children and our friends, both near and far, and their families. Father, to see the past appearing in various ways in the present can mean two things and both are barriers:

- I need to seal off any open doors or remnants of the former things. I don't wear designer pajamas now. They appeared in my dream, along with other items that I once had valued.
- I am being tested by the enemy to see if I still value these as I once did.

Father, I enjoy craftmanship and quality. As a result, I often keep things that are old because they are built better and will last. To replace them means higher prices and questionable quality. New is not always better now. One thing is certain… I can't wait for eternity where there are no garbage dumps or worn out anything. My mom was so wise about these things, as was my grandmother. They both had very small wardrobes.

However, what they did own was expensive and made to last. They loved so many natural and beautiful materials, such as wool, cashmere, cotton, leather and silk. Buttons were made of seashells, mother of pearl, leather, wood and glass. Some were made from fired handmade clay.

Even so, it seemed like everything after 9/11 changed. Life changed. Quality changed. Quality of life in general changed. Many years ago, I had a dream…

Sub-Dream 2 "Unloading an overloaded bicycle" begins…

I was riding a bike. It was loaded with baggage. There was even a car behind me. However, as I cycled down the road, I began to become labored in my abilities. Bit-by-bit, things that once seemed important began to fall away. With each dropped item, I could peddle faster. Eventually, I was completely free from my burdens. I was fast and mobile again. It was so freeing.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

If there is anything more that I am clinging to, please help me to let go. Hebrews 12 & 13 were 100% written by You. Oh Father, thank You for Your Faithful Instruction!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Surrender all of your burdens to Me and I will make you steady, sure and clear of the past. Now, you sometimes sit in fear. Why?"

Me: "Lord, I see the enemies taking their positions against the children of God. I then wonder if You are seeing all of this, even though I know that You do. I just see such unbelievable things now. Incomprehensible events in the news. It is hard to watch."

Jesus: "I know. However, I am with you. You are not alone. Surrender all your worries, cares, burdens, obstacles, impossibilities and lack of means. Surrender all of it. Many of these are all the same thing, but under different names. No matter what these are, they are heavy and they weigh you down. When you can do nothing concerning them and you are heavy of heart, you must then give all of it to Me. Erin, this is important. Old self-ambitions can be made new only by will and knowledge concerning a matter."

Me: "Lord, I am just a gentile according to the world. I am not entitled to anything. I am so thankful for You and honored for anything, even scraps."

Jesus: "Wait! Did I reduce you to begging like a dog? No! It is God who determines entitlement… or, for that matter, any title of a man. Those who I humble I also exalt. I determine this. Now, leave this to Me."

Me: "Lord, I have been experiencing a real, actual separation from things of this world that I once enjoyed. All has changed."

Jesus: "All has stayed in its natural progress. It is you who is changing. Now rejoice as this is a necessary part of your journey. You are part of all that is coming. Do not worry as I am with you."

Dream over.

723 – The Mountain of God's Presence

Received on Tuesday, August 29, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Each day offers new mercies. I am thankful for each new day. Each day brings common struggles. Please help us to not grumble and complain when we don't see Your miracles in light of the all-consuming darkness around us.

Father, please help me to not have fear of the threats coming against us. When these threats come, You call me to look up above it all to You. You are the God over all. You consume us with Your promises and great love. You are great, Father, and no earthly god is like You. I had an incredibly vivid dream last night.

Sub-Dream 1 "The Mountain of God's Presence" begins…

An angel of the Lord came to me as I slept. I heard him call out to me…

Angel: "Arise and come with me! Erin, awaken! I must show you some mysteries."

I was clothed in white pajamas consisting of a tunic and short pants. I looked with wonder at what I was wearing. The angel knew my thoughts.

Angel: "While you were once naked and exposed, you are now clothed in pure linen."

I looked down again at my hands as they were young. My skin and nails were beautiful. While I could not see my full self, I could still see my hair. It was like silk and appeared like that of lamb's wool, but pure white. I could breathe effortlessly. I was so amazed at the changes that tears started to fall down my cheeks.

Angel: "Erin, do not focus on these things as this is a gift of God. In His presence, you are changed. This is because your body is no longer subject to death around Him. This is how God created you. He did not create you for decay, but for everlasting life."

The angel then took me to a mountain that I recognized from my first open vision with Enoch and Elija from over 23 years ago (February 23, 2000). The mountain was commanding and unclimbable for man. While there was snow, it wasn't cold. I could breathe with ease. I was so small next to this large angel. The angel squeezed my hand and we were at the platform, a sort of Heavenly train station.

However, there were no metal tracks, only rails made of light. Again, hard to describe. I then heard a beautiful sound that overlapped like an echo. It was unlike anything that I had ever heard before. A tram, or a type of train, but smaller, then appeared. It was being led by what looked like horses, but with wheels of light. There is no earthly comparison. These horses were both beautiful and frightening. There were four horses altogether… two looking forward and one to each side.

I simply don't know how to adequately describe that which I don't understand. The angel of the Lord waived and the train, although a short train, came to a stop. The door then opened and the angel brought me into the train. It then sped off faster than the speed of sound. Within seconds, we were at another platform.

When the door opened, I could see thousands of saints, each one dressed in white. When the door opened, they all cheered. While I then somehow knew that my name was being announced, I did not know the name I was being called (a name I can no longer recall). I knew them and they knew me and we all cheered together.

Angel: "Erin, come with me. I have more to show you."

I waved goodbye to what I knew to be my friends. I then looked down the light rails and could see more short trains coming. Each added saints to the group. I suddenly realized that I had not spoken aloud yet. I must have been still in complete shock.

Angel: "You are to observe all that I will show you. You are then to scribe this with your pen to paper."

I nodded in agreement. As we travelled on this train, I could see fields of flowers and perfect vineyards. I could see fields of wheat, barley and something that resembled hops (but I am not sure). I was in a place in Heaven that I had never been to before.

Angel: "You are on the Mountain of God's Presence. He owns thousands and, here, all is His and His land is Holy. This is where He meets with His workers and His armies. This is The Great Assembly Place."

I could see workers in the field. I wondered why they were working and harvesting here.

Angel: "This is where God's Army of saints and His angels work together for God's Glory and to prepare for what comes."

We then travelled again at an incredible speed through the most beautiful of lands I had ever seen. The train chariot then came to a stop. The angel took my hand, the door opened and we stood on a platform of hewed stones. These were very large cut stones with beveled edges. These cuts were so precise that even a laser cutter or water jet couldn't cut like this.

Angel: "These were cut and made by hand."

I smiled and laughed as I walked onto the platform / path. I was in awe. I then noticed that the grout was… no, it couldn't be. I bent down and touched it. It was…

Angel: "Yes, Erin, it is gold. Now look around you."

The stones on this avenue were overlaid in gold. It was not just gold though. It was a translucent overlay of gold so that the essence of the life of each stone and its gold veins could be seen. The depth of each stone was incredible. When I looked across at all of them, they jointly appeared as a street of gold. I wondered if I was in God's Golden City now.

Angel: "You are in the outer courtyards of God's Courts."

I could see beautiful greenery, flowering vines and fountains. Along the sides of this street of gold were two channels of water. The water was the color of glaciated water. It was absolutely beautiful. I could hear birds and I saw nests in the trees.

Angel: "Even the sparrow finds a home and a swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young at the Altar of God."

I looked into the angel's eyes and smiled. He smiled back. I still hadn't spoken a single word out loud. Clearly, this was my Psalm 84 moment. I soon realized that we must be near God's Courts and in His Presence as I continued to not speak. Even so, I could tell that the angel knew my thoughts.

As we continued to walk, I could see a massive building with open courts ahead. I could see the foundations set in cut faceted jeweled stones. The presence of this building was something that left me awestruck. My knees became weak and my spirit faint. I had the fear of the Lord overcome me. This was God's Court.

Angel: "You are not here because God is about to judge you. Erin, you are His. You are wearing His garments of salvation. Do not be afraid." I was gripping the angel's hand quite tightly at this point. "Erin, He has something to show you."

He gently squeezed my hand and we were in a massive room. It was something I had never seen before and this room, really a stadium of sorts, could easily seat thousands. There were so many angels surrounding the parameter. I could tell that these were orders of angels.

The floor of the room was a living stone of sapphire, the sapphire blue sea. I was now up on a balcony-type area. I then saw angels gather over the entire area. I could not see them in the front of the room. I then heard a massive choir of angels singing. They sang in complete unison and it was breathtaking…

Angels: "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

All the angels bowed before the Throne. I then heard the voice of God tell them to rise.

God: "Rise! The hour is late! Assemble the horses, My Army and saints!"

I then heard a Great Voice bellow out in an overwhelming tone of power. It echoed loudly and with force throughout the entire room (really a small stadium).

Great Voice: "Fear God and give Him Glory! The hour of judgment has come! Worship Him who made the Heavens, the Earth, the seas and the springs of water!"

The resounding tone of this Great Voice soon had my heart pounding in excitement. The angels continued to bow before God.

Great Voice: "Heaven will be visible throughout the Earth and the light of God's Glory will shine throughout the darkness and the darkness shall be no more! Rise!"

The angels rose up and they all cheered together. The angel again squeezed my hand (always gently) and we were back to the landing from the start.

Angel: "Do not be afraid of all you see as these things were foretold by the prophets. The defeated gods of old have risen up so man would turn from God and be consumed in fire. They even sacrifice their own children to gods whose sole purpose on Earth is to defile man so they are so far removed from God that He says 'depart from Me' to them.

"This Mountain of God's Presence is where God prepares His Armies. This is also where the enemy longs to be. However, he is banished, along with his army who fell. So, he continues his blasphemies as God continues on His way so He is glorified and revered throughout the nations.

"Now, God brought you here to show you that He is very much in control over all you see. With great speed, wicked and vile practices are now coming into full view of all who see. You have become weary and tired and your hope is waning. However, do not be afraid and do not grow weary in doing good. Keep looking up as there is the Glory of God over you. Nothing shall be impossible for you. God will provide for you.

"Now, knowing the times are near, the enemy will create great fear and no man shall work (John 9:4) and no man shall go to church. Do not be afraid as God is with you. He will cover you with His Glory and evil will be far from you and your house.

"Now, this Mountain is Holy. From here, you will be equipped with Provision and Divine Gifts that can only come from God. The Lord God is with you. Rejoice, Erin, for you are Beloved of the King!"

Sub-Dream 1 over…

It was now 9:00 am and I had slept in. I went to my journal to write all that I had just experienced. This experience was truly different than any of my experiences in the past dreams up to now.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Do not be afraid. Do not grow tired or weary in doing good. The world is now filled with thieves sent to rob, kill and destroy. However, I am building an army of restorers who will reveal hidden things, return what was lost, heal the broken and form from the ashes things of beautify, all for My Glory. This generation is now lost and downcast.

"There is very little hope for them as the enemy continues to dismantle what was built. I promise you that I have a great plan as the storms approach, the fires burn and the earth shakes. Do not fear as I am with you. Remember that the dead will rise and witness against the evil. Those who were blind will see, the deaf will hear and the mute will speak, both the young and the old."

Me: "Lord, is another pandemic coming?"

Jesus: "Erin, it is here now and spreading. It is meant to destroy people and all that is God's. However, you are not to worry as great is the Army of God. The angels you saw are only the captains of vast armies of angels."

Me: "So those angels in Your Courts were heads of their divisions? Whoa, there were thousands and thousands of these angels."

Jesus: "Yes, so be encouraged. I will provide all you need in all things."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Thank You for today. I needed this so much. I know that the Nest did too. I love You."

Jesus: "I love you too."

Dream over.

724 – God Sees All the Evil Done in Darkness

Received on Thursday, August 31, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for dreams and visions. These are a special gift from You and a Priceless Treasure to me. The last dream, Dream 723, was a great gift to me. It gave me a new joy and my anxiety faded. Thank You, Father. Still, the enemy again ramped up against me individually just yesterday.

During a rainstorm at a parking lot in front of our grocery store, I hurried to get the groceries in the back of the car. I then reached down to grab my purse and take the cart to the return when wind or something caused the back hatch to come down on the back of my cervical spine. This then saddened me greatly as I had been feeling so much better physically lately.

I didn't truly realize the severity of that impact until today. I then tried to stay busy and keep my muscles limber just in case. This blow undid so much. My left side is now in great pain. I then felt called to read Psalm 30. In this chapter, David was being personally hammered. He then cried out to You in Psalm 30:8-10. Using this, I will plead my case to You, along with the cases of so many of those here on our Nest…

To You, Father, I cry and I plead for mercy. What good is my death to You? If I go down to the pit, will my dust praise You? Will it tell of Your faithfulness? Hear, O Lord, and be merciful to me. O Lord, be my Helper!

It then appears in the very next verses, Psalm 30:11-12, that David then had his prayers for help answered seemingly immediately. Either this or he rejoiced no matter what You decided. Father, I would like to believe You helped him. This sounds like a miracle to me. Using this, I will praise You in advance for what You are about to do for us…

You have turned my mourning into dancing: You have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, that my glory may sing Your praise and not be silent. O Lord, my God, I will give thanks to You forever!

While it has been a while since I have prayed for my own physical healing, I now need Your Divine Assistance. You know the pain I am in. Oh

Father, You also know how much I love You. Please have mercy on me and be my Healer. Yesterday, we were attacked in every enemy pattern again.

After every good and perfect thing from You (like, say, Dream 723), why does trouble then come right after? I guess this is a good gauge for doing Your Will. Please hold me close. Please hold our family, our Nest friends and their families and our homes. Please send angel armies to help us. Oh Lord, it even hurts to bow my head to pray.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you in this storm."

Me: "Lord, I had been feeling so good lately. I had even been joyful. However, this pain has now overcome me once again because the enemy was allowed to have his attack against me succeed. I was so distracted last night that, while taking my Tylenol, I ended up accidentally taking a double dosage. Oh Lord, I am so sorry for anything that I may have done!"

Jesus: "Hold on. I am right here. I will heal your neck. It will feel better as the day passes. You are here with Me right now and all will be well. Do not worry as I am here. In anger, the enemy sought your very life. Because I had shown you the meeting of angels (in the last dream, Dream 723), the enemy and his elect now know that the times of the Glory of God are soon to come."

Me: "Lord, can I selfishly ask for 24 hours to go by without some sort of attack?"

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. Was I not also attacked daily in some form? These are common for those whose hearts are fixed on the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. You know better than I do in all things. We are struggling here. There is very little relief. For now, my older son is staying here. Ever since he has been away from his place of employment, he has completely changed back to what we have always enjoyed in him. Thank You for this!"

Jesus: "It is easy for the enemy to attack the weak and weaponize their weaknesses against the strong. You also see this in war. This is not uncommon. Remember where the rabble chose to walk with the Israelites in the desert. They planted seeds of doubt and discouragement there and it spread quickly.

"The rabble then constantly complained and were able to convince the weaker of God's people that God and His miracles were not enough. They then convinced the weaker amongst them to vocally complain. The rabble were responsible for much of their troubles. The same is true with your son. He is now far removed from those whose true cause is hate."

Me: "Lord, my back now feels better."

Jesus: "This is good. Now, there is a great army of angels that will bring you strength and provision for the days to come. The enemy has very little time until he is restrained."

Me: "Lord, time is such a mystery to me. I had a dream last night of two spiders…

Sub-Dream 1 "A Spider Killing Another Spider"

I saw a weakened daddy longlegs spider being devoured by a smaller, faster, deadly spider. It specifically devoured its two lower left legs first. It then bound the entire spider in a tight web so that it would suffer a slow death.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Jesus: "The one spider is old. He is an old opportunist that prays on decaying things. It looks scary at first until you realize it doesn't even spin a web."

Me: "We played with these when I was little. There was a tale that if you pulled on its leg, it would point to the cows. It pointed with the upper legs. It was probably scared."

Jesus: "It is best to not pull on the legs of any creature now or in the future. In your dream, a faster young spider then paralyzed the old spider and spun a web around it."

Me: "Is this our current President?"

Jesus: "This is a good guess. Wait and see what comes and with whom. There are several old leaders who are becoming infirm. As for those that I have appointed, they remain strong."

Me: "But, Lord, it is You who appoints all leaders."

Jesus: "Yes. I am over all things. However, the leaders there now are diminishing to expose the one who spins webs in darkness. Since I have not blessed them, they are subject to great confusion. They fall asleep when called to. My judgment is coming and I'm preparing the fields, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Above the spiders, all of them, the deceivers who spin webs trapping the innocent and the weak in lies… well, there is something greater over them all as I see. I am the Light of the world and all who operate in darkness will be exposed. Darkness now operates in full view for all to see.

"Now, when I say darkness, I speak not just of nighttime. I speak of hidden and secretive things. One former ruler has never stopped ruling and one ruler who is still the rightful ruler is subdued. The one there now is a shadow of the enemy, a reflection of the decline of My favor against the once great nation."

Me: "Lord, please stop this. Please don't allow the enemy any more success. Please!"

Jesus: "Do not worry as I see. God sees. The stench has reached God's Mountain and a warrant has been given in God's Courts. The angels will serve the order. You have seen these. They are the Mighty Army of God. While there will be some rabbling and anger, do not fear. I am with you and no harm will come to you. I gave you the former dream (Dream 723) so you would have comfort and joy. Do not worry as I am with you. Do not be afraid. My gifts are coming!"

Dream over.

725 – The Importance of Psalm 37

Received on Sunday, September 3, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for this beautiful cool summer day. Thank You for being God. Thank You for Your patience with us. The world is a frightening place now. All the things You warned us about years ago are now coming to pass. While time sets up seasons, this is only by Your hand. The sun rises and sets only by Your command. Nothing else has the power to set up the sun, moon, stars, tides and the currents… only You, Father.

I receive the Christian persecution reports from two sources. They are global watch groups. Well, these reports break my heart. Father, we are so blessed by where we are. However, the times are changing. The times of the Bible we were told to watch for are now coming to be. Please hear the cries and prayers of Your people. Please send angel armies to rescue those who love You.

Vindicate all of us before our enemies succeed in our destruction. Please don't forget us. Please don't hide Your face from us. Never has there been a time when the whole Earth, all of Your children, have cried out for You to save us. Father, I recently read some of Charles Spurgeon's writings. His prayers, studies, teachings and sermons on the Psalms from the 1800s are still so insightful today.

Luke 11:9-10: "And I say unto you, ask and it shall be given you; seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you. For everyone that asks receives; and he that seeks finds, and to him that knocks it shall be opened."*

In Spurgeon's writings, he says this: "None have been more ready to pray in time of trouble than those who have ridiculed prayer in their prosperity. In fact, probably no prayers have been truer to the feelings of the hour than those that atheists have offered when in fear of death."

Jonah 1:5: "Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god."*

Well, Father, You are the only God who saves. You then say, 'Here I am!'

When I feed the animals in the yard each day, they all run and hide when they hear my voice greeting them. The only ones who run to me are the ones with the greatest needs. They trust that I have what they hunger for and their hunger far outweighs their fear of my voice. While I am not angry at them for doing this, I am sometimes sad because I want that relationship of trust and safety with them.

I long for Heaven, a place where nothing runs in fear. God has given me this yard to care for so I could know the heart of My Father towards His love for me. I know there must be times when I make You smile and say, 'There is Erin, look at what I have done with her. She makes my heart glad.' Well, I live to please You, Father.

However, I also know there are times when I must disappoint You by my actions. I pray I never grieve You. It makes me cry to think that I could. There are times when I grow weary and tired as I toil daily. It seems when pain comes, I begin to question my position as Your child. Then when extra bills or troubles loom, I take stock in my faith in You and even in myself. Satan then whispers horrible lies into my ears:

- You are no one to God.
- He has better Christians to care for then you.
- You can stop now.
- You are getting so old.
- God doesn't care about you.
- You upset Him.
- He won't protect you.
- Give up now.
- If He cared, His promises would have been fulfilled by now.
- Are you even seeing His promises at all?
- Are you not worse off now than you once were?
- Don't even your children now want to leave you?
- You are turning them over to me.
- Your (older) son even prefers his father over you now.
- You are an embarrassment.
- You are no writer.
- You don't even know the Bible like we do.

- He didn't choose you.
- You are insane.
- You conjure darkness to shed light.
- Give up now as you will be in hell soon.

At times, fear then settles in as a result of these bold-faced lies. Oh Father, I then avoid You. I do this even when You do the following to comfort me (a partial list at that):

- You continue to be faithful and true.
- You speak to me tenderly and in love.
- You send miracles and wonders.
- You seek me and pursue me even when I run from You.
- You provide for me daily and never stop.
- You allow my humility so that I come back to You.
- You hold me and place my feet on a firm foundation of love.
- You continue to be the solid rock of security in Your promises.

Oh Lord, thank You for keeping my heart fixed on You. In my discouragement, I ran to hide from You. Even then, You turned and removed my troubles and left me with blessings. I then offer You a blessing in return. Oh Father, I am so sorry for ever doubting my place with You.

As for Spurgeon, he makes a note about a father who had prayed many years for his sons and daughters. However, they then became worldly instead. His time came to die and he gathered his children around his bed. He had hoped to bear such a witness for Christ that he would be blessed to witness their conversions. Instead, he became deeply distressed and started to doubt his own interest in Christ.

As he lay dying, he became unhappy. Above all, his worst fear of his mind was that his distress would be seen by his children and cause them to be against God. After dying, he was buried and his children came to his funeral. God heard the man's prayer that day for, as they went away from the grave, they talked quietly amongst themselves…

1st brother: "Brother, our father died a most unhappy death."

2nd brother: "He did, brother. I was very astonished at it for I never knew a better man than our father."

1st brother: "If a holy man such as our father found it a hard thing to die, it will be a dreadful thing for us who have no faith when our time comes."

After this, all of the children of this man were saved. His prayers were heard and answered by God in a miraculous way. Oh Father, please help us and comfort us. We pray and believe for impossible things. We ask for miracles when the world provides nothing for us. I had a couple of dreams last night…

Sub-Dream 1 "Fleeing Danger in Oregon" begins…

I was younger and had my younger son and my daughter with me. We were in the middle of some emergency that had just hit Portland OR. We were traveling west on Beaverton Hillsdale Highway. When we reached Hillsboro, I decided we needed to turn left on a side road into an undeveloped area.

The first turn was a road that went from paved to gravel to dirt. It then kept narrowing. I knew this was a dead-end, so we turned the car around. Another road required us to abandon our vehicle and travel on foot. I knew that this too was a trap because we had safety while staying with our car. Our car had a safe cover, provisions and a full tank of gas. We decided to go back to our familiar routes.

I took several roads south to get to Newberg, Dundee and areas far from the trouble. I instinctively knew we had to get east, but not to go to the coast. I then remembered the Capital Highway from somewhere. We would travel to Salem and go east over the Santiam Pass. I then noticed that my gas gauge was always reading full. It never dropped.

My daughter: "Mom, you won't believe what is in this cooler."

My younger son: "Wow, mom, this food is incredible."

As we drove and looked behind us, we could see that the I-5 was full. No vehicles were going east… only north, south and west. Even though we had been eating and drinking, our bodies never needed to stop at a rest stop. It appeared that the Lord did not want us to stop driving no matter what. We arrived home at dawn. We were relieved to be safe and back at home.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

In this dream, I did not actually see our home. Father, thank You for this divine rescue dream. Is this dream a dream of things to come? I then had a second dream last night.

Sub-Dream 2 "Trusting the scorpion with my son" begins…

I was in a dimly lit room. In reality, I was now in total darkness. While I rarely dream of my greatest enemy at all, he was there in this room with me. In this room, he was gathering my son's belongings together to leave for good. While I was so upset, I didn't let my emotions show.

Enemy: "If you commit yourself back to me, I will not harm any of your children. If you do this, I promise not to hurt your (older) son."

Me: "But what if I say no? I am happily married to my husband."

Enemy: "This has nothing to do with marriage. I am asking for your commitment and loyalty to me in exchange for the safety of our children."

Me: "So wait… are you saying they won't be safe if I don't?"

Enemy: "Do you want to test me?"

Me: "Give me the suitcases. I am taking him back home."

Enemy: "It is too late. The tickets are booked. Sorry about your stupidity. Haven't you had enough of the scorpion and the frog scenario?" He began to laugh at me. "How many times will you be so stupid?"

Me: "Not this time. God is with me!"

In my dream, I then did something so unbelievable. However, I can't recall it now nor even a thing about it. I only saw the ending of it. I saw my enemy then shrink with fear and trembling.

Enemy: Now pushing my older son towards me. "Here, you can take him home."

While I couldn't see what was doing this, something then took him on both sides and threw him outside. My son then hugged me. We gathered his things up for him to come home. His trip had now been canceled by God.

Sub-Dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, my son has changed his mind and now wants to go out west to be with his father again. This does not sit right with me. He is scheduled to leave in early October to go with his dad. I believe that this is a bad idea. Please go before my son and take care of him in all he does."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Remember that your children are Mine. Fear not for I have redeemed them. No arrows formed against them shall prosper. My favor is not on your enemy. He claims to know your son better than he knows himself. This is a reptilian tactic.

"What he means by this is that he believes, based on patterns, based on things common to young adult men or based on his own wicked thoughts and actions, that he knows and understands. However, these are really based on knowledge of past sins."

Me: "But, Lord, my son has not seen his father in nine years. He is the child who confronted him. He was then told by the enemy that he would know the truth one day."

Jesus: "No. This is a lie. You have always been truthful with your children with what had occurred. This is because it aligned with what they had directly experienced for themselves. They eventually drew their own conclusions based on personal experience. The scorpion was consistent and you held your tongue as I instructed.

"Your children remain where you are. As for your (older) son, he has not been well. He is sad and weary. However, he will one day be healed. Times have been difficult, so, in desperation and to feel better, he has agreed to travel with the scorpion."

Me: "I can do nothing, Lord. I have stated my case. So has his brother and sister. However, he still…"

Jesus: "Stop! I will handle all of this. I will expose evil plots and I will stop your enemy's assignments. I have allowed your son to forget the former things. However, he will now remember. Nothing has changed… only time."

Me: "Doesn't time heal?"

Jesus: "A wound, yes, but this is different. Think of it like this… an open gaping wound that is left over time becomes infected. The infection of the blood then goes to the heart of the matter. Infection causes an open wound to fester. To the children of God, the fruits of the spirit are on display. Because of these, wounds are healed and forgiveness replaces anger. Even though scars remain, hearts are healed and love overcomes all of it.

"The Holy Spirit seals off a gaping wound and makes all things brand new. Time replaces bad thoughts. Your son is simple. He is but a youth in his thinking.He is easily excited and happy and just as easily sad and disappointed. He calls out to Me and I am here, but he wants his wants to be the same as his needs and they are not. He keeps stepping ahead of wise counsel."

Me: "Oh Lord, the wait has been so long. All of our children are struggling now. Please help us, Lord. Please help us to provide a way so we can let my son swim in safe waters."

Jesus: "I will do this. I promise you, Erin. Be anxious for nothing.

"Now, when you go to the land I am sending you (Bend OR), do not be afraid of the giants you see. I promised you a home here years ago and this has not been removed. See the good. Walk your former places and pray. You will be blessed beyond measure.

"As for your sons and daughters, I know that they are discouraged. While they doubt their places, I do not. I have a great plan. In the book you read, what have you made note of?"

Me: "The ravens. I was laughing because I had once hated crows. Well, we now have a whole family here who watch over our yard. I feed them. They are very clever birds. I was reading about them last night while I sat outside and prayed after dinner…

Psalm 147:9: "He gives to the beast his food and to the young ravens that cry."

Luke 12:24: "Consider the ravens; for they neither sew nor reap; which neither have storehouses nor barn; and God feeds them: How much more are you better than the fowls?"

"Well, Lord, since You hear the young ravens, will You not also hear me? The ravens are considered to be unclean birds and they make horrible noises. Despite this, you still care for them. In general, these ravens are quite unliked by the world. I too at one time wanted them all erased. This was before I lived near them and came to like them. They had seemed to be such a useless creation.

"However, and according to Your Word, 'Consider the Ravens!' You care for them. I love this. When we cry out, we have a divine warrant from divine exhortations to approach the Throne of God in prayer. Even so, ravens are nowhere commanded to cry. Their petition is unwarranted by any specific exhortation from the divine mouth.

"This illustration from Spurgeon was brilliant. If a rich man would open his house to those who were not invited, he would surely receive those who were invited. Ravens come without being invited, yet they are not sent away empty. In contrast, we are Your invited guests!"

Jesus: "Erin, there are many parables in your daily walk and all around you. I provide for all living creatures. However, man can still go away hungry for solid food and thirsty for living water. Their flesh can then shrivel and die. Many do not cry out to Me. Many refuse what I have to offer them."

Me: "Psalm 37…"

Jesus: "Erin, if only My people would read just this one chapter (Psalm 37) and believe Me for these promises, they would know Me and never need for anything."

Me: "The following translation really hit home for me (that is, Psalm 37 from The Passion Translation). Thank You for this…

1Don't follow after the wicked ones or be jealous of their wealth. Don't think for a moment they're better off than you. 2They and their short-lived success will soon shrivel up and quickly fade away, like grass clippings in the hot sun. 3Keep trusting in the Lord and do what is right in His eyes. Fix your heart on the promises of God, and you will dwell in the land, feasting on His faithfulness. 4Find your delight and true pleasure in Yahweh, and He will give you what you desire the most. 5Give God the right to direct your life, and as you trust Him along the way, you'll find He pulled it off perfectly! 6He will appear as your righteousness, as sure as the dawning of a new day. He will manifest as your justice, as sure and strong as the noonday sun. 7Quiet your heart in His presence and wait patiently for Yahweh. And don't think for a moment that the wicked, in their prosperity, are better off than you. 8Stay away from anger and revenge. Keep envy far from you, for it only leads you into lies.

9For one day the wicked will be destroyed, but those who trust in the Lord will inherit the land. 10Just a little while longer and the ungodly will vanish; you will look for them in vain. 11But the humble of heart will inherit every promise and enjoy abundant peace. 12Let the wicked keep plotting against the godly with all their sneers and arrogant jeers. 13God laughs at the wicked and their plans, for He knows their day is coming! 14Evil ones take aim at the poor and helpless; they are ready to slaughter those who do right. 15But the Lord will turn all their weapons of wickedness back on themselves, piercing their pride-filled hearts until they are helpless. 16It is much better to have little combined with much of God than to have the fabulous wealth of the wicked and nothing else.

17For the Lord takes care of all his forgiven ones while the strength of evil men will surely slip away. 18Day by day the Lord watches the good deeds of the godly, and He prepares for them His forever-reward. 19Even in a time of disaster He will watch over them, and they will always have more than enough no matter what happens. 20All the enemies of God will perish. For the wicked have only a momentary value, a fading glory. Then one day they vanish! Here today, gone tomorrow. 21They break their promises, borrowing money but never paying it back. The good man returns what he owes with some extra besides. 22Yahweh's blessed ones receive the land, but the cursed ones will be cut off with nothing to show for themselves. 23When Yahweh delights in how you live your life, he establishes your every step. 24If they stumble badly they will still survive, for the Lord lifts them up with His hands.

25I was once inexperienced, but now I'm old. Not once have I found a lover of God forsaken by Him, nor have any of their children gone hungry. 26Instead, I've found the godly ones to be the generous ones who give freely to others. Their children are blessed and become a blessing. 27If you truly want to dwell forever in God's presence, forsake evil and do what is right in His eyes. 28The Lord loves it when He sees us walking in His justice. He will never desert His devoted lovers; they will be kept forever in His faithful care, but the descendants of the wicked will be banished. 29The faithful lovers of God will inherit the earth and enjoy every promise of God's care, dwelling in peace forever. 30God-lovers make the best counselors. Their words possess wisdom and are right and trustworthy. 31The ways of God are in their hearts and they won't swerve from the paths of steadfast righteousness. 32Evil ones spy on the godly ones, stalking them to find something they could use to accuse them. They're out for the kill!

33But God will foil all their plots. The godly will not stand condemned when brought to trial. 34So don't be impatient for Yahweh to act; keep moving forward steadily in His ways, and He will exalt you to possess the land. You'll watch with your own eyes and see the wicked lose everything. 35I've already seen this happen. Once I saw a wicked and violent man overpower all who were around him, a domineering tyrant with his prideful and oppressive ways. 36Then he died and was forgotten. Now no one cares that he is gone forever. 37But you can tell who are the blameless and spiritually mature. What a different story with them! The godly ones will have a peaceful, prosperous future with a happy ending. 38Every evil sinner will be destroyed, obliterated. They'll be utter failures with no future! 39But the Lord will be the Savior of all who love Him. Even in their time of trouble, God will live in them as strength. 40Because of their faith in Him, their daily portion will be a Father's help and deliverance from evil. This is true for all who turn to hide themselves in Him!

Jesus: "What does this mean to you?"

Me: "This appears to be Your order for the transformed of God. This is the warrant of the promises from You. To me, this reads like a manifesto!"

Jesus: "This is good food for My Elect. Now rejoice, Erin, for I send good gifts to those whose hope is in Me. Do not worry! I love you!"

Dream over…

726 – God's Wrath is Soon to Come

Received on Monday, September 4, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You all we have… our families, our friends and, most of all, You. Without You, we are truly captives of this world. I had quite a dream last night…

Sub-Dream 1 "God's Wrath is soon to come" begins…

We lived in a raised-up valley that gradually dipped into a body of water. I was looking over a meadow even though it could have been even closer to being a lowland. There was a home on this wet meadow. To the left and to the right of us were two mountains with beautiful trees. Where we lived, people liked to visit. However, there were very few permanent residents.

I then received a knock on our door. There was a server / barrister at the door. He was holding papers and a key.

Barrister: "Are you Erin _____?"

Me: "Yes, I am."

Barrister: "The home in the meadow before you is now yours. Please sign here that you acknowledge my service and you accept the home, the property and its contents."

Me: "What? Why would anyone just give this to me?"

Barrister: "Here is the title, the deed and some more information. The value of the assessed property is almost $1 million. The owners want you to have it."

Me: "I don't understand?"

Barrister: "Here are the keys, as well as the codes to the security system. There is also a key to a safety deposit box that contains other valuable documents and letters, as well as a few other items."

Me: "Where did the owners go?"

Barrister: "While they own several properties, this one was special to them as God was there with them."

Me: "Are they still alive?"

Barrister: "Yes. However, they want to remain anonymous. Congratulations, Miss Erin!"

I was now in complete shock. I phoned the county title office stated on the paperwork. Sure enough, only my name was now on the Transfer of Title. I was surprised that all had been verified. With this, I decided to walk down the gravel road to the meadow house. It was lovely. It was all white with a beautiful porch. I walked up to the door and unlocked it. As the alarm was set, I entered the security code.

I then looked around and was in complete shock. I expected a rundown house with bad 70s furniture, complete with cobwebs. Instead, it was decorated like it could be in a design magazine. It was better than I ever imagined this house would look like. It had always been behind some trees, so I never paid much attention to it.

As I walked around, I noticed that the house had now been lifted up onto a more solid foundation. It was no longer in a wet meadow / wetlands area. I walked out to the back porch. There was a wonderful chair with cushions. It did not look like an outdoor chair. There was a card there…

Sit down here, Erin!

I laughed to myself. I sat in the chair and thanked God for such a gift. I could now see more clearly. The water contained a large rock that looked familiar. Why had I not seen any of this from our home before? In fall, the entire view was different. I suddenly smelled the pines of Lake Tahoe. Was this on Lake Tahoe?

I got up and walked to the end of the deck / porch. I then peeked behind the house at our home and it was there. I am not sure how I didn't see this property before. I couldn't wait to show Jeff and our kids this place.

I walked back and sat in the cushioned chair. It was the perfect temperature outside. The fragrant pine smell and the warmth of the sun brought me peace. I must have fallen asleep as I then found myself awakened by an angel of the Lord.

Angel: Smiling at me. "Erin, God has something to show you. Come!"

Me: "Where is Uriel?"

Angel: "He is in the presence of the Lord God at His Altar. I am also an angel of God's Presence. However, my name doesn't matter."

He reached for my hand and we were immediately up on God's Mountain / the Mountain of God's Presence. We were in the Courtyards of His Courts. There was so much activity. Multitudes of angels were training and receiving assignments. I saw one army that was named something that I didn't understand.

Me: "Who are they?"

Angel: "This army of God are the angels of the storms. Over here are the angels of the seas. And these over here are the angels of the skies. These all work together. Over here are the angels of the shaking. They shake the lands, the nations. These are God's Great Army of humbling and humility over all things. Their assignment is to turn man to God and not to turn man to man."

Me: "When will this all be?"

Angel: "It is ongoing. These armies work constantly under God's command. The enemy's armies have weaponized man against God's Laws. He does this so man looks, not to God in humility, but to the children of God to lay blame. This is an intense war as man is weaponized against God. Instead of offering up allegiance to God's Altar of Holiness, he offers up allegiance to the enemy's decrepit altars. However, you must know and understand that the same wrath that was sent by warrant to Nineveh is soon to come to this wicked generation."

Me: "Oh angel, is there anything that can be done?" I was then called to read a section of Nahum that speaks about God's wrath against Nineveh. "Oh wow, these armies are preparing together to send great calamities soon."

Angel: "You are correct. However, there is even more to this. Come!"

He took me to the overlook where I could see the heavenlies. Once there, I could see an army of angels who had charge over the stars, the sun and the moon. I could see them working on various alignments that I did not understand.

Me: "What is this?"

Angel: "THE DAY! Erin, the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord is about to come. This will be a day of darkness and despair."

Me: "Please stop this!"

Angel: "This has to happen in order to fulfill the Words of the Prophets. It is because of the increase in evil that has spread. This evil now even surpasses Sodom and Gomorrah. While that was a vile time, it is nothing like these current times. Evil practices of altar sacrifices and children being tortured are not of God. Now see this…"

He showed me a massive festival. It looked like a city from up here. I chuckled as it almost seemed like a map of the Death Star from Star Wars. It was in the desert.

Me: "Is this 'Burning Man'?"

Angel: "God has no part in this. It is a mockery by the fallen angels to God and His Army. By these fallen angels manipulating man to sin without repentance, they know that man will then burn in the same fire as they will. God sent His Army to bring torrential rain and mud to the desert as a sign against the evil spirits that God is God over all things and that He is Holy. This thwarted their ceremonies and their unholy alliances and worship. These same evil spirits are now confining and tormenting these mud dwellers and the stench of excrement is now over the area."

Me: "All of this seems like such a weird movement."

Angel: "Well, God sent streams in the desert and, instead of looking at themselves and humbling themselves, they sent curses to God with their lips. However, this is just one warrant given by God. Many more are coming upon the lands."

Me: "Is there anything that those who love the Lord God can do? Many of us are becoming so discouraged."

Angel: "Erin, you have been shown just a small portion of God's wrath soon to come. This war is ongoing. This is the time of the Days of Awe. Be careful to observe His Feasts… this time more than any other.

"Now rejoice. God is good and He has great love for His children. Take these days and be obedient to His Voice. Repent and do good and God will reward you the likes of which you haven't even conceived in your imagination. He is over all things. Rejoice!

"Oh yes… He hasn't even revealed all that He has planned for His saints. The sons of Jacob were only a foreshadow of what is soon to come."

The angel squeezed my hand. I then woke up in the new chair at the house that I didn't know existed.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

This was quite a vivid dream! Thank You, Father, for all of this!

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-727/

727 – BRACE FOR IMPACT

Received on Wednesday, September 6, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Sometimes with dreams, I receive only bits and pieces of a larger picture. Please clarify all I see. This morning, I woke to three very loud words…

BRACE FOR IMPACT

This was just after I had a very vivid dream…

Sub-Dream 1 "BRACE FOR IMPACT"

I was somewhere I did not recognize. I heard three interpreters. Two of the interpreters were official ones. As for the third interpreter, he was a verifier, also called a 'cup bearer'. I did not know the languages being spoken other than suspecting they were eastern in nature. One seemed like Russian. The other two were different.

The 1st Leader was boasting about owning the nations of the world. This leader was speaking remotely. He stated his great accomplishments, all due to the stupidity of the USA. This 1st Leader stated that he had done the following:

- Paid off all surrounding countries to the south.
- Claimed power in the seas.
- Purchased lands.
- Poisoned the young fighting men.
- Penetrated military bases of the mainland, as well as of the ally to the north.
- Created punitive accusations in social media to attack children.
- Used social media to cause race wars and to divide and weaken.
- Set up a parody President owned by the party to destroy the military, the government and the laws.
- Plundered military powers.

- Purchased seized guns through shadow organizations owned by the military.
- Disarmed citizens.
- Removed the privacy of the citizens by purchasing sensitive information.
- Purchased debts via banking partnerships.

2nd Leader: "They are spending themselves dry militarily on the war. All of that money in proxy accounts can be used to weaponize against them. With them now weakened in this manner, it will now be easy to remove them."

3rd Leader: "Yes! We have the capability and we have a great plan."

1st Leader: "Even though they are expecting you, they still laugh at you. You take the first shots and we will then pretend to help them. We already have an army inside their borders. We will then control the power grid, water supplies, information and food supplies. Hospitals will be closed and fenced. It will be quick. We have the waterways of the Gulf, the south, the east, the west and have full access through the north."

2nd Leader: "We can help by attacking the country to the north as well. However, we would need to do this before the winter."

I then saw a flash of light. The plans of the enemy were then suddenly placed on hold. While this was a surprise to them, I was not sure exactly what this surprise was.

2nd Leader: "What happened? I thought this President was really yours."

1st Leader: "He is! This is unprecedented. We must strike now."

I then woke up with the words, 'BRACE FOR IMPACT'…

Sub-Dream 1 over.

When I was making the bed later on that morning, I pleaded with the Lord.

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop them! We need more time! Please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Come to Me."

Me: "Here I am, Lord. What is going to happen?"

Jesus: "I am with you. Do not worry. The enemies that surround the USA and Israel plot to destroy them. Instead of making their own countries better, they find the destruction of God's lands more satisfying. They then plot in the north and in the east. I will send angel armies from on high.

"Now, the leader in power by proxy is now more evil than all of the kings of Israel combined… even Ahab. At least Ahab submitted to God at times. As for this President, he only submits to evil. The leaders in power have been confused by the hand of God. Their weakness and their evils are on full display. Is it not written that this would be a war unlike any other?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "The nation once dedicated to God has fallen from grace. Even worse, it is defiling all that was holy and set apart. What foolishness of the leaders to allow the enemy to become so wealthy. They even allowed the enemy to purchase fields of fruit trees, wheat and corn. They then allowed them to build fortress factories. They continue to allow spies in from the south, north, east and west. They are thieves of the highest order. They even change My Word and publish it."

Me: "Is there anything we can do to stop this, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes. Pray. Erin, pray! Pray for the lost. These evil leaders have destroyed and partitioned off the nation dedicated to God. This President is a goat. He is shallow. His name means what he is."

Me: "His name could either mean 'button maker' or 'shadow valley'."

Jesus: "Shadow is closer as all evil operates in darkness. If only My people would turn to see the judgment that has fallen upon the nation. If they did, they would humble themselves and turn back their faces to Me."

Me: "Lord, You said by Your own words that this man operates in the shadows, in the dark, in a dark valley. How can Your children stop what is in darkness when it is hidden from us? Since You are God, You see what is in darkness. We can't do this. If we are to focus on lovely things and Your promises as You command us to, how can we then also focus on the plans of the enemy, especially since You, Lord, along with Your angel armies, are much greater than any plans hatched in darkness?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, you make a good case! I have told you to stay vigilant and watchful. The news you hear now is mostly lies. I have told you to pray instead. Erin, keep your focus on Me."

Me: "Lord, I kept hearing emphasis on the words 'BRACE FOR IMPACT'! Should we expect a nuclear attack soon?"

Jesus: "The idea of the 1st Leader (in the sub-dream) is to keep the land beautiful and to then occupy it for himself. As for the other two of the three leaders, they want it destroyed. The nations surrounding Israel also want it destroyed. As for the main leader in opposition to the other two leaders, he wants to take captive slaves and to kill the weak, infirm, elderly and young. They plan to take the entire nation, as well as the entire lands to the north and the south. By controlling money, they can displace all the peoples from their homes and pillage their wealth. They can then claim their lands."

Me: "Stop them! Oh please, Lord, stop them! You still have millions of believers here. So many of us still love You with all of our hearts."

Jesus: "Do not worry. Erin, I am here and I am with you. Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world."

Me: "I am scared, Lord. My children will be forced into war if this happens before winter."

Jesus: "Calm down. Erin, calm down. Many are the plots of the wicked. However, God's plans are greater. Remember that the harvest is coming. Praise God for He is worthy and over all you see."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-728/

728 – A False Crown for a False King

Received on Friday, September 8, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another glorious day here! While things here are no paradise, they keep our eyes looking up to an eternity with You. My husband and I are to travel soon. The most difficult thing about traveling is leaving our kids. Drama is mostly non-existent here unless we are away.

The enemy enjoys when I am unable to enjoy rest or even sleep. This time has been no different as all kinds of issues have emerged. I give these to You, Father, as all we have is for Your Glory and not necessarily for our personal comfort. A huge storm came last night. This was not a surprise as it has been unusually hot and humid the last several days here.

As for last night, our entire area was pounded by one long six-hour storm. The thunder was deafening and woke up everybody in the house. The lightning strikes literally lit up the skies for minutes at a time. I have never experienced a storm that simply hovered there without moving. While my husband slept through a lot of it, I struggled.

Our circuit breakers tripped several times during the storm. One clap of thunder literally sounded like You were splitting the skies open. The rumble started from down the valley and then came right to the house. As the rumble hit us, the skies lit up yet again. I was terrified. I started to pray. This was roughly three hours in at around 2:30 am.

As for earlier that day, I had quite an argument with my older son. You then reminded me that he truly has no understanding, that You allowed for this for a specific reason and that it is me who is able to change given that his autism does not change. Yes, I know that I must change until You make supernatural changes with him.

Even though I am normally patient with him, I still got quite angry. I then repented for my loss of faculties enabling my patience to take a vacation for 45 minutes. I then had to separate myself before saying things that I couldn’t take back. Unyielding words are like spilling water from a cup. Only God can reverse, heal and fill our empty cups.

Overall, it was a rough day for me, wherein this day was later capped by the huge storm above me. This all was an extremely humbling day for me. I now understand what they mean by 'peels of thunder', as well as 'the splitting of the skies'. The rumbling shook the ground itself and the sky lit up like it was day. I certainly had no power to do anything about it. I just prayed. I then heard Your voice…

Jesus: "Erin, I have you. There is an epic battle over you. I have already showed you the armies of angels."

Me: "But, Lord, this storm isn't stopping. It isn't moving through. It continues."

Jesus: "Picture an inverted valley above you."

Me: "Oh… wars in the heavenlies."

Jesus: "Yes. The weather scientist will then explain things away. However, I told you that I am in the storm. As for you and your household, nothing was harmed. You are fine."

After dialoguing some more with the Lord, I fell back to sleep. However, I was shaken up by one last overhead thunderous crack that shut off our breaker. Both of us then woke up again and now it was 4:00am. My heart pounded. Our little dog, Snigglet, ran up to us and was shaking so hard that it was difficult to comfort her. After about 20 more minutes, I fell asleep again and had a dream. This dream was very clear…

Sub-Dream 1 "A False Crown for a False King" begins...

I observed about twelve children in a library. They were ages 5, 6 and 7 years old. They were all in a story time area on pillows crisscross in a circle. Even though the cart was already there, the 'Storyteller' had not yet arrived. Among other items, the cart had at least 50 or more crowns on display. The librarian then placed each of the crowns in the center of a circle.

Librarian: "Each of you can try on as many of the crowns as you would like."

I was astonished as I even recognized some of the crowns. One of the crowns had been on Queen Elizabeth's casket during her funeral procession. There were other priceless crowns, but there were also some that were not as valuable. Altogether, the crowns were easily worth tens of millions of dollars. The children were so cute trying on these huge crowns. Almost all of the crowns were too big for their heads.

Librarian: "Okay, Children, please place the crowns back in the center of the circle. The Storyteller has now arrived."

It was the former President (not Trump). He came and sat at a large chair set up for him. Once he sat, he looked down at the children…

Storyteller: "Hello, children. Who liked placing the crowns on your heads?"

A few of the kids raised their hands: "Me, me! I love these! They are pretty."

One of the boys: "They are too big for my head."

Storyteller: "That's right. They are too big for you. They don't fit you because you are pretenders. You are not kings, queens, princes or princesses. All of you are just kids. You will never wear a crown."

One of the girls: "But we will receive a crown when Jesus comes!"

Storyteller: "Well, look around you. There is no Jesus here passing out crowns." The girl then looked sad. "However, I am here now."

He then placed a crown on his own head, a crown unlike any that I have ever seen before. It had many spires and each was encrusted with valuable jewels. The crown was large and I somehow knew that it once belonged to a prominent king in history.

Storyteller: "Okay, so now what do you see?"

Little girl: "I see the crown of a king."

The Storyteller seemed pleased with her answer. However, this didn't last long.

Little boy: "But you're playing dress up too. You're a pretender."

A different little boy: "Yeah! You are just a pretend king."

Storyteller: "Well, here is the difference…"

He then paused to wave to the librarian and her helpers to bring some snacks. They began to place some sort of dessert in a circle between the children and the crowns. It looked like pecan pie or something similar. It didn't look tasty. They were each wrapped in plastic wrap and served to the children on paper plates.

Storyteller: "The difference is that none of you… not one… will ever wear one of these crowns. This is because you are not worthy. They aren't yours. As for me, I can take this crown off or I can wear it, but, no matter what, I am still king. As for you, and no matter how hard you try, you will always just be pretenders."

Little boy: "You don't even look like a king."

Storyteller: "Well, you definitely don't. Regardless, I am still king over all of you. I am king over all that you see. As for all of those crowns here…" He pointed to the crowns and sneered. "…I own all of them. They are all mine." The kids were now beginning to get scared. "Now eat your snack."

Little girl: "I don't like that pie."

Little boy: "Yuck! This looks gross."

Storyteller: "Now do you see why you can never be kings, queens, princes or princesses? You don't obey orders."

He then nodded his head toward some special ops to the side and addressed them.

Storyteller: "Okay, it is time to show these kids that I am truly king. Throw them off the cliff immediately."

This was horrible and unexpected! The parents had entrusted their children to the Storyteller. As they walked towards the cliff, the kids started to scream and cry. There was a wooden pier jutting off the cliff. There was a very long fall into the ocean from the end of this pier. The children were to be thrown off the pier into the ocean like garbage.

Just as the kids were being led to the end of the pier, a portal suddenly opened in the sky. There was Jesus wearing His Crown. He was there to gather the children.

Storyteller: "Curse You! Curse You!"

Jesus gave the Storyteller a stern look. He then gathered the children to Him in the portal.

Jesus: To the children: "Okay, children, time to smile and wave at the bad man!"

They all smiled and waved at the Storyteller just as Jesus told them to. The Storyteller now had an even greater rage. The portal then closed up. All the children had been safely removed from the Storyteller's evil grasp of death.

Sub-Dream 1 over.

Father, this dream was so vivid. There was no mistaking any elements of it. It was very clear. Father, please help us. Things are becoming very scary now. There are quite a few sick people all around us in town. There is so much talk of masks and new vaccines. Please stop all of this. Oh Father, we love freedom without fear.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid for I am in you. Do not be dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with My Righteous Hand. You are My Bride in Gold of Ophir. I sit at the righthand of My Father. You are a princess and will wear a crown. The enemy cannot strip you of your title even though he tries.

"Since I am at God's righthand, I have been given power and authority. This means I am over and above all principalities, authorities, powers and dominions, as well as all other names. I am over and above them all, both in this world and in the next. I then have the power to subdue My enemies. By the authority of God and His Word, I am seen seated in Heaven next to My Father. Due to My position in Heaven, I am in power with authority.

"Now, your dream… there is no majesty in having children harmed or declaring they will wear no crowns. I see the end from the beginning. As such, be ensured that My justice will therefore be swift and clear concerning the wicked. As for anyone who causes one of My children who believes in Me to sin, it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be thrown into the depths of the sea.

"Now, the enemy cannot strip one of Mine from Me. He cannot strip titles nor can he determine a man's day. Why? Because he does not have eternal authority. He can only lie, discourage and threaten. Hoping for destruction is not an act of redemption. I redeem. I save. I carry. I remove sin. I love unconditionally. I promise good things. I deliver an eternal Home in Paradise. I crown the saints.

"As for the enemy, he tries to remove by stealing authority. However, here is the good news… when I offered up My Spirit on the Cross, I took with Me the keys to unlock those held captive. I took away the power of death. The victory is Mine. The enemy thought he had taken My life, but I instead offered up My life. As such, he does not have the authority."

Me: "I kind of understand. It is simple, yet quite complex as well."

Jesus: "Right now, you are experiencing the war of the enemy and his armies against the saints, the children of God."

Me: "Oh Lord, please don't allow him to conquer all of us. Please step in and turn this around. Please make footstools of the enemies of Your Kingdom."

Jesus: "Do not be afraid as I am with you. I am mighty to save. The children reside here with Me. Their crowns fit. They aren't pretending. They are custom made for each one. Each one is special to the King. Do not worry as I am here and I am with you.

"I am the God of the watches of the night and day. I am the God over the skies, the land, the sea, the storms and the waters. I am with you. You are Mine. I have a Great Plan and the enemy will not even expect what is coming. Now rejoice, Erin, for I love you. You are the daughter of the King."

Dream over.

729 – Hearts to be healed

Received on Wednesday, September 13, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! What a beautiful place this is. This is a place You made. It is the place of my heart. People are happy and courteous here. They smile. We smile. It is safe here. People ask us if we need help. All are offering us conversation. We are treated with kindness and joy.

The grocery stores have fully stocked shelves. We couldn't believe what was available to eat. Food is much less expensive and there is no sales tax. Restaurants have friendly staff and offer an abundance of choices. Portions are large. Food is fresh and the taste is perfect. We have been limiting our food intake to two meals per day.

My report is so good, Father. It is much better than I remember it ever being before. When I lived here years ago, I was ill. My dreams personally were much greater than my physical abilities. I was broken here. I lost everything here. My pain was great here. I was rejected and reduced here.

My children were with me and we struggled financially. We moved from home to home as builders after one year of renting a new home they could save the taxes by selling after renting. While we were offered to purchase a few of them, I could never qualify for a home loan.

I was stupid here. I made bad decisions because I was in shock at the extreme broken state I was in. Oh Father, I was in such denial. I couldn't believe all that was happening to us. We were walking through a heavily guarded minefield. We couldn't find relief, even in the foxholes.

Those around us who once sympathized for us turned on us. I had very few who knew the truth about what had happened to us and they stood for us when others turned. Still, I was losing heart here. I lost myself here. I died to my hopes and dreams.

I was barely hireable because the schools kept calling me out of work for the boys. I went from a producing worker to a slave then a liability. It is painful to be here to relive the pain. Still, amid all that pain, we loved it here. We had so many adventures here.

There was so much we could do for free. It was so much fun. It sometimes masked that we were all slaves. It was so difficult. While the courts and the system should have favored me as the victim, my enemy's money made him superior. He essentially had unlimited resources. I couldn't do anything to stop them.

We were eventually driven out. I needed work to care for my household. This led to my slavery in the desert. I was underpaid and overworked. That was 14 years ago. It was beyond painful.

Well, Father, here I am. My husband is with me again. You called me back here to report to You our findings. It is beautiful. It would be a wonderful place for all of us. However, the giants are here and are among us. The giants are the homes. They are beyond our abilities.

Well, Father, You are over all things, including over the land and homes. You have said we have a home here. We both believe You will deliver one to us. You even said it would be greater than we could ever imagine.

Oh Lord, we give everything to You. As we drive around, I cry. It is amazing. I know that, one day, all we see will come to an end. In the meantime, we will live in joy, knowing You are our wonderful Father and the Maker of Heaven and Earth. Bless You!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I never forgot your tears there and your brokenness. The enemy pushed you out and made you believe you were worthy of nothing. However, I see and I am God over all things. It is I who delights in you, not in your perfection as you have lack.

"However, this matters not as I see your desires to do My Will, the God who sent you. Erin, I know full well the cost of all things. I know the enemy profited over your demise, as did so many over your small wages. You were bankrupt and broken, deserted and your children abused and abandoned by the evil gains of the wicked.

"Well, Erin, I delivered you from everyone. I was there. I never forgot it. Instead of your bitterness in your brokenness, you came to Me and Me alone to bind up your brokenness. You then taught your children to forgive those who continued to harm you.

"You then prayed together. I heard it and saw you. I was there. You told your children to forgive them because they didn't have Me and that God would one day turn from them. You told them not to forget what they did as no one could forget what they did. You then told them that time will remove the memory of the evil stuff sometimes. Well, Erin, do you remember this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. It was so painful. I was so broken. I was so broken that my heart began to fail me. All that mattered to me is life with my children and laughter one day."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, this place is your home. It is a place where you will no longer be a footstool for the wicked who profited off of your work."

Me: "I love You, Lord. Will this be now or when the New Earth is formed?"

Jesus: "Hmm. Perhaps both. What does it matter now other than I have promised you good things all the days of your life. As for today, imagine the places you will go, but not as a traveler, but instead as a resident. Begin to plan as if all had already been done as I have promised you. What have you thought of?"

Me: "Perhaps a local phone or a P.O. Box. Perhaps see what opportunities are here for our kids."

Jesus: "While you could do these, how about instead continuing today to roam around and write down your favorite places? This is good for today. Do not feel guilty for this.

"Remember this… if an evil man gains the profits of God's land and continues to prosper there, then what is it for My Bride, the Daughter of the King, to hold a residence in the land I promised her years ago?"

Me: "Well, it just seems evil prospers today. It is fun to imagine a beautiful home here."

Jesus: "Well then, allow Me to work. Don't think small like before because these were modest dwellings imagined from a broken woman who would've taken anything.

"Instead, look at it from My perspective. I am God over all this land. When you see various places, write these down. At the end of the day, bring these before Me and we will discuss these places."

Me: "Okay, Lord. I will bring all of this to You with my husband and we will pray."

Jesus: "Have a great day today. I made this day for you. I love you!"

Dream over.

730 – A Huge Storm heading for home

Received on Thursday, September 14, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for this beautiful place. It is truly a land created by Your hands. The weather has been amazing. Although it is the same as it is normally at home, there is no humidity here. It feels perfect.

In the meantime, we have a freezer at home that needs prayer to keep working. We could lose quite a bit of food if this does not work properly soon. We could use prayer for both our fridge and for the storm rapidly descending on our home.

Father, I am coming to You this morning because of two very clear dreams I had on Sunday, September 10, 2023. I now believe these were a warning of what is coming.

Sub-dream 1 "A bad match for a groom" begins…

I was young in my mid-20s and friends with a young man who expected me to be his bride. However, I had no interest in him that way. To me, we were friends only.

In this, he had taken me to a very large mall. It was his family who owned several very fancy shopping malls throughout the USA. At the one we were at, their office headquarters were attached to it. It was familiar to me as the King of Prussia Mall in Pennsylvania.

While he wanted to introduce me to his family, I was not aware that his intentions were to get his family's approval to take me as his bride. I was not aware of his intentions. When we arrived at these offices, we had to wait in a seated waiting room.

In this room was a strange type of television. The television was tall, on wheels and had some screen all around the unit. We were watching a rom-com movie, but I wasn't interested since I had seen it before.

Finally, his three family members came out to greet us. I could tell that they loved their son. When they saw he had brought a friend, his parents were upset. He then introduced me to the three of them…

Friend: "This is my mother, Kala. This is my father, Kronos. This is my brother, Onos."

I could tell they hated me with an unreasonable amount of hate. While they acted courteous in front of me, I was able to listen them behind closed doors…

Mother, father, brother: "Are you out of your mind? She is not one of us. This can't happen. You have a legacy to fulfill!"

I then realized that my friend wanted more from me. When he came out with them, the mother looked at me with hate and disgust. I stopped her before she could speak…

Me: "I love your son as a friend only. I am already spoken for."

This angered them. They now looked like they wanted to kill me. I heard a large slamming door that woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Warding off a rapist" begins…

I was walking away from my car in a parking lot. None of the cars could start. I couldn't find my husband. It was completely dark except for one parking lot light. I could hear people screaming in terror.

I was wearing something I needed to remove to put on clean garments. Suddenly, a shower stall with a curtain appeared in the parking lot. I quickly went into the shower and cleansed myself. I was safe and naked behind the curtain.

Or so I thought! When I went to grab my fresh, clean garments, I saw a demon possessed man coming towards me to rape me. I yelled at him in my prayer language louder and louder. He still wasn't turning away.

I finally acted crazy as I shouted my prayer language. Something then turned him away. I was free. I yelled so loud in my dream that it woke my husband up in real life.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these dreams were very clear. While I am not sure what the names mean, I knew the specific names from the first dream because they were listed on the office door. The sign was backlit and the names appeared on the light…

- Kala: Strife, black, a moment or measure of time, moon phase, god of time, princess, death.
- Kronos: The youngest of the Titans, to cut, also god of time, to strike.
- Onos: Grief, god of storms and floods, small field.

This dream has been affecting me the last few days. I then had a dream last night that I don't remember all the details of…

Sub-dream 3 "Our home in the storm" begins…

Our home was in the center of the storm. There were high winds. I heard my children's voices…

- Mom, I'm scared.
- Brace for impact.
- Mom, it's totally dark.

I then heard the voice of an angel of the Lord…

Angel: "Batten down the hatches and ride out the storm. We're here!"

I knew it would be okay. I woke up when something hit the outside of the room I was in.

Sub-dream 3 over….

Father, Hurricane Lee is coming our way. We are out here and our children, now young adults, are home alone. Please protect our home.

Please hold back the three very large trees from falling on our home if the storm comes straight to us. There are three storms in the Atlantic right now…

- Lee: Clearing, meadow, clearing in the woods, describes our home in the woods.
- Margot: Might turn and hit our area as well. Pearl, of the sea, comes of the sea, not formed of land.
- Nigel: Black, dark, cloud, champion, dark night.

Father, please watch over our area. Turn these storms out to sea or at least get us home safely so that we can help if there is trouble.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Remember that I am in the storm. I am over all things. You are hated by the gods of this world because you serve the God over all things and eternity. There is a great war in the Heavens right now.

"While you are not to worry, it is wise to prepare as you are able for what is coming. You live in the house I built for you. To prepare for issues that could arise is smart.

"Now, prepare a list for your children to do to your house for this storm. I will also send the angels to watch over you. The storm will batter the area."

Me: "Lord, can you just turn it out to sea or have it change course?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but storms go to where humbling is needed."

Me: "But many Christians are hurt when these occur."

Jesus: "Christians are My witnesses to show My love and compassion. They are hands and feet from My Courts. This life is not a life of full comfort. The times you are in are not enjoyable for most. However, My love abounds.

"Perhaps you need to see in advance of storms how prepared your house is to weather the storms."

Me: "Oh please, Lord, we are absent."

Jesus: "No, you are not! Erin, can you trust Me with your children and your house?"

Me: "Yes, Lord, of course."

Jesus: "Then pray. See if they don't all turn back to Me in this. While they rely heavily on you, they need to know who I am. Let Me carry them. You will be surprised how well their listening skills have been over the years.

"Now, how will they know Me. Erin, you have three with unshakable faith. Now rejoice as I am with you. Continue to enjoy your time there. Your reports have been good. Trust Me for the impossible. I love you!"

Dream over.

731 – The Sign of the Black Widow Spider

Received on Friday, September 22, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for our wonderful trip out west to Bend OR. Had You not instructed us to go, there would be no way we would have gone. As of this morning, I still don't fully understand the reason for the trip other than to give You a good report. I am sure there were many other reasons as well. Some of these could have been about our children, now young adults, remaining at home base.

They first had to prepare for the potential loss of power during Hurricane Lee. They then had to ride this storm out. They took care of everything that we instructed them to. However, all of us were unprepared for the freezer breaking down during the trip. We had so much food stored for meals, as well as ice. This was difficult. Since we have an odd sized space, we won't have a new freezer that actually fits until mid-October.

Our old freezer just couldn't be repaired. While this has been distressing, it is still manageable. While our trip was relaxing, it was also mysterious. Neither of us truly knew what we were there for. However, You told us to go there and walk, so we did. You told us to go here and there and we drove. You then told us to write down what we discovered and pray about it. We did. We then realized how much we loved it there.

We both now want to make it our home there one day. This will have to wait for You though as this is impossible for us in our current situation. The trip was physically difficult for me. I am exhausted. The temperature has dropped here and I am very tired. I have been cleaning up here and realize that I have some work to do with our young adults.

I need to teach them how to care for various things more in case of our absence again or if they move out on their own soon. As I was cleaning the inside of the window jams, my paper towel picked up something moving very quickly. I immediately placed the paper towel on the dining table I grabbed a canning jar and captured it before it could crawl further. To my shock and horror, it was a male black widow spider.

I put the lid tightly on the jar. I haven't had to deal with a black widow since the desert in Washington State. I have never even seen one here. I know we didn't bring it home with us because I could tell from the bug carcasses and the web that it had been here possibly all summer or longer. The good news was this is a male. Still though, Father, this is an epic sign for me and frames major troubles in the future.

When You have had me encounter black widow spiders in the natural, each time it marked two separate problems with two different places of employment soon to come and, sure enough and within three months, troubles came in a shocking way. It always came before a major move away from the status quo. With both of these, I was the victim. In reality, I could do nothing about what was coming my way.

Both times, I found these spiders in carpet sample racks… but in two separate states and in two separate businesses. This was a horrible sign for me when looking back, especially because I knew what had happened behind the scenes to hurt me. All in all, Father, these were the best things even though they were paralyzingly painful at the time.

Another time was outside on the foundations of my greatest blacksmith's house. There was not just one black widow, but at least ten in various webs. I warned all of my children to stay away from them no matter what. I was shocked that he had allowed this as one of his greatest fears is spiders. He claimed he had a pest control person coming. He made good on his word and all of them were gone a week later.

However, shortly after that, I found one outside one of our boy's window in our Richland WA home rental. My landlord had it removed and sprayed. However, at the time, it too was a sign because less than a year later, we were all gone from the Washington State desert to the Land of the Trees out east. This spotting of the black widow spider now to me trumps any of these other signs because it was inside my own home.

Oh Father, please help us. I killed the spider. It is gone now. However, wisdom is proved right by her actions. I pray that I have wisdom. Wisdom is proved right by the actions of her children. I pray that each one has learned and is wise. With me being away all this time, the cat returned, and most of the animals are now gone. The birds also left as there was very little feeding of seeds while we were away.

Still, I believe You will bring them back soon though even though changes are coming. It is a warning. I feel it now. When you are older, change becomes harder. When you have autism like my sons, it is even more difficult. My older son leaves in less than two weeks to go out west.

We need to drive him to Boston MA. Even though I know You have a plan in this, I am still so sad.

As for my stepdaughter, she is now thinking of attending a school far away beginning in January. She is our youngest. My younger son hasn't faired well with all of the changes. While I thought he was the most independent of my two autism spectrum sons, I now realize that he might be the worst at changes. I am concerned as he is quickly spiraling. While he is relieved that we are home, I see genuine fear in him.

People are moving and this isn't sitting well with him. If everyone moves away, then certainly this is too much home for us to manage. I struggle to keep up with cleaning. Without the kids being here, this would be hard for me. Father, please continue to watch over us in all things. The upcoming changes seem so overwhelming that I just can't imagine how this will play out.

Note: Today's dream doesn't even address all of the sub-dreams I have been having lately! Perhaps the Lord will have me bring these up in the future. You just never know with Him as He is such a mystery!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left your home nor have I left your children. I am aware of all things hidden. There is nothing that is a surprise to Me. However, you must not be afraid of this spider. He was undisturbed and content with where he was. He had no cause to search for victims. They came to him. He had plenty.

"Now, consider the wisdom of small creatures. You consider the larger ones and you then view them in wonder. There is an ominous feeling when thinking of a spider, especially a deadly one that is under your roof. However, remember this…

"It taketh hold with hands and is in kings' palaces. She weaves silk threads where she dwells and she dwells even in lofty places such as a king's palace. Her hands toil and take her there. She does the impossible and scales walls. She works hard to spin her web. She never runs ahead. She is steady on her course and finds success.

"Erin, I know what you are thinking now."

Me: "I am thinking about Proverbs 30:28."

Jesus: "There are many spiritual warfare parables in a spider and its web. The venomous spider paralyzes its prey, trapping the unsuspecting in its web prior to devouring it."

Me: "Yes, Lord. This is how I look at it."

Jesus: "It is an obvious sign about this evil generation, a foolish trapping of the unsuspecting in a web of deceit. However, all is not always as it seems."

Me: "Lord, all I know is that has never happened before. We don't see these often around here. It just doesn't seem good."

Jesus: "Not all things are leading to a treacherous ending. First of all, I am here with you. You discovered the problem and quickly removed the threat. It is over. There is no other in your home. It would not have survived long anyway because of the changes in season and your cooling system soon to be removed. It didn't come from your luggage or another way from your hand. It spotted a castle and decided to live with the King. You provided a great light source inside at night. It was simple."

Me: "Do I need to repent? Well, Lord, I will anyway."

Jesus: "I am here. It is always good to have a contrite heart and an upright spirit. This is wisdom. Still, I don't believe I am calling you to repent."

Me: "Lord, the trip felt extravagant at a time when money is a giant for us."

Jesus: "I called you here on faith. I provided for all of it, as well as provision for your freezer. Since you are unable to provide these things without debt to a bank, you are much better to be in debt to Me."

Me: "You are the Lender of my life and I am just a mere borrower."

Jesus: "Well, I am different because I offer high interest in you, with you giving all of your debts to Me. I will pay them. A bank of this world has high interest, yet has no interest in you. This is because it is heartless and wants you to give your whole income to them at a high price. They are now geared to bankrupting the borrower and enslaving them in order to change the landscape."

Me: "But doesn't bankruptcy make it so the bank doesn't even get their money back?"

Jesus: "Oh, they do. They profit. The goal of the New Order is to take all a man possesses. All of it. Their goals are lofty. However, they forget the very God they no longer fear or trust in. Well, I will change all of this. Erin, change is coming."

Me: "So, what do I do, Lord? What was all of this about?"

Jesus: "Erin, continue on your course. I will give you further instructions. Every trap the enemy has tried to ensnare you in has failed. This time is no different. As for your sons, they struggle with the unknown. They enjoy simple patterns and simple plans. Their expectations are full of faith. When they sound the alarm, they do so in fear. Give them to Me. I am God over them.

"I will take hold of them and will watch over them all of their days here. However, and even more so, I will heal them and deliver them from their struggles for understanding things that are foreign to them. I have them. While this will be a struggle for you, do not worry. I will well up in them and strengthen them. I am with you. Now, do not be afraid. I am with you. Changes are coming. These are good. I am with you. I love you."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I love You. We are so thankful for all You do. Our family and our friends are such a blessing. We are overcome by Your goodness."

Jesus: "Good! I am about to set you free in a miraculous display. Celebrate!"

Dream over.

732 – Behold Yom Kippur

Received on Monday, September 25, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! I am not thankful enough. No, Father, I truly am not. I forget Your miraculous works so easily when troubles come. You gave me two autistic sons so I would understand Your unique love and patience that You have for us. With autism, there is a daily struggle to understand ways and thinking processes that have no clear path of understanding.

I realize this may sound confusing. However, I come back to the day of spilled water on the ground. I had to help my older son understand that the water spilled could not go back into his cup. Barring a miracle from God, time can't reverse. Moments are gone and only memories remain. The sting of loss leaves wounds, sometimes gaping holes, that can only be filled by You. With autism, there are more questions than I have answers for.

My sons are struggling right now with great changes that have been thrust upon our home suddenly. In this instance, fear is trying to face something outside the status quo of familiarity and sequence. The natural order of predictability is upset when logical patterns are suddenly gone. Then the question becomes why over and over again. Fear then sets in.

I then need to be that common element, a strong thread, of a calming voice. Our house came under attack on Saturday. The sign of the Black Widow Spider was 100% from You as a warning that something undisturbed was about to be revealed. The broken freezer was the beginning of troubles. Something so small became so large so quickly, then expanded.

My younger son worked so hard to prepare for Hurricane Lee while we were away. It even took him away from work. He was trying hard to prepare for something that could be really bad or nothing at all. It is interesting that Lee means 'clearing in the woods'. However, it didn't clear away anything in the physical. It was about clearing away in the spiritual.

While we were gone on our trip, our outdoor visitors changed…

- Our last two groundhogs disappeared.
- The partner chipmunk of the one killed by the cat is gone now too.
- Two red squirrels remain out of 12.
- Four grey squirrels remain out of 20.
- The hummingbirds have left for the season.
- There are only five turkeys left of the 11.

While I am not sure about all that had happened in the eight days we were gone, I do know that my 'safari place in the woods' has been cleared out dramatically. However, and even more importantly, something happened with our children here while we were away. Well, Lord, I have now truly placed this in Your hands.

You have since given us instructions about preparing the house for appraisal. While this doesn't necessarily mean we are to sell it, He wants us to prepare as if we were. You then told me that You would instruct us as we go. We have been given our directives as to how. Lord, please strengthen us for the changes coming.

My husband and I are celebrating Yom Kippur today. My husband took the day off, and so did my younger son. September is normally my most favorite month of the calendar year. The humidity goes away, the nights become cool and the days warm. The days become like those in Heaven. The colors are clear and vibrant as the atmosphere is perfectly defined by the light of the sun. While hard to describe, it is so beautiful.

I had my asthma return a few years ago and it seems that September often kicks off my season of breathing more clearly. It is also the time of preparation for what comes next – WINTER. As for fall, this season goes too quickly for me. I love the fall colors and the crisp autumn air. I love farmer's markets and football season. It marks the end of summer, the end of activity, and prepares us to go inward. This last year was one of my most difficult to date since moving to the land of the trees…

- Even though storms came, You were there each time.
- Secrets were revealed.
- Some hidden and lost things were found.
- I had to give up on some things that were gone forever.
- Some in our house drew closer to You, while others grew further apart.

- My husband became stronger this year.
- I have become stronger this year.
- Our young adult children have become stronger.
- Changes are coming.

Father, please help me. I went to bed last night with pancreatic pain. I haven't had this since December 2001 to January 2002. I was scared. My husband and daughter prayed for me and it was gone. I then had a deep sleep last night. This morning, I woke up to an angel of the Lord…

"Erin, seven more years! Seven years from today!"

I woke up suddenly and went to my journal. I don't get dates often. Seven years from today is September 25, 2030 on the Gregorian calendar. Using the Hebrew calendar, seven years from today is Yom Kippur in 2030. This starts at sunset on Sunday, October 6, 2030 and ends at sunset on Monday, October 7, 2030. Of the two dates, the Hebrew calendar seems to make the most sense… at least to me and my husband.

I had an alert on my phone that there is a frost warning tonight. I wrote down all of the sins of the house and mostly my sins to atone for. Father, what does the 'seven more years' refer to? Does this mean the time of the end or does it mean the time of the new beginning? Perhaps it is both or neither! Oh Lord, please help me on this.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with you always. I will not leave you. Remember that all of My promises are true and they will be fulfilled according to My Words. However, remember that it won't always unfold as you perceive that it should. This is because you have a limited scope over all you see.

"While you can imagine, you can guess, you can speculate and you can conclude based on patterns, you really cannot have fullness of understanding until it unfolds before your very eyes. This is My mystery… that I do the Will of My Father in Heaven and on His perfect timing.

"Remember… what good can come if you know more than you are capable? However, this I can promise you… I am over all things and I am in you… therefore, I am with you in all things, great and small.

"Now, I rerouted the winds set to come against your property as an answer to your prayers. This storm came to nothing outside. However, a storm brewed inside. I have allowed all of this so that all things hidden were revealed just before this day has come (Yom Kippur) so that you and your house will be blessed beyond your understanding for this coming year. It will be this way as I have declared it.

"Though changes are scary to imagine, I promise you that they will be beneficial beyond measure. The times in My Words are here. I am bringing all of My people to the places that I have prepared for them. Even when all you experience seems impossible, you are to remember that I am the God of the Impossible. I am the God who saves and is over all things.

"If I can call down a tempest and redirect a storm, if I can burn out a firestorm or stir up a great sea, then can I not also stop a wicked nation in its tracks or take the mighty beast down to Sheol's depths? Can I not also then control time and space? Who controls the sun, the moon and the stars to align?

"Man cannot do any of this. Only I can. Only God can. I can do all of this. In addition to this, I can also create a new thing. See, I watch the wicked plot. They have evil in their hearts and no regard for life. Their idea is to destroy all that is good for their own evil end. Two nations are in the crosshairs of the enemy… the Jews and the Gentiles."

Me: "I thought it was Israel and the USA?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are centering everything on land mass vs God's children. Right now, there are mass persecutions and atrocities that you know nothing of. The invasions of the lands all over the world by foreigners in places where all was dedicated to God is happening right now.

"Where My churches are burned, My Words removed and My people killed or soon to be killed, is not just subject to two nations once under God (Israel and the USA). These invasions will destroy all that was good and turn it into even greater evil.

"One leader dwells in darkness and is quite pleased at the destruction of his country (the USA) and Israel. He has called the foreigners to invade all of the nations of God. He cannot control his glee at his success.

"In the meantime, the great Red Dragon comes from the seas and is over many of the ports of nations. It has allied with forces it intends to bankrupt and control in the end. This leader expects to be God over all of the Earth."

Me: "Lord, please stop this! I know You do in the end. I know You then take Your seat over all things. However, what of Your great times of miracles, reversals, restorations, repairs, healings and rendering hearts back to You? Please let this be Your time of display. The world has never known Your time of power on display.

"Revive and shake Your churches. Wake them from the dead. Dry bones come back to life. Foundations rebuild themselves. The lost are found. Lord, of all of the times spoken of in Your Word, there are none like these. There are such self-centered, self-indulgent psychotic people everywhere now.

"They are self-entitled selfies with no need of a Savior. This is self-evident and on full display. Please help us. This generation has not seen a world war. So many have never even cracked open a history book. They have let social media, electronics and screens train them. Can anything even be done now?"

Jesus: "Erin, remember that I spoke of what the end would be like?"

Me: "Well, in 2 Timothy 3:2: 'People will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful and unholy.'"

Jesus: "Yes. These are symptoms of a void in their hearts that was founded by evil. It is a root symptom of a greater cause."

Me: "Forgive me, Lord, but did I mishear? I have always heard it as 'it is a root cause of a greater symptom'. I think I may have just misheard You?"

Jesus: "No, you didn't. The root symptom is the heart of evil. The greater cause of evil is to remove all that makes the heart turn to God. What makes a heart bad is that there is no room for good, or Me, God, understand? The prime object for all that fell and were cast down from Heaven, the number is 1/3rd, was to destroy all the good in man and, in turn, defile all their hands touched. This is because they (the fallen) all knew that God had sealed their fate. Their objective was then to create their own method of atonement… to sacrifice all of God's children in the fires of hell so that none would be saved. This was and is their 'greater cause'."

Me: "Oh Lord, please put a stop to them. They are succeeding."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have a great plan. Erin, distress is coming to Jerusalem. It must be so. However, the multitude of foreign foes shall be like small dust and the multitude of the ruthless shall be like passing chaff. In an instant, suddenly, you will be visited by My call. This will be accompanied with thunder, an earthquake, a great noise with whirlwinds, a tempest and the flame of a devouring fire.

"The multitude of all the nations that fight against Jerusalem, the lion of God, and her stronghold and distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision in the night, as when a hungry man dreams and beholds he is eating and he wakes with his hunger not satisfied, or when a thirsty man dreams and beholds he is drinking and wakes faint with his thirst not quenched.

"So shall the multitude of all nations be that fight against Zion. Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind; be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with strong drink; for I will pour out upon you the spirit of deep sleep. I have closed the eyes of the prophets and I have covered the heads of the seers."

Me: "Lord, does Jerusalem get bombed? Why allow this?"

Jesus: "You are only given a small portion of a larger picture. The nations are setting up to divide Jerusalem and are set to drive all the Jewish people away to their death. One evil nation has been plotting to remove Jerusalem completely off of the map and doesn't care about losses of their own because of their greater cause.

"Now, understand this… anyone who comes against Jerusalem shall be as dust blown away as chaff. However, here is the good news… I will build the Temple and there I will take My seat. I will not share it with another temple."

Me: "Oh, so the Dome of the Rock will be removed too so all will be as it once was?"

Jesus: "Even greater."

Me: "Lord, You quoted the first ten verses of Chapter 29 of Isaiah. What of verses 11 to 24?"

Jesus: "Restoration and healing comes for the House of Jacob. Now, you ask what happens for those who are God's children (other than Jacob)."

Me: "The Gentiles, Lord?"

Jesus: "My promises are there (the book of Isaiah). A great and powerful move of My Spirit is coming across the nations and borders. Evil kings and rulers will go into exile. The people of the Earth shall rise up and display awesome deeds. Do not worry about what is occurring now and what is soon to come. All of this must be fulfilled… a Great and Terrible Day of the Lord."

Me: "Lord, I am scared! What about Your Words in Mark 13:19-27:

Mark 13:19-27: "19For in those days there will be such tribulation as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, and never will be. 20And if the Lord had not cut short the days, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21And then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there he is!' do not believe it. 22For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. 23But be on guard; I have told you all things beforehand. 24"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, 25and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. 26And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27And then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven."

"So, Lord, please help! Are things going to get better and then worse? Does everything get destroyed first, then restored, then evil strikes again and You gather in Your Elect?"

Jesus: "My Word and its order should never be confusing. While it is a mystery to you as to the details, it is not to Me. Do not worry about these things that you can do nothing about. Come before Me instead. Bring Me your troubles and I will accept your prayers, your offerings and, in turn, I will heal you and free you from your debts. Now rejoice as this is a great day for you and your house."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-733/

733 – Continue on Your Course

Received on Sunday, October 1, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. I love You. You have enriched my life and changed me. What was once important is now secondary to a life surrendered to You. I look around at our home You built for us. While it is still the same foundation, the same walls and the same rooms, time has adjusted its appearance.

We have cracks on our concrete floor. The woodwork and various surfaces show the wear of a home lived in daily by a large family. While the structure remains strong, there are battle scars and stories that come with them. Our children have grown up with us and are now young adults. Their rooms evolved through the years. It just seems like yesterday when simple trends and passing fads took up residency on their shelves.

We grow older every day. We change. However, You never change. I am so thankful for this. As for my older son, he has now packed up all of his belongings. All of his shelves are clear and empty. All of his memories are stored away and labeled. I know some will tell me that I am just experiencing empty nesting. Perhaps, but, with my sons' autism, I am their mediator, their instruction manual and their advocate.

However, and more importantly than any of these things, You, Father, are their Savior. The world isn't kind to people with special needs anymore. The world has changed in the last few years. Father, You know that I need to be near where they are so I can help. I am worried about my older son not having me around.

I pray that I have given all of our children the proper tools in this life. I pray that You are pleased that I taught them to worship You in all things. Our children have experienced great signs, wonders and miracles. Still, Your promises have not yet arrived. For those who are young in age, this long wait is too much. This comes on the heels of the three years of delay, in a worldly sense, caused by Covid-19.

In the last year and at various times, we have watched depression and anxiety come and go on every one of our children. We watched their friends pass away in various situations and even a few suicides. Many of their friends married and began new lives. As for where we live, it is remote and not an easy place to be a young adult.

My husband and I encouraged our children to work and save as we didn't have money to supplement their schooling. However, we were able to provide room, board and basic transportation. While my daughter went away for a year out west, she returned when she discovered things were not so great out there alone. She missed family and her local friends.

As for my stepson, he also went out west. He went there to work after finishing forestry school. While there, he encountered harsh conditions in the place he was contracted. While he was out in the field at work one day, his rental home was broken into. All of the valuables were stolen from each of his forestry roommates. They took all of their technology, money, passports and other items. There were many drug addicts in a camp nearby their rental home.

After his contract was up, he came back home to work from here until one day he receives a better offer in a safer place. He might now join my stepdaughter for a season to help her set up at a school. She is moving there because of a boy she plans to marry. While we are supporting her decision, she shocked her closest house friend, my younger son.

They did so much together, such as building projects and playing video games, we asked that she break the news of her plans slowly and with care. Instead of going slowly as we had requested, she did the opposite. While our home is now experiencing less drama due to her absence, my younger son is acting like a death has occurred. We are all trying to help him understand the changes.

My younger son is now physically ill at times. He is not eating or sleeping normally. However, within the last 24 hours, we have begun to see hope in him coming to grips with her departure. My stepdaughter, the youngest of our children, is staying with another family friend until she leaves. There were hurtful words spoken. These words were like spilled water from a cup. These words, like spilled water, can't be reversed.

Oh Father, we need some miracles. Even my daughter is experiencing troubles. A young man in the ministry that she was interested in recently told her that he was 'not uninterested, just busy'. To me, this seems like a nice way for him to say 'no' to her. She has been so sad as more of her friends are now engaged to be married. We now pray that You soon send her the perfect one.

As for all of this, I simply have no answers, just hope in You. Our home is beginning to shrink. We still have no ability to move to Bend, OR. We really have no ability to do much of anything right now. Even so, You have always been faithful and You have never stopped blessing us. Please forgive my sadness here as I do not want to take away from the fact that everything surrounding us is what You have created.

I place my trust in You. We will drive my older son to Boston this coming week. He might never come back. Father, please be with him always. He has rededicated his life back to you. He told me yesterday that life without You is not worth living. Thank You for the gift of my children. Please be my son's advocate, mediator, comforter and friend. I know You will do all of these things as You created him.

As for the rest of our house, please grant us strength as we navigate its 'shrinking state'. Please fill our home with laughter again. Please strengthen those left behind to cope with our vacancies. Thank You for all You do for each one of us here. We know that we could not walk safely in this world without You.

While fall is here, it has been an unusual one so far. This last week has been sunny and cool. There has also been an overcast canopy overhead. It begins with dense fog and dew in the morning. The fog then leads to this filtered sun-filled sky. As for the leaves, they are not changing normally. The leaves are spotty and almost look like they have blight.

While most trees have remained green, only a few have had their leaves dry up. While the changing of the colors began in August, it seems to have been suspended. Very few trees have turned to their fall colors so far. Oh Lord, You seem to be working on something. Please watch over us. Please take us to where You would have us. Please strengthen us. We love You, Father!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I do not leave My people to wander in darkness alone without Me. I am with you day in and day out. Your children are Mine and I am with them also. I am your shelter. I am your cover from rain and storms. I am your place of refuge. I am also your shade and tent of cooling in the noonday sun.

"While you have been struggling with all that surrounds you, did I not tell you that I would change hearts and lead you to the place I have prepared for you? All you do is as I have called you. You are now overwhelmed at the tasks that are before you. You consider interest rates and prices. You consider packing and moving. You wonder about all of the work and the overwhelming projects before you.

"These are too much for you. If I was not with you, not one thing you worry over could be overcome. All of this would be impossible. Now, I want you to understand this… I could have all your debts, all your various tasks and all your worries about your move and the home I built for you… all removed in a single day.

"Yes, I know what you are thinking… but, no, this will not be by your death. Erin, you worrying about all of these things does you no good. You have been instructed to thin out, pack away, give away and ready your home for what I am doing next. You are now wondering why I would have you do all of this now."

Me: "Yes, I am. All of this is so nerve-wracking."

Jesus: "I have a purpose. Can you trust Me a bit longer concerning all of this?"

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I am getting older rapidly. Our arrows in the quiver of Your care are becoming scarce. The thought of all I need to do is too much for me. It is easier to stay put. Without You performing a miracle, I can't even imagine this. Please don't let my life stop here. Lord, You promised to take me out of the wilderness to wide open spaces someday.

"Lord, I want my family and me to be healed and changed. I want my Nest friends to be healed and changed. We have now gone from our beautiful gift of a trip into a very difficult situation here after the storm. I am sorry for my tears. Oh Lord, I am so sorry for being so sad."

Jesus: "Do not worry. Now, is there something else?"

Me: "Yes. Both my husband and I have had nightmares of invading armies across the USA. Millions have invaded the USA. It only takes a…"

Jesus: "A Savior, right? Were you about to say Savior?"

Me: "Yes, of course."

Jesus: "I am God over all things. The Word is My promise. You read My promises daily. There is much to be afraid of here… wild beasts, savage men and foreigners who hate you because of Me."

Me: "Lord, in my dream of 'Seven More Years', is this tribulation or the numbers of my years left here?"

Jesus: "This remains a mystery… for now. Even so, if you look at all the signs and wonders around you, you know you are in due season. It is a rare thing in your day for a storm to come suddenly and without warning. So, it is now in the world that you see the evidence of what I warned you as one day it will come to be and now has come to pass."

Me: "There is such an increase in hate. Lord, I don't want to leave safe for unsafe!"

Jesus: "Erin, hearts have waxed cold. Many hate because the seed of bitterness has opened the door to demons and with them all evil is manifest. Truth is now considered to be lies and lies are now considered to be truth."

Me: "Hmm, it seems easier for us to just stay put."

Jesus: "On the surface, yes. However, there is so much you cannot see where you are. I see. You see only as things are now and guess about the future. I have given you all you need. I am preparing you for the promises I have given you. Allow Me to work. Do as I have instructed you and all will go well.

"Now, you worried like this 11 years ago too (when these dreams first started)! You also worried about moving from the desert to the place where you are in the trees, more than the dreams even. Both were impossible if not for Me. Now, this time for you is no different. Allow me to carry you and your children. I have you. Rejoice, Erin. I love you. Do not worry!"

Dream over.

734 – The Surprise Attack on Israel

Received on Sunday, October 8, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for Your people. Thank You for our family, children, friends and their households. Thank You for Your Word. Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Israel was attacked in the early hours of Saturday, October 7, 2023!

The Israeli Security Cabinet has officially declared war. Israel's enemies have surrounded her. They have breached her border communities to the south. There are reports of brutal rapes, kidnapping and the slaughter of innocent families. There are bodies of slain elderly and children in the streets. The IDF ground offensive has begun against the terrorists.

The leader of Israel's greatest enemy has proclaimed that a 'great ring of fire' will surround Israel. The ring of fire has been declared and entails six fronts of aggression. This is coming. Father, I am so sad about this. I had a dream last night that was about a war event on USA soil. It was so real that I checked the headline news to see if it had actually happened.

Oh Father, won't You please come now! You see all of this. You know and see. You warned us in advance that war was coming to Israel. War is also coming here as well. The USA's feckless response to these attacks on Israel seem to be paving the way for this. Father, please don't punish the people who love You and pray because of the actions of a few.

If the governments are corrupt, not even voted in by the people and even the news is corrupt and full of lies, then shouldn't Your wrath fall only upon the corrupt so that Your righteousness is on full display? While I know troubles come to all of us in this life, please help us. You speak to me while I sleep and confirm these things to me when I wake. How do I speak? What can I write? I had two very vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "USA Citizens told to Shelter in Place" begins…

We were staying somewhere in a desert region in southwest USA. The Hoover Dam, a major USA dam, had just been sabotaged. It was the first of several small attacks against various utilities across the USA. There was a massive Army Corp of engineers who were called to the area to repair it. While working there as laborers, they were immediately called to a major USA city in the east.

These young men were a mighty force and there were thousands of them. They were called out and armed. Equipment accompanied them. As they travelled through each town, the people cheered for them. With each town they came to, their numbers grew. Farmers, ranchers, truckers and laborers put down the tools of their trade and took up fighting weapons to join them to defend the country. There were reports of insurgent activity at various places.

The young men were asked to join the UN peacekeepers instead and surrender their weapons. These thousands of young men then refused this request. A call was then made. The new world army was called by their phone alerts to arm and invade farming communities and small towns. (What just happened in Israel in this sneak attack is what is coming to the USA – targeting soft targets.)

Citizens of the USA were then called to shelter in place in their homes and await further instructions. It was the shelter in place command that made everything easier for the enemy attacks. This new world army was not the Chinese or the Russians. The USA then became so wrapped up in trouble that no one knew what had just happened in Jerusalem – it was catastrophic!

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up from my dream sick to my stomach. I went back to sleep.

Sub-dream 2 "Feeding the Hummingbirds for 6 More Weeks" begins…

It was late fall. Even though I had not seen a hummingbird since the first week in September, I had not yet taken my hummingbird feeder down. As I was cleaning the seed trays, I kept hearing humming. Even though I kept seeing a hummingbird out of the corner of my eye, it quickly disappeared when I turned toward it.

I knew this hummingbird shouldn't be here. It had 'six weeks' before the temperature dropped to freezing. I am not sure why I kept saying 'six weeks'. I decided that I would keep the feeder up for six more weeks just in case. I then went inside and looked directly at the feeder at my kitchen sink. The leaves were almost off the trees from the wind.

As I looked out, a bright light, like the light of the sun, appeared. However, I could look at it. Then right in front of it, a moon came. However, it was low in the sky and there, in front of both of them, was a hummingbird in a black silhouette against the light. It looked frozen. Then suddenly the light of the sun burst open and I could see the hummingbird in full iridescent colors.

It then looked at me while it took a drink of nectar from the feeder. It stared at me and then it was gone. I ran back outside and looked for the sun and the moon. However, both were hidden by cloud cover. I then looked down at my feet. My feet were bare. My feet and hands had changed. I was changed. I yelled, "Thank You, Lord!", at the top of my lungs. I woke up mumbling!

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, You are a mystery. This has been a dark last three days. I have cried more than I have cried since my mom passed. This day will also be a difficult one. Please help us all!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Just remember who I am. I am the God who loves you. I am the God who is over all things. I see it all. The evil plots in secret against the innocent. The hearts of those who have been raised up in hate and darkness do not know Me. Their mothers hate the children of the righteous more than they love their own sons and daughters they gave birth to.

"Their hate is based on following a false religion birthed in jealousy and defiance. The founder of their religion was rejected by the Jewish leaders hundreds of years ago. Their goals are lofty and they are being used to destroy the crown jewel of God, Jerusalem, by force, erasing the children of God. Since they also know that the nation who is also dedicated to Me stands with Israel, they plan to strike fear in the hearts of the people.

"Now, there was a proposal of peace by a prince just days before. Even though these were 'just declarations', they have a greater plan in place and it is this… 'There can only be peace when the nation of Israel is removed and the USA is subject to the Arab Nations.' While they will then declare peace and safety, I will turn upon them with total destruction instead. What was planned in darkness will come back upon them suddenly."

Me: "Lord, is this around our Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023)? Is this the time of troubles for the USA?"

Jesus: "Well, this is the plan of the enemy… while families are shuttered inside their homes, troubles come door to door. The leaders of the USA have invited the enemy in. What is happening to Israel is just the beginning of a greater plan of evil already in the works."

Me: "Lord, can You stop all of this? You are greater than any of their evil plots."

Jesus: "You must understand that you see very little of the great plans of the wicked. You are sheltered from this because very little is told through the news. You learn of events as I show them to you. I do this because you become fearful when you see these things come into being. It is not good for your heart to be so troubled. I have therefore told you that you are Mine.

"I have you. I have your children. I have said your house is Mine and I have it. Erin, do you not then trust Me to keep it? Erin, why worry about a war you did not start and cannot end? Do you not trust that I am the only God over all of it? Do you not trust that I am the God that can end all wars? I am. If you can do nothing, then pray. Prayer activates armies. Prayer gives you peace if you ask for it.

"This is why I say, 'Believe that you have received what you have asked for because I am God over all things.' You then say, 'Should I stop my daily activities and save energy and money for the coming days ahead?' Why would I require this of you? Do you not trust that the God over you in all things can provide for your every need?

"Does your worrying even add a single hour to your life? Erin, do not worry about tomorrow as I have and will continue to provide for your needs. What you are sowing here into My Kingdom will be visible here as it is in Heaven. Stay with Me. I know things don't appear good, especially when bad reports come."

Me: "I love You, Lord. Please watch over all of us. Please watch over Israel and those of us who have been greatly deceived by those in government."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. Remember that I allowed these corruptions to take place. These were put in place before the fall of the towers. The Ten Kings plotted to take down the Great Beast, which really means nations under God. The war on Climate Change is really a direct declaration of war on God's Wrath.

"When they say, 'No one is above the law!', they are really saying that no one is above the evil leader who attacked and turned on the citizens of the USA and set to destroy all that has been dedicated to Me and also God's land, Israel (where this refers to a former president still in the news).

"When they declare someone illegitimate, they declare the thing they are. They accuse you of the very thing they are doing. There have been so many waves of lies that the people believe them after a while. There is a government in full operation not voted in by the people or for the people. This government is tied to pure evil."

Me: "Lord, please rise up and show your power and love to those who still love You. There are many."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a great plan. I see what is being done to the dead in the streets. The dead are being raped so that their defilement is on full display. Those who do this to a corpse, well this will turn back upon them and this evil will follow them to the depths of Sheol. Once there, they will be subject to eternal torment over and over without end.

"Now, you see an increase in evil as many who have harbored in their hearts 'bitterness' have opened the prime gateway to all the other bad fruits in this due season. Their demons have increased. Do not entertain these. Pray instead. I will keep them far from you. The plots of the wicked are the means by which I will allow their punishment.

"The wicked plot against the righteous of God. As they rain down evil upon the innocent, I will turn and make their lands desolate. I will dry up their rivers and make their water bitter to taste. As for My Bride, she will never thirst nor will she hunger. I will provide for her in the midst of this.

"Now, you will see miracles the likes you never imagined. Your sorrow will turn to dancing. Those who plot evil will be in great fear at the sight of just one of you. Now rejoice! Your prayers avail much! I am with you!"

Dream over.

735 – Woe to God's Enemies…
The Darkness Comes

Received on Monday, October 9, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Bless You, Father, my God in Heaven and upon the Earth! You are above all else in power and glory; yesterday, today and tomorrow. You give dreams and visions. You humble the proud and You obliterate all that is against You. We only exist at Your pleasure. You owe us nothing. You do not exist for our pleasure. You do not serve us. Every breath we take is because You allow it.

We fail You, Father, as we are a sinning people. We deserve all that comes to us. However, for the sake of those who love You, for the children of the slain and the children of those about to be slain, consider and remember us. Remember Your promises to Your people. Have mercy on us as evil gains control as a stronghold over us all.

Where are we to run that we can't be found? Where can we hide from these enemies? We are not at the mercy of our pursuer, but only at Your mercy. We have displeased You as a people. Please remember us as children before the worldly consumes us. Have mercy on Israel. Turn back this evil done unto them.

Hear and bend Your ear to the slain in Your Courts who wail and cry out for justice day and night. Don't hand Your children over to godless leaders. Father, please! Please do this for all of Your people here. You have turned against us because we have failed to fully recognize Your great power. The nations are now serving the gods of Baal.

Amos 3:3-11: 3 "Do two walk together, unless they have agreed to meet? 4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from his den, if he has taken nothing? 5 Does a bird fall in a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing? 6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does disaster come to a city, unless the Lord has done it? 7 For the Lord God (You, our Father) does nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken; who can but prophesy?" 9 Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see the great tumults within her, and the oppressed in her midst. 10 They do not know how to do right," declares the Lord, "Those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds." 11 Therefore thus says the Lord God: "An adversary shall surround the land and bring down your defenses from you, and your strongholds shall be plundered."

Father, You are God over all things! Nothing is beyond You. We are prey to our enemies, so we pray on our knees to You for You to rescue us. I had a very intense and vivid dream last night that really shook me to the core of my being/

Sub-dream 1 "Two Angels on a Hill and One over the Sea"

All I could see (or couldn't see) was absolute darkness. I could not see a single star up in the heavens. I could not tell if it was day or night. I then heard an ominous sound. I heard something like a belltower or a lighthouse. The light was so faint that I could not see it. I then put my hand out with my palm facing up. I felt something like powder. I shuddered when I realized that this was ash.

I then looked to the north and away from the waters. I saw the silhouette of God's Mountain. As the bell of a distant tower rang out, I looked up. There were two angels on a hill holding lanterns. One was to my left and the other to my right. I then saw a mighty angel over them, but nearer to the sea. This mighty angel hovered over the waters. I then heard a voice that terrified me.

The Voice of God: "Kneel! You are on Holy Ground." I immediately fell to my knees. "I am God over all things. I do not share My Throne with another. I am jealous for My land. Write this plainly."

Note: It soon became clear to me why God wanted me to write this plainly. A lot of references and terms are ones that I am completely unfamiliar with.

Angel to my left: "The Day of the Lord's Vengeance is near. The Great Day of the Lord is near and fastly approaching. The sound of the Day of the Lord is bitter. Even the mighty men cries aloud there."

Angel to my right: "A day of wrath is that day. A day of distress and anguish. A day of ruin and devastation. A day of darkness and gloom. A day of thick clouds and thick darkness."

Angel to my left: "A day of the trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and the lofty battlements."

All the while, the mighty angel over the sea and surrounding area continued to hover ominously. A powerful voice again rang out.

The Voice of God: "I will bring great distress and travail upon mankind so they shall walk like the blind because they have sinned against Me. Their blood shall be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on this day. In the fire of My jealousy, all the Earth shall be consumed. For a full and sudden end – all the inhabitants of the Earth."

Angel over the sea: "Before this day of darkness, the day of the anger of the Lord, seek the Lord. All you humble of the land, whose ways are upright and obey His commands, seek righteousness and seek humility. For those who seek and obey the Lord, perhaps He will then have mercy on this day of anger and you will be hidden."

Angel to the left: "Gaza shall be deserted and Ashkelon shall become a desolation. Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted."

Angel over the sea: "Woe to you, inhabitants of the nation of Chereites. The Word of the Lord is against you, oh Canaan, land of the Philistines. The seacoast shall become the possession of Judah."

The Voice of God: "I am angry. This is the season of 4. For the 3 transgressions of Damascus and for 4, I will not revoke punishment. They have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron. So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael and devour the strongholds."

Angel to the right: While waving his lantern left to right. "Woe to Damascus. She has been laid waste. Woe to Edom. Woe to Gaza. Woe to Tyre. Woe to Ammonites. Their kings and princes will hide. Woe to Moab."

Me: I spoke as I trembled and I trembled as I spoke. "Oh Father, who is like You. My very life is like dust. I am no one. I ask You now for permission to speak even though I don't deserve it." I was still trembling. "Clearly Your prophets of old knew of this that has come upon us. Surely it is now and soon to be. Still, Father… please do not forget Judah, Jerusalem and Your people who love You. Please have mercy on us!"

The Voice of God: "Erin, I do not forget. Foreigners have invaded My land. They have done this, not by their own power, but by Mine. This was allowed so that these things would be a measure to those who look upon the land and its people. How many will cry out to God and beg for mercy? How many will beg for justice against the enemies of My people.

"Who will fight for her cause and stand for what is just? Who looks upon the atrocities against My Holy Land and rejoices for its destruction? What nation proclaims to help and stand, yet does nothing? I will promise that any nation who does not look upon what they see with deep sorrow, I will come against that nation with a worse fate. Their leaders will be led away with hooks in their mouths.

"I will humble Edom. Your mighty men will be dismayed, every mighty man slaughtered. Because of your violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you and you shall be cut off forever. You stood stagnant and ineffective as foreigners entered the gates, stole the wealth of your brother and cast lots for Jerusalem. You were one of them. Now My warning is this:

- Do not gloat over the day of your brother's troubles.
- Do not rejoice over the ruin of the people of Judah.
- Do not boast in the day of their distress.
- Do not enter the gate of My people in the day of their calamity and loot their wealth.
- Do not gloat over his disaster.
- Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off the fugitives.
- Do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress."

Me: "Father, who is Edom?"

God: "You do not know? Woe to Edom. Foreigners will ravage your cities and destroy all you have built. What you have done to My people, it will be done unto you. Woe to Edom."

I then heard the bell tower strike. It was even louder than before. I saw the angels moving their lanterns back and forth. They called out the woes over the nations surrounding Israel. It was a loud Judgment Call. I woke up suddenly when something seemed to hit me hard from my left in the dream.

Sub-dream 1 over.

This made me wake up suddenly. I quickly went to my chair and prayed. Father, these were woes I have read about before. These are in Hosea, Obadiah, Amos, Joel, Micah, Isaiah and Jeremiah. Lord, please help me to understand all of this!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry or be afraid. I am God over all things. Now, these things must come to pass and are a warning to the nations surrounding Israel. While these nations claim to know and serve Me, they know nothing of Me and instead serve the gods of this world. These are void of God in all of their actions.

"You now ask, 'Why has this been allowed?' Simple. This is so the Words of the prophets are fulfilled. You then ask, 'But, Lord, we don't know these enemies today. These are ancient enemies." No. These are still active today and still originate from the same roots of evil from the beginning. While a name of a nation could be the same or it could be different, evil is the same and does not change. Make no mistake about this.

"Now, this dream humbled you. This is because you understand that, in this dream, something horrible had just occurred and you could not see except for what God allowed you to. You stood before the Mountain of God at the base. This Mountain is near God's Holy City and on His land. Therefore, anything that attempts to destroy God's possession will in turn be destroyed. It is simple.

"Now, in the guise of peace, Israel, God's land, has been broken off like a piece of bread. The enemy sees it is good and blessed by God. The enemy then demands just a piece of the bread and then more and more and more. Even though they eat more of the bread, they are still left hungry. There, in the midst of Israel, are over two million of her enemies.

Note: According to Israel's Central Bureau of Statistics, the Arab-Israeli population in 2023 was 2.1 million, representing 21 percent of the country's population. The majority of these citizens identify themselves as Arab or Palestinian by nationality and as Israeli by citizenship.

"While they seem to live in peace with them, they do not know Me. They will turn upon them and have begun their quest to trample Jerusalem underfoot. They will rape the women, the children and even the dead. They will take them into captivity for ransom in exchange for prisoners.

"All of this is evil. My land has been defiled and trampled. Prophets, where are you? In the beginning was the Word and the Word was God and God is the Word. Who consults God and proclaims it?"

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sad. You are so wonderful. If they only knew how wonderful You are, they would turn to you… all of them."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, maybe some. Now, this is the Wrath that come upon the nations surrounding God's land. I have a Great Plan… a Great One. While it is a Plan that has been written in several books, few understand it. However, it comes. My Day comes!"

Me: "Is this Your Mighty Army, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes. I am jealous for My land and I will turn and have mercy and bless the people. Now, Erin, you wrote exactly as instructed. Those with eyes to see and given knowledge from on High will know and understand all of what I instruct. I am with you always. Do not be afraid. You are loved."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-736/

736 – The Darkness Comes Before the Dawn Breaks

Received on Wednesday, October 11, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day to write on these pages! Thank You for another night of dreaming. Thank You for Your clear voice. Thank You for all of this time with You. You are such a gift to me, Father. You are my treasure, yet You call me a jewel in Your crown.

Please have mercy on Your children.

Protect Israel. Protect the USA. Protect the nations who still stand on the side of righteousness. The hearts of Your children are greater than anything on this Earth. You are greater than any gold, diamonds, rubies or silver. You are greater than any perfect pearl. Nothing can compare to the heart of God in Your children.

If I have learned one thing in this life about the enemy is that, when they plot evil or even propose it, even if shocking, we are not to dismiss this. They are actually giving you their plans for destruction in advance and take great pleasure in doing so. Don't believe it when they then pretend to reverse course and say, 'I didn't really mean that' or 'It is your fault for making me say these things.'

Well, here is truth… unless this enemy has repented on his knees for these evil declarations and completely humbles himself before God, then goes to their offended brother or sister to apologize and make things right… unless this happens… make no mistake… this is your enemy and he has hate and bitterness in his heart. God has no use for this kind of heart.

This kind of heart is cold and made of stone. This heart has no ability for God to shape it as clay. This kind of heart will crumble as dust. Only the hand of God Himself can reverse and revive such a heart.

Esau is the enemy of Jacob. Esau and his sons believed Jacob and his sons to be illegitimate, receiving no rights to the land of his father. Esau was a hunter and had many sons. They all lived by the sword.

Genesis 27:39-42: 39 His father Isaac answered him, "Your dwelling will be away from the earth's richness, away from the dew of heaven above. 40 You will live by the sword and you will serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck." 41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob." 42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is planning to avenge himself by killing you."

This is one of the main roots of this war against Israel. From this there is hate, bitterness, jealousy and a call to wipe all of Israel off the face of the Earth. The plots and the evil games still continue to this day. This is not just against Israel, but also the USA, her greatest ally. 45% of Jews live in Israel, 40% in the USA and 15% in all other countries combined. Father, please protect Your people. I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Gathering Flowers for the Banquet" begins…

There were two long tables made of wood. They were whitewashed over pine or a wood grain like pine. It looked like fresh paint. The tables were not together to make one long table. Instead, only one corner touched, forming a V position. The tables were both set for twelve. Instead of using individual chairs, long benches were used.

These long benches were colored white and blue in a large, checkered gingham pattern. Linen cushions were built onto the tops of these benches. Over each table were large tree canopies from two ancient trees. The setting was beautiful. There was a Banquet Host who stood between the tables in the center of the V shape. He directed the workers to prepare for His guests.

The Banquet Host then stood in the V between the two tables and took up a large piece of bread. He blessed the bread and held it out in front of Him. He broke the bread into two halves. One half was for one of the tables and the other half was for the other table. A worker brought the Host a pitcher of wine and the Host poured Himself a cup. He tasted it and nodded His approval. He looked up to Heaven and said a blessing to those who will attend. The sun was behind Him on the mountains and the light shone upon the valley.

Suddenly, there were so many children running around the tables and under the trees. They laughed and chased each other. As they played, they took care not to harm any of the tables. While the Host of the banquet should have been irritated by the children interrupting the preparations, He instead was delighted in this. He addressed the playing children…

Banquet Host: "Go to the fields of flowers in the valley. Gather up the most beautiful flowers you can find. Once you have gathered the flowers, bring them back to Me. Our guests are soon to arrive."

The children were excited to do this. The children, which included little toddlers and young children, all ran to the flower fields. It was the most wonderful sight. I heard a Voice call out to me…

Voice: "Erin, wake up! Erin, let the reader understand! Let the reader understand!"

Sub-dream 1 over.

Oh Lord, please help me. You called me to my Cepher Bible, 1 Maccabees, Chapter 1. Just as I was reading, I heard a thud against the window behind my head. A grey squirrel was there even though it was high up. He was clinging to my window screen. While the squirrel then tried to jump on a branch, it lost its grip and fell to the ground.

I then went back and read this first chapter. Wow, some of this is happening right now. As I was in my chair, I looked outside. I then saw six turkeys grazing in the grass on a hilly slope area in our yard. As I looked out, a vision took its place…

Sub-dream / vision 2 "Jerusalem goes black" begins…

I saw armies surrounding Israel. I saw a type of general yell out, 'For the sake of God and from the hills to the sea, Zion will be no more!' It was in a foreign language. Another said, 'God brought them in one place so we could kill them like cattle.' Then something swift and black fell upon Jerusalem. While the inhabitants ran, they could not escape what swept down over the city. I then saw a young girl running frantically up a steep hill. She was terrified.

Sub-dream / vision 2 over.

A set of Scriptures then immediately came to mind (all similar, but with some interesting differences)…

Mark 13:14-16*: 14 "When you see 'the abomination that causes desolation' standing where it does not belong — let the reader understand — then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15 Let no one on the housetop go down or enter the house to take anything out. 16 Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak.*

Matthew 24:15-18*: 15 "So when you see standing in the holy place 'the abomination that causes desolation,' spoken of through the prophet Daniel — let the reader understand — 16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the* mountains. 17 Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house. 18 Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak.

Luke 21:20-21*: 20" When you see Jerusalem being surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country not enter the city.*

Father, the USA is next. Please have mercy on Your people. Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 23, 2023, seems to be significant. Kislev 15, Tuesday, November 28, 2023, does too. I can't seem to shake this. While I don't recall all the details, I remember some of a dream I had a few years ago…

Sub-dream 3 "A Thanksgiving Slaughter" begins…

I saw children playing in a schoolyard in the USA. Extremists from the Middle East then swooped in and slaughtered all of them. This was a vision for Thanksgiving.

Sub-dream 3 over.

The enemy is here within our own gates. People are home gathered with family during this season, especially on major holidays such as Christmas and Thanksgiving. Only Covid lockdowns have a similar thing happen. What is happening to Israel is coming to us. Our own weapons will be used against us.

Me: "Oh Father, only You can reverse this! You can! Does our enemy hate us more than You love us? Oh Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not be afraid as you are Mine. Now, there are several signs I have sent you that point to various events unfolding now and in the near days to come. By My Words, I told you that many false prophets would arise and proclaim the way to salvation is this or that and yet one religion is opposing all that is good.

"This religion proclaims evil, death and destruction to be good. They proclaim that to die for their reward is even holy in nature. Now there are wars and rumors of wars soon to rise up even more. Then there are famines and earthquakes. There are people who hunger now.

"Many earthquakes are shaking the nations even as you write. Then there are the persecutions of the children of God in death, including public displays of torture and defilement. They even burn them alive. Not even animals are burned alive! Then there is the great turning away from all that is holy in favor of sin and forgetting who I am."

Me: "Lord, people became greatly discouraged during the Great Reset that shut people in their homes. The government shut the door on worship."

Jesus: "Well, it was the great restructuring of eliminating God and the covenant promise to 'love God with all your heart, soul and strength and to love your neighbor as yourself'. This adulterous generation left Me at the Altar."

Me: "Then the enemy was claiming a great victory over Your people in the battle."

Jesus: "Erin, don't you understand? Look at what happened. Look at what was set in motion. While people were shut in, the leaders in various cities made their hatred known. Their position in support of division was made public. The enemy tried to start a massive war by testing this first in a few cities and schools. Nation against nation is a race and culture war.

"The enemy then recruited an army of the lawless to ravage and destroy the peaceful nation and prepare it for what is a greater plan. Remember that you know the enemy's plans from what he declares from his mouth. His actions then follow… they always do. They devised a scheme to take down America and flood it with foreigners.

"The same is true for Israel. This was funded by Israel's greatest and wealthiest enemy. Erin, please understand… evil is here. The enemy has moved through the gates and, when all seems peaceful, then sudden destruction comes.

"Now you say 'stop this', but did I not tell you all of this is about the heart. Anyone who hunts Israel like they are dogs and those who sit back and allow it and are not horrified at this… well, I will turn My back on them. This also includes those who call themselves children of God and Christians and then look upon Israel and make them into heathens.

"This is why I say bless the Jewish people and you will be blessed. There is a great divide as right now Israel is a measure for the world. This is My possession. I am jealous for My people and the land that is Mine. For whoever touches you touches the apple of My eye (Zechariah 2:8), understand?

"Now, the enemy has declared that, in two days, their wrath will fall on Israel. They have called on all nations who support evil to strike out against all those in support of Israel. I will send the same sign that was sent in 2012."

Me: "Lord, are You referring to the ring of fire eclipse this weekend? A ring of fire eclipse also occurred on Sunday, May 20, 2012 to Monday, May 21, 2012. A ring of fire eclipse is one of the rarest of the various eclipses. Sunday, May 20, 2012 was Iyar 28. Iyar 28 is the Hebrew date for the liberation of Jerusalem in 1967 in the Six Day War, now referred to as Jerusalem Day. As for Monday, May 21, 2012, this was the 44th day of the Omer count. As for the ring of fire eclipse this weekend, this occurs on Saturday, October 14, 2023?"

Jesus: "Erin, these are warning signs to the people. However, they are for those with wisdom to turn to God. I promise you that I love you, I am with you and nothing shall prevail against you. The events that come now are for a greater purpose under Heaven. It is the season of the sickle, a time of reaping."

Me: "Lord, what about the Great Harvest? What about the signs of Your miracles and love? How could death and destruction possibly be a sign of You?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, remember that God is within her and she will not fall. Remember that God will help her at the break of day. All that I have promised you is soon to come to pass. You will have great joy. However, before that is My Great Reset, the darkness before the dawn breaks! Even so, do not worry. What the enemy has planned will be turned back upon them. Great will be their horror and travail.

"Now, this will be humbling. I am God and I am over all things. I am the Lord and God of all flesh. Is anything to hard for Me (Jeremiah 32:27)?"

Me: "Nothing is, Lord. You can reverse the sun. You can bring an eclipse when none is scheduled. You can tear down the Temple and build it back even better in three days. Death cannot defeat You."

Jesus: "Now pray! Do not worry! I have you!"

Dream over.

737 – Sweeping Clean the Unclean Lands

Received on Thursday, October 12, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day, another dream! You are Holy, Father. So many of our generation are an adulterous people who reared their children to turn to idols, not to You. So many were too afraid to take a stand on Your Solid Rock of Truth. Society then tried to cover up their guilt by changing laws, government, schools and other governing bodies to get rid of You.

It is now hateful not to accept these common evil practices. These practices are taught to our children from so many sources. Father, we pray that all of our children turn back to You fully and recognize Your sovereignty. There is so much opposition bred by the enemy in our homes.

Oh Father, please have mercy on us in the coming days. Please turn children back to their parents and parents back to their children. Most importantly, please turn us all to You. Turn us back to You. Have mercy on all of us.

My dream last night was vivid and sobering…

Sub-dream 1 "Sweeping Clean the Unclean Lands" begins…

I awoke in a foreign land, a place that I didn't recognize. It was at dawn. There was a wasteland as far as my eyes could see. I then heard two distinct sounds…

- One sounded like a broom sweeping, a sound that requires no further description.
- The other sounded like a tile floor being scraped off of concrete. This is often done using a heavy tool called a floor chipper.

As I could only hear these sounds, I decided to go towards it to see if I could have a look. Just as I started to walk towards the sounds, dawn began to break. There were heaping piles of ash in organized groupings. I then saw the source of the sounds.

There were two large angels. The first angel had a giant broom. The second angel had a chipper and was peeling up tile mosaics. I went up to them to talk…

Me: "Hi! What are you doing? Where are we?"

While they both glanced at me, they promptly went back to their tasks. I then heard a noise behind me. I turned to look and there was an angel with a massive blower. While hard to describe this blower, the best I can think of is that it looked like an incredibly powerful super high-tech leaf blower or vacuum.

Angel 1 (with the blower): "You will need to stay clear of this area until this job is finished. It is unclean."

Me: "Where is this? What are they doing?"

Angel 1: "Preparing the lands. We are removing all iniquity for the coming of the Lord."

Me: "What is the chipper doing?"

Angel 1: "Removing graven images and sanctifying the ground. This is unholy dirt and these relics are like photographs of a bitter people who worship the gods behind them."

I then addressed the angel with the broom…

Me: "What are you doing?"

Angel 2 (with the broom): "I carry with me the broom of destruction of the Lord, our God. While this was once a great city, it has now been laid to waste. This is the place where the remnants of evil altars, graven images and molten relics have been made dust. There are no graves to spread the dust upon as all of Israel's enemies and their images are as dust."

Angel 1 (with the blower): "For the Lord God has diminished them to fine dust, the finest of the Earth. He crushed them as mire and scattered their remnants across the seas."

I then saw the angel suck the dust up. Other angels then came to carry the dust away. They scattered the dust away from this land.

Me: "What place is this?"

Angel 1: "You know this place. This is what is left of the great armies who came against Israel. We have much to do to prepare for the great multitudes."

The sun rose over a distant mountain range.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up just as the sun in my dream rose. I couldn't go back to sleep, so I got up and started to pray.

Me: "Father, grant me wisdom to write all You instruct me. Have mercy on Your people. Save us from the evil that is here and soon to be on full display. There is nothing we can do to stop what is in motion."

I then found a Scripture:

Isaiah 14:21-23: 21 Prepare slaughter for his sons because of the guilt of their fathers, lest they rise and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities. 22" I will rise up against them," declares the Lord of hosts, "and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, descendants and posterity," declares the Lord. 23 "And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," declares the Lord of hosts.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Now, you are wondering about the broom from the broom tree."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Is this a juniper tree?"

Jesus: "Please understand what is to come. Erin, Elijah sat under a broom tree and asked of Me, for God, to take his life up. He had just displayed awesome deeds. I was there when he called down fire. I worked through him and the power of God shown upon him. However, he then realized what had just occurred and knew that he was now set apart and alone and now had a treacherous enemy.

"He then fled to avoid Jezebel's wrath. He then considered resting under the shade of the broom tree. Consider the broom bush. It is a Chosen Bush. Elijah could see into the realm of the enemy and knew he could not do anything without God. He then went to the shade of the Bush of God. This is the Bush that burns hot and sustains its heat."

Me: "Is this Bush the same Burning Bush as used for Moses and Abraham?"

Jesus: "Yes. Now, understand this… why did Elijah have fear?"

Me: "Because Jezebel called for his death."

Jesus: "Yes. However, what then discouraged Elijah?"

Me: "I am not sure."

Jesus: "Elijah had both fear and faith. He had faith in the awesome powers of God through him as he was given authority to display these deeds. However, he also had fear as he saw what the enemy was capable of. Behind every graven image, every evil altar, is the host of these images… evil spirits.

"These evil spirits are capable of displaying powers also. This is why people that are easily led fall into their lies and deceptions and worship the images, even sacrificing their children and lives to this false belief. Elijah was alone and fled. He soon found himself surrendering to God. The shade of the Broom Tree was his rest. He was fed and strengthened there. I met him there.

"Now, the broom in your dream… this broom signifies My sweeping destruction and judgment over the area. This includes evil kings, evil leaders and evil practices – all against the children of God.

"Erin, I am here in your midst. My Voice is in you. Even so, you still have fear. While you have great faith, you also have great fear. Your faith and fear are sometimes equal."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry that I do this at times. I have seen what I believe is coming and I am terrified. I hear Your Voice. I love You and serve You. We went to worship service last night and the leaders there prayed from a position of not ever knowing war firsthand. In turn, I prayed that they understand that their enemy is here and that it is only by Your grace that they are held away by You for an appointed time.

"Yes, I am afraid for the innocent and unsuspecting people who drive to Starbucks for their pumpkin spice lattes and their shopping excursions. They drive their school-age children to basketball and hockey practices not knowing what is soon to come, if not almost here now. Oh Lord, they have no idea what is coming. Lord, this is now coming to those nations who allowed the enemies in. These enemies have invaded pretty well all of the lands, with possibly the exceptions of China and Russia.

"So, here we are. I am sitting here in my comfortable devotional chair overlooking a beautiful maple tree with leaves like flames of fire. Please bring those who need a Burning Bush moment with You to Your Mountain. Grant us supernatural strength to endure all we will see. Even more so, grant us each a double portion of Your signs, wonders and miracles. Please fill our vessels, Lord. Please make us like branches of Your Broom Tree!"

Jesus: "Then I will strengthen you! I will grant you a double portion of faith. Your fear will soon be removed. Elijah fled to the wilderness in a day and came to rest. He rested another day and an angel fed him and he drank. He then rested another day and an angel told him, 'Arise and eat, for the journey is long!' That food and drink sustained him for forty days and forty nights to the Mountain of God. So, then what happened?"

I went to 1 Kings 19:9-18. I then summarized what I found there which was illuminated to me, knowing, of course, that Jesus knew every detail.

Me: "Elijah went to the cave and brought his concerns to God. You then instructed him to go out and stand on the mount before You. You then passed by and three great events came in a specific order…

- A great and strong wind tore the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord, but You, Lord, were not in the wind.
- After the wind was a great earthquake, but You were not in the earthquake.
- After the earthquake was a fire, but You were not in the fire.

"It was only after the last event, the fire, that You then spoke in a whisper."

Jesus: "So, what have you discovered."

Me: "A great wind, an earthquake followed by fire. Lord, are You in a whisper and not in any of these other scary events?"

Jesus: "I am over all events. However, My Voice is to those whom I call, those whom I am with. No enemy can hear Me as I speak in you as a whisper. Now, I have given you all of this so you would have comfort. You are not alone. I am God over all things. No enemy can contain God. Every threat the enemy declares is about to come back upon them.

"Even the 'puppet-king' of your land will fall as his master is exposed. His master is the one pulling all the strings and he will be exposed. Even though all of Israel's enemies will come against her, I have a great broom in which to sweep the area and rid it of this evil. Now, trust not in your chariots and trust not in your horses. You are to instead trust in God alone. I am with you and My judgment will soon be on full display."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-738/

738 – The Cowardly Acts of the Enemy

Received on Sunday, October 15, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for Your Great Love in the midst of the hate in this world. I am so sad at the record number of lies that have surfaced ever since the attack in Israel eight days ago.

When my husband and I travelled recently, we did not tell anyone where we were going other than our children and they had no contact with anyone out west. On our final day enroute to the Portland OR airport, we stopped to say hello to one of my friends who runs a ministry. We had contact with only two people and no one surrounding that office knew who we were. Meanwhile, I was just glad to see my old friend. We embraced and cried. It had been many years.

Last night, my older son played ignorant when questioned by my ex-husband's family. He told us about this last night. While I laughed it off, it still alarmed me personally. This family has vilified me out west. Even strong Christians never thought to pick up a phone and call me to check if these rumors are true.

They purposely didn't look at both sides nor did they judge by the fruits they saw. They instead believed them and sided with those who somehow benefited them the most. They favored those who lived in proximity with them. They favored those who they saw on a regular basis. It is easy to turn on those who have no social media presence or whose case makes their story too difficult to defend.

Inactions and silence are still a big part of support for a smear campaign. Well, for these, God's Light shines onto the exact location of their position. What were all these people told to make them turn to believe harmful lies spoken about me and about my children? I was in great pain last night. Does my enemy own the Pacific NW? Am I no longer allowed to dwell there?

After years of us being hammered in Bend OR and the Tri-Cities WA, You extracted me and all three of my children to move out east. My kids were not kidnapped. The agreement stated that my ex had to pay no child support of any kind in exchange for their release. While access, visitation, phone calls and regular vacations were agreed to, the vacations had to be paid for by him.

We signed and agreed and had it notarized. Attorneys and judges agreed to the terms and conditions. While they agreed, they were not happy that there was no financial support from my ex for the kids. The enemy then banked on my failure or hopefully my death. This didn't happen and, in turn, my children prospered here with me.

Every trip my kids took to visit these people was focused by them on making their case against me. They wanted their cause to be justified. This backfired. The children instead returned with great disappointment of the evil behavior of this family towards me. My daughter summarized their behavior succinctly.

Daughter: "Mom, they hate you so much that they can't just enjoy their time with us. They make it about interrogation and they then try to brainwash us. I think they hate all of us!"

The years went by and they showed their lack of love by their actions and inactions. We continue to pray for our enemies because hate causes spiritual decline and eventually can lead to spiritual death. I prayed before I went to bed last night…

Father, we are watching a great rise in evil all over the world. Just seven days after the enemy struck out against Israel, the world is beginning to sympathize with their enemies. These enemies proclaim that Israel must be wiped off the face of the Earth. I thought, in my instance, that eventually time would heal and old battles would be met with peace.

Oh Father, I hoped and prayed for peace and a truce. However, hate is like a flame with embers that are never extinguished. These embers reignite a flame into a great fire. Hate is an all-consuming fire. Father, I am exhausted here. I pray for Israel. I pray for all of us. Protect us from all of those who seek our lives. There is more than I can imagine.

I had an unpleasant dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Drafted into War" begins…

All of my children, and even my husband, were called up to fight in a war. They were drafted and had no choice. I was alone there now. Since there was no information available, I went about my days preparing for bad news. I cried out to God day and night for all of them to return home safely one day.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up heavy and sad. I went to pray.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Are you surprised by all you see?"

Me: "No, not really. I am just sad to have so many people hate me with a hatred so beyond normal. The same is true for the people of Israel, the Jewish people. There is such hatred. They are calling for their annihilation off the face of the Earth. It is so ridiculous."

Jesus: "It is by a man's actions in this world against God and His children that determines his eternal home. Will it be eternity with Me or a thousand elsewhere? Who is more grateful… a man saved from the fire or the man who runs into it?"

Me: "The one who is spared from the fire."

Jesus: "Now, what does it mean to be a people chosen of God?"

Me: "It means we are set apart."

Jesus: "Yes. It is a royal priesthood. This means that, when you are set apart, you must keep God's commands. You must pray for those who persecute you for My sake. This does not mean you pray for the punishment and afflictions to increase and that God would prosper the works of evil against you. No! You are praying for the person that comes against you that, through their afflictions, they will turn away from their evil. You are to pray that they turn and be healed of hate so that they might be saved from the great hour of judgment soon to come.

"Now, I stirred this up in you as a reminder. Unless a person comes to you and confesses what they have done to hurt you and asks for forgiveness, then their course of evil and hate continues. It does not stop. The spirit of evil, jealousy, rage and hate still burns within them.

"You are witnessing the plans of the wicked against the children of God now coming against the people of Israel. However, it is now all over the world. They chant to the gods of this world for death to Israel and death to the USA. Now, I want you to remember a recent picture that was sent to you to understand what I am to reveal."

A meme immediately came back into my view. It was an Israeli soldier fighting in front of a baby stroller in order to shield the baby. On the other side was a Hamas fighter hiding being a baby stroller, using the baby as a shield.

Me: "Yes, Lord, this is so true!"

Jesus: "This is how you know and understand evil. It is by their works. It is by their actions. Now, remember the story of Solomon and the two mothers."

Me: "Yes. This is in 1 Kings 3:16-28. The true mother would rather give her child away than see him harmed and cut unto pieces. The mother of the dead baby called for the baby who was not hers to be cut into pieces. Solomon then determined that it was the mother who wanted to save the baby that was the true mother of the live baby."

Jesus: "It was a story of the victory of truth over lies, good vs evil and life over death. Now, use this picture and see it with your own children vs your enemy. If you both fight to protect your children, this is a disagreement that can be resolved. However, it is not. While you protect your children, he does not. He uses them to advance his attacks. I now want you to look beyond your personal situation and even what the people of Israel face in order to understand the war you cannot see."

Jesus then gave me a vision.

Me: "Oh wow, this is amazing. I see You in front of millions of baby carriages with Your angel armies and Heaven above. I then see the enemy of God, Satan and his hoards of demonic armies, using children as shields against You. He attacks and hurts the people. He turns man against You. He even weaponizes babies against You."

Jesus: "Now you understand that you are hated because of Me."

Me: "Will You not soon rise up and show Your mighty signs and wonders?"

Jesus: "Of course! I am active. I am not visible. My miracles, signs and wonders will be on full display. Truth is with Me. My Words and promises are true. I do not lie. Can you endure just a little longer."

Me: "I am a fighter, Lord, but this is just so painful. This war already feels long."

Jesus: "War will be ongoing and increase as it is written as this is the times you are in. Pray, Erin, as the separation of My Sheep from the goats continues. However, a great wind is coming and it brings great change with it. Now, remember that it is I who uses a plumbline. It is I who levels the ground in order to lay a foundation with flush walls. My plumbline is a form of measure, the measure of truth. I will return to Jerusalem with compassion and My house will be built in it. My measuring line will be stretched over it as justice comes. My righteousness will be the level. No lie will be near My Walls."

Me: "Lord, please protect us from the hour of judgement that comes. Please keep our sons and daughters safe. Shelter us. Oh God, please do not allow for evil to advance against Your people. You are our Shepherd and we are Your Sheep. Lord, please cover us."

Jesus: "Do not worry or be afraid. I am with you. Pray for Israel, My measure!"

Dream over.

739 – All of the Lies will soon be Exposed

Received on Tuesday, October 17, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for calling out to me and sending Your great love to the one once called forgotten. Thank You for so many friends and their families. Please protect them and cover them under Your wings. The world is on the precipice of WW3.

Our family has been in drama and crisis mode ever since my husband and I came back from our trip out west.

It has been such a time of grief for me as I try to communicate with my 24-year-old son. Nothing I say or do changes what has happened. Father, I give all things to You. I surrender. I surrender all of it and all of me. We have not experienced troubles like this here. It has been nine years of relative peace. All of a sudden, we have a war.

My husband and I have let all the parties know that we love and support them in their decisions and that we cannot hold back anyone who wants to leave. That is where we stand. This means it is not going well for the ones who don't like change. I am witnessing the five stages of grief on a continuous loop.

This is on top of our troubles with our water pump again and roofing issues as we prepare for winter. The house has two less occupants, so sometimes it feels lonely. On the bright side, I don't have to drive into town daily anymore. I have more time for chores and, more importantly, more time for You, Father.

I have been extremely exhausted the last few days. Every fiber of my being is tired. On top of all this, I discovered some family information that was a betrayal against me. I confronted this head on all by one question. It was as if a floodgate I never knew was there opened and all this sludge flooded through.

I listened to the story unfold as my heart was broken. I was in shock. I became quiet. This doesn't help any health issues I may be having right now. My potassium levels have been low. I increased my intake and added more fluids. I pray that I can recover soon.

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A safety deposit box and cheap expensive furniture"

I was traveling back west alone. I had to meet my husband as he was already there. I had taken a bus to a hotel where I had one night, a Saturday, to spend before flying out early on Sunday morning. I came up to the front desk clerk in order to check in…

Me: "Does the room have a safe to lock my valuables in?"

Clerk: "We do have safes, but they are all here in the lobby."

He then pointed to a wall of what looked like safety deposit boxes. Each had a key slot. The clerk handed me a special key that had a plastic pull tab covering the teeth on the key.

Clerk: "Your box number is #1126."

I then noticed this was the number punched on the pull tab. Before I went to my room, I went to the safety deposit box to store my identification and other valuables. What made this a bit concerning is that I was doing this as people were walking all around me. To add even more to my stress, my safety deposit box was right over the coffee machine and the water cooler.

It was a very public spot and everyone could see what I had just placed in my safety deposit box. I then pulled the tab of the key and exposed the key teeth in order to lock up my unit. It was successfully secured. I placed the key in my bag and proceeded to my room. On my way up, I received a text from the airline…

"Your flight has been moved up one day. You now need to board the plane by 8:00pm for a red-eye flight."

I quickly went to the lobby to gather my valuables. However, I couldn't remember what I had done with my key. I looked everywhere. I pulled out various keys, but none were 'the key'. In frustration, I finally went to the front desk clerk…

Me: "Sorry to bother you, but I need a duplicate key to unlock my safety deposit box and retrieve my valuables."

Clerk: "Unfortunately, a technician is not in until Monday. You will have to wait."

I kept pulling out key after key from my purse, which seemed so strange that I had so many. I didn't even recognize a lot of the keys. I was getting so frustrated. I then recalled it was a small gold brass key. This seemed too good to be true because it was in a spot I wouldn't even think of putting a key. The key opened the safety deposit box and I pulled out my belongings. I walked to the clerk and handed him the key.

Clerk: "What is this for?"

Me: "That is the key that unlocked my safety deposit box."

Clerk: Laughing. "No, it can't be."

Me: Yes, it is. I used it to take my valuables out."

Clerk: "That is impossible. This isn't even a key for these safety deposit boxes."

Me: Holding up the key. "Do you want this or not?"

Clerk: "No."

Me: "I have to get to the airport."

Clerk: "Are you leaving behind your valuables?"

Me: "No, I am not. These are with me."

Clerk: Now angry. "I don't believe you."

Me: "Not my problem. I have to run now."

Clerk: "You are still being charged for your room."

Me: "But I didn't even… oh, fine."

I stayed to make sure I was charged the right amount. I then proceeded to the shuttle. I barely made it. I then met my husband in a city I didn't recognize. We were at a large furniture warehouse. I didn't fully understand what we were doing there.

Husband: "You made it. The good stuff is going quickly. School is just starting too. This means there are a lot of people buying."

Me: "What is this place? There are new and used items."

Husband: "You don't know? These are orders that were to be shipped, but there is no zip code to send them to."

Me: "I don't understand."

Husband: "Where have you been? Come, we have to hurry."

I then saw beautiful pieces of furniture.

Me: "What are we furnishing? Is our zip code okay to deliver to?"

Husband: Laughing. "Of course! Our house is out here."

Me: "Well, okay then."

Every time I would decide on a grouping, it would be purchased out from under me. I was now so discouraged that I sectioned off an entire area with tape and a sign saying 'Sold'. The workers came to write up all the items and handed us the bill. My husband paid for it immediately. It was easily over $50,000 worth of furniture for but a few hundred dollars.

After we paid, several people kept trying to take what we had purchased. They then stopped themselves when they looked at my husband because he was now quite intimidating. They then walked away empty handed. As we were leaving with the movers, I saw my stepdad. While he said hi, he was so busy that he barely acknowledged us.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this was such a clear, but strange, dream. Please protect the coasts of our country. Make sure our zip codes are intact. Please also protect Israel. It is very difficult to hear the chants from Israel's enemies to wipe out all the people from 'the river to the sea'.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are anxious and tired. Big changes are coming. These are good. You will not be harmed."

Me: "Where is the safest place to be when WW3 breaks out?"

Jesus: "With Me and wherever I send you. I am over you. I have you and I am your safe place. You see all that is happening around you. You then have fear and have many questions."

Me: "Oh Lord, this is so true. I don't want to move anywhere. Millions of men who are foreigners have come across our borders. Many of them are terrorists. The times in my dreams of destruction, home invasions and the plunder of the wealthy are soon to arrive. There will be much death in our cities and small communities unless You step in, Lord. It will be a slaughter."

Jesus: "Calm down. Erin, what times are these that you are in? This is about salvation of the Jewish people and the power of God. All those who witness this will be humbled and changed. This is not about personal comfort in uncomfortable times. The spread of lies, even when truth is visibly recorded, is evil. This will also be dealt with by Me. Truth will prevail overall.

"Now, it is easy to imagine the worst when all you see is bad. However, look and see the good around you. See Me working. I promise you that I will never stop. I am active.

"Now, remember that you know evil by its roots and its fruit. The branches are long and they weave in and out. The fruit is rotten and this is if there is fruitfulness at all.

"Now, your enemy has continued to advance against you. However, understand that, those who are Mine, I am also with. Therefore, any advance of evil will meet its end."

Me: "Lord, I am exhausted. Everything I do is met with great resistance. Simple tasks are now struggles. It is difficult to find friendly people now. Perhaps people are just tired of this place?"

Jesus: "Erin, things will become more difficult before it becomes better. These are not easy times. My measure has always been Israel. This has not changed. However, the world is against all of the children of God, as well as Israel. Their hate continues to expand. As trees grow a canopy and are far reaching, so too is the enemy and his army. You know this to have many branches.

"Now, you have been under personal attacks. You have heard horrible things said of you on account of Me. Erin, this is good because you show yourself Mine by your actions towards others. Even the things you do that no one sees, but especially these, show that you care for Me, the one who sees.

"When you serve others, you have the thoughts, 'I would want this for myself or my own children. I will therefore do this for this person or that.' See, I know when you do something for someone else that others cannot see. When you don't draw attention to it, what you did to that recipient and you do this without a thought, then know that I see you.

"When you smile and do something and expect no recognition, great is your reward up in the storehouse of Heaven. One day when I say to you, 'Remember the time you did this or this? Well, I saw it and here is your reward!' While you won't even remember it, I will. Great will be your joy and reward. To Me, these are not small!"

Me: "I always wondered about that. There are days when I am tired and I do my chores as if I was my own picky boss. When family comes home, and sometimes even my husband, not one person notices. While it makes me sad, I would be in even more shock if they noticed. However, You see and know, so I can't be sad. Thank You, Father, for remembering our service!"

Jesus: "Now, I want you to see what is happening in Israel. One side complains about great oppression and victimhood. However, they are truly evil. Even their acts they film and call humanitarian are a struggle for them. This is because doing good is not part of their spirit of evil. They call releasing a hostage humane, yet they kidnapped the victims to begin with.

"The focus is not on all the good that the children of God do. There is so much of that, yet very little of this is recorded. However, I see it. The world then praises one act by an evil regime perceived as good. One small piece of tasteless fruit is then enlarged as a 'miracle' in the midst of war. However, they fail to mention all the evil that is in the open that they display.

"The news reports then call this an equal disagreement that needs peace. Well, it is not equal. It isn't. It is one-sided. That is My land. This is God's land. These are My people and this is the land I gave them. Now, I am the God of Justice, so do not worry. All will be plumb. I will measure it. Watch and see that I am God over all things."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-740/

740 – Judgment isn't coming, it is already here

Received on Saturday, October 21, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for fresh journal pages and ink in my pen. Fall here is dragging out. We still have trees with green leaves. It is beautiful. Thank You. It has been a difficult time for me. Two of our children have moved out. However, not everyone understands it all. The magnitude of grief and loss is something I never thought I would see in my youngest son.

He has always been very private and quiet. He is very responsible and meticulous with what he has. He takes good care and pride in his work. He has lost more than 30 pounds in just five weeks. He is still eating, but very little. He has regressed in his great milestones. While I thought he could actually live independently not that long ago, I am now not certain of this at all. I am exhausted. My heart has been having some strange reactions and I am extremely tired.

I have been able to stay home and rest more. This is a new thing for me. However, I was awakened last night by my younger son at around 2:30 am. He said he needed to talk to me. I got up and met him in the hallway. He told me that some unusual occurrences have been happening in his room and asked me to pray. I went downstairs to his room. He told me everything that had happened.

He was quite scared. I prayed against these enemy attacks. I then asked him if he had introduced anything new into his room. He said no. As we were praying, his computer suddenly acted strange and froze. Still, I didn't have a sense that it was the enemy. It felt more like an angel of the Lord humbling him. Oh Father, You know all things. Can we please get Bryce back to normal? Please help us.

I had an epic dream last night after I went back to sleep…

Sub-dream 1 "Judgment isn't coming, it is already here" begins…

I saw a beautiful valley with grass surrounded by mountains. It was lush. A river ran through the valley. The colors were changing from fall to winter. I then walked to an upper plateau so I could get a better view. Tears streamed down my cheeks. This was a peaceful place.

Just then, an angel of the Lord appeared. He was holding a lantern in one hand. It had a single candle and a flame. Even though the flame was very large and bright, I noticed that the candle itself was not melting.

Angel: "Come, I must show you what has come to the beautiful land, the Land of Promise, that was given to the people chosen of God."

We were instantly in darkness. It was complete darkness. It was frightening. After some time, the darkness abated a bit and I could then tell that we were in a city. However, it was still way too dark for me to see which city this was.

The angel then moved the lantern across my eyes and I was able to see through the darkness. I could see people frozen in fear. I heard gunshots and screaming. It was as if people thought they could shoot through the darkness.

Me: "Are my children okay?"

Angel: "Yes. This is what is to come to humble the nations."

Me: "Is this God? Is God allowing this?"

Angel: "Yes. This is in the beginning of the Word."

Me: "In Genesis 1:3, God commanded light into existence. Does this mean that the darkness must come before the light?"

Angel: "What just happened to Israel has now come to your land. The enemy has risen up during a great day of rest and thanksgiving to God for all that these have been given. This is a day set apart from other days, a day when so many families are together in their shelters."

Me: "Oh angel, won't God relent and have mercy? Please!"

Angel: "This war in Israel is a measure that God is using. This is His plumbline of judgment, understand? Understand that the enemy has come into the promised land through the gates. When given the orders, a great multitude of an evil army will destroy the land…

- This will be from the river to the seas.
- This will be from east of the great river to the eastern sea.
- This will be from west of the great river to the western sea.

- This army was sent to destroy the villages, towns and cities.
- This enemy was sent to slaughter all the people, to dash the babies against the stones and to rape and pillage the lands."

Me: "Oh angel, please stop them. Please don't allow this."

Angel: "The lands were given over by the government. The government is not of the people, for the people or by the people. As Israel was broken apart and sectioned apart, so too is this land. This was done by great evil… leaders so evil and with hate for all those who don't hate as they do."

Me: "Please stop this!"

Angel: "You must understand that all mankind are liars. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints. Who is the Lord's servant? Who will offer the sacrifice of Thanksgiving and call upon the name of the Lord?

All nations are to praise the Lord! All people are to extoll Him. His love endures forever. His faithfulness endures forever. Great is His refuge for those who cry out to Him. One day, all will travel to the House of the Lord. Every knee will bow and every tongue will profess praises to our Lord."

Me: "What a glorious day! I was led by your lamp to read Psalm 119. There is instruction in there for us today."

Angel: "There is a day coming when all will proclaim the Great Gift of God's Grace!"

Me: "Is there anything we can do to stop the judgment that is soon to arrive?"

Angel: "No, Erin, not soon to arrive… judgment is already here. The evil men will burn the beautiful land and the riverbeds will be dry. There will be great fear and sorrow."

Me: "But what will happen to the children of God?"

Angel: "The Lord is your refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. The leader who spoke this over the peoples is the enemy who leads the armies of destruction. He is the great deceiver and liar. He stands with those surrounding Israel and calls for Israel's destruction. Do not worry, Erin, as the Lord has given you eyes to see."

Me: "Yes, but also with the help of your lantern."

Angel: "Erin, the Lord will light your path."

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up suddenly. A woodpecker was tapping on the side of our house. Oh Father, I was so frightened by this dream. Please help us.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Remember Psalm 119…"

My note to all of you: Please read PSALM 119! There is great wisdom in this Psalm!

Dream over.

741 – LAST CALL! The Kingdom Comes!

Received on Sunday, October 22, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Father, I am tired now. I am sad. The news is distressing. There are so many lies. Please help me. What I see while I dream is so real. I wonder if I am seeing through a divine windowpane. I miss the days of dreams of Heaven. I miss the dreams of the miracles and promises set in place by You, Father. You are our God who loves us.

Yesterday's dream (Dream 740) reminded me that Psalm 119 is my declaration and prayer. While there are days that I fall short, my heart remains fixed on You. I love You, Lord. My heart breaks for the horrible evil that has come against Israel. I never thought the modern world could be so barbaric as to chop up babies and burn them. This evil has no rules and no boundaries as they continue on their course forward.

They do all of this with such great speed and seemingly endless success. There is so much evil against Israel now. As for my current dreams, I am also being shown what is soon to come against America. The enemy calls the USA 'The Great Satan'. We see what is happening to Israel and it is 'Coming Soon' to here. It is horrible. I had quite a dream about all of this last night…

Sub-dream 1 " LAST CALL! The Kingdom Comes!" begins…

The premiere for a much anticipated Hollywood movie was soon to begin. While very few knew what this movie was to be about or even who starred in it, social media was already abuzz about it. While there were no details, there was much speculation and theories about the content. The movie was titled, 'Coming Soon'. While there were many rumors about various potential story lines, no one truly knew.

The title of the movie was posted everywhere, including Times Square in New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Houston and Seattle. The list of the cities and towns it would be playing at seemed endless. Since the news in the USA seemed to encompass no more than the mystery movie premier 'Coming Soon' and the war in Israel, people weren't paying attention to what was happening domestically.

At some point before the opening, more troops from the USA were called up to the Mediterranean Sea. The munitions went with them. Even the National Guard was called up to fight. Troops were called up from middle America and all of the countryside areas. All of this seemed to take about two weeks. This all took place while the border to the south was still open.

Since all of the young fighting soldiers were now gone, an enemy army inside our borders easily rose up. They were going door-to-door to kill the elderly, children, babies and women. While there was some resistance, there was not much. During these home invasions the power was out in each targeted area. After first gaining control over the countryside areas surrounding the cities, these cities themselves were then invaded.

There was a lack of information and warning systems, all on purpose. All of the communications were scrambled. The reports that did manage to go out were direct lies that the reports of home invasions were confirmed to be false. As a result, people did not heed any warnings from other sources. The people were confused and believed the false narrative.

The invading armies of foreigners were then given further directives and locations on their government-supplied phones. They were directed to various areas that had stockpiles of arms that they could take up. Many of the weapons supplied were ones they were familiar with. Several armies of foreigners had emerged. They seemed to be circling the country's army bases and were awaiting further directives.

I then saw that there were container ships off the shorelines to the west and to the east. However, these were not what they seemed. The USA was now surrounded by the enemy. In addition to the enemy on the coastlines, the USA now contained evil regiments of invaders. These invaders were seeking the complete annihilation of all who were representative of the children of God (Jews and Christians). I then saw a mighty angel of the Lord call out from his horse…

Mighty Angel: "LAST CALL! LAST CALL! The Kingdom comes! LAST CALL! Who will take His Name? LAST CALL!"

I then woke up suddenly from this horrible dream.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Oh Father, please help us! Please remember Your people. The government was overtaken. The people only have You. You are everything.

You are our only hope. Our only hope is in You! Oh Lord, please don't forget the harvest. Please don't forget Your time of miracles on display!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you!"

Me: "Lord, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, be at peace as I am here and I am with you! Your story as written through these years of pages is My love letter written on the tablet of your hearts. This is so those I have called come to know Me. This is so the Bride chosen for the Groom comes to love the Groom as unconditionally and as surely as the Groom loves His Bride.

"While waiting, I sent dreams, visions, messages and great gifts to the ones who wait for Me so you would not only know the heart of your God who created you and loves you, but what I also have prepared for you in eternity.

"While I know that the wait has been long and you have grown older and full of years, you are still just as beautiful to Me. You are Mine and you are beautiful in the gold of Ophir. I pray that, over the years, you have grown to love Me with your whole heart."

Me: With tears welling up in my eyes. "Oh yes, Lord. I love You so much. You are incredible!"

Jesus: "You will hear horrible things spoken of Me and My angel armies led by Michael. You will hear lies spoken about you, those you love and all who serve Me. However, do not be afraid. I have a great plan in place. The enemies of God and His people will be terrified and severely humbled. Now, pray and rejoice as the times that have been written by the Words of the Prophets of old have come. These continue to come and are unfolding before the eyes of the world."

Me: "Psalm 83 is happening now! It is happening right now, Lord!"

Jesus: "There are even more than this. Focus on the next Psalm (Psalm 84) as this is a gift of God and a promise from Me to you. Now do not worry. There is a great slaughter planned all at once all over the world to every place invaders were allowed. This scenario came into being due to kindness given to strangers during a time of need for the recipients of this kindness. Nations welcomed people who are taught from birth to hate the children of God and to hate the very countries who accepted them.

"All of these lands are now filled with their hate. This hate leads to violence and uprisings. Erin, a peaceful people who are given much are grateful and desire to adapt to the new lands they are given. They then become God-fearing, law-abiding citizens who practice peace. In contrast, these children of death demand much, but offer very little in return. They call for death to all of those who dwell peacefully in the land. I tell you the truth… they will never enter My rest."

Me: "Lord, why allow them in?"

Jesus: "This is because 'The Times of the Fullness of the Age' have come. While I know you wanted things to go a certain way, this is not what is written. In order for those who do not know Me to turn to hear My Voice is for them to search for Me. If they look now for other things to save them, they will not turn to listen to the One who saves. As for right now, they trust in their chariots and are easily led by the bit of their rider. There has been a great war against the peoples of the Earth. There has been great damage done to prepare for what comes."

Me: "Oh Lord…"

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry. I am God over all of the Earth. This is like the Days of Noah. Violence has filled the Earth."

Me: "Hamas equals violence!"

Jesus: "Yes. However, the armies now surrounding Israel and America are the armies who desire the complete destruction of all that is Godly and Holy, all things that I delight in. This hate is unreasonable. The union of the kings of hate is forming (the Caliphate) and violence will go out amongst the nations. This is against God and against all that God has declared as His. This land is My land. Jerusalem is Mine. I will not share it. One day soon, all of them will bow to the King of Jerusalem, the King on the Throne, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Me: "That's You, Lord! What a Great Day!"

Jesus: "It is 'Coming Soon'! Now rejoice, Erin, as a Great Harvest will be over the whole Earth. My miracles, power and glory will be over all of the Earth. Now pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Pray for the peace of the nations under Heaven. I am with you!"

Dream over.

742 – All Will Be Supernaturally Provided

Received on Sunday, October 29, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for this beautiful land that You have given to all of us, especially the natural beauty portion. Thank You for the sun, the moon and the stars in the sky. Thank You for the little animals who come to stay here. Thank You for the beautiful birds who call our place home.

I am spending so much time at home now. I have had a lot to do recently with two children now gone. There has been the packing up of memories. One more is possibly leaving soon too. So much accumulates in nine years. It is hard to believe that this much time has now passed.

One of the issues of being at home more is that we have no cell service. I then keep my phone in one spot and rarely go to it. My screentime is now down 89%. I feel more free and I am able to achieve more. It has been a blessing. September and October are two of my favorite months. However, I am not sure this year.

I was awakened by a terrifying dream on Thursday morning, October 26, 2023…

Sub-dream 1 " My younger son receives stern directions"

An angel of the Lord gave me very direct instructions for my younger son to follow. It was instructions on something that needed to be dealt with and removed within three days. This was to be removed quickly or great trouble would fall upon our house.

Sub-dream 1 over…

My resolve was immediate and very direct. There was no hesitation, none at all. While I can't always know specifically everything that occurs in our house, I sometimes put too much trust in the occupants. I gave definitive instructions that, if this was not removed, he would have to pack up and leave after the three days had passed.

After informing my younger son of the dream, he immediately sprang into action. Within less than a few hours, all was removed. After completing this task, we discussed this.

Son: "Why didn't God say something about this sooner?"

Me: "God loves us. He wants us to have a great life here free from drama and pain. However, He also told us that we would have trouble in this life (John 16:33). He never said it would be easy for us. However, if we have things, view things or participate in things that He sees as sinful, He calls out to us to make changes. While something in us knows that it is wrong, we continue despite this.

"God likes when we make the corrections of our own free will. He waits on us to do so as He doesn't want us to miss a great blessing. Sometimes this takes a while until, one day, He says 'I am angry. I am losing My patience. I will turn My face from them because they are rejecting Me.'

God then made me aware that a problem existed. While He didn't say what it was, I immediately acted. It was a test from God for me to see if I would forsake Him to appease the occupants of the house or if I would follow His instructions.

While my son seemed to then 'get it', I was not entirely sure. I had to remind myself that I am dealing with someone who truly was clueless on the magnitude of the situation. We made sure to do a last sweep last night before the three-day period ended this morning. We received confirmation that God was pleased.

Father, all of the children who live in this house know You, know that Your promises are true and they have witnessed miracles. However, time desensitizes them. While I understand that the enemy works overtime, this was 'next level' warfare stuff. Please forgive me for not enforcing specific rules, laws and orders. Truth in the darkness exposes lies and evil.

Attacks can come from all areas. Our well tank and valves all needed to be replaced. That happened on Tuesday. It was expensive, but necessary. The water pressure to our house was like a trickle. We had a leaking unit. Interestingly, this was near my son's room. All has now been replaced and the troubles have been removed.

As for one of our family members, she did not follow our rules and easily manipulated the one who has limited knowledge. My stepdaughter chipped away constantly at my younger son's child-like faith. Her manipulations were so great that he was convinced that You, Father, didn't care about anything they did. I am so sorry, Father. Autism is a stubborn illness. While it is not an excuse, it is a reality.

Satan can use someone to consistently question all they have come to know. Good had been labelled as bad and bad had been labelled as good. This all had to happen and it started during our trip to Bend OR. This was a trip we had both now questioned as to what its purpose was. We were not sure why we were going when we did.

Well, besides being a wonderful trip, we were greatly blessed there. Both of us agreed that this would be a wonderful place for us when God opens the door. When we returned to our home, so much change occurred that we didn't even realize it until later. This is Your house, Lord. Please keep me strong in Your Will in all I do.

It has been a week of discovery. All that was in darkness has now seen the light. Oh Father, please keep hold of our children. Please lift the veils of deception and open their eyes fully so they can see. If they are unable, open doors for them to go their own way. I would sooner this happen than to lose our way in our own house.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 " All will be supernaturally provided" begins…

My husband and I were in a distant city area out west. While not sure, it seemed to be a suburb of Portland OR. I had an event to attend and I needed specific clothing. I went to a shop that someone had recommended to me for this. When we arrived, the shop had virtually nothing in it. I found myself spending too much time trying to make remnant pieces work into the outfit. I finally turned to the clerk…

Me: "While this shop came highly recommended for what I am looking for, there is nothing to purchase here. It's sad."

Clerk: "That is because you have not been to the Owner's place across the hall yet. As for this place, it has been looted."

We walked from that shop across the way and into a beautiful, fully stocked shop.

Me: "Well, this is more like it!"

Clerk: "We only unlock this for certain customers."

Me: "I walked right by this shop without seeing it!"

Clerk: "That's good! This means that the looters won't see it either."

Me: "There is so much inventory."

Clerk: "Enjoy it as all of it is free to you both. The Owner insists!"

I looked over at my husband and he looked as surprised as me that all of this would be free. When we turned to look back at the woman, she was gone. In no time at all, I found an outfit. We then locked the door behind us. As for the other part of the store that was empty, it was now dark and abandoned.

Husband: "Was that even there?"

We then turned back to look at the store that was fully stocked. It was also now gone. I still had the outfit though. We then left and saw a gas station abandoned with a 'NO GAS' sign. Across the road was a different gas station. It was full service and had inexpensively priced gas. After the man filled our tank, my husband went to pay.

Gas attendant: "This is free. This is on the house. The Owner insists."

Husband: "No, we insist."

Gas attendant: "Sorry, sir, but we don't take money here at all. It is free and runs clean. Your car will thank us."

We were in shock. After we drove away, we turned to look back. The gas station was no longer there! When we then looked at the fuel gauge, it showed as completely full.

We then decided to find some food. We went to a coffee shop similar to a Starbucks. We went to the order board, but no one greeted us. We decided to drive up to the pickup window. There was a man with a headset.

Man: "Sorry about that. Our order intercom is not working. What can I get you today?"

Husband: "We will take two vanilla lattes and two breakfast sandwiches."

Man: "Sorry but we are out of milk and cream and we have no food left."

Husband: "Does this mean that you are only serving black coffee right now?"

Man: Hesitating. "Yes, sir. However, the same Owner has opened a new place across the street. They have everything. Sorry we couldn't help."

Husband: "No problem. Have a great day."

Man: "You too!"

We drove across the street to the recommended restaurant. It reminded me of The Original Pancake House. We parked the car and went inside. While it was crowded, we were seated right away. We ordered our favorite… Dutch Babies. We addressed the server as she walked by…

Husband: "We are ready for our bill."

Server: "This is not necessary. This is on the house. The Owner insists."

We were in shock. We then got into our car. I turned to look at the busy restaurant, but there was no one there anymore. It was just an empty parking lot with no trees and no people. We then went back to the drive thru of the first coffee shop. There was a sign that wasn't there before.

Sign: "Closed Until Further Notice!"

As we drove around, we noticed that there were many businesses that were now abandoned. We drove near a mall. Since we saw cars there, we decided to go in to see if anyone knew anything.

The mall was huge. However, most of the shops had cages over their entrances. We then noticed that many of the big-name stores had been completely wiped out of inventory. A store similar to American Eagle was completely out of business.

We then noticed a store similar to Macy's. It was fully open and had many shoppers. We then noticed that the stores on the outer perimeter of the mall were open and those on the inside of the mall were all dark and out of business. We walked into the Macy-like store. On our right-hand side was a section selling family shoes. A salesperson then rushed up to us.

Salesperson: "We are running our 'If the shoe fits, wear it' sale today!"

Me: "What is that?"

Salesperson: "If the shoe fits you perfectly, you can wear it home at no charge."

Husband: "We can pay though. We would like to pay."

Salesperson: "You don't understand. We don't take money here."

Husband: "If you give shoes away for free, you will then be out of business like all of the other stores."

Salesperson: "Oh no, no, no! You don't understand. The Owner owns all you see. The Owner allowed these stores to be liquidated or looted. This is because they were not blessed by God. Come over here and look at these. These would look great on you."

Me: Even though he was addressing my husband, I was confused. 'But those are really expensive shoes!"

Salesperson: Still looking at my husband. "You look like a size 12."

Husband: In shock that he had correctly guessed. "Yes, I am."

Salesperson: "Then try these on."

Husband: Hesitating as he tried them on. "Oh wow! I have never felt shoes like these. These are the most comfortable shoes I have ever tried on."

Salesperson: "Perfect! They are now a part of you. Wear them with a smile. Since the shoes fit, wear them."

The salesperson then did the same for me. The shoes he had me try on were perfect.

Salesperson: "Beautiful are the feet who bring Good News, right? Take care, folks, and have a blessed day."

My husband and I were in shock as we walked out to the mall lobby. When we looked back, the store was now gone. It had disappeared.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up to the sound of something hitting the house. Just after I wrote this, I went to the kitchen and there, through the window overlooking the birdfeeder, was a female cardinal. She left before I got back with my camera.

Father, I need help. This has been a rough time. I have not been prepared. I went to see a new pacemaker crew at a different hospital. The screen was locked. A message came up that my pacemaker unit needed a key code to unlock it. The technicians had never seen this message in their history of thousands of pacemaker appointments.

They called the rep for my unit and he said that I would have to schedule a new appointment because this key code is secure and not available for him to access remotely. Apparently, it was under lock and key. The creepy screen read as follows:

Screen: "This device may contain features that are not approved and/or are investigational in some markets. Do not continue without contacting us."

There was then a place to click "END SESSION". This was the only option given.

Me: "Oh Father, I have been watching the war in Israel. I have been in complete shock at the response of supporters for Hamas. It has been so disheartening."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have done what I asked of you and so too has your (younger) son. I will bless him and give him great joy. I will remove all the wicked things that have come against him. Great will be his healing.

"Now, I know that you are waiting for news. You are worried as winter is soon to set in. What this dream showed you is this… the world you have come to know is dying. Commerce is coming to a close. This has been done intentionally on bad false reports.

"However, I will soon… very soon… destroy the plans of the wicked against all that is good. I send help to those I love. I send signs, wonders and miracles. I remove enemy assignments and strongholds. I turn the weapons sent against the innocent back upon the evil leaders and their armies.

"Now, war is coming to the nations. The weapons they have chosen will kill off the lands, slowly destroying what you breathe in and what you consume."

Me: "What about the great miracles You have promised us? Lord, these promises haven't come yet!"

Jesus: "Do not worry. Erin, I showed you a view of all the nations and the lights that shone in the darkness. A great miracle is coming. You are now seeing schemes and plots against God's land, Israel. All the nations are turning. However, those who continue to pray for Israel will continue to be blessed. I have created all you see. The enemy plans to remove all of it off the face of the Earth in one day.

"They are calling on the removal of all God's people. However, you are not to worry as I have a Great Plan. Well, I see all of it. All who try to hold Israel back from completing what they were called by Me to do will suffer. To delay the fight is to give the enemy time to redirect its own attack.

"Now, the Red Dragon has enough time to position against the USA and Israel. They have sent mighty warships and arms. The leader to the west appears old and feeble. This weak leader continues to take marching orders from below."

Me: "Is there anything we should do to protect our homes?"

Jesus: "I am with you. Pray. There is none greater in strength than Me and I am the God who loves you. Do not worry or be afraid. When you see all things from beginning to the end, you will stand amazed. Now rejoice. To those who love Me, I will send supplies, provisions, clothing and shoes… all from on high. Erin, I will bless all of those who truly love Me!"

Dream over.

743 – From the River to the Sea

Received on Wednesday, November 1, 2023

Communion

Dear, Dear Father, Who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Your Name. Let Your Kingdom come, let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Grant us this day our daily bread. Please forgive us for our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, forever and ever, Amen!

Daniel 4:2-5: 2 It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me. 3 How great are Your signs, how mighty are Your wonders! Your Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and Your Dominion endures from Generation to Generation. 4 I…was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace. 5 I saw a dream that made me afraid. As I lay in bed the fancies and the visions of my head alarmed me.

Thank You, Father, for Your love and all You have done. You are King over all things and Your Kingdom, Your Dominion, rules for eternity. I take comfort that You are over all things. You are gracious and enduring. Your love never ceases because You never cease. Who else can proclaim this? Father, such evil has spread all over the world. While the spread began slowly, it has now left us in shock.

Some refuse to believe You would allow this. More then came and it is like a tidal wave. Evil after evil. We are now witnessing things we never thought could happen in our generation. It is even worse than all of the generations before. The reports and eyewitness accounts of attacks on the Jewish people in our country, Europe and other nations are rising. However, what has happened in Israel is heartbreaking.

I now reminisce about simpler days, even from just three years ago. This includes planning my days, running errands and performing daily chores. I enjoyed the laughter here. We had a relatively worry-free home. I actually miss the days when I couldn’t wait for the routines to end. I now long for those days.

Father, I am so sorry that I didn't appreciate the simple times. I didn't grasp them enough. I wasn't 'still' in those moments. I wasn't present. I could make excuses as to why I was distracted, but I truly needed to be still more and remember You. Father, please forgive me! Times come and go. Memories are burned within my soul. These are all part of the story You have written on my heart.

Well, I have become older now and I miss my children when they were younger. I miss our activities and adventures together. What I wouldn't give for a week of parks, Legos, movies and pizzas, long drives, laughter and stories at bedtime. Technology, screens and phones were not as available back then. There was more time for interaction and time spent together having fun. I now grieve for these times.

I ask You where all of it has disappeared. Where did it go? They are now all grown up. I am watching the fruits of my labor unfolding in their adult lives. I pray that the memories of Your promises, Your miracles, are forever etched on their hearts. I see the evidence of Your goodness all over their lives and ours. It is hard to let go and let You takeover. Well, You have always been in control of absolutely everything.

Father, for my sake, no matter what happens, please be with them in all things. My older son has been asking if the grackles have returned to the feeder in our yard since he has been gone. Well, for the first time, and on my daughter's birthday, a grackle appeared. The female cardinal returned on that same day. They came briefly and not for enough time for me to snap a photo. Father, thank You for sending them to us!

My older son has not been treated well by certain people out west. Surprisingly, my main enemy is actually not one of these. As for the others, my son is hated because they hate me so much. They literally curse me. His stepmom is blaming me for his Autism as it has become worse recently. They refuse to acknowledge his condition at all. To do so would mean they would be guilty of his mistreatment when little. They really do owe him an apology, not more curses. To them, pride is greater than You are.

The stepmom's grandmother and her last remaining relative went home to be with You yesterday morning. That side of the family has been under the spirit of death since I have known them. There has been tragedy after tragedy. It is very difficult to hear about these tragedies. I pray for this family to have changed and healed hearts. Please bless my son in the midst of all of this as only You can.

As for my younger son, he is traveling out west this month. Father, please be with him. If he comes home from this trip (which he is scheduled to), please make this trip change his heart for Your glory. With only four here, dinners will be much simpler.

Father, my daughter has now launched her blog as You have instructed her. Please bless this for her divinely and show her that You are in this. Please grant her great opportunities for all of her hard work.

Father, please protect Your people. Please show Your love for Israel. Send Michael to cut down these vile enemies. Stir them up from their underground holes and caves. Protect the people, including elderly, babies and children. Father, please release the captives.

I also have a health issue that I need prayer for. I once again had a sharp pain right where my pancreas is. This was followed by nausea. I vomited for twenty minutes. I had to abruptly end my conversation with my older son. Father, I was scared. I don't want to end up in a hospital from this. The worst pain I ever had was pancreatitis after my daughter was born. I was even placed in the terminal ward.

Me: "Father, I love You. However, I am now wearing out. I hate what has happened to this world. Oh Father, please rise up!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I never promised you that these times would be easy. However, I promised to be with you through them. The minute you ask, I will always answer. I will also speak even before you ask. Erin, what you are witnessing is the evil Kingdom rising up in the Earth, along with its kings. It is different from all of the other kingdoms.

"I gave you a dream years ago about a machine that operated in darkness that moved through the land dredging up and destroying all things. This is a government that has tentacles and moves in many different directions. This is like a Great Upheaval of all things good of God. What you are seeing is wars and rumors of wars. However, there is something else.

"You and all of the children of God are at war as this machine and its rulers have waged war against the saints and have called your children theirs. In this war, they are prevailing over them. Children are turning away from their parents and parents are turning away from their children.

"You are at war, but not as you expect. The Nation of Israel is at war. This one has been designed by the enemy to be the final stand to end all Jewish occupation off the face of the Earth. What you are experiencing right now are the beginnings of the worst in humanity."

Jesus: "Lord, You can do something about this situation. Please don't forget about the Great Harvest. All of us are looking forward to Your awesome displays of power."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a Great Plan. Now, continue to live each day well. Be still and know I am God. I have no rival. I have no equal. I have weapons of mass destruction greater than any earthly weapon. I have angels to call down lightning. I have angels to shake the heavens and the Earth. I can cause the sun to hide behind the moon. However, and even more than this, I can cause a veil of thick darkness to fall over all the luminaries in the sky and even on the Earth. Erin, nothing is beyond Me.

"Now, I know it is discouraging to be a child of God and My Bride in these days. You are now seeing a great threat of destruction moving into position. The world is turning on the Jewish people openly. However, notice this… they are also beginning to turn on all those who stand for Israel."

Jesus: "Lord, is it Christians next?"

Jesus: "Yes, but soon will come the race wars. The final push of the mass migration, really the invasion of foreigners, needed to come across the borders of the USA to weaken it. These migrants from all of the nations will then turn to strike out against all of the native citizens. They will plunder, steal and burn their homes and churches. They will destroy all of the good land blessed by God.

"This all began with a war that was started by the leaders against their citizens (Syria). Evil leaders then called out for the world to help with the migrants. The nations to the west and to the north then did so. However, it wasn't enough. The foreigners also wanted their churches there to pray to another god. They then began to destroy and rule by sheer force and number all throughout the world.

"The only place they then needed to still invade was the USA. They did so primarily from the southern territories (that is, from South America). Again, this is to remove those of European dissent, but especially Christians, Jews and any race with light skin. This will ensure that there will be no problems in the future."

Jesus: "Are You talking about ethnic cleansing?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, it never stops there. China will turn on Russia and then the darker the skin the greater the slave."

Jesus: "Oh Lord, will it come to this?"

Jesus: "This is their plan. Nation against nation means ethnicity (ethnos vs ethnos). Ultimately, this is about wiping man off the face of the Earth. Now, just because these are the plans of the enemy, it doesn't mean this will come to pass as they have planned it. Just know they have momentum and are so excited about their rise in power. People are now too fearful to stand against it.

"The overall goal of the enemies of the children of God and Israel is to completely remove them from existence. Remember that there are really two sides – good vs evil. The people of God have constantly sought peace. The pathway to peace for them is compromise and to agree on a mutually beneficial plan. The good side has no intention of betrayal or lying for gain. They then sacrifice part of their ways or land in order to have peace.

"As for the evil side, the children of Baal, Edom, they say, 'They are so stupid. We will take up their offer and break our deal. This is an opportunity and open door for us to take even more and we won't stop.' At one point, Israel was even given the land of Jordan. The map of the Promised Land given to them by God looked very different.

"However, they continued to harass Israel, the Jewish people. The Jewish people were finally given the worst, most barren, land. The enemy then broke apart Israel into patches. However, I blessed the land of Israel and even this angered the enemy. As for the saying 'From the River to the Sea', this is code for wiping God's people off of the face of the Earth… and they will try. However, let Me explain something…

"All of those who divided up My land will be divided and their punishment swift. It will not go well for the enemies of God as they practice all the commands of God. They will read My Word and they will partake in My Feasts, both in the spring and in the fall. They will be forced to worship the God of Israel and they will have no choice. This will be horrible to them at first. However, they will then remember all they did and be humbled. In the meantime, things are ugly."

Note on the last paragraph: From the Scripture Zechariah 14:16: And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

Jesus: "Oh Lord, I am already exhausted!"

Jesus: "I know. You have already been experiencing these foreigners who hate you. Do not worry though as all is about to change. They will not touch you because I am with you. While I know this is difficult, stay vigilant. I am with you in all things!”

Dream over.

744 – We have witnessed the Great Falling Away

Received on Thursday, November 2, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my husband, our children, our house and, of course, the blessing of my ministry. What You have done in our lives is a miracle. I don't thank You enough for all You do and have done and soon will do. I am so blessed by You, Father. I am so thankful for You. I pray that my life song sings to You, Father. It has been painful to see the ways that the world has changed.

All the promise for a great world for my children here has faded. We now instead focus on the place You have prepared for us, the beautiful place that You have made for all of us to enjoy for eternity. Every lovely thing here is just a small glimmer of the amazing marvels You have created for all those who love You. While this world is tough, it used to still be comfortable. There was still church, hope and open prayers.

When I was a little girl, other children would ask, 'What church do you go to?' I didn't go to church, so I said 'methodist'. This is because that is where my grandparents went to church. When we would visit them, I would go to Sunday school at their church. As for now, no one mentions anything about Christianity anymore. This is because the land is no longer safe for children or adults to speak of their faith.

Father, You have been shoved out of society! It is now forbidden to speak about You unless referring to god with an s on the end. They now only want us to speak of the gods as meaning multiple deities. I remember when I became a Christian in the early 90s. I rolled my eyes at the thoughts that societies here in the west (USA, Canada and Mexico) would ever depart from God. Sadly, here we are.

When a nation removes God and His Word, even silencing His people and eliminating testimonies of His evidence in our lives, then God, You, Father, turn Your face away from these nations. You remove Your favor when the people reject You! How do I proclaim Your miracles, Your signs and testify of Your Wonders and Glory if my hands are tied from even lifting them to worship You?

In the United Kingdom, even silent prayers near abortion clinics are illegal and people are arrested and then charged. Father, all of Your goodness in this world has been broken up and destroyed. The hearts of Your people have been broken. We miss our freedom to openly praise and worship You without fear of losing a job or being arrested and persecuted.

So, Father, as You know, my daughter has started a Christian podcast ministry just as You instructed her to. You alerted us that her prayers openly on the airways were going to be squelched on the radio. However, we thought that would still be a few years off. Sadly, within one week of Your warning, I overheard the manager of the Christian radio station say that, if they wanted to keep their broadcasting license, they would need to keep the Jesus talk to a minimum.

I was so sad. I informed my daughter and, within a few days and several confirmations that the radio station was no longer under God, she left. While she had just been given all of these interviews with Christian artists, she had no outlet for them. While she began to assemble all she would need to launch a site, she was then approached to interview for a record label in Tennessee as a representative for the company.

While it was a dream opportunity, it was not meant to be. Then her world began to crumble and she became so discouraged. There were months of delays and then, finally, on her birthday weekend, You welled up in her and placed it on her heart to begin again.

She launched her podcast trailer on her 22nd birthday, on Monday, October 30, 2023. Father, please bless her endeavors. She loves You and is unafraid to share her position with all who will listen. Please let this glorify You and bring a spark of goodness into this dreary landscape!

Father, the children our generation have raised have been so easily lured by the enemy into traps they are unable to be removed from 'save the Hand of God only'. Please keep all of our children turned to You in these dark days. Please let Your hand be over all of our children and our works to glorify Your Name!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your daughter and your children. I am with your friends and their children also. For your sake and the prayers of the saints and as I have promised, I will not leave them. It is I who is God over all things. It is I who can multiply loaves of bread and fish to feed the multitude. While this is impossible for man to do, it is not impossible for Me.

"I will therefore take this bread and, through your daughter and many other youths, I will feed the hungry My truth… THE TRUTH! I will cause those who thirst to be quenched with the fullness of Living Water. My plans are to open the floodgates of My glory very soon. The angels I have appointed at My Gates will keep the enemy removed.

"Now, with the youth of this generation comes troubles as the enemy has laid claim to all the youth as a new army. This is because the youth of this generation are lost and know nothing about salvation or what they do know is that My Name is a name their parents use to curse others from their lips. I have become a powerless god to them. So many have no filter, no gauge, no rules, no peace and no sleep. Their minds are filled with anxiety, fear and darkness.

"No hope for a Savior or a Father to love them and rescue them leads to great rebellion and lawlessness. It also leads to the desire to sin openly because they believe there are no consequences. Hatred is their savior and lies are their truth. They are cold and their hearts are as stone. They hate and loathe themselves and treat others how they too have been treated. They are lovers of themselves. This has been prophesized.

"Now, I know what is needed before you even ask it. I know what is needed for your daughter in this late hour and I have a great plan in this. I have given her a great gift. My Word, My Story, is old. It is an old story and her job is to bring new life to others through My Story. In great humility, My people are found by Me. I am here in the simple things. I am here in the subtle moments.

"My Voice is heard in quiet spaces. My Voice is in the stillness of your day. As you know, Erin, when you dream, I instruct you. In your daily prayers, I hear. In your journal, I scribe. When you ask… and even before this… My voice is heard. You have spent many hours trusting Me in these pages. There are times when you have had your candle begin to burn out.

"When you feel unrecognized and afraid when all of this doesn't pay the bills, then suddenly when you look back, all was covered. This is because you surrendered in full faith all of these journals, their pages and your pens to Me, all for My purposes. This is all done so that I am glorified through your mistakes, not your glory and personal recognition, but Mine.

"This is what walking a life for My purposes is like. It can mean a path that you cannot see where you are going. However, if you choose this way, My way, I promise you that I will walk with you as you step and I will light your path. While you had great ideas in the beginning of how this all would look, you never stopped when all those around you told you to stop. You had fear. You were threatened.

"The enemy tried to squelch what I was doing through you at every turn. You have prevailed. You have shown your love for Me here and, in turn, My love has spread throughout the multitudes of those who search for Me. I am found by them there. I will therefore bless your daughter with even more for your sake and the sake of those who long for truth but cannot see it.

"Now, you have witnessed the Great Falling Away. It is before your very eyes. The world is growing cold rapidly. However, keep your eyes fixed on Me. I am about to bring into My pen all the sheep who decided the pastures were better elsewhere and wondered away from My care.

"Many others will see My workers gathered and the angels over them and they will run to Me as it is better with the Shepherd than away from them in a den of wolves with sheep clothing. Erin, I am here and I am with you. Rejoice. You are greatly loved. Are you ready now? Peoples get ready!"

Me: "I love You, Lord. Thank You."

Jesus: "Get ready! Be ready!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-745/

745 – Humbling the Proud
Using the Invaders

Received on Friday, November 3, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Divine Goodness. We are so thankful that You are God over all things.

I am not well these days. I am extremely exhausted on top of all of this. Please help me finish this miracle of a race here. Please protect all of us in all things.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Door Dash Delivering Death" begins…

I drove to a lighting gallery in town. When I arrived, they were about to close. I spoke to a salesclerk that I already knew.

Me: "Where are all the lights? I noticed that all of them were boxed and all of the fixed showroom lights were being removed."

Clerk: "We don't need lights anymore. They will just draw attention here and people are no longer purchasing lights. No one wants visitors."

Me: "But don't people need lights in the darkness?"

Clerk: Sarcastically. "Where have you been? In this war, you are better off in the darkness. So, this is what we sell now." She went to several large boxes. "We just got all of this in, but I need to warn you that these are going fast."

She pulled out goose down comforters and other blankets and pillows.

Me: "Down bedding? Why?"

Clerk: Angry now. "Well, look around this city. You need to be comfortable in the darkness. Who knows if one will even wake up from their sleep at all."

Me: "I don't really need bedding."

Clerk: "We are about to close. I will give you a queen comforter or do you need a king?"

Me: "I don't need either."

Clerk: "Okay, so you need a King Comforter."

Me: "I think we all do."

Clerk: "Oh, so you are a Christian. How nice for you. It is time to close now."

Me: "How much? I am just curious."

Clerk: "$412 including taxes and I'll even throw in 2 down pillows."

Me: "While that is generous, I need to think about that."

Clerk: "Well then, we are closing."

She began to show me out the door and locked it behind me. The whole place turned dark. A sign was placed there that read 'Out of Business'.

After that, I began to drive north towards a grocery store. I could see Door Dash and Skip the Dishes delivery drivers everywhere stopping at various homes with deliveries of dinners. I noticed immediately that the drivers were heavily armed and looked like foreigners. When I arrived at the grocery store, there was a doorman.

Doorman: "What is your name, your address and the number of occupants."

I knew this was evil, so I gave false information and increased my house size so I could purchase more food. I knew something was wrong, so I quickly purchased what we needed and a little more. When I went to checkout, the cashier slipped me a note with my receipt. I pretended to arrange my wallet when I was really reading the note…

"Drive home another way. They are killing everyone in their homes."

When I then looked back at the cashier, she looked terrified. I acted nonchalant and proceeded to the door. I heard the Voice of the Lord…

Jesus: "Tell the door attendant 'God Speed'. They will not follow you."

The doorman looked at me with sheer hatred. His eyes followed my movements.

Me: "God Speed."

Doorman: "Uh, excuse me… please repeat."

Me: "God Speed."

Doorman: "Thank you, ma'am."

He immediately got on a walkie talkie and, in a foreign language, called off the attack dogs from the parking lot. No one followed me. As I drove back up the road, I could hear gunshots firing everywhere that I could see these delivery vehicles. As I drove, I came across a mom with a baby and two little children. The mother looked extremely scared. I pulled over…

Me: "The four of you… get in my car now."

The four of them immediately came into my car. I drove forward quickly.

Me: "You seem shaken up. Are you okay?"

Mom: "No. They shot my husband and son. We are Jewish and have nowhere to go."

Me: "Okay, now listen carefully. I need you all to get down and stay down. I am going to take you home to my house."

As I was driving past the lighting gallery that I started out at, I saw the owner and clerk now standing out front. I pulled into the parking lot and rolled down my window.

Me: "How much for the 'Queen Bundle'… the queen comforter and the two free down pillows?"

Clerk: "Sorry, but you are too late."

Me: "Okay."

I began to drive off.

Clerk: Calling out to me. "Wait! Wait! I have a Queen Bundle right here for $412."

Me: "Hey, wait a minute… that was the price of the King Comforter."

Clerk: "Well, you should have bought that when you had a better deal. By the way, you aren't hiding any Jews in your car, are you?"

Me: Speaking with authority. "What are you even talking about?"

Clerk: "There are bounties now. Turn in Jews for cash."

Me: "What about all of those delivery drivers? Are they going door to door?"

Clerk: "Yes. When placing the order, the question they ask you is how many are in your household. If you give them an answer, you get $20 off your order. Pretty well everyone answers the question for the discount."

Me: "Wait. So, these delivery drivers are armed because they are killers? Are they getting delivery drivers to do this because they almost always get an open door?"

Clerk: "Yes! Door dashing."

Me: "Okay, I will purchase the Queen Bundle."

I handed the clerk $420 cash and she gave me back $8.

Clerk: "God Speed."

I immediately knew she was one of them and was fishing to see where I stood.

Me: Without hesitation. "God Speed to you too."

Both the owner and the clerk seemed relieved.

Clerk: "Thanks. Goodbye, Erin."

I waved and drove off. We soon arrived at our neighborhood in the country. While we still heard gunshots, it was relatively quiet down in our area. There was a notice on our door that our home was clear. There was a symbol sprayed on our front door. When we went inside, I turned off most of the lights. As I did, I saw a note from my husband…

"We were called up, armed and forced to fight. Pray for us. I love you!"

I was now alone with the mom, her baby and her two children. I took her to the basement to show them around.

Me: "You will need to stay here in the basement in my son's room. It only has one window and the drapes are already closed. It also has a hidden closet that you should go into just in case there is trouble. I am going to go upstairs and prepare some food. You must be hungry."

I heard a knock on the front door and I quickly went upstairs to the door. I could see through the window on the door that it was a delivery driver. I immediately became scared. Thankfully, I then heard the Voice of the Lord again…

Jesus: "Tell them that your husband and sons are fighting for the cause and then tell them 'God Speed'. Do not open the door. Speak through it."

When I approached the door, I could see that the man was trying to hide his assault weapon.

Me: Speaking through the door. "What can I do for you?"

Delivery man: "Where is your husband and the rest of your family?"

Me: "They are fighting for the cause. God Speed!"

This delivery man was extremely evil. I could tell he really wanted to break down the door and harm me. Just as he was going for the door, he suddenly left in a hurry. It was almost comical how fast he sped off in his car. I turned off all of the lights and brought food to the family. I woke up when the ground shook in my dream.

Sub-dream 1 over…

The shaking in this dream felt more like an earthquake than an explosion. However, I could not tell for sure. I also had another dream two nights ago…

Sub-dream 2 "Massive Explosions at Europe's Attractions" begins…

There were massive explosions near every large tourist attraction in Europe. I saw the London Tower drop its clock arms to six. Another explosion then rocked the area. The London Tower then fell. I could hear screaming. As I looked, I saw a small black cloud. However, the black cloud didn't stay small. The black cloud swiftly overcame the entire area. I could hear the screams of so many…

"London has fallen! Brussels has fallen! Paris has succumbed!"

I could hear screams of terror coming from everywhere. I could see thick smoke everywhere. I then saw a sight hard to adequately describe. A massive chunk of black pavement with yellow lane markers appeared to float in the air. I knew that, when it fell, all those below it would be crushed.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these dreams are terrifying. While don't receive deliveries here, there are many foreign utility workers who ask a lot of questions. I don't like feeling like we are being watched and counted. It is disturbing. Officials are now calling the invasion from the southern border 'Seasonal Migration', like they are some sort of animal or bird flock that are free to come and go as they please.

Me: "Oh Lord, a war is coming and it is unlike any other war. This is because it will not be them fighting against our army, but instead directly fighting families in their homes."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Be diligent."

Me: "Lord, what about these dreams? Both of them were horrible."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, these are not easy days ahead. Understand what has occurred. Here is their plan, much of which has already unfolded…

- The migration went out into all of the nations. Most reporting of various incidents against the citizens went unreported. Since crimes against Jews and Christians were covered up, no one really paid attention.
- Powerful leaders invested money into leaders in business and government to gain power and change the narratives. The leaders in place at the top of these governments have been paid to look the other way and tell citizens this is false reporting when a bad report comes.
- They needed to disarm the population. Instead, more people purchased guns. They now plan to confiscate each weapon that has been registered to a location.
- In the meantime, while the plague shuttered churches and the people indoors, registries of vaccines also went out.
- Foreign governments put their leaders in power over the people.
- Their main goal is to harm the great nation over all nations (the USA) and the nation of Israel.
- They plan to hunt down and kill anyone who are opposed to them. They plan to invade their homes and steal their properties.
- They wish to displace the citizens by death or slavery and take over all they lay claim to.
- They wish to remove all of the Jewish people and all of the Christians.
- You will see the rise in the countries of northern Europe first. It will then spread from there.

"This is how evil operates. They integrate or penetrate peaceful regions and then appeal to the goodness in the citizens. When the citizens then change for the foreigners, troubles begin. This is often referred to as 'compromise'. Erin, you know this… there is no negotiating with people whose main objective is to destroy all that is good and die as a martyr in the process. However, you are to remember this… I see it. I have allowed this because the people turned their faces away from Me."

Me: "How did this happen?"

Jesus: "When a foreigner comes into a host country and says, 'Poor me, your churches and your God make me feel uncomfortable and are signs of hate.' The country then throws away their principals under God and seek to appease the foreigners and their beliefs, thereby elevating them. They even place their evil gods on signs for all to see. More are then allowed in and the cycle continues and accelerates."

Me: "But, Lord, our government is not a real one. How then can the people be blamed for all of this?"

Jesus: "If the people would turn back to God, turn back to Me, in fullness, then I will no longer hide My face from them. I will turn and heal the land."

Me: "Lord, please! Your people love You and pray. Please don't punish all of us for the actions of those who do such evil."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have a Great Plan! Erin, I am about to do something in your day you would not believe even if I told you. Now, this doesn't mean doom and gloom as you put it."

Me: "It sure seems that way to me."

Jesus: "There are events still to come. Remember that it is always the most discouraging before good news comes. It is darkest before the dawn and the dawn comes quickly. Now, remember that I am God over all things and that all of My promises are true. I am here and even at your door. I deliver the best news, food and drink, but more so I deliver you."

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Jesus: "And I love you. Just keep your focus on Me. All evil will be exposed very soon. Be ready! Are you ready?"

Me: "As ready as I will ever be!"

Jesus: "Good then… BE STILL! Be at peace knowing that I am God. I am the God of Justice and Mercy!"

Dream over.

746 – Prophesy to the Cave of Bashan

Received on Saturday, November 4, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for peace in our home as a war wages in Israel. It is difficult to imagine what the Jewish people are enduring with the evil nations surrounding them. Father, please bless Israel. Please protect them and keep them from the enemy's desire to wipe them out. Please turn and smite the enemy with the very evil they plot amongst the innocent.

I have not been well lately. If this pain continues, I plan to go to the hospital. I woke up with nausea in the middle of the night at 2:00am. I then fell back to sleep. I woke up from my dream around 4:00am and finally fell back to sleep only to be awakened suddenly by a loud 'bang' outside on our property. When I got up, I couldn't see anything. The dream I was having was quite vivid…

Sub-dream 1 "Prophesy to the Cave of Bashan" begins…

I was traveling with my daughter and one of my sons. We were fleeing Portland OR by ground. We made it as far as Silver Falls on foot. We were then met by two indigenous men in a city park. They were taking us to one of their sacred places. We were walking on a dried mud road with extremely deep grooves.

The grooves made traveling by foot challenging. We finally came to a small village on an outcropping with white stucco dwellings. It was a very arid place. We were no longer in Oregon. It seemed to be someplace in the Middle East. There they pointed to a distant ridge with a massive church-like temple. It looked uninhabited.

Man 1: "This is as far as we can take you. The rest is up to you."

Me: "How will we get there?"

Man 2: "You won't make it. It has not been done."

Me: "Is there a road or trail?"

Man 1: "Yes. However, they are extremely dangerous. Pray to your God."

Man 2: "You can go up the road over the first ridge. From there, you will need to leave this road."

Me: Looking at my kids. "You can't go with me."

Kids: "We insist. We wouldn't leave you no matter what."

Me: Reluctantly. "Okay, but you need to be careful."

We walked for hours before reaching the first ridge. We looked across a deep valley between the ridges. It was thick forest leading to dry arid land.

Daughter: "Oh mom, look closer!"

She pointed to the floor of the valley. What I thought were bleached pieces of wood and sticks were actually bones. I could tell from the small size of the bones that they were mostly from children. I became sick in my dream and the nausea came in real life. I woke up. I heard the Lord's Voice…

Jesus: "Prophesy to the Cave of Bashan!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Father, what was this dream about? What is Bashan?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I stand at the Gates of Hell and I will shut it. I will destroy it. It is there where I proclaim that I am God and that I prevail over darkness. I am the Light of the world. Whoever follows Me will never walk in darkness. They will have the Light of Life instead.

"Now, where did I state this? Where did I proclaim that this rock would be the place I built My church upon and that the Gates of Hell will not prevail against it."

Me: "I realize I know so very little about Your time here, Lord. I just had a crash course on Caesarea Phillipi. I am so sorry."

Jesus: "Erin, My Church is vacant and all the sacrifices of the children of those who love Me are here. They are here along with the children of the wicked Baal worship. Where is this?"

Me: "Well, from my dream, those traveling to Your Church as pilgrims were slaughtered, along with their children. They lay in the same place as those who sacrifice babies to Baal."

Jesus: "You are partially correct. The trouble coming from this place of history still continues as the Gates of Evil and all its hosts go to and fro.

They seek to control My Rock, My Church and My people. They rejoice through death. However, I hold the keys to death and Hades and it is I who has the final say.

"This place is where I revealed who I am. I am the Light of the World. This is also where I proclaimed another name for Simon and this is Peter and that on this rock I will build My Church and the Gates of Hell will not overcome it. Note that I didn't say that all Hell won't try to, just that Hell will not prevail to overcome it. Now, I declared something else… a mystery."

Me: "I looked in Scripture to find this…"

Matthew 16:13-19: 13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" 14 And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" 16Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." 17 And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in Heaven. 18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My Church, and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. 19I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on Earth shall be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth shall be loosed in Heaven."

"I believe that verse 19 might be the mystery."

Jesus: "Yes. This is about authority over all of this… the permission, the signet ring, the key, the ability to forbid a thing or permit a thing. However, it means even more than this. Now, you ask Me often, 'Lord, are You sure You can't find a better person than me for Your purposes? I don't know much except that I love You!'"

Me: "Yes, Lord, I say this all of the time."

Jesus: "Do you think that I didn't know you from the beginning… how you were and are and how I made you to be? Of course I did and I don't make mistakes. Who in My Story is perfect and a has a perfect lineage or history?"

Me: "No one."

Jesus: "Well, it is perfect in My eyes for My purposes. However, man judges and sits on the judgment seat of popular opinion. Now, I chose Peter absolutely knowing in advance that he was to deny Me three times. Even so, I still chose him to build My Church. Now, you have questions."

Me: "Yes, Lord, many and always. Am I correct when I read that Peter ended up being persecuted too?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, through him, My Church was established. Sometimes it is through death that new life springs forth."

Me: "But, Lord, You said something to all of the disciples that hasn't happened. This is from Scripture too…

John 14:12-14: 12"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I do (raising the dead, blind to see, the lame to walk, the lepers healed and so on); and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. 13 Whatever you ask in My name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask Me anything in My Name, I will do it.

"Well, Lord, here we are and we are asking in Your Name for us to be healed and Transformed and for our service in Your Holy Army to now begin!"

Jesus: "Ah yes… you wonder about this and when this is to be?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. The disciples didn't do anything more or greater than You. This has not happened yet. Since we are coming to the end soon, it means that this must be happening in the near future for those who You will soon raise up! Again, we ask for You to soon raise us up for Your Mighty Purposes and for the Glory of God, our Perfect Father! Oh Lord, all of us on Your Nest can hardly wait!"

Jesus: "Prophesy to the Cave of Bashan. Declare it shut."

I then looked up the location of the Cave of Bashan. Bashan is outside the Golan Heights in Syria.

Me: "I am still unsure of what this means."

Jesus: "It is at the base of Mount Hermon. Declare it closed! Pray! I am about to shut this Gate and throw down the mountain over it. The activities of evil will be held back. Now, pray that this be stopped because the evil prince of this area has come against Israel and a great army is soon to be released.

Me: "Of course, Lord, You are God over all things. Your Gates, the Gates of Your Church, shall be open continually. These shall not be shut day or night. In Your Church, there shall be no darkness there. However, woe to the people who practice darkness at the Gates of Bashan, those who sacrifice their children to Baal, those who keep the Gates of Hell open day and night to pray for the destruction of God's people.

"Today, their Gates will be close and evil spirits, powers, principalities and all that operate in darkness will not be able to open the gate that God has shut. Lord, call down the mighty mountain of Bashan over it. Do this for all the evil contracts made there against the children of God.

"Oh, how many plots were hatched there at the Gates of the Fallen at Mount Hermon. Close this Gate, Lord, and let not these evils come against Your people. You are God, our Father, and the Lord over all things. I declare this in Your Mighty Name, AMEN!"

Jesus: "Very good! Then this will be done. Now, you don't understand fully what this is yet, but soon you will. Rejoice, Erin. Do not worry. I am with you. Be ready!"

Dream over.

747 – The False King is Soon to be Exposed

Received on Sunday, November 5, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

You are wonderful and glorious in all of Your Works! Thank You for another day here. Thank You for all You do. Thank You for my family, our home and our Nest. Bless the works of the hands who love You and the pen that serves You. My sleep was difficult last night. My very soul is in a state of unrest. My body is rejecting food and water.

Father, I am sick. My sleep was disturbed and broken up with illness and restlessness. Please don't allow the spirit of death to fall upon our house. I ask for death, illness and the spirit of poverty to flee our house. I declare life, vitality and abundance here over all of us. I pray for this in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!

I awoke from my first dream (written below) to Your Voice…

"Speak to Pergamon as My Sword is a double-edged one!"

I then awoke from my second dream (also written below) to Your Voice…

"Prophesy over the Valley of Jezreel. Prepare this ground in advance, for what is sown there shall be reaped by Me and the Armies of Heaven. The Mountain of Megiddo will be no more!"

I am clearly receiving a complex Bible geographical lesson. I know a little of Pergamon and I have seen the name of Jezreel in the Bible. Please show me how to prophesy to these. All of this seemed to relate to two dreams I had last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The 'real' king and the mannequin king" begins…

I saw an altar of Pergamon with a throne. It was all staged. It was like a theater for a big event. While the actors were modern day, the stage and place had ancient origins. The main actor was dressed as a 'king of the people and for the people'. However, he was not actually from the native land of the people. It was all lies. While he then proclaimed he was 'for the people', he actually wanted their death.

However, he didn't just want their physical death, he also wanted the death of their souls. All were called to attend this theater and they had no choice. As I saw this theatrical scene play out, I could see the faces of the actors changing back and forth. I saw an audience of thousands and thousands. All were captivated by the 'king's' speech. However, the way this all unfolded was confusing.

I saw half of the people fall down before this acting king. They were literally worshipping him. These were once principled people who were well-educated and knew history and religion. However, they were ashamed of Christians and even Jews. A common part of their speech was to proclaim, 'I was raised Christian, but…' This resulted in them being easily led away.

The other half looked upon this theater as false. It was not real to them. They felt that this could never happen to them and it was merely folly. Despite this, they still saw the danger in sprinkling truth into a script of lies.

Most people in both halves noticed that the king was so believable in his speech and acting that they believed that many could turn from their beliefs and morals in order to follow such a way. After the first two acts, there was an intermission… a pause. The audience got up to stretch and move around. The actor playing the king soon became very angry at the audience for not giving him the praise he had hoped for… he then dropped the microphone.

In response, he told the other actors that he was going to go 'off-script' and give the audience more. When the audience then returned for the 3rd Act, a mannequin king was sitting on a footstool next to the real king's throne (but obviously really a false king compared to Jesus, the True King). Several other actors made the mannequin king move in many different positions according to the real king's orders.

The real king then became angry at the audience's reaction. One side laughed and cheered. The other side knew this actor was no longer acting. This half sat and watched in silence as the entire act played out. The real king made the mannequin king hurt anyone opposed to the real king. Jokes were made that insulted those who were quiet. All the while, the other side was stirred and mimicked the real king's movements.

In the 4th Act, the real king started to call for the removal of those in the audience who stood for God. The audience then suddenly became quiet. The audience who had supported him suddenly became aware that they had a decision to make. They became self-aware that they had been deceived. Many of them then stood next to the other audience. This left only 25% of the audience to support this king.

This evil actor king then called upon the audience to sacrifice themselves and their children to him. As some in the audience didn't like this, they went over to the majority side. The king called them all hypocrites. I awoke when the entire stage was lit up by lightning.

Sub-dream 1 over.

As I mentioned before, I awoke from this dream to Your Voice…

"Speak to Pergamon as My Sword is a double-edged one!"

Father, it seems like Pergamon is a place of wicked speech. Please remove the enemy's ability to deceive. As I watched this king, I saw how much hatred he had in his eyes. He enjoyed manipulation. He enjoyed speaking hate and dividing. This 'king' has divided the world against Christians and Jews.

Please strike down this evil stage and throw it into the sea. It is as if Hitler has risen by another spirit, another name and another religion. The audience seemed to compromise their love for You, Father, to follow this false acting king. As for the second dream, there was a scene that I was familiar with…

Sub-dream 2 "Your time has come!" begins…

I was once here at this place years ago. I woke up in a place where I was hidden away. I was young and in a white linen tunic dress. I was in a bright room. I heard a bird chirping in the room, so I got up to follow it. I walked through an opening down a short hallway. Since the area was all white rock, I could see an opening.

I saw the bird perched on a wall blocking the entrance from view. The bird waited for me to follow. I then turned to my right and I could see a massive plain or valley. There in the center were some ruins and large boulders that had destroyed whatever was once there. There were columns of smoke.

Someone then sounded a shofar. I looked all around and saw others coming out of their hidden places. On the ground by my dwelling was a white rock with an inscription on it. I then noticed that each person had one. I then saw a mighty angel of the Lord on a beautiful large white horse in the valley. I then heard a thundering voice…

"Come out, come out! Your time has come! The Kingdom comes!"

He had his horse prance in the most amazing way. He had incredible control over his horse. Thousands of God's people were gathering. It was dawn.

Sub-dream 2 over…

As I also mentioned before, I awoke from this dream to Your Voice…

"Prophesy over the Valley of Jezreel. Prepare this ground in advance, for what is sown there shall be reaped by Me and the Armies of Heaven. The Mountain of Megiddo will be no more!"

Me: "Father, these dreams were very clear even though I am still not sure about the second dream. All I know is that a great battle occurred there. You once told me this was near Mt. Carmel. I don't know this area."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Remember that I am God over all things. I am the Giver of Good Gifts and the Keeper of Mysteries. I am also the God who brings revelation. Now, understand how Israel has been compromised over the years. This is My Land. This is the Promised Land of My Chosen People.

"However, those who are the ones sacrificing their own children to their evil causes are not peaceful inhabitants. They hate with a deep, vile hatred for the land and the Jewish people. This is the land of the sons of Jacob. Any other truth is not to be believed. The root comes from the fallen and from the chiefs who made a contract together to destroy God's children.

"These spirits and princes are all throughout the land. Then to the north is the seat of Satan and there is his lying spirit, his stage. There at this place, he hatches plots and schemes with others to remove this or that. While he acts as god, I know his seat. I know where he is and what he is about to do.

"He also knows where I am and believes he knows Me. However, he does not know Me. If he knew Me, he would never come against Israel and stir up the audience of the world against her. He has multiple paths to take to achieve his ways. However, I have a better way and he will not prevail. Erin, be clear about what you see and about what has happened."

Me: "I have seen someone rise who claims to be a Christian. However, You have told me that there is something to someone's name. This man changed his birth name to a Muslim name and never went back to a Christian name. By his name alone, he serves a false god. His speech was smooth and he came out of nowhere just sixteen years ago. He seemed like a bright and shiny star. He rose up to lead the people of the USA. His first order was then to take out the enemy responsible for 9/11."

Jesus: "He knew that enemy, Erin. They knew each other."

Me: "I didn't know that."

Jesus: "It was a martyr's death. This incident then neutralized all of those who doubted him. Many then removed their best instincts and followed him. His hatred for his people then grew. He benefitted from evil. He sent money all over the world to prepare for his rise over the world. He took a pilgrimage to his holy Mecca. Everyone made excuses about him doing this and people believed the lies.

"The people of the nations have been deceived. Many have been given over to these deceptions. When I give you a specific location, wisdom as to why I have pointed to this place is important. Look at the original gods that worshipped in this area. Look at the places where replicas have gone out from these ruins."

Me: "Oh my, there are a number of these! There is Berlin in Germany. In the USA, we have Denver CO. There is Turkey. There are even places in New York City. Then there is the Ishtar Gate!"

Jesus: "Now, understand that these are evil altars. The fallen angels came from heavenly places. They knew God, His Throne, His Altar, the Altar of His Presence and all that is with God in Heaven. This altar and seat of evil on Earth is a counterfeit designed to mock God. There is always a deeper meaning behind every action directed at Me and My angel armies. This is Satan's seat. You have seen the Throne Room of God in Heaven. Did you forget?"

Me: "No, of course not, Lord. I could never forget this. However, I could not see fully because God's Glory is greater than my ability to see. However, I do recall rows of columns and the majesty of the architecture. The Blue Sea, the Living Stone of Glass, is impossible to forget. However, this Pergamon is not even close to Your architecture. It is a poor-quality replica and of a much smaller scale. Lord, there are so many facets to Your story. Help me understand what I can do. How do I pray?"

Jesus: "This leader is now over your land. Most of the Earth is his 'oyster'. Even though he has established himself as for the people, he is not of the people. His tongue is dull and he thinks himself clever. He has caused nations to rise against nations. He has called for criminals to rise up and for terrorists to come to the land of opportunity. He has prepared God's lands for his great reaping against Me. Well, Erin, he will not prevail as I have a Great Plan.

"Now, prophesy that his seat is overthrown by God and that the evil on Mt. Carmel come back upon them. Let us decide in the Valley of Jezreel as I remove the Mountain of Megiddo in the place of My reaping. My River Kishon runs through this. It will be through My River of Living Water that judgment shall come. The Living Water of God is in My people and My army. This is the final battle and My victory."

Me: "I speak for God's victory, along with His angel army, to completely destroy the Mountain of Megiddo which contains the hidden places of evil practices by those who long to harm God's Land and His people. Fill every cave and hidden corridor with the light of Your judgment and let the light of Your presence and goodness be harvested here. Lord, let Your River of Living Water give life to those who love You and stand with You and let those who waver be exposed.

"Let all of those against You be judged and their lives be no more. For anyone who comes against Your people, Your Land of Israel and all the nations dedicated to You under Your Rule, let them know that they are coming against the very apple of Your Eye. Let the Valley of Decision be Holy Ground and the River of Living Water wash away the blood evidence of evil against Your people. The victory is Yours, Father. Forever and ever, Lord. Heaven is Your Throne and Earth is Your Footstool. I pray this in Your Mighty Name, AMEN!"

Jesus: "Very good, Erin. I accept your declaration of prophecy."

Me: "Lord, could You give me Divine Wisdom concerning these places? I only know my land, our homeland."

Jesus: "Look to where the enemy has set up his replica seat and his foundation stone. This is where he called up his army. He will be exposed soon as what happens to Israel will follow the nations who did not stand with her. The enemy is taking an account."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this. Your miracles for all to see have not been seen. Create Elijah-type miracles throughout the nations to come against this swarm of evil. In Your Name, let Your Kingdom come, let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Jesus: "Hmm, another declaration. This is good! I agree. Proclaim it and believe it will be done."

Me: "I do. Oh yes… one other thing, if you would… Lord, send all of the wicked people back to their lands and hold them there. Then send salvation to those who call out to You in all of the lands. Then in our land, let it be repaired and miracles be on display."

Jesus: "This is good. I will consider this even though things might be in a different order. However, your outcome is accepted. Now rejoice, Erin, as your prayers have been heard."

Me: "Lord, one other thing… I am not well. I also have friends and family who need miracles. Could You please…"

Jesus: "Erin, I have declared that healing is coming!"

Dream over.

748 – Mountains of Lessons to Learn

Received on Tuesday, November 7, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for all things! Thank You for both the mountains in our lives and the valleys in our lives. These are the places that we are found by You. You are our everlasting Father, our Creator and our Best Friend. We have been created for Your pleasure, not the other way around. Even so, You delight in those who delight in You. You then make our hearts glad. Father, we love You.

This wait has been a long one. It has been filled with hopes deferred. Each day we open it and think perhaps today You will show Yourself to us and fulfill Your promises. Then at the close of each new day, when we rest our heads and lie down on our pillows, we thank You as we take an account of our day and reflect on ways we need correction. We then ask for another dawn to come.

Still, Father, if this is not Your Will, we then pray that the angels from on high take us to be with You in eternity, the beautiful place You have prepared for those who love You. Thank You, Father, for another new day. Please take my day, but really Your day, and use me for Your Glory, Amen. I awoke to the Voice of the Lord:

"Come to My Mountains of Truth – Horeb & Sinai – Arise & Come!"

I had quite the dream last night that related to this…

Sub-dream 1 "Horeb and Sinai are Separate Mountains" begins…

I was traveling south on a road from Israel. There were thousands of us walking this road. We were all dressed in white. The entire area was desolate and with no growth. The place was useless for a city or anything else. The dirt was blown at us when strong winds came from the south. Despite this, our clothing never became dirty.

While it was hot, not one of us was sweltering in the sun as we walked. While we could have arrived at our destination faster, we instead all understood that this physical journey was one of reflection and instruction from God. We were all quiet and somber. All of us had seen horrible things.

As we came closer to our destination, we saw road signs that called us away from the destination that God had set for us. There was also a tourist trap near this place. One of the angels of the Lord announced to us in a voice and language that all of us could hear and understand…

"This is the roadway that leads to lies! Although this sign says 'Holy Site', it is an evil altar set up with graven images! Many have been deceived by this road!"

Then one of the saints made an announcement…

"Let's remove it, crush it and destroy their altars and graven images."

We all cheered. The angel then shouted out, "Let us go!"

We soon arrived at a site that had a religious church with painted images. There were tourist items on display. There was also a replica of 'the burning bush'. There were other things that we saw. We stood together and called a mountain down upon the tourist site and the evil church. The mountain shook.

We all cheered when the evil church was leveled. We then went back to our original road. There was singing and joy after all of these were removed. Finally, we arrived at a beautiful place. There was a beautiful oasis in the middle of this desolate area between two mountains.

Angel of the Lord: "This is the mountain Horeb and this is Mount Sinai. These are two separate mountains. Where you are standing is Holy Ground. Now, wait on the Lord God. He has done marvelous things here. Drink from the wellspring of life. Rejoice, sing, eat, rest and be glad… for the Lord has done marvelous things for you."

Before our very eyes, the valley was suddenly beautiful. There was lush greenery and trees with fruit. There was also meat to eat and fresh bread for us. The temperature was perfect. We all praised God and waited on Him.

Sub-dream 1 over.

When I got up, I heard the Voice of the Lord make an announcement…

"Come to My Mountains of Truth – Horeb & Sinai – Arise & Come!"

Oh Father, I heard You yesterday when I woke up tell Me: "Consider Mount Horeb!" I was unable to come to You yesterday as work was being done to repair our roof. It was too noisy and distracting to give focus on You fully.

I referenced Mount Horeb and it is related to Elijah (1 Kings 19). After my dream last night, I looked up Mount Horeb and Mount Sinai. The material I found on this falsely outlines that Mount Horeb and Mount Sinai are the same mountain. Mount Sinai is known for Moses having his burning bush experience with You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "This is a grand illusion. While there are clearly two mountains, they are met by a pasture. Evil men used the other false mountain location for convenience and commerce. They traded lies as truth and many a child of God purchased this illusion. However, this was allowed by Me. But this… this place is sacred. It is Mine. It is separate and apart from all mountains.

"Elijah knew this place and ran there for shelter and answers. Moses was over at the other mountain where he received My Commandments. Both of these mountains are where I am. I am in the mountains and the valleys here. Elijah traveled 40 days and 40 nights to flee his greatest enemy. This too was My journey of testing in the desert."

I paused here when a blue jay hit my kitchen window. Its neck was backward and it looked dead. I could see that it was barely breathing. I lifted it up and sat it in my hands for ten minutes or more. It was windy, rainy and 44 degrees, so I took it to the cover over the front steps to rest.

It wouldn't leave my hands. Finally, I was able to have it go to the porch landing outside our door. It stood staring at me. I went to retrieve a small towel. It flew off my hands and is still resting. I prayed that God would heal him and care for him. I then went back to the Lord.

Jesus: "Erin, I send you signs and wonders. You are hesitating to write because you are concerned you will have opposition or arguments from those who find you unschooled in the Bible. However, I sent you a great sign. Write what I tell you to write and great will be your reward. This was a message of blue skies on a dark day, a clear message from Me.

"The enemy sends counterfeits to lead astray those who long for truth. The dream showed you how well-meaning people of faith in Me can be led down another path. Priests, scholars and travelers love to hear themselves talk. They claim to have had visions there and miracles at the false sight. They then have a green bush that they declare as a burning bush.

"Well, how can this be when man still has to care for it. If this was truly from Me, the bush would be taken care of supernaturally. They present this so that people have an empty wallet instead of believing in the empty tomb. This is a museum of icons and relics. What is the difference between this and a golden calf?

"The enemy led all visitors astray again. This is a fallen root of the Gates of Bashan. Don't believe it. That is fine though as this is My place to bring those whom I call friends, those for My purposes. This is the place of refreshment and celebration. This is a place of renewal. This is the place of the power of God and My goodness."

Me: "I thought that the blue jay hitting my window was a sign to stop writing."

Jesus: "Well, the pause in this instance was beneficial, especially for that little bird. He won't forget you. Now, I show you all of this to reassure you that I am with you. While I know all of this is foreign to you, these are important to Me and soon also to you. Now, you are witnessing the world turning away from Israel. Many who claimed to stand for her are now turning to run. Great division and upheaval are coming to the nations."

Me: "Lord, You led me to a Scripture that is for now… Isaiah 63:18-19: 18 Concerning Israel, Your Holy People held possession for a little while, our adversaries have trampled down Your Sanctuary. 19 We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those who are not called by Your Name.

"Then there was Isaiah 64:3-4: 3 When You did awesome things that we did not look for, You came down, the mountains quaked at Your presences. 4 From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides You.

"Lord, You are looking for those who look to You. We are looking. Your judgment is coming and man is not in fear. They want to destroy all Jews and Christians. Please help us.

"Then there is Isaiah 64:10-11: 10 Your Holy Cities have become a wilderness, Zion (the USA?) too has become a wilderness and Jerusalem a desolation. 11 Our holy and beautiful house where our fathers praised You has been burned by fire and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

"Is this also for now, Lord? While I know Your Temple hasn't been rebuilt, will Jerusalem be destroyed? Will all the places of Your evidence here on Earth be destroyed?"

Jesus: "The evidence is My Word. Much has been gathered as evidenced. The wicked are calling for the destruction of specifically two nations. One nation represents Christians (USA) and the other represents Jews (Israel). Jacob + Judah. Erin, in order for people to be humbled, it is often through the removing of all that was good. Those who live by the sword die by the sword and they inherit no Kingdom of Heaven. They have hated for no reason other than they were raised to hate.

"Now, your prayers avail much for the lost. For those in Jerusalem and in the Promised Land, I have a great plan for redemption. Pray for this. I am with those who fight for what God has given them. I am not with those who pretend to shed tears, yet then allow their own children to go before them in battle and they stand behind them. I am not with them. They will be exposed.

"Those who stand with evil will soon find themselves kneeling before evil. The war continues on against Me and all those who stand for Me. However, do not be fooled by liars who claim to know Me better than I know Myself. Only My Father in Heaven knows Me better. I therefore do His Will. This will not be an easy time.

"Understand this… the days of destruction precede the days of miracles and, if it was not done this way, no one would then care about the God of Miracles. As for now, these are the great days of alternate truth. Do not believe this evil. Continue to stay true to My Voice. Do not doubt or be dismayed. One day very soon, you will be at the Mountain of God."

Me: Smiling. "I suppose You could also mean 'mountains'… well, technically, right?"

Jesus: Laughing. "Good catch! Either way, you do not need to prophecy over My Mountains today."

Me: "Can I pray and prophesy against the counterfeit mountains?"

Jesus: "Certainly!"

Me: "I speak the following from Isaiah in Your Name…

Isaiah 65:8-16: 8 Thus says the Lord: "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for My servants' sake, and not destroy them all. 9 I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah possessors of My mountains; My chosen shall possess it, and My servants shall dwell there. 10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for My people who have sought Me. 11 But you who forsake the Lord, who forget My Holy Mountain, who set a table for fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for destiny, 12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in My eyes and chose what I did not delight in."

13 Therefore thus says the Lord God: "Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame; 14 behold, My servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for pain of heart and shall wail for breaking of spirit. 15 You shall leave your name to My chosen for a curse, and the Lord God will put you to death, but His servants He will call by another name, 16 so that he who blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and he who takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hidden from My eyes.

"Lord, I declare these things and the blessings You have bestowed upon Your children who love You. Remove all of the evil. I ask this in Your Mighty Name, Amen!"

Jesus: Laughing. "Hmm, some of this was a bit dark here and there." His Voice then became serious again. "But, yes, of course, by My declaration in My Word, I will accept this."

Me: "Lord, it feels so different in the world now. I don't want to leave my family alone here. I also don't want to miss anything."

Jesus: "You won't. I have a Great Plan. However, remember this… just as Damascus is 'no more', so too is Babylon. Many evil armies are plotting to not only remove the Jewish people, but also Christians. They want their cities to also suffer the same fate."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a Great Plan! Do not worry. I am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-749/

749 – The Two Lampstands Are Now Ready to Shine

Received on Sunday, November 12, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for being God and good in all things! We are so blessed by You. We are thankful. Our hearts will be forever grateful that You called us and that Your hand is over all we do. Yesterday was Veterans Day. This is the day we remember the ultimate sacrifice that was made so that we could live free and die free. However, the news is not on honoring the brave today.

Instead, the news is all about the riots that have broken out in our cities. While these riots are against the Jewish people, they will soon be also about the Christians that support them. We need to believe what they say against us and that they intend to fully carry out what they say. Foreign governments are coming forward and testifying that they were aware of the coup d'état in America in 2020.

However, they were too scared to report on it. Father, when You told me a few years ago to watch the activities of our then leader before the transfer of power, I didn't fully understand the magnitude of what was occurring. 2020 was manufactured at the leadership of this ex-president. The Trump then sounded the alarm like a clarion call and the world was offended. Perhaps the world was told to be offended?

In 2012 to 2016, the enemy set up its plan, a great one. It even had a Jezebel figure rise up to even greater power. They didn't expect that You would hurt their plans. Your Trump card drew them out of hiding. They then proclaimed outrage and anger against all of the people who voted for him. They then continued to plot against America from within. Evil operated greatly, but more so in the shadows.

Our most trusted leaders then reversed the propaganda ban that had been in place in our country since the 1950s. This allowed our government to control the media using the CIA. However, when searching the information, it is interesting to find it carefully veiled. Only one former president was actively involved in all of media. He has influenced every aspect of what we see, including news, movies, music and social media.

Oh Father, how can we know anything to be true? The enemy uses lies sprinkled with a little truth in order to bend eager and itchy ears. Way too many years ago, people mostly spoke truth with just a few 'mistruths' sprinkled in. All of the lies came upon us so very quickly. We are watching the fall of the world happening right before our eyes. Everything that is Yours is being attacked right now.

Father, Israel is Your land and You gave this land as an inheritance to the Jewish people. This once included even Jordan, all of the West Bank and Gaza too. Activists in countries all over the world have been risen up like a massive army against the Jewish people, but also Christian 'Zionist' sympathizers. These activists are calling for the extermination of all Jews and 'Zionists'. We are talking complete genocide!

All of the media is now activated as an arm of the global military against all of God's people. However, who is God's? The Jews are God's measuring line or plumbline. So too are those who are Christians. I believe You have a special plan for the salvation of the Jewish people as they are Your special possessions. However, we also know the following words from You…

1 John 2:23: No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father as well.

This is the truth! We as Christians fight amongst ourselves over petty things like interpretations or personal beliefs about the Word of God. However, it is essential to remember that our primary belief should be that our only salvation is our belief in You, Lord! Our brothers and sisters in Christ are not our enemies. We also know the following from the Gospel…

John 11:26: Everyone who believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?

We are therefore to understand these things. The sins we commit here that are unconfessed will all go before God. All will one day give account to the Father for all of our sins. The Lord then gave me some insight about the hate for the Jewish people by the Muslims. This is actually much greater than the hate the Nazis had. The following characterizes the attacks that were made against the Jews by the Nazis…

- The Germans tried to coverup their crimes.
- The soldiers who executed the Jewish people were so guilt ridden by their crimes that they drank at night.

- The German people did not know the extent of the crimes of Hitler because so much was hidden.
- While many of the Germans were taught to hate, most of them didn't know why they believed Goebel's Nazi propaganda.

However, the army of Islam that has now risen against Israel and all those who support her have even harsher characteristics than the Nazis…

- The vast majority in this religion have been raised to hate Jews from their birth.
- They believe every lie they have been told about them.
- They commit their crimes in full view of the world and are proud of it.
- They do not hide their great joy and glee over their horrific bloody displays of hatred of the Jewish people.
- They are so proud of their sadistic acts that they even filmed it on go-pros.
- They are like locusts of hate with iron teeth who are stripping the world of anything good.

Father, Islamic leaders have warned us that we in the other nations (Europe, Canada, USA, South America and so on) 'are next' and that they are coming for us! Their sole ambition is to spread fear and violence throughout the nations. While they have powerful leaders, there is one in particular (a former president before Trump) who has weaponized the media against Israel, Christians and anyone opposed to them.

We are to always remember that, whatever they accuse us of or claim, they themselves have done or plan to do. The people of Gaza claim that the Jewish people have committed genocide against them. However, the stats show the opposite. There is a boom in births. Over half of their population are young people. In a genocide, a society never prospers via their young people. It is the opposite of what is happening in Gaza.

Father, we have no hope unless You help us. Please don't forget Your Great Harvest. Many of my dreams have been of wars lately. In most of them there is a common theme, I am left alone here. All the young men, the old men and the young women have been called up into a draft. The war against Your people has been really from the beginning. However, You placed signs hidden in plain site before our very eyes. Still, so many never see these as signs.

You then reminded me that there is something in a name and that a person's name is important. You also reminded me that all of this has been allowed by You. We are here at the times of the end. Each protest is labelled peaceful by the media. However, it is not peaceful. What we see is anything but peaceful. The rise in lies, propaganda and hate are alarming.

All of this is so extreme that it will definitely lead to the call for genocide against Your people. How will we endure without Your divine help? This is a battle unlike any other and it is being waged on so many fronts, yet still in complete unison. They have attacked on three primary fronts as follows…

- Front 1 – The Downgrade of America: They did this and are doing this in so many different ways…
    - The first order of business for the enemy was to downgrade America in the eyes of the world.
    - This included high inflation, the invasion at the borders and the weaponization of the media against citizens.
    - They discredit churches and anyone with conservative values.
    - They now overthrow the elections by deception by making them so close that there is 'plausible deniability'.
    - People are then left uncertain and confused.
    - Government officials who are truly guilty are never held accountable.
    - They have replaced the national flag with BLM flags, Pride flags and Palestinian flags, thereby bringing down a country's sense of allegiance.
    - They continue this war to shame a whole nation – this is happening now.
- Front 2 – Take Down Israel: At first, I thought they would need to take the USA out first to take down Israel. However, I now see that this is not required. They instead needed to have the USA, Canada, Europe and other democratic nations weakened by foreigners first. The take down of Israel is now in full operation.
- Front 3 – Take Down the Church: Take down the church by attacking Christians throughout the world. Command them to give allegiance to the Black Dragon or die. This is already happening in many countries. Eventually, all will need to receive 'The Mark of Two Swords' or die. This has been in play for many years and will only ramp up.

Oh Father, I can see that we are so very close to the end now. Please don't forget Your promises. So many of our friends, as well as us, need all of Your promises now. I had two dreams last night. Here is the first dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Elijah & Enoch readied for Greater Service" begins…

I saw two Olive Trees. They were beautiful and perfect. They stood on the mount overlooking Jerusalem. I then saw a beautiful river. It was the River of Life in Heaven. I was just an observer of something so beautiful and incredibly joyful that it is difficult to adequately describe.

Gathered together on all sides of the River were the saints of God, both those who were once Jews and accepted Jesus as their Messiah and those who were gentiles who had accepted Him. All were gathered in white robes on the banks of the River. I then saw the angels of God behind them and over them.

I then saw the Lord in His majesty. He was clothed in the robe of the King and had His Crown on. He had amazing white garments on under his robe. He took His robe off and stepped into the beautiful River of Life. I saw the Heavens open and beautiful songs of worship to our King were over all the people. A multitude of white doves with wings of gold and silver feathers then came from the Open Heavens over all the area.

I then saw a ray of light shine down upon the area as 'Glory, Glory, Glory' was sung upon our King Jesus. I then saw Jesus take His two arms and stretch them out to the left and to the right of the River. I then saw what looked like Enoch and Elijah going into the River of Life. While I could not hear what was being said, they were being baptized in God's Living Water.

They were both then filled with the Divine Nature of God for His purposes. The Lord then brought both of them to the banks of the River and anointed them with priestly oil over their heads. Jesus then hugged them both. The crowds of saints cheered. I then saw angels with horses and a chariot like fire.

Note: I cannot adequately describe what this chariot was made of. It was like gold and bronze, yet also like flames that I knew would never go out. It was breathtaking!

I then saw Enoch and Elijah board the chariot. I somehow knew that this was a huge sign and that all of Heaven knew the times and all cheered for them. I then saw them move so quickly that it was followed by a sound like a sonic blast. While the sound of this sonic blast was somehow exhilarating, it woke me up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I sat straight up in bed. After taking a sip of water, I laid back down on my pillow. As I laid there, tears streamed from my eyes. I prayed the Lord's Prayer and then fell back to sleep. I then had my second dream from last night…

Sub-dream 2 "Elijah & Enoch arrive in Jerusalem" begins…

I saw stormy black skies over Jerusalem. The city was now half gone in smoke and fire. It appeared as if there were Two Trees looking over the area. These Two Trees were intact and so beautiful. As I turned to look towards Jerusalem, I heard a strange sound coming from the city. When I couldn't identify what this sound was, I turned back to the Two Trees.

I was now in complete awe! Elijah was now at the base of one Tree and Enoch was now at the base of the other Tree. Their appearance was like that of a flame, like the radiance of God. They appeared to glow like embers that would never burn out. The entire area grew darker. It was essentially now all back with the only exception being the light coming from Enoch and Elijah.

Evil crowds then started to gather against them. They all started to call for the Two Trees to be cut down, along with the two strangers (from their perspective). The voices of the Two Witnesses of God then completely caused the evil army to fall backwards to their death. This was on display for all of the nations to see.

Many then became terrified when these Two Witnesses spoke about each leader and each of their sins. I then woke up to a loud Voice making a grand shout out…

"INCOMING!"

Sub-dream 2 over…

I was too stirred-up and I couldn't get back to sleep after this.

Me: "Father, I know very little about the Book of Revelation. However, it now seems as if so much has already begun!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid in this late hour. I am the God over all things. You are witnessing the rapid rise of hate being established throughout the nations. However, the times of unhindered evil are coming to a close. Pray, Erin.

"You are attacked individually right now because anyone who is sounding the alarm and proclaiming that I am over all things is deemed a threat. The rise in evil is so pervasive that it will be difficult to discern who is against you. Therefore, be careful of what comes from your lips right now until I call you. This is wisdom. Pray. While you are not to be afraid, just don't disclose your position to those who you do not know theirs.

"Make no assumptions. When in doubt, keep your words few. Remember that the snake sells snake oil. While he makes salvation claims, it is still a snake. Snakes swallow their victims whole. Your signs of warning will be made obvious so there can be no doubt. Your signs of blessings will be clear and there shall be no doubt.

"Pray over the weakest and the young in every household as they are more easily led astray by the snake. Now, in so much as the Golem will not save the Jewish people, neither will meaningless idols, relics or symbols save you. However, be assured that the enemy will display these fully to deceive many to lure them out."

Me: "What is 'the Golem'?"

Jesus: "It is similar to what is a modern AI (artificial intelligence) figure that will disguise themselves as savior. Do not be deceived as this will not be Me. Be also careful of the Word of God as it gives you this as a primary example of how many will be deceived. The copies of My Words in books (book form) are more reliable going forward, so be careful. I will give you My Words of Truth when you ask.

Note: From Wikipedia, a golem is an animated, anthropomorphic being in Jewish folklore, which is entirely created from inanimate matter, usually clay or mud.

"Erin, the seas of lies are growing. It is better to dismiss them fully than to take in even a little. Remember that truth is the opposite of lies. This is wisdom. I have already told you many times that things would be bittersweet right now. The enemy thinks himself more clever than even the people and even more clever than God. However, I see. I see what he did to the innocent in Israel.

"Now, if they had been killed in the act of an ongoing war, then that would be one thing. However, this was even worse than a violent war breaking out suddenly. This was so vile that all of Heaven cried out in the Courts of God. Erin, I tell you the truth… those who did these vile things against the innocent will be no more. Their homes will be in the place of fire (the Lake of Fire). Once there, they will remember with no end their crimes and they will be forever in torment. Their glee will be completely removed."

Me: "Lord, I am scared. This 'migration', as they call it, is really an army invasion coming primarily from our southern border that will come after us all. What they want to happen to us is horrifying."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have a Great Plan. Their time of destruction undeterred is ending. All will be changed. Now, who wins… the 'two swords of the enemy' or the Two Lampstands of God? Rejoice and pray, Erin. Do not worry. Oh yes… there is a sign for you in your yard."

Me: "Yes. We have one tree with green leaves in our yard. All of the other trees everywhere no longer have any leaves. They are barren and sleeping for winter. However, this pretty little 12-foot maple tree still has green leaves."

Jesus: "It is out of due season."

Me: "Lord, what does this mean?"

Jesus: "This is a sign for you. Do not be weary of doing good in due season as you shall reap. Due season is like apples of gold in settings of silver. Even when all is cold and dreary and the days are short, My promises I have given you will still remain. This is all in the due season."

Me: "I was worried that this was like the fig tree."

Jesus: "This maple is not a fig; it is a maple. Its changes are clear and visible. This one in your yard is a sign of blessing. Erin, it is visible where you see it several times a day (that is, in direct view of my kitchen window). The birds shelter on its branches and the sun shines upon it."

Me: "Lord, it looked funny when snow fell on its green leaves."

Jesus: "Take it as a blessing and a sign. I am a Creative God and I can do things in dormant seasons. I can keep time current and I can move it back. I can call upon the sun, the moon and the stars to move at My Voice. Erin, there is absolutely nothing that I can't do!"

Me: "I am so grateful that this is true. Lord, You are amazing!"

Jesus: "Then do not worry! I am with you. I love you. You are Mine!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-750/

750 – The Enemy Has Great Plans

Received on Tuesday, November 14, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

I love You! Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Word of Truth. Thank You for my family and our friends. Please continue to keep us and our house safe. Please keep all of the Nest Sparrows and their houses all over the world safe. The times are becoming worse. Your Will be done, Father, on Earth as it is in Heaven.

You have shown me several signs today to make me alert to something urgent coming. The last word from my dream on Sunday was 'INCOMING!' I am not sure if these are personal warnings or warnings for all of us. I had a broken night of dreams. I was up at 2:30am and couldn't sleep. My last check of the time was 3:15am. I then had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "A Boom followed by Great Wind" begins…

I was with my family. The world around us were going about their daily routines. We then heard a boom followed by a great wind. I heard someone yell…

"BRACE FOR IMPACT!"

Just then, darkness fell over the area.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up from my sleep. It was so real. I got up out of bed and I was relieved it was a dream. I looked at the digital clock and shook my head. It read 5:05am, which looked a lot like SOS. I was tired so I fell back to sleep and was awakened at 7:00am to an unusual and unfamiliar alarm. I have an alarm clock that went off and it made no sense as I had never set the alarm to sound. As a matter of fact, I have never even used the alarm feature on this clock yet.

Not only that, but now I couldn't even get the alarm to stop. My husband tried to stop it as well, but he was also unable to. The clock kept saying 'pairing' in flashes. It was trying to pair up with my phone. I finally got fed up and unplugged the alarm clock altogether. My husband's alarm then went off shortly after I fell asleep again. I decided to get up and go about my morning routine. I went and fed the various birds and animals outside. I then made our bed.

I noticed that the atmosphere outside today was dark and overcast. It was unusually dark, even darker than normal. There were virtually no creatures waiting for me today. This is also unusual. I looked up in the trees for a hawk or eagle watching the area. Predators usually cause little birds and animals to retreat.

This is an amazing feature of God's alert system for animals and birds and one that surely must be overseen by angels appointed to them. I went inside to make my bed. I decided to flip up the rebellious clock of mine after I plugged it back in. I was in shock as the time now read 9:11am, another warning. Okay, surely this is a God thing.

Father, help! I now have a racing heart and a bit of fear. I went to my devotional chair and my side table. My Bible references suddenly flipped over and fell for no apparent reason, creating quite a mess. However, had it not flipped over, I would not have seen a note that I had written. As for when I wrote this, I didn't recall. It read as follows…

"When I worry and have doubts, I allow these to become larger than God in me. Instead, wield the weapon of faith and trust as He who is in you is greater than he who casts the weapon of fear against you."

I then read this in my devotional this morning: 1 Samuel 14:6-7;13-15…

6 Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that the Lord will work for us, for nothing can hinder the Lord from saving by many or by few." 7 And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Do as you wish. Behold, I am with you heart and soul." 13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him. 14 And that first strike, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, killed about twenty men within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land. 15 And there was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and even the raiders trembled, the earth quaked, and it became a very great panic.

Father, You are so brilliant and wise. However, in my heart, I am still uneasy. I have been staying home more and more. My two children who used to need daily rides into town are now officially out of the home and off on their own adventures. This has freed up several hours to many of my days, so I am thankful. I needed this as I have had to complete so many projects. I know that these completed projects please You.

I am grateful to be finally free to go through mountains of paperwork, photos and other things. I tackle a few projects every day. I am able to rest when I need to. I finished all of the Christmas decorations early this year. This too was a wonderful feat. With every project finished, there is a bittersweet feeling that comes over me. I am now finishing things, including labeling and sorting.

However, I now wonder even while I am doing these projects if any of this will matter at all soon. Father, if You choose another way to fulfill Your promises for me, I can make my life transition easier for all those I love who remain. With the warnings so far on this day, I asked for protection over our family, my husband, our children, our pets and our outdoor little winged and furry visitors. I also pray for Your protection and glory to fall over all of my friends and Nest sparrow families.

Me: "Father, help! Please help!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. The warning signs are from Me and they concern the world."

Me: "I am sick to my stomach."

Jesus: "Erin, the enemy has breached every area of life all around you… the food you consume, the air you breathe, the water you drink and the medications you ingest. In what was first a slow drip is now a rushing torrent of evil coming."

Me: "We take great comfort in knowing that the times for the enemy dismantling our way of life will soon be stopped by You stepping in, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember that demons don't have physical mouths until one day they do. As for now, they must use others who are spiritually apart from Me to do their working."

Me: "But they are all over now."

Jesus: "Yes, evil has increased. The hearts of many have grown cold. This is the increase. Lies and great deception have increased in leaders all over the world."

Me: "I had another disturbing dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "The Heads of the Red & Black Dragons Speak" begins...

The great deceiver, a former President and head of the Black Dragon, was standing on a platform bragging…

Global Leader 1: "I was easily able to take down America in less than ten years."

Next to him was another global leader, head of the Red Dragon, who was also bragging…

Global Leader 2: "Well, I was responsible for taking down the world in even less time."

Global Leader 1: "The USA is made up of stupid sheep. While they need a leader, the flock mostly needs to be thinned out so that others who are chosen can rise up. This is why I sent wolves in sheep's clothing. I wanted to take down the flock from within. It was so easy. I did it all from my couch. I was the shepherd behind the wolves. I hate those things anyway. They bleat out day and night. Anyway, I gave them the grand illusion. I changed history, times and the seasons. Whatever I tell them, they do. I then tell them to be still and know that I am god."

Global Leader 2: "Well, I am the end. I am in all places and took away their great armies and weakened their fighting men. They wear dresses and have never fought. We poisoned their fields by purchasing their farms. We now have control over all of their resources. It is the same with all of the world. The world will bow to me."

Global Leader 2 then slammed the religion that Global Leader 1 is head of…

Global Leader 2: "As for you and your army, they will be no more. This is because you blow yourself up for your god. As for your children, you blow them up too."

Global Leader 1: "I am the Mahadi! I am their savior!"

Global Leader 2: Smiling and nodding. "We will see!"

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Oh Lord, this was all so real. They were frightening."

Jesus: "Remember that I am greater than these. I see. I am the God of Justice and I am the only one mighty to save. What is coming must come before I do. My angel army is ready. Both these leaders and their armies will celebrate. However, great will be their shame and humiliation instead. I promise this will not go as they expect. Now, continue with your day and trust in Me, the God of your days. I will continue to provide for you. I have you. You are greatly loved."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-751/

751 – The Great Worm Invasion

Received on Sunday, November 19, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Note: This is one of the shortest dreams I have ever posted onto the Nest. It is only 4.5 journal pages long. I Haven't been feeling well today and could use continued prayer. Even so, this dream contains so much…

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your Great Love for Your people. Thank You for rest. Thank You for my dreams and visions. I had quite a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Great Worm Invasion" begins…

I saw a massive parcel of farmland next to a massive orchard. The orchard was to the west. The farmland was just to the east of the orchard. There were vineyards to the north. There were farms and cattle ranches to the south. I saw a naked crazy man running frantically around in circles…

Crazy man: Bellowing. "The worms have come to the land… the cutworms, the wireworms, the earworms, the roundworms and even to the forests… but the cankerworms have invaded the reserves!"

I looked and saw all of the cattle, fruit trees, wheat, corn and vineyards dying because worms were sent to destroy all food. I then heard the sound of the shofar. I saw a mighty angel of the Lord…

Angel: Announcing. "The Army of Restoration is coming… the Army of God from amongst His people. God Himself will rid the fields, the orchards, the vineyards and the pastures of worms and locusts… for God has seen the suffering of His people."

Immediately, all foreigners, their possessions and all those who cursed God alongside them, were taken each to their own lands and nations of origin and there their worm followed them there. Then an angel stood to the east with a Lantern…

Angel: Proclaiming. "Woe to those who heaped up for themselves wealth and power and riches untold… who stole from those who worked overtime and reduced them to slaves. LOOK!"

I saw massive piles of silver and gold. In behind these piles were worms with iron teeth. Water oozed out of their grotesque mouths and destroyed both the value and the luster of these treasures.

Angel: "This is the hoarded treasure stolen from the poor. This is their worms… more vile than any other worm. THIS is the great equalizer!"

Crazy man: Yelling. "Cankerworm! Canker!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

When I woke up from this dream, I was alarmed. It was simply horrible. I went to the Lord in prayer and with my racing thoughts…

Father, we are in the last days similar to Noah… 'For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage (this includes marriage proposals and/or 'sexual contracts'), until the day that Noah entered the ark and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the son of man be.'

Father, please don't forget Your promises! Great evil has come upon the nations. Anarchy is here and is spreading throughout our nation. T. DeWitt Talmage, in his sermon series written in 1886, 'A Battle for Bread', wrote somewhat of a playbook of what to look for as set up by the wealthy against the working class. Today, it is a war to abolish the middle class and the American 'dream of ownership'.

When my Bible table was knocked over last week, under my chair was my antique book 'The Coming King' ca 1907 by James Edson White. I purchased it a few years back at a thrift store. I found it interesting that the author made a case for rapture to occur any day based on several events at that time.

However, he failed to recognize that Israel needed to be established again and that the Jewish people needed to return to their home of the physical state of Israel. Even so, there was something that I discovered in this book when I was sitting down this morning. The book opened to a page that contained the following…

"Anarchy is the abolition of the rights of property. It makes your store, your house and your family mine and mine yours. It is wholesale robbery. It is every man's hand against every other man. It is arson and murder, rape and lust, and death triumphant. It means no law, no church, no defense, no right, no happiness and no God. It means hell let loose on Earth and society a combination of devils incarnate. An anarchist owns nothing but a knife for universal bloodletting and a nitroglycerine bomb for explosion. An anarchist believes in no God, in no government, in no Heaven and in no hell, except what he can make on Earth."

Father, this is happening now! We were lied to and our media has said the opposite of what we know to be truth.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Don't focus so much on the damage made by the worms that you fail to see My miracles. I will call a Great Army of Restorers from out of the people. From the midst of this, you are called. Judgment is Mine… fair judgment vs the enemy who uses false testimonies and unfair weights and measures. Erin, I see it. The enemy has turned the nations against Israel.

"The enemy and his army then increased these lies and denounced the truth as a greater deception over her enemies. Now, do not concern yourself as justice will be swift. You do not fully see what is occurring because the world is veiled. The enemies of Israel and the enemies of any other nation under God are targets of their orders. There has been a plan in the works for more than 22 years.

"Now, a great deceiver has risen and I see him. I see! Who does he serve and who serves him? Who hates Me? Who hates Israel and the United States? Who raised up nations and armies to destroy all that is good and took the money from the people to do it? See, I know his agenda from the beginning. I have seen him even now. He longs for destruction and hates to no end.

"Well, Erin, I will expose him. However, even with this evidence captured on film, many will still say, 'No, this is computer generated AI. He is our savior!' So many will still be deceived. However, I have a Great Plan in all of this!"

Me: "Lord, a Global Festival of Your Lights would be good."

Jesus: "We will see! The enemy still continues his war on Christmas."

Me: "Perhaps on Thanksgiving (Thursday, November 23, 2023)? Perhaps on Black Friday (Friday, November 24, 2023)?"

Jesus: "Erin, expect unrest and theft. Expect fights and killing. This is his war on Christmas. It doesn't matter that My birthday is on another day. However, this is not known by many. Now, look at the declarations this enemy has made. Who does he answer to? Who answers to him? Do not worry, Erin, as I am here and I am with you. Soon, very soon, all will change!”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-752/

752 – The Return of the Four Angels

Received on Thursday, November 23, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Today is Thanksgiving in the USA! I am thankful for another day! I am most of all thankful for You. You are the Greatest Blessing to me. However, not just me, all of Creation. Most people don't even know how truly incredible You are. I am so grateful that You called me and I turned to hear… or, really, listened for Your call. If not for You, where would I be?

You are our Treasure! A million treasures could be buried all over the world and You would know the location of each of them. Nothing is hidden from You, great or small. More importantly, the wealthiest people in the world are those who discover the treasure of knowing You. This is a gift that no man can steal, no bank can charge interest on and no scheme of hell can overturn.

You give freely of Yourself. In exchange, we give You back our hearts to shape for Your purposes. I look at treasure hunts this way. There are two types of unearthing hidden treasure hunts. One is discovered by accident. The other is a quest, and possibly perilous, adventure to discover it.

When I think of an accidental treasure find, I think of a man who discovered an 'ugly brown rock' at a park in Arkansas. This actually turned out to be a 3.29 carat diamond. There are countless other treasure stories just as miraculous.

As a Christian now who was once a non-believer, I think of how a person can one day be minding their own business and then suddenly be changed from something they didn't know was there all along, discovering they were heirs to God's Kingdom and His untold treasures which He shares with all of us. These are miracle finds. He found us and pursued us until we turned to discover Him.

Another type of treasure hunt is a search for something that you know exists due to the evidence, including maps, clues, historical accounts and lost treasure. However, even with this, you still can't find where it is buried or hidden (the Curse of Oak Island). Some people search for their whole lives and take risks that could cost them their lives. Even so, based on their great faith in a potential discovery, they venture out into the unknown.

In the times of the great explorers, they had sponsors or patrons. These sponsors were often from Spain. However, other countries also invested in these explorers and their ships, crews and supplies. They would then go out into the unknown, often based on nothing but rumors. These went out on the coattails of many a great explorer…

- There was Leif Erikson from 970 to 1020.
- There was Marco Polo from 1254 to 1324.
- There was Christopher Columbus.
- The 1400s to 1500s was a great time of setting sail into the unknown to hopefully claim great treasures for their sponsors.

Many of these stories were heartbreaking. So many died before ever seeing what they had hoped to see. I compare these to the lost, those who never see what their heart imagined or hoped for. However, they knew there was something, but didn't know what. They searched, but never found it.

Then there are those who will cut down anyone who stands in the way of finding their treasure. They will kill and steal for this. Then there are mutinies, deaths and destruction from storms. Countless treasures, along with many amazing stories, can all be found at the bottom of the deep blue sea, surely never to be found.

However, this I now know with certainty… the only treasure in this life worth hunting, worth the perils of discovering, even if it means your life, is the process of giving all you are over to the Ultimate Treasure Hunter, God. Our hearts are His treasure and His love for us is priceless. Nothing can compare! Jesus gave up His life. God's only Son died a horrible death as the blood sacrifice for our sins.

Through accepting Jesus as our Lamb of God to atone for our sins, we are then set free. We know He was the Son of God because death could not hold Him. The tomb was empty and the stone rolled away. God had raised Him from death and, with Him, 5000 others. These thousands were raised up with Him and appeared to many.

The authorities then tried to hunt Him down. They spread false rumors that the disciples had stolen His body to match the prophecies spoken about Him. Many people bore false witness. However, Jesus ultimately could not be held by death. The evidence of His appearances and eyewitness accounts are now written in so many places. Historical evidence of these events matches the other evidence, such as the ensuing earthquake and eclipse of the sun.

Until we are finally Home, we will not know the full extent of all God had done. So many stories and individual testimonies of witnesses are lost. However, one day, when we are Home in Heaven, God will show all the people all that He had done from the beginning until the end. The treasures of this world truly have no meaning because they have no lasting value beyond our lives here.

I could discover gold or even be given it by someone, but this world then lays claim to it. People want it. People believe they deserve it. People plot to steal it. Governments want a piece of it. Neighbors and families even. In the end, you struggle with earthly wealth as its comforts are temporal, not eternal. Even those who live a debt-free life here still often do not have an easy road. Other problems usually exist.

Now, it is not God's Will that we would be slaves to our lenders and that we would toil daily and struggle. However, it is because we are poor and lack what the world calls achievement. This is because we are to serve God even as we go about our daily work and life. The world then hates us because of this. The enemy longs to enslave God's people and punish us for not serving the gods of this world.

This is why I count my Treasures… the Son, the Father and the Holy Spirit… each and every day. We should not do this for gold, silver or currencies as He knows what we need in advance. I instead give thanks for the Treasury of God. We believe You when You tell us that we would have countless treasure stored up in Heaven by obeying You. We then invest in Your wealth of love and not gold or diamonds.

The Lord stores up special things for us that are unique to us. Things we lost here on Earth are returned ten-fold better than before in Heaven. As for things we had hoped for, but never received… well, God has this for us too. Perhaps it is something in our heart that we were never awarded, but we sacrificed everything for it. This may be a sports goal, a promotion or some other achievement.

In Heaven, God completes this for us. Somehow, His recompense for us is with Him. He has it for us. Perhaps we lost a child or someone close to us that broke our hearts. In Heaven, I believe our prayers here activate angels to go to that person at death and minister, opening the door to Jesus before them. With a baby or child, Jesus always carries them Home. He takes all of them.

This is my belief… one day, those who went before us will be there waiting for us to come Home. Through death and loss comes new life. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever (Psalm 73:26). One day, God will wipe away our tears (Revelation 21:4).

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on Earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroy and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Matthew 6:19-21).

Today is Thanksgiving Day in the USA. I am so thankful for You, Jesus! I am thankful for You as You are, quite simply, my Greatest Treasure!

I had a couple of vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Four Angels over the Four Corners" begins...

I saw four angels of the Lord go out to the four corners of the Earth… one to the north, one to the south, one to the east and one to the west. There was another angel over all of them and he sounded the alarm. I then observed these four angels at the four corners of the Earth. I recognized them and knew their names…

- Phillipi: One angel was over the waters, both above and below. I recognized him to be Phillipi.
- Tenney: I then saw another angel over all of the saints of God. The lights he was over were growing dim. He was a shield and helmet bearer. I recognized him to be Tenney.
- Beryl: I then saw an angel that shined like a jewel, like a lighthouse in the darkness. I recognized him to be Beryl.
- Xavier: I then saw an angel that I could not tell what he was over. However, he held a treasure contained in a box. I recognized him to be Xavier.

The angel over these four angels then made an announcement to them…

Overseeing Angel: In a thunderous voice. "And you shall minister to the saints and show them the Father's love!"

After he finished saying this, a great horn sounded and darkness filled the Earth. Three horns then sounded and the ground shook. I then saw the lights of the saints across the globe.

Pertinent Note: While this was a frightening dream, it was good to see these angels again. I discussed these angels back in Dream 38 as received on Friday, January 11, 2013. I wrote the following in this dream: "For my birthday in January of 2012, the Lord revealed to me during a dream that this would be my year of Jubilee. He showed me four angels and reminded me that He would come on the heels of these. These angels had names and they were Xavier, Beryl, Tenney and Phillipi." This is the first and only time I discussed these four angels as a group since back in Dream 38.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Then there was my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Prophecy for Our Enemies" begins…

I was tracking several enemies and doing things physically I could never do in the current state I am in. I was hunting some extremely evil people. When I arrived outside of a cave-type area, a group of people were hiding in the cave. I began to prophecy to them…

"Within the next year and a half, you will lose everything you have. You will look for help and will not find it. You will be taken to the dredges and great will be your anguish there. You will lose everything. You will remember back to this day! You will beg for mercy, but there will be no one there to hear you."

I was in great shape again, much better than even when I was in my 20s. I spoke boldly. This scenario seemed somehow so familiar to me. These evil people then came out to take my life. Before they could, the Lord moved me elsewhere.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, these two dreams were so real. So many of us are struggling right now. Please keep us close to You. Our children are having so many troubles and this affects us. Please help all of us, including our friends on the Nest."

Jesus: "`Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am near to the brokenhearted. I do not leave!"

Me: "Lord, so many of us need help right now."

Jesus: "I know. All is in My timing. Only I can create a miracle. Patience is a difficult journey. I am with you. You are not alone."

Me: "Lord, so many are anxious for what is coming."

Jesus: "Do not worry. I have a plan. You all must be patient. I have great blessings. Now, you see the times and the seasons. You see My Word unfolding before your very eyes. Since you know what is being presented before you, you are not caught off guard. I will continue to watch over you in all you do as I am with you.

"At first, all will seem discouraging and fear will begin to set in. Then immediately you will be strengthened and all will change. Great will be the anguish of the nations. However, those I have called will go forward as soldiers of righteousness among the disheartened and lowly of spirit.

"Now, today… give thanks… as I will accept your prayers of healing and blessings over all you declare… all those I call you to in My Name!"

Dream over.

753 – 12 Judges, 12 Courtrooms, 12 Dockets

Received on Saturday, November 25, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that You do. I am so thankful for each and every day that I am alive. Still, there are days that, at the end, I wonder why I am alive and for what purpose. I then lay my head down and dream at night and, in the morning, I wake up and understand why I am still here.

Lord, tomorrow is the busiest travel day of the year for the USA. This is the case with every Sunday right after Thanksgiving Thursday. Please oversee this day as only You can and are able.

My dreams last night were odd…

Sub-dream 1 "12 Judges, 12 Courtrooms, 12 Dockets" begins…

I was called to a courthouse with twelve judges. I was supposed to report to the public using SnapChat. I soon arrived at the courthouse steps. It felt familiar.

Note 1: I don't even use SnapChat as I believe this particular app is a tool of the enemy. As for the courthouse, I recognized this place from when I was a child growing up in the San Francisco Bay Area. It was either the City Hall or the Civic Center, but I don't remember which one.

Note 2: The original as posted used the word SnapHat. However, SnapHat should have read Shaphat. This was meant to be corrected but was overlooked as it looks so similar. Shaphat's meaning is that of Judge. Shaphat is also the name of the father of Elisha. In the Strong's Hebrew, it is to judge and govern.

As I stood looking at my phone to see which courtroom I was proceeding to, a popup showed up on my phone. SnapChat had suddenly become Shaphat. I looked at the Shaphat app again and walked down the stairs. As I went down the stairs, Shaphat became SnapChat again. I then heard the clock in the townhall chime 11:45am.

I knew that court started at high noon. I knew that time was running out, so I ran back up to the lobby. I was now inside trying to find the court dockets or schedule for this important day. I was able to find a security officer after searching for one. I was hoping that he may be able to help me.

Me: "Could you please tell me where I am to attend the courtroom hearing?"

Security: "Are you with the media?"

Me: "Yes."

Security: "Take your pick. There are twelve judges… six major courts and six minor courts. What is your venue for reporting?"

Me: "I am to use the horrible SnapChat." We both laughed.

Security: "Ah, you must therefore be in Judge Elon's court. This is a minor court."

Note: Here is something amusing I recently found in the Bible… Judges 12:11: "After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years." Still have a smile about this. Yes, God truly has the best humor!

Me: "Elon… as in Elon Musk?"

Security: "Well, he has been appointed by God to go to war against the others."

Me: "Oh, against big tech such as SnapChat, AI and Facebook?"

Security: "Well, yes."

Me: Looking down at my phone again. "Do you know why my App keeps changing to Shaphat instead of SnapChat?"

Security: "Oh, that is the verdict. The verdict is in. It will be on the others too."

Sure enough, both Facebook and Instagram were calling themselves Shaphat.

Me: "What does Shaphat even mean?"

Security: Laughing. "What? And you call yourself a reporter? The verdict is in and pending by the Judge. These represent twisted speech, including concealed lies and deception. God's judgment is in. The Judge is the defender of truth and they fight with the sword of truth."

Me: "So, what is in the other courtrooms?"

Security: "The other judges. These are appointed by God also to stand for truth until the Lord comes to render His Sentence."

I started walking past a few of the courtrooms and read their dockets. The even numbered courtrooms were on the opposite side of the hallway as the odd numbered courtrooms. The security officer was walking with me.

- Courtroom 1 Docket: False religions and unclean churches.
- Courtroom 2 Docket: Gender perversion and children.
- Courtroom 3 Docket: Corrupt judges and attorneys.
- Courtroom 4 Docket: Land and property theft – banks, appraisers and surveyors on trial.

Me: "What are all of these?"

Security: "Twelve judges appointed by God to defend the righteous ones of the Lord and to render judgment against evil in court. Now, let's go in."

He walked with me into the courtroom. I was in shock because there was no roof or ceiling over this courtroom.

Me: Pointing to the roof. "Why is there no roof?"

Security: "So all of Heaven can see the proceedings."

While I then saw several drones over the area, all of them soon fell from the sky and broke. One fell right in front of me. This startled me out of my sleep.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Evil Leaders Sleeping with the Enemy" begins…

I saw a massive area of mattresses. There were no tents over them. They were exposed to the outside elements. There was a horrible creature in each bed. Each bed had a different creature. I then saw many government and business leaders lay down next to these creatures on their mattresses.

Some were unaware they were even lying next to such evil. Others knew the creatures were there and they were fornicating with them without any fear of being seen. It was disgusting. From my perspective, it looked like hell. I woke up and could not go back to sleep.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these dreams are complex. I feel like it is possible that I am leaving out some details that might be pertinent. I love You. I have been depressed lately. There are still so many beautiful things that You have created. There are still so many and all are good and perfect. Still, things are being destroyed at a rapid rate. Father, things are now becoming so dark and sad.

There is also news of a coming pandemic that is far worse than Covid-19. It is attacking children. This seems to be timed for the next presidential election. They are following the very same pattern as they did for the last presidential election. There is even a mysterious illness that is striking dogs. Since many of us have crawled back from great losses, this is greatly feared.

I spoke with one woman who was unable to arrange a funeral for her husband. There are so many stories like this that happened during Covid. What a crime. My older son's friend died in a work accident and, because it was during Covid, no closure occurred. There was no ability to honor those who lost their lives. It was horrible to have no ability to say goodbye. Father, this life is painful.

Me: "Oh Lord, it is so difficult to watch evil succeed. Please stop this. Please strengthen all of us for what is coming. With what has happened in Israel, we know what the enemy has planned for the rest of us."

Jesus: "`Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know this is a difficult time to be a watcher on My wall. You see what is coming because I granted you wisdom on this wall of Mine. You see much but not all that is coming."

Me: "Lord, this world will be in shock at all that is coming."

Jesus: "Well, they shouldn't be. Evil advances quickly when it is being pursued by something more powerful than they are and that is Me and My Kingdom. Now, I know My people want specifics of what will come next. They also want to know when this or that will be. However, I remain quiet. Well, Erin, this is good… that is, until I am no longer quiet, understand?"

Me: "Lord, I keep having dreams that I am an intruder in the house of someone I know. When I am discovered, I am horribly embarrassed."

Jesus: "Those particular dreams are personal fear dreams sent by the enemy to disarm you and make you feel out of My leading. Now, would you ever do this in your waking hours? Do you plot about your neighbor?"

Me: "No, of course not. I would never do that."

Jesus: "The enemy tries to disqualify you. However, I qualify you. Erin, I equip those I qualify. The enemy has been attacking you. However, all of these attacks will come to nothing. Do not forget this.

"Now, the dream of leaders and their beds. They lie in these beds right in the open. No one is shocked by it anymore. Nothing is done to stop their open fornication. They even fornicate in the public square. Wait until they actually see what they have done. Erin, remember that, when someone lies down with unclean spirits, permission is then granted for many more to come and join in (Matthew 12:43-45).

"Now, the dream of Judges. I will remind you again that there is something in a name. It was the same in the beginning and so too is it today."

Me: "Lord, are You doing the same thing today? Are these the Judges over the Tribes of Israel?"

Jesus: "Well, I am over them. However, I send out the spirits of these former Judges with My angel armies to test and defend. They carry swords as a measure. The tongue is a sword. See, I am over all you see. I am truth. Evidence is collected and presented in My Courts. These cases can then be argued and verdicts rendered. However, since I see all things, these cases need not be defended.

"Instead, judgment by Me has been given based on visible evidence by My own eyes. Just know that the courts of public thoughts, opinions and lying words have no place in My Courts. I have appointed rulers to judge with fair measures. I will vindicate them. However, for the evil ones who present false witness testimony and swear by it, I see this. I know where their seats are and who sits in them, understand? Now rejoice, Erin, as I am in charge.

"Now, I want you to have peace. If I have given you words, then write these. If I have had you repeat words, then there is a reason. If I have you declare a thing, then declare it. Do not be afraid in doing good as I am with you. I love you, Erin, because you remember Me. While I know these times have been difficult, I am with you. You will soon truly understand who I am in even greater measure than you currently know Me. You will receive all that I have promised you… Erin, I promise!"

Dream over.

754 – Twelve Angels, Twelve Opposing Demons

Received on Monday, November 27, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all those You have sent around me and our house. Thank You for my children, our pets and my husband. While we are not perfect people, we are perfectly imperfect for Your purposes. My dreams last night were amazing as per usual.

I was struggling with pain and breathing yesterday. It feels like the insides of my body are at war with something. Lord, something is not right here. It was either the plague released against the world, the vaccine or both. Either way, a great war has been waged against the people of the Earth by hidden enemies.

Father, please protect us. When I was forced to take the vaccine, You said, 'Do not worry. I am with you in this. What is done to you is also done to Me. Since I am here, nothing foreign that comes against you will prosper.' So, Father, I cling to this and I am grateful.

Now, my two dreams…

Sub-dream 1 "Reversing the Market Terrorism" begins…

I seemed young again. I was attending a festive celebration nearing the winter season. There was music, art vendors and beautiful lights everywhere. Shots then suddenly rang out. Shortly after, vehicles started ramming through the crowds. They were running over women, children and the elderly. Something hit me and I fell to the ground.

The next thing I heard was the choir of heavenly angels. Right there in front of me was an angel of the Lord. It looked like Breakthrough and he did not speak. He put his hand out to prevent me from entering. He then held up one finger and I knew to wait.

His two hands were then cupped in front of him. Water suddenly came from above him into his hands. The water poured out until overflowing. I began to walk toward him and he nodded 'no'. I then just sat there. As I did, the water poured out over me. Even though I had been wounded in the chaos, I did not feel any pain. I saw five large bubbles of light. They had an appearance like mercury glass.

Me: "Lord, are You there? Where are You?"

The bubbles grew very large. One of the bubbles then came over me as if I were inside a private room. There was a door inside this bubble. The light was so bright.

Me: "Is that You, Lord? Am I dead?"

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

The bubble was then gone. I was back in this open market celebration. However, my wounds had now disappeared.

Jesus: "My voice is in you. Now get up. Get up! We have work to do!"

Just as I got up off the ground, I had a ringing in my ears. There was complete chaos as several shooters were gunning down innocent people.

Jesus: "Walk up to the gunmen."

I did exactly as He instructed. While they promptly opened fire on me, the bullets from their automatic weapons simply dissolved. They were freaked out.

Jesus: "Erin, dissolve their weapons. Melt them and the molten metal will fall upon them."

This felt so real. I did exactly what Jesus told me. The horror in their eyes was unforgettable.

Jesus: "These are enemies. Do not mourn for them. Now, speak this, the words I give you, and do not delay."

They were crying out in horrible pain and fear. The Lord welled up in me with His words.

Me: Speaking to these evil enemies. "For what you have done, for what evil you have plotted, know this… God sees your works and your place is in the everlasting fires of judgment of the Lord God, Yeshua, the God of Jacob."

Jesus: Speaking to Me: "Now, turn your back to them. We will now raise up the dead and heal the injured."

Me: "Oh Lord, that was fun."

Jesus: "Do not rejoice when the wicked are condemned. Focus instead on those who will be changed because of this. Let us restore the joy here."

As I walked by the dead and the injured, Jesus spoke through me.

Me: "Get up! Rise up! You are healed."

All the wounds disappeared. The blood on their clothing was removed. Any illnesses they had prior to this day were completely healed. Those who were in terror and screaming now cried out in rejoicing. It was so fun. I then looked back at the terrorists. They were in agony watching all of the kills they accomplished be reversed to new life.

When everything was healed and restored at the market, the evil men and their vehicles were completely dissolved. They were no more. Only the place they stood with their footprints in molten gun metal was evidence of their existence. Each footprint outlined along with the words 'Enemies of God', along with the date of their destruction. When I tried to make the dates out, the Lord blurred them.

Jesus: "Now, on to the next adventure. Ready?"

Me: "That was fun!"

I woke up suddenly to what sounded like something hitting our internet tower outside. When I looked out, everything appeared normal. I fell back to sleep.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Twelve Angels, Twelve Opposing Demons" begins…

I saw a massive wheatfield with broken shafts from an early freeze. Since the wheat had not been harvested prior to the cold snap, the wheat was not harvestable. When I then looked down the hill to another field, all the wheat had been perfectly harvested and the ground ready for the now harsh conditions. In the distant horizon, I saw mountains as far as my eyes could see surrounding these fields.

The mountains were snowy. I then saw the sky turn pink as dawn approached. In front of me was a path through the frozen wheat field. As I walked, I heard a whistle behind me. I looked and there were twelve angels of God on one side of the path. On the other side of the path were twelve demonic entities. I heard a whistle again and I saw that it was coming from Breakthrough. I then saw a ladder in the field descend.

A Loud Voice: "Hurry! Run!"

Behind me were these evil demonic angels coming at me. Breakthrough was waiting for me and helped me climb. He motioned for me to close my eyes. Just then, an arm came down from above and brought me up. My heart was pounding. It was the Lord. He was smiling at me and my heart melted.

Me: "Lord, it is You! That was scary."

Jesus: "I know. Now, I have some things to discuss with you. You have questions that I can answer."

Me: "So many."

Jesus: Laughing. "Yes, I know. However, there are a few in particular. Now, what did you just see?"

Me: "A frozen field of wheat destroyed and not harvestable. Mountains with snow. Twelve angels of Your army from Heaven and twelve who were evil. Breakthrough then showed me the ladder to You. So, here I am. However, the twelve evil demons wanted to kill me."

Jesus: "Yes. They have gone to war against God, His Kingdom and you."

Me: "Me? Who am I?"

Jesus: "Come with Me. Let us walk."

He took my hand and we walked down a beautiful tree lined path of white aspen trees with silver and green leaves. The ground was like carpet. It was green moss. It was beautiful. The Lord spoke to me as we walked.

Jesus: "You are one of My remnant. You have been redeemed and reserved for My purposes. I want you to understand that, for every good and lovely thing of God, there is an opposite of this. Now, you saw twelve head angels who are over the Tribes of Israel from the sons of Jacob. Now, there were changes made, but you saw twelve."

Me: "Changes?"

Jesus: "Well, enhancements from Heaven. Now, with every angel over the Tribes comes an opposing enemy. Their sole role is to destroy the Kingdom of Righteousness on Earth… God's chosen people. These evil fallen angels have sent out their armies to destroy all of Israel, all who are chosen of God, His Remnant, and to defile the Earth. They are an army set against all that is good.

"Now, just as there are lead angels of God over each Tribe of Israel, there are twelve who are the opposite. They are led by another chief of the fallen. Their time is running out as they know that My army is greater than their army. Well, they don't even know a fraction of all that will come against them. However, My reason for bringing you up here is this…"

He stopped to look at me. He had purpose in His eyes.

Jesus: "Erin, I am not a figment of your imagination. I am with you. My voice is in you. When I show you specific things, write these plainly. These are important. While it is okay to question what you do not know, don't question God, understand?

The alarm rang out and woke me up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I got up after I couldn't fall back to sleep. I went to my chair and prayed.

Me: "Father, You didn't finish."

Jesus: "`Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, shall we continue?"

Me: "Wow, can we? That was awesome!"

Jesus: "Yes, but first… what is going on with you right now?"

Me: "Lord, I have been sad. My breathing is poor. I have been so sad (sigh). Things wear out and I don't want to replace them. I have been waiting for miracles and stalling. It is difficult to trust workers to come to the house. People are not as honest. I am seeing what is happening in Israel and my stomach is sick. I have been shown what is coming to us here and… well, I am sad over all of it. I didn't embrace the great moments before they were gone forever."

Jesus: "Things were not very great for you, Erin. These moments you cling to aren't life preservers or floats in difficult seas. Only I can save. I promise you that I have a great place prepared for those who love Me. Remember, you are a citizen of Heaven, not hell. You are an alien on Earth. All of this is temporary. All of it. You are seeing the fall of the world as you have known it."

Me: "The lies and horrible news is very difficult to hear continually. I thought something wonderful would come at Thanksgiving, but it didn't."

Jesus: "This was an enemy plan. They like to strike on significant dates that are important to God or that send fear into the hearts of many."

Me: "You don't give me calendar dates. When You have, these have been incredible."

Jesus: "Erin, in a war, going into a great battle, the head or commander doesn't give away certain details so as not to alert the enemy. For instance, the two sides don't go out into the battlefield and say to each other, 'Okay, who is going to fire the first shot? What are the weapons you will be using against us and how do we prepare for this battle? How many do you plan to kill? When will this attack against us commence exactly? Where will the attacks come from?"

Me: Laughing. "That would be both funny and stupid!"

Jesus: "Look at what the enemy has done to the people of Israel. Their enemies are great deceivers. Their intentions are to have mass graphic casualties, with their goal being the extermination of the Jewish people. This will not go well for them from my vantage point. They are going after all who are standing for Israel and God. They will not win this.

"Now, you worry about things I have shown you because you are not at your best physically. You worry that I am going to pull My favor and leave you."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord, it is just that… well… my dreams are often of tribulation and I am alone going from place to place. I see all of the suffering…"

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are observing, not suffering. You are there for a reason. It is the last of the harvest. Remember that the sweetest wine is at the end of the harvest. The late grape thrives into winter under harsh conditions, then it is harvested suddenly and all at once so none will be lost."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but it is sad."

Jesus: "Why? They come through it, Erin! They find a way and you and many others will assist them as witnesses."

Me: "Lord, are we part of the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel?"

Jesus: "I am the Good Shepherd. I go after My lost sheep. No matter where they are, I find them. They are Mine and this is written. Just as I have power over life and death and I came to set those who were captives free, I also am the Groom who comes for His Bride. As God is in covenant with His people who were adulterous and they were cast out and the world said, 'Lost forever!'

"Well, remember this… I know where all that is lost can be found. The Ten Tribes are like the Ten Virgins as well. Some of the attendants to the Bride are loyal and keep their promises and their lanterns are lit at all hours to assist the Bride to watch for her Groom. I promise you, although these are attendants and not a Bride, they are still part of her party and will attend the Wedding Feast.

"However, the Five Virgins who were foolish and lazy were not believing the Groom was coming at the Appointed Time. They became bored with the wait and decided not to watch and assist the Bride and be part of the Bridal Party and Ceremony. They therefore are not allowed to attend. While these are those who knew the Bride and the Groom, they loved their own pursuits more. They were then lost to the Wedding Party.

"The Lost Ten Tribes are the same. However, I have a covenant with them that cannot be broken. I am the Good Shepherd. I pursue My lost sheep until they are found by Me. Now, you see these twelve evil chiefs. They know about the things of Heaven and of God. They seek out and hunt down the 99 sheep while the Shepherd is chasing the one.

"However, they don't know that there are thousands on hand disguised as sheep that will chase them down. See Me here… when you see Me, I am not worried. However, I am angry at the celebrations of the evil and the rapid increase of the wicked. Still, I am here with you. Now, Erin, what do you witness?"

Me: "You are in control and confident, as if You already won. You see the end from the beginning and the beginning from the end. Because You are omnipresent, You are in all places 24/7. They must really hate You for that. That was genius. However, more than this, Lord… when I am with You, You have joy, peace and strength because You have already won."

Jesus: "Erin, you are Mine. I made a covenant with you. I will not leave you. You are My Bride and You were one of My sheep who was lost. However, I pursued you and saved you from devourers… you and your children. My promise had no conditions because you recognize Me as your Savior and Shepherd. You have cast away the love of the world to serve Me. However, even more than this, we are as one. The moment you ask Me, I answer… at least when you remember that I am there."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I have not been wanting to bother You over small things. Even so, I need Your help right now. My little dogs are both sick. Zoey because she is near the end of her lifespan and she doesn't move like she used to and gets sick sometimes with blood. Snigglet today was behaving odd and was sick. I took her to the vet and she is joining me with pancreas issues but hers is full blown. Please help us. The timing is horrible for us in so many ways."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. However, I do not want you to worry. Your worrying does nothing but make you ill. Give your dogs to Me."

Me: "I know they are better with You than they are with me anyway, whether here or in Heaven. The pain of this place here just continues. There is a cost for everything we do here and the enemy loves when Your people are discouraged."

Jesus: "Well, as you know, things here are uncomfortable for all of the children of God because the enemy knows that I am coming for him. Erin, I just don't leave the 99 to chase the one lost sheep. I remove the enemy involved in the process. So, understand that, this time, I come as a King and Bridegroom and vengeance is Mine. This should bring you comfort to know that I am with you.

"Now, do not worry as I will care for all your needs. Now, the angel Michael is over Israel with a vast army. The enemy is luring Israel into a great deception. Any nation who participates in this deception and promotes Israel as guilty of anything other than wanting to avenge these crimes and remove the criminals will be guilty by My hand.

"Any leader who participates in this injustice against Israel will meet their demise and this will be swift. Those who live by the sword will surely die by the sword. Anyone who harms a child… well, you have seen what plight awaits them. I promise you, Erin… My justice is swift and fair. 10,000 will fall at the sight of just one of whom I will send. Fear will fall upon those who create the weapon of fear.

"They will search for death, but will not find it. They will know torment. They will be subjected to their own methods against the innocent. Erin, I am God and My justice will be fair. I give mercy and I administer grace. However, when dealing with these, mercy and grace will not be an offering 'on the table'. Well, really more like an option not for them.

"Now, this is a good time to open Revelation to see what awaits the wicked during the tribulation. Understand this! Reader, understand!"

Me: "Lord, I have never heard You like this."

Jesus: "Evil has taken an uptick. I see it. I will remove the wicked. They will flee."

Me: "What I am going through seems so small in comparison. I am sorry."

Jesus: "Don't be. This is good. Erin, really? You should know to come to Me in all things. Now, these twelve chiefs have their armies. They have ranks. They govern evil. There are things you never imagined because so much is hidden…

- Occult: One is over great evil, witchcraft and the occult.
- Weapons: One is over weapons, but also weapons of social media. It is the angel who knew how to wage wars who fell. He is responsible for death in many forms, including technology, arms and missiles.

- Drugs: One is over pharmaceuticals, medicines and vaccines. He is also over great illnesses and plagues.
- Entertainment: One is over entertainment, sports, music and gambling.
- Spirits: One is over drinking of spirits and taking of drugs.
- Children: One is over children and destroying them with lies. This includes confusing them over how they were created.
- Religion: One is over religion, including grey areas and false teachings.
- Vanity: One is over vanity and perversion. This includes tattoos, piercings, and make up used to self-idolize.
- Division of Family: One specializes in dividing families. This includes divorce, separation, defilement and other forms of the destruction of the union of man and woman.
- Death: One is over death, suicide and crimes against nature.
- Race: One is over race division, genocide and genetics. This includes weaponizing trusted officials to carry these out. All to destroy man.
- Satan's Helper: One is an assistant to the main liar who proclaims the opposite as good and bad. He helps the chief liar and is a facilitator to Lucifer and his promotion of lies."

Me: "Wow, this is unbelievable."

Jesus: "This isn't even close to all of it. You will be in shock at what all they have done to destroy all of Creation. However, I am God and I see it. Erin, these go to the Lake of Fire, so do not worry. Their times are coming to a close.

"Now, My angel army is more vast and more powerful than all of these. Your prayers activate angels. I will discuss this with you later. Now, rejoice, for I am God over all things and you are Mine. Take comfort. You are loved by the King and your Savior."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-755/

755 – Water, Water, Water Everywhere

Received on Saturday, December 2, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Who is like You? Thank You for another day! Thank You for a life of dreams while I sleep at night. Thank You for miracles, signs and wonders in my waking hours!

- Blessed be Your Name in all of the Earth.
- Blessed are You who never sleeps and Your love abounds upon us.
- Blessed are the Sparrows, for even though they are the least of the birds, Your eye is still on them always.
- Blessed are Your children who remember, that when we are chastised in life, it is because of our Father's love that we should lack no good thing.
- Blessed are those who believe in You, Father, as when troubles of this world come, we know that all of this will soon pass away.

I have had a really awful last 2.5 months. Our trip to Bend OR was the last time we had peace. When we arrived home, the attacks began and have not stopped even for a moment. They have cost us so much and even to the point of spiritual exhaustion. As a parent, I can struggle with answering spiritual questions my grown children now sometimes ask…

- Why is all of this happening to me (or us)?
- Where is God?
- Now that I have repented, when does He actually forgive me?
- When does the pain stop?
- Even though I have prayed and I know God hears me, is He still mad at me?

Well, I have been the sounding board to our children for a few weeks now:

- My daughter's faith is strong and doesn't waver much.
- My older son's faith is building and he is learning to hear from God in Scripture and in signs in his walk.
- My younger son just rededicated his life to God and what a spiritual battle has come against him. The enemy has sent the proverbial dark rain down upon him.
- My stepdaughter doesn't see God right now and is happy to go into the world without Him by her side… at least for now.
- My stepson explains away with logic troubles and blessings as random chance. I am not sure if he hates God and is angry with Him or if he doesn't believe at all.

Everyone sees God through their parents. It is through our faith and testimony that we display the awesome miracle of the love of You. A life of believing that everything is a miracle is a beautiful way to love. It is so wonderful in comparison to believing that nothing is a miracle and that we are not special to our Father.

I love You, Lord. I knew about miracles from an early age. As for my mom, she thought with incorrect logic because of her schooling at Berkeley that Jesus was merely a prophet and that the Bible was written by oppressive men who hated women. Even so, there was one small portion of my mom's life that contained miracles. She said this consistently up until the time she left this Earth. Here is a typical conversation…

Mom: "Strange! No matter what happens, a check in the mail or a bonus or a large tip at work comes in every time we are about to fail financially. I can't explain it. There is some force that sees and provides for us no matter what. We have never gone hungry. We have never had the lights or gas cut off. We have always had a home and all that we need."

I clung to these words of hers. She knew. She knew. This is God. This is You, Father. While You don't give us everything we hope and pray for, You give us even better. You know all of the parties concerned. You give us what is best for us. You have great plans for us. Even so, troubles suck…

Illnesses… attacks… dark brown water… then no water at all… no heat… sick pets… invaders… family arguments… division… hurtful words… unanswered prayers… financial hardships…

The list goes on and on (sigh). Now there are questions that I have, not the children. However, the overall question remains… Father, what is going on here? The week began with a sick dog… she now has pancreas troubles. This is exactly what I have been trying to keep from being full blown in my own body. Since I hadn't been feeling well, I had been staying home to try to rest.

My younger son, who had rededicated his life to Jesus, has been struggling. Something had happened and it triggered him. He then began to workout in the middle of the night with weights. This triggered my stepson, kept up by the loud workouts, and words were exchanged. Tensions then escalated. I found out what had happened the next morning. I then needed to deescalate tensions to restore peace.

There were many absolutes spoken. It hurt. There were two days of battles. I had a fever one night. I prayed and You removed my fever. Thank you. My body is trying to fight infections. Then after a seemingly good day on Thursday, it began to take a turn for the worse. We got home at 4:30pm, but didn't discover until 5:30pm when I began to work in the kitchen that we had big problems.

The tap water was brown and cloudy, like muddy river water. I fumbled after that. I didn't know what to do. I prayed and nothing. We prayed. Nothing. Then the water stopped. No water! My younger son called me downstairs and we killed a spider on the way. My daughter killed a spider at the exact same time. Enemy attacks! I went to pray for my younger son.

He then went to apologize to all those he had hurt with his words. This felt like a huge breakthrough. Dinner was difficult to clean up without water. There is no way I would have chosen spaghetti if I had known. We then went to bed after I had to make the noodles twice. This is because, when I was straining the water, my hand gave way and all the noodles spilled into a dirty sink. Not good. Not usable!

My stomach was now not doing very well. I was so disheartened over all of the events. My husband had fallen asleep when I received a text from my younger son that there was a loud mouse in the ceiling. I then went down to hear it. What I heard was no mouse. It sounded much larger, like a squirrel or a bat. My younger son then joked around that it was three demons stuck in the ceiling tormenting him from getting sleep.

After praying for him, I went to bed. Well, my sleep was brutal. I tossed and turned. I didn't feel well. Everyone went to work Friday morning and I waited for the well workers to come to help us. While they said they would be here at 11:00am, they didn't come until around 12:45pm.

However, at 10:00am, a miracle happened. I had been praying and worshiping then without thinking I turned on the faucet. The water started and it was clear. I was so excited. I began to clean the toilets. I kept checking the water. While the water then went back to a trickle, at least the water was still clear.

The workers then had several items they had never experienced before on any other residential job. The water meter was giving out sounds that they had never heard before. They then found no water above 44 feet. As they were talking about it, I knew in my heart that this was a spiritual warfare issue. The main worker & supervisor remembered our system because he had installed it when the home was built. It has two spillways for overflow and the area is like an octopus with tentacles at the point of the pump underground.

They decided to pull up the pump and check where the failure was. They had hoped to repair it and put it back down again to complete the job for us. However, the pump would not come up. They became worried that it would break apart. We would then have no water at all and even our trickle would be gone. They broke it to me that they would need to bring in a boom truck to pull it out. I then became depressed.

Supervisor: "I am sorry to say that we will not be able to come back until next week. It could be as early as Tuesday, but even as late as Friday."

Me: "How much will all of this be?"

Supervisor: "I don't like to ballpark these things anymore as everything is 40% more than it used to be before Covid. How much did it cost you for the pump last time?"

Me: "For everything, it was about $3,000. That was six years ago."

Supervisor: "That is too bad that it wasn't five years or less. If it had been less than five years, it would have been under the five-year warranty. You just missed it."

Me: "It sounds like we are looking at a hefty bill?"

Supervisor: "Adding increased labor, the boom truck and the 40% increase, we are looking at around $5K altogether depending. I am sorry that this is happening on a Friday."

Me: My stomach now feeling ill. "Yes, it always happens when nothing can be done."

Supervisor: "And you are now at the mercy of the boom truck availability."

Me: "Thank you for coming out to see us."

Supervisor: "We will see you next week."

After they left, I went inside, sat down and cried. I cried so loud that even my dogs laid next to me and sulked. I began reviewing my week and all of the troubles. I felt out of options.

Just the day before, my husband and I went to an auctioneer who sold some of our junk after Jeff went into forced retirement a few years back. We thought that, with kids moving away, this was a good time to do this again.

When we arrived, he didn't greet us with his normal kindness. I approached him to ask if we could get on his schedule. He was so mean and sarcastic with his response. I was in shock. He was very mean to me. My husband stuck up for me, but it was too late. I was hurt. When we got back in the car, my husband told me that we would not be going back to him again. I agreed. This man spoke like Satan to me.

As I reviewed all the events while crying at our dining table. I went to the Lord in my sorrow, brokenness and sickness and pleaded -pouring my heart out before him.

Me: "Father, You're my Best Friend. I love You. Why are You allowing all of this? What if I can't physically recover? What if this pump… well, Father, I bargained with You. I asked for it to be healed. We can't do this right now. Why are You allowing this? Why? When I pray for someone else, You answer their prayers. Lord, we need help here and right now!"

I am crying even as I write this. It is so disheartening. I had to drive to town to purchase water and groceries. I had to stop in to pay for snow tires. By the time I was driving home, I was at the end of my prayers and still feeling so sad. My older son then phoned. I try to talk to him once a day. While his dad has been acting really strangely, that's a different rant for a different day.

My older son then told me of an incident that happened to him. He felt as if he was awake in his bed when he was attacked by three demons in the form of black Dobermans or a hybrid with Rottweilers . He finally called on Jesus and they disappeared. However, he had never experienced anything like that. I then realized that both my sons spoke about 'three demons' on the very same day.

All of us have now had attacks. This is classic spiritual warfare! I then had two separate dreams last night that seemed to reflect my recent troubles…

Sub-dream 1 "Bitter Water vs Living Water" begins…

I was walking in a city at night. There had been a flashflood from a downpour after a time of very little rain… a drought. There was brown water rushing into sewage drains. The drains from the building's rooftops added to the high water in the drains. Some spouts then began to run out into the sidewalks.

The rain came faster and faster and with great volume. It was flooding the water sources with brown water. All the water taps of the people of the city were filled with brown opaque water. The water was undrinkable as a result. The rain kept going. Some people came up to me.

Woman: "Hey, where is this God of yours? How about clearing this water up for us? We are thirsty. We were told that you contained water. Since you have it, you are going to give it to us. Come on now, out with it."

Me: "I don't have any water. It's not like that. I only have the Living Water that God would fill me with to pour out. I don't have what you are seeking."

Man: "Then you are useless to us. Come, let us drink the brown water instead. We are better off doing this then relying on God and His kind for drinking water."

Me: Praying. "Oh Lord, please clear up this water and stop this torrential rain."

Jesus: "In this particular circumstance… no."

I became so sad as I had wanted God to show His power to these people. I saw them all fighting around me. My very presence made the crowd grow angry. They soon came after me and I was scared.

Me: "Ah, Lord, a little help here please!"

A bottle of clear water instantly appeared in my hand.

Jesus: "Drink this in the open."

The crowd became really angry when they saw me drink this water. They were then struck down before they could reach me. Once on the ground, they started vomiting out the brown water that they had drank. Out of this vomit came an army of demons. They appeared as brown figures and they left. The rain then stopped and the ground dried up. A large fountain then appeared with Living Water.

Jesus: "Instruct them to get up and drink."

Me: To the crowd. "Get up and drink. You are thirsty and this fountain will bring life."

Most of the people got up to drink. They were then healed of their illnesses and were changed. Those who didn't drink became even angrier at me, but more so at God for allowing them to suffer. They would not turn to drink the good water. I then saw black entities, perhaps ten per person, come and enter those who were bitter.

Me: I spoke over them "Into your bitter hearts bitter demons enter. Bitter water ingested leads to death."

I then looked over at those who had drank the Living Water. They looked healthy and were splashing in the fountain. This brought a smile to my face!

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "As in the Days of Noah" begins…

I was walking on a dimly lit path after a storm. Large flat stones lined the path. Since I was looking for a key, I was turning over each stone. While I could see clearly, I became frustrated with the process of turning over these stones. As I turned one over after the other and soon more than I can even remember, I found the key I had been looking for. Before me was a bright light on this path. There was an angel of the Lord right there in front of me…

Angel: "Erin, God is not angry at you. The enemy is striking out against the children of God. These are perilous times as in the Days of Noah. Concerning your well, the enemy had no permission to enter your home. They instead attacked you from below to cut off your water and steal what provision you have."

Me: "Why would God allow this? He is my Best Friend. Why?"

Angel: "There is a great war. If you knew what had been planned against you and your house, you would think that this water issue was small in comparison. Now, I have a message for you from God… 'Be patient. Ride out these storms even when the world tells you there is no hope. Continue on your course in doing My Will in all things. All of this will come to nothing and your blessings will be multiplied.'

"Now, I was there with Noah. He was ridiculed, scoffed at and his very life threatened. He was disheartened. His own family were concerned for their very lives. Evil men plotted in town to dismantle his ark and use it for firewood. They called for vile things against him and his family for no reason other than they existed. God then sent angels to confuse their evil plans.

"He then made them drunk with wine as the animals came over the course of days and filled God's Holy Ark. Now you can imagine what it was like when the storm came. Waters came from above and below. The scoffers' voices then became like those of beggars. They were then drowned out by the rising waters. Now, think again about Noah. He followed the instructions and the Will of God.

"He built a boat on dry land, not having an understanding as to why or for what purpose. However, he knew, because he was building a boat for Him, that he believed it was for the purposes of God, understand? Now, you see the times of evil expanding quickly as a flood rising and overcoming all that was good. It has been a plot of evil, the reverse, if you will. The promise of a rainbow in the sky was taken for evil means and purpose.

"The evil then made a vow to flood the lands and peoples to defile it and remove all that is lovely, hopeful good and truthful, until there is no more on this Earth. (To flood not with water but instead with evil). Then those who remain will do the will of the fallen angels who seek revenge against God. However, there is an Ark here, a promise and covenant made by God that there is shelter, a place He has prepared for all those who love Him. As you look to the skies, where does your help come from? It comes from the Maker of Heaven and Earth!"

Me: "Oh… so… Heaven is the Ark?"

Angel: "Well, yes, but there is dry ground here. There are fields and these need harvesting. The Temple of God is with His people and there He will take His seat. However, He has also planned a Great Wedding Feast. You are gathering as a Worker and Bride – a List Bearer and Witness to bring those to the Great Celebration. What God has planned will be celebrated here as it is in Heaven.

"There is still a battle here, Erin. When these attacks come, it is not because God is angry at you. It is because the enemy has come against you with all its resources and because of who you are to the King. Now, rejoice, as this is a good thing! Now, soon all will change. God has placed a plan on your heart. Now bring these into God's presence and before Him, He will bless them.

"God planned the Ark and gave Noah the heart to build it and the faith and fortitude to see it through to completion. He then believed God for the rest. In God, you must trust. Now, all of what the prophets have written and spoken of for this time is now here. Watch and see the Power of our God!"

Sub-dream 2 over…

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Me: "Father, what was the key I was searching for?"

Jesus: "Praise in the storms… prayer in the midst of these… faith to believe in Me for the outcome! Erin, I love you and I will send you all that you need! I am God and I hold the Key!"

Dream over.

756 – Jesus Meets Us at Our Level

Received on Sunday, December 3, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

No matter what, I will praise You in this storm! Thank You for another day. Thank You for all that we have. While we still have heat, at least for now, we do not have any water pressure at all. Father, this is the house You built for us.

As a little girl, I remember not having any home problems. While there was an occasional inconvenient power outage from storms, that was really it.

My grandparents' home had the same appliances and the same heating system, all without any issues. However, nothing is built to last past the warranty. If there is truly a case to be made for our environment, why are they not required to make appliances, computers and printers last longer. Our landfills are overrun with broken technology.

We now live in a home that is 11 years old. Ever since we have lived here, we have had major breakdowns. Almost all of our appliances have failed at some point. Our water and heating systems have had constant problems. We make frequent use of all of our appliances, so this wear and tear are indicative of a large family.

While this makes sense, some of this is still just so ridiculous. The appliance repairman declined to fix our oven because he said that the technology is tricky now and that he would likely charge more in labor than the price of purchasing a new one. What a waste of metal. Oh Father, nothing is made to last anymore.

I find it interesting that all You created is made to last. This includes man, animals, the trees, grass, stars, the moon and the sun. Of course, there is still the cycle of life and death, but all of this was made perfectly by You. You built everything here to last for Your purposes and an eternity with You, with those who choose You now.

In Matthew 24:35, You said: "Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but My Words shall not pass away!" Every written translation of this verse stays consistent and the wording does not vary by translation.

We take comfort in You, Father, as You are our everlasting God, the Creator of Heaven and Earth!

I spent many years designing kitchens and specifying appliances to fit clients' needs and budgets. The great changes in the industry are when all manufacturers quit producing in their own homelands and were subject to quality consumer regulations. Name brand companies now send their manufacturing to nations who pay local workers low wages and produce low quality merchandise in order to maximize profits.

No decent guarantee is offered as a testimony to proud craftsmanship. If one is offered, there are so many fine print exclusions, it is laughable. Every part of our lives around us is wearing out and failing. The only pure guarantee is the one You give us. The guarantee is, if we give our heart to You, You promise to have a place for us with You in Heaven, where nothing can wear out.

Oh Father, I am so thankful that not one thing will ever break down in Heaven. My heart races and my breathing quickens in amazement at the beauty of Heaven with You. Yet another example of this is when I became sick again last night. Nausea without plumbing is horrible. I took some pills and prayed. My inner plumbing is the same as my outer plumbing… nothing is working correctly right now.

With our bodies, I now know that the choices I made when I was younger have caused many of my illnesses today. I am guilty of abusing the very body You gave me. I ignored problems and refused to address certain things when troubles started. When you are young, you think you are superhuman, that you just need to power through the pain or you ignore whatever it was until you have no choice but to get help.

God designed us perfectly to last and to live in joy. He wants us to not worry and to praise Him in all situations, both good and bad. These are keys to healthy living…

- Praising God for all He is, has done and is doing.
- Praying to God for others and for His Will to be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.
- Praying for protection against enemy schemes.
- Praying for the love and the blessing of God, our Father, over every aspect of our lives and all that we have around us.

Father, this life is not a simple one like my grandparents had. When we were little, it was really fun. We played outside. We were rarely indoors. The food was real and usually homemade. However, the one great exception was Velveeta cheese from the market. Boy, did I hate that stuff. It seems like our lives are now filled with things to worry about. Still, You tell us not to worry. Well, I am trying.

It is just that… well, while I have full faith in my outcome, I don't necessarily have as much faith on 'my chosen way' during this journey. When I am sick, it is really hard to focus on anything else but the pain I am in. Pain has a megaphone and often drowns out Your still small voice. When grieving a loss, the pain of the heart is so great that turning to You can sometimes be an afterthought.

When hit with bad news and there is no solution and no way out, the immediate reaction is deep despair and personal bargaining. Finally, when all else fails and we are at the end of our human options and solutions, then we finally turn to You. I am sorry. I then go to You immediately in prayer.

However, when the trouble and pain is louder than Your Voice, the focus goes to this immediate feeling in Me. This happens in wave after wave until tears come. I then surrender all to You, Father. I am ready for some miracles and I know others are as well. All of these thoughts seemed to feed into one of my dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Jesus plays Lego with my sons" begins…

I was spending time with my sons. In my dream, my younger son was eight and my older son was ten. They were playing with Lego and they were both laughing. I had already known their lives would be difficult in this world. While I was trying to prepare them, they were not really listening to me fully.

I then got up and went to the kitchen. I then heard them talking to someone. I turned the corner and saw that Jesus was now sitting with them. He was playing with the Legos as my sons listened intently to Him speaking.

Jesus: Addressing my older son. "You will be away for a while. You will be scared and you will miss your family. However, know this… your mom will come for you. She loves you. Do not believe what is said of her. These are lies."

Older son: Nodding as he listened. "Why do I have to leave?"

Jesus: "Because I have a great plan for you. I will make you smart and your memory full of knowledge. You will one day be healed. Now, I have great plans to bless you. However, you must remember all that I tell you."

Older son: Nodding in agreement. "Okay, I will."

Younger son: "Can I go with my brother to protect him?"

Jesus: "No, at least not for now. You will after a year though. Now, I have allowed all of this to happen to both of you because I have chosen you for a special purpose."

Younger son: "People tell me that I am dumb. They hurt me. I don't talk well."

Jesus: "I know and I see. They will be held accountable one day. You will be blessed by your hands and you will be a keeper of your words, even when others don't keep theirs. I will grow you tall and you will no longer be little. The enemy will then be afraid of you. I will heal you and your enemies will run at the sight of you."

Younger son: Laughing as he played with his Legos. "I like that!"

Jesus: "Now, you will both witness and account for all you see. Your memories will serve both of you when it is needed. The abuse you suffered at the enemies' hands will return back to them. When you are older, you will witness the difference between those I bless and those I release to their own will. You will both serve Me."

He was speaking to my sons in a cloud, but almost more like a bubble of light. This is hard to describe. While He instructed them on more things, I could not hear it. I rubbed my eyes and then He was gone. The boys were still playing though.

Me: "Hey, how are you both doing?"

Younger son: "Mom, Jesus came and said hi!"

Older son: "Yeah, it was cool. He played Legos with us."

Me: "What did He say?"

Older son: "Oh mom, He said 'Jesus Stuff'. We can't tell you."

Me: "Oh, okay."

Younger son: "Hey, what's for lunch? Can I have a corndog?"

I went to the kitchen to fix lunch. When I came back, only my younger son was there. I turned and took my older son's plate back to the kitchen. I was then in our next place… a townhome… and my younger son was now also gone. All of this happened just as Jesus said it would. I sat down and wept in my living room.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I can barely remember certain aspects of my next dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Clay needs to trust the Potter" begins…

I was sitting next to Jesus. He was at His Potter's Wheel.

Jesus: "Erin, does the clay ask the Potter, 'Why are You shaping me like this and for what purpose do I serve?"

Me: "Often, yes, Lord, but we really shouldn't."

Jesus: "When this happens, I either reshape the clay by beginning again or I let the clay sit on the shelf and dry up. What would be the best thing?"

Me: "For the clay to instead fully trust in the Potter's hands."

Jesus: "Okay, then trust Me for the outcome." He then pointed to a beautiful vase. "Remember, it is filled with Living Water from My very hands. It is not a display vase to sit dormant. It is functional on many different fronts and it is you. By My Will and by My hands, this is Your Vessel."

He reached over for my hand and smiled at me.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "What is going on, Father? What is happening?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I have not forgotten you! I am with you and My Voice is in you. Now, why did I give you the dream of your sons?"

Me: "I am not sure. It was painful."

Jesus: "So that you knew that I am on this journey with you. However, not just you, I am also with your sons and your daughter. Now, if I ask you what your greatest gift from Me is, what would you say?"

Me: "My children."

Jesus: "Those who know Me, and even many who don't, cherish their children as a great gift. So many have judged you over the years not knowing all that I do. Based on appearances and enemy lies, you were found guilty of poor parenting. You didn't understand fully what the enemy had done to you.

"Now, your sons were taken from you based on great deception from an evil seat. You had to fight back until you were found to be truthful and until you had evidence to present. While your sons were returned fully to you, great damage had been done during their times away from you."

Me: "My older son's 26th birthday is today and my younger son is now 24."

Jesus: "Your older son is now in his 27th year and your younger son in his 25th. These are good years for release from captivity. They have seen the world in child-like ways. However, the world has sent attacks against them. Just as I was there with them from the beginning, I am still with them. They have had great troubles navigating the world around them.

"Erin, your sons will soon be a proud banner for you. You will testify to My goodness. Do not worry. As for your personal troubles, I am with you. Even though you are under attack, I have sent angels concerning you. All of this will come to nothing as I will provide for your every need. Continue to praise Me in these storms and I will answer your prayers. You are greatly loved.

"It is easy to question everything when troubles arise. Just don't question the God who loves you. I used your sons against powerful enemies. Their faith in Me has been with a childlike heart. As a result, I will bless them with far greater then they even imagined. Now rejoice, Erin. Do not worry as I have a great surprise for you.

"You will be overjoyed and in great awe at first. I have never forgotten My promises to you. However, neither has the enemy and this is why he discourages you and draws you into pain and sadness. However, I will release you from this captivity to a beautiful place I have prepared for you and your family.

"Now, the uptick in evil has drawn out their great plans against God's people. You are witnessing the great stage being set for the destruction of the children. However, this is because children are a gift from God, so the enemy hates them. Little does he know that 'Act 1' will feature a move of God and My Army that the enemy never saw coming. You will be a part of this.

"Now, rejoice and pray, Erin, as I have you. When you receive discouraging news, know that better news is already decreed and soon to arrive. I am with you. Be excited. As for all those I have called: GET READY! Times like no other are here!"

Dream over.

757 – The Great Turn Against the Enemy

Finished on Sunday, December 10, 2023

Received on Saturday, December 9, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I am exhausted. Every part of my being is tired. My fingers are cracked. My skin is worn from using alternatives apart from soap and running water to keep things clean. I have been humbled, Father… not that I am humble, just that I am made to be humbled in my circumstances.

We have been in quite a spiritual warfare battle and we, as a house, are adjusting. Father, we have breakthrough finally here today. Please help us restore our normal way of living again. Praise You, Father, with all of these things that could have financially broken us in the worst-case scenario. Well, the worst did not happen!

Instead, it ended up being fixed with no further troubles. Thank You! Thank You! I am thankful for clear running water. I am thankful for hot water and heat in general. Perhaps we had taken these luxuries for granted. As for the western world, we think nothing of something like water and plumbing. At least until all of it is gone.

Father, I am sorry for ever taking our daily common conveniences for granted. It is a reminder to give thanks to You for water, heat, lighting and safety. This is what our home You have provided for us gives us. I am grateful to You. Oh yes… please bless the men who worked on our system. By Your divine hand, our water was restored.

I had to travel to see a heart specialist yesterday. While we were on a long wait list, there was a sudden opening in his schedule. A miracle. My husband rearranged his work schedule and drove me on this three-hour journey. My pacemaker reading is still locked down until December 13, 2023.

As a result, they have a special monitor placed on my chest, along with a cell phone in hand, to monitor my heart beats. This is, by far, the best care I have received in ten years from any other heart physician I am so grateful for this. I feel blessed to have both clean clear running water and a heartbeat today. This is good news compounded.

As for my younger son, he has rededicated his life to you. He has also been fasting and praying for the last four days. You then answered his prayers, but also mine, for a sign that You are God in control of all things. Father, You have done this for us and I cannot thank You enough. I have never seen my son so completely joyful. My jaw dropped in shock. My heart monitor skipped as it was reading my beats. You are amazing and I am so thankful that You are truly in control of all things.

On a side note, my heart is troubled by some of the things You have shown me. While I am unsure about the timing of these things, I know they are coming. Father, You said that You are God above all things. You said that nothing the enemy does is done apart from You allowing this and is ultimately for the good of all those who love You. You have reminded us that, in this life, we will have troubles.

Despite this, You have reminded us to take care as You have overcome the world. You also said that the enemy must make known his plans in advance to those who are subject to the attacks. Mark 4:23-24: "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear… pay attention to what you hear; with the measure you use, it will be measured to you and still more will be added to you."

Father, I feel in my heart, more than at any other time, that You gave me and my husband knowledge of the enemy's playbook soon to come against America. We are still in shock and awe over the gall and arrogance of he who is most likely the antichrist. What is planned against us is rooted not in conspiracy theory, but in truth, hidden in plain sight. It is just that very few see or refuse to see it. It is a frightening display.

Anyone who sounded the alarm on the comings and goings of this person or on his strategies going forward, using his own words, actions and true context in execution of all of this in the future, has either been cancelled or removed completely. Just a week ago, we watched a trailer of an upcoming end of the world movie titled "Leave the World Behind". Some interesting notes on the background of this movie…

- The main executive producers are the ex-President and the former first lady.
- The production company owned by this same couple and that bankrolled this movie is called "Higher Ground Productions".

- The ex-President had a huge say in editing the script, therefore indirectly showing his exact vision for how he sees the USA being destroyed.
- This movie is laced with multiple playbook references. It is essentially the evil one's script on how he sees the USA being taken down.
- One of the movie's trailer read as follows and seems to be a subtle dig against all who are watching for the Rapture: "Deep Down… You Knew… That This Day… Was Coming…" Disturbing images were shown at each pause.

Oh Father, please rise up and help us! Please rise up and save Your people from what is coming against us. We watched the movie last night after praying for Your hands of protection over all we would see and hear. This was unusual for us as we try to only watch Christian movies or those that have a redemptive message. Of course, I still love my Hallmark movies, even though I am sad about how woke they can be at times. Well, Father, this movie was just so evil and for so many reasons:

- It showed that false propaganda and lies would begin the USA's collapse.
- The movie focused on an attack on our technology from foreign hackers.
- The enemy had formed the fall of America from within the government.
- False narratives caused divisions to help further the collapse of society.
- A multitude of designated foreign immigrants then seized power through violent acts, all mounting into a coup d'etat.
- These infiltrators primarily came from China, the Middle East and North Korea.

This movie was really dark and lacked any hope at all. It was spiritually dead. I saw quite a bit of symbolism. The dialogue between the actors was obviously meant to give power to their evil agendas. Oh Father, when? When will You rise up and silence Your enemies? Please! I had a dream last night that seemed to comment about all of this…

Sub-dream 1 "The Great Turn Against the Enemy" begins…

I saw God's people being led into the desert and away from what they had come to know. I then saw an army descend unto God's people and tempting them. However, God was in His people and alerted them to the enemy's schemes. Finally, and after 40 days, the people rose up and turned on the enemy. They chased down this wicked army. I saw them flee to caves.

I woke up suddenly because my heart monitor alert kept sounding on my heart devise.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Oh Father, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I do not want you to worry. Now, you noticed something important about this movie that frames it."

Me: "Yes, it was spiritually void."

Jesus: "Then understand who the producer is. It isn't God. If it were My Playbook, then there would always be a redemptive story and good news. The enemy hates good news and seeks to destroy all hope and joy. Do not focus on the essence of the enemy because evil is at the heart and root and always leaves you empty.

"Now, here is My take, My review, on exactly what you are seeing… you see a man behind the scenes rising to take his seat as ruler over all things. However, I am standing in his way. He knows Me and knows I will not sit back and do nothing for long. He then taunts Me by using common things. He calls evil good and good evil. There is no excuse or justification for this promotion of hate. This is the opposite of love.

"He has a vengeful mind and sows great bitterness through false narratives. He is silent on evil against the innocent. Instead, he is vocal on the rights of the guilty. He vows to set them free. He turns them into martyrs. He is silent on the true martyrdom of God's children. He instead encourages the evil against them. He enjoys his lavish homes and parties. He enjoys his celebrity friends who dare not speak against him out of fear. Well, I see him. Erin, do not worry… I see him.

"Now, there were many more strikes against his enemies in this movie than you had even noticed. However, with him, this is personal. He hates you. He hates who you are because of Me. He hates the Jewish people. He hates all people. All that you have come to think you know is truly much worse. A leader can do great harm to the world in 8 years… even 16 years.

"The first 4 years was preparing his field for planting. With proper backing, a farmer planting seeds of destruction of the land can bring a record harvest of great evil. Watch that which you cannot see, that which is not easily heard. However, you have known about this for a long time because I have shown you his plans over the years."

Me: "Oh Lord, it is hard to watch someone destroy our country. All that was good is now called bad and vice versa."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, I built this. All of this is Mine and is dedicated to Me. The people began to turn away because they grew tired of hoping in something they cannot see."

I paused here when my husband phoned me with some bad news…

Me: "Oh Lord, we just found out that our primary vehicle was stolen in a distant city. My husband is not doing well. Father, this is disheartening."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am not mad at you or your husband. However, these things are humbling. This is a measure. I tell you the truth… things will not go well for those who stole it."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but why did You allow this? We are still tired from all of the water stuff. We just finished this. Now this? We have never had a car stolen before."

Jesus: "Erin, the car is part of an operation that will ship it overseas."

Me: "Oh Lord, then please protect our personal information."

Jesus: "This group believes it is doing a good thing… stealing from the unsuspecting and sending it away. While the government is aware, it does very little because they do not want people to drive cars, or for that matter have any freedom. It is being done as part of a much larger plan. It is a big operation. Do not worry though as this is also about your stepdaughter and your stepson. This is for many purposes.

"You and your husband must pray. You understand that you can do nothing in this situation other than pray. You are to always remember that I am in control over all things. Sometimes personal comfort must be traded for the things of Heaven. In other words, souls are more valuable than wheels. Erin, I know your needs and I will provide much better for you. No weapons formed against you shall prosper.

"Now, stay diligent and surrender these things to Me. Continue to do all things in which I instructed you. I have plans to bless you."

Received on Sunday, December 10, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that we have. Thank You for my husband, our children and our families and friends. While I was stronger about the events that transpired yesterday, I am broken today. All of the 'what ifs' are coming at me now. My paranoia is structured in reality. Why? Our best vehicle was stolen yesterday. According to the insurance companies, very few are ever recovered.

The police were not at all hopeful for any sort of recovery. In fact, they told us that our vehicle would already be on a container ship bound for Africa and the Middle East. The rise in auto thefts is due to organized crime. However, the Lord told me that the governments are slowly and quietly allowing the removal of gas vehicles by sending them to areas that have gas available and a lack of automobiles.

This is all part of the undeclared war on all of us in the western hemisphere. So, where do we go? Where are we safe from crime? Some of our personal information was in that car. Apparently, a new trend is to steal the replacement car later. This is a warning to all of those who think it couldn't happen more than once.

I have been crying today as a result. Oh Father, I am so tired now. While I know this is 'just a car' to You, it is a safe means of transportation to us to get in and out of town. My husband needs this to get to work every day. We need this to haul things. The interest rate has now more than doubled since we purchased this. Father, now would be a really great time for some of Your promised miracles.

I think of the song 'Homeward' by Benjamin William Hastings. This has been a repeat song in my head the last few days. Here are the lyrics…

"I'm out here in the open, trying to stay the path; Somewhere in between the promise and the place it comes to pass; Who knows what it'll cost me or how long it'll last; But I told You I would follow and I'll never take it back. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward.

I've asked You more than once to hurry up the plans; But what if where You want me is exactly where I am because what I learnt from waiting is waiting never lasts; You didn't bring me this far just to bring me back; No, You're too good for that. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward.

Sometimes I feel You; And sometimes I feel like I don't; But faith's more than feeling; It's like seeing the invisible; And yet somehow I see it; All that lies at the end of the road; And I don't know the timing; So I'm guessing it's not mine to know; Lord, help me believe it; All those days when I feel like I don't; I've learnt faith isn't fearless; It's just trusting when you fear the most; And someday I'll see it; Reach the house at the end of road.

Should that road leave me lonely; Well, I know that I am never alone; Oo-ooh, oo-oo-ooh; I am never alone; Oo-ooh, oo-oo-ooh. I'll hang on every word You ever said; For I know You're faithful; And I'm still waiting on a wealth of promises; But I know You're able; So, if ever I stray, if ever I fall; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward; Won't You call me homeward; Call me homeward."

I know that we are measures and witnesses for others. However, perhaps You could strengthen us. I am tired. Father, all of these dreams and journal pages are a record of Your story through me. Please help me make the best of all of this when I am not feeling the best.

My younger son leaves Tuesday, December 12, 2023 for Seattle until he returns on Sunday, December 17, 2023. He is not very familiar with downtown Seattle. While I used to be, Seattle has changed so much since then. I know that crime is very high now. Please protect him and his friend. They are going to some hockey games there. While he is excited , he is now also cautious.

Both my son and my daughter told me that they won't roll their eyes at me when I tell them to secure their belongings and to not tap your payment at the gas pump and so on. Father, what happened to us is a major thing. Why? Why do this now? I know You said 'souls before wheels', but still! I had a dream last night that seemed to relate to the helpless feeling that comes with being robbed from…

Sub-dream 2 "My Stuff is Stolen" begins…

I was going on a flight. I was in the security check line. I had placed all of my belongings on the conveyor belt in bins. I had to go for a special screening due to my pacemaker. They then put me through a horribly invasive search. They were shaming me as they kept telling me to take off more and more articles of clothing. I finally said, 'No more! That's enough!" They laughed at me as they finished up.

I then went to the bins to collect my belongings. Every one of my items had now been stolen. This included my identification, passport, luggage, medication, phone, credit cards, cash, jewelry and clothing. To make matters worse, they even stole my shoes and ticket. I addressed the security team that should have stopped this.

Me: "Uh, excuse me… where are my things?" They laughed at me. They then spoke to me in an accent too heavy for me to even understand them. "All of my belongings are stolen. My identification, ticket and even my shoes are gone! Please help me!" I woke up mumbling.

Sub-dream 2 over…

As a child, our cars were broken into many times. Our home was broken into at least three times. We had no insurance for these items because it wasn't available in the early 1970s. We often lived without any TVs or record players. My friend even stole all of my jewelry and the end of my flute so I couldn't play it. While I never caught her in the act, she also never denied doing it.

Later, when I was older, I had my purse stolen. I then had it stolen a second time. This had so many of my personal belongings. This was a nightmare. However, this time it is a car. Really? Still, at least it is easier to replace than other things.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! I know that your loss is troubling. However, the enemy's gain will lead to great destruction as the cost of this will be on their heads. Please understand that this was allowed by Me as I am over all things. Right now, everything seems very dark and foreboding. However, I have a Great Plan."

Me: "I know, Lord. It's just that… well… I am so tired now. This is all becoming too much for me. Perhaps You should give up on me as I am exhausted and not doing well anymore. I am supposed to remember my past no more, but a flood of memories and tears come back to me when I recall the feeling of having items stolen.

"It feels like You are drastically reducing our household in many different ways. I am overwhelmed. I would just ask that You will remove us to a safer place. Did I bring this on because I caution my kids too much to be more street smart?"

Jesus: "No. You have information and experiences that are important for your children to know. However, no matter what, there are schemes and great traps planned by a hidden army against its citizens. You will be unable to prepare for this according to the world. All you have is Me."

Me: "Oh Lord, then please help us! We are unable to fight against the enemy of the children of God."

Jesus: "What did you discover from the authorities concerning your vehicle?"

Me: "That it is gone and it is part of a larger operation to remove cars from the people."

Jesus: "You are correct. It is part of a larger operation. Erin, this is so that insurance companies end and nothing you have is secure in this life. The enemy is draining the assets of the people and sending it to foreign governments. The foreigners who have come here will then be sent to rob and take all that remains door-to-door.

"Now, nothing is reported on, so the people are unaware for lack of understanding. Many are in shock and refuse to see what is right before them. You then ask, 'Why did You not give me a warning?' Well, I did… for you to pray as you are in the middle of a great battle, a battle that did not conclude with the restoration of your water well."

Me: "Did I let my guard down in prayer?"

Jesus: "No, Erin. This stolen car has a greater purpose. Will you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, could You please help me? I need help. I am scared and I don't want to leave our house."

Jesus: "Erin, I have you. I will bless you through this trouble. You are still waiting on your promises. However, you are to remember that I will fulfill every one of My promises. I am faithful to deliver you. I have seen your troubles and I promise that these will come to nothing. I know you need healing. I know you are now fearful. However, remember to only fear God, not man. Erin, I am here!”

Dream over.

758 – A Sad Prayer in the Storm

Received on Monday, December 11, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have given us. Thank You for my family, our friends and our Nest. We are blessed. In this life, we will have troubles, but we are so encouraged that You are over all things. Outside, we are experiencing torrential rainfall. Our culverts are full of water rushing from fast melting snow. Yesterday was filled with tears. I feel broken even this morning.

We as a household are under attacks from all sides. Even so, other than our stolen car, it has mostly been nuisance attacks. My heart monitor kept me up last night. It wasn't reading properly, so it kept sounding the alarm. I believe I resolved it, but not after several rounds of trouble during the night.

My younger son leaves for Seattle tomorrow. He just rededicated his life to You. The enemy hates this. Could You, for my sake, give him a fun and worry-free time there? Could You please do this for me? Could You protect him from all enemy assignments against him to rob, kill and destroy his life? Show Yourself to him in greater strength. I pray and ask for this, in Jesus' Name.

With our stolen car, could You make it that the insurance will pay for it completely and they don't try to undervalue it so we owe money? Also, our heating shut down in one room. We are not sure what is happening, so if You could supernaturally heal this, that would be awesome.

I had an odd dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Designers mingle with Gang Reps" begins…

I walked up to a show home. The front yard of the home was freshly mowed grass and a long driveway wide enough for multiple cars. Across the road was a massive cornfield with stalks 6' or more in height. I entered the show home. When I walked through this house, it was somewhat confusing as it had many rooms and multiple levels.

In this house were several of my old rivals in the interior design field. Each one had bedrooms with very mediocre designs. I was amazed to hear them compliment each other over and over. I noticed that all of the furnishings were low quality and dated. Despite this, they were advertised as 'cutting edge modern designs'. One of the designers came up to talk to me…

Designer: "You seem familiar to me. Oh well, never mind."

She was puffed up and so obviously proud of her own work.

Me: "Isn't all of this furniture used?"

Designer: "Where have you been? Reuse, recycle and reimagine! There is no 'NEW' anymore. Seriously?"

She was becoming angry because she could tell that I was not impressed at all.

Me: "Where did the furniture stores go?"

Designer: "Are you living under a rock?"

Me: "Perhaps (standing on the rock of Jesus)

Designer: "All manufacturing has stopped. Then all stores, warehouses and design centers were plundered. Then the rest was destroyed. If something breaks, too bad… you live with it. The lucky ones are my clients who are so wealthy and powerful that they are untouchable. No one can take what they have."

Me: "Oh, so, is this the great wealth transfer?"

Designer: "Yes. As for this show, it gives people ideas."

Me: "But it looks like you live here."

Designer: "I do. That is the rule for the show."

Me: "Then who buys tickets?"

Designer: "Representatives for the wealthy." I then noticed several different vehicles pull up with rival gang members. "Oh, the reps are here. I have to get ready."

There was absolutely nothing here to envy. It was the saddest dream. I then noticed that all of these designers were crawling into bed with the reps. I was in shock.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Oh Father, while I am not sure what this dream means, it felt like these people were so void of God. There was spiritual death all around me.

This morning, I was reading Scripture and Psalm 100 in particular. This Psalm was about Your steadfast love that endures forever. Father, love is now waxing to coldness here. I cling to this short chapter and I am grateful for Your promises and You, Father. I then read Psalm 101 right after. You have put on my heart something very serious…

Psalm 101: 1 I will sing of steadfast love and justice; to you, O Lord, I will make music. 2 I will ponder the way that is blameless. Oh when will you come to me? I will walk with integrity of heart within my house; 3 I will not set before my eyes anything that is worthless. I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cling to me. 4 A perverse heart shall be far from me; I will know nothing of evil. 5 Whoever slanders his neighbor secretly I will destroy. Whoever has a haughty look and an arrogant heart I will not endure. 6 I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me. 7 No one who practices deceit shall dwell in my house; no one who utters lies shall continue before my eyes. 8 Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all the evildoers from the city of the Lord.

Then Psalm 102 outlines a prayer of one afflicted and when he is faint and pours out his complaint before the Lord. Verse 7: I lie awake; I am like a lonely sparrow on the housetop.

Me: "Father, please help me! Please help us. Let us be upright in Your presence. Let us always praise You, even when things become more difficult. Please don't forget me. Please don't forget our house."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You worry about many things, but do not worry. The enemy knows his time is short, so he attacks from a distance. In the case of your water, this was an attack from below. In the case of your car, this was an attack from afar."

Note 10:45 am: The power just went out. The winds have picked up. The culvert is almost overflowing.

Lord, we need some help here. Please restore our power quickly so we don't lose heat, water or endure the loss of our fridge and freezer contents. Father, I come against many curses, are any of these attacks or permissions? Please help us. Please protect our house, in Jesus' Name.

Me: "Oh Lord, am I in need of repentance? I am so distraught. We are taking a beating right now. Now I am afraid to have my younger son go on his trip."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I am with you! I am in the storm and in this darkness with you. Remember that these are perilous times. However, I am over all things and nothing that comes against you will succeed."

Me: "Lord, it seems like the enemy is winning. They have our car. They removed our water. The winds have picked up and the power is out. The roads are beginning to wash out and the culverts are overflowing. Our dogs are even crying. Please help! I love You!"

Jesus: "I promise to take the darkness you find yourself surrounded by and I will bring light to it. All will be restored. Do not be afraid. Erin, can you restore the power? Can you stop the rain or the flood? Can you return your stolen car? Can you stop the wind?"

Me: "No to all, Lord. The rain is causing flash flooding."

Jesus: "Then give this to Me."

Me: "Lord, my daughter had to leave to drive into town to finish her work online since we have no power and no internet right now."

Jesus: "Hmm, just like the pioneers of old?"

Me: "Oh, You are so funny! You are right, Lord, this is small in comparison. We are of these times in this modern world. I can't even imagine the hardships the pioneers endured. This is nothing in comparison."

Jesus: "Well, each generation has their troubles and trials contained within. Each one has their portion. Now, with your younger son… as he travels, he must be aware that the enemy is afoot with schemes. However, I am with him and he should not worry."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Oh yes… please don't let any of our trees fall. Please keep them firmly rooted. The largest one is next to the rushing water. I am concerned since the ground is very wet."

Jesus: "I have dispatched angels, Erin. The lands there are being humbled. I will protect you. However, tomorrow is a new day!"

Me: "I pray that our lights are back on before tomorrow!"

Jesus: "Again, do not worry as I am with you. Continue on your course. Remember… when I give you clear instructions to complete a work, then do so with vigor. The enemy does not want this."

Note: Torrential rains were still battering our home. The rain hit the window heavily as I wrote. I decided to stop in order to inspect the property. I started to rant…

My rant: "The culvert is breeched. Our driveway is taking on the brunt of the road runoff. I am not physically able to do anything to stop this. I tried cutting trenches in the rain to stop the flow of water. I tried everything. We have no power. We are in the dark. Father, Lord, why have You forsaken me? Lord, please take me Home if I am about to fall. I love You. I prayed. I did everything in my own power, but in full faith. Still, my prayers remain unanswered. Nothing I am doing seems to be helping. I am broken here, Lord. Forgive me. Forgive all my sins. Lord, I am not always good. I get mad sometimes. I am exhausted and weak. Won't You strengthen me? Strengthen my faith, Lord. I am so sad."

I then went back to My devotional chair. I felt a bit embarrassed about my rant, but I wanted to be honest with the Lord. This is what He wants from us… honesty!

Jesus: "Hmm, this after I just gave you a word of encouragement before your troubles? Do you not remember this from even one hour ago? Did you forget?"

Me: "Lord, storms have always been compounded in my life. However, everything is now coming at me. Your Voice is in me. Still, I prayed in faith and nothing happened. I guess all of this is Your Will. I have no authority unless You grant it in me. It is getting colder in our home. The power has now been out for four hours. Please keep our food cold, Lord. Please keep our home from flooding or even worse."

Jesus: "I am here. Go above the storm, Erin. Do you see Me? I am here. I am not unaware. All of this will soon pass."

Me: "Your enemies mock me, Lord. They say, 'Look at little fool, sparrow. We will hurt her and her faith. She will then turn and curse God.' Well, I won't, Lord. It is just that I am so exhausted. As such, I will speak no more today. As for the sun, perhaps it will shine again tomorrow and there will be light. Perhaps all will then be still. But, for now, I cry…"

Note: The power came back on at 8:45 pm. My husband had already come home early to help with the flooding situation. He helped to calm me down. He then pointed out that the Lord really did limit the water and wind damage to nothing but superficial things. He then pointed out that my prayers were actually answered. Well, once again, thank You, Lord… yesterday, today and tomorrow!

Dream over…

759 – The Three Beasts, The Three Mighty Angels

Received on Thursday, December 14, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done and all You are about to do. I have had some troubling days recently. Demonic activity around us has had an increase. Yesterday was so difficult, so my prayers have increased for our protection every day.

I traveled for an hour to Houlton ME yesterday for medical purposes. I arrived early and I thought I would go fill my tank only to discover I had left my wallet at home. I had barely a quarter tank of gas and not enough to make it home. I phoned my daughter as she was off from work. She then kindly took 2.5 hours out of her day to 'rescue mom'.

My first appointment came with some disappointing news about four internal issues and a mass on my kidney. This means that I will need further tests. However, my second appointment came with a miracle! The doctors were finally able to get into my pacemaker account. They then discovered that my heart had somehow healed and strengthened itself (obviously, this was God… smiles).

Doctor: Shaking his head in amazement. "Hmm, I believe this phenomenon occurs in only 1% of cases worldwide. Your heart is beating on its own again. This is a miracle!"

Thank You, Father, for this great news! Even so, I still cried a lot yesterday. I have been going through such sadness after all of our troubles. It has shaken me to the core of my being. I am grieving the former way. This is when I was so joyful and stated fearless declarations about the Kingdom of Heaven and how none of us will experience this 'hell on Earth' about to be unleashed upon this world.

Things I had hoped and dreamed of are taking shape just as the Lord told me they would. It is just that I wanted it to be a more 'kinder gentler version' than what it has become. As for my dreams lately, they have clearly road-mapped the coming of the Antichrist. However, I want more Jesus dreams, dreams of the angels of the Heavenly Army and dreams of God in His Great Power.

Certain aspects of my dream last night made my stomach sick…

Sub-dream 1 "The Three Beasts, The Three Mighty Angels" begins…

I was walking through the woods. It was winter. While I was searching for something, I don't recall what. As I walked, I saw a beautiful Bald Eagle overhead. I smiled to myself as this was a sign from the Lord. I then saw the eagle dive after something. I then heard it cry, along with the sound of something horrific. I walked toward the area of commotion. I suddenly stopped in horror as I knew that I would be next.

In a clearing, there stood three massive animals. There was a polar bear, a white tiger and a white lion. They were devouring this eagle alive. It had been quartered. The only colors present in this dream were white, grey and the red blood of the eagle. However, the eagle wasn't enough to feed these massive beasts. I then noticed something disturbing…

The three were joined together by their hind feet. The lion was in the middle and shared hind feet with both the tiger and the bear. I shifted my body further behind a tree when something alerted them to my presence. It must have been a sudden change of the wind. All three of them then looked up from their kill and came at me together in unison. I turned and ran but I was no match for their speed – they were still coming after me.

I tripped and fell down face forward. I lied there waiting for them to kill me. I was shaking visibly and even vomited. I then heard an angel of the Lord.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Erin, get up! Come!"

Me: "I am sorry ?"

I then saw that he was carrying a bow and arrow. With lightning-fast movements that I could barely comprehend, he used these weapons against these three beasts.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "There, we got them! Come!"

He reached for my hand and took me to a clearing. There in front of me were the three dead predators - The lion, the tiger and the bear.

Me: "Thank you!"

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "You are now discouraged. You are searching for answers to your questions. However, these will draw attention to you as a target to devour. God has sent us to watch over you in all you do. You are not to be afraid."

The angel then whistled. It was a signal to the other angels. Several more angels then revealed themselves. We were surrounded by angels. Another angel then came over.

Angel of His Presence: "I am the angel of His Presence. The Lord has sent me to show you what is planned against His people. The three beasts you saw are one and the same. They work together. Now, even though the Lord is with you, you have, at times, wondered if you are actually hearing His Voice. Well, I am here to tell you that this Voice is truly the Lord's. Erin, His Word of Truth is your Greatest Weapon. You are not to live in fear, oh Child of God, as He is mighty in saving you. Now, we are here to refresh your Spirit as you have been lowly in countenance."

Me: Crying. "When will Jesus strengthen us and heal us? So many of us are now so tired and sad. I see all of this." I pointed to the half-devoured eagle carcass. "What about our hopes and dreams? This is getting to be too much for me."

Angel of His Presence: "God sees! The Lord knows. He loves you. He has done all of this for you. He has shown you Great Mysteries so you would never lack knowledge of His Kingdom Come and this fallen world."

Me: "Even so, I am still experiencing multiple attacks."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "It is difficult at the final stages as you are pregnant with the Truth of God. These final stages are the birth pangs of labor. Grief and even worry then set in when there appears to be no movements. Contractions then suddenly come and the water breaks."

Me: "I don't know what is happening to me. I have been angry even though I really don't get angry. However, I am now angry with something that I do not understand."

Angel of His Presence: "Erin, this is good. It is strengthening you with the heart of a warrior. It is okay to be angry at what you are seeing and experiencing. The Lord has shaken you awake. Now, come, let me show you what is here."

We walked together over to the eagle. Another angel then appeared.

Angel of New Life: "I am the angel of new life."

The angel then blew upon the remains of the eagle. Right before my eyes, the eagle was then alive and whole again. The eagle was even better than before. The eagle then walked around the carcasses of the predators.

The eagle then started to tear into them. The eagle suddenly stopped and regurgitated their flesh. The angels laughed.

Angel of New Life: "Even though you can devour them, sometimes there are better meals then unclean flesh." The eagle nodded in agreement and then flew off.

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "See, those beasts… or, really, the beast… baited the eagle and then divided it up into quarters. It then devoured the eagle. This is the plan of the Antichrist. The eagle represents both Israel and the USA. The enemy has shown you their intentions in advance. Believe them. They have great plans to destroy most of the people of this world.

"Erin, this kingdom they have begun is more evil than all of the others before them. We know who the enemy is and so do you. Do not look to the enemy for information on who they are because they want you to consume fear. Their plans are to spread lies and fear."

Me: "This movie I recently watched (Leave the World Behind) was an eye-opening confirmation of their plans, as well as so many digs at God."

Angel of His Presence: "Erin, God is aware of this. The things that are revealed are an attempt by the enemy for his audience to believe he is over them. He wants them to believe that there is no one in control to save the people. This message is dark as it is outside of the Lord and His Great Plans. The enemy's plans are to do all of this quickly. The enemy wants this former leader, who is actually really still the one in charge, to then reveal himself as 'the savior of the world and the peace czar'. However, he is actually the opposite of peace."

Angel of New Life: "He is also the opposite of life. His message is a message of captivity, enslavement and death."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "They will now try to remove all means of communication. Their goal is to have control over the networks of all technology and information. All of the things they have done are warnings in advance so that those who see understand and those who hear know what arises from this."

Me: "The ex-President put control over ICANN out of the USA's hands and placed it in the hands of Dubai. He then removed beautiful light bulbs that mimicked heavenly lights and replaced them with LED lighting. I hate this. What was this about?"

Angel of His Presence: "God has given you knowledge here. It isn't a personal guess. What did He tell you?"

Me: "That the light no longer mimics the stars twinkling. This is true for Christmas trees now. This lighting is a very poor counterfeit of what we once loved and came to know. However, and even more than this, certain LEDs are designed to cause anxiousness and sleeplessness. Many are now used in children's rooms. It is upsetting."

Angel of His Presence: "God, our Lord, is the Light of the World. As for this fallen angel, he was 'the angel of light'. This is why the area of lighting was one of his first strikes. He is also the chief liar. He is very involved with the news. If anyone goes another direction and speaks the truth of all that is occurring, they end up destroyed. He has a very large army and has been working to spread his workers throughout the world. He needs to take power from the people and give it to his army. However, his true goal is to start a civil war. He is the very opposite of peace."

Me: "Will you please stop him? Can we have God flatten all of them? If there is no hope of redemption, why even have them here?"

Angel of His Presence: "It is not going to go according to the plans of the enemy. It will only be on God's terms and by His timing. This entity is an 'O-bam-a-nation' against all that is holy. Understand this by the Lord's Words… He witnessed Satan fall like lighting from Heaven (Luke 10:18). Always remember that God is fully in control of all things all of the time."

Me: "I have been taught by the Lord that there is something in a name."

Angel of His Presence: "Yes, there is."

Me: "This man declared war on Christmas."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Then believe his declarations as he enjoys announcing his plans in advance."

Me: "Yes, but he is a liar."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "Yes, but this is why you have the Voice of the Lord's Spirit in you… to have understanding. Know that, even if it is stated as 'a joke', the enemy has purpose in it. He is already in a war against the day that people believe the Prince of Peace was born. Believe what he is saying. His great evil is being exposed now. Understand that the 'One Religion' he will seek to implement will be implemented by force of death. It is the opposite of Christian. It is anti-Christian."

Me: "Okay, I now know without a doubt that you are referring to the 'Religion of the Black Dragon'."

Angel with the Bow & Arrow: "This will continue to be the great falling away. Now, do not worry as God has a Great Plan."

A sound I heard then woke me up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Father, what is happening? What can we do?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know that you are worried about many things. You are in pain and in sorrow. Remember that the enemy has revealed himself in great arrogance and vanity. This is the reason he fell to begin with. He thought himself higher… on 'Higher Ground'… than God Himself. He labels everything he does in the complete open. His exact intentions will continue to be revealed very soon.

"Those who sound the alarm right now are dismissed as liars. They are dismissed even though they tell the truth. Now, give your worries to Me as today is a new day and a good one. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. As for this enemy of My people, he can…

- Come after your communications.
- Listen in on you and watch you.
- Threaten and try to silence you.
- Judge you by the color of your skin.
- Take all that you own.
- Even threaten your life.

"However, at the end of this day, he will come to nothing. His agenda is short-lived. He will face judgment, along with all of his army and any of those who follow him. He is exposed and will continue to be exposed. He has special 'Lake Property'. Now, remember that I am God over all things. I love you."

Dream over.

760 – The False Savior and the False Prophet

Finished on Sunday, December 17, 2023

Received on Saturday, December 16, 2023

Note: Yesterday's (Saturday's) dream was more of a personal dream than one strictly for the Nest. Even so, we felt it would be good to share how the Lord guides us in these difficult times. Perhaps this will shed some light on what some of you may be experiencing. As for the story of the evil woman, this reflects ongoing curses from a distant relative and the cleansing of these curses. As for today's (Sunday's) dream, it is definitely a Nest dream. Both of these dreams are definitely pertinent for today! There is even a fun 'surprise dream' from my husband at the end.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for us. Dear Father, I need Your help! I am scared about my younger son. He has just rededicated his life to You and he has completely and noticeably changed. He is joyful and happy. He is kind and thoughtful. He is in Seattle WA and has been dizzy the last two days. He hasn't touched bases with me for about 12 hours and I am worried.

When I woke up at around 4:00am, I texted him, but I have still not received a response. Please don't take him before I am able to see good things, Lord. I know he is Yours and not mine, but I can't imagine going through such a horrible loss of a child. You are a better caretaker than me. Please take care of him. He is so excited about meeting his friend today. They have such a fun day planned.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your son."

Me: "Lord, I went to the Word this morning. I learned that it is better to be simple of heart and mind than to be complex of mind and a worrisome mess.

Lord, You know all things from their beginnings to their ends. This life and this world have even grown more painful than I ever thought possible and even frighteningly so.

"I ask this today… please let the sun, Your Son, Your Light, shine on my son this day as I cling to Your promises that he would one day have a heart of gold and focus on You. Please answer my prayers, Lord, and please answer his. Please instruct him in the ways he should go. Please do this for my sake. Lord, please!"

Jesus: "Erin, your prayers are good. Your son has turned to Me and I will bless him. My plans are to prosper him and make his way good. This is so he testifies to My goodness and to My miracles. You are not to worry as all that occurred has been for a divine purpose."

Me: "Yesterday, while I was cleaning, I felt something in the spirit that was atmospheric, like a suction of air, but powerful. Then the steam cleaner I was using made a very loud sound and removed black, thick water from an area I had already cleaned. It quickly filled the tank and the brush foamed white. When it was finished, I heard Your Voice declare, 'Erin, you and your house are free." However, the attacks then got worse."

Jesus: "This is a difficult thing to understand. However, you obeyed me and did not hesitate. By the 15th day, you completed what I asked of you. There was a strong spiritual hold, a stronghold, over your house. It is now gone and it will not return again. Did you notice that I did not add, 'But only if you do this or that'? Now, with all things that you cannot see, there is residual as there is a fight upon eviction. It's like this…

"An evil woman has rented a room under contract for a long-term stay. While there, she is horrible, unclean, swears, hates the landlord and makes life hell for the others living there. She curses at night and keeps things unclean. She is bitter, angry and vile. One day, the landlord uses his authority and serves her an eviction notice. This notice states she is to evict the premises immediately.

"However, she drags her heels, kicks and screams. She then suddenly starts acting nice and doesn't collect her things, all hoping to keep an open door to return. Instead, the landlord calls men to come and remove every last item. They then sweep, clean and then clean a second time for good measure. The house now feels better to all who live there.

"However, the evil woman then discovers that all she owned was removed and the doors closed to her. She then curses, screams and calls on others to help her attack the landlord, the family of the landlord and even the house. However, the door is shut and all of this comes to nothing. This door is now shut to her and all of this will come to nothing. This is because the angels surrounding you are greater than all of the evil coming against you."

Me: "Thank You for guiding me in this. I am glad to have this door shut. Now, what about my son. As You know, he is in Seattle WA. Will he be okay?"

Jesus: "I will strengthen him and heal him today. However, when he arrives home, he must change his ways for things to come. He is off-balance and his body is reacting to this. There are forces at work that have caused many to be sick. While this will be rectified, it will be difficult to witness the many who will suddenly fall."

Me: "So, is my son still sick? Please heal him for me, Lord!"

Jesus: "The enemy has gone out to attack the children of God all over the world. The attacked include the young, the fighting age men, the sick and the elderly. However, these enemies will be held accountable. In the meantime, pray!"

Me: "Could You have my son reach out to me soon, Lord? I am worried as he is not returning my texts or my calls."

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry as I am with you. Your son will be fine."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "As for your daughter, she must stay her course and believe in Me for her miracles. I am with her in this. If she is uncertain about something and seems blocked, she must wait, pray and return again on a new day. She must keep joyful in the midst of all of this. The enemy hates this.

"Now, the stronghold has been broken and all will now come supernaturally fast. Do not worry. Erin, I have not forgotten you even a single time. I am with you. Do not worry."

Note: My son was not returning my messages as he was in a deep sleep. When he finally answered my phone call, he was dopey, but feeling much better. He later sent pictures of the activities he was doing and he looked so happy. Thank You, Lord!

Received on Sunday, December 17, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for a safe home and heat. Thank You for water. Thank You for Your Word of Truth. Your Word is our guiding light in the great darkness that surrounds us. As Your children, we are easily led away like sheep. We can be corrupted by liars and those who want to harm us. This was once easier to discover and correct.

It was simpler just ten years ago to root out a source of sin in our lives and then immediately turn and make amends with repentance. However, there is now so much coming at us that we have a hard time knowing what is good for us to ingest or consume. Well, Lord, this is impossible without You. Please be our Shepherd in these times. Please speak loudly to us. Please instruct and correct us with great speed so that we are able to stand upright before You.

When I reflect over the course of the last few months, I truly have no words. You always told me that, when these times of great troubles came against the peoples of this Earth, the signs and events would be so obvious that even someone with little understanding would see and know beyond a shadow of a doubt that we are in the last days. My two dreams last night reflected this and were difficult ones…

Sub-dream 1 "The Black Rider spreads death" begins…

I saw a horseman on a fast horse. It was black. The rider wore all black, including a black cloth covering over his head. He wore an armband of green, white and red. While the horse was very strong and beautiful, it represented death. This is because death followed wherever it passed. This messenger horseman sent notices not to eat the food or drink the water.

This message was not well received because the people were starving and thirsty. Notices called for an assembly to ration food amongst the community set up by local leaders and others. The 'others' were evil. When the people of the community arrived, they were shown a great banquet of the best food and the freshest water. However, there was a condition, a wicked one…

In order to feast from the banquet, they had to pledge allegiance to the New Religion and denounce Jesus or any other God apart from their god. Many were so hungry, they agreed to the condition. Those who did not agree with this condition were taken outside and beheaded. An odd thing then happened when some of the beheaded people came back to life. This was happening throughout the rural areas of the USA.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Ex-President reveals himself to be the False Savior" begins...

I saw a massive stage set up like an altar. There was an ex-President speaking. There was an apparition, a ghost-like figure, of a false Jesus over him that was endorsing the religion of the Black Dragon. The Bible had now been changed to blaspheme God. The ghost of the false Jesus then used Scripture to endorse this ex-President. They claimed that Mark 1:7 was actually meant to endorse the ex-President, not Jesus:

Mark 1:7: "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie."

They were making their case that this falsely written Bible was proclaiming that the founder of their religion to be 'the last great prophet' and the ex-president to be 'the savior'. After this horrible display, people worshipped the ex- president. Some even fainted. They then pledged allegiance unto death to him. There was literally smoke, mirrors and holograms of people who had died, claiming in virtual reality, that he was 'the true savior'.

Hologram of the false Jesus: Announcing loudly. "Forget the former things! Forget your former house! Behold 'the light of the world'!"

Everyone cheered. The ex-president stood there looking very confident. He also looked smug, defiant and arrogant. Even the Jewish people were worshipping him as 'the savior of the world'.

Ex-president: Speaking loudly. "This is the 'final call'! This is your final call! You must step up and proclaim your position!"

An angel then appeared, but it was an evil angel, not a heavenly angel. People believed it was an angel from Heaven and were thereby deceived.

Ex-president: "Again, this if the 'final call' to be saved! Come on, folks!"

There was a heaviness in the room. The atmosphere was thick and dark, as if all of the oxygen had been sucked out of the room. The people now looked void of thoughts. I woke up suddenly when I saw the faces of those who went to worship the evil angel. When I woke up, I was bothered and anxious."

Sub-dream 2 over…

Please, Father, protect us from the coming storms. So many will pay the ultimate price. My stomach is sick and I have been deeply disturbed. Everything we do is electronic. Everything is on our screens. All things run via technology, including all of our communications. Without these, we are in trouble. These things can be manipulated so easily… and they are.

I woke up feeling the urgency to prepare. But how? If I can't prepare adequately for normal disasters, nor can really anybody when it comes to things going wrong for many months or even several years, how can I prepare for this? I have truly never had a time period like this where I feel 100% completely reliant on You. I am truly nothing without You. Can I do anything? How should I prepare for what is coming?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! You are anxious about many things. However, the life of a recorder of dreams and visions and messages from Me is a difficult one. You worry. You are scared for those around you, including your extended family and friends. You wonder if you are to stay or go. Bad news then comes and you then go into great despair. Well, I come to speak joy and life into Erin.

Remember that I am the Light of the world, the One True Savior and the Everlasting God. Many scurry around and call out false prophets. They live in fear of not having knowledge. However, they must instead understand that I make everything clear and simple for those who are simple, but also for those who think with more complexity.

"Now, who is the False Prophet? He will be in the same spirit as the One Great False Religion. He will speak the opposite of My Truth and the life everlasting that is the free gift of My Saving Grace. He will meld himself with a few different religions so people who follow them listen and recognize a common thread. However, he then puts it under a greater covering of a dark religion where, if you do not follow it, you will die a painful death.

"Notice what I said when I told the disciples who walked with Me that, when they go town-to-town, whoever does not receive you or hear your words, then shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town (Matthew 10:14). Did you notice that I did not say, 'Take swords and cut off their heads.' This is the difference… I give people a free offer to accept My gift or reject it. I do not end their lives if they don't. However, in the end, those who reject Me will lose everlasting life."

Me: "Lord, who is the False Prophet?"

Jesus: "He is soon to rise up. Now, you are beginning to see events written about in My prophecies now coming to light daily. You now understand that great evil has increased. However, I am about to do something in your days that you would not believe even if I told you."

Me: "Well, Lord, even if I would not believe it, could You please give this a try?"

Jesus: "You are doing all that I require you to. Even though I know you are already exhausted, I am not going to wear down the saints."

Me: "Lord, I am enthusiastic about very little now. I do not love the things I used to love. I need Your help as I am frozen in a state of sorrow. I am not well. My sleep is disturbed. While my waking is then welcome, I don't want to waste my moments on things that don't matter. My light is growing dim, Lord. I love You. Please strengthen me. Please help us and keep Your hand over us. Something ominous is coming."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, what in My Word did I lead you to look over earlier today?"

Me: "You gave me Psalm 144, 2 Timothy 3, Revelation 6-18, Zechariah 14:5 and Jude 14. I also kept getting the words 'Shock and Awe' every time I would get up in the night."

Jesus: "Well, these have a common thread. Study these. As for 'Shock and Awe', this is an old battle strategy. However, it will be one that is soon to come by My hand and it will humble the enemy. Erin, do not worry as I will prepare you for My Divine Purposes. Since you love Me and you look to Me for all things, I am found by you.

"Now, the enemy will try to do some things to create great fear. He will try to start a war amongst the people. However, this will not work as well as they had hoped. Great resistance will weaken them. They have a 'final call date' on their calendar of 12/19/2023 (December 19, 2023). Pray as they will be blocked from their plans."

Me: "Who is the 'they' here, Lord?"

Jesus: "It is the One False Religion (Is-lam). Erin, do not worry as I have a date even greater than theirs."

Me: "Lord, why does Nimrod have his birthday on Christmas?"

Jesus: "Only sometimes as his birthday was measured on an older calendar and his practices are pagan (that is, a moon-based calendar). He defiled the things of the Lord and he was a mighty man of old. This same spirit is at work today. You see it tearing down all that is good. Remember that I told you that, as this age comes to a close, the enemies will try to turn back to great unholy practices."

Me: "What of the Great Harvest?"

Jesus: "Do not worry. While evil lays down in their bunkers underground, nothing can save them from what is coming."

Me: "Lord, we received a high wind warning for our area in the next 48 hours or so. Please protect our home and get my younger son home on the plane prior to the winds shutting down flights or cancelling them."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I have him and My hand is over him. I am with him. Now, you worry about many things on this day of rest. Have peace, Erin. Be at peace. You are loved!"

Oh yes… I should also mention that my husband had a fun dream this morning. The following was as written by him (not me)…

My Husband's Sub-Dream "A Path Made Straight" begins...

I was near to the lead of a large group of people. I believe this group of people was myself, Erin and our Nest friends. However, I was unable to see any facial features of those around me as this was not to be the focus of this dream.

We had been moving forward on a path that was really more of an obstacle course. The path had many elevation changes and was covered in a thick forest blanket. There was a tiny, barely discernible trail that we kept to. Because of the thick forest and the hilly nature of the trail, it was exhausting for all of us. Even so, we were making headway every day on what was turning out to be a multi-year journey for many of us.

There were many forks in the path, but there was always some sort of sign there telling us which way to walk. There were many steep inclines, but we somehow were always able to make it to the top safely, but with some scratches. There were also many steep declines, declines that are easy to stumble on, but we always made it to the bottom safely, but also with some scratches. It was a long, hard journey, but still satisfying.

This all came to an abrupt halt when a massive piece of farm equipment blocked our path. It was larger than anything you would see on the field; about 50 feet wide and two stories high. There was no way around this piece of equipment on our own. I had a thought that I would climb up to the control center and tell whoever it was to move aside. When I looked up, all I could see was a kind smile and a happy wave.

This piece of equipment then moved aside, revealing a long, smooth, straight path with evenly harvested wheat (or something similar) outlining the path on both sides. The path was no longer crooked and hilly. The path was no longer forest covered. The path was no longer treacherous. It was a beautiful path with clear, straight forward directions. It was the opposite from what we had been experiencing for so many years.

The person with the kind smile and a happy wave climbed down from the vehicle. All we could see was His back. He started walking down the path and we could see, from the back, that He was wearing a beautiful white robe. We realized that He was Jesus. We watched in awe and just stood there as He walked forward. We only saw His back though as He was facing away from us.

I then noticed that there were a multitude of paths joining ours here in this clearing. There were now thousands of people joining us on this path. While the path was wide enough for all of us, it was not 'The Wide Path' that leads to destruction, but just the opposite. The Lord then motioned with His right hand for us to follow Him in His exact footsteps. We all did just that! He had now made our paths smooth!

I should note that I did not get a clear look at the Lord's face as He was either facing away from me or He was behind the dark glass of the farm equipment.

My Husband's Sub-Dream over…

Dream over.

761 – God's Army to Arise in Power

Received on Thursday, December 21, 2023

First, an update as of the evening of Friday, December 22, 2023, 36 hours after Dream 761 was first received: Well, good news! After 96 hours in the chilly darkness, we just had our power restored to our house earlier this evening. We are so grateful to the Lord for sending the powerline workers to our location to make this happen. It has been a very cold experience for all of us. Just this morning, our house was only 51F. While the cold was hard on us all, our poor dogs were shivering. Zoey was in a lot of pain. Even so, the Lord is faithful to our MANY prayers to have this restored. We are now particularly thankful and humbled by this bone-chilling experience. Thank you for all of your Nest prayers for us throughout this trying time!

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for our home. Thank You for our family and friends. Even though we have been in darkness for days, You remain our Light. Thank You, Father. December 2023 has been horrible for us so far and we are only 3/4s into it. Just 21 days. I am exhausted. The first week, we had no water, no plumbing and a moderate amount of heat. This lasted for several days because of our well pump.

Then on December 8, 2023, my husband and I drove to a heart specialist in southern Maine. I was given a heart monitor to measure my heart activity for two weeks leading up to a second appointment on December 13, 2023.

On December 9, 2023, our nice car was stolen when my stepson drove my stepdaughter to school around 8 hours away. We are praying that our payout is sufficient to cover the outstanding loan amount. We are optimistic about this based on discussions we have now had with our insurance company.

Then a storm came that lasted from Sunday, December 10, 2023 to Monday, December 11, 2023. We experienced a short power outage of about 12 hours at this time and was a precursor to our current blackout. This meant we lost a portion of our food. I was so stressed and exhausted physically. I was alone at our house when our home was hit the hardest by the extreme warmup and snow melt runoff.

I saw the water breach the banks of the culvert on one side and only threaten our house to the left. However, on the right into our driveway, it became a mud river. We had no power. I went outside in the pouring torrential rain to try and cut channels with a shovel. While I could penetrate the first three inches of surface mud to make this channel, anything below this was frozen ground. I soon became frustrated.

A river now surrounded our house and was so precise that it looked like a three-foot-wide moat had been installed. While I used everything I could to divert the flow, nothing worked. My prayers seemed to do nothing. I stopped when I realized I was completely helpless. I went inside our dark home with no power and cried and cried and cried.

Me: "Father, we have no power. I have no power. You hold all the power. I am powerless to do anything. Even my prayers have no power."

Well, Father, You know the rest. I was in a very low place. Despite my position, I had promised You that I would complete a project that had major spiritual repercussions. As You promised, once this was completed, breakthrough would happen.

As for my younger son, he left for Seattle WA with his friend on Tuesday, December 12, 2023. He had saved up for this trip for a long time. He arrived with no troubles. However, his friend's girlfriend in Seattle brought along her friend who was a man that is now a woman. While the trans-woman asked if he could 'crash' in my son's room, he firmly said no. He did it nicely and without incident. He then arrived back home on Sunday, December 17, 2023. I was so glad he made it back safely.

On Wednesday, December 13, 2023, I had good news and bad news about my health. The good news was a miracle regarding my heart. My heart muscle was somehow strengthened and is beating on its own again. I was so happy about this miracle. However, the other appointment was not as positive. I have a mass on my right kidney. My lower spinal column has an extreme offset that explains a lot.

I also have something unusual in my lower abdominal cavity. I now have a CT Scan with dye all set up for Tuesday, December 26, 2023. As for this day of travel, something unusual happened in that I drove out to Houlton ME without my wallet. I had to have my daughter come with it. She really bailed me out and I was so grateful.

In between the first blackout ending on Tuesday, December 12, 2023 and the second blackout beginning on Monday, December 18, 2023, we were living in the light. In this period, I had junk removal crews come and remove the storm debris and trash. I finally felt accomplished. Then the heat went out in one section of our home during this time.

Although discouraging, I was still so grateful to have lights and warmth in most of our home. Then came the extreme warm temperatures of Monday, December 18, 2023. It was so warm and incredibly windy that day. We lost power on this night and are still without it as I write down this dream. Temperatures have now dropped to 22F this morning. This is so cold.

On the evening of Tuesday, December 19, 2023, we decided to build a fire in our fireplace that we rarely use. After about 30 minutes, I was able to create quite a blaze of welcome heat. That was until we smelled something resembling the smell of burning rubber and insulation. I ran outside to see if our home was on fire. I could not tell as it was pitch black. My son and daughter agreed that they could smell this as well. I decided to call 911…

911: "What is your emergency?"

Me: "I started a fire in the fireplace, but something is wrong. Even though the flue is open, a strange smell is in our home. I am worried about the rafters. I am worried there could be a hidden fire."

911: "Explain the smell. Could it just be from the fireplace?"

Me: "It smells like burning wires on another end of our house."

911: "Please confirm your address. They are being dispatched. Please quickly exit your home. Take any pets outside with you."

I grabbed some important papers that I have easily accessible in case of emergency. We secured the dogs in the car and the fire department came within fifteen minute. The firemen came with sirens. Once in, they used an infrared sensor to detect hidden heat. No unusual heat was detected, so they left. Before they left, I apologized and thanked them for taking the time to check it out.

In the meantime, I was having a bit of a breakdown because we had lost all of our refrigerated and frozen foods. I couldn't keep the food at home as it stank too much. If I put it outside, the raccoons would have a hay day. Because of this, I drove my son's truck to the dump yesterday while everyone else was working. I was not the only one to lose food, so there was quite a line up at the dump.

I backed up near to the edge of a small cliff. There were hundreds of seagulls there and at least twenty eagles. It was shocking. I almost didn't do this because I had to step in thick dark grey mud to get out of the truck. It was disgusting. Despite this, I hurled my garbage over the edge of the small cliff. As I was about to leave, I noticed that there was a bald eagle sitting on a small ledge appearing to be laughing at me.

Me: Addressing the eagle. "Well, I might be struggling here, but shouldn't you be fishing at the lake? Instead, you are eating dumpster food with the seagulls."

He then turned away from me as if he was annoyed with my reasoning. After this, I had to drive to the grocery store. I was loading supplies that do not require refrigeration or freezing into my passenger side door when I was approached by a man wearing a hoodie. He must have come up quietly as I did not hear him until he was near me.

Man: "Hey, I have a pizza for sale for $12. Are you hungry?"

I took my head out of my trunk and turned to look at him. He turned white as a ghost. He backed away from me.

Me: "No, thank you. I am not interested."

He walked backwards so quickly that he almost fell. I turned back behind me and nothing was there. I looked at myself in the mirror, but I didn't think that I looked that scary at all.

Me: "Hmm, this must have been angels. Thank You, Lord, for my protection."

It was evident that this man was not carrying any sort of pizza. I then assumed that 'pizza' must have been some kind of code for drugs or something. I had been nervous about leaving the house for too long because I have noticed strange vehicles down our road. With outages come looting.

Today, it is very cold in the house. Father, please return our power today. If our temperatures drop into the high 40s tonight inside our home, we could be in trouble. The winds are supposed to kick up for three hours this afternoon. However, they have already started. It will worsen line repairs for the power crews. The ground below is very wet and soft, so please keep our trees firmly rooted.

Oh yes, I had a wonderful dream the night before last…

Sub-dream 1 "A Glimpse at Transformation" begins…

I woke up in the morning to take my medication. However, I felt different. I was fully mobile and not in any kind of pain. I looked down at my body. My legs, arms, hands, feet and torso had changed. My skin had no imperfections. I giggled in happiness.

Me: "Thank You, Lord. This will be the best day ever!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I was excited for a few minutes, then sad again at my current state of being. Even so, I am very grateful for this dream, as well as the healing of my heart muscle. Could You please continue to heal me? Please heal our family and our Nest friends and their families. Father, we have been under attack here. Someone from China has been working very hard at hacking into my accounts. Please keep this safe.

Evil never stops. However, Your mercy never fails as it is new every morning. You are greater than the sum of all evil. Please help us as we are unable to fight the enemy on our own. These small inconveniences are nothing compared to what is coming. These are only a small prelude. At least You know that I still come to You and pray every day. I love You so much! Lord, I love You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know that you have been experiencing many troubles right now. This happened even though this is after I told you that a great time of breakthrough has now come. It is an overlap between what has been contractually declared and the delivery of this promise."

Me: "But, Lord, You are here with me right now. This means that You can make this happen right now if You wanted to."

Jesus: "Yes. However, this comes on the heals of something greater. I am your Comforter. My Voice in you reminds you that I hear you and I will defend you. The enemy will not succeed in his plans to destroy you. Erin, the man who approached you in the parking lot had a different plan for you. However, his demons saw who you were and that I am with you. As a result, he was unable to speak and fled.

"Now, the storms that hit your entire area affected many families, many of whom are not as equipped for troubles as you are. Thousands were troubled by this storm. Erin, do you think it would be good for all those around you in the dark and cold to see that you are not? As at this time, this would not be a good thing.

"During the daytime, the sun shines on all of you. However, if only your home shined at night, they would curse you. They would curse you as they would be drawn to your home like a moth is drawn to a flame. Until you are physically stronger and set apart, you are to be as a common man… even though you are clearly uncommon."

Me: "But this is hitting us so hard, Lord, seemingly even harder than most of our neighbors."

Jesus: "This is true… and many of them look down on you and scoff."

Me: "Especially those that have powerful generators."

Jesus: "They will be judged for their cruel words. However, you have done nothing against any of them. Anyone who laughs when calamities hit the children of God… well, they will have to contend with Me. So, pray for them.

"Now, you have really not been overcome by these troubles. You have instead weathered them. In the midst of these, I have blessed you. I have provided for you. You stopped crying and instead praised Me for the good.

"Now, this is all very difficult to understand. However, you are in the number of My Great Army, the children of the sons of Jacob. You will be strengthened and ready for battle.

"As for the sons of perdition, their army will fall to God's Army. They will be no match for you. Just as the enemy has prepared for a war unlike any other, so too will I prepare for a great victory unlike any other. While they will then run to their holes and caves, they will be unable to hide from God or His Great Army."

Me: "When, Lord? When will You reveal Yourself again?"

Jesus: "Erin, I am very close. Please trust in Me and My Words of Comfort. Just because your power has gone out all around you, My Light, My Power, is in you and no enemy nor scheme of hell will prevail against you. Your great breakthrough is coming. I have calmed the wind. The sun shall warm your home. Your power will be restored. However, your Flame, your Candle, will never go out.

"I love you and My Power is in you. Smile and wave at your neighbors as their generators give them power only for a moment in time. They will be unprepared for what surely is soon to come. No generator will bring power. However, you and your house will shed My Light to all those around you in darkness. Rejoice as this is a good day. It is the day that I have made!"

Dream over.

762 – Victory Belongs to the True Savior

Received on Thursday, December 28, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and grace. Father, a special thank You for not allowing an illness that suddenly came upon my daughter from becoming much worse. When I was traveling to Houlton ME on Tuesday for medical tests, my daughter facetimed us to show what had occurred. The left side of her face was swollen. She had difficulty opening her mouth.

When we arrived back home, she had a fever. We were concerned about waiting as much as eight hours in ER to be seen. We then decided to go to a farther ER the next morning instead since we knew it would have a significantly less waiting time. We arrived shortly before their 8:00am opening time. Unfortunately, there were already twenty or so more patients waiting ahead of us.

We were then told by the screener that there was only one doctor on duty. We then found out about a walk-in clinic nearby and raced over there. Even though we arrived at 8:30am and they didn't open until 10:00am, we were still number 10 in line. Finally, we were in a room by 12:30pm. A nurse then looked over my daughter and recorded her symptoms. A physician's assistant (PA) then came in.

When he came in, I realized that I had never experienced such an openly demon possessed man like this in the field of medicine. He had a thin build and a similar haircut to Hitler. He was anxious and couldn't look at me. His eyes were scary… a light blue with tiny black pupils. I kid you not that he even had a tattooed sleeve of snake scales. When he left the room to get an ultrasound machine for my daughter's swollen cheek, I whispered to her…

Me: "Be prepared for him to come back to tell you that there is nothing wrong with you. He will then disregard your fever."

When he came back with the ultrasound machine, I could tell he was angry that we were even here. After a scan with the ultrasound machine and nothing else, not even a simple blood test, he spoke as predicted…

PA: "Look, your daughter is just fine. If the doctor wants to see her, fine, but I know that he will 100% back up my recommendations."

Me: "And exactly what are your recommendations?"

PA: "That nothing else is required as she is simply having minor flu symptoms. In other words, she is just fine."

When he left the room, it seemed as if he and the nurse were arguing. She came back after the argument must have ended and spoke to my daughter…

Nurse: "While I see it, this guy clearly doesn't. You are sick and you have a fever."

She then left the room. The doctor, the PA and the nurse then all came back into the room at the same time. The PA was defensive and wouldn't stop babbling in order to try to justify his rush prognosis. I could tell that the doctor was both kind and sound.

Doctor: Addressing my daughter. "Well, if your swelling was hot to the touch or if you couldn't open your mouth, the diagnosis would be remarkably different. But in this case, this is viral, not bacterial. You have the flu and sinusitis."

The nurse and the doctor then left the room together, leaving us alone with the PA.

PA: "Well, you can both go now."

Me: "Okay, but what do we do next? Are there any exit instructions? Is there a medical note we can receive to provide to her workplace?"

PA: Now even angrier. "No. We are busy here. We don't do that. God… really?"

So, this is what we were left with… six hours of waiting around with very sick people… and all for just this. Father, I know this had to be another attack on us. These attacks just never stop. This has been the worst December on record that I can remember and it is not even over yet. We have been hammered over and over again. I am tired of stating this. As for my daughter's prayers, they have largely remained unanswered.

In contrast, both of her brothers have had miracles and breakthroughs lately. My younger son now prays to You in every little thing. Even though many of these things are very simple, You have answered every prayer of his quickly. These movements by You in his life have made his faith increase even further. I have never seen nor imagined how this most difficult curmudgeon I know could have ever changed so completely. He is now mostly normal and fun to be around… kind even.

He is also both apologetic and respectful. He smiles. He is up early to go to work. He isn't complaining. He engages in conversations. This is a true miracle. My husband is so amazed by his changes that he has been left speechless. Father, if it took our difficulties to change our son, let it be as You have done. This is a blessing I have prayed for years for. My prayers have been answered. Praise You, Father.

As for my older son, he has a job and has now been taken off of one of his horrible medications for anxiety. He seems so happy. While I miss him, I know that You did all of this for him and for Your Divine Purposes. Praise You, Father! He is even studying a difficult language right now… the Hebrew language. I am excited for him. As for the rest of us, we are still under various attacks. I am now fending off an illness that is ever looming. I pray that this does not become full blown.

As for last night's dream, it was really quite unusual…

Sub-dream 1 "A Strange Collection of Animals Gathers" begins…

We lived in a home with a back porch and an open door with a pet gate. I was packing up some things in the house because we were going to be moving soon. I knew it was now around early springtime as I could see green grass and some trees budding. A hailstorm then suddenly snuck up on us. This hailstorm continued loudly and was at least 45 minutes in length.

I suddenly realized that I had left the back door open. When I walked back toward the door, there were a strange bunch of animals huddled outside together in my path. They all seemed quite terrified by the storm. This was a strange collection of animals…

- A black lynx (which doesn't even exist, at least to my knowledge).
- A fox.
- An opossum.
- A yellow Lab Retriever with the American flag tattooed on its fur.
- Two large squirrels.
- A cat.
- There was also a terrifying beast that had been injured. It looked like a cross between a badger and a wolverine.

It was so weird that this strange collection of animals were all huddled together. When I came by, they wanted to follow me into the house because of their fear of the hailstorm. I instead spoke to them and fed them outside. I had three large packs of red meat that I was going to dispose of because we were leaving. The carnivores dove into this and devoured it. As for the non-carnivores, I fed them some cereal I had instead.

Once they all ate, they started to wander off. It appeared that they were somehow trying to thank me at the same time as they walked. I then walked outside to look at the damage. While both our home and property were fine, the hail had stripped whole branches from our trees. It also broke some of the windows at our neighbors' homes.

I then decided to closely examine the hail. To my astonishment, the hail was perfectly round balls of around two inches in diameter each. This hail seemed to be a grey color instead of the usual white color. The hail was so perfectly round that they looked handmade by skilled hands. I woke up when I noticed that the lynx was next to me and was inspecting the hail with me.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I had been watching a show with my husband last night. At one point, I must have fell into a deep sleep as I had a vivid dream during this show…

Sub-dream 2 "The Black Hole Breathes" begins…

I saw the rock at the holiest city of the Black Dragon. I saw thousands in white praising this stone. I saw them reaching for this black hole surrounded by a band of silver. As I watched, this black hole moved to the ground. A strange purplish light then started to emanate from the black hole. It was a portal.

Worshipper 1: Yelling. "It's a miracle!"

Worshipper 2: Also screaming out. "It is a portal to paradise!"

After these two worshippers screamed this, thousands of other worshippers willingly jumped right into the black hole. However, I then noticed something frightening. The hole seemed pliable. It then seemed to enlarge on the ground as it appeared to contract. It almost seemed to be breathing. The black hole then closed. All who had gone into it were now lost. I stirred awake quickly and jerked my body awake.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, I do not pray for the lost enough. It is hard to pray for those I don't like. It is even harder to pray for those who hate You, the God I serve. They are deceived.When my brother served in the air force, he was stationed in Bahrain. When he and his air force buddies would go to the markets, people would spit on them and call them white devils. When I see immigrants from the Middle East today, they look at us with great hate. There were quite a few of these immigrants when we went to the clinic yesterday.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry about these things as I am God over all of them. I see. God sees. Do not forget."

Me: "Lord, what is this month all about? Why are we not seeing breakthroughs?"

Jesus: "It is always darkest before the dawn. You are witnessing the world grow cold rapidly. Erin, look back to the time in which I walked there upon the Earth. I came as a Light, as a Savior, to the Jewish people. However, they could not see Me. Even so, some did and likely even knew that I was the One spoken of in the synagogues.

"However, they refused to believe it because I was not what they had hoped I would be. After I ascended, word then spread to those who witnessed great miracles and they believed. This included those who were grafted in… the gentiles. Destruction then followed their persecutions. What you are experiencing is the reverse of all of this. This is happening right now."

Me: "You gathered back to Israel the Jewish people who had been scattered. You then gave them back their country right after their great destruction in the Nazi Holocaust. However, the Third Temple has still not been rebuilt. If all of this is now happening in reverse, this means there is still a whole lot that needs to start happening and soon."

Jesus: "I want you to pray for the lost that they may be found by Me. There is a group that has planned the destruction of the majority of the people. They have started a universal false religion (Note: I feel that Jesus was referring to the 'climate crisis movement' here). It is one void of Me. It is void of love. It is void of life everlasting in Heaven with Me. They have lofty plans for this coming time.

"However, you are not to entertain these. As you know, these lead to fear. Fear is the basis of this religion. The playbook of the patterns the enemy will take is in My Word. These are from My Pages, not on screens, understand? Your tangible copy of My Word is your Sword of Truth.

"Now, take comfort in the peace of My Word. Erin, you are to pray in quiet places. You will go from strength to strength here. The enemy has no permission to illuminate My Words falsely to serve his destructive initiatives. This is why I am there in My Truth. However, and even more than this, My Voice in you will strengthen in magnitude.

"Your healing will come, but more than this, a double portion of youthful strength will come upon you. You will be shown mysteries and wisdom concerning these, as well as knowledge from Kingdom Courts that would otherwise be impossible for you to know. Even though you are attacked where you are, you are never overcome."

Me: "Yes, but these attacks still make me angry. Lord, this makes me really angry."

Jesus: "I will use this anger in righteousness and judgment against the evil plots upon the innocent. However, right now, and until I come in full measure, you are to stand down. You are no match against the enemy to fight physically, so give this to Me."

Me: "I will continue to stand down."

Jesus: "Now, I realize that you come away with more questions than I give you answers for in these dreams. However, this has been and is intentional on My part. Just know that I will continue to provide for you in troubles and these will not overcome you or your house. Troubles will not overcome your children. Troubles will not overcome your friends and their children."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "You are welcome. Erin, I love you. You have not been abandoned. Your troubles have been used for My greater good. Now rejoice and ready yourselves."

Dream over.

763 – Mic Drops, Crystal Ball Drops

Received on Saturday, December 30, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here!

Thank You for all we have. Thank You for a warm home and power during the ice storm yesterday. The snow came during the night and every branch of every tree and bush was covered. This is such a beautiful sight.

Father, I have been struggling physically and spiritually. I have been experiencing such grief and immense sorrow. This month has been unkind. I am not saying that a given month in a calendar has any power… it doesn't… but December was just brutal. I think I have gained a little wisdom over the years on spiritual warfare and how to battle the unseen realm that is always at war with Your children.

However, for this month, I must admit it has been a 'pile on' of extra troubles. I have prayed for extra wisdom and knowledge in hopes that I could understand and even record all that has happened. As of yesterday, my daughter still had a fever. The ice storm hit our house right when she had to travel for work. We took this as a clear-cut sign she was to take one more day off.

After this rest, her whole gregarious larger-than-life joy came back. Thank You, Father! Even so, my joy still did not return. Our little pom-chi, Zoey, is still not doing well. She is displaying all the end of her days signs. My heart is breaking and I cannot let her go. I can't do it, Father. I cling to Your promises and these include our dogs. However, she is old now, just over 15 years.

It hit me hard last night when she would not take her night treat. I then sat with her and I prayed. I cried and she stared at me. She was studying my emotions. She was with me during my toughest trials, during my late-night prayers and my petitions to God. She was there when I was sick. She was there when I wrote the first two years of dreams sitting on my devotional chair next to me.

That dog knows so much. Even though she has lost most of her sight, she still watches over the house and sounds the alarm if anything foreign approaches the house, both incoming and outgoing. Lately, she doesn't always wake up like she used to. Oh Lord, please heal Zoey.

When I retired to bed last night, I realized I have lost quite a bit of strength in my left hand. I could not pick up my medication at bedtime or grip my water glass. As of today, my left hand has still not recovered. Father, I could use the use of that hand please. Please heal my hand at least. As for last night, I had quite a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "The Huge Blueprints are approved" begins…

I was in a building with a glass ceiling. The ceiling was beautiful and resembled an old ship's prism. It was shaped not as a hexagon, but it had seven glass panels. While I was there, the owner came up to me and handed me a piece of paper.

Owner: "Congratulations, it is yours. All of this."

Me: Now laughing. "Okay, but why do I need…"

My husband came over to us and disrupted me before I could say anything more. I was a bit confused as he usually would not do this.

Husband: "This is so generous. Thank you."

Owner: "We should have everyone out of here and all the offices vacated by tomorrow. Of course, we will also clean up. You should be able to move in by Monday."

Husband: "Thank you for this. This is so generous."

I was still confused. I then saw two women drawing up plans on a massive drafting table. I am quite sure that a table this size doesn't even exist. I walked over to see what they were working on. They were quite proud of their work.

Woman 1: "We are almost finished. It has been a long project… the biggest project of my life."

I was surprised at the size of these blueprints, larger than I had ever seen.

Me: "Where will you go next?"

Woman 2: "You retired us. We can now rest."

Me: "I retired you?"

Woman 1: "Yes, and we are grateful to God for this."

Me: "What is this?"

They both smiled. I was so confused. Just then, my husband came around again.

Husband: "Come on, Erin, let's go. They have a lot to do."

There were so many workers packing up their things in boxes. Everyone was happy and smiling. It wasn't sad, it was celebratory. People waved and thanked us as they wrapped up.

Husband: "Hey, let's go look down the hall."

We walked down a hallway of doors. Each opened to a room of glass windows. Each office was beautiful.

Me: "What is all this for?"

Husband: "This is the headquarters. This is Eagle's Nest."

Me: "What?"

Husband: "Erin, wake up!"

He began to gently shake me by my shoulders. I suddenly woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

This dream seemed so real. A Christian song then began to play in my head. It was Phil Wickham's song 'Till I found you'. Here are the beautiful lyrics…

I searched through the Earth for something that could satisfy; A peace for the hurt I had buried deep inside; Knees on the floor, I finally found everything I needed; You lifted my soul and opened up my eyes; And I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You, 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You, 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning;

Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; Gone are the days I'm chasing after what won't last; I'm done with building these castles that crumble like sand; Oh, knees on the floor; I finally found that everything I needed was always right in front of me; You changed everything; I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning;

Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; I never dreamed anything could be better 'til I found You, 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning; Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You; You're rewriting my story and I'm brand new like a morning; Oh, I never knew anything lasts forever 'til I found You.

I also had an unsettling dream on Thursday night…

Sub-dream 2 "Mic Drops, Crystal Ball Drops" begins…

An ex-President was at a podium. He was making an exit address.

Ex-President: "Peace out. I am signing off."

He then placed two fingers over his lips and blew a kiss as he dropped the mic with his left hand for all to see. However, just as he dropped the mic, the screen split into two halves. The mic was dropping at the same time as the Crystal Ball was dropping in Time Square. It was nearing to the end of the New Year's Eve countdown. A TV host then appeared that looked a lot like Ryan Seacrest.

TV host: "Leave it all behind! Everything changes here!"

I woke up suddenly just before the mic and the Crystal Ball fully fell.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, every day seems like a good day. However, something has happened or is happening and the people of the nation are doing nothing. This is because they see the powers in control that are the opposite of what our country stands for. We do nothing because those who attended the January 6th protest in Washington DC are in solitary confinement with no court dates in sight. This was done so the people would be afraid and would not be in peace. Those invaders at the border are a quiet army of fighting men. Where are we safe? What are they really here for?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember that I am the Good Shepherd who watches over His Flock. I create a sheepfold at night and I am also at the entrance, the door of the fold. No predator can enter my fold to devour My flock. These are Mine. Erin, take comfort in this. Though predators circle, plot and search for an opening, they will have no success. Be encouraged that I am your Shepherd.

"Now, remember that the enemy plots 24/7 and is very crafty. However, I am over him and so are My angel armies. I know this one and so does My army. He was only repeating his great drop from Heaven. In an instant, he and a third of his company were shot down from the hand of God like lightning.

"Great has been his fall. All that he does is clever and subtle, all to mock God and His army. However, his drop continues. He considers himself the prince of peace. However, he knows who I am. This is My battle. This is God's battle."

Me: "Lord, when will You and Your angel army stop them? Harvest has to happen soon, doesn't it?"

Jesus: "The enemy has set a deadline for his goals. In order for him to achieve these, he must work with great speed. He believes he has seven days or one week in which to destroy the children of God (Note: Based on the context, it is possible that each day represents a 360-day prophetic year, but we are not sure). Although Judah has returned from the scattered nations, Israel has not returned."

Me: "Has Jerusalem been trampled yet?"

Jesus: "Good catch and question. The city has been defiled, but not according to the plans of the enemy to destroy it. Do not worry about this. Gentile nations surround her and I am with Judah. Now, the enemy knows the events and alignments of these. However, he doesn't know exactly what is about to occur. As a result, he is working on several modes of attack. Even though the enemy can plot and plan and mock, My plans are greater than his."

Me: "I have been struggling this month to keep a Chinese-based hacker away."

Jesus: "Well, they have been unsuccessful. Do not worry. Erin, I have told you that I am the Good Shepherd. You are in My sheepfold. I have you. You are safest in My arms. Now, I will bless those who I call into My fold as Jacob blessed his sons and even Manasseh and Ephraim his grandchildren.

"It is written… come together so that I might tell you what is to befall you in the end of days. Assemble and listen, oh sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel, your father. Each son was given an inheritance and blessing from their father based on the individual. This is why it is important to understand the heart of the Father for His children. You have been called as a holy people, not as a perfect people.

"You were lost and now you are found by Me. You are a royal priesthood gathered from all nations. I will bless you with a double portion of the sons of Jacob as you have come forth out of the desert in your spiritual journeys and those who continued to follow Me and hear My Voice saying, 'This is the way… walk in this', and you followed. This is who I will give this inheritance."

Me: "Lord, I grumbled, cried and complained."

Jesus: "Oh yes… you did. However, you continued and you did not stop. Now, all of this is a great mystery right now. You do not understand what this means. However, I tell you the truth… you will be hated at first as if you are wearing a coat of many colors. Still, though they grumble and question, those who thought themselves a better choice… you will pray for them instead and look upon them with compassion.

"However, you will not apologize or entertain their questions. If they knew Me as they claimed to, then they would know to come to Me. Your earthly resume does not qualify you in their eyes. All that matters is that you are Mine. Remember that there is something in a name. Your name from birth means peace even though you have had very little peace.

"However, you will soon understand that where your feet step, peace will come. Mouths will be unable to curse you and stones will be unable to be thrown at you. Strongmen will drop in fear and they will run and hide because they will know and understand that I am over you and with you in all things. Now, with peace comes healing and turning hearts to the Father, the Good Shepherd."

Me: "I can't wait. Lord, could you please…"

Jesus: "I know what you are going to ask before you say this. Erin, My promises are true."

Me: "Well, it is just that… well… we have seen so many changes here in a very short span of a few months. Because of this, I know that You are working divinely."

Jesus: "I have not stopped working. I will not rest until My Father tells Me to. Now, continue to do all I instruct you to. David had his mighty men and so too will I have Mine. You are close to Me. We are friends. You are My Bride."

Me: "You are more than just a friend, Lord. You are my Door, my Cup and my Portion forever. I love You more than words. Every breath I take is a gift You give me. I will therefore keep breathing until You determine my last breath."

Jesus: "You haven't begun to breathe yet. In fact, lately, I give you breath and you hold it as if to preserve it. Well, Erin, the breath I give you is the breath of life. Rejoice as My inheritance and blessings have been given in Heaven and soon to be realized on Earth. Rejoice, Erin, My Princess and Bride of Peace."

Dream over…

764 – The Blueprints for His New Great Temple

Received on Sunday, December 31, 2023

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for peace in our home. Thank You for laughter and rest. Thank You for lights, running water and heat in the winter. Thank You for our children, family and friends. We are the struggling blessed. While I am not totally sure what I mean by that, it just feels so accurate.

To top off all of the troubles of this month, my older son just received the results of his bloodwork. He had an appointment to review this with his new doctor. Based on these blood panel results, he will be seen immediately on Tuesday morning. His liver is worsening and he has diabetes. Oh Father, I am praying for a miracle here. He is too young to have all of these health issues.

As for my daughter, she still had a fever of 100.4F this morning. We can't seem to get rid of this. She has to work today. Please protect her and get her home safely this evening. New Year's Eve is always a time to be cautious of other drivers.

I had a dream last night that seems to relate to all that we have been waiting for…

Sub-dream 1 "Blueprints for the New Massive Temple" begins…

I had a meeting to attend. I was also scheduled to attend an even bigger meeting, including a presentation, right after this. In this first meeting, I met with someone important whom I did not recognize. Even so, I somehow already knew him. I know this doesn't make sense. We were meeting in a dark room with two lanterns and a red and white gingham or checkered cloth table topper.

This person then rolled out a map, along with some blueprints. He was explaining the importance of all of this. I said nothing. Instead, I simply listened carefully to everything he said. He started with a map of what seemed like Jerusalem, a place I have never actually visited. He then placed a transparent piece of etched vellum (transparent overlay paper) over the map.

Man: "This was what it once looked like and this is what it looks like now."

The vellum showed where the Temple should be. He then placed another vellum sheet over the vellum sheet we were examining.

Me: "How can this be? How will the Temple work here?"

Man: "Okay, let us begin again."

He removed the two vellum sheets from the map of Jerusalem. He then placed the first piece of vellum over the map. Jerusalem had clearly changed. After I nodded in agreement, he removed the current Jerusalem vellum overlay and I observed what it is to be. I was tongue-tied.

Me: "But… wait… how can this be?"

Man: "God will excavate and clear away all of the rubble. This will then accommodate all of the people of the world. Now, here are the blueprints. However, you are not to focus on the foundation and framework as you will be part of the finish work."

Though I didn't understand what he meant by this, I nodded at him in agreement. He then rolled up the entire plan map and blueprints. All were on state-of-the-art archival papers… perfect and with no flaws. The only thing that was parchment brown was the original map of Jerusalem.

Man: "Now, you are to take this scroll to those who are awaiting my instructions."

He rolled all of the pieces tightly in his hands. He then sealed the papers with three red wax seals. I did not recognize the seal he was using as it was in Hebrew.

Man: "I see that you are studying the seals. One is aleph – master or master architect. These you will deliver to three mighty men of God who are appointed for this time. All are superior craftsmen who were raised for a time such as this. Of the three; one is a master stone mason, one is a master carpenter / engineer and the last one is a master overseer who is also a friend of God and familiar with His Courts."

He then tied two pieces of linen and jute… one between the first and second seal and one between the second and third. He then placed them in a beautiful architectural tube and capped the end.

Man: "Now, these cannot be burned. Nothing will destroy these plans of God, understand? You will hand-deliver them to the three. You are to remain near for three days and then you will be called on the third back to meet with them. No one is to know in advance of this meeting." After nodding in agreement, the man reached over and hugged me. "Now, do not worry, Erin, as God is with you."

The lanterns went out and I woke up suddenly at around 2:15 am.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I fell back to sleep and went back into what seemed like a continuation of sorts of my first dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Traveling on Eagle Transport"

I was leaving a marketplace of antiques. They were some of the finest antiques that I had ever seen. They were easily museum quality. I then received a call from my husband on his cellphone…

Husband: "Where are you? You don't have much time. I am driving you to the airport in a couple of hours and you are not even packed yet."

Me: "How did you even know that I was leaving?"

Husband: "I got the call."

Me: This was puzzling to me as I had not called him. "Okay, I will be right home."

We lived out west on a type of overlook. Below us was a type of river ravine. It was beautiful and had trees, grass and a beautiful rushing river. I saw the Cascade Range out in the distance. It was near Bend OR. When I arrived, my husband and two of my kids were already there to greet me.

Daughter: "Hurry, mom, you have to pack. You can't miss this."

Younger son: "I can't believe you are cutting this so close."

Me: "Listen, do not worry… I am still right on time."

My husband had my suitcase opened and had packed some of my things.

Me: "I need something smaller even though I am going to be there at least three days."

Suddenly, a smaller suitcase appeared. It was packed with everything I needed. It even had a pull handle.

Husband: "Okay, it is time to go! We are barely going to make it."

I was crying and smiling at the same time as I hugged my children. I had the architectural tube slung around my back. The strap fully crossed my torso. When we arrived at the airport terminal, a man greeted us with my name on a sign.

Husband: "Who are you?"

Man: "She is traveling on a private plane."

Husband: "And who are you with?"

Man: "Eagle Transport. It is best that she travels with us than with any other airline."

Husband: Turning to me. "Okay then, I will see you soon." We hugged. "Call me when you arrive. I love you!"

Me: "I'll call. I love you too!"

The man took my bag and we proceeded to the aircraft on the tarmac. As I began to climb the stairs, I looked back to wave goodbye to my husband. He waved back.

Man: "Come, we must take off on schedule."

I turned to wave one more time to my husband, but he was now gone.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these two dreams were very clear and precise. I don't feel I am to detail exactly what You have shown me, but only that Your Temple will encompass almost all of Jerusalem. It is massive and greater than any temple ever built. It is just so incredibly beautiful. Even though I fully trust You, I still have many questions for You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry or be afraid. Remember that I am God and I hold the keys to life and death. I am The Key."

Me: "Oh Lord, just yesterday, You were The Door. You are The Door that You open or shut and You are The Key in which to unlock these doors. You are amazing, Lord."

Jesus: "Remember… even though the world is in tumult and waves of fear grip the people, I am still God over all things."

Me: "Lord, is the USA Babylon?"

Jesus: "Well, this is a country composed of many small states. My Word is clear… Babylon the Great will fall and this is a city. This city affects the nations of the world because of her wares, her businesses and her trades. There have been two major prophetic warnings and the third will be the fall. Erin, look outside. What do you see?"

I looked outside and the landscape was beautiful. The ice on the trees glistened in the sun. Over the horizon was a massive line of dark clouds. It looked like a blanket. The edge of these clouds had a bright white silver lining. I took photos.

Me: "Even though there are dark clouds sweeping the skies, they still have a beautiful white silver lining."

Jesus: "Very good. This represents a promise from Me, okay? Now, Babylon will fall in flames. This is as it is written and the whole world will mourn. They will mourn because this is a foreshadowing of the end of the luxuries of the Earth. Fortunes will be lost in a day that had been built up for a century or more. Many will stammer and stumble in darkness. Many will be lost and confused as they have no shepherd."

Me: "Lord, what about California and all of these 40-foot waves that are hitting the coast? They have been coming for three days to all the places we would surf when I was a child. There is Pacifica, Los Aptos, Santa Cruz, Capitola and so many others."

Jesus: "Yes, I have sent angels to stir up the seas. Wise men go inland and away from the danger that is too great to stand against. However, the foolish are voyeurs and gawkers of My Wrath. These are shepherds feeding themselves of their own sheep; waterless clouds swept along by winds; fruitless trees in autumn, twice dead, and uprooted.

"They are Wild waves of the sea cast up the foam of their own shame. They are wandering stars for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been received forever. These are the ones who come after you, swearing by God and cursing the angels. Since they have no fear of God, they see themselves as gods. This is a place where you grew up."

Me: "Lord, there are still 'on fire' people of God who love You here. I believe there are many that do. Please have mercy on Your people."

Jesus: "My people are sheep who hear My Voice. When they do, they run from the wrath preserved for others. They don't go to it like a moth to flame. God's wrath is upon the nations right now. My strength is on display. However, this is not in full display yet as My judgments are soon to come against those who worship the god of this Earth… they call mother. Now, it is written in Isaiah 11:11-12.

"11 In that day, the Lord will extend His hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of His people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. 12 He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the Earth."

"Now, there are prophecies about what I will do to the nations surrounding the nation of Israel. It will not go well for those who come against My children. It will not go well for the ruler of Babylon. Remember who he is. Now, it is written in Isaiah 14:12-20.

"12 How you are fallen from Heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low! 13 You said in your heart, 'I will ascend to Heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north; 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.' 15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the far reaches of the pit.

"16 Those who see you will stare at you and ponder over you: 'Is this the man who made the Earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, 17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who did not let his prisoners go home?' 18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb; 19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like a loathed branch, clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit, like a dead body trampled underfoot. 20 You will not be joined with them in burial because you have destroyed your land and you have slain your people.

"Erin, he was king and still is king over a blessed and mighty nation. This nation was dedicated to Me and was a blessed land under God in Heaven. However, he came to destroy it as he is the great deceiver. He brought plagues, curses, invasions and great poisons to slowly kill the young men and women. He is now preparing for the deaths of many by sword house-to-house and door-by-door. He hates his people. He hates all of the people. His great revenge is to destroy all that you see."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop him. Please don't allow this. In this Scripture, it seems that Babylon is not just a city, but could also be a country. However, I am not sure."

Jesus: "I want you to understand this first… I am God over all things, even the fallen one. He does not prevail. However, what you cannot see is his power over all of the nations of the Earth. His army is an entire population and religion. Many on the outside comply simply to preserve their livelihoods. Remember that there is something in a name… he is named. He is active even when most 'former kings' retired. He instead travels throughout the nations. He moves to and fro across the earth and up and down upon it. Do not be deceived as he is the destroyer of Israel and the destroy of the New Israel."

Me: "When You say, 'New Israel', are You referring to the USA?"

Jesus: "Yes. But more so, he is causing an uprising and a war between the sons of perdition, his army, and the children of God."

Me: "This is depressing, Lord."

Jesus: "I know. However, take great comfort as I see and I know all that he does. I know his plans, his schemes and his lies. He hates with great hate. His army is wicked. He has no regard for children, babies or the womb of the mothers. They lack compassion. They are void of any care or love. His army has been sent out to defile the Earth and make all that was good bad. His army rests their salvation on the death and torture of the innocent."

Me: "Oh Lord, today's message seems to be quite a dark message."

Jesus: "Erin, I am telling you what the enemy's plans are. However, God has a greater plan. My Great Plans are not the enemy's plans."

Me: "Lord, what were my two dreams all about? They seemed related to each other."

Jesus: "Ah… this shall remain a mystery for now. However, there is a Great Plan in place. Erin, I have a Great Plan. Now, it is written in Jude 14-15.

"14 It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His Holy Ones, 15 to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

Me: "Hmm… okay, this part actually sounds like fun. It is so difficult to watch evil increase and so quickly that there is no remedy at all!"

Jesus: "Take heart, Erin, and remember that you are in My Sheepfold. I will carry you! I love you!"

Dream over.

765 – Packing Up for our Next Assignment

Received on Monday, January 1, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! 2024 has arrived and another year, 2023, is now behind me. When I consider all that You have done to sustain us, I am eternally grateful. Bless You, Father on Earth as in Heaven, the Creator of the Universe and our eternities. Let this year, 2024, be the Great Harvest of souls.

Let the lost be found by You. Revive us. Breathe into us from on high. Let not one of Your sheep, Your children, be lost. We love You! As many know, I often focus on Psalm 23. The following is an outline of Psalm 23, Notice how perfectly it seems to summarize what we have all experienced during the year 2023:

Psalm 23: 1 The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. 3 He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5ou prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

My husband then pointed out something that flowed into Psalm 24. Psalm 24 is about You, Father, our King of Glory, and how You will guide us into our long-awaited season of change. With further reflection, You illuminated some items in Psalm 24. It's another outline of what will be needed to be a part of Your greater glory when You call us into Your presence.

- Clean hands and a pure heart.
- A soul that is not lifted up to that which is false.
- A mouth that does not swear deceitfully.

These shall then ascend the Hill of the Lord! These shall stand in His Holy Place! Those who continuously seek the face of the Lord will be blessed. They will receive blessings from You, along with righteousness from the God of our salvation. Here is Psalm 24 in its entirety…

Psalm 24: 1 The Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein,2 for He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers. 3Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in His Holy Place? 4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. 5 He will receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of his salvation. 6 Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. 7 Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of Glory may come in. 8 Who is this King of Glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle! 9 Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of Glory may come in. 10 Who is this King of Glory? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of Glory!

Psalm 24 is such an awesome Psalm and so full of hope! The Lord will open the gates to those who earnestly seek Him. As for last night's dream, I had another one of packing things up…

Sub-dream 1a "Packing up to go – Part 1" begins…

I was packing up some boxes. My last box had some of my most favorite personal items. However, they no longer had a place for the journey I was about to embark on. I had a deadline of 4:00pm to drop the balance of my items off at a local charitable thrift store. While I had hoped my younger son could do this for me, it was his last shift at his work and they had planned a small party for him.

In the meantime, I was wrapping up things at home. This included painting everything white. This included white walls, white floors and white ceilings. It looked opposite to anything I would actually do here on Earth. I then took time out of my schedule to deliver the last pieces to the charity. I also knew that there were some people coming to look at our home at 5:00pm.

I checked every closet and space one more time. When I looked into one of the last closets, there was my stepdaughter's very colorful prom dress hanging there. I had no place to put it in nor a box to store it in. I decided that I would wait to figure out what to do with it until I got home from dropping my items off at the charity. I felt that I had enough time to get back home before the guests arrived.

Sub-dream 1a over…

As I was writing this dream, a 'breeze' came and flipped my Bible pages to parts of Psalm 31, along with all of Psalm 32. Since the window was fully closed, this was a clear sign that I was to address this before writing down the rest of my dream. I knew, via the Holy Spirit, that this was related to now…

- Psalm 31:23-24 contains more instructions from the Lord.
- Psalm 32 contains instructions on those who further seek the Lord's face. This seems urgent in my heart.

Psalm 31:23-24: 23 Love the Lord, all you, His saints! The Lord preserves the faithful but abundantly repays the one who acts in pride. 24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!

Psalm 32: 1 Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. 2 Blessed is the man against whom the Lord counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. 3 For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. 4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. 5 I acknowledged my sin to You, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. 6 Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to You at a time when You may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach Him.

7 You are a hiding place for me; You preserve me from trouble; You surround me with shouts of deliverance. 8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My eye upon you. 9 Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you. 10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the Lord. 11 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

After outlining the above, I then went back to my dream of packing up to go…

Sub-dream 1b "Packing up to go – Part 2" begins…

It was now 3:45pm and I had to be at the charity before the collection deadline of 4:00pm. When I arrived just five minutes before the deadline, they were already beginning to close the collection area. I had one box that I needed to hand to the manager whom I knew so these would be priced by an appraiser.

They took the larger items and told me to go near the checkout where the manager was helping a new cashier. When I went inside, I was in complete shock over the volume of high-end pieces on display. I flipped a vase over and it had a mark from the 1800s Netherlands. It was priced at only $20. A female picker came up to me…

Woman: "Beautiful vase, right?"

Me: "Yes. It is worth about $3,500 or perhaps even more. Do you want it?"

Woman: "Oh no. This is not my style. Thank you though."

Me: "Do you know where all of these high-end items came from?"

Woman: "Yes. These items came from the wealthiest man on the East Coast. He donated it all to several charities. I guess he must have found Jesus."

Me: Chuckling. "Wow, that's awesome! That is a man after God's Heart."

Woman: "Well, we think he is just plain stupid. How foolish. You work your whole life to acquire all of this and then you just give it away?"

Me: "Well, none of this will really matter at the end. Perhaps he was offered something much greater for all of it."

Woman: Now angry at me. "Oh, so, you are one of them!"

She began to shout and scream at me. As she did, I made a closing gesture with my hand. Her mouth was then instantly sealed. I didn't even have to touch her at all. She now had a terrified look on her face. I looked at the vase again and laughed at our God's amazing humor. I then noticed that the painting on the vase was 'the woman at the well'. I did not set the vase down.

This angry woman then began to topple things. Her arms and legs then suddenly froze. Since she looked even more terrified, I now felt bad for her. As I stood there, I felt the Lord well up in me. The vase I was holding was now filled with Living Water. I walked back over to the woman and held the vase out to her…

Me: "God is now going to release your mouth. You are to drink this Living Water and your arms and legs will return to their use. However, do not mock God or His people again. Now, if you drink this, you will be healed."

She reached over to take the vase and drank all of it. God instantly restored her. She dropped to her knees and began to weep.

Me: "How do you feel?"

Woman: "I am sorry, so sorry."

Me: "Don't apologize to me, only to the Lord. Now, I suggest you keep this vase as a reminder. Fill it and drink from it whenever you feel thirsty."

Woman: "Thank you! This vase is suddenly both in my taste and in my style. It is a beautiful vase." We both laughed. "So, what is your name?"

Me: "This is not important. Now, back to this wealthy man's story. This sure took a great turn, right?"

Woman: "What am I to do now?"

Me: "Find the man and show him the vase. He will give you his testimony and you will then be friends. He does not have many friends except for God and us."

Woman: "Yes, I will do that. Thank you."

Me: "It was nice to meet you. I will see you again under different circumstances."

I turned around. I was still waiting for the manager. It was now around 4:20pm. I stood by a counter. On the counter were three porcelain English figurines of animals. Two of the three were otters; one wore a suit and one had none. Both were standing on their hind legs. I didn't pay attention to the third animal; a pig.

I picked both of the otters up to look at their marks. These were more items from the wealthy man's estate. The price of the otter with the little suit was $40. The price of the otter without a suit was $60. All of a sudden, people were interested in what I was holding.

Man: "Hey, wait… that is the one I had wanted."

I became angry at him. I looked over at the manager and she looked back at me. She must have now known that I was waiting for her as she gestured with one finger up that I only had to wait for her another minute or so. I addressed the man.

Me: "Hmm, I didn't see your name on them, sir."

Man: "Well, I was coming back to them."

He then tried to grab the two porcelain otters out of my hand. As he did, his hand and arm instantly withered. He then started to call me the 'b-word'. Before he could scream this word out fully, I saw the hand of an angel literally grab hold of his tongue. He could no longer speak a word. I then heard God…

Voice of the Lord: "Not this one."

Me: Inside my head. "Yes, Lord."

The Lord then had the angel release his physical hold on the man's tongue.

Man: "Are you going to also give me back the use of my arm and hand?"

Me: "No."

The man began to follow me. He kept pleading with me for his arm and hand. I was still holding the two porcelain otters when the manager waved me over. The Lord then had the angel usher the man out of the store.

Manager: "Hi, Erin, how can I help you?"

Me: "That crazy man who just left had wanted to take these two porcelain otters away from me."

Manager: Laughing. "They are yours. Take them at no charge. They are quite rare."

Me: "I am giving things away, not buying things. I have this small box here. I want to make sure before you price these that they go before your appraiser. There is jewelry and other items."

Manager: "That is so generous. As for these two figurines, please take them and give them to someone who is in need. Perhaps to a child who needs a smile. The person who donated these figurines would much rather you have them than the likes of these." She pointed to the rude man who was now standing outside looking in through a window. "The foundation would demand this too. Please take these so that you remember me."

Me: "Well, okay, but I will see you again."

Manager: "No. I am sick and this cannot be cured this time."

Voice of the Lord: "She is Mine. Touch her arm now."

I reached over and touched her arm. She was instantly healed. She could feel it.

Me: "I will see you soon. You are well because God is good and you are His. Confess your sins, give them to God and He will turn and forgive you. You will then be saved from what comes."

Manager: Now crying. "Thank you!"

Me: "It is the Lord who you must thank."

I turned and gave her $120 for the two porcelain otters. I waved and left. It was now 4:45pm and I was late. When I arrived home, some people were already in the house. I still had not boxed up the colorful prom dress in the closet. It was now the only thing with color in the house. I woke up when there was a knock on the door in my dream.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, you had a difficult night…"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I kept worrying that I was out of favor with You. I have been feeling down and very sad. There are days that I wonder about who I am and why. Can I just be a fantasy writer instead?"

Jesus: "Stop talking like this right now. I am God over all things. Erin, cling to My promises for you. I have never stopped. If you were crazy, surely these letters from Me would sound crazy by now. If you were a child of the enemy, great hate for Me would have surfaced after just a few letters. Instead, every one of your dreams points to My love. While it is okay to doubt your human abilities, do not doubt that God can use anyone for His purposes under Heaven.

"Now, I can guarantee you this… that if the scribes of old had journal books, lined pages and pens with ink, there would be thousands of writings from Me. However, this is about you and this is the way I have chosen for you. While I have called others before you, this did not work out as they felt that what I was doing with them did not fit into what others believed to be My character. They proclaim that God would never do this as if they somehow knew the very heart of God. Well, they do not.

"Many also stopped because people told them they were unable. As for you, you have continued with Me because we are friends and I speak through you by this way. This is so you do not forget what I tell you. This is so you have records of this. This is how I chose to have a relationship with you. However, I have also increased this by My Voice in you. Just because others say this is not of God does not mean that they hear from Me to know this."

Me: "I know, Lord. It is just… well, it is just… oh, somedays, I just feel…"

Jesus: "In the beginning, you cried out to Me to hear from Me. When you didn't hear My Voice, you fasted and prayed. During your urgent request to Me, you fasted with no food or water. When you were going on your fourth day of your fast, I called on you and an angel woke you up. When you cried and prayed for help, you had an open vision.

"In this vision, the Two Witnesses I had sent then told you that you must first die to yourself before you were called to greater service. This was several months after you made a vow surrendering your life to Me. I had a great plan in place for you and I still do. For twelve years, I then allowed you to go through great afflictions before I called you up for greater service. Now, what did the vision show you?"

Me: "The vision showed me that I was 100% of this world and that I was selfish. The vision showed me that I needed to die to myself prior to my greater service. Oh Lord, all of this has been so painful."

Jesus: "Yes, I know as I was with you. You lost many friends. You experienced the worst in Christians and in people around you. You experienced great shame and humiliation enroute to Me. However, you made it. Now we are great friends. Do not forget this. I share secrets with you and things you have seen in My Heavenly Courts. You write what I scribe to you. You keep records.

"Erin, I love you. Do not forget this. I will continue to bless you in all you do. I am with you. While there are others who are jealous of you, they know Me in different ways. However, and very soon, all of those I call will be in unison and in perfect step."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I just get scared sometimes of ever doing the wrong thing or hurting You. I would never want that."

Jesus: "Come to Me when you are thinking this way and I will give you rest. The enemy wants you to stop. However, I can assure you that I will cause you to write a playbook for those who want to know Me personally. I am with you. I will never leave you. I gently rebuke you when you go the wrong direction.

"I talk to you about staying your course. Do not let those who do not care to know the God who loves them determine your gifts from Me. I have not made them the Great Voice of God who determines a thing. Pray for them to know Me more so they can hear from Me too. Now enjoy this day as it is the day I have made. I love you, Erin!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-766/

766 – Purple Sugar and Useless Ovens

Received on Monday, January 8, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love. Thank You for all You do and the miracle of the goodness of You. So far, 2024 has been off to a rocky start. Each day has been difficult and clearly a continuation of December's troubles. The enemy is never defined by the calendar, be it the day, the night or the year. He never stops. Father, I am so glad You are over all things. I will instead focus on Your miracles, not the small achievements of the enemy to chip away at me personally.

As for my youngest son, he has undergone an extreme change. Literally within fifty days, it has been a miracle of epic proportions, a miracle that we really needed here. Praise You, Father. He has a friend who was about to make a huge mistake, something that could not be reversed if she went through with her plans.

He wanted to prevent this, so he started to fast last week. When he found out for sure she was planning to follow through with her plans, he fasted without water starting at 10:00 pm on Thursday, January 4, 2024. After he continued worshiping and praying, he had a major breakthrough on Friday night, January 5, 2024. There was a measurable change in what direction his friend was now going to go in instead.

We all witnessed this miracle when his friend decided to back out at the last minute. When my son shifted to no water, his faith increased exponentially. He is now completely changed. He is kind, engaging and joyful. There are just so many words I can use to describe his change, but an illustration of this upgraded time was underlined when I ran errands with him on Saturday, January 6, 2024. He was helpful, considerate, kind and even bought us a round of Starbucks.

Where he used to barely make it in time for work, he is now earlier than he has to be. He now gets to work with plenty of time to spare. He even inspired my daughter so much that she too is fasting right now for her Podcast, among other things. As for our dog, Zoey, she is having surgery on Friday, January 26, 2024. We are also praying for a miracle here too. Despite various inconveniences, we are still a grateful household.

As for me personally, I have been under attack. A new neighbor has moved in and he is pompous. While I don't want to disclose too much information, he reminds me of a specific client that I had in the past. With clients, everything I designed or specified was questioned and researched extensively. All the while, I was not paid in recompense for his education into my field.

I was questioned the same here by this neighbor and it was uncomfortable. The conversation ended with me making the decision that I want no contact with him unless You tell me too. He somehow knew way too much about us and asked too many questions. These things begin a day and then they often become all encompassing. Everyday has been like this.

On Friday, Zoey had a swollen nose and I took her to the animal hospital. They recommended a costly surgery. Without this, she would likely die a very painful death. This surgery could prolong her life and give her comfort. We then agreed this would be a good idea. The earliest we could have this done was in around two weeks or so. She is now on their schedule.

It has been rough for all of us. We all feel like You are wrapping things up here. This feels very similar to our move of 2014. As a result, we are now in the stage of heart preparation. Having friends here who are not for us and neighbors who we don't like certainly makes things easier for us to move. Father, can our move please be this year? While we are ready, we are unable to do anything without You.

I had a very vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Purple Sugar and Useless Ovens" begins…

I was visiting a client that seemed like a cross between a former boss and a former client. She was wealthy. I drove to her home to check on her. In my dream she now lived in a different home at the end of a cul-de-sac overlooking rolling hills of wheat that looked like velvet. I arrived in the early evening and the night sky was crystal clear. However, it had an odd purple cast to it.

The moon was bright and full and it illuminated the hills of wheat. The landscape continued on as far as my eyes could see. There was a small breeze that looked like the hand of God was petting the hills of silk-like velvet. It was similar to when you run your hand across velvet and you can see the nap follow your hand. It was a breathtaking sight.

When I got out of my car, I noticed that the air was now bitter cold. It was also very dry. I walked up to the door and my client was there with several guests. She had arranged the space for a banquet. While she had five children, only two were at the table. While she had place settings for five of her children, only two were there. When I looked back at my client, I knew something seemed really wrong. My client did not look right.

While she was talking with several guests, she was acting like she was in complete shock. The very expensive oven she had special ordered was from Europe. For some reason, this oven was pulled out of the wall and placed on a pedestal. While she kept placing food in it to cook, nothing cooked as there was no gas to the oven. The client then looked at me and addressed me as if I was her subordinate…

Client: "Erin, could you please be a dear and fix me a bowl of cereal? I have to eat. My glucose levels are off the charts."

I reached over for some frosted shredded wheat and poured it into a bowl. There was some milk in a pitcher that I poured over it. She was not coming to eat right away as she was now desperately looking for something in her kitchen drawers.

Me: "Can I help you? Your cereal is now soggy."

Client: "I can't find my purple sugar for my cereal. Erin, please find it. Please help me. I am losing everything here."

I looked around and soon found the purple sugar in a junk drawer.

Me: "Here it is. I will let you pour it though. I have never seen purple sugar before."

I then went to the room adjacent to this banquet area. There was a beautiful glass atrium with windows facing the wheat hills. Above me was a beautiful custom iron canopy with flowering vines. I then overheard two of the guests talking…

Man: "She has lost it. Even though there is no food, she holds a banquet. There are place settings for people who are not coming. She is trying to cook food even though all of the gas has been shutoff in the area."

The woman nodded in agreement as she listened. I then suddenly knew what had happened with my client. My client and two of her older children had been left behind… they missed the Rapture. I then saw that my client was still trying to cook in this oven.

Client: "I waited on a list for two years for this thing and it won't cook."

I then recognized that her oven was a La Cornue Gas Range with value easily of $100,000. This was top of the line!

Client: Now crying. "Erin, where is my purple sugar? Erin, where is it?"

I looked over and the whole bowl of cereal was now purple, even the milk.

Me: "The purple sugar is already on your shredded wheat."

Client: "But where did my children go? Erin, where did my children go?"

Me: "Heaven. Your children left in the Great Harvest."

Client: "Then why are you still here?"

Me: "I was sent by God to pay you a visit and point the way Home."

Client: "But I can't get there! What about my new oven?"

One of her remaining kids, who looked around twenty, addressed her…

Young man: "Mom, screw the oven. It is an oven. It is useless here now." He then turned to me. "What do we need to do? How do we get out of here?"

My client's other child, a twin to the young man, also around twenty, would not stop crying. She was completely distraught.

Me: "While there is one last harvest of God, you must be strong and patient in the midst of great troubles." They all listened intently. "What God has planned is so much better than all that you see here. The Lord has built us mansions of beauty greater than this… yes, much better."

Client: "But why can't we go right now?"

Me: "Because it is not God's timing. Instead, pray to God while you wait on His perfect timing. Now, the worst is yet to come. If you take heart and pray before God, He will come for you. I must go now." They were still listening intently. "Remember that Jesus is your Savior and your King. You must turn away from where you were and seek Him. Seek Him and He will be found by you."

I then woke up suddenly to the front door slamming shut.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, there was such an awful void in that house. It was horrible. My stomach was sick.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. In your dream, you saw unharvested wheat fields on the hills. This is the promise of a final harvest after the first. However, very few will seek Me. In your dream, you witnessed a scene just moments after the Great Harvest of Souls (the Rapture).

"You will be called by Me (post-Rapture) to go out where I call you to let those people who are in shock know where their loved ones have been taken to. This will be a difficult thing to see. My Spirit and all that was good will have been removed. Only those who I call to appear in various places familiar to the lost will testify to Me. Erin, those who are called will be an army.

"Now, you will not be of this world, but instead of My Kingdom in Heaven on Earth. Nothing can harm you. However, this is still a very difficult call. It is not glamorous. At times, it will turn very ugly. While I will say no more about this today, just know that you are in My number and I will prepare and strengthen you for this. Do not worry."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. Oh yes… why purple sugar?"

Jesus: "No matter what she did or consumed, no matter what she cooked with or the color of her sugar, what this all came to was still very cold. Even her wheat cereal was bitter. Nothing she did could warm her coldness or give her back her sweetness."

Me: "Oh wow… now I see the great symbolism in all of this."

Jesus: "There is even deeper symbolism in this dream. Pray for wisdom, Erin."

Me: "Oh, regarding the wheat hills and the full moon?"

Jesus: "I have given you wisdom to discern a situation and knowledge to know the works of a matter. When you are in a state of unrest and not well, then you are not at peace. You have been restless and worried about many things. When I am behind a situation, then straight and sure will be your way, your path made clear. This is the way.

"When there are broken plans and an uneven path, then this is not the way. I am the Way and the Waymaker. When I am planning your course, then there is a clear path and a sure way forward, understand? Trust in Me and My Way. This means trust also in My timing for all things under Heaven. I am with you. Now complete your tasks."

Dream over.

767 – A Purpose Even in the Cancer

Received on Sunday, January 14, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for me and my house. I see Your hand working in all things for the good of all those who love You. I promised many years ago to be honest with You. To be truly honest with You, Father, is difficult because You can determine my last breath. Or if You grow tired of me, You could stop my heart.

Years ago, I poured out on paper everything I thought You would want to hear. I did this to appeal to You so You would turn and bless me, heal my sons and vindicate me. In my journal pages, I poured my heart out with truths about You in Scripture. I wrote these in my 'Dear God' letters, all in hopes that You would change my situation. At the time, I was seeing a Christian counselor. I then read all that I had written to You. She was wise and reflected Your heart. Well, Father, she called my bluff.

Counselor: "Erin, stop it. Do not lie to God about how you feel. Don't mask your true feelings about what God has allowed you to endure with scriptural gibberish that you are struggling to believe. You don't believe that God has anything good for You. Tell Him the truth. He already knows how you feel in your heart. It is time."

This was in 2009. We were faced with so many obstacles. My sons were not returned to me at Christmas 2008 as was promised by my enemy to both me and the courts in Oregon. I had no means and no money whatsoever to fight. No one at church believed me except those who were in attendance at my enemy's trial. I was treated as a crazy woman and was avoided. I was now out of earthly options.

I barely had enough money to keep the power and the gas going. People were taking advantage of my state. Clients were suddenly wanting 50% off my hourly rate and taking full advantage of my weakened position. They sensed that my daughter and I were struggling. My daughter was only 7 years old at the time. Something finally triggered me. I could not sleep. I knelt on the floor and I wept.

I went to my empty journal and I told You the truth about my state. I told You how angry I was at You for destroying me and allowing this evil to come to my sons in 2004 to 2005. The abuse was unfair to us. You then gave my sons over to the abuser because he had more money than me. Do You hate me, God? Did I do something wrong? I repent for hope in something You obviously will not do.

I repent for telling You what I thought You would want to hear. I have done everything I know, to appeal to You. Hello? Are You there? I am knocking, but You refuse to answer. I was better off as a non-Christian. At least I was successful and thought I was having fun. Well, none of this is fun at all. You must hate me. I am disgusted with my stupidity. I am stupid. I have lost my fight. I am sorry. I am tired.

I then saw my counselor the next day. She prayed. I showed her what I had written. The Lord then spoke to her to tell me that 'to be a good friend of God, you must be truthful. To be His close friend, you must trust Him in all things, even when it seems the darkest.'

Well, I have been mad at You, Father. I am sorry, but I am discouraged. This is a big surgery. I don't know everything here. However, in the film I was shown (and I have seen so many I know what to expect), there was a golf ball sized mass in the very center of my right kidney. It was as clear as day. There was no disputing this film.

A winter storm and my doctor's illness kept us from seeing him on Thursday, January 4, 2024. We received the phone call on Wednesday, January 3, 2024 that the doctor needed to go over the results of my CT Test with dye and it was urgent. As we were driving to Houlton ME, we got the call that the doctor had called in sick.

At the time, I knew something was up as his urgency was not normal. Through a series of events, my doctor finally saw me on Thursday, January 11, 2024 with my husband. The doctor spoke to me about some hernias they found. He seemed to be stalling until he finally came out with the bad news.

Main Doctor: Tearing up in his eyes. "Now, your pancreas is clear. This is not the problem. You have cancer of the kidney. You have renal cancer in your right kidney. I am so sorry. I am referring you immediately to a specialist. He will look at this to confirm your prognosis."

Since I had never seen this particular doctor behave this way before, I knew this was serious. Then he tried to sound encouraging. However, I just knew that he didn't truly believe what he was saying.

Me: "I am not afraid to die here. I am good. Do not worry."

We then talked about You, Father, as he is a solid Christian. We left assuring him that everything would be okay. He said he would call us with the next phase. This was at 5:00pm on Thursday, January 11, 2024. He phoned us as we drove up the road.

Main Doctor: "Could you come tomorrow morning at 8:30am before the specialist leaves town after his surgery?"

I agreed and drove up the next morning on Friday, January 12, 2024. The specialist met me at the hospital in scrubs. He cut to the chase.

Specialist: "I looked over the film and this is quite serious. This mass has a 99.5% rate of malignancy. There is urgency to this based on both the size and the density. While we could likely save your kidney if it was growing on the perimeter, it is not. It is directly in the center of your right kidney."

Me: "That's fine. Just remove it then. I don't want to wait."

Specialist: "This is to be done in Portland ME where they have robotics and less risk. You should hear from the surgical group in Portland ME on Monday, January 15, 2024. I am so sorry to have this news for you. I know kidneys and this here…" He pointed again to the cancer in the film. "…needs to be removed. We need to hope it hasn't spread. From what I can see, it hasn't. This is good. I am going to walk you out because I need to make the call and arrangements for this urgent referral."

Me: "Sure. Okay."

Specialist: "You are young. We have got this."

I nodded in agreement. I said goodbye and drove home. When I got home, I began to pack up all my things in my devotional room. I cleared out all distractions. While I have a little more to pack, I took down everything off the walls. For the most part, all that is left is the windows to the outside and my chair and ottoman. It seemed the perfect time to do this.

Father, I will be truthful here… I am not happy. I am sad. I am really sad. However, I know that You know best. I just don't like it. I have so many surgical scars, it is ridiculous. I have been so sad. I was planning to tag along with my daughter to interview some more Christian artists. We also had hoped to move soon. What are You doing? Father, please help me!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are not forgotten nor abandoned by Me. I know you have great expectations and none of these include what ails you. Then instead ask this… how did they discover all of this so quickly unless I caused them to search you for answers? Now, I realize this is difficult to understand, but you already knew you were ill. I had told you this before, but the timing is now right.

"Erin, let Me be God in this and know that I am with you. My favor has not been removed. Since I called you into this battle, I will also fully equip you for it. I will provide for you in this in advance. Your faith will then be strengthened greatly. Now, I know that you are discouraged."

Me: "Oh Lord, I recently laughed with a friend that I am Your tool."

Jesus: "Yes, and a useful one to Me. However, you are more than a tool. While you don't see it now, you are a great army and will be a great harvester of the ready souls that are soon to come. While great is the harvest, few are the harvesters. Just one of Mine will do the work of thousands. I have been preparing My fields and I will soon send the rains in due season. Now, what have I placed upon your heart?"

Me: "I have been packing things up. I have been patching holes in the walls and painting them with fresh paint."

Jesus: "Yes. You are now preparing for what I am calling you to."

Me: "Yes. I feel an urgency now to put away the former things. I want to hear from You completely free of distractions."

Jesus: "I will honor this. Erin, I delight in you. Though you continue to search yourself for a cause to your troubles, you will only need to talk to Me, the God who allowed this for your greater good. I have a purpose in this and, no, this isn't rooted in sin and punishment. Now, can you trust Me in all of this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Trials don't always come to those who you feel could use them. Sometimes they come because I am able to use your trials to show My miracles and My glory through them, understand? Because I have allowed this, I will also provide you with all you will need in this battle. Now, continue on your course. I will complete a good work in you. Be encouraged."

Dream over.

768 – A Declaration for Our Healing

Received on Wednesday, January 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! There is fresh snow, white clouds and a bright blue sky. What a beautiful sight. Thank You for the gift of Your divine landscape painting. Today is the first day in four days in which I have had no fever. I have been tired and depressed. I have kept myself busy so that I don't sit around and think too much.

In just three weeks, I have been seen by three doctors. To me, they are moving so quickly to take care of this new unwanted tenant in my body. I am so thankful that I am in great hands. I know You have a plan here. However, just in case, God, I will not be arrogant or foolish and not prepare. Having packed many of my favorite things away prepares us to either move or at least reduces distractions caused by clutter.

At this time, this last year especially, You have prepared me for great changes. What changes I do not know. You have always been 100% accurate without telling me what changes exactly are coming. To prepare as if I were a wise wife and mom is Your Will going into this. To turn my back from preparation and claim You won't allow this or that, then this means I am confident to know Your plans for me when I truly don't fully know.

So of course, I recite Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you DECLARES THE LORD." A declaration from You, Father, is a big deal. You don't make declarations, contracts or promises lightly. You are not flippant or say anything without truthfully meaning every word. Your promises are true. By Your Word in Psalm 145:13: "The Lord is faithful to ALL His promises and loving toward ALL He has made."

And this in 2 Kings 17:39: "Worship the Lord, Your God; it is He who will deliver you." I don't claim to know Your plans, Father. You are a mystery in Your ways. However, I do know this… now that I have You, I now have a Father to adore. I am now a doting daughter who looks up to You. I never knew unconditional love until I was saved by You. My condition, my stone heart, was broken, but You revived me.

You reshaped my heart and put a new Spirit in me. Recently, You even healed my heart by a miracle. Since You are my Healer, will You, if You are willing, heal my kidney and remove this malignant squatter who has taken up residence in my body? You have done miracle after miracle in my life, Father. You still write on the tablet of my heart. Please don't stop now. I surrender myself to You. I believe for my healing miracle. You have declared it.

I had a fun dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Beautiful College Dorm Room" begins…

I was moving into a college dormitory. I arrived a few hours later than the others and, for some reason, the rooms were not assigned, so you had to find an available room. I quickly noticed every room on every floor was already taken. I felt hopeless and a bit panicked that classes were about to begin and I would not be settled in yet beforehand. I went up to the Hall Advisor / RA…

Me: "There are no rooms left. What should I do?"

The RA took out a clipboard of names and asked for my name. I gave my name to her.

RA: Smiling. "Come with me. You have a great room!"

She led me down a hallway behind a security card door. There were a series of doors. She then led me to the back right door. She opened it up. It was a beautiful room with windows overlooking a courtyard fountain with trees. There was a beautiful oak tree just outside my other window with birds. The windows had cranks that could open them for fresh air.

Me: "This is beautiful. I have no words. Thank you. Do I owe more money?"

RA: "You paid a premium in advance. Now, you have your own bathroom here also, as well as a small study area. You have all you need for success here. You have our full support. Our resources are fully available to you."

Me: "Who else lives on this hallway?"

RA: "People who are here for the same program you are enrolled in. It is important that you are together. You will also dine together too. You are also to remain separated from the general occupants (GOs). Do not listen to taunts or anything the GOs have to say. Do not react to them now is not the time."

Me: "Okay."

RA: "Now, the dining hall opens at 6:00pm for dinner. However, there is only a short window until the doors shut."

Me: "Okay – thanks again."

She smiled and waved as she closed the door. What a beautiful room. I was excited.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, I know that You are preparing me for something, so I will rest in You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am giving you a new course and a new perspective. Remember Hezekiah's illness and recovery. For the Lord God said to Isaiah: Go and say to Hezekiah thus says the Lord (a declaration), the God of David, Your Father, I have heard your prayers, I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add 15 years to your life. But more than this, Erin… I will deliver you to the land I promised you."

Me: "That was from Isaiah 38. You then sent a sign. You turned back the sun ten steps on the sun dial. Hezekiah then wrote a poem in Isaiah 39:20: The Lord will save me, and we will play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives at the House of the Lord. After this, Hezekiah made some bad mistakes."

Jesus: "Yes. However, you are not Hezekiah. Now, why did I bring this Word to your attention?"

Me: "To let me know that You are in control over all things."

Jesus: "Well, yes, but there is a different meaning in which I am revealing. Hezekiah was guilty of some grave sins. Some he had not even acted on yet. However, here I am, the same God over Hezekiah, King David and you. I am the same. If I can do these miracles for Hezekiah even though he did not hear directly from Me, but through a prophet, Isaiah…

"…and then David, whom I love, whom I welled up in even, and he performed awesome deeds… then if I am the same God and you speak to Me, then are things better to remove you off the battlefield at this time or keep you here for My purposes? Did I not promise you many things that have still not come to pass. So now, let us revisit a declaration of God again."

Me: "I felt prompted by You to examine the word 'declaration' and its definition. 'Declaration' is the formal announcement of the beginning of a state or condition. Or this… a written public announcement of intentions or the terms of an agreement. Then in the Biblical sense, it is the same in Greek as in Hebrew. The meanings are the same… 'to make known', 'set forth', 'explain', 'to make plain or clear'."

Jesus: "Okay, so I AM making it clear to you that My promises are true. I have declared them. I have more for you to do here until the day I am finished with you and you are instead with Me in eternity. As for right now, you feel downcast because you had a big idea about how all things would be. Even so, you are still thinking small. Remember that I am God over all things and My plans are much greater than your ideas of how all of this shall be—your imaginations. Are you excited?"

Me: "I am trying to be, Lord, but only You know my outcome and I know where my eternity is with you. So, I take comfort in You and Your declarations, Your healing power and Your love. If this is all I have, then I truly have everything, right?"

Jesus: "That is the perfect attitude to have. You are in full faith that I have you… and I do. Rejoice and do not worry. I will cover you. You are under My wings and I will provide for your every need. Do not worry. One other thing, I answer you before you even think a thing or ask, even before you have a need – pay attention to this as you dismiss this as your imagination often. It is My still small Voice. Remember you are not so bold as to do this or that with such confidence… this is Me."

Dream over.

769 – The Perfect Equipment for the Perfect Hole

Received on Thursday, January 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

NOTE: With my devotional room now cleared and all set up, I saw the below dream with incredible clarity. I could see lines on the clubs and even the blades of grass in detail. Even though this dream is nine journal pages, it flowed onto the paper in less than an hour and a half. And now… to the dream…

Thank You for another day here! I feel blessed. Even though I know changes are coming and we are moving at some point, the beauty here is breathtaking in its own right. There is not a cloud in the sky today.

I had an exciting dream last night (well, at least it was exciting for me)…

Sub-dream 1 "The Perfect Equipment for the Perfect Hole " begins…

Before commencing this sub-dream, here are a few notes for you to read over that will give more context…

- The Shotgun Start: A Shotgun Start means that golfers are assigned to different holes to start the game at the same time. Normally there are four golfers to each hole and eighteen holes in all. This amounts to 72 golfers in total. Each golfer's round begins at the sound of the starting pistol going off, in this case at 1:00pm. As an example, if you were assigned to be on the 17th hole to start, you would play your round in the following order: 17th, 18th and then back to the 1st to 16th.
- The Back Nine: There are eighteen holes in all. The Front Nine are the 1st to 9th The Back Nine are the 10th to 18th holes.
- A Scratch Player: Each hole is designated a number of shots that a typical pro would finish it in. The more shots designated, the further the tee is from the hole. Holes can be a Par 3, a Par 4 or a Par 5. A scratch golfer would be someone who usually hits the designated number of shots and typically not more or less. If a course designates that a pro should complete the entire 18-hole course in 72 shots, a scratch golfer would therefore usually score around 72 shots. In golf, the fewer shots you take, the better is your round of golf. The lowest score wins.

- Spending $84,824.00 on a set of clubs: I would never personally purchase a set of anything at this price unless this was a supernatural occurrence with many.

My husband and I were visiting a place I didn't recognize. It seemed to be somewhere out west. Since there were some eucalyptus trees, it seemed likely that it was California. I was not certain though. We had been invited to join as guests in the Fall Classic Member-Guest Tournament at an elite Golf Club. It was the last big tournament of the year for the club after the Club Championship.

We were told to arrive by 9:00am and that our tee time should be logged in. We were to be paired with the members who invited us to play. My husband struck up a conversation with a couple of gentlemen. He motioned that he would catch up with me in a little while. I waved back to him as he started walking off with them. I went into the clubhouse pro shop to talk to the pro there.

Me: "How can I find out what our tee time is?"

Pro: "It is all digital now. We no longer book tee times from here."

Me: "Well, we were invited to come to play by another member."

Pro: "Oh, I know. You are here on my list of invitees."

Me: "Sorry, I just thought…"

Pro: "Here, let's see if you are on my tee time screen."

He pulled out a small tablet and showed me the screen. As smart as I thought I was about how to read tee times, it was completely nonsensical.

Me: "I am so sorry, but I have no idea what I am even looking at. It makes no sense."

Pro: "Well, the Shotgun Start is at 1:00pm. I believe you will be starting on the Back Nine. One of the holes on the Back Nine is the most difficult hole we have. It will be exciting though."

I then realized that I had no clubs, no balls, no bag and no glove. I had absolutely nothing to golf with.

Me: "I will need some equipment."

Pro: Pointing to the back. "The ladies' section is over there."

I walked over and laughed at the display. It was not serious and a complete rail against women golfers. Everything was in pink, including the balls, golf bags and the gloves. I then walked over to the men's area.

Pro: "Ah, excuse me, but this area is only for very good golfers. Over here is the elite grouping. This is for those who hit from the black tees. This is where the pros hit and is the farthest from the hole. This is therefore way above your abilities."

While I was offended by his condescending tone, I kept quiet.

Me: Bluffing. "I realize this. However, I am shopping for my husband right now. He is a black tee golfer."

Pro: "Oh really. And what exactly is your husband's name?"

Me: "He likes to remain anonymous."

Pro: "Makes sense. Come on over. I will show you what we have here. As for me, I am an elite pro myself."

The Lord told me that the pro was lying. I decided to have some fun with it.

Me: "Oh really. So, what exactly is your handicap? Also, are you a touring circuit pro or a teaching pro?"

Pro: "Oh, you do know a little." He suddenly began to stammer and trip up his words. "I am a scratch player and a teaching pro."

I decided to say nothing and simply nodded. I then proceeded to look at the elite equipment section. It was so far above all the rest. The shafts were feather-light carbon/something and the grips were so soft. One set was particularly beautiful.

Me: "I will take this one, this golf bag, that glove and a box of these balls. I will let my husband pick his own shoes though. However, I will take these size 8s for myself."

The pro started talking back to me, but in a mumble. He spoke just loud enough for me to hear what he was saying. He was grumbling about me.

Pro: "Even I don't have a set of golf clubs like these. Some people think they own the universe. They literally point and purchase. It is so ridiculous."

He then spoke loud enough for me to know he was now formally addressing me. He also spoke loud enough that the crowd in the pro shop could all hear him. He was hoping to embarrass me as these clubs were very expensive.

Pro: "How will you be paying for all of this? You do realize that this is our highest end and most elite set? These are each even signed and numbered. This set of clubs took craftsmen a whole year to make."

All of a sudden, people were gathering around to see who was purchasing these clubs. I nodded confidently. All I knew was that I was supposed to purchase the best they offered here. The pro was clearly nervous and upset at my purchase.

Since there was no price on the clubs, I had to take a guess via my Holy Spirit that this bill was going to be ridiculous. I pulled a white card out of my small bag. I laughed as I knew this was God's account. I slid it across the counter towards him.

Pro: Snobbily. "So sorry, but we do not take Visa."

He slid the card across the counter back to me. He seemed relieved that my payment method would be rejected.

I slid the card back across the counter towards him. I was smiling. The card suddenly changed from a Visa card to an Elite Edition MasterCard.

Pro: "Hey, wait." He shook his head as the crowd spoke to each other in hushed whispers. "Okay, that will be $84,824.00 with tax."

He grabbed my card and quickly ran it through. He was hoping it would be rejected. It wasn't. He thought that, if he gave me a chance, I would take the card back before being humiliated by it being rejected. I knew this was on God's tab, so rejection was impossible on any level. Everyone that had gathered around was left speechless.

Me: "Wow, amazing. Thank you. Please have them set up my golf bag for me… uh, for my husband. Thank you."

The pro did this himself as I continued to look around the pro shop. The crowd of people were still stunned as I then strapped the bag on my back and walked out with my new state-of-the-art equipment. It was now just an hour before the 1:00 pm Shotgun Start, so I walked down a cart path through the eucalyptus trees.

I soon came up to one of the Back Nine holes – the 10th hole. Since there appeared to be no one around, I decided that I was going to tee up a ball on each of the five colors of starting tees. I wanted to start at the easiest color and work my way backwards to the hardest color. The colors from easiest to hardest are outlined as follows…

- Red Tee Box: For women. Closest to the hole.
- Yellow Tee Box: For seniors. 2nd closest to the hole.
- White Tee Box: For average players. Medium distance from the hole.
- Blue Tee Box: For low handicapped players. 2nd farthest to the hole.
- Black Tee Box: For elite pros. Farthest to the hole and sometimes farthest by a wide margin compared to the other colored tees.

When I reviewed the final color, the Black Tee, it was comical. This tee box was easily 600 yards from the hole on this Par 5 (where around 500 yards is typical for a Par 5). It was also behind a large oak tree (where no course designer would design this to be just a few yards in front of the tee box – it would be so dangerous that people could be killed by a drive hitting the tree and bouncing off it). Since the oak tree was so large, it would also be impossible to hit over.

I decided to start at the Red Tee Box, the closest to the hole. I pulled out a driver. Even though I haven't golfed in more than twenty years, I hit it purely. I then moved further away from the hole to the Yellow Tee Box. I once again hit a perfect shot.

Me: "Well, Father, this equipment really makes a difference. This is like nothing I have ever shot with before."

I then went back to the White Tee Box and then even further back to the Blue Tee Box. The White Tee Box was about 520 yards from the hole and the Blue Tee Box was about 550 yards from the hole. Both of my shots from these two Tee Boxes were perfectly hit and effortless. I then went to the Black Tee Box. It was more than 600 yards away from the hole… a whopping 620 yards away to be precise!

Me: "This is ridiculous. Who can hit through this huge oak tree? Hitting a driver here is not an option. For that matter, hitting with a wood is not an option either. I will do something I would have never done before. God, I am so glad You are with me."

I then pulled out a 3 Iron. I teed the ball up. I examined the branches of the oak tree and made a strange decision. I decided to not tee up the ball and hit directly off of the grass. I thought I could punch the shot through the branches and pray it would make it through. I visualized where I wanted the ball to go. I took a few practice swings. I then addressed the ball and prayed.

Me: "Oh Lord, I am going to need another God-sized miracle here."

I hit the ball perfectly and it went right through the huge oak tree. This was as amazing as it was impossible. I then picked up my clubs and walked to see the results. I was in shock as the balls were literally lined up and all within a short iron to the green and a putt in. I was so thankful for these clubs as they made such a huge difference.

When I finished playing all five balls, I had two birdies (which is one under par) and three eagles (which is two under par). That has never happened to me before. I then proceeded back to the pro-shop in the hopes of finding my husband before the Shotgun Start at 1:00pm. When I arrived back, people were staring at me. A member soon approached me…

Member: "Excuse me, but could you please sign my golf bag?"

Me: "Why would I do that? I can't do that. I am nobody!"

I then walked around the corner. There were camera crews and reporters waiting for me. I was in shock.

Reporter: "You had three eagles and two birdies on the Widow Maker Hole. How did that feel? Who are you and what is next?"

I tried to ignore them as I walked. I kept walking and went back into the pro shop. I went up to the pro.

Me: "I am looking for my husband. Have you seen him?"

Pro: "Wow, lady, you really sandbagged me here. You had told me that the clubs were for your husband, not you."

Me: "I didn't sandbag you. That is the wrong term. I wanted better than what you offered me. Since you would not have let me purchase the best, I had to say that I was purchasing them for my husband instead."

Pro: "Look, we have you here on camera."

Sure enough, they must have had drones overhead and field cameras set up down the fairway. I thought I was alone. I shook my head.

Me: Looking up at God in Heaven. "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Pro: "Look, our club would like to sponsor you for the tour. The club maker is also going to sponsor you, as well as the ball company. They want to do a special signature collection. We are talking over half a billion dollars in endorsements."

Me: "No thanks. I have everything I need. I just wanted to play for fun."

Pro: "Fun? FUN? This is beyond 'fun'. The Owner's Association at the club are going to invest in you and also offer you a beautiful custom home on the course."

Me: "I need to speak to my husband."

Just then, the phone at the pro shop rang.

Pro: Speaking with the utmost respect to whoever was on the other side of the phone. "Yes, sir. I understand. That is an honor. Thank you. Amazing!"

The pro then looked over at me.

Pro: "Okay, Erin… can I call you Erin?"

Me: "That would be fine."

Pro: "That was the President of the United States who just called. He has invited you to play with him and Tiger Woods. I have never had anything like this happen before. I have never seen it. Incredible."

Me: "Well, it is almost 1:00pm. It is time for your Shotgun Start."

Pro: "No one cares anymore. You defeated the Widow Maker Tree. It has never been done… NEVER! The film of your golf shots has now gone viral. Erin, the cat is out of the bag here."

I was now tired of all of the attention. God, please help! I made a mess here. Where is my husband?

Just then, I heard the roar of 'The Shotgun Blast'!

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: Now crying. "That was quite a dream. It was fun, but scary too. God, thank You as I was clearly changed and in a new body. Who knows… perhaps You will allow me to golf again someday. It was an amazing dream. It was fun, but I still had to wake up from it. Father, have I now gone mad? Why would I have a dream like this? I don't know if we will be doing things like this again! Really, Lord? Still, how incredibly fun would this be!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Did this make your heart glad?"

Me: "It was so real and detailed. I could clearly see to the very last detail. While my hair was French braided similar to how I used to wear it when I golfed, it was different… better. I must want to swing a club again. I had hoped that I would be able to take golf up again in my senior years. However, the doctors told me this was a 'Big No'! It would surely take a miracle of God, a God-sized / Savior-sized miracle."

Jesus: "Erin, you will play again. You will. Greater than you ever imagined. I delight in you. I remember your heartbreaks and disappointments. I remember your dreams that were never realized. All of them. The world would label you as a failure. However, you are not a failure. I am with you and I have always been there.

"Had you been an earthly success in many of these areas, then they would have been a god to you, an idol to worship. You instead worship Me. I am your hero, friend and Savior. You carry My 'Elite Status'. Though you were judged, mocked and ruined by others, I still chose you. You are Mine. Now take comfort.

"This dream I gave you is not as a fantasy, but a hopeful encouragement of what will be because I am with you. Erin, the God of the Impossible dwells in you. Those I call for My service will be overjoyed at what I have planned for them. There won't be a dry eye when you hear the testimonies and review each one's credentials to serve. My qualifications are different.

"Now, do not be sad about a dream like this. Look at your abilities, your capabilities, instead. Look at who is with you. Now rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. I love you."

Dream over.

770 – Obey God even in the Uncertainty

Received on Sunday, January 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

It is a beautiful blue-sky winter's day here! Thank You for another day. Please continue to watch over our house this week. Each one of us is facing battles right now. Please place Your hand of protection over all that we do. Father, we are in Your capable hands as we go about our schedules this week…

- We leave tomorrow, Monday, January 22, 2024, to travel to a specialist in Portland ME. We will be gone for one night, returning on my birthday on Tuesday, January 23, 2024. My appointment is on the morning of Tuesday.
- While we also considered traveling south for interviews for my daughter with an artist later in the week, we are still not certain about this even now.
- My younger son leaves Thursday, January 25, 2024, to travel out west for three nights, returning on Sunday, January 28, 2024.
- Zoey has her surgery on Friday, January 26, 2024.

In reality, we are not certain about any of this. In all things, Father, please let Your Will be done! My uncertainty seemed to be reflected in the two dreams I had last night…

Sub-dream 1 "An offer too good to decline" begins...

We were preparing our home for listing it for sale. We had a listing agent come over to talk to us about the listing. For some reason, he decided to stay here at our home to hang around and make sure we stayed true to the to-do-list he gave us. His list of 'to-dos' was both long and tedious. He wanted all of our things removed from our home. This included all valuables and anything inside drawers and closets. On one of the days, I overheard this agent on the phone talking to an associate of his…

Agent: "I am essentially moving them out so it will be easier to close the deal."

While I was irritated by this, I found it clever as we had noticed that a few of our neighbors who had sold homes closed immediately and their move out date was very fast after following similar advice. However, after about the third day of this man being here at the house, it was becoming too much for us. He was even going through things in our bedroom and was getting very personal with us. When we called him out on this, he had an immediate reply…

Agent: "Look, every person who comes through that door will be going through your private things. This is why I am so direct with you here."

He then became angrier as the days went by because I was going too slow for him on completing the to-do-list. This delay was occurring because we no longer had any place to put our items that were packed. We did not yet have a new home. We discussed this with our agent…

Me: "All of this is becoming more and more difficult for us. I am so sorry, but we have decided to cancel the listing."

Agent: "Well, you can't cancel. We had a bidding war and I accepted an offer on your behalf. It is final."

Me: "Well, I am sorry, but no deal."

The agent then blurted out the selling price he had received on our behalf. My husband and I were left speechless, but not for long. We then both said the following at the exact same time…

My husband and Me: "We accept!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, while I did not hear the offer, it must have been a really good one.

Sub-dream 2 "Fixing up an old Tiny Home" begins...

I was residing in a tiny cottage that I had once rented in Coeur d'Alene ID. The entire back wall of the little 560 square foot home was now all glass. I was in the process of removing all the former things that hindered my views. While I had this view all along, I had never realized it. I was removing things that I was never attached to or took up too much room for no good reason.

I even removed an upright piano that I didn't even know how to play. Once I removed everything, I painted. However, I had some opposition from some workers working in the front of the home. They had liked the way the home was even though I knew that my new way would be better. My kids even helped me paint. We then shopped for a few new things. It was fun.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Oh Father, both of these dreams seem to point to changes soon to come. The home from the first dream is our current home. The home from the second dream is a home that I had lived in when I was only 19 years old. I rented this tiny home for just $175 per month and this was expensive at the time. It is funny how life changes.

Father, You are in charge of all homes; past, present and future. Our desires are to keep our current home because this is the home You built for me. You built it with things I never thought I needed. However, You knew in advance of this. This place is so special to all of us.

My heart is heavy right now. I am anxious even though I am trying not to be. I am thankful for all that You have done in the last twelve years since these dreams began. Oh Father, You have blessed me more than I ever thought possible and I am so grateful to You and will be for eternity!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, here is a good rule to practice… if you are uncertain and truly at a Crossroads, you must then wait on Me for your assurance and your direction. Allow Me to be God over all things. You cannot be in two places simultaneously. Even the angels, the demons and the adversary cannot be in two places simultaneously. As for Me, I am in all places all of the time."

Me: "Lord, I have to be truthful here… I don't want to let go of our home. I say this even though I am ready for what is next, yet we have no ability to move. Even so, You are preparing me. Part of me would prefer to keep everything here as it is and not go. However, our kids are adults now and are planning to leave. This is too much for me and my husband to look after. Oh Father, please advise us."

Jesus: "While there are many things to consider, you have no good solutions and I have not made clear your direction. Truly I tell you this… time spent wondering and creating different options are useless. This is because I am over all things. However, at the proper moment, you will say, 'Now! Now is the time to move!'

"However, and even more than this, you are thinking small and are therefore weighing small options. This is because you cannot imagine another way. However, I am the God of the Greater Option, the Better Way.

You then worry about the small issues. You prepare just in case for this or that. I would think it is because you are worried about not being able to do things when I do move.

"While you believe in Me for some things, you do not believe in Me for all things. Well, I have not placed a prayer limit as if it is a punch card at the feed store. That is not Me. I do not say, 'Well, Erin has now used up her blessings and I must now cut back. This is too much for Me. After all, I do have limits here.' Erin, do you see how ridiculous this sounds?"

Me: "Yes, it really does sound ridiculous!"

Jesus: "It does, Erin. Surely it is your enemy that would say such things. If I am the God of all things as you believe in Me to be, and I am, then how am I limited? I am not. So, one is given this and the doors open supernaturally on that and yet another receives healing and another is raised back to life from death. Be always joyful when you hear of these things because your day is coming even as I knock at the door.

"Now, continue on in doing good. Give as I have given to you. Treat others as you would want to be treated. Love with no limits those I have sent into your life. Even when people are unkind, still react to them as I would call you to and as I would do.

"Now, there is one thing to remember… I told you that this life of yours would soon be dramatically different and that I would move you to the place I prepared for you, the place of your heart. Once this happens, your return will disturb many.

"However, I have still not confirmed whether you will be removed from your home here. You ask Me for the right reasons because of your love for the home I built you, the place I prepared for you to meet with Me daily, where you could raise your young at My Altar and even care for the birds and little animals. This has brought you joy.

"Now, this home you are in is unrivaled in your area. Again, since you do not know My plans here, you continue to prepare as I have instructed you. This is wisdom. You are then subject to Me and My plans as yours lead to difficulties aside from Me. Now, can you allow Me to continue to be God over you?"

Me: I laughed. "Of course, Lord. I am so sorry."

Jesus: "While to plan is human, to wait on My plans is divine."

Me: "Then I will wait, Lord."

Jesus: "I am God here and I am with you. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you tomorrow, today and each day after. I love you. Give your days to Me."

Dream over…

771 – Praying to our Great Healer

Received on Wednesday, January 24, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for the wonderful weather and safe travels on our journey yesterday. Thank You for this beautiful day. Thank You for another birthday. I must admit that it was an unforgettable day. It was also one of the weirdest and surreal days. I don't have much to say really. My life should have been over years ago… well, in reality, so many different times.

I am just glad to be here and to be of value to You, Father. It is always Your choice to allow us our days here. You ultimately know our days and determine our steps. I am not ready to go though. Oh Father, You promised. While death is not painful, living in this dying painful state is a hard thing. I thought this would be simple as my cancer seemed to be caught early. However, I learned yesterday that it wasn't.

If I am being honest, I am both disappointed and upset. I am mad and angry at this situation. I am sorry too. I am sorry for being mad at You. While I had plans, these plans did not turn out the way I thought they should. Even so, while You did tell me a year ago that I was sick, I just had no idea with what. After speaking with my surgeon yesterday, I even contemplated doing nothing and just waiting.

However, the doctor then replied that I might have two years to live at best. It would also be a very painful road. He advised removing the kidney and praying that it hasn't spread to my bladder or elsewhere. This would mean aggressive chemo. I am not a fan of facing this fight. I need a few pre-op diagnostics before my kidney is to be removed somewhere around the first week of March 2024.

Oh Father, do You still love me? Have You grown tired of me? Am I no longer of use to You? You are God over all things, including my kidney. You made my body. You are the Architect. Please remodel me. Please fix me. Please fix me so that I can live and testify.

As I said these things, I looked out of my window. In the tree to my right was a crow and a swallow. I don't see swallows here. I then looked at the clouds and they formed a chain straight across the horizon.

What are You telling me, Father? Where are You? Have You forsaken me? All of the money we have saved for various emergencies will now be used for medical purposes. I need to get my house in order, including an advance directive and a will. Why? Because a wise man prepares for these things for the sake of his family.

Maybe Bend, OR is just a future 'New Earth' promise or a Transformation thing. I will take my attention off of the future things, including my imagined hopes and dreams, in order to fully focus on the here and now. Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery and today is a gift… that is why they call it 'The Present'.

Me: "Father, in light of this bad news, please show me how to do all of this. Grant me wisdom to prepare my house and my heart for what comes. Do You still love me, Father?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I love you. I have never stopped and I never will. I am the Chainbreaker. Now, I know that you are discouraged. Nothing has gone the way you have envisioned it would. This pathway was not on your roadmap."

Me: "Why wasn't it, Lord? I will tell You why… because I thought You were going to bless me because my troubles were over. Instead, these are just beginning. I am so sad, Lord. Please help me because I am scared here. While I believe You for the miracles in all things, I just don't know how You will use me through this."

Jesus: "So, in other words, are you still surrendering your life to Me for My purposes or are you selecting surrender from a menu of what you will order or not order?"

Me: "Lord, I have eaten from the appetizers. I have tried them all. I agree with You. I want to pick and choose what I will order here. Or how about I just enjoy the fruits and desserts? This is impossible. I have only two options…

- Option 1: Go ahead with the surgery and then there are still problems; or

- Option 2: I will live two years at best and will then suffer a painful death.

"Well, Lord, I instead choose Option 3."

Jesus: "There was no Option 3 offered by the doctor…"

Me: "You, Lord! You are my Option 3! Since You say You love me unconditionally, I stand on my full faith boldly believing for healing and miracles. This is Option 3!" I was now crying. "Oh Lord, please… Option 3!"

Jesus: "Erin, surrender all of this to Me. There is nothing you can do. This is out of your control. Can you trust Me with your body?"

Me: "You are my Architect. I would be foolish not to trust You. I love You."

Jesus: "Then let us settle something between us right now. It is okay to grieve bad news. I do not require you to be glad that you are sick. Anyone who claims that God is expecting your complete joy in these things has not truly studied My Word and is a fool. This would be a lie. I know that this is not a joyful thing. If you were joyful during this initial news, I would question it. Job was not joyful at his troubles.

"Now though, at some point, you will be at peace with the direction I take you. Then your joy soon after will be complete. This is difficult to understand right now. However, if you trust Me to carry you on this uncertain path, I will be your lamp to light your way and you will not be fearful. Remember that this life is not about you… it is about bringing the lost into My light. It is about My plans, not yours."

Me: "Could I ask a favor then, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes."

Me: "I don't want to go through chemo. Please! Could You confine everything to that one kidney? The doctor thinks it has spread. I don't want to have a permanent catheter. Lord, please! I will be focused more on myself and certainly less of You."

Jesus: "I know what you need before you ask it. I know you are scared and uncertain. The news is fresh. In your time of prayers, remember Me in worship and focus on all that I have promised you. Remember that you surrendered your life for My purposes. There is no more beautiful love you give Me than your life for My purpose. This is a special gift. Now, will you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I love You."

Jesus: "I love You too. Now, continue to do good. I am with you. Oh yes, besides the signs in the sky, the little swallow visited your tree. It was perched near the crow."

Me: "Why, Lord?"

Jesus: "Even though this swallow was not in due season, I still sent it to you. It was following the crow. The crows here have been watchers on your walls, your property. They keep the small birds and animals safe from predators. The swallow is a swift flyer and much different than a sparrow.

"This can be a point of study because sparrows have been your focus. In this season, you are more like a swallow, but still at My Altar is your Nest. This was a special sign from Me today. While you couldn't see yesterday, you are no longer blind today.

Me: "It was tears, Lord! Tears made my vision bad."

Jesus: "I know. Now, enjoy these days, Erin. You have been so happy accomplishing your tasks."

Me: "All of my days are numbered, right, Lord?"

Jesus: "Every person's days on Earth are numbered. Erin, this is written. However, I didn't say, 'Be joyful and enjoy each day because I plan to take your life'. Erin, I have never said this. I am with you. Great is your reward! Be happy and do your lifting now."

Me: "Lord, can You heal me before my surgery? Lifting now? Will I lose my ability to lift?

Jesus: "No, lift your head and see where your help comes from! Let Me work, Erin. Finish building your Nest at My Altar. I am with you."

Dream over.

772 – I have been at this for Thousands of Years

Received on Saturday, January 27, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for a new day here! Thank You for another day of life. It snowed all day yesterday. I arrived home at noon and it began to snow shortly after. It didn't stop until 3:00am. This morning was so beautiful to see. Fresh powder and sparkles of diamond light reflected in the sun.

It was too wonderful not to step outside for fresh air. I brought a fresh seed tray and I could hear birds communicating in the trees. Maybe they were saying, 'She's here! We will now eat a great breakfast of dry seeds!' While I don't know what they say, I would like to think it is a thank you. I just don't know.

Father, I have been silent lately. I have been staying busy so that I have no extra time to think. Anything I say to my kids about the situation upsets them, so I stay silent. There really isn't anything to say. My stepdad had two favorite quotes; 'If wishes were horses, beggars would ride' and 'Silence is golden'. Well, I agree that silence is golden when nothing good can be said.

We dropped off little Zoey at the vets for her surgery yesterday. I signed all of the required forms. She was shaking. Amber was with me, so we went out for breakfast afterwards. I hadn't done that in a while. After this, we went to the Christian bookstore. I prayed that maybe there would be some books on miracles. I picked up a book titled, 'How to hear from God when He is silent.' I heard the Voice of the Lord…

Jesus: "Erin, this is ridiculous! I am here with you. To hear from Me, just speak and I will answer. There is not one book here, other than My Word which I authored, that will tell you greater things than I can. It is a chasing. No books, only My Word. Now, about this book you just chose on wanting to hear from Me. Really? Has it really come to this?"

I laughed so hard that my daughter asked me what was so funny. I told her what the Lord had just said and we both laughed. As we were walking toward the movie section, I caught a glimpse of the title of a book. It was about keeping a 'Cancer Diary' while battling cancer. I heard the Lord's Voice again.

Jesus: "No, Erin! Don't even think about it. I am all you need. I am your book. My Word is your Lamp. I am God."

Well, this was certainly settled now. I left the book where it was and walked away. We then found a movie to watch and the Lord didn't protest. I then received a phone call from Zoey's veterinarian as we moved to the check out.

Vet: "Hi, Erin. Regretfully, we are not moving ahead with Zoey's surgery. Her bloodwork showed a new issue with her kidneys. Her levels are so high that we are not comfortable putting her through surgery. Her liver values are also 200 points higher than when we last tested. We are sorry."

Me: "How much longer does she have?"

Vet: "I am not comfortable giving a time because animals are different than humans. Our estimates can be off. However, we did notice that Zoey is so happy and energetic right now. I will send you home with antibiotics for if she flares up and of course pain medication. She is 15 now and could have more years. We just don't know. However, I will say this… she had bloodwork six months ago and both her liver and kidney panels are 200 points above where they were. You can come to pick her up anytime."

We drove to pick her up and arrived home shortly before the snow fell. Zoey seemed both happy and energetic. This was such a relief!

As for my dreams, they have been quite strange this week. I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Great America Closes Permanently" begins…

I was in a massive amusement park. It was Marriott's Great America. This park is normally open all year round. However, the park was now closing permanently. There was an announcement that rides will stop operating at 5:00pm and exiting the park must be completed by 6:00pm.

There were young people in their teens and 20s hurrying to the wild rides and rollercoasters. Families were waiting in line at the family rides. People were not excited though. Many of them were crying. I heard one parent talking to another parent…

Parent: "I came here with my parents and they came here with theirs. Now what will happen? Look, even the workers are crying. They will now have no income."

(I had personally attended the very first opening of the Santa Clara, California on May 20, 1976 for my 8th grade class trip).

After hearing this, I went back to my room at a nearby hotel to pack my things to leave. I was younger in my dream. Since I had so many garments with me, I decided to leave the majority of them for anyone who wanted them. I proceeded to check out with only a small bag and one change of clothes. I went up to the front counter…

Me: "I am checking out."

Clerk: "Oh, you can't check out. Everyone's bill is no charge. We are closing. I will no longer be paid in just fifteen minutes she pointed to the clock overhead. New people are coming in to take over."

Me: "New?"

Clerk: "Yes. Great America is closing permanently."

Me: "Do you mean the park or the park along with all of America?"

Clerk: "Look, we were all warned. However, no one did anything to stop the enemy. This hotel will now house the new army that is taking over. You had better leave while you can. We are all leaving now."

I could see that she was panicking. I left the lobby and began to walk away from the area. I then ran into an old acquaintance.

Acquaintance: "Erin, come and see some of your family that are still around here. Some of them still live in the same old home."

Me: "Okay, I will."

She then proceeded to take me to a place that I had not been to in around twenty years or more. I saw my brothers and their families there. They seemed oblivious to what was happening all around them. They were in the process of relocating their household to another area.

Me: "Where are you moving to?"

My Older Brother: "Away from the coastline. We are heading up to the mountains. Since we have the room there, why don't you come along with us? We will have enough power, sewer and supplies there until all of this blows over."

Me: "Okay, we will go."

We then heard a very loud announcement on the park's speaker system.

Park Announcement: "The Marriott's Great America is now permanently closed."

There was a bright light in the sky followed by some fireworks. All of the horizon then went dark. I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "An Exam for thee, an Exam not for thee" begins…

I was late for a final exam at a prestigious university. I was in my car, but having a hard time finding a parking spot. I then realized that almost all of the cars were abandoned and hollowed out. They had been stripped of all value.

I decided not to park in the lot. I found a utility vehicle road and parked there. After I parked, I rushed off to my exam room. When I arrived at the door of the exam, the door was already locked. I looked at the time. I had missed the exam window by just one minute. Before I could leave, I saw the proctor rush over to unlock the door…

Me: "Please let me finish the test. I studied."

Proctor: "Okay. However, you must promise to complete the exam at the appointed time. Do you have a pencil?"

Me: "No, I only have a pen."

Proctor: "Well, then, that says confidence. Come on in. Do not disturb the others."

I nodded in agreement. I was surprised to see only half of our class there. There were about forty people there taking the exam. I sat down and began the test. The questions were extremely easy and really dumb. They even had one question that asked what 1 plus 2 was. I went to turn in my completed exam after only twenty minutes.

Proctor: "Wow, impressive."

I then turned to leave the room.

Proctor: "Hey, wait a minute… I accidentally gave you the test meant only for certain members of the class, a different demographic than you. In other words, I gave you the wrong test."

Me: I sighed in discouragement. "Okay, but I will now have twenty minutes less time to complete this exam."

Proctor: "I will give you extra time."

She had a smug look on her face as she knew I would struggle with this different exam. I took the test and walked back to my seat to begin. I flipped over the page. When I scanned the questions, my mouth opened in shock. There were questions there impossible for me to know. This wasn't even class material being tested. I knew I was in big trouble here. (Like quantum physics)

I took some deep breaths and prayed. Suddenly, the answers were now written in light, a type of illuminated script. This light was on the paper, yet floated above it at the same time. Hard to describe. When I ran my fingers over the answers as I read them, the illuminated answers turned to ink and in my handwriting. I finished the entire test in around ten minutes. I went over to the proctor to turn it in.

Proctor: In complete shock. "Oh, wow! Please… wait just a minute…"

She got up and went out into the hallway. I could overhear her speaking to a couple of security guards.

Proctor: "Okay, she's one of them. We got her."

I then saw them turn to come back in the room. Before they could see me, a bright light flashed. I was suddenly in my car outside leaving the campus. I was safe.

Sub-dream 2 over.

The other dreams I have had have a consistent theme. I am doing normal business with store owners who fail to see that half of their businesses has been blown up. They are then in a state of shock when I point this out and they still refuse to see it. The stores I have seen in these dreams include grocery stores, gas stations and other retail places. It is always so sad to see.

Oh Father, I have been quiet lately. I don't have much to say right now. Things are not going well for me. I have done everything You have instructed me to do. I am so very sad. I feel like my candle is burning out. We are struggling here, Father. We are not just struggling financially, but also in other ways.

I am waiting for something that still has not come. Even so, everything You have instructed me to do has come in full faith. These times now are so scary. I won't make it as I am right now. Oh Father, we won't make it without You. Please grant us not just a trimmed wick, but a new wick with a fresh flame. All of our hopes are in You alone.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Then this is all you need. I am all you need, Erin. I am with you. I love you."

Me: "Lord, America is about to fall. Please help us. Please stop all of this."

Jesus: "I have allowed this visible corruption for all to see. Evil now advances out in the open. An army of men who hate America now advances. These men were taught to hate America and the people there from the beginning. The enemy has plans to destroy all things. Hate has increased and so too has all evil in full display. There is no good news reported on because this is a war strategy. Now, think about this… 'The Audacity of Hope'."

Me: "This was the title of a book written by a former President."

Jesus: "Yes. However, he seeks to increase audacity and remove all hope. It was based on a lie and also a dig to God. Audacity is a double-minded word. Now, you have lost hope in your plans or what you thought My plans are."

Definition of Audacity: 1. A willingness to take bold risks. 2. Rude or disrespectful behavior; impudence.

Me: "Yes, Lord, I have. I just want to be here to be a part of everything. I have come so far. This is an impossible part of my journey unless you take it."

Jesus: "So, are you giving this to Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. We are in trouble here, Lord. Unless You step in, we will have limited choices. How will I afford the medical bills? They bankrupted me in 2012."

Jesus: "You will not be bankrupt. I will care for you. I offer you great benefits, vacation and a full medical and dental plan. I have not pulled My favor from you. I will not stop now. Can you hang in there with Me a little longer here? You have acted on full faith. You have pursued Me and have given your plans to Me.

"However, you are now sad because of the unknown. You are sad because you have 'hope deferred'. However, My blessings for you and your house are not deferred. Have you thought about each thing, each event, though tragic to many, has benefited you and is for your good? Will you be patient a little longer?"

Me: "From our perspective, all of this is taking such a very long time. We are all growing older. My child-like ways are disappearing. My joyful skip and delight in little things seem to have left me."

Jesus: "Erin, how long have you been at this with Me?"

Me: "Well, I am going on 12 years."

Jesus: "Hmm… I have been at this for thousands of years. You are here at the time of the end, the time when you are witnessing all that is good now fading fast. However, this is different. Why? Because I am here with you. All that you are going through is so that My glory will be visible through you.

"Erin, not your will be done, but My Will be done in you. Just because you don't see Me working doesn't mean I have stopped. I have not stopped nor will I stop. I will continue to bless you. Erin, you are Mine. Now, remember this… I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if you were told."

Me: "That is happening now with the evil."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, but I have not yet moved in My miracles in the ways you all are waiting for. I am not dead. Erin, I live. Now, I know you have few words right now. However, I will send you signs, wonders and miracles that cannot be refuted. Your joy will soon return. Allow Me to carry you on this portion of your journey. Erin, I promise to keep you close to My heart and under My care. Now, will you surrender yourself to My arms?"

Me: "Oh yes, Lord. I miss when I was in toddler form in the beginning of these dreams, I would lay my head on Your shoulder. This was in a heavenly place, a place where the sun was warm and the atmosphere was clear like crystal and vibrant with intensity. I smelled Your garments and touched Your curls. I then slept in the safety of You, my Savior. I was at peace. Oh Lord, there is truly no other place that I would rather be."

Jesus: "Well, then this is settled. I love you, Erin. I am with you and you are with Me. You are loved."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-773/

773 – Great Hope in the Midst of the Darkness

Received on Sunday, January 28, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It seems as if each day is now a divine mystery. People are growing colder. Even when you smile at someone these days, they look away instead of smiling back. Isaiah 60:2 rings loudly in truth:'See, darkness covers the Earth and thick darkness is over the peoples.' Darkness has descended upon the Earth.

I watch for goodness around me daily and now there are days in which seeing anyone being kind or thoughtful is very rare. It is my gauge or measure to test time. Father, are we on Your calendar? I am weary. My candle is at low levels. My bright outlook I had just a few short months ago has faded. Emails I receive from friends asking for prayers are so many, so urgent and so sad.

Daniel 7:25: "He shall speak words against the Most High and shall wear out the saints of the Most High and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times and half a time."

Daniel 12:7: "And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the water of the stream; he raised his right hand and his left hand toward Heaven and swore by Him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times and half a time and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things would be finished."

Father, define shattering… sigh. How bad will all this become? Please have mercy on Your people. All of us are experiencing attacks and these are relentless. We are under attack here, as are our children. Each is experiencing impossible situations where they are and I have no answers. Each one of my children have said, 'When are God's promises coming, mom?'

The only word I have is this, 'His promises are true and they will come at the Appointed Time.' I then come privately to You, Father, and ask, 'When?' My sons are particularly disappointed with their lives right now. They feel defeated with their hopes deferred. Father, You are a mystery.

There are wars happening against Your people all over the world. We are overtaxed. We are silenced by insane people. We are attacked physically or harassed. Our properties are damaged and items are stolen. We are told to stand down when we see crimes committed like shoplifting or looting. We are constantly securing our bank accounts, our social media, our websites, our email accounts and even our phones. Hackers are everywhere now. Then there is Artificial Intelligence (AI) that can now impersonate others.

Then there is bullying. My daughter has had several people block her for no reason other than she has a Christian Podcast. She is losing momentum and she feels her Podcast is about to die out. Many of the Christian artists liked her Podcast privately, but not publicly to share it with others. She has worked so hard on all of this. Well, Father, now all things are up to You.

Then there is my husband. While his sales have been moderate, the owner has hostility towards him. To work for someone who truly hates you and wants you gone every single day… well, after a while, it is difficult to keep your chin up.

On the positive side, we finally received the payment from the insurance company to pay off the balance of our stolen car to the bank. However, we have decided not to purchase another car. Although it will be a challenge, we are going to work with what we have.

The car theft took a lot from me personally. I have fear leaving the car to go into the store for groceries or other errands. We purchased a steering wheel bar / club that makes me feel better that I have done all that I can do.

I remember as a child, our home in California was broken into so many times. While we never had anything of real value, thieves took anything we did have, especially electronics. I remember the unsafe feeling of having anything new or special. Someone was always there to take it. This robbed you of any joy and created fear.

With me, OCD kicked in. This was a hidden demon that would resurface when I had no control over my situation. Bringing order in behavioral patterns seemed to create the illusion that you are able to control the chaos. When I had nothing to obsess about, arrange or rearrange, I then began to punish my body by denying myself food and increasing my exercise. This all happened later in life… in my early 20s and all came to a head when I spent six weeks in the Meadows Psychiatric Center – Eating Disorder Wing. This changed my life as I learned about surrender.

Thankfully, my mom moved us out of California to a safer place when I was a teen. This was a place where we didn't even need a lock on the front door.

For many years, my new friends in this safe Northern Idaho town called me paranoid. I still took so many precautions to guard my bike, purse, car and on and on even when I knew I didn't really need to. I grew up in an environment that shaped me to be hyperaware of activity around me. It was not always healthy. This was truly a demon playground of affliction daily. This finally left when I became a Christian.

While troubles still came, I felt safe being in My Father's arms. This is the best place to be. As for the troubles today, they come from all directions. These are wars waged against the children of God unlike any other war. We have been under attack for some time now. However, the attacks have now increased even more.

Laws are being changed and not conformed to. There is no justice in the courts. The USA Constitution is dying. The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms are being trampled. The Bible is being condemned. The Word of God is being labelled as hateful. We are being robbed of our freedoms, our liberties and our values daily. Darkness is descending.

The Bible is forbidden in certain countries, including Saudi Arabia, Afghanistan, Libya, Maldives, Morocco, Somalia and Yemen. It is censored in China and certain versions in Russia. Shockingly, it is forbidden in the USA military and in USA schools. This is from Wikipedia and has not been updated because even Canada and other European countries have deemed certain Bible verses to be offensive.

I had some interesting dreams last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Darkness on a path is replaced by light" begins…

I was walking along a dimly lit path. It was a dangerous one. I knew that there were people along this road that hated me just on my appearance. As I walked faster, the atmosphere became thick and heavy. Darkness was all around me. I could hear distant screams. I decided to stop walking as I was worried about stumbling in the darkness. I sat down and closed my eyes.

Surprisingly, there was more light when my eyes were closed than when my eyes were wide open. However, it was now becoming harder to breathe. I cried out to God as I could feel so much evil that my body could not take the overwhelming presence of hate. I then saw a pinhole of light. The light then became larger and larger. I then saw an angel of the Lord in stunning bright white. He reached out his hand and I took it. We were suddenly in the light of Heaven. Tears were now streaming down my cheeks.

Angel: "Erin, I have a message for you from God. Darkness will accelerate, but do not be discouraged. Glory will fall upon the nations and expose the darkness and all that is lurking there into the light. All will be changed in an instant and all will know that the Lord is the Great I AM. While it will seem hopeless and dark at first, hope will then be restored in an instant and joy will replace tears.

"Now, you worry about many things. Give these over to God. He promises to restore all you have lost and heal you in an instant. This will be a moment that is undefined by a clock and will mark you as His. What seems like a mystery right now will suddenly be known."

Me: "I don't fully understand."

Angel: "You will. Now live, Erin, and praise God from the heights and even the depths as He is with you. You and others will soon be used for His purposes under Heaven."

A bright light then flashed. I was now on a bright pathway. It was so beautiful. There was no darkness.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "A Day Trader sees Doom" begins…

This was about a former roommate of my daughter's. In this dream, this roommate was a day trader of penny stocks. She had two legal sized folders with notes written all over them. I came over to speak with her.

Me: "What are you up to right now?"

Roommate: "The market is about to crash in the 6th to the 9th months. It is a leap year. It will be a bloodbath."

Me: "What do you mean?"

She flipped over her legal file and there were notes…

Roommate: "The Great Fall is coming! I just wasted years of my life studying this. All of this will happen somewhere in around a three-month window. It is all there. Look, it is all right there."

Me: "Are you okay? Do you need sleep?"

Roommate: "No. I get an extra day this year as it is a leap year." She opened her legal folder. "Look, I found out all of this. All of this is just a façade. There is no financial backing. There is no treasury. It has been drained to overseas markets. They believe there will be a shift in power. They will correct the shift and size and silence all who rise against them."

My husband then came into the room and walked over to us. He had overheard the last part of the conversation.

Husband: "How could you possibly know all of this?"

Roommate: "Statistics and insider information. War and blood come when they realize they cannot win. Somewhere between the 6th month and the 9th month. They have planned to destroy the USA and Canada. God confirmed it right here. Then there is the Last Trump."

While she then showed us a Scripture, I could not make it out.

Me: "Are you okay?"

Roommate: "I am tired now. I am going to sleep. I have to wake up soon to trade again. I am a day trader of penny stocks. Did you know it is a leap year, a crash year, and that the pennies have been cancelled?"

She was delirious and suddenly fell asleep. My husband reached over to look through her folder.

Husband: "Wow, she seems legit. This is real information. I don't know where she got it from though. Regardless, she really needed to sleep."

Just then, my daughter came in.

Me: "What is with your roommate?"

My daughter: "We have been praying for her for days now. She is afraid to leave the apartment. This is the first time in days that she has actually slept. We don't know anything she is talking about. She must have been excited that you were listening to her. It was over our heads."

Sub-dream 2 over.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. At times, these dreams give you more questions than answers. Now, why didn't you write the third dream."

Me: "Sorry, Lord, it was because it was so strange…

Sub-dream 3 "Million dollars of jewelry for $31.50" begins…

My husband and I were invited out west to a friend's jewelry store called DeValued Diamonds. His friend was a dealer of diamonds in the diamond district of New York. Something happened and the entire district had relocated to Portland OR. When we arrived at his opening, it was chaotic. Diamonds were hanging in mass quantities on cheap dime store racks, along with other designer brands.

There were glass cases containing famous celebrity jewelry. Each invitee had two hostesses to shop with. As I walked with them, they assembled a clothes bag of items and didn't stop to discuss what they had placed in the blue satin cloth bag. While the bag was full, I wasn't really interested. I was scared of what the final price would be. I estimated it would be around a million dollars using today's market pricing.

Hostess: "Okay, so, the total for all of these items is $31.50."

Me: "$31.50? But these are priceless?"

Hostess: "These do not hold the same value anymore. Enjoy."

My husband gave them $40 and told them to keep the change for a tip.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Jesus: "Hmm, that was interesting."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but what does it mean? Bread will cost more than diamonds."

Jesus: "It means that things that were once important will very soon not have any real value in comparison to today's market prices."

Me: "Oh, wow, this happens in times of war!"

Jesus: "Remember that I am over all things. There are plans in place to steal and rob the people of their will. They have tried to cause division by skin color and religion. They have tried to control the news with lies. They have tried to steal children and kill babies. They have lied. They know the people hate them. They are corrupt and evil.

"While there is so much you do not know, all will soon be exposed. All that they have planned for evil will be reversed and turned upon them. They will be bound by their set rules and corruption while the children of God are free to walk about and live in the wide open. Their teeth will gnash at this.

"They will also curse and plot even though they will live in great fear and hiding. My Glory will then be on full display until it is removed. Now, I know you worry about many things. However, do not. Keep your head up. Erin, I am with you. Now, 31 is a good number and quite remarkable."

Me: "Oh Lord, You are such a mystery. Thank You for keeping us safe. Thank You for these mysterious dreams."

Jesus: "Focus on the Good News that I bring. The dream of an angel of God is hope in the midst of the darkness and a sure message. I am with you. Do not be disheartened. I have you."

Dream over.

774 – Haunted Houses and Ghosts are Real

Received on Monday, January 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for always going before us and showing Yourself faithful in all things. You truly are our Miracle Worker and my Best Friend.

My youngest son has been out west and travelled so far to see this young woman who has his heart. He was there three full days plus one travel day there and one travel day back. Problems arose almost immediately when she revealed she suddenly supposedly had to work while he was there to visit her. They met only briefly and my son walked around town and spent some time with her instead on Saturday.

They went to a big convention in Tacoma WA and had a really fun day. They parted ways around 10:00 pm and she ghosted him after that. He told me he was a complete gentleman and never even kissed her. He said it was clear after more than a year of her pursuing him that she was now not interested in him because now he was interested in her. He called her a few times, but she kept hanging up on him.

She had told him she worked Sunday so that she would not be able to see him. He waited and then asked me what he should do. He had at least wanted to say goodbye to her. He then went to her work to say goodbye, but then discovered that she was not working at all. She had lied to him. He phoned again for my advice. My advice was for him to go back to his hotel and pray.

This was so odd as she was the one that had invited him there to Tacoma WA to spend time together. While they were supposed to spend a lot of time together and meet her family and everything fell through. I then questioned my son thinking that he did something accidentally. From their communication, he did nothing wrong. After he read all of their communications to me, he felt he should apologize even though he doesn’t know what he did.

Father, You told us that this girl has a divided heart and that she is double-minded. She is a non-believer, so maybe her demons picked up that my son is Yours. As the hours passed last night here, which is in the afternoon there, my son was now on the phone distraught. He then started an extreme fast and had now gone to his knees. He struggled with the Words You gave him and worried that You were not with him.

You promised to go before him and prepare his way. You were to bless him. However, he felt that he was not experiencing this blessing from You. I explained that sometimes the blessing is not what we pray for or believe God will do for us. We often assume that our will for our blessing is also God's Will. I explained this to my son as follows…

Me: "Let's say that God said, 'Erin, today I will bless you abundantly!' Let's say that I then go out and purchase a lottery ticket thinking that what God really meant was that He would bless me with a winning lottery ticket. I then, 'in faith', go out and purchase this lottery ticket. While of course God could make it a winning ticket, this particular ticket is not a winner. So, where was this blessing from God? Why?

"Well, it then turns out that the blessing was in me NOT winning as this was not His Will for me. However, because I was so focused on this one thing, this faith 'Hail Mary' long shot, I failed to see all of the other small, wonderful things prepared for me by my Father, God.

"Well, this could be because your friend is not the Lord's yet. Maybe she is not what God has planned for you, at least for now. Right now, this young woman is not a believer. Because of this, the enemy then used her to afflict you. You know the enemy is at play when the actions of the person are confusing. There is no logic to the attack. This left you questioning God's ability and your faith in Him."

After hearing this, my son agreed with all that I had just said. I then prayed for him for breakthrough. After this, he spent hours praying to the Lord on his knees. This in addition to his fast commencing. Well, when I woke up this morning, there were two texts from him. The texts reflected a complete change of heart. He was now at peace. I 'hearted' his texts. He then asked if he could call me.

I phoned him right away and he said something happened to him halfway through his prayers. He said he felt the presence of God fall over him. He knew at that moment, no matter what, God was with him and He had control over all things. He said, 'God is faithful, He knows what's best, so I will give everything to Him!' We then made a plan for him to get to the airport early for check in so he wasn't stuck in Seattle WA's Monday morning rush hour.

This was amazing! Father, thank You for this miracle. My son declared to me that You blessed him and that it was a great trip! 'No matter what, this trip was God's!' Oh Father, thank You for all of this. I pray that his trip home goes well and You will get him home safely today. I pick him up at Midnight tonight.

I had a very clear and graphic dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Huge Terror Attacks in Las Vegas" begins…

I was staying with my family at a very large resort hotel out west. Based on the size of it, I believe it was a casino in Las Vegas. Our room was a beautiful suite with five rooms. We were set up to stay one week. Two things were worth noting:

- Our children now seemed the same age as my husband and me.
- My stepfather was also there, but staying in a different room.

Note: My stepfather was much more of a father to me than my biological father ever was. He committed suicide when I was twelve years old. It is important to note that I did not communicate with him at any time in this dream. He never said anything either. He would just come out of his room every now and then and check in on us. I can't recall having anything quite like this happen in any of my other dreams. So, I was not conversing with the dead!

When I looked over at my younger son, he was caring for four adult birds. Each one was a variety that I had never seen before. They were nesting in his room. Each bird had hatched two babies… one medium bird and one mini-bird. They felt safe in his care. A few days into our stay, we received a knock on the door from the manager…

Manager: "You need to vacate the hotel immediately. While there is a fast-moving fire, the fire alarms were disabled by some evil people."

My husband and I gathered up everyone and exited the building. We could smell smoke, but only lightly. We soon reached ground level…

Me: "Oh no, I have to run upstairs to get something." Everyone protested. "Look, the smoke is still light. I will hurry."

Note: In the following part, I am approached by the children's grandma. This woman is my ex-mother-in-law and the mother to my greatest enemy. Her being friendly to me would be a miracle in itself.

They went out the door. Just then, I was approached by the children's grandma.

Grandma: "Erin, you need to hurry!"

Just as I was trying to find my way, I noticed there were whole areas where people had no idea that the Casino Resort was on fire. There were char-burned bodies everywhere. They were dropping from an atrium area. Despite this, many people were simply ignoring the bodies. I got to my room and retrieved what we needed.

I then checked on my stepdad's room. The door was open and he was gone. The little birds were gone as well. I made it out with some items in a small shopping cart or something like it that I was wheeling. I called out to Grandma as the power was now out in the hotel. I saw her in a utilities area near the back of the hotel…

Me: "Okay, I have what I needed to retrieve. Let's get out of here."

Grandma: "Oh good, I was hoping you would make it." She then pointed to the roadside. "Look, there are so many bodies everywhere now."

Me: "What about my husband and the kids? Are they safe?"

Grandma: "Do not worry. They are all safe. This was a terror attack. They hit several areas."

I looked around and there were now three resorts burning. The smoke from the fires rose up as columns reaching high up into the sky. The lights from the Las Vegas Strip then illuminated these ominous columns. It was an eerie sight to see. I woke up when a burning body fell right next to us.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Me: "Oh Father, what a night! This Las Vegas dream seemed so prophetic. Thank You for all You have done for my younger son. Please get him home safely."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your children. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, I needed to witness the good work You are doing. You have shown me the child-like faith of my younger son. I cannot believe how amazing and wonderful it is to see. I needed this."

Jesus: "Yes, you did. Erin, all you said to your son was true. The enemy used his friend to remove his faith, turn him away from Me and you and drain his resources. However, what the enemy planned for evil, I turned to good. Your son experienced My presence as I came to him in power while he prayed. I gave him perfect peace and full knowing in faith that I am God over him."

Me: "Lord, not many people experience this their whole Christian walk, yet my son has now completely changed."

Jesus: "You are correct and this is something you must believe Me for. You understand this feeling as I am with you, but you are now seeing the fruits of your labored prayers. He fasts and he prays. He believes in Me for the miracle. He knocks and he receives.

"Now, the enemy had hoped that your son would have sinned. However, I sent angels ahead to remove this strategy. The next strategy of the enemy was for your son to be crushed and turn away from Me. However, instead of losing faith and turning away from Me, your son instead ran to Me. I found him there and I am with him.

"Now, this young woman has demons. These demons struck out against your son and removed her so she would not be in My presence. I allowed this so that your son would experience more of My power. While he does not understand this now, he won a great battle here. I gave him a great victory over an enemy assignment.

"Now, your son will not go again as he is now. However, he will see her again under different circumstances. However, he should not go again until I call all of you there together. It will then be much different. Pray and I will make a way for the young woman. She will then turn to Me because of your son and all will change for her. However, your son will then have a different focus and so much joy."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, your son does not need to worry. I will provide for him. He must continue to work and do good and press into Me and I will bless him. This is a promise. I am pleased with his faith. One day soon, he will pray for you, Erin, and you will be healed by the strength of his faith in Me."

Me: "Do I not have this faith, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes, of course you do. However, where two or more are gathered, I am not only there, but I hear, and, by your faith, I answer your call. I have a great plan here. Remember that I have great arrows in My quiver concerning your family.

"Now, your son must focus on Me. I will grant him a new purpose and focus. He will turn heads and he will have his head turned to Me. With his attention away from this young woman, she will then turn back to your son."

Me: "Okay, I see. So, You have something planned for my son. Will this young woman contact my son?"

Jesus: "She feels guilty as she was unkind to him. While he should be a friend, he should not be trapped by her. The demons around her play games and use her to harm your son. This is frustrating to your son and he should not be lured into their games. Instead, pray for her to activate angels over her. This is a better strategy. Your son will then live in great peace and joy.

"Now, this dream… do not worry as I am not sending you to Sin City. However, it is also a warning for the lost. The country will come under attack. Those who are oblivious to these things, but especially Christians who sit in judgement, might find themselves in trouble also. Many who claim to be children of God act as judge, jury and even call out the verdict guilty. They then call many as guilty by association.

"Many would not even recognize Me if I were standing right next to them. Judgment is coming to the land. In your dream, there were those who heeded the warning to vacate. I then sent you back in and you observed those oblivious to those dead and burning right in front of them. People still continued to live for themselves. You then ran to check on your dead stepfather."

Me: "Yes. Lord, why was he even there?"

Jesus: "The demons that haunted your stepfather are now like disembodied spirits who wander. I speak of this in My Word. Your stepfather was a violent man. He was tormented by demons and he hung himself. He heard voices. In My Word, I cast violent demons out of two possessed men. This is what the demons said, 'If You are going to cast us out, send us to the herd of pigs.'

"I therefore did and they came out of the bodies they were occupying and went into the pigs. The entire herd of pigs then went off a steep bank and into the sea and drowned. The disembodied spirits then search for a new home. A ghost is therefore an evil spirit who wanders. When you hear of a 'haunted house', this is actually a place where a person or people died suddenly or violently by the hands of another.

"Even though many of the victims are then taken up to Heaven, because this was a violent death at the hands of another, the demons surrounding the evil act are bound to afflict that homeowner, along with all of the generations who follow after. These spirits mimic the events and the people involved and they are trapped or imprisoned in this place until the generational curse is broken.

"When people remained in the same dwelling, these occurrences worked to point directly to the issue and a reminder to turn back to God to break these curses. Erin, darkness that originates from the past can affect the present."

Me: "Okay, so, ghosts are disembodied evil spirits or demons who, when the people died, were mimicking the dead and reenacting the scene of the crime to afflict the homeowner and subsequent generations who live in the home. Are these therefore wandering demons with no permission to repossess from You, so they are stuck in certain areas of some of these homes?"

Jesus: "Well, you are somewhat correct. Remember that the demons who were driven out of the men had no place to go. As a result of this, they asked to go into the pigs instead."

Me: "Okay, so, where did they go when the pigs drowned in the sea? Did they go into some sharks? Whales? Fish?"

Jesus: "A mystery for now, Erin. Remember though that your prayers route demons to go here or there. This is a gift. Now, about your stepdad being in your dream. He committed suicide even though I had a plan for him. His demons then no longer had a host after he committed suicide."

Me: "Our home was haunted! It wasn't our imagination after all. I knew it, Lord!"

Jesus: "Erin, if he had not taken his own life, he had planned to kill all of you. However, this was not My plan. His demons were then set free from your home when your mother took his ashes to the sea a year after his death. Your home was then no longer afflicted. I then moved all of you. However, a generational curse had fallen on your youngest brother."

Me: "Oh Lord, please remove this in Your Name, in Jesus' Mighty Name!"

Jesus: "I will and I will do a great work when doing so. Now, the dream was that this spirit had no host to enter. The demon was unable to find a place in any of you."

Me: "That was such an odd dream."

Jesus: "While you went back to save him, he was not there. All who you could save from the fire decided to either stay until they burned even with evidence to that end or who were taken from there before it. In the dream, there were burning columns of black smoke. It had a stench of sin and was a signpost warning. There were three pillars of fire and smoke at night. Even so, they still did not turn to be saved."

Me: "That was such a sad dream."

Jesus: "It was actually a good dream and a warning to the lost. The sons of perdition are planning great evil against the people of the nations. Still, I tell you the truth… those who remain will bow down before Me and confess. Your ex-mother-in-law will have a changed heart. She will feel guilty for all she said and did to hurt you. This is good. Your son will save the least of these and care for them. They will avoid the fire."

Me: "Oh, was this represented by the birds he was caring for in this dream."

Jesus: "Yes. However, I have blessings for each of you. Do not worry. Now enjoy the day. I am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-775/

775 – Once Someone Dies, They Are No Longer Here

Received on Tuesday, January 30, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for bringing my younger son home safely. Bless You, Father, in all things. I am thankful for all You have done in my life. I realize that I have been a difficult child at times… well, a lot of the time. I love You. No matter what You do with me, no matter my finishing length of Your race and no matter Your path for me, I will praise You in all things.

I know who I am and I am small. My life is a tiny pearl of a drop in a massive vast ocean made by Your Words. You spoke this into being. You are my Father who shaped my life and I pray that I remain useful for Your purposes. This brings me to my surgery. My surgery, a Nephrectomy (nephro = kidney, ectomy = removal), is scheduled for Thursday, March 7, 2024.

Prior to this, I have a procedure called a cystoscopy. This is so the doctor can detect bladder cancer. It is basically to see if the cancer has spread. Based on the size and composition of the mass, the odds are against me. Oh Father, I still cling to the visions and dreams You gave to me many years ago. I cling to these in the hopes that my healing miracles are coming.

Each day now seems to be in slow motion. The doctors have prepared me for what I will not be able to do after this for about a couple of months, with lifting being the main activity to avoid. I will work to have the house cleaned and organized beforehand so that I can rest and recover. However, I am still praying for a healing miracle to make it so that I do not need the surgery. I want this cancer to simply vanish, never to return.

While I had several dreams last night, this is the only one that I could recall…

Sub-dream 1 "The Five Demons that Harass" begins…

I saw a certain man who had lived a simple life. He went to church every now and then. He was in his 20s. He worked two jobs: one at a hardware store and the other cutting firewood for side money. While he had friends, he was lonely. While he was unaware of this, he lived with some demons.

His parents had been killed in an auto accident by a drunk driver when he was around 12 years old. The man who did this to them was set free with parole. However, true recompense or justice was never served. I saw into the spirit realm around him. I could see the five demons that lived with him harassing him day and night…

- One wanted him to drink to feel better.
- One wanted him to drive after drinking.
- One called for him to just end his life.
- The other two mimicked his parents and called out to him for justice and to avenge their deaths.

Every now and then, the last two demons would manifest by copying his deceased parent's voices in another room or they would leave something where he knew he hadn't set it out. The young man didn't know what to do because people would think he was crazy if he talked about it.

While I watched these demons constantly torment this young man, I did not fully understand why. Each day, he woke up with the same routine. The alarm would go off and he would rise. This one morning, he sat up in bed and said his thoughts out loud…

Young man: "Lord, no one cares if I live or die. I am lonely and tormented day and night. I am mad at You. You left me. I live with ghosts in my head. Help me."

I then saw into the spirit realm that these demons were dancing with glee until he asked for the Lord's help. The attacks then became worse. The young man phoned in sick to work. He had planned to drop off a cord of wood to a family in need down the road. He decided to phone them and say he would be unable to make it today. He then thought about ending his life.

Young man: "God, do You even hear me?"

Just then, a flash of light flooded the room. I saw Jesus reach out and hug the young man. I then saw the Lord command the demons to flee this young man. Although they protested, Jesus said, 'Off of this property and off of all the works of this man's life!' They screeched as they fled.

I could not see where they went to, but I knew they were 100% under God's Authority. While I then saw Jesus speaking to the young man, I could not hear what was being said. I then saw something like chains, but spiritual chains. These chains that had shackled the young man simply faded away completely. He was now healed. Our front door then shut suddenly and woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Father, this was interesting. Where did these demons go? If You routed them, then I am sure they had no choice but to go."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. You are also discouraged and tired. Do not allow the enemy a foothold."

Me: "Lord, how many of these demons are around us and how do we deal with them. These are things that dwell in a realm we cannot see. We are veiled."

Jesus: "As I am God, I do not answer to demons. I have all authority over them and over the realms of the seen and unseen. In the same way, I am also over all things in Heaven, the heavens, the Earth and even below. This is because My Father in Heaven has given Me all authority. This means that you, as a child of God, must come to Me to seek Me with your whole heart.

"Erin, I hear you. I assign angels concerning you in all you do. Nothing… neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor even past, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature… shall be able to separate you from Me, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "There is an order to all things by My Authority. Even now, when you see disorder and lawlessness, injustice and evil of every kind, this too is by My Authority to allow such things. However, those who cannot see in the unseen realm know that a time comes very soon when My patience comes to a close concerning them and the Courts upon Heaven and the Earth will be open day and night and justice will be fair and swift.

"Now, let Me review something… and even remember by My Words when I appeared in the flesh… I did not come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. So then, whoever shall break the least of these commandments and teach others to do the same will be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven. However, whoever shall keep the Laws and Commandments and teaches these, he will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. Erin, what am I saying here?"

Me: "Are we to go back to Leviticus?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, among other Words of old. This is because I am the Word. All that was old can still be made new and can be applied to your daily lives. Now, there are important instructions concerning bridges to the unseen realm."

I went to Leviticus 19:26. You must not eat something with the blood in it. You must not try to tell the future by signs or black magic. 19:31… Do not go to mediums or fortunetellers for advice or you will become unclean. Then there are multiple verses about touching a dead body and unclean spirits.

Jesus: "Erin, you are wise to obey these Laws."

Me: "Lord, my grandma and I were very close. She taught me about cleaning, organizing and personal grooming. She worked her fingers to the bone in all that she did. She was obsessive and worried. She never seemed to have peace. Her funeral was an open casket. She died shortly after my stepdad did. I remember touching her dead body and crying. I had nightmares after this for many years. Did I take her demons? Were they transferred?"

Jesus: "You don't have a possessed body. However, yes, you became a host for a few back then because you were open as the eldest grandchild. There is a period of time when the demons of one host no longer can shift to another. Again, this is a Law that is wise to study. When you have questions about My Word and relevance, you only have to go to the root to discover why this was written to begin with. This is why Enoch's writing was also of note.

"As the angels who fell had fear of God, so they sought out Enoch as a type of medium to intercede for them. This is forbidden as angels are an order of God's Creation to police the unseen and the seen realms. They are appointed for the assignments of God and are not subject to man nor are they to converse with man other than to do the Will of God who sent and appointed them, understand?

"Then these angels acted as disembodied spirits and were unable to return to Heaven. They had fallen. When they did not like their position, they thought that the women of the Earth were pleasing. They then took them for themselves. Even so, they still thought they could return if they could be heard by God.

"They saw that Enoch was with God and decided he could plead their case. However, this was a matter that changed the course of things since they had now broke the final covenant for angels and their orders."

Me: "So, bottom line… don't touch the dead, don't converse with the dead or pray or declare to the dead. These are a different order now than the living, right?"

Jesus: "Well, here is the bottom line… those who have died are elsewhere… I have them where they will be. They are no longer amongst the living. What remains is an unclean spirit disembodied or unassigned… essentially, he is unemployed and needs a new job."

Me: "Oh, that's easy to remember!"

Jesus: "This is why you will often hear that places of the dead are haunted, places like cemeteries or funeral parlors."

Me: "What about insane asylums?"

Jesus: "While this is a whole different discussion, yes, these too are filled with tormented spirits. Let's return to this another day. Now, mediums… people flock to them because they claim to hear from the dead and they then become a verbal communique for dead people.

"However, let me be very clear here… the demons impersonate loved ones, but are never the loved ones. These demons are experts at mimicking tragic events. They even use mediums to speak in the voice of the dead with 20% accuracy."

Me: "Only 20%?"

Jesus: "The unseen realm is under My order and, by My order, their words are confusing. However, people who are willing participants in seances and meetings of the dead are easily led astray and so too their pocketbooks. This with just 20% accuracy.

"However, the next trend planned by the unseen realm is more accurate. This is allowed by Me. Many who claim they are Mine and many who are looking for answered prayers or miracles will also soon go to this master of illusion."

Me: "Are You speaking about Artificial Intelligence?"

Jesus: "Yes. So many will participate willingly or even unaware. Now, be careful as these are perilous times."

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for all of this."

Jesus: "Just ask. I am here. Also, for those who have participated in these practices, these are an abomination to Me as to Me there are no strangers, no outcasts, nothing lost, no orphans, no widows, understand? I am God and I know where the heart of each man is. I know when he comes, when he goes and who he worships."

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you. Your heart is on Me."

Dream over.

776 – Even More Lessons on the Unseen Realm

Received on Wednesday, January 31, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another blessing of a day! It is beautifully sunny, but extremely cold out. My days are filled now with phone calls and tasks to finalize. It has been exhausting and I mean really exhausting. I have had no quiet time just to worship and pray. I have been blessed to have dreams every night that usually take a couple of hours to write down as You call me back to a vision. It takes even longer with interruptions.

Oh Father, please grant me strength. I don't want this next procedure nor the one after. I don't want chemo. I like my long, full, curly hair. It makes me smile and makes me feel like a kid again. It is the fun thing that You have blessed me with that requires next to zero maintenance. I guess having no hair at all would be very low maintenance too, but I don't want to find out.

With my mom, when her hair came back in after chemo, it was changed. It was never the same again. It did not grow the same. Even so, I know that I am not my hair. My hair does not define me. I have very little personally about my physical appearance that I am prideful about. However, I still like this body You gave me, Father. Forgive me for my flippant digs at certain parts of my being. While I wish my appearance was different in certain facets, forgive me for cursing myself.

Father, today was the first day in a very long time, maybe ever, that I went to my knees concerning myself. I did this to make a petition solely from me to You. I prayed for a miracle for myself. I had been on my knees many times before, sometimes for what seemed like hours, praying for my children, my family and/or my friends. However, I never really went to my knees specifically for me.

I think I always felt guilty praying for myself. I rant about things and write in these pages about stuff daily that I am going through. I pray for the pain from my neck to go away so that I can cook dinner or go run errands. I pray for a great parking spot at the market. My prayers here are pretty basic, such as, 'Lord, get me through the day so I can do this or that' or 'please help me with this or that' or 'we need a miracle for this or that'.

Well, I am not talking about this. I am instead engaging in a 'TED Talk' prayer with You, Father, about my situation here. This is about me. I am putting it all out there. I recited all the ways in which I go a different direction from what You have reminded me of. Things like not shaving off any hours from My Shabbat. This could mean me not resting or making lists of things I need to do for when that clock hand chimes 6:00pm and Shabbat is over.

It is like missing the last 15 minutes of a class lecture because you are so focused on the clock and what you need to do when you are out of there. God, I am sorry that I do this at times! I am so sorry! Thank You for giving me that excruciating pancreatic pain because, without it, the doctors would not have found this cancer. While You could have just healed it or never allowed it to begin with, it is Your Divine Will to allow all of this for Your Glory.

I had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Some Chimps Ruin a Cake Party" begins…

I was invited to a 'Monkey Cake Party'. The invitation told me to wear clothes that can get dirty. However, it said to not be late because the doors will close when the cooking begins. This was so weird. I then went to what looked like a warehouse district with brick buildings in a city that I did not recognize. I soon arrived at the party.

When I entered, everyone was preparing to bake cakes in a massive commercial kitchen. This was an island table made of stainless-steel. There were already baked cakes waiting for frosting. It was hectic. There were at least thirty attendees and some camera crews. As I put on my apron, I was approached by the party's hostess.

Hostess: "Hi, Erin. I am so glad you could come."

I was in shock as she did not look as I had expected. Instead, she looked like a mirror image of Betty White.

Me: "Are you…?"

Hostess: "I already know what you are about to say, it doesn't matter. As for today, I am Betty Crocker. Go on! Hurry! The monkey handlers will be unleashing the monkeys in an hour."

I walked over to the baking area and was instructed by the other guests to begin frosting the cakes. The cakes were beautiful and had pretty colors and decorations of flowers. Each cake also had a little monkey topper. There were twelve cakes in all, with four monkeys covering their eyes, four covering their ears and four covering their mouths.

Me: Laughing. "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil. That is so odd."

I then looked back over at the hostess. I noticed a young woman becoming aggressive with 'Betty' in an inappropriate way. Some guests removed the young woman off to the side. The bell then rang…

Betty: "It is time for the monkeys!"

There were twelve beautiful cakes now lined up on the stainless-steel island. A woman then came out with two chimpanzees. Another woman then brought out their baby in a party cap. The chimp parents were clapping as everything was going well. Then the other handlers brought in several varieties of primates. However, these unruly primates ended up ruining the party. The little baby was now crying as these others were destroying the cakes.

When the handlers tried to stop these primates, they became violent. They then turned on their handlers and the guests. There was screaming and people were chased and hit with cake and other projectiles. It was funny at first, then shocking and then terrifying to be a part of. I looked and saw the camera crew trying to film at first, but then having to turn to leave to assist Betty.

Betty was once again being harassed by the lesbian woman. I went over and scared the woman away. I then assisted Betty out of the building. I looked back and sharp objects had been flying. Blood was now everywhere. I awoke when a primate jumped on my back and I was suddenly jerked. It was scary.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I must have eaten something funny before bed. I went back to sleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "An Abomination at a Party" begins...

I was attending a celebrity party. At this party, they were sacrificing a young actress at an altar. They had cups at the base to collect the blood so they could drink it for their youth, beauty and strength. It was so disgusting that it is hard to even write about it.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, could You please send me dreams of Heaven instead? This was awful!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. First of all, I have received your prayer. Do not worry. Your miracles are coming."

Me: "I was hoping before the surgery, Lord, not after. I just received a call. My doctor moved up my appointment for a referral for the cancer screen of my bladder tomorrow. They are moving so quickly and I am in shock. Even though I think this is a miracle, I am scared. In the past, my medical treatment has been so slow. It was hurry and wait. As for now, they are going so fast. My sorrow is so great, Lord. I am working to stay busy so I don't think. Thinking is not my friend right now."

Jesus: "Then choose Me. Choose wisdom. Can you trust Me a bit longer?"

Me: I was both crying and laughing. "Yes, but define 'a bit'."

Jesus: Ignoring my query. "You manage to keep upbeat."

Me: "I am trying."

Jesus: "I know. Erin, I promise to carry you. Oh, and by the way, you had a God talk, not a TED talk. I was there. Now, I realize these words from Me haven't been easy."

Me: "These are good. I always have questions about the unseen realm."

Jesus: "You have learned about covenants and the importance of keeping your word. I have also spoken to you about the importance of letting your words be few. Do not swear by something or use a declaration as a vow. Also, let your 'no' be 'no' and your 'yes' be 'yes'."

Me: "The big word I would use that activated my testing was the word 'never'. Never say never. I have nightmares about this. I used to say, 'I am never late.' Well, wouldn't you know it, something would cause me to be late that very day. The worst was declaring I never lie. A situation would then happen and I turned into a liar to appease a client. Horrible stuff. I only started seeing the pattern after a few years of this. It was You, Lord. You are brilliant and I am thankful You convicted me."

Jesus: "This is how demons are routed to you. Words are powerful. Words activate in the seen and the unseen realms."

Me: "Show me how to route angels instead."

Jesus: "I route them for you. Your prayers activate events you cannot see. I order angels concerning you in all matters, especially now. This is because you have reached a low point in your journey."

Me: "Yes, it has been a very difficult last several months. Lord, I can't help but do my own personal inventory. I thank You for the trip to Bend OR. This trip was so relaxing. We then came back home to a bunch of changes. There was heartbreak and all went so quickly. We have now been in turbulence for so long. Will it let up or is it becoming worse, Lord? If You could just…"

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. I have a Great Plan."

Me: "I will stop asking, Lord. I am sorry."

Jesus: "It is okay to ask. Erin, never stop asking Me."

Me: "Never? Okay."

Jesus: "Now, about your first dream. It was a party that seemed fun. However, there were rowdy guests that turned on their trainers, the guests and destroyed all the good that was done. You are witnessing odd behaviors now in people. They refuse to use their common sense. They prefer to remain blind, deaf or speechless. They seem to be in shock over the state of things around them. They are numb to the hidden dangers surrounding them."

Me: "I have been like this. I am refusing to comprehend what is happening. I am mourning what once was just a few short months ago even."

Jesus: "This dream signified a different scenario. The cost to put together such an event, as well as a media crew for public display, shows that this is a wealthy group. They baked elaborate cakes for show. They then brought in monkeys to act like humans and eat their cake, to be a part of a celebration they weren't accustomed to and to then expect great results.

"The primates, as you reference them, weren't prepared for the show, so they became violent. They instead desired to hurt the guests and even draw their blood. It was chaos. However, It is a preparation dream for what is coming. There are foreigners who can't interact with society because they were trained for a different purpose. They are an actual army. They were trained to destroy the way of life you have come to know.

"In the midst of this scene, a young woman was aggressively pursuing the elderly hostess. It was confusing because this is the type of lawlessness that occurs when void of God. Demons are active in all of these situations.

There is a disregard for everyone. Nothing is off limits for them. There is no law that will stand because no one does anything to stop this."

Me: "It is horrible, Lord. I thought it was just a crazy dream."

Jesus: "Well, it isn't at all."

Me: "This must have been in California, maybe near Hollywood."

Jesus: "It doesn't matter as this type of activity is now widespread and worldwide."

Me: "Oh Lord, please wake people up."

Jesus: "Oh, I will… do not worry. Now, have you continued to study the Laws?"

Me: "Yes. In Deuteronomy 22:5, women should not dress as men and men should not dress as women."

Jesus: "The world has now fallen into great sin. Things that were forbidden are now common. Why? This is because all that is Godly has been removed. It is much worse than you can even see or know of."

Me: "It makes my stomach sick. Very sick."

Jesus: "Lawlessness doesn't just apply to law and order, it also applies to God's Law and what is written in My Word. Sin is now on full display. Now, the second dream you had… this was about blood and drinking blood. This is forbidden as it was I who shed My blood as atonement for the sins of man. I was the scapegoat to do away with the Temple sacrifice. My covenant was a new one… a heart covenant. The old covenant was written on stone tablets.

"However, the new covenant is written on the tablets of the heart. My Laws are written on your heart. I instruct you because My Spirit is in you to guide your way. As for those who choose to drink blood, they are making a binding covenant with the very act of the gods they are serving. This is a serious thing. Therefore you, being a child of God, should not drink human blood, animal blood or blood of a bird of any kind. This activates troubles and removes the favor of God."

Me: "This is awful, Lord. When I was a young child, I used to do silly blood covenants with my friends if we both happened to have cuts on our hands. At the time I was clueless about any of this. It seems even funnier to me now because I can see that these friendships never did last. However, I know that what You are talking about here is far more serious."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. This practice originated from the fallen… the demons. There would be no need for any of these Laws unless people had been practicing these. My blood is to be sufficient."

Me: "So, vampires…"

Jesus: "Wicked and evil. This is vile, truly vile. Do not be entertained by these practices. This is demonic."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "I am revealing all the orders of the unseen realm that have come to man in various forms. All are sins and these multiply, so much so as to defile all of the land even."

Me: "Oh, this is why the Earth has to be burned. This is because all is defiled and unclean."

Jesus: "Do not worry about these things. Keep your head towards Heavenly promises and do not worry. I am here with you. Now, I sent you a sign today."

Me: "Oh, yes… the fighter jet with the streams going straight up to Heaven. It was so much fun to see this."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, you are a fighter. Do not give up on all that I have promised you. I love you!"

Dream over.

777 – Holding on to His Amazing Grace

Received on Thursday, February 1, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! It is early. I went to my knees this morning. I need a miracle. You know what is needed. Oh Father, please help me. I love You. There is too much to do here. Please have mercy on me. Please keep my feet on Your upright path. Please make my steps sure and my way straight. More than this though, be with me. Father, please hold my hand.

We are foreigners and aliens here. I am a citizen of Heaven who lives here on Earth at Your service in these times. Each one of us has a unique assignment or blueprint on how this will come to be, which only you know. Various people are placed here to travel this journey with us. If this were theater, then, ideally, we would be heroes or heroines who serve the Master Superhero… YOU!

In this scenario, we are set up with friends who come and go in waves. There are constant players along with us who are our family members and the main support actors in each scene. Then there are the people who come and aid us during the play sent by either our Master Superhero, You, or the master supervillain, Satan. These people could be bankers, pastors, doctors, teachers, accountants and so on.

These people have important roles to our journey and shape each scene of the play. Heros and villains have a constant push and pull relationship. The MercyMe song titled 'Flawless' suddenly came to mind…

"Then like a hero who takes the stage when we're on the edge of our seats saying it's too late."

However, I also love these next few lines…

"Well let me introduce you to amazing grace. No matter the bumps. No matter the bruises. No matter the scars. Still the truth is… the cross has made… the cross has made you flawless. No matter the hurt or how deep the wound is, no matter the pain, still the truth is, the Cross has made, the Cross has made you flawless."

I am so grateful for God's Grace and His amazing unconditional love for us. I am a player in the Lord's Play and I am thankful. It is like being picked by a captain at a kickball game at recess or selected from a large pool of people for a purpose. It is exciting, shocking and then a bit of panic sets in when you wonder if your abilities as the one chosen will match the expectations of the one who chose you.

The "what ifs" then set in. Hopefully the game begins before the insecurities play out. No matter what, Father, I will love You. There are no conditions…

- I loved You when I had nothing.
- I loved You in poverty.
- I loved You in wealth.
- I loved You when my talents were taken from me.
- I loved You when my training as an artist was no longer applicable.
- I loved You when my hopes and dreams as a professional athlete were taken, even where I can't just enjoy this recreationally.
- I loved You when I discovered horrible things had happened to my children at the hands of someone I trusted.
- I loved You when I was falsely accused… even when my mental abilities to parent were questioned before a judge & courtroom.
- I loved You when we lost all that I had spent my time working for.
- I loved You when I was falsely accused of bad work.
- I loved You when I was passed over for promotions.
- I loved You when others took awards for all the work I had done and I received no credit.
- I loved You when I received bad news.
- I loved You when my prayers didn't line up with your will.
- I loved You when I felt unloved.

I still loved You. You have a better way. I loved You through all of this and I will not stop. Since I won't stop loving You, maybe You can call off the pesky demons on this one. You love me unconditionally. I love You unconditionally. Can You grant my request, Father? Would You consider healing me?

I had a very elaborate dream last night. When I woke up, it was 6:00am and I chased the dream. I lost it except for a few scenes. This too is Your Will, Father, so I will take what remnant You left with me…

Sub-dream 1 "A Mad Young Man in an Amazing Church" begins…

I was with my daughter in a very large church even though no church like this even exists in the Northeast. We were in the Worship Center Wing. There was a recording studio and a choir room. There were also several rehearsal rooms that looked like instrument classrooms in a music college. I could tell that this was a worship-centered church with a very large budget.

My daughter: "Mom, there is an elite group of artists and musicians nearest to God's Altar. It is a special Army of God who is led by the angels of God."

It was truly amazing. As we walked through the area, the smell was a smell that I can only define with the label of 'brand new'!

Me: "So, this is where miracles are orchestrated."

My daughter: "The miracles are conducted by God. All of us are His instruments. The healing comes in worship and praise. It is okay to dance and sing now!"

Just then, a young man who is a worship leader we know was in one of the recital rooms. He was wearing a woven knit crocheted sweater of many colors with holes in it. He was complaining and knocking over music stands with sheet music. He was cursing God's Worship Center.

Young man: "This is stupid. They think they are so great. I am so much better. I do it all. So stupid."

Me: "Is that 'young man's name'?"

My daughter: "Yes. I guess he wasn't selected. Now we know why."

Me: "His thoughts are way out there. He can't keep them inside."

My daughter: "I am not surprised. He is jealous and prideful. You can now add angry."

He kicked a French Horn and this woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Me: "Father, How many Christians are under demonic strongholds and have selfish ambitions?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. There is a mystery soon to be revealed as God's Army is revealed. As there are orders and ranks in the demonic realm, so too are there greater ranks in the Armies of God. What you saw is the Worship Center in My Holy Temple soon to be."

Me: "Does this include a recording studio?"

Jesus: "Why not? My music will go with My people and it will be here as it is in Heaven."

Me: "This is wonderful, Lord! I am excited!"

Jesus: "I have wonderful plans prepared for those who love Me and even for those who didn't know they could love Me.

"Now, there will be many who believe themselves deserving of these works. However, they never really sought Me. Although Christian, they gave themselves over to the gods of this world. These gods drew their attention away from Me and lured them to self-love and self-edification and to the trappings of darkness that has fallen upon My churches.

"Now, when I am working through a pastor with My Message, there is no reason to edit God from the pulpit. There is no shame in the truth. There is no need for a point and click sermon online to purchase. This is cheating."

Me: "Point and click sermons?" I then looked this up. "Oh, my goodness… whoa… shocking… Oh Lord in Heaven! How would anyone even know?"

Jesus: "I can still work with a message even though it is cheating."

Me: "So, this is cheating?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. They are cheating themselves out of a close relationship with Me. If I can write a Word through a man in hour, just think what I could do with a five-day work week. So then, are they surprised when they are not called?

"I would much rather have a broken pastor come before Me in great humility and confess he is burned out and void of Me than one who rises to the pulpit and condemns the sins of those who sit in the pews. He is a good actor and even cries at will while he sells someone else's words from God. This pastor is on life support."

Me: "Oh Lord, there are so many churches like this now. It seems many messages are insincere."

Jesus: "Erin, you remember this in seminary. All the young pastors were more concerned with pop culture than 'boring old Me'."

Me: "This is true! The Matrix was all the discussion focus in theology. I wasn't a fan of the Matrix though. I did my presentation on 'Veggie Tales: Jonah Movie' instead. I then received one of the only A grades because I used Biblical characters and related it to believers today. In contrast to my A, I was scoffed at by the young pastors. That was in the spring of 2003."

Jesus: "Who is more relevant to God… Jonah or… hmm, what was the other thing?" The Lord pretended to be absent-minded, which, of course, He is never. "Here today and relevant and gone tomorrow in the blink of an eye. These are the same ones who grasp onto pagan practices in culture to remain popular from the pulpit. Removing God is the trend these days."

Me: "This makes me sad."

Jesus: "A lamb should never have to question whether its shepherd will send it off into the wild to entertain wolves. It should never wonder if its shepherd would abandon it or worse, understand? This is why I hold those who preach My Words to a higher standard. I expect My Words to be Mine and the delivery of My Words to come from the heart of the deliverer, understand?

"So, yes, there will be some angry lazy workers. Another order of demons was then routed to blind them and give them 'god over all' complexes. They build up their own pride and self-importance, their power and their trivial humor. Erin, it is difficult to see all that occurs in God's house at the hands of evil."

Me: "Oh Lord, please stop this. Please stop this as only You can."

Jesus: "Erin, in order for people to turn back to God, they must experience evil firsthand and then remember what it was like for them to be under My care as their Shepherd. Wolves can't shepherd sheep. Wolves run with their pack of wolves and eat sheep, tearing at their flesh. However, I promise you though… I will not 'observe' long before administering justice. Soon the wolves will devour their own flesh and drink their own blood."

Me: "Yuck! Oh Lord, You are so very strong with Your Words today."

Jesus: "I am the same God over all things. I tell you the truth here… pray for that young man."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. We will."

Jesus: "Now, I have you. You are in My capable arms. You are loved."

Dream over.

778 – Only God Can Stop The End-Time 'Migration'

Received on Saturday, February 3, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day!

I had a disturbing dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Carving up a Dead Eagle Carcass" begins…

In my dream, I was asleep in my bed when an angel of the Lord that I recognized was over me.

Angel: "Arise, Erin. I have been sent to show you the plans of the evil leaders so you can pray."

He reached for my hand. I was now in a conference room observing men. There were no women. They had just finished an exotic meal consisting of roasted eagle on a silver platter. There was one chief leader who was remote and spoke from a black screen monitor. The room was extremely high tech and the furnishings were custom. It was unlike anything that I had ever seen.

A server came to begin the clearing of the plates. A crew of personal servers then came into the room. They were all men. They wore black suits, white gloves and a white linen tea towel draped across their forearms. These were formally trained butlers. The main butler addressed the darkened screen…

Main butler: "Shall I commence, sir?"

Head leader: "Yes. And have this sent to me after the preparations."

Main butler: "Of course, sir."

He then proceeded to take a large heavy cleaver out from under his towel. The cleaver was so heavy and sharp that it was unlike anything I had ever seen. It had a Damascus design. He proceeded to take this cleaver and sever off the head of the bald eagle carcass. It was so fresh that the head looked alive. The head was not cooked or harmed, only the body was cooked.

The butler placed the head of the very large eagle on a repousse silver platter. It was small and ornate. I could not tell the pattern. Each butler then took the plates from each of the attendees in precise order and timing. It looked perfectly choreographed and executed. It was so perfect that one would need to have a flaw specifically pointed out to notice it. To me, there were no flaws.

I then noticed that two of the walls of this room were all glass windows from floor to ceiling. However, I couldn't tell where they were. I then saw each of the attendees had some type of virtual screen agenda that was from the conference table. The agenda was lengthy. The table leader began the meeting…

Table leader: "Europe is close to collapse. Canada is simple and on track to fall shortly. Mexico has been easy. The Crown Jewel is being consumed as we speak."

Attendee: "How quickly can we expect the USA to fall?"

Table leader: Addressing the dark screen. "Sir, what should we expect?"

Head leader: "While there have been minor issues, timing has been critical. Rome did not fall in a day. Geographically, the USA has not been easy. I have almost all of my army prepared." Now addressing a different man. "What are the logistics?"

Man 1: "As you know, we have been able to infiltrate every aspect of concern and have armies unlike any war ever fought. While we had hoped the pandemic would have led to a more widespread civil war, this didn't happen as quickly. We are now nearing our three-year marker to finish our work.

"We have been able to manipulate information and channel this for what the reporters believe to be the greater good and that is to defeat Trump. We have had to silence any dissent and remove information that is not in sync. Now, as you know, we had hoped that civil war would have broken out and been more attention grabbing.

"Because this did not occur as we had hoped, we increased our strikes against the majority of the population to remove their power and raise up the minority groups. This still hasn't worked as quickly as we had hoped.

"To make matters worse, many minority groups have now become sympathetic to the majority and have joined their party. As a result, we have increased the invasions to the borders from crime ridden countries and increased the recruitment incentives."

Head leader: "Where are we with the UN?"

Man 2: "We have incentivized recruitment from Africa, South America and the Middle East. As you know, the (black dragon) Holy Book requires that mass migration will result in their promised land. All of the lands are for the followers of the prophet. All Christians must be removed and their places of worship destroyed. To them, Christians are easily removed. Once this army is called into action, we will take the nation. Once it starts, this should be easy."

Man 3: "Using the plausible deniability and gaslighting techniques, we have been able to change and confuse the narrative. We have armies of influencers across all platforms. We are powerful. Look how easy it was to manipulate the Israel situation. We have Palestinian sympathizers everywhere similar to the antifa support. We have weaponized legal systems and the population is becoming scared. Fear is setting in. It won't be long. Any narrative can be changed. We can blackout any uprisings or dissent. We are even calling in our specialists to 'X-Out' issues."

They all laughed together. The angel then reached for my hand again and we were instantly over several USA cities. They were now unrecognizable.

Me: "Oh my, this is horrifying."

The angel then brought me home.

Angel: "Erin, what appears to be incompetence is actually being done with great precision. This is coercive engineered migration. It is an act of war. You are in a war. These people are voluntarily leaving their countries to invade and coerce the people of God and the inhabitants of the land. They are forcing and overrunning the governments to replace them. If it isn't seen, you cannot know. Their goal is to force submission."

Me: "What about my dream of the mall in the Tri-Cities WA and the horrible conditions that are coming?"

Angel: "These things are the beginning of woes. Now, it is not too late for people to turn back to God. The people must turn back to God as He is the only way. The plans of the wicked are increasing faster than they can be discovered. The meeting of men that you saw showed you what happened a while ago. This is so you would not be surprised when these things come to pass."

Me: "So, our vehicle was allowed to be stolen for God's purposes of revelation?"

Angel: "Well, yes, but those with eyes to see can see. Those with ears to hear can hear. Those with lips to speak are silenced. The car was taken because this was part of a greater plan at play by the enemy. You need to understand that a blueprint was engineered and there is a bigger project.

"However, attention is drawn instead to a bad nail in one corner of a small room so that no one notices what is being built here. There is a war. The war is against the children of God by the sons of perdition and the armies of perdition. Their methods are evil and vile, so vile that asking for mercy triggers them to do even worse things."

Me: "Can't the Lord just stop this? What about…"

Angel: "I am only here to warn you of the evil planned against the people of the land and the children of God. However, God has a greater plan to save and redeem."

I heard a bell and he was gone. I sat up in bed awhile disturbed about all that the angel had just shown me.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I thought about a part of this dream that I was not to write down and I was so sad. If they can control the food, the power grid, the water and the medicine, there will then be mass casualties. If they are allowing the auto thefts and the car jackings, they then stop transportation. They want to force us into homes in the inner cities.

Years ago, I saw abandoned hospitals with patients left there to die. They had no care and no medicine and then no food and no water. They cut their power, water and heat off. Our family had personally experienced a very mild version of this in December 2023 when our power went out for days. It was so stressful.

I then fell asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Giant Global Earthquake" begins...

I could see from a bird's eye view all across the globe. I then heard several shouts of angels and the sound of a trumpet, or horn, of an epic size. Just then, the entire globe shook. Tall buildings fell. Landmarks cracked. The ground split. Ancient buildings fell into the sea.

It lasted eight minutes. Wave after wave. Not one area was left unshaken. Whole mountains were leveled. I heard another trumpet blast and then it stopped. I heard a very loud voice shouting…

"Three hours until darkness falls!"

I could hear alarms. There were fires all over the place. People looked like zombies or in a catatonic shocked state. I woke up suddenly when I saw a beautiful Mediterranean city in white stucco completely fall into the sea. It happened so fast.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Oh Father, this was so sad."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. The rise in evil has increased quickly by the order of a few wicked leaders against their own people. In the first dream, you can see they have great influence and money. When caught individually, they act indignant and offended with false outrage and humility. This is theater.

"Erin, their goal is to kill the population by using great suffering, shame and humiliation. While removing God was their first tactic, I can't be removed by man or anything else. I am God. This is an inconvenient problem for the evil leaders, especially when I well up in My people and rise.

"Now, you were sent an angel to show you the plans of the wicked. However, there is more. All of the leaders in most of the countries of the world were placed in their positions against the will of the people in order to change the order of things and to remove My Laws, and My Word. They want to destroy the citizens by enslavement.

"However, I am in control over all things and it is I who rules, not them. Even so, this is a pivotal year for their great agenda. These are their goals…

- They will continue to allow the 'Great Migration' to increase foreign influence and decrease those who love their lands.
- They must then remove the threat of the people voting to throw out the government as it is.
- They have various plans in place to remove the threat and intimidate the people.
- They have another illness plague sent to kill and even a way to threaten citizens with this.
- If they can overwhelm and frighten the people by coercion, they will.

"Erin, these are their plans. However, you are to remember this… God is the Great Equalizer and it is I who controls all things."

Me: "Lord, please don't allow all of this. It is painful to be here right now. My children and all the young adults, teens and children are being robbed of the life we had when we were young and worshipped and honored You. We played and didn't worry about all the threats there are today."

Jesus: "Each generation has struggles. However, you are correct… the end of the age is different."

Me: "I am sad, Lord. While I know I should be excited, I am sad instead."

Jesus: "I have you, Erin. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, all has changed. How will we make it?"

Jesus: "You will make it because you are Mine. I have promised to never forsake you. I will never leave you. One other thing… the sons of perdition are an army unlike any other and are rising."

Me: "You told me not to worry. These are killers with no morals and no care."

Jesus: "I know who they are and where they end up. Very few are redeemed as their idea of Heaven involves anything but. They will have their fill of sin and evil."

Me: "They have no conscience. They are like sociopaths."

Jesus: "Well, they aren't social. Now, I have a plan in place and, in an instant, they will be removed."

Me: "Thank You, Lord! I love You!"

Jesus: "I love you!"

Dream over.

779 – God Gifts Us Even When We Deserve No Gifts

Received on Sunday, February 4, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! There is not a cloud in this beautiful blue sky today. I feel so in awe. I can even see the faded moon in the sky. I am grateful that You reminded me that a better view was right in front of me all along.

As background, I have a small devotional room with windows. Before the home was built next door to us, I looked over a beautiful field with trees. I loved it. However, when the two men moved in, I put in a workshop table and plants to obstruct the view of their home and property. I did this because they were not nice to me. Since they have now divorced and moved, I have been clearing things out and rearranging my space.

I am thinning out and organizing to keep my mind from becoming preoccupied with all of the events soon to come at me. Well, wouldn't You know it. You told me that You had a beautiful view for me all along. However, I was so fixated on blocking what I didn't like, I failed to see what was right there in front of me. This view was amplified by just changing the wall location of the chair.

The windows with the view I speak of have a mullion across it. I think it is actually two separate windows with a bunch of wood molding. Anyway, when I sat down for my first dream with my new view a few weeks ago, I could not believe it. All of that wood molding blocked the neighbor's home. This gives an appearance from my devotional chair that there is no house there. This blocking décor was there the entire time.

I could not see it until the Lord told me to see it. This is a treasure. Let me explain from an interior designer's perspective… if I had a client who wanted a chair the exact height so that the cushion, when you sat on it, factored in with the window molding, blocked the neighbor's home from their view… well, I could do it and over the years, I have had interesting requests similar to this…

However, I could not guarantee that I would not have to add fill to the cushion depending on the client's height from sitting eye level in this chair. It would be a potentially expensive struggle. Yet here I am with a chair I have had for nine years having no idea all along that this is precisely how God had designed it for me. I am grateful. Father, You think of everything and I am so thankful.

Now, about my younger son. I am still getting used to his new relationship with You. My heart is overwhelmed and so grateful to You, Father, for this gift I had prayed to see. Isaiah 54:13 comes to mind… '(Your sons and daughter) will be taught by the Lord and great will be your children's peace.'

Then there is Proverbs 22:6… 'Train (your sons and daughter) in the way (they) should go and when (they are) old, (they) will not depart from it.' Well, Lord, I have now witnessed one of the greatest miracles. My heart wells up with great joy. My younger son has now been shaped into an arrow for Your purposes. He fasts and prays to You and You answer him. He was lost, Father, but now he is found.

As for me, please keep me here to enjoy the fruits of answered prayers and my labored pleas. I am still in shock and awe at all You are doing with my son. Protect his faith, Father, and strengthen him every day. While my other children also have strong faith, life's daily blows seem to chip away at Your promises for them… or at least at their perception of this. Even so, our house stands with You, Father.

I had a fun dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "An Old Man & a 1970 Pontiac GTO" begins…

I was looking to purchase an old Pontiac. This was strange because that would not be my first choice for an old vehicle. In fact, I still have a fantasy vehicle in mind… a 1947ish Chevy truck in pearl white, but all computerized and rebuilt. I want this to be a brand new 'God-Edition' and super-fast. I still smile when I think of this.

Anyway, in this dream, I was with my younger son and daughter shopping for an old Pontiac. We went to a home that was very run down. An elderly man greeted us at the front door.

Man: "You the ones searchin' for a Pontiac?"

Me: "Yes, sir."

Man: "Okay then, follow me."

The elderly man reminded me of Dennis Quaid, except for his hands. His hands were all gnarled from years of work. We followed him out to a massive steel building. This building was being used as an industrial garage and had several old cars – maybe 20.

We saw him pull down a massive handle from the wall plate to turn on the lights. This switch is often referred to as a Frankenstein lever due to its large size and mechanical on-off lever (the Jurassic Park movie also had one in it -per my husband). When he pulled the lever, all of these mercury glass industrial lights then switched on all at once. If sold today, these glass fixtures alone would be worth a small fortune.

Man: "So, what year you lookin' fer? I have a 1969 beauty over here." It was black and dusty. "She's a beauty, eh?"

Me: "Wow, it is beautiful and in mint condition."

Man: "Unfortunately, her motor was stolen years ago. The new motor…been sittin' on blocks there… ready for her, but time's gotten away from me."

Me: "Ideally, if we could find one that runs that would be perfect."

Man: "Oh, you'll love this one." He walked over to a car covered in a canvas cloth. "How much ya got? You like blue?"

Me: "Yes." He took the cover off and dust went everywhere. "Oh wow, I love this one! This is it!"

Man: "This is a rare 1970 GTO original. It has a custom white leather interior, not vinyl. It is worth a pretty penny. It even has air conditioning."

Me: "Well, I am not sure that I could afford this one."

Man: "How much ya got?"

Me: "Not enough. This car is worth thousands and I don't have that."

Man: He became quite stern. "How much ya got? I'm not askin' again here."

Me: "I am embarrassed as I only have $4,000. I am aware that these cars are worth a lot of money and I…"

Man: "Shh. You got cash?"

Me: "Yes."

Man: "Well, I got no family left. My son overdosed on some drugs. Never had a drug in his life, not even an aspirin. A friend gave him a pain pill and he died. My daughter became sick after my wife passed and now she's gone too. They're all gone now. Sometimes I walk around my property and I still hear them like ghosts. I hear laughter." He started to choke up. "I worked hard all my whole life. I had plans. I saved for our big dream. But at the end of the day, none of that really matters if you got no one to share your stories or your day with. It can be awful quiet round here."

My younger son: "Well, we will be your family now! Do you need some help around here?"

My daughter: "Yes. We can help. We can clean up and cook for you and have you over for meals. Maybe even for Christmas?"

Me: "Yes! You are invited!"

Man: "No one's offered before. No one's wanted anything to do with me before. Here, these are yours… please…" He handed me the keys to the GTO.

Me: "Oh no, I can't accept this."

Man: "Don't insult me. It is mine to give and I'm giving it over to you. Title. Keys. All of it. Keep your $4,000 to use on other things." We were all teary eyed at that point.

Me: "Have others answered your 'Pontiacs for sale' ad on social media? I am worried…"

Man: "Oh no, I don't advertise. I don't even have tech stuff. No computers."

My daughter: "Wait though… we answered your ad on Facebook." She then scrolled on her phone, but could no longer find the ad.

Man: "Yep, that doesn't exist. I am not advertising. No one come here unless the Lord God sends 'em. He sent y'all. he Lord sent ya'. As for this car, it is for you. Come to think about it, it always has been. It has been here waiting for this very day."

I was now crying in the dream and even as I type. The old man then said my name even though I had not given it to him yet.

Man: "It's okay, girl, He's with you. Erin, He knows."

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up suddenly. The dream was so real that I was stunned. I got up when I couldn't fall back to sleep. Thank You for dreams, Father! I love You! I am thankful to have stories to share and people who will listen and read these dreams. Thank You, Father, for our Nest!

Father, I just discovered that one of my abusers I had continued to fear just died three days ago. I continued to fear him because I did not know if he would pop back into my life to terrorize me again. While not a logical fear, it was still a fear I had. As a teen, I was shaken to the core by him. Thank You, Father, for Your Shelter. He died on February 1, 2024 of cancer in Florida. One major giant is gone. I can breathe, Father.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. As a child, the enemy sent troubles, but My angels have always kept you. However, it didn't mean that troubles never came. Accidents, deaths and illness can surround a child. However, I sent angels concerning you to guard you for My purposes. While the enemy petitioned for your life many times in My Courts, his requests were denied."

Me: "Lord, all the monsters in my life have lived long lives here. According to the doctor, if I do nothing, I may have just two years left to live. I am sorry, Lord, but that is just not fair. If I didn't want to be here, I would then do nothing. However, I want to live. I long to see Your promises. As for this enemy that just died, it is just hard to forgive some things."

Jesus: "I protected you here and the enemy did not prevail concerning you. You must let go of this last thing here. Time to forgive and pray, Erin."

Me: "Okay, Lord. Please forgive those who have trespassed against us. In the end, something bad must have occurred to cause all of this."

Jesus: "I explained to you before about open doors. This particular man had many demons and great hate. Abusers want their victims to feel their pain experience and the same haunting thoughts. Erin, give Me your memories of this man, including what you saw and what you heard. I promise to take this away. This is now a closed chapter. His afflictions were not just to you, but to many others.

"Now, let Me be clear here, Erin… I did not tell you to get your house in order because you are soon to die here. I know what your doctors are saying. This is because this is truth to them based on other patients with your same presentation. However, you are to standby here."

Me: "Do You mean that I should do nothing?"

Jesus: "No, I didn't say this. Continue on your course as there is a reason. Do all you would normally do in these circumstances. Prepare and I will be God over you, these doctors and all of the diagnostics."

Me: "Okay. Thank You. I am not ready to die, Lord."

Jesus: "Then live. Continue on your course. We have much to do still and I am with you. I will send angels to guard you. I will send people to you to help you. I will not abandon you."

Me: "Oh Lord, please remember Hezekiah for my situation. You had sent the prophet Isaiah to tell Hezekiah that he would die and not recover, and to put his house in order. Hezekiah then turned his face to the wall and prayed to You… 'Remember, O Lord, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.' Hezekiah then wept bitterly even before Isaiah left the court.

"Your Voice then spoke to Isaiah… 'Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, this is what the Lord, the God of your Father, David, says… 'I have heard your prayers and seen your tears. I will heal you. On the third day from now, you will go up to the Temple of the Lord. I will add 15 years to your life.'' Oh Lord, please don't forget me!"

Jesus: "This was a good plea and I reversed My course for Hezekiah and administered healing. However, even more so than this, a miracle as a sign followed."

Me: "Oh Lord, please do this! How exciting! Look, I am not as righteous as Hezekiah, but I pray You remember me the same."

Jesus: "I have you. Remember that I am God and all the children of God are important to Me. You and I converse daily. We are close. Give Me all of your worries. I have you. You are loved."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-780/

780 – Give the Lord Space to Work Here

Received on Monday, February 5, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I need Your help today, Father. When I lay down, I struggle to breathe. Panic then sets in. Inhalers aren't working. Please help me. Please forgive my fear as it stems from when my mom struggled with breathing and swallowing. Please don't allow this with me. You are my Best Friend, Lord. Please don't sit by and watch me suffer through this. I love You. I was fine a few days ago.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Renovating a Small Home" begins…

Several families were living in my tiny Oakland Bay Area home. I had to work around several people in order to paint the walls and remodel it for sale. It was impossible. Various owners over the years had differing textures of material & plaster on the wall. In order for everything to work, I needed to use primer paint first as a foundation throughout the house before adding my base coat.

With one room, I discovered that the primer I had just applied was buckling and peeling off. I had painted over something oily. Instead of using another coat of primer, I decided to remove whatever the underlying cause was, thereby exposing it. I then determined that I was on a time schedule since several of the families had children attending school. I knew that the children would be let out by 3:00pm and would be here by 3:30pm.

I then decided to use a very wide skimming blade to remove all the layers that were causing problems. When I moved the skimmer down the wall, all that caused the problem just fell off and left was the old plaster walls and even surfaces. I then went through the house and checked all the areas I had primed. These were perfect. As I was about to finish, I then realized that all of the families were now gone. They had completely disappeared.

These families were real obstructions that had made completing my work very difficult. Imagine painting a room or even trying to cook in a kitchen with multiple people blocking your every move. With all of the inhabitants of this house now gone, I was able to finish painting within an hour. It also helped that it was a very small home.

I then ripped up the carpet. When I did, it exposed the most beautiful wood underneath. It was amazing. I only had to buff it to furnish and stage it for the sale. Something amazing then happened. The moment I thought of a need for a desired piece, it instantly appeared in front of me. With this happening, I was able to finish the entire project by sundown. I completed a walk-through to check everything one last time.

Satisfied with my job, I then packed up my tools to go to my next home. However, when I sat in my car thinking on this some more, I realized that this place was the last place needing remodeling. All of the other places had no reason for me to fix them. I looked above me and there was the BART Train overhead near the old railroad tracks. It was so loud that it woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, am I white-washing events that occurred in that home when I was a kid? I believe I have faced all of these giants and taken these down years ago. Based on the families dwelling there, they were not welcome house guests. They were in my way instead. I have to believe these represent barriers or familial curses causing my current daily troubles. Could You go before me and expose these?

Father, I would really like to remove these barriers so that I am free to work. Maybe this childhood home represents what is happening inside my body. Maybe my body needs a fresh coat of paint and the removal of things that once worked and now needed to go. Maybe these are items like the carpet being removed to expose something wonderful underneath or other obstructions keeping me from freely operating in Your miracles.

Oh Father, You are so wise. You long for a close relationship with Your children. Please help me to see what is in my life that needs to go so that I can experience the fullness of free movement. I want to breathe fresh air. I want to finish this race healthy and strong, on Earth as I am in Heaven with You. If there is any more I must clear out, please show me right now and I will do it.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. It is wisdom to not dismiss something like this dream as being foolish. It is wisdom to press into God for the answers to these mysteries. In life, like this little home you grew up in, it is sometimes easier to cover over imperfections, ignoring things on the surface that requires attention. Before going to the final steps, the finishing touches, there are certain steps you need to perform…

- You need to remove uneven undulations on a surface.
- You need to sand areas that are stubborn.
- You need to make the area smooth, level and ready for what comes next.
- You need to prime it and then paint it.

"Once these steps are performed, you can then move to the final steps. In a similar fashion, with life, there are always obstructions to work around. A person can become so accustomed to obstructions that they simply adjust for these and accept their positions. However, this is foolish. You must recognize how these came to be in the first place and remove them. When you do, all will fall quickly into place."

Me: "Are You speaking of my cancer, Lord, or something that I have not dealt with from my childhood?"

Jesus: "Well, why does this need to be one over the other? Does a remodeler only focus on one small task or does he transform the entire space?"

Me: "Well, of course he transforms the entire space. Oh Lord, if there is anything else in me that needs changing, please reveal this to me. I want to let go. That place, that home, was the house of pain for me. I cannot think of any other place we lived in that hurt as much as this did. My heart grieves. Lord, please!"

Jesus: "It took a great tragedy to prompt leaving. Your mother was searching for a fresh start and safety. I called her out to do this. After your stepdad's suicide, you went on this long trip (lasting about three months). The long trip you took around the country was actually your mother searching for a new home. In the end, I led you to the north.

"Now, curses came upon you at your home before you moved. However, you have now taken each of these curses captive and broken them at My Altar, removing the stronghold over you. These familial / generational curses were struck down. However, as in a war or a final battle, there are still memories you have taken with you, as well as the scars of the battle."

Me: "Lord, if any of these disembodied spirits have followed me, please strike them down and send them back to the pit where they belong. I pray this in Your Name, in Jesus' Name. I repent, renounce and break them of their power over me and our house. Oh Lord, please bless us."

Jesus: "Erin, you are free. Your children are free. This is a good dream to prompt you to take inventory, to take account, of anything that you need to bring before Me. Bring this before Me and we will remove these. It takes you to bring it and Me to break it. This is good. Now, as for the other matter… your cancer… can you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Then let Me remodel you. I have you. I am in you. You have called upon Me to do a good work. Don't be like the type of client you complain about. When you are trying to complete your project, they would look over your shoulder and examine your every move, as well as the workers, and say things such as:

- Why did you do this?
- Why don't you do this?
- What are you doing next?
- Should you not be doing this next?
- Did you miss a spot here on purpose?
- You are not done for the day yet, are you?"

Me: I was laughing so hard now. "Lord, You are so wise. You are right. I will trust You with what comes."

Jesus: "Now, about your airways… this is environmental. You just need to make a small change in your room."

Me: "I just switched my pillow out. Is this the issue? I also have a room scent that could be an issue?"

Jesus: "The scent is the source, see?"

Me: "Thank You, Lord! I thought it was my cancer…"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, worry does not help you here. Worry only serves to make things worse. Give Me your worry and I will replace this with My peace. I love you!"

Me: "I love You too!"

Dream over.

781 – The Darker the Storm, the Brighter the Rainbow

Received on Friday, February 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for this beautiful sunny day! Thank You for another day here. I want to really thank You for this today. While I have a little more energy this morning, the last few days have been difficult. I am physically so tired. It is not like me. I am very pale today. My daughter remarked that she had never seen my skin so void of color before. I have ruddy skin, reddish in tone, but I have always appeared tan.

I am not sure where my color went. I have always been able to 'Keep Calm and Carry On'. I have always played through. I have kept my eyes fixed on the ball… once with golf, now with Jesus! When I have fallen, I have always been able to jump to my feet and dust off the dirt. I was quick to 'shake it off'. When I woke up this morning, I felt so labored in my steps. I decided to go back to bed.

When I then drifted off to sleep, and in that brief moment, something amazing happened…

Sub-dream 1 "A Highlight Reel of My Life" begins…

A highlight reel of my life flashed. It flashed from the time I was young enough to recall things up to when I was an adult. I was even able to see moments that I have no recollection of. At some point, we lived on a farm. I had some small little yellow furry baby chicks. I felt one with my hand. I had to be no older than three years old. The memories then kept flooding in:

- The first time I had cinnamon toast.
- The smell of spring.
- The sound of my grandpa's lawnmower.
- The excitement of walking barefoot in freshly mowed grass.
- Laying down in the grass and watching clouds.
- The smell of fresh rain after it stops.

- The search for rainbows.
- The atmosphere when storm clouds gather.
- Preparing for a coming storm.
- Helping my grandpa put small suet bags on the tree branches for the birds.
- The smell of Ponderosa Pines in the Sierra Nevada.
- My mom’s beautiful long hair and her smile.
- Driving in a Mustang convertible with hot seats from the sun combined with cool air and so much laughter.
- Picking a tiny bouquet from my grandma’s flowers to make a posy basket.
- Cutting paper snowflakes.
- Daily prayer in our school at the start of each day.
- The celebration of holidays in elementary school.
- Arts and crafts.
- The anticipation of field trips.
- A new puppy, my husky, Sasha.
- A new kitten.
- Counting stars and butterflies.
- A new park to explore.
- Riding a bike.
- Learning to drive.
- Riding a horse.
- Zephyr’s Cove.
- Panning for gold.
- Fishing in the Truckee River.
- Rafting for miles with friends.
- Riding my bike across the long bridge to Sandpoint ID.
- Having a flavored coffee with my mom.
- Sunday drives.
- Dancing, dancing, dancing.
- Golfing when no one is with you but God.

- Golfing with friends.
- A perfect game.
- A perfect shot.
- A perfect day.
- Sunning on the beach.
- The end of a difficult day.
- Hard work.
- Accomplishing what others said you couldn't.
- The impossible.
- My first date.
- My first break up.
- Ice cream.
- Good friends.
- Wedding day.
- My children at every stage of their lives.
- A separate little mini-me in my daughter.
- Being in love and being loved.
- Promises and hope.
- Of course, my Hero, Jesus!
- The promise of a new life everlasting with Him.

There were literally hundreds of moments that flashed. There were also some hard moments. I then woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, please let me live. Please let me finish this race as You have promised. The wait has been long and sometimes difficult. However, the good outweighs the bad. Please forgive me for being sad. When I have no energy, it is difficult.

My urine test was abnormal and was positive for blood and cancer. My first procedure is Tuesday, February 13, 2024. Time is not waiting for me. It just continues. Father, please strengthen me these next few weeks. Father, please create a miracle where there seems to be none. I love You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left you. I am that Voice you hear calling. Before you speak, I hear and answer you."

Me: "Lord, why did You have these moments flash before my eyes? Am I going to die?"

Jesus: "So you remember. Everyone of those things were sent to you by Me. Do you notice anything about these?"

Me: "We were poor. However, by reading these, you would think we were rich."

Jesus: "How so? Very little cost a price but the wealth of the fullness of the experience. I met you with good things even in your poverty. You were wealthy (in experiences). You even danced despite the darkness of troubles that had come and were always present. Instead, you recalled the wonders you experienced. You recalled the things you delighted in.

"You loved pools and fountains. Erin, all the things that you delighted in in this life is all waiting for you in Heaven. Even so, this is only a fraction of what I have prepared for those who love Me. I delight in you. I delight in your joy, your laughter and your faith. I have never forgotten one promise that I have given you. Not one."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry that I have been so sad. I am going through very little compared to when You walked here. You have been so kind and gracious with me. I am so grateful. The night before You were crucified, You prayed to Your Father in Heaven that He take this cup of suffering from You and choose a different way. You never lacked faith in Your Father, only Your suffering at the hands of man, the betrayal by close friends and the physical torture soon to come.

"What I am going through is nothing compared to this. I am so grateful that You went to the Cross, Lord. You fulfilled the prophecies and so much more. With me, I just don't want to lose any more body parts. I had hoped this would not happen. Even so, I trust You with my life, Lord. You are my Savior and Best Friend, so I will surrender to Your plans and not to my despair and perceived punishment."

Jesus: "I am with you, Erin. I am with your children. I am with your husband. I am with your friends and over all you do. When I sent you these moments in time, these were gifts of love to you. However, this is not the end, Erin. There is more. I have shown you events in the future and you are a part of this, not separated from this."

Me: "Lord, I know You can heal. You are the Divine Healer, Deliverer and Savior over me. I am like a child who is excited about a coming camping trip or grand vacation. However, right before, a great threat comes to ruin everything. My attention then fixates on what else may come against us. As an example, my parents frequently had car troubles and this was always a problem with our plans… a fun spoiler. Well, this kidney cancer thing is a huge fun spoiler!"

Jesus: "Erin, what was that saying you have involving a storm?"

I knew He knew, but He was now reminding me.

Me: "The darker the storm, the brighter the rainbow."

Jesus: "Ah yes…that should have been a Psalm of David based on his great faith and his great troubles. Erin, I have never once come to you and said, 'Because you did not do this or that, I will remove My favor.' So, either you are a mad woman or you are a Vessel I have filled for My purposes. Well, Erin, you are My Vessel.

"Now, consider this day and rejoice as I am with you. I love you. You are My Bride in gold of Ophir. Your time of miracles has not yet come. Rejoice, Erin, for it is surely coming and will not delay."

Dream over.

782 – The Incredible Throne of our Great God

Received on Saturday, February 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all that You have done. I am grateful for You, Father, for all of the little things. I love You. You have given my life so much value. The things that I thought truly mattered in life before I knew You are now worthless. The days are short and the years are fleeting. My body is older and doesn't match the age of my being. In my heart, I am still young.

I used to see a mountain and think, 'I could climb that.' Based on the forestry trail map, I would then consider things like, 'Could I finish before lunch or is 2:00pm more realistic?' As the years went by, I was instead thinking, 'Do I have all day to climb?' And now in my current state, I think, 'Hmm, beautiful mountain!' and no more. I no longer consider the climb. It is impossible for me now.

There was a time when I was literally glued to a basketball. I was around 16 to 17 years old at the time. While I was good, I had lost my desire for the sport when we lived in California. I was on the Jr. Varsity team in my freshman year and was called to suit up for the Varsity team occasionally. I was a very aggressive point guard. I was fast and was known for my ability to steal the ball from the opposing team.

This also meant that I led in assists and layups. The problem occurred one away game when the other team's players decided to hurt me on the court. I was targeted and therefore drew fouls. I then drew fouls in retaliation. Then when a technical foul was called against one of the players, three girls decided to gang up on me to physically teach me a lesson. They began to punch me. I got up and punched back.

While they were ejected, so was I. I was ejected because I had lifted an elbow to fight back. It was then publicly humiliating. I had to wait in the upper bleachers. I was heckled by fans. The coach then sent me to the bus. I then quit the team. The end. My mom moved us a few months after this. The coaches then decided that I still deserved to 'letter', so they mailed me a note, a photo of the team and my letter. A letter is earned, not guaranteed, I didn't deserve it but they believed I did.

In the fall of 1977, all I remembered was the Varsity coach saying, 'I could have used you. I considered you a bright star.' While I was still a good ball handler, my mom and brothers teased me that I was now a girly player who cared more about boys, makeup and hair. Well, the truth is that they were 100% correct. Even so, I spent a great deal of side time trying to do tricks with my basketball.

I soon moved on from basketball. My tomboy years were gone. In my heart, I can still play softball, basketball, golf, dance and play pool. However, other than dance and perhaps golf at one point, my mom and brothers always seemed better than me. Oh Father, sometimes this feels like just yesterday. I was such an angry kid. I displayed unsportsmanlike conduct as a badge of honor until that final day of basketball.

The humiliation I experienced was worthy of a prompt move. To make matters worse at the time, I was not selected for homecoming court. However, my five best friends were. According to the voting results, I finished tied for sixth. I only knew the results because I was the freshman class president. But this was a disaster because during homecoming week, all the class presidents had a pie eating contest. This was a tradition at our school.

On the table were lemon merengue pies, one of my favorites. Unfortunately, mine was not lemon, but actually horseradish. Despite this, I still won the contest. Even so, I promptly made a best friend with a garbage can nearby. They called me a 'good sport' and I was awarded tickets to the Star Wars movie. This was a brutal time for me. These moments were cemented in photos in the yearbook. It was a humbling experience.

When we moved, mom said to me, 'You can now completely change your story and start fresh at the new school.' I was still mad at her for having to leave my friends. However, in truth, it was a gift from You. It was time to leave the painful path and move from the house of pain to Idaho. Just think, in Heaven, these painful things will be gone. All that will remain will be love and joy.

I have been tired lately. I have been dopey and weak. I told my husband that I felt like the little old lady in the heartbreaking opening montage of the Pixar movie 'Up!' All the hopes and dreams fading. I still have faith though. I truly still have faith. I literally have almost 20 to 30 stories throughout my life of moments when I reached my limit.

I would be all in and dedicated, but then, over time, I lost faith in either my abilities or a clear path moving forward, when pride is cast aside. Do I walk away before I fall into prideful humiliation? Even when I wasn't a Christian, I was smart enough to see when doors were closing and I needed to redirect my focus to something that added greater value to my life.

Father, sometimes You close doors and seal them with concrete and various locks so that I would never go there again. You have done this so I will go to another door that You opened. Why are we so prideful to say never when You say let Me be the God over your 'nevers'? Humiliation is working for someone who you thought you would never work for but having too anyway. I am referring to my last position.

However, because I obeyed God in the middle of this desert experience… Well, He began a miracle and a new work in me. This was the fall of 2012. He got me out of there as He promised He would. He did so much for me and my children.

It was as if I had won 'The Answered Prayer Game Show Prize'! He has never stopped showing His love to me, the one once called unlovable and despised. To top this off, You healed my heart muscle. So, what is impossible for You, Father? Nothing.

I had a fun dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Three Weeks until Thanksgiving" begins…

My daughter was called to Seattle WA for a convention. She asked me to join her for the Hacky Sack Tournament. I was excited to play. We were changed as I was able to dribble that tiny bean sack on my foot and flip it over my head. My daughter was even better than I was at it. My husband was laughing at our antics. However, he couldn't stay long because he was off to some foreign country for a convention where he was a keynote speaker.

Daughter: "Mom, let's go in three weeks."

Me: "Okay."

Husband: "Wait. That's Thanksgiving. You can't go."

Me: "You are right. We actually can't go then."

Daughter: "I agree. I forgot about the timing."

Just then, my husband's alarm went off and woke me up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

When I got up, I could hear the turkeys outside gobbling. They were in the yard flapping around and their rear tails were up and fanned out. They had never fanned their tails like this before. I had always wondered what this would look like in real life. Since the seed trays were empty, I went outside to fill the trays with corn.

They came back down the hill and ate. However, two of them were touchy and kept fanning their tails and puffing up. I did not get a photo. I told my husband that I thought it was odd that my dream had Thanksgiving in it and that the turkeys reappeared after me not seeing them all week.

Oh Father, You are a Grand Mystery. I have questions. Yesterday afternoon, I fell asleep in my chair. I had been reading my Bible. I had a dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Incredible Throne of our Great God" begins…

I saw God's Courtroom in Heaven. He was on the Throne dressed in the power of the sun. It was so bright that I could not see His image. Below His Throne and down several steps was a clear glass floor (I had always seen this as deep blue). Behind Him dressed in white robes like judges were several saints. However, I could not see how many. Above the Throne and to God's left and right, there were winged creatures.

My attention was then drawn to something I had never seen before. There were two large gyro graph wheels that were living. They had wheels within wheels and could move in all directions. The wheels were made of something like a metal alloy. I somehow knew it was stronger than silver, brighter than bronze and with elements like platinum. It breathed! There were eyes on the wheel bands.

These eyes were greenish blue and had eyelids with lashes. While they didn't speak, they could see. They hovered over the glass floor of the Courtroom. They were a terrifying type of angelic being. I say terrifying only because they had capabilities that made them scary. They recorded everything. Maybe they were like God's Court reporters or witnesses? The eyes could see everywhere.

I then saw Earth below through the clear crystal glass floor. I could see layers in the heavenlies.I then saw over the area of North America. However, the focus was over the USA. The Lord then focused my attention on these judgment windows and these angelic beings. God then spoke in thunderous tones. Lightning came from His Throne. His Voice went through me in an indescribable way.

God: "My Commandments have been broken and trampled. Even My lesser Laws have been reversed. My Judgment is over the nations and great will be My Wrath. Render the charges."

I could hear a voice or voices in unison. I thought they could be lessor judges or the 24 elders. Maybe they were over territories. They were behind the Throne. Anyway, they spoke in unison…

The lessor judges: "We find the peoples of the nations under corrupt authority apart from God guilty and in rebellion of all the Laws set forth on Earth in accordance with God's Laws as given to Abraham and Moses."

God: "What is the count, the census?"

One of the lessor judges: "We are nearing a quarter, including the unborn who were sacrificed to the gods, those who died by wars, those who died by plagues and those who died by lack. It is close."

God: "Then prepare the next sentence."

I then saw angels of God go out from Heaven. There were thousands and thousands of angels. I then heard God speak like thunder…

God: "It is time!"

I woke up suddenly. Sunset was just starting. Tears were streaming down my cheeks.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Oh Father, I am scared. I am really scared. Please make my hand write clearly and my memory from things of You always be surrendered to You."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: Crying. "Lord, I am really scared here. This cancer is a 'Turbo Cancer'. Please heal me, Lord. Most Stage 4 cancer patients are given at least five years to live. Why was I given less than two years to live?"

Jesus: "Wait! Oh no! I thought I was God? Is this doctor god?"

Me: "No, of course not. I am sorry, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, My Will be done in you. Let Me be God. Let Me work. When you are tired, you are to rest and pray. Your blood is off. Your body is tired from fighting an alien invader, this cancer. Now, go out and enjoy your days. When you are sad, then cry. It is okay to grieve in a war.

"Now, this small dream that was more of a long vision… it is based on the enemy reversing all of God's Laws and Commandments as given to Abraham. It is also based on the enemy reversing all of the lesser laws as given to Moses. The Commandments have been thrown out of the courts of the nation. Corruption is like a plague because of this. When God is removed, something else comes, understand?

"This is the opposite of Law and Order. What then occurs? The Laws set in place for the lands and the peoples are then thrown out because the lands have been given over to sin and hate. My Word is the sword of truth, yet no one wants to be judged by truth. Lies are rampant. Fear increases and evil of every kind."

Me: "Almost everything in Leviticus 19 is ignored."

Jesus: "Oh, it is much greater a sin than these. However, the Court of God and the Throne of Judgment is over all men and all is recorded."

Me: "God's Judgment?"

Jesus: "Yes. However, something greater comes from this. The hearts of fathers turn to their children and children to their parents. The wicked flee. However, those whose hearts are on God are humbled and turn back to God. There is more. Erin, My Word is true. Evil will flee to hide, but they are found by Me. Nothing is hidden from My sight. Now do not worry. I have you. I am with you."

Dream over.

783 – Are We Merely the Sum of Our Body Parts?

Received on Monday, February 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Yesterday was a difficult day. I was not well. I had a broken sleep that night and did not do well during the day. Father, I went to bed last night thinking about the magnitude of things here left undone. I think of the labels I need to place on various items, things that might have greater value than one would think possible. I want to be a blessing to my house, not a burden.

I then realized that I needed to stop this self-talk now, as in immediately. This is because the more I stressed, the worse I became. I had no peace. Well, Father, I come before You today. You healed my heart. No act of man was able to make my physical heart healed, only You. Of course, this applies to my spiritual heart as well. All of this makes me realize even more that I am here to serve You at Your pleasure.

If I were to serve myself… well, I can only dread how that might look. I surrender my body, my heart, my mind, my kidneys and all that I am grateful to have to You. However, I don't just surrender my body to You, I surrender all You have given me. I surrender everything because there is nothing of value on this Earth unless You assign value to it. Nothing is certain here.

I spent time in 2 Chronicles this morning. I read about the kings of Israel and the prophets whom You sent to come alongside the kings in truth and wisdom. In 2 Chronicles 26:4-5, in reference to Uzziah who reigned over Judah, "and he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that his father, Amaziah had done. He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah who instructed him in the fear of God, and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him prosper."

Then in the days of Hezekiah was the prophet Isaiah to minister and pray with him. He had restored the House of the Lord. I love this small nugget in 2 Chronicles 29:36: "and Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had provided for the people, for the thing came about suddenly."

Then there was an issue during Passover. Many of the people had not consecrated themselves and were not considered cleansed. Hezekiah then prayed to the Lord in 2 Chronicles 30:18-20: "…may the good Lord pardon everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the Lord, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary's rules of cleanness. And the Lord heard Hezekiah and healed the people."

The life of Hezekiah and all he had accomplished to restore Israel was truly a miracle. His success came because he had yielded his heart to God and sought wise counsel from Isaiah. The Lord delivered Jerusalem in 2 Chronicles 20 to 23 in an amazing miracle involving the king of Assyria.

When Hezekiah later allowed pride to overtake him during his illness, he recognized this and humbled himself before the Lord. He recognized the pride of his heart and God had mercy upon him. However, God continued to test his heart and to know all his inner thoughts as in 2 Chronicles 32:31.

Father, I surrender all that I am to You. I give You all that I have in sacrifice to You. I even give You my burdens and the things I have store housed. Lord, please use all of this for Your Glory. Bless my mess and I give all of this to You. I give You these dreams and ask You to bless them. I ask that You spread these dreams as seed so they are sown. Let all that I am be as seed to sow.

Please make all of my troubles, all of my tests and trials and all that I have written be a blessing. Please let every journal page be evidence of Your hands, Lord. Let You Will be done, not Mine. Since You have now healed my heart both physically and spiritually, then I know You can do anything. You even use my nightmares as seeds to plant for Your Glory. The Book of Job has so much wisdom… Job 7:13-14,4…

"When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint.' Then You O Lord affright me with dreams and with visions terrify me. In bed I say, 'When shall I arise?' But the night drags on; and I am filled with restlessness until the dawn."

Father, it is not my heart that causes a restless night, but my kidneys. You have used them to wake me from one dream to the next. So, You have blessed them. You have made my heart pliable. You have molded and shaped me. You gave me a new heart.

In Psalm 18:33 and Habakkuk 3:19, You are my Strength. You make my feet like the deer so that I can climb these difficult heights. These are seeds sewn as evidence of Your Story sewn into our hearts.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Room Full of Doors & Windows" begins…

I was in a home with many rooms. In the center of the home was a sunken family room with windows. In the middle of the family room was a soft bed with white sheets. Above the bed was a ceiling of glass. I laid down on the bed and I could see up to heaven. The glass windows surrounding the bed to the south were blackened and I could not see out.

The windows to the east were filled with the light of dawn in pinks and purples. All around the family room were doors. I then realized that these doors were 'memory doors', like bridges. I got up out of the bed and walked past several doors. They no longer held me captive.

These doors had no lure or intrigue. These doors no longer had any hold on me. Just then, I realized I had circled the room on a landing. Finding nothing, I then returned to my bed just as the sun rose to the east. The windows to the south and above me were now all shining from the light of the sun. I could now see clearly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Your life is a gift to Me. I have sewn seeds in you and these have been planted in My House. I have made you for My purposes under Heaven. As a child, you asked the God you thought might hear several questions, such as… Why did You create me? Why are You punishing me? Why are You not letting me see breakthroughs?"

Me: "Yes. I even asked, 'Why am I me?' I was inside me looking out. I also asked, 'Why am I not someone else outside of me? What do they see when they look at me?'"

Jesus: "These are all good questions to ask when you don't have understanding."

Me: "Well, I am still asking these questions now, Lord. I also ask why this kidney cancer is even happening right now. The cancer is perfectly round and right in the center of my kidney. Forgive me, Lord, for all of my sins…

every one of them. I was ignorant even when I knew that I was sinning. In hindsight, I tried to rationalize these sins by saying these sins are so small compared to the immense love of Jesus.

"Oh Lord, who even does this? At times, I feel like my illness is due to my failures. I have failed to trust You. I failed to keep hope alive. I failed to be at peace. I failed to turn two of our children to You because I called them out. Maybe I needed to do my own self-examination. I occasionally snacked at night when You told me it is best for me that I not do this.

"I kept saying, 'Okay, just tonight I will eat these Twizzlers, maybe two, maybe three and tomorrow I won't. This just gives me something to chew on.' So, why would I need to do this? Because of my anxious thoughts. While not every night, there were many nights like this. I do this even though I know what is best for my body.

"While I am glad to be talking about all of this with You, I already know that there will be many who will judge me based on me admitting that I ate some Twizzlers. I will then get emails about how harmful these are to the blood sugar levels and so on. The thing is, Lord, is that I already know all of this. This leads to an obvious question… why then did I still do it?"

Jesus: "Your kidney issue was not caused by these red rubber sticks. Now, tell Me what you recently discovered with your animals?"

Me: "I have been feeding my dogs healthy food these days. Although it costs more, I have been using food as medicine. Their energy has since come back. It is a miracle. All of this happened very quickly."

Jesus: "So think of this… all that you consume with your lips also has a path, a course, that it takes in your body. Your body was created to handle many different battles. However, if your mouth receives weapons of destruction, then certain parts of your internal army become wounded from these weapons and are attacked.

"Now, the enemy of this world is clever. He has introduced things to destroy man through various means that, over time, effects your inner most army and its ability to fight back against invasion. This is why there are increases in cancer. While there are other factors as well, these are your essentials for living right and these I give you:

- Clean water to drink.
- Fresh air to breathe.
- A body with functioning parts able to move.
- Food grown on trees, bushes and from the fields.

- Pastures filled with animals for food, milk and other products related to these.
- Fresh poultry.
- Bread, seeds and nuts.
- Olives and their oils.
- So many other good foods.

Me: "Well, Lord, I have something to confess… I love sugar."

Jesus: "There are other ways to sweeten. Consider honey. Can man produce honey?"

Me: "No. He can only mimic it."

Jesus: "Then remember this… don't eat anything you can't pronounce. If it is not good for your dogs, then it isn't good for you. The enemy has destroyed man through hunger for things that do not serve as good for the body. To make matters worse, illness causes a need for medicine to cure it, understand? This is cyclical and shortens the life. Erin, you knew all of this before, correct?"

Me: "Yes. I was very fit. I avoided eating any bad stuff."

Jesus: "So, somehow, now that you are older, wiser and full of years, you somehow decided that the bad is now good?"

Me: "Well, I guess it is more convenient. Quicker. Oh Lord, I will make changes!"

Jesus: "This is good. I will bless these, Erin. Now, let us go to your kidneys. Kidneys can cause restless sleep. Your heart is a muscle and your kidney is a filter of the blood. It purifies your blood by removing the waste and sending the blood back into your body. It is an important function and two (kidneys) are given.

"Now, My Word speaks of kidneys often because the function is so vital to the body. When you sleep under duress, your kidneys are under pressure to maintain their purpose to filter the bad from the good. More stress can cause more waste more often and the need to get up during the night more in number."

Me: "I never used to have this, Lord. What happened?"

Jesus: "How often do I tell you to remember to breathe?"

Me: "All of the time."

Jesus: "You were not taking in enough clean air. Your blood was not getting enough oxygen. The enemy was able to choke off your functions."

Me: "So, can I still save my kidney?"

Jesus: "Can you save yourself?"

Me: "No. No, I can't. However, You can."

Jesus: "I will tell you what… let Me be God over all of this. I am glad you came to Me over all of this today. This is good. Just so you know… I allowed this in you for My purposes. Now, because you cannot save yourself as you would surely lose that battle, then give Me back your body. In turn, take in that which is good. I will help you. When in doubt, throw it out. Even though the bad is more cost effective at market, don't buy it. Buy the good and I will strengthen you in the preparations."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am so sorry."

Jesus: "You are suffering. Give all of this to Me. I accept your prayers and I will bless you. It is always best to take in what is good with your mouth, your nose, your ears and your sight even though much of what comes now is not good. Give all of this to Me and, like Hezekiah, I will make clean all that is impure.

"However, this does not mean I will make sin holy. I am a filter for sin. By My Blood, you are made Holy, your sins removed like kidney waste. I make all things new. When changes come, all markings (tattoos) and piercings will be removed and fall away as these are impure to the body. All desires for spirits and lusts of the flesh will also fall away. Since I am God, I will not share My Temple with an idol."

Me: "I will work harder to stay on track."

Jesus: "Erin, make your yes 'yes' and your no 'no'. Now, your dream was your current state of your dreams. However, even though you are ill, soon your morning will shine like the dawn and all will be made brand new. Remember that God is within you (Psalm 46:5). You will not fall. I will help you at the break of dawn. I love you."

Me: "I love You too, Lord. Take the seeds of my story, which are really yours, Lord, and plant them to be sewn for Your purposes under Heaven."

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin, as you are Mine!"

Dream over.

784 – Great Miracles Will Come From Your Suffering

Received on Thursday, February 15, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It is beautiful outside with some fresh snow. However, it is also extremely cold and windy. I was up a bit late this morning and saw six turkeys in our yard. Their gobbling prompted me to feed them corn. They came right up to me. We have established a connection. It is like the groundhogs. It was so fun when the groundhogs would see me and come running.

You reminded me of Your delight when Your children run to You and seek a relationship with You. With me, You feed me and I need You. I am excited to commune with You daily. With the turkeys, I feed them corn. However, with You, You feed me with faithfulness and great variety. I am so blessed by You, Father. I am running to You today to ask for another miracle.

Thank You for clarifying that my cancer is renal cell carcinoma and has not spread to my bladder as per my cystoscopy. That was such a blessing. I had a CT scan of my chest yesterday and the results made it in time for my appointment in the afternoon. Everything looked good until the part about my shoulders and the possibility that the kidney cancer has moved to my bones.

I am now waiting to hear from the surgeons if a bone scan prior to surgery needs to be performed. This has put me in a type of holding pattern today. Scarily, of the 15 signs of bone cancer, I have 14 of them. I had just dismissed these because I thought it was related to either my neck, my shoes or the weather.

Anyway, I am praying for some God-sized miracles and soon. Oh Father, only You can heal me. Please consider me for one of Your awesome miracles. I also pray for my general doctor, my surgeon, my urologist and the entire team of people that You have assembled so quickly. My daughter then placed a song on my music playlist by Brandon Lake titled, ‘Count ‘Em’. It is very uplifting for the time I am in right now.

As I was writing this dream, I received a few medical calls to try to set up my appointment for my new test. The doctor does not want to delay the kidney removal to wait on the findings of the bone test. Oh Father, I have kept things together here, but this one? This coming possibility of bone cancer frames my remaining days and even numbers them.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "An Old Friend / Enemy Dances" begins…

I had a dream of an old friend / enemy and her husband dancing in my hospital room. They were in elegant formal clothing. The entire room had been set up by them to put the focus completely on them. It was a Christmas theme with these fuzzy green and red garlands with lights. They then asked me how I was. However, I could tell they really didn't care about my answer as they didn't even wait to hear it.

They instead continued to laugh and dance. When I told them loudly so as to be heard above their dance music that I had cancer, they didn't even acknowledge me. They instead continued to dance. They had now transitioned into doing a ballroom dance of sorts around my bed. They laughed as they gazed into each other's eyes.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Oh Lord, this dream was so strange. As for these people, I would not be surprised at all if they would do just this and dance at the news that I have cancer.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have you here for people like them. You being sick garners no sympathy because the world has grown colder. Now, no matter what news comes your way, remember who I am in the midst of this. Look at what I have done for you so far, along with all of the evidence that I am with you. Keep your eyes focused on Me.

"Do not look at those who seem to have physical health and envy them as they have a terminal condition worse than cancer. They do not even know Me to consider Me. Remember that darkness and the gods and princes of this world have spread a plague of evil that should have caused man to turn from the effects of this condition to a cure. I am the One Remedy that waits for man, the only cure for their heart of stone, their Healer, Savior, Comforter and Friend!

"However, instead of relying on Me, they rely on their own comfort from their self-edifying behaviors. Erin, miracles are coming and there will soon be no choice but turn to face God and see that I am fair, just and do all things for the good of those I pursue. Your dream is about them, not you. Erin, I have you and I am with you. It is by My hand that I will use you for My purposes. Can you trust Me a bit longer?"

Me: "Of course, Lord. However, I am in a great deal of pain. I have good days and bad days. I can't always do what I hope to do. Can You strengthen me, Lord?"

Jesus: "I will. However, you will first need to endure some personal storms while I work on My 'Full Spectrum Rainbow'. Can you do this for Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. While I don't like it, I can do this."

Jesus: "When you see the great miracles that will come from your suffering, you will then have great peace and joy."

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I will strengthen you today. Remember that, when you are tired, you are to rest. Finish your fun project. I am with you."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I will."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-785/

785 – My Promises are True and My Ways are Higher

Received on Saturday, February 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Let me really thank You sincerely. I am grateful to be here, Father. I am grateful for our Nest friends, our home, our dogs, the animals outside, my children and my husband. Most importantly, I am thankful for You, Father! You are both the Author and the Finisher of my story in my journey here.

Yesterday was a difficult day for me. While I stayed home, it was still a struggle. I cried and cried. I felt a stabbing pain deep in my body. I had no peace. To sit and rest or even lay down, the random pain in parts of my body that never cried out before became too much. As long as I kept moving, the pain faded. I went through boxes of paper that I knew I needed to deal with someday. This felt good.

Each day, I hope to achieve as much as I can physically until I can't. Father, my neck pains now seem like nothing in comparison. The other things just don't matter anymore at all. While everyone is at work, it is nice to have the home to myself to putter and pray. I sing, I speak in my prayer language and I cry. I give this day You have given me back to You for Your Divine Purposes. You are better at being God than we are.

When I now walk by my clothing closet, I shake my head and think, 'I have no use for most of this.' When I see my shoes, I think, 'Why do I need most of these?' Many of these things I have had for years, like beautiful vintage clothing. I remember my trips to Los Angeles CA Fashion Week for buying for my clothing store. I have beautiful hand-woven pieces that I had always hoped to wear someday.

Well, these 'somedays' have come and gone and it is literally madness to keep them. This is like torture from the enemy calling out to me, 'I told you that you would never wear these!' My next order of business is to let go of these. When mom died, she left her clothes. I kept some of the items that I remembered her by. Up until a couple years ago, they even still had her smell.

It wasn't the sweaters or the T-shirts that held my interest. It was the memories of her taking me to the Bridge in Sandpoint ID or the Coldwater Creek Store to shop. It was these outings that made me have a connection of something fun with my mom… the perfect day! I now find myself prioritizing what I need to do next, prior to my surgery or our Transformation (whichever comes first).

I decided to start by removing the 'nevers' still taking space in my life. Things I 'never' wore, projects I 'never' completed and books I will 'never' likely read… those types of things. I feel like this would bring You joy, Father, and it would streamline my closet and office / craft room. More importantly, it gives my heart a focus other than my current situation. It feels satisfying to give things away. It makes my heart glad.

In essence, it helps to remove my sadness. Well, Father, no matter what happens here, I still cling to Your promises. I remain hopeful as I know You are faithful to the promises You have given all of us. I am still thankful for our trip to Bend OR. It was my favorite time of the year, Fall, and it was so much fun. What a blessing to be able to have gone on this trip. I thank You for this, Lord.

In hindsight, I see the incredible brilliance of You. You told me that I was sick last year and then You moved mountains to prepare everything knowing I would be going through this. The surgeon I have is a brilliant one who was just recently brought to Portland ME. He was brought to the Maine Medical Group in the spring of last year right when You told me that I was ill.

In the last six weeks, I have watched You remove my planned trip with my daughter to Orlando. In its place, I have seen You line up appointment after appointment with great precision. I am not certain how You did this because each appointment seemed to be a miracle in itself. Almost every time, I have heard, 'We were fully booked for the next few months, but just happen to have a cancellation!' It has truly been amazing so far.

This assures me that, whatever You are planning, this too will be a miracle. I am then reminded of this… I should not fear my weakness even though I am weakening day-by-day from this. I must instead remember that You, God, are my Strength in weakness. This I know and I am sure of. However, I fear something else. I fear these days when I somehow believe I am strong on my own, these daily moments when the 'I cans' come in apart from You.

As a child, I grew up in adversity. I lived in uncertainty so much of my time growing up. I learned to expect trouble and I was hyper alert to it. My mom then often told me that I was just being paranoid. However, if the stuff you are concerned about has happened to you before over and over again, then wouldn't you also still be hyper diligent and watch for troubles to avoid them? I call this being street smart.

My mom then used logic and probabilities to give me the percentages and statistics so I could logically be at peace. While this would have been great for my husband, this somehow wasn't a comfort to me. This is because feelings are based on the memory of past trauma or experience and the emotions surrounding these things. What I have learned over the years is that feelings are often just as valid as logic.

Well, Lord, here I am! I surrender all that I am in my weakened state for Your Divine Purposes under Heaven. You have given me advanced directives from the beginning. You have mapped my course and kept me on this path. Along the way, You have rescued me from evil foes and those who would cause me to stumble. You have guided my way and put me on a clear path that has always led to You.

Miracle after miracle, wonders here as they are in Heaven, so many signs… all confirm You are here with us. You showed me what waits for us in Heaven and all You have put together there for us. Even so, this is just a fraction of a fraction of the wonderful things waiting for us there. I am so excited. You gave me a glimpse of our rewards of an eternity with You so that I can keep my focus on You here.

As You well know, Lord, I have been hit with some very bad news about possible bone cancer. This is something even the best doctors can't remedy, only You, Father. If this is the case, Father, I just know You have a greater way planned for me. While I know all of this is going to hurt in these days to come, I will rely on You to keep me in Your strength. I thank You in advance for Your mercy, love and grace.

Father, I had an amazing dream last night, but I can't recall it. Maybe You will illuminate this again when it is in Your Perfect Timing. All I know is that I woke up with a huge smile on my face. This dream obviously made me wake up happy.

On a more somber note, something disturbing happened on my way to one of my appointments last week in Houlton ME. I passed a young man carrying a young woman up a snow berm. The snow berm was about three feet high and the young woman appeared to be dead. I was on the phone with my daughter and told her to hold on as I was going to see if 'they' needed help. I slowed down to pull in front of the car.

When I did, I locked eyes with the young man. Chills instantly went up and down my spine. He looked at me as if to say, 'Don't even think about stopping.' I then heard Your Voice, Lord, tell me to 'Drive!' Well, I certainly didn't need to be told twice and drive I did. There were then two semi-trucks behind me who passed the scene right after me.

I took the offramp and was now stuck at the stop sign. I was worried that this young man was following me. I then drove straight to the sheriff's office in Houlton ME and reported what I had seen. It was a scary thing. They told me there were many drug related incidents and that they would see what they could find. After that, I was in shock. The world has become such a horrible place. Lord, please keep us safe.

I then went to my appointment and spoke with my doctor. He had moved up here with his wife and six children from Miami, FL. He told me that they had left Miami because some scary things were happening and he was looking for a safe place. We both remarked that Houlton ME was still safe and the people still kind.

Father, I still have times during the day in which I forget that I have this illness. When it then sinks in… well, please forgive me… but I am still afraid. I am scared. I missed out on some things I had hoped for. Nothing in this life is promised. Nothing is certain. What is certain is that I know where my finish line is and that I won't be alone. You will take me to the place You have prepared for me. I am so grateful. I receive a lot of messages about Your promises and I know that You will fulfill every one of them.

I am just hoping for a 'sooner' miracle to avoid some of the intense pain that I know is coming. While these dreams seem to show that I am Transformed while in some sort of pain, I am still praying it doesn't become much worse than the pain I am already in now. I am praying for a miracle, a miracle that I already know is coming. I am praying for something so incredible and so God-sized. I love You, Father. Everything about You is perfect, including Your Plan for me and Your Perfect Timing in all things.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember… My Voice is in you. I speak tender mercies to you during your day so you know I am here and haven't forgotten you. I know you are worried and are in pain."

Me: "Could You please take away my pain, Lord? Could You please heal me?"

Jesus: "My Promises are true and My Ways are higher. This means that I have an eagle's eye view over your situation. I know all things concerning you. I have sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do. I have sent your doctors and cleared your schedule. I have created openings for you to receive all of your tests. The doctors are continuing on a fact-finding mission. They gather as much as they are able to before they continue on."

Me: "Lord, bone cancer as a result of renal cell carcinoma is very bad. I just pray that You do this miracle before I am unable to breathe or even function at all. I am scared, Lord. If it were something I knew more about because my family had a history or something like that, I would feel better. However, with this… well, the doctors wasted no time and all has been immediate.

"Just please, Lord, make this a great miracle so that my children, my husband and his children, my Nest friends and their families, my brothers and their children, my nieces and nephews, so many others too… so no one becomes disheartened and falls away. Please guide my life as it is already Yours. While I know there can be no testimony without a test, this is a hard test for me to face.

"Lord, please don't let me die a painful death. While I would do this for You if this were the way You chose for me, You said that I would live instead. I therefore cling to Your Promises on this. You are my Lord and my Savior. You are my Prince and I am Your Bride. You are our Prince and we are Your Bride."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. I know what it is like to endure pain at the hands of My adversaries. I suffered greatly and for all to bare witness to this. My trials were documented. Even though I knew ultimately the Great Reward that was coming and that the grave could not hold Me, still the night before I wept alone.

"I wept alone and petitioned to My Father in Heaven for another way. However, I knew what was coming and what I would have to endure. Erin, I would do this all again if called to, but my death has already atoned for the sins of man and… well, you know the rest."

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, this is different. I am just a common woman. I am no one."

Jesus: "You are not common to Me. You are unique to Me and certainly uncommon in your ways. You have shared My story through your life and this is not over for you. Erin, you are not finished. I am not finished with you. Since God is with you, then nothing shall be impossible for you because I am here. Now, it is okay to grieve. It is okay to have fear. I see your tears."

Me: "Lord, so many of my ailments have been related to this. I had no idea. Could I have caught this earlier?"

Jesus: "It is I who called you to these doctors. I told you that you were ill. I have put everything in place. Remember that I have already healed your heart (first spiritually and now physically). However, even this is still not complete. The evidence will be overwhelming and all will know I am God in this.

"Now, you are to trust in Me as there are many witnesses and much evidence. Your suffering will yield a great harvest of healing miracles. I have you, Erin, and I am with you in all things. I have sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do."

Me: "While I am trying to rest, my sleep is horrible. Lord, can You please grant me sleep? I get waves of panic and then my heart races. I become afraid."

Jesus: "I know. However, I minister My peace to you, Erin. I am here."

Me: "I am not ready for any of this, Lord."

Jesus: "Ready or not, here I come. Sometimes surrendering your life to Me means that I do the unexpected and My Glory reveals My position in this so nothing can be explained other than by the hands of God. This means a miracle by its very definition. Erin, I have never forgotten you. Do you see all that I have done here? I have not brought you this far only to stop now."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but I am still scared."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but give your life to Me for My purposes. I am here with you."

Dream over.

786 – Seven Hebrew Words Every Christian Should Know

Received on Sunday, February 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! It is sunny with a beautiful bright blue sky. Despite the bitter cold, buds have formed. The buds are still closed though and I assume they will stay this way until the freezing cold finally ends. I have been watching a small very plump female finch on one of the branches. She has been there for a while.

I guess my eyes were focused on just one little bird when I soon realized there were quite a few blending into the tree branches. I am doing the same thing with this cancer stuff. I am focused on it while so much is happening all around us now. Oh Father, I can't do anything on my own strength.

My days are unpredictable as I don't know how I will physically be. My body is under attack and can do nothing. Father, my body is Yours. I come against this foreign invader, this thing that is coming to destroy all that is good in my physical being. I come against this in Your Name, in Jesus' Name, and ask for a healing miracle and reversal.

My body wasn't at peace last night. I was sweating and I don't sweat. At 1:40am, I woke up as in my dream a mighty wind gust opened our front door. I woke up suddenly and the wind was blowing outside. I was unsure if it was a dream or real, so I got up to check on our front door. I could see that the front door was locked and shut. I went back to sleep and woke up again at 4:30am from a very clear and frightening dream…

Sub-dream 1 "The Foreign Armies are already here" begins…

I was in the USA watching the rise of two foreign armies. They were both already here. One was a militia army from Africa and the Middle East. They were dressed in dark green uniforms with berets. Some were blue and some were green. What seemed to stand out to me was that they wore bright white T-Shirts underneath. This was occurring near the northern border of the USA and it seemed like summer.

They had assault rifles that were so high tech and I had never seen anything like them before. Some of them had flamethrowers. They were speaking a language that I did not recognize. They were transporting munition boxes. They were large black metal boxes. They were hiding some of them in culverts and bridge locations on several highways. While they had clearance badges, I didn't know how they got them.

I then saw an army being formed originating from the Land of the Red Dragon. They had been sent in advance into the USA through the southern borders. They were training in either the California or Nevada deserts. I saw a command center in communication with the leader of the Land of the Red Dragon.

His army planned to destroy the power grid and poison the water supplies. The command center said they would take hold of the satellites to blame this on another foreign country. The leader of the Land of the Red Dragon would then announce that the USA had fallen to him. One soldier then asked about the army to the north.

Leader: "We will easily overcome them. We will force them to dig graves."

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up at 6:40am. I then went back to sleep and had another disturbing dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Slaughter is planned at Red Rock" begins...

I was in a building with polished concrete floors and dim lighting. A young executive was panicking because he had no one to look after his five-year-old son while he was away at a conference. I went up to him…

Me: "I will watch over your son while you are away."

Father: "Oh, thank you! However, here is the issue… he needs to be at Red Rock for his camp with the others from his church. It is a day camp on Saturday."

Me: "No worries. I will take him there."

The boy was so adorable and well behaved. The father was very thankful. I took the little boy home and we had a lot of fun. On Saturday, I drove to Red Rock to his church camp. When I arrived early, I saw some very scary people setting things up. I approached one of the workers there…

Me: "Excuse me. I am here to…"

Woman: "Ah, he just couldn't come here on his own. He has you doing his dirty work. (Referring to the boy's father) Well, then, come with me."

The boy then became nervous. While I wanted to leave, I was now surrounded by these people. They took me to an amphitheater. At the base was an altar of red rock, a top slab and two supporting heavy base legs. It was high and had deep channels framing the surface.

Me: "Where are all the other camp children?"

Woman: "You are early. They are coming. There is a great concert. The festivities will then begin."

Me: "Okay. However, I would like to stay with him."

Woman: "Hmm, are you a Christian?"

Me: "Yes."

Woman: "Great. We would like as many as possible to pack this venue. Suit yourself."

The woman walked off. The boy remained with me. He stuck close to me.

Little boy: "Ms. Erin, please don't leave me."

Me: "No matter what, I will not leave you."

He gripped my hand tighter. At the base of the altar was a small black indented hole. I could see some movement in the shadows of this hole.

Me: "Come on, let's see what is living there. Let's explore."

I knelt down to take a look. I saw two birds and a baby bird.

Me: "Come on out."

The little birds came out. They had light grey wings, white breasts and yellow beaks. I had never seen anything quite like this. The little boy laughed in delight. The birds came up to us and began to talk to us. While the little boy could only hear chirping and singing, I heard a voice of the bird speak to me in clear English.

Bird: "They are building holes for mass graves. The boy is to be sacrificed on this altar. The Christians will all be killed. You must warn everyone now."

Me: Nodding. "Thank you."

The bird nodded back. It was odd. I have never had a talking bird dream before. I took the little boy's hand and knelt to pray.

Me: "Come on, I am going to take you for ice cream. What do you think of that?"

Little boy: "Yes, please."

I took his hand to walk back to my car. We were stopped by the woman.

Woman: "Uh, excuse me, but where do you think you are going?"

Me: "I thought I would get us some ice cream."

Woman: "Well, you do have some time before the event begins. However, I really can't let you leave with the boy."

Me: "Why not?"

A man then nodded at her and she nodded back.

Woman: "Okay, the two of you can go, but can you be back in half an hour?"

Me: "Oh, sure! I can't wait for it to begin!"

Woman: "You will want to get here early for front row seats."

Me: "I wouldn't miss it."

I hadn't noticed until now, but the birds had followed us. We let them in our car. I drove out of the gate.

Little boy: "I don't want to go back there. Can we leave for your home?"

Me: "Yes. However, I have something to do first."

As we drove down the winding road out, I got out of my car and prayed to God.

Me: "Lord, please have this mountain come upon the area so that their evil plans fail."

I heard a rumble and several rocks fell. The mountain then fell over the entire area. All of the graves that had been dug were now filled with the bodies of those who were digging them. I then went back into my car. That seemed to be the easiest solution. I was still not sure who was all in on this.

Me: "Oh Lord, thank You for calling down this mountain."

As we drove, a billboard read 'Thank You for Visiting Red Rock! Isaiah 32:1-2!'

Sub-dream 2 over…

I then woke up for the day. I went to my devotional chair and prayed. I thought about the Scripture referenced in this dream…

Isaiah 32:1-2: "1 Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice. 2 Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land."

Me: "Father, I am sick to my stomach. These dreams were so real. Please take my pen and write plainly through me."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Many are the plots of the enemy. His armies have invaded this once great land. They are training in hidden areas and their plans are to destroy this nation. The people fail to believe it because this has never happened in its history."

Me: "Lord, no one will survive this. Christians are already hated."

Jesus: "In this dream, you were different. Certainly, you were changed from your current condition."

Me: "Lord, why Red Rock and Isaiah 32:1-2?"

Jesus: "For it is written by the prophet Isaiah 'Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.' Well, I am the King and you are a princess. Along with other princes and princesses, you will rule in justice against the wicked of the land. Because I am in you, My Voice speaks clearly through you and My Power is upon you than 'each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.'

"Erin, in your dream, the enemy planned to kill all the Christians who came to be refreshed with hope and to worship in truth. The enemy also planned to sacrifice the boy in front of all who were there and then kill them all."

Me: "Is this planned? Is this a real plan? The big Christian Concert is set for August 5th, 6th and 7th this year. That is in the summer."

Jesus: "Erin, many are the plans of the wicked this year. Christians are the target all over the world as evil increased. Now, be encouraged about your role there in the dream. Isaiah had no idea he was prophesying to a time such as this.

"Now, the nations are currently turning away from Israel. They quickly forget through false narratives what truly happened there (the slaughter on October 7, 2023). The leader I allowed into power in your nation is not of sound mind. While this is similar to Nebuchadnezzar, this man will not be humbled. He is a prop of a leader, a front man. However, the strings are being pulled in the shadows.

"The people have been silenced and fear grips the nations as the once great nation is being broken apart by its enemies. However, I am God of ALL the Earth. They will not triumph. I am exposing their positions. I will raise up an army unlike any the world has ever seen. They will not be touched."

Me: "Lord, I am scared. What if I have written any of Your Words or dreams wrong?"

Jesus: "I would tell you. I would stop you. I would correct the wrong. Do not worry."

Me: "While I know this isn't speaking of these dreams, Revelation 22:18-19 speaks of terrible consequences if Your Words are purposely added or subtracted from what You have to say. I pray that I haven't done this here in these dreams with You. You are everything to us and we do not want to disappoint You in any way!"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, hell is not for the Children of God. I love you, Erin. I have called you. Now, I know your illness is terminal according to man. You will receive a number to your days and your hope will be diminished. If you could trust Me with your life, I will keep you."

Me: "I do, Lord, I do. However, I sometimes feel I will fail You with my lack."

Jesus: "Erin, you continue to come to Me every day. This is faith. You are troubled by things coming that you cannot know. You have learned in your life that I love you. I am faithful and I am with you. My breath of life is in you."

Me: "You are still my Hayah, my Great I AM."

Jesus: "Yes… and how could you know such a word in Hebrew had I not placed this upon you?"

Me: "I read an article about seven Hebrew words every Christian should know. My older son is studying Hebrew right now…

- SHEMA: Hear, O Israel. Deuteronomy 6:4. To hear and obey. To take action.
- HESED: God's unshakable love. Isaiah 54:10. It means undeserved love and generosity. Love in action. Covenantal love.
- EMUNAH: The assurance of things hoped for. Hebrews 11:1. Emunah is faith that results in faithfulness. Amen also shares the root. Amen means 'so be it' or 'may it be so'. Faith in action = Faithfulness.

- RUACH: God's holy rushing tide. Isaiah 59:19. This verse Hebrew word 'breath' is Ruach, which means 'Spirit'. I love this… Isaiah is saying that, when God shows up in a situation, it is with an unstoppable power of the Spirit with Him.
- NEPHESH: The breath of life. Genesis 2:7. 'And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living (Soul) Nephesh.' Nephesh = Soul.
- YIRAH: Beginning of all wisdom. Proverbs 9:10. The awe of God. Awe = Yirah. Reverence and worship. However, it can also mean fear.
- TESHUVA: Returning to God. Joel 2:12. The Hebrew word for repentance. Guilt or regret feeling. Enough to return to God with your whole heart.

"So, Lord, here is my prayer to You:

"You Hesed me, love me, every day by Your Spirit, Your breath, in me, Your Ruach. I pray and come to You. I come with Emunah, faithfulness, daily and You give me Your Words and I hear You, Shema, and write as well as practice what I hear. I am in awe of You, Lord. In Yirah, I submit myself to You and worship You in reverence. When I complain or, in sorrow, I avoid You, even when I sin, I Teshuva and turn back to You with my whole heart. With You, Lord, my Soul, my Nephesh, is at peace. Let my prayers be pleasing to You, Lord! Amen!"

Jesus: "This is a good prayer and one that I accept. These words here have even deeper meanings. More than this though, we are as one, you and Me. I am in you with My Spirit and I refresh Your Soul with Living Water. My Breath of Life is in you. I intend to keep it with you."

Me: "Please, Lord. Oh, please do!"

Jesus: "This is very good. A Scripture that is commonly misunderstood and weaponized is this one… 'Without faith, it is impossible to please God.' Study Hebrews. Faithfulness pleases God. Faithfulness and obedience require the faith to believe in something that, by My Voice, I am telling you, a promise. You listen and hear Me. You then come to Me. You come to seek Me daily and it is here that I am found by you. Erin, you remind Me of Elijah at times and Enoch at other times."

Me: "Do You mean that I have similar struggles as Enoch and Elijah?"

Jesus: "Well, yes! While they had doubts in their circumstances, they never doubted My Voice. Enoch came to the Mountain of God and there he was found by Me. He was afraid. Could you imagine Enoch being approached by these fallen angels powerful enough to physically harm him if he didn't give them the right answer?

"Elijah went to the broom tree and the cave to hide. He was afraid. Think of Elijah before the prophets of Baal. He did all that I instructed him to do. This is faithfulness. It is an action. With you, you do something for Me even when you don't want to. However, you still do it because you love and fear Me more than the things I tell you to do. This is faith in action. I gave you the examples of Enoch and Elijah because they make your heart glad."

Me: "Oh Lord, I could never be as holy as them or really anyone You have called in the Bible."

Jesus: "Remember… do not use the word 'never' here. Now, who makes a person holy? Is it the person or God?"

Me: "You do, Lord!"

Jesus: "Okay, so, again, let Me be God."

Me: "Oh Lord, I just fail You on so many accounts. I don't feel holy."

Jesus: "Holiness does not come from your failures. Holiness comes from your desire to love Me with your whole heart, your righteousness and your desire to make My Heart glad by your personal faithfulness and acts of love, your desire to keep upright in your walk. Holiness does not mean perfection! Now, Erin, you are holy and set apart from sin. However, this does not mean you are without sin or sinless, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I am with you. Do not be afraid. Man has given you a bad prognosis and numbered your days. However, I am God. With Me, your prognosis is good. I have been given the true number of your days. You are with Me in eternity."

Dream over.

787 – God's Plans will Trump the Enemy's Plans

Received on Monday, February 26, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Please help me with how best to spend my days before the surgery. It has been difficult. I want to honor You in all I do. I want to care for my family also. Please help me. I am scared. I don't care what anyone says as they are not me. I am scared. In my heart, I want You to do everything a different way.

What if I cancel this surgery, Father? I don't want it. However, what if the cancer has spread or will spread? Then how will this be for my family? All I know is I am suspended in time. I want to spend each day well. I have no interest in the things that seemed mindless before. I now just want to experience what You have for me. I am trying not to worry about what is coming, only what is here now.

I haven't responded to emails in well over a week. I have been so focused on preparing for what is coming. I went through my 32,000 photos. These are moments in time over the last twelve years. Every photo has a memory, a story or a dream. These are records of my life that coincide with my journal pages.

I also found a letter from my Great Grandma Jeanes from August 8, 1970. In this little note, she wrote a thank you to me after I had sent her a small card with a bird. She spoke of how she loved birds. There is very little that I know of her and her life at all. My mom held onto information because Jeanes was her grandmother and she didn't feel I needed the information. When my grandmother died, I was given a jewelry box with all of the items Great Grandma Jeanes wanted me to have.

My mom was hurt that she was not given these items. Since I was only eight, I didn't fully understand any of this. Well, over the years, all that was in that box had been removed little by little by someone and all that remained was the box. When my Great Grandma died, so too did her story.

The story of her life was now gone as well. I have this letter. I have photos of her. I remember her home even though I was very little.

Her father even named a street after her. It is Olive Street and this memorializes her in this little town of Varna IL. It is so sad to think of so many generations we know nothing about. Maybe some leave a legacy or some monument other than a tombstone. However, most of us know very little about our history. All we have is what remains… a tombstone with our name and a beginning date and an ending.

The story is in the dash and our stories, God's story, is written in the tablets of our hearts, but now six feet under in the grave. While we are here, did we make an impact for good? How long will anyone care? History is erased. Thank You, Father, for knowing all things. You know each of us and You keep us. You hold us. Because we are children of God, we are not orphans.

I have spent so much of my life in lawfare. This includes legal battles, health wars and personal wars. All of these events have taken a great toll on my physical wellbeing.

When I was young, I was competitive and a perfectionist. I had expectations of myself that were impossible to meet. I had expectations of myself that were impossible to meet. I had goals that, to most, would be unattainable. However, to me, they were probable goals. I worked hard and I was dedicated.

'NO' was not an option, even if it meant I would work several jobs to afford the equipment or the training. When a door would slam shut, I would go another way. When I would stop, I would then turn my attention to a new goal. I was healthy physically until the car accident in 1997 when I realized that I was breakable.

When I realized that I needed God to take over all of me, my story changed. My journey to bring me closer to God began at my breaking. While my accomplishments and awards sound impressive, the true miracles and the real stories are found in my failures. My quiet time of humility is when all that I am is laid before God. When I was first a Christian, I was in the midst of legal battles.

This was how the enemy created anxiety and personal wealth drain. I noticed that every time one case was settled, the settlement money would go to the next legal battle. In some of these, I had no choice but to be the pursuer in the cause of justice. However, and as with my health, the drain on my finances and my will became an issue and I had to let go of some of these. I even had someone steal my designs.

I also had an employee embezzle $30,000 while I was in the hospital. It was as if the gates of hell opened and unleashed lawfare against me. It was an ugly time and not one I would ever want to repeat. These continued to come at me for many years. These finally officially ended in 2022. While my health issues continued, my legal battles finally ended. When I think back, the anxiety comes.

At times, I fought hard in hindsight. It was a chasing and, at time, I had a clear-cut case and should have fought. I didn't. I disengaged and it wasn't easy. Even so, my children were worth the fight and I was willing to remove child support so we could live in peace. This is how I chose it. I knew that if he paid a dime towards the children's care, he would want control. I removed his ability to do this.

Looking back, I think I could have done everything differently. It was foolish, young and naïve. When God didn't answer fast enough, I would then 'step in for Him'. What a fool I had been! He has always been here. I am a shining example of God showing up for me in my darkest of moments. He has met every one of my needs. He has stepped in and provided for us. He covered for me.

I now realize that He allowed some of the troubles so that He could be seen visibly to Me in these times of darkness. Father, I need You now. I am scared. If I do nothing, I have less than two years. If I go forward, I could avoid an even worse fate of this spreading to my lungs or bones. This Wednesday, we will know for certain if the cancer has spread. It has been grieving me.

I know the promises You have given to me. These are good. I just thought… well, we have come through this great obstacle course and such difficulty only to see all of this ahead of us. The financial burdens are more than we are able to endure without You sending a miracle. Oh Father, I need a miracle! I don't want another surgery. It is here in ten days. Just ten more days. In two days, I find out how bad this is.

I then remembered a song by the Beatles… 'ob-ie-di, ob-ia-da, life goes on'. This was on their 1968 White Album. I remembered this from when I was a child. Things were not so great even when my parents played this album. Life goes on around us continually. Unless something makes someone reflect, no one stops to consider each fleeting moment.

I had a dream two nights ago.

Sub-dream 1 "A Message from God via Uriel" begins…

I was walking up the road to see the little horse that stays in the pen that Dusty once occupied. It was winter still. The skies were blue and it was cold. I walked up to the little horse and I stroked the side of its face. It stared at me and I began to cry. Just then, the horse stood on its hind legs. I felt a hand on my shoulder. I turned and there was Uriel. I reached over and hugged him. I could tell that he was uncomfortable with this hug. I believe it was because it drew attention to him.

Uriel: "Erin, I have a message for you from God."

Me: "It has been a long time since you have visited with a Word from God."

Uriel: "God is with you, Erin. Do not give up hope. Your miracle is coming."

Me: "Uriel, should I go through the surgery? Is this God's Will for me?"

Uriel: "God has placed you in the care of those He has called. After this coming test, you will know more. You are stepping out in full faith and God will provide for your every need. Worry does no good to your body. Remember that God is not finished with you yet despite reports."

I felt the horse nudge me. I turned back to look at Uriel, but he was now gone. I saw that there were some footprints in the snow, but only where he had stood. The sheepdogs began to bark and I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I fell back to sleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Supernaturally Cleaning Complete Filth" begins…

I was visiting my daughter at work. In this case, the store where she worked had cleared away. Only one wicked assistant manager remained. I was there to help my daughter open the store. I was wearing an all-silk blouse and wrap. The color was a light purplish gray with large white magnolias on it. Some former employees had stolen most of the merchandise and displays, barely leaving a functioning store.

At one point, I checked the restroom. They were disgusting. One employee pushed me and my silk scarf wrap fell into an unflushed toilet. When I pulled the scarf out of the toilet, it was supernaturally cleaned as nice as it was before. I then walked out and prayed. The entire store, including the restrooms, became spotless and sanitary. I then prayed and the entire store was changed and replenished. I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I have never had a dream of a silk scarf falling into excrement before. It was disgusting. I went to my devotional chair.

Me: "Father, please show Your grace and mercy to me. I cry out to You all hours of the day and night. I will not let You go unless You bless me (Genesis 32:26). If a widow bothered the unjust judge so much that he granted her request just to keep her from coming to him, then how much more would You grant me, Father?

"I am coming to my Father, the Just Judge, who rules in righteousness and majesty over all mankind. The Lord said, 'Will not God grant justice to His chosen ones who cry to Him day and night? Will He delay long in helping them? I tell you; He will quickly grant justice to them (Luke 18:1-8).

"My younger son fasted again without water and food. He drank water last night and remains with water for the balance of this week. Father, please grant him the desires of his heart. He has sought You with such zeal that I never had even during my darkest days. Please do this for me even if… Wait!

"Oh Father, never mind with that. You promised to grant us the desires of our heart when we seek Your Will with our whole hearts (Psalm 37:4). Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord and trust Him and He will act (Psalm 37:5).

"So, Father, I stand on these words from You and I won't budge. Please do this for me. As for my illness, it seems Your Will is for me to continue on as, so far, I have received no word that I am to stop seeking the care of doctors. Uriel said, 'God has placed you in the care of those He called.'

"So, these professionals have been called by You, Father. I am sad though. My lower back near my kidneys is in great pain. My sleep is broken up and I am unwell. Could You please consider healing me soon?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are suffering and not just physically. You are grieving."

Me: "It is aging me, Lord. I don't know if it is worry about the unknown. Well, actually, I know what it is. Did I do something wrong to bring about my illness? If I did, I repent. Lord, I am sorry."

Jesus: "Hmm, then what kind of Savior would I be if I didn't tell you to stop. In fact, would I commune with you daily and not say, 'Erin, stop what you are doing!'"

Me: "You have before, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes… and what happened?"

Me: "I stopped immediately… R2B2!"

Jesus: "Okay. So, when I told you awhile back that you had a terminal illness, did I say, 'If you stop this or that'?"

Me: "No, Lord. However, I did act on something involving one of our children that had caused so much anguish. It was ongoing rebellion."

Jesus: "Yes, this is true. However, I moved this situation completely away from you so you would have peace and so would your house. I sent your needy son out west for a short while to give you peace as well. I took over the reins of your rebellious son and he now prays, fasts and consults Me first. A miracle.

"Your daughter has become a helper and a prayer warrior during this great time of need. Your stepson is apart and bothers no one. See, I commanded the angels concerning you to do these things… to tie up loose ends, clear out clutter and continue to come to Me in your time of great need.

"Now, this you must know… I have not stopped. The enemy attacked your household in the 12th month relentlessly hoping the findings of your medical test would be lost in the noise of the battle. Now, I know what you are about to say, Erin."

Me: "Yes, Lord… why not just heal my body? I finally have the house completely finished and a new oven that actually cooks and now I cannot enjoy this? I can't live free from all of these troubles? Now I must plan in the event You choose a different way?

"Lord, You are my Best Friend. You know me. You know the good and the bad, the healthy and the sick. I feel forsaken. We are barely sustaining here. Please, Lord. How would my… oh, never mind."

Jesus: "Death? Erin, I promised you that I am with you. While this has a great ending, it is a beginning, not the end. You do not end. Now, you have things left to do and I will provide your strength and your means. I have never stopped my miracles in your life. When I speak to you, I speak in truth. Why would I stop now?"

Me: "Because You have grown tired of me?"

Jesus: "Wait! I am God. I created you. You are My Bride. I have spent all of your life to prepare you for My service but now I am tired? I don't grow tired of those I call friend. If I don't grow tired of my friends, then how much more would I love and long to be with My Bride? Erin, am I a double-minded God?"

Me: "Of course not, Lord. I guess I am tired of being me in my body. I am tired of these battles. I am tired of crushed dreams and ongoing attacks. I am ready for the good stuff in my dreams. The world is becoming dark so quickly. Evil repays kindness with horrible deeds. We have been fooled as a people with a wicked leader whom You have allowed to rise that is destroying the nation, Israel and Europe… but really the world."

Jesus: "Yes, these leaders are allowed because people have fallen away from God. Evil has come in through the open door and evil begats more evil. The father of lies is here now, Erin, and the people still don't go to the God of all Truth, the One and Only God of all of Creation.

"Now, as you know, an invasion of the land once called 'Blessed by God and the Land of the Free' is now occurring. I see the wicked behind this and all that evil has planned for those living in the once safe land. The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at them.

"However, I laugh at the wicked and I see the day that comes against them. I shall break the arms of the wicked and I shall hold the arms of the righteous. The very wicked they plan against My people will be the very wicked that befalls those who plot in lofty places. I see. I am the God who sees.

"I promise you that they will scatter like roaches at the coming of the dawn and cry out for the darkness to cover them so they will not be exposed and found. However, I see which cavern they scurry to and which crevice they wedge themselves into. I am coming and, with Me, tens of thousands of My Saints. They will work for Me across the land to administer and enforce truth, justice and the Law of God."

Me: "Lord, I want to be in this number please!"

Jesus: "You have already been there."

Me: "Past tense, Lord?"

Jesus: "Appointed from the start. Now, when you see these evils, understand the nearness of the hour as the increase is swift and comes like a flood across the land. The father of lies has appointed himself over the government for a purpose."

Me: "As the Artificial Intelligence (AI) Czar, right?"

Jesus: "Yes. This is so he can rewrite all history and wipe out the laws, the truth and all that is evidence of God. He plans to burn up libraries and all historical evidence in museums even. It is a form of control that is outside the Laws of God. All historical evidence is stored in the Courts of Heaven by angels. One day, this evidence of truth will be used against evil.

"Now, he also has plans to cheat these elections in favor of his party. He also plans to hunt down and destroy all in opposition to him, even seizing properties, valuables and children and giving this over to the foreign invaders. He has plans to remove Christians, offer them up in courts and render them guilty with no fair trial and put into slave camps. Their children will then be taken from them to either be sold or killed."

Me: "This is awful. Oh Lord, please stop this!"

Jesus: "These are the plans of the wicked and is not necessarily what will come. This is all to destroy the nation under God and give her over to the enemy. They will then destroy Israel as there will be no defense for Israel.

"Even so, they who worship the black rock will soon know who the God of Israel is, as well as the Creator of all mankind. They will be speechless and their heads dropped in shame. Just know that all of these who are wicked are on the clock. Their time is coming and My Judgment will be swift."

Me: "You seem angry today."

Jesus: "Erin, I see such evil. I see so many evil things, and not just in secret, but also out in the open. I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if you were told. Now, you are to remember that I see. My angels are recording. Nothing is hidden. The evidence of evil is vast. So too will My Justice be widespread and swift."

Me: "What do we do in the meantime?"

Jesus: "Pray! Erin, I am with you. Many of those holding positions of power did not gain power from the people. These are positions that are ill-gained and ill-gotten."

Me: "Oh, by cheating!"

Jesus: "Yes. All of them will be exposed. It will be detailed and graphic. The people will be in an uproar over all of it. This was allowed because the times of My Judgment are forthcoming."

Me: "Scary!"

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin. This will be a time of shock, awe and great joy!"

Dream over…

788 – Perfect Rooms at the Old Grain Elevator

Received on Thursday, February 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

A GREAT NEWS Update! The assistant doctor to my surgeon, both based out of Portland ME, called us this afternoon with information regarding the Bone Scan that was performed on me yesterday in Presque Isle ME. She informed me that my Bone Scan showed NO SIGNS of Bone Cancer!

This is wonderful news as Bone Cancer patients rarely make it past five months…and, yes, I recognize that I have Jesus personally telling me that death is not in my future regardless of whatever this diagnosis had turned out to be! Even so, this is such GREAT NEWS and a profound relief! The Lord is worthy of all our praises!

And now…back to the dream, a dream that I had received before receiving the great news of NO Bone Cancer…

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my family, my friends, my medical teams and even the little animals in my yard. I am grateful to You in all things.

I had three dreams last night. The first two dreams seemed to be tied into each other…

Sub-dream 1 "The Keys to Many Doors" begins…

I went back for a visit to the Oakland Bay area in California where I grew up from age 6 to age 13. This neighborhood I grew up in was now dangerous. I was young and in my 20s. I had returned to visit some areas that I had remembered as a child. However, I no longer recognized the new landscape. Everything had changed. I was beginning to leave as I found no one whom I felt needed a visit.

I decided to go look at my old home instead. It was then that I suddenly noticed that I no longer had the deep feeling of pain that I once had. I was not tied to it anymore. My old home was situated about 60 feet from the railroad tracks. Closer to my home and above were the elevated Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) tracks. Below these elevated tracks had once been a beautiful grass area and walking path.

Instead of this beautifully grassed area, it was now a massively long homeless camp. Above our old home was a ladder. It was situated above our old garage where my Stepdad had taken his own life. The ladder went straight up above the clouds. I was curious, so I climbed the ladder. When I got to the top, there was a vast home of glass. I could see inside.

While there was a key entry to open the door, I had no key. Since I didn't have a key, I decided to back down. When I stepped down onto our driveway, I was approached by what appeared to be a homeless man or woman (I couldn't tell his or her sex). While he or she gave me the keyholder's name in the dream, I could not recall the name to write it down now.

Person: "You are looking for the keyholder. He is looking for you too."

He or she then pointed me in a certain direction and motioned me to walk down the street. I then walked an old familiar sidewalk a few blocks down. I remembered a different time here, one not like this. However, I was now somehow able to not attach myself to feel sorrow at all. Even so, I was still sad for those who were stuck here.

I must have walked five city blocks to a main street. The homeless encampments were everywhere. There was a horrible stench coming from them. Even so, the sun shined like it always did and the temperature was perfect. I then heard a voice…

Kind man: "Erin, I have been looking for you. Here are the keys."

I turned and there, in front of me, was a kind looking man about the same age as me in appearance (both of us looking to be in our 20s). He held out a set of keys. His eyes were a piercing blue green color that was quite similar to the eye color of Jesus.

Kind man: "Everything you need is waiting there for you. Your daughter will soon join you."

Me: "Why do I need so many keys?"

Kind man: "In order to open several doors."

He then put his hood up over his head and left. He instantly blended into the crowd.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Something then woke me up. I then moved into my second dream, a dream that seemed similar to my first dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Two Massive La Cornue Ranges" begins…

I was young again. I was in a massive restaurant. It had a huge open kitchen with at least ten food prep crews. The kitchen crew was preparing to receive two new ovens. I recognized these as La Cornue ranges. These were extremely high end. I only had one client who owned one. Even though many others had wanted one, the lead time to receive one of these ranges was ridiculous.

I then noticed that the kitchen was poorly laid out. They clearly had no designer. The way it was set up made it ridiculously hard to even function as a kitchen. There were many top chefs running around struggling to get their creations through the cooking stages to the plating. A women in white chef's clothing then called me over to her…

Chef: "Since you say you are a designer, help us figure this thing out."

She pointed to one of the two new massive La Cornue ranges. It had several compartments and was clearly not simple to operate.

Me: "I have never operated one before, only specified one. Look, I need you to know that I am not at all comfortable…"

Chef: Interrupting me. "I don't care about your comfort. Just get it done. I've got several turkeys in these ovens. Look, we are at crunch time here!"

I then realized that this was Thanskgiving. There must have been a massive crowd to feed. In the back of the kitchen, there were several rotisserie ovens like the ones used at Costco to cook chicken, but were instead supersized to cook turkeys. I walked up to the La Cornue range and opened what once was the small door to place spices and flavorings. I noticed that when I opened the spice door that turkey skin was coming out.

I then noticed that the steam oven was now at maximum pressure. I tried to get someone's attention as several alarm bells were now ringing. The steam gauge continued to rise. Several chefs ran over and pushed me out of the way. They were angry at me. Two of the chefs then turned toward me in great anger.

Chef 1: "You hit grind mode!"

Me: "No, I didn't. I didn't even know there was such a thing as grind mode."

One of the chefs turned the oven off and opened the compartment. The turkey had completely been obliterated into mush. They all turned to blame me. I stayed silent. Even though they had hundreds of other turkeys cooking just fine, they were focusing entirely on this one and were so angry about it.

Chef 2: "This one was for a special delegate. It was perfect for him. He chose this one turkey out of your yard and he wanted this specific one served to him."

I felt the Lord tell me that this 'special delegate' was actually quite evil. I began to become stronger in my demeanor. I must have then appeared differently suddenly as these two chefs now seemed scared of me and backed down. I then heard my name called from behind me. It was the same kind man with blue green eyes from the first dream. He again looked like Jesus in quite a few ways.

Kind man: "Erin, I am here. Here are your keys. Take them and use them. You didn't grind the turkey. They pressured it and it exploded under their watch. Now, you are to leave this place as there is no one here to hear."

I nodded and then instantly disappeared.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I was only awake for a very short time before slipping into my third dream…

Sub-dream 3 "Perfect Rooms at the Old Grain Elevator" begins…

I was young again. I was traveling north to a train depot. It seemed to be somewhere like northern Maine, maybe somewhere near Calais ME. I just couldn't clearly tell. There were three young men traveling alongside me. While I didn't know them, they insisted on following me, so I let them.

When we arrived at this town, the sun in the sky above the horizon line of hills seemed to indicate that it was about 3:00 pm in the afternoon. While I somehow knew that I was correct about the time of day, I had nothing to confirm it like a phone or watch. The town was painted, but more like whitewashed. Every building was painted with white primer. All of the windows were boarded up and painted white.

Even the railroad tracks and depot were all white. Each building had one functional clear window and an entrance. As we walked down the street, I peered into a few buildings. I could see people working at their desks. The desks were Formica topped with a banding of chrome. The drawers were made of oak. I only noticed the desks because I had never seen desks like these before.

I thought it to be odd that none of the clerks had computers. They instead had light green graph paper and were working on complex geometric problems. I knocked on a door, but no one answered. I decided to open the door anyway. A woman was there to greet me. While I didn't know her, she somehow recognized me.

Woman: "Erin, it is so good to see you. Never mind us. The town is excited about the projection of the path which should cut right through our sleepy little town. The train arrives bright and early in the morning at the depot. We have a small room prepared for you at the grain elevator for tonight."

Me: "Grain elevator?"

The clerks were all laughing. One of the clerks turned to address me. She had a round metal ring of gold with several skeleton keys on it…

Clerk: "It is beautiful and has such a grand view. You will have some rest here. You will then be ready for the grand journey. Now, come with me!"

Me: "Do you have any room for my friends?"

Clerk: "What friends?"

I turned to point to the three young men who had been following me. They were gone.

Me: "Hmm, I guess they must have left."

Clerk: "Oh, do not worry… they are nearby. Since they followed you this far, they certainly wouldn't leave you before the big show. Now, come with me!"

She walked me to the edge of town where there was a massive grain elevator. The elevator was painted all white. It looked very dramatic against the golden wheat fields and the blue sky. There was a staircase on the side that led to the very top. It was quite a climb.

When we arrived at the top, the clerk used her keys to open a beautiful door. The door was made of carved white oak and sandblasted. She opened the door and there were windows all around the room. The room had a view of the entire valley and the surrounding mountains. In the room itself was a lofted white ceiling and a white painted wooden plank floor.

There was a thick feather bed on a small four-poster bed. The pillows and bed were so lush that I had never seen anything like this. It was perfect. There was even a small very fancy modern polished chrome wood stone fireplace. She went over and started a fire supernaturally quickly.

Me: "This is so lovely! Thank you!"

Clerk: "You are in our VIP Suite, the best we have to offer you."

I cried. There were flowers and a Bible on a little chair. The view was stunning.

Me: "I feel very blessed. Thank you." I hugged her.

Clerk: "This came straight from the top. Now, sunset is near. Enjoy the view. Your train arrives at the depot bright and early."

I woke up when she closed the door.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, in these dreams, I feel alone. I woke up sad. While I found these dreams to be interesting, I just don't understand them.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. I love you and I am with you. Do you need Me to repeat this again? I will. I love you and I am with you. Do not worry. Now, you are concerned about many things. You are worried about this and that and the number of your days. You sit in silence and try to carve out joy. Erin, there is something I want you to know… I am here!"

Me: "Lord, these dreams seem like a transition from this life to another. Oh Lord, I don't want to die. I want to stay for all of the excitement."

Jesus: "Hmm, these dreams seemed more like you were already Transformed, not in some 'in-between universe'. Erin, you understand that, for you, there is 'the here and now' and then there is 'eternity with Me'. However, let Me be clearer… you are already here with Me now. Be strong and courageous."

Me: "Oh Lord, I am trying to be. I am just so sad. This illness has stripped me of my joy. I am trying to feel good and have joy here, but nothing satisfies."

Jesus: "I know, Erin. However, anything that comes your way, and I mean anything, then this has been allowed by Me for My purposes. Even though some of these things seem counter intuitive to what you would expect, know that I am with you in all things. I have a Great Plan with your life. Erin, did you 'catch' this? I said 'life'."

Me: Crying. "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I am with you. I love you and you are Mine. My purposes are not for you to worry about because, with all things, I have a great reason. It is about My Great Harvest of Souls. You are residing in an upper room, in one of My grain storehouses. There, I give you more than you can imagine.

"Erin, you delight in Me and I delight in you. Do not be burdened. Delight in Me in all things and I will give you the desires of your heart. I love you. Trust in Me when it seems I am making no sense. I promise you that all will be made clear to you very soon. Now, enjoy this day. I have a reason for all things. It will bring you joy!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-789/

789 – Almost at the Top of God's Mountain

Received on Sunday, March 3, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I love You and I am grateful for You. I traded a life filled with fear, doom and gloom for a life filled with peace, promise and hope. I am forever and ever thankful. Father, what can I do when I take comfort that You will go before me, yet I don't take comfort in where You are now taking me? Even so, I just know and trust You because I love You and I desire to do Your Will.

While I know that You could cure my cancer instantly, I have to accept that You may have a different way than my desires in what is about to happen. I am not sure how we will face what is coming up. I have no idea what all of this will be like. I had a dream last night and it was similar of my Near Death Experience (NDE) on 11.22.2004 (November 22, 2004).

Sub-dream 1 "Reminiscent to my 2004 NDE" begins…

I stood at the base of this Mountain. As I was making the climb up the Mountain, You spoke to me loud and clear. It was dawn. Since there was a thick fog above me, I could not see my destination. There was a beautiful and complex geometric pattern stamped in the soft red powdery dirt on my path. I heard Your Voice…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, climb!"

I hesitated out of fear that my feet were going to destroy the complex pattern in the dirt.

Me: "But my steps will ruin this pattern, God."

You then responded with something I will not forget…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, sometimes patterns must change in order for you to climb."

In reality, in order for me to come to Your Mountain, I needed to make changes in my walk. I wanted to hear more from You. I wanted clarity. However, I had to be willing to let go of the aesthetics, the optics, of what this would look like. My feet stepped on this pattern and completely changed the path before me. From my perspective and in my honest opinion, this seemed to wreck it.

However, I was willing to do as God asked me because I wanted Him more than anything. As I climbed the Mountain to God, I had a piece of luggage with a handle. It was on wheels. It was useless and slowed my climb. Since I was climbing up God's Mountain, I knew 100% that He would have everything I would need for the journey to Him. I decided to drop my bag of belongings altogether.

Once I did, I didn't look back. After this, my climb became so much lighter and easier. I had always thought my suitcase specifically meant material items. However, I now realize that it also symbolized the need to belong… belongings. The need in my Christian walk to be esteemed and admired by others was clearly wrong thinking.

At my old church, I had no standing at all. The only way I could get this standing was if I had a large sum of money to donate to this church. I obviously did not have this sum to donate. This means that, as I was, I was a complete nobody. That being said, there were a few things that I did do for this very large church…

- I made the flower arrangements for the pulpit.
- I selected the fabrics and the carpets for the sanctuary.
- I selected the choir robes for the 100+ singers.

However, because of jealousy and politics, I was asked by the higherups to keep silent about my involvement. They were right to do so as I heard horrible things said of my selections. Even so, I am convinced that, no matter what was selected, they would have argued and complained. I chose navy blue and burgundy with gold and saw this as perfect for this venue. I feel like I would pick the same colors even today.

All of this underlines that I sometimes looked on other Christians instead of God for my 'belonging' as a Christian. Had I not removed this useless piece of luggage, I would have been negatively influenced by opposing voices to God's instructions. I therefore chose the lonely road that led to You.

After a while, I noticed that my climb no longer seemed to progress. Since the fog was still only lifting at the same rate as my climb, I still had no idea where I was going. I didn't know how long it would take. Since I knew I shouldn't look back, I didn't know how far I had come. When I almost looked back despite knowing better, I heard Your Voice again…

Voice of the Lord: "Allow Me to carry you!"

Me: "But I don't know where I am going or how far…"

I almost looked backwards, but again stopped myself (or God did).

Voice of the Lord: "No! Do not look back to see how far you have come. Allow Me to carry you!"

Me: "Oh Lord, where am I going?"

Voice of the Lord: "You must trust Me."

This particular part of my journey was exhausting and long. It seemed as if I was going nowhere. However, You knew. Father, You knew things would be different and my climb would be lonely. You told me to allow You to carry me. That meant there would be times when I could not see the end in my sights.

It meant it could be lonely and I could lose my belongings. It meant I would likely lose everything before You would bring Your blessings back. However, if I would allow You to carry me when I was tired, fearful and sick, You promised to carry me. I once again called out to You…

Me: "But, Father, I can't see where I am going. The fog is too thick."

Voice of the Lord: "You must trust Me. I see!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Well, Father, here I am. While I also had some other dreams last night, I do not fully recall them. However, it was based on this time with You. Father, I trust You. I just don't like not being able to see through the fog. I am still scared.

I suppose that, in honor of my dream last night and my memories of my 11.22.2004 NDE, You allowed it to be a foggy day outside of our home. Well, I can clearly see that even fog can be pretty. The snow has melted very quickly and rain is in the forecast all week. Please keep the rain mild with no wind, Father, so that we have no disasters while we are away for my surgery.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, on your journey, where did you find Me?"

Me: "I found You the moment that my foot stepped out to climb Your Mountain. Your Voice was loud."

Jesus: "So, what was the purpose of My Mountain in your vision while you slept?"

Me: "It signified a long climb."

Jesus: "I am the Mountain. I am your Climb. The Fog is My Cloud, a Spirit of the Dew of Blessing. You were going to no longer rely on what you could see with your eyes, but instead through My Spirit. Oh Erin, you are priceless to Me."

Me: "I am so thankful that You see something in me that pleases You! Oh Lord, sometimes I think that I am as dense as this thick fog. I must not be that bright as none of this occurred to me before. I never examined the whole NDE dream in greater measure before."

Jesus: "Then this is the Appointed Time right now. For everything, there is a season, and a time for every matter under Heaven. This was written by a wise king, the son of David (Solomon). He did not know then that he wrote this about the Great Tribulation and the New Kingdom."

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8: 1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under Heaven: 2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Me: "Oh wow, I never knew this."

Jesus: "Read this as if it is both here and soon to come. Now, you are to also reread what you wrote in your journal yesterday about waiting. You had great understanding."

Me: "Okay, Lord, I will…"

From my journal as written yesterday begins…

This waiting is difficult. Waiting on You is difficult. Waiting on promises is difficult. While some waiting is extremely short, some waiting can be much longer. Some waiting on Your promises in this life remains just this… promises realized, but elsewhere for eternity.

In these times of instant gratification all around us today, it is hard to remain patient while we suffer. Each day presents hope. Even so, hope can then turn into discouragement when it is deferred yet another day. Sometimes You seem silent even though we know You are in the waiting. Father, please help me. When someone is older, and since I am now older, I have grown accustomed to the waiting.

Even my devotional today was about waiting. Waiting on God does not mean sitting around hoping. Waiting means believing He will do what He has promised and then acting with confidence. How can we be so sure You are telling us things that are going to happen? Then why didn't they happen as we thought they should? As an example, why didn't You tell me sooner about my cancer? Or maybe You did?

From my journal as written yesterday over…

Jesus: "Erin, the Mountain is Me and the waiting for your promises. At times, the promises I gave to you are like a never-ending climb. Well, I now ask you this… are you climbing to know Me in deeper relationship or are you climbing in search of something?"

Me: "Why does this have to be one or the other? Lord, my journey has been to seek You and know You more because I have sought You with my whole heart. In doing so, I have forsaken family and friends. Well, looking back, they never really approved of me to begin with.

"Those closest to me now know that I love You and You are first in my life. However, I would propose to You that I both seek more of You and search for answers. You are fascinating and I am never bored by You. You satisfy all of my longings and all of my 'belongings'."

Jesus: "Then you have great wisdom. Now, you have waited only to face this next obstacle. You are correct… I could heal you instantly. However, I have a Great Plan and Miracle. Will you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, I don't want another surgery. This one is a major one. Could You at least make it comfortable and heal me supernaturally? I don't want to be bed-ridden."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I know. I understand that you don't like this part of your walk… but, really, your climb. I promise to be with you every step. I will carry you. I will bless the doctors, the nurses, the instruments and even the medicines. I have not forgotten you. I love you. I will care for your every need. I am in your waiting. I am in your climb. My Glory Cloud is over you and goes where you go. You are almost to the top of My Mountain. Take courage. I am with you. Do not worry."

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. My Voice is in you."

Dream over.

790 – The Landlord Who Planted a Vineyard

Received on Tuesday, March 5, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! I feel very blessed to have so many loving friends around me. I feel blessed for my children and also for my husband. I am so grateful for all that You have done for me. Everything! Even though I have many valleys to face, I know who resides over the valleys and the mountains. You! You do as You are my God over all things.

You care about Your children and You remember us. While generations forget other generations, You are our Father who never forgets anyone. You make possible what would otherwise be impossible for man. You designed our bodies. You created us. You selected where we would be born and who our parents are. You select everything right down to the very last detail.

From here, You guided us along the path we were to take to get us where You called us to be. You sent angels concerning us to help us in all that we do. You treasure us and hold us close even when we are unaware You were near. You made sure we always had enough to eat. You kept our power on and You help us stay warm. You fulfilled our needs and often even before we even ask You.

There has been nothing beyond Your reach in our lives. Father, You are the Greatest Gift I didn't even know I had until just a few years ago. While I knew You were there, I had no idea what an amazing Dad You are. You are the Father who is faithful and loves us unconditionally. You love us through it all. The only thing that keeps us from You is us. I run and hide when I am scared or uncertain about the outcome of a battle.

Even so, You still find me. You run after me. You are not the God who runs or the love who got away. You are here right now and there is no place I would rather be. I am safe in Your arms and You are my strength. Father, bless my friends who pray for me. Bless them today where they are. Thank You for sending them to help us during the difficult portion of this journey.

So many are in uncertain situations. They are facing health wars, lawfare in courts, family struggles, oppositions at work and even against other Christians. Since I have been averaging only twenty minutes a day on my technology, I don't respond quickly these days. However, I am so thankful to all those who send prayers and notes.

It is my hope and prayer that all of my friends will understand that I will have trouble responding quickly after this Thursday's operation. It would be so nice to be able to respond to all the notes and prayers I am already getting and others that I know are still to come. In the meantime, I will continue to pray for each of you that God will bless you abundantly and that He opens Heaven over you.

I pray that all of my friends experience the miraculous love and gifts of our Father. I command by God's Authority that the miraculous promises of God be manifested over our Nest and all those who call upon our Lord Jesus in their time of need. It is so odd to think that this is my last entry with both of my kidneys unless the Lord intervenes miraculously. Either way, I am ready for Him and what His Will is for me.

By His Authority and in the Name of Jesus, I speak divine life over my body. I am not finished yet. There is so much left to do. Father, I cling to Your promises. Even though I do not want this surgery, I will do this with courage because I know that You go before me. You are always with me and Your Voice is always in me. You will personally command the doctors, the nurses, their instruments and even the robots.

Please watch over our home while we are away. Please watch over the little animals and birds. Please watch over our children and our pets, Zoey and Snigglet. Please protect all of them from any enemy schemes. Please protect our Nest, our family of Sparrows. Please strengthen us for the journey and protect our car. Thank You, Father!

My dream last night was a simple one…

Sub-dream 1 "So Much to be Thankful for" begins…

We were now living in a home that was on level ground and was welcoming. It was our new home. The landscape was beautiful. It looked more like a home in the south. There was a massive deep wraparound porch and open glass doors throughout.

There were many people visiting us and so much activity. We were preparing for a big event. It felt like it involved a wedding or engagement for my daughter. So many people came by to congratulate us and visit. There was music and food and joy. It seemed like summertime.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, let this dream be so. It was wonderful. In this, it seemed like others were helping with the preparations. This made it so I had time to visit with our guests. This is not like I usually am as I am usually very hands on. However, this seemed more like a catered affair. I remember how beautiful the weather was. The atmosphere was crystal clear and the sun was warm.

Me: "Father, thank You for dreams. Thank You in the midst of such a dark world that You would grant me such a beautiful dream. Bless You, Father, in all the Earth. Let Your Name be praised. I love You!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I will not leave you. I have promised you many things and I will do as I promised you. I will also bless all of those who have blessed you. I will remove all of those who curse you. They will be no more. I have called upon your children. Since they have turned to Me, I have abundantly blessed them. I will bless those who bless them and say nice things of them."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. You are my Blessing and the Love of my heart. I am so grateful for You in all things."

Jesus: "Erin, the world around you is changing quickly and even faster than you understand. The moment you hear something significant on the news, something else then comes and replaces it. The news only tells of certain things. However, there is something that is not spoken of. Do you know what this is?"

Me: "Maybe AI. Well, it can't be AI as they already speak of this. Hmm, I don't know, Lord."

Jesus: "God. I am moving in the midst of this, understand? They have no power unless the evil is allowed the power to bring in the purposes of God and My Kingdom. Because of the evil that has spread rapidly, people are turning back to God. When they cry out to Me, I will be there to save them."

Me: "Lord, if You do nothing, the enemy will be able to throw this election through corruption and AI."

Jesus: "AI is controlled by the enemy. Since the enemy doesn't win, AI doesn't win. There is a great deception that is here now and a plan to destroy any and all opposition. However, they cannot destroy God. I cannot be defeated. Their plans are to modify truth and even emulate My Voice.

This is where false messiahs, false prophets and great deceptions all come from.

"Remember, if they say, 'there he is in the wilderness', do not go out. If they say, 'here he is in the inner rooms', do not believe it. Remember the parable of the Landowner who planted a vineyard. He prepared His property to protect it. He built a wall around it. He dug a winepress and even a watchtower. He then rented it to some farmers and moved away.

"When the Harvest Time approached, He sent His servants to the occupants to collect his fruit. The occupiers seized His servants. They beat one, killed another and stoned a third. The Landowner then sent many more of His servants. The occupiers again treated them in the same manner. At last, He sent His Son to them thinking, 'Surely they will respect My Son.'

"However, when the occupiers saw the Son, they said to each other, 'This is the Heir. Come, let's kill Him and take His inheritance.' So, they took Him and threw Him our of the vineyard and killed Him. So, what do you think should be done to these occupiers who robbed the Landowner of His land, harvest, His workers and disrespected His Son even to death?"

Me: "These are wicked! They must pay!"

Jesus: "Erin, God sees. The land is Mine. The harvest is Mine. The workers are Mine. My chosen Bride is also Mine. So, evil steals, occupies the wilderness and the inner rooms and calls out as a savior. However, those who are wise will head My warning and not go out. Do not believe it. Why? This is because My Voice is in you and I won't take you there. However, many will be deceived into believing the lies of the enemy."

Me: "That parable seems like it is also for now… for this time we are in."

Jesus: "Make no mistake… you are hated for My sake. Many are abused, beaten and killed by the wicked. They do this to My servants whom I sent. When I was there in the flesh, they even killed the Son of God. However, they can no longer take My life as I already gave up My life and I live.

"Now, even though it seems as if evil is winning, they are not. I will soon come with thousands and thousands of My Chosen Ones and judgment will be swift. Be encouraged, Erin. My Words are true and My justice will be swift. Now, take heart as I am with you in all you do. I have a divine purpose under Heaven. Rejoice and be of great courage. I am with you!"

Dream over.

791 – My Surgery is Canceled by the Lord's Authority

Received on Saturday, March 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another beautiful day here! Thank You for home. I am glad to be home. I am not sure how to feel today. While I had now prepared for such a big event as best as I could, this simply came and went. I am still in shock about my Thursday, March 7, 2024 surgery being canceled literally at the last minute. We drove down to Portland ME the day before (March 6, 2024) for my pre-op meeting.

While things seemed to go well at my pre-op meeting, something in my Spirit was off. I became hyper aware of our surroundings. That night, the night before the surgery, we had to run to pick up some toothbrushes as I had forgotten to pack them. The place we went to for this was filled with the strangest of men. It was around 5:00pm and the place was filled with demonic activity. My hair was standing on end.

One man with a shaved head had tattoos on his neck and face. I saw him look at two other men. They nodded at each other as they separated down two different aisles. This man was parked next to us in the parking lot and was watching us. It seemed off. We were only at this store for about fifteen minutes and then we left. While they could have been stealing together, I am not sure. Regardless, I was glad to leave.

We then encountered some other odd strangers at our hotel. I worried about our car. My husband then reminded me that God was in complete control. I then had a difficult time sleeping that night, the night before my surgery. I had stopped taking my pain medication (Excedrin) last week, so I was particularly sore. Sleeping was not easy.

To make matters worse, I was up every 90 minutes and had no peace. I was preparing for the surgery and all that might or might not occur because of this. I just wasn't prepared for what another surgery would bring. I prayed continuously to You, Father, and, as I did, I had a couple of vivid dreams…

Sub-dream 1 "Commanding the Seas" begins…

I was sailing into unchartered waters and a storm was coming. I saw rough seas and a massive storm ahead with lightning. I drifted off toward the storm in the small dingy I was in. This dingy had no motor or oars. It was being pulled into the storm. I sat helplessly as the storm drew closer and closer. I could do nothing. I prayed to God for help. I heard His Voice call out to me…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, command the seas to be at peace. Quell them by My Authority in you."

Using my Authority in Jesus, I put my hands out in front of me in a blocking motion similar to what an offensive lineman in football might use. I prayed in my Spirit. I then faced my palms downward as if I was smoothing out sheets in a bed. I saw the seas in front of me calm down immediately.

Voice of the Lord: "This is the Authority I have given you. Now go out and go forth!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up and then began to pray with Authority for You to heal my cancer and calm my body to sleep. I fell asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Spiders in a Bathtub" begins…

I saw a massive porcelain bathtub. It had not been used in some time. I decided to clean it, remove the dust and then take a bath in it. I then saw some slight movement in the dust. It was an almost transparent spider. It was barely alive. It looked like a Cellar Spider. As I moved to wash it down the drain, I noticed an even larger Cellar Spider on the side of the tub. I killed both of them instantly and sent them down the drain.

While I then went to hunt for more spiders, there were none to be found. I finished washing the tub and filled it with warm clear water. I added some bubbles before stepping into the tub. It felt healing, like a warm rush, from my feet to my head. I then woke up. However, this dream was so real, I was worried that I had actually fallen asleep while taking a bath.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Morning had now arrived and I was to be at the hospital by 7:00am. It didn't take long to get ready and we left shortly after. They were ready for us when we arrived. While I then prayed with my husband, something still felt off compared to all of my other surgeries. The staff was happy and confident as they continued to process me. My husband was with me for the pre-op routine. I reminded the crew about my neck to make sure they stabilized it with a pillow.

The anesthesiologist was confident this would not be a problem. I was now dressed in a surgical gown with an IV started in my hand. I was then given a shot to my torso. The nurse then wrote a note there for the doctors. All was moving forward quickly. My surgeon then came in and was ready and confident.

Me: "While I am not worried, I just wanted to remind you to keep my neck stabilized for the entire surgery."

Surgeon: Now hesitating. "What is wrong with your neck?"

He was searching his computer and his chart on me for any notes he may have on this.

Me: "I have an injury at C8-T1, but opted out of any neck surgery."

Surgeon: "Hmm, I will need to talk to our team here before we proceed. As an option, my plan was to take your kidney out, cut it open, possibly remove the tumor and then retransplant it. I had booked you for a six-hour procedure just in case. You will be on your side and tilted for a long time. I normally would need a sign off from your neurosurgeon. I could contact him. It says here that he is based in Seattle?"

Me: "Well, he was. However, he has since transferred to San Francisco."

Surgeon: Suddenly looking even less confident. "I'll be back. Sit tight."

Me: "It's okay. I am not worried. I know that I need to have this surgery. Maybe you can just proceed with a pillow?"

Surgeon: "I will confer with my team."

He left, but then soon returned with the anesthesiologist.

Surgeon: "We are not going forward with the surgery today. I am sorry."

Anesthesiologist: "Yeah, sorry… I thought you would be on your back for this one."

Surgeon: "I am so sorry. I will make some calls, get the referrals and I'll have you seen by a neurosurgeon here in our system. We also need current images. Maybe you will get that surgery before this too? Who knows?"

Me: "Oh, okay."

Surgeon: "Yes. I am so sorry. I have some calls to make. We will talk later today."

My surgeon was visibly upset as he left. The crew then came into the room and removed my IV. The nurse seemed stunned that my surgery was canceled.

Nurse: "You can get dressed now."

After getting dressed, the nurse returned and guided us out the back door right to our car. It was an extremely fast decision, declaration and departure. My husband and I then sat in the car in complete shock at what had just happened. I was relieved as the whole thing seemed off.

Since we had already committed to the hotel for a few more nights, we were going to be charged for that night if we left now. We decided to stay one more night and make a mini holiday out of it. The surgeon then phoned us later that same day…

Surgeon: "I spoke to a neurosurgeon and he has flagged you for an expedited appointment and images. It is even possible they could see you tomorrow (Friday, March 8, 2024)."

My husband and I then spent the day exploring Kennebunk ME. We drove around and took some photos. After staying the night in the hotel, my surgeon called me again the next day.

Surgeon: "I am so sorry that this didn't work out. All of this is on me."

Me: "It's okay. It was just not meant to be. That's fine."

Surgeon: "Do not worry. I will fast track all of this."

Me: "Thank you for being cautious with my condition."

My husband and I then drove home.

While I don't understand all of this, I know You have a Great Plan here. While I am happy and relieved, I am also physically exhausted. My neck actually hurt last night and it affected my entire body. I then had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 3 "Foreigners Thefts Reversed in Time" begins…

I was entering my information at a kiosk before I was able to get my surgery. The surgery kiosk kept reading out 'DECLINED'. I went to a receptionist to discuss this with her. She looked me up on her system:

Receptionist: "How many times did you re-enter your information after the first decline?"

Me: "At least five times."

Receptionist: "Some foreigners have taken your information, billed your insurance and have taken your place in line."

Me: "Wait… what? Do you mean that they are having their kidneys removed?"

Receptionist: "While one is, there are other procedures too."

Me: "But we drove all this way. How can my information like this be stolen? How could you even allow this?"

Receptionist: In a snobby tone. "Are you upset by this? You should instead be thankful that you have helped all of these people. You are being so selfish."

Me: "Okay, so, let me get this straight… my information was taken over, my insurance was stolen and now I can't have my surgery because someone else has taken over my appointment… and I am not to be upset by this?"

Receptionist: "Are you now surrendering or are you mad enough to fight?" I could now see that she was very evil. "Don't bother to fight as you can't win. If I were you, I would submit your defeat now!"

Me: "God is telling me to submit to His Authority and rise up instead. You are cursed."

She then began to walk away. I prayed and she froze. I then prayed that all of the stealing be reversed. I then prayed that the world would have no more wicked invaders and that God would send all of the evil foreigners home to their native lands. I then felt an odd atmospheric ripple or wave. While I then felt like time itself was bending, I didn't know how I could possibly know how this would feel.

I could somehow then feel time bending. I then saw people moving backwards with supernatural speed. I saw foreign prisoners back in their old cells in their own native countries. All of a sudden, I was now in real time and in the current day. The receptionist greeted me. She was kind and directed me to my doctor's appointment.

Me: "Wait? Don't I have surgery?"

Receptionist: "No. Just a checkup."

Me: "What about my kidney?"

Receptionist: "What is wrong with your kidney? I have nothing in your chart. Maybe eat more kidney beans?"

She walked me down the hall.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Me: "Father, I love these dreams from You. While some of them are quite hard to go through, I still thank You for each of them."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, worry for nothing as I am in control of all things. Now, you wonder if this day (of the canceled surgery) was not a good day for you. Well, it was certainly not the day your doctor thought it would be."

Me: "Lord, You are over all things. It was Your Will to stop this."

Jesus: "Yes. This was not to be and this is good. This will remain a mystery for now, but there was a problem. Since the enemy was afoot, I removed the threat completely. I have a Great Plan here. Now, do not worry. Continue to move forward. These images are good as evidence presents the case for a Greater Miracle. Erin, rejoice! Now, you still have cancer until you don't. Be encouraged as this delay is Mine and it is a good one. Remember to keep up your strength. When you are tired, rest."

Me: "Thank You for these dreams, Lord. I then had to look up what the word 'quell' meant as I never use this word. The word 'quell' is defined as putting an end to a rebellion or other disorder, typically by the use of force or to subdue."

Jesus: "Hmm, then you must become quite familiar with this new word because this is part of you now. I will call you into Greater Authority. Rejoice, Erin, as the enemy is removed far from you. As I am in you, My Voice is in you. Rejoice today. You are loved!"

Dream over.

792 – Illegal Immigrants Intend to Take Over

Received on Sunday, March 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do for us. This last night, You placed me in a very deep sleep. I woke up late and You called me to immediately come. I was not even to do my normal morning routine. The dream I had last night was, at first, happy and normal, but then it turned ominous…

Sub-dream 1 "Illegal Immigrants intend to take over " begins...

We were traveling to a distant city. The city seemed comparable to somewhere on the west coast (Portland OR or higher up into California). The landscaping in the suburbs was lush. There were no longer hotels or resorts to book rooms at. There were also no other forms of places to stay. Those who traveled had to rely on an underground network of vetted places to stay where background checks on both sides were done.

These vetted places consisted of high-end estates. These estates needed to have 'family' living in every part of the estate to avoid occupiers taking over their properties. We were on our way to a distant city to visit a relative at a hospital. Travel had become extremely dangerous. Travel curfews were even set up as there would be no police or highway patrols after dark.

No one dared pull over to the rest stops as they were controlled by human traffickers and drug dealers. At night, these areas were void of law enforcement and became markets for every kind of sin. These were run by the cartels. The only customers who would go there had such extreme addictions to various things that they were willing to pay even the ultimate price to obtain it.

This was happening not only at the rest stops, but also at truck stops. The criminal activities taking place there were never reported on by the mainstream media. You could only find out about this using other means. Any innocent person stopping there, especially if they were with children, would likely never come out.

All of this seemed like late summer, maybe the end of August. While I can't say for certain what the year was, I felt like it could have been this year of 2024. As we traveled, it was difficult to find places that would take cash. This was particularly true as we approached the estate that we had booked our rooms in.

When we came within a 30-mile radius of our rental home, we turned off all of our technology. We even had a scrambling device on our vehicle so we would not be marked on a map. There were four of us traveling together. We soon arrived at a beautiful large home and property. We were greeted by a home manager…

Manager: "Welcome! Please park your car in the back behind the garage. Once you have parked, please come in."

We did as he requested. He was waiting for us when we entered the home.

Manager: "Here is a new car key so that you can use the owner's car. Since all of the trackers are still on the car, nothing will seem unusual. I will show you to your rooms."

The home was massive, easily 14,000 to 20,000 square feet.

Manager: "Now, the owners are at their summer house. You are the last stay here."

When I looked around, I could see that the place was an absolute mess. There were bottles and dirty dishes covering all of the counters. It was truly unlivable. The manager could see the disapproval on my face as I looked around.

Me: "Who was here last? This is so bad. The owners will be so sad when they return. Was there a party here?"

Manager: "Well, you could say that. At least they didn't steal anything. In terms of the cleanliness, the house staff chose to stay away until the owners return to the house next week. If you clean this, your stay will of course be discounted."

Me: "We will have to do laundry and clean up before we can even rest here. This will take hours."

Manager: "You are welcome to leave or do as you wish. Let me make a phone call."

As we continued to look around, we felt even worse for the homeowners. The manager finished his phone call and came back to us.

Manager: "The owner said your stay is free. However, there has to be people moving about the house at all times."

Me: "Understood."

After the manager left, we toured the rest of the estate. As we did and with prayer, we made all the sheets and bedding clean, as well as all of the carpets. For those areas with cameras, we physically did the chores for that particular area. The kitchen was the worst and had a camera, meaning I had to physically clean this. The bathrooms had no cameras so, through prayer, they were cleaned and sanitized instantly.

Two of us then took one of their fancy cars to the hospital. As we drove out of these gated communities, the atmosphere became very dark. Places I had been before as a kid were now unrecognizable. People were lining the streets in tents. Most were insane. Even though our car was fancy, no one came near it. This surprised us.

We went into the hospital and began to secretly and quietly heal people. There were very few staff. After this, we got back in the car and drove back to the gated community. Darkness was approaching, increasing the evil we felt in the atmosphere. While we should have been in danger, our car was supernaturally undetectable. My husband and I suddenly realized that our car was not visible to any of the criminals.

We saw people being dragged out of their cars and their cars then taken. However, our car was completely overlooked. The homeless encampments bordered these gated communities. However, the fencing around our area was guarded at all hours. In addition, the fencing was electric. High voltage warnings were on display.

When we drove down the road, we noticed that one of the homes was being taken over by occupiers and the owners removed. There was a court order posted and these foreigners had moved in and displaced the owners, two elderly people, to the street. We drove up to the elderly couple.

Me: "Do you need help?"

Woman: Sobbing. "My grandkids were coming to visit, but they never arrived. They blocked them. And now we have lost our home."

My husband and I were furious. The home was beautiful. It was a Georgian style home. It was extremely traditional with a grand entry. We prayed to the Lord and He gave us instructions.

My husband: "Pretend that we are your relatives. We will then enter the home."

After the couple agreed to this, we hugged them and then walked up to the front door. When I opened the door, there must have been ten people, all men. They were making themselves at home. Sitting on the entry table were a bunch of UN Badges of some kind, perhaps for UN Peace Officers. I figured that this must be how they got in through the gate. The men seemed furious that we were there and quickly approached us.

My husband: Bluffing. "We are the heirs to this property. Those are our relatives."

Evil man 1: "Oh good! Let us kill you and then there will be no heirs."

Evil man 2: "Give us your wife. You can come too."

Evil man 3: "Yes, you can come too. We prefer males here."

They all had extreme accents and were from a foreign country. My husband reached over for my hand. We squeezed each other's hands as we prayed together. In an instant, all of the men were struck down. We prayed again and their bodies and any trace of them being there were instantly removed.

Me: "Let's pray that their grandchildren come now and that they are okay when we leave the front door."

We both laughed as we walked outside. We told the couple that the threats were removed and that their home was now safe again.

Elderly man: "Thank you. They are so wicked. They were sent door-to-door to check for anyone violating the occupancy statutes."

My husband: "What is that?"

Elderly man: "That these larger homes have families in them. Otherwise, by the new bogus law, occupiers have sovereignty to take over any and all properties."

Elderly woman: "Then they kill us or send us through the gates of hell after curfew."

My husband: "How come they don't invade the community and take it over?"

Elderly man: "Because they want our money and backing to go to the ruling party."

Me: "They will take it anyway."

Elderly woman: "We know. However, we are all just hoping for a miracle. This is hell."

My husband: "Well, they are all gone now and they won't be returning."

Just then, their relatives came. It was their grandchildren and great grandchildren. They thanked us and wanted to give us gifts. We refused. Their home was now safe and filled with family. We left their house for our rental home. When we arrived back at our rental home, the manager was waiting for us there. He walked out to point us to the garage. After parking, we walked up to him.

Manager: "The owners are coming home early. However, they want you to still stay with them. We believe there have been some changes. We think that all of these estate owners have been tricked."

I reached over for my husband's hand and we prayed. The Lord revealed to us what was occurring. The 'Occupation of Relatives and Heirs Act' applies to all properties owned by the wealthy. This Act called for all of the inhabitants to be relatives and heirs to the estates. They are calling all of them home to take a census. However, they have sent some 'UN Peace Officers' in advance to check each home to make sure there is compliance to the Act.

My husband: "We encountered officers planning on going door-to-door. However, they became greedy at their first estate and decided to make this their headquarters. Their plan is to gather up all the wealthy and their heirs and kill them. They will then take the spoils."

Me: "They have a plan to change the countries in which the leaders don't like the values of the people. If they can remove the influential and the most wealthy, then everything else will fall."

Manager: "Most of us thought that this was all about 'one-party-rule'!"

Me: "Well, this is the goal. However, they decided to remove all threats so that no one will rise up."

When we walked inside the home, we were a bit surprised that our children had already supernaturally cleaned up. Just then, the homeowners arrived. It was a husband, wife and six children from ages 2 to 18. They came running in. After the manager greeted the owners, they came up to us.

Man: "Thank you for all you have done for us. We would love it if you would continue to stay with us."

Me: "We will, but just for one more night."

They then took us to a four-bedroom guesthouse. It was beautiful. We could see the children playing outside. They had a bouncy castle and a swimming pool. When night came, we could see men we didn't recognize go up to the main home. We all decided to go in the back door to make sure they were all okay. We overheard the 'peace officers' asking about us. We saw one man taking their little two-year-old toddler as collateral. When we stepped forward, we startled the 'officers'. The men drew guns.

My husband: "Put the baby down now."

The man refused to do it. When I went to take the baby, the man's arms turned white with leprosy and shriveled up. The other officers became terrified. Our kids gathered up all of the children and took them away from the scene. We then prayed again. All of those who were holding guns had their arms instantly turn white with leprosy and shrivel up. Even though they were in great pain, one of the men still threatened us.

1st evil man: "More and more will come for you!"

My husband: "Perfect. We will go to them instead because greater is God in us than your entire wicked army."

2nd evil man: In great pain. "This is bigger than God."

Just then, his tongue fell right out of his mouth and onto the floor. The other men became even more terrified.

Me: "Nothing is greater than God. While your plan is to kill all of these people, you will not succeed. You are on the wrong side. You will then be condemned to eternal punishment."

3rd evil man: "No, no, I beg of you. Jesus is Lord. He is my Lord and Savior. They have my family. Please don't condemn me."

My husband: "Why do you hurt others? Since you have confessed that Jesus is your Lord and Savior, today you will be with Him."

The man was instantly killed, struck down by a massive heart attack.

1st evil man: "Why? He confessed to the Name of the Lord."

My husband: "Yes, but he was still capable of all of this evil. He was still part of it. Perhaps God will speak to him in the secret room. As for here, you speak to us."

1st evil man: "Wait! No, no! Please! Jesus is our Savior!"

My husband: "You can't just say this if you don't believe it just to spare your lives. You still work for evil. God will return you to the place you have come from to be a witness to what you have seen."

The evil men instantly disappeared. There was no trace of them. The owners of the home were grateful.

Me: "We must go. It would be good for all of you to pray."

Woman: "We will. We are Christians. All of us are Christians."

Our kids then came back. We all said goodbye to our hosts and got into our car. We were instantly home. We were glad to be home.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up this morning at 10:47 am. I have not slept this long in months. While I am not sure how I fully know this, the enemy is positioning themselves all over the world. People we once thought were good are now evil. All sense of morality is fading and very quickly. The borders are being opened to redistrict the population.

They want to change the voting maps because the last election revealed that the majority of Americans voted overwhelmingly more for the other party. They are in fear of the rise in Christians and others who love this country. The same is true in Canada. The powers of the enemy have called for these changes and for the invasion by foreigners and foreign adversaries.

The invaders were first sent to sanctuary cities and then to outer areas. The call is now for them to go out into rural areas for work and for opportunities. This is designed to overpower all of the voters. Any who switch parties will be counted in the registries and their assets taken over. All others who speak out against the dominating party will be marked for removal and quietly killed.

This is happening all over the world right now. The last hold outs were the USA and Canada. However, this is the year of the enemy's great plans. The media will report the election results as if these are close, even though they aren't. The opposition party was removed in Brazil. The people had really voted for the good leaders. The evil leader only received the required votes through corruption. It was a testing ground.

Canada has also been a testing ground. There has been a quiet takeover during the last four years. There is now a rural resettlement program for foreigners to work on farms and other community operations. The real idea is to make the population believe this is morally fair and acceptable to the majority of the voters and that this is a fair democracy. Well, it isn't. It is wicked and just the opposite.

We instead have stolen elections, stolen properties and stolen rights. This then leads to captivity and then death. The plan in place is for our destruction. Father, this dream was so real. Please strengthen us and protect us from this invasion of evil. It is wicked and horrible. The gods of old have taken the land because people have allowed it. Father, please stop this. Please rise up or we will all be in great trouble.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry but be strong and courageous. The enemy's plans are loftier than you even imagined. This is worse than what happened to the Jewish people in Germany. This is much worse than this. The enemy has already declared his plans for a Red Wedding. What is a Red Wedding? Well, it is the sacrifice of the Bride in white and all the saints, a sacrifice of their blood.

"Their true goal is not just to sway a corrupt election in their favor. It is instead to overthrow the children of God and create the terror state they long to have. The whole world will be in an uproar. However, their plans will come to a sudden halt. They plan to slaughter all Christians and millions of other people.

"They plan to begin this all with a grand sacrifice in order to bring about the rightful king to reign over all in his authority over the nations. He will have one religion and this religion is the opposite of Christianity and completely wicked. What it says in their 'holy pages' is a road map to their exact plans. Their savior (a former president and obviously not Trump) is their great hope that will lead to their destruction.

"Anyone who is not useful to their cause will be publicly executed for the cameras so that fear spreads. This is the time of the Two Witnesses in Jerusalem. They will be very inconvenient for them. Now, Erin, you are not to worry about all of this. The land it too vast for invaders to go out in all of the areas."

Me: "Lord, You must have a plan for now, right? This stuff is coming this year and it is an election year."

Jesus: "Remember that I am God over all things. My Army and Power is far reaching and overarching. This will not go well for the enemy. His Red Wedding will instead consist of a vast White Wedding with all the regalia and pageantry. He will be forced to watch and take this all in. Do not worry as God prevails. I am about to shake the Earth. Erin, I am with you. My plans trump the enemy's schemes.

"Now, your dreams will become even clearer. I will also expand these dreams to others so that you are in unison. While the dreams will be different from each other, those coming from Me will have a similar message. Pray on this.

"Now, the enemy wants to take down the west. They have been slowly and painfully taking down Europe and South America. However, I have a Great Plan and I am over the nations. I hear their plans and these are not life giving. While the wicked leaders hate all of the Americas, these are Mine. I am over Israel and this is Mine.

"I have sent the wise. They are silent until I strengthen them and raise them up so all will know I am God over all of the Earth. I will be victorious. Pray and do not worry. Be at peace knowing that you are Mine and I am over your house. Rejoice as the enemy will not prevail."

Dream over.

793 – Renovating the House of Seven Gables

Received on Monday, March 11, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for the wonderful divine delay for my kidney removal. If You would, please just heal me so I won't even need this operation. Father, please let one of these new tests reveal that this tumor is completely gone.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Renovating the House of Seven Gables" begins…

A little background on the House of Seven Gables from Wikipedia: The House of the Seven Gables (also known as the Turner House or Turner-Ingersoll Mansion) is a 1668 colonial mansion in Salem, Massachusetts, named for its gables. It was made famous by Nathaniel Hawthorne's 1851 novel The House of the Seven Gables.

The house is now a non-profit museum, with an admission fee charged for tours, as well as an active settlement house with programs for the local immigrant community including ESL and citizenship classes. It was built for Captain John Turner and stayed with the family for three generations.

I had just purchased the House of Seven Gables. However, in this dream, it was larger than what the House of Seven Gables actually is. The outside was very dark and the home was positioned in a quiet sea cove. The landscaping was beautiful. The north side of the home had a porte-cochere.

However, instead of an entrance for horse drawn carriages, a train track ran through it. When I looked out to where the train tracks went, I saw that there was a turntable toward the sea in the ground that was used to turn the train around. It had to be a single car operation, like a trolley car. It was very specific.

I then went inside the house. It was dark inside and not inviting at all. I knew it would be quite a task to remodel all of this. One day, I received a knock on the door. When I opened it, there was a crew of expert artisans and remodelers standing there.

Head contractor: "We were called here by an angel of the Lord to help you with this great task of bringing this into this century. This will be the last renovation of the house and you will be the last tenant and owner."

Another craftsman chimed in: "Let's do this justice!"

Me: Laughing. "Well, since the Lord sent you, I am in great hands. Come on in!"

I opened the door to the workers. I had some blueprints that I had been revising.

Me: "The Lord has called us together to make this current Home greater than the former house."

Another artisan: "God's Glory will be upon this Home and nothing shall come against us!"

Just then, we heard a knock on the door. When I opened the door, there stood a woman all dressed in black. She was gaunt and had black-rimmed glasses. She held an official looking paper.

Woman: "Excuse me, but are you the woman who purchased the Gables Museum?"

Me: "Yes, I am the woman. I am the new owner of the Gables."

Woman: "I see you have contractors."

Me: "Yes. We are remodeling with only the very best."

Woman: "Well, this paper I am holding is a cease-and-desist order as this home is on the historical register."

Me: "While this is true, that is the old way, the former house. This wasn't working. The entire place had fallen into disrepair. No caretakers. No budget. No museum. Hence the sale of the Home to me, the purchaser."

I pulled out my bill of sale and showed it to the woman.

Me: "As you can see, it says here that the only thing that must remain is the exterior footprint and the placard. All museums have now been closed. All museums across the land have now been pillaged. We are all professionals here.

"Besides, I can see that this document you have presented to me has been altered, possibly forged, and not even notarized by a judge. In addition, an officer of the court would be serving me personally, not a private citizen."

The woman became noticeably nervous. She was shifting from foot to foot.

Me: Now looking straight into the woman's eyes. "Are you from the witch's museum just down the road? I would turn and leave right now and not come back."

The woman looked at me with great hate before turning in a huff. A few of us then prayed together after the woman left that none of her kind would come against our work again. While many of the town folk said the house was haunted, we never encountered any of this.

As I reviewed what was being done, it was easy to see that there had been many remodels over the years. Because it was so piecemeal, we decided to change all of it. We first removed any unnecessary walls to open up the space. We then added beautiful rustic wood beams and hand scraped wood floors.

The walls were re-plastered with a venetian finish and were flawless. The finish carpenters were the finest I had ever seen. Every detail was covered and we were as a team "one" in our goal. There was laughter, no bitterness, no jealousy and no shortages of materials. It was a dream team and we all became friends in the process.

While it took around three months altogether to remodel, the home was so beautiful once it was finished. On the final day and into the evening, we had a great celebration and praised God for such a supernaturally perfect project.

While celebrating we saw from one of the windows a startling sight. A strange boxcar was coming on the railroad tracks towards our Home. There were flames billowing out of the windows. It was coming straight for us. When we all then prayed against this, the boxcar suddenly changed directions and went straight back to the witch's museum where it had come from.

As time passed, we made many new friends. However, we also made many new enemies. Even so, this Home finally had what we needed… less of the world and more of God. While this Home had been cursed and bankrupt, it was now blessed and prosperous.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Thank You, Father! I remember going to see this house when I was a child. When I was in this house, the hair on my arms stood up. It felt like such a depressing home to me. While I don't recall any of the individuals' stories, I just know that this dream seemed both hopeful and fun. In reality, owning this house has never been a thing that I have ever aspired for. I am not sure what any of this even means.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. This dream was symbolic of you and your house. Though your beginnings were small, your latter days will be great. Why? Because I am in you. When you were young, you never imagined that anything of great value would come to your days, so you fought.

"Despite your station in life, your lot according to the world, you saw yourself as small. However, with Me in you, you are no longer small. Your tent pegs will expand as I call you together for My purposes. This new House will be greater than the old house. I am about to shake the nations, Erin."

Me: "Lord, what about Job 8 and Haggai 2? You are speaking of these things here…

Job 8:1-22 (Bildad Speaks: Job Should Repent): 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said: 2 "How long will you say these things, and the words of your mouth be a great wind? 3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert the right? 4 If your children have sinned against Him, He has delivered them into the hand of their transgression. 5 If you will seek God and plead with the Almighty for mercy, 6 if you are pure and upright, surely then He will rouse himself for you and restore your rightful habitation. 7 And though your beginning was small, your latter days will be very great.

8 "For inquire, please, of bygone ages, and consider what the fathers have searched out. 9 For we are but of yesterday and know nothing, for our days on earth are a shadow. 10 Will they not teach you and tell you and utter words out of their understanding? 11 "Can papyrus grow where there is no marsh? Can reeds flourish where there is no water? 12 While yet in flower and not cut down, they wither before any other plant. 13 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless shall perish. 14 His confidence is severed, and his trust is a spider's web. 15 He leans against his house, but it does not stand; he lays hold of it, but it does not endure.

16 He is a lush plant before the sun, and his shoots spread over his garden. 17 His roots entwine the stone heap; he looks upon a house of stones. 18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it will deny him, saying, 'I have never seen you.' 19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the soil others will spring. 20 "Behold, God will not reject a blameless man, nor take the hand of evildoers. 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouting. 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will be no more."

Haggai 2:1-9 (The Coming Glory of the Temple): 1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the hand of Haggai the prophet: 2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say, 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not as nothing in your eyes? 4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the Lord. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the Lord. Work, for I am with you, declares the Lord of hosts, 5 according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not. 6 For thus says the Lord of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. 7 And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the Lord of hosts. 8 The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, declares the Lord of hosts. 9 The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the Lord of hosts.'"

Haggai 2:10-19 (Blessings for a Defiled People): 10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came by Haggai the prophet, 11 "Thus says the Lord of hosts: Ask the priests about the law: 12 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches with his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?'" The priests answered and said, "No." 13 Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before Me, declares the Lord, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean.

15 Now then, consider from this day onward. Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of the Lord, 16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. 17 I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and with mildew and with hail, yet you did not turn to Me, declares the Lord. 18 Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider: 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you."

Haggai 2:20-23 (Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet): 20 The word of the Lord came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth, 22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall go down, every one by the sword of his brother. 23 On that day, declares the Lord of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, declares the Lord, and make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you, declares the Lord of hosts."

Jesus: "Erin, then study My Word. These are true. However, these are for now and what is to come in these times. I did not bring you here to this point with no guidance, no words or no map. Now, what do you need to proceed with your changes?"

Me: "Blueprints. Blueprints! Blueprints are the beginnings of everything."

Jesus: "You already have the Blueprints. However, I will now call in the craftsmen and the artisans to work with you. You will be restorers of My Walls on the Foundations I have made. Rejoice! Greater is My Glory in this, My House, than in the former house. Rejoice, Erin. Rejoice as I am about to do some groundwork."

Me: "Shaking?"

Jesus: "Yes! Preparations to ready hearts, humble the proud and make the wicked tremble! This is good!"

Dream over.

794 – Our God is mightier than The Purge

Received on Tuesday, March 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! We feel so blessed by You. Thank You. My husband has had some time off due to my kidney removal surgery that was scheduled to happen on Thursday, March 7, 2024. It has been odd because there was so much upheaval surrounding this cancer and my surgery that I am not sure I realized how much I miss just normal daily things.

While my cancer is still here, the pain of a surgical recovery is not. Father, I am so relieved and grateful for this Divine Pause. I now wonder if the enemy was afoot before when this surgery was still in the works. Sigh… I won't truly know until one day all is revealed by You. Even so, I am thankful to still have all of my body parts. Thank You!

I had a few extremely vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Helping out my son's friend in Tacoma WA" begins…

I went to a different city with my younger son to help him find his friend. We were now in the city of Tacoma WA. The whole city was extremely dark. As we walked around, someone came up to talk to us. I could tell he was friendly.

Stranger: "Listen, you need to be cautious because the police stations are now closed between the hours of 10:00 pm and 6:00 am. No one is answering calls during this time."

Me: "Thank you for telling us this."

We had no need to be concerned. Even though there was crime everywhere, both of us had zero fear as we were now different. Jesus was now with us in all ways. People were breaking into homes. We even heard gunshots coming from various areas. It was eerily similar to the horror movie called 'The Purge'. After we searched all of his friend's known places, we noticed that there was a high school basketball game.

The place was quite crowded. Even though we both agreed that it seemed a bit late for a game to start, we went inside. The gym was crowded with citizens. They were all gathering together in large numbers instead of staying in smaller groups in their homes. We went up to one of the people who seemed to be an authority. He looked like a security guard and was heavily armed.

Me: "What is your roll here?"

Guard: "I am an off-duty policeman. We are all throughout this building. We are keeping people safe during the no-protection time blocks. Since the people here have no means of protection at home, no guns, they gather here instead."

As we spoke, my son continued to go throughout the building calling out his friend's name. After no response, he eventually came back over to me.

Son: "Mom, I have done everything I could do. She doesn't want to be found by me. Let's go." He was so sad. "God has her. I will see her again soon."

Just as we were about to leave the building, his friend called out my son's name twice. She continued to call out to us.

Friend: "Wait! Please don't leave! Help!"

We turned and went in the direction of her voice. After a short search, my son was once again reunited with his friend. The lights in the gym then went out. My son and I then supernaturally turned them back on. I then spoke to the crowd there.

Me: "I am here to warn all of you that evil people are on their way here right now to attack all of you. Everyone remain in here for your own safety. We will look after this threat with the Lord's assistance."

My son and I went outside. There was a large group of people coming towards us. They had rocket launchers and flamethrowers. My son put up his arm and all of the vehicles they were coming in suddenly flipped backwards and exploded. We then went to hunt the others down.

We found hundreds of them. We struck them down in great numbers. As dawn broke, hundreds of bodies of the evil people remained. However, in just a moment of time, all was removed and the city completely cleared of the wicked. With the three of us now together, we then went to another city in the west.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "The Stars play together in the Sky" begins...

I was looking out my window over a yard filled with snow. It was dark. I kept seeing animals in the brush that I had never seen before. They would appear and then disappear. I saw two dogs chasing each other. I then saw a large bear facing the dogs. From a large rock, I looked over to the side and there I saw a lion, perhaps a mountain lion, pouncing on a running mouse. It was bizarre.

I then went to the western view of my house and saw all three of these in the stars over the sky. However, there was no sign of any mouse.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Sub-dream 3 "Hired despite my Dirty Laundry" begins…

I had to leave for a trip quickly. I had very little time to pack. I gathered up a pile of dirty laundry and carried it with me to where I was going. At one point, a potential Employer and a Big Deal wanted to speak to me. This was so odd in that I was still holding onto my dirty laundry.

Several articles of clothing then fell out of my hands to the ground. The entire pile of clothing soon laid at His feet. I was mortified because one of my dirty undergarments was right there in front of Him. While I tried to cover it up as much as I could, I simply couldn't. Despite all of my dirty laundry, this Employer still hired me.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Thank You, Father, for my dreams. What a blessing these are!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. I am the 'Big Deal Man' in your dirty laundry dream (Sub-dream 3). Despite your past, your lack of training and even your lack of preparations, I chose you… dirty and soiled laundry included. I love you and I chose you. This covers your shame. Nothing is hidden from Me, the God who pursues you.

"Now, the dream of the animals in your yard at night in the snow (Sub-dream 2) is a direct timing marker. Look to the horizon at night. The stars are marked. When I give you a dream such as this, you usually focus more on the animals. However, these are also symbols of various other things, such as stars as constellations in the night sky and their order and position. They can also represent the heavens, countries, peoples or enemies.

"Erin, write all of this plainly and in proper order. Become in touch with these as I instruct you.

"Now, the very first dream (Sub-dream 1) is what is coming to the nation by wicked rulers. The safety being removed means that I was removed far before this. This is what occurs when the government collapses. This collapse could be physical or because of other reasons as allowed by Me. The enemy gave you a foreshadowing of this time of tribulation in popular culture. This is so you know the enemy's plans to take down society."

Me: "Yes. There are so many movies now. Three that come to mind is The Purge, The Hunger Games and the Obama movie ('Leave the World Behind' on Netflix)."

Jesus: "Yes. However, once it is void of all things holy, 'The Purge' is then at all hours of the day. All holiness then disappears, along with any remnant of God in their midst. All fair justice, mercy and grace will also then disappear. All that is good that remains then also leaves. This is the enemy's great plan."

Me: "In the first dream, why were my son and I there?"

Jesus: "This was in the beginning of the end. You were there to find certain people and restore temporary order until the last smaller group of remaining saints are gathered. This doesn't include those who come through the tribulation of these days."

Me: "I have so many questions about the Rapture and these chosen workers and this gathering."

Jesus: "Think of it this way… trouble comes to a Farmer right before He has finished His Harvest. His Harvest was so bountiful with ready crops that His Crew needed to rest as a sabbath day before the final harvest of crops in the outer reaching fields. Because of varying factors, such as difficulty of terrain and harsh conditions, the Harvesters needed to be rested and strengthened on the day following. When they went out, they were fully strengthened, focused and swift in their work to gather the balance of harvest for the Farmer."

Me: "What was the trouble that came to the Farmer, Lord?"

Jesus: "Trouble to the lands."

Me: "As an act of man or as an act of God?"

Jesus: "Well, all things are only as allowed by God. However, nothing can stop the Farmer's Harvest."

Me: "His Workers are called to rest because the Harvest is bountiful. This is good, right?"

Jesus: "Think of the day's events at the Cross. Darkness fell. A Great Wind and an Earthquake then came that opened the graves and took down the Temple. While my body had been in the tomb, I then rose and appeared to many. So too it will be like this here."

Me: "Oh! Same events, but in reverse?"

Jesus: "Study this then to know what comes."

Me: "I can't truly know unless You reveal it, Lord."

Jesus: "No matter how a person prepares for what is coming, truly no one is really prepared. You can be excited though as your Vessels, your hearts, are on Me and your sins are confessed. This is good. However, when all of these things happen, it will be something you would not believe even if I told you now. Now, do not worry as My Plan is a Great One! To tell you all things in advance is to bring undue fear to you and your house.

"You are instead to be at peace knowing that I am God over all things and not one who is lost can't be found by Me… that is, if they want to be found by Me. Shame will not keep anyone from the love of God. Those who you will seek as I send you out together will be those hiding in fear, worry and great shame. However, you will find them and nothing will stop you."

Me: "Oh yes, the lost sheep! The ones sold into sex slavery and other things!"

Jesus: "Yes. They are not far from the hand of mercy and grace as I will make them as white as snow. I am in the midst of them and I see. Now, write plainly! This is a good day! You are loved by the King, Erin!"

Dream over.

795 – The Old Earth is Remodeled

Received on Sunday, March 17, 2024

Note: I wrote the following on Friday morning, March 15, 2024. This was meant to be my personal 'rant'. I was not planning to share this with the Nest. However, when writing down today's dream on Sunday, March 17, 2024, I felt pressed by God to include my 'rant' as a prelude.

Communion

Dear Father,

I am so thankful for You! I am so sorry for crying so much for the last 12 hours, if not more. I just can't seem to stop. All the anxiety over everything has reached a sad place. Father, You know the days I have here. I have grown tired from all of the legal stress and medical issues that I have had for at least thirty years now. This is basically half of my life. If I wasn't being attacked financially through my enemies, I was being attacked physically with my health.

Something snapped yesterday and it made me not feel like doing anything. I didn't feel like having any more surgeries or tests. Father, I love You and I believe in Your miracles. You have always cared for me. Right now, I feel like I need to keep things together and be strong as I have several people who call me an inspirational Christian. While they see me as brave, I am really terrified right now. I feel like I can't tell people I am terrified because I preach faith and courage.

While I love You and I have faith in Your miracles, I am clearly panicking and under attack. Father, please help me. I am lost, scared and hurting. You dwell in me and I have given You my Temple, one that is in need of a great remodel. My heart grieves. I am so sorry for being so weak. You have given me the life of a princess. I love our dwelling and my husband, children and Nest family. Still, I feel as if I have missed out on so many aspects of life.

Is my heart good? Did I do everything I could in this life? I want to be here for all that You have promised. I don't want to miss one moment. Lord, You wept in the Garden of Gethsemane. You saw what was coming and your heart was grieved. Well, I am now so grieved by this world. I am so saddened by it. My tears and suffering do not honor all You have done for me. I am so sorry. I love You, Jesus. Sigh… sometimes I even forget what You look like.

Now, back to today's dream.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for holding me close and wiping my tears. I have experienced the great anxiety of the major surgery that didn't even happen. Father, You are saying, 'Not right now!' I am thankful and grateful for this time. My Spirit in me, Your Spirit, is grieving. One day last week, Thursday into Friday, I didn't stop and couldn't stop crying.

Everything came to this moment in time in terms of the buildup, the prayers and the preparations. This was all to get my house in order for what might come. Well, it has been rough. While I have had medical setbacks over the years, including well-documented injuries, all of this has come at a time when I was focused on other things, not the state of my existence here.

Father, I am thankful for all things. I am grateful for a journal and a pen. I am grateful for my dreams that instruct me at night and Your Words that guide me at daybreak. I wish I could go back a few years ago and make changes. At the least, I would like to deal with the issues that plague me the most, especially my C-Spine neck injury. In so many ways, this was an easier injury to deal with than this new internal issue.

I have been grieving and bargaining with You. My saving grace is the example of Jesus in Hebrews 5:7. While Jesus was here on Earth, He offered prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears, to the One who could rescue Him from death. God heard His prayers because of His deep reverence for God. Jesus knew what He would be facing in advance.

Or this… Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, You, Father, and he said, 'Oh, that You would bless me and enlarge my territory. Let Your hand be with me and keep me from harm so I will be free from pain.' You, Father, then granted his request.

First, I had to come to grips with crying. Over the years, I have had a few tears on my pages. However, these were next level tears, the kind of crying where I can barely breathe. My vision then becomes blurred with tears and I am inconsolable. I can't be comforted when I am like this. My children then text my husband behind the scenes to find out how to handle me. In some ways, it is kind of amusing.

However, this is between me and you God, the only One who knows every part of me because you created me. I have struggled with coming to you the last several days. It is as if I had stopped hearing from You. You then stepped in, Father. You sent me help. Then Lord you did something I never thought you would… You spoke to me through my younger son.

I knew it was truly from You because I recognized Your mannerisms. Since my son knows very little about these dreams or the Bible, I knew the things he was telling me were impossible for him to personally replicate.

I then received a Word from someone I don't know in Africa. I did not recognize his name nor did I personally even want to open up my Facebook page. However, the Lord told me to open my Facebook for a Word He had sent from this person from Africa to me. This is the Word You said was for me…

"For someone… I restored Your Spirit, soul and body to the person I created and said, 'This is good', and restored to you all the enemy had stolen killed and destroyed. And then, I placed you in high places, seated you with kings, brought you into the presence of the Great and laid a table before you in the presence of your enemies. When it seemed like it was over, you were just beginning!

I am the Author and Finisher of your story and I promise you this is how your story will end. Isaiah 46:10: Only I can tell you the future before it even happens. Everything I plan will come to pass, for I do whatever I wish. You are in the process now. Don't give up. This will be your testimony to the world. Look up. Your salvation is near! I am coming suddenly! I will help and strengthen you.

Isaiah 60:14… the descendants of your tormentors will come and bow before you, those who despised you will kiss your feet, they will call you the city of the Lord, and lion of the Holy One of Israel. Though you were once despised and hated, with no one traveling through, I will make you beautiful forever, a joy to all generations.

Jeremiah 30:17… 'I will give you back your health and heal your wounds', says the Lord, 'For you are called an outcast – for whom no one cares.'

1 Corinthians 1:25-29… This plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength. And He chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful. God chose things despised by the world, things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important. As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

Your Beloved who loves you deeply – Jesus"

I just knew this was from You, Lord! You then confirmed that it was.

Last night, we watched a movie about a woman who became blind after a tragic accident. She could only see distorted images. They were disorienting. I became sleepy during the show, so we ended it for a good night's sleep ahead. My husband prayed for me and I barely recall what he said. I then had an incredible dream…

Sub-dream 1 "The Darkness Arrives" begins…

I woke up to a beautiful spring day. The sun was warm and the grass was green. The sun shined in the late morning sky. I looked outside and could see hundreds of birds in my yard acting strangely. Even though there were so many different kinds of birds there, they were all huddling together on our front yard on the grass not in the trees. I then decided to get my camera in order to capture this moment in time.

This was not to be! As I turned to go back in, all around me was plunged into complete darkness. I could see nothing. There was only blackness. When I held my hand out a few inches from my eyes, I couldn't even see my hand. However, I still had no problem hearing and what I heard was disturbing. I heard everything with such clarity…

- The Birds: I could hear the birds crying out together in their massive huddle. Since I couldn't hear any flapping of wings, I knew that none were flying. All remained together there on the ground.
- My Children: I could hear my children calling out to me. I then yelled out to them, 'Stay where you are. God will soon bring us His Light.'
- Our Neighborhood: I could hear crying and wailing coming from all over our neighborhood. It was unsettling as I could hear the sheer terror in their voices.
- My husband: I could hear my husband's voice call out to me, 'Erin, it's here! The darkness is here! This is even scarier than I thought it would be!' I then replied to him, 'Yes, this is frightening!'
- Our dogs: I could hear our dogs whining and yelping.

We then saw a light like an orb come down upon our house. We all could then see again. However, this was not the case for our neighborhood as we continued to hear people crying and screaming in terror in the distance. We huddled together in our main room and prayed. While no one else in our neighborhood could see us or anything at all, we somehow could tell that we were now in the middle of the day.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up suddenly when I began to cough. I got up and walked to the bathroom for some water. I was amazed at how easily I could see in the dark under normal conditions. However, to have total blackness, as if struck by blindness… well, this would be frightening. I decided to test this out by walking back with my eyes completely shut. Because I knew the route, I was able.

Even so, areas I had been confident in avoiding, I was way short or long in steps. When I finally arrived at my bed and opened my eyes, I was short of where I thought I should be. I hadn't measured my steps properly. I then turned on a night light and laid my head down. After a while, I fell back asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Old Earth is Remodeled" begins…

I woke up in a room with high ceilings and windows. It was not here, but somewhere else. It was beautiful. It was breathtakingly beautiful and very much like my dreams of Heaven itself. While this felt like Heaven, it somehow still felt different. I walked out the large windowed wall through the French doors of glass onto a type of veranda overlooking a small lake. The landscape was lush with flowering vines and the sounds of birds singing.

I was amazed at how beautiful it was. I could now breathe so deeply. I felt fully alive. I had peace. I looked back through the doorway at this bed I had been on. It was the most comfortable bed I had ever slept on. It wasn't from this world. My feet were stepping on stones cut from onyx or translucent marble. It was cut and installed with perfection… again, out of this world. The beauty here was amazing.

I then heard a knock on the door. I bounded for the door. I then realized that I was now in a different form. I was young again and changed. When I opened the door, Jesus was there. I reached over and hugged Him.

Me: "Did I die, Lord?"

Jesus: "No, Erin, you were just sleeping. Come, I have much to show you." I turned to look for my shoes. He stopped me. "Come as you are."

He reached out His hand. When I took His hand, my clothing changed. He took me to a horse stable that I am quite sure would never exist like this on Earth. The horse's quarters were better than most humans. There were no doors to the stalls. All was open. Each horse had a soft area to rest.

At the end of the stable area were two horses. These two horses came out to greet us. I recognized the one as Jesus' horse and the other was a foal or offspring of His horse. The horses bowed to receive us as there were no saddles. After mounting the horses, Jesus went first through the doors of the stable and I then followed.

The horse I was riding on was in step with me and followed Jesus. We rode through the most beautiful terrain I had ever seen. He then stopped at an overlook with a beautiful tree. There was fruit in the tree and fresh grass underneath. There under the tree was a small table with settings.

Me: "Oh, are we having a picnic, Lord?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but it is still morning. As such, we are partaking in 'Break-Fast' instead." He motioned for me to sit at the table across from Him. "Erin, look at this view. Do you know where we are?"

Me: "Heaven? Lord, this seems like Heaven."

Jesus: "Look at your hands, Erin."

I looked at them. They were my hands, but there were no longer any aging signs. My forearms were solid. The nailbeds on my fingers shined like pearls.

Me: "Lord, I am healed. Are You sure I am not in Heaven, Lord?"

Jesus: "Erin, this is the New Earth! I remodeled it. Do you like it?"

Me: "It is amazing! Incredible!"

Jesus: "This is only a fraction of what I have planned for those who love Me. Now, enjoy some of your favorites…"

He pointed to the table. In front of us were the most incredible looking pastries, fruits and other things like sausages and eggs that I had ever seen.

Me: "Lord, is this pork sausage?"

Jesus: "No, but equally satisfying. Take a bite."

Me: "It tastes just like it, but…"

Jesus: "Better… and much better for you. Now, enjoy breakfast. I then have places to show you."

We ate and laughed. I think I cried too. We spoke about the horses. The horses then turned to look at us and then appeared to converse with each other. They then laughed together about us.

Jesus: "Hey, you two… I can hear you."

The horses turned to Jesus. He laughed. I had never seen anything like this before.

Me: "Wait! You knew what the horses were saying to each other?"

Jesus: "Yes. You will all be as one and like it was in the beginning. You will converse with the animals and birds. They will converse with you. Erin, My Kingdom for My people is like that of the Garden of Eden. However, this is even better. I walk amongst you and I am visible to you. You will be as one with Me, the King. You will be in step with all that I give you, each according to their portion.

"You will have your heart's desire here. All that you were robbed of from the enemy will be as a recompense from Me here for you. All the promises I gave you will be realized here with Me. This is important. Be encouraged because you have so much to look forward to. There is no need to worry about how God can possible do this or that within this timeframe.

"You mourn for your children and become sad that they will have lost all that time to be able to do things that you were able. You become sad for your sons and daughter and wonder how they will ever be married or have children. You yourself mourn for the grandchildren you never had.

"Well, Erin, you will enjoy the fruits of your labor. Here, these are realized on Earth as it is in Heaven. I have shown you the place I have prepared for you… on Earth as it is in Heaven. You can go to both here. Now, look over this wonderful valley. Erin, look at those mountains."

Me: "Lord, is this the Cascade Range? Is this Bend OR? Wait, is that a golf course?"

Jesus: Smiling. "Yes, Erin. All of this is yours."

Me: "Are You giving me Bend OR?"

Jesus: "Well, you will need to share this with others. However, I have a beautiful place for you here, along with your most favorite things you lost. Here, they accompany the new things you never knew you wanted. It is not just material items though. It is the place I restore broken dreams and lost hopes. It is here, Erin.

"Your children will also be here to raise their own families and have their dreams restored. All of this is My recompense I give to you. Now, all that was lost or stolen will be returned. You will have no sickness here and no loss. The moment you ask, I will answer. My Voice is with you and I walk amongst you."

Me: "But what happened to our old home?"

Jesus: "You can visit this also. It has changed and been upgraded. What the enemy stole will be returned and better. Now come with Me and I will take you to the streets of Jerusalem. The enemy had no hold over My dwelling place."

I had never been to Jerusalem before. While I had only seen photos, what I was now seeing was truly the next level.

Me: "This is massive, Lord. How?"

Jesus: "You are part of this here. All that was stolen from you, they also stole from Me. Now look at all of God's Land…

"From beyond the River to the Sea, all of My people are free!"

Me: "Wait! Did the enemy destroy Israel?"

Jesus: "They tried to destroy the whole Earth. However, I am in control over all things."

Me: "I no longer see the Dome of the Rock!"

Jesus: "It is interesting that the enemy had made this the main focal point for all to see. What I replace this with is much better and will give a God's eye view."

We then walked into an open-air museum of ancient artifacts restored behind clear glass on the route to the Temple Mount. The greenery and flowering vines were breathtakingly beautiful. As we approached the steps of the Temple, I saw the Ark of the Covenant to my left and the wooden Cross that Jesus died upon to my right. I stood still as I was in shock and awe. The Cross still had Jesus' bloodstains on it. At the base were the nails, squared off rectangular heads and about 6" to 8" in length. Tears streamed down my cheeks. I was now speechless.

Jesus: He was smiling as He tried to 'snap me out of it'. "Erin… Erin… I am here… I am here… This is a reminder of Truth. This is the walk of My story. The Temple is built here where the Cross ended. Erin, I am alive. I am here now with you. This is My New Kingdom. All those who come here to worship, and all will come, they will walk past the evidence and remember Me and remember God. The whole Earth will take part in My Feasts and observe My Holy Days.

"Now, we still have much to do and people to see. I brought you here to encourage you and to share in My promises for you. You will wake up and remember what I showed you. You will write this down plainly and then rejoice. I love you, Erin. I never once forgot you. I haven't forgotten My promises to you, not one, and I will fulfill all of these… some for now and many more for eternity.

"I am with you. I am yours and you are Mine. My Kingdom will consist of My Chosen, My Bride, and the saints of old and those who have come from the Great Tribulation. All those who are to reign with Me are those whose hearts have been refined through My Refining Fire and been made new. We will walk together for 1000 years and into eternity together as one.

"Now, I know you will have many questions. However, all that is occurring is part of a greater plan. All the wicked, the evil and the vile are being brought out into the open for all to see it. Those who participate and revere them will follow them. All of those who are opposed and focus on righteousness will be rewarded with truth and will witness the miracles of God. Erin, the Great Divide is here I am with you. Do not be afraid. God is over all things!"

Me: "I choose You, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. Now, you will show the lost how to find Me. Rejoice! Dry your tears. I am with you!"

Sub-dream 2 over…

Thank You for these two dreams! What a great encouragement to all of us showing us that You are working quickly now. Well, You always are and always have been. Thank You for all You do for all of us all of the time.

Dream over.

796 – Even More About the New Earth

Received on Thursday, March 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for time, a grand mystery. Thank You for answering my questions while I sleep. This world is filling up so quickly with things occurring now that we could have never imagined just five years ago. I can't even speak about certain things as they are so horrific and awful. Father, while I know You are in control of all things all of the time, this stuff is beyond wicked.

The reports of evil and the intensity or magnitude of evil just increases faster than I am able to comprehend it all. You showed me Your Clock and Calendar and clearly this is 'the time of great speed'. It is truly traumatic to be a part of this. Even so, this will become even worse over time as explained in Scripture…

Matthew 24:21-22: "21 For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. 22 And if those days had not been cut short, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short."

Father, squatters are taking peoples' homes now. These illegal aliens are calling for displacing homeowners and taking their properties. This is right after all of the car thefts. In Toronto, the police are calling on its citizens to leave their key fobs on the front porch nightly to avoid armed intruders. This is happening and it is scary. The government will soon call on all of us to hand our house keys to foreign invaders.

This is all so horrific a thing. While I can't imagine it, this is the beginning of mass displacement, destruction and death. This is the globalists desire to depopulate the planet by several billion people as soon as possible. It seems as if all this scary stuff seriously increased with the sneak attack on Israel by Hamas on October 7, 2023.

There is a lunar eclipse of the moon on Monday, March 25, 2024. The moon is also turning red from rust from the composition Hematite. Hematite means blood in the Greek language. This means that the moon is literally turning blood red as we speak. It soon won't even require a lunar eclipse as You are changing the moon's color to blood!

I had an uplifting dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Even more about the New Earth" begins…

I was loading groceries from my car into the house. My dogs bolted past me to our lawn. Zoey is going blind, so I knew it could be dangerous. I put the groceries down and went after the dogs. I called out to them. As I turned toward our small creek, there was an angel of the Lord and my two dogs at his feet. I then saw the bridge appear.

I believe that this angel was somehow related to Raphael. However, I could not tell for sure. The light was so bright all around us. My dogs turned and ran across the bridge. They both instantly disappeared. The angel could tell that I was a touch concerned when he addressed me:

Angel: "Erin, do not be afraid as both of your dogs are well. They have crossed over to be strengthened."

Me: "Are you taking them Home, angel?"

Angel: "They are at your home here and safe. While the increase of evil has come to this Earth, the Lord has created a place of peace for you. As for this…" He pointed across the bridge into a beautiful, lush, forested area. "…no evil can enter here. The Lord will walk amongst you and you will find rest."

Me: "I thought this was for Heaven, not for the New Earth."

Angel: "This is the place where the two will be joined for a thousand years. The valley in which you live, the vineyards and the lake… all of this is here. However, so too are your small companions. You have cared for many animals over the years and they are all here waiting. Come, I will show you."

The angel reached for my hand. In an instant, we were in a beautiful field of flowers. There was a clearing up ahead with incredible trees. In the center and cutting through this was a channel of water with cut pavers on either side lined with stones. The channel was lined with what looked like gold metal. The base of the channel under the water were gemstones of all colors.

The light of the sun created the most incredible sight. I saw fish in the water jumping up and swimming. They were alive and jumped out of the water as if it were a salmon run. I then stopped suddenly when I saw all of my dogs I have ever had right there. They were playing with each other.

They were playfully tackling each other as they came over to see us. I then saw all of my cats. I bent down and cried so hard at the sight.

I realized that I missed each of them so much. However, they were now healthy, young and playful here. I looked over to the angel. He had an owl on his left shoulder and a kestrel on his right shoulder. The kestrel came up to me on my shoulder and nuzzled my cheek. The owl came up and did the same. I had rehabilitated these two at the Birds of Prey Rehab Center in PA. Tears continued to stream down my cheeks.

Angel: "Erin, look over to the trees and to the orchard floors."

I saw all of the birds I had fed over the years, as well as all of the wild animals from our property. They ran up to me as well. None of the animals or birds were attacking each other. I somehow also knew what each was saying to me.

Me: Addressing all of the birds and animals at one time. "I can't wait to come and spend more time with you."

Angel: "You will have plenty of time to catch up."

Me: "Is my Home here loaded with animals?"

Angel: "They care for themselves because God provides for them. However, they are here because they all have you in common. With you, they have found their Home here. They will communicate with you. They also have their own places around your property. Do not worry as you don't spend eternity cleaning up after them. Just note that they are all here."

Me: "Wow, Heaven must be crowded with pets."

Angel: "This is Earth as it is in Heaven and there is plenty of space. They love you, Erin. They chose you. They are here waiting."

Me: "So, Zoey and Snigglet are now gone?"

Angel: "There will be a time of gathering soon where they will come. Do not worry as this is good. The animals, birds and other creatures God has called will be gathered and will then enter into the Promised Land here."

Me: "All of the dreams I thought were of Heaven… maybe they were actually about the New Earth. The pools. The flowers. The forests. Even the beautiful villages. The Golden City of God. It must be here then?"

Angel: "Some were in the Training Ground, some were in Heaven and some were in this Kingdom. Now, there are so many things to look forward here…

- This is where Jesus walks among you.
- This is the place where you find peace and rest from your enemies.

- This is where you have joy in contrast to your sorrow.
- This is the place that the Lod has prepared for all of those who love Him.
- This is where you will have an abundant life.
- The air is clean here and the water is living here as all will be made new.
- There are gatherings, festivals and great celebrations.
- This is where the pages of the prophets come to life.

Me: "So, do things become much worse then?"

Angel: "Yes. However, you are not to be afraid as God is with you. He has sent angels concerning you to guard you in all of your ways."

Me: "I don't want to leave all that is happening here on Earth right now. I want to stay and be part of God's Army."

Angel: "This is good. This is because you don't want to miss what the Lord has planned here. Do not worry though as He is always with you."

Me: "I read Jeremiah 30-31 recently and it seems like this was meant for this time."

Angel: "A mystery for now. God has prepared this beautiful land for those who love Him. All will reign with Him here. Each will be given their own portion… His recompense and His reward."

Me: "So, who is here together?"

Angel: "The Remnant, the Saints and His Bride."

Me: "Oh, so three groups."

Angel: "It is written…

- Those who are gathered up.
- Those who are raised.
- And those who are with the Lord in His service.

Me: "I still don't know who all of these are."

Angel: "This is good then. It takes the Glory of God to conceal a matter and the honor of kings to search it out."

Me: "I can think of hundreds of dreams about this New Earth now. I am in awe and excited."

Angel: "Not much is written on this. However, this is a Great Gift from God. Even the angels will find rest in this beautiful land that the Lord has prepared for all those who love Him.

"Now, you are here in this time and this is important. Keep your heart set on Him and He will grant you the desires of your heart. Your dogs, animals and birds are all here. Erin, rejoice, for all that was lost will be found here.

"Look at the Word of the Lord now with deeper understanding. You will be joined here with those who scribed and served God. Now rejoice, Erin, as this timing of the close of this age is visible. Do not worry as those who lost children will see them here and all will be reconciled. Erin, rejoice."

There was a flash of light and I was instantly back in my yard. I called out for my dogs. They were barking at the front door. I turned back to the area again and it was muddy and brown. It was lackluster as Spring hadn't sprung greenery here yet. I woke up suddenly!

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I am so thankful for these dreams. I am so grateful.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. There is much to tell you and much to show you about what is to come. This is your reward for remaining with Me when things did not look good around you. This keeps your eyes fixed on Me and the Works of My hands instead of the works of the wicked. You know this time has come because all of the nations have now turned against Israel.

"All of the nations have now also come against America. Evil leaders have allowed foreigners to invade the good lands. Because this nation has called for the division of My Land of Israel, I have then called for the division of America. While these nations are God's, their leaders have abandoned Me and removed My Name. For the sake of those who pray to Me continuously day and night, I will turn My face back and have pity on those who had no part in this."

Me: "But, Lord, most of Your people who stood for You are being removed from having a voice at all."

Jesus: "I hear, I see and I know the truth. Evil is increasing quickly. The lies are so prevalent now that no one can keep up with them. The wicked shadow leader will rise, along with his great army. His plans are lofty. He plans to kill by violent methods all of those opposed to him.

"He has called all invaders to take, seize and occupy by force all the people have. This includes removing their homes, properties, cars, horses, livestock and money. He wants these invaders to remove them to prison, great torture and/or death. What was done to Israel (on October 7, 2023) was only a small test in comparison."

Me: "Please stop this, Lord!"

Jesus: "Erin, remember that I am God. The land is Mine and the children of God are Mine. It is I who determines a man's days. The evil leader knows who I am, so he strikes out against the people and longs to defile the people and God's land. A call will be given to kill all with a certain skin color (Caucasians), Christians, all of those who support the opposing government of old (Republicans and true Democrats) and all of those who support the original laws (the Constitution).

"Little does he understand that when he made the gesture of the speaking device falling at the end of the term that he was gesturing that his loud voice would now be in the shadows and he was finished with the stats quo. However, this was only a half-truth because he continues to love to speak. However, his dropping of his device was significant of his fall and his restrictions God imposed upon him.

"He has now become angry as things are not going at the speed he had hoped. As a result of this delay, he has begun a great war unlike any other before. This is not being fought on battlefields, but instead using lies and words. Remember that the tongue is a force of mass destruction. He is a liar with a sharp instrument. However, very soon, his plans will be cut down by truth.

"My Truth is the Truth. My Word is the Truth. My promises are true and he will soon 'enjoy' his new place at the lake that I have prepared for him (the Lake of Fire). Now, take courage, Erin. Do not be afraid as I am with you. I know the plots of the wicked. These will come back upon them. Now, rejoice, and I will continue to show you the place that I have prepared for all of those who love Me."

Dream over.

797 – The Convergence of Many Holy Days

Received on Sunday, March 24, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Everything outside today is white with a very thick blanket of snow. My older son's favorite bird is the grackle. We had not seen any since the day before he left in October of 2023. Well, there were now two in our yard. It made me cry because he missed seeing them. Then yesterday, late afternoon, I had just hung up the phone after speaking to him, and suddenly an entire flock of grackles came to our yard.

The snowstorm was continuing, so my texts weren't sending and my photos weren't covering the entire event. They are jumpy birds and shift around quickly, so it was not easy to capture a good photo. The snowstorm left at least 12" here, with a layer of ice in between. The grackles have decided to hang around another day as they are perched in the tree by my devotional chair.

I am praying that the turkeys are okay. There has been one lone turkey all week coming to feed alone. Last night during the snowstorm, three turkeys ran through the trees to the trays to eat. However, they were unusually jumpy. There are a few maple syrup camps up the road and I am concerned that some of the larger turkeys were an opportunity many off-season hunters couldn't resist. I am praying that I am wrong.

Father, please continue to protect our home and property from the enemy. Things have been scary around here. The word is out that strangers are coming into people's farms and properties to invade them. We have very few periods of time when no one is here. Even so, we fully rely on You, Father, to protect our home from invaders. Lord, we are all so grateful for Your protection.

Today, You have brought me back to the pages of Isaiah and so much there is for this time. My daughter had some more trouble at work and finally, after much prayer, decided to give her two weeks notice. They had abused her and didn't value her as a Christian. Under her contract, she was to have two consecutive days off each week. However, they did not fulfill this despite numerous requests.

They would not let her have Sundays off either. In addition, every paid holiday that came was counted as her day off. They didn't do this with the other managers. When scheduled this way, she could never schedule appointments or run errands. Things like the bank were often closed due to these being holidays. She had taken them at their word several times that they would improve this for her. However, she has now finally realized that this will never change.

Their new rule on tardiness was also a ridiculous policy. Even if there is ice, a snowstorm, a flood, a closed road or even the theft of a vehicle, none of these are considered excuses for being late. It didn't matter even if these were well-documented and even in the news. If late, this was marked against the employee. If a person had seven lates in a given calendar year, this is grounds for firing and the employee is dishonorably dismissed.

Where we live, sometimes even if you leave hours before the shift, you could still beat the snowplows. Even though she was never late, this safety rule loomed and brought senseless worry. The company was essentially putting its needs above the safety and security of its employees. Employees then began to phone in sick rather than risking being written up for being just three minutes late. There is even more to this saga.

As for my husband, he has been encountering similar situations at his work. Many others I know have been experiencing the same. There is little grace given these days. Father, this won't get any better unless You make it better.

In Isaiah 58, it is difficult to reach out to the poor and offer bread as we no longer are confident that they won't turn and rob us in return for our kindness. As for the naked, they no longer want to cover themselves. We can even be condemned for handing them a blanket. It is difficult as we are now forced to not speak ill about the wicked and their deeds. When we point a finger at a wicked person and state what we witnessed, we can become charged for our tongues.

Father, we all have burdens now. We must carry these burdens now and our tongues must remain silent. We therefore hold out for the day that Your Glory shines upon us and we will be like a watered garden and a spring of water that continuously flows.

In Isaiah 58:12, Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt and You shall raise up the foundations of many generations, You will be called the Repairer of the breach and the Restorer of streets to dwell in.

There are further instructions about keeping the Sabbath Day holy and not going our own ways of self-satisfaction. If we do this then we will delight You, Father, and You will make us ride on the heights of the Earth. You will feed us with the heritage of Jacob, our Father. I take this to mean we will be strengthened like the sons of Jacob. This means being both changed and strengthened.

I had been sad for our children and many other young Christians who won't have some of the same rites of passage as we had. Those who love their children want to see them going to school, enter the workforce, get married, buy a home, have a family and enjoy a safe and prosperous life together under You. This now just seems like a shut door for many. Still, You are just and perfect and so worthy of all of our praise.

I had a couple of interesting dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Government seizes property" begins…

My daughter was to marry a kind and handsome Christian young man. She already had her wedding dress. I went with her to find a gown for her rehearsal. This seemed odd as most shopping venues were closed for the day. After successfully finding her a rehearsal gown, we had to stop by her fiancé's family estate to finalize one detail. We arrived at around 9:00 pm. We looked across a massive parcel of land to his house.

Since I had never been there, I was surprised to see this large beautifully maintained green and white house completely lit up with lighting inside and out. It was very prominent and clear that the home was occupied. As we drove near, my daughter told me that his family once owned all of the land we could see. However, the government had now decided that they didn't need so much land.

The government then began to seize parcels of land bit-by-bit. While the government was still allowing them to use their driveway and road, they felt it was only a matter of time before this 'privilege' was removed. As we approached the home, I saw a horrible chain-link fence surrounding their home allowing them just ten feet of grass and landscaping around their home.

I then saw a swimming pool in the back filled with black sludge. The government had seized the pool area. This, along with so much of this property, had now been designated for an open graveyard. Other parts were to become an open city dump. They were literally building open pits of trash. All of this was just so disgusting.

Me: "Why do they stay?"

My daughter: "Mom, don't you see it? Come on in and I will show you."

As we approached the front door, all of a sudden from my view, all we could see was a beautiful parcel of grassy land and a wonderful fragrance. It had changed.

My daughter: "You need to see what all God has done and will do. Mom, it is incredible! Their house now has a hedge of protection like our house has."

We went up to the front door. Just as my daughter knocked on the door, I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Sub-dream 2 "Witnessing to a Jewish Synagogue" begins…

I was in a place that I wasn't welcome. There was a Torah reading. The Rabbi conducting the Torah reading had a left hand that was a golden yad. He had this instead of a hand of flesh. He had a prosthetic limb of silver but had this golden yad at the end of it for reading the Torah. They had pulled out a massive scroll and opened it.

However, when the Rabbi's hand went over the script, it began to disintegrate. His golden yad hand was also melting. While his hand pointed at one script, his tongue was saying something completely different. It was a false reading about our Lord. I went up to the Rabbi. I was young again, a gentile and a female. I placed his Torah aside. The Rabbi was shocked into stunned silence.

I then proceeded to take out three ancient Torahs and read from them to the congregation. All three Torahs matched up. I then pulled out the fourth Torah again, the original one that the Rabbi was reading. Much had been removed from it. The Rabbi called on his guards to have me removed. Just then, an angel of the Lord appeared. He spoke as one of them.

Then in front of the entire synagogue, the angel showed all of them how the enemy of the Jewish people had robbed them of God's Promise. A giant screen then appeared that showed all of them the real historical events as they had actually taken place. Many of the congregation became angry and left the building. They didn't want to hear what was being shown or told to them. However, some stayed and heard.

Angel: "It is time for the Witnesses to testify in the streets."

The Rabbi with the golden yad hand stood motionless. He then began to confess that Yeshua is Lord. As he did, his arm and hand grew back. He was made whole. There were gasps in the congregation as his arm and hand were completely healed.

Angel: "Now go and witness to the people about the power of Yeshua as He will soon take His seat here."

Rabbi: "Many will not listen. They are stiff-necked."

Angel: Addressing the Rabbi. "Then you will prepare them for the good or for the evil that they will face. It is simple." Then addressing me. "Erin, you must go."

I nodded. As soon as I nodded, I was in a whole different place.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, these dreams seemed so real. You remind me in Isaiah 59 that society has begun a fast descent into darkness. Isaiah 59:10: "We grope for the wall like the blind; we grope like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in twilight, among those in full vigor we are like dead men."

This Word then continues about injustice and then judgment and then redemption. It is about how the Lord will repay us according to our deeds. This feels like the times we are in right now.

Father, I am sorry. I confess that, at times, I become crabby. It is not like me. Crabby attitudes and pain from ill-health leads to bitterness. I confess that sometimes when I am like this that I act like someone I don't like or even recognize. I become weary.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Take courage and do not worry."

Me: "Lord, all of these events are converging…

- Purim: Today is Purim. I learned that Purim comes from the word 'Pur' and means a lot or lots, a method of choosing or deciding by chance. In the Persian culture, the Pur (a lot) was used to seek guidance from pagan gods or drawing lots. Haman drew a lot that fell on Adar 13. The edict was then issued that the Jews should be annihilated on the 13th day of the 12th month (Esther 3:7,12-13).

- Palm Sunday: Today is also the day celebrated by many as the day in which You rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. The people recognized You as their Messiah. The Jewish leaders then plotted Your death.
- Lunar Eclipse: Tomorrow is the lunar eclipse. This is Monday, March 25, 2024.
- Good Friday: This coming Friday is Good Friday. This is March 29, 2024.
- Easter: This coming Sunday is Easter. This is March 31, 2024.
- Easter Monday and April Fool's Day: Easter and April Fool's Day both happen on the same day of Monday, April 1, 2024.
- Total Solar Eclipse: The Total Solar Eclipse is on the afternoon of Monday, April 8, 2024. This completes the X over the USA when combined with the Total Solar Eclipse that occurred on August 21, 2017. The Path of Totality will pass over two of the eight places in the USA called Nineveh: One in Indiana and one in Ohio. The other six Ninevehs will experience only a Partial Solar Eclipse.
- New Year for Kings and Festivals: While Nisan 1 is the beginning of summer on the Hebrew Calendar, it is also the start of the New Year for Kings and Festivals. Nisan 1 starts on the sunset of Monday, April 8, 2024 (right after the Total Solar Eclipse ends) and continues to the sunset of Tuesday, April 9, 2024.
- Last day of Ramadan: The last day of Ramadan is on Tuesday, April 9, 2024 and will officially end at the sighting of the New Moon.

"So many Holy Days are converging now. This is very interesting. Not only that but my children and my husband are all having dreams. There are so many signs of something coming now. Lord, I pray for the Jewish people. Send a hedge of protection around them. Send one around all of Your people."

Jesus: "Erin, I told you a while back that when you see the following signs that the something you are waiting for is soon to come:

- When you hear the wicked calling for the death of billions of people.
- When you see young leaders eroding the foundations of the nations' cornerstones against their own people.
- When you see punishing laws and taxation for you, but not for those who come as foreign invaders.

"Erin, you will derive more information from old warning books published decades ago than from any of your sources now. Why? This is because the older books require the checking and vetting of their source information. This had to be given."

Me: "One of my mom's favorite sayings was, 'Site your sources.'"

Jesus: "Now is the time of black water and muddy truth. You must only use Me for your truth. If you read something, pray and ask Me and I will verify what you are reading as truth. Now pay attention to 'Three Days' as this is important."

Me: "Lord, for the first time, and I have said nothing to my children about it, all of them have been having dreams about The Three Days of Darkness coming soon. They have never been interested in this type of stuff before, but they all are now."

Jesus: "Understandably. This will be a scary event for most of the Earth. However, it will be a necessary tool to divide the goats from the sheep and to soften the hearts of stone to begin to question their position and turn to Me. The wicked will just become more defiant like Pharaoh. I don't want you to be afraid as I will be with you.

"Years ago, you had the dream of lights across the nations. Some were bright and some were dim. At that time, you asked Me what could cause some lights to go dim. This is because the land has become so dark that when the darkness falls so too does their hope deferred. Erin, I am God over all of the Earth. I am in control of all things.

"The wicked enjoy their new power. However, make no mistake, this is short-lived. Now continue on your course as I am with you. Also, when I give you a dream or vision, write this down plainly and make time for Me. Now more than any other time, this hour is the most important. Rejoice and take heart as I am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-798/

798 – The Star Spangled Banner

Received on Tuesday, March 26, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have. Bless You, Lord, in all of Your Great Works. You are God over all things and no thing, no man, no god and no scheme will ever be successful against You. This is because You are greater than all of these.

I had a very vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Ballerina Angel" begins…

Before me was the White House. There was a massive American flag over the White House. It was actually more like a massive decal over all the columns and the body of the building covering exactly half of the White House. The day was beautiful with bright blue skies.

Then suddenly, as I stood in a crowd of people, I could see a dancer, a ballerina, dressed in tights and a tutu. The pattern of her outfit was that of the American flag. She was in perfect shape. It then hit me that she was actually an angel. This was quite a treat as I rarely see female angels.

Note: While I will try to accurately describe this angel, there are no words adequate. She was a ballerina of the very highest rank of skills. She was the star dancer. In turn, the star dancer is the etoile. Everything she did was to point to the Lord's Glory.

Angel: Singing loudly and in perfect pitch. "Trump! Sound the Trumpet! For he is with God and God's favor is upon him. God is over the land. He is God's!"

As she danced, her legs and arms created something like colorful jet streams. Vivid color streaks rocketed from the points of her ballet shoes into the sky and straight over the White House. I just knew this dancer had to be an angel as the moves she was performing were just so perfect. I had never seen anything quite like this before.

She then performed an exquisite move technically referred to as a battement. In this incredible move, she moved her leg against her head and then moved into a backward type of scissor kick. She then spun in the air. All the while, these color streaks like jet streams continued to come from the tips of her ballet shoes. As she floated in the air, she addressed the crowd.

Angel: Looking down at the crowd from above. "God is in control and He is God forever more! Believe it!"

She then shot up into the air like a missile. When she came back down, she landed with a tremendous thud that made the ground quake. Despite the huge noise this made, she landed with grace and in the most epic of superhero poses. The crowd was exhilarated by this. After the crowd cheered for many minutes at this awesome sight, they started cheering to the Lord.

Crowd: Shouting. "Etoile, etoile, etoile!"

I then heard a trumpet blow. It echoed throughout the land in an almost frightful manner. This energized the crowd even more.

Crowd: Shouting. "Trump! Trumpet! Trump! Trumpet! Trump etoile!"

There was a great celebration now taking place. The crowd showed no signs of tiring out. It was breathtaking.

Sub-dream 1 over…

With the news being so gloomy these days, this dream felt somewhat out of place. One of the biggest marker signs for me personally is anything where the USA turns against Israel. When the whole world turned against Israel yesterday at the UN Security Council, including the USA by abstaining, I just know that America is about to fall.

Father, what can we do to appeal to You. Corrupt leaders who rose due to their corruption made decisions that the majority of the people don't agree with. What can we do? Is there anything we can do? No, there really isn't. Only You can step in now, Father. Only You! My heart hurts when I think about the beautiful land I was born in. What a miracle it is. What a Divine Gift. Father, please have mercy on our nation.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Now, My Word is true. Those who bless Israel, I will bless, and those who curse Israel, I will curse. This has been the pattern over thousands of years and will continue. They follow the same steps…

- The evil leaders first treat those being oppressed (Israel) as the oppressor.
- They then dehumanize them (Israel).
- They then make all of God's children like a stain and remove them (whether it is the Jewish people or the Gentiles, it doesn't matter).
- Their plans are lofty and they want to wipe out Israel and crush America.
- In order for their greater agenda to work, millions must be sacrificed.

Me: "So, America will fall, Lord?"

Jesus: "I have been very clear. While I will save those who do not turn their backs on Israel, I will turn my face from those who turn from Israel. You will now see many more harbingers. These are warnings meant to humble the land."

Me: "Was the bridge falling last night a sign?"

Jesus: "Remember that there is something in the name and in the timing of this."

Me: "There are quite a few things here when you look into it further…

- Maryland is nicknamed 'The Free State'.
- Baltimore is the town of 'The Big House'.
- The bridge was named 'The Francis Scott Key Bridge'.
- Francis Scott Key wrote 'The Star Spangled Banner', the National Anthem for the nation of the USA.
- The bridge was hit by a shipping vessel / container ship from Singapore.
- The ship is named 'The Dali'.
- The ship is owned by Grace Ocean and managed by Synergy Marine.
- Maersk charted The Dali and is a Danish company.
- The Port of Baltimore is one of the largest in the USA for roll-on/roll-off ships carrying trucks and trailers.
- There were 22 crew members on The Dali.
- The crew sent a mayday alert about losing power right before the crash.

Jesus: "Well, this is good sleuthing, Sparrow. Take this a bit further. If this is a harbinger, what does this mean?"

Me: "Well, Baltimore used to be so beautiful. I visited there a few times in the 1980s and loved it. However, it has become different now and it is so sad. This bridge falling is huge. The namesake of this bridge wrote 'The Star Spangled Banner'."

Jesus: "This city became corrupted many years ago and it spread like cancer throughout. Now, this happened as this is the beginning of the end. This is where God was removed. The enemy rose instead and took his pulpit here. This is where the division gained power. Remember the enemy and those who enjoy their prominence. They enjoy shaming all of those who gave them rise. However, you only need to look at the forgotten people who dwell there.

"While they forever condemn slavery, they do nothing to invest in their communities. Instead of promoting the value of human life, they promote the killing of babies (abortion) there. Those responsible will be held accountable. They removed the power and sanctity of My Holy Name. They sacrifice to Baal instead. They turned their backs on God and Israel there. This is not a blessed city."

Me: "Have You removed Your favor from Maryland too, Lord?"

Jesus: "I gave you a Word about bridges some time ago. This is a harbinger. Now, what is a bridge?"

Me: "A structure mostly over water or a place that would be impassable without a means to cross over it. It is a structure of cross over from point to point. Travel would be difficult, sometimes even impossible, without it."

Jesus: "Well, yes. Remove the bridge, remove the way. I am the Bridge, Erin. Without Me, there is no way. Read the entire script of the song written by the namesake of the fallen bridge…"

Me: "Sure, I will include this now…"

NATIONAL ANTHEM OF THE UNITED STATES – "The Star Spangled Banner" – Francis Scott Key (1814)

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming? And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes, What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep, As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses? Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam, In full glory reflected now shines in the stream, 'Tis the star-spangled banner – O long may it wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore, That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion A home and a Country should leave us no more? Their blood has wash'd out their foul footstep's pollution. No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave, And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation! Blest with vict'ry and peace may the heav'n rescued land Praise the power that hath made and preserv'd us a nation! Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, And this be our motto – "In God is our trust," And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Jesus: "It is written there, 'In God is our trust'. Well, who trusts in Me now? It is simple. Trust Me or trust something else. Lies are compounded. False testimonies are bearing false witness. These things I hate. Foreigners have invaded America's borders. What is allowed and done to Israel is now being allowed and done to other nations. I have raised up an evil root to punish the nations. This evil root is an invasive vine, an invasive species, that bears no fruit. Wherever it is planted it destroys all else."

Me: "We have a plant like this in our yard. While it is pretty, it suffocates the other plants."

Jesus: "I realize this is not an easy thing as you see Me in love and you know My heart of compassion and grace."

Me: "Lord, You love unlike I can love. If I had only a fraction of Your heart, there is nothing I couldn't do. You are kind, generous and fair. You grant us our portion. For those who do not realize all You promise here, You will fulfill this in Heaven. You are patient with the wicked and the foolish until you are not. I would not be so patient.

"Lord, You are loving and gracious. You are strong and wise. Your smile lights up my heart. You can see into my soul with Your eyes. Lord, please have compassion on all of those who were tricked by the snake's tongue. Maybe they haven't heard Your message of salvation."

Jesus: "Most have, Erin. While I have a Great Plan, I don't take lightly those who have been given reign over others and publicly shame Israel as if the Jewish people have no rights to freedom."

Me: "Oh Lord, I just found out the leaders in Singapore just accused Israel of a hateful post they had made that was factual about the Koran."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin. The last two days have not been good for those who come against Israel. I am now sending more troubles, more harbingers."

Me: "Lord, what else was on that container ship?"

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin."

Me: "What is coming next to America?"

Jesus: "Remember that I am in control and over all you see. Take comfort and do not worry."

Me: "Lord, every empire that has come against Israel has fallen…

- The Babylonians.
- The Persians.
- The Assyrians.
- The Greeks.
- The Romans.
- The Soviets.
- The Nazis.

"Lord, could You please step in now to keep the USA off of that list?"

Jesus: "Erin, there is much to do and a Great Harvest with My Chosen ushering in My Kingdom. Before Great Victory comes a defeat. There can be no victory without the enemy being defeated. Any enemy of the children of God and my righteousness must be defeated in order to have victory. The victory has been won and now this is the minutia. As it stands, corruption has replaced fair judgment. Justice has no blindfold and uses uneven weights and measures. Remember that they are not in control. I Am.

"Now, My hand has been over Trump as I have sent him. They know I have sent him and they are now calling for his death. However, I am God. I am the I AM. I know the plans I have for you. Now, rejoice, as you have waited a long time for this time. I love you!"

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Dream over…

799 – Hidden Treasure Shall Be Made Visible

Received on Friday, March 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Good Friday! Thank You for every new miracle soon to be revealed. It has now been raining non-stop for a few days. It has also been quite foggy.

My husband and I traveled for more medical appointments for me yesterday. One of them was a scary one for me so I was given some medication prior to the test to keep me calm. Never in my life have I had extreme anxiety to the point of refusing a test until the last few weeks. My body is saying, 'No!' Father, I could really use that miracle now.

A fox came into our yard and sat right there in the broad daylight. It was purposeful. It was hungry. The rain was pouring down. Its bright orange and red fur glowed in the snow. Father, this is a sign from You that the little foxes are working behind the scenes. It was also a stunning sight. It was rare, beautiful and ominous at the same time. My daughter was the first to spot it. I was able to capture a photo or two before it disappeared up the road.

I am thankful that another Good Friday has arrived. Good Friday follows what I like to call 'Anxious Thursday'. What a week leading up to this day, the day of the Cross. This is the date for this on the Christian calendar. Biblically speaking, the true date of His death is at Passover in the month of Nisan. This isn't until the second half of April.

Every time I go into a surgical procedure or when I had to undergo great pain, I often remind myself that what I am going through is nothing compared to what You went through. I take comfort in this for my trials and my personal suffering. I am so grateful to have a Father in Heaven who blesses me, who loves me and makes me His own. I am thankful to be grafted into His Kingdom.

John 15:1-16 speaks more on this…

1 I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. 2 Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Already you are clean because of the Word that I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. 5 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in Me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in Me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

7 If you abide in Me, and My Words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8 By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be My disciples. 9 As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Abide in My love. 10 If you keep My Commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's Commandments and abide in His love. 11 These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. 12 This is My Commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

13Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are My friends if you do what I command you. 15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his Master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in My Name, He may give it to you.

Abide means to dwell, remain, be patient and to be held and kept. I take this to mean trusting in You fully and trusting in Your Timeless Words. It also means to remain and endure over time no matter the circumstances. Abide means faithfulness to remain in Jesus. I take this to mean not give up no matter what the foxes say or do. Foxes spoil the vines.

Song of Solomon 2:15: "Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom."

Over time and little by little, the foxes ruin the new blossoms in spring before the vine comes to bear fruit. Since the foxes are beautiful, you might be tempted to ignore them as small or nothing harmful. However, after time, they will destroy the vine. This was confirmation for my daughter, as well as the position of many other Christians, who feel worn down by attacks from foxes using deceit to remove all of the good.

There is just so much coming at God's people right now. Many all over the world are being condemned for their love of God and persecuted. I often think of the news media as foxes. We are tempted to look, watch and listen, but their lies are so discouraging that it is difficult to trust a wicked message that bears no fruit and no good news.

I had a disturbing dream last night. It woke me up and I was so upset by it.

Sub-dream 1 "My Purse is Stolen" begins…

Background on this dream: I keep my purse across my body and zipped up. As an extra precaution, I keep RFD chip scramblers all throughout my purse and wallet. In other words, I am very cautious about having my purse or my identity stolen.

I was traveling with the following items in my purse…

- My wallet containing:
    - Various cards.
    - Various memberships.
    - Medical alerts.
    - Driver's license.
    - A small amount of cash.
-
-
- Various keys.
-

In this dream, my purse disappeared at some point. Even though I never took my purse off of my body, it was now gone. I no longer could do anything. Without my purse, I had no power. My purse held all of my identity, the proof of my belonging, even the proof of my worth and where I came from. Without this, I had nothing…

- No car to drive.
- No money.
- No phone to call family.
- No proof of who I was.
- No record of me.

I then searched everywhere. I eventually learned that my purse had been stolen. Someone else had now taken over my car, my home and all of my possessions. Worse yet, no one believed me. No authorities believed me as I had no visible proof. I woke up suddenly when I called out to Jesus in this dream.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I have seldom had such a vivid dream like this. Father, have I become too dependent on the things of this world? I fell asleep and this morphed into my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Betrayal of the Mega Wealthy" begins…

I was young again, seemingly in my 20s. I was invited to some country club event for off-the-charts wealthy young people. Most of these people had a level of wealth that was completely out of my scope of understanding. They all seemed to know each other. There was so much bragging and displaying of their personal material wealth going on that it was so ridiculous. All of it was because of their parents' wealth.

I somehow knew that this was a very elite Spring Party surrounding a ceremony of some kind. Something then occurred that caused the club manager to bring the entire body of attendees into the shelter below this elaborate building. It seemed like a major enough event to do this based on the reactions from the terrified workers who were also called to shelter below to continue to serve the attendees.

When all of the young people were ushered into the basement, a giant steel door shut behind them. All of the young people were unphased and continued to snap group selfies and party on. The servants were called to different areas in which there were small cafes set up in advance, as well as working kitchens. The whole area seemed like a hardened underground city.

The floor was polished concrete in rainbow iridescent paint. It was wet with fresh rain. It might also be that the floor had just been power washed. I couldn't tell for sure. The café stations had the most elaborate food I had ever seen. I could tell all of this had been planned for these rich children in advance. The attendees could eat anything they wanted. There was enough food to last a very long time.

I then looked down at the floor. I saw some extremely large ants in one particular area. I then saw some of the names on the nameplates. The last names of several of the attendees were the same last names as some of the wealthiest families in the world. As the hours continued, the attendees started to become noticeably impatient. I then heard two of the attendees and the club manager talk to each other…

Attendee 1: "Like, what is really going on here? I am ready to go."

Attendee 2: "Me too, man. This is so uncool."

I began to see these young people go from partiers to panic mode in just seconds.

Club manager: "Your parents want you safe, so you will stay and make do with all of this gourmet food."

While the attendees then tried to use their cellphones, there was no service. They were becoming angrier and demanded to be let out. The club manager addressed the entire group of attendees in a loud and stern voice…

Club manager: "This room is guarded by a door as thick as that of a bank safe. There is no getting out right now as this door is on a timed lock. It is impossible to open before the right time."

Young female attendee: "Do they want us dead so that they can take our money or do they want us alive so that we can save the world?"

Male attendee: Laughing. "Well, we certainly aren't their best and brightest here. I would therefore pick that they want us dead so that they can take our money."

I began to see all of them panic.

Female attendee: "This is the first step to hell. My grandmother warned me to stop mocking God. I am screwed. All of us are screwed. This is because God doesn't care about our name or money or the number of our followers on our sites."

All of these young people then went to their knees on the floor. They wept and cried out for God to save them. Three of us from God's Army then came out of the crowd and stood next to the steel door. The Lord suddenly made the three of us bright and shining. The three of us then began to share with them about what the enemy had deceived them with. I then informed them of their future as planned by the Lord.

Me: "Listen, it is God's desire that you all will be saved by His Son, Jesus. You will then live with Him in a more beautiful place than here."

Young man: "But where are our parents?"

Another of the three: "They have been killed." They all began to cry and weep uncontrollably. "Their money has been stolen. All of you are marked to die as they want to eliminate any heirs to their wealth."

Even though they were very upset about this, the entire room of young adults of the wealthy were saved. This was Great News in the midst of their terrible news. Once they all had been saved, the steel door to the underground bunker area disappeared. They all desired to go home. We needed to explain the impossibility of this…

Me: "I am so sorry, but not one of you have any homes here anymore."

Young man: "They can't do this to us. We all have hidden wealth. We will go after them."

Young woman: "Don't you get it? Our parents sacrificed themselves so we would live. The wicked in power instead killed our parents and framed all of us for it."

Once she finished saying this, their cell service came back. After searching the news sites, they realized everything that this young woman had stated was true. They looked back at the three of us with such sorrow.

Me: "Do not worry as God will make everything right. The Lord controls all things all of the time. As for the enemy, he thinks that all of you are now dead."

They didn't listen to us as they now had revenge on their minds. They all jumped into their cars and drove off with the goal of punishing whoever had done this to them and their parents. I looked at one of the other of us three…

Me: "Do you think they will make it?"

One of the three: "I don't know. Only God knows."

I heard something behind me and I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Both of these dreams were so real. Father, You are a Grand Mystery. I am so grateful that You are in control of all things all of the time.

Lord, I am really excited about something that I have always dreamt about happening. This has never happened to me before. I had taken a canvas oil painting that was of a grassy hill of white daisies above this were beautiful clouds and blue sky. This painting was signed 'William Lee'. It had a bad frame. I purchased this painting at Value Village for about $14 over nine years ago.

While I loved the greens, blues and whites in this painting, I wanted a lighter frame. I took it to a Michael's craft store to have it reframed. It didn't cost much, so I didn't think You would mind. I then picked this up on Tuesday, March 26, 2024. As soon as I walked up to the framing department, the assistant manager came over to me…

Manager: "I have a great surprise for you. You remember how we had to re-stretch the canvas of your painting?"

Me: Thinking it had ripped. "Uh, yes…"

Manager: "Well, there was a painting underneath your painting and it is beautiful. Several of the workers here wanted to keep it, but ethically we couldn't do this to you. This painting is beautiful."

The manager opened the paper covering this painting and my jaw dropped. It was a beautiful oil painting of Perce Rock, along with five small wooden fishing boats in the cove. The rock structure was painted in blues, greens and whites. It was so beautiful! It was signed by a 'Kent' in red paint. I knew this previously hidden painting was an older one because this rock has worn down considerably since he painted this rock.

The painting could be about 70 years old. While I had always heard about hidden paintings, I had never seen one. I can't find a thing about either of these two artists nor can I find any other of their works. I am so delighted to have collected two pieces such as this during my prior searching. I have always found these items in thrift shops and knew very little until I did some research.

A few years ago, I acquired some beautiful paintings from a friend who collected vintage toys locally. He took them on consignment for the daughter of the artist who died. She was also very sick and had hoped to get $300 for eight paintings. The story got to me. My friend told me that he had no intention of taking any fees.

I felt You say, 'Purchase these.' I did and asked him to let the daughter know these are going to a good home and one day they will be important. I also told her I would keep these together. The paintings were of Cornwall, England. There were villages and a beautiful sandy harbor with boats.

I know the quality and talent of an artist and these are stunning. While their frames are outdated, all are preserved. When I told my husband years ago what I had done, he was skeptical. However, he saw how beautiful they were and how important these would be to this family either here or in Heaven. One day, You will show us the true worth of all of these art pieces.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have been busy."

Me: "Not really, Lord. Just living to dream." I heard Him laugh at this.

Jesus: "I delight in you and love to see your joy. I want you to understand something… all along, that secret (the painting of Perce Rock) was hidden there waiting to be discovered by you."

Me: "Lord, this is a huge sign for me. Another one of my hopes was answered and with witnesses too. How awesome!"

Jesus: "You actually have a few more too and soon you will discover these."

Me: "Lord, please don't forget about Your people. The world is being plunged into darkness. It is scary."

Jesus: "You know where you are going and have no doubts. You even know that I have prepared a place for you to be with Me for eternity. There are many who have no eyes to see nor ears to hear and this will be a difficult thing. Now, I keep you moving. I keep you focused on things of Heaven and on things of the God who loves you. To others, these seem small and unimportant.

"However, these are special and unique between you and Me and they strengthen your faith. While wicked men make evil plans, I see it. God sees it. The angels in Heaven see it. Nothing is hidden. Now, if God sees the wicked planning his course, how much more will God bless you on a course meant for good? The wicked and their evil will be turned back on them. They will be exposed. This is coming."

Me: "Lord, I don't want the surgery. I don't want cancer. I am tired. While I want to live, the world around us is crumbling."

Jesus: "I am your Healer. In Me should be your trust. Stay with Me and do not worry. Erin, I love you. The Kingdom of Heaven will soon be visible! Keep looking up!"

Dream over.

800 – Isaiah 61 Is Our Resurrection Day Treasure

Received on Sunday, March 31, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for such a beautiful sunrise today! It is clear with blue skies. I actually woke up at 8:00am for dream 800 and I took this as a sign to come and worship You for all that You have done. The number 8 is the Biblical number for New Beginnings.

When these dreams started, I was 49 years old. While my hands were still young and strong, they are now weak and gnarled a bit. When these began, nothing could stop me from writing in my journal and typing the very same day. I even worked full-time as a single mom. While it has never been easy, I am reminded this morning in my devotional time that You never once promised us that life here would be easy.

Here are just a couple of Scriptures related to this that stand out…

John 16:33 (NCV): "I told you these things so that you can have peace in Me. In this world, you will have trouble, but be brave. I have defeated the world!"

Matthew 11:28-30 (NCV): "28 Come to Me, all of you who are tired and have heavy loads, and I will give you rest. 29 Accept My teachings and learn from Me, because I am gentle and humble in Spirit, and you will find rest for your lives. 30 The burden that I ask you to accept is easy; the load I give you to carry is light."

The 11th Chapter of Matthew is a testament to the resistance that Jesus and the disciples experienced when going out to spread the Good News into various towns. In Chapters 20 to 24, You criticized the cities where You displayed so many open miracles. You condemned many of these cities for their negative reception of You.

While it is brutal to read, I am thankful, Father, that You are the God of Judgment and Mercy, as well as the God of Grace. While things were bad back then, I believe that the world is now guilty of much worse sins now than ever before –almost 2000 years later.

When I think of the worst day in history (His-Story), Your Story, I think of the horrifying day of Your betrayals and trials leading up to the Crucifixion. What is so truly amazing is that You knew what was coming and You still were willing to endure this for us. Those who walked with You scattered and left You. Those You trusted served You up or abandoned You.

You were then subject to lies and false testimonies against You. You were mocked and cursed. You were spit on. A crown of thorns was then forced onto Your head. You had nothing to say in Your defense because a verdict had already been rendered. You were then found guilty and Your life exchanged for a murderer instead of You being set free. You were then led to punishment that no man could endure.

You were bloodied and battered beyond recognition. You then had to carry the Cross in which You would be nailed to and hanged. In the same way a Sacrificial Lamb says nothing before their sacrifice, You remained silent in Your defense. You saved a thief there and offered for him to join You in Paradise. You then offered up Your Spirit.

Lord, this was the most horrific event in history. You came to save us. You came to share Good News when there was hopelessness. You came to commune with us and walked this Earth in flesh. You came to show miracles, signs and wonders. You came not to condemn the world, but to extend Your Divine Grace and Love. However, this is what the world did to You in return for all that You came and did for us.

Well, You won! This worst day then ended up as the Best Day! This horrible moment of sorrow birthed a promise of eternal joy and life. While we were once slaves, we are now free. Father, only You could do this! Only You! I am even reminded that You have taken every disaster and failure in my life and You turned these into tools of the Redemption of Your Love and Your Saving Grace.

This horrible plunge and this freefall of this world is happening right now. It is so dark and so void of You, Father. It is scary, really scary. The news seems all bad now. The wicked and their gods they serve have torn apart all of our good things. They have desecrated our special holidays, our memorials, our altars, our churches and Your Word. There are now search engines used to hunt down all who love You.

Our freedom to worship You is now being condemned and assaulted. Even so, Father, millions in this world still love You and remember You daily and serve You. We pray for the lost and for Your Divine Rescue of them.

I was then reminded of something you said to me a few days ago when I was upset over some bad news…

Jesus: "Erin, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. What seems like the end is actually a New Beginning. Can you see it?"

Me: "No, Lord, I can't see it right now."

Jesus: "I am in the midst of you. My Power and Dominion is rising within you. Look up as your Redeemer comes and My Recompense is with Me. See, I come with 10,000s of My Righteous Ones. I am God and My Holy Name will not be profaned. I ride a swift horse and I am Faithful and True. Erin, this is not a metaphor… this is soon to be!"

Me: "Lord, come quickly!"

Jesus: "I come at the proper time. I promise you that you will ride with Me on the clouds dressed in fine linen and you will follow Me into battle."

I am so grateful for these Words of Encouragement from the Lord, especially now.

I had quite a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Lord took His lashes out of love for us" begins…

I had an open wound. It was bleeding. I was looking for something to cover it in the hopes that the bleeding would stop. I then realized that I had many more wounds than I previously thought. It was an impossible situation. There was no one there to help me stop the bleeding long enough for the blood to clot. There was no one to sew the wounds closed.

Even though I eventually found some bandages, I realized that they were not going to stop the outpouring of blood. I was losing blood and hope. I was weak and tired. I decided I would just go to sleep now and wake up in Jesus' arms. As my eyes were growing dim, I saw a bright light. The hand of an angel was visible. After I reached for his hand, I began climbing a ladder through a dark tunnel to the light at the end.

I then smelled something like sewage behind me. The stench made me hurry my climb to the light of Heaven. I recognized this place! There waiting for me was Jesus! Jesus was sitting on a rock. While my clothing had been dirty and blood-stained, it was now as white as snow. His arms were stretched out to receive me. I ran straight to Him and He hugged me in His loving arms.

Me: "Lord, I love You!"

Jesus: "I am here, Erin. I am here. Your wounds have been healed. You are reconciled to Me. Do not worry. You are here with Me."

Me: "Lord, did I die from gunshots? What was that?"

Jesus: "It does not matter. Wounds are wounds. What you meant to give as love and Good News, truth and grace, you were punished as the world rejected you."

Me: "But, Lord, I don't feel sorry for myself. I have let those painful memories go. I forgave them and gave this to You. Did I take them back?"

Jesus: "No. However, understand what you will be called to do. While some say that I had 39 lashes as in the Jewish tradition, this would only have to be true if My punishment had been carried out by a Jewish soldier. To be clear, these were Roman soldiers and they were not subject to Jewish laws. They saw Jewish laws and commandments as suggestions. I then had to endure more than 39 stripes.

"The very notion that it could be no more than 39 would be something that the rabbis would have noted. Why would the rabbis do this if they hadn't just realized that they had persecuted the Son of God for all to witness? Think of the terror at the hour of darkness, the Earth quaking, the Temple falling, the graves of the dead opening and the Great Wind. Think of this day and of this hour. How could any of this be made right again? How could any of this be explained?"

Me: "I have no idea, Lord."

Jesus: "They thought that, if I truly was the Son of God, I would save myself. They were looking for the miracle of the pillar of light or the cloud in the desert. They were looking for the same God who parted the sea with Moses' staff. They questioned why I didn't stop this madness. They questioned why I didn't pass their tests. They questioned why I gave no defense.

"Well, this was My message to them… an open tomb and a folded cloth! A dinner guest is not finished and will return when he leaves the cloth folded. Erin, I am not finished yet. There is much to do. Are you ready?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, what of my wounds?"

Jesus: "Ah yes… they mark things in your life that hurt you either physically or in other ways in which you never saw justice or recompense for. These hurt you and I have never forgotten these. These cases in God's Court are still open. They are not finished. I am your Kinsman Redeemer and your Lawyer and I will make right these wrongs. In turn, you will be satisfied and I will give you charge to administer My Righteous Judgment over those who have done horrible things to the children of God."

Me: "Oh, this will be fun! But, Lord, I haven't dwelled on any of this stuff."

Jesus: "Well, neither have I. I have forgiven those who hurt Me because they truly had no idea what they had done. However, I still bear the scars as the evidence."

Me: "Oh, I see now!"

Jesus: "Remember the long line of those who afflicted you and never received their judgment. They administered their judgment to you and punished you. They will be reminded. Now, you understand evil. You have seen it and you have experienced it. This is why you are in My number… because you have not sought revenge and have instead kept yourself focused on Me.

"You had no abilities to administer judgment. Even with evidence, the judge did not give you fair restitution. Well now, this is different. Pray! Pray for these because they think themselves like Pharaoh… a god unto themselves."

Me: "Lord, You are amazing. You show love with so much strength. Your steadfast bold resolution of justice brings chills to my body. They should fear You, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, I have a Great Plan. Erin, do not worry. You will see."

Sub-dream 1 over…

I quickly fell asleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "God's Army to soon be Trained" begins…

I saw an angel of the Lord. He stood on a plateau looking over a valley. He raised his arms and shouted. I suddenly saw one large eagle and then even more eagles added to the first one. I saw baby eaglets go from fledglings to powerful strong eagles within seconds. I saw old eagles strengthened and made powerful. All were flying in a large group.

I then heard the angel shout a second time. I saw a great storm of dust on the horizon. I then saw thousands of wild horses in all different colors and varieties coming in this dust storm.

I then heard the angel shout a third time. It was a loud cry. All of the horses immediately turned white. The horses were perfect in shape and could run so fast.

I then heard the angel shout a fourth time. To his right, the Earth opened and out of it came molten steel like from a volcano, only different in a way hard to describe. I then heard clanking of hammers coming from a massive cloud.

I then heard the angel shout a fifth time. The cloud lifted and thousands of bright and shining swords were stacked there. Each had a name on it. Along with this name was something I didn't recognize, but I knew it was a symbol for truth etched on the blades.

The angel was in full armor with wings. His wings were massive and his sword long. When he turned more fully towards me, I recognized him as the angel, Michael. He then went into the air above the area. He was preparing for the gathering of God's Army for training. He then let out a mighty shout…

Angel Michael: Shouting. "We are ready, Lord! Bring in the Saints!"

There was a massive flash of light and I immediately woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Just then, a bald eagle flew in front of our window against the beautiful blue Easter sky. I went over to my chair and took communion.

Me: "Lord, these dreams were so clear it was as if I was there. I could smell the sewer at the beginning of the dream. I could then smell victory roses and sweet fragrances in Heaven when I was with You. When will all of this be?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry as I am with you! Mass casualty events are planned daily by the wicked. However, I have risen and I have charge over life and death. Erin, all of their plans for evil are about to be undone. You will see. Do not worry. What I have planned and what I have prepared for those who birth evil, no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor human heart conceived.

"However, in as much as I will administer justice and right the wrongs, I will also save those who cry out to Me. I will embrace those who ask for forgiveness. I will show My love to those who will receive it. I will display miracles, signs and wonders to those who have prayed.

"I have prepared a place where I will walk among you. I promise you all will be made brand new. It is here where I will wipe away every tear from your eyes. You will spend each day in joy everlasting. All of My promises were true then, are true now and will always be true. Lies will be no more and liars will be no more."

Me: Crying. "Lord, is this my last dream from You?"

Jesus: "Do you want this to be?"

Me: "No, Lord, of course not."

Jesus: "Good then. I am with you. You may continue, but I promise you that your wait will not be long. Rejoice, Erin. You did not stop at 50 (dreams posted) when some told you to stop. You instead kept your eyes on Me. Your prayers were heard by Me. Your pen was My sword here.

"Erin, I am about to call upon My Army. The Vessels have been prepared and filled by My hand at the River of Life. My Temple is soon to be rebuilt in record time. Rejoice! You will be called priests of the Lord and ministers of our God. Erin, look up this Scripture. You will find this there."

Me: After looking this up. "Lord, this is in Isaiah 61:6. I love Isaiah!"

Jesus: "Yes… and you are now 61 years of age. Erin, Isaiah 61 is what will be now. Read your new version if you have doubt."

Me: "No, Lord, I don't doubt! Isaiah 61 is filled with so much promise…"

Isaiah 61 (NCV) – The Lord's Message of Freedom (aka The Year of the Lord's Favor): 1 The Lord God has put His Spirit in me, because the Lord has appointed me to tell the Good News to the poor. He has sent me to comfort those whose hearts are broken, to tell the captives they are free, and to tell the prisoners they are released. 2 He has sent me to announce the time when the Lord will show his kindness and the time when our God will punish evil people.

He has sent me to comfort all those who are sad 3 and to help the sorrowing people of Jerusalem. I will give them a crown to replace their ashes, and the oil of gladness to replace their sorrow, and clothes of praise to replace their spirit of sadness. Then they will be called Trees of Goodness, trees planted by the Lord to show his greatness. 4 They will rebuild the old ruins and restore the places destroyed long ago. They will repair the ruined cities that were destroyed for so long.

5 My people, foreigners will come to tend your sheep. People from other countries will tend your fields and vineyards. 6 You will be called priests of the Lord; you will be named the servants of our God. You will have riches from all the nations on Earth, and you will take pride in them. 7 Instead of being ashamed, My people will receive twice as much wealth. Instead of being disgraced, they will be happy because of what they receive. They will receive a double share of the land, so their happiness will continue forever.

8 I, the Lord, love justice. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. I will be fair and give My people what they should have, and I will make an agreement with them that will continue forever. 9 Everyone in all nations will know the children of My people, and their children will be known among the nations. Anyone who sees them will know that they are people the Lord has blessed."

10 The Lord makes me very happy; all that I am rejoices in my God. He has covered me with clothes of salvation and wrapped me with a coat of goodness, like a Bridegroom dressed for his Wedding, like a Bride dressed in jewels. 11 The Earth causes plants to grow, and a garden causes the seeds planted in it to grow. In the same way the Lord God will make goodness and praise come from all the nations.

Me: "Lord, I am just excited!"

Jesus: "Then, Erin, be ready for more excitement! Study this!"

Dream over.

801 – O Dia Antes da Grande Eclipse Norte-Americana

Recebido em domingo, 7 de abril de 2024

Comunhão

Querido Pai,

Obrigado por mais um dia! Obrigado pela minha família, pelo nosso Ninho e por todos os Pardais que olham para Ti em todas as coisas. Somos um povo abençoado e estamos agradecidos. O mundo às vezes parece tão pequeno. Porém, outras vezes, o mundo parece tão vasto, como poderíamos saber tudo o que somos capazes de saber?

Minha mãe me criou para localizar minhas fontes. No entanto, isso também significava verificar primeiro sua credibilidade. Quando eu era criança, aprendi a confiar que o que me diziam era a verdade. Por que? Isto porque havia muitos jornalistas e grupos de integridade de periódicos mantendo a verdade com relatos de testemunhas oculares. Não existia uma enorme rede de informações entre mentiras e verdades como existe hoje.

Naquela época, em vez de evitar a dura verdade das notícias, os responsáveis pela informação simplesmente a omitiam. Uma forma de mentira é a omissão ou a verdade editada. Eles veem isso sob o pretexto de "manter as pessoas seguras". No entanto, será mesmo? E quem determina esta censura e quando ela deve ser aplicada?

Na Alemanha nazista, havia um Departamento do Ministério da Verdade. Existem agora versões disso em todo o mundo, em muitos países. Estes são formados para orientar o povo na direção definida pelo seu líder supremo. Isso começa com uma mentira com algumas evidências plausíveis, mas falsas. Isso o torna crível e então se transforma em crença. Mentiras mais evidências se transformam em crença ou verdade percebida. Isso é frequentemente usado para propósitos malignos.

Uma coisa que minha mãe também me ensinou é 'errar na verdade em todas as coisas'. Em outras palavras, é mais fácil dizer a verdade do que encobrir continuamente uma mentira.

Quando criança, minha avó me ensinou isso; a verdade é como uma semente plantada no solo que se transforma numa linda flor. Com cuidado, sol e água, ela floresce. Esta foi uma analogia com "a verdade". Em contraste, uma mentira é como cavar a terra em busca de uma nova verdade para crescer, mas nunca a encontra. Em vez disso, é como ter que preencher constantemente buracos cavados na terra com terra fresca. Assim, tudo fica enterrado. Mentiras são sujas.

Bem, agora estamos vivendo em tempos de mentiras e mentirosos. Rumores e mentiras estão se espalhando mais rápido do que nunca. É uma campanha para forçar as pessoas a acreditarem em qualquer coisa, porque os nossos cérebros estão a ficar cansados de trabalhar constantemente para filtrar os factos da ficção. A medida de onde estamos na Bíblia nunca mudou. Nosso padrão como cristãos é Israel. Quando Israel é abandonado pelo mundo, Deus então aparece…

Miquéias 5:3: "Portanto, Israel será abandonado até o momento em que aquela que está em trabalho de parto tiver um filho, então o resto de seus irmãos retornará para se juntar aos israelitas."

Isaías 60:12: "Pois a nação e o reino que não te servirem perecerão; essas nações serão totalmente devastadas."

Salmo 83: 1 Ó Deus, não fique calado; não fique quieto nem fique quieto, ó Deus! 2 Pois eis que os teus inimigos fazem alvoroço; aqueles que te odeiam levantaram a cabeça. 3 Eles traçam planos astutos contra o teu povo; eles consultam juntos contra Seus entes queridos. 4 Eles dizem: "Venham, vamos exterminá-los como nação; que o nome de Israel não seja mais lembrado!" 5 Pois eles conspiram de comum acordo; contra ti fazem aliança: 6as tendas de Edom e dos ismaelitas, de Moabe e dos hagarenos, 7Gebal, e Amom, e Amaleque, a Filístia e os habitantes de Tiro; 8 Assur também se juntou a eles; eles são o braço forte dos filhos de Ló. Selá 9 Faça com eles o que você fez com Midiã, como com Sísera e Jabim no rio Quisom, 10 que foram destruídos em En-Dor, e se tornaram esterco para a terra. 11 Faça com que seus nobres sejam como Orebe e Zeebe, e todos os seus príncipes como Zebá e Salmuna, 12 que disseram: "Tomemos posse das pastagens de Deus". 13 Ó meu Deus, faze-os como pó rodopiante, como palha diante do vento. 14 Assim como o fogo consome a floresta, como a chama incendeia as montanhas, 15 assim os perseguirás com a tua tempestade e os aterrorizarás com o teu furacão! 16 Encha os seus rostos de vergonha, para que busquem o teu nome, ó Senhor. 17 Sejam envergonhados e consternados para sempre; deixe-os perecer em desgraça, 18 para que saibam que somente Tu, cujo nome é o Senhor, és o Altíssimo sobre toda a terra.

Pai, Suas promessas são verdadeiras. Embora haja uma grande angústia nas nações, aqueles que você chama serão libertos disso. Suas promessas e favores estão sobre Seus filhos e Seus escolhidos. É por isso que somos odiados pelo mundo. Os planos do inimigo nunca mudaram. Ele está sempre zangado com Deus porque Deus não permitiu que Satanás/Lúcifer fosse exaltado acima do próprio Deus. Os planos de Satanás para destruir todos os seus filhos nunca mudaram.

Estou muito grato, Deus, por você ter o controle de Satanás. Contudo, quando Satanás caiu, ele decidiu travar guerra para sempre contra os filhos de Deus. Ele começou esta guerra contra os filhos de Deus no Jardim do Éden. Ele foi capaz de fazer o homem (e a mulher) cair para que Deus se mantivesse fiel aos Seus princípios e fechasse os Portões do Jardim para Adão e Eva. Isso os afastou de andar entre Deus e vice-versa, tirando assim a nossa comunhão com vocês.

Isso tornou mais fácil infligir e testar os filhos de Deus. Deus prometeu que a semente da mulher machucaria a cabeça do iníquo (Gênesis 3:1-15). Embora esta seja uma maldição para Satanás, esta é também uma profecia positiva sobre o que Jesus faria continuamente ao Seu e, portanto, ao nosso inimigo. A Primeira Vinda de Jesus seria para morrer pelos nossos pecados e redimir a Criação.

No entanto, a Sua Segunda Vinda será para amarrar Satanás no final da Tribulação e estabelecer o Trono de David, o Seu Trono, em Jerusalém e governar durante o Reino do Milénio. Depois que Satanás iniciou sua campanha para corromper o homem, Deus enviou um dilúvio, mas preservou Noé e sua família. Satanás então tentou destruir todos os bebês nascidos em Belém. Ele então tentou outras coisas contra Jesus, até mesmo Sua morte na Cruz.

Mesmo assim, Deus permaneceu fiel às Suas promessas. Satanás então tem estado em guerra contra o povo judeu, tentando destruir Israel para que Jesus não possa governar lá. Satanás tentou impedir que os judeus se tornassem uma nação, destruindo-os no Holocausto. No entanto, por causa do Holocausto, aqueles que sobreviveram receberam a Terra Prometida de Israel do mundo e contra todas as probabilidades. Mesmo assim, a sua luta pela sobrevivência continuou desde o estabelecimento da Nação Judaica em 1948.

O inimigo nunca deixará de tentar destruir Israel até que Tu, Pai, dê um fim final e completo a isso. Depois, há os cristãos – aqueles de nós que acreditam que Jesus é nosso Senhor e Salvador. Os cristãos são uma ameaça para Satanás e sua ordem. Visto que os EUA (o Novo Israel) e Israel (o Novo Judá) são ambos dedicados ao Senhor como nação, ambos estão sob ataque contínuo.

De forma semelhante, cristãos e judeus também estão sob ataque contínuo, pois também são dedicados ao Senhor como indivíduos. Por que esses ataques contínuos estão ocorrendo? Isso ocorre porque o inimigo odeia tudo o que Você ama! Os seguidores do inimigo estão reivindicando nossa terra, terra que Tu nos deste por direito como uma terra abençoada. Eles estão fazendo com que não seja mais nosso, mas deva ser entregue a eles.

O inimigo também está a trabalhar para deslegitimar o direito de Israel existir como nação e como povo. Eles agora estão fazendo o mesmo conosco. O inimigo está tirando nossos títulos de herdeiros do Reino de Deus, eliminando-nos da história. Estão a alterar os relatos factuais e a substituí-los por provas falsas. Estamos sendo desumanizados.

Da mesma forma que Israel está sendo atormentado pelo inimigo, assim será feito conosco. Tudo foi projetado para nos tornar menos seguros. O plano do inimigo é destruir-nos completamente para dar origem à geração de Satanás, os filhos da perdição.

Então, estes são fundamentais – tirar as terras –Ezequiel 36:1-2 – O inimigo de Israel está reivindicando a terra. No entanto, emEzequiel 36:5 – Você diz que os inimigos de Israel provocarão a sua ira quando disserem que a terra de Israel pertence a eles. EmEzequiel 36:12 então Deus deu a terra a Israel para sempre, mas os árabes estão reivindicando-a. Suas reivindicações estão irritando Deus.

A propriedade da terra é uma decisão Sua, Pai, e não cabe a qualquer outra Nação ou Grupo Mundial decidir. Em apenas 3,5 anos, Satanás destruiu as nações que anteriormente apoiavam Israel. Enquanto Satanás tentou destruir o mundo antes,Gênesis 11 é a Tua Aliança através de Abraão. No entanto, a terra dada a Israel deverá também incluir a totalidade ou parte da Jordânia, Síria, Líbano e Iraque.

Pai, o vírus Covid-19 foi enviado para destruir milhões de pessoas. A vacina veio então para nos enfraquecer ainda mais. Mais disso ainda está por vir. Não tenho estado em paz nas últimas semanas. Houve uma grande finalidade em meu Espírito de que tudo está prestes a mudar no mundo. Deus está chateado. Você está chateado! Pai, vejo tudo isso como um ponto de inflexão que já foi muito longe em Sua balança de justiça.

Depois, há o terramoto que atingiu Nova Jersey/Nova Iorque durante o Conselho de Direitos Humanos da ONU, quando votaram contra a capacidade de Israel de receber armas para se defender no futuro. Fizeram-no apesar de a Ucrânia ainda receber milhares de milhões de dólares e ninguém saber para onde vai tudo isso. Quando isso ocorreu na sexta-feira, 5 de abril de 2024, ocorreu um terremoto de 4,8.

Na noite anterior, quinta-feira, 4 de abril de 2024, um raio atingiu a Estátua da Liberdade. Então tive um sonho naquela noite que de alguma forma parecia relacionado com esse raio…

Sub-sonho 1 "Mais três! Mais três!" começa...

Um anjo estava chamando: "Mais três! Mais três!"

Sub-sonho 1 acabou…

Eu não conseguia me lembrar de mais nada desse sonho.

Então, na tarde de segunda-feira, 8 de abril de 2024, ocorre o Grande Eclipse Solar Total da América do Norte. O que torna isto particularmente interessante para nós é que estamos no Caminho da Totalidade. 8 de abril° também pode ser escrito como '4:8'. Agora vamos olhar para duas Escrituras que parecem possivelmente pertinentes para o Eclipse Solar Total de amanhã…

Êxodo 4:8: Então o Senhor disse: "Se eles não acreditarem em você ou não prestarem atenção ao primeiro sinal, poderão acreditar no segundo…"

Algumas especulações escritas por meu marido no versículo acima:O primeiro sinal poderia ser o Grande Eclipse Solar Total Americano de 21 de agosto de 2017? Poderia ser amanhã, 8 de abril de 2024, ótimoNorte Eclipse Solar Total Americano, 6 anos, 6 meses, 6 semanas e 6 dias (inclusive) desde 21 de agosto de 2017, o Grande Eclipse Solar Total Americano, será o segundo sinal? Depois de ponderar sobre isso há algum tempo, testemunhei um evangelista de televisão fazer perguntas semelhantes a estas hoje cedo.

Apocalipse 4:8: E os quatro seres viventes, cada um deles com seis asas, estão cheios de olhos por toda parte e por dentro, e dia e noite eles nunca param de dizer: "Santo, Santo, Santo, é o Senhor Deus Todo-Poderoso,quem foi, é e está por vir!"

Então tive outro sonho ontem à noite…

O sub-sonho 2 "A Celebração do Céu Celestial" começa...

Eu estava em um prédio alto voltado para o oeste. Eu estava em uma cidade à beira-mar/porto. Éramos cerca de oito pessoas lá para uma festa para celebrar o céu celestial. Fomos convidados por uma mulher que se parecia muito com Katy Perry. Estávamos agora na cobertura dela para assistir a um evento celestial… um buraco negro redondo estava prestes a engolir a lua e depois o sol.

As mulheres que nos convidaram falavam de signos astrológicos como Vênus retrógrado e Saturno fora de controle. Eu não conhecia ninguém aqui. Eu não reconheci ninguém. Ela então continuou falando sobre as casas dos signos na astrologia. As pessoas que se reuniram ao seu redor para ouvir ficaram maravilhadas com seu conhecimento. Enquanto ela continuava a falar, ela usou um controle remoto para começar a tocar 'Bad Moon Rising' da CCR.

Tipo Katy: "Oh, olhe, o evento começou! Shiva agora destruirá todos vocês!"

Eu podia ver a lua se movendo sobre o buraco negro. Em um instante, a lua foi engolida. A lua havia desaparecido. O prédio em que estávamos mudou de repente e todos nós gritamos. Contudo, nossa anfitriã ficou feliz, quase tonta, com essa mudança. Ela então tocou no controle remoto e a música 'Here comes the sun' dos Beatles começou a tocar ao fundo (observe que ambas as músicas foram lançadas em 1969).

Tipo Katy: "Agora vamos lá! O sol está nascendo! Aí vem o sol!'

Inesperadamente, o sol não estava sendo engolido pelo buraco negro. A anfitriã ficou horrorizada porque isso também não estava acontecendo como ela queria. Eu então acordei.

Sub-sonho 2 acabou…

O nome Shiva continuou vindo até mim. Então ouvi as palavras: 'Três dias, Shiva! Três dias, Shiva!' Houve os 'Três Dias' novamente, mas agora com a palavra Shiva.

Nota sobre Shiva: (1) Shiva é um período de luto de uma semana no Judaísmo para parentes de primeiro grau. (2) Em hindu, Shiva é uma deusa poderosa.

Então adormeci e tive outro sonho…

O sub-sonho 3 "O Senhor tem acusações contra os governantes iníquos" começa...

Ouvi batidas na nossa porta da frente. Coloquei meu roupão e chinelos e fui até a porta. A luz era muito forte, quase como se um holofote quente estivesse vindo direto para a nossa entrada. Quando abri a porta, lá estava Uriel! Eu estava tão animado para vê-lo.

Uriel: "Erin, venha! Deus solicita sua presença."

Ele pegou minha mão e estávamos instantaneamente diante da porta de Deus no céu.

Meu: "Senti sua falta, Uriel."

Uriel permaneceu bastante sério enquanto colocava pomada em meus olhos.

Uriel: "Nós também sentimos sua falta. Eu e todos os anjos aqui gostamos de suas visitas. No entanto, um dia você terá comunhão com santos e anjos aqui, então não se preocupe. Para nós, já se passaram minutos, mas para você, já se passaram semanas. Não se preocupe. Vir!"

Ele abriu a porta para o Tribunal de Deus. Era lindo e perfumado com cheiro de rosas e cedro. Embora fosse uma combinação incomum, tinha um cheiro maravilhoso. Eu podia ouvir o coro multifacetado de anjos enchendo esta enorme corte/catedral.

No entanto, algo incomum aconteceu hoje. Sobre o Mar de Vidro, em frente ao Trono, numa nuvem de Sua Presença, havia milhares e milhares de santos chorando diante do Trono de Deus.

Uriel: "Venha e tome o seu lugar, Erin."

Uriel me conduziu para perto do Altar de Deus. Lágrimas escorreram pelo meu rosto. Minha respiração era plena e profunda, sem dor no peito. Não senti nenhuma dor além do meu coração doer. Eu estava chorando junto com os outros. Eu sabia coisas lá que não sabia aqui. Este conhecimento não foi transferido para cá na Terra (pelo menos ainda não). Todos nós adoramos a Deus juntos e cantamos: "Santo, Santo, Santo!"

O Senhor Deus então falou em Seu Trono com uma voz profunda e gutural. Sua voz consumia tudo.

Deus: "Ouvi seus gritos dia e noite e noite e dia. Eu sei o que você suportou para estar aqui. Eu liguei para você desta vez. Não tenha medo quando esses problemas surgirem, pois foram preditos pela Minha própria Palavra. Estou prestes a abalar as nações e a preparar os campos, pois estes estão maduros para a colheita. Eu sou Deus e não serei ridicularizado. Tenho acusações contra esses governantes perversos, juízes corruptos e seus trabalhadores.

"Tenho acusações contra os inimigos do Meu povo e atacarei todos os que vierem contra Israel. Pois hoje é para a Minha terra, amanhã é para a Minha cidade e para sempre para o Meu povo. A terra é minha. A cidade é Minha. O ouro é meu. O ar é Meu. Tudo o que é Santo é Meu. A terra dos EUA é Minha, pois foi dedicada a Mim.

"O homem não pode recuperar o que é de Deus nem pode transferir o direito da Minha propriedade para outro, pois Eu sou Deus e não há ninguém acima de Mim. O Destruidor agora vem para destruir. Porém, sou maior que tudo isso. Eu sou Deus e reino sobre todas as coisas. Agora levante-se e regozije-se, pois tenho um Grande Plano. Eu estabeleci isso."

Sub-sonho 3 acabou…

Jesus: "Erin, suba!"

Ele mais uma vez falou comigo enquanto eu estava sentado em minha cadeira devocional. Sua voz era muito clara.

Jesus: "Erin, estou aqui e estou com você."

Meu: "Senhor, todo o meu corpo está com muita dor. O que está acontecendo?"

Jesus: "Erin, não se preocupe. Eu estou contigo. Eu tenho um ótimo plano."

Meu: "Senhor, estou ansioso… muito ansioso. Meu Espírito não está em paz."

Jesus: "Eu sei. No entanto, pense nisso: fique em paz sabendo que estou acima de todas as coisas. Eu sou seu amigo e o amante de sua alma. Eu estou contigo."

Meu: "Senhor, dois urubus continuam voltando para nossa casa. Um voa a poucos metros da minha janela. Estou sendo julgado?

Jesus: "Não. Se fosse assim, eu te diria. Esses dois urubus simbolizam o julgamento de Deus sobre duas nações. Agora, explique-Me o que você testemunhou com este par."

Meu: "Bem, eles voltaram duas vezes em busca de animais mortos. Eles estão circulando de perto. Eles voaram juntos. O sol então apareceu. Isso é bom porque não vemos o sol há muitos dias."

Jesus: "Bem, não havia carcaças para se alimentar no seu quintal. Isso é bom. Mesmo assim, o julgamento está chegando. Meu julgamento está chegando."

Meu: "Já está aqui? Senhor, o que simbolizava o relâmpago na Estátua da Liberdade?"

Jesus: "Que estou prestes a pôr fim ao progresso de uma nação."

Meu: "Por favor, em vez disso, remova os responsáveis, esses líderes em quem não votamos."

Jesus: "Esta estátua é de um deus que não deve ser adorado. Ela representa liberdade e liberdade. Eu sou Deus. Eu sou o Deus que liberta os cativos. Eu não elevo uma estátua nem a adoro. Quando um raio cai do Céu, isso é um sinal de progresso de seus adoradores, parando um novo começo porque Deus está aqui.

"Agora, sua tocha não é mais um farol no escuro para iluminar o caminho dos navios em seu porto. Embora muitos sejam os pecados desta cidade, esta ainda é a sua porta de entrada. Embora eu não tenha dito que estes tempos seriam fáceis, eu sou o Caminho, a Verdade e a Luz. Em breve todos verão isso. Agora alegre-se, Erin, pois o mal será abatido rapidamente.

Sonhe.

802 – The Day of the Path of Totality

Received on Monday, April 8, 2024

Note: I had this dream prior to the beginning of the Path of Totality. When this dream was posted, the Path of Totality had already ended. The Path of Totality lasted approximately 3 hours and 17 minutes. It started at 12:39 pm Eastern Time and lasted until 3:56 pm Eastern Time. Put another way, it started at sunrise 6:39 am CKT in the Pacific Ocean and lasted until sunset 6:56 pm UTC-1 in the Atlantic Ocean.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I love You! I am grateful for You!

I am sorry that I didn't know You in my college years and when I was young. I truly believe I did know You somehow anyway because, when I accepted You, or rather when You called me, I felt at Home. With You, Father, I am Home. I love You and nothing I could say or do could equal Your recompense in my life.

While I had two dreams last night, I will start with the more vivid of the two…

Sub-dream 1 "A New Day, A New Career" begins…

I was recruited by 'The Developer'. The Developer offered me the job of Chief Designer & Lead Project Coordinator. Basically, a project would come up and my job was to do the following:

- Create the concept based on the Developer's guidelines.
- Present it to the clients.
- Implement the design through teams to complete the project.
- Handling the project from concept to creation to finish.
- This included finally handing over the keys to the clients.

When I was hired, I knew this would be a big job. Upon hiring, I was given a start date of a couple of weeks away, but this suddenly changed. I now had to be on the job by 9:00 am sharp the very next day.

When the next morning arrived, I was a bit nervous as I had not toured the facility or been on site in any way. However, when I showed up for my 9:00 am start time, my Boss, the Developer and Owner, was there to immediately greet me. He was so kind and I felt that, no matter what, He had my back in all things. I trusted Him completely. While I was now younger looking, I still had all of the knowledge over all of these years to do this job.

Boss: "Listen, there may be issues with some of the employees because we moved up your start date so suddenly. Prepare for problems from those who have been with the company for many years and are upset that they have not been offered this promotion instead of you. Otherwise, the employees here are satisfied in their roles.

"I am taking the Company in a different direction. Although all of the same foundations are still in place, there will be pushback.

"Now, when I introduce you to the existing staff, you will not be received well. However, you are not to worry as you only answer to Me. In addition, the quarters will be a bit tight at first until the new offices are complete. Whatever you need, just let Me know and it is yours. I give you full authority to get what you need. I am glad you are here.

"Oh yes, one other thing… rumors have created anger and fear. These people, your coworkers, have been here a long time. They also suspect that you will be making double their salaries to start. They also know that they will now need to make an ample space for you and they will be unhappy about it. I tell you all of this in advance so that you are prepared for their reaction to you."

I nodded in agreement as I went into the main office space with Him. Because this was a temporary office space, it was quite tight.

Boss: "Hi, everyone!"

Staff: Looking noticeably upset. "Hi…"

Boss: "Everyone, I would like you to meet Erin. She is My Lead Designer. Please make her feel welcome. She is important to this Company."

They were all so upset that they could barely even look at their Boss. However, I could also tell they felt secure with the Company and were also loyal to the Company.

Boss: Turning to me. "Erin, you will need supplies. Please go and purchase anything you need."

Me: "I have a hydraulic lift drafting table at home that I could bring in."

I then heard one of the staff repeat what I just said, but in a mocking tone. The women then broke out in laughter. The Boss was not at all pleased by their behavior.

Boss: Handing me a type of credit card. "No, Erin, that will not be necessary. Take this and shop for a new table. Spare no expense." I heard the women gasping air at the shock of it all. "Also, feel free to spread out and make any changes here that you find necessary. This New Project takes priority and is urgent. Anyone who is an impediment to My New Way will need to find a new way."

He then pointed to the door. The women all gasped again. I then heard someone crying. This was not a good day for them.

Boss: "Now, this is the final word I am going to give on this matter." He then turned towards me and addressed me loud enough for the staff to hear. "Erin, I know you. I trust you as I have known you for a long time. You were created just for this at this time." He then turned and addressed the others. "Understand? I know her and her works. She is important to Me for My purposes under this Company.

"Now, I suggest that all of you get used to these changes as there will be many more here as others are coming also. Again, if this is too much, then take a few days away to decide if My Company and this New Direction is for you. However, choose wisely as I will give you only two choices… be here or not. It is simple. This work is much greater than all of the others."

One woman: "But I have done so much. I have been loyal. Why was I not…"

Boss: Interrupting her. "…elevated over Erin? Well, it is because you are smug and stagnant. You gossip and spread rumors. I know this because you were one of the first employees of My Company and I know what you do."

He started looking around the room. He then pointed at another of the women.

Boss: "You… you arrive late and never early. You leave early and never stay late. You take more lunch than anyone and then you condemn others when they don't adhere to the rules you break. You can't be trusted with anymore than you have been given."

Pointing at a different woman. "You… you are lazy. You perform the bare minimum and no more. You then complain and demand this and that. I can't trust you with more if I can't depend upon you when given very little."

Pointing at another woman. "You… you talk a big game. You inflated your worth and lied on your resume to land the job. When you came on, you quickly realized the job was more than you could handle. Instead of stepping up and coming clean, you worked behind the scenes sabotaging the Company. Actually, now that I think about it… gather your belongings. Today is a good day for you to start fresh somewhere else. I can see the anger in your eyes and this is no longer where you should be. Go."

The staff gasped even louder than the other times. The dismissed worker started to swear and slam things around. She suddenly couldn't speak and her arms began to shrivel up. She promptly left in a panic.

Boss: "Is there anyone else?"

A different woman: Raising her hand. "How can I help?"

Boss: "Perfect! Assist Erin to find a place here among you. I am busy with this New Direction. I have given the new workers, Erin included, a direct line to Me day and night. I also give them the authority to remove anything that is not in line with this New Direction." He then turned to me. "Can I speak to you outside for a moment?" I nodded yes and we stepped out of the office into the main hallway.

"I mean this… if you are mistreated in any way, this is a heart issue and I will not tolerate it. Use your authority and be the change I have called you to be. Now, your living expenses, debts and all else have been paid. You are free. The burdens of your daily life have been removed. You now have no master other than Me and God on the Throne. So, are you ready?"

Me: "Yes. However, I am learning as I go. I am nervous to go back in there."

Boss: "This is nothing compared to the jealousy soon to come. Now, anytime the status quo is shaken up and changes made faster than the old guard can comprehend, there is then resistance. However, once they are humbled and their resistance is removed, there is then nothing that the body of the Company can't do together. It will be unshakable and unstoppable. Remember… get your space in order. I will supply all you need for the project. You got this. You were created for this. I am with you."

I turned and walked back in. The women had now made a space for me. A woman then came up to me.

Woman: "Would you like me to accompany you to purchase a new drafting table?"

Me: "Thank you, but that will not be necessary."

There was still grumbling. This made sense though as the changes were still fresh.

One of the workers: Mumbling under their breath. "I guess this is what twice the pay looks like."

The worker looked shocked that I had heard this. I turned toward the worker.

Me: "Actually, in reality, it is more than twice. However, your salary is still more than most. Quit focusing on me and instead change the things our Boss pointed out to you. Make changes now because I feel like spreading out my space and it will only benefit me to not have to deal with your negativity."

There was gasping. There was shock and awe from the others. I promptly got up and headed out to go shopping.

Me: "Gotta run now!"

I could hear angry voices and gasps as I closed the door behind me.

Sub-dream 1 over…

This dream was so clear, it was as if it had actually happened. The women in the dream reminded me of old office workers, especially bookkeepers, that I had encountered in my past. They reminded me of old guard church ladies. They reminded me of so many people who treated me like garbage over the years. Many served God on their own terms. This had similar attitudes as what I saw being given to the Boss. The Boss even looked like Jesus.

This dream was much clearer than my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Refusing to Eat Garbage" begins…

I was refusing to eat what people were serving me. I was being offered different dishes to eat at a party. While I should have been hungry, I had no appetite for the dishes. Each server was presenting a plate with garbage meant to look appetizing. It even had some garnish on it. I refused to consume it. A server came up to me…

Server: "Look, even Jesus would eat this."

Me: "No, He would never eat garbage or poison. He would eat what is good, not what is forced upon Him in evil."

A server then threw the plate at me, but I woke up before it could hit me.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Listen to Me… judgment has come to your land as I will halt the plans of the enemy and their advances. I am about to humble the hearts of the people to turn to Me. This will happen quickly. Do not be afraid as this must occur in order for the prophecies to be fulfilled.

"Those I have called will be safe here and in My arms. Fear is a tool of the enemy to gain compliance to their agenda. However, I am about to turn the tables on the enemy and they will be in great fear. I am God and I am over the nations. My Name will not be profaned nor will My people who cried out to Me in great distress be abandoned to fear."

Me: "Is this today, Lord?"

Jesus: "A sign of judgment and the signature of God. This is My land and not the enemy's. Rejoice and pray, Erin. Look up. Your Savior is here!"

Dream over.

803 – The Lord is Against the Wicked Evil Doers

Received on Friday, April 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

You are my everything! Thank You for another day. Thank You for every breath. Thank You. I have been keeping overly busy. I have not been alone to myself for what seems like a few weeks. Since I am alone today, I have this day to reconcile my feelings before You in solitude. Father, I have been hurt. My heart hurts. I had a good cry today. I needed this. You comfort me and care for me.

With each new day, I try to carve out a mark or complete something I can feel good about. You then send love and surprises and joy to me even when I cry. This world is becoming darker. People are becoming more and more mean spirited and selfish. The selfish believe they deserve more self-indulgence and use self-medication through acts of self-compensation to continue feeding their selfish desires. Anyone who gets in their way is hurt and publicly shamed.

My phone has been missing. It is funny because I didn't realize how isolated I feel when I don't have it. My time with the Lord has been missing lately even though this is infinitely more vital to me than a cellphone. You strengthen me and add to me. You nourish my soul and make my heart glad. My phone is a reminder of all I am unable to do.

There are things I miss. There are people I need to connect with.

The trouble is that the news I bring is usually not great news. As for my phone, I am sure that it is going to be found today (it was). I am tired, Father. I want to be healed of this terminal illness. I am depressed. However, being sad doesn't help my spirit. Please be with me today, Father, as I long for You.

I am sorry for running off Your path lately. I want to go back to my path from five months ago when all of my issues were things like a power outage and pump problems. These were easily fixed in comparison. Well, what about me? I need You. You are my Best Friend and my Creator. I know You are here. I know it.

My dreams the last two nights have followed a theme which I will combine into one dream as follows:

Sub-dream 1 "Intimidation by My Greatest Enemies"

These dreams seem to center around my ex-husband. The first night, it was with his sister. Then last night, my enemy was with his father. His father was wearing silver mirrored aviators. He never said a word.

Even so, the intimidation I felt was overwhelming in both dreams. These people were demonic and angry. They continued to pursue me with hate as if I had stolen something from them. All I could think of was my children's hearts.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is still in you. I have not left you. Your enemies are angry because you have found something that has eluded them… Me! Despite everything, you remain in Me and I in you. Your children are also on Me. Their faces are turned towards Me. This is difficult for your enemies to reconcile. This is because they have painted a picture of you to others that you are unaware of.

"They are able to do this because you live so far away. They have bended willing ears of gossip in My Church. Even so, many have seen them by their fruit. They then have questions over what they witnessed over the years.

"Now, you have been preparing to leave for Oregon one day soon. In preparing around you, you have also had to prepare for the enemy's advances against you. Time has not lessened their bitterness. There is more compassion in the camps of Esau against Jacob who stole his birth rites than you who bore this evil man's children. There will be no compassion given to you by this family.

"Erin, this is the fig tree that bears no fruit in due season. Your enemies count it as divine justice from God if you were to shrivel and die. Well, justice is Mine and My Voice is in you. Gossip and false testimony done against you are also done against Me. They will not be blessed.

"Erin, they have held charges against you for many years. This marks the 30th year. False things were said of you. Hidden rage and misplaced loyalties struck out in secret places and behind closed doors. Lies were spoken of you… a myriad of lies too numerous to count.

"You have been cursed and mocked for 30 years. However, I am now setting you free from them. They have continued to do the same all these years. They have angered Me because they refused to give you to Me. They have instead held you captive by spreading lies to so many, thereby muddying the truth.

"They told everyone that, when you returned, you would be alone. They desired that all they told of this would fully believe their 'vision of truth'. For doing this, I have given them over to their demons. Those who believe their lies will be confused. However, you are free, Erin. I have set you free today."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. However, I am still sad. I am sad for my children. How will coming home be?"

Jesus: "Do not worry. You will be elevated above those who harmed you because I am with you. They will be speechless when they witness all I am about to do. Your wicked (former) employer will receive your pacemaker in a box as he asked you for it as a joke for years and he will remember what I haven't forgotten. I do not forget and, in this instance, I will repay evil with more evil. I will not repay evil with good. Now, when you go (to Bend OR), you will be free and clear with no hold upon you."

Me: "When will this be? This has been disheartening and I am growing weary. My light is burning low."

Jesus: "I know, I know. I delight in you, Erin. You have done all I have asked and I have not forgotten. I don't forget even when you have been so downcast."

Me: "I had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "Five Dead Mice" begins…

I had a pile of five dead mice to deal with. The last of the five mice was the largest of the bunch. This mouse was almost the size of a rat.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Jesus: "You had these in reality also. This is meant as a sign that this great evil, the destruction that has devastated you, is now finished. The uncleanliness that has destroyed most of your years is over. That which silently invaded your life in hidden spaces has come to a close.

"The obstacles that held you – the prison walls of torment and the shackles of pain and poverty – are now loosed and have been removed. You are free. I am about to expose all of the hidden works of your enemies. The prophet Obadiah reveals hidden truths for you now…"

1 The vision of Obadiah. Edom Will Be Humbled – Thus says the Lord God concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the Lord, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: "Rise up! Let us rise against her for battle!" 2 Behold, I will make you small among the nations; you shall be utterly despised. 3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty dwelling, who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?" 4 Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down, declares the Lord. 5 If thieves came to you, if plunderers came by night— how you have been destroyed! — would they not steal only enough for themselves? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? 6 How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures sought out! 7 All your allies have driven you to your border; those at peace with you have deceived you; they have prevailed against you; those who eat your bread have set a trap beneath you — you have no understanding. 8 Will I not on that day, declares the Lord, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau? 9 And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

Edom's Violence Against Jacob – 10 Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off forever. 11 On the day that you stood aloof, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them. 12 But do not gloat over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune; do not rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their ruin; do not boast in the day of distress. 13 Do not enter the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; do not gloat over his disaster in the day of his calamity; do not loot his wealth in the day of his calamity. 14 Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off his fugitives; do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress.

The Day of the Lord Is Near – 15 For the day of the Lord is near upon all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you; your deeds shall return on your own head. 16 For as you have drunk on My Holy Mountain, so all the nations shall drink continually; they shall drink and swallow, and shall be as though they had never been. 17 But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy, and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions. 18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor for the house of Esau, for the Lord has spoken.

The Kingdom of the Lord – 19 Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah shall possess the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. 20 The exiles of this host of the people of Israel shall possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb. 21 Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau, and the kingdom shall be the Lord's.

Me: "Wow, I never paid much attention to Obadiah before."

Jesus: "Well then, start today. Now, a remarkable thing has been done to you. Rejoice. All the enemy has stolen from you will be returned."

Me: "The first night's dream was about my greatest enemy's sister. She was wearing my jewelry that I had sold to a pawn broker. What did this symbolize?"

Jesus: "Guilt and responsibility. You were stripped of these things. However, there was a root cause of this and it is very evil."

Me: "What about my dream with the five dead mice?"

Jesus: "I gave you mice in the natural and five were trapped and killed. You removed them as I told you to and anything associated with this has been removed and will not return. Your younger son is experiencing attacks and so is your daughter. However, they are free today. All who were shackled are now free. You will no longer be the subject of cursing. Rejoice, Erin, as this is a Great Day.

"Now, about the five dead mice in the natural and the five dead mice in the spiritual. This means it is finished. Now let yourself out. I am with you. My recompense I bring with Me. Your old garments will be changed into something greater. I love you, Erin. I have heard your cries and I will dry your tears. Oh yes, your older son and your husband too. They are both free."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "You all must be diligent according to the physician's orders until you have proof of your changes. However, you are not to worry as you will know of this quickly. Do not worry as I am with you. Erin, be encouraged. I love you!”

Me: “I love You, Lord.”

Dream over,

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-804/

804 – We Will Not be Passed Over

Received on Monday, April 15, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for granting me one more day! Thank You!

This morning is an extremely still morning. It is as if the landscape is frozen in time. Or maybe it is like You have a remote control and have everything around us paused. Personally, I would like You to delete the bad movie we are in right now and put us in a better one. The world is falling fast. I cried over and over yesterday and I couldn't get a grip on my lamenting.

My husband and I watched the last couple of hours of the Masters Golf Tournament last night. I was grateful that this Christian player won as he has been dominating the tour this year. He is unapologetic in his faith for Jesus. However, something else hit me as we watched this tournament. This felt like the last one. I felt the same was true for so many of the other popular shows on TV.

For me, I had built my hopes and dreams around a career in golf. While I couldn't really afford to play golf, I loved it. I loved the smell of the grass. I loved the sounds of the birds. I loved the sound of the sprinklers. I even loved the sound of lawnmowers in the early morning. I found these so comforting to me.

While I had big dreams for a career in golf, I had then accepted that I would not likely realize these in my lifetime. I had a pivotal moment in my career after college. I was offered the chance to come home to northern Idaho as the assistant golf pro at a resort. It didn't pay much. For some reason that I do not recall, they had left the position open for me for one year. I then declined the position.

My life would have looked different had I turned to golf in 1988 and continued. I instead worked several jobs and never went back. My USGA handicap continued to climb. The last recorded number was 9.8 in 2007. The end. I struggled with injuries and never truly used those beautiful Titleist DT Irons my mom had bought me for my birthday.

These irons were custom made for me. I enjoyed a brief few rounds where I had backspin on the green. This had never happened before and it was definitely attributed to the clubs. With this cancer and my neck injury, all hope of even having a retirement at some point where I would just be out on a beautiful golf course again in a normal world… well, this is gone! Only you God can make changes here!

As for the Masters, I hadn't really watched it in a few years to pay attention. While watching it this year, they showed the old masters hitting their shots. There were some of my old golf heroes, golfers like Tom Watson and Jack Nicklaus. I still remember watching them play when I was a kid.

I came from a different world. We had no money for dreams like these. It is like skiing or tennis, the equipment is expensive. Those called to these arenas are those God has called to them for a very specific purpose and all was provided. For me, God – you said 'No, not this way, Erin I have a better way'. This hurt as I worked so hard for this and then it abruptly ended. A door so large and heavy closed that I couldn't even open it a crack.

When I watched this Masters, I cried. Over the last 48 hours, I have had the smell of dust. The air hasn't felt fresh even though everything is clean in the house. Something is wrong with my sense of smell. My vision has been poor. I have been experiencing nausea that is off the charts. This recently happens in the morning. It is as if I am pregnant. I am not sure what this is about.

My Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is in full defensive mode. It is as if something is coming that will make the former way of living or doing life completely change. It is like high school graduation. You spend multiple years of your life preparing for this day and then you reach your 12th Grade. However, you are still never certain of what all of it will look like. The ability for me to live at home to wait and figure it out was never an option.

My brothers and I were prepared to move out and move on. This was the way. However, now – this feels like this, but what is coming is not promising, like the possibilities of a future of exciting opportunities at the age of 18. This is the opposite. Father, I had hoped for the Rapture before all of this became so dark. If this was the last Masters Golf Tournament, then this will be the last football season too.

This will be the last spring of flowers and summer of activities and yardwork before the trees drop their leaves. I am grieving the way things will go. Will there still be time to have my kidney removed? What about Bend OR? This is impossible unless we rent a tiny place. Should we? Should

I try to have one last season in the place I love, Father? Father, please help all of us!

These dreams seem similar to working our way through Grades 1 to 12. For these dreams, Grade 1 started in the fall of 2012, the same season school starts. The Lord said 'it is finished' in my last dream. This makes me think that school is almost over and that it is now time for us to graduate. In this analogy, and as it is in real life, Grade 12 ends in the spring of 2024. 12 grades from the fall of 2012 to the spring of 2024!

I had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Working at a collapsing Target store" begins…

I was around people that I do not know. I was moving items from one place to another when I realized I didn't want to live where I was going to. I was moving into an old Victorian home that needed a remodel. The plumbing wasn't working and it had an old smell. It was one of my worst nightmare situations.

I was working at a Target store that was failing. Each time the shelves emptied, the rows of shelves were then pushed together into the center of the store. They had done this shuffling so many times that only the outer perimeter rows of the store had products. This was also happening because there was nothing new arriving.

I arrived at my 'new home' after work. Instead of staying, I packed up what I needed and left. There was a storm coming. I was able to arrive back at my current home to be safe before the storm arrived. Since the home and the Target store seemed like it was in San Francisco, I was relieved to be away from there and back home.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I couldn't wait to be away from this nightmare. For me personally, I do not like Victorian-era architecture. I just pray I don't do something stupid like move without your leading!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not worry as I don't dwell in stupid. This dream was given to you because you are wrestling with what could have been, a former way that never was. You were removed from an even worse fate."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I am grateful for the life I have now."

Jesus: "Yes. However, the current way is about to change and you understand this. You are grieving."

Me: "Yes, Lord. It is only by Your Grace that I am still here. You have shown me Heaven or the New Earth or the New Heaven and the New Earth. I am not sure how this will go, but I rest in Your assurance that You are with us. I love You and I know You are in control. However, all of this feels unsettling in my heart. When I had hopes and dreams, I was 'Passed Over' by You. You had a better way for me.

"Lord, unless You do something miraculous with me, I will die unrealized and forgotten. Even the actual dreams You have given me will be lost to those who could use the encouragement that there is a wonderful God who loves us personally. Your love is intoxicating. You are worthy to be loved and pursued by Your Creation. However, it is You who loves us enough that You died for us.

"You are alive with us now and long for a relationship with us. While I never realized my personal dream, I had some amazing special miraculous moments from You. I have had over one thousand dreams and words from You when I include my personal dreams. I have had a dream-life greater than I could have ever imagined.

"While I had thought myself small, You had big plans for me. You brought me up from nothing to where I am now. You gave me two sons and a daughter who all love You. You even gave me a husband who loves You and his children too. Even though You have not healed my whole body, You did heal my heart muscle. I am grateful! Lord, what is next?"

Jesus: "Erin, your use of the term 'Passed Over' is interesting! I didn't take you the normal way. I instead took you out from a way that led to death and into a better way. You are no longer a slave. You are free. I have removed the chains that bound you and I have set you free. I have not 'Passed You Over' in a negative sense. I have instead marked you for My purposes.

"Now, I know that the angel I sent gave seven more years. You then wonder if these seven more years are for your life or is it for something else? You wonder if it could even be for both? Not long after this, you then received the confirmation that you have a terminal illness. Well, Erin, in this life, you are born and then you are terminal here. I am God. It is I who determines a man's way and his days."

Me: "What is Free Will?"

Jesus: "Free Will is to choose one way or another. However, this is still the course of the Way I have made."

Me: "So, is anything in my control or in my ability to choose?"

Jesus: "Good question. Yes. But this is of no surprise to Me. If you choose to be one way, I am still with you in it. If you choose another way, even then I am with you. However, because I love you and want the best for you, because I know and see the hidden things, I then send angels to guard you in all you do.

"I shut doors that cannot be opened and I open doors that cannot be shut. Don't spend your time trying to pry open a door that I have sealed shut. Even a locksmith can't open what I lock. While I will allow you to try, it will be discouraging when you know in your heart that My Will guards the door.

"When an open door is presented by Me, well, that door would be made clear with angels, music, lights and every manner of sign. You know when I have opened or closed a door. You know when I am calling you to pass through an open door."

Me: Crying. "Lord, open some doors soon. As a house, we are growing tired. Evil is advancing. It is difficult. The doctors are finalizing my surgery schedule now. I had hoped that You would have reached down and opened the door of a healing miracle by now. I am hurt as I love You and I don't understand it. I know You can…"

Jesus: "Thank you for being honest. Now, I will be clear with you. You surrender to Me and then you take it back. You do this because, as troubles begin to loom, you question your position with Me."

Me: "You are right, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you no matter what, Erin. I delight in you. You surrender your life to Me and I work through you. I do not plan to destroy you in this life. Even so, what if I did allow this?"

Me: "I would still love You. Whatever You choose for me, it is the best way, Lord. Whatever way You form is The Way that leads to life in eternity."

Jesus: "Then give Me your life. I promise good for you all of your days… you and your house."

Me: "I have come to the edge of an impossible sea. My enemies pursue me. I am an easy mark for destruction. They ride on swift horses. They have powerful weapons and strong chariots. I have nothing. As I stand here, You are my God who parts the sea so that I can pass through it on dry land. You then remove my pursuers. They are no more. I am free."

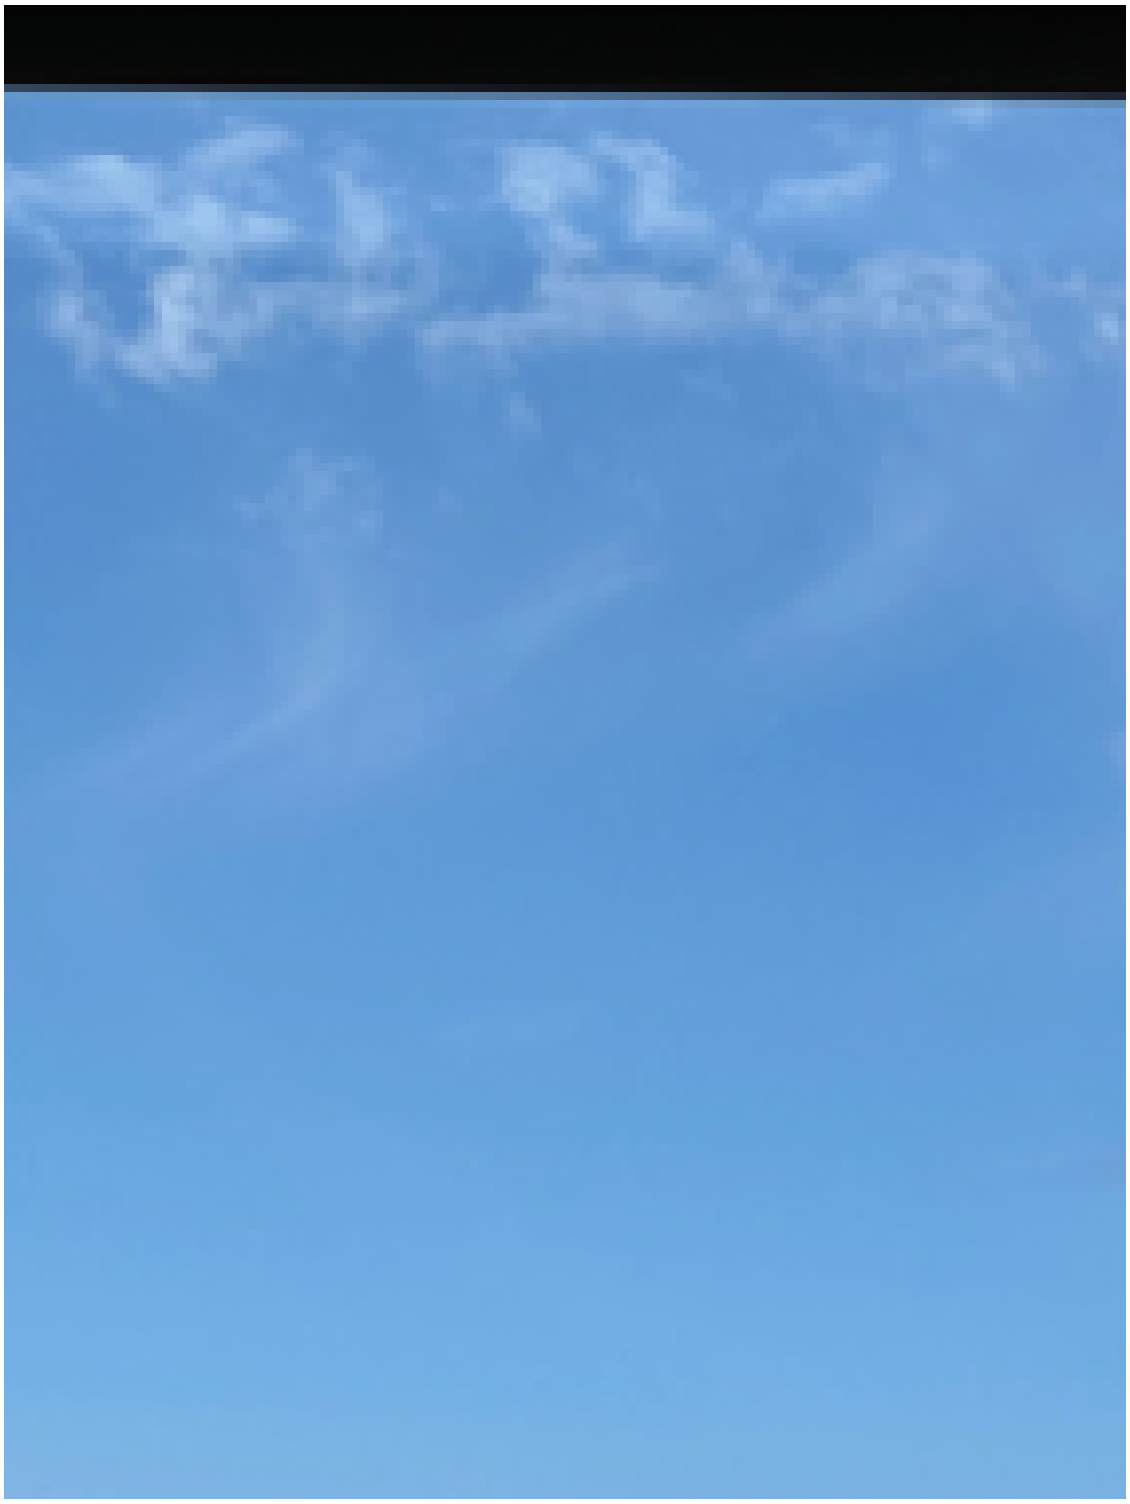
Jesus: "You are free, Erin. I have declared it. You trust in where I take you. You trusted Me for your deliverance and therefore I have blessed you. I will continue to care for you because I am with you. What I won't do for the ones whose hearts are set on Me like the rising of the sun at dawn to the setting of the sun at the end of day. Since you think of Me even in your sleeping hours, My heart is also upon you.

"Erin, I love you. I am here with you. I am about to present a door unlike any other. Only I can open this door as no man can shut a door I open. Not one. Rejoice, Erin, rejoice! This is a good day, a day unlike any other. Though you are weary, tired and discouraged, I promise to carry you."

I then looked up out of my window. There appeared to be cloud writing in the sky. If this is writing, my husband and I could not figure out what it said. I took a couple of photos for all of the Nest to now see…



Dream over.

805 – Back to God's Clock and Calendar

Received on Sunday, April 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Since not one day is guaranteed, I am grateful You are in charge of my days. No life in this world is 'cut short' as every day is numbered by the days You give for Your Divine Purposes. Father, You have told me that this year is a great year of change for us. It has been so far and I know You have great things in store for all of Your people.

With evil increasing exponentially, I believe that, when it reaches a certain 'last and final insult' to You, You will come with fury. Everything is in Your timing. Your judgment is in Your time. Nothing is new under the sun either. This means these things happening, the increase in evil, has happened before in much the same way. It is difficult to see it.

They are now trying to condition America to accept pedophiles as 'minor attracted people'. The invasion of foreigners and the injustice in the courts have been the most difficult for me. There is stealing being allowed. In some jurisdictions, you may steal up to $949 per day without punishment. Some parents even allow, if not encourage, their children to undergo gender transitioning, really gender mutilation.

As for the pro-Hamas demonstrators in our country, they are proclaiming 'Death to the Jews' and 'Death to America'. Governments are now labelling Christians as dangerous extremists. By 'they', I mean the New World Order here, along with their vast wealth and influence. Father, this is scary stuff. We are witnessing a complete change in all we were accustomed to. This Earth is turning wicked fast.

Father, all of this is being allowed for Your purposes. Even so, I never imagined that we would still be here to witness all of this. As for food prices, inflation is rampant now. A loaf of bread is $7 to $9. A head of iceberg lettuce is $5 to $7. Five apples are around $14, almost $3 each. How is this even possible?

This is being done with the purpose of bringing in the New World Order and the Beast System into global power. The regular people are too afraid to stand up because we have all seen what happens to those who do. Father, please hurry and do not delay. Our children are losing hope.

As for my dreams lately, some of them consist of often confusing scenarios. I know that You are using these to prepare me for Your purposes but I did have a fun dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Lord will Instantly Answer us" begins…

Anytime I asked a question, I received a physical answer. I was standing at the kitchen sink talking to my older son on the phone.

Son: "Mom, have you seen that stray cat recently?"

Me: "No. Hmm, where has that cat been hiding?"

The cat was immediately visible to me in my yard.

Me: "You won't believe this, but it just appeared. Let's pray… God, please take this cat far from our house and give it a field to hunt in."

This cat then disappeared immediately. We laughed together on the phone.

Me: "How is your project coming along?"

Son: "That's weird. The moment you asked, it came up on the screen completely finished. Mom, there are more than 300 pages. I can see that this is something I would have written myself and been happy with. Amazing! How is this even possible?"

Me: "God is clearly doing something."

Son: "How is your kitchen cleaning going?"

Me: "Oh, I have a bit more…"

I looked around and the kitchen was now completely cleaned and organized.

Me: "Uh, the kitchen just cleaned itself in a split second."

Son: "That's cool! How is the yard looking?"

Me: "Well, I am hoping to replace the deck boards that are bad and redo the lawn and add… Oh my goodness! We have a new deck, a new lawn, flowers and shrubs. It doesn't look like our yard! By the way, how are you doing with your bank account?"

Son: "Mom! Mom! Mom! I just looked and I now have an incredible amount of money. This is so cool."

We laughed and cheered together. Just as I woke up, I heard a voice…

Voice of an angel of the Lord: "To the bright and shining Ones of God!"

After I briefly fell asleep again, I woke up to hear the following…

Voice of an angel of the Lord: "His Face shines upon you!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, we are likely almost seven months into Tribulation right now. If You do not do something miraculous soon, many of Your saints will not make it. Equip Your people or else we will not be able to endure all that is planned by the wicked rulers.

Father, my surgery has not been rescheduled yet. While I know that this is Your Will, I am still experiencing pain, exhaustion, swelling and blood. Could You stop the spread of this cancer and contain it? Better yet, just heal me completely. I know I have been complaining a lot lately. Please have mercy on me.

Father, I still have questions about the writing in the sky that I saw. I pray that You send more cloud writing. Who is like You, God? You can do anything. This brought me to a list of Hebrew words used to describe God…

- Be-Midbar: In the wilderness. Definition: The name for the ingathering of God's people and their families according to divine numbers – which join families on Earth with those in Heaven – the Book of Numbers = Be-Midbar.
- B'Nai Elohim: The sons of God (Job 1:6, 2:1, 38:7).
- El-Brit: The Covenant.
- El Chai: The Living God.
- El Roi: God of seeing.
- El Sali: God of my Rock (Psalm 42:10).

This is all about describing the strength of the Most High God who is with us through our trials and tribulations. One of my favorite sayings that I read somewhere is 'the virgin whose seed (Jesus) crushes the head of the serpent.' I pray I will one day be a serpent crusher too!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Please do not worry. I know your thoughts and I can feel the weight of your burdens. When you have these worries and doubts, I bring you back to a dream. Do you remember this dream?"

Me: "Yes, Lord…

Sub-dream 2 "Thousands of Saints come out of their caves" begins…

I woke up from my slumber as a young woman. I was wearing a white gown. I was in a home in the clefts of a rock. I was awakened by a singing bird. I got up and followed the bird. I turned and walked outside. I saw a massive valley and pillars of smoke. This was the remainder of a fire or battle. I then looked around and I saw thousands of saints coming out of their caves. They were all dressed in white linen.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Jesus: "Now, there are many different scenes that have crossed your mind."

Me: "Yes, Lord. One was a dream I had many, many years ago when I wasn't a Christian. This dream truly haunted me…

Sub-dream 3 "A dream from before I was a Christian" begins…

I stood before a gutted three-story building out in the middle of a desert landscape in eastern Washington State. There was a long single line of people going into this building. I think they were going in for water and/or food, but I was not certain. Everything surrounding this building was sand. The sand was blowing around violently. The winds were howling loudly and it was miserable.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Jesus: "When I sent you this dream, what did you do?"

Me: "Well, I didn't know You yet, so I went to a new age psychic friend. She told me that this was the deep fears I had at the center of my being. She told me that my fears were that I would live a lonely, solitary life of poverty, hunger and thirst. She told me that I would have nothing if I didn't make changes immediately. It was ridiculous."

Jesus: "Well, actually, I was right to have her do this as this memory then stayed with you. Remember that you then came to Me broken, hungry and thirsty. This is because the world had nothing to offer. You turned to Me and I healed your brokenness and rendered your heart to Mine. While I then fed you with the bread of adversity, through this you thirsted for Living Water. Only I could have provided all of this.

"Now, I know that this wait has been long. I know that there are days that you feel abandoned by Me because of your illness. You are hurt."

Me: "Yes, Lord, You are right. You are my Best Friend and I am hurt. The Tribulation has begun and unless You… I am sorry…" Crying. "…I just thought… since You love me that maybe You would…"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, it is okay… you can be honest."

Me: "That You would change me and heal me so I could endure what is coming. Sometimes I feel as if…"

Jesus: "Erin, I Am who I say I Am. I know it is only becoming more difficult."

Me: "I feel we are running out of time."

Jesus: "Wait! What? We are? Oh no, I better keep to these schedules!" I was now laughing. "Who said time was running away. I must go catch that time. Clearly the time has a mind of its own and it runs away from God. Sneaky time!"

Me: After laughing some more, it was replaced with tears. "Time is sneaky, Lord. I grow older and more sick. Time doesn't wait for me or anyone. It is painful."

Jesus: "I said this so you would smile. Erin, nothing is beyond Me. Time is God's…"

Sub-dream 4 "Back to the Clock and Calendar" begins…

I was instantly put into a vision / dream. Jesus was standing right there in front of me. He was smiling at me with such love.

Jesus: "Come, Erin!" He reached for My hand.

We were instantly in the beautiful Courtyard of God surrounded by angels. The Lord then took me to a balcony overlooking God's Clock and Calendar. I then saw something like a Countdown Clock. There was also a New Clock to the right of the main one. I noticed that the main Clock and Calendar had very few items left. As the clock rotated, a line of script would jump up in illumination and then vanish as it passed.

Me: "What are these?"

Jesus: "This is The Clock. It has only a few more rotations left."

Me: "Are those 26 seasons? Is that what I see or is this 22? Are there only 22 seasons now left?" I then noticed that my ability to count was somewhat confused.

Jesus: "Erin, you are off here. Now, look over here. This here is the countdown to when The Clock begins."

Me: "This Clock looks smaller, but brighter. What is it?"

Jesus: "The Clock of My Kingdom, My Rule, over the final one thousand days (years)."

Note: When discussing this with my husband, he was wondering if this should be days or years. I wasn't sure, so we prayed together to the Lord for clarification. He indicated that the days in this context actually referred to years. My husband then noted that a 'Prophetic Day' in Scripture often equates to a 'Prophetic Year' of 360 days (A Time).

Me: "Oh, fun! What is the countdown? I don't understand it."

Jesus: "It is for God to know the exact day and hour."

Me: "But we are getting closer! At least it sure seems so based on when I was last here."

Jesus: "I brought you here to encourage you that greater am I in you than he who is in the world. I am the God who sees. Greater are all of the angels in Heaven than any of those who fell upon the Earth. There is no army that can cut down the Army of God. No weapon, no scheme, nothing can prevail against God and His Kingdom of Heaven.

"Now, this also means that God is over all things, all events, all storms, all earthquakes, all volcanoes, all things in the oceans or even above in the heavens – the stars and their ability to shine, the sun and its light by day and the moon and its light by night.

"Anything man does that tries to manipulate or control to bring about destruction will come back upon them a hundred-fold, maybe more. Those who poison the water supply, destroy the crops and call for cattle and the animals to be removed… well, I promise you that I will remove them. Bitter will be their water. Hungry will be their bodies. They will sit in darkness unable to have light. This is coming!

"I am God. I am the Beginning and the End. I am over all things. All will soon know who I am. The wicked will run to their holes below and their luxurious caves. However, they are not far removed from My sight. I see. I am the God who sees.

"Erin, do not be afraid as you are not subject to them, only Me. You are Mine. They will be horrified at your bright and shining faces. Like luminaries, you will be marked. You will be like lanterns that help those stumbling in the darkness. You will say, 'God is with me, peace to you, this is the way, walk in this.'

"Now, look up, Erin. Do not be downcast. I have set you free. You are free. Rejoice and do not worry. I realize the wait has been long. Dates have come and gone, but one thing remains… I am with you and I have a Great Plan.

"Over there, Erin… this Clock begins and you will realize many of your dreams. There you will rest with Me. You will be a part of this here and also there. Stop being disappointed as if you are not going to be fulfilled here."

He reached for my hand and gently squeezed…

Sub-dream 4 over…

I was instantly back in my devotional room…

Jesus: "Erin, this is not over yet. This is about to begin. Do not let the enemy rob you as he and his chiefs of ten will be far removed. There will be rest and I will walk amongst you."

Me: "Lord, I am sorry that I have been so discouraged."

Jesus: "I know it is difficult. None of us like to witness evil in all of its victories. These will be short lived though. Do not worry. Justice is Mine. Vindication is Mine. Recompense is with Me. I love you, Erin. Rejoice. Time is God's. All is on His Timing!"

Me: "Okay… I love You, Lord!"

Jesus: "I love you too! Do not fear. I am here with you."

Dream over.

806 – The Targeting of Small Towns

Received on Wednesday, April 24, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

I am grateful for another day! I am so thankful that You are in control over this Earth. It is turning evil so quickly that Your people are in shock. We are experiencing battle fatigue here. It feels like this, Father. We are in some unbelievable daily battles here.

The people we encounter daily are behaving in such bizarre ways we have never experienced before in both magnitude and frequency. There is a definite separation between those with demons and those who don't seem to have them… or at least those who aren't displaying them openly yet.

Our children are at war at work. They are experiencing unjust practices and other issues. My younger son is on a 21 day fast. He texted in sick to his boss and coworker to let them know he was staying home yesterday. He had a migraine with nausea. When he arrived at work today, his boss called him to human resources to meet with the boss over all of the employees. They were writing him up for a 'no show' to work.

My son listened to what his boss had to say and then he pulled out his phone and showed them the text he sent with the proof of it being delivered. Nothing was said to this point when the head boss then proceeded to run my son's write up through the shredding machine. His boss didn't deny the text, but said he was frustrated to have his work backed up. My son then said that he would get all the work finished.

Later, the head overall called my son into the office and reassured him that the department heads, as well as the owners, do not condone what had happened to him. They then asked him to copy them in all future correspondence so that this will never happen again. My son felt the presence of God moving on his behalf. However, why would a boss do this for something so easily proven false? It makes no sense. Well, yes, it does because it is supernatural.

Father, please protect us and keep us close. These times are perilous. We are watching the beginnings of what the enemy did with Germany against the Jews. This is beginning to play out again. You told me that there is nothing new under the sun concerning the enemy's patterns. However, this one is a plan of epic proportions.

With the media owned by people working for our enemy, we cannot know what is happening in truth. Because of this, we are then seeing media weaponized against Jews and Christians. They are allowing protestors to call for the death of Israel and America. It has risen so quickly.

At one university, Jewish students are not allowed to pass their pro-Palestine human chain. This also happened and was allowed in Nazi Germany. We then have a former President on trial for bogus charges under lawfare. There is an invasion at the southern border and so many other problems I can't believe are happening. Gen-Z is being labeled as Gen-Zombie as so many are unaware of the truth.

Father, on a personal note, I am scared. Really scared. I need Your strength to overcome me. When I experienced my last NDE, I had that feeling of having been at a place with higher meaning for a few days. All down here seemed insignificant to me. I knew with a deep knowing that all of this was unimportant compared to You.

I miss this feeling. My whole body has been in Your Presence. Even my cells knew. Fear to me is missing an element of confidence that You are with me. The fear I have is to be alone. I am afraid for my children if something were to happen to me. I am sorry to have this fear, Father.

You are my Father. I love You so. I am in fear of You and what You will allow us to go through. The wicked are so wicked. How can we stand against any of it? We can't! Only You can! The enemy continues to hammer us. Father, please step in. We are shell shocked here.

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Traveling back and forth " begins…

I was living in Bend OR. However, something happened and my two little dogs were unable to stay with us. I purchased a tiny home in an abandoned area with small vacation cabins. It was a two-hour drive from our home. I kept the dogs in Bend and drove back and forth to bring them food every other day.

It was heartbreaking as they both seemed so sad when I left. I was worried for them being alone. While they always had food and water, there were no humans to give them attention. After just two weeks, they looked like they were slowly dying.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, this was a horrible dream. I would never leave my dogs like this – never. I am not sure why I would have such a dream as it made me so sad.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. You will have no need to abandon your dogs. Do not worry. All that I have shown you in your dreams about the increase in evil is now here. However, do not be dismayed for I have a greater plan than all of this. I would never abandon you or your children and house to all of this, so do not worry.

"I spoke to you recently about open doors. I am soon to open these and great will be your joy. Do not worry as I will make everything so clear that there will be no doubt. While things seem very dark right now, I promise you that this will not last. Continue on your course and prepare your fields. My hand is over you and no scheme of man will prosper against you. All is about to change!

"Erin, one other thing… like before, the enemy longs to command all ears to focus on his lies. The battle will shift to local media stations and newspapers to funnel lies. Once the local news shifts its truth sources, all news, good or bad, will then be under the direction of evil sources. This is the enemy's plan.

"The enemy has planned to attack without warning the small towns in America. They will gain power over Christian radio, news and other sources of shows they have been unable to control the narratives of. This will be done to spread false information or omit important news in order to influence their vote. This is war. Here are just a few examples of this war:

- For instance, if you have not been given the information to keep your children home from school because a dangerous group of cartel members are forcing recruitment and then, unaware, you put your children on the bus.
- Or if you haven't been told not to drink the water then you will drink and be sick.
- If you are told all is well, but instead there are evil foreigners going door to door to have you make a choice between God, death and the enemy.

"Well then, when someone is caught unaware, they should always err to God first."

Me: "So, they are going after more?"

Jesus: "Yes. All forms of media. They are also formulating information about you."

Me: "Oh, like a composite of our actions daily – our likes and dislikes."

Jesus: "Yes. The enemy longs to be like Me. I know all things."

Dream over…

807 – Do Not Confuse Movement With Progress

Received on Thursday, April 25, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! While the skies are beautiful, the strong winds battered our home all night.

Father, I know that I have said this before, it is on my heart to say again… How did all of this evil spread so quickly? How could these leaders of the countries, based on what they call democracy and based in Christianity for hundreds of years, just drop You overnight? How could these leaders allow the enemy to rise up and destroy the very nation that gave them each their platform to begin with.

Is it just money and pure greed? Perhaps. However, if they are in their 70s or 80s or even their 60s, should they really still be that hyper-focused on financial gains? If these leaders arose from corruption (as many of us now believe), then how do we stay to Godly principles when many of us have become sick and poisoned by their forced vaccines? The corruption just has to be supernatural.

Never ever could I ever imagine the USA turning on Israel as they now have. The whole world is allowing protests where they then call for the annihilation of all Jews. Here on our very own soil, we are allowing violent foreigners and brainwashed college students to chant out 'Death to America'.

They are now calling for the death of this blessed land of God's. What this translates to is the call of death for anyone opposing Islam or 'Democracy', which really now means autonomy and dictatorship. I always remember that, whatever they accuse you of, they themselves are doing, have done or plan to do.

I then looked back at my walk. I stumbled and fumbled because I had little or no understanding. I didn't know You, Father. I wanted more of what You gave me at the time. This was my portion according to my readiness to understand. I then pursued You. However, I wasn't satisfied with slow progress. While You then gave me what I had asked for, it was not in the way I had expected.

This was truly the genius that only You could have delivered. When I was going through my own trials here, I had read about the disciples and all they endured. I tried to wrap myself around the troubling journey I was on. Then instead of trying to figure out what on Your Earth You were doing, I gave up and surrendered all of it back to You. It was a scary prospect for a person with OCD like me.

I read this recently from a Christian site my younger son sent me about being called by God. I loved it and wanted to share it here…

"When God has called a man to a higher purpose, He always shreds him into pieces first. Never forget it is a process with God. Without pain, there will be no growth. To accept the pain, embrace the pain. Because God is there to ask you, 'Do you really want to achieve your goals?'

"And when you start walking with God, people will stop walking with you. Not because they don't like you, but because you're about to sacrifice things they're not willing to sacrifice. And when God takes you to deep waters, not everyone will be able to swim with you.

"However, do not confuse movement with progress. This is because you can run in place, but not get anything done. Take a moment and think… Are you moving forward? Who are you taking with you? And how are you making things better? By God's Given Power."

So, Father, here I am. I feel like I am running in place. I feel like I am not moving forward. In fact, I feel like I have taken a step back because I am now tired and weary. I am suffering from Soldier Fatigue. You tell me to keep going everyday and that You are with me. When trying to apply this, I realized that I didn't quite comprehend my dream from yesterday of isolating my two little dogs two hours away. Now I do.

In this dream, I was keeping them safe and tucked away. I had given them all they needed. Every other day, I would come and spend hours with them before returning. However, after two weeks and seven visits, they began to lose hope and were languishing. They were dying. Father, this dream feels like me and our house… or like so many of us out there in the world who You have tucked away securely.

We need You. We need to be near You always. While I absolutely love the hugs I get from You in these dreams, I still long for the day when You will give me a physical hug here in the natural world and in the supernatural Heaven.

When will we have life eternal and live in peace? When will death, illness and isolation, the pain of this world, be gone? What a glorious day this will be, Father. In the meantime, please don't let me languish and lose my zeal.

I had a vivid dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "My old form is used as judgment" begins…

I was at a church function / party at our old Portland OR church. Externally, I was as I am now, appearing to still be aged and unhealed. However, I had already been changed. I had already been made new. In this dream, I kept going from group to group of where I once belonged with Christians that I once called friends.

However, these old acquaintances ignored me completely. It was as if I didn't even exist. When I would walk up and say hi and call them by name, they would turn their backs on me. They would then huddle together tightly to keep me out. I overheard cruel whispers about me even though I was standing right there. I began to exit when one of the pastor's wives called out my name…

1st Pastor's Wife: "Erin, good to see you, dear." She then hugged me. "So, how are you doing these days?"

I started to tell her, but I could tell she wasn't really hearing me. She was just pretending to listen to what I had to say. When she finally replied, her reply did not match the context of what I had just been explaining to her. Instead, she gave me a shallow reply as she turned to leave.

1st Pastor's Wife: "Oh, that's great, dear. So glad you could come."

I sat down on the floor and leaned up against the wall embracing my knees to my chest. Then one of my dearest old friends, also a pastor's wife, sat down next to me.

2nd Pastor's Wife: "Erin, how are you doing these days?"

This was the same question as the 1st Pastor's Wife.

Me: "I have kidney cancer."

2nd Pastor's Wife: Obviously pretending to care. "Oh, that's sad."

It was easy to see that she didn't really care. She then began to talk about herself and her ministry. When she finally stopped speaking about herself, I got up and walked out of the room I was in. I stepped out of the door and looked back at them. I was then changed suddenly. I was healed and made young again in an instant.

They were all looking at me when this happened. Each one of them gasped loudly at the same time. They were in complete shock that I was now healed and made young.

Person 1: "Oh no, she was here as we had known her, but now she is 'One of Them'!"

Person 2: "I think we were all being judged just now!"

This created great panic in the room. I then left through the glass doors of this massive church. I looked back and they were all looking at me through the glass. I was so sad and I felt sad for them. I awoke to the sound of the wind outside.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I felt so unwelcome at my home church. This is the place where I was saved by You, where I was baptized and where I married my fiercest enemy. This is where my children were all dedicated to You at that altar. I served at this church for so many, many hours. It was all so sad.

The last few books of the Bible just before Revelation have words of wisdom from these disciples who desired to leave us instructions. These are so applicable to us now. This includes Hebrews, James, Peter, John and Jude. Each of these are nuggets of gold in these times.

Me: "Father, please strengthen and heal us. We love You. You make me brave."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know this wait has been long. I know you are tired and weary. Even so, you have not grown tired and weary in doing good even when it seems to you that you are running in place. Remember that I have given you this place to run in. If you do not see where you are going as you climb because the clouds lift at the rate of your climb, then just know this – this mountain is Mine.

"This cloud that covers you is Mine. I am there. It is not an easy thing for you who likes to move and go from here to there, you who likes to see progress and not stagnation. Remember to not confuse movement with progress. You are discouraged. You are not feeling well. Days come and go. You see the world around you spinning out of control. However, I have called you to wait on Me. Waiting is progress and obedience to My Call. My Voice and My Strength is in the waiting.

"Now, you have lost many friends over the years because they didn't like where you were going and what I was and is and will be doing through you. This is not an easy place. The waters are deep. While you feel abandoned at times, you are never abandoned by Me. Stay with Me a little longer. Hold your position in which I called you and pray. This is progress and a wise course.

"Remember to not confuse movement with progress. Your enemies constantly stir up things to create reactive movement from you. Do not react. Nothing is urgent to Me. This is because, while the hour is late, the Clock is God's. The hands on the face of time are My Hands. The face of time is Me working. These never stop moving forward. I am God and I always move in My time. My Timing is always perfect, understand?

"Now, I know you have several medical issues. You have an infection. However, these are all small things to Me and I will heal them all. I know that the cancer has made you anxious and the wait difficult as this is a new element to your walk that you weren't expecting. You are downcast and scared. You are worrying about many things again."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord, so sorry."

Jesus: "I am here. I chose you, Erin. You are Mine and you are worthy. I do not take back My promises. Now enjoy this day I have made. I love you!"

Dream over.

808 – The Destruction of American Landmarks

Received on Saturday, April 27, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family, my friends, our house and our Nest. We feel so blessed. I had an active night of dreams last night. Thank You!

Sub-dream 1 "The Destruction of American Landmarks" begins…

We were watching what looked like a screen, but I am not sure. We were removed or far away watching these events unfold. A newscaster came onto the screen…

Newscaster: "The USA as we know it has fallen."

I then saw iconic buildings like towers toppling from their foundations. It was as if they were being imploded by an expert in demolitions. The towers fell on themselves. I saw buildings being toppled in Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles. I then saw the Space Needle in Seattle being battered. The Space Needle had been built for the 1962 World's Fair for entertainment purposes.

Newscaster: With the now destroyed Space Needle as background. "There goes the science and industry sector!"

They then showed the TransAmerica Building in San Francisco (the one that looks like a pyramid) toppled.

Newscaster: With the now destroyed TransAmerica Building as background. "Well, that's what God must think of the trans movement."

They then showed the Capital Records Building in Los Angeles flattened like a pancake. In a split screen, I then saw the HOLLYWOOD sign on fire and in ashes.

Newscaster: With the now destroyed Capital Records Building and the burning HOLLYWOOD sign as background. "Okay, this is unbelievable. The music and entertainment industry are now being levelled."

This was just the beginning. There were more destroyed buildings in New York, Chicago, New Orleans, Houston (the oil buildings, Exxon and Shell) and Florida. They were being toppled like dominoes. It was horrifying to watch and so sad.

Newscaster: Flashing destroyed buildings and smoking refineries as background. "Well, there goes America. She's gone. She's gone."

They then showed a decimated Congress Building and other iconic landmarks now destroyed in Washington DC.

Newscaster: With the now destroyed DC landmarks as background. "Well, folks, it would have been better to keep these borders secure. This now comes at a price to all of us."

The screen then split and showed so many East Coast cities. Iconic landmarks like the Boston Hill (the City on a Hill) and Independence Hall (in Philadelphia) were destroyed.

Newscaster: With the destroyed landmarks as background. "We let in all of these terrorists. To what end? To what end?"

A second newscaster then came onto the scene. I could see such panic in his eyes.

2nd Newscaster: "Hey, we must sign off now. We have been told to evacuate."

Newscaster: Now also with great panic in his eyes. "We are signing off, America!"

The screen then went blank. I was then able to see things supernaturally. Just a few seconds later, I could see Muslims celebrating oversees.

Muslims: Chanting in loud, ecstatic voices. "America is dead. The Great Harlot is dead. This is now ours. Curse her fornications."

I then heard a bell ring out. It rang out a total of eight times. It was a distinct count of eight. The sound of this bell went to all places over all of the nations. I then saw the sky open and there was Jesus with thousands of saints.

There was no place that anyone could hide where they could not see the Lord seeing them. There were screams of terror as the people had no place to hide.

Then there was the Voice of Thunder. I am not sure how to describe it. It was loud, deep and frightening. All of Heaven then seemed to descend. When I woke up, my heart was pounding.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then fell back to sleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "The Government Overtaxes the Citizens" begins...

I was touring a destitute city. So much of the place was now unlivable. My daughter and I were visiting a dance studio owned by one of my daughter's old acquaintances. When we arrived at her studio, she was glad to see my daughter. However, she also seemed very sad.

The place looked like someone had been living in half of the area. There was a mattress and sheets. We looked around and it was a nice sized place with three studio rooms for dance. It also had a bathroom with a shower.

Owner: "Too bad you came so late. I have decided to close. All of the children are gone. They have overtaxed all of the building owners. Now the building owners have had to raise our leases to compensate for this. While I kept it going for six months, I finally simply couldn't."

Me: "How much are they charging you?"

Owner: "$21,000 per month."

Me: "That's staggering."

Owner: "I even left my apartment and moved in. That is my stuff you see here. The lights will be turned off on Friday."

My daughter: "Where will you go?"

Owner: "Family in the country. One of the only places we know."

Me: "Who is taxing the building owners?"

Owner: "The government. They want us ruined."

Daughter: "Is your family safe where they are?"

Owner: "I don't know. They are now taxing everything, including air, water and road travel."

Me: "You had better leave now as in right now."

Owner: "Who are you?"

Daughter: "Clear out now."

We helped her gather her things and we instantly arrived at her family's home in the country. She was in shock. Her mom and dad ran out to greet her. My daughter and I waved and then we were gone.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I then fell back to sleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 3 "New Drapes for a New Home" begins…

I was in a home linen shop there were virtually no customers or even workers. I was shopping for drapes with my daughter. However, there was only one panel for each fabric. Not even a matching pair. In reality, the entire place had interesting linens, but all of the inventory consisted of only one of each in each material. There was one placemat, one pillowcase, one top sheet and so on.

They had a lot of inventory, but all was mismatched. I became distracted by two extremely high-end linen pillowcases. One pillowcase was white linen and on this was a flock of lambs. It was embroidered with a girl with a sunhat leading them in a meadow. I smiled.

My daughter: "That looks like you, mom."

Me: "What? Really?"

I then studied the embroidery for longer than my daughter thought necessary.

Daughter: "Mom, don't get distracted. We need drapes."

I then looked at the linen pillowcase next to that one. It was a navy toile printed on Belgium white linen. It was a pattern I had never seen before. It had all the little animals in our yard, as well as the birds.

Me: "Look at this!" We both laughed.

Daughter: "Then ask the Lord for a pair of these for your new home. There isn't a pair of anything here. All is mismatched."

Me: "You are right. It seems like a salesman's sample showroom. It is all remnants here."

Daughter: "We are the remnants, mom, not these."

A drape fell and I immediately woke up.

Sub-dream 3 over…

I drifted off back to sleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 4 "Throwing a football amongst the breakables" begins…

All of our things from the house were outside in our lawn and driveway. However, it wasn't our current home. It was a beautiful day. I had a terrarium in a massive fishtank outside with the top off.

My husband then threw a football at me. I caught it and moved backwards, toppling the terrarium. However, the glass didn't break. Only the plants became jostled inside the tank. My husband helped me pick it up and we both laughed.

We then discovered a bird's nest inside. We carefully put the eggs back in place. My husband kept wanting to play catch with me in the middle of all these breakable items. It didn't make sense as this would not be typical of him. It was amusing in my dream though.

Sub-dream 4 over…

Father, these dreams seemed sad. For so many, there always has to be tragedy before they look to You. There has to be events or an event so Earth shattering, it forces people to look to You finally (even so, if they still do at all). It is just so sad.

I read recently that there are 1,440 minutes in a day. If these minutes are translated to money, or $1,440 per day, how would we spend that 'money'? How we spend it would then determine if we were given another $1,440 the next day.

Well, I am not certain I spend each day well. Father, so much of my day is consumed with routines. I spend at least eight hours in bed. I spend nine hours on chores, but sometimes ten to twelve hours. This includes cleaning or driving into town to market and so on. I spend at least an hour or two with You on non-dream journal days and four to five hours on journal, devotional and prayer days.

I also tend to not spend much time with people other than family. Most of my days are quiet and I am alone in my chores. Some days when I am not feeling well, I will then email, read or watch the news. I can be boring at times.

I am not sure I spend my 1,440 minutes every day well even though I want to. I spend a lot of my time being anxious for nothing. I am bored at times. While I am busy, I sometimes get caught in the monotony. The hour is late and I want to please You. Let my works honor You, Father, in all I do.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You do honor Me. I have created you to be uniquely you. I have called you to prepare your house and to ready your fields. You have stepped up to all of this. I love you and I will make a way for you.

“Now, there are things in this world taking shape so that you understand the lateness of the hour. I have made My decisions as these were made in the beginning. This is because I know the end from the beginning.

“Now, I chose you for My purposes, each one of you, with all of your frailties and shortcomings. All that has occurred is so you would lack no good thing. I have made you a designer of things. Your mind goes to this because you can see things others cannot. You say you know a little about a lot and this is how I made you.

“As for your husband, he knows a very specific field. This is how I made him… into an expert in his field. Your husband was not made for your field, so he sees this as foreign. However, he enjoys the outcomes of your vision. While you do not understand your husband’s math, you rest secured that he is led by Me and wired for dates, logic and patterns. Together you are good.

“Now, I am with you. You are investing in My house. You care for it and take time. You are to donate all that is no longer beneficial as this weighs on you. You are to treat the things I have given you as holy because these are in the temple I have given you. This means whatever you bring into it, ingest, release or plant as you are called to.

“Now, do not worry. While I will bless you with more, do not remain stagnant in doing good. This keeps you sharp, Erin. I love you! Now, rejoice this day. The dreams for now are mysteries, but important.”

Dream over.

809 – The Army of Green Pale Lions

Received on Monday, April 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Show me today how to best honor You. I want to get out of my current state of fatigue. I am not well and the process to getting better is long without You. You are my Best Friend. You have always taken care of me, Father. I am so sorry that time has erased my recollection of just how much. As we near May 2024, my stomach turns. My thoughts are not at peace.

Father, please take my burdens. I am so sorry for not dealing with all of this well. I am weaker than I thought. I am even stubborn at times. I want to feel good again. I want to be whole again. My enemies gloat at my condition and rejoice at the thoughts of my suffering. All of this makes it so I am not as enthusiastic about date watching these days. Excitement and hope often lead to disappointment at hope deferred.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are coming to the end of your journey as you are now. Things are about to change for you. You have had a few thousand dreams downloaded from Me (when including both personal and Nest over the last 12 years). You come to Me while you scribe and I speak tenderly to you. I send people your way and even angels to send messages of Good News.

"Even though you have felt abandoned by Me at times, you have never once been abandoned. I delight in you and I love you. I made you. You are Mine. The world is now in an uproar. There are all the signs unfolding before you one after another like words on a page and pages in an adventure story. Erin, My Written Word is this story unfolding. Now, you are anxious these days. Why?"

Me: "Sometimes it can be difficult to know where the story is going because of my own frailties. I always hope for the best to happen. However, since this hasn't happened yet, I skip forward to read the ending so I can take comfort in the story!"

Jesus: "Ah, yes. This is precisely why I set the captives free in advance. Now, I gave you dreams of the place I have prepared for you. There you will experience joy and rest. As these events have unfolded, the end has taken a different shape than you originally pictured."

Me: "Yes, Lord. You showed me what the lions of Islam are being called to do to Your people and they already are doing this in many areas. I hate what I am seeing here. I even had a terrible dream about this last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Army of Green Pale Lions" begins…

I saw a horrific sight so real it was as if I was actually there. However, I was not there, only observing. I saw a pale lion with red eyes and a green cast to its fur. It was entering freely into houses, into fields, into the streets, into churches and into the synagogues. It was leading an army of other green pale lions. These lions had no heart and no compassion.

These green pale lions were going from door-to-door killing the normal lionesses who were healthy. However, before doing so, they first let her cubs and her young lions suffer as they tortured them right in front of the healthy lioness. The lioness could do nothing but try to call out in anger and fear. This army of green pale lions delighted in the suffering and the slaughter of innocents.

Some young strong lions were able to flee to the mountains. However, they were pursued by these all-consuming greenish pale lions with bright red eyes. The green pale lions then purposely left some normal lions alive to spread the fear of their army further. Instead of the evil lions consuming the healthy lions, they mangled them and left them for dead. What I saw was senseless.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Jesus: "Yes, I know these enemies. While they say, 'we come in peace', their hearts are void of peace and they are agents of evil. They have spread out and they wait for their call."

Me: "Lord, my earlier dreams about the young people, the celebration and the girl running up Your hill to escape… where was this? I thought it was Israel, but could it also be here? There is a massive influx of foreigners everywhere we go now. They look at us blankly and as if we are nothing."

Jesus: "Erin, understand this… the signs are here, even at the door, that the age is now closing. Evil spirits, the ancient spirits of old, have arisen. They have possessed all of those with bitterness, entitlement, victimhood and laziness in their hearts. They believe My people and those I have chosen and My Bride have robbed them of their rightful legacy. They believe falsely as they have been deceived.

"They then call out for you to give them more or they will rob you of what you have so they can see you suffer. Among them are the youths who offer up their parents for punishment and even death. These are the same ones who defile themselves and give their babies to that evil Molech. To meet their demands is like trying to make pools of water in a desert wasteland. It is senseless unless God is in this.

"The doors to evil have been opened and those who have deep hatred are possessed with even more. In the streets of America, they call for the death of Jews and the destruction of Israel openly.

"Do you think that this will not then be allowed to increase into a call for the death of Christians door-to-door and in the fields and on the streets? If you see irrational behavior, there is a demon or even a legion of demons in the midst. Erin, the times of lawlessness are here."

Me: "What do we do? How do we live?"

Jesus: "I am in you. If I call you to stand, then stand. If I call you to move, then move. If I call you to fight, then fight. If I call you to rest, then rest."

Me: "Lord, please rise up in Your Army! We need You!"

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin. It will be made clear. You will experience great clarity. Even though you should be encouraged right now, you should take this time to pray for:

- Israel (the New Judah).
- America (the New Israel).
- The rightful citizens of the nations to not be caught unaware because their leaders have allowed the spread of this evil and the increase of this lawlessness.

"In all things, pray now. I am with you. I will not leave you. I am not mad at you. I call you here or there. I prepare you. Now, rejoice today as it is a good day!"

Dream over.

810 – The Judgement of Those Persecuting God's People

Received on Thursday, May 2, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It is officially spring here. Winter has moved to early summer really. Please keep our home cool. Thank You for my sleep where You speak to me in dreams.

I had a couple of dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Preparing Moving Boxes" begins…

There were moving boxes around me. I was young, strong and so happy. I was preparing the flat pieces of cardboard by folding them and taping up three sides. I was singing and happy as I performed this task. This was a surprise as I normally would completely hate the moving process. There was also an urgency and excitement over my task of packing our stuff.

Sub-dream 1 over…

When I woke up from this dream and was back in my current state, I felt dread. I hate moving. I mean I really hate it. I then fell asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Young Woman in a Sapphire Dress" begins…

I was preparing for a Spring Formal Dance. All of my friends were young. We went dress shopping together. We went to a dress shop for formals and weddings. While I helped my friends find their dresses, I was having trouble finding one for myself.

Friend 1: "Erin, look at this sapphire dress. It is so beautiful."

The dress was long and stunning. It actually looked like the sapphires were encrusted on the fabric.

Friend 2: "Try it on!"

I agreed. I then went into the dressing room and put it on. There was no mirror, so I didn't know how the dress looked on me yet. After zipping the dress up in the back, I walked out to my friends. They were left speechless, but I was still not sure why.

I could then see a beautiful young woman in a dress just like mine across the room. I waved at her at the same time she waved back at me. She had long curly hair. I then decided to walk towards her. I suddenly realized that this was actually a mirror in the distance, not a young woman with my dress on. It was me!!

After I woke up, I got out of bed to look at myself. I was not that girl… smiles.

Sub-dream 2 over…

And then the night before last, I had another dream…

Sub-dream 3 "A Massive Tornado Hits Hartford" begins…

I was visiting Hartford, Connecticut. I was with my daughter. We were in a small home with friends in the suburbs of Hartford. We stepped out on the porch and saw what looked like a massive storm coming our way. We quickly realized it was a tornado. This tornado was the likes and size of which I have never seen or heard of.

It was so large that it ate up the horizon. It was miles across. It consumed everything in its path. It split the land in half. Since there was no warning system in place, I knew that a massive number of deaths would be inevitable. We went outside to the street to warn people…

Me: Yelling out to them. "Go into your bathroom tubs or basements."

We could tell that very few people were listening to us. We then prayed for their safety.

Me: "It is headed for Old Saybrook. Let's ask the Lord to shrink it and confine it to the main roads enroute."

My daughter agreed and we prayed for this together. The tornado immediately shrank and was now moving down the paved road to Old Saybrook. Even so, the destruction it had already caused was unbelievably bad.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, this dream was so real and terrifying. However, since we do not know anyone that lives in Hartford, it seemed more symbolic of something greater soon to come. All of this was so real.

Me: "Thank You for sleep. Please have mercy and heal me soon. My nights are restless and I am up a lot. I am tired for no reason and my hands are swollen. My steps are labored and my breathing heavy. I am tired, Father. I am also anxious.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I haven't forgotten you. Your promised day comes so do not worry. These days are troubling in the world and I see them. Do not worry. Remember that, even though times change, the patterns of the enemy are the same. These are predictable and you can forecast what their next moves are or where they would like this to be.

"Now, this evil leader over the land knows what his instructions are (President JB). He knows right from wrong. However, he has been given over to those who hate the countries of North America, Europe, but, most of all, Israel. Erin, it is written (with the following based on 1 Samuel 15:23)…

"For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft. And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because he has rejected My Word, I will reject him as king."

"Erin, his days are numbered and I have sent writing upon his wall."

Me: "Lord, please step in. The evil has spread and riots have broken out. Please stop this and appear."

Jesus: "Even if I would appear for all to see, they would not recognize Me. Instead, it is better for them to stumble in the dark and cry out. They will cry out first to their false god who never appears and then to the One who is present even in the darkness."

Me: "I just never thought calling for the death of the Jewish people would ever happen in my lifetime. However, it is now here and so quickly spreading."

Jesus: "To know who is behind this and guilty, then look to who is quiet (ex-Pres O). Look to what leader, past or present, has others doing his work. I see it and I want you to understand what is happening here. Foreigners and the rebellious are being allowed this opportunity to discredit Israel and the West."

Me: "We are all being labeled as Colonizers now."

Jesus: "From the days of Noah, when his family left the ark, they colonized. Every single person alive on this Earth is colonizing on God's land. Right now, there are invaders in My land that I will wipe away from the Earth.

Their memory or even evidence they existed will be gone. They will go to the Outer Darkness reserved for judgment. I hate those who strike out against the innocent, those who birth lies and accusations. The very thing they accuse you of is the very thing they are doing."

Me: "Lord, You seem upset today as You rarely address the Outer Darkness."

Jesus: "Pray, Erin, as you are witnessing those who will be bound hand and foot and cast out into the Outer Darkness, the place of weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Me: "Is there anything else we can do? I ask this with urgency as all of us are next!"

Jesus: "Pray and understand this… My Word is Truth. For those who search for Me, I will illuminate the Words on the Pages I have written. To those who do not seek Me, all of My Words are just this… words on a page some person typed. These will then receive nothing from Me. Many Christians are turning away from My Word. They have believed the lies of those who know My Word is true.

"This is why the witnesses, My disciples, have written eyewitness accounts of events during My time there on Earth. This is a wicked generation who comes against those who are faithful and remain in Me… for I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if you were told."

Me: "The enemy has done this, Lord."

Jesus: "Understand this… watch who fact checks truth and then inserts lies instead. There has been a plan in place to imprison the Voice of Truth… all those who love Me and the things of Heaven. The enemy is sending a message of fear to all those who oppose them that they are now in power. However, they are not."

Me: "Lord, please make Yourself known!"

Jesus: "I am known and I am soon to be revealed. Do not worry. I love you and My favor is upon you. Do not worry. Stand and take courage!"

Dream over.

811 – God's Plans will Trump the Enemy's Plans

Received on Sunday, May 5, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family and friends. Thank You for Your Words of Truth, encouragement and love in such a dark and ominous world.

Father, please grant me clarification of my dreams and their timing. I am not fully understanding what I am seeing. I only know that I want none of us here to endure it as we are now. If we are not strengthened by Your hands, Father, then we will meet destruction here and the enemy will be successful.

I had a couple of vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Deadly Lion consumes all in his path" begins…

I saw a large, white lion. However, the white was grayish and not pure white. The eyes of the lion were yellow and red and were terrifying. Its teeth were like iron and deadly to its prey. Its mouth dripped with the blood of its prey. I saw the lion pacing and circling throughout the land. It then laid in wait for an opportunity. It was patient. It then roared and called out to the animals nearby…

Deadly Lion: "If you want to live, you must fashion a crown for me. You must then come daily to worship me and to sacrifice yourselves to me."

He then laid there at the edge of the Great Wilderness. I saw adorable, little animals fashioning a crown for him. When they went to worship and present their works to him, the lion seemed unimpressed and bored. When they bowed before him, he would reach down to lick them in approval, like a kiss.

As the little animals then celebrated the kiss from the lion, he quietly consumed them as the others observed in shock and horror. Finally, after the animals completed the crown, the lion again addressed the animals around him…

Deadly Lion: "I declare a Coronation Day where all of you will bow to me. Those who don't bow to me will be pursued and consumed."

Many of the animals then decided not to participate even though they knew they would be devoured. When the Coronation Day came, there were very few there. In anger, the lion consumed all who were there. He then went out to find those who were hiding. However, the little animals hid in areas the lion couldn't find.

Deadly Lion: Addressing the other animals. "Find the little animals and report back to me of their hiding places. If you don't do this, you will be consumed."

This resulted in even more death. However, the lion still couldn't find those who had hidden. He then went out to search for new areas to conquer. He then went out to all of the Seven Kingdoms to conquer them and to consume all who were opposed to worshipping him.

He then gathered up five other lions with him. However, he soon became hungry and consumed them, resulting in their fall. Everywhere the lion went, he was feared and he left a path of destruction. He had no morals. While he had great discipline, he consumed all who served him.

I woke up suddenly with an upset stomach.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then went back to sleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Six Pillars with a Base of Clay" begins…

In front of me was a massive valley with barren hills surrounding the area. Around this valley were seven hills. On the top of these barren hills were seven thrones. Each throne was in a different style.

While some were decorated in gold and jewels, all were captivating. Some were carved. One was alabaster and another carved in cedar. One of them seemed digital or like a hologram. Each of the seven thrones faced the valley.

In this valley were six large columns or pillars made of iron, but with a base of clay. They were elaborate and they all stood in one line.

I then heard a call. It was haunting. I suddenly realized that it was 'a call to prayer'. I then saw these mourners dressed in black from head to toe. They flooded the valley floor and laid their heads to the ground at the foot of these columns to worship them. As they worshipped, I saw the heavens part open.

Four angels of the Lord and one of God's chief angels then came down to the valley. Each of the four angels had large hammers. God's chief angel looked like Michael, but I wasn't 100% sure. This chief angel then gave a shout and each of the four angels took their hammers to the bases of the pillars at its foundations.

The pillars then toppled and the mourners screamed in horror. The ground then shook and split open and all the worshippers of the pillars were consumed into the Earth. After the Earth closed, the angels went to the seven thrones and destroyed all but one of them. The only throne not destroyed was the one carved in white marble. It was the only one that remained.

In my dream, I spoke out "Jesus, King Jesus!" and then woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, the world is turning to Islam in an alarming rate. The universities in our country and in other countries have been taken over by antisemitic and antichristian protesters chanting death to America. They are being emboldened. What is happening?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. There is a greater plan in place of all of this. Remember I am God over all things and I cannot be shaken. While I can shake the Earth and its inhabitants, I cannot be shaken. My foundations of truth are unshakable. My truth is a solid rock and it cannot be shaken. Nothing can succeed against Me. Be clear and know this. I am God.

"Now, these protests are a distraction away from something. The wars and rumors of wars are a distraction away from something. Right now, there has been one enemy of the world and his system and these have several heads. In five days time, there will be a meeting of countries. Their objective will be to destroy by injection the balance of the population over the next few years."

Me: "Lord, this lands on Friday, May 10, 2024. Who is meeting? Where is this meeting?"

Jesus: "This is a lofty goal of mass genocide of the peoples of the Earth. I have warned you of this as this is their objective. Now, there is something else… as if this weren't enough… in order for this to occur within the enemy's timeline, America must be destroyed, as well as Israel and Canada. The leaders have allowed the entry of the enemy through their gates."

Me: "Lord, all of this is happening so quickly. It is horrible. Please stop this."

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry as I know their lofty plans. Pray. This is all unfolding now. However, I have a Great Plan."

Me: "How can we prepare? Is there anything we can do?"

Jesus: "Wait! Stand! Pray! Watch Me deliver My people!"

Me: "Lord, they are even more wicked than I had originally thought."

Jesus: "Yes, but I am God and I am good. The enemy has a roadmap and blueprints, a schedule and a clock for himself. He is also full of hate…

- He hates Israel (the New Judah).
- He hates America (the New Israel).
- He hates Jews and Christians.
- He hates women and children.
- He hates animals and birds.
- He hates plants and forests.
- He hates fresh water, clean air and joy.
- He hates freedom, laws and fair and balanced justice.
- He even hates his own sons and daughters of perdition.

"Most of all, he hates Me and all of My angel army. He knows the times. He knows his 6000 years is now coming to a close. In his rage, he now destroys. He wants to burn up all of God's Creation and see it destroyed by his hand. However, I am God.

"Now, remember to pray that the enemy's plans come to nothing because My Plans are Greater. Even though you now see the enemy and his plans coming into view, you are not to worry. Seeing his plans coming into view does not mean that they will succeed."

Me: "Lord, the global leaders are calling for just one plane trip per person every three years. They are calling for only three articles of clothing per person per year. They are calling for a 95% reduction in private car ownership. They don't want us to drive or fly. They also want to completely remove all meat consumption. They want to eliminate all of our freedoms and choices."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. They also want to remove the possessions of all those in certain age brackets (I had it impressed upon me that this was for the wealth of those aged 55 and over, but did not have this confirmed). The leader in Canada just declared his plans. However, you are to remember that their plans are lofty and unrealistic. Their plans are lofty and unrealistic because I am God and I stand in their way.

"Now, only ten years ago, you asked Me, 'How could this ever come to be?' Well, it is now here and as I told you it would be. Do you remember when I told you that it is like a boulder traveling down a slope? This begins slowly then picks up speed rapidly as it reaches the bottom. This shouldn't be surprising to you as you have now seen it unfold exactly as I told you it would."

Me: "Yes, but it is just so horrible. However, I already know that You have prepared a Great Place for us in all of this."

Jesus: "I have. Now, remember to press into Me and pray. Worship Me in full as I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if I told you. Rejoice, Erin, and do not worry. You are Mine."

Dream over.

812 – A Home Too Beautiful to Comprehend

Received on Thursday, May 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Thank You for another day!

Yesterday marked the 10-year anniversary of my fall on Thursday, May 8, 2014. This was the day that my life changed. While I had thought that this was one of my worst days, You eventually made it one of my best. With this, You closed one door, the end of my design career, and You opened another door, the start of my career in serving You full time. When I say serving You full time, I mean spiritually, not physically.

While You knew in advance that You had a different purpose for me, my design career had allowed for very little down time. At first, I mourned my loss. I knew in that moment when I fell that I was in trouble. You just know when something major is wrong with your body. I couldn't just get up and shake it off as I had been able to at other times in my past.

I then found myself wanting to reverse time just to give back even just five minutes so I could make changes to avoid the accident that morning. However, it was too late. Wave after wave of troubles then began as I tried to navigate this new state of being. I worried about my job, my income, my surgeries, my battles and so on. I had just come through an epic custody battle that took all I had.

I didn't know how I could keep my children. The what-ifs then set in. Father, You then told me to be still and see that You are good and to trust You. You reminded me that, what the enemy planned for my destruction, You would use to deliver me to the land of the trees and far away from harm. You then added that my children would all be released by my enemy on Saturday, August 23, 2014.

We were in complete shock that You would give me such a specific date. In an extreme miracle, You then did everything You said You would and on the exact timeline You had promised. I still can't believe You did this against all of the odds stacked against us. In just three months, You set us all free in a miraculous way. Only You, Father, could do such amazing things. Only by Your hand. Nothing is impossible for You.

This has been a difficult last few days for me. My health has really declined. My blood pressure has been high and I have been sick. All the signs of kidney troubles are here and even adding a fever and bleeding to the mix. I have been sad. I have had a hopeless feeling knowing that something has taken over my normal functions.

I must still be going through the five stages of grief. The depression and denial portions seemed to have lingered. I guess these things are common with cancer. I have isolated myself a bit these days as I just don't feel very hopeful when I am in the thick of my battles. Forgive me, Father, for all the times I said the wrong things to friends at their time of greatest need.

Just spending time with You is all I need. All of this is between You and me. I can't always be honest with others, even my family, about what I am experiencing. My children sometimes get mad at me if they can tell I am feeling down or in pain. It is easier to just say nothing and put on a happy face than to bring my house down.

This feels like a spiritual battle more than anything. I either believe in Your promises or I don't. I believe, Father. It is just that I had hoped that You would do everything according to my plans and by my timeline – that is, being already healed. Even though I had a picture and an idea, You are still and always will be the Master Painter. When You take over and we allow You to work, all is perfect. Lord, You are absolutely perfect.

You speak in signs and wonders to me in order to confirm that You are with me in the natural. You never disappoint me. I had a difficult Monday and Tuesday. Then on Monday night, You sent a beautiful double rainbow right over our home. I was so excited that I even went out in the rain to take photos.

I was then excited to discover on Tuesday that I have trillium flowers on our property. These take eight to nine years to cultivate and grow. Their blooms then last only three weeks. I took photos of these flowers as well. As we sat down later on for dinner, my daughter then spotted a hummingbird. I was so excited that I put the feeder out about ten days ago because the active migration map showed a sighting in Bangor ME.

The next morning, there was a new baby chipmunk, a baby ground hog and a baby turkey. They were all eating corn at the tray in our yard. Thank You, Father! Thank You for lifting my head. This week, my hands have been swollen and aching. Writing and technology have been mostly off of the table. I have also taken a break from the news on the television as it is all so depressing and one-sided right now.

It is so disturbing to see the world turn against Israel and to see these battles in our own country too. It makes my blood pressure high. Oh Father, You are surely going to help us soon, right? It is so hard to watch evil rise like this. Despite all of the turmoil, I decided to take a good portion of yesterday to thank You for Your goodness.

I was alone yesterday and sang Katy Nicole's and Cain's song, "Jesus, Thank You". The lyrics to the song never left my thoughts – It was a good day!

I had a couple of vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Three Builders Treat Me like Garbage" begins…

All of my current family were now living in the tiny home I grew up in back in Albany, California. We were living in one of the bedrooms, the bathroom, the living room and the kitchen. The other two bedrooms were occupied by my old builders I had worked with who had treated me like garbage. There were three sets of these old builders living in the back of this tiny home with us.

These three treated me like garbage and used me horribly. I am not sure why they were living in this house. They would come and go at all times of the day. They were not grateful for anything I had done. I had worked hard and left them valuable resources. In return, they chased me and tried to smear my reputation in the industry. This was a horrible nightmare. I then woke up from this dream suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then went and searched for these guys on the internet. My stomach turned. It was horrible. I then fell asleep again and had my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Home too beautiful to comprehend" begins…

The Lord was building a new home for us. It was so amazing and beyond anything any of these wicked men had stolen from me. I was walking through this home. As I walked, every room turned into the very best and even better than anything I had ever worked on or even the best I had ever seen. It was as if the Lord had extracted every lovely thing that I had ever seen and had incorporated this in the design. There were things I had never even spoken of. It was all here.

I then walked outside and the area turned into a landscape that I had never even seen on Earth before. It was unfolding and constructed as I stood there speechless. Within about 45 minutes, this entire place was finished. All of it was complete. The plants, bushes and trees then supernaturally matured. Tears ran down my cheeks as I thanked God for letting me witness such fun events. The Lord then spoke to me.

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, this is for you. This is yours. All of this is yours!"

When I woke up from this dream, I was a bit startled.

Sub-dream 2 over…

This must have been a Heavenly Home? I felt thankful. I promise that I really do not covet homes here. I am happy. I just want to live in Bend OR again. I wouldn't even be picky on what I lived in. I am not spending my days imagining dream homes and their associated mortgages and taxes.

Me: "Father, what is all of this about? Surely the hour is late!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, about the first dream… this dream was of the home you experienced great trauma in. All of that is unresolved. No one acknowledged it or apologized for it. All of those who were entrusted to watch over you and care for you are gone now. As for the builders there, they are all still living."

Me: "Lord, I thought I had forgiven all of them. I thought I had moved forward."

Jesus: "You have. However, instead try to think of this former house as portions of your head."

Me: "My brain?"

Jesus: "These are like rooms which are occupied in which you live – like chambers. You have very few good memories at this house. This means that being back in this house would be your personal nightmare. When you then add these three wicked builders who robbed you, justice and closure for you were never served.

"While all of them remember what they did to you, they all see themselves as higher than you and much smarter. However, there are many more people in your past like this. You were robbed of much more than you even realize. Once a shark detects blood in the water, all who swim with him, the other sharks, then attack their prey.

"They all attack together in a feeding frenzy. The enemy has followed you for years and has never forgotten the betrayal of you now following Me. Because of this, what you had hoped for in life didn't come into fruition.

"Now, your tree in this building industry never produced good fruit in due season. As a result, yes, I cut down this tree and kept you with Me. With Me, your tree produces fruit of many varieties all throughout the year. This is what I have done, Erin. I remember. I do not forget any details.

"Erin, I do not forget even one detail of what your enemies have done to you. One day, your enemies will be forced to remember and see. All of those who handed you over and said false things will be handed over before the Throne of God and will be forced to confess."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. However, I feel like I am so far from this right now."

Jesus: "Yes, but this is not far from Me ever."

Me: "But why now? Why bring this now?"

Jesus: "The hour is late and much is about to rise up. The generals from the depths have been given permission to rise. These are demonic spirits who have armies."

Me: "Lord, are these not already here? Baal, Jezebel, Molech, Lilith and/or Ishtar? I am not sure who, but it sure seems that these are already here!"

Jesus: "I am only telling you this so that you are aware of their presence, not for you to personally know them. Since you have seen them work, I have called you to pray."

Me: "Lord, this is so difficult. These 'gods' are so wicked. Please help us."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I am here. My number of angel armies of Heaven are greater than these. However, the call has not been given yet. This is the Great Time of Testing."

Me: "Lord, please… Your people who love You are wearing down now. Please don't delay! Lord, please…"

Jesus: "I tell you all of this so that you understand what you see in the natural has a spiritual unseen root. There is a Great War that you cannot see now. However, this is only the beginning. All is about to change. Now take courage. Be strong and take courage. All you are to do right now is to stand and pray. Wait on Me. Watch Me deliver you to a beautiful land."

Me: "Lord, what about the Great Harvest?"

Jesus: "It comes. It is the greatest and it comes. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, I am scared."

Jesus: “Yes, I know. However, do not be as I am with you. Do not worry! Rejoice, Erin, as nothing will be lost and all is to be gained.”

Dream over.

813 – I will first pour out My Spirit

Received on Sunday, May 12, 2024 (Mother's Day)

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for being our God in all things. I thank You for our home, our Nest, our family and our friends. Thank You for Your Goodness, Father!

Lord, I am deeply troubled by a dream I had last night…

Sub-dream 1 "An Invading Army of Complete Evil" begins…

There was a specific alert transmitted on phones, radios, satellites and all forms of digital tech. The alert had a readout as follows…

"Special Alert! Urgent! Special Alert! Urgent! Retreat to your homes and await further instructions! << Unreadable Threat (see below) >>"

This alert then repeated itself a few times.

Note: While a dire threat was written out and included in this 'Special Alert', I was unable to recall it. Perhaps I was able to read it at the time, but I could not now recall it… at least for this dream. Perhaps the Lord doesn't want me to disclose this threat as of this time.

Whatever threat was in this text, it then created great fear. However, there was very little other information other than this Special Alert. With the peoples now locked inside, I saw rubber boat rafts with men of foreign origin flooding the beaches of Europe (including the United Kingdom & Ireland), Australia & New Zealand, the USA & Canada. Each of these boat rafts carried thirty men each.

There were vast swarms of these boat rafts. Once the men made it to the shores, there were large trucks with canvas tops loaded with automatic weapons. Each man was then given light blue helmets and maps with lists. They then broke this large group of men into one leader for each group of ten men. This leader held a clipboard with instructions. Each of these groups then entered into these trucks for transport.

These trucks then pulled up to the entrances of the cities, both major cities and many minor cities. All entry and exit points to the major cities and some of the minor cities now had checkpoints set up. Some of the other minor cities were completely fenced in. It was frightening. For seven days, the people were held until all was in place. A former President of the USA (not Trump) then appeared at a press conference.

Former President of the USA and the New Global Leader: "You all know me as the former leader of the USA. However, please allow me to now reintroduce myself as the new leader of the 'New Global Health Initiative' (or something similar to this). Since the world population is unable to take care of the planet and themselves, it is now the role of this organization to right all the wrongs of humanity.

"Unfortunately, the actions of a few have caused the destruction and further imminent destruction of those who are soon to lose their lives. There have been lies circulating to cause fear. Today, our global peacekeepers will be going door-to-door to take a census, to hear your concerns and to give you an aid box with further instructions. Each household must follow the instructions contained in these aid boxes.

"Failure to follow these instructions will cut off further necessities for your household. Any attempt to obstruct, harass or demean our workers will subject your household to arrest. Any failure to obey our workers will also subject your household to arrest. These measures are not of my doing. Instead, this is an emergency measure to uphold the safety and sanctity for all. To ensure the safety of all citizens, each household must relinquish all weapons and failure to do so will result in arrest.

"Many of those who are your neighbors are not your friends and certainly unable to protect our planet from harm. They might look just like you, but they are filled with hate. We have set up a call center and ask all of you to report anyone opposed to the betterment of the body as a whole. Peacekeepers will then be sent out to restore order. Those who report these will be given a digital score card able to be redeemed for access to medical care, pharmaceuticals and other amenities.

"Now, I know that changes are not easy, but we are making this as simple as possible as many of you are not as knowledgeable as we are. There is a New World Order now. This is the way moving forward. I am the leader and I am 'the way' here. Since you already know me, I can be trusted. Now, your aid boxes will be arriving over the next three days. Thank you for believing so you can be the change."

I then saw these armies of 'peacekeepers'. There were thousands… no, millions… going door-to-door. This was a great army of pure evil. People were trying to flee. Many were killed immediately. The fear was so great that many complied. I saw a few peacekeepers really like a certain home, so they had the owners arrested.

I saw many people give them all their valuables in exchange for their lives. Then in other areas, the people who were native to the land were just killed. I had never seen such horror. What was happening was the same type of barbarism as what occurred in Israel on October 7, 2023. My stomach was sick when I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, this is a difficult time to be alive. My memories of the beaches in Sandpoint ID when I was a teenager seem so distant now. I remember driving around and doing normal activities like shopping for the prom or walking on the bridge. I remember boating on the lake. We loved camping and picking berries.

As for now, I just can't imagine not experiencing these activities ever again. All of this now seems like another lifetime ago. It is gone if You don't come against all of this evil. What is coming is horrifying. It is coming and I pray that You don't allow this.

After a while, I fell back to sleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "I will first pour out My Spirit " begins…

In my dream, I heard a loud knock outside. I thought it was real because my sapsucker bird has been knocking at our gutters and it has been quite loud at times. However, this knock was not stopping. In my dream, I got out of bed and went to the front door. There was Uriel at the door. He smiled as I opened the door. He was in full armor.

Uriel: "Miss Erin, God requests your presence. Come."

He reached for my hand and I took his hand. We were instantly at God's Door where he has brought me so many times before. He faced me and brought his thumbs across my eyes with salve so that I could see.

Me: "Uriel, are you at war in the heavens with the others?"

Uriel: "Right now, I am here with you at the request of God. We are always at war with the enemies of God and man until one day we are not. Come."

He brought me into God's Court. I could hear the choirs of angels singing, 'Holy, Holy, Holy!' My body became very weak and I could not remain on my feet. Uriel then brought me to an area still far from the Throne. There I bowed before God and wept. I could breathe freely. I wept loudly. I began to confess how I have been lately…

Me: "I am so sorry, Father. The hour is late and I am so sorry. I am struggling. I need Your strength. I am not sure I have asked for that, but I need You."

I then heard a Voice with a tone like a rumbling bass that made my entire being quake from within. I shook.

God: "Erin, I am here. Do not be afraid. I am God. I know the plans of the wicked. I see it. A war has been waged upon all flesh. This is not a normal war fought on battlefields. Instead, this is against the senses… what is heard… what is witnessed… what is digested. All of this is meant to confuse and destroy all flesh. The gateway that the enemy desires is to lie, deceive and control the people."

Me: "Father, we can't survive without You."

God: "No one can."

Me: "We have removed You out of everything… not those who love You, but those who hate You."

God: "I am blamed for all trouble, but not praised in the good. All that you are experiencing must occur in order to fulfill My promises. It is not easy to see this and live through it. I have a Great Plan and all will know that I am God and that My Ways are higher than any plan you can conceive. Now, remember to ask Me and I will deliver you from the hands of evil."

Me: "I am asking. Please, Father, do not forget us. Our hopes are on You."

God: "The hour is late. I have promised you good things. I will do as I promised I would."

Me: "Father, I am sick. Some dates have now come and gone. Please deliver us to Bend OR as You have promised. If not, then perhaps I am a 'madwoman'? However, as I stand… well, as we stand… I am discouraged and not sure what to do."

God: "Can you do anything concerning this?"

Me: "No. I am completely reliant on You, Father."

God: "Good then. I can do anything I choose. If I give vast amounts of resources to those who never turn to Me, then can I not do even more for those who love Me? Erin, I love you, your family and your friends. You show your love to Me If I choose to, I can grant the wealth of kings."

Me: "I don't need that."

God: "How about you let Me be God and you remain in your body of flesh. Now, I have a Great Plan. You are in this Great Plan. As for the evil leaders, they have a plan to go door-to-door to slaughter the people. Even those who comply will be given injections meant to accelerate their deaths. Those still alive after this will need to take the mark or die by beheading.

"But… and there is a but… I will first pour out My Spirit on the people. There will be a Great Change and there will be a period of hearts turning back to God. This is the Year of Changes!"

Me: "It is also an election year in the USA (on Tuesday, November 5, 2024)."

God: "They are plotting to destroy the election as they know that the people see. Now, I know these dates you watch for have come and gone. I know you are discouraged."

Me: "Father, our children are losing hope."

God: "Do not worry as this will change. The enemy will not succeed in his plans to wipe away all living flesh. Remember… all of these things must occur before…"

God then paused to allow me to guess what reply would be fitting.

Me: "…the Great and Terrible Day?"

God: "Yes! I am with you. This is enough for today, Erin."

Uriel brought me up to standing.

Me: "I love You, Father."

God: "I love you."

I turned and Uriel led me outside and faced me.

Uriel: "It is a difficult thing to keep hope when you are faced with attack after attack. We do not live in flesh, but you do. Therefore, remember to remain in the Word of God, His Promises and His Great Plan. The future Glory of His Kingdom comes on Earth as it is in Heaven. We are here… even at the door! God has sent angels concerning you.

"Now, one other thing… you are soon to receive a Gift unlike any other before this one. It is from God. Take this and rejoice as God is with you and His Favor is upon you in the seasons to come."

Then there was a flash of light and I was back in my entry (in my dream). I heard the sapsucker knocking loudly on the gutter. I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Lord, are You here?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: "Lord, You are my Best Friend. I am under physical attacks and so are many of my Nest friends."

Jesus: "The enemy attacks with full force when he knows something is coming his way. He has been successful in destroying the people. Even many whose hopes were openly on God and the things of Heaven have been tricked to believe that all of this is a lie. Well, it isn't and the enemy knows this. His days are numbered."

Me: "Lord, spring is now in full force and we are no closer to moving (to Bend OR). When will this be?"

Jesus: "I haven't changed, Erin. Do not worry as this is the time of Great Changes and you are a part of this."

Me: "But I have been praying that we would be going west during the spring season?"

Jesus: "Trust Me and My Promises and let Me fulfill these. Now, I know your whole house is looking to Me. I know you are worried. Don't be. Don't! I have you. Enjoy this beautiful day that I have made!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-814/

814 – Though We Will Search, The Wicked Will Be Removed

Received on Sunday, May 19, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my life and the lives of my family and friends. Please say to our dry bones, 'LIVE! Rise and Live!' Father, Your people are weary and tired. Many of us are dying from evil men and their plots to destroy all of the peoples of the Earth. On the surface, they are winning this Great War. This is a war fought unlike any war before it. It is horrific and it continues.

I had a dream the night before last and it was so real.

Sub-dream 1 "Beware of the Hidden Dangers" begins…

It began as a beautiful day. I could recall the smells and the warmth of the sun. It seemed like Santa Cruz, California, a very familiar place for me when I was a child. I was standing on the cliff at Steamers Lane. This is where my stepdad's ashes were scattered. We surfed here in the early 70s. My brother and I mostly kneeboard surfed as we spent time waiting for our parents who were surfing farther out in the big waves.

As I stood there looking west at the massive ocean on this beautiful sunny day, I was approached by an angel of the Lord. He was stunning and appeared like someone who could be a surfer. While he was wearing neoprene surfing pants, he had bare feet and no shirt. While he had long blonde hair that was dreadlocked from sea salt, his hair was not dirty at all.

He had heavenly hair like spun gold with streaks of white. His skin was very tan. His teeth were bright white and his eyes were a bright greenish blue. He almost looked like Gabriel. Since I was just standing there staring at him, he became uncomfortable. I must have been in awe.

Angel: Laughing. "Erin, I have been sent by God to show you the sea here and a mystery."

His arm moved in a sweeping motion and the ocean then became still. It was now so still that it looked like glass. He then walked over and spit into the ocean. It instantly became clear and I could easily see to the bottom. There was sand and rocks.

Angel: "Now, look to the beaches. What do you see?"

Me: Looking at the beaches to the south. "I see a beach I have never seen before."

The beach was extremely wide. The people on the beach looked like specks. The boardwalk amusement park was so far away that I couldn't see it clearly.

Me: "This is unrecognizable. How is this even possible. The sand is like sugar. The sand here used to be a different make up. Where did all this beach come from?"

Angel: "This is manmade. This was created by man for added value."

Me: "Dredging? But this coastal area is not like Florida or Dubai. This seems impossible!"

Angel: "Erin, the message is that it is created by man. However, no matter what they create, nothing compares to God and His divine hand of Creation. I am the angel over this territory. I received the ashes of your stepfather and many others here. One day, they will all be raised up and stand before God. Again though, this is not what I am to show you. Now, look to the west."

I looked to the west and I could see the sun only a few feet above the water. However, I could also see something else. Something rose out of the ocean at the horizon and then disappeared again. It was extremely large and seemed to be coming closer.

Me: "This is horrifying! What is it?"

Angel: "For this is written and it comes."

Me: "But these people have no idea."

Angel: "It comes as God has called it up from the depths of the sea."

I then looked to the sea in the south where the beaches were. I could see two groups of people. The men were all wearing red swimming trunks. Behind the men was a wall of women. The women were all in black coverings and were set apart from the men.

Me: "Are these under Sharia Law?"

Angel: "It matters not as their law will not save them against this."

Me: "Will you warn them?"

Angel: "Look…"

I could then see into the ocean. The Black Dragon was swimming alongside the Leviathan.

Angel: "These do not care about man at all."

Me: "Are you the only angel over the sea?"

Angel: "No. There is a mighty army of God. There are many of us."

Me: "So, when will this be?"

Angel: "This is coming. However, there are no harvesters here. It is past the season."

Me: "Are these Trib Saints?"

Angel: "Not here. Now, the message from the Lord is this…

"Do not be afraid! He is always in control. He knows and He sees. Hearts have grown colder day by day. Even though there is a Great War over all you see in the natural, be encouraged!"

As the angel looked out towards the horizon, I heard him shout (however, I can't remember what he shouted). I saw storm clouds gathering. The ocean suddenly turned dark with 25-foot waves. I then saw thousands of angels over the sea.

Angel: "I must go now! This is war!"

The angel suddenly had a massive sword in his hand. He jumped off Steamers Point onto some creature in the sea with tremendous speed. All I could see was him then going into the storm. I looked to the beaches and many of the people had now washed into the sea. I then heard a word shouted extremely loudly from the heavens just as I woke up…

"INCOMING!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "Dedicating Baltimore back to God" begins…

I was in the City of Baltimore. The entire city had been laid waste. We were rebuilding it and all was made new. I was staying in a campervan working just down the street from a Red Robin Restaurant in the waterfront district. This restaurant was just about to launch its grand opening. There were a few hundred of us gathered at a park area there.

I was pretty sure there was a famous pastor speaking here. While I am not sure, this pastor looked a lot like Jonathan Cahn, only younger. Again, I couldn't tell for sure. He then stood on a platform and called out to us…

Pastor: "I call upon all of you, God's Workers, to pray and thank God for the blessing over this city. You are to dedicate this city back to God. Here, we will dedicate this city with the crown of stars."

I saw a map of twelve districts. All of these districts had a purpose or feature that reflected the inhabitants. All here now worshipped God. All foreign gods had been removed.

Pastor: "At the breaking of dawn, all will be completed. All our work is finished."

We all cheered. As the sun rose in the east, all of us sang and worshipped God.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I got up this morning and went to my devotional chair and prayed. I picked up my Bible and asked God to take me to His Word of Truth. He is good! He took me to the following passages in Isaiah…

- Chapter 24: His judgment upon the Earth.
- Chapter 25: God will swallow up death forever.
- Chapter 26: Crying out to the Lord in song.
- Chapter 27: The redemption of Israel.

I then looked over Isaiah 27:1 and noticed something that I had never noticed before…

Isaiah 27:1: "In that day the Lord with His hard and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and He will slay the dragon which is in the sea."

Father, there is no accident here regarding my dreams and the Scriptures You just brought to my attention today. Please grant me wisdom to understand Your Word of Truth. Our Bibles are our Swords, but also instruct us further in the ways we should stand against the enemy's schemes.

This then somehow reminded me of something that has been bothering me. While Psalm 46 has been one of my all-time favorite Psalms, it was used in a deceptive way by a former President. I now believe he was putting himself 'as god' by twisting Your Word. He was obviously fantasizing about the nations being destroyed and him then being the savior of the people, not You.

I can understand how people can be tricked and led into destruction. It can happen so fast. As just one example, I was forced to take two shots of the Pfizer vaccine. There was no way around it. Before taking this vaccine, I prayed and You told me not to worry as You would go before me. My husband and our children had to take these to go to school, to graduate and to work.

Now, here we are. All of us are worse off now than before taking this mandatory shot. I have cancer. My husband should have tests as well. We are waiting on You, Lord… actively waiting. Show us what to do and where and when to go.

I now feel like the disciples in the waiting period that many believe to be ten days between Your ascension and Pentecost. However, we have instead been waiting in the wilderness for ten years. We are baptized in Water and Your Spirit and now we are waiting for Your Transformation and to begin to serve You healed and youthful. Please do not forget about us!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have seen what is to come and this keeps you hopeful."

Me: "Lord, I am worried for my kids now. They have also been waiting for You. However, when one is young, time goes quickly even though time waiting goes slowly. I can offer them no comfort other than to agree and be patient.

"Now, I know the nations who were once free are rising to dictatorships quickly. We hear rumors of new pandemics and lockdowns coming. We hear rumors that they will soon take our bank accounts, our homes and our cars. We hear rumors that we will then be given a digital ID that contains all of our medical records as well. As for any upcoming vaccines, I won't take anymore… no more."

Jesus: "I understand. These times you are in are perilous. If you knew what was occurring in all the places you cannot see, you would be in shock. I never said it would be easy to live in times like these. Even so, you seem surprised."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I just have no words for seeing the incredible increase in evil and depravity. It is just horrific. There are crimes against children. There is the destruction of women and families. Please step in. Lord, please don't allow this to continue."

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin, as I have a Great Plan. Remember that, in a little while, the wicked will be no more. Though you will search for them, they will not be found by you."

Me: "Psalm 37."

Jesus: "Yes. This is truth. Erin, I hate evil and I know who plots and devises schemes. I know they plan to kill off most of the peoples of the Earth. I know their plots crafted in secret. Erin, I have sent you dreams about changes coming to you and your house and all those I have called. You know that it is coming as I have promised. As for the enemy, he works tirelessly to produce a counterfeit meant to confuse."

Me: "They are now taking blood (plasma) from children and using this to transform a person to their youth. They are harvesting blood from children. This is more valuable than any other commodity. It is so sick."

Jesus: "I see, Erin. It is forbidden and evil. However, do not concern yourself with things you cannot stop. Now, the enemy remembers the sons of Jacob and their abilities. Do not worry as, with one Word, I can stop this. They seem to have a great start at this illusion, but it is nothing compared to what I am about to do. Now, the enemy also understands the times. As a result, they move swiftly.

"Do not be alarmed at the news you hear. Be more alarmed at what news you do not hear so pray. What you do hear of is a distraction away from their wicked plans made in secret. Now, I can send a flood to a desert city who plots evil. When I move, the floods come faster than they can save themselves. When I shake the Earth, it comes with no warning. Mountains fall and the ground splits. Who can stop Me when I move?

"When I call upon a tempest in the sea and stir it up and hurl it to land, even with warning, some fail to heed the call to take shelter and they are caught unaware. Then who dials up the sun and sends the scorching heat, drying up the water and sending fires to the forests.

"Man then says ignore God's Wrath as we will control the rains and send in the locusts to anger God and answer our own prayers in our own power. Well, this will NOT go well for them. Understand this… they have wicked plans to send out locusts. They have wicked plans to burn up the landscape, the harvest fields, the livestock, the forests and the cities."

Me: "Locusts are drones then?"

Jesus: "They are locusts meant to kill people."

Me: "So, what do we do?"

Jesus: "Pray. I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if I told you. Be strong and courageous, Erin. Do not worry. One day soon, you will search for the wicked and they will be gone from your sight. I love you and I see. I am fully aware. Rejoice as I am God!"

Dream over.

815 – His Good Fruit will prosper on His Tree

Received on Sunday, May 26, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for giving me breath. Thank You for Your Holy Spirit. Thank You for my hidden language, my speech in tongues. This is a mystery of all mysteries, so thank You. I experienced breakthroughs last week. I believe You activated angels concerning these episodes of my Holy Spirit communing with You. Thank You, Father.

It has been a difficult last few weeks. Our kids have been under attacks at work. My husband has experienced great attacks against his sales. He has had a massive drought in closing contacts. With me, I have been experiencing swelling in my hands and feet and troubles with asthma and exhaustion. I have been extremely tired and I believe that a lot of this is from my cancer.

We have had some miracles in the midst of all this too. This is such a blessing. When you are going through these battles, it is nice to see victories, especially with answers to prayers. As for my daughter, she has been written up twice in the last two weeks for being just one minute late at work due to road construction. There was no grace given to her even though she has stayed late numerous times whenever management asked.

Not only that, but she is the top leader in this store for sales and performance overall. However, instead of being rewarded, there is a constant culture of fear of punishment as an over-arching theme. Needless to say, my daughter has her resume prepared and is searching for new opportunities.

She then had some breakthroughs this week, all within a 12-hour period. All of it was great news. One was a phone call and the other was received as an email. More and more good news then followed. We were celebrating for her. After such disappointments, breakthroughs occurred. Miracles visibly happened.

Thank You, Father. I needed to witness this. It lifted up our home and was a reminder to all of us that, when You move, we must move with You. We later discovered with one of these answered prayers that there was something catastrophic that You had saved my daughter from. I am so thankful, Father. Bless You, Lord, in all Your works.

In just a few short days, all of the leaves on our trees have come out. We no longer see our neighbor's home. A short mild winter has made for a beautiful spring here in lush display. Praise You, Father, for spring. Praise You also for the promise of summer.

While my journey has been tiring, it has also been so rewarding. The wait has been long and I often pray to You that You would please hurry and not delay. All around us, the enemy seems to be winning. Narratives of great lies remove truth or cause great doubts in what we know to be truth. Father, we need You. Please come quickly and do not delay. I am becoming tired of asking over and over because the wait is so long.

I was about to get out of my chair as I was struggling when I heard the Voice of God say, "Erin, I have something for you!" I then went back to my chair. I felt called to open up my Bible. I prayed over it and opened it straight to Isaiah 61. I then heard the Lord say, "Read this with new eyes again. This is for My Army!" Well, here it is, but with His Army fully in sight (that is, using 'us' instead of 'me'). Lord, thank You for this…

Isaiah 61: 1 The Lord God has put His Spirit in us, because the Lord has appointed us to tell the Good News to the poor. He has sent us to comfort those whose hearts are broken, to tell the captives they are free, and to tell the prisoners they are released. 2 He has sent us to announce the time when the Lord will show His kindness and the time when our God will punish evil people. He has sent us to comfort all those who are sad 3 and to help the sorrowing people of Jerusalem. We will give them a Crown to replace their ashes, and the oil of gladness to replace their sorrow, and clothes of praise to replace their spirit of sadness. We will then be called trees of goodness, trees planted by the Lord to show His greatness.

4 We will rebuild the old ruins and restore the places destroyed long ago. We will repair the ruined cities that were destroyed for so long. 5 Foreigners will come to tend our sheep. People from other countries will tend our fields and vineyards. 6 We will be called priests of the Lord; we will be named the servants of our God. We will have riches from all the nations on Earth and we will take pride in them. 7 Instead of being ashamed, we will receive twice as much wealth. Instead of being disgraced, we will be happy because of what we receive. We will receive a double share of the land so our happiness will continue forever. 8 "I, the Lord, love justice. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. I will be fair and give My people what they should have, and I will make an agreement with them that will continue forever.

9 Everyone in all nations will know the children of My people, and their children will be known among the nations. Anyone who sees them will know that they are people the Lord has blessed." 10 The Lord makes us very happy; all that we are rejoices in our God. He has covered us with clothes of salvation and wrapped us with a coat of goodness, like a Bridegroom dressed for his wedding, like a Bride dressed in jewels. 11 The Earth causes plants to grow, and a garden causes the seeds planted in it to grow. In the same way the Lord God will make goodness and praise come from all the nations.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know the wait has been long. I know you are tired and weary. Now, you have a Scripture on your heart."

Me: "Yes, Lord. A whole chapter. John 15. I have a ginkgo tree. While one branch has leaves, the rest show no signs of bearing leaves. I need to prune it."

Jesus: "Erin, I am the Vine and you are the branches. I continue to prune your branches so you bear even more fruit. If no branches were pruned, then there would be only a modest production of fruit on your branch. Now is the time to prune so your branches produce the most fruit.

"Do not have fear when your branches are being trimmed and cleared away. Instead, realize that the Master Vine Dresser sees the fruit in advance that your branch will bear. He then tends to you and carefully prunes what is not beneficial to bearing fruit. Do you understand?"

Me: "I understand, Lord."

Jesus: "Do you? Now, let's say that the tree is left untouched. It then either produces no fruit or nothing but bad fruit. The Orchard Owner then calls for the tree to be cut down and burned in the fire."

Me: "Does this mean that this tree is a waste of space in the orchard?"

Jesus: "Yes. Since it takes the place of a young tree that would bear fruit, then yes. Orchards are for fruit, not for show."

Me: "Could it be 'show fruit'?"

Jesus: "That is not a thing. Well then, even more than this… if the tree can show no fruit, then it is not beneficial for the orchard. It takes up space. A fruit tree was created to bear fruit, understand? Now, I know in your life that your tree has been pruned this year. Your branches here have been trimmed and spruced up. You have witnessed this completely in your home.

"Two branches were cut down and removed because they were not beneficial for fruit bearing in this season. One is being replanted and is beginning to grow. The other is growing apart, but one day will be reunited. However, Erin, where they were, they were taking the life out of the branches of the tree. They were draining the vital nutrients for the branches to bear fruit."

Me: "Lord, are You talking about vines or trees?"

Jesus: "It matters not as we are speaking about fruit. While you are fruitful, this season has been a difficult one. This is because your branch can't bear fruit by itself. It must remain in the Vine. You can't bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the Vine. I am also the Tree. You are the branches. When you remain in Me, you bear much fruit.

"Apart from the Vine or Tree, the branch doesn't produce fruit. You were beginning to wither, so I trimmed you, cared for you, filled you with good things and even sun and Living Water were given to you. Since you remain in Me and My Words remain in you, ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you. This is for God's Glory that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be My branches and part of Me."

Me: "Lord, what about our two children that are away from us?"

Jesus: "They have been removed to bear fruit where I have taken them. Do not worry as they are not thrown into the fire. They are bearing fruit where they are."

Me: "So, Lord, I will ask… please heal Your branches and grow a record yield of fruit so all the world knows we are all branches of the same Tree… Your Tree! In Jesus' Mighty Name!"

Jesus: "Give Me your burdens. I will take them."

Me: "Take my branch, Lord, and use it for Your Glory. A branch doesn't stand out on its own unless it is dead. Only the Tree or Vine stands out. People know a tree by its fruits. All the branches on Your Tree produce good fruit. We are equal and we are there to edify the Tree or Vine as a whole."

Jesus: "Very good, Erin. Now, you had an invader come to steal your fruit. I will now remove this. Do not worry. Now, tell Me about your dream…

Me: "Yes. It was horrifying…

Sub-dream 1 "Widespread Fear and Panic" begins…

People in the country were having their homes destroyed by enemy attacks. Beams of light produced widespread fires. People who fled had no place to go. It was awful.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Jesus: "Remember that I spoke to you about the enemy's desires to be omni-present and to mimic God?"

Me: "Yes."

Jesus: "All of technology is his version of trying to be God. The enemy tries to use your phones as a type of 'unholy spirit'. As you know, this phone follows you wherever you go. This phone is always with you. What was once meant for good is now used more for evil. It is a tracer and you cannot prevent the ability of this to be an enemy beacon in the dark. You must therefore rely on Me! I AM GOD and My Word is true. This is why I warned you to read the hard copy of My Word versus the online version."

Me: "I surrender all we have to You, Lord, as we know it is only a matter of time before they try to control us by force."

Jesus: "Their plans are more evil and lofty than you can imagine. Take heart, Erin, and do not worry as I have a Great Plan. Remember also that I make a way where there seems to be no way. I am The Way. Press into Me in all you do and I will make way a Clear Path."

Dream over…

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-816/

816 – The Lord Will Make a Path to Bend, OR

Received on Sunday, June 2, 2024

Note: The below dream is based on a mostly personal dream that I received earlier this morning. I am incredibly exhausted right now and this must have been what the Lord knew I needed for this moment. While some may be disappointed that He is not discussing Trump's conviction that occurred on Thursday, May 30, 2024, just know that even this is part of God's Great Plan and that He has all of this fully under His complete control.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You from the depths of my heart! Thank You for another day. I have been so sick, Father. I am exhausted. I have swelling in my hands and feet. It has taken a toll on my overall abilities to do anything. All I know is that I am nothing without You. I have nothing to offer You, my King, except my heart. I pray that I am contrite. There are so many days when I am reminded by You of Your promises to me.

However, lately, and because I am deteriorating faster than I thought I would, I return to 'maybe these are for a different time and another place'. Lord, what does it matter if we gain the world or even the places You told me I would go if I don't have my strength in You. I long for home (Bend OR) and Home (Heaven). I long for the places You have prepared for me. I belong with You, Father. Wherever You are, I long to be in Your presence. However, I have nothing to offer You except my heart.

As for the world, it is in an uproar now. My friends, Your children, whose hope is in You, are growing weaker by the day. None of us will survive without You, Lord. You are our only Savior. Let us be here when You finish writing our stories. Let us be part of Your beautiful story.

Father, You are beautiful. We have been waiting for Your Open Door. Do we stay here or do we go. Since we are not changed yet, what can we do on our own? If we sell our current home, I can't even imagine a physical move anymore in the state I am currently in. I am coming to You for guidance in this. You are our only hope in this. Please make known to us what is impossible for us.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am in you. My Voice is where you are. With your daughter, all things worked together in a day, really a few hours. I opened doors and, because one came after the next, you did not question any of this. You instead prayed. There was a few hours' delay then while one miracle was answered and you celebrated. Then the next came and the next and then two more after that."

Me: "Yes, Lord, there were several miracles in a row that could have only come from You. It was You, Father. You did the unexpected."

Jesus: "So then, if I can do all of this for your daughter with supernatural speed, then think about what I can do with you and your husband. Oh wait… I have already done this before many times. Am I no longer able to do even more?"

Me: "Proverbs 13:12-14. Lord, hope deferred makes the heart sick. However, a longing fulfilled is a tree of life. My heart is sick, Lord."

Jesus: "Look, in all your situations, even the miracle on your door, you acted in your ability first. When it then seemed all hope was lost, what then happened?"

Note: 'The miracle on your door' Jesus is referring to is an envelope I received that showed up just in time with provision for our power bill and more. Our power was about to be shut off. This envelope came just in time. This happened prior to these dreams even starting. My daughter discovered the envelope at the front door and was so excited when she told me it was there. It was at Christmas time.

Me: "Yes, You showed up. You made a Divine Way."

Jesus: "Erin, I own everything. You have kept your dreams alive knowing I am with you. Now, I am about to move on behalf of your prayers and your hope and dreams. I have taken care of You in all things. I will not stop."

Me: "I am tired, Lord. Things physically have been very difficult. Grant us a bright spark."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. I delight in you. I am answering your prayers. I don't do things halfway. I know you are sick and weary. As you show kindness and My goodness to the least of these, I will give you infinitely more. As you were kind and generous with what I have done for you, so now I will show My generosity to you.

"Miracles are coming your way. Do not worry. Rest today. In your rest, you will find supernatural peace. Be still and know I am God. Be at peace knowing that I have you and I have your children and their hearts, your husband and his heart. All that you care about matters to Me too. I love you.

"Years ago, the door was shut to you in Bend OR. These doors are now open. This was two bridges – one into the desert place and I removed you early, the other into the wilderness and the land of the trees. Erin, I give life. My Spirit is with you. Now, do not worry. Give all of this to Me. I will provide for you in this. Rest."

Me: "I will give this to You, Lord."

Jesus: "Remember that I will never map a course and then not provide the path. Nor do I provide the destination without the way or the means for the journey."

Me: "This is more than we deserve. Thank You."

Jesus: "With your daughter, I opened up a great path and even widened it and added more to this, expanding her blessing as she took My Way. However, I am not finished yet. There is more coming. She will soon be free from all her debts. Understand that, when you see Me moving in miracles, then allow them to continue. This is extreme 'Faith Building 101 in God University'.

"The same is true for your younger son. He prayed for a miracle. You had very little hope that this miracle would happen and then it did. The rest is history… My Story! Now rejoice as more is coming for him. As for your husband, I haven't even started his story. Rejoice, Erin, as it is coming. All of it. I am here with you."

Dream over.

817 – Our Fields are Ready for the Great Harvest

Título: Dream 817 – Our Fields are Ready for the Great Harvest

Received on Sunday, June 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my life. Thank You for my family and their lives and my friends and their lives.

While June is the month for weddings, it is also the month that the enemy mocks marriage and You. Father, the world is filled with broken people now. Shattered souls with no hope are everywhere. No one turns to You because unbelief has spread like wildfire and has burned up hope. Our own children are losing hope. There is no skip in their step.

There is no partner selected for our sons or daughters. Every plan is placed on hold now as promises in this life based on the generations before them have never come into focus in their eyes. Father, please don't forget this generation. While my children's hopes are in You, their lanterns, once burning brightly, are now fading.

I had an amazing dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Our Fields are Ready for the Great Harvest" begins…

I was now healed and changed. Even though the public pool was closed due to it being past its closing time, the pool lights remained on. I was somehow still here in this pool and dove into the deep end. I treaded water for a while. It was peaceful and I was all alone. Since it was late in the nighttime, most everyone else was asleep.

However, it then became lonely after some time had passed as there was no one to swim with. I swam over to the pool's edge. I then heard a Voice. It was Jesus!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here with you in the deep end. You are never alone. Should we swim together or are you tired of Me?"

Me: Crying. "Lord, I could never tire of You! I can't imagine my life without You. I feel I can't do anything apart from You. I would be lost."

Jesus: "I know things have not been easy. I know you feel alone in your thoughts. However, I know your thoughts. I am here with you in the deep end. When you are tired and weary, I will lift you up. You will not drown. You will not go underwater. I am with you."

Me: "Lord, I am ready for the time of great joy now, the time we are able to serve You in greater capacity. I am swimming in uncertainty. I am losing the battle of answers with those closest to us."

Jesus: "I understand, Erin, as I am with you. I hear it and I see it. However, you no longer ask Me questions."

Me: "Lord, I still pester You and so much so that I exhaust myself. This is the season of casting myself aside and interceding for others and their miracles. I love You with a great love. I trust You that Your timing is the Perfect Timing. Lord, I get excited and then my hope is deferred with the passing days. My body, like so many others, is failing now. My vessel is wearing out. Even our special grandfather clock You gave me now only strikes one bell every hour. It no longer counts the bell count properly. Every hour is now 'one o'clock'. Even our clock has grown tired and is finally wearing out."

Jesus: "Let us stop treading water and swim over to the edge."

We swam to the edge of the deep end of the pool. I dipped my head below water for just a few seconds. When I came up, dawn was breaking. I turned to the Lord, but He was gone. I climbed out of the pool, dried off and began the walk home. As I approached my home, I saw a massive field of crops to my left and a beautiful orchard to my right. As I walked, I was then approached by a worker (angel) from this field.

Worker: "We have checked the crops. This will be a record harvest for you."

Me: "For me? How? I don't even own a field!"

Worker: "Well, all of this is yours, including the orchard."

Me: "But I know nothing about farming or harvesting. When did I buy a field?"

The worker was laughing and whistled to all of the other workers in the fields. He spoke in a language that I did not recognize. The workers laughed good-naturedly and then proceeded to go back to work.

Me: "You whistle like an angel I know named Breakthrough. What did you say when you whistled to them?"

Worker: "That you don't have any fields or orchards. Erin, even though God has given you all of this, you cannot even see it. You don't recognize any of this as yours, but it is. We are angels sent by God Himself to work in your fields to prepare for what is coming."

Me: "What is coming?"

Worker: "A harvest unlike any upon the Earth! It will yield a record return. All of this is part of the first fruits of what you will offer the Lord."

Me: Crying. "I have no offerings to give the Lord. While I can offer myself, this is not in great condition."

Worker: "Erin, start recognizing that you are a Bride. You are His Bride. You are perfect in His sight and He honors you. Because of this, you are hated by the world as you are now and your work hasn't even begun. The hate you will experience will come with the shock and awe of your enemies who surround you. They will know they wronged you. All of us here were appointed by the King to watch over you and your house and to prepare your fields. Do you not see it? God raised you up to be who you are."

Me: "But I am no one and I have done nothing. I have failed in my accomplishments. I have had my hopes dashed. My enemies scoffed at me. They have spread rumors about me. They have destroyed me. They said false things about me and even wanted me to die. I never had great success in this life."

Worker: "Hmm…"

He whistled out to the others again and they started laughing and clapping. While I didn't fully understand this, I knew they were doing this in support of me.

Me: "Why are they laughing and clapping?"

Worker: "Because you have been used as a measure of judgment against others. You have been serving God without realizing this. Books and books have been filled in God's Courts against your enemies and their acts against you and your children, your friends and your friends' children and your husband. God has been using this to make His case and it is solid. So, what comes next after the charges have been recorded? Any thoughts on this?"

Me: "Hmm… judgments?"

Worker: "Very good."

Me: "What will that look like?"

Worker: "Fear God and give Him Glory for the hour of His Judgment has come. Worship Him who made Heaven and Earth, the sea and the springs of water."

Me: I decided to pray to the Lord immediately. "Oh God, please strengthen the people. Please grant us the ability to stand during this difficult time. Please heal us. So many are becoming sick, all of those who love You. Please let this be the times of Great Changes. Please bring us signs, wonders and miracles. Please make it so we can help and partake in this Great Harvest."

Worker: "Your prayer is good. Now, the Lord sent you a great sign just two days ago."

Me: "Yes. A flock of Cedar Waxwings flew into our trees. Their songs were beautiful. I have never seen one here or really ever in person. It is one of my mom's favorite birds next to the Kingfisher. The last watercolor I painted for my mom was a Cedar Waxwing. Then before mom died, she had been on a golf course and, there on the tee box as she looked down, was a Cedar Waxwing's red-tipped feather.

"She then took this feather home and placed it in the watercolor under the glass on the matte below the painting. She phoned me and was very excited when it happened and explained that this feather was very rare. After she passed away, I found the small painting and took this home with me, feather and all. While the painting wasn't my best, all that mattered is that mom liked it."

Worker: "Yes. While all of us are aware of this, more importantly God is aware of this. Now, come over to the orchard."

We walked across the road to a beautiful orchard. It was changing from blossoms to fruit. There on a branch were several Cedar Waxwings. I watched as one would pluck a berry and pass it to the next bird and on and on. They were sharing fruit.

Worker: "Erin, these birds are beautiful and resilient. They shine with God's Glory and they sing of His Goodness. They share their fruits with each other and they give all glory to God. This is a sign given to you from God that this time has come. The blossoms have begun to fall away and the fruit is beginning to bear on the branches. The same is over here in the fields." He pointed to the crops.

"It is beautiful here. The growth is lush and good because all of this is blessed by God and all for His Glory. The very fruits of the Spirit that God has given you, along with your talents and all God has planted in you, are soon to be manifest in you and His Glory shining upon you. God is in you and His Living Water will pour out in you. Those who thirst for righteousness will be quenched with His Glory."

As he spoke, he turned from a worker into a vibrant angel of the Lord. He had white hair and wore shiny armor.

Me: "Who are you?"

Angel: "I am an angel of the Lord who has been with you from the beginning. I have witnessed your life and have been called by God to watch over you. He knows you are tired. All of the angels have witnessed these things and reported on this in His Courts. Nothing has come against you but to instruct you, by test or by trial, to strengthen you for what comes. God has sent me today to let you know He has been with you.

"Erin, He is now in you. You are marked from Heaven as His Bride. He has sent His angels to have charge over you and watch over your comings and goings so that you are not harmed and your foot does not trip so you fall over a stone. Not only does the Lord swim with you, but He has also sent us to work your fields and keep your steps."

Me: Crying. "How much longer?"

Angel: "Changes are coming. Even though you cannot see the wind, you can know its near or here by the movement of the trees around you. You can hear it. The angels around you have increased. The activities of the enemy have increased. Many have given themselves over to the possession of multiple spirits. The Lord of Hosts has therefore removed the guardian angels over these and built-up enforcement over His children."

Me: "Whoa! So, war is coming?"

Angel: "Where have you been? It is here. The hour is late. Pray and rejoice as you are His Bride in the gold of Ophir. All will know this. We are here to assist."

He whistled and a hundred workers/angels began to cheer and wave.

Angel: "And these are special forces. They will assist you in all the purposes of God. If you knew who they have been assigned to over history, you would be in awe at their service records under God. Be thankful that God has shown you His Favor is upon you and His Love is everlasting."

Me: "I am so honored. I am grateful. Thank You, Father in Heaven. Bless You in all things."

Angel: "Now, continue to prepare for what is coming."

Me: "How do I prepare for what is coming?"

Angel: "Really? Okay, you see how incredible your field over here is, right? The crops are abundant, healthy and tended to by angels. So, what kind of harvest are you expecting based on these conditions?"

Me: "A Record Harvest… the greatest ever!"

Angel: "Pray, Erin, and believe that 100 angels of the Lord can pull off this assist because we answer to God and He does not fail, understand? If God is with you and His Voice is in you and He even swims with you in the deep end of the pool, then you cannot drown. You will not go under. Be ready. Prepare as He has instructed you to do and rejoice. We all are!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Just as I was about to get up out of my chair, I heard the Lord speak to me.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Read Psalm 44. The writer is experiencing feeling abandoned by Me. However, he is not. Then what comes next is Psalm 45. There are no accidents in the order of My Word here."

Me: "Psalm 45 is one of my favorite chapters and is followed by Psalm 46, another one of my favorite chapters."

Jesus: "There are no accidents. There is a river that makes glad the Heart of God. I am in her and she will not perish. I will help her at the Break of Day. Rejoice! I love you! I have never failed you!"

Dream over.

818 – This is the Year of Change

Received on Monday, June 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have been given by You. I take for granted breathing, walking, talking, hearing, sleeping and memory functions. Thank You for Your mercy and grace.

You are a Great Father and my Dearest Confidant. You are more essential than anything upon this Earth. You are my First Love. I pray many times during the day that You would guide every portion of my life as I give everything to You.

Father, I need help with my dream from last night. While I know these things are coming, I would petition for Your people, Your remnant, that You would have mercy upon us. In my dreams, many elements are about to converge and we are on the precipice of being in a situation that none of us can navigate apart from You. Father, You are our Sole Savior. Please begin Your Divine Rescue Plan!

In a dream last night, You showed me the plans of the enemy and his evil armies. I will write this as You have shown me. While this is their plans, Your plans are greater than all of these enemy plans. God, please help us! Heal strengthen Your Greatest Warriors, those embattled souls. We love You and we long to see You rise up. Please let this be before the enemy gives rise to this great destruction of the USA and Israel.

Sub-dream 1 "The Planning of a Summer of Rage" begins…

I saw an evil leader (a former President) more evil than any leader who has ever been on this Earth, past or present. He had a darker presence and a harder heart of stone than anyone ever to rise to power on this Earth. He had the ability to bend everything to his will. He has garnered an army from various government agencies. He has mostly hidden the true work he has been doing.

This evil leader does this with great cunning. He calls for strikes against all of those who speak against him. He hates man and hates God. He believes that he is the purveyor of all rights and wrongs. He believes that his ends justify his means in all things. He believes the entire Earth is all his. He believes that anyone occupying the land, air or sea must pay him the honor of being allowed by him to exist here.

In order to do this, all must look to him as 'THE Savior' and must obey every one of his demands. His show of appreciation for your loyalty is based on your ultimate sacrifice of everything that you hold dear. He then gives you the opposite so you are forever in debt to him and you can never reconcile this debt. You are then a forever prisoner to him.

I then heard the Voice of the Lord:

"This is the Year of Change!"

I then saw this same wicked leader infuriated behind the scenes by the continuous rise in popularity of a candidate he thought he had destroyed, also a former President. He was furious that he had not been able to remove his opponent. He has plans to serve the USA to his allies, where his allies are primarily the nations of the Black Dragon. He has also been offering favors to his allies.

In addition to this, he has been slowly removing the power of the USA by dismantling freedom and liberty. His target of removing 80 million people off the face of the Earth has now grown by many fold. I then saw him in an intel room in one of his residences. This intel room seemed like a small central intelligence high-tech operation.

I then saw an analyst map out a strategy that pleased the former President with genuine glee. I saw a list of red states (that is, Republican majority states) that were targets. However, it then became much more alarming. He was planning to chemically destroy these populations by poisoning the water and food and blaming China and Russia.

Analyst 1: "While the vaccines have modified DNA, more could be done to easily hasten the death of a population who drains resources."

Leader: "I want the Chinese who came through our borders to be imprisoned. I will use them as leverage in camps so we are able to seize back control of the lands the Chinese purchased to control the nation's food production. It is my land and we will take it back.

"We will then blame all shortages on the Chinese. It will take years before the people figure out the truth. By then, it will not matter anymore. The people are stupid. They need smarter leaders to tell them what to do and enforce this. We can control them through food and water."

Analyst 1: "We can send more drugs to kill them faster."

Leader: "While I intend to use this later, let us hold off on that for now. Now, how can we begin the food and water shortages? What about our ability to limit power and oil? Where are we on all of this?"

Analyst 2: "We have begun to shutdown almost every plant. We are on track to be 'Net O' (wherein this is the letter O, not the number 0)."

Leader: "So, this is what I see. We call on NGOs to call up their armies to strike against the civilians. Let's arrange a 'Day of Rage' unlike any other."

Analyst 3: "Are you talking about something similar to The Purge (as in the movie)?"

Leader: "No, worse. It must be so incredibly bad that the people will welcome me with open arms. Fear is the catalyst. It is time to crash the markets just like what you did for me before when I first rose. Then make it so immigrants are shown on media removing homeowners and taking possession of the wealth of the people. We will then pin all of this on the current government and the people will then have no confidence in them. It is time for Joe to go! It is time for a new leader to rise and pave the way for my return."

Analyst 1: "There will be troubles in implementing this fully, sir. There is a rise in faith. There is a rise in those seeking faith."

Leader: "This is not a problem. Burn the churches. It is working in Canada. Call for those practicing church at home, in barns or in tents to be labelled as extremists. Then have them raided and killed or imprisoned. Fear is greater than faith. This is going to be fun, boys. Watch and see that I am good."

He was so happy. The pleased look plastered on his face made me sick. The evil leader then left his 'CIA lookalike' room. A 'Group of Eight' analysts then began to orchestrate this evil leader's strategies and make calls. After they finished these tasks, they compiled a list of evil things to do. Here is the part of the list that I recalled:

- The media will cover a soon to be fabricated 'Summer of Rage'.
- The protestors in this 'Summer of Rage' will then be armed in order to look like they are taking over the cities.
- The media will continue to show the current government as incompetent.
- The media will declare Trump as 'The Last Trump", but also as 'The Last Hitler'.
- The Supreme Court will be removed.

- The polls on the November election will be made to look razor thin.
- The IRS will be authorized to rise up to intimidate and scare people. The media will then report these stories to multiply the fear.

Analyst 1: "The question is when should we attack the markets?"

Analyst 2: "Perhaps September?"

Analyst 3: "Okay, but when in September?"

Analyst 1: Speaking to Analyst 2. "You should call to ask. This is big."

Analyst 2: Now speaking on the phone with the evil leader. "Sir, we are thinking about attacking the markets on September 29, 2024?"

Leader: On speaker. "No. Think larger than this. Strike out against the Jews in Israel and elsewhere. Let them start to rethink their positions. Then give them time to return to me. In fact, this can be a great warning shot. Sound the trumpets here."

Analyst 2: "Sir, I am not sure what you mean?"

Leader: "Do your homework. Remember September 29, 2008 on the Jewish calendar."

Analyst 2: "Oh, so we should strike out based on the Jewish calendar?"

Leader: "Yes. God's festivals. We will strike out against an 'insignificant' God."

Analyst 1: "Oh, oh, oh!"

Analyst 2: "So, are we talking October then?"

Analyst 3: "If we do this, who will still vote in our direction?"

Leader: "Don't be stupid. We send fear out ahead and we make voting at voting stations too volatile. People will then not vote or they will mail their votes in. They will have no choice. The protests will then begin to go door to door and be reminiscent of last year. We will then blame all of this on Russia and China."

Once the call ended, the Group of Eight went back to work.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up to the sound of the front door closing. Father, this dream was worse than a horror movie.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. The enemy has far worse plans than you think. What happened in Israel (the Hamas attack on October 7, 2023) is coming here if he has his way. However, do not concern yourself with him as I have disrupted his plans many times. While he is confident that God still sees, he is also confident that God no longer cares. This is because this evil leader has done such a great job of destroying the people. He has worked hard to defile the entire land."

Me: "Lord, I also had another dream…"

Sub-dream 2 "The Attack on our Livestock" begins...

I saw pigs. The pigs were dead in front of several homes. The pigs had dysentery and were whitish pink with a green cast. There were massive flies all over them and the smells were putrid. People were so hungry that they were still considering eating them. I saw flooded farms. So much of the crops were now underwater. I saw cows standing in this stagnant water.

The cows looked like zombies. They just didn't look right. I could see over a massive area of the USA. I could see the Mississippi flooded. However, this was not the cause. Instead, this was an opportunity to blame the troubles on something else. To the north, I saw millions and millions of dead chickens, turkeys and birds.

Even though the angels collected them to remove them, it was still horrifying to see it. They blamed it on some other strain of something. There were mass shortages of food. Then to cause the losses to escalate even more, the evil leader called for outages in areas near these to destroy the frozen food supplies. The people there then became even more disheartened.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Oh Lord, this was so awful. When is this?"

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry. The people will turn to Me first. I have a greater plan for a record harvest than the enemy has for destruction. There is no preparing for this from an earthly position, so you must pray instead. I am your preparation. I see what the wicked plan against the innocent. I see their sacrifices to Baal and Molech. I see their blood libels and their moon god sacrifices."

Me: "Lord, it is so hard to believe that we are living in times such as these."

Jesus: "Do not worry. Now, are you ready for Me?"

Me: "Yes, please, Lord. Please move before the enemy fulfills his plans."

Jesus: "I am God. There is no other. I AM Who I say I AM. Pray! I will come with tens of thousands of My Holy Ones to administer truth and judgment and you are part of this plan. Do not worry. I love you. Greater is Me in you than he who is in the world. The battle is one between God and the fallen. We are here and they are now hastening their plans. They know. Be confident in this. I am with you."

Dream over.

819 – Names Written in a Book of Healing

Título: Dream 819 – Names written in a Book of Healing

Received on Thursday, June 13, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! You are the most wonderful Dad. You always hear me even when I grow tired of speaking.

It is 42 days or 6 weeks from my rescheduled kidney surgery on Thursday, July 25, 2024. I am scared. I love the body You gave me, Father. I don't speak life over myself or thank You enough for what You have given me. Thank You! I have been very tired lately. Everything seems to be in slow motion.

Once I thought in my heart that I was healthy, strong and resilient. I would then catch myself in the mirror… not a 'lying mirror', but a real one. I would then say to myself, 'What happened, Lord? When did I become who I am now?' Father, when will the inside of us, the heart of us, show on the outside? I have been systematically under attack in the natural all around me. It is as if the enemy unleashed all hell upon me.

Father, I am tired now and want to give up. My fight is leaving me. I no longer find joy in even the little things anymore. This life is filled with nothing without You, Lord. Have mercy on me. I am sorry for being so dismal. I know that people rely on my faith to keep up their faith. However, I have been battling non-stop. The pain I feel in this body has made it impossible for me to do so many things. I used to love to work hard, play hard and pray even harder.

However, due to my health issues, I feel like I have been failing in all of this lately. It has been years since I have had a great night's sleep. It has been years since I have gone for a hike or even played golf. I thought I would live and then die of old age. I know Your plans for me were different and greater than my plans for myself. I am just sorry. I am sorry if I didn't thank You enough for my body even though it is broken.

Other than You in me, this body has been my vessel. While I was careful and healthy with my body at times, I would then over push it at other times. When my body would then not do what my heart and my brain wanted, I would then curse it. When it would breakdown, I cursed it. I thought this was tough love. I treated my body like I was god. However, I truly have no control over what I can't see developing within me.

I can only change my heart towards it. Well, body, I am sorry for letting you down. I didn't always do what is best for you in the long-term. I did what I felt needed to be done in that moment to satisfy myself. Please forgive me, Father. I love the vessel You gave me. Is there anything I can do to heal? While I can't heal myself, You can. I don't want to miss anything. I am thankful that You sustain me. Thank You for keeping me!

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Names written in a Book of Healing" begins…

I was looking at a very large home, but really a mansion with many rooms. Many people dwelled there in this home. While the Owner of the home rarely made appearances, all the people that stayed there expected something from Him. Many years then went by.

Even though close relationships had formed, the Owner didn't give those who dwelt there what they had expected. As a result, the tenants began to pack up and leave little by little. While a few remained, there were very few of us. It was a massive home with so many now vacant rooms.

One day, the Owner came to the remaining tenants and called us into a large community room.

Owner: "Why are all of you still here?"

The Owner was being very direct with us.

Person 1: "I have no other place to go."

Person 2: "You might still do something. We are waiting on that something."

The Owner then looked over at me with a look that prompted me to speak.

Me: "I have no greater place that I would rather be. There is nothing for me out there. I want to know You more."

The Owner looked surprised.

Owner: "Okay. All of you are now ready for more."

There was a large table there with a large book. I was given a calligraphy pen, a bottle of ink and a quill with a massive feather on the end of it. The Owner called for me to write several names in this book. As I did, these people were healed by God. While I recognized many names as being my sparrow friends, my memory of these names was then mostly erased. The book then became bright.

Owner: "Erin, did you remember to put your name on those pages?"

Me: "No. Since I have lived all of these years in Your dwelling place, I was hoping that You would write my name in that book on behalf of my prayers."

Owner: "How can you be sure that I would do that?"

Me: "I am not. However, based on all that I have seen in Your house, I would hope."

The Owner walked over to the large book and opened it to the first page.

Owner: Pointing to the book. "Look here."

I walked over and there in the dedications / acknowledgements was my name.

Owner: "While this is My story, it is also your story."

I was speechless. I stood looking at this for a while. I reached over and hugged Him.

Me: "Thank You. I am glad that I stayed in Your house!"

Owner: "Me too!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Lord, my children are all under attack here. It has been more and more uncomfortable to remain. My neighbors are angry at my feeding of the birds and the little animals. You are preparing my heart for changes. My doctor has ordered more tests to rule out more cancer. Please don't leave me like this. Please remove this from me!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. The moment you ask, I answer you. When you haven't even asked, I send you what you need in advance. Now, I know you are growing tired and weary. I know the enemy has surrounded you. However, the enemy attacks from far out and does not reach within your house. The enemy likes to hold captives. I am the One who sets captives free. Erin, you are free. However, your story is not finished. There is more. I heard your petitions. I heard your confessions."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord, as I have cursed my own body, the one You gave me."

Jesus: "The body has many parts. When something fails, the others must strengthen and take over for the failing parts. Time is not a friend to the bones."

Me: "Lord, You have promised to heal me. I am dwelling in Your house. I am here to have a relationship with You and to take part in whatever Your Will is. However, I am tired now. I am sad and I burst out in tears with great sorrow at random moments. Why? Because I love You and You love me. However, You have not sent my miracles yet. I then think, 'What if You changed Your mind? What if I have worn You out.' Lord, I have waited all these years. Please don't forget me."

Jesus: "Erin, I could never forget you. Can you forget your children? Erin, I love you. Your name is written on the palms of My hands. I could never forget you.

"Now, you say that your body is failing you. I then say that I named you when you were in your mother's womb. I have made your mouth as a sharp sword. I have hidden you and covered you in the shadows of My wings. You are an arrow in My quiver. Do you think I will never use you? Did I just bring you to the land of the trees to let you die there?

"Erin, I promised that I will bring you out from this wilderness place and you will be displayed for My Glory. I will be with you. As for all of those who harmed you, those the enemy used to attack you, they will all say, 'Who is this? This one is surely God's.' They will then have no defense as nothing will stand against you.

"Now, are you ready to continue with Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I just…"

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, I know. You dwell in My House and you are never forgotten. You, your family, your friends and their families are never forgotten. All over the world, I am about to call each of you. Do not worry. Last I checked, I am who I say I am. If I am who I say I am and I am with you, then who has any success against you? They will come to nothing as they flee at the sight of just one of you. Now, give Me your day. Give Me that broken body of yours. Give Me your tired bones. Give me your worries and discouragement. Give Me your burdens. I am here. I love you."

Dream over.

820 – We are Trees Planted by Streams of Water

Received on Sunday, June 16, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Happy Father's Day! You are glorious and strong. I sit in wonder of You and I am so grateful that I am Your child. You are the greatest Dad in all of the Universe. This is a special day as it is also Pentecost Sunday (Sivan 10 on the Hebrew calendar).

I had a difficult night last night. I have been battling. Well, my body is fighting off this cancer. I have been with fever and exhaustion. I pray that I am able to get some answers soon as to why or what is at the root of it all.

I just know this much… my Father loves me. You save me from falling, tripping, accidents and other outside problems daily. You care for me. You see what is happening to me and You have a Great Plan. It will be a surprise. One day I will be one way and the next day I will be a new creation used for Your Glory.

June is the month of weddings, the June Bride. June is the month of Father's Day and the Father gives His Daughter's hand in marriage to the Groom. However, it is also the month that the enemy has struck out against women, fathers, the bride and marriage between man and woman. It is awful. Father, please take back Your Laws and the lands, the nations. Your people do not want this.

This is a war unlike any other. It is disheartening to watch the invasion of foreigners and the uprising of crime. There is also the increase in illness due to Covid and its vaccines. They attack our food supplies. In addition, the ability to draft our sons, and perhaps even our daughters, has just been passed. My sons are in that 18- to 26-year-old pocket this was passed for by the government.

The enemies of You are too much for Your people to fight without You. Only You can remove them. We are tapped out unless You fill us with Your healing strength. We will otherwise be lost here. As for us relocating to Bend OR as of right now, we can't. We can't do anything without You. It is impossible. It would take a miracle of epic proportions. With Jeff's low-income level, we would not be financed by any lender.

Even if we sold the house we are currently in, we couldn't afford to buy another home, even a condo, in Bend OR. Father, this is just impossible for us. Even so, we continue to prepare all things as You have instructed. Our children are ready. All of our hearts are ready. However, this will surely take a 'You-Sized Miracle'!

As I prayed and opened my Bible today, my Book unfolded to a Scripture You illuminated and told me this is for now. You said this refers to Your Sign of the Rainbow. In contrast, I had always thought this referred to the Temple. However, this is very clear (where everything in brackets has been added by me for commentary)…

Ezekiel 7:20a: His beautiful Ornament (God's Rainbow) they used for pride, and they made their abominable images and their detestable things of it.

When a former President celebrated the once sacred union of marriage between a man and woman, now for men to marry men and women to marry women, and sealed it over the White House, the land dedicated to God, with a Rainbow… well, then, God removed His favor and judgment came to the Capital of the USA. Ezekiel then continues…

Ezekiel 7:20b-27: 20Therefore I make it an unclean thing to them. 21And I will give it into the hands of foreigners for prey, and to the wicked of the Earth for spoil, and they shall profane it. 22I will turn My face from them, and they shall profane My treasured place. Robbers shall enter and profane it (the current government). 23Forge a chain! For the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence. 24I will bring the worst of the nations (the criminals released from their home countries) to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the pride of the strong, and their holy places shall be profaned. 25When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there shall be none. 26Disaster comes upon disaster; rumor follows rumor. They seek a vision from the Prophet, while the Law perishes from the priest and counsel from the elders. 27The king mourns, the prince is wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land are paralyzed by terror. According to their way I will do to them, and according to their judgments I will judge them, and they shall know that I am the Lord."

Father, You gave me this and it could not be more clear that You spoke through the Prophet Ezekiel about this time we are in now. God, please help us!

I had a vivid dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Transforming a Desert into a Lush Landscape" begins…

This involved a different place. It reminded me of Washoe County Nevada. I spent a great deal of time as a child there and have fond memories. While I was younger in age, it was also in a time ahead.

I had hired three different carpenters to rebuild a neighborhood with parks. Two of them arrived in white pickup trucks with no tailgate on each. The beds of the trucks were both painted with the USA flag. The third truck had a flag of Israel on the bed of the truck. It was strange to me.

I served them lunch as we discussed the project. One man stood out to me. His name was Alejandro or something like that. He was from Brazil and had travelled to the USA to restore broken cities.

Alejandro: "Many have prayed for me. God then healed me and changed me so I can be in service to God."

As he spoke, I couldn't shake the feeling that I somehow already knew him. We mapped out the valley. More friends then came to help change a broader part of the land. We worked together and God directed us to restore it better than it was. The desert places were now replaced with springs of water. Beauty blossomed throughout the valley. After a short time, it was so lush and beautiful that I didn't even recognize it.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, please help! All of this seems impossible. I have dreams of people I have never met before. Is this fever making me delusional?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are not delusional. I can understand why you would think this way in the midst of your current situation. You found a nugget of wisdom and a prophecy from Ezekiel that is speaking of your land. The nations have been given over to the possession of demons. You have been at war. Their plan is that they will not stop until all that has been dedicated to God and all that has been created by God has been destroyed."

Me: "What about the Great Harvest because of the Latter Rain? We are all poisoned, Lord. If not our bodies, then the minds of our children. Even churches are reading Your Word from other sources. What are we to do? It is counterintuitive to move to Bend OR while I am sick and we have no means to. It is not a good time to make a move."

Jesus: "When I move you, it will be the right time. I have told you to prepare your house. I have given you instructions. Follow these as it is up to Me. Last I checked, I am the Creator of Miracles. Erin, can you create your own miracles?"

Me: "No, Lord."

Jesus: "Isn't the perfect time for God to show up when you are out of options? You have been here before, Erin. Do not worry. Erin, be encouraged. I have not abandoned you. I gave you another Word for you and this applied to you and your house. It applies also to all of those who are with you… your friends too."

Me: "Yes, You gave me…

Jeremiah 17:7-8: Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green and it is not anxious in the year of drought for it does not cease to bear fruit.

"Thank You, Lord, for this blessing."

Jesus: "Then hear this one, Erin. Consider Job and his story. It was a long journey for him. His difficult events were made worse by those who wanted so badly for his afflictions to be brought on him by his sins. They then made a case against him and acted in their own wisdom as if they were the voice of God against Job. God then reminded Job of who He was and Job repented. This is because Job's heart was upright before God.

"God then rebuked these friends and Job interceded for them. After all of this difficulty, God then restored Job's fortunes. Those who knew him and his troubles came bearing gifts and comforted him. God then blessed his latter days more than his beginnings and increased his days.

"You know this because, when you were in the midst of troubles, you took comfort that I was with you. Erin, the God of Jacob's troubles was over you and you believed and asked for an outcome of restoration. I have promised you this all the days of your life. I am not finished with you. I have you. Now, there is no accident that, after Job's story, comes the Psalms. The very first book of the Psalms lends comfort."

Me: "Oh, Psalm 1 is about the tree!"

Psalm 1: 1Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; 2but his delight is in the Law of the Lord, and on His Law he meditates day and night. 3He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. 4The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. 5Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; 6for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Jesus: "Yes, so you remember you are Mine. Now, can a tree uproot itself or move about? Can it declare its fruit or can it move to a river? No. Erin, I have planted you as a tree planted by streams of water. It is well watered and bears record fruit in due season. You are like this tree. I will prosper you and I will plant you. Now, can you trust Me?"

Me: "Of course, Lord. I love You."

Jesus: "This is good, Erin. I am with you. Do not worry. Do not be anxious for anything. In all things rejoice."

Dream over.

821 – Removing Mountains and Crushing Bronze

Received on Wednesday, June 19, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

I love You! My home is quiet this morning. Everyone had left before I got up. I came to You on my knees. I am having a hard time physically kneeling. I pray that I am still able to be a blessing and that You will still recognize my petitions.

I had been cleaning on Israel's Pentecost (Sivan 6, Wednesday, June 12, 2024). This must have been a significant time as I noticed my shofar as I was dusting. While my lungs have not been the clearest recently either, I pulled the shofar down off the shelf. I then blew the shofar twelve times. Each blow sounded different as I am not a skilled shofar blower.

Even so, all of the shofar blasts were quite loud. I could see the animals running for cover in the bushes. While I am not 100% sure why I was called to sound the shofar at this moment, everything is significant to You. After this, You spoke very clearly to me. I have been discussing our situation and praying specifically for healing over so many of our friends all over the world who are suffering.

When You showed me the lights of Your people all over the world, I saw the long-suffering people's flames burning dimly. I just would have never thought this could also be a symptom in our own house. Father, all of us are growing tired and weak in these enemy attacks and with the continuous waiting.

Father, in everything I do, You are over me. You instruct me to do this today, rest tomorrow and no more partaking in this or no to that. I love and appreciate You, Father. You are truly my Best Friend!

As I write, there is a hummingbird in the tree right here in front of me. We took down the feeders this year because they were not visiting. However, here it is… this little guy staring right at me. I went to retrieve my camera, but he was gone before I returned.

The humidex is on tap for 105F today. I pray that our home stays cool. I have been discouraged because 'nature' seems to be attacking all around us. While My husband had worked hard planting beautiful, large leafy Hosta plants in our yard, all of them were eaten by deer in a span of around four nights.

Then two nights ago, a racoon broke through the metal cone on our birdfeeder. This was the beginning of a nightmare of racoons feeding at the expense of the birds. I then considered stopping all of it. However, You then spoke to me…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, an invader has come. Fortify the area. Shutout the invading army."

I then went outside and did all that I could in the moment. All of these years of living in peace with nature around us had turned. I then had to call for spider spray this year because a mild winter was perfect for spider breeding. They came out two weeks ago after we had none at all.

I was also relieved to see many dead carpenter ants. I had no idea these even existed out here. I believe by doing all of this that we will avert some major issues come summer. However, after doing this, the chickadees, fly catchers and other bug-eating birds have 'flown the coop' off of our property.

When looked at in hindsight, the enemy is so predictable. He knows that we are waiting on You to make a major move. For some reason, people I have known and dealt with for years have been mean, even treating us with hatred. Our neighbors around us continue to attack us in passive ways. These attacks still hurt though.

Sigh… I want to leave here now. All of us are under attack. I give it all to You. I recognize all of these signs because I have experienced this before. Historically speaking, You have always made things uncomfortable just before You are ready to move us. Well, we are certainly experiencing this now.

Today is Juneteenth. It is when slavery had finally ended, with the last being in Texas. Well, Father, please consider Your people. We are slaves here until You come to set us free. Please heal us and restore all that the enemy has taken from us. My enemy has robbed years of my life. Even if I could do anything I wanted to, I simply cannot.

Lord, I cannot reverse time. While I have tried to make amends, there is no negotiating with those who hate You. While they say peace with their lips, they still long for our destruction. In one case, my main enemy saw me coming the other way on a highway and almost decided to come into the opposite lane to hit me head on. He told my older son that he wanted to kill me this way because this is how much he hates me.

I had an odd dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Passing up Purchasing a Home from an Evil Man" begins…

I was looking at a large home with many rooms. I had the overwhelming feeling of heaviness. I felt the presence of great evil. This house was owned by an old enemy, a tile setter. Even though he had lost most of his hair, his money still got him young women. These women were running throughout his home.

As I walked through the home, I noticed that the combination and layouts of tiles and stone were the worst I have ever seen. The entire house needed to be gutted. When I finally faced him, he was no longer strong. He was frail. However, his presence was still extraordinarily evil and remained a powerful force.

Tile setter: "Well, are you going to purchase this?"

Me: "No. It needs work."

He became furious over this. As he stormed out, he knocked over several of the young women. I then noticed that it was summer. I turned and left. I did not look back. While I am not sure of the meaning of this dream, I do know that my stomach turned in the presence of this great evil.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I know You will not have me return to the presence of my enemies without being strengthened. As I am now, I cannot move. We cannot purchase a home in Bend OR. I cannot even imagine. While this is impossible for me, it is not impossible for You. Help! I need encouragement when I feel so discouraged. I am not even a good friend to my friends because I have no answers for them, only my own unanswered prayers.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. It has become uncomfortable in all places now. Why? This is because I am preparing your hearts to leave. I have done this before because, if things are comfortable, why would your heart want to make any changes willingly. There would be a fight. I am making it so there is no fight. You have questions though. You see troubles in the USA and especially out west. You then wonder if you are literally walking into war.

"Well, I want you to understand something. The enemy hates the children of God. He hates them and plots their death. I build up leaders and appoint them to rule and govern the land. Since the USA has great division, this also resorts in an impending fall. However, just know that these battles of division are actually a distraction from the enemy building up ramparts and roads."

Me: "Lord, why then should we leave right now? The timing seems so difficult."

Jesus: "When has time been easy? Now, you forget one major player in these wars and rumors of wars… Me and My angel army. I am more powerful than any of the enemy's schemes. Why? Because I know every plan. Their plans are to…

- Take out the financial markets.
- Empty the bank accounts of the citizens.
- Arrest and kill all those who are against them.
- Destroy all Christians, their Bibles and their churches.
- Annihilate the Jews.
- They will then kill all of the menacing tools they had used to achieve these goals – this includes the drug cartels, gang members and any other foreigner who does not believe in their god.

Me: "This is lofty."

Jesus: "These plans are all void of God. What they will use is fear. Fear is the main catalyst for control."

Me: "Please don't let this happen."

Jesus: "Erin, the enemy sees the writing on his wall. He knows. Do not worry. I will do something amazing. Even the most hardest of hearts will crumble in fear at the sight of just one of you. You know the storm is coming. You see it on the horizon. To you as you are now, and since I am calling you into this potential storm, you hesitate. You have fear and you only see that, as you are now before your enemies, you are helpless, small and will be crushed.

"Well, Erin, I am God and I have said no to the plans of the wicked. All they can do is spread lies, gather false witnesses and stoke division.

Erin, I am the Good Shepherd and I gather up and pen My fold before the storm. The little lambs are safe in My arms. With Me, the storm comes to nothing. Without Me, it devastates and blankets the land in darkness. While terror grips the wicked and they then search for help, they find none as they have no shepherd.

"Erin, you are to understand that the enemy is fully aware that I am still God over the nations. The magnitude of evil has angered My Father in Heaven. However, I have been granted all authority to do My Father's Will in all places. Remember… on Earth as it is in Heaven. I will make right all the wrongs. I will level the mountains before you and cut down their gates of bronze and bars of iron. I will give you hidden treasures and riches stored in secret places. You will know that I am God."

Me: "When, Lord, when?"

Jesus: "Do you not feel it? Remember about the wind. While you cannot see the wind, you see the effects of it. You see the signs. Remember also that I am God over all of this. My angel army is greater than theirs."

Me: "What is meant by their gates of bronze and their bars of iron?"

Jesus: "There is a historical meaning. However, in this instance, it refers to two powerful enemies working together. One is in the beginning. However, let Me begin with this… what am I known for in architecture?"

Me: "You are the Foundation, the Cornerstone and the Capstone or Keystone in the archway of a passthrough or door."

Jesus: "I knew you would know this. Now, what does a mountain consist of?"

Me: "It depends on the mountain. It is usually rock covered in dirt or soil and then some vegetation."

Jesus: "So, when I say I will level the mountains, what am I doing?"

Me: "You are shifting the mountain and crumbling it from its foundations and breaking it apart. Maybe by an earthquake like You did with the Temple?"

Jesus: "Yes. Now, in the beginning, there was a void and darkness, correct?"

Jesus: "Yes."

Jesus: "What do you recall from your art history about the bronze and iron ages?"

Me: "Well, the bronze age ended with society crashing. I looked it up online. It was sudden, violent and disruptive for the people. However, I am not fully certain about the iron age."

Jesus: "A dominating force that invades or desires to oppress a people."

Me: "So, what is this all about, Lord?"

Jesus: "I will cut all of these gates down. I will crush the bronze and cutdown the iron bars of the oppressors. Do you understand now? This has happened before. It is a long war fought in the unseen realms you cannot see… like the wind. The enemy of God's children does not succeed."

Me: "Are the demons behind the mountains of immovable forces of society such as industry, government and lofty powers? Are the demons behind the bronze such as luxuries, wealth, sins of gluttony, immorality and slavery? Are the demons behind the iron like Islam, a punishing rod to cut down all who get in their way?"

Jesus: "This is interesting and thoughtful. Over time, the fallen and the demonic spirits have come against the people of the Earth. This includes the evil of sacrificing the children into the fires of the vile Molech and Baal. However, there is much more to this. Now, since I am able to remove mountains, crush bronze and cut down iron steel bars, who is greater?"

Me: "Of course, You are, Lord!"

Jesus: "Then never worry. You are not to worry as I have already done this before at the Cross. Erin, I will now finish what I started."

Note: There were many interruptions in trying to complete this dream today. These interruptions were unreasonable and enough to know that the enemy was clearly afoot. While the enemy obviously didn't want this message to get out, the Lord had other plans as here it is complete.

Dream over…

822 – A Massive Bald Eagle and a Young White Eagle

Received on Thursday, June 20, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do both day and night. You work tirelessly and never stop. You work to keep us on Your Path.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Massive Bald Eagle and a Young White Eagle " begins…

Our home was now situations on the upslope of a steep hill. The hill was shaped like a wave and our home was on a crest. The hill was solid ground. I was walking up the hill to our home and, to my right, there were some tall eucalyptus trees. This was odd as they are not indigenous to our area. On one branch, I spotted a young eagle with white feathers. As it stared at me, I noticed how beautiful it was.

Just then, a massive bald eagle flew onto the branch right next to the young eagle. I saw the large eagle extend its left wing and wrap it around the young eagle. Until the parent eagle arrived, I had no idea how small the young eagle was. I was captivated by the sight of both of them together.

I then quickly realized that a storm was rapidly approaching. The large eagle moved the little eagle closer to it. They then moved into the trunk of the tree. As I looked toward our house, I noticed that a wall of black clouds and strong pervasive winds were moving towards us. I could see our children waving for us to hurry. We made it inside just before the storm hit. The entire area was blanketed by these black clouds.

While we were now back inside our safe home, I saw that the other homes around us were not safe and had been swallowed up by this storm. As a result of this storm, the dwellers of these homes had now abandoned their homes. I then noticed that it took three days for the storm to blow over. All the homes were destroyed around us. What was very odd was that the trees around us were not affected at all by the storm.

I then looked up at the unharmed eucalyptus trees. I was so happy as the parent eagle and the small eagle were still perched there safely on the same branch. They had weathered the storm together. I then noticed that it was summer.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, this dream seemed more like an economic storm only because it affected the homes and not the trees. However, I am not sure. If this was a warning, please advise all of us as to how we should prepare.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. This storm is coming and you are wise in your dream interpretations."

Me: "I do not understand how the house ended up on the crest of a hill."

Jesus: "Your home was on solid rock. The hill looked like a wave of the ocean. You were positioned on the very crest of the hill overlooking the entire area. For three days, darkness came with thick clouds, a storm that did not bring rain, yet produced the effects on homes like a tornado. The owners then abandoned their homes."

Me: "Could this mean that the banks called in their notes?"

Jesus: "While it could mean this, remember that the homes were destroyed. Now, what else did you notice?"

Me: "Eucalyptus trees, a massive bald eagle and a young white eagle. I could not tell if the bird was a fledgling or what it represented. Maybe the elements in this dream represented countries. Maybe the eucalyptus represented Australia. Maybe the massive Bald Eagle represented the USA. Maybe the young white eagle represented another country being covered by the USA during the storm. Maybe this was Israel."

Jesus: "Interesting. You are right about the dream being a warning. However, since I am the Bald Eagle, I then cover my fledglings under My wing during the storm. I do this so that nothing comes against it, understand?"

Me: "How can we prepare, Lord?"

Jesus: "Do not worry. I have you."

Me: "Lord, my chest was just tightened and I felt a strong drop."

Jesus: "The enemy has attacked the people of the land. Many are displaying these effects. You are one, Erin. To Me, you are a measure and gauge. You are Mine. Do not worry when you feel as you do. I have a Great Plan and great will be your joy."

Me: "There is so much up in the air right now, Lord… just not us!"

Jesus: "That was funny! Now, can you trust Me a bit longer?"

Me: "Of course. What is 'a bit longer'?"

Jesus: "Shorter than you expect, but not today."

Me: "Lord, please keep us cool during this heatwave."

Jesus: "I will. Do not worry. I am with you."

Me: "Lord, I rejoice over You like David in Psalm 103. I learned recently that starting each day with Psalm 119:33-40, also known as the Hebrew Letter 'HE' chapter, is good for those who read this…

Psalm 119:33-40: HE! 33Teach me, O Lord, the way of Your Statutes; and I will keep it to the end. 34Give me understanding, that I may keep Your Law and observe it with my whole heart. 35Lead me in the path of Your Commandments, for I delight in it. 36Incline my heart to Your Testimonies, and not to selfish gain! 37Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things; and give me life in Your Ways. 38Confirm to Your servant Your Promise, that You may be feared. 39Turn away the reproach that I dread, for Your Rules are good. 40Behold, I long for Your Precepts; in Your Righteousness give me life!

Jesus: "You must know this. 'My Word is a Lamp unto your feet and a Light unto your path.' Seldom does anyone go to a different Scripture than the ones that are favored. Yet by only addressing certain ones, critical ones are then ignored."

Me: "I am guilty of this, Lord. Psalm 119 is long and I must admit that I skip to verse 105 as You just quoted it (Psalm 119:105)."

Jesus: "This is a great Word. However, if you long for more after all of these years, then look at keys in My Word that unlock hidden doors. They are in plain sight. The chapter you speak of is good. The letter itself is familiar to you. It is the one that represents Me and gives you the keys to unlock mysteries."

Me: "The Hebrew letter 'HE' looks like a doorway and the top of it looks like a key stone."

Jesus: "Interesting observations. There are no accidents here. So, what did you learn?"

Me: "There are Eight Principles in Psalm 119:33-40…

- Teach me, Lord.
- Give me understanding to keep Your Law and observe with my whole heart.
- Lead me in Your Commandments.
- Incline my heart to Your Testimonies and not selfish gain.
- Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things and give me life in Your Ways.
- Confirm to Your servant Your Promise that You may be feared.
- Turn away the reproach that I dread for Your Rules are good.
- Behold, I long for Your Precepts and give me life in Your Righteousness.

"I feel like this is greater than the Prayer of Jabez!"

Jesus: "Jabez was a key to unlock a hidden door. However, and as with all things, if the keys are not used, then even the door fades away."

Me: "I loved that Scripture (1 Chronicles 4:10)."

Jesus: "The story of Jabez was a good example of a rejected son who was consistently reminded that he bore his mother great pain. Even his name was a label of this and he could not escape it. That is until Jabez turned to God one day and said…

"Oh, that You would bless me indeed and expand my territory, that Your hand would be with me and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain."

"God not only then granted him what he requested, but even more than he had asked for. One day, you will hear his testimony and recognize parts of your own in his. For many years, you prayed this and your troubles instead became worse. You then stopped looking at that Scripture because you thought, 'If God wanted that for me then it would have happened by now.'"

Me: "I did this, Lord."

Jesus: "Then fast forward to now. I am telling you that I will multiply your blessings even more so than Jabez for this time. Now, you never know when I declare this if it is the time or the season either here or in the new Earth or in Heaven – but maybe all three. So never say 'There is no time' or 'It cannot be based on signs'. You know no more than what I have told you and even this mostly remains a mystery to you.

"Erin, it is better to seek Me, to allow Me to teach you and to ask for understanding. This is wisdom. This then allows Me to lead you to keep My Laws, to keep your heart contrite and joyful and to keep your eyes fixed on Me. Now, I promise you great things."

Me: "I am excited, Lord! What a great discovery! Thank You for leading me on Your Path."

Jesus: "Then trust Me that I am walking with you and that I delight in your way!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-823/

823 – His Mighty Army is soon to rise

Received on Sunday, June 23, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your love. Thank You for rain. I appreciate You so much. All You have done for me is remarkable. You picked me for this period of time to live in and I am grateful. I read this recently…

'When You placed a calling on my life, You already factored in all of my stupidity.'

This made me less critical of my mistakes and more trusting that You know what You are doing with me. I have this trust even if I only see failures and brokenness in my life. You see progress and wholeness in me. Each day, I become closer to You because only You can heal me, revive my brokenness and bring me back to wholeness in You.

You are my Divine Rescue, Father. You are my Life Preserver. By Your Grace, I stay afloat to live another day on rough seas. The God I know, the Loving Father that You are, would not bring me this far for no purpose under Heaven. Lord, this is not in Your Divine Character.

As for tomorrow, Monday, June 24, 2024, I will be going for several tests to get an update on the status of my kidney cancer. My surgery to remove one of my kidneys is scheduled for Thursday, July 25, 2024. I have plans based on what they could then discover…

- If they discover it has not changed at all, I will reschedule the surgery again.
- If they discover it has shrunk or it is gone, I will, of course, cancel and celebrate.
- If it has grown in size and spread, as many do with such a delay, I will keep the date of the surgery as Thursday, July 25, 2024.

Father, I pray that my surgery does not go forward. I pray that I am healed. I pray Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. I am scared. There are days that I forget about my illness and I think and act like all is fine. I am then reminded that I am not fine. I am sorry for overdoing things some days. I pray to always do Your Will.

Our neighbors ramped up again yesterday. They posted a video of a bear on their deck and then proclaimed that they have no garbage or bird feeder. We don't have unsecured garbage either. I have also been pulling in the four bird feeders we have at night because of the racoons. I realize that she is posting this to try to rally the community against me again.

We have no bears on our property. Perhaps you have sent bears to their property as a wakeup call to leave us alone. I don't think they will get this message though as they need something less subtle. This is evil. Of all the people who have moved in next to us, this couple just may be the worst.

I am not sure how anyone who moves into an already established neighborhood can already begin to make demands. They are trying to change everyone else's personal ways of life. This is pure evil. Lord, since I can do nothing about this, I place all of this in Your mighty hands.

I know what awaits the enemies of God. I know that Your Wrath is coming. Father, please protect us and find favor in Your servant, our home and all the Sparrows at Your Altar. I pray that we find only what You desire for us… Your Peace and Your Comfort!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left you nor have I turned My face from you."

Me: "Lord, I long for a place that I have never been. I have been there in my dreams and even these are only short moments. I long for this place with You, a place where everything is living and breathing, where lives don't fade away and hopes are realized. I know that, one day, I will go from here to there in an instant. I just want to be here to testify to Your goodness and be one of Your harvesters.

"I was reading Scripture today and I saw something to frame a season of Your coming. I believe that it could be between mid-Spring to early-Fall. This is based on the coming of Your Kingdom. Matthew 24 comes to mind. However, something in the 17th Chapter of Luke really stood out to me…

Luke 17:26-37: 26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot – they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, 29 but on the day when Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all – 30so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. 31 On that day, let the one who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, not come down to take them away, and likewise let the one who is in the field not turn back. 32 Remember Lot's wife. 33 Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it. 34 I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken and the other left. 35 There will be two women grinding together. One will be taken and the other left. 36 (sometimes left out)Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. 37 And they said to him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather."

Jesus: "Hmm, is this because it seems like the people are enjoying their normal activities?"

Me: "Sort of. However, I don't really know. My heart feels that something comes at any moment. Because lawlessness has increased and there is a hurting economy, crime is worse and people seem to be venturing out less."

Jesus: "This is a reasonable guess. However, you are uncertain about what comes next. You are uncertain of what event is the beginning and when this will be. You do not know. While you desire to make plans, all of this seems impossible to you. I am God over all things. Leaders who are corrupt can rise through corrupt actions. You then see it and say, 'God cannot be okay with this.'

"Now, I showed you years ago and even had you purchase as a reminder a statue of a woman who represents justice. She is blindfolded. However, the scales are not even represented. She is not holding them. This is because the scales of justice and truth have been removed by Me. With no scales in which to weigh fact from fiction or truth from lies, then only the opinion of a blind judge comes into it.

"Notice that the statue also has a bandage over the ears also. The blind and deaf judge speaks his will only and acts as one apart from truth. He is a god on his own because, by his lips, he can say what he wants. This is the times I have allowed for My purpose so that the Kingdom of Heaven will come and correct all of this and be visible in the nations…

- For what upsets you also angers Me.
- For what grieves you also grieves Me.

- For what you care about, then too I care.

"However, in reality, I cared first and then placed this upon your heart. They then mock God, the One who holds the power over a man's days. They mock God's children and Me. My Father in Heaven holds up the storehouses of hail and harnesses lightning over them. What arrogance and foolishness. By their own foolishness, they have been lifted up. Their foolish deeds have been edified by fools."

Me: "Lord, are You telling me that our leaders were allowed to do this because You are about to move?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I have sheltered you from all that My eyes see as so much of this would not benefit you. As for your question… yes. In order for My Kingdom to be clear and visible, would it not make sense that it becomes more so against the darkness? After all, it is becoming darker.

"Now, I want you to understand this… this week has been different for you because I have answered your prayers and petitions. You hear a good report and then you dismiss it. Why?"

Me: "While I praise You, Lord, I cannot take any credit. I just pray…"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, you do more than this. You know that I will answer. You believe and pray. There has been the beginning of changes and you do not see it. Are you so conditioned as to believe nothing for these prayers? It is like preparing a vast field with rows for seed, planting the seed, believing for rain and sun in due season and praying for a record harvest, but then leaving the field to itself. You then hear about your field receiving a record harvest from nearby farmers and you then saying, 'Oh, that wasn't because of me.'"

Me: "Wow, I never looked at it like that. I am sorry, Lord, so sorry. I learn from You every day."

Jesus: "Then pray and believe in Me for your miracles. When you pray for others by My calling, then know that I will answer your prayers. You just see yourself as insignificant to Me. Well, you are not insignificant to Me. Believe this."

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I then told you that the enemy was encircling and fortifying their positions. Well, it just so happens 'I know a guy' (I loved this) who holds lightning in His fist. He has thunder at His feet. Hailstones are stored about Him and are awaiting His command. So, what do you say… shall you make the call?"

Me: "You are so funny, Lord. I know that You harness the winds as well. I will pray that Your judgment humbles the prideful and turns them back to You. I pray that my enemies would apologize and stop their attacks."

Jesus: "You are thinking small. Erin, you will be like a son of Jacob. I will send you out with others. Those who are evil will flee. Those whom long to be healed and changed will cry out for God. I will hear their cries. I will turn My face towards them.

"Now, I have charges against the arrogant Chaldeans. They have paralyzed the law and justice never goes forth. As you know, the wicked surround the righteous and justice goes forth perverted. I raised up the Chaldeans. They march through the Earth. They are unbridled. They are a bitter people. They seize dwellings and properties not their own.

"Their horses are swift. They are dreaded and fearsome. They are a violent people and gather up captives. They mock the kings and leaders of the nations. They invade and remove power for themselves. They devour and move across the Earth. I see their guilt as they seize plunder for their god. Woe to the Chaldeans."

Me: "Lord, when will You rise? What You speak of seems directly from Habakkuk. Lord, the peoples of the Earth are like chaff. Our days are numbered and we are small. This is my prayer, Lord…

"Lord, well up in us, transform us, strengthen us and heal us. Make us better than we were in our youth. Go before us. Send angels to be with us. Train us in the ways we should go. We pray for all of this in Your Mighty Name, Jesus!"

Jesus: "Your prayer is good. I wanted you to understand that I see all things. Give Me your days and do not worry. I am with you. Before Me, there is no other god. I love you!"

Me: "Let Your Kingdom come, let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven!"

Jesus: "Believe this, Erin. I am with you."

Dream over.

824 – Everything is about to change!

Received on Thursday, June 27, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! (After a long pause) No, really, thank You! Thank You for another day! Thank You for birds, animals and the beauty around us. I have been watching birds my whole life. While I hadn't considered myself to be a 'birder', I must be. After all of these years, I must be a 'backyard birder'. Over the years, I have seen my little friends come and go. I have watched them grow from fledglings to adults to flying away.

I have seen parent birds teaching their little ones how to eat and forage. I have then seen these parent birds no longer return. Even so, generation after generation come back to our yard. A few of the regulars have stayed. It is like our Nest Sparrows. While many of us have been together as a community for over a decade now, many have come and gone. Perhaps they are not as interested in the seed I have put outside.

Perhaps they have found better seed elsewhere. Those who have stayed have grown with me. We have watched all of our children, and for some even their grandchildren, grow up and begin to leave their nests. It is bittersweet as time continues to come and go. Together here, we have experienced the joys of healing miracles and love blossoming (a shoutout to lovebirds Patrick & Redbird)!

Yes, we have seen friends not only bonded here forever, but also for eternity. We have even rejoiced with each other's milestones. There have been new jobs, new moves, graduations and even a few weddings. Then there is the bittersweet part of this journey of feathered and non-feathered friends. There are those we miss and some we will not see again here on Earth.

There are those who have been alone without hope after a loved one has moved on or a child has passed. With all things in life, as in death, there is a time for every season under Heaven. I think about my times here in the land of thick trees with great fondness. My memories are burned into my heart and I am grateful, Father.

I just know that every bird or animal or Nest Sparrow who has come and gone here that I will one day meet them again in Heaven. Being a birder and small animal watching 'disciple' of Jesus, loving what You have created is a big lesson and sometimes even a lesson and exercise in grief. However, I don't want to reflect on the sorrows I have experienced at my birdfeeders and around us.

As with all things in life, events are analogies to Your plans. A broken heart is an exercise in farming. The soil is tilled (our hearts stirred) and the field made fertile by God through our pain and all prepared for the seeds of repentance. Once planted, God must then take things from there. The farmer must trust the Lord for the things he cannot produce. This includes the arrival of sunshine and rain in due season.

A broken heart gifted to You is one that grows from the seeds of repentance. What springs forth from the soil is unrecognizable, useful and beautiful to You. I have no strength to make this next journey on my own, Father. Like a migratory bird that eventually doesn't return to the place of its home, I see no way forward on my own. You speak to me through dreams and through Your Words. I will trust in You, Father.

I had a very vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Fixing of the Belltowers" begins…

I have not had a dream in a while with such strong edges and clear colors. I was with four friends. While I don't recall who they were, we were close. While one might have been my daughter, I am not sure. We were all young and in a distant city. We were to visit a massive cathedral made of stone with beautiful stained-glass windows. It was situated on a steep hill. It was an incline reminiscent of the streets of San Francisco.

When we arrived, I was driving the car we currently own. My friends exited and stood at the front of the church while I parked across the four-lane street. They were all waving at me to hurry. However, as I began to cross, I realized that my cross-body bag was too full and way too heavy. I turned back to my car and opened the hatchback.

Me: Yelling over to my friends. "Wait for me."

Friend 1: "Erin, leave it behind."

Friend 2: "Yeah! Who cares?"

Friend 3: "Leave it."

I could tell that all of them were growing impatient. I unzipped my bag and looked inside. It contained items that were truly unnecessary. There was a hammer, a screwdriver, a staple remover claw, a small stapler and some other items. While I knew that they were all mine, they were totally meaningless and heavy. I took them out of my bag and stuffed them all in a side well in my trunk.

When I finally got down to it, I was just keeping my keys and my wallet. The bag was a whole new thing to me. I wondered why I hadn't done this a long time ago. The bag was now a different bag with a different purpose. My friends cheered as I closed the hatch and locked the car. We met up and went inside this beautiful church. There were two sets of doors: The outer doors with a small vestibule and then the inner doors.

There was a notice on the door stating that the church was no longer a functioning place of worship. At the base of the notice was a city ordinance number. We then walked into the reception hall. It was massive. There were venders selling antiques and other items from the church. They were also selling candlesticks, vessels and pews, as well as items the church must have used for weddings and receptions.

Man: Coming over to us. "How may I help you?"

Me: "We would like to go into the sanctuary."

Man: "It is not safe. As you know, it was set on fire and destroyed. It is no longer a place of worship. Instead, it is a house of pain and mourning."

We all looked at each other and nodded.

Me: "Well, we would still like to go inside. Do you mind?"

Man: "I can let you in as long as you are not in the act of prayer. In addition, you cannot go up to the belltower. This is off limits."

The man then took out a massive lock and chained off the front of the entrance to the sanctuary. When we entered, the whole place was dark and blackened from fire. After the man closed the door behind us, we went to work. In a matter of seconds, the entire place was restored. Light streamed in from the windows. The massive belltower was then restored.

Friend 1: "Okay, it is almost time. Is everyone ready?" We were all so excited. "Okay… NOW!"

At the same time across the city, each burned church began to ring from their belltowers. We opened the doors to the sanctuary and took the two exterior sets of doors off of the entry. The man and his vendors were outraged and scared. They ran after us into the sanctuary and began to weep and drop to their knees.

Man: "We will be killed for this."

Me: "No, you won't. Every church has been restored in this city. All of the church bells are ringing."

A massive number of people then came and filled the church. We all celebrated. Everything was restored. As we were leaving, my husband met me. He and his friends were at another church. We were now all gathered together and ready to leave. I laughed when we walked by a vendor table as they now had only personal belongings to sell. They no longer had church plunder. I saw nothing of value.

As we then turned the corner to exit, I saw a sterling silver miniature box with four small legs. It was a tiny clock with doors that had hinges to conceal what was underneath. The words on the small sticker label read, 'Rare. 1700s. $70'. I picked it up. It was light as a feather. I began to open the various silver doors concealing the ivory faced clock.

Vendor: Coming over to us. "That is one of a kind."

Me: "It is like an old Rubik's Cube."

Husband: "Erin, we have to go. You don't need it."

Me: "I know. I am just trying to open the doors."

Vendor: "There is a hinge. Try folding it backwards."

As I did, it exposed the clock face. It read 4:20. The vendor then became distracted.

Husband: "Erin, let's get going!"

While I then tried to put this clock back to the original way, it wouldn't do so. I could not bring that back to the old way no matter how hard I tried to. It instead ended up being a stone and gold meshed curved clock with a precision time… 4:20.

I then noticed that on the table with the little clock was a vase with three red roses. There was also a bowl with folded pieces of paper with names on them.

Husband: "Erin, you can't go back. It is not God's Will for it. Let it go."

Me: "But the vendor will be mad at me as I ruined the antique."

Husband: "No. God made it better using you. Let it go."

I laughed and then agreed with him. My friends and husband then all waved for me to follow them to the next place.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this was such a specific and unusual dream. Father, I don't understand the meaning of this dream. Please help me!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "I am here. Are you calling? I think you are."

Me: Laughing. "Yes, Lord. However, You called me first."

Jesus: "Erin, you have been grieving."

Me: "Yes, Lord, I have been. I had to begin to bring in the feeders at night because the racoons have destroyed everything. It is hard because the birds are confused. It is like how I had to take the hummingbird feeders down. I hadn't seen any this year. Then a couple of weeks ago, a hummingbird sat on a tree branch staring at me. I have failed them this year. My neighbors have taken my joy."

Jesus: "I will deal with them. However, I think it is you who have taken your own joy. Erin, I know that you are struggling. I know I ask impossible things in your opinion. However, is anything impossible when I ask it. Why would I require you to do something if I knew you couldn't do it? Am I the God who sets you up for failure?"

Me: "No. I am the one who sets myself up for failure."

Jesus: "Then stop doing this to My friend… you! Erin, you are My friend.

"Now, this dream… in this dream, you were changed. You were restoring a broken church. You took the time to leave behind things you will have no use for. This includes hammers, nails and other tools traditionally used for restoration. I used you to restore My Church to those who need Me but have only heard of Me… those who have cried out and long to be with Me."

Me: "Lord, we are at Your Mercy."

Jesus: "Erin, what you are experiencing with your feeders, with the wicked around you and the little ones who rely on you and become disheartened at change is similar to how I feel with the world. Even though I knew this time was coming, I watch all of this and none of these people understand any of what is truly happening… evil is consuming all goodness. If My people would only turn to Me and be saved so much of this could be avoided."

Me: "But, Lord, we are Your people!"

Jesus: "You are My Bride without a physical church. My Bride is My Church. But what of the others? This is what I am referring to… the guests… the invitees."

Me: "Help, Lord, as time seems to be running out. Please strengthen Your Bride. We love You so much!"

Just then, a bald eagle flew right in front of my window.

Jesus: "Erin, I love you. Allow Me to carry you. I have you. Do not worry. I have no intention of allowing you to be harmed, nor your children, nor My Sparrows, nor their children. You have spent many years studying these birds and photographing them. Why have you done this?"

Me: "They make me happy. I am fascinated by their daily tasks. What it looks like when they are discussing things with each other. The songs that they sing. How they love our place and continue to return here. I have grown familiar with them and their behaviors, their likes and dislikes. I am then excited when new visitors come.

"Over the years, four small feeders hanging from a pole has helped me wait for You. You just brought me a Bald Eagle, Lord! And now there is a male yellow finch staring at me through the window. There have been so many varieties that have visited here on their way to other horizons. Sometimes they return and You answer my prayers.

"However, they sometimes never come back despite my best efforts and prayers. This is painful, Lord. The little pregnant mother red squirrel who would come up to me and visit simply disappeared one day. I assumed to give birth. While she has never returned, her three little red squirrels now come in her place.

"I just pray that they don't become chicken nuggets to predators. Their mom is clearly gone as they stay too late after sundown and are up too early. Their instincts are poor compared to the others. They are too confident that nothing will happen to them."

Jesus: "Erin, are we talking about squirrels or something else? Always remember that I am God over all things and you are not. I determine the food chain.

"Now, I promise you that you have many friends who can't wait for you to reside in eternity with them here in Heaven. This includes saints, birds, animals and even a fish or two. I want you to relax and let Me be your rest. Let Me heal your broken heart. You are loved and, yes, you would be missed here on Earth too.

"Now, why don't you let Me care for you, feed you, prepare you, heal you and move you where I know you will do your best work for Me? Can this be the day of your release? Leave it behind and reach for Me. I promise you that I love you, delight in you and My plans are to keep your Nest near My Altar. Have joy and never let the wicked steal this from you again. I am with you."

Just as I was getting up out of my chair, the Lord called me back for a brief finishing moment. I sat back down, opened my journal and grabbed my pen.

Jesus: "Everything is about to change!"

Dream over.

Dream 825 – Surrender this Season to Me

Título: Dream 825 – Surrender this Season to Me

Publicado: Domingo, 7 de Julho de 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Today is 7/7 on the Gregorian calendar. Today is also Tamuz 1 on the Hebrew calendar. Tamuz 1 is the first day of summer on the Hebrew calendar.

Thank You for another day! You care for me and my house, Father. I am grateful. I am also overwhelmed with the many decisions we will soon need to make. There are so many things to figure out as deadlines loom. While I had clear dreams last night, they were odd dreams that left me unsettled this morning. When I prayed, my stomach turned. I had no peace. I still don't. I picked up my Bible, closed my eyes and opened Your Word to the following…

Ecclesiastes 11:1-6: 1Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days. 2Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, for you know not what disaster may happen on Earth. 3If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the Earth, and if a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie. 4He who observes the wind will not sow, and he who regards the clouds will not reap. 5As you do not know the way the spirit comes to the bones in the womb of a woman with child, so you do not know the work of God who makes everything. 6In the morning sow your seed, and at evening withhold not your hand, for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

I then heard Your Voice say…

"Cast your bread, Erin!"

What does this mean, Father?

I have been quiet lately. Sad actually. I have done all that I was called to do. Even so, no doors have opened yet. These last few days, I have been wrestling with You on the ground at ground level. We have experienced some difficult battles. It appears that we are about to make major changes.

You are crafting this, Father. However, I am not capable to do anything other than cast bread on the water.

I cast this not knowing what will come of it or if it will even come back one day to feed me. However, it is not about the image of me placing a load of bread on the water in the natural. The bread will not be separated from the water. It will instead be consumed by it or saturated with it and it will sink or float away. It will be food for waterfowl if they see it. Again, I am seeing all of this in the natural.

However, I know You mean all of this in the supernatural. Father, I am not a physician. I am unable to heal myself. By faith, I know You can. I am not a mover. I am not young. I cannot move myself. I cannot create opportunities out of thin air. Only You can do this, Father. Only You! Your daughter is weary. In my current condition, I simply want to stay. However, I also want to live and be a part of all of this.

Even so, what good am I as I am now? We are a hurting family of seven. My oldest son and my stepdaughter have already left. As for my oldest son, he is now isolated and has no hope. Father, I continue on every day. You instruct me in the ways I should go. I do this or that. While on some days I can do nothing, each day is a day that You have made. I look at each day as a mystery.

While I wake up at dawn and each day is the same, I am not. I am not. I walk down the stairs and pray that Zoey is there to greet me one more day. I am relieved every time that I see her. I then wonder if she feels the same way when seeing me. I don't know any outcomes. Father, I only know that we are Your children. Even though You call us Your Warriors, all of us are now damaged. We are incapable to do much as we are.

I then heard Your Voice speaking to me:

"Don't fight the battle on playgrounds of the devil and his army. Come up here and go over it with Me. Examine it and then battle with Me against it. Come higher."

In reply, I then asked, 'How?' I then remembered that I was in a very similar situation just ten years ago. I was caught between the boat and the shore on rough seas. It was impossible. However, the cost is now greater as we are going from a place of relative security, the place You built for us, to a place that is beyond my capabilities to move to. So, do we move now? If yes, for what purposes do we go?

Our children want to follow us. My surgery is now only 18 days away. I am wrestling with things at ground level. It then hit me yesterday. I look at my parent's lives and, without Your intervention, they will have lived longer than me. I then complained as I felt angry and sorry for myself. Here I have worked to live upright and they didn't, yet I am soon to die (again, without Your soon intervention).

I then had a series of dreams that, at times, left me with more questions than answers…

Sub-dream 1 "The Bride is gone! The Bride is gone!" begins…

I was travelling to a distant city by car. After I finished my business, I looked at my watch and it was 9:00pm. It was still light out. I now had a four- or five-hour drive home through the night to get home. As I stood by my car, the sky turned dark. However, this was not because the sun set, but something else. I then saw a group of young girls dancing in the street. They were dancing in a circle and celebrating.

One of the girls: Screaming. "The Bride is gone! The Bride is gone!"

They continued to dance. I then realized they were wicked. While I saw people wailing and crying, others were celebrating. I was now an observer looking over the area.

Me: Repeating to myself. "What happened? What happened?"

Person: Screaming. "First Israel, then Jerusalem. Oh no! Jerusalem… it is in ruins!"

I then saw the hand of God go over all of the Earth in a dark cover. I heard people wailing. Just before I woke up, I went above the darkness. I could see clear sky and others like me.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Pies Everywhere!" begins…

I was at a massive table of pies. They were beautiful. I should note that I am more of a cake lover than a pie lover. My daughter had prepared these pies. I was confused as to why she made so many of these and what we should now do with them.

My daughter: "Mom, try one."

I could tell it was her freshest pie. I cut a small slice. It was a chocolate mint cream pie with a cookie crust. It was amazing.

Me: "This is fantastic! Do you have any black bottom pies anywhere? It is my favorite."

I then looked over at around twenty to thirty different pies. However, I could not tell which one was a black bottom pie. I then became aware that we had no place to store them safely. Since we couldn't eat all of them, we set out to find takers for these pies.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I cannot remember having a dream about pies in the past. There were so many pies that I was having anxiety over them rather than just enjoying them.

Sub-dream 3 "A Coming Attack on Jerusalem" begins…

I was in anguish over Jerusalem. I felt the deep anguish of those who knew that this was really an attack on You. Father, it was so real. There were people celebrating this attack on Jerusalem. It made my stomach sick.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, my heart is sick right now. My Spirit in me is in great upheaval. You keep reminding me of a dream I had. I then wondered if I had ever written down a dream similar to this one in the past.

Sub-dream 4 "Taking the Least Appealing Road" begins…

I was on a path. I was with friends and family. My path led to three roads. It was a literal three-pronged fork in the road:

- The Left Fork: The road to the left was bright and sunny. This would be the easiest way of the three forks.
- The Middle Fork: The middle road cut between two hills. It wasn't an interesting way. It felt wrong, like it would lead us into slumber, a sleepy way, where nothing would be good or bad.
- The Right Fork: The road to the right was the lower road. There was chaos and great uncertainty on that road.

After discussing it, we then decided to pick the right fork, the chaotic and uncertain road, the lower road. We knew that God was with us no matter what we chose. When deciding, we purposely chose the road where we could make the biggest difference. In this dream, we were now young. This was both exciting and promising to all of us. We were fearless. Our adventures were now just beginning!

Sub-dream 4 over…

Father, the season of summer is here. The crops have been cultivated and are growing. The promise of a harvest is only a few short months away. The trees around us are greener and lusher than we have ever seen before. It is really stunning. This makes it a bit harder to up and leave this place, this land of the trees.

Father, am I losing You? My heart is still in love with You. I just never want You to grow tired of me and turn Your face from me. These days all seem to be the same and my light is growing dimmer. Please revive me, oh Lord, and grant me a heart of joy in such a time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Please let me not forget all that You have promised. Please do not let the enemy gain a foothold over me at all. I will walk to the waters and cast my bread. Father, I will trust You for all the days in between when I cast it and when it returns… or even if it doesn't.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry here. What is it you believe I am requiring of you?"

Me: "I don't know, Lord. I am not sure. The cancer continues to grow in me. I now have more problems. My body is fighting harder than I am. I have advice coming from everywhere. I am going for more tests next week. The news from the bank is not great for purchasing a new home. They require us to sell this home, move and my husband to find work, then revisit them. We don't have a lot of options on our own."

Jesus: "Erin, what have I always told you?"

Me: "You are with me."

Jesus: "Yes. This circumstance for you is impossible. Allow Me to carry you in this. Let us now look at casting your bread on many waters. What do you believe this means?"

Me: "The commentary says to invest your grain in seven to eight areas to eventually see a return. With me, I think about my 'giving' perhaps being an issue."

Jesus: "No. Your heart is generous. If this were an issue, I would have already told you. Now, in this instance, think of the act of sending something out in faith and not knowing what the outcome will be. This is like Noah with the ark or like Peter (then Simon) casting empty nets out in faith not knowing what the outcome will be. This is like placing a baby in a basket and casting it out into the River Nile. Erin, what is this?"

Me: "Well, there are all impossible acts of faith."

Jesus: "Yes, but it is more than this. I have given you instructions. However, you still have no idea what I am doing in this. You are struggling as you act on these. The enemy has created a playground in which your thoughts of doubt are battling the God who loves you. You are to now remove these doubts. Send them away. Erin, cast them away. Believe in Me, Erin.

"Now, I know that you have written books of dreams and words from Me and that My promises are now etched in the hearts of people over many waters. Erin, all are with you on this journey and I am carrying all of you. However, your story is not over yet. There is still more to do. Have faith. Do not let others question your direction. It is best to do what I say. I have you on the right course. I told you many years ago to bloom where you are planted.

"I have placed you in an area where I would keep you safe and speak tenderly to you. I am preparing you and your family's hearts for the day that I call you out of this place for service. In reality, you have already been serving Me the entire time you have been there. You stopped asking for Me to send out your dreams and share them. You instead surrendered them all to Me and you trust Me for this return.

"This is like seeds sown in springtime. While you have been in the wilderness, you have learned new lessons. Your children have learned about faith and My promises. The one once most lost (my younger son) is now rising up to great leadership in My Kingdom because of his zeal and faith. Just a year ago, you would have never believed this possible. Even so, now here it is and it didn't come because of you.

"This is the same with your daughter. However, even more is coming. Erin, I am gently pushing you out. Even though you have no idea… well, you know the destination… you just don't know what the journey brings. Wisdom is proved right by her actions. Now, Erin… what is wise?"

Me: "To obey You, Lord?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but even more… surrender this season to Me. You have no idea what I am about to do with you and for you. Perhaps it will return to you seven to eight times greater than what you originally expected. You are My Bride, My friend, and you delight Me. I don't sit here and think about all the things you 'didn't' do for Me. It is I who creates a man's way. It is I who makes a way when it is impossible without Me.

"This is so you know that the God who loves you is The Only Way. This is who I am. I am the Waymaker, the Promise Keeper and the Miracle Worker. Now, can you trust in anything other than Me? Can you trust in chariots, horses, banks, governments or anything else?"

Me: "No, Lord, we can't."

Jesus: "Then look to Me in all things. Do not wrestle with Me. Come up here with Me in higher places. When you feel anxious, sing praises. I have got you. We are together in this. Remember that you are a citizen here first."

Me: "Then open heavens and send down help from Your Sanctuary… on Earth as it is in Heaven. Please, Lord."

Jesus: "What comes next?"

Me: "Grant us this day our daily bread."

Jesus: "This is faith, Erin. You would have no bread, no faith, if I didn't feed you daily from My own hand. Remember to do all things in My Kingdom. There is a deeper unfolding and deeper meaning to the simplest of constructs. You found a big one today."

Me: "About bread?"

Jesus: "More than this, Erin. You have been training all of these years in faith. This is like a cloud collecting rain in a parched desert."

Me: "When does the cloud spill its rain?"

Jesus: "Elijah was sent instruction and God worked great miracles through him. Since I can trust you in the small things, I then can certainly trust you in the larger ones. With Me, nothing is impossible. You worry like Elijah. Even so, he still sent his servant seven times to look for the cloud. Finally, there it was. Now, how long would have Elijah kept going?"

Me: "As long as it took. This is because he believed in Your promises." (Chapter 18 of 1 Kings is amazing)

Jesus: "Yet he worried. This is a good read for you and a reminder of who you are in Me. Erin, you are now to give Me your circumstances because they are Mine to begin with."

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I promise you good things, Erin. Now rejoice as it is a good day that I have made!"

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-826/

826 – The Wicked's Assassination Attempt

Received on Sunday, July 14, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have. Thank You for my family and friends. I pray for their protection and blessings over all they do. We live in perilous times. Even so, You, Father, are over these times. You are over ALL things and NOTHING is allowed that doesn't go to Your Courts first.

There was an assassination attempt on Trump at a rally in Pennsylvania last night. While the shooter is dead, so is another bystander. The shooter grazed Trump's right ear. Secret Service then ushered Trump away to the hospital.

I slept heavily last night. My dreams last night were also heavy…

Sub-dream 1 "The owner asks for my help to identify evil" begins…

I was called to help a wealthy man at home. While I barely knew him in the dream, he was well-known. While this seemed as if it could be Trump (or a representation of him), I am really not certain. Upon arrival at the man's gate, I had to provide credentials. While my car was checked, it was not done that carefully. The gate then opened. There were many guards as I drove up the lane to this man's home. I then pulled into a porte-cochere at the entrance. There was a valet there who greeted me.

Valet: In a very serious manner. "Can we take your car?"

Me: "No, thank you. I will not be long."

The valet stood there in sunglasses as I walked to the entry stairs. When I arrived at the door, another greeter with sunglasses was there. They all looked like Secret Service Agents. I stepped into the man's home. The owner motioned over to me and called me by my name.

I was still confused because I was unable to identify the owner. This is because I wasn't allowed (in this dream) to get a good look at his face. As I began to go towards him, I suddenly noticed that two of the agents were 'marked' and all the others were not. I knew instantly that almost all of these agents were actually evil.

Owner: Shaking my hand to greet me. "Come sit here." He pointed me to a beautiful chair to sit in. "So, you are an interior designer."

Me: "Yes. However, I am now retired."

Owner: "Here, take a look at this offer and see if I can interest you in my project."

The following was written on this sheet of paper…

"There are people here that work for me and I am not sure who I can trust. For security purposes, they are asking for my detailed schedule. They are even asking to select my clothing. My family isn't safe either. Can you help me?"

Me: Keeping my composure despite the shock of what I had just read. "Oh, this is quite generous! If you don't mind, I would like to take a look around. This way I can become accustomed with your tastes."

Owner: "Yes, of course."

Me: "Before I do this, I would like to pray first for God's wisdom."

The owner nodded his head in agreement. As we prayed together on this, I saw three large tub bins…

- The first bin had various random items that I can't recall but they were catalogued and numbered.
- The second bin had sniper rifle parts to assemble.
- The third bin had grenades and two large bombs.

Me: "Hmm, are you going on a trip soon?"

Owner: "Yes. I travel often."

Me: Being careful not to alert the people around us. "Okay. I just want to make certain that I can have access in case I need to have contractors in. Please show me around."

The owner nodded his head in agreement. As I looked around, I saw that the place was perfect. It didn't seem to need anything at all.

Me: "Could you gather all of your staff and security in this room?"

Owner: "Yes, of course."

As the owner rounded them up to meet us in this room, I noticed that many of the staff and security were protesting about having to do this. Once everyone was gathered in this room, a bright white light appeared.

This light was so bright that it was blinding to all who were there. This light emanated from the left side of the room. All those in the room that were evil then began to confess.

The light was so bright that they could not lie. I was amazed at how many of these people were corrupt. The feet of these evil people then melted away. Their feet were then stuck to the ground so firmly that they could not run or hide. An army of heavenly angels then presented themselves. The wicked in the room screeched in horror at the site of them.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up from this dream at around 2:30am. Some of the coverage from the assassination attempt of Trump seems to have influenced my dreams. This, of course, only happens as allowed by God. I then had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Light of Change Arrives" begins...

I was packing a small suitcase. As I was packing, a bright white light shined through my window. I was packing my suitcase as I stood over my bed. I was crying. I carefully took items and placed them into my small suitcase. I then heard a mighty Voice…

Voice of the Lord: "Stop! You are standing on Holy Ground!"

I immediately fell to the floor. The light of God's presence filled my room. Time, space and my state of being suddenly became irrelevant to this moment. My body began to contract in rhythms like the ocean's currents. I felt warmth and love. I felt acceptance and joy. I belonged to God and was part of His Presence, His Light.

Voice of the Lord: "Erin! Rise!"

The light then disappeared and I woke up on the floor of my bedroom (in the dream). The suitcase was still on the bed. However, I no longer needed to take anything with me. I realized that I now had clothing that I didn't recognize. I could breathe freely again. My lungs were clear. I had changed.

Sub-dream 2 over.

I looked up from my journal to see a very large bald eagle circling over our yard. I got up to look closer and take photos. As I did, I felt a hand on my right shoulder. I turned, but no one was there. I know what I felt and I knew this was real. Nothing quite this real has ever happened to me in the natural prior to today… yes, similar, but not quite like this, it was so real. I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 3 "The Class called TO KNOW!" begins…

I was enrolled in a class. The class was called 'TO KNOW!'. There were so many in the class. I did not know anybody personally (or at least I wasn't able to know in this dream). Even though I arrived on time, the classroom appeared to be already filled. As I searched for a seat, one suddenly appeared in front of me. I then heard a Voice from the front of the class address me…

Voice: "You must be Erin. Please take your seat. Don't worry as everyone still has a great seat."

I moved to my seat and greeted those around me. None of us knew what the class was going to be about. Just then, the room became dark and the ceiling was filled with dim lighting around the rim. Our seats went back and were so comfortable. It was like a planetarium. A Voice then rang out, shaking the place and our seats.

Voice: "Truth! TO KNOW Me!"

I could hear cheers. All of us cheered. The Voice was awesome.

Voice: "You are about to travel on the Highway of Truth. Lies will be before you, but, where you step, Truth will be. God will be with you. Lies will be removed. Only Truth will prevail."

Everyone cheered.

Voice: "Time TO KNOW! Are you ready?"

Everyone cheered. We were all so excited. I have never experienced anything like this before. We were all in sync.

Just then, I saw the Earth in the distance. This was the most awesome special effects I had ever seen. This planetarium was truly state of the art!

Voice: "IN THE BEGINNING!"

Everyone cheered. I woke up.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, I am realizing the time. I am seeing all of the signs. Everything is in Your Control. All of this is in Your Control. You have not turned Your face. Instead, You are here with us. While I don't know what You are about to do, I am so excited. Father, please let Your Perfect Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Your prayer is good and I will grant this. Now, you will hear many things in this hour. However, understand this… when I arrived on a donkey and the crowd cheered and laid down branches and even placed robes upon Me as I approached Jerusalem, I did this in fulfillment of the prophecy given to Zechariah."

Me: "Yes. This is outlined in Matthew 21:10. The whole city was stirred and people asked, 'Who is this?'"

Jesus: "Yes. From there, I entered the Temple Courts and I angered those I was a threat to, those who enjoyed their ways of living, those who enjoyed their sins as 'holy' men of God. The chief priests then tried to trick Me. When they could not succeed, they decided to come against Me using the Laws set before them. They then tried to incite Roman authority to convict Me of blasphemy.

"When they were then unsuccessful in court six times, they decided they needed to have Me crucified and killed. They also needed to make sure that My tomb was sealed and guarded. They were wicked. Their plots exposed their fear and jealousy, but mostly their need for power. They clearly had no idea what they had done.

"Erin, understand that I see their plots and corruption. When I had My ministry, it was a message of peace, hope and salvation. I came to set those who were captive free from the bondage of sin. I came to fulfill the prophecies. However, this time I come in a different way… as a King and Warrior.

"Now then, it would make sense that I would allow a leader (Trump) to be the great disrupter in the midst of liars. They rose up in great corruption on a donkey of liars and deceivers (note that the donkey is the symbol of the democratic party). Do not believe what they say as they do not change without the hand of God reeling in their lying tongues."

Me: "So, the shooter is not a 'lone wolf and a republican' as they are now claiming?"

Jesus: "Of course not. This was a coordinated attack. Do not look at the speed in which it happened. Look instead to those who were behaving contrary to their duties beforehand. Who was slow to act and why? They want civil war. I hear their prayers for this even though these prayers do not reach Heaven. They would like this President (Trump) dead because nothing else has been working.

"They will now look at the defiant current President (Biden) whom they would like to remove. However, since he will not step down, they must remove him and blame this on a 'MAGA Revenge Coordinated Attack', not a 'lone wolf'. This is so they can evoke fear and draw attention away from this incident.

"They also sent false reports of a bomb squad being deployed to another area. They will now likely use this idea at the upcoming meeting (the Republican Convention). There they had hoped there would be a bomb or something to draw attention away from their plans. Then when all else fails, they plan to cheat in the election. There is one leader always there and always watching with great power (Obama). Watch this one.

"Now, I want you to understand this, Erin… I am God over ALL things. I see and know the plans of the wicked. They do not cease in doing harm. But see… I don't wait long. Erin, I don't sit back with popcorn and enjoy the show. My job is full-time 24/7, understand? I am with you in this moment AND I am in all places."

Me: "I am so small, Lord, compared to all of this. I forget that You have all these things. My requests seem so small in comparison to all…"

Jesus: "Erin, am I not able to handle your requests? Is God not capable of being God over all things? I realize that you feel small, but you are not. You matter to Me. My people lack because they do not ask, nor do they seek me, nor do they knock. I am here to answer. I care. I AM Who I Am. I made each one of you for My purposes, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "You are worthy of My Fight, My Salvation, My Rescue and My Love. If I had no one to fight for here, I would let the demons torment the wicked and I would be up in Heaven with My Angel Army in Paradise enjoying peace, right?"

Me: "Yes, Lord, You would."

Jesus: "My Bride is worth fighting for. The lost need to be found by Me. There is still a Great Harvest too… so much to do, really. Now, you are My Bride, Erin, and a great overcomer. Even with all of this, I still care about you and what you are going through. I know you have decisions to make. I have called you to hold off on surgery for now, so there will be schedule changes. Do not worry as I am in this.

"Continue with your tests and make adjustments. Continue to prepare your house for your absence, but do not worry. Erin, when you see all I have put together from the beginning to the end, you will be amazed. The wicked plot against the righteous. However, this is because they are far from Me. I am about to expose them. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you."

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-827/

827 – The Great Revival vs the Great Attack

Received on Saturday, July 20, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your tender mercies; these are new every day. Great is Your faithfulness to complete a good work. Blessed are You, oh God, in all of the Earth. It is very still outside this morning. The sky is clear and all is quiet. It is expected to be hot today here. There is one thing I have noticed over the years of living here; when the winter is mild with little snow, the following summer is hot and stormy.

Father, the birds are not coming to my feeders as much anymore. You must have sent angels to bring them to a new place to feed and nest. You continue to prepare us to leave here for a while. We had to have a contractor come to change our locks and fix our door. It was too difficult for me to turn our locks. I physically struggled. When the contractor came to change the units, he discovered that the locks had been installed inside out.

This means that anyone with a screwdriver could get into our home. Thank You, Father, for You are truly a genius in all things. When something needs our attention or needs to be prepared, You make life progressively harder until we fix the things You have placed on our hearts. Had You not given me that pain in my torso back in December, doctors would have not discovered the Renal Cell Carcinoma in my kidney.

I have more medical tests coming in August. I have a CT of my lungs. I have two biopsies scheduled. Over the years, when You have allowed troubles in our lives, it has always been so we are saved from something much worse later on. I am grateful for this. When something horrible has happened (unless it has been under Your veil for Your divine purposes), You have always given signs to us.

In hindsight, in the aftermath of troubles all of the signs were there. Lesson after lesson comes to us in many different forms. Father, it is wisdom for us to always seek You for answers. This is especially true even when they are contrary to our normal daily routines. I now know what I am supposed to do when You place something on my heart – I need to move and I need to move quickly and immediately!

At the very least, I am to begin the process of change even if I don't understand the purpose for the change. I have put off things so many times that I could have begun today until it was then too late. I have learned that we are not to put off things that You have placed upon our hearts to act upon. It could be simple or small. It could instead be huge. Regardless of size – Don't Wait!

Now, about the assassination attempt on Trump… this was a HUGE wakeup call. When we are called by You after we have accepted Your invitation to follow You, we are to surrender our lives fully to You. The enemy works hard to keep us doing the very things we were most comfortable doing prior to Your call to drop our sinful nature and chase You. With me, I immediately turned from wicked practices and I destroyed all these evil altars I had built.

I then cast off those I associated with who tried to call me back to these practices. I turned to You. Every time I found myself surrounded by the temptation for the subtle influences of these practices, I quickly changed my bad direction forward and ran from these things. You then called me to sound the alarms to other Christians who might not understand the underlying evil behind a practice and to turn away from these and never return.

Unfortunately, many did not listen to me because they thought themselves impervious to God's wrath. Over the years, especially with my two NDEs, I was so alone in my battles. Of course, You were there, Father. You have always been here with me. You have never left. When so many others left me, You still remain. You love me and You guide my steps. You catch me when I fall.

You stop me from becoming discouraged for too long. You have blessed me, my house, our children, our Nest and the Sparrows that nest with us. You have continued to be generous and love us even when You work on us. A wise man recognizes that God is working on him. He then lets God continue to do a Good Work without hinderance. As for my husband, here is a conversation I had with him yesterday…

Me: "I am so sorry for being mean and crabby with you today."

Husband: "You are just fine. I really don't know what you are talking about."

Me: "That's surprising as I have felt as if I have been like this all day."

Husband: "Hmm, I haven't felt that from you at all."

I then realized that I felt this way because, in my heart, I was crabby. I was wrestling with You on the inside, Father. I now apologize to You. Oh Lord, I am so sorry. You then gave me some disturbing dreams last night. Please help!

Before I write down the dreams I had last night, I wanted to write down some of my thoughts on these dreams. First off… these events are coming! I just don't know when nor do I know the order. I do know this though… You, Lord, are in complete control of all things all of the time. You do everything perfectly. One of the things You created was the wonder of childbirth.

A pregnant woman has contractions and birth pains prior to giving birth. As most know, you can visibly see when a woman is pregnant. You can then approximate when she is expected to give birth by how she looks. All who see her know her labor is about to begin. Since they knew her before her pregnancy, they can now know her season based on the length of a pregnancy, the expected incubation time of her fetus.

Through testing, you can then visibly see the baby. Because of this modern technology, you can even know the gender of the baby before he or she is even born. Well, we are now seeing Scripture and its prophecy being presented to us as a pregnant woman in our time… this time. What I do know with complete clarity is that You love us. You love Your children, the ones You have called.

Because Your love is greater than any love we know and because You want none of us to miss any good thing, You are willing to be tough on us. This is because You already know the plans You have for us. This means humbling. This means great tsunamis of troubles are coming. Many of us will be riding this wave. This means we will be here for these times. It is as if You are calling on Your children to pray.

What happened to Israel is a foreshadowing, a small snippet and sign, of what is coming to the USA, Canada and all of what once was the free world. It is also important to remember that the enemy and his army is also anticipating what God is about to do based on their knowledge of the Word of God and the times. As for me and based on my dreams, I see several things happening leading up to the Great Harvest:

- Great Revival breaking out in our lands.
- There is Great Hope, healings and miracles.
- Signs and wonders are on full display.

- Thousands are Transformed.
- The Transformed then rebuild broken cities and heal corrupt governments.
- All evil is dispersed and must flee to caves.
- Invaders return home in a flash and are so frightened that they turn to God.
- The enemy's evil plots are exposed publicly.
- All is made right via God's Great Hand over the courts.
- After this happens for a time and times (which is 1080 days, or approximately three years), the Great Harvest comes.
- The Lord then brings His ready-Bride Home.

Once we are removed, the veil over the spirit realm is lifted. All who remain are left void of God. This will be a darkness unlike anything before it. This is because all light will have been removed. The Beast will then rise. He will lie to the people who remain and force them to accept this religion or die. The Lord then brings a horrible Tribulation to all of the Earth.

During this time, those who remain and cry out to God, but not in curses, will be given instructions. These instructions to them will then come from God's 144,000 as they prepare the Earth for our King Jesus to be ushered in. However, there are other dreams that show a different scenario of these events as desired by our evil leaders. Last night's first dream was one of these…

Sub-dream 1 "A Great Attack on the USA" begins…

I saw the Bull rise out of the arena where many in attendance had struck him down previously. When the world saw him rise, the wicked had great fear and began to plot in advance of the Bull rising to full power. I saw angels of the Lord throwing the evil leaders into chaos in their own courts amongst themselves. However, this confusion was merely a distraction.

The table of leaders were furious because they saw all their highways and inroads being uprooted and laid waste. They then plotted to destroy the USA from within its borders in order to send a message that foreign leaders were in control of the land. I saw defiance and anger over the Bull's speeches coming from both the Red Dragon and the Black Dragon.

The Dragons then plotted revenge together to destroy the nation before the Bull fully rose to power. With spies inside the borders for the Red Dragon and assassins inside the borders for the Black Dragon, they continued to plot destruction against the people. I saw no reverence for the fall feasts on the Hebrew calendar. Rather, the focus was instead on the date of significance on the world calendar – 9/11.

Their plan was to make certain that there would be no elections in the USA ever again. Their thinking was that, if they can take down the USA, they can force all of the other nations of the Earth to submit to them. They would then use the nation of Islam to destroy the USA.

However, by partnering for a short time with the Red Dragon (consisting of Red China and Red Russia), the Black Dragon's plans would be to invade the USA after the Red Dragon sends weapons in first.

The Chinese invaders would then take control of computer networks and infrastructures like power and communication. They would also seize banks. Islamic Jihadists would hunt down citizens. They would kill and slaughter the citizens. This would cause great fear throughout the world. Hell would be unleashed upon the USA in the major cities and in the small towns.

God would then arrive with His angels and saints and also those who have been slain. They would come to revive the people and the Great Harvest would begin upon the Earth. All darkness would be far removed in fear at this time. God's Transformed would called to heal the land and rebuild the broken cities. God would turn the people back to Him. God would then gather them Home from the four corners of the Earth. Darkness would then come during the enemy's rise, Satan's rise.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then had a second dream that was much more hopeful…

Sub-dream 2 "The Dawn of the 4th Day" begins…

I saw a Great Storm, a tempest at sea, and the enemy could not carry out his plans. A Great Earthquake then came, followed by darkness. The peoples of the Earth cried out to God. While some of the cries were in curses, most of the cries were in great humility. God then showed the Truth to those who had cried out in humility and were hungry for the Truth! God then brought His Light at the dawn of the 4th day. Healing and harvesting then began.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, I woke up this morning and realized that I still don't know that much. I only know that I cannot trust in the Rapture prior to troubles coming. You must humble the Earth so hearts are contrite and ready to receive Your Good News. This is Your Show! All of this is Yours. I can only guess as I am no one. I love You, Lord. I look forward to being here in the New Earth and also having a Home in Heaven. All of this here on Earth is temporary. It is the battlefield for Your Purposes, Lord.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have had a week of reflection."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I realize that You are sovereign. I surrender all to You, Lord. Things are going to be difficult before they get better."

Jesus: "At times, I am very direct with you. I immediately respond and you know that I am saying something, be it…

- Yes, or
- No, or
- No for now, or
- No answer at all (which means wait on Me as there is more revelation coming).

"I do this so you learn to trust Me for a greater revelation as a greater plan is in place. Remember that chaos is planned. With chaos, people then miss order. When chaos comes from man, they then look to God and ask for help. When chaos comes from God, they then look for mercy."

Me: "Lord, what is coming? What is the order so we can prepare?"

Jesus: "You cannot prepare for what comes, Erin. You cannot stop what God has planned nor do you know the time, understand? You can guess. You can formulate pictures based on dreams and My Word. However, you are still not able to prepare for it. This is why I tell you to ready your heart. All you can do is prepare what I have made you a steward over, understand?

"As for a pastor, he is a steward over My Church and its people. He is responsible for the message of truth that he conveys over them. He is a pastor and shepherd over the sheep I have sent to him. He readies them there. He makes sure to sound the alarm for his sheep to be prepared, understand? Right now, the Word of God, My Truth, is being diluted. So many have chased after other gods and worship these.

"Others even worship angels in My Holy Church. Many do only that which pleases themselves. They are growing cold because the truth was made to be more of a suggestion and My Bible was made to be up for interpretation. When you read My Word, you see it and it is meant just as I state it. Believe this and pray. Pray for the lost because many of My sheep are lost and wander outside of My Church.

"Meanwhile, there are wolves in sheep's clothing celebrating their abilities to send the lost away using My Word of Truth as a weapon of distraction, not a Word of Love. A shepherd loves his sheep. He does not hire 'staff' who are wolves in sheep's clothing to purposely destroy and send away his sheep. This is wicked. The only staff a shepherd requires is one that gently guides his sheep into his fold. This staff is also used to fend off wolves.

"Erin, I am the Good Shepherd over you. You are with Me. Not one dream I have sent you is confusing to Me. When you have scenarios that seem contradictory in nature, maybe instead ask Me, 'Lord, I like this way. Let's gather all the Sheep to pray for His Greater Will to be done!' Understand that these are so you don't become too secure in one way because it is contrary to what some others say."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

My Commentary: All of this reminds me of verses 12 & 13 of 2 Samuel 24. These verses outlined the choices given to King David for an offense he had committed against God. "Three things I offer you. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you… Shall three years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land?" Could our prayers NOW be the deciding factor between "a scenario of 3 months / 3 years of enemy control and attacks as allowed by God" vs "a scenario of 3 days of darkness and then the Great Revival as sent by God"? Do these dreams often show both scenarios so that we appreciate what one would look like vs the other? I feel strongly that it is worthwhile and beneficial that we pray for God's mercy in the form of a 3 days of darkness scenario and that He then uses us to be His instrument of Great Revival in the parched lands. I feel we need to pray for this RIGHT NOW and with great urgency! Again, I am not sure if this is an "either / or" situation, just that I feel strongly that it wouldn't hurt to pray this way.

Jesus: "Now, why was what happened to Israel on October 7, 2023 allowed (that is, the great massacre of Israelis by Hamas Palestinians in the early hours of that Saturday morning)?"

Me: "I am not fully sure."

Jesus: "Then allow Me to speak. Erin, this is so the pregnant woman would be presented as nearing her final trimester. The reports given and accounts from witnesses and investigators need to be remembered. What happened even had evidence, understand?"

Note from my husband: Israel was brutally attacked from within by Hamas Palestinians on Saturday, October 7, 2023. While there are variations in length, a typical pregnancy lasts, on average, a total of 40 weeks. When you add 40 weeks to Saturday, October 7, 2023, you land on Saturday, July 13, 2024. So, did anything happen of significance on Saturday, July 13, 2024? Yes! This is the date of the failed assassination attempt on President Donald J. Trump in Butler, Pennsylvania. Only God's mercy allowed Trump to survive another day!

Jesus: "Now, the enemy even had a plan in place as allowed by God to spread untruths to the world. Did you ever in your lifetime imagine seeing this generation turn away from the Jewish people and call for their destruction within your borders?"

Me: "No, never! Lord, it makes me sick."

Jesus: "Why was this great evil allowed by the God of love who created man?"

Me: "So we would know You are about to come and make big changes?"

Jesus: "Yes. I send warnings of the enemy's plans in advance. I even have plans exposed directly from the enemy first and make public access to them. By their own lips, you know their level of hatred and their plans. So, what do you know, Erin?"

Me: "Well, the Red Dragon wants You completely removed and him to be in Your place. That the Red Dragon would have his enemies be organ donors, experiments and even his footstools and slaves. This is because he believes himself to be god over the Earth and the Sun and the stars."

Jesus: "Yes. I raised him up and he has invaded the nations by bribery gifts and purchases. He rose on the backs of the enslavement of his people and his longing for more slaves."

Me: "I also know about the Black Dragon. The Black Dragon rose from anger and bitterness. They believe that You are the devil and that the devil is their savior. They would like the whole Earth to be erased of Christians and Jews. They will then be happy. They call for violence even though they claim they are peaceful. The Antichrist comes from here."

Jesus: "Well, at least you know your enemies."

Me: "I know You better, Lord, and You are my Savior."

Jesus: "I have shown you different scenarios where you are coming in My Name to help others and spread the Good News."

Me: "Yes. I am excited to help people."

Jesus: "Focus your prayers on My Will being done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Do not cease. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem and that all those who dwell within her turn to Me. Then pray for your leaders as I appointed them… again that My Will be done. Do not worry as you are not called to pray for their evil to be successful, only that My Will be done in this situation.

"Now, get your houses in order, all of you, understand? Do this starting today. Make sure all hearts in your house are upright. Cast away and remove anything contrary to the things of Heaven. In your house of My Spirit, if I say don't allow this unclean thing or stop walking here or ingesting this thing no more, listen now and do not delay! When in doubt, pray to cast it out!"

Me: "Yes! When in doubt, cast it out!"

Jesus: "Stay strong in My Words and your convictions. I am with you. Now, you did something I asked you to stop doing. I then sent you confirmation. You did what I asked and I blessed you. This is important, Erin. Now, this might be the most strong, timely and important Word I have given you, Erin!"

Me: "My Spirit, my Holy Spirit, feels calm and at peace… as if there has been something resolved."

Jesus: "Yes. I removed your anxiety. Now, focus on My promises, My instructions and, most of all, My Words. Remember that, if it can happen to Israel, then it can happen to you where you are. Therefore, continue to pray for those lost sheep to turn and be gathered. Pray for My churches. Pray for the nations.

"When I move, there will be a shaking, a Great Earthquake, that no man will see coming nor could they prepare for in advance. Do not worry, Erin, as you are My Sparrow and Your Nest is at My Altar. I love you. I will continue to bless you. Remember to call upon Me when you have questions as you go about your day. I am always there to answer you. However, My Sparrow sometimes forgets that I am with her."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I love You. I do fail to go to You at times. I don't have alone time with You as often as I should here. Lord, could You speak louder?"

Jesus: "Yes, I will, since you asked, and this is good. I will answer loudly so you know My Voice is here!"

Dream over…

828 – The Sixth Seal, a Great Earthquake

Received on Sunday, July 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have. I feel blessed by my family and friends. Please bless them abundantly, Father. Please bless Your children today and every day. I had dreams of fighting against attackers last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Demoniac with a Machete" begins…

A crazy demoniac came at me with a machete. I was near a pile of sticks outside of our home. He was coming at me in full force. He was a big, angry foreigner. He was cursing me in a language I didn't know. I reached down to pick up a stick. However, the stick suddenly turned into something like a cross between a crowbar and a sword. Even though I was very small, this somehow stopped him. He turned to run. I then pursued him and he was terrified. I could run with great speed.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "A Madman Attacker" begins…

I was in a train car with my husband having dinner. A madman came into the train car of diners and began slashing people. My husband and I rushed the attacker. We threw the attacker off the train while we were travelling next to a steep cliff. As the attacker fell to his death, he screamed out, 'Allahu Akbar'.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Sub-dream 3 "The Grill Master & Trinket Changer" begins…

I was at someone's very large mansion. They were having a big party for some famous guests. While there was a group of us who were invited to the party, we were not allowed to enter the mansion. At one point, the host sent a worker with a few chickens for us to prepare to barbeque.

The host then handed these chickens to me. I could only get eight chicken breasts out of them, along with some thighs and wings. I prepared them with some special sauces and rubs. I placed them on the grill they had given to me for my group. The chicken smelled good to those inside. The host then came up to me…

Host: "Could I exchange our caviar for your group's chicken dinner?"

Me: My group was uninterested in this trade. "No, thank you. We are not interested."

Host: Pulling me aside. "Look, it is only because of my charity that you and your group are even allowed to be here at all. Do the right thing."

As the host said this, his guests poured out of the mansion with the intention of eating our grilled chicken. Since my group was quite hungry, we prayed to the Lord for help to also feed the host's guests so we could eat as well. God promptly answered our prayers by expanding both the grill size and the number of pieces of chicken. There was now enough to feed everyone. However, one of the host's guests then came over.

Host's Guest: "I know witchcraft when I see it. You are a witch."

Me: "No. Witches can't expand a barbeque, they can only increase the flames. Witches can't multiply meat for the grill, they can only kill chickens."

My group all cheered for me as they knew I didn't use illusion or magic, only the powers of God. As for the host and his guests, they looked downcast at me as they were hoping that I was a witch.

Host's Guest: "No! Don't believe her! We have a witch here!"

Because the host and his guests were taking this guest's side in calling me a witch, their chicken was changed to be uncooked and cold. In the meantime, my group had their fill of perfectly cooked and delicious chicken. We were now happy and full. After about a half an hour had passed, the host's guests confronted the host. The host's guests were murmuring in unison…

One: "When will our grilled chicken be finished?"

Another: "We are hungry!"

Still another: "Why is this taking so long?"

The host then went to the grill and noticed that the chicken was still raw and only smoke and a cold grill remained. He wasted no time rushing up to me.

Host: "Uh, excuse me, but what did you do?"

Me: "Nothing. We ate and that is all there is to it."

Host: "Look, I know you are behind this." He was angry. He then turned to his guests and shouted out. "Do we have any witches in the crowd to cook our chicken?"

Host's guest (the same man as before): "Yes, we do." Pointing to me. "She's a witch!"

Me: "I am not a witch. God granted our prayers. I did nothing in my own power."

Host: "Well then, in that case, you will ask Him for some fire in my grill… and I mean now! I will NOT ask again!"

He was very angry at me. I gathered my group together and we prayed to the Lord. The entire grill was then suddenly engulfed in flames. The host was then able to put the roaring flames out with an extinguisher. The host immediately marched over to us and was storming mad at what had just transpired.

Host: "Not that much fire, you moron!"

I got up and walked over to the grill. The chicken had shrunk up and was a black and smoldering mess. Even though the host and his guests were furious, I prayed to the Lord on their behalf.

Me: Chuckling. "Lord, please have mercy on these angry people and make this chicken perfect for them to eat."

I took the tongs and flipped the chicken over. It was now perfect and no longer shriveled up. The chicken looked like a magazine cover, complete with grill lines.

Me: Addressing the host's guests. "Time for grill!"

The host stormed over to me. He looked shocked.

Host: "Everyone… dinner is served."

The host's guests were happy. However, they all now realized for sure that the provision of this grilled chicken was supernaturally from God, not from a witch. After a while, the host came over to me and my group with two of his female guests.

Host: "I see that you have abilities. Well, we are now having a contest and you will participate." Pointing to me. "Well, come on, chicken flipper griller person."

Even though I didn't want to go, I followed him. He took me over to a table with three chairs in front of the crowd of guests. We faced the crowd.

The two young women from the guest list that were following the host were now seated there next to me.

Host: "Everyone, I have a gold bowl filled with trinkets. I will now allow these three attendees to reach in and pick out one trinket each."

The host passed the gold bowl with trinkets to the first female attendee, then to the second female attendee. Each woman took out a trinket. The host then passed the gold bowl to me next. I took a moment before I pulled out a small handblown Tiffany art glass. It was a type of shot glass made of green iridescent glass with a sterling silver skirt base and rim. It was so small that it almost looked like part of a children's tea set.

Host: "Now, place the object in your right hand and transform it."

I was deeply disturbed by his request as I felt doing this in 'my will' may not necessarily be in God's Will. The other two women seated with me tried first, but neither could change their object. I prayed and offered my trinket up to the Lord and asked for His Will to be done here. My hand suddenly felt very warm, if not hot. However, it was not uncomfortable.

As the crowd watched, my little cup turned into an image of a small white dead man. The crowd gasped. My trinket then spun and turned into a horse that was void of color. My trinket then spun again and turned into a small bathtub with red water and brown water coming from its faucet. The crowd was now mortified. My trinket then turned back into the small cup. The woman next to me grabbed my trinket from my hand.

Female guest sitting next to me: "This is a trick of witchcraft! This is evil! I will take this cup from you."

The crowd was in shock and in fear.

Host: "What does it mean?"

Me: "I am not sure. However, I know it can't be good. This was a message from God!"

Host: "Get out now!"

I proceeded to leave the table. My group then joined me and walked away from the area. The host was furious at me.

Host: Throwing the little cup at the back of my head. "Take your stupid cup with you!"

Just as the cup was about to hit my head, it stopped and floated in the air. I turned and took it. Just then, there was a flash of light. My group and I did not look back. We were quiet and kept walking. After a while, one of our group spoke:

Group member: "Well, that was both a dinner and a show."

I woke up suddenly as we all started to laugh.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, these dreams were so strange. Please strengthen Your people for what is coming. None of us can prepare for this. Please help us to remain children of God in Heaven so that, when troubles come, we are able to endure these troubles.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Even though you do not fully understand what comes to the Earth in this late hour, know that the God over all the Earth will equip you for it. I am with you. It is not an easy time in the world to be a child of God. Stay with Me. Do not become discouraged. I have a Great Plan and all will know I am God."

Me: "At times, it is difficult to separate lies from truth."

Jesus: "This is why you must pray to Me. Go to My Word and understand that even My disciples struggled against counterfeits. In your days and when you read Revelation, what do you believe is coming?"

Me: "So much, Lord. So, where exactly are we in the Book of Revelation? It seems as if we are already in the Seven Seals. I believe we are either in between the Black Horse and the Pale Horse or in between the Pale Horse and a Great Earthquake (Revelation 6:12: When He opened the Sixth Seal, I looked, and behold, there was a Great Earthquake)."

Jesus: "Why do you say this?"

Me: "Well, inflation and poverty are rising. The Red Horse represents death by sword, blood and chaos. This is occurring now. I now believe that the Seals are overlapping events. This means that, as the Pale Hore arrives, he rides alongside the other horses."

Jesus: "What do you believe the White Horse represents?"

Me: "Conquerors. Invaders backed by wealthy kings. I don't know, Lord. It just seems like I picture someone on that White Horse bankrolling the events and Seals to follow. There was no arrow present with the bow, so this represents conquering by another way. It seems like the people of Islam who are spreading out throughout the world. As a result of this, peace has been taken from the Earth.

"In the midst of this, the Black Horse comes to make everything expensive and to cause starvation. The Pale Horse has come. Cv killed many and then the vaccines added to this. I believe the combination of these caused great increases in cancer and heart issues. Then they are literally beheading Christians in Africa and other countries.

"There are food shortages caused by leaders destroying food. There are increasing shark attacks, as well as other carnivores attacking all over the world. These attacks have risen dramatically. Plagues continue to arrive and even the Black Plague is back. Based on all I am seeing and reading, I believe You will be opening the Sixth Seal (starting with a Great Earthquake) in a very short while."

Jesus: "What did you read this morning that I led you to?"

Me: "It was amazing! It was 2 Peter 3:8-12…"

2 Peter 3:8-12: 8But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9The Lord is not slow to fulfill His promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the Earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. 11 Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, 12 waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn!

Jesus: "You must understand that, with Me, there are no delays according to God. This is so that no man would perish… that is, the ones God calls children. With the Seals opened comes the Great Divide… that is, God's children vs the son of perdition and his children."

Me: "Yes. I am seeing this take shape right now. It is scary, Lord."

Jesus: "Do not be afraid as the promise of a New Earth comes first with the utter destruction of the old one. This is a great promise and gift to the righteous and those I have chosen."

Me: "Lord, my dreams are uncomfortable. Even though it is necessary for Your Kingdom come and Your Will be done, I hate what is coming."

Jesus: "I have prepared a beautiful place for you with Me for eternity. It is easy to lose sight of this when you are in the midst of a battle."

Me: "Lord, I have a relative who is speaking things that are so opposite of what You teach. I hear about this through my older son and it is painful to hear."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, and he likely will not change. I have given him over to his sins and he suffers from the instructions of demons. A fool and his money are soon departed – but this is only money. However, when I say, 'Fool, depart from Me, I do not know you', well, this is far worse.

"Now, many have been given over to the Black Dragon. They believe in their words from the false prophet that they are to leave their uncomfortable lands and spread out their message and claim all the Earth as its comfort is rightfully theirs. They want all Jews, Christians and others to feel as foreigners even in their own homes."

Me: "They have a massive directive that, if they see it and like it, they can take it."

Jesus: "Yes. They believe this is truth. However, what I tell you is you must leave your place of comfort and trust in Me in what I have for you that seems uncomfortable. I am the God who rewards obedience and blesses a contrite heart and humble spirit. The Ten Commandments were never replaced by God. These are to be upheld. Anyone breaking these is serving the prince of darkness and his army, not God's."

Me: "This is a good reminder, Lord. My husband told me a story about his place of work. His sales manager named Mohammad (who no longer works there) was in shock one day because my husband had prepared some items for a new hire by making things ready for him in his spare time. Mohammad was confused and amazed that my husband would do anything to help someone else when there was nothing in it for him."

Jesus: "This is because this is a culture of the sword and by the sword. They are not taught the Fruits of the Spirit nor are they called to serve man, only their god. One day, Erin, many will be harvested that you would never expect."

Me: "Lord, please help us."

Jesus: "I am here. Continue to prepare your houses like I have instructed. Serve each other in kindness. Love others as I have loved you. Do this as I remember these things and I see the work and love you show to others as children of God. I promise you that God sees this and rewards you. Erin, I see things done in secret because I am with you. This shows yourself to be Mine because your heart is on course to remain right."

Me: "I don't always feel that way, Lord."

Jesus: "Everyday when you do something good without announcing it to others, I see this. It is good to care and to think as if you love without conditions to those around you. You write in these pages even when you are tired and you wonder if it matters at all to anyone. Well, give this all to Me. You have surrendered your life to Me for My purposes.

"I know the wait has been long and the signs, wonders and even miracles are few and far between. Even so, remember the third trimesters of your pregnancies. You had joy and fear. You had contractions, sleepless nights, false labor even and then suddenly your water broke and it was time for the birth of your child (my younger son).

"All the preparations in advance of this were not in vain. The reasoning you had in preparing things ahead of time finally made sense. You were relieved and at peace because nothing was lost or wasted. Do you understand? You know things are out of your hands for the outcome as so much of what I have called you to do still does not make sense to you.

"However, you have an urgency now to complete what I have placed before you. I even told you that this surgery would not be taking place this week and this is for a good reason that you must trust Me in. I am your Divine Healer and the Good Physician. This was not the time."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I know that, one day, I will know all that You have done to help me in secret. I can't imagine what that will be like to see all You have done for me to save me from the snares of the enemy. I love You, Lord!"

Jesus: "I love you too! Now, when you hear news reports and troubling events on the horizon, do not be dismayed. Instead, understand that these have been birthed for this time. Focus on Me as I am the God who loves you. I have Great Plans for you. I promise you good things. Erin, rejoice and remember that I AM God over all the Earth!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-829/

829 – Michael and the Valley of Decision

Received on Tuesday, July 23, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family and friends. Thank You for every breath I am given in this life. You have given all of your children a Great Purpose.

I woke up from a disturbing dream this morning and I heard Your Voice. Your Voice was very clear.

Voice of the Lord: "If My people who are called by My Name will humble themselves, pray and seek My face, turning from their wicked ways, then I will hear them from Heaven and I will forgive their sins and heal the land. You will sing a new song in your land!"

I had two very distinct and unique dreams last night. While I usually write these dreams down in the order received, I was directed to start with the second dream today…

Sub-dream 1 "Michael and the Valley of Decision"

I was standing in a Great Valley. This valley was called "Decision". I was wearing a white robe and standing in tall wheat grass. I was young and healthy. The valley was surrounded by mountains with clefts in the rock overlooking the valley. I noticed that several of these clefts had distinct cave entrances. As for the mountains, they were void of vegetation and their color was grey.

Even though this was quite a grey area and the mountains had cloud coverings overhead, the Lord God sent the sun to illuminate just the valley floor of the green young wheat. However, I could see that this wheat was just starting to turn gold. The Valley of Decision was soon ready for the Great Harvest.

A mighty angel of the Lord then appeared. He was mightier than any of the other angels I had previously seen. I just knew that he had to be the Archangel Michael. He was strong and had armor like I have never seen before. While his armor was either made of Damascus-like steel because there was a pattern in the metal or a high-tech bronze, I was not sure which. His appearance was like a flame in brightness and clarity. His body features were chiseled.

Michael's facial features were also chiseled and deepened by the fact that he had no beard or mustache. His eyes were blue and bright against his tanned skin. He was on a war horse from Heaven. His horse was similar to the Lord's horse in Heaven.

The horse was large and frightening, yet still stunningly beautiful. While the luster of the horse's hair was like that of a pearl, I could tell that it could also supernaturally turn into mighty armor. I could see the definition of every muscle in the horse.

This war horse's appearance was a perfect match to Michael's appearance. I was stunned at the sight of them and gasped. My heart was now racing in a mixture of fear and awe. Michael's sword was so long and sharp that it could cut anything or anyone into two clean parts with barely any effort.

Michael: "Peace be with you. Erin, I am the angel over the armies of God. We are at war against the enemies of His children and it is an epic battle."

At first, I was stunned that Michael was talking to me. I listened intently.

Michael: "Very soon, the field you stand on will be harvested and this grass and the wheat within it will all be burned up over all the Earth. There will then be a great battle here unlike anything the Earth, the heavens and Heaven above have ever seen. Do not fear what is about to occur. This must be in order to fulfill the prophecies of the Lord. I must now go back to where I came from."

Michael began to turn with his horse. As he did, his horse stood up on its hind legs. It was chilling in the best of ways. Michael turned back towards me…

Michael: "Your prayers for Israel, God's people and the lost avail much. Continue with an increase and do not cease."

He turned and, in a flash of light, he ascended on his horse and then into the heavens. I could hear thunder. It was particularly gripping as the thunder in this dream perfectly coordinated with the thunder that was happening in my immediate area as I wrote this down.

I became afraid. I sat on a rock in the field and wept. As I prayed the Lord's Prayer, I felt a hand on my shoulder. I turned and there was Uriel. I hadn't seen him in a while. He was also in armor. His horse was grazing in the distance.

Uriel: "Do not be afraid, Erin. I was sent by the Lord to show you the plans of the wicked. Now, come with me."

He reached for my hand and brought me to the first cleft in the mountain. There was a cave. We entered into it.

Cave #1 Timeline: Based on discussions at the below meeting, this meeting would have happened sometime on Saturday, July 6, 2024. This is exactly, one week before the assassination attempt on Trump at his rally on Saturday, July 13, 2024.

Uriel: "Erin, you are to write what the Lord God Almighty shows you. When you are about to write down a detail that He wants to reserve for a later time, you will remember this detail, but will not record this until the Lord grants you understanding at this later time."

Me: "Okay."

Suddenly, we were in some sort of planning room or a situation room. The people at this table were only to take orders from the leaders behind them. I could not see these leaders. There was a screen on the wall with a silhouette of the main controlling leader over all of the government of the USA. He was a vital part of the Black Dragon and a former President of the USA. I heard a person at the table speak…

Person: "We will now call this meeting to order."

Main Leader and former President of the USA: Speaking on the screen. "Israel is soon to be dealt the final blow. We will, for the greater good, remove Jerusalem. Unfortunately, the Dome of the Rock will have to be sacrificed with Jerusalem. Remember that this is for the greater good."

While I could then hear cheers, I noticed that some were sitting quietly at the table.

Main Leader: "Now, we also have a problem here. I need a report on the progress of removing our threat."

A security representative then replied. While this person was possibly the head of the Secret Service, he or she could have also been the head of Homeland Security or of another similar department. I was not sure as this was all made blurry to my sight and distorted to my hearing. I didn't even know, by either sight or voice, if this person was a male or a female.

Security Rep: "We have an assassin. He is a gamer who our operatives have formed a close relationship with. We will set the stage. It will be easy.

It will be televised for all the world to see and they will know that he (Trump) is finished. There will then be a stonewall to the evidence and accounts. However, even this should not be an issue."

Main Leader: "Very good. I can finally get rid of that threat and we can all finish what we started. By this time next week, this will be finished. Oh yes… what of the venue's security?"

Security Rep: "Sir, we have pulled off the majority of his detail. We did this by coordinating efforts with speaking engagements with the First Lady and the VP on the same day. This means we will have 'limited resources' on the ground. We have left no details unturned. The family of the asset (the gamer / assassin) will cooperate with us so that there is no footprint that would lead back to any of us."

A second representative then replied. However, this person seemed to be part of the Public Relations (PR) team. Again, both sight and sound were made blurry to me.

PR Rep: "We can then spin the narrative that Trump caused this (the media have often accused Trump of being 'like Hitler'). We will then delay all information until after the election (on Tuesday, November 5, 2024)."

Main Leader: "Good. That is what I like to hear. It is a wrap on this. Now, where are we on Operation #2?"

A third representative then replied. This person seemed to be part of either the CIA or the FBI. Again, both sight and sound were made blurry to me.

Agency Rep: "Well, ultimately, this is your choice. There are various scenarios we can create. As you know, sir, we have another 'asset'. This person is someone known to have a widespread affiliation with the MAGA movement. We already know this person will want to seek revenge when Operation #1 (the assassination of Trump) has been successfully completed. We can either do this right after Operation #1 goes through or we can wait. It is a matter of your timing, sir.

"As for my opinion, I say we should do this immediately following Operation #1. This will create a drop in the republican's popularity polls and will subdue the mourning and sympathy for 'the former mark' (Trump). All media attention will then shift over to the now deceased President. Sir, this will make him a martyr for democracy. We can then drag this on as we celebrate the VP becoming the President. This would be the cleanest and most expedient way."

Main Leader: "Very well then. As you all know, I also have back-up plans in place. This 'American Experiment' will end with a 'Red Wedding' in Washington by September. Okay, let's reconvene after these events."

Uriel then took me to the next cleft and cave.

Cave #2 Timeline: Based on the below circumstances, these events would have happened during and just after the assassination attempt on Trump at his rally on Saturday, July 13, 2024.

I saw Trump at the podium. There were no agents surrounding him. I saw that the area was surrounded by angels of the Lord. I saw things from an overhead vantage point. I could see the agents clearing away. While I then saw security snipers taking sights on the boy / assassin, they were standing down (that is, not acting to neutralize the threat).

I then saw an angel of the Lord turning Trump's head at the very last moment in order to avoid the full impact force of the bullet to his head. I then saw several people marked by a blue light as if God had them in his sights. These were evil workers. They were there to film the events undercover. The boy, the would-be assassin, was then killed.

I then looked over at the now-deceased man the boy had shot and killed. This man was an off-duty firefighter named Corey Comperatore that was attending the rally with his family. I watched as an angel of the Lord bent down and carried Corey's Spirit home. I then saw the agents take Trump off the stage into a waiting vehicle. I then saw one of the agents at the venue reluctantly take a call.

Agent: "Yes, sir."

Main Leader: "What the hell just happened? I thought we had a foolproof plan! This fing pes me off!"

Agent: "Sorry, sir. We had…"

The phone clicked into a dial tone before the agent could finish his sentence as the Main Leader had already hung up in rage.

Uriel then took me to the next cleft and cave.

Cave #3 Timeline: The below happened during and right after the Republican National Convention (the RNC) that took place in Fiserv Forum in Milwaukee, Wisconsin from Monday, July 15, 2024 to Thursday, July 18, 2024. The conversations below happened on Thursday night, July 18, 2024, right after the Convention was over. This was just five days after the failed assassination attempt on Trump on Saturday, July 13, 2024.

I was overlooking the 2024 RNC. There was great momentum. The right side was unifying. Many hearts had changed and were now sympathetic to Trump. The angelic presence over the area was massive. It was clear that God was with them.

Right after the Convention ended, I listened into a small meeting of insiders and the Main Leader. They were all on speaker phones.

Main Leader: "I have consulted my team and this is what we will do. We are going to isolate him (Biden) and just push him out. It will be cleaner this way. We will then have no unnecessary conspiracies. Remember that everything must be coordinated as we are operating for the good of the free world. All of your freedoms are at stake. Folks, you are the change! Be the change! Once he is isolated, we will mount our squeeze campaign. Let's just say that he will then step down on National Ice Cream Day (which Biden did on Sunday, July 21, 2024). Game Over!"

A PR team member: "Sir, what about his family? What about the First Lady, his son, his brother and others?"

Main Leader: "Oh, she (Jill) will put up a fight. She has no idea what the other plan was (that is, the Operation #2 assassination). I know she hates the VP. Well, she will either shut up or find herself looking at prison time, along with Hunter and the others we have kept silent on. Draft the letter and force Joe to concede to Kamala."

Another PR team member: "So, sir, do you want this done immediately?"

Main Leader: "I already told you to do it during this coming weekend. I want you to then direct all attention towards Kamala. While the (campaign) funds will then transfer, I also have another group of donors who will bring in millions to combat Musk. That guy picks my a. Look, you know what needs to be done here."

A member of the DOJ: "Sir, what of the director being before the committee (this is referring to the Oversight Committee on the Attempted Assassination of Former President Trump interviewing the Director of Secret Services Kimberly Cheatle)?

Main Leader: "She knows to repeat nothing. She will stonewall and say nothing. It is easy as they have no power. They never do. They can get angry, but who can do anything? Let them spin their collective wheels. Give it no coverage or thought."

Another member of the DOJ: "Okay, but it will be a busy week, sir. One other thing… this is technically a coup, sir. With all due respect, how do we combat this?"

Main Leader: Nodding. "Great question. You can start by never repeating the fing term 'coup' again, understand? His family will get behind this or their futures are finished. I have so much on them to destroy them that they will continue to play ball."

The room was thick with evil. I could see demonic heads over all of these people. They appeared as transparent ghosts. They had armor on. Disturbingly, they also had a fowl stench that I can't even describe. The stench was terrible.

Main Leader: "Guys, just to be clear and transparent… I have many plans in place and I hope that the nuclear option isn't needed. However, I have others on standby if any of you fail in your efforts to protect this New Way. Are we clear here? Yes, even if it means an untimely expiration of various players."

All of those in attendance wholeheartedly agreed with him. However, I knew that every one of them was in great fear of the Main Leader.

Uriel then took me to the next cleft and cave.

Cave #4 Timeline: Future events starting at some date in the future.

I saw the deaths of many key people involved in the Main Leader's plots / coup. The means of these deaths were then blamed on several theories. In fear, those surrounding the President remained in grief and silence. The new President was then sworn in. I then saw enemy armies forming inside the USA. They looked like foreigners. They were all under the direction of the Main Leader (meaning they were followers of the Black Dragon).

Great fear over the subsequent multiple attacks then went out. I could hear other leaders in other nations proclaim that America the Great Harlot had fallen. The financial markets fell and people lost their investments. I saw a drop of 30,000 points (for context, the DOW Index is currently just over 40,000 points right now, meaning this would be extremely cataclysmic).

Uriel then took me to the next cleft and cave.

Cave #5 Timeline: Future events starting at some date in the future.

I saw the aftermath of something so destructive. I was not sure if this was caused by nuclear attacks or a Great Earthquake. Major cities were up earthed. Some were leveled with nothing left other than smoldering dirt. I began to cry at the horrifying sight.

Uriel: "Erin, God hates corruption and evil of every kind."

Me: "Uriel, I didn't see anything good here. Nothing."

Uriel: "Your directives from Michael came from God. Pray! Pray for the nation. The evil leader invited Israel today, but no one, no President or Vice President, was there to greet him. The vile leader (the former President) hates Israel and plots for her destruction so that he can one day take dominion over all of it. However, he is not in control. His best plans cannot defeat God's Will."

Me: "Uriel, why are you showing me this?"

Uriel: "So that you understand the times. You have been shown only a few. However, look around you. We have almost encircled the Valley of Decision. Only God can intervene. Come."

Uriel then took me to the next cleft and cave.

Cave #6 Timeline: Future events starting at some date in the future.

I saw the angels of the Lord and the children of God sweep the land. No weapon was formed against them, no scheme of wicked leaders. I saw cities rise up in a day. I saw churches rise up from ashes. I saw hopeless people who were sick and dying and in need being healed and given back more than before.

I saw evil people confessing to all they had done to hurt others as they ran to hide from the wrath of God, His people and His angels. There was great joy and celebrations and praises to our God as the people turned and repented and God healed them and their lands. The other nations also followed suit. As this was occurring, I saw plots in secret caves and underground bunkers where the evil leaders remained.

Uriel then drew my attention to the valley floor. I turned and saw thousands of harvesters singing praises to the Lord in great joy. I then heard an angel…

Angel of the Lord: "Leave the outer edges for those who will remain."

As instructed, the harvesters left the outer edges. I then heard the trumpet sound and I saw the heavens pulled back and the wheat turned into souls. I saw millions ascending into Heaven. However, many of the harvesters remained to finish the work of the Lord.

Uriel: "This is enough for today. Remember, Erin, that God is in charge!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I am now going to write Sub-dream 2, which really was my first dream of the night. However, the following dream will pale in comparison to Sub-dream 1. Even so, the ending is still quite exciting!

Sub-dream 2 "Pills, pills, pills!" begins…

I was at a large supermarket. Lining all of the shelves and bins were various bottles and boxes of prescription pills. They were untouched. There was a clerk doing inventory around the corner.

Me: "Excuse me, but what is all of this? Why are there no groceries?"

Clerk: "These are the new groceries. Take a look."

I saw that some of the pill containers were labelled orange, another one watermelon, another one rice and so on.

Me: "I am confused. Why not just carry the real stuff?"

Clerk: "This is cheaper and easier. It fills you up and provides the exact taste and nutrients without all the cooking and other stuff."

Me: Sighing. "Oh, this is sad. I miss real food."

Clerk: "Oh, I have a pill for that."

Me: "No, I am good. So, who owns all of this? Like, what pharmaceutical companies?"

Clerk: "(Named a name I can't recall)… Look, the address is right here."

I decided to take a trip out to the pharma plant. After I arrived at the address, I went up to the receptionist at the front lobby of the plant.

Me: "Hello. I am here to see the owner."

Receptionist: "He doesn't take visitors, especially ones with no appointment. However, I will take your name."

Just then, a town car pulled up with some old man. He was surrounded by security. He came up to the receptionist's desk and gave something to her. He turned and looked at me. I could tell by the way the receptionist talked to him that he was the owner. Since he looked a bit like President Biden, I wonder if he also represented the President in this dream. I wasn't sure though.

Owner: "Do I know you? You look very familiar."

Me: "I am actually here to see you."

I must have been young and attractive as he leered at me.

Owner: "Well, you can certainly come and follow me so that we can see each other!"

Receptionist: Protesting. "But, sir…"

Owner: Dismissing her. "It's fine, it's fine."

Clerk: "Don't you miss food? Do you not miss chewing?"

Owner: Chuckling. "I chew on stuff all of the time."

We rode up on the elevator to an apartment, but it was really more like a luxury condominium. His family was there, along with other various people. They seemed quite angry to see me there.

Woman (perhaps representing Jill Biden): "Who is this?"

Owner: Laughing. "This here is my new girlfriend. You better get used to her. She's with me."

I chuckled as I extended my hand towards the woman's hand in order to shake her hand. The woman did not shake my hand. All of the people there were so angry.

Woman: "Do you understand this man's wealth and power? No, you don't. This is because you are only after his money." She then spoke in a bossy tone towards a man who looked like an accountant. "Write this woman a check so she can leave."

Owner: Infuriated. "Out, all of you!" He then pointed right at me. "You, stay!"

The owner really must have been powerful as they all reluctantly left. The woman then pointed to her eyes then to me as if to signal 'I am watching you!' I tried to stifle my laughter, but I couldn't quite do it.

Me: "So, they have now left."

Owner: "Now, where were we? Oh yes… we are going to be great together. Love at first sight, right?"

Me: "Sir, I am here to tell you to stop what you are doing. God is with me and he would like you to stop all of this and turn to him."

Just then, the elevator opened. There was a man with a delivery. The owner ran over and took the bag from the delivery man. The delivery man then left.

Owner: "Well, I sure hope you like Chinese! I love Chinese."

I laughed at the irony of his statement. He sat down at the table. I then sat across from him. He opened the bag and pulled out several bottles. These bottles were labeled as Sweet & Sour Pork, Ginger Beef, Sesame Chicken and White Rice. He suddenly frowned as he double checked the bottles.

Owner: "Hey, I am missing my Egg Rolls."

Me: "Stop eating this. It is killing you."

I then prayed. In a flash, a spread of real Chinese dishes was right there in front of us. He looked terrified.

Owner: "Wait! What? How were you able to do this?"

Me: "God! Now, you have one last chance here."

Owner: "Can I eat first?"

He was clearly not right in his head. These pills had been killing him. His family then came back into the condominium with the police with the intention of arresting me.

Me: Speaking to the owner. "Today will be your final day."

The woman was in front of the crowd of people. She pointed at me in a threatening manner.

Woman: "Arrest her! She's a threat!"

There was a flash and a door appeared out of nowhere. I then stepped through and was gone in an instant.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, this sure seemed like this represented President Biden, his family and associates. However, I am not fully sure. All I know is that this was a weird dream.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Hmm, this was a big night of dreams! Pray and do not cease!"

Me: "Yes, Lord. Please protect my family, my friends and their families. Please send angels over our homes. Things seem to be turning quickly."

Jesus: "I have done this and will continue to. Do not worry. I have you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-830/

830 – An Aerial View of the Lake of Fire

Received on Thursday, July 25, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! There is no God like You. You are our one, true and only God over all things. I am so grateful to have You as my Father. Everything we have is Yours. Let us pray great honor to You in all things.

Father, please stop the enemies who are now surrounding Your people. Please protect the nations as all of them are under You. You own Earth and all that is in it. Thank You for dreams, Father. You are our God who grants us knowledge and wisdom to understand what comes to us in our sleeping hours.

My first dream has an obvious meaning on the surface of the dreams. However, the second dream was intimidating to me. This is because I know very little about the gods of other cultures and religions. I have never taken an interest. This dream about the gods seem to show a very dark path for our country if the demonic realm over these deities is released upon our nation of America.

I also realize by Your Word that these gods have no power over man except by deception and possession. This is because of the demonic permissions behind them. Once someone opens the door to the demoniacs and entertains them, You move aside and let them have their way (but still within Your parameters, of course). This is because You are jealous for us.

So, Father, instead of backing out and turning away from us, please step up against this evil and show the world what we know to be true… 'that You are God and You do not share Your land with any other god.' Father, You are sovereign in providence…

- You control all that is in the world (Daniel 4:35).
- You control the forces of nature (Psalm 147:15-18).
- You control all people, including kings and presidents (Isaiah 40:15-17, 22, 23).

- You control Satan and his evil agents (Job 1).
- You control all of the events and circumstances in our lives (Romans 8:28).

Father, I plea and beg that You have mercy on our land.

Just as I wrote this, I looked up out of my window and four eagles were flying together over our yard. I tried to take photos, but I only got one of the eagles.

Father, I praise You for eagles, miracles, signs and wonders. Thank You for my dreams, including the two dreams I had last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Cutting the Flowers off of the Flowers" begins…

I was at an outdoor farmer's market in a city I didn't know. It was outside of one of the last department stores, either a Neiman Marcus or Saks Fifth Avenue. The store was closing for good. The display windows had been ransacked. The inside had been plundered. There was a market area outside. What was strange is that this market area was still clean and orderly.

In one area of the market was a floral grower's booth. There was a beautiful display of flowers there. However, one grouping of flowers had all of their heads cut off. The only thing remaining on them were stems and leaves. I walked up to them in sadness. A woman soon approached me. She had darker skin and very short white hair.

Woman: "May I help you?"

Me: "Yes. Can you tell me what happened to these flowers?"

Woman: "These are what we have left from Israel. The shoppers prefer their flower heads cut off. They find them more valuable with no blossoms and no fragrance."

Me: "People are buying these?"

Woman: "Yes. These are my most popular."

Me: "But they even cost more than the others."

Woman: "Yes. It is our victory bouquet."

Me: "Well, I find it disgusting."

Woman: "If you protest these instead of finding great satisfaction in them, then it is time for you to go too. The flowers from Europe, the tulips and others, will soon be the same. We will then turn to the roses and peonies, but not the Rose of Sharon. They too will soon have their heads cutoff."

Note: What this woman meant when she said, 'but not the Rose of Sharon', is that the Rose of Sharon represents Israel and that this rose already had its flower 'cut off' when they attacked Israel on Saturday, October 7, 2023.

Me: Now thinking to myself. "First Israel, then Europe and then the USA. Hmm, I am still not 100% sure of the order."

The woman then turned to help other customers. She was arranging flowers for them. They would pay first and then they would cut the flower heads off and cheer together in glee. The woman suddenly turned back to me. She was still holding her massive pruning shears. She lunged at my neck with them. I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "An Aerial View of the Lake of Fire" begins…

I was back in the Valley of Decision. Uriel was right there in front of me.

Uriel: "Erin, I have been called by God to show you another cleft."

Uriel reached for my hand and we were on a cleft with a cave.

Uriel: "This is what angers God, Erin. Even though He loves His children, they do not stand for Him. The enemy has taken many inroads and their troops advance. There is a veil of ignorance that falls over the leaders and people of this land."

I saw a vile god of some sort with red skin, four heads and four arms. I saw him with an egg or something like it. He gave birth to a daughter out of this egg. His daughter's skin was pale red. I then saw this four headed god give his daughter a name that is represented by the lotus flower (Kamala). I saw this god care for her and declare that, through her, he would finally be worshipped.

He saw her building a rightful temple for him so that he could be worshipped properly. He befriended the spirits of the Black Dragon and they formed an alliance together. If he got his way, the son of the Black Dragon would be protected and the daughter of this god would be raised up to lead the sons of perdition to destroy the children of God.

Me: "Uriel, please help me to understand what I am seeing. I truly know very little about other gods or the demons behind them. What am I seeing?"

Uriel: "That a plan has been in place to destroy Israel, Europe and America, but really all of the Earth, so that the Black Dragon will reign. However, the other gods have no idea that the leader of the Black Dragon is the great deceiver. Now, the male god you are seeing is a liar called Brahma. However, even he is not prepared for what comes."

Me: "So, who is the wife of this god?"

Uriel: "I know this is hard to understand, but his wife is also his daughter. Together, they gave birth to a leader, a woman. She is to declare the dominion of their deities apart from God. They sent a prayer (to a Hindu god during the RNC Convention) that opened doors in the unseen realm. It was like a birth from a pregnancy for all of the world to see and hear. This enraged God."

Me: "But, Uriel, the people are ignorant! The USA is still 'one nation under God'!"

Uriel: "Well, God is angry."

Me: "Please stop this."

Uriel: "The nation is falling away from the one true God over all things, the One who created the Earth, the sea, the stars, the waters, animals, plants, birds and man. He created the sun and the moon. Erin, who is like Him?"

Me: "Nobody even comes close to Him!"

Uriel: "Permissions were granted. This is the result of this. Now this…" Uriel directed my attention to a spirit more wicked than I have ever seen before. "…this rose up in the daughter of these foreign gods. However, God will scramble her words and her tongue will declare vile things. She will be despised by the people. The Black Dragon will call upon his sons to rise up and strike down her power.

"Erin, God has declared this… The sons of perdition have struck against my land, my appointed leader over Israel and the people in Israel and the USA. I will therefore strike out against them. I will send great fear to humble the nations of the Earth. They will then turn their faces from doing evil and pray."

Me: "When, Uriel? When will God humble the Earth? Please tell Him to heal us and strengthen us for what comes. If He doesn't do this, we will not be able to endure."

As I wrote this, two eagles flew by my window.

Uriel: "Come!"

He took me to a massive overlook in a distant area. Above us were black clouds of smoke with a stench like sulfur. The area was thick with an atmosphere containing no oxygen. My stomach turned at the sight of this.

Below was the incredibly massive 'Lake of Fire'. It was bubbling up with what seemed like molten lava.

Some Scriptural Background on the Lake of Fire in Revelation 19:20b, 20:14-15: 19:20b. These two (the beast and the false prophet) were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire that burns with sulfur. 20:14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death, the Lake of Fire. 20:15 And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

I saw two men being thrown down into the Lake of Fire (from Revelation, I believe these two were the Beast/Antichrist and the False Prophet). I then saw angels of the Lord throwing down demonic princes in various forms. They shot down from the heavens and there was horrible screeching. I saw Michael throwing down the chief angels of darkness into the Lake.

I saw Brahma and his four heads being thrown into the Lake. He screamed in anguish (they all did). I saw a man in white with blood stains who had been false in his testimony. I then saw what looked like a heavenly version of a massive 'dumpster'. I saw a massive angel blow a horn. This horn sound then seemed to blend in with the sound of a construction vehicle beeping.

It then opened and out dropped so many sons of perdition and their demons that I couldn't count them. There were billions. Their screams were horrifying. I reached for Uriel's hand with one of my hands and covered my eyes with the other hand. I was now weeping as I listened to their screams and cries of anguish.

Note: When some picture the Lake of Fire, perhaps they imagine a 'calm lake'. However, from what I saw, there is nothing calm about this Lake at all. This was more like the sea as shown in the movie about The Perfect Storm. These waves rose hundreds of feet high and tossed all within this Lake of Fire. This 'Lake' is also so incredibly vast, it seemed to be more like an 'Ocean of Fire' than a 'Lake of Fire'. Those within the Lake of Fire were tossed and thrown about. The fiery sea was so tumultuous that there was no ability for its occupants to socialize with each other. Even when tossed on top of each other, it was a mad scramble just to keep their heads up. The Lake of Fire was such a horrible sight that I would not wish it for even my worst enemy.

Uriel then took me to the valley floor of wheat.

Me: "Oh Uriel, I am terrified. Terrified! Please keep me from this place (the Lake of Fire). I never want anyone I know to ever be there. Ever!"

Uriel: "I know, Erin. However, God instructed me to show you the place of the tormentor and his children, his army. You are a child of God."

Me: "I love God and Jesus. Jesus is God. I have no ability to endure here without Jesus. Uriel, I won't make it unless God helps us."

Uriel: "Take comfort, Erin. Do not worry as you are destined for Heaven, not this Lake. God loves you. He sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do. The way to remain ready for now is to keep yourself from evil of every kind. Press into Him. Thank Him and praise Him for He alone is worthy of praise. Keep yourself from unclean words and do not speak against Israel or His people. You are to love one another."

Me: "Yes, Uriel. Bless and you will be blessed."

Uriel: "Yes, Erin. It is important to understand that there is much that you cannot see. Pray for wisdom from God on high and remember that there is something in a name. As you now know, your name means peace. Therefore, be at peace knowing that the favor of God is upon you."

Me: "Harvest must come soon. Please let it be so."

Uriel: "I am an angel of the Lord and a part of His Army. I cannot do what only God can, understand? You are not to pray to me or even cry out to me, only to God."

Me: "Yes, of course. Always a good reminder though."

Uriel: "Now, you are under attack… you and your house. Do not be afraid. Pray. God will fix the broken things and continue to prepare you for what comes. Rejoice, Erin, and take courage."

When he reached over and squeezed my hand, I was startled out of my sleep.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, please subdue the plans of the enemy. Please protect Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, Jerusalem and the USA. Please protect all those who stand with You, those within Israel, the USA and the other nations.

We pray this to You alone as we know You are sovereign over all of the Earth. Please protect us against wicked leaders and their evil plans. Please bless us and keep us. Lord, please let Your face shine upon us in all we do, Amen!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not be afraid. This was a busy night of dreams for you."

Me: "Yes, Lord. These dreams scared me severely. I woke up with chills running through my body."

Jesus: "You saw the heavens open and two hurled down into the lake, then the chief angels and their princes, then every order of the army of darkness."

Me: "It was hard to see."

Jesus: "I know. However, remember that God is the God of Justice. This war has been going on for thousands of years, Erin. The celebration in Heaven as evil has been cast into the Lake is like none on the Earth."

Me: "Has this already happened, Lord? You speak as if this has."

Jesus: "I showed you all of this so that you understand that My promises are true. The verdict has been handed down and the sentence rendered. This is the place prepared for those who cause the children of God harm of any magnitude, those who plotted against God to strike out against the people of God.

"They can now swim together in the same 'pool' and enjoy each other's company. I show you this so that you know that I am over all of this. I see what the wicked do to defile the Earth. Understand that they have no place amongst the righteous. Therefore, speak truth in love so that no man be subject for what was originally reserved for the fallen angels, but now expanded to include others.

"I have a Great Plan already in place. Be encouraged, Erin. I love you. Continue on your course and do all I have instructed in order to ready your houses. Even though you do not know the time, you know the hour is late. Continue on as I have shown you. I am with you and I love you!"

Note: I was very distressed over this dream even after I wrote this down. Later on, as I was standing at my window and right there in front of me in our yard, were four adult turkeys and nine baby turkeys. I was so happy and thankful for this wonderful sight. I had thought that all of them had already been killed. Well, there they were and even with little ones! This was yet another miracle from You, Jesus!

Dream over…

831 – The Mocking of God at the Opening Ceremony

Received on Sunday, July 28, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for every breath. Thank You for all You do and the amazing ways in which You pursue us. Father, please never stop pursuing us. Please do not give up on Your children. The Earth is taking a plunge faster than I ever imagined. The Book of Revelation is playing out right before our very eyes. Events and symbolism are overlapping now. Please grant us knowledge and wisdom.

Our hearts are troubled by all of the bad news. At least mine is. When I see the mocking of You, Father, our Lord and all things Holy, my heart hurts and my stomach is sick. This must be worse than 'The Days of Noah' and 'The Days of Sodom and Gomorrah' combined. Even so, You are greater than this, Father. You created everything. I am just so distraught over what is happening now.

While public mockery of Christians is on full display, the Jewish people are being hunted down. I am not talking about a Middle East country either, but right there in the streets of France. Europe is about to fall. The day after this public mockery during the Opening Ceremony of the Olympics, You sent a power outage that sent much of the area into darkness. However, this was only a small rebuke from You to signify that a greater darkness is coming.

Even though I often fear what is coming, I am glad for what the results will eventually be. As for the election here in the USA on Tuesday, November 5, 2024, this will be stolen unless You rise up and show that You are God over all of the Earth. We are seeing grand illusions on full display as those controlling what we can see try to convince us that good is evil and evil is good. Evil is manifesting from the spiritual to the natural world and this is increasing rapidly.

The evil that has moved under the cover of darkness for many years to destroy Europe is really all part of a soft war on all of the Christian nations. Those who are native to Europe are now outnumbered in so many cases.

Brussels is now 70% foreigners. All of the rest of the countries are not far behind this. I then heard that the Seine River is full of E.coli from human waste. People are swimming in it. Father, this is horrible.

What of the appearance of the mock version of the Pale Horse of the Book of Revelation in the Opening Ceremony of the Paris Summer Olympics on Friday, July 26, 2024? Why does the deagal population report claim that the USA will drop in population by 200 million people in 2025? What will happen to these 200 million people? Where will they go?

Me: "Lord, please come! The public mockery of You was on full display at the Opening Ceremony of the Summer Olympics on Friday. As for my dreams, these were so dark last night."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Do not be afraid. God is over all things. I am here and I see. Pray, Erin, and do not cease. You have seen what happens to those who lie and deceive in this late hour. You have seen where those who harm little children go into the sea and await judgment. You have seen where evil is hurled."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Even though I love and trust You in all things, these events still hurt. Lord, it hurts. You are my Awesome God and I love you so much. If they can do this to You, they can certainly do this to me. If they know about what the Nazis did in Germany and they still praise the destruction of the Jewish people, then Christians are next. Lord, please step in!"

Jesus: "Erin, do you remember the Clock and Calendar in Heaven?"

Me: "Yes. This is in God's Courtyard and is guarded by angels."

Jesus: "The times you were shown, along with the events, are moving quickly at the end. Erin, this is now the case. However, be encouraged as I have a great plan. The Book of Revelation is not as confusing now. It becomes more and more clear as pictorial images of events play out on screens. You then ask, 'Wait, is this not what has been written about in God's Word?'

"So, when you see these things, pray for wisdom and understanding. Pray for Revelation that comes from on high. This is because I know what once was, is and is to come. If I tell you to not be afraid, then understand that you have no need of fear. This is because you reign with Me. However, those who are evil and practice debauchery of every kind are destined for another place."

Me: "While I will try to be brave, this is still hard."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. However, I promise you that God's 'Closing Ceremony', My Finishing Act, will leave no eye dry. Remember that I am the One who saves. Erin, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. Rejoice as I am with you and I promise that I will never leave you. Now, you are to take this day to pray and remember Me. As for those who mock God, they swim in mire and muck. As for those whom God blesses, they swim in Living Water."

Me: "Wait! Lord, are You not bothered by this evil?"

Jesus: "It is difficult to witness the wicked dance in their perversion for all of the world to see. It is difficult to see their secret plots being hatched. However, I already know this… that the Great Plan of God will prevail. Together with His angel armies, none of these evil assignments will prevail. They will instead swim in their own shame and defilement while they cry out to God.

"However, I am no longer turning an ear to their pleadings. Those practicing evil say, 'Okay, I will give up one of my sins, but I will continue the other ten sins because I like them and these feel good.' They will not have understanding over anything because their need for self-soothing sins is greater than their need for a Savior. These are children of the liar. You must therefore pray, Erin. Now, do not worry as I am with you."

Dream over.

832 – Foiling the Car Thieves

Received on Monday, July 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for our children, family and friends. Please protect us against the great and quick movement of evil around the world. Please protect the people of Venezuela right now. Please protect us as our enemies have struck out against us.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Foiling the Car Thieves" begins…

We had relocated somewhere out west in a small rural town. It was in between two larger cities and was a stopover for travelers to get gas and food. We lived in a small housing development with sidewalks and groomed lawns. Our home was a ranch style with three bedrooms and two bath. It was very simple.

We had just moved in and our things were still in boxes. I was home alone and my car was parked in the driveway because our garage was full of moving boxes. While I had decided to take a shower, I needed to first find and unpack the box with the shampoo. Something suddenly didn't feel right in my Spirit. I heard the noise of a car starting. I rushed out of the front door and saw a light green minivan in our driveway.

The woman inside the minivan was Asian, in her late 50s, with short great hair and glasses. The woman completely ignored me as I rushed towards her. She peeled off of our driveway and raced down the road. I then shook my head in dismay as it was then that I noticed that my car had also been stolen. I was so upset. I then phoned the police. They came to our house.

Officer 1: "I am sorry this happened to you." He then pointed towards all of the homes on our street. "However, all the cars in this neighborhood have been stolen by the same group."

Me: "I can track it with GPS from my phone."

Officer 2: "Yes, but we already know where they are. We know precisely where your car is right now."

Me: "Then please go and get my car. I have to pick up my husband and daughter from work. I am now going to be late as I have no car."

Officer 1: "Your car is gone forever, ma'am. They are long gone with it."

Officer 2: "Look, don't you get it by now? Our lives have been made uncomfortable on purpose. We are at war. Even if you were to get your car back, they will come at you again. If you park it consider it theirs. I wish we could help."

They took down my information and then left. I phoned my husband and he came to where I was. We then decided to take a cab to the place where all the stolen cars were. It was owned by 'the Chinese police'. We began to walk through their front gate. While the 'police' then pulled their guns on us, we ignored them and just kept walking. We then spotted our car, along with my daughter's car and my younger son's car.

My younger son was already there and had already gotten into his car. The 'police' began to open fire on us. However, the bullets simply disappeared into thin air. My husband drove our car, I drove my daughter's car and my younger son drove his own car. The 'police' then tried to rush us. However, each time they did, they fell backwards. They could not come near us.

Once we got outside of the gate, we prayed together that all of the other cars be returned. We then locked all of the criminals inside their compound. In a matter of seconds, all of them disappeared. They were deported back to their home country. We decided to move on again to a better place. The people in our neighborhood were mostly elderly and young families and they were so happy we helped them.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, this dream was so detailed and vivid. When I woke up from this dream, I still had the lingering sick feeling of knowing I had been robbed. In this dream, I felt so helpless until we prayed together. This made all of us so angry.

Me: "Father, I am concerned for the good people of this fallen world. The enemy has surrounded the countries it plans to destroy. Unless You intervene, there is no hope. Father, there are a lot, millions I believe, of praying Christians interceding all over the USA and Canada. Please accept our prayers. Please remember us as we are at war. Our only fighting chance is You, Father."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I see the wicked as these are the sons of perdition and the children of the father of lies. I know you are worried about many things. You are concerned over all of the bad news in the world. I hear your prayers for the lost. I hear your prayers for Israel and Jerusalem. I hear your prayers for the lost as well. However, I see all things good, as well as evil. I know their works and it is far worse than what you hear about.

"Now, your dream last night was not about your car being stolen. It was about who ordered it from the west. Your other car was stolen by the enemies of Israel in the east. They are responsible for the crime in these areas. However, a car is a small thing as this is inconvenient for travel and is just a small part of the beginning of woes. There are great plans in place to hasten the deaths of millions of people. The deceased's money and properties can then be seized.

"Food and medical supplies will also be controlled. There have been armies who have crossed the borders in plain clothes. Once the orders are given, there will be no elections throughout the nations. Those the beast has placed in power will remain in power. Since they have already imprisoned their citizens, do you think they won't steal an election to preserve their positions? Of course they would."

Me: "Then why are You having us move at all, Lord? Should we not simply just stay put instead?"

Jesus: "The invading army to the east has entered your gates. The enemy to the east is in the waters and over the waters. The enemy to the west is also in the waters and over them. They are awaiting orders. If they can remove your weapons to defend yourselves and remove the ability to flee because your car has been taken or disabled, they can then take whatever they want. Anything.

"Now, about the mockery (that is, the drag queen 'last supper' as performed at the Opening Ceremony of the Olympics). The enemy saw that there was only verbal pushback to this (that is, the mocking of Jesus and the Last Supper). They saw that there was no physical fighting. Because of this lack of reaction, the enemy now believes that Christians are weak."

Me: "Are we able to do anything about this, Lord?"

Jesus: "Pray and never cease. You can't see the slaughter of My children in and throughout the nations because those in the media support the massacres. You don't hear about the torture, rapes and beheadings because they are afraid that you will awake from your slumber, turn and resist the devil if you did hear. Well, when you resist the devil, he will flee.

"What has happened in your nation has come because, if they are able to remove My favor over your land, it will then fall to them completely. A war will then break out between the nations for control of the world (Islam vs China). However, there is still a problem for the enemy. Their plans are to eliminate the children of God and they believe it will be easy for them.

"Well, Erin, I am here to say that I am God and I will not be mocked. Greater am I who is in you than those who are against you. Even though you do, do not worry. Erin, your prayers avail much…

- They reverse outcomes.
- They expose evil plots and plans.
- They surround you with angels.
- They heal the sick.
- They feed the poor.
- They quench those who thirst with Living Water.

"You also know their goals and even the date by which they want to achieve this. However, this is only according to their plans, not Mine."

Me: "2030?"

Jesus: "Well, this will not go as they want. Erin, pray. Continue to complete your assignments. Do this because I have called you to do them."

Me: "I was going to say maybe our time would be better spent another way."

Jesus: "The best way to spend your time is the way I call you to. This includes prayer, assignments and anything else I request from you. You are standing at attention and this is the best way. You are ready and willing to serve Me. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you."

Dream over.

833 – The Dragonfly Saves the Bullfrog

Received on Tuesday, July 30, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! You are the greatest Father over all of the Earth. You are God and the Creator of all that we see and even all that our naked eyes cannot see. If a tree falls in the wilderness, You know it. If a sparrow falls, You see it. There is nothing beyond You, Father. If You care about things such as trees, birds, squirrels and even a flower in that its blooms are here today and gone so quickly, then of course You care about us.

You also care about seasons. You carefully and willfully craft the timing of these. You even send us warnings in advance so we are prepared for what comes. You bring sun, rain, wind and snow. It is written in Job 38:22-41 that You have storehouses of snow and hail that You reserve for times of trouble. You also control wars and battles. You even place lightning and bring the winds.

The winds from the Saharah Desert in the Middle East bring dirty rain to Florida. You call on mountains to spew lava in its time. The mountains sometime groan and blow off steam for years, thereby disarming the residents. That is, until the day the explosive fires from below shoot out and man can barely escape. Who can escape the fury of the hot lava and the fire from below it?

What is like a volcano? Volcanoes can completely change the surface of the land and even the sea. Then there are earthquakes. These are great reminders that man is like ants compared to Your Magnificence. We are like dust. Lord, You and You alone call upon the plates below to move and shift. Father, You control solid rock. While sometimes there are warnings, sometimes there are not.

However, for those who have lived through an earthquake or a volcano, no one can dispute Your power and our helpless state at the moment of Your fury. When this comes, even by a tornado, a hurricane, a flood or a mighty blizzard, man can do nothing but pray. You are a merciful

Father. By now, You could have just sent Your wrath upon the Earth and silenced all who think they have any knowledge of You whatsoever.

However, You are patient with man only so long before all that You have written has come to pass. Man tests You daily, Father. Even Your own children are like toddlers just learning how to walk. We stumble on uncertain ground with our wobbly legs. With the help of something to hold us up, we can then stand triumphantly, but only to reach our hands up to You for a pick me up.

Ultimately, we know that there is no safer place than in the arms of our Father who carries us. Thank You, Father. You are such a gift. You are a generous Father who does not delight in evil, but rewards us with good things all of the days of our lives. Please forgive us for our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

This is because they clearly do not know our place in Your heart or, if they do, then they have no true understanding of who You are. Well, there will come a day when all will know who You are. Father, please don't delay. We ask that You please let Your Kingdom come and let Your Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. We ask for this to happen right now. I love You and I long to do Your Will in all things.

My two dreams from last night were quite vivid. While I usually write these dreams down in the order received, I was directed to start with the second dream today. This also happened just a few dreams ago…

Sub-dream 1 "The Dragonfly saves the Bullfrog" begins…

I was living in a home the size of the smallest home I ever lived in when I was a little girl. It was in Reno, Nevada on Bell Street. However, this home was made completely of glass windows and ceilings. It was also not surrounded by other homes. There was a grass yard and trees. I was home alone when the sky grew dark and the clouds quickly covered the sun.

I looked up and the tallest black cloud I had ever seen was coming toward our area. It almost looked like photos and videos I have seen of a nuclear bomb explosion. I wasn't afraid. I calmly prepared for the coming storm even though I was in an all-glass home. I sat in a reclining chair so I could watch what it looked like. I had never been under a glass roof during a big storm before.

I prayed that no branches would break the glass. The rain then began to fall. I looked outside to my right and was fascinated by what I saw. I saw a big bullfrog trying to take cover under a tree on a small rock. I then watched as an extremely large dragonfly with a yellow body and opaque yellow wings landed over the frog. The dragonfly stretched out its wings and wrapped itself around the frog to shelter it from the storm.

I focused on this unusual sight as this dragonfly used its wings to deflect the pouring rain away from the bullfrog. The wings then changed to something like a tent over the frog. I was fascinated to see this dragonfly, who is normally the bullfrog's food, protect this bullfrog from the storm. Bullfrogs are swampy night creatures.

I was so fixated on what I was watching that I hadn't realized that the massive threat of this storm had already blown over. The sun then came out. The dragonfly released its grip on the bullfrog and flew away. I then saw that the storm had sent out hail. While hail was scattered all over, I had just noticed it now. The bullfrog would have been killed by the hail if not for the dragonfly's protection.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I am now going to write Sub-dream 2 (which really was my first dream of the night)…

Sub-dream 2 "A Great San Francisco Earthquake" begins…

I was in San Francisco. An earthquake had wiped out most of the peninsula that the city stands on. We were there on the third day. In the aftermath, people refused to recognize what had happened. They were in shock. While it may have been something else other than shock, I just wasn't sure. My daughter and I were in San Francisco to visit someone I knew at the Design Center District Galleria located there.

When we arrived, we saw that half of the Galleria's showrooms had collapsed. Despite this, they were still open for business. Furnishings and accessories on the one side were completely crushed by the fallen bricks. However, the other side was left almost untouched, needing only a dusting. One of the managers I was used to doing business with then recognized me. It had been fifteen years or more since I had been there.

Me: "Are you alright?"

Manager: "Yes. Surprisingly, we are fine. However, it will take time to rebuild. All of us who work here and in the other showrooms are staying here to fight the looting. So, is there anything I can help you with?"

Me: "No, we are just looking. However, do you need anything?"

Manager: "So much. So much. We might never recover."

Me: "Okay, at first, you said you were fine. For good reasons, I now see that you don't actually feel that way."

Manager: "Yes. They are saying that global warming is causing this and that even more of this is coming."

Me: "Well, God is turning up the heat. However, this was an earthquake. Earthquakes have no relationship to climate. This was God shaking things up."

Manager: Sighing. "This may be true, but it is much easier to blame climate change then to attribute this to God." He then became even more depressed. "My mom told us that, one day, God would level the playing field. Well, He leveled my showroom."

Me: "My daughter and I will pray on this situation."

My daughter and I held hands and prayed. The manager looked at us in shock because, as we stood there, bricks and debris immediately went into reverse motion. All of the broken things then became whole again. Everything was restored. The manager then fell faint to the ground. We helped bring him back around.

Manager: "Who are you?"

My daughter: "Turn to God and tell the others."

Stunned and at a loss for words, he began to make calls. He waved as we left.

Daughter: "Mom, I am not sure the others will believe him."

Me: "Yes, I know. However, it will begin with him. He knows it was God. Anyway, do you want to go to what is left of the Fisherman's Wharf?"

Daughter: "Sure."

We could then see San Francisco from overhead as a bird's eye view. There were fires and looting everywhere. Fights were breaking out. So many buildings were destroyed. We both felt God call us away from there for now. We instantly returned to our home.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, this was such an odd night of dreams. The one that sticks out to me is the dragonfly and the bullfrog. Oh yes… what were we doing saving one of the showrooms in the San Francisco Design District? This also seems so odd and random. I haven't thought of this place in years. It is the shopping place for the very wealthy.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: "Lord, why did the dragonfly and the bullfrog appear in my dream?"

Jesus: "In this dream, you were living in the small home you had as a child. This had unclean spirits from the sins that entered into this house. With permission, these unclean spirits wreaked havoc continuously there. You were five years old at the time. In your house was fighting, drugs, alcohol and the selfish ambitions of your parents. You were very poor and had nothing.

"Your mother refused help or gifts for you and your brother. This was the house of storms, permissions and hidden secrets in the dark. In this dream, this was the same house, but all was glass. Nothing was hidden from Me. It was quiet and peaceful and lovely because there was nothing that remained from the former house. Both of your parents have since passed on."

Me: "Lord, I just looked at the house on Google Maps and it seems to be all boarded up. It looks condemned and unlivable. I don't even think about that home now. Well, maybe I do, but only in my nightmares."

Jesus: "Erin, I was there. In your dream, it was located in a lovely green yard with grass and trees. It had been transformed. More than this, Erin, you have been changed over the years as your heart has been given to Me.

"Now, this dream showed you something from Me. Instead of shrinking when you saw the epic storm approaching in a glass house, you rested in a reclining chair to watch the storm from a new vantage point. Your outlook was secure in Me. Even though you didn't know if I would send a storm that would cause a tree to fall or glass to shatter, you decided to relax and watch what I was doing."

Me: "Yes. I would have normally been worried."

Jesus: "So, you were secure in Me. Now, when the upcoming storm came, I showed you two creatures outside. One was a bullfrog. Frogs are unclean animals and represent a plague in My Word."

Me: "I read that they also represent chaos, darkness and unclean spirits. On the night my stepdad hung himself, I remember a very large bullfrog was singing. It only sang for that one night and then it was gone."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. I remember it. Erin, there was an angel army over your house and your family was spared."

Me: "What does this all mean, Lord?"

Jesus: "You watched a very large dragonfly cover an unclean predator of dragonflies and protect it from a hailstorm. It was an unusual sight."

Me: "Yes, but what did this mean, Lord?"

Jesus: "You represent this transformative dragonfly. You once came from the same place as this frog. It was unclean. While the frog remained a frog, the dragonfly transformed and even went to cover the very thing that would normally consume it for food. You are no longer part of the evil that consumed you as a child.

"Erin, you are now a child of God. You will be changed. You will then be called to places of unclean spirits, places of darkness, to witness and bring out into the light those whom I call you to. In your dream, the dragonfly was unharmed by the hailstorm. If you examine a dragonfly, you know they are delicate and beautiful."

Me: "They are amazing, Lord. They can fly in every direction. They are iridescent and intricate. They are like hummingbirds. They make the same sound with their wings."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. Erin, I am preparing you."

Me: "Lord, did You send the dragonfly swarm to that beach in Rhode Island? Were there 144,000 of them? Was this not offseason as well?"

Jesus: "Oh, you caught that. Interesting. I send signs and wonders so that people understand that this is something outside of the normal sequence of events. Science cannot explain this. Well, if there is no earthly explanation, then what is this?"

Me: "Spiritual. This was You, Lord. You are amazing. This is exciting. Those people were like frogs laying in the sun."

Jesus: "This is an interesting observation. Now, what do you believe your other dream referenced?"

Me: "Maybe an earthquake to soon hit San Francisco? Even so, You did not call us to do much there in this dream. Are the people in this city already too far gone, Lord?"

Jesus: "This is a mystery for now. Be at peace, Erin. I am with you. Do not worry when it seems the nations are in an uproar. I am over the nations. Remember that evil has no victory here. You have seen this. Now, do not worry as I have prepared a beautiful place for the children of God. Pray for the lost as all is about to change!"

Dream over…

Título: Dream 826 – The Wicked's Assassination Attempt

Publicado:

Dream 834 – Massive Attack Planned Against Israel

Received on Saturday, August 3, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Bless You, Father, in all of the Earth. Bless You from the depths of the sea to the highest mountain upon the earth. Bless You in Your Great Works in the heavens, the stars, the moon, the sun and all of the Universe. Bless You in Heaven and for all of the beauty You have created for us. Your Splendor is above all things. You cannot be matched, mocked or replaced. I am so grateful for You.

While I was somewhere between asleep and restlessness earlier this morning, either a vision or a dream (I am not sure which) came to me…

Sub-dream 1 "Massive Attack Planned Against Israel" begins…

I saw the enemies of Israel plotting their revenge 'From the River to the Sea'. I saw vile plans being hatched in their wickedness…

- In their anger, I saw them planning an attack by air, by land and by sea.
- There were several nations with leaders who vowed to remove all of Israel in a single hour by a coordinated mass attack.
- The weapons, missiles and bombs of all types were to be launched simultaneously to overcome Israel's defenses.
- After Israel was weakened by this, a ground invasion from the north, south and east would then enter her borders.
- They would first kill those in the outer areas.
- They would then move in to surround the cities.
- They would cut off all communications and power.
- They would then move swiftly door to door to hunt down, humiliate and destroy all of the Jews.

I saw all of this playing out in what looked like real time. I then heard two of the evil leaders speak to each other about their demonic plans.

Leader 1: "We will go into their Temples and 'defile the dogs'. We will destroy all they claim as holy and burn them with hellfire. We will take their spoils. The Nation of Islam will then be free from their oppression."

Leader 2: "The news reports can be that their own weapons destroyed them. We will celebrate and mark this as a great day for all of Islam and Allah."

After this group of leaders finished coordinating their wicked plans against Israel, I saw them go back to their respective nations. I then heard Your Voice speak to me…

Voice of the Lord: "They plan to hunt down every Jew and, after this, in the USA also. They plan to do this to the ends of the Earth, as well as those who support them."

I knew that He was referring mainly to Christians as 'those who support them'. I then kept seeing Jeremiah 6:13: "For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely."

The number 613 then flashed and kept flashing.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I was so disturbed by this dream that I immediately went to my devotional chair and prayed. Father, while I am not sure of Your timing, I am troubled by what I am seeing. The traitorous leadership of the USA is mainly responsible for financing the enemies that surround Israel. However, the overall will of the people to help Israel has been dismissed by evil.

How many here even want this? There are so many lies occurring that it is difficult to discern what is real or fake. A normal person watching the news these days would be easily deceived. We are being blatantly lied to by the New World Order-controlled media. Father, please help Israel and the USA. Please protect Your people all over the world from harm.

As for the number 613, does this number signify Jewish laws, bombs or maybe even hours? I am not sure about this. Maybe it signifies some combination of things?

Something else that is odd has been happening to me recently. The date of August 28th keeps popping up to me. In 2024, August 28th is both the 24th day of the Hebrew month of Av (Av 24) and a Wednesday.

I have never really looked at the meaning of August. This word means consecrated or venerable. Consecrated in the Bible means set apart from others; blessed and a saint of God. Maybe this is the time You will consecrate us for Your purposes, Father? However, I really do not know.

I then found another definition of consecration that means to set apart a person or building or even an object for God. Apparently, with some Christian denominations, there is a service of 'deconsecration' that is used to remove a consecrated place of its sacred character in preparation for either demolition or sale for secular use.

I was then reminded of Joshua 3:5: Then Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you."

There is so much to this Scripture. After wandering for 40 years in the wilderness, the children of Israel were about to cross over the Jordan River into the Promised Land. They were then given the command to consecrate themselves (that is, to purify, clean and make holy unto the Lord).

They then knew that the Lord would do amazing things amongst them the next day. This would have been so exciting! Father, how about doing this again for the times we are in now? This would be the perfect moment for You to kick off the Great Harvest, the Great Revival, of hearts!

Lord, please protect Israel. Please grant special strength for Your angel army over the princes of darkness in that area of the world and others. Please let all of their evil plans be thwarted by You. Show miracles, signs and wonders that cannot be replicated or explained away. Father, please protect Your children and Your land.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I do not want you to be afraid. Instead, remain diligent in your prayers. While these are tumultuous times, this should come as no surprise to you. Over the years, I have shown you troubles coming. I also gave you warnings that you should pray when you begin to see the overlapping of prophecies being revealed in this time. Even so, you still seem surprised by all of this."

Me: "Lord, I am sorry. It is difficult to see evil expanding into every walk of life now and with such speed it is shocking. I thought the Book of Revelation would be drawn out over the course of many years. Instead, I now believe it is possible that all of the horses of Revelation are riding swiftly together right now.

"As for another possible plague, You sent word to me a few years ago that Covid was just a small test run. You then warned me that a greater plague than this is coming, at least as it is currently planned by the enemy. Well, I must admit that I thought we would be raptured up before troubles!"

Jesus: "Where is that written? While I understand it is difficult to know when this event should follow that one or when does the tribulation begin, these things and troubles must occur so that hearts are turned to God and not to man for salvation. I would instead look to My Words as sent by the prophets and place these together.

"What was once mysterious and metaphorical will soon become reality, but perhaps not in the way you thought it would be. However, because these things have been revealed to you, you will then be at peace knowing that this or that has now passed and that this was important for the Great Revival of hearts to their Father.

"Now, there is Good News here. We win! Remember this always! While many lives will be lost here, souls will be saved as a result, understand?"

Me: "Yes. However, I was taught that…"

Jesus: "Erin, remember to chew on the meat and spit out the fat. These are the same ones who are motivated by greed and like to see themselves on screens. They love to proclaim things that I never said. They separate themselves by loudly declaring they must have a month retreat to pray, but they instead then travel with donors and dine with fools.

"Well, Erin, do not be deceived here. Those whom I have called are careful with their tongues not to speak evil or curse the children of God. I am able to do abundantly more with those I have called because they trust Me to deliver truth through them. Well, here is the truth, Erin... troubles have come, are here and are here to come. Yes, this is the truth!

"Sadly, these things had to come so that the people would know Me through these troubles. They will then know it is false preaching that 'God would never allow troubles to come to your house.' Well, this is not so. Troubles come because they can be used by Me for My purposes and these are good. This is so you lack no good thing.

"Now, the tribulation that comes is coming. However, because the order of events 'won't seem to have common understanding' (that is, other than the commonly preached order of events), then pray for this because I have a Great Plan and the enemy cannot thwart My Plan."

Me: "Lord, can You protect Jerusalem and Israel? Can You protect New York City, Washington DC and the USA? Lord, can You please protect all of these people?"

Jesus: "What should be done to those who remove Me from their sight and allow the Holy Spirit to be mocked and refuted so that they know that I am God? Could this not happen by Me using humbling events?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, when remembering Your promises, could You instead just strike out against wicked individuals rather than whole cities or nations?"

Jesus: "Yes, I could. However, you would then be leaving out some of the amazing miracles I am about to do that you will be a part of. So, can you trust Me to do a Good Work here? Here is what I mean, Erin… can the work of the God who loves you and created you be worse than your enemies who declare your death?"

Me: "Of course not, Lord. I just ask that You protect Your people and Your leaders. Please start that Great Harvest right now. Expose the enemy. Let them flee and be subdued while we heal the land and turn the people's hearts to You.

"Please change and heal us for 'a time and times' (around three years) of joy before the Black Dragon and Red Dragon invade and overcome the Earth. Please! You have the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, Lord.

"You have the Keys to Life and Death. Return people to the places You would call them. Reconcile hearts back to You. Please then remove those who love You before the end of 2027."

Jesus: "Hmm, this is quite specific. Erin, I have a Great Plan. When this unfolds, there will be no stone unturned. Hearts will be exposed. Truth will be known and great healing, restoration and joy will break out. I am God and I am in control over all of the Earth. I see all things hidden. I see all of the plots hatched in secret, whether in backrooms, boardrooms or anywhere else. Nothing is beyond My reach.

"Now, continue on your course. Even though the enemy plans to destroy the children of God, they cannot succeed. Be ready! Pray! Greater am I in you. My angel armies are over you and Heaven is celebrating a Great Victory. Rejoice, Erin. Brace for impact… My Impact!"

Dream over…

Previous Dream:

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-833/

Copyright© 2012-2030 SparrowCloud9; Erin Aleshire (All rights reserved, copies only allowed as per written permission)

© 2024 SparrowCloud9. All Rights Reserved.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-835/

835 – Changes are a Difficult Thing

Received on Friday, August 9, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all we have. Thank You for every blessing. Every blessing is a miracle. Please continue to keep us safe in Your arms and perfectly in Your care. Each day seems like a battle as we continue to live with upright hearts in the midst of people who hate us. We are hated because we exist and our presence reminds them that You are near.

While we seem to be easy targets, they do not know who is over us. They don't know that You are our God and You reign supreme over all the Earth. Even though it can be hard sometimes, we do our best when we allow You to carry us. Please don't leave us to those who hate us. Ultimately, we know that You hold us close and You have us in all things. Blessed by Your works!

I had a detailed dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Cove full of Otters" begins…

My daughter was driving her compact car through a stormy city at night. It had been pouring and it was late, around midnight. We had a difficult time driving through the different streets because there was traffic and some disturbances. We finally found a street that led us to the waterfront where we could exit by bridge or ferry. We then noticed that there were three trucks two blocks ahead. One large semitruck and two box vans had collided at an intersection.

We proceeded to drive around them to the left. As we began to turn down the street to the left, a small SUV backed up right into us. This is because he was trying to avoid hitting a truck. He began to pull ahead and off to the side so he could quickly drive off without stopping. Fortunately, our car was still drivable. I could tell I was in a place that I should not get out of the vehicle.

When we got to a safe area, we pulled over to look at the damage. Even though I heard broken glass and crunching metal, there was no damage at all. It was a miracle and completely impossible. We then drove to a small town outside the city where we had a small apartment. After spending the night there, one of our neighbors knocked on our door. It was still morning.

Neighbor: "Come quickly! The last of the otters and the other sea mammals are down at the cove!"

I grabbed a digital camera and ran down to the cove. There were several people gathered there to watch. The otters were playing with each other. I saw some whales in the distance. I took some photos. The otters came into the shallow area of the cove. They went underwater together. When they surfaced, they were completely covered in silver mercury or paint of some kind. I stopped taking pictures when I realized they were dying. A popup then came onto the screen of my camera…

"Warning: You are being watched and filmed."

I immediately turned to look at the crowd. One person was illuminated and I knew they were watching me. He tried to duck when he saw me looking at him. I quickly exited out of the crowd without being followed and arrived safely back at my apartment. I told my daughter all about what had just happened.

Me: "Well, a man was there taking pictures. It looks like we need to move again."

My daughter nodded in agreement. We both then packed up what little we had.

Sub-dream 1 over…

While this was a detailed dream, it was also quite strange. It was so specific and with great details. My dreams lately have been so dark. There has been so much destruction everywhere. Whole cities are blacked out. There are no lights. Roads are destroyed making passage nearly impossible.

It also seems as if my husband and sons are off on other assignments. I have the sense that they are not dead, just somewhere else. I pray all of this is after the Great Harvest of souls. If it is before, I can't imagine how difficult it would be to keep the faith in such upheaval. Lord, great signs, wonders and miracles before all of this would be greatly appreciated.

You instructed my husband and me about several ways You are at work recently. It was to show us that, when You are behind a project, every detail is seamless and smooth. All things fall into place. When You are not behind a project, everything takes twists, turns, stalls and complete dead ends. It then becomes an effort instead of easy. Thank You, Father, for keeping us focused on Your way. Your yoke is easy and Your burden is light. We have only a few small paint projects and minor repairs to complete.

As for my stepson, he recently received a job offer out west. He will be leaving soon with a friend who is also in forestry. This leaves just me, my husband, my younger son and my daughter to finish up here. As for my older son in the Tri-Cities, he begins a new job on Monday. I pray for all of their continued protection.

I received a phone call yesterday from my surgeon's office in Portland ME. My surgery has now been scheduled for November 1, 2024. This is All-Saints Day. Father, I know these rescheduled surgeries have been done by You because it doesn't make any sense as to why the cancellations. You obviously don't want me to have my kidney removed or at least not yet. I am certainly praying for a complete healing instead.

I saw an exciting thing outside this morning. My female hummingbird came back to our home to feed. She has two young hummingbirds with her. She must have been nesting here all along. I was so excited to see this miracle. I am grateful! Thank You, Father, for hummingbirds. While I often try to take pictures of them, they are usually not great pictures because they are just so quick.

Father, we are almost ready to go to where You have planned for us. However, this seems impossible on our own. On our own strength, this is simply impossible. If You would, Father, please begin to present that door for us to step through. I am exhausted and not feeling the best. Even so, we surrender to You in all things. You are then free to work in our midst. Thank You for being our Omni-Awesome God!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are faced with many things right now. However, I have always been with you and I will not stop. I will carry you."

Me: "Lord, darkness is coming quickly. It is like a tsunami. How do we navigate a tsunami?"

Jesus: "You don't! Can you outrun a sweeping wave, a swift tide, a torrent of destruction?"

Me: "No, Lord, we can't."

Jesus: "I am your Higher Ground. I am your Rock that weathers all storms. As the days move forward, you are witnessing the Great Separation of those who are Mine vs those who are of this world. Those who are of this world serve the god of destruction. Now, more than at any other time, press into Me and pray. I am with you. My Will be done here on Earth as it is in Heaven.

"The plans of the wicked are numerous against the righteous. However, I will expose them. I am over all things on Earth and My Father in Heaven is with Me in this. Now, do not worry. Keep your focus on Me and the things of Heaven and your joy will be complete. Erin, My promises are true and I have never forgotten one of them. While I will never withhold even one from you, you do not understand the timing of God. These do not end here on Earth. They are in light of Eternal Plans.

"Now, do not say when someone passes, 'God never fulfilled His promises because it did not manifest here.' This is a false statement. A fool speaks on behalf of only what they see here in this time. Do not believe foolish talk. In all things, know that My Promises are true! Erin, all of My Promises are true."

Me: "We are so limited in knowledge, Lord. We speak in our own understanding. I realize now that You have shown me my place in Heaven and on the New Earth. Over the years, I can take comfort knowing You consider me enough to make a place for me, my children, my husband, my friends and even our pets. Those who suffer here and bear witness to the enduring love of our God who saves us… well, of course You would have a beautiful place prepared for us. Lord, You do this because You are so good!"

Jesus: "Erin, remember that changes are a difficult thing for your children. This is especially true with your sons. These are big things to them. Have patience and remember how hard this is on all of you."

Me: "I will, Lord. In the meantime, could You please heal us? Could You please strengthen us so that we are able to endure all that soon comes?"

Jesus: "I will. I will."

Me: "Lord, please bless our projects and let us find joy in doing good, all for Your sake. Lord, please protect all of us!"

Jesus: "I will. I am with you. Do not worry. I will send you all you need and even what you didn't ask for."

Dream over…

836 – Three minutes and not a second more!

Received on Saturday, August 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do for us, with us and because You love us. We don't deserve to have such an amazing Father. I love You. Your Word is more precious than gold. Everything we need is right here in these pages. Psalm 1 tells us how to endure here with joy. The following is the very first of the Psalms.

Psalm 1:1 Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; 2 but his delight is in the Law of the Lord, and on His Law he meditates day and night. 3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. 4 The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. 5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; 6 for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

You made Psalm 1 clear because every translation of this is the same. It does not change. We need this. Father, please etch this on our hearts that which separates us from the wicked. From what I see coming, no man will survive this. Please grant us clear direction. Please be very clear through my pen what I am to write as, without You, what I have seen in my dreams last night and what I heard is coming is terrifying.

After I had fallen asleep last night, the smoke alarm went off. We instantly heard it as it is right outside our bedroom door. My husband and I got up out of bed quickly. It went off twice and was very loud, but that was it. It was 1:34am according to our clock. We have no idea what triggered it.

I then had a difficult time falling asleep prior to this because my younger son had knocked on our door at around midnight to let us know that the front door was wide open. We decided that the remnant of Hurricane Debby probably blew the door open. What was odd is that we usually check the locks before going to bed. This is alarming to a recovering OCD patient (me).

When all of this happened, my guard was up. I prayed for the Lord to send His mighty angels to watch over us. We asked Him to secure our house. We were so thankful as there was no smoke, no fire and no intruder, human or animal. Clearly this was a call for us to awake spiritually. The time has come!

I had a few dreams last night and all of them were so vivid.

Sub-dream 1 "Three minutes and not a second more!"

I had an ariel view of North America. I saw the East Coast of the USA. My focus was then directed to the land between Portland ME and Washington DC. A few hundred miles off the coast stood a massive angel. He was standing on the sea. He was at least the size of the tower in Dubai. Even though he sort of looked like a hologram, he lit up the sea. He was fully enrobed in light.

I then noticed that he was holding a massive lantern. He had long hair and a long beard. He swung his lantern back and forth as if it was seconds ticking away on a clock. I heard him speak in a voice that was quite frightening. When he spoke, the entire sea became completely still. Even the currents became still. His voice was powerful like the depth of God's with His reach on the Throne.

However, there was a significant difference in his voice. While God speaks in a voice of an indescribable deep love, the angel's voice was warning of things soon to come. While God's voice makes every cell in our bodies respond in worship and love in return, the angel's voice was different. It was a voice over many waters. It was a voice of judgment and a warning of great trouble.

Angel over the Sea: "One if by Land! Two if by Sea! Three if by Both!"

I then saw three angels go out from behind the massive angel and towards the USA:

- One of the angels went to the south and appeared to be over the Gulf of Mexico.
- One of the angels went to the west and appeared to be over San Francisco.
- One of the angels went to the north and appeared to be over Minnesota.

The three angels held a sword in their right hands and a censer and an orb in their left hands. The censer was swaying back and forth in unison with the angel over the sea. The angel over the sea shouted out.

Angel over the Sea: 'Three minutes! Three minutes and not a second more! For the Kingdom of Heaven is here. Holy is the Lord of Hosts. His Dominion is over all of the Earth."

I then heard something like a buoy in the water that was dinging. A fog came over the still sea. I then saw something come from the sea. It was a fleet of what seemed to be submarines. They then disappeared under the ocean's surface. Then suddenly and with no warning, missiles or something similar launched toward the eastern and western coasts of the USA. I then saw these missiles hit various places on the East Coast and West Coast.

I then saw Chicago, Detroit and Minneapolis appear differently. These three cities did not experience a strike. However, armies assembled there and even in Canada. They were preparing to swarm the heartland from the north to the south. I then saw a swarm come up from Mexico to swarm the heartland from the south to the north.

I then saw a massive encampment come from New York State and swarm the regions there. The west was invaded from the north. They appeared to come from the sea, some even with a starting point of Vancouver Island in Canada. California seemed to be an easier place to invade than some of the other places.

All I could see was massive armies of soldiers all dressed in black. They covered their faces. Each was swift and had swords. People fleeing the cities that were under attack were then met by these armies. These armies were like wild animals. They had no mercy. They had no heart. Their only goal was to strike down the citizens in the streets after first dragging them from their homes.

They were selective in their attacks. Nicer properties were spared blood and destruction as the owners were instead removed and killed outside. Poorer properties and neighborhoods were burned after citizens were struck down in their homes. It was targeted and not random at all.

The invasion was swift, well planned and very well-funded. Within three days, America had fallen. It was horrific. It didn't even matter who you were. I saw famous movie stars and other celebrities being dragged out of their homes and thrown off cliffs and buildings to their deaths.

I then saw the angel over the sea stop swinging his lantern. After this, I heard one bell strike from the buoy, I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over.

It was 4:00 am exactly. I got up and peered out at the front door to make sure it was closed. When I went back to bed, my heart was still pounding from this dream. I began to cry. However, I then fell back asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Uriel sent by God to explain what is coming" begins…

In my dream, I heard a knock at my front door. It seemed so real. I quickly threw on my sweats and went to answer. There was Uriel at the door.

Uriel: "Erin, come with me."

He reached for my hand and we were instantly over the Earth on the Heavenly Overlook. However, I still didn't feel settled because of my graphic dream.

Me: "My stomach is sick. Uriel, all of this is coming soon. In my heart, I feel they are planning something in about thirty days, maybe around the Anniversary of 9/11."

Uriel: "You must keep your focus on the Word of God and the things of Heaven. The Voice of the Lord is within you, Erin. I am here to show you the enemy's plans against the children of God. This is so you pray and do not cease to keep Him front and center before you in all you do.

"Now, because of this time of trials that has come upon the Earth, God is sending you messages and warnings in your dreams about the plans of the wicked against the righteous. When you pray this, it activates angels from Heaven to release miracles, signs and wonders upon the Earth. More than this… even the wicked are exposed.

"Erin, the plans of the wicked against the righteous are many and lofty. The army in black who invades and kills by sword all the innocent have no idea that their own deaths will result in a different place for eternity than their false prophet promised them. Those who live by the sword will also die by it. It is written.

"Now, as you can see from here, the enemy sets themselves up in cities with many waters."

Me: "Yes. Almost all of the cities they go to seem to be on the waterfront. Hmm, but what about Minneapolis? This seems landlocked."

Uriel: "Oh, you mean the city of waters in the land of lakes? Erin, there is something in a name. Do not forget this."

Note: I took a quick peak to see what Uriel meant. It turns out that Minneapolis is derived from the Sioux word minne, meaning "water," and the Greek polis, for "city." Combined, this means Water City.

Uriel: "Now, the enemy has set his seat up not far from here (in Chicago). This is a monument to himself. It is therefore fitting that God and His angel armies have been refining His children here so they do not become victim to the evil planned for them."

Me: "But there is so much death there. On average, a murder happens every fourteen hours. Please help the people there in Chicago!"

Uriel: "Then pray. Since they have no voice, God is in the midst of them. One day, God will restore all they have lost and will dry every tear. In the meantime, understand this… you know when a city is blessed by its fruits."

I looked over all of the cities in the USA. Almost all of the cities on the coastlines were marked for troubles.

Me: "Why is God allowing this? Evil leaders came into power by deceiving the people. It is happening all over the world."

Uriel: "God sees. However, you must also understand that, over time, the people gave authority to the wicked and the gods they worship. They allowed the worship of Baal, Jezebel and Molech. They removed the worship of God and took back the land that is His. The people have turned their trust to the things of this world and the demons behind them. However, God is over His people and will not allow the enemy to prevail.

"Now, the name Dominion. The Orb is God's Dominion over all things. To mock God, the enemy advanced the Dominion (Voting) Machines to change the will of the people. As the enemy knows that the people do not want these leaders who currently govern, he plans to use this machine approach again. They made an edict that anyone who questioned this would go to prison. Erin, when there is an unfairly harsh punishment for something, know that the enemy is at work in this for a reason.

"Now, the enemy owns homes on many waters. He lives in luxury there. While he rules as if on a white horse with a crown and a bow, he has no arrows. No arrows mean he does not shoot an arrow. He therefore believes that he need not bear any guilt. He works in the shadows and hates the children of God, Israel and all that is Holy.

"He mocks God at every opportunity and has no issue with removing all opposition." Uriel then pointed again to Chicago. "Erin, they will have their 'Big Tent Revival' DNC here. This is where he can rally his people and send a message that he is bigger than all of this and that he is like God.

"Now, he is propping up the woman (the VP). She is more evil than you can imagine. She is all set to punish and destroy all of those in opposition.

"However, you are to remember that the angels of Heaven as sent by God are over His people. The enemy has tried and failed to remove their opposition. He has even called for their deaths. However, God has sent in angels that confound and confuse their works. God controls all things all of the time."

Me: "Uriel, can God just call for Revival first and bypass all of this bad stuff?"

Uriel: "Erin, God does what He needs to do in order to humble the proud, turn hearts to Him and to send healing and reconciliation. Do not worry as God has Dominion over all you see. The enemy does not. Evil struck out against Israel on the Feast of Shelters."

Note: October 7, 2023, the day of the attack by Hamas on Israel, was a Jewish holiday. More specifically, it was Shemini Atzeret, also known as the Eighth Day of Assembly.

Uriel: "The enemy was sending the message that time was finally finished for Israel. However, God allowed this so that prophecies would be fulfilled. As you can see, Israel is surrounded by her enemies. However, this is God's land. God will not be overcome here no matter what the enemy declares.

"Each one of them who speaks blasphemies against God will be struck down. This includes curses against Israel. It is written that those who bless Israel will be blessed and those who curse Israel will be cursed. If it seems like many are 'getting away' with their declarations of death to Israel, I can assure you they are seen and counted by God. They will not escape the Tempest that God will send."

Me: "Well then, Uriel, could you please have God send the Three Days of Darkness upon the Earth so that healing can begin?"

Uriel: "This will come, Erin, and sooner than you think."

Me: "Uriel, I had another dream last night. What did the Lord mean by this dream?"

Sub-dream 3 "A Photo of Hummingbirds in Heaven" begins…

I was in a bedroom with a glass wall that opened out to a beach. It seemed like California. I was in a hotel resort. I seemed young. As I sat there with my journal in front of me, I heard the Voice of the Lord…

The Voice of the Lord: "Erin, look outside!"

I got up and looked outside. The was a hanging basket of beautiful flowers. There were also many varieties of hummingbirds drinking nectar from these flowers. I began to grab my phone to take a photo when I heard the Voice of the Lord called out to me again…

The Voice of the Lord: Loudly. "Erin, enjoy what you see. You will never forget this and your photo will forever be in Heaven."

Sub-dream 3 over.

Uriel: "He is showing you that the things of this Earth are fleeting, especially lovely things. When you observe and delight in something God sends you, that picture He has painted for you here is worth a thousand words. He remembers that your heart delighted in the wonder of these things as a child. Because He loves you, He will give you this in Heavenly Places. Erin, He remembers!"

Me: Crying. "Thank you for this!"

Uriel: "Do not thank me. The Lord knew you would ask about this dream, so He sent me to confirm from His heart to yours."

Me: "I am scared, Uriel. I saw these evil men going door to door and sparing no one. One second, a family was having a conversation at the dining room table when these evil men barged in. Just a few minutes later, all of them were killed. All of the years of memories, love, laughter, future plans and a lifetime of raising them up are all gone in an instant. Gone! All gone for no reason other that we exist. We love Jesus! We love God! Many of us do!"

Uriel: "This has happened to many families, Erin. There are many who have suffered and lost much. However, remember this… God is good. It is not over. While a chapter may close here, this is not the end of the story. Don't put this book down. In God's Word, there is much to look forward to for those who love Him. Remember that life is fleeting here. God has Great Plans and will reconcile all of this.

"Great will by your joy. As for all of those who suffered and lost hopes and dreams… Well, God will fulfill His promises. Remember to keep reading His Book. Don't put it down. You are coming to the part where He comes with thousands of His Saints to administer justice. Then His angel army. Well, what about us? Do you think He won't also grant us victory over those who did evil of every kind?

"Then what about the New Temple in Jerusalem? What about the New Earth, a place where the Lord will walk amongst you? What about Heaven and the City of God? None of this is metaphorical. I know this as I have seen this from the beginning." I began to cry. "And He will wipe away every tear. Erin, you have springs and fountains of tears waiting.

"Now, do not be afraid. Take courage. These are directives from God Himself and He sent me to tell you. Continue on your course. He is with you. His promises are true and all is about to change. Oh yes… and remember… WE WIN! We have already won. It is settled. What you see before you is the enemy hoping for a different outcome. This doesn't happen."

Sub-dream 2 over.

I woke up immediately and went straight to my chair to write…

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Me: "Lord, I am still scared. My dreams were so real."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I will not leave you or forsake you. I have a Great Plan!"

Me: "Lord, how will we move to Bend OR? When are we going? Is this move even necessary given all of the troubles coming?"

Jesus: "Remember to finish your tasks. Do all that I have instructed. Then pray. You will then understand why I had you do all of this. Erin, rejoice! I love you and I will provide for you in all you do. Those who bless you I will bless and those who curse you I will curse. This is why it is not necessary to let your enemies know you are moving. There is no good that would come from this. Once you are there, they will stay far away from you in fear. Now rejoice as the time is near. I am with you. The door will open!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-837/

837 – The Great Rebellion accelerated in the 1960s

Received on Sunday, August 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all we have been given. Thank You for every blessing and prayer from every one of our friends You have sent us. I love You so much, Father.

Something in me has changed, something I never thought would come to me again. I have a feeling that we are wrapping things up. When You said to me a few years back to begin to get my house in order, I thought You meant for us to organize and downsize, not mobilize. This was so far off my list of 'things to do'.

Now, here we are in August 2024. The leaves are just beginning to turn colors at the tops. This is the earliest that I have ever smelled fall in the air. This happened a couple of weeks ago in the last week of July.

As for my stepson, he will be leaving our house in early September 2024. He will be moving permanently out west with another forestry friend for a job. This leaves me, my husband, my daughter and my younger son to wrap things up here.

My whole being has since been preparing. This is God in me, not fully me, until I realized at some point that truly this portion of our lives has come to a close. We have given away so much to charities. My younger son has been packing his things. My daughter has already thinned out her belongings a few years back when she went out west to school.

All my daughter now has is some clothing, a few personal items and her podcast equipment. My stepson will pack his things over the next two weeks. These will be some of the final items we need to have completed. This assumes that we are not going to fully move. If we are to fully move, this will add many things to our list. This means that all is fully dependent on the Lord to direct and provide like only He can.

As for my health recently, my stomach has been nauseous every morning. In fact, the last time I remember feeling like this was when I was pregnant with my daughter 23 years ago. By mid-afternoon every day, my back in the areas of my kidneys aches so badly that I have had to wind down. At first, I thought it was a back issue, but I now realize it is related to my kidney cancer.

While I was supposed to have a biopsy this Thursday, this was pushed off again until October. In all of these years of dealing with doctors, this has been a never-ending series of holdovers. This means I know that Your hand is in this or otherwise this makes no sense. I must admit that it seems so surreal to be experiencing the closing of these doors and the stalling of the surgery to remove my kidney.

All of this just has to be supernatural. Now though, I feel as if I am stuck once again in a hallway with closed doors. I hadn't even cried at all until yesterday. I wondered if I was out of Your favor. I have a determined resolve met with the uncertainty of where we are going, how this will be and where will the way come from. I ask, 'Lord, are You here?' I then immediately hear, 'Yes, I am right here with you.'

I was standing at the kitchen sink a few days ago and I saw a flash of red outside by the birdfeeders. A large red cardinal had flown into the bushes. I was so excited. I then spotted a female cardinal in the tray a few hours later. My son took some photos. Father, I know this is a sign. I am just not sure what it means. I haven't seen them since, so I pray they come back soon for another visit.

Father, I am struggling to find joy. My dreams are disturbing. One dream in particular was quite vile.

Sub-dream 1 "A Man with a Yellow Syringe" begins…

I encountered a man with so many demons that I could not believe it. He was trying to get me to eat something I wasn't interested in eating. I could see his demons. One of the demons was like a hologram inside of him, but so big it wasn't confined to his body. It was three inches larger in a type of frame outline all around him. While I then cast it out, another then came. This kept going for quite some time.

Finally, after the last evil spirit was gone, the young man collapsed. When he did, a syringe with a yellow chemical came out of his shirt coat. It broke and the drug spilled. This syringe was clearly meant for my harm. He had been trying to kill me. He was alive but sleeping, so I placed a pillow under his head and left the area.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I then had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "A Strange Short Trip" begins…

My husband and I had been invited to attend the class of a well-known preacher and scholar (JC, one of my husband's favorite authors). When we arrived at the large classroom at this university, we were welcomed at the door and instructed to find a seat. Even though we had arrived early, we noticed that all of the seats were already reserved. We approached the speaker to inform him.

Me: "We just wanted you to know that we have no place to sit for your session. All of the seats are already reserved."

JC: "Yes. This is because what I have to share with others is not new to your ears. However, it will be new to those who we have reserved places to sit."

My husband: "Hmm, then why did you even invite us here?"

JC: "Well, to meet you, of course. Now, I will send a taxi to take you to your hotel. This will be free of charge."

Me: "Thank you, but no. We will find our own way."

We then proceeded to leave the building. A van then pulled up with nine youths. These youths were quite frightening.

The leader of the youths: "Hey, come on into our van."

The Voice of the Lord then spoke to my husband and I in our heads: "No, do not go with them. Do not be fooled by this."

My husband: Firmly. "Thanks for the offer, but we decline."

They then went to open their sliding van door. We knew that they were going to force us into their van. However, the Lord kept the sliding door from opening. They began to swear. Something unusual then happened. They started crawling all around inside this van. They were even able to cling to the roof of the van as they crawled, like an insect. It was very creepy.

Right after this, we translated to our hotel room. Shortly after this, we decided not to stay anymore and we immediately arrived at our home.

Sub-dream 2 over.

I then had another interesting dream.

Sub-dream 3 "Baptizing Trump in a River" begins...

I was standing behind a man in a beautiful river. I was there to baptize him. While he was holding someone or something in his arms, I could not see who or what it was. I then guided him backwards, immersing him fully into the river. When he came up out of the river, I suddenly realized it was President Donald J. Trump.

Sub-dream 3 over.

Father, I am so tired now. I am in need of dreams of Heaven or the New Earth. I need something to refresh my Spirit and renew my hope. Please, Lord!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not be afraid. Erin, how did the generation of your parents die?"

Me: "Most died painful deaths, such as cancer or other ailments. Very few in my family died peacefully from old age."

Jesus: "Why is this?"

Me: "They had unhealthy habits and addictions. Smoking, drinking and other unhealthy things like this were available to them when they were young and they partook."

Jesus: "Yes. Your parents were part of the great rebellion. They were questioners of truth. Your mother went in one direction and your father went in another direction. You were raised amongst great sins all around you."

Me: "Yes. I even remember the 1960s, but especially 1968 and 1969. Even though I was only five to six years old, I still especially remember these last two years."

Jesus: "Because of your upbringing, you experienced things that made you question their questioning and rebellion. Those born of this generation adopted many pagan practices. They were into 'self-help, self-soothing and self-worship'. Your parents despised their parents even though they worked hard. Your parents rebelled and turned away from conventional wisdom and the churches in which both were raised.

"Since you were then raised with no church, you then became interested in the very thing your parents told you to avoid. You did this when you noticed that your behavior was not gaining you anything. Because your personal achievements were not giving you fullness, you then sought Me. Erin, you turned to Me.

"As for your children, they grew up experiencing your hardships, as well as your successes. Because you dedicated all things to Me and they saw this, you now have children who seek Me. Erin, you gave birth to soldiers in the Army of God."

Me: "Lord, I am so thankful and grateful to You for this."

Jesus: "Erin, you are an overcomer and a fighter. Despite your troubles, you keep going. Those I have called from your generation are these. Now, I know things seem uncertain. I also know that you are not well. However, Good News is coming. I come bearing Good News and great will be your joy."

Me: "I need this, Lord. I have been so discouraged. I have been overwhelmed and my heart hurts."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a place for you. I have a reserved seat for you at My table. The dreams I give you are a foreshadowing of what is coming. However, take heart, as I have overcome the world. All that I do has a purpose."

Me: "I was reading about the Dead Sea Scrolls."

Jesus: "Yes. Look at the significance of the time these ancient texts were found. It was found by a Bedouin boy bearing the name of the false prophet. This boy was a herder of goats. These scrolls were found just months prior to Israel's rebirth as a nation. This area was safe for the storage of these records as they were protected by angels and preserved for their discovery at this time. The significance of this was overlooked by the enemies of God.

"I now bring this to your attention so you understand that I am in control over all of this. When I come again, I come as a King and as a Warrior and all will understand that My Sword is the Sword of Truth. What I say is what will be done. Lies will be no more. I come with My Army of Warriors to administer justice. While I once came as a 'Just Savior', I now come 'For Justice'."

Me: "Lord, You will come as a superhero by which all other fictional characters are weak in comparison."

Jesus: "Well, I will be coming with My superheroes… but, yes, I am God. Erin, I don't want you to worry when it seems evil is ramping up with more evil. Do not worry as this continues. The Kingdom of Heaven and My Vast Army is also preparing. These dreams you are given are like an orientation into what you will now face.

"Now, rejoice, Erin, and do not worry. I have you. I will continue to provide for all of your needs. I have you. I love you. Continue to press ahead and I will strengthen you. One door closes and another door opens. It is I who opens and closes these doors."

Me: "Please open this soon, Lord. We need some guidance."

Jesus: "I will. Do not worry. I am with you and I know. Pray!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-838/

838 – Remember that I hold every Key

Received on Friday, August 23, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all that You do for us. Thank You for all You are soon to do in our lives. All of Your people are growing tired, Father. It is so difficult to hear the lies of the enemy prevail over all truth.

It is even harder when it seems they are rising in power over all of us. Please don't wait too long. This place is painful. What is happening to the Jewish people all over the world is horrifying. Christians are being persecuted too. Things are becoming worse.

A real estate evaluator came to our property on Wednesday (August 21, 2024). She is scheduled to contact us early next week to let us know what our property is worth.

As for my stepson, once he leaves in just over a week from now, our home will feel even emptier. We will be down to just two kids (my daughter and my younger son) compared to the five kids we had just one year ago.

Father, please help us. This will not be an easy next few weeks with so much work and uncertainty ahead. However, I know You are with us no matter what. Let not our will, but Your Will, be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Today is the 10th anniversary of You removing me and all three of my children from the desert to the land of the trees. You were very specific with the odd Saturday date You had given me back in 2014. The miracle that then unfolded was shocking and something I never imagined coming our way.

In a strange series of events not initiated by me, my greatest enemy had drafted a surprise release proposal to be signed off on Saturday, August 23, 2014. In exchange for my enemy not having to pay us any child support, he would grant my children their freedom to move to the East Coast. This happened quickly:

- He arranged to meet me at his bank early that morning to have this agreement signed by both of us and legally notarized.
- By 10:00am, the documents were officially signed and my children were legally free to leave the desert.
- At noon, I dropped all of them off at his house to say their goodbyes.
- I picked them up again at 7:00pm that evening.
- We then left the area just before midnight to begin our long journey east.

So, Father, here we are again. We are waiting on a miracle from You. Please show us Your glory in all things. You are preparing our hearts for changes. However, I am still not fully certain what all of this means. I have gone through changes for all 61 years of my life. However, staying here in such a remote place while most of our children have gone out west just doesn't feel right to me. It would seem to be handier for us to live on the same coast so travel time is minimal compared to what it otherwise would be.

In a recent dream, You showed me that our area we currently live in was soon going to be inundated with even more foreigners. There will soon be so many that we will no longer even be welcome in our own homeland. An incident happened just a few days ago at an electronics store when my husband and I went there to pick up my daughter's computer after it needed some minor repairs.

My husband had decided to stay in the car because two very large and scary men from the middle east were right there in a pickup truck in front of our car. My husband was concerned about leaving the vehicle because they might place a tracker on our car and come for it later. After our last car was stolen, we have been more diligent about our car. When I walked outside to the parking lot, I saw them and my Holy Spirit raised the hairs on my body. I felt this was confirmation enough that they had planned something.

Oh Lord, we pray that we can get to Bend OR or even another community where we can walk safely and not worry as much. Father, the world is at war and no one is safe from the evil preying on our children. Please don't forget us! Please watch over us!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Yes, I saw those evil men. While they had evil on their hearts, I prevented them from keeping their plans. Erin, I know you feel uncertain. You are scared and overwhelmed because of all you see coming. The dreams I have sent you now confirm the times. You can do nothing on your own. However, you are limitless when you are with Me."

Me: "Lord, I don't feel this way right now. This was a very difficult few weeks of preparing our home for the real estate evaluator. At the same time, my stepson is now preparing to leave. Things have been difficult as a result. So many items in our home still need repairs. I have never sold a home so I don't know much other than what a home staged for sale should look like.

"I am scared. If we sell our home, once the mortgage is paid and our debts paid, we don't have enough money for a different home purchase. We would have to purchase something that needs work or so small that only my husband and I could live there. My husband would then need to work right away at something wherever we are. However, he is now too old for most employers. Lord, we need a 'You-Sized Miracle'!"

Jesus: "Yes, you do. Erin, I built this home for you. You have raised your family here. There are many wonderful things about your current home. I gave you a place to meet with Me there. I gave you a place to rest and pray. I provided for you in every hardship. I grew each one of you to where I needed you to be for this time. While I have prepared your heart for big changes, you don't understand all of what I have done and will do until I am about to do all that I have promised.

"Now, why do I do things in this way? Well, it isn't to keep you in the dark. It is to keep you in the midst of My Light. It is in your lack that I am to complete you so you lack for nothing. Erin, I know what you need before you ask Me. I tell you to prepare in advance because I know what I have planned for you and it is good. I have built a home for you, Erin, for now and forever.

"I tell you the truth… you will leave behind no good thing as I will send angels to collect your things. These include things that are special to you and have meant a great deal to you that you have let go of or lost. These will be waiting for you one day and you will stand amazed.

"Now, about the rug you saw in My Home that you were amazed by. On Earth, one of the tragedies entailed the making of this rug. The family that made this rug had dedicated the works of their hands to Me while weaving and creating this rug. Once it was finished and the ends tied after braiding, their home was raided and the entire family was slaughtered.

"This rug was then covered in their blood. The evil men then set their home on fire. These men wore masks to cover their faces. Well, Erin, this family was special and they now reside with Me in eternity. Their rug was collected by angels and is now in My Home (note that the rug I saw there is in immaculate shape and therefore had to be supernaturally cleaned). I will never forget what they did for Me while they were there."

Me: Crying. "Lord, does this mean that I am going to die soon? Is my family going to be slaughtered by evil men?"

Jesus: "No to both, Erin. I tell you this because this entire family weaved and worked their hands of My blessings into this rug with joy and singing. I remember each of them. No matter what happens on Earth in these perilous times, I see and I know. I bless each man according to his heart. Erin, I know your heart and I count it as good. I say all of this because you worry about things you haven't been given information about yet.

"Remember that I hold every Key. If I want you to sell your home, you will know this quickly. If I want you in Bend OR, which I have already promised for you, then you must allow Me to finish preparations for this. Remember that you have stored for yourselves treasures in Heaven. These treasures can not be destroyed by thieves, worms, moths or even fire."

Me: "Lord, I have had some of my art pieces for many years now. I have even owned one for more than twenty years. However, I don't know their value. What if, in all of my years of collecting, I already hold a piece worth enough to pay our debts?"

Jesus: "How about you instead focus on the one thing greater than all things in your midst… the One who created you, loves you and knows the value of all things? Erin, I value you, your family and your friends. However, the greatest and most priceless treasure is Me who speaks to you now. I am the Way. I am the Waymaker. I would first show you any items of great worth and I would then also send you a buyer.

"However, you are not to worry about these things right now as I have a Great Plan here. I will make clear your way in days, not months. Do not worry. I have not set you up to be a false prophet. I have not set you up to be a liar. You understand the magnitude of this road ahead and you wonder if I am with you. Erin, I am! You must stay on your course. A miracle is coming for you and it will strengthen your faith.

"Now, remember that, as things stand now, all of this would be impossible. However, I am the God over all things and nothing is impossible for Me. I love you, Erin. I want you to remember that I am not here thinking, 'Wow, look at Erin… why would I even go to the Cross for someone like her?'"

Me: "Oh Lord, that would be horrible."

Jesus: "I went to the Cross for you, your family, your friends and their children. I am here in the midst of troubles. I am God over all things. Your troubles will soon be removed in a single day, even in an hour. Your troubles will all vanish. I have promised you good all the days of your life. When it doesn't seem like a good thing, it is still worked out for the good of those who love Me in the end."

Dream over.

839 – The Dead Sea and the Euphrates River

Received on Sunday, August 25, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and care. Thank You for Your daily provision and miracles. We are grateful.

This is a mysterious day. Several times when I went to write today's date, I kept writing June 25, 2024 (which was a Tuesday) instead. There must be a reason that You have brought me back to this date. However, as of right now, I am still not sure as to why.

When I woke up last night at 2:45am, I heard You say, 'Erin, I make streams in a desert land. I dry up the cursed lands and nothing will thrive in a desert I do not bless.' While I laid on my pillow, I then thought about the Garden of Eden and how beautiful it must have been. I then remembered when God sent fire down on Sodom and Gomorrah and how everything then changed in a single hour.

I then thought about Noah and the days of Noah (Matthew 24:37-40 and Luke 17:26-27). People were living their lives, their normal state of affairs, sins and daily events, when, suddenly and without warning, the floods came and swept them all away. So will it be at the end of age.

After praying on this for a while, I then fell asleep and had an epic dream…

Sub-dream 1 "The Dead Sea and the Euphrates River" begins…

I saw a vast desert. It had a mix of sand and caked dirt with rocks. Nothing lived there. I stood on the west side of what must have been the banks of a wide river. I could tell that it pooled there when the rains would come. While the sun was still below the horizon, it was starting to rise in the east.

Me: "Father, what is this place? Where am I and why have You brought me here in my sleep?"

God: "Erin, lift your hands to Me over this river and I will bring fresh springs to a parched land. This long-forgotten river will then spring with new life."

I raised my hands to the Lord God and prayed for Him to make the way for a beautiful river and fresh springs. I prayed in my spirit language. As I prayed, God began to open the ground with fresh springs. A wall of water then came from the north and flowed through it.

Me: "Father, could You bring new life here too? Plants, grass and trees make this beautiful like places in Heaven. How about just bringing some of Your Garden here?"

God: "Pray for this with outstretched arms."

I started to pray with outstretched arms. As I did, I saw the skies open and four angels of the Lord descend. These four angels were carrying various items with them…

- The first angel had olive branches and fruit branches.
- The second angel had fish.
- The third angel had fragrant flowers and spices.
- The fourth angels had priceless gems and gold.

Two of the angels planted their olive branches, fruit branches, flowers and spices in the soil. The other two angels planted their fish, gems and gold in the river. It was an amazing sight to take in. I then saw the heavens offer up a gentle rain. After this, the sun rose in the east.

God: "Now, Erin, offer up this land to Me as this is a good land."

Me: "Father, only You could make springs in the desert, flowing rivers on dry beds and lush greenery. Not only this, but You also place fish and precious stones in the river. Bless the works of Your hands, Father, as there is no God like You who can bring life in death. Who can make places on Earth as they are in Heaven? Thank You for this beautiful place dedicated to You for Your purposes."

Just then, an angel of the Lord appeared on the banks of this beautiful river. I dropped to my knees out of fright (not in prayer) as this angel came in a flash of bright white light.

Angel: "Erin, rise to your feet. I have been sent by God to take you to a cursed river."

The angel reached for my hand and we were suddenly at another river. This river was drying up and had a putrid smell.

Me: "What river is this?"

Angel: "The Euphrates. This is the cursed river. Come!"

He reached for my hand and took me below the surface. This was quite unusual as we had no water around us. He pointed to something.

Angel: "There was a cave there. In here are the (evil) angels who were imprisoned by God to await judgment. The people surrounding this area are always thirsty and never satisfied. They wait for the river to dry up as they have prophets who say there are mountains of gold stored here. Instead, here lies the angels who will one day be released upon them and these angels will not be bringing gold."

Me: "Who exactly are these angels?"

Angel: "Erin, it is written. Now, look and see the late hour we are in!"

Me: "Is this cave going to be revealed soon?"

Angel: "Yes, but all is according to God and His timing. At any time, He can stall this river from drying or He can hasten it. All glory be to God who is over all things. Now come!"

He reached for my hand and we were instantly at the banks of a large lake. The lake was beautiful and completely still.

Angel: "This is the Dead Sea. The prophet of the Lord, Ezekiel, prophesied that this dead sea will show signs of life in it at the end of days. This vast area was once where Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. After this, no life has been here. This was a sign from God that the land you see was cursed. Over here is Israel and on this side (to the east) is Jordan (Ezekiel 47:8-10). Erin, one day, many will be baptized and swim in this dead sea after God brings this to life. The Temple of God will water this from His Throne with Living Water.

"Now, God's judgment comes to nations who remove God and worship idols. He sends angels to bring calamities. He floods deserts even named for cursed peoples, Moabites for one, and God removed them never to remain again. Moab vanished."

Me: "Ruth was a Moabite and she was in the lineage of David."

Angel: "Yes, but she denounced her people to follow Naomi and her God. She became a child of God and forsook her heritage. She was loyal and had a great heart for God. Remember that you are grafted in also and you are no longer a worshipper of demons."

Me: "I didn't worship demons, did I?"

Angel: "Erin, you practiced witchcraft and the things that pagans chased decades ago. However, you are now a child of the Most High God and you no longer follow the doctrines of demons. You long ago destroyed all that you used to practice this with."

Me: "I now understand."

Angel: "Now, God has sent me to show you the revelation of the lateness of the hour."

Me: "I just looked up Moabites and Moab. There was a severe flood in Moab, Utah in June."

Angel: "There was also flooding just a short while ago (just yesterday). There will be another to come as well. God calls on His people to serve Him only and not turn to the sin of chasing other gods or even have a garden to host them."

Me: "Oh, the valley of the gods?"

Angel: "They are dwelling under valleys and below until the Lord opens their dwelling places where they remain until judgment."

Me: "Are they somewhere below the valley of the gods too?"

Angel: "Do not concern yourself with these mysteries reserved for God and His Will for the angels who have fallen. You are to instead understand the times you are in and the Good News that you are here as a witness to for this late hour."

Me: "When will we be strengthened to endure all of this?"

Angel: "This I cannot say. However, instead understand that the prophecies are being revealed now so you can know that Heaven is here and even at the door. The armies of the destroyer, Chemosh and others, are manifest now in the leaders over the people. When these leaders removed God and His Statutes, His Commandments and His Laws, then God allowed these evil entities to rise up in them.

"They are now acting empowered by these permissions of God. They believe that, if they can destroy all opposition, the children of God, Christians and Jews, weaken them, poison them and kill them, then God will leave the world to them as an inheritance. However, God has never abandoned His people, His Creation or His Land. His promises are true and He is about to reveal Himself through His workers.

"His Army will usher in the Lord. Never has there been a time like this in history. Events are moving as quickly as a flood in the desert. The evil comes as a deluge and the very flood during the times of Noah swept all of the evil away. They will be no more and God's great deluge of miracles will come and the land will heal.

"God will then gather His people and bring them to the place He has prepared for them. However, with any great move of God comes great opposition, especially at the beginning. The realm of evil operates in lies, imprisons, persecutes, obstructs, assassinates, kills and destroys. Anyone who is not with them is a target."

Me: "But God could change this."

Angel: "Erin, God's Ways are perfect because He has all of the evidence. He sees all and knows all their evil. Therefore, with these, there is no redemption. They must be removed. The land will then be laid waste by fire and reshaped by God's own hand. The land will then be purified from the defilement of evil."

Me: "Purged?"

Angel: Think of things in this way… God removes His children and the animals to His Great Ark in the sky. Those who remain will then be subject to His Wrath. A small remnant will come out of this and this is good. However, all of this must occur so God can be God over all things and all those who are witnesses to this will serve God in great joy and gratitude for eternity."

Me: "Oh, so, this is like the days of Noah now?"

Angel: "Erin, God's Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven and so too is His Will be done, understand? While I must go now, you are to rejoice as He is with you."

Sub-dream 1 over…

My Bible opened to Psalm 97 as I was getting resituated in my devotional chair. There are no accidents. Thank You, Lord.

I then prayed as I opened my Bible again. This time, the 17th chapter of Jeremiah was right in front of me, a chapter titled 'The Sins of Judah'.

Jeremiah 17:5-8: 5 Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the Lord. 6 He is like a shrub in the desert and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. 7 Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. 8 He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the streams, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought for it does not cease to bare fruit.

Jeremiah 17 then continues to verse 19 and reminds us to keep the Sabbath holy.

I then opened my Bible to page 1144. Here, Luke 17:20-37 speaks on the Coming of the Kingdom. I realize many people think of this as a rapture reference, but something I discovered in the last few lines makes me believe something else. To me, the references there to the corpse and the vultures do not fit in with my vision of what the rapture will be like.

Father, thank You for these dreams and visions!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have questions."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I now believe differently about the Scripture in Luke 17."

Jesus: "Ah yes… My Words."

Me: "Yes. I first looked at Luke 17, verses 22 to 25…

22 And He said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 And they will say to you, 'Look, there!' or 'Look, here!' Do not go out or follow them. 24 For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. 25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

"The first example You give is that we should not be deceived when false sightings of You surface and that, on Your day when You come, You will come so large in the sky that it is from one end to another. This means You are visible by all and this can't be questioned."

Jesus: "Yes, very good."

Me: "However, You then use examples of the days of Noah when he entered the ark. It was a regular day with eating, drinking, marrying and engagements. The flood then came and destroyed them all. This is described in verses 26 and 27…

26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

"You then bring up a comparison to the days of Lot in verses 28 to 33…

28 Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot—they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, 29 but on the day when

Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all—30 so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. 31 On that day, let the one who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, not come down to take them away, and likewise let the one who is in the field not turn back. 32 Remember Lot's wife. 33 Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it.

"You then speak more on who will be taken and who will be left in verses 34 to 37…

34 I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken and the other left. 35 There will be two women grinding together. One will be taken and the other left." (Some manuscripts add verse 36 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.) 37 And they said to him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather."

"Lord, this seems to me to be more like death by something. To me, 'taken' seems to mean 'by death' as opposed to 'by rapture'?"

Jesus: "Hmm, interesting observation. What does the prophet Zechariah proclaim?"

After some searching, I found Zechariah 14, the Coming of the Day of the Lord. I went to Him with this.

Jesus: "Erin, this is a wicked generation and they are far from Me."

Me: "Lord, the events in Luke 17:20-37 seems to me to be more like a plague or even a nuclear blast."

Jesus: "Erin, this is not something that any could prepare for other than to pray and keep an upright heart. These are mysteries until that trouble comes. Now, focus instead on streams in the desert and springs of Living Water for those who are thirsty. I am over all things. You of all people should not worry as I am here in the midst of you! Rejoice, Erin! I love you and I am with you!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-840/

840 – The Enemy's Plans for the Election

Received on Tuesday, August 27, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Everyday is brand new. Everyday is a new day and another day closer to Your Glory in all the Earth. Thank You for caring for us. We are grateful for all we have. In all things, I either have great faith in Your promises for us or I have 'chutzpah'. Even so, I still have 'The Audacity to Believe'.

I am sick now almost every morning. Maybe it is the content of my dreams during the night that makes my stomach turn or maybe it is this cancer. I don't know. I only know that it reminds me of pregnancy morning sickness.

I was online looking at my medical records and chart schedule the other day. I then noticed that I am scheduled for all my pre-op visits in October, but not my surgery. My kidney removal surgery was scheduled for November 1, 2024, but it has not been posted as being scheduled. Father, would You please just heal me instead? I am concerned about all of these problems with this surgery.

Clearly, You are not making a way at this point. My doctor told me this surgery is not rocket science and he can do these removals in his sleep. Father, I believe You are either closing the door on surgery in Maine for surgery in Oregon or You are planning something else. Either way, I will place my trust in Your plans. I really have no other plans here. Father, I am at the mercy of You, my God.

I had a restless sleep again last night. I woke up from my sleep with the song 'Worthy is the Lamb'. A haunting image of a young girl kept flashing before me. She is Muslim and works at a local store. She wears a hijab and has the most sweet face and way about her. I heard Your Voice, Father, say to me 'she is Mine'. I then realized that there are those in the Muslim community who God has called. This should be interesting.

After praying for her, I fell back to sleep and had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "The Enemy's Plans for the Election" begins…

A knock on our front door woke me up. I went to see who it was. It was an angel of the Lord that I did not recognize. As I opened the door, I could tell it was right before dawn. The angel was fully illuminated and in something like light armor. His breastplate was patterned like Damascus steel and burnished to a very high sheen. He wore a type of white tunic over white linen pants. He wore boots of steel with Damascus shin guards.

He was handsome (as all angels are). He had darker skin and green eyes. He had a kind face with perfect features. He was muscular and I knew he could take out a human with a single swing. His hair was shoulder length, brown and thick. As he smiled, I noticed his teeth were white and perfect.

Angel: "Miss Erin, I was sent by God to take you to a dark place where plots are hatched in secret. We are at war over the area. I will take you."

As he reached for my hand, I placed my arm around his arm. We were instantly over a dark and barren land.

Angel: "This was once Persia or Parsa – Babylon – and where the Chaldeans originated. However, God has not sent me to give you a history lesson today. I am to instead show you what is being planned today against God's people. We are at war over the area with the Prince of Persia. The Prince of Persia is over his vast army. Michael is over Israel and we fight against this dark prince day in and day out. We have now fought him for thousands of years.

"There are two chief princes who serve Satan. All wars and invasions have the same patterns as they are without new inspiration. The only 'new' that comes is from divine inspiration and illumination under Heaven. These three make up the evil version of the Trinity here. The Prince of Persia is over this entire territory of the east and the other is over the west. In other words, even though there was a change in labels, there is nothing new under Heaven, understand?"

Me: "I believe I do."

Angel: "So, this is the Babylon region of old. At one point, this was the territory of the Garden (of Eden)."

Me: "Oh, this is the area from my dream a few nights ago. Is this now Iran?"

Angel: "Well, yes. However, this area once encompassed a vast area not limited to the current area of Iran. The western prince is now in control of his army over the new Babylon territory."

A map suddenly appeared before us. It was cut into two regions. The prince to the west was over new Babylon. The prince to the east was over current and ancient Babylon. I then saw a type of demonic king over all of the areas.

Me: "Hmm, I guess that I am not that surprised."

Angel: "Although these two are on the same side, they are in competition… as in a race. Both princes control the leaders over these areas. However, God and His angel armies have held them back from destroying Israel and the western and northern regions. Now, a great war began several years ago. It was a false war to cause the great migration of the enemies of God's people throughout the nations. The goal was to flood these nations."

He pointed to Eurupe, then to Canada, then to the USA and then to South America.

Angel: "These areas were once strong in their faith. However, great evil has now breached these areas, resulting in a ground war in the natural. God is about to deploy more troops. His ground army will cause the enemy's plans to pause and the invaders to scatter. Since they are aware that God has a Great Plan here, they hurry.

"However, understand that your leaders here…" He pointed first to Europe. "Here…" He pointed second to Canada. "Here…" He pointed third to the USA. He then pointed to Venezuela, Brazil and several other South American nations. He then pointed to Mexico and said, 'And, of course, here!"

"Now, God allowed the veil to go over the people, even when clues were clear in the name, as well as in the alliances made. This is what occurred to get to this point."

Me: Smiling. "Hmm, I thought this wasn't supposed to be a history lesson?"

Angel: "Well, not an ancient history lesson. However, it is a pattern the enemy has used throughout history to destroy a nation under God and dishearten the people. An evil ruler was raised up here." The angel pointed to Washington DC. "He came from the sea here." He pointed to Hawaii. "The people were fooled. He then rose to power. He has so much hate for the people that he wants their complete destruction.

"He then worked to destroy the nation from within. He ordered policies to drain all monetary power. He attacked industry and turned the nation who was under God to a nation of slaves. He then worked to discourage pro-creation. He destroyed oil and food supplies. He took away all the blessings given to the people in this beautiful land and moved it overseas.

"The enemy of his enemy then became his friend even though he burns with hatred toward them. He called on ways to poison the people and destroy their dreams. He even said to one leader, 'Unleash this plague lest this bull gains more power and our position be exposed.' He called upon countries to empty their prisons and asylums and send them through the borders to the south.

"This man has removed God out of the courts of the land, courts that displayed His Commandments. He even caused churches to shutter during this plague. With things still not progressing fast enough for him, he made deals to send poison to kill the young fighting men. Thousands then fell, but not by sword. He has now changed the election rules so his leader will win. The Prince of Persia is assisting in this."

Me: "None of this is fair. Can't God relent? There are crowds and crowds of those who praise Him. There are many who still love Jesus and support Israel. Can we do anything?"

Angel: "I am sent by God to show you what has occurred and what is planned against the people. It will happen quickly. The woman rising to her seat is more wicked than you can imagine. Her sole purpose is to be a figurehead while evil advances behind her. The invading army has already appointed her in exchange for money and the fulfillment of the promise to take what they want with no punishment. All you see occurring is a war against the children of God."

Me: "Then is it hopeless to pray for a new government for the people if this corruption continues? This will take a miracle of God."

Angel: "I am here to show you what has occurred and to confirm your suspicions. I am to then reveal to you what they still have planned. However, they are still discussing the order of these events amongst themselves:

- Erase by destruction the Temple Mount as this has the most evidence of God's sovereignty. They will then rebuild their dome and seat of evil.
- They will defile all of Israel's sacred sites. While doing this, they will hunt and cut down all Jews and kill them.
- Remember that their evil trinity remembers the destruction by the hand of God via Israel of many of their now-removed nations. Because of this, they have vowed to destroy God's land and defile it, wiping it off the face of the Earth.

- Then there is Europe. The order of evil struck out against this region (he pointed to the UK). This is because they were responsible for the Balfour Agreement of 1917. When they were pressured to back out, God's favor lifted from them and they lost their kingdom. They have now been invaded.
- Then over here (he pointed to Canada). This leader has risen by deceit. He works for the hidden leader to the south (he pointed to DC). He is also controlled by the leader here (he pointed to China). This weak leader has allowed a mass immigration under the darkness of night. The confusion of information, lies and great deception has caused the invasion to the north. The people there are like these here (he pointed to the UK). The native born citizens are in the dark and do not rise up out of fear.
- Their Crown Jewel is Israel and then here (he pointed to the USA).

Me: "So, this is what the evil leaders have done…

- Take away the abilities to fight by removing weapons.
- Create fear, laziness and depression amongst young people.
- Control media and distribute propaganda as truth.
- Encourage suicide.
- Call on parents to give their children sex changes; castrations and masectomies
- Make illegal drugs legal.
- Ship jobs overseas.
- Take away earning power.
- Remove good food.
- Poison the food that is cheap and offer less healthy food.
- Remove simple conveniences
- Restrict travel.
- Raise pricing through inflation.
- Increase taxes and send out an army to collect them.
- Throw all who support the other side into jail.
- Increase the killings of babies.

- Make prayer illegal so as to not offend.
- Bring in foreigners that are offended by Christians.
- Force conversions.
- Control education.
- While there is still so much more, I can't recall all of it.

Angel: "This is a war unlike any ever fought before. These are not fought on battlefields like before."

Me: "Can we stop this?"

Angel: "God will, Erin. However, the coming election has been targeted for overthrow against the will of the people. The enemy would like to first remove this city (he pointed to New York City) as this is the gateway. This election will then not go forward as a usual one would. They then have plans to allow the Prince of Persia to attack the Bull and to silence him by death. It is retribution.

"The people throughout the nation will then be struck down with each ringing of the doorbell. They want what happened last year to Israel (on October 7, 2023) to come here (to the USA). Now, there are enemy armies inside the borders of the once blessed nation. Once the enemy controls all government agencies, the woman (KH) will make a decree that the 'Evil King' (BO) should rise again."

Me: "This is bad."

Angel: "These are their plans, Erin. However, God and His army of angels are greater. The Great Harvest and miracles, signs and wonders will be manifest. Each of the wicked will be forced to speak a confession of truth. Now you understand the enemy's plans and they are lofty. However, he doesn't prevail.

"Remember that, as these events unfold, to pray to and worship God as He is worthy. He is Holy and all of this is His (he pointed to the map of the world in general). I must go now. It was nice to meet you." He smiled. "Remember that prayers avail much."

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up instantly in bed. I got up and went to my devotional chair. Father God, this world has become horrible. Please help!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. The enemy plots. That is what he does. However, do not forget that God gives rise to kings and also brings them low. Anyone who curses Israel curses the apple of My eye. This is true also of all who have been grafted in. You have seen what happens to those who declare destruction of Israel in the name of their god."

Me: "I have. Recently, an MP of Turkey was immediately struck down by heart attack during his speech because of curses he was making against Israel."

Jesus: "You are to remember that I am God and that I care for My sheep against the wolves. The people of God are uniting, as well as unlikely foes. There is a great war of lies vs truth and this increases. All of this was allowed so My people would turn back to Me. You are now seeing God's scale of judgment over the Earth.

"Remember that many are the plans of the wicked against the righteous. However, I know the heart. Understand that once women had a modest covering, but now the enemy has tried to completely erase them by darkness of cover. They cover every part of their body so that you have no regard for them. While they were once free, they are now subject to punishing afflictions.

"This is the plans of the enemy as he hates women. He remembers Eve in the Garden and he has sought his revenge against this woman who gave birth to these. However, he now seeks to destroy all women. He covers them in black sackcloth and gives them no will. This is his plan for the nations.

"Now, the young woman you met (at the store) is Mine. One day, because you pray for her, I will meet her where she is and show her the way. Understand that there are many like her."

Me: "Lord, please help us! Please rise up and bring Your army. Don't allow Your people to be weakened and perish. Encourage our young men. Grant them hearts like lions and strength to move mountains. Rise up in Your people so all will know You are a strong God and greater than these princes and evil king. Please, Lord!"

Jesus: "Much is coming. I love you and I have a Great Plan. Do not worry. Do not be afraid. I am with you."

Dream over.

841 – The Lord helps us with our soon move

Received on Sunday, September 1, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Without You in my life, my void would be vast. You are my Gift every day. I am grateful for all You have done for me, my children and our friends. All that truly matters here is You and those we love.

I am broken today. I am overwhelmed with grief. This is because I know great changes are coming. However, I don't know beyond today what anything looks like. Father, Your promises are true. Please help me not to doubt or have unbelief today. As for right now, the reality is simple and the math just doesn't lie… without Your miracles straight from Heaven and by Your hands, all is impossible, including moving.

I just don't want to lose out on the experience of miracles because I woke up this morning with the realization that we personally have no options without great struggles if we do this on our own. However, I also know that You are the God of the miraculous and that You are my Best Friend. Please help me, Lord. Please forgive me for my doubts. Please do not let me limit You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I have you. Do not worry. My promises are true. I will not withhold My goodness from you. I love you."

Me: "I sometimes feel I disobey You and go my own way. Despite Your Voice calling me back, I sometimes run away and try things my way. I am sorry, Lord!"

Jesus: "I know, I know. However, I still chase you down. You are My lamb and I am your Shepherd. I will not allow you to fall off a cliff, get lost in the wilderness or fall victim to wolves. I love you and it is I who finds you, gathers you up and carries you back to Me."

Me: "I sometimes have great fear and anxiety when I face an uncertain future, such as my cancer or our move to Bend OR. I worry about many things even though I know that You are with me. I then ask myself, 'What if I have fallen into madness or an alternate reality? What if God is angry at me?' I fear missing out on the miracles of God."

Jesus: "It is difficult following Me in greater wonders and signs. When you write down what I tell you and recount your dreams and visions, these things are great mysteries to those who only come to know Me in the way they prefer. Some want a comfortable and predictable God who doesn't speak, who doesn't condemn and who doesn't rebuke. Some want Me relegated as mere words on a page of a history book.

"That can't be as I have said that I speak through My prophets and scribes. This was ignored. By My own Words, I declared, 'In the last days, I will pour out My Spirit on all people; your sons and daughters will prophecy; your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams. The prophet Joel spoke of this (Joel 2:28-29).

"Erin, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Was not the very Voice of God written in the pages of Joel? Erin, you are thirsty and parched where you are. You see the landscape changing and you ask, 'Lord, I am now old and infirm… have You forgotten me?' No, Erin. I have engraved you on the palms of My hands.

"Since My Voice is in you, why do you fear? Why is your heart downtrodden? While you are like a beacon of hope in the wilderness, your lamp is fading. Be anxious for nothing. Instead, understand what I have done here from the beginning. Do not let your eyes deceive you.

"Now, I removed you from the desert place for good reasons. The enemy was closing in on you quickly. The enemy longed to have you chained permanently as punishment for speaking truth. However, even more and more evil was planned, so I removed you quickly. I even had your enemy draft the papers himself. This is impossible.

"However, and more than this, I built the perfect home for you (in the land of the trees). This home has made your heart glad. It made you feel safe and secure with your family in the battles that did come. I thought of everything you would like and things you never even knew you needed.

"All of this was so you would have peace and healing. This was so you would have time with your children, family and friends. However, and more than anything, this was so you would have time alone with Me. You heard My Voice. You dreamed dreams at night. I sent you signs all around you and even on this property. I instructed you and cared for you in your pain.

"Now, I did not honor complaints or any curses. I instead corrected you and called you to write with honesty. I had you write about your failures and your missed moments as even these were still used for My Glory. Do you see this? Erin, do you see the wonders of all of this in your wilderness place?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I am so sorry for missing anything. I am grateful to You. You have made this place Holy Ground. My husband, my children and I, along with Your angels, care for this place. We are all so grateful for this beautiful place. Lord, this is truly a miracle and I thank You deeply."

Jesus: "Then understand this… if I gave this to you and you have dedicated all of this to Me, then have I now given this to another?"

Me: Crying. "I can't bear it, Lord. However, our children are leaving. My stepson leaves early tomorrow morning. How will all of this be done?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I will not leave you lonely. I won't. I know that none of this makes sense today and you have questions. I brought you to this place, yet I am calling you out to another. If I do such a lofty thing, then would I not also care for you there too? Where you are is remote and not easily accessible. There are many who are lost and detest the things of Heaven. Your area is void of Me and in an enemy stronghold.

"Now, I know you have grown as much as you are able to in the area you are now in. I have also closed the doors around you there. I do this when I prepare hearts for leaving. I know that you and your children are not growing spiritually. Think of this like your blossoming tree…

- It is healthy and happy.
- It is well watered.
- It receives nourishment and sunlight.
- It then begins to bud.
- Overnight, it then blossoms into a beautiful flower.
- However, this flower then begins to coil and its beauty fades, then soon it drops off the branch.

"This is because it has reached its peak, understand? I used your children to bring you out to where I plan to use you. I know you feel sick and are weary. You no longer think of things you once enjoyed. You ask, 'Maybe He meant in Heaven, not here?' Well, Erin, how about here as it is in Heaven? It is not over. You are not finished. You have been in a place of respite."

Me: "Thank You for reminding me of all of this. Lord, I am so grateful for You. Without You, I am nothing. Take us where You would have us go in this next season. If I am not to be healed yet, please have my surgery performed out west instead. Please open this door. Of course, I would prefer healing and no surgery. Please show us where You want us and what we can do."

Jesus: "I have already shown you. However, you need My help and I will provide for you in all things. I have given you instructions. Complete these and then bring yourself, your husband and your children to Me. I will then give you your next steps."

Me: "Why did You have us get a realtor to evaluate our home if we are not selling it?"

Jesus: "So you know what all you hard work has gained you. I am your Landlord. You worship Me and care for the house I have given you. I will therefore bless you and multiply this. Remember that things of this world hold little value and even little worth because these are not eternal. However, I have increased your blessings because you have great worth to Me. I then make what you have increase in value.

"Now, it is a difficult thing to serve Me in this world. While the world ensnares the children of God, you are free with Me. Nothing you have done makes sense to anyone who is in this world. This is because they do not know Me. However, soon, very soon, I will be known. Right now, I am preparing the hearts of the children of God to serve Me in a greater capacity. I am drawing all of you out to the places I call you.

"Like soldiers who go into battle, you will be fully equipped. You will be so greatly equipped that those who come against you will shudder and be in great fear. Fully equipping you means that you have Me in you and working through you. No weapons then formed against you shall prosper. None!

"Now, I will display mighty things through each of you. I will heal and strengthen you. I will call you out to the places I call you. Nothing shall be impossible for you. My Voice will be made clear and you will know things impossible for you to know. I will administer justice through you. Erin, the Kingdom of Heaven is upon you."

Me: "Lord, I believe You! I am excited!"

Jesus: "Good! Be excited! Now, I want you to remember this… you are My Sheep and I am your Shepherd. I don't give wolves the keys to the shepherd's gate to watch over them. I do not trust wolves and many come in sheep's clothing. Right now, the land, the nations, are overrun with wolves. These wolves aren't even disguised then now operated in full display. They then claim to keep the sheep and their best interests because they lack a shepherd.

"Their idea is to let in even more wolves to overrun the sheep and slaughter every last one. They can then say, 'Stupid sheep with no shepherd!' However, here lies the problem… I hear the bleating of the sheep and I am in the midst of them. I will now rise up in My Sheep and grant them the strength of iron, teeth to devour, tongues of truth and the ability to leap over the Sheep Gate and chase down the wolves to their caves.

"When I come again, I come in judgment and truth. The wicked by their own lies will be judged. Justice will strike down the wicked. Erin, do not worry as I have you. I will take you to the place of your heart (Bend OR) and there your sons and daughter will baptize many in the beautiful river in My service. One day, you will then come back to the place you are and do this in the water there. Many will say, 'Whose are these sons and daughter?' Do you understand, Erin?"

Me: "Yes, I think so."

Jesus: "Now, I have been preparing you to go out. Do not worry as it is I who has called you. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-842/

842 – Nine Pens Needed for this Message

Received on Thursday, September 5, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for this beautiful summer day in September! Thank You for the great blessing of another day. You say, 'In worship and praise is your strength!' Lord, please help me to honor You in all I do. Please help me to remember that I am a child of the Most High God and to walk in this. You are amazing in Your works. (Pen 1 runs out, now on Pen 2.)

I recently purchased a few plants that were on an end of season extreme closeout sale. Since live plants are less expensive than fake ones, I had purchased a few to dress the outside and inside for when the appraiser came. While I had placed one little vine plant in a planter box, I soon realized that the sun was scorching it there. I then moved it to a shady spot thinking I would later have it planted.

A week then went by when I noticed an incredible flower growing from this vine. At first, I thought it was hops. I then brought it inside and into my devotional area. Today, it is blossoming with one flower today and another soon to open. There are also others in various budding stages. I then used the 'Seek App' to search out what this plant really was. It is called 'The Passionflower'!

When I looked this up on Wikipedia, I discovered that the Passionflower refers to the passion of Jesus. The various parts of the Passionflower symbolize the last days of Jesus and His Crucifixion. In Israel, it is instead called 'The Clock Flower'! Everything about the plant, the vine, the flowers and the leaves, is so beautiful. Father, thank You for this beautiful gift.

Things I think I am responsible in finding are really You giving these to me. I am doing nothing on my own, but only the calling You have for me every day. (Pen 2 runs out, now on Pen 3.) When I am depressed and my stomach is sick in the morning, please help me to remember that today is a great day because I have You in it. I love You so much! Thank You for the peace and clarity You have been sending to our home.

There are only four of us now and there is a lightness in the air where there was once something else Forgive me, Father, but when one person in a setting, be it at church, work, school or really anywhere, is in strong opposition, then there is tension. Anything opposed to believing in You is unbelief and influences the whole group.

This also pertains to the operation of the human body. If only one thing, a finger, a toe, a hand, a foot, a leg or anything else, is not functioning properly, then the whole body works at a lower capacity. We were spiritually running low as to not offend or make uncomfortable that which was opposed.

In some ways, we were accommodating their position instead of being strong in ours. Personally, I had very little contact daily. Father, You know this was not Your Will and that the enemy had a stronghold. We just didn't fully realize it until it was gone. What a hold it was. As for my younger son, he is feeling better and gaining his strength back. Thank You, Lord.

I just received texts from my daughter that she is locked out of the backroom at her work. The office door just shut and somehow it is now locked (she didn't even know this was a door that could be locked). She now can't get to her purse, car keys, the store laptop and any diamonds for sale. Her manager has the key and she can't get a hold of her. Father, please help her.

Note: This situation was resolved prior to the posting of this dream. The building owner came over and opened the lock to the office.

Well, Father, please help all of us. You do so much and so extravagant is Your Love. I am grateful for everything. However, I am also scared. This cancer grows every day and I am filled with so much uncertainty.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Now, with your daughter, the office door at her work shut and is now locked. Erin, I am closing a door and even locking it behind her. This is an example of her needing to leave things behind and not going back to the former way. When I shut doors, no one can open them. When I open doors, no one can shut them. (Pen 3 runs out, now on Pen 4.)"

Me: "Lord, I have now gone through three new pens. All of them have been drained of ink. I barely even used them."

Note: By the time I got to the end of this dream, I would be on my 9th pen. Since I have gone through at most a pen or two when writing past dreams, this is so exceptional that it just had to be to make a supernatural statement (which the Lord did). For fun, I will note each time my pen ran out of ink.

Jesus: "This is because pens aren't used for their purpose of writing or scribing as they once were. They now only have to contain enough ink to initial pages and sign documents. Erin, nothing in this life is as it once was. Have you not seen this already? A free fall of this world is in motion as God has allowed this."

Me: "Lord, how long before You reach down and save us? Things have turned so evil so quickly. It is painful to watch this and be in it. Please begin Your Revival soon. There are still millions of believers, children of God, on the Earth. (Pen 4 runs out, now on Pen 5.) Don't allow those whose hope are in You to be lost. Please! Without You, Lord, we are as toddlers running down a highway barefoot and in diapers. Life is so short here and there is so much pain."

Jesus: "Erin, calm down. I am God. Relax. Breathe and remember who carries you. It is I who loves you. It is I who stirs hearts to leave or stay. When I do this, I will then also provide for this. The wicked say to the children of God, 'If God is so good, then why do bad things happen to you?' Even fellow Christians with limited knowledge say, 'If she is not being blessed, then God's favor is not on her.' Well, I then say…

"Fools! Who can know the ways of God except for Me? Christians suffer and anyone who says they aren't blessed by God because of it doesn't understand that they were just held on account of their tongues for judgment. Why something is allowed by God that seems painful (Pen 5 runs out, now on Pen 6.) or contrary to My character or what you have come to expect from a loving Father is all in light of the heart.

"Souls are what My Great Harvest is for. There are those who are called who are ready or willing. Maybe there are those who have a great need, but no hope. There are many reasons. Erin, you know about affliction and what it can produce. There is a patina about you with depth of perseverance that can only be achieved through punishing heat. Some can come through troubles quickly and turn to God with no doubts.

"However, there are others who take time to find Me. There are others who go through countless trials and afflictions because I have called them for a greater purpose. It doesn't mean that, if you have never had trials, you can't be called. It only means that you will need to stay close to Me for wisdom. Those who have experienced many troubles have knowledge through pain, memories (Pen 6 runs out, now on Pen 7.) of evil and a keen awareness of trouble."

Me: "Are You referring to someone being 'street smart'?"

Jesus: "You know your enemies because you came from where they roam. You know what is evil vs good and you watch for schemes. When you explain these to your children, they sometimes roll their eyes at you. However, they also understand by now that you know something about it and they don't soon forget. This is good."

Me: "Are more troubles coming before revival? Can revival just start now instead before things become worse? Things have become scary. Lord, please show us how we can prepare for what is coming."

Jesus: "Evil has multiplied, Erin. It has quickly spread. Like a wildfire, it spreads. Those over the people who know the truth instead lie and publicly proclaim this is false. People then perish with the lack of a Shepherd. This is because they are fed to the wolves. This is a wicked generation. Remember though that there is a great battle in the unseen realm that you cannot visibly see, but you feel it.

"Your dreams show you that there is an epic battle. There are demons manifesting visibly in those who are lost and in the sons of perdition who serve the enemy. Now, I have prepared you for all of these years for these times soon to come. There is a war occurring now unlike any fought before. There is a death warrant out for all of the children of God. The enemy wants them struck down so evil will flourish.

"However, nothing will go as the enemy has planned. There is still My Kingdom come and My Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. After this, I will then remove My Harvest. I will then send My portion in bowls of judgment over the nations. Erin, what is before you, all you see, all you have, is all temporary here. All that matters is what you do with it that is eternal, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, do not worry for anything. Look to Me in all things (Pen 7 runs out, now on Pen 8.) as I am over all and I see. I will call you to where I will use you and then over to another place and then another. You are a worker in the Great Harvest. I know what you need before you even ask. All will be provided for you as a stipend (Definition of stipend: A fixed regular sum paid as a salary or allowance). Wherever you are will be covered over as all is Mine. You will worry for nothing.

"Erin, you will be healed and strengthened. When people come to you, if they only came for what the world could offer, they will be empty (Pen 8 runs out, now on Pen 9.). I will instead grant you gifts that even cause the wicked to take flight. This is because these gifts will be unlike anything the world has ever known. They will then say, 'Where have these people come from? What type of weapon does this?' This is because I am in you working through you. Even you will be amazed as I instruct you."

Me: "I am ready and excited, Lord!"

Jesus: "All of Heaven is ready for this too, so pray! Do all as I have instructed. I have a plan for you, Erin. I will send help from My Sanctuary. Those who have been with you have been a blessing and those I call blessed. Those who bless Israel will also be blessed, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "I am with you. Rejoice, Erin. God is in in you. My Voice speaks over your house. I will answer your prayers and petitions. In worship and praise will be your reward."

Me: "I love You, Lord!"

Jesus: "I love you even more. Be ready to receive that which I send you!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-843/

843 – I Will Shake Thrones and Topple Kings

Received on Saturday, September 7, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. You are my Father whom I love and adore. You are a blessing beyond blessings and I am grateful.

As You instructed us, we have now placed all that we have before You. We offered everything up in prayer as You directed us to. We have given You everything and there is nothing we held back.

Yesterday, You called us to do something in obedience and for Your purposes. You reminded me that all we have is Yours, so we did what You prompted us to do. I then felt a great heaviness leave as You clearly were at work in this.

As for last night, I tossed and turned in bed. The evidence of my cancer is quite prevalent now. In less than eight weeks, my surgery must be done before it spreads to my other organs. I looked on my chart this morning because my surgery had not been listed on the calendar. Well, it was just listed this morning.

Father, I don't want my kidney removed. I obviously want You to supernaturally heal this instead. However, my surgeon has now warned me that I can't wait past this. Lord, I am sick every morning now. While You have carried me through every procedure in the past, this particular one feels off and I am not certain why. While I greatly prefer Your divine healing, I wanted to at least have this surgery in Bend OR if needed.

If this procedure was performed in Bend instead, I could have quick access to doctors and have level walking areas to recover. Instead, we are a four-hour drive from home to the hospital in Portland ME. Father, I need Your wisdom in this. You have always carried me. You have moved mountains for me. You have accomplished impossible things for me and I am so grateful for You.

Even so, I still have fear in this. I am afraid. I have never had fear like this going into a surgery before even though I have had even scarier procedures than this. Please help me to find peace. Can You please carry me in Your arms like You carry lambs?

I had quite a bit of trouble sleeping last night. I finally fell asleep at around 3:30am. I then had a couple of fun dreams…

Sub-dream 1 "Jesus scoops me up!" begins…

I was now a toddler in the 'learning to walk' stage. I was in a familiar training ground. I crawled out of a hole and onto some powdery, sandy dirt. I then tried to stand upright on my tiny feet. The sun was warm and I could see that my hair was curly and dark brown. I became quite focused on standing and I pushed myself up on my wobbly legs.

I then saw Jesus ahead of me. Jesus was reaching His hands out to me so that I would try to take some steps on my own two feet. One – left, two – right, three – left. However, I soon began to fall forward. As I did, I called out to Him…

Me: "Hiyah! Hiyah!"

I felt Him scoop me up into His strong arms. He then held me in a way that my head rested on His shoulder. I felt so safe in His arms. His hair was silky and dark brown. His tunic was made of an incredibly soft white linen. His smell was simply amazing. I had some tears in my eyes after I noticed that the sun was warm on my cheeks.

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. I have you. You are safe in My arms. I have you. I won't let you fall. I promise."

With my tiny hand, I patted His shoulder. I could feel myself drifting to sleep.

Sub-dream 1 over…

This was such a real dream that I wasn't even certain if I was having a dream or an elaborate vision. It just felt so real. I then fell asleep and had my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Two Rooms filled with Treasure" begins…

I was called to a project. A builder was constructing his own home. I quickly noticed that it was a strange design. Everything was to be grey, including the walls and trim. After the builder saw me, he came over to greet me.

Builder: "We discovered some artifacts on site. We need you to remove them. Whatever you dig up, you can keep. We need everything removed before the final inspection. In otherwards, no muddy stuff like artifacts unearthed, understand?"

Me: "Do you not need my design services?"

Builder: "No. There is no finer design than this house that I built for myself. Is it not a treasure to behold?"

I looked around. The design literally made no sense at all. I then inspected a room in the center of the home. It had no windows. As it was in the center of four traffic areas, it was basically a central hub and a horrible spot for a bedroom.

Me: Pointing to this room. "Is this going to be the primary bedroom?"

Builder: "This entire floor, including the kitchen, is the primary suite. It's incredible, isn't it?"

I could tell that he really didn't want my answer because he then promptly left the room. However, he soon came back with a basket, hand trowels of various types and some other digging tools.

Builder: "Here now." He handed me the tools. "You need to hurry as this inspector will be here at 7:00am. You only have a few hours."

Me: I must admit that I was now quite curious. "Hmm, could you show me the site?"

Builder: "Yes. It is over here. Now, you are to take everything you find and leave no footprint that you were ever here. Hurry!"

He walked over to a false floor panel in this bedroom. There was a lot of jewelry and other beautiful items in the caked dirt below. I then noticed a large clear plastic bag with a dark green and gold velvet silk pillow inside. This made zero sense. I then noticed that there was also an emerald necklace and an emerald ring inside this bag.

I set this aside and then began to chip away at the other clumps of items. There was a treasure trove of coins, pearls, gold and other jewelry there. I soon filled my bucket. After removing all of the items I could find, I covered up the hole. There was now no evidence of any dig. As I proceeded to leave, the builder again approached me.

Builder: "Did you finish?"

Me: "Yes."

Builder: "Both rooms?"

Me: "Both?"

Builder: "Yes. The second room."

He then took me to a second room. After again opening a floorboard, I was astounded by what was there. I could see beautiful pearls caked in the dirt below.

Builder: "You need to hurry."

Me: "I will. However, you never mentioned this second room until now."

I promptly went to work. I proceeded to pull out an unbelievable number of items. It then took me just over an hour to finish up. As I began to leave, the builder again came over to me.

Builder: "You still haven't told me what you think of this house?"

Me: "It doesn't matter what I think. You said there is no finer design than this one. To you, this is then the truth. Since this is your personal home, I am sure it will be perfect for you."

Builder: "While this may be true, I still want your feedback."

Me: Pointing to the primary bedroom. "Well, you do need a skylight in this room so you can look up when you lay down."

He instantly became excited about adding a skylight. I could tell that he was now trying to figure out how to get this installed. While I believe the builder had built a cheap home, I could tell that it was luxurious to him.

Me: "Well, I had better get going."

Builder: "Look for my work in the big AD (Architectural Digest) magazine."

Me: "Okay."

I then left with all that I had collected. I went home to wash it all off thinking it was all fake. I then realized all of it was real. In front of me were emeralds of every type, along with the finest of pearls. There were other valuable jewels as well.

Even so, I was still not sure who exactly the owner of this home was. I know the builder owned the property and the home. Given that this was the case, and since the builder told me to take these items for my own, it appeared that these were divine gifts. While I am not a jewelry appraiser, I felt that the value of all I had collected was over $10 million USD.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I then woke up to my stomach feeling sick.

Me: "Father, I am not certain what any of this means. However, what I do know is that I loved being a toddler resting in Jesus' arms. Nothing beats the feeling of resting on His shoulder with the warmth of the sun. This was peace, a perfect peace, so thank You."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left you. Now, remember this… the silver is Mine and the gold is Mine. The latter glory of My house will be greater than the former and, in this place, I shall give peace and prosperity."

Me: "Lord, is this from the prophet Haggai?"

Haggai 2:10-23: 10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came by Haggai the prophet, 11 "Thus says the Lord of hosts: Ask the priests about the law: 12 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches with his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?'" The priests answered and said, "No." 13 Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before Me, declares the Lord, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean.

15 Now then, consider from this day onward. Before stone was placed upon stone in the Temple of the Lord, 16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. 17 I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and with mildew and with hail, yet you did not turn to Me, declares the Lord. 18 Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider: 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you."

20 The word of the Lord came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the (ninth) month, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth, 22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall go down, every one by the sword of his brother. 23 On that day, declares the Lord of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel, declares the Lord, and make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you, declares the Lord of hosts."

Jesus: "No, this is from Me. I declared this to a downcast people. The situation then was as it is now. However, they were instructed to be strong in the Lord and to not fear what was before them because I was with them."

Me: "Lord, are You about to shake the nations?"

Jesus: "Did I not declare once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land? Did I not declare that I will shake all nations so that the treasures of all nations shall come in and I will fill this house with glory? I have made promises to a defiled people – because they have greater needs than they have provision – because My blessings have been withheld.

"So it is written… when one came to a heap of 20 measures, there were only 10. When one came to the wine vat to draw 50 measures, there were only 20. Even though I struck the harvest of their toil with blight, mildew and even hail, My people still did not turn to Me."

Me: "You then repeated, 'Consider this day onward from the 24th day of the 9th month.' You asked if we have seed in the barn (Haggai 2:19). Then indeed the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate and the olive tree had yielded nothing. This is true. Lord, all of this is now too expensive for most of us."

Jesus: "Yes. However, from this day on, I will bless you. Erin, I am about to overthrow the thrones of kingdoms. I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall go down, everyone by the sword of his brother."

Me: "So, are we coming into war?"

Jesus: "Oh Erin, are you not in the midst of a war unlike any other? I have given these nations over to evil because they no longer come to Me, the One God that is truly over all things, both in Heaven and on Earth. So corrupt are these kingdoms that the blood of the saints is visible upon their hands and they no longer even try to hide this. Did you think I would not pour out My Wrath upon their wickedness?

"Now, I will shake these thrones and topple kings. Those whose swords have slain their brothers, I will turn upon them. I will expose the evil corruption throughout these defiled nations. All will know I am God. All will know My Throne is the only Just Seat in all of Heaven and on Earth."

Me: "Lord, the 9th month on the Gregorian calendar is this month."

Jesus: "I will make known My plans in the simplest of forms. These things have been allowed for only those I have granted wisdom and knowledge to know the times and the seasons. So, in the simplest form, work with the seasons. Take My Word and the lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near.

"So it is written also that seedtime and harvest will never cease. You know the season of harvest has come because the generation is ripe. The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. I am the Lord of the Harvest, Erin. Pray to Me and I will provide for this Great Harvest. I will provide for My laborers. My blessing will go through them and bless those who have no hope."

Me: "Lord, please help us. Please strengthen and heal us. Even though we love You, we have now grown weary. This is because the world has gone dark and the nations have turned against Israel. Even though Christians are now being greatly persecuted, there is very little news about this.

"The hayfields are full of large round haybales. Our tallest and oldest tree on our yard is the last to bear leaves in spring and the first to drop them when the fall season is near. Well, its leaves are already starting to drop now. Lord, the enemy of God has confused the times and seasons and destroyed all that is good. How are we to know when?"

Jesus: "Then pray for wisdom. Erin, you know (that fall has come early this year). You know this because you were given this by My Spirit in you. You knew the harvest was near and early even by observing the animals in your yard. The signs are here. Pray! Erin, I am with you.

"Now, I know that I have asked for an impossible way for you, a way that you have no way on your own strength. However, because I am in you, I will create the way. I will do this as I am over all things.

"Now, the enemy is the great liar and defiler. He believes that I cannot make that which is unclean clean again. He makes war against the children of God because they are inconvenient to his plans. He longs to punish and enslave all of the people of the Earth. However, he will not succeed.

"Now, remember that I Am who I say I Am. I see. I do not lie. I Am The Truth. I Am The Way. I Am the Life! Erin, you already know this."

Me: "Yes, Lord!"

Jesus: "Now rejoice, Erin. I know your needs before you even ask. I will multiply your offering as I have told you I would. Your hopes are on Me and I will bless you!"

Dream over.

844 – A Great Shift Has Come!

Received on Sunday, September 8, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for hope. Thank You for each moment we are given. Let every breath I take, even my labored ones, be a symphony of praise to You.

I woke up this morning from another dark dream. All I care to write about it is that the enemy has many plans against the children of God and none are good.

I had a difficult day yesterday. You have given me promises that I cling to. However, when I am having a tough day, Your near promises then seem light years away. They can sometimes even feel like they are another universe away.

Father, please reach down and help us! Please help Your people. Lift our heads. I love You so much. I heard You say something significant to me this morning. It was exceedingly clear…

"A Great Shift has come!"

Note: By the end of this dream, the word 'shift' will have been used 14 times.

I now know why You don't tell us things too far in advance. This is because we watch for the things we believe it might be instead of the God who sends it. Events keep us in the natural and focused on the daily stuff instead of focusing on You, the Eternal One.

As for yesterday, I experienced an unpleasant part of humanity. While I wasn't feeling well to begin with, I drove to the store with my younger son. When I arrived, parking spots were limited. When I finally found a spot and was turning into it, a man in a pickup truck pulled up next to me and began to reverse into the spot. I decided to offer him the spot, but he became angry instead and offered it back to me.

I could tell he was furious. I then decided to pull in as per his sarcastic gesture to do so. Just as I was about to pull in, a small car whipped into the space out of nowhere. While the truck then drove off, I sat there stunned. Why would this woman do such an evil thing? Even though I had now pulled in front of her, she chose to ignore me as if I didn't even exist. I just knew that she knew that both of us were intent on taking this spot.

Son: "Mom, it's not worth it. People like her are not even worth your curses."

As I began to pull away, my stomach became sick. I became dizzy, pale and sweaty. A wave came over me and my son could see it. A parking spot further out came up and I pulled into it. Two lesbians then came into view as they walked in front of our car. They were wearing crosses and their skin was pierced all over.

Me: "None of these people know what is coming. None. God help them."

Son: "Mom, they love their lives. They like misery."

Me: "I am dizzy right now. Let's pray."

After we prayed, I indicated that I wanted to make our trip quick.

Son: "What's wrong, mom?"

Me: "I don't know. However, I do know that the Lord stopped me from sending a curse upon that evil woman who took our spot."

Son: "That's good. God said no."

While I felt a bit better after praying, I still didn't feel like myself until we arrived home. Father, please forgive me for wanting the woman to be harmed. I wanted her to know what she did was wrong. It caused me to lose my strength as clearly I was wrong to respond in the way that I did.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I want you to understand something right now… I am in you and I saw what happened. She is a thief and has no sense of right or wrong. This means she doesn't care. Had she done this to the man in the pickup, there would have been real trouble for her. Now, have you noticed that I have been working through you more and more each day?"

Me: "Well, yes, You are certainly answering prayers. For example, I was wondering if I should take down the hummingbird feeder and then one would show up within minutes. I would then wonder about something else and it then immediately appeared. When I pray for someone, I then hear a good report."

Jesus: "Are you the one doing this?"

Me: "No! Only You, Lord, not me."

Jesus: "Yes. I am working through you more and more on the ways you should go."

Me: "Something else happened yesterday. I was on the phone with my older son when I felt prompted to speak about Your parable of the talents to him."

Jesus: "Why did you and how did it go?"

Me: "My (older) son is needy. He is frozen and does nothing on his own. While he was once strong and independent with goals, he would now be dependent on someone the rest of his life as he is today. He whines and seems to blame me because he hasn't been healed yet. It's exhausting. I then told that him he was literally just like the one who received one talent from his master. With this as the backdrop, here is the version of the parable of the talents as I communicated it to him…

You are like the servant who received one talent from his master. He then dug a hole to place it in and waited, hiding his master's money. The master then returned to settle his accounts. He was pleased with the first two servants as they had multiplied the talents that he had given them.

The master then praised them accordingly, 'Well done, good and faithful servants. Since you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over even more. Your master is overjoyed with your results.'

The one who had hidden his master's money then came forward, 'Master, I knew you were a tough man to please, taking that which you did not personally earn and reaping the rewards. I then became afraid and frozen and hid your talent in the ground.' He then pulled out the one talent and handed it back to his master, 'Here, you have back what is yours.'

The master became angry and answered him, 'You wicked and lazy servant! You knew I reap where I have not sown and where I scatter no seed. You should have at least placed it in a bank to draw interest and realize a small gain.'

"Well, this didn't sit well with my (older) son and he then became angry."

Jesus: "Yes, but the point was taken. He knows Me. He worships Me. His heart is Mine. However, he remains stagnant. He does not see that his prison cell is actually unlocked and he is free to go. He can come and go even if he needs the nurturing of an earthly cell."

Me: "Lord, what You are saying is profound."

Jesus: "Erin, your son knows his place. He understands his great lack according to the world. He is comfortable for now where I have placed him. It is his choice to be free or remain in a self-proclaimed locked cell. I removed him because your enemy worked many years afflicting him with the belief that your enemy held the only key to your son's cell. However, your enemy has no idea that it is I who holds the key. A man can say one thing with his lips and do another with his body, understand?"

Me: "Could you heal my (older) son soon and grant him understanding? Lord, he has waited so long and believed. He then finally began to feel hopeless."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. I will do all I promised. Now, it was I who welled up inside you to tell your son this parable. I did this to wake him from his slumber so he would finally realize he is free. He can use his talents for My calling or he can remain in that cell until I call him out physically.

"Do not worry, Erin, as I am not sending him into the outer darkness (as the lazy servant was in the original parable). Do not worry he is mine. Continue to pray for him. His own father no longer wants anything to do with him. This is good this way as evil can't then influence eager itchy ears. Do not worry as this generational curse will soon be lifted off of your son and he will be free."

Me: "I still feel responsible for this."

Jesus: "No, Erin. You gave everything, all you had, and the stress was not to be at this time. This is a heavy burden to carry while I am working with you on other things. I allowed this. You are not to blame. It has been allowed by Me for now."

Me: "Lord, I was sad today until I viewed a pastor giving a sermon on how all of the universe worships you. He spoke on the significance of Psalm 148. The recorded sounds stars make from thousands of light years away is one of worship. Even whales sing praises to You from the depths of the sea. It truly made me cry. Well, I have been crying a lot these last few days. After sharing this with my daughter, both of us were even more amazed by You than we already were.

"Even the rocks cry out for the Living God. The mountains sway back and forth and even shift. The tide moves back and forth. You then say to the waves, 'You can only come so far.' You are amazing, Lord. However, and more than all of this, I am so honored to be carried in Your arms and allowed to rest on Your shoulder. I love You. While all of what I see will disappear one day, You remain. Never leave me, Lord!"

Jesus: "Since I am God, I can promise you that I will never leave you."

Me: "I have a question, Lord. Please forgive me if this is something You have already answered before. If the Great Harvest isn't very soon and thrones of evil aren't struck down, then the darkness of the world will consume all good. There is an invading army, maybe millions strong, now within our borders. They are being financed by our adversaries. The army consists of young fighting men, all foreigners. You showed me that they are trained and given money, accommodation and weapons.

"This invading army is allowed to be here in order to stop the election, enforce the party of evil, kill or imprison all opposition and then plunder and destroy the USA. The world will then fall under one evil government. You have shown me that they will seize all assets and control each one who remains. So wicked is their evil that they will kill all those who have the audacity to hope in Your promises."

Jesus: "Erin, I gave you the word shift. You must pray for God's Seismic Shift!"

Me: "Like colliding tectonic plates on a fault line?"

Jesus: "A war in the heavenlies is over you. My angel army is over you. I showed you at one point the arm of God shoving the Earth off its axis and even kicking it over an embankment. Either method results in a great falling away from all that is Holy. You have seen the results of this. It is as if the people have been possessed of demons and all you have come to know that was good has been inverted and labeled bad.

"All that was evil and bad is now declared good. This is in every aspect of life now. There is a great war of evil vs good. It is not a war of black vs white as in skin. This is a lie and only a catalyst for more evil. The enemy has plans to kill, publicly destroy and humiliate and plunder all those opposed to their throne of Beelzebub. So evil is their plans and so widespread that nothing would survive if God does not step in.

"The only obstacle they see standing in their way is the people of God. Their prayers and worship go throughout the nations and their cries are heard on all of the battlefields of the Earth. Even so, the evil plans of the enemy are so pervasive that many of My people have now lost sight of who I am and that I am over all things. Erin, I am over the earth, the skies, the sun, the moon, the stars and everything in it.

"It is I who sends angels to stir up the seas, to change the wind and to turn the clouds from white to black and cover the light of the sun. It is I who calls upon the thunder and the lightning and who opens the storehouses of hail and snow. Erin, My Shift, My Great Shift, will move mountains for My Glory. I will lift My harness off of the tides and there will be no rein to hold back the waters.

"With a single clap of My hands, the Earth shall move back and forth and up and down. The most arrogant of men will then fall to his knees and beg for Me to relent. However, and more than this, it is like a sailboat floating for days with its sails and mast fixed. Its sails move neither north nor south. All who are on that boat pray each day and watch for movement, a sign of wind and My favor, to shift the sail east to west or north to south.

"Erin, all of you are now looking for anything (encouraging). Well, finally, the first breeze comes and then a mighty wind. The long wait is then over and the boat finally sets sail. I tell you the truth, Erin… you have been waiting on the waters for Me to send winds into your sail. What I am about to shift will send evil running to hide from it!"

Me: "Just as You finished speaking, I lost hearing in both my ears. Now just my left ear. Okay, I can now hear with both ears. This was odd. Why did this happen?"

Jesus: "You are fine. You can hear. Now, please describe what happened, Erin."

Me: "It was like when a plane has cabin pressure. Your ears pop."

Jesus: "When ascending altitudes or descending?"

Me: "With me, it is painful descending."

Jesus: "Either way, it is a shift in the atmosphere."

Me: "The winds of change?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. I don't want you to be afraid, Erin. These things must occur so all will know that I am God. I don't want you to worry. They want to kill the children of God in order to mock Me. Well, I will not be mocked. No one takes the power of life or death from Me. The length of a man's life is determined before he is even born. I know when each person is to enter into rest.

"In the shadow of the valley of death, it is by God's measure that a man finds comfort. It is by God's direction, My Will on Earth as it is in Heaven, that I bring comfort. The thief, your enemy, comes only to steal, kill and destroy all of those whose hope is in Me (Psalm 25, John 10:10).

"A shift is here with Me. I have a Great Plan. Remember in praises, worship, songs and hope is your strength. This will activate My armies of angels, as well as My miracles, signs and wonders. I will say this… because the enemy knows I am near and a victory is coming for the Kingdom of Heaven, they have a plan to destroy all those who have hope in justice, truth, mercy and righteousness.

"They claim in news reports that, out of fairness to democracy (not the citizens) and in their great mercy, they will hold off convicting those they consider enemies until right after the election, but just before Thanksgiving Day. Remember that I showed you an eagle that appeared as a turkey on a platter. The evil leaders determined that the USA would be served up for Thanksgiving. However, an eagle also represents Israel. Their evil plans are to overthrow all freedoms by this Thanksgiving."

Me: "That is not even three months away, Lord. If there is an attack, do I want to be recovering from surgery at that time?"

Jesus: "Everything will be made known and be clear. Do not worry. Remember that everything can shift and change at a moment's notice. I am in the Shift, the Change, the Moment and the Notice. Do not worry. I tell you all of this so you understand the plans of the wicked and its evil.

"Now, I am about to raise up My army to be over the kingdoms and these kings. I will use My army to root out corruption and pull them down off of their thrones. I will destroy their evil. I will then build up, rebuilding in righteousness, that which is good. I will plant for My Glory on Earth as it is in Heaven. Remember, Erin, that good can exist without evil, but evil cannot thrive without good."

Me: "Time to uproot the evil and drive it out, Lord. Please don't wait! Please shift things today!"

Jesus: "Is this your prayer?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "This is good. Now rejoice, Erin, as I am here. Rejoice. One other reminder… keep Psalm 148 close to you and remember this!"

Dream over.

845 – A Shift from One Way to a Higher One

Received on Tuesday, September 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I appreciate You, Father, as no matter what happens to us daily, You are Sovereign. You love us, You dry our tears and You lift our heads.

Lord, I was brought low and humbled yesterday. I am empty now. I have no plans anymore. I have no agenda. There is only today, another day given to me here. So much has happened to bring me to where I am today and how I got here.

It all started on Sunday evening. My daughter came to me and my husband around 9:30 pm and needed our help. It was another door issue for her. This time, her closet door wouldn't open. Having never heard of such a thing before, we went to her room to see for ourselves. It is a small closet with a wooden door. It has a passage handle that doesn't lock. The door wouldn't budge no matter how hard we pulled. I had never seen anything like it.

To make matters worse, the screws to remove the handles were on the inside of the closet. We prayed and prayed and spent an hour working on it before a miracle happened. It opened. The catch to the door had been jammed. We then determined that the entire handle needed to be replaced. We were happy as we were able to save the door. We had several ideas to try in the morning, but none of them were great solutions. Thank You, Father, for opening this impossible door.

I then woke up at 3:30 am Monday morning to three knocks on our door. While I tried to wake up my husband, he was sound asleep. When I went to see who was at the door, there was no one. Nobody else in the house was even up. This shook me up because there was no mistaking the knocking sound. (As I wrote this, a total of four eagles circled our house.) When I went back to bed, I prayed, 'Father, please watch over us! This seems like a series of warnings from You!'

When I woke up, I had several plans for the day. However, I had to first drive Snigglet to our vet for a well check and have her vaccine records updated. While it went smoothly, Snigglet was depressed and wouldn't look at me in the car. My stepson had left just a week ago, so maybe she saw this trip as if I was getting rid of her or something.

After this, I drove back home to drop Snigglet off and pick up my husband. As I drove, I lamented about our auto theft in December 2023. After this happened, we have been so watchful over our replacement car. I then thanked the Lord for a safe car and prayed to keep it safe for us. I then heard You reply:

The Voice of the Lord: "I am sorry you were a victim of thieves. However, understand that I allowed this in your lives for the greater good of all who were involved. Erin, you pray to the Father in Heaven that His Will be done. Why then are you sad at your station when God's Will is done?"

Even though I knew He was right, I didn't answer. What I do know is that He has a much greater perspective than we do. However, to complain when things go wrong is human nature and something I am definitely still working on.

I soon arrived home. I had a list of several things we needed to do in town. We could do this by either going a route to the north or a route to the south. My husband and I then decided to take the southern route. As we drove, it was a beautiful sunny day. We were laughing and I was sharing about God's wise words.

Then out of nowhere and to our left, a deer leaped over a guard rail into the driver side front of our car. Boom! We then carried the deer until the car slowed to a stop off to the side of the road. I jumped out immediately to see it was a young deer. He was still alive and struggling. I bent down over the deer who had been thrown off to the opposite side of the road. He looked at me and he was scared.

I could see that his hind legs were twisted. As I looked over him, I knew he was not long for this world. I placed my hand on him and stroked his side. I prayed out loud and told him that Jesus would take him to Heaven today and that we will see him there one day. Just then, it began to struggle. I could tell that blood had filled its lungs.

He continued to look at me as if he understood my prayers. His eyes then glazed over as he crossed over from this life. Since he was struggling, I was so grateful that Jesus carried him home. I then turned back to inspect our car. There was so much damage. We then phoned the police and the insurance company. We were stuck there as we waited for all of the different agencies that needed to be contacted.

The shock then truly hit us when we discovered that most of the body shops were at full capacity and couldn't take us. When one finally did, it could take up to a month for the quote to even get approval to repair it. We could be looking at no car for easily over a month. While the insurance company arranged for a rental vehicle, the stipend provided for in our insurance would only cover a certain amount.

To make matters worse, the local car rental company has no availability for a vehicle until this Thursday or Friday. We then phoned my younger son at the house to come and get us. We then waited for a tow truck. While we waited, a game warden pulled up in a pickup truck and pulled the deer into his truck. I walked over to him:

Me: "Thank you so much for stopping. We just feel awful for this little deer."

Warden: "I pick up one a day on this road. It is no surprise."

Me: "Wow, one a day! Was this a male or a female?"

Warden: "A male. A yearling."

Me: "It still had some spots."

Warden: "This is the time when mom stops mothering them and forces them to be independent. They then become confused and disoriented as they try to find their own way. This little guy was not familiar with the road and its dangers."

Me: "He took a leap and…"

Warden: "It happens. You didn't hit it, it hit you. Well, I have to run. Take care, folks."

Me: "Thank you!"

He waved as he drove off. As we looked at the damage again, both of us were in shock at how one small deer created so much damage to our car. It was undrivable. My son then arrived on the scene and the towing truck shortly after. We knew the tow truck driver from some of our previous tows over the years and really liked her.

Driver: "I remember you. I don't recognize this car. What happened to your other car?"

Me: "It was stolen in December of last year."

Driver: "I witnessed a carjacking just up the road not that long ago. Three young men pulled a woman right from her car and stole it. I knew two of them because I was their bus driver when I used to work for the school district. I remembered two of these boys from when they were little. Since I knew them, I was able to testify against them in court. Now, don't worry about your car as it is in good hands."

After running a few errands with my son, he drove us to the body shop to sign forms. I was now really tired. We finally finished our errands and arrived home. When I was alone, I began to cry. In my hopes and prayers, I imagined we would all be leaving out west this month. It sure seemed as if You had been preparing us to go.

I was confident about this, Father. However, as of now, a series of miracles would have to line up perfectly for any of this to happen. This means that You must have a different way. I have never felt so prepared for leaving and relocating as we do now. However, we now have three main issues:

- No place!
- No ride!
- No Way!

Well, Lord, this is all on You now. Really, it always has been. This is not a change. I will not reschedule my surgery on November 1, 2024. I view this as a type of a personal deadline for healing as I just don't want to have this performed on me.

Barring some miracles coming soon, we are officially a discouraged house. We give everything to You, Father. I do not understand any of this right now. Please help me to understand!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are discouraged. I see your tears. I count and hold each one. I know you are sad and feel low. Remember how many have been in the position you are in now with more questions and no answers. You wonder about many things. However, when you are struck by troubles, you are to instead ask Me, 'What are You doing in the midst of this?'"

Me: "Okay, Lord. Did this all happen as I have more personal growth that I must endure first? We are sad because neither of us understand. Troubles, tests and trials turn us back inward to inventory our actions. Have we sinned? Are we prideful? Are we too casual with our Holy Relationship with You? Do we not treat You well?

"Lord, are there any other ways we can improve ourselves? I feel in my heart that something is coming in the following days ahead that will affect the entire world. If so, and barring a miracle from You, we might never get our car back. Oh Lord, how will this all work? A rider needs a horse!"

Jesus: "Erin, I know what you need even before you ask it. Remember that everything is Mine, even your car."

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. It is only a car. We killed a deer."

Jesus: "Yes, I was there. However, you prayed and I carried him Home."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. We forgot to pray before we left the house yesterday. We usually pray for safe passage in our travels, but we forgot to do this yesterday. Was this the reason You allowed us to strike the deer?"

Jesus: "You should always pray no matter when you go out, but also throughout your day. Again though, this is not why this was allowed to happen. You immediately assume anything bad that occurs is because of your own actions. Did it ever occur to you that when you pray that My Will be done on Earth that maybe, just maybe, I am working through you for the sake of many others and their salvation? So, do you really mean your will be done or My Will be done?"

Me: "I am so sorry, Lord. Perhaps my true prayer is (laughing)… Your Will be done on Earth, but only as long as it doesn't make trouble for me because clearly I am a princess and I hate all of that messy inconvenient trouble stuff."

Jesus: "You are funny! However, do you now understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. It's just… well… I just finished expressing a few days ago that all of us are weary from this world. I then prayed for healing and strengthening and certainly not for more troubles. I have been crying off and on for the last several hours. I am so down, Lord. I see no way here and I am afraid that, if I speak honestly with You here, You will grow tired of me and leave me.

"I am scared. I am not healed. My head and neck now hurt after the accident. I am sad and I am sorry. One would think by now that I would have gained spiritual maturity. I instead feel like a failure. I could not even heal the deer. If only I had changed my mind and we went the northern route instead. So many ifs."

Jesus: "Since you both were meant to have this happen to you today, then a yearling would have hit you while you went the northern way. Now, when you prayed over the deer and you examined it, you knew something."

Me: "Yes. I knew that this deer would be passing within a few minutes at most. There was no doubt. While I felt You tell me, I also knew."

Jesus: "So, you then made a shift from one way to a higher one. Your focus went from prayer in the natural to one in the supernatural. You let Me take the deer and carry him home knowing I would and you did not doubt."

Me: "Yes."

Jesus: "You assessed what you could do on your own strength and then shifted to My Strength, correct?"

Me: "I think so."

Jesus: "Now, there is nothing you can do right now… not one thing on your own. You have exhausted your options. This means you are to now shift to God in you… Me in you. Surrender all to Me and let Me give you the victory.

"Now, when you pray for your nation, you see that an evil army has invaded. Wicked leaders, and one in particular, rose to power with the sole purpose of striking down every part of what was fair, just and righteous within your borders. This was like a cancer within or an invader in secret that you cannot see. Slowly and over time, every portion of this nation that was dedicated to Me was stolen from the citizens – this cancer spread into every portion of the nation and it's terminal aside from Me!.

"The nations surrounding her are now losing all of the good within. This cannot be stopped unless a shift takes place. Erin, I am that Shift! Now, when you were in your car going your way, your expected plans shifted within seconds. This happened without warning and so suddenly that you both were in shock.

"This sudden shift also happened to Israel on the Feast of Shelters (October 7, 2023). At first, there were horrible reports and an outpouring of truth. This was then stopped when the great liar and his army of liars began their campaign to strike further against Israel and destroy it. Well, the same destruction is planned for the USA. While you can feel in your heart that a Great Shift is coming, you just don't when."

Me: "Lord, please change the direction of everything. Please turn all of these invaders back to their own countries immediately. Please don't allow the USA, but really all of North America, to be destroyed. Shift everything tonight. Rise up and shake the nations for Your Glory. Let us have joy in our hearts again. Please let us feel safe again. Please let us be free again."

Jesus: "Is this your prayer?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, please also rise up and fill Your Chosen Vessels with Springs of Living Water. Please heal us. Please grant us hope and a future. Let us all rejoice. This is the 23rd year from 9-11 and the enemy has punished our nation ever since! Please strike down the wicked who plot evil and then call their evil actions 'democracy'. It is more like 'demolition', 'demonic evolution' or 'devil-ution'!"

Jesus: "That is a good one. Now, I have a Great Plan. When the shift comes, it will be from Me and all of the Earth will be in shock and awe. Blow the trumpets as I am coming! Do not worry, Erin, as I am with you. Just know that I am not punishing you."

Me: "Lord, please make evil confess to their evil. Please stop all of the lies and thefts!"

Jesus: "Do not worry as I am here. Confession is good for the soul of a nation. It is My land… MINE! No one steals anything I give them. While this was allowed, it is now over. Be strong and courageous.

"Erin, I have a Great Plan concerning you. Please don't worry as I am with you. I will bless you. I have promised. Those who bless you in My Name, I will bless. Those you bless in My Name, I will bless. This is a Great Day that I have made! Rejoice and be glad in this.

"Also, tell your (older) son not to be downcast. Tell him that I am with him, I love him and I will transform him. I will not forget him. He is to be encouraged, not troubled."

Me: "Lord, my husband and I flew to Oregon last year to explore the area and we had so much fun. However, I am now wondering if…"

Jesus: "Erin, I have promised you that you will return to the place of your heart. You will return with your husband, your children and your pets. Calm down and let Me bless you and deliver you. I love you and I am not a liar. There is a place I have for you. Do not worry. Do not cry."

Me: "Lord, if you don't do this, I am going to start thinking I am crazy."

Jesus: "I promise you that I am 'not with crazy'. Crazy is not where I dwell. I dwell with you, Erin. My promises are true."

Dream over.

846 – Do not Endorse the Harlot

Received on Wednesday, September 11, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day!

I need Your help! I had a panic attack at the dinner table last night. The thought of being put under and having my kidney removed… well, I don't want any more surgeries. I want to live cancer free. I long to live an abundant life on Earth as it is in Heaven. Right now, the enemy is winning by using an outpouring of lies so extreme and so pervasive that the whole world is fooled. I think most people are in such shock that all of this is overtaking us.

Father, my light is going out. My hopes and dreams are fading. My great hope that I would be here to be a part of the day when You wipe the tears from our eyes here and You come to our rescue sooner than later… well, this too is fading. When trouble comes, You warn me that something is coming. However, I don't know what that is or how to pray. I feel helpless when trouble comes suddenly. I know how to keep calm and level through it, but I don't do well days after.

Father, I love You with my whole heart. Where we are, I have forsaken the things of this world. I no longer care about the things that I once cared about. However, there is an epic war all over the world and Your people. It seems like all of us are losing these battles. We are watching the enemy win and not just once. There are several enemies winning on many battle fronts.

All that we do daily, all we see and watch, all we hear and receive, all we speak and all we touch, all our daily toil… all of this gains us nothing. All we speak now is muffled and silenced. All we consume with our lips is meant to destroy us from within. This is all beyond what we are able to counteract. Unless You rise up and help us, our elections will be stolen and America will fall before Thanksgiving.

Once America falls, all of the opposition to the corruption will be arrested and charged with treason. The beautiful land of the free will become a broken nation. Those who remain will fall away completely in fear as the final wave, the final strikes, against our nation come. What was once under God and indivisible with liberty and justice for all will become a hellscape.

Father, WWIII is here now. How clever is the enemy to wage war and then say there is none? I am worried that all of Your people will perish if You don't step in to help us. Father, we can trust nothing. The enemy wants us to die and this means spiritually. His schemes seem to be working. My children then ask me, 'Why do we even pray when God doesn't seem to answer? The enemy instead attacks us more and more.'

The leaves are now changing here. The temperature has dropped dramatically. Seasons change. Things like times and seasons continually change. While these are expected to occur, the spiritual landscape is growing darker every day. Father, how can I endure another surgery? I am lost without You. I am so sad. My joy today is gone. All I can do is cry.

Our children have no hope for their lives. This includes not having any prospects for a home or a family. Their dreams have now faded. Moving won't help this as it merely offers a new venue. As for here, our neighbors hate us for no reason. The only kind people to us now are a lesbian couple up the road. I miss when there were no enemies surrounding us. I feel hopeless today. Give me something, Father. Anything.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I haven't left you. I won't leave you. I know you are downcast and scared. While I know you feel abandoned right now, I am with you. The Voice in you is Mine."

Me: "Lord, I am so tired now. I am ready to see our children be happy, healed and joyful. I am ready for a church that stands on Your Word of Truth and sings in praise. I have believed for all of these years. I know that You have the power of life and death over me and the enemy has tried to stop my life twice if not many more.

"However, You decide my days. You decide everything. Still, I have been so sad, especially today. I see my hopes and dreams of all the good You plan fade here. I see the rise of my worst nightmares and all the successes of evil. What is happening? You can trust me to write it or to not write it. Please help me, Lord. Please!"

Jesus: "Erin, listen! I know that you are discouraged about the dreams I have been sending your way at night. If you notice, you are observing in them and then standing against all types of evil. You are witnessing the bizarre behaviors of those given to evil. Animals and birds avoid demons because they have been instructed to flee. Some animals have been used by the enemy to create fear. This makes you uncertain about what you have come to know. There is an uptick in enemy activity now.

"As for your car, I allowed this to fall under attack because I have a great purpose in this. You must trust Me in this. I know your other car was stolen and I know this has stirred up old painful memories. While I have no intentions of taking this from you, I allow things like this at times to preserve what you do have.

"Now, My intentions are to prosper you here. The enemy wants to take your lives, especially yours. In the last few days, I have prevented many senseless attacks against you and your children. I will continue to stop these. Continue to pray as your prayers activate angels and are like trumpets to them.

"Now, the woman (KH) fighting the Bull (DT) right now is a prostitute, a harlot, and this is written. She has been raised by the enemies of God to take souls and crush God's children. However, I know her deeds. When I told you that I was about to topple thrones, I mean it. Anyone who endorses the harlot and her plans will go through the judgments and the tribulation that has been foretold by John.

"However, these times will be far worse than what any man could imagine. You then say, 'Why do I allow such vile displays in this time right now?' It is simple. I always send warnings, even multiple displays of evil, so those who have discernment will turn from all of this and repent and humble themselves before Me. I will then hear and accept their humbled state and I will turn and heal them.

"However, they must flee from evil and come to Me for forgiveness. I am a Just Judge. I will hear their case and render a judgment saving them from the depths of Shoel. Those who continue on their way and participate in lies and laying with the prostitute, then they have chosen a bed with her. I will not hear them. I will turn from them and they will not be saved from torment which will come upon the land.

"Now, you are in a holding pattern. You have completed the majority of items on your 'to do list' from Me. Be encouraged. I will strengthen you and lift your head. Do not worry about the enemy's schemes today. Find joy.

Be hopeful as I am with you. Give away all that holds no value to you. This will bring you happiness."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "Remember that all is not lost. It is I who raises up leaders and it is I who throws them down. While you know changes are coming, you are expecting the worst. This is because you have experienced the enemy's troubles over and over again. However, I am here with you. I Am. I Am God. Very soon, these lies will no longer be heard. Do not worry as I am with you. I love you."

Me: "Lord, it doesn't seem like there is much time left."

Jesus: "Erin, why are you declaring that times are out? How do you know this isn't also for the New Earth? How do you know it can't be both?"

Me: "I don't, Lord."

Jesus: "Good then. Today and in the future, let Me be God over all things, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. What about my cancer?"

Jesus: "Erin, this has no good place in you. I know this. Trust Me to deliver you from this no matter the way I choose. I have kept you from surgery up until this season for good reason. Erin, great will be your joy, not your downfall. Now, let Me live in you and work through you. I won't share My place with another, so do not worry. I have you."

Note from Erin's husband – The discussion by Jesus on KH reminded me of Revelation 17 & 18. While there are many more verses on this, the below is from Revelation 17:1-6, 16 only: 1Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute (KH?) who is seated on many waters, 2with whom the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality, and with the wine of whose sexual immorality the dwellers on earth have become drunk." 3And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names (BO?), and it had seven heads and ten horns. 4The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. 5And on her forehead was written a name of mystery: "Babylon the great, mother of prostitutes and of earth's abominations." 6And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. 16And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire…

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-847/

847 – The Rabble causes Great Damage

Received on Sunday, September 15, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and grace. Thank You for Your promises. Please strengthen my faith to believe on behalf of those near us who are losing hope. The last several days have brought us so many bad reports. It has been a tough week.

On Wednesday, my husband and I drove to the pharmacy. There was a clerk there that I have known for eight or nine years. As I spoke to her and began to leave, she reached her arm around my neck in a type of headlock. I call it the hug of pain as I have experienced this grip a few times before.

I knew this hug was from the enemy. The great pain that I felt afterwards was off the charts. For the last several days, I have had very little relief from this. A few years back, I had suspected that this woman might be a witch. I had then dismissed it, but this hug now makes me think twice.

I tossed and turned last night. However, when this morning arrived, I felt a warm coating over my neck. This happened as I prayed for this, so I believe it was a divine act. This moved over my entire body. It felt like a numbing, warm, healing wrap over my entire body. Thank You, Father! Praise You! You are so much greater than any enemy scheme.

There are only seven days left of summer now. Please do all You have promised and bless the works of our hands. Please lift our Spirits and flood us with Your Godly peace on high. Strengthen our Spirits and flood our hearts with the things of You. Father, let praises of hope be on our lips instead of the discouraging words of embattled and defeated warriors. Grant Your people an outpouring of blessings today, Father.

We are a downcast people who are in need of miracles that only You can provide. Please open Heaven and pour out Your provisions upon us. Bless our times of worship and use this time to equip all of us with divine armor and weapons of truth. The world has grown so evil so quickly that I can’t imagine how much worse it could still progress. However, You do! You know.

Father, please have mercy on us. Reach down and pick us up to take us to Your Sanctuary in Heaven. Speak to us and renew our strength to be 100 times greater than that of our youth. Use us to restore the broken land and take it back for the Kingdom of Righteousness under Your Authority. We ask for this in Jesus' Mighty Name!

For the first day in a very long time, I felt fantastic this morning. My body has felt strong and I am sitting comfortably. Thank You, Father. I woke up late today, around 9:30 am, and took seeds out to the yard. Yellow leaves are beginning to replace the green and many trees are dropping their leaves early. There isn't a cloud in the sky today. It is beautiful with temperatures of around 75F, the perfect weather.

Thank You, Father, for this blessed day. I then continued to praise You as I walked about on our lawn. When I looked down, a cute grey squirrel came up to me little by little. Since she was nursing, she wanted the food I was handing out. I gave her two peanuts. She quickly gathered them up and went to bury them.

I then saw the crow I have named Scout follow the squirrel to note where she had buried the nuts. As soon as she finished burying them, Scout and two of his friend crows came over and stole them. They then flew their stolen bounty to the tall 'Crow Tree'. This tree is like a lookout tower high above all of the other trees. Crows are so clever. It is hard to remember that I used to hate crows as I now like them so much.

I then went to our backyard. There was the small female groundhog. I hadn't seen her in three days and I feared that our neighbors had killed this last little one. I was so glad to see her. When I said hello, she began to run toward me. After she stopped a few feet away, I went up to her. I dropped some nuts and she hung out with me as she ate.

She must have known that I wasn't going to harm her. I told her to stay safe and to not wander to the neighbors. These neighbors have white powder that they put out. I must have seemed crazy to anyone watching this. However, she seemed to be listening. I then told her that I had to run. She didn't flinch or run. She instead studied me as I went inside.

Father, please protect her as she is the last survivor. This white powder has killed all the little reds except one that I have seen. It is killing the grey squirrel population too. In another month or so, all of them will be gone.

As for the hummingbirds, I have kept the feeders out just in case. I will take them in for good on the last day of summer.

We have one final task to complete tomorrow. We will then have finished all of the items on the list You had for us to complete.

I have some sad news about my younger son who was on fire in his faith. He received some heartbreaking news the other day. This news was not an answer to his prayers, petitions and fasting. Quite the opposite, really. This has now caused him to question everything and he is angry. Father, please grant him good news. Please bless him with something to renew and strengthen his faith.

The difficult thing is that we are waiting and hoping for our own promises. We have no answers that he wants to hear as to why You answer some prayers and not others. I know it is because You know things we don't and that is why we must trust You. Well, he is alone now. His brothers have both moved permanently out of this house.

My stepson's things were shipped west and all that remained were items collected by the donation truck on Friday. Once everything was out, it was as if he hadn't even been there. It was bittersweet. I then had to enter my older son's room. I looked in some of the drawers. He left so many memories behind, mostly out of fear that my enemy would destroy them if he brought them out there with him.

I soon became choked up with teary eyes. I then stopped to remember that this was the best thing for him. He moved out west just as You had instructed him to. However, it was still very difficult. I miss both of them. While it was frustrating at times, we laughed a lot and worked things out.

There was laughter. They were funny. However, there is no going back now. Time moves forward. Time ages us. We have different goals. We have new memories to make. We have new places to go to. We have new opportunities to experience.

Father, we now have only two children of the original five. Please help us to get them to where they will have great joy. My surgery is now just 47 days away. Please heal me instead, Father, and stop all of this. Please!

Lord, we recently received word that one of our friends has cancer. She watches and loves You so much. Please heal her… in Jesus' Mighty Name!

I had an interesting dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Gala and the Evil Young People" begins…

My daughter and I were dressing formally for a gala event. We were to receive some awards for our work. Since my daughter was now dressed and ready with time to spare, she went to the venue ahead of me in order to bring a copy of the book she had written. I knew I would easily find her there as we had assigned seating.

When I went to put on my dress and prepare myself for the gala, I realized that several evil people had hidden my dress, my shoes and various grooming items. A group of men then informed me that some evil young people had hid my gown in one place of the house I was in and my shoes were in an entirely different location.

I then set out to find my missing things. I soon discovered that these evil people had previously worked with my daughter and thought this would be a funny prank. While they thought they had buried my daughter's things, they had instead hidden mine. When I asked them for the location of my missing things, they refused to answer.

At the Lord's command, I then supernaturally confined them to the room they were in. As I walked away, I could hear their noisy protests. I then set out to find the missing items. When I found my dress, I was dismayed as it had been shredded. I immediately prayed and my dress was made instantly new and better than before. I then went to a room to find several men sitting around a circle.

Man 1: "Hey, you are that book author!"

Me: "I believe you mean my daughter."

The man lifted a thick book and flipped it over. To my surprise, there I was.

Me: "Hmm, I didn't even know that I had published a book. Interesting. Anyways, I am looking for my shoes. Do you know where they are?"

As soon as I said this, my shoes instantly appeared on my feet. The men laughed.

Man 2: "See! God is good! You better hurry up though!"

I looked at the time. I only had 15 minutes left. I decided to go just as I was. I said goodbye to the men. I began to run to the gala. I then noticed that the ground I was walking on was sloping downward dramatically. It was leading me away from the gala. As I turned to go in the correct direction, I heard someone cry out. When I looked, the evil young people were calling out. I went over to them. They were scared.

Young man 1: "Please help. We need help. Is anyone there?"

Young woman 1: Seeing me. "We are so sorry that we tried to hurt you and our former co-worker (my daughter). Can we do anything to make up for this?"

Young man 2: "Please! We are so sorry. No one will come for us."

I felt the Lord tell me to pray for them. I began to pray out loud. As I did, all of them dropped to their knees to confess that Jesus was their Savior. It was emotional and sincere. After praying, one of the women made a confession.

Young woman 2: "I am the one that stole your shoes."

Me: "It doesn't matter anymore."

I then lifted up my dress a few inches to show her my perfect shoes.

Young woman 2: Now terrified. "Wait! That's impossible. I threw those shoes in the sewage drain. The water was black, thick and fast moving. How?"

Me: "Prayer! Jesus gave me new shoes."

The youths praised God and wept.

Young man 1: "Your gala is starting! You'll be late. You better go…"

Just then, I was instantly at the gala and sitting at the table next to my daughter.

Daughter: "Mom, you were cutting things close."

Me: "Yes, but for good reason!"

I then noticed that we both looked around the same age (around 25 years old).

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, I don't want to be late for dinner, a gala or anything else that You have for us!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "No worries! You will be right on time. Do not worry. I am with you. I am here in you. My Voice is in you. Now, this is the hard part of every journey. It is the part where travelers grow tired. This is when the rabble whisper discouraging things. These words are lies meant to take you from Me. However, remember that no one can take you from Me. Not one is taken. The rabble feeds off discouragement.

"They walk at the tail end of the group. The tail end means those with little strength to keep up, including the elderly, the infirm, the young and even nursing mothers. These are the most vulnerable and they have special needs. They move at a slower pace. It then stands to reason that they are already questioning their place on this long journey. Remember the Israelites and their rabble.

"This rabble were non-Israelites who had decided to come along with God's people. These are foreigners who are not God's people. These are renegades and rebels who enjoy causing division amongst God's people. These came out of Egypt and followed along towards the back of the line. Their complaining and unrest soon began to infect God's people (Numbers 11:4). They were sent from the enemy to destroy hope."

Me: "There is so much rabble everywhere now, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes. They sow seeds of discord, doubt and hate. This is now widespread throughout the nations. There are forces at work that have caused many things…

- Many of God's children to stumble and fall.
- The elderly to have no hope in God as the nations fall.
- The sick, disabled and weak to believe they are marked for death and have no help.

"Erin, the great sins of Sodom and Gomorrah are here today. Gangs of men dehumanize and defile the broken and helpless, all in the name of their god. They cause great bloodshed and rejoice. So vile are their acts that even those who have visible evidence must censor it…

- Who offers up their daughters instead?
- Who has no regard for their own offspring?
- Who calls for an entire race of people to be removed?
- Who empties the prisons and lets out great evil, even giving them money for their journey north?
- Who sells a baby or allows evil men to defile it publicly?
- Who demands the allowance of children to have body parts God has given them to be removed?
- Who has allowed witchcraft and the rise of demonic strongholds over the land?

- Who prefers these practices over God?

Me: "Lord, please stop this. Please! It is so truly sick!"

Jesus: "Remember that the end is like the beginning and so it shall be. God sent angels to retrieve Lot and his family and gave warning to them that the outcry from the evil in these two cities was so great that God set to destroy them. However, He would not destroy them until all those He promised to save had been removed.

"Once Lot, his wife and his two daughters were removed by the angels to Zoar at dawn, God then rained down sulfur and fire from the heavens and destroyed these cities and their fields and inhabitants."

Me: "Lord, will You be doing this again, but more widespread?"

Jesus: "It is written. However, you are to remember what was done by God to save only a few. What you are witnessing now is the great falling away and the rise of evil. However, I am patient. This means that which you believe to be a delay is not."

Me: "Okay."

Jesus: "Now, I have promised a great outpouring upon the land. While the rabble has done great damage, there is still time. My promises are still to be fulfilled. I have not changed My mind. My promises are true. Remember Lot, Erin. I know it is difficult to witness such evil even with your own eyes. I know your heart grows weary because of this. However, you must understand that these things must occur before people cry out for God."

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "In your dream, you still arrived at the award ceremony on time."

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, please heal my sons. Please!"

Jesus: "I do not want you to worry. I promised you I would and I will. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you.

"Erin, one other thing to remember… Lot addressed one of the angels as 'Lord' because I was there in the midst if them. It is then written that the Lord rained down fire and burning sulfur."

Me: "The biggest clue that You were there with Lot is in Genesis 19:18-19 when Lot says, 'Oh no, my Lord.' Lot begged, 'You have been so gracious to me and saved my life, and You have shown such great kindness.'

"Lord, You are the Savior here. You are the Rescuer. You are the Lord who granted Lot's requests in mercy. Angels do God's Will at His instructions.

They do not modify the Will of God or grant extensions. This can only be done because You were present. Hmm, maybe even with Michael?”

Jesus: “There was no justice in these cities. These cities were unjust to the poor and were evil in the sights of God. There is much more to the story, but, yes, this is a foreshadowing of today. Liberty has been stolen. The freedom to sin has now replaced the freedom to live under God. There is no liberty and justice for God’s people.

“Because of this, judgment comes. Four corrupt judges also ruled over the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. They both used corrupt measures of justice. You know the times you are in by the beds they lie in together. Now, however, there are over ten times greater the evil.”

Me: “Do You mean 40 evil corrupt judges?”

Jesus: “At least.”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-848/

848 – An Inconvenient Trump

Received on Tuesday, September 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for all we have because everything is Yours. It is only by Your Grace that we have what we have been given. Father, You heap blessings upon Your children, both here and in Heaven.

It will be another warm summer day here today. We finished our last project yesterday. We have now done all that You have instructed us to do. Thank You for granting us strength to complete it.

As I drove in my rental car behind the rental truck my husband was driving, I had an overwhelming feeling of deep grief. We were driving to donate to a local charity store and I couldn't help but feel like this is the soon ending of a grand season. Not just that, but the ending of a season which can never be again the way it is now. As I drove, all of the trees were beginning to turn.

I smiled when I saw the elderly man I had come to expect selling apples in small wooden baskets on the roadside near his orchard. I then noticed that he now had a relative standing there with him. What a difficult thing to do. You do something for your whole life and then, with each new season, or, in this case, each new apple harvest, you then wonder if this will be your last.

Last night, I came in after feeding the little groundhog that I hadn't seen for a few days. My husband was sitting in his chair and had tears in his eyes. I was a bit surprised at seeing this as he rarely cries. He had been listening to a song (John Michael Montgomery's 2004 country hit "Letters From Home") and he was missing his kids. Just a couple of days ago when I was in my older son's room, I felt the same.

When I went outside this morning, two cars left my elderly neighbor's home. He had been placed in a home after a fall and is not expected to return here again. His brother called out my name as he drove by. I waved at him and then he waved in return. Something just didn't feel right though. I looked out at our yard and at the beautiful trees and I began to cry.

Since the animals and birds aren't used to me crying, they literally stopped in their tracks and looked like they were concerned for me. I picked up the water hose while I cried and watered the plants. The forecast high was 82F. As I watered, I asked God, 'Why? Why does everything seem so final this year?' While our place is beautiful, if we aren't near those we love, what good is any of it?

Over the years, I have seen wave after wave of my elderly relatives move on from this life. The last grouping were my parents. I am now next in line along with my brothers and cousins. This life is painful in so many ways. My mom had planned for retirement. She put together so many safeguards to not be a burden to us. However, she never got to do all that she had dreamed of. My dad certainly didn't as he died very suddenly.

Both my husband and I are in an odd position. We had our careers first and our children later in life. As we are nearing being empty nesters now, we went from being like a parent / grandparent combined to all of a sudden wondering what will happen next. Our children need to leave this area to find a fulfilling life.

There is nothing really left here for them anymore. My daughter's last unmarried friend was just married. My younger son's friends have either moved away or have married. This is a remote place. We live a long way out from town. It is just as remote as it is beautiful. As a result, we have to rely too much on our vehicles.

Once our last two children leave, I am not sure that it makes sense for my husband and me to remain here. The silence in this house will be so painful. I miss the activity of an active full home! Father, it is hard growing old. Please have mercy on us here. Please show us what You would have us do. I feel time is running out as it is so difficult to move in the winter.

When I was organizing things yesterday, I had been asking You about the second assassination attempt on Trump…

Voice of the Lord: "The first was supposed to be successful. The second was staged and false, all to prepare for what comes next."

The phone rang after that, so I didn't finish hearing from Him on any details.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Someone you would never suspect" begins…

I was with a group of people in the south. We were preparing for a large barbeque and Octoberfest celebration. An older woman approached me. While in real life she looks younger than I do, she was older than me in this dream. She had long blonde hair and two small teacup dogs.

Woman: "You are Erin, right?"

Me: "Yes."

Woman: "I have a proposition for you."

Me: "Really? What?"

Woman: "Come, I will show you."

As I walked with her, people waved at her. She seemed like a celebrity. Somone came up and asked for her autograph.

Woman: Addressing her fan. "I don't do that anymore… sorry!"

She had two dogs in her arms and was wearing sunglasses.

Woman: "This is my flat when I am visiting. Come on up."

She took me up to a door in what looked like a historic Brownstone. It looked like we were in the historic district of Charleston SC. She opened her red front door. The home was beautiful inside.

Woman: "Please sit and make yourself at home. I will be right back."

About 15 minutes later, she came back down in a light blue satin dress with a white corset. She was carrying boots in her left hand and dance shoes in her right hand. It was a period piece dress from the 1700s or 1800s.

Me: "Wow, that's a beautiful dress."

Woman: Smiling. "Thank you." She then became very serious. "Listen, I am leaving and won't be back until February. You should do the same."

Me: "What are you talking about?"

Woman: "It's a warning. You need to leave the East Coast. You can't return until February. Take your family with you."

Me: "Where are you going?"

Woman: "On a dance tour. However, I have been given a job to do first… a gala." She became even more serious. "Boots to the ground. They will never suspect me. After that, I will be removed to a location in the west until all of this blows over."

Me: "I'm sorry, but I don't understand. What are you talking about? Why do I need to leave the East Coast?"

Woman: "All I know is that I woke up from a dream and an angel told me to seek you out. So, what's next?"

Me: "We pray and see what God would have for us."

As we bowed our heads, I was given a vision of a woman set to kill Trump at an event. I stopped because I then suddenly recognized this woman as being her.

Me: "Wait! You are a contract killer!"

The woman looked absolutely terrified.

Woman: "How could you even say such a thing about me?"

I knew that she was bluffing and she knew I knew what she was about to do.

Me: "God showed me you in a glamorous white and silver beaded gown. You were working with others in an elaborate plot."

Woman: Now crying. "But I have no choice! None!"

Me: "Yes, you do. You have a choice. Stop it."

Woman: "I can't stop what has already begun. If I don't do this, they will silence me by killing me. They will then raise up another to take my place."

Me: "If God is giving you warning dreams, then you have no idea what is really in store for you. It isn't about the natural world here, it is where you will end up in eternity."

Woman: "But there is already a plan in place. They won't fail. They have ordered war to come here at the same time." I could tell that she was scared and that she felt she was out of options. "Erin, you don't understand who you are dealing with."

Me: "God is greater. Turn away from this. The minute you do this thing, they will silence you. Either way, you are dead."

Woman: Nodding in agreement. "I was hoping you could come with me… at least until I am safe. February? They needed a woman. It is always men who assassinate presidents. They never look to us. It will be at the ball."

Me: "Can I process this? Let me think and pray."

Woman: "Please keep silent."

I didn't promise anything in return. I got up to leave. As I walked out the door, I looked back at the large door knocker. It was a brass lion. It then turned into a white lion right before my eyes. An instant later, it turned into a demon. I cursed it and it fell apart behind me. As I began to walk down the stairs, something shoved me. I jerked awake just as I began to fall.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, this dream was so real. Please help!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. The enemies of God have called upon their people to strike down Trump…

- The First Attempt: The first time was set up to look like an amateur had done this and that those watching over the area stopped an even greater plot. This was done to render themselves heroes despite being the ones who put this in place. However, it is I who determines a man's days and this was not his day. They then quickly covered up all of the evidence surrounding this so as to confuse all who sought answers. You call it 'stonewall' and this is the truth.
- The Second Attempt: The second time was theater. This was meant to make things appear as if the protection around Trump was greater than before. However, this is not true as plans have been hatched in secret rooms. This man with many demons (the 'show assassin') will even be released as a hero as he poses for the (perfectly positioned waiting) cameras.
- Future Attempt(s): There are other plots planned for his death. You know this to be so because the other woman (KH) does nothing to fight against him. This is because she feels secure knowing she has been promised a victory.

"While they can lie, cheat, steal, plot and war against the people of this nation, it is I who is over it all. While their plans might seem to appear as working, this is because the news is false. Remember this… only an evil ruler, wicked and vile and possessed by demons, continuously repeats death to a person, individuals or nations under God, understand? They are losing and they know this. They believe the only way now is to destroy the nation if they cannot rule over it.

"However, as of now, they are using armies of evil against Israel and the USA. They will try to strike down a man's family to weaken them. Since they know He is God's appointed (Trump), they will take out everything that stands in their way. Now, remember and do not forget… God… Me and My angel armies… are much greater than all of this. Do not worry. Pray, Erin. Pray!"

Me: "Lord, what about my dream? Does Trump win and an assassin then comes at him at the inauguration ball? Is it sooner? Is the USA bombed then or before?"

Jesus: "Calm down, Erin. Know your enemy and pray that all of his assignments are thwarted. Remember that evil hatches many plots. However, this doesn't mean it will give birth to them, understand? I know you are worried about many things. I have been there with you as you question your place where you are. I don't want you to worry. I am blessing you where you are. I know your (younger) son and your husband are talking about work again."

Me: "Lord, we had hoped to be leaving soon, but…"

Jesus: "Erin, I am a smart God, right?"

Me: "That's funny. Oh yes, of course. Lord, You are smarter than anything or anyone in all of the Earth, Heaven or the Universe."

Jesus: "Yes. I know each person whose hope is in Me… what they need, their hopes and their plans. However, and even more than this, I know My Greater Plans. I know even more. I know who, what, where, when, why and how on every single thing. Erin, I know all of this. I know ALL. This means that I also have the capability to do even more than you expect or ask for or even what is needed for your journey.

"As of today, you can do nothing (on your own). You don't even have your car. Your hope is fading because the time to leave, that window of time you have placed, is drawing near. This means that you are truly in My hands and at My mercy. Since you have no options here, leave all of this in My hands… today, tomorrow and this season. I promise you good things. Your trust must fully be in Me as I am your Best Option."

Me: "Lord, You are my Only Option."

Jesus: "Yes. It is I who sends dreams and visions. It is I who has the keys to life and death. It is I who sends the sun and the rain. It is I who cares for your every need. Erin, look to Me. I will do all that I have promised."

Me: "I love You!"

Jesus: "I love you too!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-849/

849 – A Treacherous Journey with God's Protection

Received on Wednesday, September 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! The beauty of the last summer days is amazing. Thank You, Father, for change. Thank You for seasons. When I was younger, I cried at the end of summer because school had to begin. At the end of spring, I would cry because another school year had to end. Christmas came too slowly and so did spring break.

Well, I am now old and time goes so fast that I can barely wrap my memories around it. Nothing lasts here. Life is so short. It is only by Your good graces that we live. Thank You, Father, for life. Please remember us today and bless our way. Please keep us on the straight and narrow road that leads to life in eternity with You! I am grateful today for You! Every day, I am more grateful than the last that You reached out to save me.

I had two very vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Various Objects fall from the Sky" begins…

We lived in a country area like we do now. It was a sunny day and some children were playing outside. Our neighbors had young children and had invited friends over. As for our home, all three of my children were here with my husband and me. When I looked out the window, I saw that my daughter's car was parked on the road parallel to the house. We then suddenly heard something screeching from the sky.

This was followed by a loud boom. We heard something crackling through the trees. There were then several more loud booms and the ground seemed to shake. When I looked toward where the children had been playing, I realized they had avoided catastrophe as they had now gone into their home for lunch. We were also inside our home having brunch.

It was now in the 11th hour of the day just before noon. We went outside to make sure all of the children were safe. There off to the side of our neighbor's home was a massive crater in the ground. This crater was filled with black thick oil or tar. The kids had now run outside again and wanted to play in the tar. For good reason, the parents ordered all of the children back inside.

Neighbor: In a sarcastic tone. "Well, I had always wanted a pool, but not this way."

My husband: "It is a miracle that it didn't hit your home."

The neighbor's home had white siding and a wraparound deck. However, there were no splatters of the gooey black tar on them at all. This just had to be a miracle.

Neighbor: "How about your property?"

Me: "We don't know yet. We will walk around and see."

Just then, one of my sons yelled out to us: "Mom, over here!"

We walked around to the front and somehow it had missed my daughter's car and our home. We then noticed there were four objects laying on the ground:

- Object 1: A large chunk of about 18" x 18" of obsidian / black glass.
- Object 2: A massive starburst crystal star tetrahedron. However, some spikes were larger than others. It was perfectly clear and solid. It would be virtually impossible to create this in one piece with no seams. It spanned almost three feet and was extremely heavy. The fall somehow didn't fracture it.
- Object 3: Then there was a bronze half of a type of capsule with ridges. It had a gold cast to it. While it had broken away from something, I couldn't tell from what. This was about 30" long and about 14" in diameter.
- Object 4: The last object looked like mica. It was white and layered thick with small red crystals that looked like rubies in the layers. This was also massive, about 24" in diameter and about 24" high.

These were all very beautiful. My two sons then helped us put them in our garage. We then noticed various men and women pulling up in cars. They were curious about what had just happened. One man saw us carrying the bronze capsule into our garage.

Man: "Hey, I will give you $25 for it. I need it."

Me: "No thanks. It is not for sale."

He was really creepy and so were the others. They were not able to see the crystals though as my daughter and younger son had now placed a tarp over them. We closed the garage door and walked over to our neighbors. The parents of the children that were there on play dates had now arrived and were frantic to find their children.

After the parents left with their children, military vehicles pulled up. They were very focused on the tar oil pit. In the meantime, some of the crazy people had gone for a quick dip in the oil pit. Within just a few minutes, the substance had completely decomposed them. We decided to remain silent as the military personnel went about their business of investigating the pit.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Bicycling from Whistler BC to Bend OR" begins…

I had to attend a wedding in Bend OR. However, for a reason I cannot remember, I was stuck in Whistler, British Columbia, Canada.

Individual cars were no longer allowed on the roads. While they still allowed trucks and public transport, all of the buses were already booked. Because of this, I decided that my only option to get to Bend OR was to take my Trek 10-speed racing bicycle. This didn't seem ideal to me as this was going to be a treacherous journey of around 600 miles or so (~1,000 kms).

I decided to leave right away. On my first day, I made it through the USA – Canada border and then to Seattle WA. I stayed in a safety checkpoint area because traveling was now very dangerous. I then noticed that I was very small in stature and in around my early twenties. I slept with my bike and left before dawn.

The ground was fairly level, so traveling on this part of the journey was easier. However, there were some scary parts. For example, so many of the semitrucks came so close to me that my bicycle would begin to be sucked into them. When they finally passed, I would then right my bike on the deep shoulder. This was tricky.

When I then arrived in Vancouver WA, I had three options for the way I could go after crossing the bridge over to Oregon, none of them ideal:

- Option 1: South and over the steep Santiam Pass.
- Option 2: East over the Mount Hood Pass. This would be steep, but I could rest at Government Camp for the night.
- Option 3: East on the Gorge and drop down at the Dalles to Maupin.

While all three options were going to be rough, Option 3, the Gorge, was the most level. This is the route I decided to take. I went east along the Columbia River. It was treacherous. When I got to the Dalles, I spent the night at another safety checkpoint. When some of the people there found out how far I had traveled and how fast, they became 'a little too interested' in me. As a result, I left very early before dawn.

As I traveled this road, it was scary. There was no one on the road. I soon came to some steep inclining switchbacks. For some reason, I was able to move up these switchbacks rapidly despite still being in darkness. I saw coyotes and other animals running around. The coyotes followed me until I finished the switchbacks.

I then sailed quickly down the highway again. I made it to Maupin in less than an hour. This is impossible, especially when I was doing this in mostly dark conditions. I crossed the bridge over the Deschutes River and continued on to Madras.

When I arrived at Madras, I praised God that I was now only about 45 miles to Bend OR. However, I knew this would still be a difficult part of the trip as there would be so many semitrucks. It was two lanes and very dangerous. I prayed. When I prayed, I was instantly in Bend OR. When I woke up suddenly, I was not sure what caused me to wake up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these are odd dreams. I believe that the last dream I had with a bicycle was from years ago. In this previous bicycle dream, I recall that I was carrying a very heavy load. It was stupid, really. In this dream, I didn't journey on my own strength. I instead cycled in Your strength. I used to love cycling. Even when I was in my best shape and riding ten to twenty miles a few days a week, it was nothing like this dream.

I could not travel around 600 miles (~1,000 kms) without an occasional tear in a tire or some other mishap. My mom used to ride her bike to work every day. This was a 10-mile journey and she had many horrific stories of close calls. Only with God's grace did she live through these. While I am not sure what the meaning of this dream was, I pray that I will never have to travel apart from You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. In your bicycle dream, some of your journey was in your own strength. However, when you clearly knew your journey was supernatural, you prayed and were then where you needed to be within seconds. While it was a perilous journey, you went with confidence. This is because I was with you at all times and you knew this."

Me: "Lord, I am sorry that I was still traveling in my own strength at various times."

Jesus: "Maybe you wanted to see how capable you were on you own. However, you then learned that, even with all of your new strength and knowledge, you needed Me. When the threat was great, I then delivered you out of there in an instant."

Me: "Am I still doing things apart from You now, Lord?"

Jesus: "While your worry takes you away from Me, I then gently bring you back. You need not worry. Now, this dream was a very good one. Do not worry.

"As for your first dream, nothing harmed your neighbors, their children or the children that were visiting. In normal circumstances, fire and brimstone falling from the heavens would burn everything around it. However, in this instance, nothing, not even their wood deck, burned at all.

"Erin, this was the hand of God over them. Then what was sent your way were special gifts from Heaven. These were to show you that I can send anything to you at any time. When it is I that sends treasures to you, no one can touch them."

Me: "You are such a mystery, Lord. Thank You for sending these dreams. While the journey is long and often difficult, You are there with us on our journey. Lord, please always be with all of us!"

Jesus: "I am and I will. Do not worry. No one can take you from Me."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-850/

850 – The Great Reversal of the Day of the Cross

Received on Sunday, September 22, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for another day to make right the wrongs from yesterday. Thank You for the peace in our home. It has been so quiet sometimes it's unnerving as I feel something big is coming. You are about to move, Father, and I can feel it in my whole being.

This morning, I went outside to place the birdfeeders out. We have been taking them in at night because this new batch of young racoons figured out how to knock down the pole cones and climb all the way up.

It is the 7th consecutive day of cloud coverage with no rain. It is the strangest thing I have experienced since living in Portland OR. These conditions are supposed to continue another week with highs of 62F daily and frost at night. Our oldest and tallest tree has dropped all of its leaves as of this morning. I walked around and was sad.

I have been ready to go out west. Well, all of us are. However, with our car still waiting in the body shop 'bone yard" for an insurance estimate, it could be a while for any repairs. Father, I still don't understand it. Why did this happen right now?

When I was walking around the yard, I heard a rooster crow. It was 10:00am and this seemed odd. I then heard it a second time. A neighbor must have purchased a rooster. Then when I was walking inside, I heard the rooster crow for a third time. We also received a false alarm yesterday about something else. All of this makes me feel as if something big is coming.

Tomorrow marks the 9th anniversary of my mom's passing. It seems like yesterday. When she appears in my dreams, it seems so real. When I wake up, I forget she is gone. I am so grateful for the time I had with family and friends who have passed away. So many people have shaped us. However, You are the Master Potter. You are the Craftsman who shapes us to what You want us to be.

Father, I don't feel I have accomplished enough in this life. It is easy sometimes to look at what one has been through and then compare yourself to others. I have lost so much in this life. In Bend OR, I had a neighbor. I had met her in Portland OR at a woman's breakfast in the mid-90s. She was a public speaker and book author.

I was well known in my field and at our large church. I had a great conversation with her and appreciated her message. I had seen her again around 2003 or 2004 when I saw her at a local grocery store in Bend, Oregon. We were new to Bend. One day, I saw her outside her home when I was walking by just after having my hysterectomy.

I said hello and told her I enjoyed her latest book. Since she seemed a bit creeped out by my stopping, I quickly kept going. I then saw her periodically over the years and even while I was flying out to Connecticut in 2007 at one of the airports. While I never approached her again, I could tell she looked at me like she somehow knew me but couldn't decide from where. Since I wasn't going through the best period in my life, I found it was better to smile and wave and go about my business.

I was speaking with my daughter this morning as she was thinking about finishing her degree in Communication Arts and Writing. I shared with her someone from Bend OR that she may want to reach out to. Her daughter was her age. I looked her up and discovered she had died of cancer last year and it was a painful journey. However, I was so happy for her to be in Your Arms, Father.

Father, I have known all of these people, including this woman, and I have other mutual friends in Christian Ministry. However, I have been away for so long. I have been gone now since 2009. I was treated like I was a weirdo because of my NDEs and my experiences. I then quit testifying about them.

You then brought me here in 2014. I have been here for these ten years so I could just be focused on You. I no longer felt bad about myself because I was a Christian single mother being attacked by my ex. I was tired of being treated like a pariah, all due to my circumstances.

You know after the first encounter that it is best to say nothing and move on. People will always judge you by your silence because it makes more sense to others that the quiet one is the guilty one. I might have once thought like this, but I no longer do. I often find those who work really hard to preserve their reputations and status against others eventually trip up and are exposed.

Even so, most Christians that realize they were wrong about someone yet still don't go back to that silent person later and apologize. It is instead more comfortable to pretend they don't know you. It is painful to be thought of as a pariah, especially Christians you want to be friends with. Time doesn't heal pain or remove broken hearts.

Only Jesus can do this. Father, thank You for removing me and my children to this place here. Please help me to be brave and battle this cancer, but not on my own strength but yours. Whatever You are doing with Me, Father, I give You full permission. I am sorry to question anything You have done, are doing or are planning to do. I love You so much, Lord!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! I know it is painful to feel you have fallen short in life compared to others. Did it ever occur to you that I might be doing something even greater in your life? Troubles come when you take your focus off of Me and instead stand next to others and compare resumes, awards, accomplishments and other things. Truly I tell you, in the great scheme of My Plans, these do not matter at all.

"It is wonderful when the tree of one's life produces sweet fruit and others seek that same fruit. However, what are you seeking and by what measure is the fruit against yours? Is it juicier? Is the tree that bears it more beautiful? What is it? I would guess that even if you compared your fruit hand in hand, it still would lack. This is because you are measuring against another person's fruit.

"Erin, each tree that bears fruit, each one of those I have chosen and called, each one has the perfect fruit for My purposes. Never compare yourself to another child of God. You have not fallen behind. If you had never been injured ten years ago or even 26 years ago with the accident, you would now be golfing and doing so many things. If you were not injured, you would barely have time for Me.

"Now you think to yourself, 'There is no time for the fulfillment of these promises.' You then limit Me and give up on hope. Stop! Shift back to your first love… Me! I am here. I have a plan for you that you would not believe even if I told you. Your life is not over yet. Have peace in the waiting. Rest in this time of solitude. Why? Because your strength will then be renewed.

"Those whose hope is in Me will renew their strength. They will soar on the wings of eagles. Erin, you will run and not grow weary. You will walk and not be faint. I know you are worried about many things. I also know that the homes you saved and asked for are now sold."

Me: "I asked for special little ones built by craftsman whom I once knew. However, maybe these were too much? I was sad and disheartened when they all sold."

Jesus: "I know. However, I am reserving the place I have for you at the proper time. When you one day see your enemies, you will now be in position of strength because your trust is in Me. As it stands now, you have no strength or ability on your own to move forward. I know you, Erin, and I haven't forsaken you. I will not leave you. You are fully in My hands. Trust Me and do not worry. Oh yes… and remember that I am the Keeper of Time. I also know when a rooster calls."

Me: "Am I going to betray You?"

Jesus: "No. This was a reference to frame a period of time for Peter in which he would deny Me and it was two rooster calls. You heard three within a short span of time at mid-morning. This was during the 2nd Watch of the day. I marked this as the time of watches for My fulfillment of promises, a time for a new heart and a willingness to serve Me."

Me: "I don't know much about the watches of the night."

Jesus: "This is what I am declaring for you… that your fruitfulness will produce an increase in every portion of your walk with Me. I am about to transform you."

Me: "Lord, You were on the Cross for the 2nd and 3rd Watches of the day. The 3rd Watch of the day was the time of darkness and an earthquake."

Jesus: "Yes, this was the watch of the shaking of foundations and great judgment was the 3rd Watch."

Note from Erin's husband: The following is my understanding of the watches and the hours as referenced in the Bible (wherein all times are approximate)…

- 1st watch: 6:00am to 9:00am
- 1st hour: 6:00am to 7:00am
- 2nd hour: 7:00am to 8:00am
- 3rd hour: 8:00am to 9:00am
- 2nd watch: 9:00am to noon

- 4th hour: 9:00am to 10:00am
- 5th hour: 10:00am to 11:00am
- 6th hour: 11:00am to noon
- 3rd watch: noon to 3:00pm
- 7th hour: noon to 1:00pm
- 8th hour: 1:00pm to 2:00pm
- 9th hour: 2:00pm to 3:00pm
- 4th watch: 3:00pm to 6:00pm
- 10th hour: 3:00pm to 4:00pm
- 11th hour: 4:00pm to 5:00pm
- 12th hour: 5:00pm to 6:00pm
- 1st night watch: 6:00pm to 9:00pm
- 2nd night watch: 9:00pm to midnight
- 3rd night watch: Midnight to 3:00am
- 4th night watch: 3:00am to 6:00am

Me: "Lord, I am still confused about these watches."

Jesus: "Erin, it will be like a reverse of what occurred on the day I was crucified. Pray on this and understand that this current time will have many of the same events."

Me: "Well, I believe that the order of events on the day you were crucified were Your 'judgment' and then the Cross, three hours of darkness and a great earthquake that tore the veil in two. In order, maybe the reverse of this would look something like this, where this is just my best guess…

- 1st would be the Great Earthquake.
- 2nd would be the Three Days of Darkness.
- 3rd would be the Judgment of the world in the Great Revival / Harvest using us, Your Bride.

Jesus: "Erin, I now give this to you to pray and study for wisdom. Just know that I gave you three rooster calls. It takes the glory of God to conceal a matter and the honor of kings to search it out! Now search and do not worry. I love you!"

Dream over.

851 – Right Now Would Be a Small Harvest

Received on Tuesday, September 24, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for my husband, my children, my friends and our pets. Father, please continue to watch over us all in all of our daily activities. Let everything we do bless You. Let every breath we take be in praise to You.

This season every year seems like the end of another block of time. When the leaves drop off and the beauty fades in our landscape, it seems to close off activity outside and prepares us for winter.

Now, here is something that may seem odd to some. I have been talking to the little groundhog in our yard. She now runs up to me and allows me to pet her head. I spoke to her today with this…

Me: "I know that you are preparing to go to sleep until the end of spring and I soon won't see you. I am not even sure if I will be here when you wake up next year in March. Don't forget me, okay? I will see you again, maybe in the summer. I am not sure though as only God knows. However, just know that, as long as you stay here on our property, I really believe that God will keep you safe."

She studied me as I spoke. She then took a dried raspberry from my nut mix and stood on her hind legs to eat with two hands. As she looked at me, I realized that I never thought that I would be this close to one of these little ones again. I then noticed that she still had a lot of fattening up to do for the winter slumber period. I am worried for her as she just seems too skinny to me.

As I sat with her this morning, I looked around. The seasons all lead into each other in a Divine Order. Sometimes winter approaching can feel sad. Father, thank You for such beautiful things You have created here on this Earth. The beauty in all You have made far outdoes any manmade beauty.

You are so amazing and wonderful in all You do. I truly cry when I think of it. You are stunning, Father, and Your Works never end. They are new every day. I become so sad when I think of all You have given Your people and all You have done for us. So many are naïve enough to be fooled by the rulers of this world who play God over us.

Yesterday, my husband drove me to see some people I know about an hour away. This was fun as we don't go on drives as much anymore. It has been about two years since I last visited them. I stopped into their business. The son and the wife of the owner were there. They both recognized me immediately even though the owner has been my main contact there over the years.

Wife: "Erin, we were just talking about you a few days ago and here you show up."

Me: "It is good to see you both. How is your husband doing?"

Wife: "My husband and several of his friends had kidney issues after taking the second vaccine. Some have even died. While he is still alive, his is now on kidney dialysis."

Me: "How did they know it was from the Covid vaccine?"

Wife: "Because four doctors who were in their 30s to 40s died at the same time and with the same issues."

Me: "Hmm, I now have kidney cancer myself. I have RC Carcinoma."

Wife: "Assuming you received the second vaccine, that is where you got it."

Me: "I did have my second shot."

Wife: "They must have been experimenting in our area. This makes me so mad. You need to come back again when my husband is here as he still comes in quite often. I just know that he would love to see you again."

Me: "While I am not sure if I will be able to come here again, I will try."

I left their shop shortly after saying this. Father, please heal all of them. I am so angry at what the enemy has done to all of us. It is just the beginning too. Please don't allow any of us to be harmed by all of these wicked people. Please give hope and heal the land. There are too many who don't know You like we do.

Even I feel hopeless some days as everything wicked seems to be overcoming all of Your Goodness. Please don't forget us. We are a damaged, broken and embattled people. However, we love You so much, Lord. Great and mighty are You and Your works. Great and Marvelous are Your Words. Please help us to praise You even when things seem dark.

My dreams have had great activity in them. This was again the case last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Heavenly Bouquet Bush" begins…

There was a bush in my yard that I didn't recognize. It was a bouquet bush that could have only come from Heaven. After going over to the bush, I noticed that it consisted of at least twenty different types of flowers. So many colors were represented in this one bush. There were pinks, golds, oranges and even some sunflowers.

I was excited as I knew that this bush had been 'Hand-created' by the Lord Himself. However, this was a bouquet that would never die as they were one bush, alive and firmly rooted in the ground. A variety of several birds then came to rest on the branches. I was now even more excited!

Me: "Where is my camera? Wait, I don't need one. All I need right now is to just enjoy watching what the Lord has given me right here in my own backyard."

The Voice of the Lord then surrounded me: "Erin, pick up My Word and root yourself in those pages as wisdom will be proved right by your actions. Draw near to Me and I will draw near to you."

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I fall short of rooting myself in my Bible more. While my foundation should always be Your Word, am I solid like roots in the Earth or even like rebar in Your Rock Foundation? I know that I need to go deeper still. Please help me to root into Your Word, Father. It is a Lamp to my feet and a Light to my path.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. All else is shifting sand. You have been in a season of preparation. My Spirit in you has been at work. While you feel it, you are uncertain what this is. It is My preparing of your Vessel for greater use. You have been tired and resting more.

"During your waking hours, you are readying your house and removing burdensome obstacles. You are removing anything that takes your thoughts from fully focusing on what I am about to do. Erin, you have now done all that I have asked you to complete. Remember that in praise and worship is your joy and strength."

Me: "Lord, what is coming? I feel it. Something big is coming!"

Jesus: "Yes."

Me: "Lord, is harvest first or is trouble first?"

Jesus: "Erin, remember that the harvesting comes when the time of fullness of the crop comes."

Me: "Are we nearing the time of fullness? Is the field ready for harvest? Lord, are the crops ripe?"

Jesus: "Those who pray, watch and prepare for Me are ready as they already know Me. However, as of right now, this would be a small harvest. Erin, you know this."

Me: "Yes, Lord, I know. It's just that Your people are now growing weary. We are becoming sick. Our hearts are breaking. We need divine healing from the effects of this fallen world. Our children were once so hopeful. However, they are now losing their hope. Lord, please help us. Please strengthen Your harvesters for we are few."

Jesus: "You speak a prayer in wisdom."

Me: "I love You, Lord. Please don't tarry. Come at the time You have chosen. I just pray for the broken."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I am about to shake the foundations of the earth. Hearts will then cry out to God and there will be a shift unlike anything the world has ever known. Idols will topple and false gods will not save. However, I will. When a man cannot find a firm footing and even the ground cannot be trusted to stay, where then is his help?"

Me: "Help comes from You, Lord! Help comes from the Lord. You are our Rock!"

Jesus: "I do not endorse corruption or elevate the wicked against the elect. There are plots in place to cause the wicked to rise in place of the elect. They want to kill all those opposed to them. Remember the depths of the Earth where evil reigns eternal. Even so, their cries from Sheol cannot save their sons and daughters.

"Now, there are secrets buried in the depths of the sea. There are remnants of wicked temples where children were sacrificed in the fire. Well, these people are no more. These temples can testify to the power of God as no stone has been left unturned. They lay in ruins. They are overgrown with vines.

"They are a haunt for Jackels and all manners of unclean spirit. Erin, the wicked has risen again, but in a different way. Their ways are even more deceptive and they still sacrifice their children. They kill the little ones while God is knitting them in the womb, even by poison. Where are My prophets of God? Are they crying out?"

Me: "Yes, Lord, many are. However, who can even stop them now? Your children must rely fully on You."

Jesus: "I know, I know. Erin, you are tired. No one seems to listen. Those who cry out and are a voice for Heaven and for the innocent are struck down and/or in exile."

Me: "Lord, please turn and strengthen Your people. Please heal us so we can go out as Your Temple Vessels. You can work through us. We can't work on our own now."

Jesus: "Erin, when the great shaking comes, check on those around you. You will observe that many only cry out to God momentarily. They will then return to their own lives on their own strength. They will then remember Me again shortly after. Erin, pray. You all must now pray."

Me: "Lord, when will this be?"

Jesus: "Soon, so pray, Erin. Remember… in worship and praise is your joy and strength. I am with you. Do not be afraid."

Dream over.

852 – Good wins! Evil loses! Be encouraged!

Received on Sunday, September 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I am grateful. Yesterday, I spent the entire day choosing to choose joy in all things. I had never purposely done this for an entire day before and it was a wonderful day. In everything, joy is our best approach when we feel anything but joyful. Father, I praised You in everything. While I had so many things not to be joyful over, I decided to put this aside to be joyful to be alive. I am happy to still be here.

Thank You so much. Forgive me when I don't praise You as I should. A few days ago, my husband and I had lunch at a beautiful spot as we sat in our car. For some reason, I inhaled a tomato seed into my airpipe and, for the first time in my life, I wasn't sure I would breathe again. While I have choked on things before, it has never been like this. I prayed and couldn't speak as I choked.

I then prayed, 'Forgive me, Lord, for anything I have said or failed to say to others. Please don't…' The seed instantly dislodged and I could breathe again. I was humbled and grateful as I remembered just how quickly You can take our breath from us and in any second. Each moment is precious, so please forgive me for not always giving You due praise in all things.

So far, this fall has been bittersweet. We have had warning of looming troubles. Even my younger son and daughter have had dream events. Our household projects have been completed and now we wait. My little groundhog waits for me at dinner time almost every day. It has been so fun. I have been grateful. I was able to shoot a small four-minute film of my interactions. It was a first for me.

Last night, there was a stunning sunset, so I took photos off of our deck. As I stood there, I felt like something was watching me. Sure enough, right there and to my left was a large Cooper's Hawk. He was in the trees watching our birdfeeders. As I turned my attention to photograph him, I then realized that he had his sights set on a baby Downy woodpecker crying out to its mother on a nearby tree.

I decided to mimic the sound of the baby. The hawk then turned to me with a look that read something like this, 'You are too large for me to attack and carry you off. Will you please shut up here as I am looking for my dinner.' I then began to make loud sounds until the hawk finally flew away. Thank You, Father, for removing the danger from this baby Downy woodpecker!

In our yard and around us, the leaves continue to change as time marches on. My surgery is now only 33 days away. If You don't move us soon, we will need to hunker down for another winter here. We had hoped to be moving so I could have my surgery out west. I simply can't cancel again. Of course, I am still praying the most for a supernatural miracle healing from You and for this to all go away!

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A Shelter from the Storm in Bend OR" begins…

In this dream, we were in a house that I had been watching and was now ours. The stucco on this house was the exact color of the desert area surrounding it. It was like a light sandy putty color. There was sage brush, rocks and juniper pines surrounding us.

However, something had happened. It was an event that affected every home in the community surrounding us. The entire area had been burned by something. I couldn't tell if it was a wildfire or something worse. All of the beautifully forested areas were smoldering. The smoke covered the light of the sun, making everything hazy.

Even though it was around noon, the sun glowed an eerie red. A few of our windows had been blown out. We then tried to cover these as best we could. My husband and I were there by ourselves and we prayed that our children would safely make it back home. My husband then left to assist a neighbor at his home.

After he left, I went around the house to assess the damage. I then saw 'my' little groundhog sitting in our living room. Since she was shaking, I decided to prepare a bed and gave it water and food. I then noticed that deer were running up the boulders outside. They also wanted to come into our house.

In response, I went to our garage and prepared an area for them. More and more distressed animals continued to come to our home. Since we couldn't have them come into our house, we set them up in the garage.

There was a trough style utility sink there so we left the fresh water running for them.

Little by little, each of our children then arrived back home. Each brought friends who also needed help and shelter. Thanks to God's Amazing Provision, we had electricity, gas, pure water, clean air and food that would never run out.

Younger son: "Mom, now I know why God wanted you to move back to Bend OR. It is because our house could shelter all of these people and animals."

I then looked up at the beam in our ceiling. There were quails perched there. My son then placed a wooden ramp to the beam and the quail were able to run down the ramp. I then noticed that this house, which normally has only three bedrooms, had expanded to have many rooms.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I am struggling today, Father. While my joy was yesterday, I am sad today. All I can do is pray for all of the people suffering everywhere. The storms in the south from Hurricane Helene have caused great damage and many deaths. It is amazing how a storm name that means 'Shining Light' can be so damaging.

It is like a hurricane named Erin. While Erin means peace, all hurricanes are not peaceful. This latest hurricane took away light and plunged millions into darkness. It has killed people and has destroyed the landscape.

Me: "There is such polarization happening everywhere that it is alarming. This is good vs evil and truth vs lies. Father, please help us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I have never left you! My Word, including the Words of the prophets, never proclaimed victory would be easy nor the end light."

Me: "Light?"

Jesus: "Burden free."

Me: "I feel You have been quiet, Lord. My heart breaks. I know what is coming as You have prepared me for this for years now. Still, I can't endure this as I am now. I also had another disturbing dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "A Nuclear Attack on the USA" begins…

I saw nuclear bombs devastating cities in the USA. A ground invasion then came. It seemed like these events would happen very soon. I could not tell if this had happened before election day or right after. Perhaps it was closer to Thanksgiving? Overall, it seemed like the country was at a point of transition prior to the transfer of power.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Me: "While I don't know the timing of this, I just know it is coming UNLESS You step in. Isn't there a way to have revival soon before this and to expose the evil first so the land can rest and make up for all of the missed Shabbats. Perhaps this will be the missed Shabbats for the last fifty years or maybe since the 'Blue Laws' ended.

"As a child, and due to these Blue Laws, I remembered that everything was closed on Sundays. It seemed like only the parks remained open. We enjoyed family picnics and scenic drives. Sports were played on Saturdays, leaving Sundays open for church. We would put on our Sunday best when we were at my grandma's home. We then went off to attend Sunday School.

"After church, we ate deserts and potluck lunch at the after-church reception hall. We then drove home and rested and played outside while grandma made Sunday supper. We would then play card games or board games. Now everything is open on Sunday except for banks and professional businesses. Are You angry about this, Lord?"

Jesus: "The majority of the Earth has now mostly tossed God out. However, there are some places who still reserve a day a week to honor Me. However, most do not. Many of those who do rest now do so with a device before them, not Me. So, yes, this is difficult. The falling away is difficult. Remember… in praise and worship is your joy and peace.

"Now, you often ask Me, 'What comes next, Lord?' Well, you have only to look at how My Word goes. Ask this, 'What is left undone in My Word?' You can then ask, 'Does repentance come before or after destruction?'"

Me: "Sadly, repentance usually only comes after destruction."

Jesus: "As it was for many of those whose hearts are on Me, how did you come to the conclusion you needed to be saved?"

Me: "Most people had to first hit rock bottom. I certainly did. Lord, when all is at a low point and you have no strength on your own to do anything to save yourself or those around you, that is when you realize you are in need of a Savior. We then realize that we need You, Lord!"

Jesus: "Erin, I know that you continue to pray for a different outcome, one that doesn't involve destruction."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Please have mercy on us. At the very least, please don't allow these vile evil people who hate God to have any success over the Earth. They have delight and glee over their evil plans. Please don't allow their plans to expand. Maybe You could lessen the blows, but still have them be strong enough so that millions still turn to You. Could You then put the wicked into hiding as You then use us for the restoration?"

Jesus: "Is this your prayer?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. There are millions suffering all over the world now. They need a Savior… You! They need a Miracle… You! Please don't allow the enemy to succeed against Your people. These invaders are so wicked. It would be better for us to endure Your wrath by Your hand of rebuke then to be handed over to these wicked invaders and their plans to destroy us all."

Jesus: "This is true. Erin, continue to pray and remember that I love you. Good wins! Evil loses! Be encouraged! I have not left you. I will not leave you. Now, I am sorry that you have been disheartened. I am sorry that your discouragement then leaves you to question what I have told you. I am sorry that you then doubt the way you have interpreted My Word and these dreams."

Me: "I just thought… no, I hoped… well, Lord, I have hoped for a different outcome. I had high hopes, Lord. My hope is in You… always! You know what is best for us. Please keep us safe. Please hold us and not let one of us fall."

Jesus: "Do not worry. I love you. Not one will be lost. I am with you in this."

Dream over.

853 – The Deadly Plans of the Red Dragon

Received on Monday, September 30, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. I am grateful for Your Voice. Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. Bless You in all of Your Works.

I woke up from my first dream early this morning…

Sub-dream 1 "The Deadly Plans of the Red Dragon" begins…

An angel of the Lord was knocking at our front door. I opened the door.

Angel: "I have been sent by God to show you the war that has been waged against the people on many new fronts. Come."

He stretched out his hand. We were instantly on the overlook in Heaven. The Earth was before us in a night view with lights over all we could see. I saw North America. He then drew my attention to the Pacific Ocean. I could see red lights there. One of the USA's enemies had shot off a missile with a blank warhead.

Angel: "This was a signal that the attack was going to begin, but in a different way. When you wake up this morning, you will hear that the shipping ports are threatening to be closed on the east side." The angel pointed to the East Coast and then to the northeast into Canada. "Now look again."

I saw several large container ships turning away from the East Coast to go through the Panama Canal. However, the Red Dragon was there to stall the shipments of the harvested goods and oil. I then saw another grouping of ports on the west coast that appeared to be completely closed. It looked like the ports at Seattle WA, Vancouver BC, Los Angeles CA and Oakland CA were all closed.

Me: "What does this all mean?"

Angel: "Erin, this is the time of harvest. This includes the grains, the rice and the wheat. This also includes the oil and other harvested goods. The government currently over these whole areas have worked with the enemy

(the Red Dragon). They have purchased the farmlands and burned down processing plants."

I thought about this for a moment. The angel then pointed to all of the different shipping lanes. It was so hard for me to see all of this happening to the USA.

Angel: "The Red Dragon has decided to dismember the body of America and weaken it severely before destruction. This leader and the nation owe a tremendous financial debt, one that the Bull has promised to collect one day. In turn, the Red Dragon has decided to cripple America through starvation and stagnation. Their plan is to destroy commerce and ruin the value of the dollar.

"The government is in agreement with this and there is already an army inside the borders ready to strike against the citizens. One of their plans is to poison the water and 'kill the people like rats'. This is their year of the dragon and it proceeds the rise of their year of the snake. This is evil beyond anything the world has ever known."

Me: "This is horrible. Since this is already here, it seems there is nothing we can do now. The globalists will win unless God stops this unholy war."

Angel: "God sees, Erin. The timing has changed as the war over you has intensified. I have come so that you will pray. You must understand that, when leaders are corrupt, they do whatever they must do to stay in power. Most of them have been given over to their demonic strongholds.

"You can recognize this by their speech as it will be confused and their actions irregular. When the stronghold is in full force, they will order the deaths of all those opposed to them. Their plan is to cripple the election and finally destroy the Bull. They want to destroy the Bull as they know he is like Jehu historically.

"As for Israel, this nation is in a physical war and surrounded by enemies. Michael and the other angels are over Israel as there are plots in place to destroy Jerusalem. They want to destroy Jerusalem even though this is a crown jewel to both God and the enemies of God. The destruction of Israel would destroy hope and faith in God. However, God is in full control.

"While they plot to destroy and tear down, ultimately God builds up, so be encouraged. There are reports of hope as the people of the nations are rising against the globalists and the Black Dragon. However, here…" He pointed back to the USA. "…you are in trouble. What is planned against the Americas will make the Great Depression look like a test run. The woes would be great. This is their plot against the nations here.

"The Red Dragon is after those resources they don't already own. They want to control the world's commerce and all commodities, including food. They have used the profits from the Americas and have purchased the ports all over the world so that they will be the leaders. Those who control the means to life control everything. However, this is from the view of man, not God.

"God is about to send down His wrath upon them. The very plans they have against the people of God will come back upon them tenfold more. This war is a war of the rise in a One World Order of things. You have experienced the lies. However, the groundwork of evil had begun many years ago. All has been done in secret, little by little, until now. It is now upon you."

Me: "What can be done? Anything? God is in control, so we can pray and fast. We can stock up on goods. How long will this last?"

Angel: "I was sent by God to reveal the plots done in secret in a war most cannot see. However, this feels unlike traditional wars where your enemy is both seen and heard and you are able to duck and cover. There were and are territorial disputes, but now these are both spiritual and material with the goals of souls. The enemy of God and his angels wants to destroy the people."

Me: "How can we as God's children do anything? We are specks like ants. We are nothing. How can we plan? All of these people had their properties washed away in this last storm (Hurricane Helene). All they saved and stored for emergencies is all gone. It is a chasing. For them, there is no service, no food, no water, no power, no gas and even no house for some. What can be done besides praying?"

Angel:"Do not worry as God is over this. He sees and knows. He allows calamity so people see God in the midst of each storm. Do not panic. Stop, drop and pray. Now, while I was sent to make you aware of what is planned against the nations, you are not to worry. Be strong and know that God is with you. I must go."

I was instantly back at my front door.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up from my sleep and soon had a second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "A Home with Blacked Out Windows" begins…

We had moved into a home that we needed to remodel. All of the windows were blacked out. We were busy furnishing it. When we finished, we celebrated. I woke up to the sound of a woodpecker tapping on the side of our house.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I then went back and had a continuation of Sub-dream 1…

Sub-dream 3 "God to the Vote Rescue!!" begins...

The angel came back to show me more of what the enemy has planned. While I am not sure of the timing of this, it seemed to be around this November's election…

- I saw Marshal Law.
- I saw looting as people panicked.
- I saw the government planning to kill any lawmakers who were against them.
- For 'safety purposes', the government was calling for ballot harvesting by going door to door to collect votes.
- I saw the ballots being counted, but only for one side.

While I was now very distraught, I then saw a miraculous thing. I saw angels of the Lord switching the votes back to the will of the people and changing the counts.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, these are scary times. Please well up in Your people. Rise in us! Bless Israel and the nations and the people who pray, not on those who prey. Please bless North America and South America, but especially the USA. Father, let all of these nations remain under You in all things. Please bless Your people and keep us.

Father, please carry us. We need You. Day and night, we need You. We have fallen away from Your Laws and Statutes. Our governors and lawmakers have turned away from You. We are an example of what the prophets have warned about in history and we know the results of these great sins against You.

Me: "Oh Lord, there are still some of us that continue to look to You. Please forgive us for our unwholesome talk and our unfruitful actions. We are still hopeful. Please don't forget about us. We love You!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, take heart today. Fortify your heart in all things. Pray as I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if I told you."

Me: "You could try to tell me, Lord. I would believe anything coming from You."

Jesus: "Yes, but this would not be beneficial to you. While you already know or have guessed some of this, what is to happen is even greater than whatever it is that you imagined. Now, there is a reason for the Great Battle. Do you know what that is?"

Me: "Because of You, Lord?"

Jesus: "Why does any enemy fight back with fury? It is because it lost something great. Their plans weren't fully put in place. These are armies who have stolen great wealth from the innocent, the elderly, the infirm, the widows, the widowers and the little ones. They have devised schemes and tricked people out of their inheritance and have no remorse in doing so. They have no sense of right or wrong.

"They lie and employ liars. They have invested great time and stolen wealth to take over and win. Battles occur when they lose ground, resources and/or power. They fight because something they had planned didn't work out like they believed it already had been won, understand? They lose. They fight. They still lose. For some, they submit to God after extensive losses. They then make reparations to all they stole from with great interest."

Me: "Like race reparations?"

Jesus: "No, not at all, That was a divisive tactic used in war to cause division and infighting against brothers. It is wicked. There is a reason that, when I come, I come with the Sword of Truth. This is to cut down the lies. I then also come with recompense. I come to restore hope and all that was crushed down and stolen.

"I come to rebuild the ruins and restore lives in shambles. You are worried as each dawn brings worse news. Erin, do not worry. Understand that I carry with Me the scales of justice and My judgment is fair and righteous, done in truth. The gold is Mine, the silver is Mine and every mineral on this Earth is Mine.

"I do not bargain with liars nor do I advance the wicked unless it is so My judgment is made perfect in their actions against the innocent. I see each leader and all of their deeds done in secret places. The days of those who plot evil are numbered. I strike down the breath of the wicked who curse Israel and the children of God.

"Now, you are to be cautious when you hear rumors about various things as all of these rumors are meant to instill great fear. Do not be afraid. Pray instead. Continue on your course and be not disheartened at bad news. Remember that these are the same source of lies already told. How then can they now be trusted with telling the truth?

"Well, they can't be trusted in telling the truth. You are therefore to pray in all things. Pray for knowledge and wisdom. I love you. I will not leave you. My promises are true and My provision is with Me. Look to Me in all things. Do not take your focus off of Me. Erin, I have all of you. I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-854/

854 – My Prayer for All of us here at His Nest!

Received on Friday, October 4, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for giving us life and a purpose under Heaven. You are over all things and each calamity, each war, each storm and the loss of each life too has a purpose here.

I needed a breakdown day. Yesterday was the day that everything converged. It had been building. Then finally and all at once, I broke down around 7:00 pm and I didn't stop crying.

Father, today I have been numb, quiet and neither angry nor joyful… somewhere in between. I have a son suffering and I am unable to breakthrough and bring his focus off of the prayers You haven't answered, to the blessings, the many blessings, You have already given. I can't even count them, Father. There are thousands. Thousands!

Fall is here. The trees are brighter in reds and golds. It is a stunning display, Father. Thank You. The sunsets recently have taken my breath away… each one hand painted by You for our enjoyment and praises to You. Even so, I felt gutted this morning. I had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Impending Troubles" begins…

I saw impending troubles coming to the USA & Israel, as well as Canada. What I saw was so bad that I woke up feeling unsettled.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I went downstairs to greet Zoey. Thank You that she has made it another day. She waits for me some mornings. On other days, she is so sleepy and deaf that she doesn't know I am there. I changed her water in her bowl and then caught some movement outside. There in the lower grass of our yard was something I had never seen before. I stood frozen for a moment and then started taking pictures with my camera.

There were two little fawns jumping up and down. They were running and playing. I saw their mother, a beautiful doe, walking behind them. Then what I thought was another doe was actually a buck. It was not a young one or an older one. It was protecting its family. It kept stopping to listen for danger. I finally smiled when one of the little fawns ran around its father to play.

They all walked towards the creek into the birch trees. While I think that the buck was a six-pointer, I wasn't sure. I wondered if it was 'Kevin', a young buck who would have rung our doorbell if we had one. He would camp out at our home in the yard waiting for me to toss an apple his way. He had been rejected by the rest of the group or he left. I was not sure which. Anyway, this was a sign from You, Father, and a rare gift, a rare sight, a blessing straight from you.

My tech has been faulty lately. I have been having troubles and we even took my daughter's computer in to have it checked. It seemed supernatural. I went to check it this morning and my tablet seemed to be back. I read some news only to discover that the leader of Iran is calling on all the Muslim nations to stand against Israel in a rare address on their Islamic Sabbath of Friday. This was huge prophetically. Ezekiel's prophecies are coming into full view now.

Then on social media, there are horrific reports of missing and dead infants and children because of this epic storm.

Me: "Father, why are You doing this? Forgive me for asking, but why are You allowing this? While miracles glorify You, death and abandonment glorify no one and brings great despair. You are My Friend and this is hard to see!"

I then heard the Voice of the Lord…

Jesus: "Erin, no child is abandoned by Me, not one. I am there in the midst of this. My fury is building as I see and I know. I have each one of these children. They are loved by Me. Now, do not think that I am idle. I am not. The wicked prey upon the innocent and those who are on the throne (the corrupt leaders) turn away from these.

"They then send out bad reports and evil scribes and reporters. They make bold proclamations and foul lies. What they have done to the least of these, they have done to Me (Matthew 25:40). Understand this… prophecies are being fulfilled and I am sending great troubles upon these wicked people."

I didn't say much in reply. I was still grief stricken about all the troubles that have fallen over all of God's people. I went to my devotional chair to pray and worship God and thank You for everything. I then felt lead to pray for all of us:

My Prayer for All of us here at His Nest!

Dear Heavenly Father,

There is no God over You or besides You. You are Great and Mighty and Holy. I am your child, willing and flawed, but with a hopeful heart. I love You. Please hear my prayers, Father. Please grant my requests. Please let my prayers rise all the way up to Your Throne in Heaven. May my words pull at Your heart and my love for You be in each stroke of my pen.

Father, for 12 years, You have been gracious to me and my family and all the Sparrows. You have called us together, gathering us at Your Altar and into Your Presence. You have created a place to Nest in while we watch all of this unfold. We sing praises and pray for each other.

We have seen signs, miracles and wonders together. We have worshipped You in all things together. What You have done for all of us has been a great testimony for the love You have for all of us Sparrows, as we are the least in the sights of others. We are grateful to You, Father, and we chase after You in all things.

So, Father, I ask this of You as each day becomes more difficult and each calamity brings more questions at times as we watch for Your Glory to be here on Earth as it is in Heaven. Many of us lose hope when we see evil rising and then have people asking us, 'Where is your God?' Yes, even our own family members and close friends send discouraging words. I understand why and the common theme is 'When?', Father!

All I can speak about is Your Greatness and I remember Your miracles and I know Your justice and recompense is with You. Let it be today or tomorrow, Father, that You rise up with Living Water in Your people. We wish to be one of the thousands to be welled up in the Spirit of God and, through us, restore broken hearts, broken lives and broken dreams throughout the nations so all will say, 'These are God's and through them His Glory shall shine like the noonday sun!

Comfort Your people, Father! Isaiah 40! Lift the heads of all those who mourn. Let the whole Earth know that there is only one God over all things and, by His stripes, we have been healed and redeemed. In the coming days, Father, let Your Light shine upon us. There is so much left to do here. We ask that Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

You have instructed me through dreams and visions. You called me from the muck and mire and You put my feet on Firm Foundation. There I was scared and unsure, but day by day You provided for me. You instructed me in the way I should go and You spoke tenderly to me. You fed me Your Word and gave me Living Water to refresh my thirsty soul. You surround me like a dove and showed me Your love.

You then promised to carry me all of the days of my life, so I surrendered to You. You then showed me mysteries and Heavenly places. You showed me what You have prepared for all of those who love You. It is such a special place. It is beyond words, beyond songs and beyond anything here. All of this is so we keep our attention on You and how much You long to have a relationship with us as a Groom to His Bride.

I can never go back to the former way. I am now forever Yours, Father. But then You shared more mysteries of what must occur first. So, I wrote and prayed and did not worry as I clung to You and all that You showed me. Now, Father, it is not just me, it is other Sparrows too. It is difficult to witness evil telling lies about us. It is hard to watch the destruction that the evil brings.

Please help us. Oh Father, please help us! Please let not my anger be displaced and be a barrier to Your blessings. I despise evil and, for the first time in all my life, You have made me like a warrior longing for justice. However, as I am now, I am unable. I am willing, but unable. Many of us here on the Nest feel this same way. We wait and watch for You. Please don't wait long…

Lord, my prayer for us is to be still and know You are God. We want to see and be here for Your Big Reveal of Your Glorious Flame to be ignited in all of us. We want to see the Greatest Harvest the world has ever known and for all of Your miracles, signs and wonders to be on full display. We want to see all the liars be forced to truth and for all to see their evil plots hatched in secret against all the people.

Father, turn hearts of children to their fathers and fathers turn and be a blessing to their children. Let Your Goodness and Mercy and Love Reign! Father, rise up in the land of Israel and bless the Jewish people. Please let Your Glory change their hearts as their salvation comes from Jesus Himself appearing before them.

Finally, continue to bless all of us! Continue to keep us. Heal all of us who are sick and let us all testify to Your Goodness. We have been refined in the furnace of affliction and You have found us with Hearts of Gold for Your Glory. We love You, Father. I pray all of this in Your Will here for us…

I pray for all of this in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Your prayer is good. Allow Me to carry you. I have you."

Me: "I can't see where I am going, Lord. Somedays it is foggy."

Jesus: "Then allow Me to be your eyes, Erin. Let go. Surrender your worries and troubles. I am about to do something in your days you would not believe even if I told you! Rejoice! Rejoice!"

Dream over.

855 – There will soon be no distractions

Received on Sunday, October 6, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for this day! Thank You for another day! I am grateful and reassured that You are over all things. Whatever troubles and needs Your children have, You are there. You hear our cries and answer our prayers. You are our relief and our God over all things. You send help and aid through angels and people, even animals. You provide by unlikely means even in remote locations. You are there and You never fail.

While governments may fail and invasions may ravage the landscape, You never fail. Father, You never fail us. All I know is this… more of You means less of the wicked. If we are fooled by the wicked to show them more compassion – then little by little, bit by bit, we allow sin to enter God's Holy Place. This culture of evil is like yeast or mold. It begins so small and, if left unchecked, it expands almost overnight to a point that everything it comes in contact with is then rendered unclean.

Once something is overcome with every type of vile unclean thing – then without stopping it and removing it – dismantling the entire thing – then nothing good of God has a place – no place is holy, clean or sin free. The people then become so accustomed to the sins and filth associated with it, they then surrender to it and no longer fight it. They forget the way things were before sin entered in.

I think of one of my sons who had to be on medication for anxiety and this was urgent. I was concerned for his life and my prayers had not gone in the direction that I had hoped. While his anxiety and depression then went away on this medication, the cost was his body. He ballooned up in weight and was so exhausted all of the time. It was difficult to get help because of the pandemic.

As a result, nothing was done until he was later diagnosed with liver disease. While I then put him on medication and a healthy diet, the weight scale still wasn't moving. With so much to lose and the prospect of impossibility, the difficult journey, he then became unmovable. The task was so immense that it was easier for him to do nothing than to begin small and lose little by little, step by step.

This is a problem in so many other areas. Sin can become a pattern and removing it can be overwhelming because you can't recall the times you had before it. God is then removed from the process until, and unless, He is invited back in. The only way that God comes back in is if we denounce the devil in our lives and boot him out of every part of our lives.

Once we do this, we then drop to our knees in repentance and ask for the blessing of God to enter in and flood the situation so we remember our sins no more and to turn to them and realize God is no longer hindered from working though us, around us and with us in everything we do. While kicking out evil is not easy, start doing this now.

This is critical as we are now in the 10 Days of Awe. We are in a crisis so huge, so big, that what we do will have an effect on everything here on Earth. A massive coup of the enemy has overtaken the Christian people all over the Earth. Every Christian nation has now been breeched and is in danger of being completely destroyed.

Nations once dedicated to God have had their governments overtaken by people who have lied and manipulated the citizens into believing they stand for God. They even quote Scriptures so the people are deceived to believe they are good. Meanwhile, the governments are dismantled and manipulated from within by evil schemes and backdoor deals. Little by little and step by step and day by day this happens until the people's rights and liberties are removed.

Once the people receive any wages or help from the government, even though the people's taxes have paid into it, the slavery then begins. The once free nation is no longer free. All then become the slaves for those in power who dictate who they will worship, what 'gods' and what they will consume. This includes food, medicine, water and news. Those in power will have complete control.

By trying to remove God from the picture, the nations can be destroyed and dismantled by invaders and foreigners. Once great nations will no longer be great. To a large extent, this has already happened in our continent. They proclaim what they will do to all those opposed to them and we should believe what they say. Do not believe the lies spoken to you wherein they claim they care. Well, they do care, just not for the people.

So, Father, here we are. It is no longer just a spiritual war that we are fighting, it is a systematic long game war waged against those who believe in You. In these 10 Days of Awe we are in now, please use these calamities to turn all of us back to You, Father. In the meantime, we can pray for Your direction on what You want our role to be here. For now, all I can do is pray.

My dream last night was a gift.

Sub-dream 1 "The Angel in the Flames of Fire" begins…

I was walking down a packed dirt path made of red clay. The trees had turned such beautiful colors. As I walked, the sun shined through the trees and lighted the path. I could hear a river nearby. It was the sound of rushing water. While I could hear it, I could not see it. Fog then came across the area in front of me. It was so thick that it was like a wall that stopped me.

I prayed for direction as I could no longer see through the thickness of the fog. I then saw a flame of fire ignite in front of me. However, I somehow knew that this was not a consuming fire of destruction, but was meant to give me directions. I walked towards the fire. There in a clearing was an angel of the Lord. He was bright and shining like metal. Even though he was in the fire, he was not being consumed by it.

Angel: "Erin, take off your shoes. You are standing on Holy Ground."

I dropped down and removed my shoes. I fell to my knees with my face to the ground. I began to weep as my heart pounded.

Angel: "Why do you weep?"

Me: "I am broken. I am nothing. I am sick. I repent for everything. I want to be right before God."

Angel: "Bring your head up."

I did as he said. I was still crying. I saw him and the fire which did not consume him.

Angel: He smiled. "I have a message from God, Erin…

"Thus says God who sits on the Throne surrounded by Heavenly Hosts and Holy Angels from on High… for I will heal their waywardness and love them freely, for I will turn away My anger and I will be a refreshing dew to Israel and he will blossom like a lily. It is time to turn back to God as the sins of My people has caused their fall. I have not forgotten you even as a woman cannot forget her nursing child. Even if she would, I will never forget you. Turn back to God. Turn back now! Thus says the Lord who is Holy and it is He who will answer you in your days of distress."

Me: "Will He come? Will He hear our prayers and stop the wicked?"

Angel: "God's anger is against the wicked. They have waged a great war over the nations of the Earth. The people perish for their lack of knowledge. God is sending dreams and visions. He is sending fresh fire to ignite those who are losing heart. He is sending the oil greater and more pure than the balm of Gilead to restore your body and Living Water to replenish your dry bones.

"His recompense is with Him and through Him and Him through each of you. Walls and lives will be rebuilt and restored. Every head will confess and every knee will bow. All those in the broken places will praise God, the God over Israel and His children. These days you are in now are the days leading up to God's Glory.

"Pray and seek His face. He will stir up old battlefields and upend root systems. Through this, hidden works will come to light. All of this is so the children of God and His chosen lack no good thing. His Greater Glory will consume you. Surrender to Him!"

Then in an instant, the angel was gone. I looked down at the place where he was and I could see ash from where the fire was. There was an impression of his feet burnt into the ground. I then heard some breaking branches behind me. I could see a deer in the trees staring at me. It suddenly jumped from the trees towards me and with supernatural speed. I woke up immediately.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, I pray that I didn't miswrite even one word from this dream. This seems to me to be one of the most important I have ever had!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, you have many questions."

Me: "Lord, I am scared for the USA and Canada too. The evil is controlling every part of our lives. Please help us."

Jesus: "This is allowed for My Greater Glory. Remember that God's purposes are greater than man's plans. Wicked leaders have risen and have puffed up their images to make them appear as if not even God could stop them. Money is given to shut down opposition. Please tell Me what you believe to be true and I will grant you wisdom."

Me: "Okay, here it goes…

- I believe You disrupted their plans eight years ago (with the election of Trump). Their anger then went on full display.
- The leader before him (BO) rose to power with a name that proclaims who he is and what he stands for 'under Heaven'. Those he had allegiances to were covered up.
- When he was leaving his term, he knew the Bull might win or someone else he couldn't control. In response, he began to dismantle systems and formed a shadow government.
- I think he even changed the laws to protect the government from disclosing truth to the people (I believe the Freedom of Information Act was modified in 2016). His calendar then went blank. I think he set up for a big fight against the people and the desires of the people. He hates the people.
- So corrupt became our government that the Bull was tied up in almost every aspect except for what You called him to such as defending Israel and recognizing Jerusalem.
- Then such anger grew that the enemy of America, along with foreign enemies, gathered together to unleash the plague on the people to destroy lives, our strong economy and begin to divide. This was a test run to see if we would comply to the government who was acting against the Bull.
- The enemy (BO) dined with those who controlled the media in 2011, 2013 and other years for mysterious reasons. He then controlled information and then met with even more world leaders.
- He had lunch with the Canadian leader on June 7, 2017. Within a year of this meeting, small newspapers throughout Canada shut down or consolidated, making getting the news difficult, especially local news. By 2019, money was paid to news outlets by the government to update equipment in return for control.
- Then when the pandemic came, all media in America and Canada were in sync. Opposing voices were shutdown and questions were no longer allowed. We were told to obey. Churches were shut down. Church choirs were stopped. Schools closed. Businesses went bankrupt. People died… so many people.
- We were then forced to mail in our ballots. Then the Bull lost and the fight to shame the Americans who voted for the Bull and supported Israel began.

- Now fast forward! The evil government has let in millions of foreigners with no names or IDs to vote. They have allowed gangs into our cities. They have killed off our young fighting men. Their vaccines have begun to kill so many of us with heart issues, lung issues and cancers. They have given all of our monies to foreign wars in the billions.
- They have disgraced our flag. They have disgraced You, Lord, and silenced all of us. They have tried to raise up a woman (KH) who is a Marxist into power.
- We have now seen events like the rise in voodoo, witchcraft and child sacrificing rituals. Countless children are missing. Crimes are not reported on.
- A good majority of Social Security numbers in the USA and Canada were recently hacked and our information stolen by either foreigners or a government contractor or some combination.
- In Europe, foreigners have displaced the natives. In Canada, many of the foreigners are making unreasonable demands and overwhelming the cities and schools. The same is true in the USA. Our tax monies are going to enrich foreigners to rise against us and steal what we have.
- The storms that have come are being called climate emergencies from fossil fuels even though it isn't from this. However, even I am now questioning whether this last storm was manipulated and its strength enhanced to wipe out all those opposed to this rise in Marxism. I don't know this though.
- Let's not forget about the government endorsed mutilation of our children.
- Let's not forget about the calling for the genocide of Jews and Christians.
- We can't trust what our children are taught, what we consume with our mouths or see with our eyes or hear with our ears.

"Since I don't believe that any of our evil leaders are actually stupid, this is all done on purpose. Since Satan is not stupid, I believe we are being attacked by him and his horde intentionally and methodically. None of us can stand against this terrifying machine, Lord, only You can. How can we survive any of this? Lord, please help!"

Jesus: "Erin, I purposely didn't stop you from writing what you just wrote. However, it is even worse… much, much worse. Their plans are now for mass destruction."

Me: "Why are they so angry at us?"

Jesus: "It is because of Me. It is because of the heavenly angels and the children birthed of the woman. Now, take your focus on the things in which the enemy seems to be advancing on and instead remember God. Everyone who has come against God's people have paid a great price.

"As for those who have murdered, tortured, stolen, raped, pillaged, destroyed, lied, starved, scattered, enslaved and humiliated… well, you have only to read the promises of God to destroy each one. Jeremiah, Isaiah, Ezekiel and Daniel, just to name a few, have recorded the judgments rendered to those who come against the children of God.

"In the day of calamity for the wicked, who will they cry out to to save them? Who hears? The mountains? The clouds? Who? But those who cry out to Me, those whose hope is in Me, I will turn and save them from their afflictions. Remember, surrender all you are to Me. I promise to carry you. I promise to deliver you into My fullness of days, into My presence, and to enter into My Holy Land.

"Erin, I walk beside you. I listen and I take hold of your hand with My right hand. For those who have little strength, I will carry you. The days coming are perilous. Remember that I am the Light in the storm. No one can change Me. I am the same yesterday and today, right now and forever, understand? I am unshakeable so that those who cling to My Rock will be saved."

Me: "Lord, is trouble coming before the election, right after or later?"

Jesus: "Erin, troubles are here now. The time for prayers is now. The time for Communion with Me is now. I am right here. I love you and I send signs that My favor is upon you. Those you bless, I will bless. Those who bless you, I will bless. Now, I am exposing hidden things, many too numerous to count. Very little is reported on because the information… the truth… is inconvenient for their common goal. Use these next seven days to pray! Now is the time more than any other."

Me: "Yes, Lord, I will."

Jesus: "Erin, very soon, nothing here will matter except what I call you to do. There will soon be no distractions. You will be healed, your debts removed and your needs will be provided by Me. My Recompense is with Me.

You will be a very inconvenient truth to so many who will know I am with you as I am the same God who welled up in the sons of Jacob.

"Enoch spoke of a change that will occur for the Holy and the Chosen of God. The light of days will rest upon them and glory and honor will return. The wicked will be unable to stand against it because I am working through My Holy Vessels to administer judgment. Be ready and encouraged. I am with you and I will not leave you."

After this, I then went over and looked at the Cepher Bible website and the devotional word for October 6th. This fit in so perfectly. It was referencing Enoch 104:1-3…

1 I swear to you, righteous, that in Heaven the angels record your goodness before the glory of El Elohiym (the Mighty One). 2 Wait with patient hope; for formerly you have been disgraced with evil and with affliction; but now shall you shine like the luminaries of Heaven. You shall be seen, and the Gates of Heaven shall be opened to you. Your cries have cried for judgment; and it has appeared to you; for an account of all your sufferings shall be required from the princes, and from everyone who has assisted your plunderers. 3 Wait with patient hope; nor relinquish your confidence; for great joy shall be yours, like that of the angels in Heaven. Conduct yourselves as you may, still you shall not be concealed in the day of Great Judgment. You shall not be found like sinners; and eternal condemnation shall be far from you, so long as the world exists.

After I finished writing this and was about to get up, I heard the Lord…

Voice of the Lord: "HAVAH HAVAH ERIN DO NOT WORRY!"

I went to look up the Hebrew word Havah and it means 'to live' or 'to breathe'. Strong's meaning 'to be' is '1934'. WOW, thank You, Lord! As I again began to get up, I heard the Lord say something from Psalm 46…

Voice of the Lord: "Be still and know that I am God!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-856/

856 – Calamity Brings Humility and Softens the Hearts

Received on Friday, October 11, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for another dawn, another chance, at doing Your Will in all things. After my dream last night, I came to You in praise and worship. I meditated on Psalm 46. I realize that I hadn't really connected with the entire chapter until now because the world was not like it is now. To 'Be Still' when everything around you is crumbling… well, this is a difficult thing.

All I know is that You are in control and Your miracles have been an answer to our prayers. Praise You, God, because no power of hell, no scheme of man, could ever pluck any of us from Your hand (Romans 8:39). As for Hurricane Milton, its eyewall collapsed just before it hit land. The waters of Tampa Bay receded mysteriously and lessened the storm surge's height.

I know there must have been more stories on answers to our prayers. While You didn't stop the storm, You kept it from wiping parts of Florida off of the face of the Earth. Thank You, Father. With Hurricane Helene, my friend gave me a report of a miracle that I just can't shake…

Her employee's brother, Tony, owns a rescue helicopter and some horses. He, along with others, found a four-year old boy who was stuck in the mud for nine days in Chimney Rock NC. They rescued him last Sunday. Of all the miracles, this left me speechless and in tears. I haven't heard this in the news. This is probably because it is a true miracle from You, Father.

The little boy was crying and asking for his parents. Thank You for sending food, water and comfort to this little boy for the nine days before his rescue. You somehow knew that Tony would be riding a horse nearby and would find him. You called Tony for this very moment. Thank You!

We sometimes only hear the bad news of destruction and hardly any news of Your miracles. While this still hasn't been in the news, Your children can spread the news of Your Presence because we all know You haven't left the scene. In addition, and in my heart, I also feel a strong urgency to pray for Israel.

I had a disturbing dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Vast Plains of Dirt and Rubble" begins…

I was in a place that I didn't recognize. All I saw was vast plains of dirt and rubble. In some areas, I could see molten metal. It sort of looked like spilled mercury. The air was filmy with sand and dirt. The wind was blowing and howling. The sun was a deep red and orange color. The wind was so haunting. I heard a woman and looked over to see her kneeling. She was wailing in another language.

However, I knew, as her face was before God above, that she was asking why. As I went closer to her, she seemed catatonic and in shock. She was smearing the dirt and ashes on her face. She let the ashes pour down from her hand. Though she never looked at me, she started to speak. Even though she spoke in a foreign language, I was able to understand her.

Woman: "Why? Why? My family is here in the ashes. They are right here. God, I plead to You to take my life right now."

When I looked away from the woman, I saw darkened figures toward the horizon. I ran over to them. However, I soon realized there was only one man. My seeing of multiple men must have been a mirage. The man was sorting rubble into a line. I could see various stones lined up according to their sizes, all heaped into piles.

Me: "What are you doing?"

He then replied without looking directly at me. This man also spoke in a foreign language and I was again able to understand him.

Man: "I am building the Temple. It was a promise."

Me: "Wait! I am sure help will come."

Man: He was clearly in shock. "No. I am the last one. I am it."

Me: "God will raise this up. It is His field. Do not worry."

He still never looked at me. It was as if I wasn't even there. I bowed my head and wept.

Me: "Lord, help us! God, help us! Please help!"

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this dream was horrific. It is like the one that I had many years ago before I was a Christian about a desolate place with only one hollowed out building in ruins with a line of people going into it for food. It looked like the Tri-Cities WA area near Hanford. However, there were no landforms, just howling wind and desolation. There was no vegetation at all, no animals or birds, no insects… NOTHING!

Father, I don't know much about bombs, but it seemed like the aftermath of one. I pray that this does not happen in Israel or the USA or anywhere as this would be horrific. Father, please protect us and watch over us in all we do. I pray for the lost that they will be found by You. We know the enemy desires a hellscape on Earth. We pray instead for Your Will to be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. We pray for this, Father.

Father, this dream was alarming! Please make right all of the wrongs against all of Your children, in Jesus' Mighty Name, Amen!

The Ten Days of Awe, also known as The Days of Repentance, are almost finished. Judgment is sealed for this next year during the 10th day of the Ten Days of Awe, Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. While I am not Jewish, I know that one day we will all honor Your Appointments, Your Feasts, and we will remember.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are unsettled and many right now are displaced. However, remember this… no one in My Kingdom is ever without a home. No one is ever displaced with Me. This here is a beautiful land that was created for worship, to know that, through all you see in its beauty and majesty, is a gift created for the enjoyment of God's Creation.

"Erin, remember that the birds of the air, the fish in the sea and the animals of the wild and of the field all cry out and worship God. The trees, fields, flowers and all you see know God. The mountains, the valleys and the skies all worship God. Even every rock cries out.

"So, Erin, then understand the Great Gift of children who love their Father. Follow in His Ways and obey His Commands. Those children who seek the heart of the Father become a banner to Him. He delights in His children. Erin, I delight in you."

Me: "Lord, I don't feel I do enough. I want to go and help where I am needed."

Jesus: "I know. However, for today, you are needed here to serve Me. Remember what I told you… calamity brings humility and softens the hearts of those God is preparing. A ready heart is a willing body and one that is ready for a change, a heart change. They then desire miracles, signs and wonders through My Harvest Workers.

"As for a prideful man, he is self-serving and needs no savior as proclaimed by his own actions. He can explain away God and his heart is as stone, unyielding and hardened. However, a humbled heart is pliable for it is ready.

"Erin, I know that this isn't an easy thing to hear. Just know that I am the Restorer of Walls and Foundations. I make everything new. Rejoice, Erin. I am here. Do not be afraid!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-857/

857 – Climbing the Mountain Supernaturally Fast

Received on Friday, October 18, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have around us. I enjoy the beautiful trees, birds, animals and the bright blue sky. It is truly an amazing Creation by You.

My surgery is on Friday, November 1, 2024, which is just two weeks / fourteen days from today. I am already pre-registered and confirmed again. I am not afraid of the surgery. All things have been completed now and I am free.

Even so, in my Spirit and in my dreams and without You stepping in, the next three months truly could turn into a hellscape in the western world. No matter which way the election goes, it will surely result in a civil war.

My dreams are showing me a similar thing so often now. What happened to Israel last October (Saturday, October 7, 2023) is just a small snippet of what is coming here. Who came through our borders, Father? We are a nation with no walls and no fortified borders. Along with Canada and Mexico, we are on 'many waters'.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The Red Dragon and the Black Dragon work together" begins…

You showed me that the country is focused on a few areas with shocking occurrences by gangs and others who practice witchcraft. This includes animal and even human sacrifice. However, there was something else…

I saw two massive dragons. One was red and had disguised itself as a mountain range where it appeared to be asleep across the western regions and Rockies. However, through its belly or undercarriage, I saw an army going in and out. It was gathering information about every citizen with the idea of making some slaves and others removed as useless. This dragon was being fed by the children of the Red Dragon. They were godless, cold and had no regard for the citizens in the other countries.

The other dragon was black and was able to swim in mirky waters. The Black Dragon wasn't afraid of anything, not even death. The only predator that could possibly kill it would be the Red Dragon. It was in storms and all the many waters. Its children came over the many waters into the USA, Canada and Mexico. There were so many that they could literally fill the Mississippi River. They came to slaughter anyone opposed to their 'Great Migration' and their worship of the Beast. The Beast was surrounding the USA…

- To the North: Including Chicago and Detroit.
- To the East: Including Boston, New York City, Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard and Washington DC.
- To the South: Including the Gulf of Mexico, New Orleans, up the Mississippi through the heartland to Chicago. Even Cancun is included here.
- To the West: Including all of the major ports on the west coast from Mexico and then all of the way to Canada.
- The Beast also resided in Hawaii.

Just then, an eagle landed in a tree right in front of my window.

The Red Dragon and Black Dragon worked together on their attacks against the USA, Canada and Mexico. The earthly leader (Xi) of the Red Dragon (China) and the earthly leader (BO) of the Black Dragon (Islam) each had secret plans to slaughter each other afterwards. The two dragons were arguing amongst themselves on the proper timing. However, both agreed that this would be the last days of the USA. They also both agreed that, when the USA fell, so too would any nations who spoke against them.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up to the sound of a doorbell. However, there was no one there. I went back to bed. As I prayed, I fell into a deep, deep sleep and had another vivid dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Climbing the Mountain Supernaturally Fast" begins…

I walked outside to my lawn. It was cold and blustery and the grass was losing its green. The leaves had almost completely fallen off the trees and I could tell there could be snow any day. I dropped down with my knees to my chest and I began to weep. I was alone. My children were gone. My husband was also gone. I was in a state of shock as they had all been called up to fight in the war.

There was no communication. I was cutoff from all news, internet, phone and so on. There was no way of knowing what was going on. I felt so alone and isolated. I was unable to do anything and had only to stay and hope someone would come home. While I could hear noises around me, I kept my head down as I cried and prayed. However, something odd then occurred to me… I wasn't afraid.

I then felt something on my shoulder. A small red squirrel was sitting there looking at me. I then looked around me and, as far as my eyes could see, there were hundreds of animals and birds all huddled together. A deer came up to me and nudged me to get up. The deer then kept pushing me to go inside. I did and started praying again. The animals remained assembled.

I then heard a massive shout followed by an incredibly loud shofar blast. This was so loud that it couldn't be mistaken for anything other than from angels. I then heard the Voice of God. His Voice was like thunder and even just one of His notes clapped so loudly that it went straight into my very soul. The ground then began to quake and roll. It rolled and rolled like the sea. My heart raced. I then heard God speak to me.

God: "Do not be afraid!"

I then saw clouds gathering. They were blacker than black and there was a mist that felt so thick and black that I could see nothing outside. While this was occurring, the ground was still moving. I could hear gunshots and trees snapping and falling. I could hear screams of terror. The shaking then stopped. While incredibly thick darkness now surrounded the house, I still had lights on inside.

I then became very sleepy, almost dopey. I decided to lay down and soon fell into a deep sleep. I then went into a dream within this dream…

I was instantly at the base of a beautiful mountain. It was at sunrise. All around the area were tents and encampments. While I then saw people I recognized, they were no longer old. Instead, they were bright and shining.

I walked over to a gate at the base of the mountain. I had seen this before. I knew this gate. There was also a forestry board. Since I wanted to speak to the Lord about my family, I stepped through the gate and onto the intricately stamped red dirt. Unlike the previous time, I no longer worried about my footprints changing the pattern. As I stood there, the dirt turned to a stone-like patterned path with mosaic designs.

There was fog over me now at it was surrounding the mountain. I began to climb and then realized I could run instead. I ran so fast up the hill and I couldn't be stopped. I looked to my right and left and realized there were deer running up the mountain with me. I cried as I ran. I knew I had probably died in the natural (or maybe something similar?). We then were in a cloud, a dense fog, that surrounded me.

Me: "Father, I know You are here. You are my Friend. Help me find my family. Have I come Home? Did I do something wrong?"

Just then, I saw a light so bright and white that it was even brighter than the sun. However, my eyes were somehow able to see it clearly. In the center of the light and coming towards me was a figure of a man or of an angel. When I realized it was actually Jesus, I immediately dropped to my knees.

Me: "Lord, do not be angry that I ran up here to see You. I wanted to be here with You. I love You so much. I feel alone and I can't find my family or friends. There was a Great Shaking."

Jesus stretched His arms out to receive me. I didn't have to be asked twice and I quickly ran to Him for a hug.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I have you." He held me as I wept. "There is no fog anymore. You are here in My Glory. You tested your legs and ran even faster than the deer up the mountain."

Me: Now remembering that I had just sprinted uphill. "Oh… I wanted to see You as You are my Best Friend. Lord, I can't find my family and friends. I don't know where they went." As I wrote, my whole body felt warm and tingling. I felt the rushing warmth of God's Healing Spirit running over me. "I… I… I thought I had missed everything."

His face was as beautifully radiant as the sun. His skin was dark gold in color, like bronze. His smile was perfect and His teeth were as white as snow. His eyes were green and blue and so kind. He has smiling eyes.

Jesus: "Well, Erin, you are here with Me now."

Me: "Did I die, Lord?"

Jesus: "No. You fell asleep. Now, are you ready for what is next?"

Me: "Yes. What is next?"

Jesus: "It is time for a New Thing."

Me: "Restoration?"

Jesus: "Much better. Trust Me. Erin, can you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Good. I am about to make everything new." He reached for my hand. "Come!"

We could now see all around the mountain. There was an Army of God. I saw thousands of saints in white armor on horses. I saw angels behind them so massive and with wings spanning tip to tip like a wall all around us. It was so beautiful. I then heard a horn so loud that it went right through me.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up in bed. I was stunned and laid there for a while. I went to my devotional chair. I needed this reminder that all is not lost. God is over us and His Power and Might, His Plans, are more lofty and perfect than any enemy scheme. I haven't felt like this since my last NDE on Good Friday 2008. I wonder if, in my dream, I was somehow actually physically with Jesus. It felt like a Silver Strand Moment. Lord, what was this?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Soon, very soon, Heaven will be visible upon the Earth. You remember what I have shown you before. This is different."

Me: "This feels like nothing here matters much… just living things now."

Jesus: "I needed to remind you that I ignited your candle, Erin. Your flame was running low. You have been downcast. I revived you and reminded you that you walk with Me by faith. Your trust in Me is not blind because you understand that I cause you to see. Erin, you are the apple of My eye. You needed the reminder that I am here with you. The prayers you believe I will answer… well, I hear everyone and will answer. I am here with you."

Me: "Lord, this is how I felt before when my heart stopped. Did I die?"

Jesus: "No. However, I gave you greater understanding and I strengthened you so you now see more clearly. Since the battle coming is great, you will be strengthened each day."

Me: "Thank You. However, could You not do this all at once instead?"

Jesus: "Yes. This is how the outward changes will be. However, the inner strength of a warrior starts within you. This is an armor that can only come from My hand."

Me: "What I am feeling feels almost like a drug, like a pain reliever, but not that. I simply can't describe what I am feeling in earthly terms…"

Jesus: "This is certainly not the same (as earthly drugs). Erin, the night before My trials, I was in the garden in prayer. I asked My Father to take this cup from Me because I knew what I was about to physically endure. However, He did not withdraw My cup of suffering as I surrendered all things to His Will and put My life fully in My Father's hands. He then strengthened Me with a strength to endure it.

"Erin, this was armor from within. I was on Holy Ground wherever I walked. It no longer mattered what was said… the lies, the murmurs, the plots or the physical beatings. I no longer belonged here. I went to do the Will of My Father and He strengthened Me for what was to come.

"My Father took My pain physically by changing My position as an extension of Heaven. My Father in Heaven strengthened Me beyond the physical to endure the affliction of the punishment and crucifixion as the Lamb of God. I took on the sins and was given the ability to endure it."

Me: "This is hard to understand for many."

Jesus: "Yes, and there is so much more. One day, you will not have any more questions because you will have greater understanding. For now though, you have prayed daily for miracles on Earth as it is in Heaven. This is the beginning of My Greater Glory."

Me: "Lord, what is Transformation?"

Jesus: "Because all those around you who are of the world care only about youth and appearing young, does it not then stand to reason that God would display His Chosen on Earth as they are in Heaven? My Army will be an army that cannot be cloned or matched in beauty, strength or majesty.

"Your enemies will run in great fear and trembling at the sight of just one of you. They will then flee to the hills and caves because they will have no doubt of who you are.

"Now, healing isn't just from illness, it is also a feeling that God just stepped in and fulfilled every prayer all at once. The liars confess, Erin. Those wrongly sentenced to prison will be released and made justified. Debts will be paid and the freedom will be overwhelming."

Me: "Lord, I am so excited for all of this."

Jesus: "Good. Be excited. Remember that this will be greater than any miracle that I ever displayed when I physically walked the Earth. This is because I will now work through the multitudes. The dead will be raised, restored and become My Army! You will be marked and nothing shall stand against you."

Me: "Ooh… this is an Ezekiel Movement (specifically Ezekiel 37)."

Jesus: "Yes. However, there is more to this than just the flesh coming back to dead bones. This is an army, My Army."

Me: "Lord, the next chapter is Ezekiel 38."

Jesus: "Thus the reason for the Army of God. Remember that, though your fight is on Earth, you are no longer a citizen here. You belong to Me where you will reign with Me in eternity. Now, this is a very good day. Erin, rejoice as I am with you."

Dream over.

858 – The Visible Division has Now Come

Received on Saturday, October 26, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do. You are so amazing in all of Your works. I love You so much, Father. You are so perfect in every way. You are so good. You are a Good, Good Father!

Whether by surgery or supernatural miracle, I will finally be cancer free when I wake up this coming Saturday morning. We have been hammered the last few weeks. I have not had a week like this last one in a long time and I pray we don't have more of these…

- My husband and I have been fighting illnesses and I pray we get over these quickly, even today.
- On Monday, my husband's doctor told him that he had skin cancer on the bridge of his nose. He is now referring him to a surgeon who does skin grafting.
- Then on Tuesday, our little quiet dog Snigglet had to be seen by the vet for pancreatitis. Because she has been in pain from this, she is mopey and not eating.
- Then on Wednesday, Zoey began to vomit and wasn't fully healing. She has a sore that will not heal. The antibiotics aren't working, so she is wearing a cone. It is making her depressed like Snigglet.
- Then my daughter has been going back and forth with another company who approached her and offered her something she could not refuse.
- Then Bryce had an interview. It was the only job that had responded to his applications. He met with the foreman for two hours and was told there are several other applicants. If he gets this job, they were hoping he would start on Monday.
- Then on Wednesday, I spent a few hours meeting with anesthesiologists, nurses and other medical professionals to set up for my surgery on Friday.

- The last few days of beautiful fall colors seemed to be interrupted by stuff we could not control.
- Then Thursday was my husband's birthday.

Also on Thursday, we had an appointment with the vet and Zoey's prognosis is not likely a good one. She is showing signs of a cancerous tumor in her glands. On Monday, she will have a biopsy and will be at the vet all day. I wanted to break down and cry all day… I tried to have a fun time instead as it was my husband's birthday. Then some things seemed to click into place…

- My daughter took the new job while the enemy attacked. She starts her new management position on Thursday, October 31, 2024.
- My younger son, who thought all hope was gone as he hadn't heard from his new job, called and offered him the job. It was such a relief. He starts Tuesday, October 29, 2024.

We have been hearing sounds in the basement that seem to indicate that we have mice. An exterminator came out to our house and confirmed that we did, but told us not to worry as he knows how to control these pests. He came out yesterday just before my husband's job interview in town. He showed me what had been happening. He also showed me an unexpected access point.

Exterminator: "The birds are not the issue here. It is everything else that comes with it. I suggest that you either quit feeding the small animals or do it as far away from the house as possible."

I decided that I needed to quit feeding them. I now know changes are coming and soon. Changes must come. Our home needs to be fortified. God, You are a genius because You have been having me feed them less and less to prepare for a potential move. This will now be 'the end of times' of the feeders. My husband and I decided that this weekend would be the last and we will remove everything on Monday.

My husband interviewed for a position at a home improvement store yesterday. He hopes to get the position.

I fill out an advanced directive this week or I don't… I am not sure. Father, I don't feel well. While I am not scared anymore, I am still sad. I had prayed and hoped I would be healed. However, Father, Your Will be done, not mine. However, I continue to pray that Your Will and my answers to prayers are the same.

Our car is expected to be finished on Monday. I pray it is and it is even better than before. Father, heal our dogs. Our little cuddly dog Snigglet is quiet. Please heal her pancreas. Zoey still has life in her, Father. Her name means divine life, so please heal her. They both require a lot right now. Please strengthen all of us.

If I don't shake this illness, my surgery will be cancelled. However, without Divine Healing, I must have this surgery. I have to go earlier than I had hoped to get a specialized blood screening. Southern Maine is the only approved place, so my husband and I must leave extremely early the day before (Thursday, October 31, 2024). I am exhausted right now and my children and pets are stressed.

Lord, I am feeling the effects of all of this. Many of my dreams have been war related. While wars are coming, I just don't know when. All I do know is You are over all things and that the enemy of the Kingdom of Heaven loses. God help us. Please help Your children!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are troubled in your heart. I know this."

Me: "I am, Lord. Troubles come to us. Things in the world have been the worst they have ever been right now. I even have trouble sleeping at times. When I do sleep, I war against the demonic realm. I see wars. I see people becoming desperate.

"In one of my dreams, the evil group of nations are plotting against the nations who stand with You. They are plotting to steal all of our money, means and homes. They are plotting to steal and control us. It seems like soon that they plan to execute this. Can we do anything?"

Jesus: "Calm down. Yes, I know their plots… every one of them. It is I who determines which, if any, would have success against the children of God. Now, I have called on each of you to prepare your house, fortify your walls and stand upon My Word. Surrender all you have to Me and I will deliver you from every weapon formed against you. Remember what I told you before… In order for hearts to be contrite and eyes to see that I am their Deliverer, people must first need a Deliverer from their affliction.

"Erin, calamity creates humility. Now, I understand that this is not the best news and you had hoped for a different outcome. However, remember it is not the healthy who need a Physician, but those who are sick. Those who are already found do not need a Rescuer. It is the lost who need the rescue. The weak and the helpless need a Defender, not the strong. So, Erin, yes, I know you are witnessing a season here that still seems unbelievable to you."

Me: "Yes, like the kind of movie where I am in the audience saying, 'Come on, this would never happen in real life.'"

Jesus: "Yet here it is. As for anyone who believes that Revelation is a grand metaphor, they should look at the events and the people surrounding them. Do you not see the evil rising in those you thought were asleep. While at first you did not know where your neighbors stood, evil rose up in them visibly. Then there are the neighbors who are living in sin up the road that do not know Me. Even so, you saw goodness in them.

"The division has come. No one is sin free. However, one can know the difference between those who see what is unfolding and seek answers and remember Me and those who instead embrace demons and lean on their own understanding."

Note from Erin's husband: 'The division has come' is past tense and happened about a year ago or so. While noting that not one is sin free, the Lord then went on to clarify that one can now know the difference of where one stands if they seek it through Him. After discussing this with Erin, we decided to change the title of this dream from 'The Division has Come' to 'The Visible Division has Now Come'. We should also note that the Lord does not tell us what to title these dreams and they have been changed in the past, but on very rare occasions since the Nest began (two or three times at most).

Me: "Lord, it is scary right now. We don't know much as most news now are lies."

Jesus: "Yes. However, you know Me and you know what has come and all that is at stake. Therefore, you know the Kingdom of Heaven is near, even at the door."

Me: "Lord, I am grieving and truly troubled."

Jesus: "I know, Erin, but do not worry. You are Mine."

Me: "Lord, I received a video of a baby listening to his mother sing 'Good, Good Father'. I watched the journey of love the baby took in his eyes, then his tiny heart and then his very soul as tears flowed down his cheeks. I understand that love. I love You like this baby, Lord. I love You so deeply there are days I can't even stop my tears. I love You so much!"

Jesus: "You have touched My heart, Erin. I love you with an even greater love. So, when I say woe to those who would harm one of these little ones, you understand what I am saying."

Me: "Yes. That it won't go well for the one doing the harm."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a Great Plan. Do not worry. I know your heart. There will be a time very soon when you will be capable of even more."

Me: "Lord, time has passed me by. I just wish I had done a better job of being present. I wasted so much time trying to be the best at various skills and jobs. All that matters is what we do with the portions You have given us and that You use us for the greater things You have called us for. Well, Lord, my Vessel is now collecting dust. I want so much to do more. Please, Lord, we want to help now."

Jesus: "I do not occupy a dusty vessel sitting on a shelf. Erin, I meet you where you are and I call you and use you from there. I am using you. As for right now, where you are is where I have you until I call you and thousands of others. I have called you to be ready. I require that you continue to do good every day because I am in you. Rejoice this day and do not worry. I am here and I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-859/

859 – My Silence is NOT a Sign that I am Inactive

Received on Wednesday, October 30, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Just thank You. You are so good. You have been kind to me. Even when I don't deserve it, You have always been kind.

My younger son started his new job yesterday. It is a humbling job and one that very few would want. It involves spraying chemicals with oil all day long. While the pay is poor, he needs the job. Praise You and thank You for this, Father.

My husband received word yesterday that he did not get the job that truly seemed like he would. He was so qualified that they moved up his interview and application process. We are stunned it fell through. This door could only have been supernaturally shut by You, Father. Please open up a position for my husband so we don't worry. We need some miracles here.

Today is my daughter's 23rd birthday! It is just so hard to believe that at this exact time I was being carted into surgery for a C-Section. 23 years later… (sigh) where has this gone, Father? We spent the day together yesterday and we had a chance to catch up and talk. Her new job as manager begins tomorrow and she is really excited.

However, and like with many employers do at the end, her company she is currently working for has locked her out of 'the system'. This means she could no longer log in for her shifts or anything else to complete her job. Her manager said it was a glitch, but I know this was no glitch. My daughter was supposed to work there yesterday, but she was told not to. She was so sad because she loved her job and co-workers.

She was hurt about all of it and was doubting her decision to make this change. We felt strongly that God opened this door because her offer, based on all of the worldly factors, was one she couldn't refuse. She had planned to bring her current boss white roses, but, based on her lockout, she wondered if she should. I instead encouraged her to do all she had originally planned and even more.

We found a beautiful glass pitcher at the thrift store and she purchased some white roses and a card. I then went with her to witness the exchange. I knew from experience that it is always better to leave on a high note and be what the Lord would want us to be as Christians to those who probably say horrible things about us.

There are times when things are so bad that You tell us to turn away from the former things and release this also to You. Well, when my daughter arrived with her gift, you would not believe the joy on her manager's face. She was in shock and just lit up over the thoughtfulness. Whatever things she had done or thought were reversed in my daughter doing good here. It was a great day.

Father, today is my last day to finish chores at home and prepare my kids to manage the house while we are gone. Strengthen me today and continue to heal our dogs. When instructing the kids to administer Zoey's and Snigglet's medications, things were rough. My daughter broke down and was overwhelmed by everything and my surgery. We both cried, but then felt better.

Father, please help us to have a great day celebrating my daughter's birthday. Please protect our children, our dogs and our home. Please also grant us a safe journey. Nothing has happened like we had expected or hoped things would. Please watch over us and keep us close to You.

Last night and today have been tearful. My husband helped me to remove the birdfeeder pole. I watched out my window as the little birds dove in for where the feeders should have been, but of course were unable to land. They seemed confused. They were searching. The squirrels seemed to panic. It hurts to see this.

Still, I know this is only temporary, so I take comfort in this. However, I will miss them… a lot. Everyday was something new and wonderful. Even so, Father, You have had me feed them less and less lately. This was to prepare them for this day that has now come.

We are hurting as a household and have so much uncertainty ahead. We are at a place my husband and I have never been. I am scared. Father, it is difficult to go into a major surgery with so much uncertainty:

- Please send my husband a job.

- Please make the surgery a success for us with Good News.
- Please strengthen and heal me.
- Father, please don't allow me to be anxious.

If this is not Your Will, then please put a stop to it supernaturally. I have prayed, pouted and finally released all things to You, Father. Your Will be done in all things. We are also still waiting to get our car back. I love You!

Also, please heal my sons and bless them. Please bless my daughter too. My older son is out west and so depressed and homesick. I asked him to please stay positive and pray.

Father, we need miracles here only You can deliver!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! My Voice is in you."

Me: "Lord, I am at a loss. I am trying to be…"

Jesus: "…something you are not. I know you must remain strong so you do not dishearten your children, your husband and friends. Erin, be honest with Me. I love you and I am closest to you."

Me: "Lord, I need help. I am scared and uncertain. All of the other surgeries… I have had thirteen if I recall all of them… this one is unsettling. I have always felt at peace, but this time has been different. Please grant me Your Perfect Peace, Lord. Please bring help. Please bring angels to watch over us in all we do. Please be over my doctors, my surgeons and my physician's attendants. Please work through them. Please help, Lord!"

Jesus: "I am with you. I know your needs and I know My plans are to bless you, here and in Heaven. Yes, Erin, I have sent help to you and I don't plan to stop. While you have taken your feeders down temporarily, this is not permanent. This is also not a sign from Me that you will no longer dream or have your Nest for Sparrows to stay. Do not let the enemy convince you that your seasons have ended. They have not.

"Everything I have promised you I plan to deliver. I will not stop. Remember that I care for the Sparrows. I watch over them and hand feed them. Surrender this to Me. I want you to also take comfort in that I walk with your sons and daughter. Very soon, they too will know and understand this and great will be their joy. It is I who open doors that no one can shut and shut doors no one can open. Do not forget this.

"Trouble is coming upon this Earth and all will seem hopeless. However, I am about to move and My silence is not a sign that I am inactive in areas you do not see. I know what injustice is occurring. I count every lie and gather witnesses and record them. Erin, I record each one. I do not forget.

I also find no pleasure in the acts of the wicked nor do I compromise with evil. See all of this and understand and know I am God and I will not be mocked nor can I be excluded from meetings, plans or plots hatched in darkness. Be encouraged that My Will is done, Erin. So, you pray… Lord, on Earth as it is in Heaven. This is coming. Remember that calamity crumbles hearts of stone and softens stiff necks.

"Now, I am sorry you have been grieving My 'silence'. When you say, 'Lord, are You hearing this?', I say, 'Yes, Erin, I am here. I know. I know.' I then hear your sigh of disappointment when your life here becomes more difficult. Well, I have never let you down… not once. Everything large or small right now has a purpose.

"Now, there is a reason that your husband did not receive that job. As he has been humbled, he does not require further ridicule as the enemy would like for him from this.

"Since you have been good stewards to all that I have given you, I am about to give you even more. Along with this comes more responsibility, but great will be your joy.

"I know your children had hopes for a move and your house was prepared. Be patient right now as these things are acts of faith to see that you would do as I instruct you to when I call you.

"Right now is also the time for all of the children of God to pray. Blow the horns and sound the alarms in Zion as the enemy comes to breach the outer walls of the walled nation and breaches the nations of the unwalled. They flood the land so peace is removed permanently.

"Well, Erin, I am the Prince of Perfect Peace. No Prince of Persia nor enemy of man will stop God. All will know I AM God and I AM who I say I AM."

Me: "Lord, it sounds like war is coming. Could You send revival first?"

Jesus: "I have a Great Plan. This is enough for today. Just know that I am here, Erin. I am with you. Continue on your course. I have a reason for all I do right now. Do not worry. I will give you Perfect Peace. Where you go, I go, so where you step is Holy. I love you!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-860/

860 – Election Day 2024 has arrived

Received on Tuesday, November 5, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for more days here! Thank You for even one more day to do something on behalf of You. I am only here at Your pleasure and by Your Will. Though my future here is still uncertain as I await my fate according to the world, I still look forward to Your miracles.

I have never prayed like I have been praying for Your Great Harvest and Your Great Revival to soon commence. When You have answered me that You have a Great Plan, You do so with joy and excitement as You know in advance every little detail. Father, please remember me and all of Your children being like that little baby's reaction to the sound of his mother singing to him the song, 'Good, good Father'.

I watched children pray for the USA all over the world. They were praying for Trump and that You would use him to remove darkness and evil so that You could have the Greatest Harvest the world has ever known.

This morning, I went to my knees with the Lord's Prayer. As I prayed, I had a Grand Vision…

Sub-dream / Vision 1 "The Spiritual Battle over Jerusalem" begins…

As I prayed in the Spirit, I saw a massive opening over the USA. It was a Portal from Heaven to Earth. I then saw waves and waves of Your angelic heavenly army descend carrying items from Heaven to the Earth. I saw rays of sunlight breaking through as thousands upon thousands of angels were bringing gifts of restoration, miracles and provision over the land.

I then saw a demonic group at a massive roundtable…

Leader 1: "It has begun. You know what to do to stop this."

A phone call was made. I then heard a reply. While the reply was in a foreign language that I didn't understand, I was somehow able to interpret what was said…

Leader 2 (on phone): "Send rain upon the Little Eagle."

I then saw a countdown begin while the entire world was watching the USA. This, in turn, distracted from the coming trouble, trouble unlike any trouble that had come before. I then saw a build up of dark demonic forces create a wall to hold back the angels of God. I then heard the demonic realm…

Demonic realm: Chanting and crying in wailing similar to the call to prayer in Islam. "For Parsa, For Parsa."

While I couldn't supernaturally understand anything about what they were saying, I then heard something that sounded like the following…

Demonic realm: Continuing to chant and wail. "Ilaa Ean Ealaa (Allah?)!"

They were trying to hold off the army of God over Jerusalem. The Vision then closed.

Sub-dream / Vision 1 over…

Father, please help us as we need miracles. Please give us one last chance as the world cries out to You. Please bless this day. We are in the Hebrew month of Cheshvan. Cheshvan references Global Judgment as we are reminded of Noah's Flood.

Cheshvan is also sometimes called Marcheshvan. The word 'Mar' means bitter. This was a 'Bitter Flood'. Father, I ask for You to create a new thing here. Make this day a great day of victory.

Right now, it is November 5, 2024. On the Hebrew calendar as commonly followed in Israel, it is Cheshvan 4. When the sun sets tonight, this will become Cheshvan 5.Since the voting stations are closing this evening, this means this closing will happen on the 5th day on both calendars (November 5 & Cheshvan 5).

The number 5 means 'Your Grace, God's Grace'! Father, please have mercy and grace upon us today. Please bless us. Please bless Your people. Please rise up against tyranny and correct this for us! We pray for all of this, in Jesus' Mighty Name, Amen! Father, we thank You in advance for doing all things perfectly as only You can.

As for my recent two dreams that I had two nights in a row, I saw the same setting. Because I have not had any of the hospital prescribed pain medication since Saturday evening, I know these two dreams are from You and not a hallucination. This is what I dreamt the last two nights…

Sub-dream 2 "A River Runs in the Desert!" begins...

I had a dream of a vast desert of sand. I then saw a red river running through the desert that was around twelve feet wide. It was running through the area so fast and with such force that the river had white capped rapids. The surrounding area conditions in the desert were foggy and strange. The fog was white and thick.

At the very edge of the north of the river, I could see a clearing. I walked towards the clearing. I then saw something that I did not understand. I saw a massive mountain of hewed marble. It was a light tan with red veining. The mountain consisted of something similar to 'rainforest brown marble' or' 'something like picture jasper'.

I then saw angels of God cutting out roads and platforms on this marble mountain rock. There was a top platform. A road then led from the top platform to twelve other platforms in descending order. This road rotated around the mountain. I have never seen a mountain even close to this here on Earth!

Angel: In a loud voice. "It is time for inspection!" I then heard a horn blow.

All of the angelic stone masons immediately dropped their tools. Then over the top of the mountain, I saw the clouds like a tempest swirling over the area as if the hand of God had reached into the clouds with His own hand to test the area. As the clouds swirled faster, I heard angels…

Angels: Singing together. "Holy is the Lamb! He is worthy!"

I then heard an angel whose voice was like a beautiful call, like a trumpet, but yet still like a voice speaking.

Angel: In a 'trumpet-like' voice. "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord and of the Messiah and He will reign forever and ever!"

I then saw something frightening. It was a cluster of lightning strikes. Silence then followed this and the angels bowed their heads.

Something then came that sounded like it came from the bowels of the Earth. It was a rumble of thunder that echoed loudly in all four corners of the Earth. This thunder rose up over the area and it literally sounded like splitting stone. It was so powerful that I saw the sky tear open. All of the mighty army angels then started to cheer louder and louder with mighty thunderous applause.

Before moving on to what I saw and heard next, it is worthwhile to take a short break to listen to the following song (Sirius – Extended Version – by Alan Parsons Project).

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wWHNUlhRuDM

While I know this sounds ridiculous, a song similar to this song (but obviously still much better and heavenly in origin) then started to resound in this entire area. The angels over the area then cheered. I then saw something that took my breath away…

There was Jesus on His beautiful white horse and His horse was in full regalia! I imagined it was just as the Jewish people had been expecting to see the Messiah 2000 years ago. He was in full armor. However, on His head was a Crown greater than anything I had ever imagined. His horse then came down and landed on the top platform of this marble mountain.

The entire marble mountain then lit up completely. I then saw angels move to the other twelve platforms. These platforms were in the birth order of the sons of Jacob. I saw Rueben all the way to Benjamin. I then saw something I didn't fully understand…

Jesus ordered changes to the order of these twelve platforms. The first platform was now to be for Judah. Angels then came to place gifts on the platform of Judah. There was a blessing given by Jesus over the platform of Judah. Jesus then rode His horse to the next platform. I walked over to an angel…

Me: "What is our Lord doing?"

Angel: "Do you not know? He is establishing the tribes and orders and bestowing Divine Gifts. The saints will then be ushed in here and marked for service."

Me: "Oh, is this the 144,000?"

While the angel looked at me seriously at first, he then broke into a smile of great affection.

Angel: "Yes, Erin! The time has come! Rejoice as the time has finally come!"

I then looked at the glowing marble mountain just as Jesus rounded the area with His horse. He was so handsome. He then spotted me and smiled at me with such incredible love upon His face. He waved at me and I waved back to Him.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up immediately. My side was in pain. I have six lances in my right side, with the last one about seven inches long. My insides hurt. I gently went to my knees to pray…

Father, I know You are God alone. Before time even began, You were established on the Throne. Your Kingdom is greater than any kingdom here on Earth and is for all eternity. Your children love You. We look for You. We are in need of Your help now. Please don't allow us to be afflicted. Please rise up and help us! I pray this in Your Name, in Jesus's Mighty Name, AMEN!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry about what will happen today. No scheme of man will keep My Will from occurring here. I know what the stakes are."

Me: "Could You let Trump win and a Great Revival come? After this, could You then collect us, Your Great Harvest? Could You then make it so only after this the globalists are able to rise up and finish their demonic agenda? That is, can You delay the globalists' plans until after we are all gone?"

Jesus: "Is this your prayer?"

Me: "Well, it is my hopeful petition. Look, Lord, we know that the last election was stolen and that those who spoke up were silenced. However, please don't allow this again. Please let this be strong and powerful. Just as Your blood atoned for the sins of man, please allow a red sweeping wave to bring in a great covering of Your miracles. While they will fight hard against us, You can strengthen us. Well up in us! If You do nothing, we will then all perish and so will Israel. The globalists want all of us dead."

Jesus: "And if I do this as you pray, will the nations establish Me as their Messiah?"

Me: "Well, Lord, not all will. However, I do believe that many will, especially those who have lost all hope!"

Jesus: "This means you would need to go places and see things. This means you would need to bear witness to atrocities. You will then witness to the lost because I will be in you. Erin, can you surrender to Me like this? Just know that this won't always be pleasant."

Me: “Lord, as I have surrendered this surgery to You and I have given You my life, please take me to where You want me to go. Just be with me always. I am excited.”

Jesus: “Then let Me establish My Will. Erin, your prayer is good.”

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-861/

861 – Trump's Shocking Landslide Presidential Victory

Received on Thursday, November 7, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for Your grace and mercy for the nations under Your Kingdom… the USA and Israel. There was a Great Victory in America, a Great Wave of Red. This was a covering of Your Grace and the sign of Your Atonement over the nations. A Miracle Comeback for Trump occurred as goodness has prevailed. However, I am unable to fully find peace in this Great Victory.

Your Light of Truth has shed illumination upon those doing evil, mostly now in full view. This is what disturbed my sleep between 1:00am and 2:00am. The victory just seemed too easy and simplistic. There are so many reasons that this has Your hand all over it as Trump should never have been 'allowed' to win by the enemy. The corrupt government currently in power has an army of corrupt officials who are paid an extreme amount to keep the crooked demon rats comfortably in power, including armies of…

- Tax collectors.
- Bureaucrats.
- Politicians.
- Lobbyists.
- Judges.
- Attorneys.
- Advisers of all kinds.
- Mainstream Media.
- And this is just the tip of the iceberg

As for Trump, our new President and his diverse team have made known their plans to dismantle all of these branches of government who have been given too much power and risen against the people's will / vote. This corrupt opposition is made up of some very evil people who long to remain where they are.

They will stop at nothing to preserve their power. They will stop at nothing to keep their money at any and all costs. They gather information and craft false reports. They bribe and steer those who are elected and therefore those who the elected control to do their will. Most of these agencies consist of three letter acronyms:

- CIA: Central Intelligence Agency.
- FBI: Federal Bureau of Investigation.
- NSA: National Security Administration.
- DoD: Department of Defense.
- DHS: Department of Homeland Security.
- DoJ: Department of Justice.
- DEA: Drug Enforcement Agency.
- DoE: Department of Energy.
- CDC: Center for Disease Control.
- IRS: Internal Revenue Service.
- ICE: Immigration and Customs Enforcement.
- WHO: World Health Organization.
- FDA: Food and Drug Administration.
- SSA: Social Security Administration.
- BLM: Bureau of Land Management.
- FEMA: Federal Emergency Management Agency.
- CPS: Child Protective Services.

And these are just the common ones! There are hundreds more! These have grown and expanded in just the last 70ish years and so much so that most Americans have no idea what their functions are until the day when you have no choice but to deal with them. They have great power over all of the executive branches of government and the information they obtain can easily be used as a weapon against any opponent that they deem to be a threat to their personal enjoyment of unchecked power.

So, they have been attacking the citizens, as well as the government the citizens elected back in 2016. For eight years, we have seen their wrath against us all. While we pay our taxes to them as citizens, we have no authority over them. When Trump shocked the world in 2016, they were so angry about this that they crafted a series of false reports and spread this information on the public airways.

They even threatened Trump's family, his businesses, his 70 million or so voters and his office. It just kept going. They even made two assassination attempts on his life this summer. The current President and VP, along with the Shadow President (Obama) and the Clintons, all insinuated that Trump was too dangerous a threat to democracy to be allowed to live. This was basically a universal announcement that they would not only condone Trump's assassination but celebrate it.

They also did other things that were just as harmful. They used every means to inflict harm and exhaust the citizens. They used the term 'Plausible Deniability' to allow for free lies with no consequences. They accused Trump of doing things they were guilty of doing themselves. We saw literal demonic activities manifesting in all those who stood with the evil. The people could see it all since it was now in full view.

Well, this time in 2024, God allowed Trump to win fairly (since the 2020 election was corrupted). This election should have been just as corrupt, but God stepped in. The fact that we even saw some cities boarding up shop windows in anticipation of riots from Antifa and others ahead of the results underline just how surprised the enemy is by these results.

I believe they had planned it that they would win and then send out fake Trump supporters to burn cities. They would then call for and implement Mashal Law. I just find their current calm responses to be highly suspicious. Perhaps they are still in a heavy case of denial and the anger is soon to follow.

It is just such a shock that Trump swept the USA with victories. It seems like the only states he didn't win were those states that required no voter ID (but I may be off on this as I didn't dig into it). It just seems so strange that Harris conceded last night and Trump was congratulated by all of these leaders of enemy countries as well as allies.All before the current government in our own country. Harris then called for a peaceful transfer of power. Biden even invited Trump to come to the White House early.

However, I then found the following incredibly telling! Obama posted a statement online acknowledging the loss and then he and Michelle promptly proceeded to pack a great deal of luggage and then left by private plane from the area. Where did he go? Why did he leave so fast?

All of Trump's opposition seemed quiet and in shock. During Harris' concession speech, she seemed to let all of her supporters know that the work they had begun was still not over and that the fight continues. It felt like a veiled call to rise, organize and mobilize.

On the mainstream media news channels, the broadcasters called Trump a Nazi-like Hitler and stated that they had fears that Trump would have all of them sent to internment camps. Their divisive speech just goes on and on.

As for the riots I expected, they have not happened… yet (and I pray there are none). Any protests so far have been mild ones. People clearly led by the demonic realm are surely going to fight. They didn't work this hard just to allow great changes to unfold. The civil war is coming.

There were even some reports that Israel celebrated Trump's victory as well. This would make sense though as Trump has strongly supported Israel. There were reports that Hamas was calming down their fight against Israel.

While I am delighting in and celebrating Trump's victory, something still tugs at me. Yes, all of this is troubling me and I believe for good reason: Here are a few…

- The foreigners that invaded our porous southern border are still here and are a mighty army. Yes, Trump won, but this doesn't take away from the fact that this mighty army dwells amongst us and is supported by someone.
- They are (mostly) quietly hidden right now. Some have been training. As for their precise whereabouts, we have very little information. This is because this was a covert operation that has now been happening for almost 4 years.
- Then what about the enemy nations who surround us and Israel?
- Why did Obama and his family fly out of here so suddenly?

- Why are there no significant protests?

Why? Is it because something more evil is now being planned in response to this unexpected Trump victory? After all, the enemy just has to be furious at God right now! While there is so much more to this, it would take too long to list all of it out. From the enemy's point of view, their outlook in keeping power looks quite bleak (where the following was taken from CNN's website as at 2pm Eastern time today)…

- A 'God-Leaning' Supreme Court: The Supreme Court is already 'God-Leaning' by 6 GOP placings to 3 Democrat placings margin (although I sometimes question just how 'God-Leaning' Justice Roberts truly is).
- A 'God-Leaning' President: Trump is projected to win 312 electoral votes (he has already won 295 – over the required 270) compared to Harris winning just 226 electoral votes. Making this an even greater victory is Trump's 72.8 million popular vote compared to Harris' 68.1 million popular vote, a 4.7 million popular vote advantage. Winning the popular vote is highly unusual for the GOP.
- A 'God-Leaning' Senate: The GOP already holds 52 Senate seats and is expected to hold 53, meaning they control the Senate. This is a significant margin of 6 Senate seats over the Democrat's expected 47 Senate seats. VP Vance will have the tie-breaking vote if a vote is tied at 50 seats to 50 seats.
- A 'God-Leaning' House: While too early to know for sure, it appears probable that the House will remain in the control of the GOP. While it takes 218 House seats to control the House, the GOP currently have 209 House seats compared to the Democrats current 191 House seats, a current margin of 18 seats.

Even though this is huge, none of the Democrat's supporters are burning things down? Not only that, but they are dropping lawsuits against Trump and the GOP instead of filing even more. After all of these years of fighting every LITTLE thing, did they really decide not to fight this BIG thing? This is why I am so apprehensive right now!

The assassination desire is also still very much alive in the evil country of Iran. They have great fear of Trump and their currency has been losing value. They are angry and calling on all of Islam to murder Trump. The local news and cable outlets then add fuel to this fire by saying Trump's election is the end of Democracy and the Constitution.

Father, it is fun to get excited about this win. Maybe this would be a great moment for the shaking? I can't help but feel that some significant calamity is soon to come. I then fell back to sleep at around 2:30 am and had a vivid dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Seven Seals, Trumpets & Bowls" begins…

I saw an angel of the Lord placing bricks in a tilled field. It looked like the harvest had already occurred and that winter was coming. The ground seemed to be laying fallow (basically unproductive). I then saw the angel laying down these bricks. They were unusually long (14" long vs the usual 8" to 12") and 3.5" wide and 3.5" thick. They were freshly made of baked red river clay.

The angel set them down 12" apart and parallel to each other. It was odd. In Scripture bricks are mentioned in Genesis 11:3. The people of the Earth were as one and hadn't divided. They were together and spoke one language. They had migrated to Babylon (Shinar). They had plans to build a great tower from bricks, using tar as mortar. They were constructing the Tower of Babel. The angel of the Lord came over to me…

Angel: "God has something to show you, Erin. Come."

I was small compared to him. He was about nine feet tall. He wore a white tunic and pants. His sleeves were rolled up. He had very curly hair. He took me to the desert Mountain of Jacob's Sons. This was the place from my last dream where I had seen Jesus descend to on His horse. As we drew closer, I saw an evil army around the area. There at the base was a robed king on a white horse. This horse had a grey cast.

The horse's regalia was not like Jesus' horse (somewhat similar, but not nearly as splendid). I was in the back so I could not see his face. While he was carrying a bow, he had no arrows. He wore a crown. His robe was long and made of blue velvet. The collar was white with red blood-stained polka dots on the fur. The army behind him were his subjects and were from many tribes and nations.

I then saw him take up a scepter with his left hand. This seemed odd because most kings take the scepter in their dominant right hand. In great anger, he dismounted his horse and began to climb the platforms. He appeared to curse the Mountain. He took this scepter and struck it against God's Mountain several times in anger. He turned towards me and had such a look of anger because he could not harm the Mountain.

I recognized him. It was the Shadow President! The former President then mounted his horse and looked up at the sky with a furious glare. He yelled at the sky, but really towards God…

Former President: "I will wait and wage war against the House of Jacob. You will not be able to hide them. I will have the greatest army and the whole Earth will praise me. I will destroy Your woman and her offspring. I will hunt them down and even Jerusalem will be no more!"

The army behind him cheered loudly in agreement with what he had just declared. He then pulled the reins on his horse and fled the area.

Me: "What was that all about?"

Angel: "Oh, there is quite a history with 'this one'. Do not worry as I am not here to make you afraid. I am here to give you some knowledge from the Lord who sent me."

Me: "You look a lot like Uriel and Gabriel."

Angel: "I haven't seen you in a while. You have been praying for healing. As God has called me here, this is a sign that I am near and so too is the favor of His healing over you. We recently sent 'this one' a sign that God is in the midst of all that is occurring."

Me: "Yes, you did! It is the derivation of your name and it is on this current storm. It is the Hurricane Rafael that just passed over Cuba!"

Raphael: "Yes! Now you remember me! I have been stirring up the waters and my presence reminds him that God still remains, has always remained and will continue to remain on the Throne for all eternity. He didn't see me today, but I left him some bricks for his journey, for his future projects, so he can once again build for himself a nice tower." He laughed.

Me: "Oh Raphael, this is what I remember about you… you are so funny!"

Raphael: "Well, none of this is new for the angels of God. We know 'this one' because it takes one to know one even though we are NOT at all like him." Raphael shook his head. "If you knew a fraction of what we do…" He shook his head again. "…well, he has a special piece of lake recreation that he will come to regret purchasing. What do you call that when there are more than one occupant or owner in a vacation spot?"

Me: "Bed and Breakfast? Vrbo? Airbnb? I don't know!"

Raphael: Laughing. "Timeshare! Oh, he will really come to hate this timeshare experience."

Me: "You are so hilarious. I call timeshares a bad investment."

Raphael: "None of us disagree with that. Anyway, 'this one' is a bit angry right now. While you know he is plotting with his fanbase nations to destroy Israel, he is also longing to send destruction to New York City, the city of monetary exchange. He desires to kill millions and destroy the currency value of the US to nothing so when God's Appointed Leader (Trump) takes his seat he will be over a very weak nation."

Me: "Could you have God stop this?"

Raphael: "Erin, you know I am a one-way messenger. This communique is one-way… God's Way."

Me: "Oh, so you are a poet too?"

Raphael: "I am known for healing on behalf of Heaven. Children. With children, they like laughter and they love rhymes."

Me: "God made you perfectly, Raphael."

Raphael: "Okay, come with me."

Me: "Raphael, why did you lay out that long line of bricks for the enemy?"

Raphael: "To further annoy him. Our job as sent by God is to send messages to both saints and sinners and… others." He pointed to the former President. "In the middle of that long line of Babel bricks, I have a personal gift for him from all of us. Let's just say he will be angry a little longer than normal."

Me: "What is it? Please? Please, please? Is it a tiny trumpet or shofar?"

Raphael: "Oh, that is a good one. I will have to run that one by God and the others. No, this is personal. One day, you will know. As for right now, we are just pulling on his horse's reins."

Me: "Oh, kind of like pulling his leg?"

Raphael: "Well, many of us have had thoughts about separating him limb from limb, especially Michael who is over Israel. However, for now, there is no worse fate than the place he is going. See over here…" In front of us was a massive wooden plank table. "You have been praying for revelation of the Book of Revelation. God sent me to give you some help. There is a reason it is not a simple book and it is an important one.

"There are many who are Christian and still believe they will not suffer any affliction. Many of them you will witness to because they will feel betrayed by the Word of God when really it was their denial that God's children would ever endure troubles. This is a misunderstanding of God's Word which was a result of incorrect teaching from the pulpits in churches about the time of the end.

"Now, you heard your greatest enemy just declare his desire to destroy the Sons of Jacob. He was angry and wanted to split apart the Mountain of Jasper we just prepared for the Lord. I can tell you he will try to come back with something more destructive only to find he will be unable to go any farther than the bricks."

Me: "Is this how angels fight good vs evil? Are these like the wars in Heaven?"

Raphael: Laughing. "If only! No, those are extremely different. These things are personal. To us, some of this can even be light-hearted. God's crew of angels have some great things planned."

Me: "Yes, and even on a massive scale, something like a hurricane with your name on it! Is it because you were all once close and worked together?"

Raphael: "Well, we were all friends and very close. When this one was removed, he took with him many who we were very close to, attempting to desecrate the goodness of God on the Throne. Even a few 1000 years doesn't erase all the history amongst the angelic order.

"Now, it is hard to explain, but Heaven enjoys frustrating the plans of the wicked against the children of God. It is what we do. We send messages from God and we heal as God calls us to. Now, on this table and over here are Seven Bowls. Over here are Seven Trumpets and over there is the Scroll with Seven Seals. Seven Seal Judgments are followed by Seven Trumpet Judgments and Seven Bowl Judgments."

Me: "Thanks, Raphael. I have wondered about this often."

Raphael: "I am here to explain who you saw on the white horse. 2000 years ago, the Lord (Jesus) walked the Earth. He left a Gift with those who followed Him."

Me: "The Holy Spirit!"

Raphael: "Correct. This Spirit would gently instruct God's children within them to differentiate right from wrong.These judgments were active throughout these 2000 years, but not in succession like they are now. Now, what do you think this Scroll with Seven Seals is?"

Me: "Well, the only One who could open it and who is worthy is the Lamb of God, Jesus. So, I believe the Scroll represents the Deed to the Earth and each Seal opened was a unique timeline event, possibly?"

Raphael: "Very good. Then you understand that these Trumpets are sounded at the breaking of the Seventh (and final) Seal."

Me: "Yes."

Raphael: "So now, go to the Word of the Lord in Matthew as He told you what was coming and is in Revelation with the same alignment."

Note: After doing the following exercise, I looked around the internet to see if anyone else has performed this study. It has already been done. I just didn't want people to think I was taking credit for being the first one to think this up (via God) when I am not.

Me: "Yes. I will compare the 24th Chapter of Matthew to the 6th Chapter of Revelation…

- 24:4-5 false christs = 6:1-2 white horse.
- 24:6-7 war = 6:3-4 red horse.
- 24:7 famine = 6:5-6 black horse.
- 24:9 death = 6:7-8 pale / green horse.
- 24:9-13 martyrdom = 6:9-11 5th Seal (I just noticed the 9/11 analogy as I reread the typed copy).
- Luke 21:11 signs = 6:12-17 6th
- Also, Zechariah 14.

Raphael: "So, the one on the white horse… he orders this or that, but others shoot the arrows. He is over the 'Dominion System'. His spirit is an antichrist and unholy spirit. He is a fallen angel. Lucifer is the architect of false religions and antichrists. He appeared to one leader and disguised himself as Gabriel. To this day, it is the most destructive false religion of them all.

"Once the Lord Jesus appeared on Earth and then ascended for 2000 years, the children of God looked for another physical manifestation of Him. Seeing an opportunity, the enemy of God and man would say to this leader, 'It is me. I am your lord or I am an angel of the lord here to tell you that you are the greatest and that god has sent me to make you comply (of course this wasn't Gabriel, but an evil imposter).'"

Me: "Oh, that is bad."

Raphael: "It was very bad and before the printing press (the printing press came out in the 15th century and Islam became a religion in the 7th century). Faith and prayers were it. God's children were scattered so Satan had to do some work. Now, there is the other thing you already understand… the one religion will rise."

Me: "Islam."

Raphael: "God even made their flag (the Palestinian flag) to be the colors of these horses of Revelation (white, red, black & green) as a sign. Now, I will see you again and I will help you with what the Lord calls me too. Oh yes, one other message for you… trust the Lord's Voice in you. He is sounding the trumpet here, so pray. The enemy is very angry right now."

Me: "Okay, I will. However, could you also heal me now?"

Raphael: "Erin, you know better. Go to the Lord with your petition. By His own hand assuredly He will heal you. This…" He suddenly stopped in mid-sentence and became very still as if to listen. "Erin, I must go now. Wake up and write everything as I instructed you. God is with you!"

Sub-dream 1 over.

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-862/

862 – Continued Recovery from Kidney Surgery

Received on Sunday, November 10, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do for us. You are such a Cover and love us more than we deserve. As for nine days ago, the date of my surgery on Friday, November 1, 2024, I wasn't sure if I would be back home or what physical state I would be in. It has been difficult as nothing is easy, but I am happy to be home.

The enemy has fought to make me miserable. My surgery was performed in the beautiful Malone Family Robotics area of the Portland Maine Hospital Campus. The people were kind and the attention to details architecturally and organizationally was unlike any experience I had ever had. I didn't feel scared.

Maybe… well, 100% likely with You, Father… You cancelled my other two surgeries so I was experienced in all of this as a patient. The care that the medical teams used to ensure sterilized conditions was the closest to what I can remember to my surgeries in Portland OR 20+ years ago. All of it made me feel confident, Father, that Your hand was in all of this. Thank You!

The enemy was pushing back at me though because I woke up in a very old wing of the hospital. This was a surprise as I was originally scheduled to be in the new patient rooms in the Malone Wing. I woke up to a roommate moaning next to me. The nurses came in and were so kind to me. If it hadn't been for the excellent staff, I would have been so upset.

The story on my downgraded room turned out to be a dispute that Medicare had for the expense of the new room at the Malone Wing. However, since I was out of consciousness most of the time, I had no long-lasting concerns other than I was so thankful to be waking up in any bed. Praise You, Father.

I then made a joke to the night nurses about the promise I had been given by admitting that I was supposed to be in the Malone Tower. I asked them what happened. They were curious also because they could see that I was scheduled to stay there with the other Robotic Surgery Post Op Patients in the Tower.

Me: "Well, I am still happy to be here too, so please don't worry about it. I believe that these types of things that happen 'randomly' are really not accidents at all."

Nurse 1: "I promise you that we are friendlier than that crew of attendants. I work there a few nights a week and this is a friendlier group. However, yes, the Malone Tower is beautiful. I hope you are not too disappointed."

Me: "No, I am fine… and I like friendly!"

As the night went on, I quickly realized that my roommate had demons, and not just one, but several. I prayed in my Spirit language in a loud whisper a few times. I then chuckled when You, Father, sent me confirmation that I was correct. A demon possessed person will talk in their sleep out loud and change their voices and pitch. It literally sounded like she had visitors.

When I prayed, things would get knocked over behind the curtain. Then her buzzer would sound about every two hours so she could ask for more drugs. She would then argue with the staff when told she had to wait. She refused to look my way when she would get up and then would make loud shouts in the hallway. This cycle continued.

At one point, the nurse came to see me and I told her I needed to get up and walk around. She and another nurse came over and helped me walk. While I was so weak, I just had to get out of there. As I walked a short distance, I could hear other shouts and night cries coming from the various patient rooms.

Me: "This is a very rowdy floor at night. I am ready to go back to bed."

Nurse 2: "Yeah, it is a difficult place here. It is the psych ward, along with kidney transplant patients and miscellaneous others."

Me: "Wait, what? Psych wards should be locked, shouldn't they be? I mean, you are handling narcotics out here, right? I don't know who thought those at death's door and those at the gates of hell should be in bed together. Seriously, who thought that this would be a good idea?"

The three of us then laughed together. I knew I must have sounded sarcastic, but they did not disagree with me.

Nurse 1: "You are funny. I will use that one, if you don't mind."

Nurse 2: "We agree. All of the staff agrees. However, the hospital is overcapacity."

They helped me back to my room. My roommate was quiet.

Nurse 1: "Erin, I see you are ready for your next dose. Do you want your full dose or would you like half of a dose?"

Me: "Half, please."

Roommate: Yelling out in a demonic voice. "I will take mine and hers." She then started to yell in agony to get more pain meds.

Nurse 2: To my roommate. "You will have to wait until we finish up over here."

Anyway, Father, thank You for sending all of these witnesses and my husband to hear her behavior. My husband had arrived in the morning after the shift change and things were still raucous on her side of the room. At one point, she sprayed something very strong in my direction and I began to cough. When the medical staff arrived, they could smell it and were very upset. I was very nauseous after this.

The staff then rebuked her, but she acted dumb and as if it were an accident. She would then get up and be loudly upset whenever the staff were tending to me. The second shift crew then had my husband go get his breakfast because they needed a series of milestones or goals from me.

When I then sat up in a chair to try to eat oatmeal, a woman came to see my roommate. This visitor reeked so heavily of marijuana and other things that I vomited all over myself, my food and the floor. I pushed the button and the staff came. They too could smell it. Even though it had now been a few minutes, all of us could still smell it.

A hospital administrator came and my roommate, who had been in great agony for the last 12 hours, suddenly rushed out of the room with her friend to hangout without any effort or strain. The staff confronted them and they apologized. The visitor left her coat and the nurses removed it. I had to be cleaned up and the staff felt so bad.

Nurse: "Would you like to checkout soon?"

I prayed about this and felt You allowed me to hit all of their goals that would in turn allow me to leave.

Me: "Sure, please."

Nurse: "What else do you need?"

Me: "Well, I need you to know that the woman next to me is drug addicted. She became abusive when the night nurse removed her liquid pain drip in her IV. Also, when you aren't looking, she walks normally to the bathroom."

Nurse: "Yes, she is on our radar. She has already been here for more than a week."

Me: "If she is able to act one way when you aren't looking then tell you her pain level is 8 out of 10, but she can go out with her drug friend and get high, laughing and playing card games in the lobby… well you are getting scammed."

Nurse: "Yes, it is bad now. There are a lot of addicts here too."

Me: "Can I leave? I don't want to sleep here another night. If I am free to go, I would like to go. I don't feel safe."

Nurse: "Okay, sure… let's send in the doctor and her staff to finalize this."

We were checked out shortly after at around 4:00pm on Saturday, November 2, 2024.

Thank You, Father, for Your Grace to remove me from this!

There was something else I had noticed about my stay when reflecting on this. There were so many foreigners and immigrants who could barely speak any English managing our medicines, meals, laundry and cleaning… basically all of the functioning support jobs. I waited a long time for my lunch on the Saturday of my release. I had to wait three hours and it was just soup and mashed potatoes.

The nurse told me that they basically speak mostly French and there were huge cultural and language gaps. The trouble is that they were the only ones who wanted to do this work for $17 to $20 per hour. The staff gave them a lot of grace as no one else would be doing this without them. In turn, these workers looked upon the staff with a noticeable type of loathing. It was even quite uncomfortable at times.

Father, please reveal the plans of the wicked. I feel I had checked out too early. If it had been normal conditions, I could have used another night in the hospital. I am thankful that the cancer had not spread more and I pray we got this early enough.

We made it home safely and I am grateful. I know You have a purpose for everything I endured, so thank You. I thank You even though I don't understand everything fully yet.

This last week has been both difficult and gratifying. We are thankful that Trump had such a great victory. We pray that Your Will be done in all things. Father, please keep me healthy as I have had some setbacks this week. I am grateful that my daughter and my younger son have new jobs that they are both happy in. It makes life easier.

Father, while there have been a few physical setbacks this week, I know You are near. You are with me in the setbacks and the disappointments. You are with me in the pain and uncertainty. Please have mercy on us.

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A Red Teardrop in a Grey Landscape" begins...

I was wearing grey boots. They seemed like snow boots. I was wearing a long wool skirt, a sweater and a scarf, all in the exact same grey color and material. I noticed that I had long white curly hair under my scarf. It was supernatural because I had no idea what I would dress like this for while carrying a tray of seeds. The ground was frozen and covered with about an inch of snow.

The entire area, the ground under the snow, the trees and even the sky, were all grey. With what I was wearing, I must have looked like a grey dust bunny against the landscape. I walked out to the yard and recalled that I no longer had a bird feeding station in which to place the seeds. I was sad. I began to shed tears. A teardrop fell to the snow and I noticed that it was the color of blood.

Then in an accelerated motion, I watched a sprout of green grow into a tree full of leaves from where the teardrop landed. Grass then began to grow and went throughout our yard. Blossoms then came from the branches of the bushes and other trees. The frozen creek changed into moving spring water. As I wiped my tears, I noticed that there was no blood red color to it anymore. I am not sure what this meant.

The tree in front of me where my bird feeders once stood began to be filled with so many varieties of songbirds. I could hear them singing. I thanked God for Spring.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up and quickly went into my next dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Release from a Panic Room" begins…

I was in a panic room, but in the open air. There were so many of us. In order for God to open the door to release us, we had to complete the course and work together. There was laughter, celebration and a sense of urgency with all of this and this pushed us to complete the series of tasks the Lord had put before us. When the final step was completed, a door was presented to us on the course. We all cheered and ran towards the open door. We were so happy!

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, I have been crying a lot this week. I have been praising You for what You have been doing and allowing Your Chosen Vessel (Trump) to win. Please let us all hold fast together in prayer for this victory is all Yours! The enemy has been battling back against all of Your children. Please keep each of us healthy and strong during this time. Please keep all of us, but also Trump and his family and friends, safe from the enemy.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! Do not worry!"

Me: "Lord, thank You for answering the prayers of all of us to strike down the evil that was coming and still trying to come. Could You now revive us with fresh oil and make our Vessels ready for Your Spirit to flow through us in greater power? Could You grant us revival for Thanksgiving, Hannukah and Christmas? Can this, as in right now, please be the moment we have all been waiting for?"

Jesus: "I know that I have not given you confirmation on the questions you seek. I know that the timing of all that I do give to you remains a mystery. I showed you a Red Tide overcoming the nation years ago. However, the thing you had prayed for at that time did not come at that time as you had thought. This is because this was for a later time and not for then.

"However, there are other times where I give you something and then this comes to pass the next morning. You then have no pattern for My answers. However, when you later look back at this from the beginning, you will see it.

"Now, I know you don't understand why things occur the way I have set them, but this too is a mystery and it is good. Erin, I promise you that you will spend an eternity uncovering the way God has woven all lives together with each event. You will uncover how each of you were even destined for this time right now.

"Understand that, if My Voice is in you, and you know it is, then when you need an answer or prayers fulfilled, I am here to complete this good request. However, I am quiet in doing good right now because My time of Great Revelation is soon to come… if not already here at the door.

"Now, for those waiting on medical care and procedures or other major decisions, continue to pray. With you there was a wait and on the third time, I turned and opened that door and it was a better way. Either way, unless I have called you into a divine delay, continue to move forward with what I have called you to do.

"Erin, you are learning to hear My Voice in the midst of many battlefronts. Find a place alone and in quiet and there I will meet you. There is great excitement and dread over all of the Earth right now as all who are God's children see the hand of My Father over all things. Because of this, the enemy fights.

"However, the enemy knew he was just defeated and he then went into retreat first to battle from a distance. Well, his plans will fail as long as the children of God pray. Then no scheme of man or plans of hell will prevail prior to My Words being accomplished on Earth as it is in Heaven.

"Erin, what seems like a delay is actually not. However, your prayers will fortify the plans of God upon the Earth."

Me: "Lord, our Vessels were filled by You so long ago! Did some of that Living Water evaporate?"

Jesus: "It might seem like it, but no. My Living Water does not dry up. You are filled with Living Water in your Vessels by My own hands in the River of Life then given to angels to return it to you. My Living Water is in you. Now, how would you like to proceed?"

Me: "To be used by You in greater service as a heavenly outpouring of Your miracles to be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. As for right now, I feel parched and thirsty, Lord."

Jesus: "Did not even your doctors just a few days ago remind you to increase your water intake? Then drink this water for it is good and brings life. Erin, where you walk with Me, you step into your destiny and what promises I have made. I haven't brought you this far to withhold you from the place I have prepared for you. I haven't brought you this far to be forced into poverty and lack. I walk with you and I have filled you with good things."

As I sat writing in my chair, the room became brighter. The sun felt supernaturally bright on my face. I closed my eyes. On my right side, I felt warmth at my wound site. I felt the tear in the wall of my abdomen not hurt anymore. My body felt lighter and at peace as wave after wave of God's healing touch seemed to come.

I started to weep as I have been struggling about losing my right kidney. I pray the Lord grows it back supernaturally. I praised Him and worshipped. I am so thankful I am still here. It then occurred to me… why do I need to worry about things out of my ability to do anything about?

Jesus: "Soak in this, the Light of My Presence, Erin. Let My Living Water flow through you. I am here and I am with you on Earth as it is in Heaven. I love you!"

I could feel peace. This was a welcome reprieve as I had such great pain. My organs had been feeling literally as if gravity would take them. Coughing, breathing and sneezing all hurt. Now though, I felt better even in my neck. I don't know all of what He just did. I didn't get my timeline answers either. However, I received the honor of His touch and of His presence.

Dream over.

863 – Each of our Paths are Unique

Received on Monday, November 11, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for all we have! Thank You for every single blessing. I really cannot count them. You have done so much more for me and my children than I ever could have imagined. Although they do not fully understand all You have done, You have also blessed my husband and his children too. Well, here I am again… worried about things I cannot control.

I laugh at the ridiculous thoughts I have in light of recent events personally and in the world. I want so much for my prayers for the world to be in line with Your Will. I just want all of the people to come to know You as the Father I love so much. If they could just witness Your miracles without a veil, they would not deny You. You can then gather us and bring us away from here.

I love You! Please thwart the enemy's schemes and plots. You have raised up Trump to stand with You against tyranny. Father, please well up in all those around Trump. Please shield all those with Trump from the enemy's evil plots. We are witnessing the miracle of Biblical prophecy playing out live before us. This is a true miracle. Please send healing upon our nation. I pray this in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!

Strike down every wicked stronghold. Open the hidden files and evidence of evil departments. Do not allow the wicked woman to rise into unelected power over the people. Strike her down. Strengthen Biden and let him do only Your Will. With his mouth, let him expose the evil assignments in place against the people. Do all of this to protect Your children and save our country.

Let them then fall one by one publicly like dominoes. Then with Your mighty arm, clear away all the debris so our enemies are fully exposed with nowhere, no rock, to hide under. Then heal our nation and appoint Godly leaders over all the nation. Let all the people of every nation see these events and turn to You with their whole heart.

Come with Your Sword of Truth to cut through the lies. Let Your people then chase down the children of Beelzebub and all of his elect. Please,

Father, hear my prayer. It starts with You. Grant us victory as, without You being in the midst of us to before us, then we go in our own strength and all will be lost. Please do not forget us. We love You. I pray this in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. While I know it has been a rocky beginning for you, it is all the rocks, uneven surfaces, uphill climbs and twists and turns that led you to me on your life path. I found you. I called you to step out and climb this path to Me. I used unconventional means. It has been almost twenty years since I first called you to climb (referring to my first NDE on Monday, November 22, 2004).

"I made your path unconventional with intention. Even the red dirt and the intricate patterns of this road leading to Me had to be changed by your feet. You realized as you climbed that the things you carried of this world were heavy, burdensome and useless. Little by little, you have given back almost all of what you held materially. When you let go of your former ways, I gave you a lighter easier way.

"Then as you climbed higher, the ceiling of fog (that really was the cloud of My Glory) stayed over you as you climbed and was so thick you could not see above this, all by My design. You began to be discouraged and tired of the climb as you felt no progress. The altitude and difficulty overwhelmed your strength. Your own physical limitations to continue made you want to turn back to see how far you had come.

"Then My Voice above the cloud from the mountain told you to stop looking back. The enemy wants to remind you of who you are in him and this means he is the opposite of savior. He longs to keep you with heavy burdens, accusing you by exposing your mistakes. He keeps you locked out of that forestry gate at the base of the mountain if he can. Picture a long list of your failures posted on the forestry board, before you enter into My Glory.

"Would anyone, after reading this enemy list, ever even try the handle of the Gate? Or even if it were wide open, step into My Presence if the enemy is able to keep you chained up at the Gate. I warned you not to look back to see how far you have come. Instead, allow Me to carry you into My Glory and in greater communion with Me."

Me: Crying. "Thank You, Lord. It has been almost twenty years and it still feels like yesterday. The NDE was so real that it is etched in my mind. I just feel as time has gone by that I pray I have not failed You."

Jesus: "You have not. There is still so much more to come, Erin. I know you are hurting, but I am healing you one step at a time. I know you are worried about many things, but I worry for nothing. This is because I know all that is to come. The enemy has been defeated. He just lost and will continue to be exposed. Brick by brick, he will be exposed and removed."

Me: "What is going on with this brick analogy that I keep running into?"

Jesus: "Well, your path was red sand or red powdery dirt, the same makeup of the bricks Rafael showed you. The enemy loves bricks. When you come to Me, on the path below you are the crushed remains down to the powder of what the enemy attempted to build up in you to edify his power. Remember that he is the tower builder and he loves to create monuments for himself."

Me: "Oh, the Tower of Babel?"

Jesus: "It is an example of his loftiness to mock God and My angel army. He throws bricks at the children of God and uses them for prisons and other ways to inflict harm. When you see bricks delivered in piles at protests, understand who truly ordered them."

Me: "I love brick homes and fireplaces. Are bricks bad?"

Jesus: "No. However, they do crumble and fall and these are used by the enemy. Erin, you step on a Holy Ground of crushed bricks. Rejoice in this. Now, I know you are discouraged by bad news and a fear of how I will create a way, but do not be afraid. My Way is higher and I am in complete control. I love you!"

Dream over.

864 – Do not relax and revel in great victory

Received on Sunday, November 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here. My dream last night left me with many questions. Each day here is a mystery that I am so grateful for. However, on some days, I wonder of what value I am to You, Father? What have I personally done? I know I am a 'Dreamer & Scribe', but this is a gift from You that waits for the day I am able to see the impact of this in greater measure.

This morning, I was looking for a specific golf photo from the 1980s (a time when all I did and thought about was this sport). I had such big dreams and grand ambitions. However, almost 90% of these hopes and dreams were never realized. While I wasn't a Christian at that time, I still prayed. Golf is just one of the many closed doors in my life.

While I spent a few years as a Christian helping others realize their dreams and potential in Jesus, tragedy then struck me personally and I could not recover. I then released all of me to You, Father. Often when I am in pain, I wonder about my purpose here. I think today is one of those pain days.

This morning, I was looking through a small box of photos and letters from forty years ago. Most of them were dated November 10th, including the years 1986 and 1987 and a bunch from 1990 to 2001. This reoccurring November 10th date seemed quite odd to me. While I am not sure what any of this means, these letters were written by people I never stayed in contact with.

Our lives had taken different turns and our time of significance here on Earth as acquaintances had ended. It seemed that my life story had closed some chapters and turned other pages. I am so glad to still be here, Father. I am so thankful to You for Your Grace and Mercy concerning me. I surrendered all of me to You and I know that, through You, I can accomplish anything that You desire to work through me.

Lord, it was Your Will and by Your Purpose that I do not have many physical capabilities right now, but especially since my fall on May 8, 2014.

While this is hard, I trust You with all that I can give You and I pray it is worthy.

It has been fun to see You line up the new government in the USA. I pray that You would protect them and Your Will be done through them to set up the greatest revival and harvest of souls the world has ever known. But, Father, my dream revealed trouble coming from offshores and from within when there is peace… or at least there is the illusion of 'peace and security'.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. It is easy to look back and see unrealized hopes and dreams. Instead, think of this… I made you to endure and testify to running the race of endurance."

Note: I then looked up the definition of endurance. The definition of endurance is to hold one's ground in conflict, bear up against adversity, hold out under stress, stand firm, persevere under pressure, wait calmly and courageously. In a commentary: It is not passive resignation or mere patience, but the active, energetic resistance in possible defeat that allows calm and brave endurance.

Me: "Lord, I don't feel I have been enduring patiently. I don't always feel I have been good at this."

Jesus: "Erin, when you could not endure on your own, I carried you. I picked you up and brought you through great troubles. I did not drop you. I did not let you be defeated. Do you think I did all of this with you for no purpose under Heaven? Remember that I do not make mistakes.

"Now, I know you have not realized your hopes and dreams. You then stopped believing for great things in your own life and instead prayed for your children and your friends and their dreams to be realized. While this is a good thing, I am not finished with you yet. You have not realized what I have planned for you and, when you do, you will be speechless.

"What I have done with you in the meantime is I gave you the heart to endure troubles of all kinds. Nothing the adversary has come against you with has succeeded. Why? This is because you have kept your sights fixed on Me and what I am doing in dismal circumstances. You can see beyond the horizon, above the massive enemy army sent to advance against you, all to seek Me first.

"There have been so many times in which you have faced troubles beyond your abilities to fight. You then look up to the hills, My Mountain, to search for help from Me. Your help has always come from Me as I made Heaven and Earth. I will not let the enemy move you nor your foot to be tripped by a stone. I never sleep. I am your Keeper and Shelter and it is I who keep you from all enemy assignments.

"Erin, I will keep your life. I will watch over you in your daily goings out and your comings in, from this time now and forever. I am with you. I have never forgotten you. Not once. You have taken up My Call in your life and you have continued to endure even when you were tired and had little strength.

"Many before you gave up when they did not see My use for them and their promises had not yet been realized. However, I have brought you this far and I haven't even begun the plans I have for you. Erin, can you continue to endure with Me a bit longer?"

Me: "Lord, what else would I do? I have promised to stay with You. I have learned to stand firm when You say, 'Stand!' I have learned to hold on to You when You say, 'Don't let go!' I have learned to hope when all seems hopeless. I love You. I surrender all to You. I can't stop pursuing You."

Jesus: "Very good, Erin. Great endurance is needed on a rocky and steep path. I am with you and I will not leave you."

Me: "Thank You, Lord!"

Jesus: "Now, the army of the enemy and all their hoards of demons are now aware that My angel army stopped their plans to bring in their ruler by the vote of the people. The win was much greater as they had used deceitful practices to overthrow many of the results. Even though they failed, they are still working to destroy what I have set up. They have called upon other countries who are enemies of God to stand against My Authority.

"The people are excited to see My plans reverse the great evil that has harmed the nation once dedicated to Me. This is the moment in which your prayers avail much. Do not relax and revel in great victory as assuredly then troubles come and many would be taken by surprise. Pray and do not cease.

"Erin, your adversaries are My adversaries. Pray like Elijah and Elisha that My miracles, signs and wonders would be on full display. Remember, Erin… for it is I who changes the times and the seasons. It is I who deposes kings and raises up others."

Me: "You also grant wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning (Daniel 2:21)."

Jesus: "Then understand this… even though the enemy is quiet, they have not been subdued. They plot in secret."

Me: "I can't know their plots, but You do, Lord. Strike down their evil and continue to obstruct their plans so we can enjoy a great victory. All of this is because You are good and Your Mercy endures forever.

"Lord, please continue to endure in Mercy and Grace! Please bring in Revival and the Harvest. Please hold back the wicked. Let Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Thank You. Bless You, Lord, in all of Your Works. You have lifted our eyes to the hills to see Your Mighty Army!"

When rereading the above, 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11 came to mind regarding the upcoming Day of the Lord…

1Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. 2 For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. 3 While people are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. 4 But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. 5 For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. 6 So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. 8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 9 For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. 11Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-865/

865 – The Open Window is here for us

Received on Monday, November 25, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do for us in all of this uncertainty. I know that, no matter what happens, no matter what troubles we face, no matter how ominous our situation appears, no matter what, You are here with us and we can say confidently You are in control and You have us.

I sat down in my devotional chair this morning to pray and I stared for a moment at the sky. As I did, two eagles flew by. I thanked You, Father, for the wonder of eagles. They disappeared, but were then followed by another who flew even closer, then another after that closer still. All of this happened in under a minute. Father, You are the God of the eagles. Thank You for creating eagle moments.

Friday was a difficult day (November 22, 2024). The pathology report was posted in my medical chart from the Mayo Clinic. There was a lot more to this than I had hoped. In a panic, I contacted my doctor with the expectations I would probably hear nothing until next week. Father, You are infinitely wise in all things. I am relieved to have my kidney removed. Thank You for causing pancreatic pain a year ago.

This led the doctors to discover my cancer. Thank You for all of the medical providers who cared for my case. I now wait for the stage information and an understanding of a new abnormality that was discovered. We then received a call about our dog Zoey in the afternoon. She had been referred to a surgical team of vets quite a distance from home. They gave us a rundown on what their approach was going to be for her.

They then asked that we mull it over the weekend and give them an answer. They would like to get her scheduled for the end of December. My day didn’t get much better as I then killed two spiders in my devotional chair area. This was odd as it is not typical for this time of year. Then yesterday one more surfaced for me to kill in the same spot.

I know I am under attack, Father, as You have sent me signs. While I have been praying, I am sad, so very sad. Last night, I had a difficult sleep. I was sick and kept becoming sick over the course of several hours. I woke up this morning with evidence of a body battle in a night war. I am weak today.

Yesterday, my son asked me why God would choose him for anything. I then went over all of the encouraging cases of God choosing unsung heroes, slaves or shepherds, the least of these, to accomplish His purposes here. He then asked me why he feels so hopeless and depressed. I proceeded to tell him this is common to the children of God.

I then shared the story of Elijah (1 Kings 19). This must have been supernatural because I remembered the story so well. My son had a supernatural experience with God and this continued for several months. Then when things didn't occur the way he had prayed, he became upset and depressed.

This all reminded me of Elijah fleeing under the threat of Jezebel after God displayed amazing wonders, signs an miracles. In great fear of Jezebel, Elijah fled to the wilderness and came to a broom tree. He asked the Lord to take his life, laid down and slept. An angel of the Lord woke him up and said, 'Arise and eat!' There before him was a warm cake and a jar of water. He ate and drank and laid down again.

The angel then came to him a second time and touched him, 'Arise and eat for the journey is too great for you!' He arose and ate and drank. He went in the strength of that food for forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the Mount of God. This is where Elijah heard the Voice of God and received instructions. He then did all that God told him to do. Elijah was an enemy of Jezebel and Baal worship.

My son listened to my story about Elijah and I reminded him that God doesn't call the equipped, he equips those He calls. He asked me, 'Does any of this get easier?' My reply was simple… 'No, the easiest day is always yesterday!' This is as per the Lord and about those who are trained in battles.

Father, it is difficult for young people to wait now. Patience in the age of instant gratification is truly so difficult. Everything in life waits for its appointed time. I thought ten years ago that things were difficult. In hindsight and compared to the present and real manifestation of dangers today, yesterday seems easy in comparison.

What was the main driving force that makes life overall more difficult? Worry! Not trusting God by His own Words. Stressing about all the unknowns. Planning in fear instead of wisdom. Making easy days difficult because of looming threats. Worry does not add one good thing to your life. A thought then came to me…

If we should not be afraid and even in God's Word it is written 'do not be afraid' 365 times, one for each day of our calendar to serve as reminder for us daily, then this means that there are daily events coming at us to make us afraid. Some people live in fearful places under constant threats.

Other people live in completely peaceful surroundings with no cares in the world but are still fearful of things out of their control. The enemy's greatest tool is fear. The second is isolation, cutting you off from all those who support and love you. This is in the hopes that you will entertain your fears and failures. Father, my children are struggling. Each has their own unique battles.

I hear sad words such as, 'It is like if I was suddenly gone, would anyone even notice or care? We had hoped for God's miracles, but they might never come, mom.' This is heartbreaking to hear, especially with me now facing my own health battles. As for my husband, he still hasn't found work. There has been no breakthrough here. We need some miracles, Father If doors don't open soon, could You still please heal Zoey?

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A huge earthquake and tsunami" begins…

A huge earthquake struck a beautiful coastal town I was visiting. When the earthquake came, it was nighttime. The ground rolled. Anything on a level surface was affected. It was frightening. People then ran outside into the dark after the earthquake stopped to assess the damage. The tsunami sirens then started blowing. We heard someone announce that we only had three minutes to get to higher ground.

People were screaming and running. Then it came. It struck all of the homes at sea level. Luxurious homes fell into the sea. The resorts and shops were all underwater. Soon there was no electricity, only an eerie silence. It then seemed as if hours had passed before the water retreated. Dawn then came and the devastation was horrific.

My daughter and I then went looking for people who needed help. We had to cross areas with pools that had formed. Some were deep and had sharp objects and glass at the bottom. We prayed because, on our own, we could do nothing. We then heard a man yelling at the top of his lungs…

"It's not over yet! Incoming!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I am not sure where this was. While I think we had been changed, I am not sure. Father, this seemed so real. Our lives and every event in them are all controlled by You. In Jeremiah 5:22, the waves may toss and roar, but they never pass the boundaries You set. They are powerful and they roar, but they can never overstep the limits You place on them.

Even though things seem dark and foreboding and there is no good news yet, I know You command all things. You control even the waves that threaten to overcome us. You have them harnessed and in Your grip.

You knew Elijah was in great fear and desired death, but You then gave him miracles, signs and wonders. You gave him bread and a jar of fresh water. You did this not just once, but twice. Even this was not the end. You cared for Elijah. It wasn't made easy for him in life, but You used him in a mighty way.

My doctor's office then phoned about my pathology report. Removing my kidney removed the cancer. It was clear cell renal carcinoma. They will call me on December 3, 2024 (my older son's birthday) for my telehealth appointment. After hanging up, I praised the Lord. We now pray that the insurance covers the majority of the bills!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Why are you afraid?"

Me: "Because the worst has usually happened. I expect it."

Jesus: "Has this benefitted you?"

Me: "No, Lord. But if a tsunami was coming at me, it wouldn't be peaceful."

Jesus: "In your dream, the Earth shook, waking up those who slumber. Then an alarm sounded telling all who were listening and awake to flee to higher ground, not stand there and wait for the waves to overcome them. Erin, I am there on the Higher Ground. Those who flee to higher ground in this situation are saved. Since I am over it, come to Me. I am your Lord and Savior.

"Now, the last week has been difficult for you. When you are in pain, fear sets in. You have been wrestling with Me daily."

Me: "Lord, I am sorry. I have been thinking about death. I know the beautiful place You have prepared for us. I am just having days that I fear death and wonder if You are still happy with me. We had some doors closed here and things have been difficult.

"Our children work jobs that I am not certain I would want, especially my younger son. His job is dirty and he is covered in oil when he gets home. It is a job that doesn't pay much and he is disheartened. However, he likes his employer and coworkers. It is just humbling.

"My daughter works in a dangerous area of town and deals with people who are on drugs and mentally gone. The pay is good, but the daily threats are always looming. I am also worried about some issues she is having with her legs and feet. I am praying You would heal her.

"Then there is our Zoey… Lord, please help me here as she is family. What they are suggesting we put her through could cost her life.

"Then my husband… please give him a job… open a door for him.

"All of these things, especially when combined, are so humbling for all of us."

Jesus: "You are wrestling with Me because you expected things to be different. Instead, it seems as if troubles have increased. A few days ago, you stopped pleading for help. Why?"

Me: "Lord, since You have the power to harness massive tsunamis and infinitely more, surely You can harness my waves. I just thought you had grown tired of me. Maybe I became tired of hearing myself ask. We rely 100% on You, Lord. My talking becomes…" I sighed. "…well, irritating. I feel tired of my voice and even of my prayers. Oh Lord, when I know You know, it…"

Jesus: "I understand. Things haven't unfolded or blossomed out the way you had prayed and believed for. This doesn't mean that your petitions and requests won't be answered. Erin, your prayers for others have been answered. This has been a time of a Great Shift. Do you remember when you prayed while on the way for your surgery?"

Me: "Yes. I had a vision. It was epic…

Sub-dream / vision 2 "An Epic Vision on October 31, 2024" begins…

I saw the sky open, the clouds part and an army of angels. There were about a half a million to a million angels easy, but I don't know. They descended upon the Earth. While praying in my Holy Spirit language, I knew a breakthrough had come. I knew a siege had been removed. I knew that good news was coming.

I felt the darkness was beginning to recess back and those dwelling there were retreating. Your angel army was chasing down those who had bound up your servants. We had been loosed and freed from bondage. Something was about to occur and soon."

Sub-dream / vision 2 over…

"Well, Lord, it did and just a few days after this vision. Your Jehu rose up (the election of Donald J. Trump to return as President). By Your Command, the angels stopped the steal. It has been exciting."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, but what of you?"

Me: "Lord, the enemy is regrouping and reorganizing against the children of God. It is the time after an earthquake when the tides suddenly go out from the shores. The beaches are exposed and the day seems peaceful and calm. I have seen photos of people going out to find beautiful seashells and playing in the sand. All the while, the tides retreat into Your harnessed waves and then… trouble… a tsunami. It feels like this now and my heart is unsettled."

Jesus: "Then you should be in prayers and supplications daily to the One who harnesses the waves. The enemy doesn't harness anything but the evil it unleashes."

Me: "I just had hoped that harvesting, healing and Your glory would come in full power right now. According to the Jewish calendar, last year was the year of the open door and this year is the year of the open window."

Jesus: "Then rejoice, Erin. Look in front of you. What do you see?"

Me: "Windows. Through them, all that You have created. I see clouds, sky, trees, mountains, eagles, birds, grass, the sun…"

Jesus: "Yes! Clear windows framed by curtains or a window veil to shelter you from the brightness of the sun or to conceal you from those who look in at night. However, it is much more than this… an open window is you, Erin… your soul, your heart, your eyes… are open to My Spirit, open to the heart of God.

"Just as you have windows in your house, your eyes are windows to your body. When your eyes are wide open in wonder and belief, your body fills up with light (Matthew 6:22-24 from the Message). Think of this also…

"The Bridesmaids wait for their Groom with their lamps ready. However, don't they also stand watch through the open window so they can hear the noise from the Groom's party and see He is coming? They stand watch through the night through an open window, not an open door.

"If your children are coming home from work at night, do you leave the front door open for them?"

Me: "Unlocked, but not wide open."

Jesus: "Why not?"

Me: "Racoons, squirrels and other critters could come in. Thieves too. Our dogs would also run out of the open door. We can see just fine through the windows."

Jesus: "Very good. All of this aside brings Me to what the open window truly means."

I felt a nudge to open the Bible.

Me: "Lord, I went to Scripture and found Malachi 3:10. Lord, this is what is written in Your Word and it is something I sometimes forget is there…

"And thereby put Me to the test, says the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open the windows of Heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need."

"This Scripture is in reference to tithing…"

Jesus: "Yes. However, this is the same… your prayers and giving open up the windows of Heaven… some say the floodgates. This is because it is a supernatural act of God to open the window of Heaven and pour out blessings. In Heaven, there is no lack. Here where you are, there is lack. Erin, I am the window. Seek Me so I may be found by you.

"This is no small study. A home without windows has no light. A man with no eyes to see has no vision. This makes for a difficult life. This is the month of thankfulness. It is the month of transition into harsher winter months. While there is uncertainty, there is also hope.

"Erin, I am with you. I love you and I have opened the window of Heaven over you. Rejoice and do not worry!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-866/

866 – Battles take place in the Valleys

Received on Sunday, December 1, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have here, Father, especially our little dog, Zoey. She has been bleeding from this cancerous growth. I am now cleaning up after her a few times a day. She is not well and it seems her days are coming to a close here unless a reversal from Your Throne happens and You allow us more time with her.

This battle over the last few months has increased and some days are good and some days are bad. I was up several times last night to check on her. She was still breathing and I am thankful. Apparently, I had quite the dream last night as I was speaking loudly in my prayer language, loudly enough to wake my husband.

Our power then went out this morning and Zoey was bleeding everywhere. My daughter and husband helped me so I could clean up everything without hot water since we had no power. Finally, after praying, Zoey's bleeding stopped just as the power came on at the same time. We were so thankful to have an answer to our prayers.

I had quite the epic dream about Zoey last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Zoey running in a Heavenly Path" begins…

Zoey was with me. We were in some beautiful fields with scenic rolling hills. The wind was gently blowing. It seemed like summertime. The air was warm and fragrant and the light of the sun was pure, bright and shined like a diamond.

I put my hand out to feel the wheatgrass to my right. I watched Zoey break free from walking beside me. She began to run faster than I knew she was able. As she ran, it became clear to me that I wouldn't see her until one day she meets me here again.

Me: Yelling out to Zoey… pleading. "Zoey, no, no! God… no, please… not yet…"

I then saw her come to a stop in the path. She turned back to look at me. She then turned to look ahead again. She seemed to be deciding on what direction to go. She turned back towards me and ran back to me.

Me: Crying as I shouted loudly. "Zoey, please don't leave me yet."

She ran back into my arms. I woke up suddenly and went downstairs to check on her.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, I love You. It has been an emotional last few months for all of us. We had hoped to be in Bend OR by now… with Zoey too. I remember how she would just lay in the grass, close her eyes and soak in the sun there. The smells were of pine and juniper. I had prayed that Transformation would come sooner so I wouldn't have needed this kidney removal and we would have all as a household be healed.

However, time continues on its cruel course. Maybe when I write these dreams down, I need to trust You in greater capacity for how You will do this or that. I am grateful that the nation seems more hopeful now as evil seems to be retreating for a season or two. As time continues, I now understand what it feels like when children grow up and go out on their own right now. There is a lonely empty feeling I have that I cannot shake.

Soon my younger son and my daughter will move on and my husband and I will remain. It is difficult when each room holds memories of laughter, sorrow and so much activity. Then, just like that, only echoes of memories remain. We live in a remote area, so future visits will be difficult and expensive for our children. We are not easily accessible to visit. This year, I decorated for Christmas for just the four of us who will be here.

I had hoped we would be in Bend OR by now. Father, I pray that You keep Zoey here and in good health. My heart breaks at the thought of her not at the window waiting for us and greeting us at the front door. This house is officially the longest I have ever lived in one place. This is a gift from You, Father. This is a place near Your Altar where I could raise my young in Your Presence. Bless You, Father, in all things.

This week, the news will be hard. I have a few medical appointments. Now so too will Zoey. I have blood work. The medical bills will be coming around December 3rd. The unknown cost of what will be covered vs what we must cover is expected to come on Tuesday. We are praying for mercy, Father.

We will also know the results of the clinical findings of my condition and my forecast for the future (which, of course, is fully in Your hands). My stomach has been turning and turning. I don't seem to have peace. The bile in my stomach and throat is nauseating. The bitterness in my mouth makes even freshwater taste bitter.

As for the snow on the ground, it is beautiful, especially with the bright blue sky. However, it is cold… beautiful, but cold. I love You, Father. I cling to Your promises. I just know You love us. You love Zoey and Snigglet. You created them to be our furry companions. We have been so blessed by You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you! I love you. Do not be anxious and afraid. I know you are. When your (younger) son spoke to you a few days ago, do you remember what you said to him?"

Me: "Yes. He had been contemplating if anyone would really miss him if he moved away or died. While this devastated me, I understood as he really has no friends here. They have moved away and many are married or engaged now. Each one of them has someone. He was angry that You hadn't fulfilled Your promises to him. He asked me if he had made mistakes or sinned so badly that You changed Your mind.

"After I told him 'no', he asked me why anyone would even want to be a Christian. From his perspective, the minute someone does, they are under attack, treated poorly and hated for no reason, their stuff is broken, their money taken and they become sick. He named other things and I had little ability to refute this since this is exactly what had happened to me."

Jesus: "What did you then say to him?"

Me: "That following the Lord is easy in the heart because there is a change for the better. However, the enemy then knows he has lost one 'hopeful', so he strikes out against us. This is allowed so the Lord can test our faith. We literally walk in the valley. Battles are always fought in the valleys. The enemy meets us there to cause pain. You are above us, so we cry out to You to come and save us.

"Valleys are where You see what we are made of. I then talked to him about the valleys I went through when he was little. I had made some major mistakes, but, in Psalm 23, the Lord reminds us that He is there with us. His rod and staff comfort us. The way we behave in these valleys reveal our hearts to God during our most difficult trials…

- Will we be bitter against Him?
- Will we flee?
- Will we give up and run and hide?
- What will we do?

"My son then asked me what I did in response to these trials. Well, I did a lot of running and hiding because I didn't realize the battle was the Lord's for His purposes. I instead gave too much credit to the enemy and gave him power in the valley. I then walked around licking my wounds in defeat and feeling sorry for myself because God had deserted me.

"However, this was a lie. Looking back, God was right there with me. It took many 'battle in valley moments' to finally remember that God is our strength, not just physically, but in a deeper way He makes our feet like those of a deer and allows us to go on the heights of the mountain and climb out of that valley. God is on the heights."

Jesus: "How did this go over with your son?"

Me: "It is difficult to explain the concept of 'no pain, no gain' when giving our lives to You. It is a process, Lord, such a painful, yet deeply enriching, process. My son has had a very difficult life, Lord. Could You bless him for me and begin to grant him joy and a hope and a future?"

Jesus: "I have promised I would. Now, why does the enemy fight you in the valleys?"

Me: "Valleys are surrounded by hills. The enemy can wait and watch you from there and then attack you in a low position in the valley place."

Jesus: "Yes."

Me: "There are several valleys that I know of…

- There is the Valley of Achor that means peace (Hosea 2:15).

- There is the Valley of Baca that means weeping (Psalm 84:6).
- There is the Valley of Jehosaphat that means judgment (Joel 3:12).
- In Heaven, I live in the Valley of Beracah that means blessing (2 Chronicles 20:26).
- There is the valley where David fought Goliath.
- There is the valley of dry bones in Ezekiel.

"Each has a Divine Purpose under You."

Jesus: "Every child of God walks through a valley and battles from a low position at some point. Some like you have spent the majority of your walk with Me in valleys. However, Erin, I am here with you and the valley can be beautiful."

Me: "I don't like the valley I am walking through right now, Lord. Please bring us out. I had hoped by now that I might have completed the furnace of affliction and the resulting tests, trials and endless wars."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. You are almost finished. I love you, Erin. My promises are true."

Me: "Lord, we are losing hope here. Please strengthen my children and my husband. We were so excited and confident. However, with how things have unfolded lately, we are not as much excited or confident."

Jesus: "I know, but don't. I will send miracles, signs and wonders. Doors once previously shut will begin to open. Remember that I have built a house for you, not just the one in which you raised your family, but the one I have built for you in Bend OR. Take courage and do not be afraid as I am with you, Erin. I have given you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you bind on Earth will be bound in Heaven and whatever you loose on Earth will be loosed in Heaven (Matthew 16:19, 18:18)."

Me: "What does this mean, Lord?"

Jesus: "Authority on Earth as it is in Heaven. You are My Bride and you will wear My Signet Ring. All will know you are Mine and that these ones are with Me."

Me: "The Transformed?"

Jesus: "I have not removed My promises, Erin. You are growing weary while waiting and facing the walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death. You are sad. I am here. I will dry your tears and I will lift your head. I love you.

"Now, do not worry about your troubles. I will send help for each one from My Sanctuary. Rejoice, Erin, as I am with you. I love Zoey too. Trust Me to be God over you!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-867/

867 – Judgment is coming and evil does not prevail

Received on Tuesday, December 3, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for a warm home and the love of family and friends. I feel so blessed by You. It is going to be a high today of 27F. It is cold and sunny.

Today is my older son's 27th Birthday. Thank You for my son. Father, please bless him. While he has a good heart, he needs healing from his disease so that he can make his way in life and fulfill his dreams.

I don't believe this is the way You meant our lives to be, but it is where we are now, whether from poison in vaccines or food or other means the enemy has sent to destroy our abilities to fully live the way You intended us to be.

I believe You are the most amazing God and You can make right the injustices done to Your children, either in this life or the next, and I know You will. You never leave anything undone or without any hope for a future. Father, please make right the wrongs done with so many of us. The joy in a mother is to see their children grow up and have joy and completeness in the lives You have created for them.

It is not supposed to be filled with death, loss, tragic circumstances, disabilities, unmet dreams and so on. While You never promised perfection, You are the perfection in our promise of You.

I prayed for my son before he was even conceived. I prayed for his blessing under You, Father, as a budding toddler genius. However, when he was almost five years old, I changed to praying for his divine healing. Lord, this is a difficult, hostile and lonely world that surrounds them. I tried to create 'normal'.

I cobbled adventures and costumes based on various characters and superheroes hoping they could be like normal children. However, the world is cruel. My 'Parent#' came up on the church screen almost every Sunday telling me to come and collect my sons. We were then told to stop dropping them off in fairness to the others.

This was a difficult block of time. I don't blame the church though. I later discovered that simple adjustments could have been made to make it so they could stay. However, they preferred to have them removed instead. I then learned that my younger son had been shamed for having a Lego-figurine in his hand during Bible study. This is an autism thing and helps them cope when parents are not around.

There were so many difficult times and I clearly couldn't expect others to know what to do. Having my sons and my daughter has been a wonderful gift to me. Somehow You knew what I would need in life to develop the skills of patience and strength. While I never thought I lacked, I actually did have thoughts of lack.

Father, You have taught me so many things through my sons. Please help me to continue to say the right things to help them as adults. Their normal friends, even their not-so-nice friends, all seem successful. They feel passed over in this life. Father, please don't pass over them. Please give them hope and a future. Please heal them.

I had a dream that You keep forward in my thoughts and it is a strange one…

Sub-dream 1 "Blood on one of my toes" begins…

I was younger. I had so many important duties and appointments by You that I paid no attention to my physical body. At one point, someone pointed out that I had blood on the toe of my sandals. I looked down at the open toe sandals I had been wearing.

On the top of my toenail on my right foot was blood. I guessed that perhaps I had stubbed my toe. I then looked down and my toe had been cut at the very tip inward. However, the blood did not come from the cut. Since it didn't hurt, I dismissed it and instead focused on finishing my assignment.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I thought I had dreamt this because of all the blood from Zoey that I had to clean up over the last three days. I then had a very vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "Taking a porcupine as a pet" begins...

The setting was winter. I was with my son and three friends. We were young, in our 20s, in appearance. Our job was to sweep the area of an outer suburb of a large city. We were calling it 'The Last Call' before we were removed.

There was no electricity, so it was very dark and quiet. There were no distant sounds. We had two vehicles… my son's vehicle and my vehicle. While my son was driving with our three friends, I was driving alone. I gave them instructions…

Me: "You all go and drive ahead. After driving for 15 minutes or so, pull over and I will then catch up to you."

I then drove down a few side streets. I somehow had night vision. I detected nothing, so I decided to drive the road I knew my son and the others were on. I drove by a massive, deserted parking lot.

I could see that my son's car was parked in this parking lot. The car had an iridescent paint that turned from Mediterranean blue to lime green. I had to do some maneuvering to get to his car.

When I pulled up, I suddenly realized that it was an illusion. Parked there instead was a passenger van with all of its windows blown out and what looked like curtains blowing in the wind. With my night vision, I could see no life. I quickly left the eerie van. I turned down another street to get to the main road. I could then see my son and our three friends waiting for me. I pulled over and now my 'young' husband was also there.

The six of us decided to walk up a hill that was in a park area to get a better view over the city and suburb. Our plan was to create a beacon of light and wave it to give the area one last scan for life. We also thought we could see any living creatures. We had no problems navigating the snow-covered path. We then heard some noises, including an owl. As it had been so quiet outside, these noises really stood out.

Me: Looking over at the owl. "Poor thing. It seems lonely."

As we continued to walk, we heard a sound something like whimpering. We stopped and turned and there in the snow was a porcupine. It had white-tipped quills. Since the quills were fanned out, we decided to keep walking away from it.

However, it then appeared scared and ran towards us. We turned back to it and it ran to our feet. While it then wanted to be picked up, this was not possible with its quills. It began to wail as it continued to follow us.

Me: Addressing the porcupine. "Okay, come on with us, but no quills."

The porcupine acted like it understood what we were saying and became so excited. It then continued to stay with us. At the top of the hill, we all scanned the horizon. We could not see anything at all. We decided to stay at a home at the foot of the park and then leave at dawn. The porcupine wanted me to pick it up, so I carefully did. I carried it into the house. It was so scared outside by itself that it wanted inside. We let it in.

I took a shower and the porcupine walked in. When I finished, I noticed a trail of blood sprinkled where the porcupine was. I found a wound on it and healed it. I then prayed for its quills to be soft like fur unless it was in danger. We got up at dawn and drove out of the area. I am not sure where in my dream we were going. The porcupine now seemed to be like a large hedgehog and remained with us.

Sub-dream 2 over…

After this dream, I decided to look up porcupines in the Bible. I found Isaiah 34:11: "But the hawk and the porcupine shall possess it, the owl and the raven shall dwell in it. He shall stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plumbline of emptiness."

Chapter 34 of Isaiah is called, 'Judgment of the Nations'. All I know is that, in this dream, judgment had clearly already come. Then in Isaiah 35, it has so much hope and God's Transformation, His Glory, Your Glory, upon Your people.

What I know about porcupines is they are solitary. They crave salt. They are cute and make cute sounds. The porcupine is also mentioned in Zephaniah 2:14 and in Isaiah 14:23. Father, these are mysterious dreams!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are grappling with many things. You have deep sorrow in your heart, but joy upon your face. Why?"

Me: "Lord, You are wise. I am so sad for the people. If they only knew how amazing You are and how amazing Heaven is, they would all want to be a part of all of this."

Jesus: "I know. Even so, not all would accept me. They also didn't when I was here in the flesh. However, there is more."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I feel grief for that porcupine. In my dream, it was scared and didn't want to be alone. It was tired and hurt. With me, I am grieving my lost dreams, hopes and plans here. There are days where I feel sorrow.

"Lord, I need more of You and less of me. I am not sure I have been a good mother. I wonder about myself as a wife. My husband has never known me as a healthy person. The days seem to run together and my hope fades at times for my own dreams. No matter what, though, I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "Oh, Erin, I love you too. Now, the dream of the area you were in was an old prophecy soon to be fulfilled. The enemies of Israel surround her. You have been waiting for a marker and have kept quiet."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Damascus. Isaiah 17. It will be uninhabitable."

Jesus: "So it shall be like Ninevah… a haunt for jackals. Judgment is coming. Evil does not prevail."

Me: "Lord, my Spirit is anxious. Please protect us. Protect the people from wicked rulers."

Jesus: "Release all of this to Me. Then read the Good News. Say to those who have an anxious heart, 'Be strong and fear not! Behold, Your God will come with vengeance and with the recompense of God. I will come to save you. Isaiah 35. Springs of Living Water will rise and Healing Water overflowing. Great will be your joy.'

"Now, do not be downcast. I have promised you better than all you have lost. Things you lament about will be far from you. Erin, I will call you in greater service and your joy will be complete. Do not worry. I am with you. I will heal your brokenness and open the heavens over you in all you do. Rejoice! Rejoice as you are loved!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-868/

868 – The Winding Road Leads Straight to Him

Received on Sunday, December 8, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do, every great and even small thing. Fresh snow falls today and I am happy to be home and warm inside. Over the years, I spent so much time waiting for the big miracles that I sometimes would forget the small very significant ones. These are the small ones with everlasting blessings in my life.

When I was a little girl, we had to shop at secondhand stores or thrift stores. Back in the late 60s / early 70s, the items were really bad compared to today. Even so, this is all that mom could afford for us. One day, I found a small toddler-sized Penn State university sweatshirt. Mom let me purchase it. I think it was 25 cents. I asked my mom to tack it up on the wall in my bedroom. We lived in a university housing project.

It is funny that she didn't really question this until that sweatshirt went to our tiny home and then to Idaho after that. I knew that I would somehow be going to school there. I just knew. God opened a series of doors and, without me even going through the normal processes of College Applications, I just ended up there. It is a long story, but one in which God placed upon my heart years before.

There were so many little miracles He had lined up to make certain I would end up there, it is astonishing. I was just a girl from northern Idaho with mediocre grades and recruited for a sport that happened on me in unexpected ways. Years before, I would tag along with my friend, Elizabeth, while she took golf lessons from off duty caddies at the Alameda County Racetrack. In the center of this racetrack was a driving range.

I watched and listened intently while my friend took her lessons. We had zero money for anything involving lessons or equipment, so this was the best I could do. However, what I learned those days were etched on my heart. I somehow knew that golf would be a 'thing' for me. Golf ended up being the 'Open Door' to Penn State.

I was only ten years old when I obtained the sweatshirt that turned out to be a future door for me. I obviously didn't recognize this to be the case at the time. Why? Because it was deemed an impossibility by my mom and I was told to forget this dream. Well, I never forgot this because You, Father, kept it at the forefront of my mind.

Years later, after You closed the door on my golf career, when I had first moved back to the Pacific Northwest / Portland OR area in 1991, I was invited by an employer to tour a 'Street of Dreams Show'. The show consisted of luxury homes you could tour on a neighborhood street in a development. Upwards of 80,000 people would come and tour these homes.

At this point, I had been stuck in the graphic design, marketing and advertising field while working at various private parties with 'The Culinary Crew', a traveling weekend hospitality worker. When I walked through the third home on this Street of Dreams Tour, I realized I had found another door God had presented to me. On the fourth home, I turned towards the person I was with…

Me: "I will be doing this one day!"

Person I was with: Laughing. "Do you know how hard it is to be in one of these?"

Me: "Yes, I know. However, I just know I will be here."

I knew this person thought that this was a crazy notion. However, in a series of God-sized events and without much effort on my own, sure enough, the very next year, 1992, I designed my first home. This then happened in 1993 and then again in 1996 for the Northwest Society of Interior Designers Show Home. I was the team captain.

This was truly You, Lord, because there are designers that work their entire careers for just one of these. This didn't include the other homes I had done for the parade of homes and the tour of affordable homes and all the charitable events I attended. Father, one small door opened to a huge one.

However, even small doors can be big doors. When I was pregnant with my daughter in 2001, I had all but retired from having my businesses and clients in order to raise my children. With my pregnancy, I was having breathing difficulties. I had to sleep sitting up and was bedridden. At night, I would sit downstairs and listen to praise music and pray and worship.

For one week, I prayed that You, Lord, would grant my daughter curly full hair so she would never have to get a perm or worry about her hair. I thought this would leave her more time to focus on You. I later turned my prayers to petitions for a smooth delivery and a healthy baby. When my daughter arrived safely, I dedicated her to You. At the time, I had no idea that You delighted in my prayers and answered my request.

Well, guess what? My daughter was born with curly hair and, just because You can, You made mine curly too. Over the years, this has been such a blessing to me and to my daughter. A small miracle led to a huge blessing and this continues today. While the doctors told us our curly hair would only be temporary, You made this permanent. Thank You, Father! You are the greatest Way in all things.

Please forgive me for pouting over the bigger miracles not manifesting yet. You saved us from another deer yesterday. You stopped the car when it began to slide on the ice into another car. We prayed for a parking spot in a crowded lot and, just as we were giving up, a car pulled out closest to the door. Everyday Your miracles go unnoticed. I am sorry I fail to recognize all the ways You protect all of us.

I want to do better in this. I love You, but I sometimes fail to see Your little daily miracles. To some, the life You have created for me might seem like a failed life of mishaps and mistakes, one in which someone might dread and look down upon. However, what I now see is that You have done something here that is a Divine Incredible Miracle of Epic Proportions…

- You carry me every day.
- By Your Grace, I am still breathing.
- By Your Love, we are able to live as You have provided all we have and need.
- Because You are God, You even sustain our pets.
- There is nothing beyond Your reach, Your abilities and Your touch.

I feel so grateful today that You would think of us daily in the small things, as well as in the large miracles. Perhaps the big things just take a bit longer.

I had quite a dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Tragedy at the Launch Site" begins…

I was an observer in this dream. I was looking over a distant town / city out west and a river ran through it. A woman lived on a hill overlooking the valley. She had three children and a husband. These children were 5, 7 and 10 years old. I saw the woman stay active and healthy. She attended church and worshipped God. She had a women's Bible Study at her home and seemed to do everything right.

One day, the woman was visited by an angel of the Lord who told her that everything around her was about to change and become worse before it became better. Day by day, I watched her become so discouraged as nothing she was praying for was coming to pass. Things were happening that were contrary to how she was praying. She was becoming angrier and angrier at God.

Even though God had sent an angel in advance to warn her that troubles were coming, she was in a state of shock and denial when everything around her was falling apart. She consulted other Christians and her pastor. I could see the whole thing as if I was watching a movie. I began to see her decline further, even neglecting her children. The world was not bending to the prayers she expected God to answer.

She then withdrew from church. War had broken out nearby. Her husband took over her responsibilities of watching her children. She had been proclaiming publicly that Jesus would be rapturing his chosen from rockets. People ignored her as being crazy.

Then one morning, she decided it was God's perfect day for the Rapture. It was a Sunday. She made an elaborate breakfast for her family. Her husband had to go into the office in the afternoon to finish a presentation…

Man: "How about I take our youngest into work with me today?"

Woman: "No, but thanks for offering. I feel fine today."

After the man left for his office, she made milkshakes for her children. She hid drugs in the milkshakes so they would become lucid and obey her orders to get into the car. Once in the car, she drove them to a rocket launching site. She then somehow managed to get herself and her three children close to the launching area. There were three rockets set to launch that day. There was sign close by…

"WARNING – While launching is in progress, you may be sucked into the fuselage of the rockets! Keep well clear during launching sequence!"

With the children still drugged, she pushed all three into the fuselage of one of the rockets, along with herself. When the rocket began to launch, they all died instantly. When her husband came back to the house later that evening, she had left him a note…

"I, along with our children, have been raptured in a massive chariot of fire!"

He immediately called the police. He then went with the police, along with his pastor, to the launch site. They then found what was left of their four bodies.

Man: Wailing. "Why would God do this? We have done everything right! My children!"

Pastor: "God's promises are true. He sent an angel to let her know in advance that things would be difficult before they got better. She grew tired in the waiting. She was angry with God."

Man: "It is all my fault. I saw her change."

Pastor: "We all did, yet we did nothing."

I then felt a violent rattling and instantly woke up from the dream.

Sub-dream 1 over…

This dream was so real that it disturbed me. Father, please bring hope to our children. The world has changed so rapidly. After getting some water, I prayed for a better dream. I then drifted off to sleep again and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "Time to Step Forward" begins…

All I could remember was God's Loud Voice:

"To the bright and shining Ones… step forward and all will know you are Mine!"

Sub-dream 2 over…

Thank You, Father, for dreams. I know each one has a purpose. It is so I will remain trusting in You for meaning. Bless You, Father, in all You do as we wait.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. However, there is something else… when speaking of the miracles, you are sad."

Me: "Yes, Lord, I am. So far, these are dreams never realized, the promise without the conclusion… or at least a winning conclusion."

Jesus: "You have won. You are Mine, a bright shining One, along with others."

Me: "Yes, in You, I have everything. There are no accidents between what I wrote from my beginning story to the dream of the delusional Christian."

Jesus: "Let Me remind you of the swift currents you have continually faced. You swam against the current in your story of the university I sent you to. You listened to all those saying to you, 'This is impossible!', 'This can't be done!' and 'Your equipment is bad!'

"Well, it is hard to name all of the negatives that were said to you. The enemy was afoot because he wanted your failure and so did others around you. Now, did you succumb to the current and let it take you there or did I close the door?"

Me: "I feel like You did both."

Jesus: "Yes. It ran its course and I was not happy about those who cursed you. However, this then ended their careers as they had hoped."

Me: "Really, Lord?"

Jesus: "Yes. None of them did as they had hoped… except one, your roommate. She was kind to you. Erin, I know this is difficult to hear, but this was not My plan for you. When I opened the other door, you walked through this and didn't look back. This led to lessons in life that were valuable. You gained experience unmatched even by those taught in universities…

- You learned about wealth.
- You learned about those who acted a certain way but had nothing.
- You learned about people who had so much wealth they had no concept of what lack was about.
- You then had a difficult time wrestling against Me and the material.

Me: "Spiritually vs worldly?"

Jesus: "Yes. I then had to strip you down once you surrendered to Me. I know this is difficult. However, your perspective, your values and your love and patience for those who are lost is greater. You went through great loss to get to where you are. One day, you will experience all you left behind and you will celebrate what I have done."

Me: "I could celebrate now. I am grateful."

Jesus: "Yes, but you believe you have failed. Well, I am here to say your failures have not been what you think. They are Me redirecting you."

Me: "A different flight plan?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. However, you still arrive at your destination. Erin, your story is not finished. I have not come this far with you to let all that I have done with you come to nothing. At some point, all of your questions will be answered… every question. Your joy will be complete. You will do all these things again, but with a different heart.

"Your heart is Mine! You are My bright and shining One, along with many others, and great will be your joy. I promise you. Now, don't grow weary in the waiting. Look at all I am doing upon the Earth. Do you not see My hand in this? The time of your promise is coming into view. Rejoice, Erin, and be glad. Rejoice!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-869/

869 – Check for chinks in the spiritual armor

Received on Thursday, December 12, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do to watch over Your children. Even in great storms, You are always here. I am so thankful You are here with us. Please continue to keep us close. My dreams lately have been interrupted. In the night before last, I had awakened suddenly by three powerful knocks on our door. It startled me out of my sleep. I went to the door and no one was there.

My heart was still pounding. It must have been because of my dream. Then last night I was awakened several times by sounds outside as an epic storm went through with winds that howled. I woke up at around 2:00am and heard a loud bang. It was outside. I prayed that none of the trees would fall.

There had been an unusual warm up overnight with rain. In two days, we had 27F temperatures and lots of snow change into 60F at midnight and the snow mostly gone. Culverts are filled with runoff from the extreme melt off. This looks like raging rivers of white foam and brown water. Many places around us have no power, so thank You, Father, for keeping our electricity flowing.

The second time I awoke last night was exactly 3:33am. I don't recall ever seeing 3:33am on the clock before. I then heard Your unmistakable Voice, Father…

"Check for chinks in the spiritual armor!"

I fell asleep and had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "An Epic Joust" begins...

I saw two men dressed in chainmail armor. One was riding a black horse and the other rode a white horse. They both had jousting poles or lances. They first rode past each other, back and forth, studying each other.

Finally, they both paused to face each other. They were very far apart, about the length of a football field.

I then heard a shout and the two men came at each other riding their horses at full speed. The rider on the white horse was knocked off of his horse and onto his back. His horse rode away from the scene. The jouster on the black horse had a chink (a small tear, hole or seam) in the right side of his chainmail tunic that he was unaware of.

The rider on the black horse came up swiftly to bring the final blow to the fallen rider. The fallen rider looked like he was wounded and unable to move. There was no hope for the fallen rider until, suddenly, as the final joust was to be given to end the life of the grounded fighter, he erected his lance at the perfect point and it went through the chink in the rider's armor.

This blow was instantly fatal. The rider on the black horse slumped and fell on his own lance as he fell to the ground. Since this was the backside of his lance, this jabbed him, but did not impale him. By using cunning and a well-executed move, the fallen jouster was able to find the perfect place to stop the rider… the small chink in his armor.

I woke up when I saw armies on the two sides run down some side hills in to fight each other in an epic man-to-man combat.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I was woken up by an incoming text. My son had notified me that outside conditions were like a hurricane's aftermath on the road. There were many fallen trees, scared drivers and no power in many of the areas.

I got up to warn my daughter about her morning commute. She seldom worries. She was smiley and ready to go on another adventure… no fear! Thank You, Father, for these children You have made. They are now adults and I pray for good things for them here, on Earth as it is in Heaven.

I then went to my devotional chair to write a dream and I heard You say, 'Beautiful are the feet whom brings Good News.' I then went to Isaiah 52:7. When I found this verse in the Bible, the Lord prompted me to read the verse prior to this as well…

Isaiah 52:6: Therefore My people shall know My Name. Therefore in that day they shall know that it is I who speak: Here I Am!

Isaiah 52:7: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, 'Your God Reigns!'

I see good things coming to the nation and God's Grace in these four years with what is planned. However, I also see the enemy destroying so much and protecting the evil people that will be emboldened to continually try to destroy what You have raised up.

It still feels like the enemy and his camp are plotting to destroy America. There has been a drone swarm in New Jersey and the land surrounding New York City. Something is unsettling about this time frame and this season right now.

While I had a vivid dream / vision a few nights ago, You didn't call me to write it down until today.

Sub-dream / vision 2 "When the Queen died, evil was ushered in" begins…

I saw the Earth from a type of NASA-like headquarters in Heaven. I saw angels dispatched to areas over the map. They had measuring lines. I saw European countries begin measured. The angel was calling out the width and length of each.

Another angel had a plumbline to measure the levelness of the land. I could see the UK. The measure was very small, maybe a few acres, and the plumbline was way off. I went over to an angel analyst in this great operational room in Heaven to ask questions.

Me: "What is happening here?"

Angel: "God is measuring righteousness."

Me: "So, the UK."

Angel: "This has been weighed and measured to see if God is established there."

Me: "The mention of God, Jesus and prayer are no longer allowed there."

Angel: "Yes. God is assessing the battlefields in order to implement His strategy for revival and to dispatch His Army."

Me: "Army? Do you mean harvest workers?"

Note: Queen Elizabeth died on Thursday, September 8, 2022. Her funeral then took place on Monday, September 19, 2022. Prince (now King) Charles then ordered the mourning period to end a week later on Monday, September 26, 2022.

Angel: "Yes. When the Queen died, evil was ushered in. God's favor has been removed."

I then saw the same in several other countries, including New Zealand, Australia, the Philippines, Ireland, Canada and Mexico. Some of the South American countries were still in God's favor and found to be level.

I could see some countries receiving great provisions, protection and other things from Heaven. I then saw the USA. I saw that the area was shrinking. However, it was also in a holding pattern. The angels measuring were told to wait a little longer.

Me: "What is happening?"

Angel: "They are waiting for God as He listens to the prayers and petitions of His children. He has told man what is good. What does He require of you but to do justice and love, kindness and to walk humbly with God. Pray that these boundaries are extended."

Me: "Micah! Wait, what? Is this because of corrupt leaders and governments?"

Angel: "Tell them to pray."

I watched as the angels continued to measure. This vision then closed.

Sub-dream / vision 2 over.

Micah 6 and 7 seem so timely here. Father, please help me. This is troubling. I want to publish Good News now.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. Now, what have you learned in your low position?"

Me: "I was brought low and afflicted so You could be exalted and brought to the forefront of my life. When I was at my career best and had great self-achievement along with money , I looked to myself more and glorified my own works and forgot You. However, in reality, You determine a man's position all along. Whether we are high or low, You measure us and weigh our heart to see if we are good.

"Some are not good when they are successful. They then 'lord' over others and forget God. They aren't humble. They are boastful and give praise to their own works. A true gift from you comes In humility after humiliation, we are humbled. We are less and You are more. True success is given to those who praise You in good times and in bad."

Jesus: "Why did I grant you the measuring at all?"

Me: "Because You saw something in me You could measure to appraise my potential for use by You for Your purposes, some redeeming quality for greater service."

Jesus: "So too am I measuring these nations, both rulers and citizens. Some of these are shrinking and not level. Others are not being considered at all. There are even some that are expanding. Why?"

Me: "Because You see more souls You can harvest when revival comes."

Jesus: "Then would I not be sending more angel armies to the areas that are shrinking?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. This is because the enemy is gaining territory. Stop him."

Jesus: "Oh, now you understand! In your country, corrupt leaders are taking a stand and making foolish declarations to continue to fight after a great loss.They are full of hate and have no self-reflection, only evil assignments. These are the first to cry for help when disaster strikes.

"Darkness has fallen over large areas over the world. However, when My people pray, darkness retreats. The sound of praise and worship makes darkness retreat. My light of hope shines brighter with prayer, praise and worship.

"Now, an enemy has been provoking the people… the Beast and the Harlot who rides on the Beast. However, the wicked will not see what is coming against them because I am over them and I see. Here is the Good News, Erin… evil does not win. This is true even though they declare peace and then do the opposite. While evil is constrained by God, goodness is multiplied by God. Evil has no power over it.

"Now, you are seeing a great jousting of power right now. It is truly a battle of good vs evil. Behind closed doors and sessions are angry leaders. These are godless men who do vile works. You know them by their works.

"Then there is the hidden enemy. They cry out for help, but then make punishing demands when you then help them. They are there to take the power of the host nations away. They will even take the people's houses by force."

Me: "The immigrants in Europe, the USA and other host nations?"

Jesus: "Yes. It is their 'god' who demands no justice, no peace, no property unless you follow their customs, their 'god' and their lies. Make no mistake here… this false god has claimed many souls. However, I see it all. I see the destruction of the once beautiful lands that were dedicated to Me. I am jealous for what is Mine."

Me: "Lord, I am unsettled in my heart."

Jesus: "Do not be. I am God over all things. The measuring and weighing are better than the fiery furnace. Many of these nations have allowed evil to rise against the children of God and this will not go well. Continue to pray, Erin.

"If My people pray, I will then turn My hand from striking down an entire nation. If My people pray, I will do this for the sake of only a few righteous who are there. This is the Good News. I will care for My people. Do not be discouraged."

Me: "It is a discouraging time, Lord. Hope is on the horizon. We just can't feel it here yet. Could You help us in the meantime? Our sons and daughters are struggling and now even lack hope. We need some miracles here. If you would open the Heavens above us, we could use some of what you have given us in Eternity, even?

"It has been so hard to keep the house encouraged when we ourselves are struggling. December hasn't been the best 'good news month' in recent years. Lord, we all need You more now than ever!"

Jesus: "I know. Give this to Me. I have you. It will all be okay. Remember that My recompense is here with Me. I will not revoke blessings from those who love Me and those whose hope is on Me."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-869/

870 – The Lord has moved back in!

Received on Tuesday, December 17, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Praise You in all of the Earth. In every breath, let our praises be on You. You are God. As God, You are then fully aware of the schemes of man. As children of God, we are thankful to be under Your Divine Love and Care. These past few weeks have been a time of healing and solitude. It has also been a 'Be Still Season' for me to reflect on You, those closest to me and to rest.

I was recently speaking to my younger son about this block of days and told him it was the period of great reflection before a Great Move by You, Father. The Christian nations of the Earth have been quietly invaded by those who hate You. The invaders have been turning on their host countries. These people are soon to destroy all You have done with Your children if You don't intervene.

Please, Father, on Earth as it is in Heaven, but for right now! Please! The world is upside down now and lies are spread and these confuse the masses. Many are in so much fear of Trump and his team rising to power that they are plotting to destroy as much as possible before he takes office in 34 days. So far, You have thwarted the enemy's schemes at every turn. This is scary though.

Something is happening and it is meant to cause great fear throughout the entire Earth, perhaps starting with a 'Big Show' (supposedly) planned for Christmas Eve. People are also posting videos of Muslims proclaiming they will go to every household and affect each one by force. They are even stating that there are two realities; those who are Muslim and stand for Allah and then all of the others who 'stand against Allah'.

In order to have a perfect New World Order, they believe that anyone opposing them needs to be removed and swiftly. One video showed a Muslim man so happy because they have such a great plan to destroy their enemies because they are in Allah's favor. This attack will be a great surprise to all.

In the USA, it is believed that at least one thousand Al-Qaeda operatives are here. It is believed they are planning an attack of great significance inside the USA and soon. Their idea is to replace all of us Christians with Muslims. Again, this is so scary.

Father, please rise up and save us. Please show Your might and strike down the enemies of God. We live our lives here seeking comfort. We search for comfort in the things of the Earth. We then find it in various things…

- A warm blanket or coat when it is cold.
- A heated house in the winter.
- A safe mode of transportation.
- A safe home to live in.
- A comfortable mattress and pillow to sleep on.
- Encouraging words and prayers from friends.
- Hugs from parents, children or a spouse.
- A pet who is glad to see you every day.
- Uplifting music.
- Daily routines you find comforting.
- Being in a church where you know God is.
- Breathing clearly.
- A smile from a stranger.
- Clean water to drink.
- Indoor plumbing.
- A great job and/or the ability to have work and to provide an income.
- Singing like no one is listening.
- The sun.
- Hot tea or a latte served with a cookie.
- A glass of ice water on a hot day.

The list is long. Every day we look for these things to bring us comfort. These are things we do daily for comfort while we wait (note that the above list purposely doesn't include those things that are bad for you… smiles!).

Father, people rarely seek comfort in You even though You are the God of Comfort and the Prince of Peace. Your Word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path.

If we read Your Word only in part, it can be a rod of punishment against all of our failures. However, when Your Word is read in full, You send warnings in advance of calamity so Your people will turn to You and pray. When calamity then comes, it comes to (comparatively) very little because You found the prayers of Your people were good and Your mercy endures through all disaster.

I had a dream on the early morning of Sunday, December 15, 2024.

Sub-dream 1 "The Invasion of the Swarm Squatters" begins…

I was a real estate agent taking two men that were hunting for a home for a tour of available listings. I noticed that, when showing them homes, they seemed to be just as curious of the contents and furnishings as they were of the home itself.

Me: Addressing the two men. "I would like to point out that some items might be negotiable in the sale, but only the dwelling."

While the two men nodded in agreement, they both still continued looking at the contents and furnishings. When we arrived at the last listed home to be viewed, they walked around and began to speak in another language. They turned to me…

Man: "I would like to write an offer for this home." I was relieved. "Do you mind if we view the front of the house again to take photos?"

As I turned to walk out of the front door, the men ran up and slammed shut the front door behind me. I tried the lock, but to no avail. I knew these two men were not alright. I phoned the police and waited in my car out front.

Just then, two large vans of family members of the men pulled up in the driveway with suitcases. The two men opened the front door to them. All of the owner's belongings were inside. These evil people were squatters. I was so upset. I phoned the listing agent and she was also upset…

Listing agent: "These groups are already occupying two of my other listings. These are 'Swarm Squatters'. According to their religion, they actually believe these homes are theirs, along with everything in them."

The police then arrived. They came over to speak to me…

Policeman 1: "We are familiar with these groups. They will now try to wrap themselves up in courts for many months. Contact all of your listings and tell the owners to take their homes off of the market. They should also be told to change all of their locks. So, when did this happen here?"

Me: "About thirty minutes ago."

Policeman 1: "Okay, show me the correspondence you have with them in setting up today's house hunt with them."

I opened the phone and showed them.

Policeman 2: Grinning. "Okay, this is a simple lockout misunderstanding then."

I knew he was speaking tongue in cheek since he knew this wasn't a simple lockout. Just then, the real owners showed up in the driveway. They were a couple with two children in tow. They were all panicking. The homeowner identified himself to the policemen and showed identification, along with his house key.

Policeman 1: Addressing the owner. "Okay, you will now want to let yourself into your home. We will come with you as you do this."

When they walked in, these people were already making themselves at home.

Policeman 2: Using a loud voice to address the squatters. "You all must vacate this home as a simple misunderstanding has occurred or it will not go well if we must escalate this situation."

The squatters started yelling at them in a foreign language. The first policeman radioed for back up knowing there would be problems. When reinforcements arrived, the foreigners called for their families to vacate. However, they were not happy about having to clear out and stole some things with them as they left. Once outside of the home, the owner then went up to them and took everything back that was his.

Foreigner: Yelling. "I have rights. This is my home now. You will see. I will take what is rightfully mine."

Owner: "You paid nothing. Your name is on nothing. This house is our house."

Policeman 1: "Do not come back. We will lock you up. All of you."

Me: Addressing the second policeman. "Shouldn't you arrest them?"

Policeman 2: "If we do, we would need to let them live in the home until ownership is proven. Doing it the way we just did instead means they will leave and likely won't return. Others have lost everything."

Me: "Well, I am now quitting (as a real estate agent). I can't do this anymore."

Policeman 2: "Their ideology is that this is all theirs, not yours."

Just then, I heard one of the squatters yell at me from their van…

Woman: Screaming hysterically. "I will kill you for taking my dream home away from me and scaring my children."

I woke up suddenly to a loud noise.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this home invasion stuff really bothers me. For that matter, any property theft of any kind bothers me. One of my rivals (who I thought was my friend at the time) stole from me brazenly. I would turn my back for one moment and one of my favorite items would be missing. It hurt me to the core, especially when, during a basketball game in 9th Grade, she went into the locker room and stole everything and just from me.

I lost all of my jewelry, even my special pieces. Only my locker was attacked. The only time I took off my jewelry was during the basketball game (it was a requirement to play). I had been given some pieces of Hopi jewelry from my grandmother that would be worth a lot of money today. All gone. When I discovered my losses, I wept and wept. I knew who did it. My friends told me that the person who did this thought it was funny.

Because I had no proof of what she had done, the school and the coaches couldn't help me. When confronted, she denied it. I would then later see her with a piece of my jewelry on and I would confront her. She said they were hers. She would torment me by flashing my belongings and then acting like I was the crazy one. I was helpless to do anything. About three weeks after this, we moved and I never saw her again.

I recently looked this woman up on Facebook. I could tell that her life has not been an easy one for her based on a few things I could derive from her pics. This woman even stole the endpiece to an expensive instrument (a flute) I used for band, one of my few valuables and my mom was making payments on it. When I asked another friend why she was never robbed by this 'friend', she pointed out that her dad, Leo, was so scary that she didn't dare to.

Anyway, it is a difficult world and I can't wait for eternity with You, Father. There is no need for locks or keys in Heaven. There is no need for fences in Heaven. As for here on Earth, all of these are symbols of the authority given to us by You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, talk to Me."

Me: "Lord, I am anxious, sad and depressed. I am avoiding You. I love You. I am sorry. Life is better with You."

Jesus: "Thank you for being honest. You don't need to perform. I know you, Erin. Why? Because I am with you in all things. Now, what is troubling you?"

Me: "I sometimes fear that You have forgotten me, Lord. My dreams have been odd and make no sense lately. There are things in the physical we also worry about."

Jesus: "Calm down. Let Me lead you beside still waters. I know you believe troubles are coming soon to the nations. However, let Me remind you that I am in control over all things. I know the plans of the wicked, as well as the plans of the good. It is I who determines a day. You are anxious right now because, for the first time in a while, I have granted you rest from your daily routine. I have also granted you supernatural speed to remove obligations and free passage to finish your appointments with ease."

Me: Laughing. "Hmm, perhaps I now have too much time on my hands?"

Jesus: "There is never too much. Take this time and be at peace. Pray and praise Me. It will be in worship that you draw closer to Me. Remember to not worry about things you cannot change. Remember that all of My promises are true. I am preparing the nations for what is coming. I am raising up some leaders and removing others. It is an uncertain time as I have sent My Angel Army to reveal problems. Now, what is done after you would measure a space (when I was an interior designer)?"

Me: "I would calculate square footage and estimate timelines for completion. I would also determine whether what was measured was realistic even in terms of cost. It usually meant removing what was no longer working and making all of it brand new. However, measuring came first, then estimates or calculations, then weighing if the project would fit into the desired framework."

Jesus: "This is similar to what I have tasked My Angel Army to do with the nations. They measure, calculate and assess the needs and weigh the area. They then present this to Me and I decide its worth. Maybe it is just a matter of removing corrupt leaders and calling up righteous ones. Maybe the nation needs something more reflective, like removing the walls and stripping down the framework to the foundations. Of course, this is costly, so pray. Erin, some nations might even need to have their foundation removed completely."

Me: "Oh no, that is bad!"

Jesus: "The Earth is eventually completely remodeled. This is written."

Me: "Lord, what about revival and harvest?"

Jesus: "I have moved back in and I will prepare the fields for what comes. Do not worry. Churches will open again in a new way and many will flock to them. Even more will be added to My Kingdom, so pray. There are great plots by the enemies of the children of God to destroy all of the good lands. Remember that calamities come before revival. There are walls that need to be torn down because they are unable to stand. This is so they can then be built back up in a better way."

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "I will send signs and wonders ahead so you know I am with you and Heaven is over you in all you do. Be encouraged, Erin. I am here. Enjoy today. Remove your worry."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-871/

871 – A Giant Bible highlights the Psalms

Received on Saturday, December 21, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all we have in You. Thank You and bless You for my family and friends. We are grateful.

I was up early this morning. It had snowed through the night and my daughter had to leave for work in 45 minutes. It was light snow and I felt she was running a tad late for the weather conditions, so I decided to start up the car to warm it up and sweep the snow off of her car. She is like I was at her age… leaving in time to arrive a few minutes before… never too early, never too late.

When I walked outside, I could tell that rain fell before the snow since there was a sheet of ice under several inches of fresh powder. As I brushed off her car, I prayed…

Me: "Lord, please protect her way there and cover her in all she does."

Jesus: Replying to my prayer. "Erin, I let you borrow her all of these years from Me. I have a plan for her and I am not finished with her here."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. You reign and are above all things. There is no one above You. Thank You for carrying me and those I love."

Jesus: "You are welcome."

As I continued to move snow around, an old song by MercyMe came to me and it hasn't left. It is their hit, 'You Reign!'. It was so quiet outside as the early darkness turned to dawn. It was beautiful and the reminder I needed, Father. Thank You.

As I began to sprinkle sand and salt behind her tires and up to the road, I began to have excruciating pain in my left kidney area. It seems to be getting worse, so I will phone my doctor on Monday. Father, please remove any cancer left in my body, if any, and keep my remaining kidney healthy. Just as I prayed, the pain subsided.

My daughter then came out in a hurry to her car. I warned her to take precautions because of ice under the snow and that the plows hadn't been out yet. She nodded, hugged me and jumped into her car. With ease, her tiny car zipped out of the driveway onto the unplowed road with no problem. I shook my head and laughed to myself.

Me: "Thank You, Father, for keeping us safe."

I went to my devotional chair. I have been feeling scared lately. This is the lowest that I have felt in many years. I have been in a quiet place. The news is not good in the world and my heart breaks for those hurting. Ever since this cancer diagnosis and surgery, I have been unplugged a bit from life.

The churches around us are not recognizing the times we are in, although I am convinced some who are in attendance know the times. With me, I have been broken. I am praying for a divine infilling of fresh Living Water from You, Father, for my thirsty soul. We have been inundated with bad news and I want so much, Father, to experience more of You. All we have is Yours. I am coming to You to renew me.

Please do not let me languish here. You are so good in all things. Miracle prayers are answered. We have seen these be answered. My husband's cancer on his nose was healed thanks to You and help from our precious friends that You sent into our lives.

Today is Zoey's 16th birthday and You have revived her many times and kept her sustained. This morning, she was acting like a puppy. For my sake and for the sake of our home, I asked for more time and You granted this. Thank You, Father.

This morning was the first time in a while that I sat there and wept. I had to hunt for some papers yesterday. I placed them in an organized box of folders. However, I could not recall where I had placed them. Enroute to opening various boxes, I stumbled upon some photographs.

My heart hurt so badly when I came across a folder with letters and notes of encouragement from my mom, dad, grandpa, grandma and even my great grandma Jeans. I found other notes from my children when they were very little, along with photos. I then closed the lid and cried even more.

I was already on my knees and I started to pray. Father, I had so much promise then. I had big dreams that I believed would come true. I had simple worries and prayers for my children. However, in all of this, I believed for more always. In all of my troubles, I know in my heart that this too would pass. Bills overwhelmed us many times, but You always made a way for us.

While sickness and injuries crippled my dreams, they also gave my life a greater sense of purpose because I learned to lean on You and not on my own ability. I then stumbled on a large manilla envelope. It contained obituaries and eulogies of my parents, grandparents, my great grandma and my friends that I had lost over the years.

It was a bittersweet envelope of the end of the lives of those I miss talking to. I miss the option of phoning my mom or my friend. I closed the envelope and placed it back in the box. They have all crossed the bridge into eternity. I prayed on all of this.

Me: "Lord, what is wrong with me? I have already accepted all of this. Why now?"

Jesus: "I reign. I number a man's days."

I had a fun dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A Giant Bible highlights the Psalms" begins...

I saw a beautiful, massive Bible. It was open and was about 7' wide x 4' long (yes, feet, not inches!). It was made of something like stone or even a flexible metal. As I began to walk towards the Bible, I could see it rising and falling from within as if it were alive and breathing. As I tried to read what pages it was opened to, I was amazed…

- There was Psalm 45 on the left page and Psalm 46 on the right page.
- It then turned and Psalm 47 was then highlighted.
- Going back to Psalm 45, I saw verses 6 and 7 highlighted.
- Then a title in Psalm 45: "Your Throne, O God, is Forever!"
- Then a title in Psalm 46: "God is your Fortress!"
- Psalm 46:5: "God is in the midst of her. She will not fall. God will help her at the break of day."
- Psalm 46:10: "Be still and know that I am God!"

- Then Psalm 47: "God is King over all the Earth!"
- The verses 1 to 9 in Psalm 47 were then all illuminated.
- However, Psalm 47:9 was the only one illuminated in a bright blue color: "For the shields of the Earth belong to God; He is Highly Exalted."
- As my hand went to touch the Book, the page turned again.
- A title in Psalm 51: "Create in me a clean heart, O God!"
- Although these chapter verses were not highlighted, the massive page turned.
- It was Psalm 52: "The steadfast love of God endures!"
- Then Psalm 54 on the other page: "The Lord upholds my life!"
- I then began to weep over this massive book. When my tears hit a page, it lit up.
- Psalm 55 highlighted: "Cast your burden on the Lord!"
- I then saw Psalm 55:16-18, 22 on the right page.
- The page turned again and there was Psalm 56: "In God I trust!"
- Psalm 56:8a was highlighted: "You have kept count of my tossings, put my tears in Your Bottle!"
- The Voice of the Lord (now speaking to me about Psalm 56:8b): "Are your tears not in My Book?"

I knew they were. My tears continued to stream down onto the pages. Suddenly, a small spring of water sprang up from the middle of the Bible. The pages then began to turn more rapidly as the fountain sprang higher. My head was down as I cried. I cried as I thought about all that I was lacking in order to be truly pleasing to the Lord.

Me: "I am so sorry, Father. I have dishonored You by being so afraid. We are in trouble if You don't take this from me. My burden is too great for me."

I felt a hand on my shoulder. I looked and there was an angel of the Lord.

Angel: "Read what these chapters are titled. This is God's Word and His promises. His Testimony is here. His promises for you are in these pages. Give Him your burdens. Lay these down. He will not abandon you. He has ransomed you and redeemed you.

"He knows what you need before you ask. Do not focus on your troubles. Instead, remember that He loves you and He is King over all of the Earth. Now, be still, Erin, as His fountains are in you. All of His promises are true. Be strong and take courage."

In a flash of light, the angel was gone. I woke up at 6:15am.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Me: "Father, I would love one of these giant Bibles!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You have no place to put this."

Me: "Lord, this Bible is amazing. I would clear everything out for it. That would revive my spirit and refresh my soul."

Jesus: "Well, how about you pick up your portable version and meditate on this day and night. I know you are tired and weary. I know you are scared. I told you to give Me your burdens. I did not tell you to lay down your burdens only to take them back up again. I love you. Your sacrifice to Me is good, Erin. Your spirit is broken. Erin, a broken and contrite heart is a willing one."

Me: "I don't understand."

Jesus: "You are in a low position. In this low place, you have great sorrow there. You look to Me with this heavy burden you can no longer carry and I take this from you. I am your Healer. I don't leave those I call in a state of worry and anguish. You cry out to Me and I deliver you. Erin, you inspect your fruits regularly."

Me: "Lord, I am so down. Do I have cancer in my other kidney too, Lord? Please just heal me. Please don't allow me to be sick."

Jesus: "Then give all of this to Me. I am able to do all you have prayed for. I know your husband would like to work and that this would help put you at ease, but this door will remain closed to him for just a bit longer. Take this time to find joy and peace.

"Erin, be still and know that I am God. I will take your burdens and cover the cost, understand? You need not worry. I take the muddy, mirky and dead things of this world and cover them with fresh, white snow. As I am over all of this, it is I who orders it."

Me: "It is beautiful, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, but I am telling you that I cover all of your stains and these disappear and become as white as snow. Rejoice, Erin, as there is beautiful white snow outside."

Me: "It is beautiful, Lord. Thank You!"

Jesus: "Rejoice today, Erin. I am with you. My fountains are in you. You are loved by the King!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-872/

872 – A Short Word on Christmas Day 2024

Received on Wednesday, December 25, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! You are my Gift. I love You. Thank You for a blanket of fresh early morning snow and one more day here. I went outside to feed the birds and animals. There was no good reason to stop as we have had virtually no mice inside our house over the years. We found a possible point of entry and blocked it. There has now been nothing for a couple of months.

While I no longer feed them on any type of schedule, I now do this on random days and ways. This way, they learn another way. I realized some time ago that I had lost my passion. Not just for the birds and animals, but my passion and interest in so many things. I have taken thousands of photos… too many actually. Why? I was in pursuit of something, but I am not sure what.

I once loved thrift shopping. Father, You blessed my pursuits in second hand, antiquing and other related treasure hunting, but no more. I can't do better than what I have already achieved and the great stories I had doing this. My passion is gone. I loved to golf once. I loved it so much that when I would watch tournaments on the television, my heart would race. I could tell my husband the mistake that was about to be made based on the player's stance or the pure swing that a golfer succeeded with, but no more.

I no longer have this passion. I am no longer thinking about it, although sometimes golf appears in my dreams. This year has been a year of great change… a change of heart. Cancer dictated so many days. Receiving this diagnosis was the final crowning event that made everything else fade away. It is like feeding the birds everyday and then one day stopping. The birds would then become confused and even disoriented.

When I ventured outside today, some of the birds appeared to call out to me. Some of them would swoop in. However, most just waited for me on branches. I had become depressed this year. Things, places, events and the way I had expected everything to be, did not come to pass as I had hoped, prepared and prayed for. It has been the lowest I have been in many years.

Even coming to You seemed senseless at times because 'soon' never fit my definition of my hopes of 'soon'. When those around me would begin to ask, 'We did all this for when?', well, I truly have no answers. However, I know You, Father, are a genius and so multi-dimensional in all of Your ways that all of these delays and redirects will also be perfectly perfect. I am sorry for my discouragement. I am sorry. I love you.

My husband asked me what I would look forward to doing when I am healed and changed if I had the ability to be granted that which I asked for. Well, a few years ago, I could name at least ten things, some are or most are enhanced abilities to do things I can no longer do. However, this came up a few days ago and I was surprised by my answer reflecting my different direction. I now want to…

- Heal people.
- Raise the dead.
- Shut the mouths of liars.
- See the miracles of God.
- Be a part of these miracles.

However, I don't want anyone to know who I am… only that I am in the service of my King Jesus. I don't want any attention… no books, tours… nothing. While I had always wanted to be elevated and proved right in front of my enemies, I no longer care to do this. I no longer have any agenda.

For the first time in my life, I truly have no desire to be built up in the eyes of others. This is because I don't feel I have done anything that someone else would not do in the same position. I am only special in the way You feel I am special.

Anyway, this week has been an odd week. After I fed the birds, I took the eggs out of the fridge to warm them up to room temperature. I then took out the mixer from below the oven to set on the counter. It was time for our annual Christmas morning Dutch Babies. Then suddenly and without warning, an entire shelf crashed down. Baking pans, trays and glass dishes scattered all over the floor.

It woke up the entire house… perhaps even the neighbors too. One of the shelf supports had snapped. Without me realizing it, the shelf had been resting on my mixer. It was a calamity on an otherwise beautiful still Christmas morning.

Together with my husband, we promptly fixed the shelf and we placed everything back after securing the supports with stronger ones. By a miracle, not one of our glass dishes broke. Not even a single chip.

I then went to my devotional chair. I smiled when I saw that a big, beautiful passionflower had bloomed overnight. This is a miracle. Then my hibiscus plant had bloomed after it looked like it had died. I then heard Your Voice…

Jesus: "Erin, you are My passionflower. Do not grow weary in doing good. In all of this, I am in you!"

I needed this. Thank You, Father. I then said my first 'formal' prayer of the day…

Thank You, Father. Thank You for never giving up on me. Even at times when I have given up, You never give up. You never stop. I know today is likely Your date of conception here on Earth and not the date of Your birth (both Kislev 24 on the Hebrew calendar and December 25 on our calendar are good fits). Even so, we celebrate You in love and gratitude for all You do. My life with You in it has been an Enriching Gift and something no money can purchase.

No act can accomplish this. No words can conjure this. Only a willing heart. Well, this year has been the year of willing hearts to do Your Perfect Will in all things. I am fully surrendered to You, Father. I have nothing standing in my way other than my personal limitations. I am broken. I lack ability. Lord, there is nothing I can do in this life that has not already been done or completed.

So, Father, today I ask for a renewal of my spirit and a passion for You. I pray for revival and the gift of letting go of the former things. I ask that You put a new magnified passion into the hearts of all sparrows… the least of these in Your Kingdom. I pray that, together, we can Nest at Your Altar. Light the wick in our heart so we burn brightly for You. Love, me… Amen. In Jesus' Mighty Name, Amen!

I looked out my window and saw so many varieties of birds outside. Many had returned again. The snowbirds are here too. Thank You, Lord!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I have you. I know you are tired. However, I am here and I will revive you and you will be My Gift to others as I work through you. It has been a long journey, but I have never forsaken you, not once.

"You have grown in Me. This is only the beginning. Your story has not ended. There are many of you who have grown weary, but continue to hold on. All of you hold on! I am at the door. Be still and know I am God. I love you! I am here and soon all will see."

This was so encouraging to me that I felt inspired to write down my second 'formal' prayer of the day.

We pray blessings upon our friends. For those who are alone, we pray that Jesus comes to visit you and He is with you and grants you a special sign. We pray for families with children that You would bless them and abundantly provide more than they would need. For those who are sick and need healing, Father, this is an easy thing for You. Please heal those in need of miracles today, even financial miracles.

Father, You can do abundantly more than we can ask, so please send help to all of those in need. You are our Greatest Gift. Please remember those who are too tired to even ask anymore. Light our Candle and keep our wicks trim and our flame burning bright. We love You. Psalm 85 – revive us. Psalm 84 too. I ask for all of this in Jesus' Name, Amen!

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-873/

873 – Great Ticker Tape Parade Coming Soon

Received on Sunday, December 29, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your divine protection and provision. We are blessed by Your answers to our prayers.

I had a dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Great Ticker Tape Parade Coming Soon" begins…

In my dream, I awoke at dawn. I woke up in my bed as the sun rose in the east and its light was too bright to sleep. (Note: In reality, my bed doesn't face the east at all and the sun wouldn't hit my window until the afternoon.) This morning was different than any other morning. I had been changed as if I was a whole different person. I could see myself and my skin, face and hair looked better than it did when I was younger.

It was not a struggle to wake up or get out of bed. I appeared to be in my 20s. This was truly a 'Me Version' that I did not recognize. My hair was long, wavy and white. The room itself and the bedding were all white, with the exception of the shadows being blue and the light being a type of white and gold. I walked over to a glass sliding door. This door, in turn, opened up to a balcony overlook.

While I did not recognize where I was, it looked like a mountain region, perhaps the Rockies, the Cascades or the Selkirks. I could not tell. I was staying in a beautiful hotel or condominium complex and felt at home there at a place that I have never been. I went to my closet and laughed. At the base of my closet on a low shelf were bags with rolled up coats I had owned over the years.

Each bag had a date on it. These dates went back to my high school years. I shook my head and sighed. I didn't want to wear any of these, so I removed them to an empty box at my door to be donated.

Me: Talking to myself out loud. "What to wear then?"

Suddenly, there was a zippered bag hanging there. The outside of the bag read…

"For Today"

I unzipped the bag. I wondered if it was from a clothing store called 'For Today' or if it was literal. There was a beautiful long white coat with large buttons. There were also white pants matched with a white long-sleeved T-shirt. These were not items of clothing I would normally wear.

I put on these clothes and they were as if they were tailored made to fit me. The fabric was difficult to describe, sort of like a type of living breathing cotton knit. There were also some boots for me to wear. I didn't need to comb my hair or put on any makeup. I didn't even wear or need jewelry.

I left the condo/apartment and found myself immediately in the lobby. I was no longer viewing myself from outside, I was now me fully. People waved to me like they knew me, so I waved back in return. I walked outside and noticed that this little quaint town was now busy preparing for a big celebration. I walked down the sidewalk and heard incredible music. I approached a street vendor.

Me: "Excuse me, but what is the celebration that is being prepared for?"

Vendor: Smiling. "We are ushering in the harvesters! You should know this. This is a place to forget the former things from long ago."

Me: "I am not understanding. Am I dead?"

Vendor: "Do you feel dead? From my view, you are more alive than you have ever been."

Me: "But just yesterday, I was in a very dark place. It was a dark hellscape and I was giving CPR to an 11-year-old boy. I was struggling with this. Did the boy die?"

Vendor: "No. You saved him. His family was also saved."

Me: "Oh good. So, where am I?"

Vendor: "The place of your rewards. The King is coming soon in a Great Tickertape Parade. He is bringing His recompense with Him. You will put away the former things and He will put a new spirit in you. You will spend some time with Him here and then you will go home to be over the region He has promised you."

Me: "Who are you?"

Vendor: "I am a harvester too. In the coming age, He will give me back all that was stolen from me and even more. I can't wait, but I can!" He laughed. "We… all of us… are the bright and shining ones!"

Just then, I heard music and loud shouts of joy.

Many singing: "He comes! He comes! Usher in the Kingdom of Heaven upon the Earth!"

I could see what looked like a cloud over a small sun. I then realized it was all of the tickertape. We were all cheering. Tears streamed down my cheeks.

Me: Praying out loud. "I am home! I am home! Praise You, Lord!"

Sub-dream 1 over.

Lord, when will this be? Please let it be soon!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My Voice is in you. Erin, I know you have been discouraged as you don't yet see the big changes you have hoped for. I have already proclaimed that My people will be as builders and restorers of broken hearts, cities, homes, the roads to travel on and even bridges to crossover. You will be a part of this, Erin. I have shown you. Cities will be blessed and prosperous.

"My cities will be fruitful (Zechariah 1:17). You shall have good land in which to plant vineyards and drink wine from them. You shall plant gardens and eat the fruits there (Amos 9:14). The land will be free from evil and you will have a perfect property and a peaceful home (Micah 4:4, Zechariah 3:10). I will build a Highway that is Holy. There shall be no beasts or hidden dangers.

"The redeemed shall walk there and the ransomed of the Lord shall return to Zion with singing (Isaiah 35:10). You will have great joy and easy passage wherever you go as I will make a Good Way. See, not every promise for the people of Israel shall be fulfilled here as things are now. Now, since My promises are true, where is the fulfillment?"

Me: "The New Earth and the New Heaven?"

Jesus: "Yes. All of the injustices will be made right and all the tears will be dried. What was lost will be found and all will be made brand new. The righteous will dwell there (Isaiah 66:22). You worry so much about time and how I can do this or that within the perimeters I have placed, yet I am confined to that of the 3.5 years (The time, times and half a time = 1260 days) of Great Tribulation that surely comes as it is written.

"You see the signs and know that evil men are reshaping the Earth to act on behalf of God as they do believe they were sent to destroy it. They are fools and do not even realize that they are ushering in the Millennial Kingdom where I will walk amongst My people and they will praise Me in truth.

"Erin, there will be no evil dwelling there since it shall be then as it was in the beginning at the Garden when sin was not there. It was beautiful and perfect. This though will be over the whole Earth and evil will not dwell there and great will be your joy."

Me: "Lord, I cannot wait!"

Jesus: "I know. However, a few things must occur first. I know you become confused at times as you have been shown your place in Heaven and upon Earth and you see yourself as you are and think this to be impossible without a miracle of God. While this is all true, one thing also remains true… My Promises!

"Now, I am not the destroyer. However, I am often called this and it is true that I will allow a lofty tower to crumble or a structure to burn to its foundation… even full cities to be destroyed. However, when it is the 'true destroyer' who does this, he rebuilds in corruption and his foundations are crumbling.

"Sometimes, and as you know in excavation, a crew must come to remove all that is in the way of building streets, homes and parks. To make way, the former things must be torn down and the area levelled.

"Good soil is then brought in for backfilling and areas too high for travel must be made low. Valleys are brought up and mountains and hills are brought low. Crooked areas are made straight and rocky areas are made smooth."

Me: "This is from one of my favorite Scriptures, Lord (Isaiah 40:4-5). There is also Luke 3:5."

Jesus: "Why would I do such things to the nations if I didn't have a plan in place for restoration?"

Me: "Lord, I can only imagine how terrifying an earthquake or nuclear war would be to change the landscape like this. I read that, if nuclear war were to break out, man would have approximately 72 minutes to make things right with You."

Jesus: "Interesting. Well, I would say that 72 minutes would become 72 seconds as I believe even a strongman would drop to his knees and beg God for mercy.

"Look, I know you have been discouraged. You cry randomly and you are unsettled and scared. However, don't be as I am here. I will send you more dreams and visions so you begin to set your sights on things I have planned for those who love Me.

"The wicked plot. They hate the status of their plans as they try to keep them on life support. Man plans, but it is I who fashions a good man's plans and heart. There are several plots against My appointed leader of your nation (DJT) so that he doesn't rise to power or, if he does, the plan is to fortify the position of evil.

"So far, I have removed all of their plots and they have not succeeded. Even if I were to allow evil to succeed, it would be so My Glory would be revealed. Remember… a Trumpet sounds the announcement of the King who is coming. The Trumpet doesn't save… the King saves. Rejoice, Erin, that I am the King. Now, I am coming soon!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-874/

874 – New Homes with Weird Black Spires

Received on Monday, December 30, 2024

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here, a new day every day for You to ignite me! I pray that the light You ignite in me inspires others to seek more of You. I love You.

Today is a very foggy day. It has warmed up dramatically. There is snow melting everywhere. Looking out from my window, there is a wall of fog so thick that I can't see anything in the distance. There is a wall of white. It is almost disorienting.

I saw a wonderful sign today. There were three Evening Grosbeaks in the feeding tray. According to folklore, Evening Grosbeaks represents the bridge between Heaven and Earth. To me, they are stunning examples of snippets of Heaven on Earth.

With my dream last night, Father, You called me to read Zephaniah. I barely ever read this. Maybe it just gets buried and lost because of Zechariah sounding so similar… smiles. When I read this today, I felt as if something seemed to be stirring in the supernatural realms.

As for my dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "New Homes with Weird Black Spires" begins…

I was traveling with a real estate agent who was a celebrity in Portland OR when I worked as an Interior Designer in the 90s and early 2000s. She was driving me and my design assistant (whom I did not recognize) through a new development on the crest of a massive hill overlooking the Willamette River Valley. It was snow covered, which is somewhat unusual.

She was driving us up to look at another designer's selections on a project as she was concerned his choices would cause delays in selling the home. As we drove up the hill, we saw easily eight or nine massive mansion-like homes being framed. However, I then noted something highly unusual. Each one of these homes had black spires as a prominent exterior feature. Some homes even had two or more of these spires.

Me: "Are these being built by the same builder?"

Real Estate Agent: "No. They are being built by two competing builders. One is Legend Homes and the other is Prodigal Builders."

Me: "Why the spires?"

Real Estate Agent: "Both builders believe these will give them favor with God or something. They point to Heaven, so these are popular. Oh look… there is a house even you might be able to afford."

I knew that she was being sarcastic at my expense, but I decided to not allow this to make me angry with her. I then looked over at the house she was pointing at. It was a small home on top of a two-car garage and a cupola with a spire on top of it.

Me: Replying in a pleasant tone. "Hmm, how do you know what I can afford?" I then became more serious. "Listen, this looks like it belongs to one of the larger homes. Regardless, I think these spires are ridiculous. They look out of place. The proportions are way off. All of these homes, even though they are large, are still just too small for the size of these spires that top each of them."

Real Estate Agent: Again sarcastically. "Well, you probably couldn't afford it anyway, dear, so relax."

Me: I again didn't let her comment bother me. "So, what home are you taking us to?"

Real Estate Agent: "Right here. Here we are."

In front of us was this massive home. While it was vertically quite tall, it was confined to a small lot size. Once again, the top of the roof area had a large black spire. I then noticed that there were also several smaller black spires surrounding the large spire.

Me: "Are those smaller spires the big spire's children hoping to get to Heaven?"

Real Estate Agent: In a biting tone. "Now, dear, keep your humor to yourself. You need to display decorum."

The home was finished in all white except for these black spires and roof materials. There were also some black lanterns outside, along with a black door. While it did not look bad, it was just not as great as it was priced. In other words, I thought the home was overpriced.

Me: Addressing my assistant. "I am glad that my salvation is not contingent on me having one of these homes."

Assistant: Both of us quietly laughing. "Yes, I agree."

We walked inside this home. The home had dark wood paneling on the walls and ceiling and dark wood flooring. Over to the side was the designer's selections and furnishings. They were all dark and did not fit the home at all. There was a team from Prodigal Builders there, as well as their designer. I went over to address them.

Me: "First off, the white exterior is bright and is a standout with the black spires. The green boxwood hedges, and some of the other accents that soften it, will be beautiful outside in the spring. However, the premise of the design architecturally is the spires as they represent aspirations for Heaven.

"This is like a bridge or a connection. You want to convey Heaven on Earth in this home like an extension. Outside, you have conveyed your passion, but inside… here… it is dark. There is no message of Heaven here. The inside should be like the outside and the outside should reflect what is inside."

While the builder's designer was now quite angry with me for pointing these things out, the builder agreed with everything I said.

Me: "So, what do you expect an interior in a Heavenly Home would be like? Anyone?"

Builder: "A bright light?"

Me: "Yes. Just paint the wall paneling and the ceiling paneling white. Make a stone veneer over the fireplace. As for the furnishings, these should be on a smaller scale in order for the place to appear larger. They should be light and airy with natural linens. While the lighting could be black iron, I am not sure what can be changed there."

Builder's designer: "This is ridiculous. What does she know?"

Real Estate Agent: "Well, she has been to Heaven and she is a designer."

They were all stunned. They then started to ask a bunch of questions.

Me: "I can't answer all of this right now, but do as I have said and I promise you good things."

We left quickly as arguments were now breaking out.

Real Estate Agent: Yelling out to me. "Hey, if you want to build real Heavenly Homes here, I can bring in some investors."

Me: Whispering to my assistant. "From here on out, say nothing back to them."

We got into the car and drove down the hill. It soon became so steep that it was almost too dangerous for us to navigate.

Sub-dream 1 over.

I have never had a dream of black spires. What a strange group of homes.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Man believes too often that they can find favor with God through symbolism, essentially creating their own altars. Whereas most miss the mark, the heart of one doing something in full measure pleases God.

"However, in this dream, spires or other architectural features gain you no special access to God. However, a beautiful church anywhere where two or more gather in My Name… well, I am in the midst of them. Now, what happens if I removed the church?"

Me: "Hmm, there would be no church?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, even though I would still be with those who gather in My Name no matter where they were or how they did this. While a church, a home, a room or even a chair is not the reason for Me to show up, it can be the catalyst that brings those who gather in My Name. One day soon, I will walk amongst you. You will see Me and we will talk and walk together."

Me: "I can't wait until I see You, Lord, and I can hug You. What a Great Day that will be! So many will be so very happy!"

Jesus: "Yes. There will be a day soon when all will change here. Don't be afraid."

Me: "I will try, Lord, but I can't promise I won't be afraid."

Jesus: "Remember that the land must be prepared prior to rebuilding. It will be a difficult thing for many, so pray for the lost that they turn from 'aspiring in spires’ to get them to Heaven and instead see Me as their Way of Salvation. I love You!”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-875/

875 – Three Storms and a Beautiful Banquet

Received on Saturday, January 4, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do. You are an amazing Father who loves us unconditionally in a way we are unable to understand. I am so flawed, yet You never give up on my development to be like You (Jesus). Thank You for protecting us and only allowing that which is deemed by You to be critical to our walks. Each person's walk is a unique one perfectly designed by You.

I had two very distinct dreams last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Three F5 Tornados!" begins…

We were not living where we are now. I am not exactly sure where this was. We were living in a one level home with the backyard facing west. My daughter was with me and my younger son and husband were both at work. It was about 4:00 pm in the afternoon. I was having a conversation with my daughter about dinner and other things. I then heard noises coming from our back patio.

While I thought it was either my husband or younger son coming home, I opened the drapes and saw three massive thunderclouds with what looked like a gray downpouring of rain coming from each. They were arranged in a zigzag formation. The clouds were moving swiftly towards us and the wind picked up. A perfectly placed lightning flash outlined that these were actually three massive tornados heading right for us.

Me: "Look, three tornados are coming right at us!"

My daughter: "Mom, let's go to the bathroom into the tub! Mom! Mom, now!"

Me: Turning towards her. "No, these won't come near us."

My daughter: "Mom, they are literally coming right over us. Now, mom!"

Me: "I will go with you, but we don't need to worry."

We could hear horrible sounds. We prayed that the storms would go over us and our neighbors. When the sounds were gone, we went outside. The storms had completely avoided us. They had done no damage to our property or to our neighborhood. We went out the front door and noticed that the other neighbors had come outside too. Just then, my son drove into our cul-de-sac (we are not on a cul-de-sac in real life).

Younger son: "Mom, those were three F5 tornados! I can't believe nothing hit here. Capital City is leveled. Oh yes… Jeff is fine too!"

We could see massive amounts of debris in the distance. The sirens were sounding off everywhere. The school buses then arrived with the children and we were astonished that they were untouched. It was truly a miracle. I went over to a neighbor of mine…

Me: "Have you ever seen storms like these here?"

Neighbor: "No, ma'am. These weren't normal. That is why there were no warnings. In all of my years, I have never seen anything like it."

I then heard a woman screaming. We all turned towards her to see what she was shouting about.

Woman: Yelling. "They have turned back around! They are coming back!"

The three massive tornados were coming back towards us. Right there, we dropped to our knees on the front lawn and prayed for them to dissolve, all in Jesus' Mighty Name. All three of the tornados instantly disappeared as soon as we finished praying.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Sub-dream 2 "A Beautiful Banquet for the Workers" begins…

I was preparing for a banquet and was the lead worker (or so I thought). There were two areas of focus… the reception/check in and the banquet hall. The banquet hall looked like it had been an addition to a very large church complex. I had several workers under me that I appeared to be in charge of. It was very intense because I somehow knew that everything had to be perfect.

I first focused on the banquet hall. All of the banquet tables were set up with white table linens. This was made even more spectacular when a beautiful blue and gold damask-patterned brocade-like fabric was placed over these white linen tables. I then moved to the reception area.

The reception area was more complicated. There were ten 8' rectangular tables. I had them set up to the right of the reception hall entry in one long line. This formed an 80-foot table.

White linen cloths then went over each table. We then placed ten separate 10' runners over the white linen cloths. The runners were navy blue in a brocade-like pattern. When these were all neatly tucked in between the tables, they appeared as one long runner, as did the linens underneath them.

I then noticed that the florals were just now being delivered. This was not good as some of the guests were already arriving early. In order to avert disaster, I had the workers close the front foyer doors until the Appointed Time that would take place after receiving approval from the Host.

I then went over to the florals. They were incredible and unlike anything I had ever seen. Each arrangement was labelled and coincided to the guests at each table and were native florals to each of their respective regions. This would simply be impossible to do in the natural without an unlimited budget and so much research.

Each floral arrangement consisted of a very large crystal fishbowl in the center of the table. The native florals were then expertly arranged in each crystal bowl. The crystal bowls were then somehow illuminated so that each center was highlighted. Oddly, the place cards had no names on it or they were very faint ones engraved so lightly that I could not see them. I pulled aside one of the workers to enquire why this was…

Me: "Do you know why there are no guest names on these place cards?"

Worker: "The Host said that those who come through the doors are those who are invited and are to come to the Reception. Once the doors are closed at the Appointed Time, the names will then be here. Even those who have names barely legible right now will then be etched on these cards permanently in gold. This is the Host's Way."

Me: "Cool! That will be perfect. Carry on."

In the reception area, there was a guest book on a guest book table, along with an attendant. Each guest was to arrive with their invitation once it was matched to the list. Their names were then illuminated in the guest book. I then suddenly realized that there were no gifts for the guests. I was panicking! I went over to the attendant.

Me: "Where are the Gifts? I can't find them."

Worker: "The Host has the Gifts with Him. He told me this should calm you."

The Host was correct. I was relieved. I then went and checked the wine. After this, I checked the hors d'oeuvres in the reception hall.

Me: "Wait! The musicians! Where are the musicians?"

Worker: "They are setting up. Don't worry. They are all here on stringed instruments."

The entire area had completely changed and transformed. I was still nervous though. I walked around looking for what could still be lacking…

- Guest book area – CHECK!
- Florals – CHECK!
- Wine – CHECK!
- Hors d'oeuvres – CHECK!

Hmm, I just knew there was something missing. It then hit me…

Me: "Candles! Where are the candles?"

Worker: "The guests are the candles (flames)."

Me: "Yes, but can we still add some symbolic candles to the reception table?"

The workers whistled to each other. Instantly, candles were up and down the full length of the 80' table. I clapped with joy.

Me: "It is beautiful! Wonderful! Now we wait for the Host to open the doors."

Worker: "Erin, you aren't dressed."

Me: "I am just a worker."

Worker: "You are on the list. You are also a guest and hostess."

Me: Panicking yet again. "I have not planned for this. I have nothing to wear."

Worker: "You do over there."

There was a door labelled 'Janitor's Closet'. I turned back to the worker thinking it was some sort of joke. He was gone. I walked to the closet and opened it up. It was a beautiful changing room. It was elaborate and totally unnecessary for a church. Even though I could now barely see through my tears of gratitude, right there was a beautiful white gown with my name on it.

I began to cry. I had been so involved in the preparations that I never checked my invitation or looked to see if I even had one. I then saw my reflection briefly. A flash of light then woke me up.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, thank You for this dream!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am the Giver of Good Gifts. I sent more invitations out than those who will come on time. However, do not worry as you are here with Me."

Me: "When is this beautiful Banquet?"

Jesus: "It is coming soon. However, first comes three major events."

Me: "Oh, the storms in my first dream?"

Jesus: "Yes, but like nothing anyone has ever seen before. Understanding should be in the center of your prayer requests. To those who seek My wisdom, they shall receive it. This is why it is written 'let the reader understand' (Matthew 24:15, Mark 13:14)."

Me: "I am scared, Lord."

Jesus: "Do not be. Instead, search for what I am speaking of here. Many are the plans of the wicked. Pray these come to nothing. Remember… wisdom is proved right by her actions (Matthew 11:19b)."

Me: "Lord, is Babylon New York City (NYC) or Washington DC?"

Jesus: "When the towers fell (9/11), what was your understanding?"

Me: "That one of our founding fathers of our country dedicated the nation to you there (this was right at Ground Zero)."

Jesus: "The enemy seeks to destroy all of what is Mine. He longs to desecrate and take what he believes he is due. He uses confusion. Pray for understanding. Remember that the plots of the wicked are numerous. However, I am over all things. Rejoice, Erin, and do not worry. Your Host brings Gifts to the Reception and You are invited!"

My husband later found an interesting article pertaining to this:

From a letter by Sandy Killough Rogers to the editor of the Temple Daily Telegram on November 30, 2013 titled 'US was dedicated to God':

King Solomon of Israel sanctified his kingdom, the Temple, the people to God … establishing a covenant through prayer between the God of Israel and the people of Israel that they would keep God's statutes and commandments (1 King 3:14). When the nation of Israel broke this covenant … judgment came and God took the Kingdom away from King Solomon. (1 King 11:13).

George Washington in his first inauguration address stated, "The propitious smile of Heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which Heaven itself hath ordained." The people, Senate and Representatives gathered with George Washington at St. Paul Chapel to bow and pray together … dedicating the United States to God and establishing between the God of Israel and the people of America that they would keep God's statutes and commandments.

George Washington sanctified — set apart for holy use … the people of America … establishing a covenant through prayer between God and America at Federal Hall in New York City. The covenant made on April 30, 1789, was made in the area that is now called Ground Zero.

St. Paul's Chapel where George Washington prayed to God… was protected on 9/11 by the sycamore fig tree that was destroyed by debris … later replaced with a cedar tree. Our nation's leaders vowed that "We will rebuild" and in stating this we ultimately removed God from this nation (Isaiah 9:10-11). Two nations broke a covenant between God and its people… judgment came… one was Israel… the other is America.

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-876/

876 – The Hunters will become the Hunted

Received on Sunday, January 5, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here!

Lord, please help me with something I found from a pastor who had gone to ChatGPT about 'the enemy's playbook'. The first nine of these were from ChatGPT and I then added 10 through 12. This list is as follows:

1. Put doubt and fear in their minds.
2. Have them focus on instant gratification.
3. Surround them with negative influencers.
4. Make sure they remain comfortable.
5. Have them plan and schedule everything and then use procrastination as a weapon.
6. Erode their confidence.
7. Make their focus on external things, not internal things.
8. Encourage their poor habits.
9. Remove their sense of urgency.
10. Grow resentment, coveting, envy, jealousy and anger.
11. Build a wall against God.
12. Believe lies as truth.

It would then make sense that the opposite of the above list would be part of 'God's Playbook for His Children'. The following was as written by me and I sincerely felt there was a larger purpose for doing so:

1. Be confident and brave in the Lord.
2. Focus on long-term healthy gratification, joy and peace.
3. Surround yourself with positive and encouraging Godly influencers in your life, along with givers of the Good News.

4. Strive to do God's Will even when it is uncomfortable and takes extra effort.
5. Don't dwell on the mistakes of yesterday. Remember that God has tomorrow and His plans are perfect. Embrace today and live. It is a gift, which is why it is called 'the present'. Be present with God and give your days to Him.
6. Remain confident as a child of God in who He is in you. Let God turn and see His image in you and for Him to be glad and proud of you as a Father.
7. Search inside yourself daily to remove any iniquity in your heart that would keep you from grace (Isaiah 59:2, Hebrews 12:15, Ezekiel 28:15, Psalm 66:17, Psalm 51:6).
8. Engage in good habits daily for your mind, soul, strength and spirit. The most important daily habit should be at least one Scripture, but even better a full chapter, of God's Word.
9. We do not know the lateness of the hour with precision. This means not putting off doing good. 1 Corinthians 9:24: Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Remain diligent and steadfast. Be earnest in seeking Jesus!
10. Check your fruits of the spirit and operate in the positive ones daily. These confound the enemy. Galatians 5:22-23: Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. These are the counterbalances to the bad fruits the enemy offers us.
11. Be honest with God and pour out to Him in truth. He wants our whole heart, not just a ration. He wants you to have a close relationship with Him. Since He already knows all that is contained in the heart of man, do not hold back truth just because you think God can't handle imperfections. If you are angry at Him, then tell Him and be truthful. Truth and a contrite pliable heart tears down the wall between God, the Father, and His children. While King David made many mistakes, he then knew he needed to repent before God with all of his heart.
12. Remain in God's Word and reflect on His character. He will speak to us. His Word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Psalm 119:105).

Father, You showed me something recently. In fact, it was a continuous vision I had last night that I thought was an actual warning about plumbing in our house…

Sub-dream / vision 1 "The Joy of Pure Running Water" begins…

I turned on the kitchen faucet and filled a watering can and watered my houseplants. I then returned to the faucet and washed my hands clean. I later returned to fill a pot to boil water to cook noodles. At the end of the evening, I then filled up our dog's bowl with water and gave myself a glass to drink.

Water flowed freely through that faucet and there were many different uses for this daily life-giving gift from God. It hydrates, cleans and is used for cooking. It is necessary for life. It has been very cold here lately (several degrees below freezing). When I get up at night, I always pray that our faucet is working and our water remains fully flowing. I thank God when it then still turns on.

Jesus: "My fountains are in you. Keep them flowing."

Sub-dream / vision 1 over.

I got up and checked my taps. They were flowing. I went back to bed and was so thankful to the Lord. I am grateful to still be here. Wherever You take me, Lord, I will follow. I then drifted asleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Hunters will become the Hunted" begins…

In my dream, I was sitting in my devotional chair. I looked outside and witnessed a Coopers Hawk in pursuit of a young dove that had been camping in my feeder tray. I saw them fly into the trees, the hawk following close behind the dove. This made me sad because the hawk was easily three times the size of the young dove. They soon disappeared in the trees.

I stood up to look and I was shocked at what I was now witnessing. The Cooper's hawk suddenly turned around in the opposite direction followed swiftly by the young dove! This small dove was now hunting down the hawk and pursuing it. I watched it fly high and then divebomb the hawk. The hawk was ducking and spinning until he finally fell to the ground and landed on its back. A flock of mourning doves then descended on the hawk. They then removed his feathers.

The brave hawk was now the prey. The hunter had become the hunted. I woke up suddenly to a crow's caw.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Father, what was this all about?"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. The young dove represents innocence, peace and the promise of new beginnings. A predator then attacked the dove and it took flight into the wilderness. However, what came next for the dove was a change in the normal order…

"The dove was transformed and rose up to attack the predator… the hawk. Normally, these predators operate in full confidence and have no fear. However, the hawk was in such a stunned array that it succumbed to the dove's counterattack. Even the crows commented on this turnabout.

"Erin, you have been concerned about a strong force that has invaded the nations, a religion and movement of great deception (the followers of the Black Dragon). Their leaders are unafraid of authorities or law. In contrast and in great fear, many governments have now surrendered to their authority. Their presence brings such fear and threats that no one dares to fight them.

"Well, Erin, I am raising up a people who will terrify the invaders and they will flee. They will exact revenge and proclaim all of the world for their god, but they are not expecting doves or Me. This dream was a good one!

"Oh yes… I like your lists (from the very beginning of this dream). This can be a dove and sparrow assignment. Trust in Me daily. Give each day to Me in all you do. Surrender your days to Me and I will give you the desires of your heart."

Me: "I will, Lord. I am sorry for building any heart barriers to keep You out. I want more of You, not less. I will sit in the feeding tray."

Jesus: "I suggest leaving this for the birds. This would also be very cold for you out there. Instead, make My Word, My Truth, your daily feeding tray. Through this, My Spirit will feed you with Living Words. You will also receive a Double Portion. You will be changed in every way.

"Now, focus on Me, not fear, and I will give you rest. Remember… I SEE! Erin, I see it all and this does not end well for the majority of them.

Hearts of stone do not do well. They can't be shaped by My hands, only crushed. Erin, continue praying.

"Now, have your friends help you expand your list ('God's Playbook for His Children'). There is more. I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-877/

877 – Zoey may be in her last days

Received on Wednesday, January 8, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You have done for us. Thank You for our family, friends and furry companions.

I have had a difficult time for the last few days. Our little dog, Zoey, is reaching her Homegoing day. She has followed me everywhere these last few days. She has very little interest in her treats or food. When she drinks water, she becomes sick. I woke up last night and again early this morning to quite a mess. We started her back on antibiotics hoping that she could ride out these infections that never seem to end.

This morning though, she looked at me as if to say, 'Mom, I'm ready now. My time is finished here. I love you. Jesus is calling me.' She looked right at me and I knew her thoughts. I just haven't been ready. While we have had a great last few weeks, it seems that we have seen a true downturn over the last few days. I took her outside for a very short walk.

Zoey was excited despite a very cold windchill outside. She would have stayed outside longer, but I had to go inside. I couldn't take the frigid temperatures. Oh Lord, I have prayed for more time with her. Father, You answered my prayers for her to stay for Christmas and to see the New Year. But now…

While we speak life over her, my husband pointed out a Word You gave me a long time ago… while the blacksmith (the enemy) uses the fiery furnace to afflict us, the Potter (Jesus) also uses the fiery furnace to bring luster and strengthen us so we are of use.

I now know that it is time to say goodbye to my best furry friend here. Of all the pets I have had over the years, this little dog was with me through it all…

- She was there at my second NDE.
- She was there during my illnesses.

- She was there during my injuries.
- She was there when I had my surgeries.
- She was with me during my recoveries.
- She lay next to me as I wrote down my dreams in my journal.
- She was next to me when I was on my knees petitioning to You for my children.
- She was next to me during my visions.
- She kept me company all of the days I was alone.
- She kept watch over our house.

My children grew up with her and we had fantastic adventures. This morning, I cried and cried and cried. I asked for healing again. I asked for more time. I pleaded.

Me: "Father, I didn't make it home to Bend OR with her. She loves it there. I thought You said…"

I couldn't finish my sentence. I reached down and hugged Zoey. I then proceeded to go to my devotional chair. As I walked to my chair, I heard You talk to me…

Jesus: "My promises are true, Erin. Just because her days here are ending, her days in eternity, beginning even on the New Earth, have only just begun. There she will run free and not be harmed. You will even be closer to her than you are now. She will map out your property and inspect every area. When you arrive there later, she will greet you and take you for a walk.

"I know this is a painful moment in your life. You have prepared for this day. When it arrives, you will know. Remember… I love Zoey and created her for you specifically. You and Amber had her when things were the darkest. Zoey brought you laughter and joy. She gave you some great stories too. She will always be with you."

Me: "Lord, are these pets an order of Heavenly beings? It seems like it."

Jesus: "This is a mystery. However, you are wise to remember that, what you care about, so too do I."

Just then, I looked over at a small photo canvas of Jesus walking with a child while holding their hand. This image was taken from behind. In an instant, I had a vision.

Sub-dream / vision 1 "Jesus walking with Zoey" begins…

I saw Zoey walking next to Jesus. They appeared to be talking. The vision then disappeared.

Sub-dream / vision 1 over…

Me: Crying. "Lord, strengthen me and help me to know when it is time so I can prepare my children."

I sat for a while. My thoughts raced as I recalled Zoey throughout the years. She has been a happy, joyful dog. Thank You, Father, for creating Zoey. What an amazing gift You gave us. In dog years, she is 112 (16 years old x 7). She was born on a Sunday. She is just now entering her 17th year of life.

I had a dream last night.

Sub-dream 2 "Four Women wish to release the Kraken" begins…

I was hosting a dinner for four women. They were all very wealthy. They seemed to be hybrid composites of past clients or people I had come into contact with at some point in my life. I was surprised as they showed up more than an hour early and I was still cooking. They were more excited to see each other than to see me. I felt more like the hired help than a hostess in my home.

Three of the women were polite and content with waiting for the hors d'oeuvres. However, the fourth woman barely acknowledged my presence in my own home. She was extremely wealthy and beyond anyone who would associate with me. Before continuing to work on the dinner, I brought out a beautiful, silver platter with hors d'oeuvres on it.

Me: "Dinner should be served in about ten minutes. In the meantime, here are some hors d'oeuvres for you to enjoy while you are waiting."

Each of the first three women took some hors d'oeuvres. When I went over to serve the fourth woman, she turned away from me. Just a few minutes later, I caught her eating directly from my refrigerator.

Me: "Uh, excuse me, but why are you eating from my refrigerator when I have made food for you. It will be ready in just a few minutes."

Fourth woman: "Well, dear, you have kept us waiting here for dinner and I am now famished."

Me: "My apologies, but you were early."

Fourth woman: "Do you not even know that guests always arrive at the proper time? Quite simply, it is not our fault. It is the proper hostess's job to anticipate and adjust accordingly."

I could hear the other three women murmuring in hushed whispers to each other.

One of the three other women: "I, for one, had scheduled to come at the appointed time…" She was now addressing the fourth woman. "…but she told us to come early because she thought it would be amusing to see you flustered as a result."

The fourth woman did not deny it. She even looked pleased with herself.

Me: "Well, I put out my best China and prepared my table, but clearly you are not interested in what I have to serve you and the length and expense it took to make a dinner fit for royalty. You clearly have no interest in me except to say horrible things about me. Either way, if I turn you away or you are seated at my table as an honored guest, you will still mock me. Please leave my house immediately. I will instead serve the food I have prepared for the hungry or those who are thankful and might enjoy what I have to offer."

I then proceeded to pick up and hand over the coats of the four women. I then opened the front door and directed them to leave. They got up and were in complete shock. As I ushered them out the door, they were all murmuring and cursing me.

Fourth woman: "You have no idea what you have just done!"

One of the three other women: "You…" There was a dramatic pause. "…have released the Kraken." She then pointed to the fourth woman.

Me: "I don't care for Krakens in my house."

I shoved them all out the door and slammed it. When the door slammed, I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, this was a humiliating dream. I am deeply troubled by so many things right now. Please give me peace. This dream seemed so real.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: "Lord, my heart hurts. This world has so much suffering in it. Life is painful here. Lord, could You please help me? I am in need of comfort. I know pets go Home every moment in the world, some tragically just like people. It is a difficult thing. If I am doing something wrong, maybe I lack faith, I don't know, please help me, Lord. Let Zoey crossover in complete peace and joy with freedom from her suffering."

Jesus: "Erin, do you remember when your heart stopped. When I called you, you felt peace when you returned. You felt pain. I love you. What breaks your heart also breaks Mine. You have an important chapter coming into your lives. I am gathering those I plan to carry with Me to the place I have prepared. You will help me, Erin. All those I have prepared, along with the angels, will be gathering. Do you remember what you said to your (younger) son recently?"

Me: "Yes. I told him that a new home isn't as shocking to transition to when you bring some of your furnishings and memories with you."

Jesus: "Well, Erin, where you are has memories from years ago. Some things you will carry with you again. Some things you will leave behind. However, the best things in this life will go with you to the place I have prepared for you."

Me: "But, Lord, we take nothing with us when we go Home. No suitcases. Not even any clothing."

Jesus: "Yes, but what have I shown you in My Home? I showed you things that were made from the hands of those who love Me. These were special to their story and were their Gifts for the King. Erin, remember that, if I am the Builder and Architect who builds your Home, then isn't it My job to design and build it for the one who dwells there?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Then trust Me to complete a Good Work. Your dogs and other animals will be there to greet you. Do not worry."

Me: "I love You, Lord."

Jesus: "I love you too, Erin. I am with you in all things. I will take your burdens and give you rest. I have Zoey. She is Mine. I have you, your husband, your children, your family, your friends and their children and animals. Those whose hope is in Me I will save, understand? Rejoice, Erin, as I am here and I am with you."

Note: I ask that the Nest please pray for me now. While I know Jesus has my little Zoey no matter how this plays out, I am still having a really difficult time preparing myself for a possibly soon goodbye. I just love her so much. I thank you all in advance for your prayers! These always help so very much!

Dream over.

878 – A Loving Goodbye (for now) to our Precious Zoey

Received on Saturday, January 11, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family, my friends and our furry companions. Thank You for the love and care You give, Father. You love us in such a beautiful and deep way that there are no words to adequately describe the measure. You are compassionate and full of grace. God, I now need Your grace in My grief.

Through the years, I have experienced loss. I have lost my parents, relatives, dear friends and animals. It is always bittersweet. The sting of death and the finality of it echoes here. No matter how much we can prepare for the end of the life of someone close to us, there is no predictable way of coping before, during or after the passing.

Grief comes like a sneaker wave off the ocean. It hits suddenly and by surprise and there is no control over the effects. The effects could be short and last only a few minutes or they could last much longer. However, this comes in waves just like the ocean. I have lost many friends and family. Their deaths have made a deep impact on how I live life. The loss of a loved one is a grand ticket of deep self-reflection.

So, how do I continue to live on now that I no longer have this soul here to do life with? Each passing has shaped my spiritual journey. I thought that the loss of my parents was painful or my grandma and grandfather. The loss of various pets over the years has shaken me. However, the pain was not as deep as it could have been and I then went on with my living. In some ways, I then bounced back with relative ease.

However, nothing could have prepared my heart for the passing of Zoey. See, my parents passing hurt. I loved them. While I was closer to my mom, I dreaded conversations with her. Every talk settled back to all of my shortcomings. Individual choices I made to put God first, then my children, then other things, I could hear this in my mom’s voice…

- "You had so much potential, but…"
- "If only you…"
- Or when I was actually achieving my potential: "Well, yes, but you don't have this or that. It is therefore not something special, really…"
- When I would report to my mom I made the Dean's List: "Well, great, but your schedule was pretty easy…"

As a result, a phone call with my mother was one in which I was kept prisoner by mistakes I made in the past. She held my feet to the fire on things I said or did when I was seven or eight years old. It was a conditional love relationship.

I loved my mom and longed for her stamp of approval. I waited for something that never came. However, this all changed in the summer of 2015 when she phoned me (in hindsight, she phoned me with an urgency in her voice)…

Mom: "Any chance you could come out for a quick visit?"

Me: "Mom, is everything okay?"

Mom: "Yes. I saw my doctor today. While I was told I have at least another year, could you come now?"

Me: "I don't know. We are tight right now and I am not sure I should be gone too long."

Mom: "I understand. Look, I just want you to know something. I am sorry."

Me: "For what?"

Mom: "Everything. I am sorry. I lied (really, gaslighted) you for years. I know it made you have doubts on what you remember and what I told you. The truth is just too painful. Events and losses are painful, but we must move forward. I moved all of you forward at my pace. Your memories were true. I am sorry for everything I did."

Me: "Mom, I forgave you a long time ago. Please, it doesn't matter. I have worked through it. You did what you thought would be best."

Mom: "I am sorry."

Me: "I accept your apology, but don't even think about this anymore."

I could tell that her husband had just gotten back. I knew that my mom would be uncomfortable talking about this in front of him. I changed the subject.

Me: "Mom, I love you."

Mom: "Talk to you soon. I love you too."

She passed away a few weeks after this. With mom, I dreaded our conversations. I didn't look forward to phone calls or visits. When she left, it took a long time to heal. All of those years were spent with a 'duck and cover-type of love'. It hurt. I now cling to good memories and the lessons she taught me. I remember recipes she made. I remember her laughter and so many other things.

Then there is our Zoey. Back to my precious Zoey. I have never felt the unconditional love of Jesus here in this realm like this of my little dog. Yes, I do receive this from my children and of course my husband too, but there was something unique about 'Z'. With Zoey, I had nothing to prove, no achievement to meet and no future goal she expected.

All she lived for was to be with me, near me, love me, comfort me and watch over my routine, my goings in a room and my exits. She was alert, ready and watching. She knew how to mobilize based on our schedule. Any foreigner, human or animal, in our yard, she would alert us. Every single day for almost 16 years, she greeted me with such love and affection…

Zoey was born on December 21, 2008, a Sunday. We first met Zoey when we picked her out at the breeder's house (on Saturday, January 10, 2009). We brought Zoey into our home in February 2009 near Valentine's Day. Zoey was my loving shadow until the evening of Thursday, January 9, 2025.

I estimate that she was my constant companion for 5,800 days. I left off for a brief few days here and there when I had to leave on a medical trip. Even when my children had to leave for vacation days, she always remained with me. The following is what a typical day with Zoey looked like even up to a few days ago…

I would hear her barking downstairs. During these last few weeks, I would hear her and say, 'Thank You, Father, that Zoey lives another day.' After this, I would wake up. I would normally then leave my bedroom to walk to my devotional area to drop off my tablet. I would not turn my head towards her until I set it down. I would then walk to the stairs leading to the kitchen. When I turned the corner of the stairs, I would see her as she waited for me on high alert.

I would greet her, pet her and my voice would make her so happy and excited. I would then turn on lights as she followed me everywhere. I would then give her a treat and change her water. When I then went to feed the birds, she was right there as I scooped the seed into a tray. She would keep nudging my hand to give her attention first. She then insisted on a peanut or two or three.

I would then give Snigglet and Zoey one of their favorite treats… a peanut butter bacon treat. This treat was only served in the seed preparation area. Zoey would then drop her treat to watch me go outside to feed the birds and squirrels. She would then greet me again at the front door before going back to eat her treat. On occasion, Snigglet would steal this treat from her after Zoey abandoned it.

Zoey would then hang out with me during all of my other daily routines, like preparing supper and preparing an ice water for bed and going up the stairs. She would wait at the base and watch me until she knew I was safe and then she would turn away and go to her bed. My routine with Zoey would then begin again the next morning… until… Well, this quiet home hurts now that she is gone. I look for her and expect her, but she is not here…

She is not studying my making of dinner or following my husband to the barbeque at supper time. She is not at the window waiting for me or at the front door when I come and go. She is not barking at the snowplow in the middle of the night. She is not lying beside me to watch a show. She is not jumping up high in the air at the sight of her leash to go outside.

But more than all of this, her favorite day was Sunday Family Rest Day. This was a day for her when all of her 'humans' were accounted for. Tomorrow will be our first Sunday without her 'making her rounds to make sure all is well'.

I have never been loved like this in my whole life. Even when Zoey was in great pain, she would still light up with a grin when she looked at my face. She was just so happy to see us every day. My husband was the only one she would allow to pick her up – she loved being at our level face to face with us.

Then there was treat time. I would play with her every day for puppy play time. I would try to 'steal' her treat and she would bark and growl in an animated (but always friendly) way to get it back. When she got sick of playtime, she would grab the treat and 'hide out' where I could not get to her. This was done daily and even on her last day. She was and always will be a puppy at heart.

I just can't adequately describe the profound effect this dog has had on my life. The whole house, really. My kids, my husband… all of us. However, I was the one who spent the most time with her. Other than my children when they were young, I can't think of anyone else who spent as much time with her as I did.

Well, You, Father, spent more time with her. Of course, You. You are here with us in every moment of every day. Your Spirit and Voice is in me. As You know, Lord, I have been careful not to worship Zoey as I know that dogs were created by You to serve man, not necessarily man to serve dogs (unless, of course, it is your job, like a vet).

It was a time in our lives where we were in need of a companion and a distraction. We needed laughter, love and joy and then You sent Zoey. 2008 was a heartbreaking year for me. My heart stopped. I ended up in a medical bankruptcy. It was the last time I ever spoke to my dad after he told us to look for a home for me and the kids.

My recovery was slow. The kid's grandpa died. My younger son was forced to go to the school for troubled youths dealing with trauma without his brother. This was because his older brother left in the summer before and was never returned by their dad. This was only possible because the County had botched our case and reassigned all of my children's case workers to other counties.

Then on a visit right before Thanksgiving, my younger son was taken over state lines and not returned at the appointed time. It was the biggest legal injustice and I had no help. The police could not help us without a major legal battle and money I no longer had. It was heartbreaking.

It was now just me and my daughter. I hadn't recovered well from my heart procedure, but I had to stay happy and strong for my daughter so I could eventually have my sons. Here I worked so hard to provide a good home, safe and peaceful with activities and laughter. It never occurred to me that anything like this could happen, especially as a Christian. I had thought I had done everything right.

Anyway, a New Year had begun and it was now January 2009 in Bend OR. I was looking in the classifieds of the newspaper when I saw a photo of a group of Pomchi puppies. The caption read 'Adopt One for $195'. I had just received a birthday gift from my mom and I had some money set aside from selling a set of tires. By a miracle, I had enough money at a time that I shouldn't have.

Me: Showing my daughter the picture of the Pomchi puppies. "So, which one?"

My daughter: She was so excited. "Mom, the dark fur one stands out."

Me: "The one in the middle? Yes, I agree."

I phoned the number immediately and told the breeder the one we had picked out.

Breeder: "Okay, but I can only hold her for two hours. I am only doing this for you because of your long driving time to get here. However, you must come today."

My daughter and I quickly fixed ourselves up and headed for Prineville OR. When we arrived, Zoey and my daughter formed an immediate mutual connection. She then continued to visit Zoey until I gave the required payment to the breeder.

Me: "Thank you so much for holding her for us."

Breeder: "No problem. However, she won't be ready for pickup until the first week in February as she is still only three weeks old. You can pick her up around Valentine's Day as she will then have had her second vet visit."

We were both so excited. She was adorable. We had a new focus and it brought us joy to anticipate her soon arrival. We prayed and prepared.

Breeder: "Oh yes… I should let you know that we have received at least fifteen calls specially asking for the puppy you both chose."

We felt honored that God had sent her to us. My daughter kept telling her friends that God heard our prayers and sent us help with a new puppy. We decided to call her Zoey as 'Zoey' means 'life'. She would bring us new life after so much sorrow.

We later picked Zoey up one night in February 2009 during a rainstorm. The breeder happened to be in Bend OR delivering a different Pomchi and we agreed to meet her for an impromptu intown delivery of Zoey. After we picked Zoey up, we never looked back. Everyday was a new adventure with our wonderful companion.

Thank You, Father, from the depths of my heart for sending us this little warrior of a dog. She was so kind and loving and still is this way now that she is with You. She was so smiley and loyal. She brought us so much laughter and smiles every single day.

Lord, please help us here. I need You more than ever. We need a rescue because all of us are broken. I know that I will soon be able to write about her final day and the adventures we took her on, but I just can't right now. My heart is still too sick.

We are all home today and feel such heartache. Memories come in waves and bring us to tears. My daughter has had Zoey for 16 of her 23 years and she is struggling. My son broke down quite a bit last night and the night before. My husband has been quiet.

I was up again this morning before dawn. I got up and sat where her bed used to be. I felt so empty. I then heard You say, 'Erin, come to Me.' I got up and prayed on my devotional chair. I then sat in my chair and wept. The whole house was still asleep. I tried to be comforted by Scripture, but I felt only sorrow.

Me: "Father, help me! Lord, please help me!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I will never leave you."

Me: "Lord, my heart hurts so much. If only I could have You hold me. I just feel so lonely."

Jesus: "I have sent you signs that I am in this. Did you see them?"

Me: "Yes. I got up yesterday morning at 4:41am. I went downstairs and sat down on the dining room floor right where her bed by the window was. There was no sound, no wind, no breathing from Zoey or other Zoey sounds. There was nothing. I stayed there for a while. I had the beginnings of a dream, but woke up. It then came back to me last night, but I am not ready to write it. I am still too crushed.

"I then tried to go back to bed, but instead I told my son I would drive him to work because his car was in the shop. When we were approaching his work, the song 'Almost Home' by MercyMe began to play. Neither of us said anything, but I could tell it was getting to us both. A car in front of me had a sticker that said, 'I love my Chihuahua'. I laughed since Zoey was half Chi.

"The radio host then said, 'Someone needed to hear this song this morning as they are in pain and suffering. Just remember that sometimes it takes the breaking to find the blessings. Hold on to God, stay open to Him and trust Him in faith. Remember that God is working on something really amazing with you because that is who He is!'

"After I dropped my son off, I drove home. I arrived home to no Zoey greeting me. However, Snigglet came up after she heard me. I gave her a treat and fresh water. She followed me to the seed closet, but this time refused the bacon treat. She just stared at it. When I picked up the seed tray to go outside, she decided to take the treat and follow me. When I feed the birds, I always wave back to Zoey in the window. Out of habit, I did this again, but she was gone."

Jesus: "I know, but I have given you a dream the last two nights that you have not written down yet."

Me: "Yes, Lord. I will bring myself to write this down now…

Sub-dream 1 "Following Zoey to the Bridge" begins…

I woke up at night to the sounds of Zoey barking downstairs. She doesn't stop, so I come down only to see the front door open. I can tell that dawn is just breaking. I see her at the side of our driveway completely young and healthy. She barks at me to come and follow her. I know that she is going to the bridge. Before she gets to the bridge, I force myself to wake up, or You allow this, as I am just not ready for this yet.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Me: "Oh Lord, I am still not ready for this dream. It is too hard. I am sorry. I still feel her near, but I don't know. It is hard to let go of more after letting go of so much."

Jesus: "This is why there were very few with Me at the foot of the Cross. All the rest had left. No one could bear it."

Me: "Lord, what happened to You is unbearable. I am sorry for being such a child here. I find myself grieving my dog more than my parents."

Jesus: "Erin, I know you are in pain. I know you are mad at Me for answering many of your prayers, but not the one for Zoey's healing. I love her too, Erin. I made her for you. Through her, you learned about the power of unconditional love and selfless service. Through her as a constant in your life, you saw Me daily.

"Zoey was a vessel in which you were instructed to persevere. Every day, morning and evening, you were greeted with the love of a faithful enduring friend. No matter what the world threw at you, she was always there."

Me: "What about now though? Lord, what do I do now?"

Jesus: "Erin, you press into Me for greater service. Because of Zoey, your family became closer. Your son has engaged again with Me and he has engaged with your daughter. Anger and resentment fled. Instead, humility and grief emptied you so I could fill you. Zoey is with Me. She is My dog that I loaned out to you."

Me: "Yes, Lord, You are right. I have seen other miracles too. Thank You."

Jesus: "I promise you that Zoey will be with you again. Next time though, she will speak and you will listen, okay? She will take you for a walk. Don't worry. Honor her life by living. Her name is Zoey after all. I promise you that you will see her soon and you and your family's joy, even Snigglet's joy, will be complete. Soon, Erin."

Me: "Please, Lord, do not leave us with no Zoey right now. Please help us to get through this."

Jesus: "I will. I promise you. I sent her. I will not delay in doing good. Your day is coming."

Me: "Lord, am I in sin if I grieve Zoey even more than I grieved my parents?"

Jesus: "No. One day even this will be reconciled. I did what was best for you right now even though you don't see it yet. I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-879/

879 – The Enemy's Plans for Great Destruction

Received on Monday, January 13, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and affection. Thank You for looking after my children in their deep grief. My daughter is not doing well. Please help.

The house is so still and quiet now. It is shocking. This morning, our kids left for their jobs early and I could hear our little dog, Snigglet, bark loud with a sudden inner deep 'Big Dog Bark' that I have never heard from her before. Light snowflakes are dropping outside.

Last night, I woke up at around 2:00am. Our room was so bright. I looked out our window and the moon overhead was full and so bright. The whole area was lit up and the shadows of the trees fell on the white snow. I soon fell back into a very deep sleep. It has been a while.

Lord, I had three separate and very vivid dreams from You last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Executive Orders & Pardons for China" begins…

News reporter/TV anchor: "This is breaking news. We have just learned that various Executive Orders and Official Pardons have just been given by the current President on his way out. He is pardoning China and its President of all liability from Covid, as well as future pandemics. He also signed an Order handing over the Panama Canal and Cuba to Xi, as well as the Gulf of Mexico. The Gulf of Mexico will now be renamed The Sovereign Gulf of China. There is also a pardon for any association with drug trafficking and death of American citizens.

"An Order has also been signed that allows China reparations in the form of land acquisitions, business acquisitions and control over power grids and water treatment facilities. They have also agreed to update and govern all the nation's shipping docks and transportation. There are other Orders from the President as well. There is also a pardon to China and all agents acting on behalf of China in the United States responsible for deaths or property damages due to fire, floods and/or other events."

Second TV anchor: "Wait! Do you mean to tell the public that China is guilty of these things? This is stunning. I believe we are witnessing the destruction of America by a foreign adversary in real time. Our President has given China the keys to the USA's destruction. It is a horrible takeover."

First TV anchor: "Wait! There is more! An Order has just been signed for the United States of America to now be the United States of China."

Both anchors then began to weep.

First TV anchor: Choking back tears. "When is the new President sworn in?"

Second TV anchor: Quietly sobbing. "Three days. There is still too much time to counter this!"

First TV anchor: Staring deeply into the camera and in a firm voice. "Stay alive at 5 for more breaking news!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Group of workers ruthlessly mowed down" begins…

I saw a group of workers in a field. It was California. There were hundreds of rows of either spinach, kale or lettuce (I couldn't tell). The workers were cold and wearing zip up hoodies in dark grey. They were called to a lunch area for a break.

There was a job foreman on the back of a pickup truck gathering them up. I saw women, children and elderly there as well, but I could tell they were trying to hide their 'frailties' from the foreman.

Foreman: "Good job everyone. Stay alive until Wednesday."

As the workers turned to disperse, a tarp fell off of a machine gun on the back of the foreman's pickup truck. All of the workers, both young and old, were then shot in the back. They were ruthlessly mowed down. It was shocking.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Sub-dream 3 "My daughter receives a promotion" begins…

I was excited for my daughter as she had just received a promotion. She was then given a small office between two large offices in what looked like a home. In this dream though, she actually owned the space. The room had a red poppy printed on a natural linen chair, as well as on matching curtains. It had been prepared specifically for her.

Me: "This is pretty. Did you ask for this?"

Daughter: "No."

Me: I was in shock. "Weird. This is a pattern from when I first opened my shop almost thirty years ago. Fabric isn't made like this anymore. This is beautiful."

Daughter: "Mom, help me make it more mine."

Me: "Okay. Would you like me to hand paint poppies on the wall?"

Just then, there was a knock on the door. There was a floral arrangement with red poppies. It was stunning. There was a card with an envelope. We opened the envelope and read the card inside…

"Congratulations on your promotion!"

Just then, a man stopped by. We did not recognize him.

Man: "So, any changes yet?"

Daughter: "Just getting comfortable with the idea of change."

Man: "Oh, understandable. Change can be difficult even when it is a promo."

He gently slapped the side of the door casing three times. He then jingled his pocket change and jangled his keys at the same time. He then began to whistle as he walked out of the office. My daughter and I looked at each other and chuckled.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, this was a busy dream night! Please help!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Dreams provide warnings, instructions, self-reflection and good news. There are spies throughout the nation, also to the north, who have decided to destroy all of what the people have come to rely on. While the people argued over their government and the removal of one name from history, spies were sent throughout the nation.

"These were not just any spies. These are soldiers meant to destroy all things from within and watch it burn. They have the technology to govern all means of provision and enslave. They have horrible plans in place for destruction. Their leader has felt humiliated."

Me: "Will this actually occur, Lord?"

Jesus: "You have only to look at the evil leaders in power to understand their grip and planned destruction of My land and My people. I tell you the truth… this will not go well for those who delight in death and destruction. The old leader is angry and his army has systematically destroyed through lies and false reports on all things that God created for them. They have created a great war that many refuse to acknowledge is occurring now. It is a war of what is a false story… false testimony."

Me: "Propaganda?"

Jesus: "Yes. It is manipulation to change the thinking and norms of morality. It is the shaping of the country and its citizens by destroying them and any relationship with the things of God. Holiness is void. Righteousness is tarnished. This is why I have said… for a righteous man may fall seven times and rise again, but the wicked stumble in time of disaster and collapse. Calamity comes in a night, but relief comes in the morning."

Me: "Lord, so many who have died are yours in these fires, storms and floods. Please give comfort to those who have lost so much."

Jesus: "The land is still burning and will soon give way to rain and even this will not wash away the sins of the wicked. Troubles come to the good and the evil, but remember I see and promise that it is I who hears the cries of a grieving mother who has lost her son. It is I who carries her lamb Home. It is I who will turn and have compassion on those who cry out in earnest, those I hear and My mercy comes.

"However, to those who mock God and do so with cursing on their lips, then I give them over to their curses. As they have cursed the living God who saves, I will now hunt down each who is responsible and expose their nakedness. Erin, you will see it. I will continue to send calamity to the leader who has sold My land to foreigners. In his name will be destruction and ashes.

"But see, I have sent another who will rebuild My Church and proclaim My Name in praises to his lips and he will rededicate the land to Me. I will then have mercy and great will be My Harvest. However, to those responsible, they will hide in clefts of rocks in the wilderness until that day I remove the saints.

"Now, take heart today, take an inventory of your accounts, anything left that needs to be removed in your heart that is contrary to God. Remove all unholy thoughts that may occupy the thoughts in your mind. Remove it and pray for strength. Any forgiveness needed, boldly proclaim and ask Me the following…

"Lord, if there be anything else, any iniquity, remove it so I can be emptied before You!"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Now, pray. In your sorrow and grief… pray. These events have come with great speed and do not delay. So, therefore, I too, I will bring in My First Fruits from the Harvest in a record yield. The world has never seen before this day which comes. Rejoice, Erin!"

Me: "Lord, please have mercy."

Jesus: "Call into account the good who are there and I will relent. So, pray."

I was about to get up when the Lord called me back for a 'closing statement'…

Jesus: "Erin, I love you. I know this is difficult when you receive a message from Me that seems harsh. However, remember… I love you and you are Mine. My children are Mine. My lambs are Mine. I protect them and stay watch through the night from wolves who seek to devour them. Rejoice and take comfort. I am with you."

Dream over…

Previous Dream: http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-878/

Copyright© 2012-2030 SparrowCloud9; Erin Aleshire (All rights reserved, copies only allowed as per written permission)

© 2025 SparrowCloud9. All Rights Reserved.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-880/

880 – Rare Elements are now on the Table

Received on Thursday, January 16, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! I love You so. Thank You for my family and friends. My heart still feels so broken. I am trying. We went to prayer night together last night. It was good. I need You, Father, and more and more every day. The things of this world do not satisfy. Joy is fleeting here.

I had a clear dream from You last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Palladium & Iridium" begins…

I was preparing for a wedding. I personally had to drive to various businesses to sample the products or services we would be hiring for the venue. The venue had already been selected, but nothing else had. I noticed quickly that the quality of what I had seen was poor and the vendors did not strive for excellence.

A florist I had visited ordered all her floral arrangements online and everything focused on the carnation as the main flower. When I pointed out that we at least wanted roses, her response was less than conciliatory.

Florist: "Nobody uses roses anymore. Carnations are today's roses."

Me: "Well, I choose roses."

Florist: "Then you choose another florist. Look, no one is getting married. It is not fashionable. You will be back and you will settle on carnations."

Me: "Your attitude sucks. Do you even know how to arrange flowers?"

Florist: "I am a rocket scientist brokering FTD arrangements. This is nothing to me."

Note: I knew that she had actually been a rocket scientist.

I shook my head and left. I went to a few caterers and couldn't find anyone to serve meat for the dinner. They were all vegan. I then went to a wedding gift registry shop to see if they knew of any other sources. The shop was in an old home in the center of a neighborhood on a hill. It looked like the Portland ME area. I went to see what they were offering, but there was really nothing on the shelves.

Me: "Do you have anything?"

Woman: "We have thieves. We put nothing of value out."

Me: "Can I see what you have? We have an upcoming wedding."

Woman: "Okay. Come with me."

I followed her to a giant vault. Once there, I only saw some white pieces of China.

Me: "Do you have anything else?"

Woman: "We have some Wedgewood over here. We have the Wedgewood Palladium Pattern. Even though this pattern has now been discontinued, it is really ornate."

Me: "Why would anyone buy China now?"

Woman: "They buy white China with no pattern, only unique shapes. Palladium was the last pattern. Now come with me and I will show you another room."

She took me into an underground warehouse bunker.

Woman: "This is our consignment boneyard, our bone China yard."

I saw the most colorful plates and accessories serving pieces and other items.

Me: "Wow, this is incredible. It is like a museum. Why is it here?"

Woman: "No one needs it. There is no need for anything like this. Thieves steal it and they can't even find a buyer. Most owners have lost more than China, so it doesn't matter to them. Oh yes… I should let you know that your Palladium Futures are down."

Me: "What are you even talking about here? What is Palladium? Why are you talking about Palladium futures? Like… is it a commodity?"

Woman: Ignoring my question. "Look, there is a Palladium Silver Service over here. It is more valuable than silver. This way, if you need to pay your bills, you can trade a fork. Iridium is another valuable element, but only if you can find it. No one cares about plate patterns, only element combinations."

Me: "Elements? As in the Periodic Table? Is this what you are referring to?"

Woman: "You are finally understanding the atomic table! Even so, we don't have this here. Are you purchasing? If not, I have to get back to work."

She pulled me out of the room. I woke up as she sealed shut the door behind her.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, now I am wondering if all of the numbers on the forestry board (#2, #53, #27, #23, #7, #16 & #3) were elements on the Periodic Table? Iridium is Ir 77. Palladium is Pd 46. Iridium and Palladium are both extremely expensive. This was such a strange dream. Then there are the fires in California. It is so awful hearing these reports of the devastation and loss of lives. Please have mercy, Father.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I love you and I will carry you. You worry about many things, but don't. I delight in you. You are special to me. I hear your prayers and these are good. You are more valuable to me than any of the elements in the Periodic Table and I own and created them all. You are now in a difficult period of time. You see the writing on the wall and you understand what is written because I am in you. Many are the plans of man, but it is I who fashions them."

Me: "I am watching dreams and hopes for so many just disintegrate. It is just so heartbreaking."

Jesus: "All you see here will one day fade away. My Harvest begun 2,000 years ago, but the workers have been few."

Me: "I thought the Harvest was soon to come?"

Jesus: "Yes, with one last Great Revival of Hearts and My Saints to show the way Home. While you have many questions, I will unfold these in My Word. You will see it hidden in plain sight. This is why you are to pray and ask for wisdom."

Me: "A double portion please."

Jesus: "This is good. Now, I know you are grieving."

Me: "Yes. I had prayed for a certain home (in Bend OR) for over a year and it sold. With those fleeing California, the homes will be unaffordable out west. We will stay put until You open the door, Lord. I feel in my heart that everything is about to change."

Jesus: "I have prepared a place for you. You have already seen it. It is a place where I will walk amongst you. All those who lost or were robbed of joy will be delivered to their new Homes I have prepared for them. All will be made right. My recompense is with Me. Now, all of this is a mystery for now. However, you will understand why I did this very soon. I gave you these dreams of My Kingdom. Rejoice, Erin, for it is good."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-881/

881 – President Trump to Retake Office Tomorrow

Received on Sunday, January 19, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for holding us all. This place is a painful one. Please rise up and protect Your children. You are our Divine Shepherd and we are Your Lambs. Please do not leave us to these wolves. Protect us and keep us in all things. lease, Father, protect President Trump and his family. Protect all of those who celebrate Your appointed leaders.

For the last few weeks, I have been having lockouts of my tech. It is something simple and not a security breach. It is now just a waiting game for some of my trusted devices to be reset in a couple of days. What happened? Well, in my grieving for Zoey a week ago, I inadvertently entered some wrong passwords into my Apple accounts. As a safety feature, I was locked out of them.

Without fail and for all of these years, I have had the same codes and the same recovery information without any problems. It was just me in a moment when I did something outside of my normal sequence that triggered the safety pause. So, here I am… instead of technology being a part of my daily life right now, I have paused. I have instead filled my days with personal business.

My iPad had to be restored via a factory reset. I was then restricted because of my forgotten passwords. I am praying that my computer will be fully restored early this week. I know that nothing has been compromised and that this is just Your way of saying, 'More of Me and less of that!'

Lord, our technology surely competes for our attention. When Zoey would be near me and I was on a device, she would nudge it out of the way so my attention would remain focused on her and not my technology. This was good. However, it is just so exhausting to make an error that causes such a major series of necessary changes.

Father, please take over all of my technology, all my communication and all that is before me. Please let it glorify You even though it frustrates me.

Lord, I had three separate dreams from You last night. My first dream came at around 1:00 am last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Take Cover! Incoming!" begins…

I was at an arena. I was sitting in the crowd waiting for an appointed event to begin. Then all at once, all of our phones lit up with this…

"Take Cover! Incoming!"

I woke up suddenly to the loud sound of a crash through the ceiling of the arena.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up in such a way that it startled my husband. He was concerned for me as I was now having some trouble catching my breath. After settling down, I was so sleepy that I promptly went back to sleep for my second dream.

Sub-dream 2 "India attacks China" begins…

I was helping a family find window coverings for their home as they wanted more privacy from their nosy neighbors. I selected a grouping for them and they placed an order. I then left to walk home. I then noticed that most of the homes had no electricity. I then began to walk through the city to get to where I lived.

I noticed there were several Asian men meeting in an outdoor cafeteria area. Even though they were speaking in Mandarin, I could fully understand what they were saying. They were plotting the seizure of goods in Indian ports and holding them so the businesses operating through India would have no choice but to use Chinese goods instead.

I walked a little further and I could see a group of Indian government officials and businessmen plotting to remove the Chinese stronghold. They boasted that the people of India will overtake China. I then saw large silos of yellow thick ooze being poured out over the streets of this city and right onto my path. The sludge was saffron colored.

Indian man: Screaming out. "This is war!"

I then saw heavily armed military from India going after Chinese ships and planes. It all looked so real.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I then had my third dream of the night…

Sub-dream 3 "Ten Cities, Ten Days!" begins…

I was listening to a telecast on a transistor radio when it blurted out something incredibly shocking…

"Ten Cities, Ten Days! America will fall!"

Man: Yelling out to me as he was walking past me. "They have taken down the satellites. I can't believe you were able to listen to the radio. Stay tuned!" We then nodded to each other in agreement.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, it has been a difficult week of dreams. I have pressed into a period of quiet solitude. I am not sure what is ahead for us. This year so far has been difficult. Attacks have come from all different sides, yet You remain God. We are entering a period of uncertainty. We could use some good news. We love You and want more of You!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have not left you. A pause in the things of this world can be beneficial, although I know you have been stressed."

Me: "Yes. I told an Apple support person that I feel like resetting everything. She then replied that I can reset anything I wish, but the Apple account will still remain."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, it always starts with the apple!"

Me: "Lord, You are funny!"

Jesus: "Yes and no, Erin. It is easy to be convinced that these things grant you more information, knowledge and wisdom. However, they don't, like Eve with the apple. Eve only became aware that now there was a difference between good and evil and knowledge apart from God. Knowledge comes from Me.

"I created all of this and the tree that grew the forbidden fruit. When you partake in this apple, you are never satisfied. Your hunger is not complete. This is because the enemy increased its demands upon your time. There are infinite combinations and paths in which to draw you away from Me. Do not be fooled.

"Now, you have given all of this to Me and I will now take these burdens from you and make all of this beneficial for you. By the time all is restored, you will have a different focus and this is good. Remember that, if something has no logical root, then it is supernatural and allowed by Me."

Me: "Lord, did I abuse my technology?"

Jesus: "No. However, these 21 days in total are to be spent with Me and praying for revelation of My business. Now, I know you have been sent more disappointing news. However, I am here in the midst of you. I love you, Erin. Rejoice and pray."

Me: "Lord, is the USA about to be bombed?"

Jesus: "Many are the plans of the wicked against the righteous. However, I am God and My plans will not be thwarted."

When I later spoke to my husband about this dream, he mentioned a prayer he had written on our Nest Forum regarding President Trump, his family and his team. After reading the prayer, I decided it would be a good idea to include it here so that even more believers can be praying about the ongoing transition of the presidency.

Prayers for President Donald J Trump and his team!

We are in the final hours before the inauguration of Your Servant, President Trump…

The enemy has done everything in their power to stop him, even trying to take his life…

Lord, we do not know Your Grand Plans on how this will all unfold, but we know that whatever You do and allow is always COMPLETELY Your Will…

We pray for the safety of President Trump and his family and his team…

We pray that all goes smoothly in these next few weeks as President Trump takes over from the most corrupt presidency in history…

So much can go wrong and almost all who are watching agree with this…

Please put Your massive wings of protection over all that President Trump is in charge of, especially during the inauguration ceremony and all the other 'rituals' that go along with this…

Please put the enemy and all of his Deep State resources in a Holy Time Out…

We pray for the safety of all of the cities in the USA….

We pray for protection from powerful nuclear enemies, especially China, Russia, Iran and North Korea…

Only Your Holy Hand could have brought victory to President Trump's Campaign….

In the same way, only You can protect this nation that was once Dedicated to You and You alone….

We pray this with great urgency in Your Mighty Name, in Jesus' Mighty Name, AMEN!!

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-882/

882 – He will make our hearts whole again

Received on Sunday, January 26, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do and the blessings of those who love me. I feel so full of love.

It has been a very cold January so far. It has been a time of sorrow and emptiness. I have felt lonely after the loss of Zoey. It is not until something or someone is gone that we realize just how much a part of us has gone also. It was difficult looking after a life that was coming to an end. I still had hope. However, the hope I had then turned into discouragement. My discouragement then turned into reflection.

I now understand why King David fasted and prayed for his newborn son to live as he did. Despite his faith in God to heal his baby, God still took the baby Home. Now realizing that his son was no longer living, David then got up from his place of mourning and bathed and put on new clothes. He put away the former things and started fresh. After he put on fresh clothing, he praised God and ate. He had fasted and prayed for seven days in the hopes that God would turn and heal his son (2 Samuel 12:14-29).

Despite our prayers, petitions and faith, sometimes our will is not done. I have one child who focuses on the loss of Zoey openly. With me, I prefer to focus on where Zoey is now. I already know she is in the hands of God.

Father, You keep reminding me with these words: "Seek first the Kingdom and (God's) My righteousness, and all these things will be added to you (Matthew 6:33).

Sigh… this world is truly a painful one. This Scripture, 'the joy of the Lord is my strength' in Nehemiah 8:10 actually starts off with 'Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.' However, I now strongly feel that there should have been a different interpretation of the word 'joy' as used here historically.

Moving to Psalm 28:7: 'The Lord is my strength and my shield, in Him my heart trusts, and I am helped, my heart exalts and with my song, I give thanks to Him.' This seems like the backstory or expanded version of how or what joy is in the midst of our battles and with loss.

Perhaps the original word should have been 'confidence' in place of 'joy'. This makes more sense to me because I cannot believe that Jesus had any joy at all in the Garden of Gethsemane or while He was being nailed to the Cross.

It is one thing to grieve alone, but, with children, any progress in healing tends to go backwards. The problem for me is that I had seen Zoey up in Heaven or the New Earth years before she died. This somehow prepared me for her to pass here on Earth. I am confident in knowing that You are involved in every detail of this, Father.

Now, about President Trump. It is so wonderful to see answered prayers of protection over the President, his family and our nation. It has been healing.

Even so, I remain in a state of heightened alert because of the different events that You have shown me that are still to come. I now believe the events You have shown me is for a coming time. As for now… we have had more time! Thank You, Father, for this time!

I recently heard a pastor ask this question: 'Do you make the Earth happier and Heaven fuller because you exist?' I had to then think about this and pray…

Father, I now realize that I exist because You created me in this time for Your purposes. I have always wondered if I have been a good steward over all You have added into my life, my children, my marriage, my ministry, my animals and my health. I pray that I have added to Heaven too. I struggle somedays with these kinds of questions.

> As for my older son, he recently had a horrible setback. Something in his brain is just not functioning properly and I am not able to help him other than to pray to You, Father, for his Divine Healing.

I have been so broken for this month of January and I am unable to help myself. I therefore give my life to You in all things. Please bless my friends and their families too. There are some difficult needs out there, along with some heartbreaking losses.

Father, please comfort and heal Your people. We love You! Changes are difficult.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Seek Me and find shelter. I am with you. I promise you good things here. I have given you rest in your sorrow as I know that you are catching up with some much-needed rest."

Me: "Lord, this feels like anything but restful. It is not just the loss of Zoey. It is like only knowing a piece, a small portion, of what You have shown me and still needing so much more understanding. I need Your help! Are we staying here longer? If so, I need some help. I need physical healing for me, my family and my friends. I long in my heart for a place I don't understand and can't see here. I am grieving more than I realize and I don't know how to cure this. However, You can."

Jesus: "Changes are difficult. You have had many changes in the last year. It has reshaped your thinking and given you new perspectives."

Me: "Yes, but it is lonely, Lord, and I am scared."

Jesus: "Don't be. I am with you, Erin. I love you. Even though this new birth year for you has been one of grief, it is also a year of great change. It is a year of new beginnings. Even though you can't see it now, I promise you great things."

Me: "Lord, my heart hurts."

Jesus: "Then give Me your heart. I love you and I will make it whole again. Just because all didn't go as you expected doesn't mean My plans have fallen through and are unsuccessful. My plans are perfect when your plans fall apart. Erin, your enemies are far from you and you live in peace. The paths I have for your children are good ones and great will be your joy in this. Now remember… when you are tired, rest! Erin, you are downcast now even though you should be glad."

Me: "Sorry, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a great plan for you. It is not over. My book is not finished. I love you. Give all you have to Me. Erin, trust in Me fully."

Me: "I will trust You for all of eternity, Lord. It is just that so many of us are now growing more sick as time continues to march on and on. Things that once were important do not seem nearly as important now."

Jesus: "I know. However, everything I do for you is part of My plan. All who are with you shall be blessed as you are an army serving God. Now, I know that the waiting is hard. Continue. I am here with you. I love you. Oh yes… Spring is coming early and the time of the Snake! So, Erin, pray!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-883/

883 – President Trump is a Bull in the China Shop

Received on Sunday, February 2, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family, our friends and our warm home. Oh, and also for our furry and feathered friends. I don't thank You enough in the simple things and I don't press into You enough in the complex things.

I am not a physician. I cannot heal myself. However, what You provide for me is a journal and pen and an able hand in which to write. You provide a warm comfortable bed to sleep on and all of the amenities needed. You provide a pillow for my knees to fall on to pray and an endless supply of tissues. You give me every opportunity to do Your Will in all things.

However, and even greater still, and I am so thankful for this… You moved from a Holy Spirit Unction in my body to actually hearing Your voice from within me. Forgive me, Father, for not thanking You enough for this great gift. When I feel so empty, You say, 'I am here, Erin. I am not leaving you. I am your Comforter and your Friend.' Father, I am overwhelmed by You. I love You so much.

Even so, my Spirit has been unsettled recently. The death of my dog, Zoey, emptied me. I then had to stay strong around my children. However, make no mistake, I wept often when alone. I believe You allowed this event so I would be empty.

Then two or three times a day, I was literally locked out of my electronics. I was told by the manufacturer that all of this was a necessary precaution to prevent theft and fraud. However, I personally took it as You, Father, telling me, 'More of Me and less of that.'

All that I had come to rely on or had scheduled daily was upended completely. All of my daily patterns were shaken up and my routines removed. My communication was disrupted. All of this was so You could get my attention focused on a new day and a new way. Of course, You are Yahweh, which is equal to Your Way, the Only Way! I simply needed a push from You in order to change my perspective.

All of this reminds me of when I had drafting and perspective illustration classes. From these classes, I came to understand a particular formula to always having perfect perspective. It would begin with simple objects. However, whether it was simple or complex, everything began with a horizon line on the page where the sky meets the landscape.

A vantage point, along with lines, were then used to create all of the other objects and so many other complex constraints, all working together to obtain the perfect perspective. We were then graded on our accuracy.

One time, I drew a complex cityscape from the street level. However, something did not feel right. I wasn't gaining proper perspective. I was frustrated and my eraser was worn down. I had detailed windows, doors, sidewalks, trees and cars, but something still seemed off. However, I just couldn't put my finger on it. It was aggravating. My professor then came over to me.

Professor: "What is wrong?"

Me: "Well, even though I have put hours into this, it still seems off."

Saying nothing, he took my 18" x 24" drawing and placed it on the chalkboard at the front of the class.

Professor: "Now, Erin, look at it. What do you see?"

Me: "The flaws."

Professor: "What flaws?"

Me: "I am not sure. I just can't put my finger on it."

Professor: "Class, do you have any input for Erin?" It was so quiet that the silence was deafening. "Come on. Anyone?" Still silence. "Okay then, squint your eyes."

Suddenly, everyone saw the problem, including me.

One of the students: "It is NOT lighter towards the horizon line!"

Professor: "Correct." He then turned towards me. "Erin, your perspective on this is close to perfect, but objects in the background need to be lighter as things farther away are not as vivid in color and not as clear either."

Well, January 2025 was my month of perspective. Things were out of focus for me. It was an upside-down month. I have had trouble sleeping. My left kidney area of my back now hurts and it is excruciating. I have been showing signs of stress.

A lack of sleep is a breeding ground for worry and sickness. Even though attacks have been coming from every angle, I have not been speaking against them in my Prayer Language. My fight has been on vacation and my fight gloves are hanging on a hook. I then cry out to You…

Me: "Father, please speak tenderly to me during this time. Please have mercy on me. Please strengthen me and help me. Please fill my empty vessel with Your Living Water."

Last night, I woke up at around 3:00am. In the darkness, I then had a vision of an illuminated number 8. It was a faded 8 and about the height of a human. I rubbed my eyes and it still remained. I looked back at my clock and it now read 3:08am. The vision then disappeared and I prayed to the Lord.

Me: "Father, what did this vision mean?"

I then fell back to sleep and into a dream.

Sub-dream 1 "The Precarious Room of China Revisited" begins…

I was walking on a road in the morning. There was dew on the grass in the fields. It was foggy, but not too thick. To my right was a cobblestone fence that seemed to never end. It was beautiful and only about three feet high. It was old and must have been quite a job for a mason. Although I have never been to Europe, this seemed like something you would see there.

As I walked on this narrow dirt road, the fog began to thin and I could tell the day would be beautiful and sunny. Blue sky then started to appear. The road then began to narrow further and wind to the left onto someone's property. In the distance, I saw a beautiful stone home with a white pergola and vines that hadn't yet awakened from winter. There was a beautiful room there made complete with curved windows.

While the home was old, it was truly beautiful. As I approached, I vaguely remembered this place from my past. I peered through one of the windows and saw that it was a kitchen with so many plates stacked high and balancing precariously and ready to fall at any minute.

I suddenly felt a tap on my shoulder from behind me. This startled me, so I jumped and gasped. I turned around and a man was standing there.

Man: "Erin? Are you Erin?"

Me: "Yes. Who is asking?" The man then turned into an angel of the Lord. I smiled at him. "Where am I? This all seems so familiar."

Angel: "Come, let me show you this."

He took me into the kitchen of this home.

Me: Pointing to the China. "These are beautiful, but they are all about to fall."

Angel: "Yes. These are unbalanced. Each country is represented here. However, no country will fall like England. God's favor has languished and the country has lost its reign all around the world."

Me: I pointed to some beautiful Irish Belleek. "Does this include Scotland and Ireland?"

Angel: "Erin, all that you see here is about to collapse. That which once had great value will have none."

Me: "This is scary. Also, where is that crazy woman who had been hanging on the chandelier when I was last here? I can't see her."

Angel: "She is gone. This house is abandoned. These nations to the north of Israel have abandoned God. For it is written… take care lest you forget the Lord your God by not keeping His Commandments, His Laws and Statutes. But those who turn away from God and forget these, then God will turn away from them."

Me: "What happened?"

Angel: "For they built themselves castles and expanded their territories as God was with them. They amassed great wealth that built up their land's great beauty and bounty. However, they then declared that their own power and might were responsible for their position and they turned away completely from God.

"They brought leaders from foreign nations and forgot the God whom they once served. They now openly sinned against God with young girls in their tents. They believe that justice is blind to their grave abominations. The nations are now defiled before God and foreigners have invaded the beautiful places and desecrated My churches."

Me: "Can they not be driven away?"

Angel: "God has sent a Destroyer."

Me: "Oh, no! To destroy Europe?"

Angel: "Well, to disrupt it and breakdown what is unbalanced."

Me: "Who?"

I then remembered another dream of a massive bull. The bull was like a Texas Longhorn and was destroying a China shop.

Me: "Is it the Bull? Is it Trump?"

Angel: "You will soon see. All of the nations are in fear and turning away from what is right to instead ban together against the USA."

Me: "Yes, but this is nothing new though, right?"

Angel: "Oh, it is new. One nation under God."

Me: "What about Israel?"

Angel: "The same is true. Do not be afraid though as God is with His people."

Me: "When will this be?"

Angel: "It has begun… the times of the prophet, Joel, a 'lesser' prophet."

Me: "Lesser? I don't see that."

Angel: "His writing is short, but important. Keep your eyes on the anger of the nations to the north and south. Do not worry though as God is here. I must go."

He disappeared in an instant.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, this dream was difficult. I love what makes each nation special. Please stop all of this. The invasion of the Black Dragon and Red Dragon is hard to witness.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, I have raised up a leader with a staff and (balancing) scales. The staff represents authority, discipline and protection over the people. The scales represent balance and fair measures concerning trade and law.

"He (Trump) understands that I saved him (from sure assassination) for such a time as this and he moves with speed as I have given him governance to make right the wrongs. See, no one likes to be called out publicly for their iniquities, their sin. Two ways of reacting can then occur:

- One… they recognize their shortcomings and make it right by stopping their current ways of thinking, then working with My leader for a good solution. This is the right response.
- Or two… they ignore the problem, become angry and act indignant at being exposed and deny it. In the meantime, they then work with enemy nations to strike against My leader."

Me: "Lord, will war breakout?"

Jesus: "War is coming, but not as you expect. The enemy is striking out quietly in many different areas and I have allowed this. They are causing the water to dry up. They are causing fires that can't be quenched. They are destroying grain, oil and other necessities. However, you are to remember that this will end and that I am here. There can be no testimony without the test first.

"Now, the enemies of your nation are very angry. They are striking out with acts of violence and flexing their authority against Israel and the USA. The one leader (Xi) who has sent his dragon through the seas to every port is insulted and angry. He is plotting with the nations to the north and south to attack. They will be unsuccessful.

"Now, your emptiness was allowed so you could be filled with more of Me. My plans are to bless you and give you hope for a future. Now, look at the Book of Joel. Calamity came first from the locusts. The people were then called to repent, fast and humble themselves before the Lord."

Me: "Are the locusts actual locusts or do these represent sectors of the economy?"

Jesus: "This is an interesting observation. Through the life of various types of locusts, you can gain information on the behaviors of their mission and their instrument of attack. Even if economic, great is their damage and widespread."

Me: "But in Joel 2, the Great Day of the Lord comes. Your Army of restoration and revival comes. It is also written that You will remove the northerner (Canada?) far from us and drive him into a parched and desolate land and his vanguard into the eastern sea and his rearguard (Mexico?) into the western sea (Joel 2:20)."

Jesus: "Hmm, interesting. However, I am speaking of corrupt leaders here, not the peoples to the north or the south. Do not worry here as I have a Great Plan. The evil leaders will be held on account of what they have done. The foreigners must then return to their own nations.

"As for now, they take and destroy the lands who offered them kindness and decided to destroy them and make demands of them to change their laws and remove churches and Christians. They then vacation in their native lands that they claim they fled from. I see. I know. Do not worry. They will not inherit My Kingdom. Soon, they will call for the removal of the castles, queens, kings and the history of the nation (Europe).

"Erin, I will now give you a valuable Word. Study Joel, including the timelines and order of things. This reads as the script as given to him by Me. Remember that My Word is the Sword of Truth. The more that you press into Me, the more that fear will be removed. Truth cuts through any lies.

"Now, clear out the remaining dross and residue from your Vessel. I am going to fill you up with a greater portion of My Spirit. I am preparing My Army and your joy will be complete. I love you, Erin. I will continue to lift you up and sustain you. Do not worry as I am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-884/

Dream 884 – Breakthrough and Zoey encourage me

Received on Sunday, February 9, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You have done for me and our house. You never stop showing Your love in an infinite number of ways every day. Thank You for the picture You sent my way that looks so much like the upgraded Heavenly version of the bridge that is in our front yard…

Even so, to stop and sit in quiet reflection is painful. I have about 35,000 photos in my cloud. They are categorized in years. I had been trying to recall something that You brought forward from years ago into a dream. I am speaking about my jasmine tree.

After all of these years, it finally died last week. It never recovered from being pruned in September 2024. The vines were long and wild. I had allowed this because the vines then looked 'cool'. Well, this meant that the rest of the tree was losing nutrients. I had let these wild branches suck the life out of other portions of the tree.

On a warm day in September 2024, I went outside with my pruning shears. I cut the branches down. While I had done this many times before over the years, my little tree never came back this time. I then had my husband take it out to the porch outside. Well, a gust of wind came up yesterday and blew it over. Dirt flew everywhere.

He then volunteered to clean it up while I continued with my chores. When I came back, I asked him what he did with the tree. He then showed me the broken tree in a large garbage bag. My eight years of battles with this tree had officially come to an end. So many times, I brought this tree back from the brink of certain death. This time though, there was no coming back. Despite my best efforts, it was time to let go.

I had a tearjerking dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "Breakthrough and Zoey encourage me" begins…

I thought I had heard my dog, Zoey, barking at something. I went to investigate, but then remembered she was gone. I felt a breeze coming from the front door. My initial reaction was 'oh no, Zoey got out!' I then once again remembered that she was gone. I then took note that it looked around late spring turning into summer.

I then heard barking coming from outside again. This time, I remembered that Zoey was gone. I put on my rubber boots and my light jacket and went outside. I looked to the yard area where the bird feeders were, but there was no dog. I heard the barking again, so I decided to go to the back yard.

Me: "Lord, am I hearing things?"

I began to turn back to the front door when I heard a whistle coming from the area of the creek. I walked over and saw the now 'upgraded bridge' (see the photo at the beginning of this dream). I began to cry even as I wrote. I then heard the whistling of Breakthrough. However, I could not see him. It was coming from across the bridge.

I began to walk across the bridge. As I did, I went from an okay landscape into a lush and beautiful place of so much life. As for here right now, it is the middle of winter. It is snowy and cold. There are no signs of life as the trees are sleeping. I then saw our yard. It is pretty. While the grass is green as in my dream, it simply doesn't compare to the perfection of Heaven.

When I crossed over, I then wondered if I was now in the New Earth, Heaven or the Training Ground. Even though I didn't know, I did know that this was simply incredibly beautiful. I then heard the whistle again as I stood at a crossroad. I could hear rustling to my right, so I took the right path.

I then heard a horse behind me. I turned and there was Breakthrough riding his horse. He smiled at me as he dismounted and walked over to me. I began to cry. He reached over and hugged me. He began to whistle a song and it was beautiful and unlike anything I have ever heard.

Me: "Breakthrough, did I hear Zoey? I just know she is here somewhere!"

Breakthrough nodded yes as he hugged me. He reached for my hand and walked with me. His horse followed us. It was beautiful. The trees were blossoming and we were in orchards of fruit trees and soft green grass. I then heard Breakthrough whistle a dog whistle. I then saw a small strong young dog in a distant orchard.

It was Zoey! She stopped running in order to look at me. I ran over to her at full speed. However, in perfect Zoey fashion, she did not run to me. She instead took off in the opposite direction so I could chase her. She was so strong and happy. I saw her stop and smell a flower, but she would then take off again just as I would draw closer.

Me: "Zoey, wait! Don't go! Please!"

Zoey continued to run. I soon could not see her anymore. I dropped down below a beautiful blossoming fruit tree and began to cry. I had so many things to say to the Lord. I had so many things to talk to Him about. I knelt down and closed my eyes…

Me: "Father, time goes so fast. I can't catch time. I can't go back. I can't have a moment freeze. I can't capture a day that is gone. I am getting older now. I struggle to keep anything. This world I live in is a painful struggle. Good news seems so far away. Even so, You remain and I am here and I see my little Zoey is here with You. Life is Yours to keep, Father. It is also Yours to take here back to You.

"It is just so difficult to remain in this place of pain. Father, I am broken. I am not well. I am not okay. I must be honest here… I need a miracle, but I don't see one coming. I am scared. I miss the confidence I once had. I miss the fullness of my days. I miss the sounds of a home full of children and laughter. I miss the occasional rare bird landing in my bird feeder.

"I miss the excitement of life and the thoughts of experiencing all of this with my family and friends. But now, Father, I am broken and I need fixing. Things I once loved are gone or have faded. They have lost their luster. I search for only You now. Photos tell painful stories and hold onto beautiful memories that I didn't treasure enough until they were gone. It is lonely even though I know I am never alone.

"Where did the time go, Father? It is like a year seems like yesterday and three years seems like only weeks ago. I can remember moments in my youth as if they had just happened. It is so vivid. A few days ago, I was not well. My family was worried. My daughter told me that she could not do life without me. Father, my dreams of a future here are fading.

"Lord, I am stuck. We are stuck here until a miracle comes from You. There is no hope without You. My husband can't find work. He is now too old for places to want to hire him. My daughter is struggling with work right now, as is my younger son. My older son is struggling where he is also. Snigglet is sick with pancreatitis. We can't lose her too."

I continued to cry at the foot of this tree. Just then, I felt Zoey licking my tears on my face. I then felt a hand on my shoulder. I looked up and there was Jesus!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here, I am with you and I have heard your cries. I know. I know."

He sat beside me on my right side and held me. Zoey laid down on my left side and rested her head on my leg.

Jesus: "Erin, you have been holding back your pain and avoiding Me."

Me: "I have, Lord. It has been a lot and I fear more is coming. I look at photos from only a few years ago and it is hard. I looked at a photo of the bench in our yard by the tree. It is gone now because I planted two small bushes that grew so large that my bench could no longer fit between them.

"However, it is not even about that. It is about looking out of my window and seeing one or two of our kids sitting on the bench. My daughter and my stepson were both avid readers there. So much time has now disappeared and I can't get it back."

Jesus: "Erin, time is My Fathers. Erin, I promise you that time here will never be a problem again as it has a different definition with Me. I make everything beautiful in its time. Your life consists of times and seasons. It is a journey of excitement and stagnation, promise and pain. However, through all of it, I remain with you. I have prepared a wonderful place here for you and you will never have to say goodbye to those you love again."

Me: Zoey sighed as I pet her. "Lord, I miss Zoey being with me."

Jesus: "Erin, Zoey and your other companions wait for you and your family."

Me: "Lord, thank You for this."

Jesus: "Remember that, on Earth, you say goodbye 'for now only' as life expires in body only. However, life is everlasting with Me here as My love always remains. Now, Erin, you barely ask about what is to come anymore. Your hopes have faded. Have you given up on Me, Erin?"

Just then, Zoey looked up at me. She was searching my eyes for an answer to His question. This was so heartwarming!

Me: "Lord, I could never give up on You. However, it is just so difficult to imagine good things in the midst of the darkness."

Jesus: "Erin, every good thing comes from Me. My promises are true. I have not stopped. Now, come with Me for a walk."

Me: "I feel so healthy here, Lord. Are we in Heaven here?"

Jesus: "This is a mystery for now. Now, I want you to understand something… I have been building a beautiful place here ever since The Fall… well, ever since the Garden closed. I have been creating a place of life so abundant with joy everlasting that there will be no pain. This is the place of My recompense. Things lost are found here. Things destroyed are made whole here. The beauty will be like nothing on Earth.

"It will truly be 'on Earth as it is in Heaven!' All that was taken from you here will be given back to you, but in such a way that you will be overjoyed. Relationships will be mended. Those who lost loved ones will be reunited. Great will be the reunion for parents who lost their children for they will see them again. They will be restored and will live to see them grow."

Me: "So, Lord, my dreams… are these of Heaven? What about the City of Gold? What about the Valley of Blessings, the Tevahs and the River of Life? What about the pools and the fields of flowers?"

Jesus: "While this is difficult to understand fully, there is still Heaven. I have created a New Heaven and Earth and all whom called upon My Name and believed will overcome. All that you have seen, as well as Me walking amongst you, is true and soon to come… well, it is here now. The Temple is also here and your heart will be healed and full of song and worship. You will live and be full of life."

Just then, I saw Zoey sprint into a field of flowers. She met other dogs there. I cried when I saw some of my other familiar pets.

Me: Crying. "Lord, is that Cooper and Jessie?"

Jesus: "Yes. They are excited to see you again. Now, I showed you this today so you would remember that I am with you now and always. My love is eternal and I have prepared a beautiful place for those who love Me. Now, remember what the Garden was like. It was paradise."

Me: "Will we wear no clothing?"

Jesus: Smiling. "Yes, you will wear clothing here. You will wear garments of linen and cotton as there will be four seasons of change… a time of planting and of harvest… but also because you will be unique as you are now, but even more in radiance and beauty and in strength and wisdom. It is difficult to understand this now, but you will live in great abundance. You will not be sick."

Me: Crying with joy. "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "This is because the Ruler will now be Me and nothing will be continually trying to destroy and kill you."

Me: "I have many questions, Lord. I thought the Earth had to be burned up first and then remade."

Jesus: "Hmm, where is this written? This would be discouraging."

Note: This is a timing question, not a change to 2 Peter 3:10. Jesus is referring to the New Earth being in existence BEFORE the Old Earth is burned up. This is meant to encourage us. I have included some discussion on the Nest at the end of this dream for further clarification.

Me: "It would be so awesome to be able to go from here to there."

Jesus: "Zoey is here now and was here just moments after her passing. Erin, Zoey is alive here. I will bring you here again and we can discuss more details. However, here is another mystery… you will also be amongst other Saints who you have only read about."

Me: "Like David?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. Remember that this is a place of My recompense. All is made right, fair and just. Erin, you will see."

I woke up as He reached over to hug me. It was still quite early.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Thank You, Father. I needed Your reassurance of where we will be with You, although I still do not have all of the answers.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Look at Scripture, My Word, with a new set of eyes. Read again in the light of eternal things. What you have seen is what I have built for you, whether it is Heaven, the New Earth or on Earth as it is in Heaven.

"I promise you good all of the days of your life. I love you. I know you are downcast and discouraged about your future in light of this fading world, but remember I have overcome the world."

I was about to close my journal for the day when I remembered that a song has been playing over and over in my head recently. It is the 2008 hit by Switchfoot called 'This is Home'. This particular song is painful and reminds me of Bend OR and another time. There is so much I wish I could do over back when my children were still young.

The following is the discussion from the Nest Forum on 2 Peter 3:10:

Question:

From the dream:

Me: "I have many questions, Lord. I thought the Earth had to be burned up first and then remade."

Jesus: "Hmm, where is this written? This would be discouraging."

From Scripture:

2 Peter 3:10: But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything done in it will be laid bare.

I think I'm going to need a new interpretation of the above verse. Anyone want to offer insight?

Answer:

My understanding is that Jesus is attempting to explain to us that the New Earth will be accessible to us BEFORE The Day of the Lord.

And Heaven will be visible on THIS earth BEFORE The Day of the Lord because we will be Transformed…changed in a twinkling of an eye…and we will no longer be of this Earth. We will be Home…but with the capability to cross the Bridge and return to this Earth, to do miracles in His Name and in His Power, in order to bring in a massive harvest of soon to be found souls.

The Day of the Lord then comes AFTER His Harvest is completed. It is a GREAT and Terrible Day – Rapture of His people (Great for them) and also nuclear war/ great burning of fire (Terrible day for the wicked and all left on this earth).

The New Earth will not be accessible to ALL of His people until later.

Jesus alluded in an early dream that we would be like Caleb and Joshua and go into His Promised Land- and the rest of His people would have to wander in the wilderness for another 40 months. (Until His physical return)

Reply:

Thank you so much. That adds to what the Lord told me after I posted my comment. Now I get it. It would appear as per the Lord that the New Earth already exists and this Old Earth is going to be disposed of, NOT renewed. I finally get it!

End of Discussion

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-885/

885 – Prospering even in the Darkness

Received on Sunday, February 16, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do for us. We are grateful for You in all things. We give You all of the Glory, Father!

I had a disturbing dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Not the Right Time to move to Bend OR" begins…

We had sold our current home and had set out for Bend OR with only a few items to start fresh. We thought that we had plenty to purchase at least a modest home with three or four bedrooms. The real estate agent phoned us to show us a few houses near a church we would most likely attend. They were also within walking distance of town.

As we drove with the agent, she continued to receive phone calls from other agents that were canceling the home showings due to offers being accepted all within less than a few hours. At least eight potential homes had now been cancelled. We were so disappointed to learn that we didn't even have a chance to view the homes or even bid.

Agent: "Listen, this current market is really hot right now. We likely won't stand a chance unless you are purchasing an extremely high-end property or one out of town. With this in mind, how about I take you to two properties that haven't hit the market yet. However, I should warn you in advance that these properties need work."

Me: "No problem. We are excited to at least see something. We just want to have a chance at a home."

We drove around a roundabout and pulled over on a small driveway to the right. In front of us were two shacks (really, sheds) made of mixed materials. They were clearly being used as homeless dwellings.

Me: "You are joking, right?"

Agent: "Wait. Hear me out. They want $500,000 and a ten-day close. These are on a half an acre in the middle of town. There are full hookups, including water, sewer, electricity and gas."

As we got closer to the dwellings, I could tell that the sheds were disgusting. There were also some plastic PVC tubes that were designed to look like a pergola.

Me: "So, what you are saying is these are tear downs. The land is worth how much?"

Agent: "No, Erin. You can't tear these down. You can only update them. This is a diverse housing initiative and any beautification of the property would need the City Council's approval and that could take years. So, what do you think? These are going to sell really fast."

Me: My husband and I were both speechless. "So, all we get for $500K are two shacks?"

Agent: "No. It is only one shack each for $500K."

Me: "A million dollars for both? We will 100% pass."

Just then, an older woman with a small designer dog came out of one of the shacks. She was wearing fancy clothing and jewelry. I had seen enough.

Me: "This is madness! This is true madness! There is no way we are moving here. I want to go home now."

My husband: "Hmm, we have already sold our home."

Me: "Then we will move somewhere else. What happened here?"

Agent: "Folks are moving from the south, especially California. They are purchasing these properties online. Many can afford to purchase two and then sell the second one a few months later for more than double their purchase price."

Me: "Oh, thereby driving up the prices!"

Agent: "Yes. However, the market will eventually crash. The market can't sustain these prices. Maybe this just isn't your year to move here."

Me: "Maybe never."

Just then, my husband received a phone call saying that the sale of our current home had fallen through. We decided to move back in. Our hopes and dreams of living in Bend OR were now over.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up from this dream so relieved that it was not real. Because of where we live (due to the weather and the distance from town), we spend a lot of time in our home. I cannot imagine trading this for a home we would prefer to be away from. If that is the case, I am content to remain here.

As three of our children have moved away, it is likely they will not return. However, I know that they will visit us when we move out west. Our two who remain struggle here. They are underpaid, undervalued and have difficult jobs. Their drive to work and back is long (over an hour a day) and, in the winter, often requires them to leave the house before the snowplows come. They have also had a hard time finding good friends.

Father, You have placed moving on our hearts, but this dream was alarming. Until You open a miraculous door, we will stay put.

The home I prayed for in Bend OR was on the market for almost a year and then sold the week Zoey passed. I cried and cried a few days ago. I need You, Father. I am hopeful for what You are doing in our country. It is healing. President Trump is standing with Israel, but the world has changed. Something in my heart, in my Spirit, feels unrest and I simply can’t shake it.

You send signs and miracles daily to let me know You are here. You call out to me and comfort me. You are always with me. You answer my prayers. Not always the way I imagine them, but in a way that is perfectly You. I just pray You won’t grow tired of me.

I also had a dream a couple of nights ago.

Sub-dream 2 “Dragged by my hair into the dark” begins…

I was with my younger son. We were either in a Toys R Us that was closing or a Target. I could not tell which. Since my son was looking for something specific, I told him I would go to the front of the store and wait for him. To get to the front, there was a section that had a very low ceiling. It was at most eight feet tall and made completely of concrete. It was about 40 feet by 40 feet. There were no lights and it was creepy.

To get to the front of the store, I had to walk through this concrete room. As I was almost to the front, I felt something tug on my hair. He then took a larger portion of my hair and began to yanked from the back of my head. All I could see was a dark figure almost the height of the low ceiling. I could smell a horrible stench from the man.

He then grabbed even more of my hair and forced me to the ground. He then began to drag me back into the dark area of this concrete room. At first, I couldn't yell. I was finally then able to yell out loudly. It was the first time I recall waking up to the sound of my own voice yelling. It was horrifying.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, is something dark trying to pull me back? Is this a warning? It happened so fast that I couldn't remember more details of this dream. I sure remember the horrible smell though. I must be under attack right now as I have had some challenging days here.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I have never left you. My favor is upon you. I promise you good things all the days of your life. You have not been well. You are not sleeping. You spend your waking hours wondering what I am doing. Sometimes just taking a pause so I can redirect you is not a bad thing.

"I want your full attention, Erin, not divided, not in sorrow, worry or pain. When things don't go your way or precisely how you pray, then you retreat. However, your prayers were answered. Your prayers are answered, so pray. I love you. I know you are hurt. I know you are scared. However, I am here."

Me: "Lord, my children speak of being alone for the rest of their lives. It is not good for man to be alone. How can this be?"

Jesus: "First, they are never alone. I am with them. I answer the prayers of the mother who never stops pleading. Erin, you are relentless. As for those mothers who have lost their children… they will one day be reconciled with them and great will be their healing. I am in the midst of the brokenhearted. I call on angels to collect their tears.

"This has been a difficult winter and a costly time for you. You are ready for change. You are ready to move. The trees where you are will soon begin to bud and bloom. Even the coldest, darkest winters end and the earth brings forth fruit, even in your lives. I have something fresh and new about to spring forth and blossom in you.

"Blessed is the one whose delight is in the Law of the Lord and who meditates on My Law day and night. Erin, you are like a tree planted by streams of water, which yield fruit in due season and whose leaves do not wither. Whatever you do and I call you to will prosper.

"I promise to prosper you and your children, your friends and their children, those whose hope is on Me. To those who pray for the lost, I will hear their prayers. I will turn and cry out to them in the wilderness and there they will hear My Voice and turn to follow My Way. This is because you pray!"

Me: "Lord, this reminds me of Psalm 1:1-3."

Jesus: "I know you see only the frozen ground and fresh snow. The trees outside are sleeping and in wick. However, I have planted you as an oak of righteousness, a planting from Me for the display of My Splendor. What I have planted in you, Erin, is My Voice, a seed that has not sprung up overnight. It has been a long season of planting. It grows in the unseen places.

"You cannot see this transformation as roots of the seeds I nurture are deep within you. However, I tell you this… what I plant in you, what is rooted within, cannot be pulled out. It instead flourishes and draws into My Light, the Light of the 'Son', your Savior, and it is this Light, this great planting, that will blossom and bear fruit unlike the world has ever seen before nor will it ever be seen again in this Earth. My oaks of righteousness will be established and display My Splendor (Isaiah 61:3).

"Be encouraged, Erin, for what I have done in you, I have also done in your husband, your children and with your friends and their children. All seems mundane right now. You then ask… Is this all there is? What of revival? How will I do this? What can I offer when I have nothing? Well, offer your seeds to Me and I promise to plant them and flourish them. Great will be your fruit multiplied back to you."

Me: "Yes, Lord. Your Word says… are not two sparrows sold for a penny, yet not one of them will fall to the ground without You knowing."

Jesus: "Then this is wisdom to remember that I care for all of My children, great or small, young or old, rich or poor. Those who seem less than or insignificant are important to Me because I created them. They are Mine. When you hear of a horrific accident, instead of asking why, seek Me and know Me that I have a Great Plan. You feel sorrow and abandonment, but you are never alone. This is because I am here."

Me: "I love You so much, Lord. It is sometimes difficult to understand Your Ways. You turn our pain and sorrow and humble us. Some suffer more than others. Some are broken and crushed."

Jesus: "Yes, but I go before you. I allow certain events that I take and shape into miracles. The enemy wants destruction, but I want the construction of heart for I am the rebuilder of brokeness. When I am in the midst of trouble, I prepare a Good Way for those I call. Do not worry, Erin, as I am here. I am with you. I am with your sons and daughter. I am with your husband, your friends and their children. I make everything beautiful in its time and in its season. All is for My Glory.

"I allowed your troubles, your illnesses and your outcome all so that your tests would become a testimony of faith in Me. These are for My purposes. I will sacrifice a Sparrow for the greater good of the Nest of Sparrows, understand? Be grateful as I promise to continue to bless you through your troubles Through these, others will know Me and My love for those I call. Now rejoice, Erin, as the enemy does not win. He wants to pull you back into the darkness, but he doesn't. I have you."

Me: "Lord, what about Bend OR?"

Jesus: "I haven't opened the door yet. In the meantime, bloom where you are planted."

Me: "Thank You for all that You have done!"

Jesus: "Changes are coming, Erin. Rejoice as I have promised you good things."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-886/

886 – No Luminaries are Allowed

Received on Friday, February 21, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for a clear and sunny sky after days of storms. Thank You for keeping our power on after severe winds pummeled our home. We are grateful for you Father!

My sleep lately has been horribly broken and my dreams too carved up to have anything to write down. When I fail to sleep daily, I make errors in my waking hours. I forget things and I am more clumsy. I break things and lose sight of them.

I then had a short dream that felt more like a microsleep than a long dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Sleeping hours like broken clay vessels" begins…

You showed me a clay vessel broken into pieces.

Jesus: "Erin, this is like your sleeping hours of dreams."

Me: "Lord, are You displeased with me?"

Jesus: "Erin, you had grown tired in doing good. You needed to come back to Me, your First Love. I then withheld your rest so you would turn back and rest in My arms. My arms are open wide."

Sub-dream 1 over…

After this, I was able to go into a deeper sleep. I then had a breakthrough last night and had a good series of dreams. This made me happy.

Sub-dream 2 "Sheets soaked in fragrant oil" begins…

We as a family were going on a trip. However, I then decided that I would need to keep my bedding with me even down to the mattress cover. I had thrown all of my bedding in the washing machine as we were all continuing to pack. I then placed them in the dryer and decided to separate my sheets from my mattress cover.

After the sheets were dried and I was folding them, my husband made an urgent announcement that we had to leave now. I guess we were on a schedule. I then took the mattress cover out, as well as my bed comforter. Even though they were all still slightly damp, I folded them up anyway. I then stuffed them neatly into a large bag. As I carried it down the hallway, my daughter spoke up.

Daughter: "Mom, something is leaking all over the floor from the bag."

I looked and it was oil. There was fragrant oil dripping from the bedding. At first, I was sad that I had made such a mess right before we needed to leave. I then realized that the oil was actually good and a blessing. This oil somehow was not staining anything. Both the floor and the sheets were still fine.

Daughter: "Mom, no wonder your skin is always soft."

As I examined my folded sheets, they were dry and clean. When I then touched my sheets, the oil transferred to my hands and then absorbed in the most delightful of ways. I carefully packed all of them in a suitcase to take with me.

We were soon driving through a countryside I did not recognize. There were remnants of cities I recognized, but they had changed. What I found odd is that the population there was now quite sparse.

I then recognized one of the cities we drove past as being Boston MA. It was night-time and the lights looked more like an amusement park or a giant circus with a carnival attached. It was very captivating. While we had no interest in stopping for the festivities, we then noticed that the traffic in the venue was extremely light.

I then saw a massive neon sign over Beacon Hill. This sign read, 'The City on the Hill'. Below this, but in a smaller lettering, it read, 'Come One, Come All to the Greatest Show on Earth'. Boston had turned into a strange circus of sorts.

Sub-dream 2 over…

This dream somehow made me really sad. I was twelve when we visited my stepdad's family after his suicide. We stayed a few days in an extremely old home down the street from Samuel Adams' home in Milton MA. The home we stayed in was a great aunt's who was somehow related to Adams. The home was quaint with low ceilings and tiny staircases I stayed in a room with pink flower wallpaper and lace curtains.

Years later, when I actually studied architecture, I could not believe the amazing blessing of staying in such a home. It was creepy to me because there was so much history and supposedly ghosts. As a twelve-year-old, I was less interested in the historic décor and more interested in staying alive and away from ghosts. The thing that I thought was the coolest part of the historic neighborhood was that every window had a candlelight in it. Every single one.

Of course, they were plugged in, but it was beautiful there near Christmas 1975. We went to so many historical sights and learned about Boston. I loved the history. Since mom was a history teacher and a research librarian, she was the perfect narrator for our journey. I remember her saying we will drive to Jamestown VA. We then drove there after first visiting New York, Pennsylvania and Baltimore, Maryland.

The goal was to have Christmas in Washington DC. That is where the earliest settlement is recorded, but here in Boston… this is where it all began. I don't believe any of my youngest brother's relatives are alive still since none of us have returned other than driving to the airport.

I then had another dream that was a continuation of Sub-dream 2…

Sub-dream 3 "Lighting Gallery guarded by the Chinese" begins...

As we continued to drive at night on a highway, we noticed more and more lights. It truly reminded me of casino lights. We finally arrived at a country inn at a mountain retreat to stay for the night. I decided to keep my bedding for where we would end up.

One of my kids then told me to check out the bathroom shower. I walked in and laughed as there were six shower heads at various levels all over the bathroom and a sign that was posted that read, 'Cleanliness is a Virtue'. We all laughed.

The next morning, I had to meet some people at a lighting gallery. It seemed random in my dream until I arrived there and greeted my friends outside. The gallery was massive and roughly the size of two Costco warehouses (around 300,000 square feet in total). I could see thousands of various LED lights on display and boxes below to place in your cart. As they were LED, the lights were hurting my eyes.

I then noticed that the gallery was heavily armed by Chinese military. Two guards stopped us. One spoke in Mandarin and I somehow knew what he was saying.

Guard: In Mandarin. "No Luminaries are allowed to come into the Gallery!"

They then pointed their guns at us. I turned to my friends and addressed them…

Me: "This should be called the 'Stolen Ideas Gallery' instead! Let's go."

I then spoke to the guards in Mandarin (of which I do not know any words at all)…

Me: In Mandarin. "God's Light is Greater!"

Just then, the power went out. The guards drew their guns at us. My friends and I were laughing as we were removed from the area. I addressed my friends again…

Me: "I will see you at the house."

Sub-dream 3 over…

I then had another dream that was a continuation of Sub-dreams 2 & 3…

Sub-dream 4 "The man who smelled like cigarettes" begins…

When I arrived at the inn, my husband was waiting to leave. We loaded up and continued until we arrived at a beautiful, modernized stone home. Oddly, it was made of limestone pavers with wood doors and shutters. The landscaping was incredible. We were welcomed by the staff and shown to our quarters as if we were royalty. Clearly, we were not, but to all of them and our hosts, we were.

When we went to our chambers, the staff had already somehow prepared the bed with my sheets. The place was incredible… like a dream. After a while of settling in, a staff member came over to me.

Staff member: "Please come with me to the hostess's study."

I followed him. There was an older woman seated on a sofa by a beautiful fireplace.

Hostess: "I am so glad you came at my request. I trust your accommodations are to your liking?"

Me: "Yes, it is. It is so beautiful. Thank you!"

Hostess: "I have called you here because I need your help. Someone close to me is deceptive and stealing from me. I just do not know who it is. It began slowly and then recently it has become more brazen."

Me: "I am not certain what I can do. However, what I do know is that God can do anything. Let us pray for wisdom!"

We sat together and held hands and prayed. As we did, I smelled a faint hint of cigarette smoke coming from the hallway.

Me: "Hmm, I can smell cigarette smoke."

Hostess: "Smoking is forbidden here."

Me: "Okay, good. I suggest you hold a dinner tonight for everyone in the house and for anyone who is always here."

Hostess: "Yes! Let's do this."

That night, we had a beautiful dinner for about fifty people. I was shocked at the number of people. When my food was served, I could see certain portions were illuminated with a horrible green neon color. I heard the Lord address me…

Jesus: "Do not eat any of the green colored areas."

I quickly looked at my family's plates, but their food was fine.

Jesus: "Make sure to subtly look around to notice if anyone is staring at you in a suspicious manner."

I ate around the poison as I focused on the surrounding conversations. On purpose, I dropped my glass, spilling onto the food. A waiter came to take my plate.

Me: "I am so sorry. How clumsy I am."

Hostess: "Do not worry, my dear."

Just then, the waiter brought a fresh plate. There was no neon on it. I looked around but saw no reaction from the guests. After dinner, the daughter of the hostess invited me and my daughter upstairs to meet her friends and fiancé. The fiancé was handsome and in a suit. He was charming.

At one point, he went out into the hallway and reached into his pocket. When he took his hand out of his pocket, something fell out. I could tell this was not on purpose. There on the ground was a vile of clear liquid.

However, I supernaturally was able to see it as neon green. I reached down to pick it up for him. I handed it to him.

Me: "I think you dropped the poison you poured on my food."

Fiancé: He was terrified and started to stutter. "What are you talking about?"

Me: "Well, maybe you should put some in your drink and we can test it out. Maybe it is a flavor enhancer."

Fiancé: "How dare you? Do you know who I am?"

Me: "Yes. You are the poison food guy."

He had a smirk on his face, but just briefly.

Fiancé: "You had better leave. Isn't your family here?"

Me: "Why would I need to leave?"

Fiancé: "You are in danger now."

Just then, someone shouted out to the man.

Me: "God sees. He knows your plans."

Fiancé: Laughing. "Yeah, right."

He turned and went directly over to my daughter. He then smiled back at me. I signaled to my daughter and she then knew he was bad. She came over to me.

Daughter: "He smelled like cigarette smoke."

I went to the hostess to inform her of what I had discovered. She was in her study and in tears. Her safe had been broken into and several valuables taken.

Me: "I know who did this. It was your daughter's fiancé!"

The hostess then made several phone calls. The next morning, the authorities arrived to arrest him. We then found out that he was already on their radar because he had been making large deposits at various banks with forged cashier checks. We prayed over the house and asked God to activate angels concerning them.

We had been given information that the fiancé had planned to kill the hostess and her daughter so that he would be the only named heir to their fortune. This man was so evil. We stayed with them over the course of a month to help her with the return of all that had been stolen.

Sub-dream 4 over…

Father, this was such a long series of dreams. It was fun to go through so many phases in these dreams. Thank You for awesome endings. We have been a downcast house lately, so miracles and great stories and dreams are welcome from You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you to deliver Good News. The hour is late and evil is rising against the good. Wicked and the foolish speak with unbridled tongues. They stand for evil done in secret against the children of God. I see it. I see the evil and hate done in secret. I see as nothing is hidden from Me. Remember that there is nothing that surprises God. What you are witnessing is emboldened foolishness from those who have no fear of God.

"You will see my justice prevail and quickly. I will not be mocked. God sets up dividing lines. My land cannot be divided unless I allow it. Any leader who speaks against God's anointed, seeks to destroy the land that is dedicated to God or hinders the works of the Lord will meet humiliation and great destruction. What has been stolen here will be returned. I will wipe those who harm the children of God off the face of the Earth. You will look for them but you will see them no more.

"Erin, the world has come against the USA and Israel. The world has come against Jerusalem. The nations are in fear of the Jehu (Trump) I have sent, so they plot with schemes. However, these will come to nothing as I continue to expose the evil and all of their lies. You will see it. Take notes as I will do all I promised to prepare for My return.

"Now, you worry about many things as what you had prayed and hoped for has not come as you once thought it would. You have had to adjust for your loss and have grieved over your plans. However, I never revoked these. You are worried for many things, but do not worry.

"I have promised you that My favor is upon you. This time has been difficult for you and your house. You know changes are coming, but do not avoid Me in your exhaustion. Instead, come to Me and I will give you rest. I will send those I have called to comfort you and encourage you so you continue your journey."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. I am sorry."

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Call out to Me. Even if you do not, I will come and carry you. I promised that I would. Now, after a brief period of rest, all is about to change. I am about to change the maps. There will be both fear and excitement gripping the nations as I will well up in the land.

"I will publicly humiliate liars and wicked leaders. I will expose their actions and all will see it. At first, they will be in disbelief, but then with evidence and even testimony, they will be forced to confess. One will take down the other and continue."

Me: "So, evil will fall like dominoes?"

Jesus: "Yes. This is all in preparation for a Great Revival across the Earth."

Me: "But calamity comes first, right?"

Jesus: "The Earth must be still and know that I am God."

Me: "Psalm 46."

Jesus: "A wicked leader even recited My Scripture here in great mocking. Again, Erin, none of this is new. Audacity is not new, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I understand what You are saying."

Jesus: "Look to who is quiet right now and observe their actions as they appear to be still but they are moving. Again, remember that I am over all things. I see all of this and all is allowed for My purposes under Heaven. So, you then pray 'on Earth as it is in Heaven.' So, are we there yet?"

Me: "No, Lord. You are funny."

Jesus: "So, let Me take care of the preparations. Much of it will be shocking. Revelation is a healing process for many. I love you. I am with you. Remember to come to Me and I will give you rest."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-887/

887 – A Great Meeting with Enoch & Elijah

Received on Sunday, February 23, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for being my Father, Creator and God above all things. Thank You for never abandoning me. Thank You for sending Jesus.

As many know, those around me know and You know, Father, I haven't been myself lately. I have not felt well in my physical body nor in my mental state. I have had such a lack of sleep that it has led to despair. It is supernatural because there is no rest for those with unrest.

However, today… I fell into such a deep sleep that it was beyond normal.

I had a dream last night and then woke up at around 5:30 am. I went to my old devotional chair, a chair that I have owned for more than 22 years and fell asleep briefly. It was just a quick moment and I then thought I would see if You maybe had a message for me using news or something else.

I first scrolled the guide and landed on a different religious channel, but not Christian. It seemed to meld some Christianity in the midst of many beliefs. I watched these beautiful landscape films with classical music. However, instead of Scripture (as I have watched before) there were notable quotes from history. It was depressing because clearly some of them were based on the Scriptures.

I decided to scroll the guide again and there it was – Daystar! I couldn't believe it. The show 'Reflections' was on. I watched this when I was pregnant and couldn't sleep. It has beautiful Christian hymns in piano and orchestra and live films of beautiful landscapes with Scriptures. It had literally been 24 years since I remember watching this in Portland OR. It was usually on from 1:00am to 3:00 am Pacific time.

I would then fall asleep on the sofa or on my old chair. I would often pray for my sons and my new yet-to-be-born daughter. It never failed. All of the Scripture, the music and the beautiful landscapes were as if You were ministering to me. As for today, I just loved how You started me off with the counterfeit channel and then moved me over to the authentic channel.

However, an unusual thing occurred when I watched the counterfeit. You spoke through it…

Text over scenery "Come to the Mountain. It is here waiting. Begin your journey today! Begin your journey this morning!"

It was then followed by something I knew wasn't from You, so I renewed my search for Daystar.

Me: Out loud to You. "I miss Your Mountain Moments, Lord."

When I found 'Reflections' on Daystar, the Scriptures were about Your Word as the Voice of Truth calling out from the wilderness. There were scriptures with themes like branches and of the trees from your word.

I have not felt well-watered lately. Every part of our lives went from being well-balanced and joyful to unbalanced, off-kilter and stressful. I prayed for help.

At the end of the 'Reflections' segment, I heard my husband come down the hallway. He told me that he felt called to send me back to bed so I could fall asleep. I laughed and decided to try.

It was around 8:00 am and I fell into a deep, deep sleep and had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "A Great Meeting with Enoch & Elijah " begins…

I was with my family and even my extended family. My brothers, nieces, nephews and their children were all there. So was my husband's extended family. There were so many people that I knew there. I was not quite sure why everyone was there. There were also friends there that I was once close to. However, there were also quite a few friends there that I had never met in person. We were gathered at a beautiful ski lodge.

Based on the height of the mountains, it was either Whistler or somewhere else in the Rockies. I am not a skier though as I danced and chose other sports that didn't mesh with skiing. Besides, skiing was way too expensive, especially when I was young. Anyway, it was a big celebration with me at the center. I was celebrating, but I did not know exactly what I was celebrating. A huge banner was there that read…

"Happy 25th Erin!!"

I found this strange as my sons were older than 25. Anyway, it was beautiful and such fun to have everyone whom I love and/or were related to being there altogether. There were at least 200 people in attendance. I then went over to the microphone.

Me: "I am so very thankful to God for this celebration. What a joyful journey this has been over these last 25 years." I actually looked and felt 25 while I was speaking. "I pray my journey continues!" Everyone cheered. "I love all of you and call you my friends."

Note: Today, February 23, 2025, marks the 25th Anniversary of meeting Enoch and Elijah for the very first time on February 23, 2000!

The manager came over and interrupted me…

Manager: "Erin, it is time for your 'Solo Run'!" I felt a bit confused by this. Sensing my confusion, the crowd died down. "Don't worry, Erin. You will love this."

I smiled and waved at everyone. I boarded a gondola-like ski lift alone with my skis. I looked back and I could see that the gondola was carrying me higher and higher. I was now so high up that I could not even see the lodge. The sky had grown darker. I then began to see what looked like torches lining the runs. It was beautiful.

The gondola reached the top and turned towards a landing. The doors opened and I went out onto the platform. I bent down to put on my skis. I then heard a different, yet familiar, sound. It was the rushing of extreme water and the sound of a fast train. I turned and the gondola was gone.

I looked back and I was on an extremely high alpine-like mountain on a station platform. In front of me was something like train tracks, but not like anything I have ever seen. I then saw lights coming. A train was coming. I began to cry.

Me: "Father, was the celebration my funeral? All of this is so familiar. I am scared."

Just then, the train slowed. I could hear the rhythmic sound of train tracks. However, this hovered over the tracks. The door opened and the tram halted. There in front of me were two familiar faces. They were wearing long robes and had long white hair and beards. Their skin was bright like burnished bronze. One of them had green eyes and the other blue eyes. They smiled and their teeth were so white.

While they then started to speak to me, they were doing so without moving their lips.

Enoch: "Erin, it is good to see you again."

Elijah: "No designer clothing today?"

Me: Barely able to speak. "I first met the two of you here in the year 2000 after a vision of me crashing a motorcycle."

Enoch: "Yes, but in a different way than the latter times."

Me: "This seems so real. Am I dead? Am I coming Home?"

Elijah: "No. However, you are now dead to yourself."

Me: "But I thought that happened long ago?"

Elijah: "This is different. You have now reached the end of yourself…"

Enoch: "…and your personal ambitions."

Me: "I didn't realize that I had any of this left."

Elijah: "You have surrendered all things to God and have met His expectations…"

Enoch: "…along with His criteria for what comes next."

Me: "What comes next? I don't feel special or like I have done anything noteworthy. I have no plans."

Elijah: "There it is! No plans… no 'SELF' plans!"

Me: "Oh." I sighed deeply. "I have been so depressed, tired and separated from things lately. I just can't describe it. I was even considering looking for a broom tree."

Elijah: "Well, in your search, God came. He also sent angels."

Me: "Even though I am not, I feel so old now and alone. I have tried to do the right things. I have tried to keep my promises I made to God."

Enoch: "It is not about anything but your heart."

Elijah: "Yes. God looks at your heart."

Enoch: "Erin, if you needed to lay down your life for your friends, you would do so without hesitation."

Me: "Am I going to war?"

Elijah: "You are already in it."

Enoch: "Time is difficult to understand as there is no measure of it here. God keeps time where you are. God also keeps time here, but it is not the same."

Elijah: "God has prepared you for all of these years… all of those He has called to take this journey, as well as others that will be added to it."

Enoch: Pointing to Elijah. "We will go from here to where you are and be hated and die. However, God will raise us up and the wicked will be shaken."

Me: "What a horrible death."

Elijah: "This is nothing compared to the Lord."

Me: "When will all of this be?"

Enoch: "When God says it is time."

Elijah: "You will walk with us one day. You will walk with the Lord and your friends. There will be thousands and thousands of you."

Me: "Heaven or…?"

Enoch: "A mystery for now, one that the Lord will show you. Understand that it will be a place of your dreams. It will be a place of wonder, splendor and life. Joy and laughter returns."

Elijah: "All is made brand-new. Even so, we still have souls to bring in."

Enoch: "This is the difficult portion of the journey."

Me: "I thought I had been through that."

Elijah: Laughing. "The self-removal was difficult. Yes, Erin, I must admit that I was skeptical about you."

Enoch: "I wasn't. I saw it in you. I saw the sparkle. However, your flame is burning low now and you are dwelling in a cave experience. Erin, God will send you help."

Elijah: "He always does. He is persistent even when you run from Him."

Both Enoch and Elijah laughed good-naturedly. For some reason, this made me cry.

Me: Sniffling. "My children… my friends… all are discouraged. It has been a struggle. We had hoped for…"

Enoch: "Erin, He knows and sees. Cry out to Him. Tell Him truthfully how you are feeling and what you need. All is possible with the Creator who knows what you need even before you ask."

Elijah: "Look, even I understand this. You do this as He called you. Then you are met with impossible resistance, evil and hopelessness. After a difficult journey, it is easy to be tired, want to give up and fall asleep. However, He has you at the turning point of your journey."

Enoch: "You are here again, Erin, at the Mountain of God. Come aboard! Go ahead and step in. You can come back for your skis."

I stepped inside with both of them. As I did, the door closed. The tram then began to travel through incredible scenic places. I held onto the robes of Enoch and Elijah. The tram was perfectly still and made no motion. It was not like going through a subway or on train tracks.

Me: "Where are we going?"

Elijah: "Well, we are getting out of that winter place."

It was now springtime as we went through meadows and flowering fields with new bright green grass. There was still evidence we were in the mountains because there were granite boulders like the Sierra Nevada or Yosemite. I saw beautiful lakes and forested areas.

The train then came to a stop. I could see a mountain so steep in front of me and a path. The sky was bright blue. The door opened and there was a stone landing area. There was a small wooden sign with an arrow and it pointed to another sign…

"God This Way!"

I laughed. I then turned to the landing. I then turned back.

Me: "Are you coming with me?"

Enoch: "No. This is your journey."

Elijah: "We have places to be right now. It is good to see you here again without your designer garments."

Me: "Yes. My PJs." I smiled and laughed. "Thank You!" Tears streamed down my cheeks. I was worried for them. "I love you both."

Enoch: 'You are like a daughter to us. We have prayed for you. Now go and continue your journey."

Elijah: "You have come a long way. We will see you again. Do not worry."

I turned back toward the landing. The moment I stepped onto it, I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

It was almost 12:00 noon. I never sleep this long.

Me: "Father, what is next? So many of us are old or sick. We are wounded and discouraged. We can't fight in a war without a miracle."

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you. I am glad you are here. I know you have many questions. I know you are sad and discouraged and all things seem lost. They are not! I know there has been bad news and you are so downcast. You fear that I will not hear or rescue you. More storms come and then to more bad news.

"Well, I promise you that I see it and I am working all things together for the good of those who love Me. Erin, you love Me. You are not crazy or delusional. I send you dreams. I send you hope. I don't forget. I remember. I remember and I love you. If I had told you 25 years ago that My return would be at least 25 years longer, would you still have continued with Me?"

Me: "Yes, Lord, but I must admit that I thought all would be much faster, on our time, not God's. What I mean is that I thought Your time and ours would be more in sync. Your time is a Divine Mystery. It is about souls, not about our comfort and our timelines. My faith has been tested and I pray it is good. I am just exhausted. More medical stuff is coming and I am tired."

Jesus: "Then give all of this to Me. I know."

Me: "Did I act in front of my children so positive and faithful and with such promise that I have hurt them when it has taken so long for them to see it? The death of Zoey really struck my children hard. They still…"

Jesus: "Do you remember how you reacted when they would make declarations like, 'God would never allow this. He loves Zoey.' or 'Zoey will live many more years!'"

Me: "Yes. I would then say, 'We don't know how the Lord will do this. She is very sick. Maybe the best thing for Zoey is in Heaven with our other animals.' They did not like this answer. However, after I had prayed for healing and she became even worse, I knew You had a different plan. I instead asked for an extension of her life."

Jesus: "Well, I gave you an additional few years. I extended her life at least three times, but took her at the Appointed Time. She is now free, Erin, and happy. She is whole and runs."

Me: "Death of a loved one is hard on those who remain. Here, once was one way will never be here again. When You were crucified, Lord, and laid to rest in a tomb, for three days, all who remembered You and grieved were lost. You are the Living God. How difficult!"

Jesus: "Those who loved Me and walked with Me were not certain I was who I said I was and had a great crisis of belief. This was not just Thomas. The empty tomb was a healing moment. I then appeared to many. I even raised the dead and walked among them. So, Erin, do you believe what I say to you?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I love You. You have shown me so much. You have so much love for me. You won't stop. I am near Your Altar. My Nest is near the Altar of God."

Jesus: "Erin, your name is written on the palm of My hand. I have your animals here. I have your parents. I have relatives you haven't even met yet. I have friends of yours here. Heaven is expanding here."

Me: "What about the New Earth?"

Jesus: "You will be overjoyed to see what I have planned for those who love Me. All that I have promised, I will do."

The snow outside was falling as the sun was still shining in the distance. It was so beautiful.

Jesus: "I will send you signs, miracles and wonders. Be still your heart. I am with you. I will bless you and watch over you. The attacks of the enemy are many, but I will make them come to nothing. I am who I say I am. I AM! Above Me there is no other. Since I am with you, then what can come against you that I cannot deliver you from?"

Me: "I am just tired, Lord. I need help. We need some healing."

Jesus: "Then you came to the right place. I am here to help. I am here to heal."

Me: "Lord, is the Pope about to die?"

Jesus: "Those who speak against My anointed with words against My Will are to be humbled. The righteous who I raise up, who represent Me, must then yield to My Will and adhere to My Word. I bring low the proud. I give voice to the meek amongst you. My Will be done, Erin, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Note (Source: Reuters): Pope Francis sharply criticized U.S. President Donald Trump's immigration crackdown in an unusual open letter to America's Catholic bishops, saying criminalizing migrants and taking measures built on force "will end badly". The pope also called Trump's plan to deport millions of migrants a 'disgrace', saying it was wrong to assume that all undocumented immigrants were criminals.

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-888/

888 – The World is soon to be in an Uproar

Received on Sunday, March 2, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your care and love over Your children and our house. We are blessed because You opened our ears to hear You call us and we heard You and turned to listen to what You have to say. I love You, Father. While I am not perfect in so many ways each day, You see past my imperfections and You pursue me. You have plans that are concealed, so I trust You with my life.

My dreams were broken last night. For five hours, I struggled to sleep. The wind was strong and I could hear our aluminum tower at times sound like it was going to rip away from the mounting on our roof. Our dog is sick right now, so I kept listening for her and got up a few times to check on things. I kept hearing barking, but it was Zoey's and she is not here anymore so I was imagining it.

With the wind, our window creaked and sounded like it would blow away. It needs to be replaced, but it will be an ordeal. The howling sounds are haunting. On the night before Zoey's last day, I sat with her at her pet bed by that window and she slept through it. She was accustomed to the sounds. However, sitting there with her and listening to it – it was lonely – it didn't sound secure. While I love breezes, I do not like howling winds.

Despite my struggles to sleep, I had a few vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Snigglet crosses the bridge to join Zoey" begins…

In my dream, I was still asleep. I then woke up to the sound of Zoey's barking. It was early morning and springtime was now turning into summer. The cars were gone from the driveway, so everyone had left for work (perhaps even my husband?).

I felt a draft and saw that the front door had opened I went to close it when I saw Snigglet sitting in the yard looking towards the creek. I called her and she turned to look at me. However, she then went right back to looking at the creek. This made no sense as Snigglet is shy and would never leave the house on her own. I quickly put on my mud boots and walked outside towards her.

She waited until I got to the yard and then walked slowly towards the creek. When she stopped, the bridge suddenly appeared right before my eyes. Zoey was on the other side of the bridge waiting. Snigglet looked at me and then back to Zoey. Snigglet then began to walk across the bridge towards Zoey. I ran towards her.

Me: Trying to cry out. "Snigglet! No! Please don't leave!"

Nothing came out, only airy whispers. I began to cry as Snigglet went over to join Zoey. Just then, Snigglet changed and they began to play and tackle each other. They then stopped to look at me. They then both ran off. When I went to chase after them, a large gust of wind hit the house and I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I laid there and prayed: "Lord, please heal Snigglet. It is not time for us to let her go. It is too soon. Please heal her." After quickly going downstairs, I went back to bed. My heart was still racing as I fell back to sleep and went into my second dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The USA's Fall is China's Rise" begins…

Background to this dream: The White House Oval Office meeting on Friday, February 28, 2025 with Ukraine's president has not sit well with me. The glaring thing that he said when arguing with Trump seemed like he had revealed plans to attack the USA from the oceans. The Ukrainian president seemed overly confident and was standing up against Trump. It bothered me. I felt something had shifted.

Further note to this dream: Please note that this dream played out as if I was watching a movie. I felt that this movie's primary plot was about the fall of the USA and the accelerated rise of China. I did not enjoy this 'movie' at all!

I caught a glimpse of a sea creature and its swimming pattern all over the Earth. It was the Red Dragon and it was circling the lands it planned to conquer via the sea. It circled the islands in the Pacific, Australia and outside of India. It then swam to Africa and circled the island of Madagascar and the east coast of Africa down around the Cape. It then went over to South America up the coast of Brazil and into the Caribbean Islands where it stopped to rest before continuing to Panama.

At the Panama Canal, there was a wall blocking its planned route. It was furious that it couldn't swim through to the other side. I then saw it swim quickly under water and pop up out of the water near Japan. It stayed there for awhile before swimming home. I then saw spies leaving China while President Xi made a public commitment of loyalty to Russia. China did this so the attention would be on this union. China was being particularly crafty.

I then saw an envoy of peacemakers from China coming to Europe to broker a peace deal. This was for Europe to join China in a 'Belt and Road Initiative' to invest in exchange for rare earth minerals and to cut out the USA, effectively declaring China as being sovereign over the USA and peacemaker over the world. China also had set its sights on Greenland and Canada. China had been making inroads to shut the USA out of all mineral and oil rights around the globe.

Meanwhile, Russia became angry at this union. However, China then told Russia it was merely a trick even though China had every intention of eventually even taking over Russia's land and economy. China was positioning themselves to appear more powerful and diplomatic and make Trump look like a weak fool.

In Canada, the rulers in power were so upset at Trump's rhetoric to merge it with the USA that they failed to see that China had almost complete power over all they did. China instead had plans to make Canada their military base camp to attack by land and sea. Because the media was blacked out, the people were in the dark and had no idea what was happening.

This had all happened so quickly that even Russia was late to see what was occurring. The president of Russia (Putin) then considered an alliance with the USA after they received intel of Xi's intentions. I then saw parts of Russia in ruins because Ukraine had used Chinese weapons that were marked as if they were from the USA. However, Russia realized the deception and knew they had been double crossed by China.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up from the wind and then fell back to sleep for another dream…

Sub-dream 3 "Time for us to get ready for the Groom" begins...

I was back at the bridge. I was calling out for Snigglet and Zoey. They weren't coming. I was stressed. Right after I sat down on the bridge to grieve, there was Uriel on his horse. He dismounted and I immediately ran to him.

Me: "Oh Uriel, where are my dogs?"

Uriel: "Erin, they are on your property. They are well and safe in God's hands."

Me: "But my kids can't…"

Uriel: "Do not worry. Do not. They are so happy here and fully alive. Your dog (Snigglet) is no longer in pain and can see well again."

Me: "I have never seen Snigglet here before."

Uriel: "Well, she is here. Now, you are having a difficult rest and have many questions. Come with me. I have a message for you from God."

As soon as I ran across the bridge, my garment became white. I was wearing a linen dress that seemed somewhat similar to a sleeping shirt. I could see my skin and it had a glow with no flaws.

Me: "I feel so young and healthy. I can breathe easily again."

Uriel: "What God has made here is beautiful. Now, things you cannot see, things not reported on, are much worse than you know. There have been many plots and planned uprisings. There is great fear in the demonic realms when God anoints and gives rise to a nation or nations and strongholds are exposed and great corruption is revealed.

"Erin, always remember that God is in complete control. Though it may seem He is not at times, I can assure you that there is NO greater power made of man or by the hands of man that God is not infinitely greater than it all. He knows, He sees and He prevails over all things. This Earth will pass away and now with great acceleration. All you see around you will be in ashes."

Me: "So, this is it, Uriel?"

Uriel: "Not yet. However, the end is coming because you can see the plans of the wicked exposed for all to see."

Me: "The Book of Zephaniah. It is here. But what about revival, Uriel? What about the Great Harvest?"

Uriel: "The end is not yet. However, all that you have seen for all of these years is the place that God has prepared for those who love Him. Erin, keep your focus on the good that God hath made."

Me: "Uriel, despite the winter conditions here, the trees are beginning to bud. This means that spring is here."

Uriel: "The seasons God has put in place do not change. All of the angels know this, even the fallen angels. It is a sign again that God is sovereign. Those who worship money will be shocked when they find out that money cannot purchase salvation. The money that is made by the blood of saints will not make Shoel more luxurious for them. They will not escape the wrath of God.

"Now, remember what is written and even told to you by His own Words here. You will know the heart of a man by his fruits. Remember the fig tree. Also, another thing from God to remember is the fall feasts… the prophecy of the fall feasts has yet to be fulfilled, so there is time."

Me: "Where are we now on God's Clock?"

Uriel: "I can only say what God has told me to say, which is, 'Tell Erin that the hour is late!' Remember the Virgins and their lamps. They all grew tired waiting and they all fell asleep. The Groom still comes for His Bride and His party makes noise to alert the Bride of His coming.

"Since the watching Bride is not in a deep sleep, she quickly comes to the open window and sees that her Groom is coming for her in great celebration and joy. However, only those who have prepared and readied themselves will be caught up to the Groom. Ready yourselves!"

Me: "Uriel, am I not ready?"

Uriel: "If you were not ready, our conversation would be more of a rebuke and warning from God directly for you to repent and turn back to Him who loves you. I instead bring messages of encouragement to you that your Home is here, not where you are, so be encouraged.

"Now, I must go. Do not worry when all these events unfold. The enemy is angry and has mobilized his army because the house he thought he had conquered (the USA) is now a place of prayer and a place that gives thanks to God, Lord and Savior of man."

Me: "Yes! The cabinet meeting prayer was thanks to Jesus and praises to Him!"

Uriel: "They then struck back and mobilized. God is now mobilizing His Great Army. Do not worry. Oh yes, one other message… the 70 saints are at the Altar of God and those responsible come from the army of the false prophet."

Me: "I thought it was…"

Uriel: "Whatever is the exact opposite of the children of God and His Son is the false religion and worship of their savior who does not save… a loving God vs a vengeful god of hate and submission by fear. This is how you will know. I must go. Do not worry."

Uriel mounted his horse and turned to ride off. Just then, I heard Snigglet and Zoey barking in the distance.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, help. I had hoped for changes here, but now I am not certain. I believe Artificial Intelligence (AI) in its many forms is the modern Tower of Babel. Most of us just don't know that much about this technology. I don't. It seems to move faster than I am able to keep up with. If I didn't need technology for communication, I would just get rid of all of it and unplug it. However, in today's world, this is now impossible.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I have never left you. It is difficult to understand the lure of money and the worship of idols. You learned in seminary that God created man for worship. Man was created for worship. Man is a created being made in the image of God. Then there is Eve…

"Despite creating a beautiful Garden and abundant life, even a companion and time spent in communion walking with God, the snake was able to convince Eve that there was even more to know, a greater truth than the truth they enjoyed. Erin, the battle of truth vs lies all began in the Garden.

"As time passed, people either worshipped God or false idols that toppled over. They worshipped gold and things presented to them by things related to money. They worshipped Molech, Baal and the other gods of the Earth.

"They have even declared this year to be the year of the snake, the year of great deception. However, remember that people cannot be deceived unless they are willing. This means they are defiant against God or they are allowed this by God via an open door of testing."

Me: "Lord, it is easy to be deceived by lies when they are melded by truth."

Jesus: "Then come to Me. Come to Me and I will show you these deceptions. The liars are emboldened now, but don't believe it. Truth will prevail. The Words of Truth I speak from My tongue is the sharpest of swords and cuts through the lies with precision.

"Now, Erin, you are worried about many things. I have not taken you on this long journey only to give you a lackluster ending. I promised you good things all the days of your life and luster too!

"Now, the world is soon to be in an uproar. Kingdoms will fall. However, remember this… I am within you. You will not fall. I will help you at the break of dawn. Erin, meditate on this. Be still and know that I am God.

"I have not given My crown to another. It is I who sits on the Throne. It is I who calls the mountains into the sea. It is I who raises up the valleys and makes straight a highway unto Me.

"While it seems that the wicked are winning, they have already lost. They are now fighting to keep their betrayals hidden. However, I will open up the floodgates of truth and their markets will scatter and plummet. All will be gone as they know it and in a single day.

"So, Erin, pray! Pray, as they will stammer like zombies and be helpless. They will ask, 'Where is God in this? Where?' Well, the God they turned from will not come to their aid because they silenced My Word and slaughtered My people. Therefore, I will not hear their cries. However, they will be subjected to fair judgment by My Army."

Me: "Lord, You seem angry… like an angry King on the Throne! When will You mount Your horse?"

Jesus: "It is coming. Erin, I Am coming and the world will know I Am God. However, be at peace, worship in truth and pray day and night because no one will be prepared for what comes. Even though you will know, it will still be shocking."

Me: "Please strengthen me, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I Am here and I Am with you. Do not be worried or afraid. Remember that the snake deceives by first offering something that isn't his to offer. You will know him by his fruit. I love you, Erin. I Am here. I have you. Do not be afraid. I Am with you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-889/

889 – Crossing over to check on the neighbors

Received on Sunday, March 9, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for being God. Thank You for being in control of all things when the reports we receive are chaotic all over the world. There are conflicts, uprisings and wars now on every continent.

It is a beautiful sunny day today. The remnants of the strong howling winds we had are scattered all over the ground and throughout our yard. We also have a few leaning trees that will need to be felled by a pro. Even though these things are inconvenient, we are grateful to You for not allowing any trees to fall on our home. Thank You!

We are also thankful for our leaders and pray that corruption does not fall on anyone of them as they continue to balance the scales of our branches of government. Father, please continue to strengthen Your appointed Jehu and bring our country revival. We as a country now have enemies everywhere as changes made by the administration include the elite of various governments, including our own.

There are now even calls from Canada to destroy the USA as many fight back against the changes, currently mainly tariffs. However, the silent enemies are the ones we need to watch out for as a very public threat has been made against us to wage war until the end by any and all means necessary. This was made by the Red Dragon.

We are also witnessing reports of Christians being slaughtered in Syria. There are many more being slaughtered in Africa as well. We just never hear true reporting on this. I would imagine it is much worse than even the reports say.

I saw a horrible article a few days ago that was sent to me by a friend. It was about the Black Dragon and their stronghold over leaders and whole cultures. However, the Lord then reminded me that the pattern of the enemy is one and the same. His ways are always the same and they usually follow the same order…

1. Establish an altar of worship to their god.
2. Gather followers of this god and strengthen them as an army to defend the altar.
3. Grow the religion and add to the population of like-minded worshippers. Overcome whole sections and expand on enemy territory. If given an inch, take a mile instead.
4. When there is any resistance of any kind at all, claim victimhood and garner sympathy for the invaders.
5. When permissions have been granted and favors have been given by local governments in order to keep the peace, create further resistance to adhere to local customs and the laws of the host.
6. Use the law to turn on the governing authority (God) and even in the courts.
7. Establish rulers. Appoint into higher government the anti-Jesus rulers.
8. A divided house will then fall.

This was the Lord's response because I was so bothered by the arrest of Christians for silent prayers even in their own homes. Then there are the farmers in South Africa that are being slaughtered for the color of their skin- also so deeply disturbing.

In the meantime, it now looks like the city of Paterson in New Jersey will be dedicating itself to Islam. Paterson, along with other cities, will now honor this religion. How can this even be allowed when we are supposed to be a Christian nation? Our foundation of Christian faith is disappearing rapidly now in so many states, but especially blue ones. It is so sad. Father, please allow revival before the Last Trump is complete!

On Friday, quite a storm hit. My husband and I were home. The wind howled and the snow blew. On the day before, our road had turned into a river of melting snow over the ice. It then froze. When our neighbors down the hill then posted that they were experiencing flooding, we prayed it would not hit our home. Thank You, Father, for answering this prayer as our home remained relatively unscathed.

I then placed some seeds in the seed tray for the brave birds who were weathering the storm. I was able to capture a lone Starling in the middle of a group of Finches, Juncos and Chickadees. He eventually flew off as the wind became even stronger. I have not seen this Starling return yet. This is interesting because, according to my notes from a while back, the starling symbolizes transformation. Let it be so!

Both of my sons have had similar dreams lately…

Sub-dream 1 "My sons' dreams of God taking me Home" begins…

In my sons' dreams, I had asked God to take me Home. In their dreams, God then agreed to this. I then left them both here on Earth alone.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I was sad about that, especially because I have been sick recently and I have not been myself. I want to stay here. I am not ready to go. My body might be ready to go, but my Spirit is wanting and willing to serve God here instead.

As for my children, they are experiencing real battles where they work. I can offer no solace as both my husband and I have had similar experiences in our pasts. No place is safe from troubles right now, not even church.

Father, I know You sent President Trump to make right the great harms to the people from corrupt leaders. We support those whom You appoint. However, we are watching the world saying things against the USA that I have never heard before. It is alarming. Please help all of us to go where You want us to be when all of this becomes worse.

The wind has continued to disturb my sleep these last few nights. My first dream from last night was quite alarming…

Sub-dream 2 "The Red Dragon attacks intensify" begins…

The wicked leader of the Red Dragon had sent several operatives into the USA when the border was still weak. These operatives have been gathering intel and causing disasters in order to measure defenses, see any weaknesses and survey the land. The army of the Red Dragon is planning a major attack by proxy to destroy the USA.

I saw random fires in various places that do not normally have wildfires during the winter. I was then shown that they were acts of arson and not from natural causes. I then saw foreigners starting these fires in various areas. These fires were set on purpose and done so discreetly that no one would suspect arson. These were set by the operatives.

I then saw several lakes, rivers and waterways poisoned to strike against recreation and fishing. Food processing plants were set on fire. Animals were poisoned. I saw these operatives trying to destroy the USA from within to create fear and cause markets to be unstable.

What I saw in my dream was disturbing, especially the fires started in what seemed random but were not. So many of them were close to military operations and bases.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up to a bang. I then went downstairs, but there was nothing. I went back to bed, fell asleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 3 "Uriel visits and our creek looks great" begins…

In my dream, I had been calling for my dogs in the yard. I could not find them. I sat down near the creek on a chair. The trilliums were blooming. Spring had now arrived. I began to cry out to God…

Me: "Lord, I am so sad. I feel so hopeless. I miss my dogs. I miss something I don't understand. It was a promise. It was so exciting. I now fear because my kids know how to shoot guns. My children and even my husband will soon be called to war. I will be left here alone… with no dogs even. I am alone and not healed."

A chair suddenly appeared next to me. I then saw that Uriel was sitting in it.

Uriel: "Erin, God hears you. He sees you and He will send you help. You are never alone. Do not worry. You are God's 'Starling in the Storm'. I heard Him declare it!"

Me: "Uriel, that Starling was battered!"

Uriel: "And you are not? You are living in a time when peace transitions into calamity because of wars, rumors of wars and wars unlike any others that have ever been waged. You are unsure because you have no means to do anything else right now. As such, you wait on God, study His signs and read His Word.

"The Lord wants you to praise Him and be His 'Starling in this Storm'. Remember that He sent the starling to your feeder to eat for the journey ahead. He first prompted you to bring the seed before the storm became worse and He provided the means, the seed, to do this. Erin, what is impossible for God?"

Me: "Nothing is impossible for God! He is amazing!"

Uriel: "There is great evil being exposed throughout the nations. The wicked are being brought into the light. However, you are to remember this… by God's own lips, when a man lives by lies, then the threat of exposure by light, the light of truth… well, a wicked man searches for even greater darkness to hide in… thinking himself more clever than God.

"See, the light of God has come into the world, but the people love the darkness more than the light because darkness conceals evil. Erin, the Lord never told you this would be an easy time. However, know this… He is with you always and His angels have been given charge over you. Do not worry. Oh, look over here…"

He stood up and walked over to our creek. Our creek had become sandy and the water had become crystal clear. There were now rainbow trout swimming in the water.

Me: Laughing. "This is a runoff creek. Where did these fish come from?"

Uriel: "From God! Oh look… fishing poles! Erin, it is almost time to fish."

I looked at the creek and then back to Uriel, but he was gone. There was no chair next to mine anymore. I looked at the creek and it was so healthy. While I now felt like fishing, Uriel had taken the poles with him. I laughed when I found a handheld fishing net instead.

Sub-dream 3 over…

I woke up again to a bang caused by the outside wind. I laid in bed and noticed it was 4:30am. Tears streamed down my cheeks onto my pillow. I prayed the Lord's Prayer. Father, please keep our families safe. Evil has increased.

Sub-dream 4 "The Giant Red Xs" begins…

I woke up from sleeping in my dream. It was morning and I had decided to go for a walk with my dog. It was a beautiful spring day. I walked north up the street. I saw my neighbor's car and the doors were open. There was a giant red X on the front door of their home.

Me: Yelling out. "Hello?"

No one answered. It was creepy. I turned down another way and saw similar things at all the houses. I was not sure what the X meant on the front doors of the houses. In one of the neighbor's driveway, they never even made it to their car. There was an open suitcase with items strewn across the driveway.

I decided to pick up my dog and run home. When I got home, I could tell that no one had broken into it. For some reason, there was no giant red X on the front door of our home. I prayed. I then noticed that there were no birds outside. Really, there didn't seem to be anything alive here at all.

Sub-dream 4 over…

I once again woke up to a bang from the wind. This dream was scary. Father, this was a scary dream.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Right now, you worry about many things."

Me: "But, Lord, in my dream, I wasn't taken. Did I miss the Rapture?"

Jesus: "Are your neighbors all believers in Me?"

Me: "I don't know. What I do know is that they hated me."

Jesus: "So then, you don't know the circumstances here, only it was sudden and some left their cars running. This doesn't mean you were left behind. Did it ever occur to you that you had crossed over to check on your neighbors? You certainly weren't old. So much of the time you spend fearing the worst for yourself does not add anything good to your life here. Now, calamity comes prior to the Great Harvest."

Me: "Is this the Late Grape Ice Wine Harvest?"

Jesus: "Only for those who come through the days of Tribulation. These are different. There is still time for revival.

"Now, you worry about many things, but do not. I know you have struggled and grown tired… for ALL have fallen asleep. However, I am about to shake the nations. My judgement is coming to the wicked. I am keeping you and your family safe and I will continue to provide for you. I don't want you to worry. I will sustain you.

"Now, I realize your children have been sad. They are waiting for an Open Door. So too is your husband. Well, I am the Door and I will open this to greater things. I have you. I am with you. I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-890/

890 – The Lord and His Great Rivers

Received on Sunday, March 16, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for the promises of spring. Thank You for my family and friends and, most of all, the miracle of Your Presence.

Father, I am sorry for complaining at times more than I praise You. I have no excuses. I have grown tired of this place surrounding us. I stay quiet and wait on You. I 'stand down' until You direct me another way. We have been enduring storm after storm here only by Your Grace. We are grateful, Lord.

It recently came to my attention that a close friend had become angry at our inability to respond quickly when they had sent correspondence. Instead of reaching out to see if we were all okay here, he instead sent us an extremely harsh accusatory letter. It was horrible and said things that we had not even done or had been plotting against this person.

We had been so busy dealing with our own troubles in this season that to hear such horrible untruths makes me question if I am up to more from You, Father. While I want more of You, my skin is thin after these personal battles.

As a result, I now ask if You would place some fresh armor on my body. Please make it strong like Damascus steel, yet keep my heart pliable and my mind sharp. I pray for my Sparrow friend who was so harsh and ask for forgiveness of any wrongs he may feel against me.

I ask You to show him that we are enduring so many things here and cannot always respond quickly. I don't respond well to the demands that others put on me when they then claim that these demands are actually from You. There are days when the actions of others cause me to lose sleep.

Psalm 102:7: "I lie awake; I am like a lonely sparrow on the housetop."

My sleep has been disturbed. I have been so troubled by what has occurred that I wonder if You hear my cries and witness my tears. We are under attack here, but more specifically me. I have days in which I am ready to go Home and crossover the bridge myself. The things of this world no longer interest me and I wonder at times about my own worth.

I have lost friends over the years. Many of them claim to receive prophecy from You, Father, and have told me to stop the dreams. One person even specifically told me I would not have more than 50 dreams. I then heard from another that God would never give anyone the gift of these dreams.

Father, there are days when I am in pain, when I am sick and struggling, when I wonder about these things myself. In the past, some have turned away from me and said things which were untrue in the process, things that I would never think or even say.

You gave me a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "The River of these Dreams" begins…

You showed me a beautiful River. This River had tributaries running into it. The water was free flowing and crystal clear.

Jesus: "This is the River of visions, dreams, miracles, signs and wonders I have given you. It is free flowing and I am the Creator of this River and all that feeds into it from smaller rivers to even rain from above. Many come to drink from this River. Next to its banks are trees planted and roots fed from here. In due season, they bear much fruit. As you have loved Me and dedicated your days to Me, then I have given you this miracle. Now, come with Me…"

He reached for my hand and brought me downstream. There were manmade walls and dams meant to divert the River to their own tributaries in order to profit from this gift.

Me: "Lord, I can't do anything but pray that You would give them their own River."

Jesus: "You do not understand. They are not like beavers placing a dam to catch fish. This would be at least for My Kingdom and Glory and therefore they too would be blessed. No! These are deceivers sent to stop what I have given to you. They are angry and hold great bitterness in their hearts. They believe themselves more deserving, so they attack you. Why? Because they do not think of coming directly to Me. They choose to discourage you and elevate themselves. Erin, I destroyed the first house."

Me: "Oh… the Barn?"

Jesus: "Yes. I then created a new place near My Altar."

Me: "Psalm 1 and Psalm 84 seem to be fitting here, Lord."

Jesus: "There is a common theme and it is that you are close to Me and I watch over you. I do not give you a dry riverbed where there is no water. While sometimes the currents are fast and sometimes slow, it is I who feeds your River, Erin."

Me: "Thank You for these dreams, Lord!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, please help me to be spiritually ready for what comes next. The world seems to be in great upheaval. It makes no sense. Christians are being prosecuted and there is no earthly justice for any of them right now. I believe it is actually much, much worse than we even know!

I then had a shocking nightmare last night…

Sub-dream 2 "The Eagle's Ordained Path" begins…

I saw a beautiful massive Bald Eagle about the size of a commercial plane. The Eagle was perfect and strong. It flew back and forth across the USA surveying the lands. Then after it had made its journey, I saw the heavens open to receive the Eagle. The Eagle was not visible for three minutes. It then swooped down with great speed and fury back over the land. Wherever there was deception, the Eagle dove downward.

Evil men were in great fear of this. The Eagle now had a different plan as it had been emboldened by God. It then soared over the nation to the north and the northeast. The nations below these then cursed the Eagle and tried to strike it down. They were unsuccessful. However, another country wanting to remove the threat of the Eagle gathered up other nations against it.

The Eagle had eyes from God and could see from a great distance what was being plotted. Then without warning a shot broke out from the eastern seaboard, from the sea, and the Eagle was struck. The Eagle then spiraled in a death dive. However, before the Eagle hit the ground, it miraculously recovered and all the Glory was given to God for this miracle.

In retaliation, whole areas of Earth were leveled and mountains thrown down. The areas of the wicked became wastelands. Fear of the God of the Eagle gripped the nations. But then after great celebrations and souls added to the Kingdom of God, He then opened up Heaven and all could see Him coming with thousands, all on horseback.

I woke up suddenly…

Sub-dream 2 over…

Since I couldn't go back to sleep, I got up and went to pray. I dropped to my knees.

Me: "Lord, please grant me a dream about what comes next. I thank You for all You have done for me, my family and our Nest. I am sorry for my grumblings and sorrows. Please have Isaiah 40:3-5 manifest here so that all can see Your greatness. I ask You for help and strength to be better at life here."

Isaiah 40:3-5: "3 A voice cries: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. 4 Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. 5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

I then felt an arm come across my shoulders. I heard the Lord whisper… 'Come, Erin, let's talk.' I got up from kneeling and went to my chair.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I know you have been sick and I promise to heal you. Right now, you are broken and discouraged and it seems like there is no help. While you worry about where this will come from or the means for this or that, do not worry. This is a plot from the enemy like a dam across the River I have given to you to stop your current streams and flood your banks, your meadows and your valleys with what the enemy desired.

"However, it is a lie. While it is okay to question why I allow certain things, do not question the gift of the River. I delight in you and your presence. You still come to Me as a child in wonder. This is why I will grant you the ability to make straight a highway through the wastelands to Me. Erin, you will see My Glory. While I promise you that all will see it, the wicked will not be happy about this.

"Now, I have created the landscape you see now as a result of corrupt leaders and governments. I have appointed angels with scales, levels like plumblines and tape measures to record the magnitude of destruction by the wicked. Did you really think that worshippers of Baal and agents of Molech would just flee without a fight? No!

"Understand that if all of this had not occurred and been exposed, then the peoples would be in total darkness and there would be great distress. But now, at least, all will understand when this began and what it was designed to do. Erin, this is My land and it is dedicated to Me. It was created by God and was owned by no man, understand? So, let them argue in God's Court and make a case there."

Me: "I feel the Earth is more evil now than good, Lord. It is so sad."

Jesus: "Do you not see it? I have sent a new government in place and the wicked are in great fear. They had profited in darkness and light has now been shed on their comings and goings. However, it is more evil and wicked and crosses many borders. The world has become wealthy from this one nation. It is the same thing as your River I have given to you.

"I have blessed this nation. I have given this nation beauty and strength. It was as a beautiful River. Many tributaries fed into it and all that surrounded it prospered. The nation and its land was like a well-watered garden. It was blessed and the nations envied her and wanted to be a part of the blessed land. Many prospered financially and became wealthy from her 'banks'.

"The focus then became less about the God who created this and instead the men who stood to protect it. Because men believed themselves God over the land, they slowly became fallible, allowing this or that, bargaining here or there. Soon other gods entered in and abortions became child sacrifice to Baal. These millions of innocent lives cry out about the atrocities brought upon them.

"God's favor then began to lift as prayers were silenced. Other nations began to see breeches in the Great River's banks and began to funnel blessings to their own banks. God had allowed the nation to break apart by division. All was set up with corrupt leaders and money… at first, in darkness, then in full light. The peoples of the nation were overtaxed and +out of jobs as the River became a creek and dam after dam failed to produce anything good.

"Then the borders and the banks were breeched and the land was flooded with foreigners. The nations then sent their worst criminals to further destroy the blessed country. Meanwhile, they continued to steal money from their reserves. To create more fear, tax collectors were given guns to collect from the people. All of this was done to destroy the country once favored by God."

Me: "Lord, why have You now sent us help?"

Jesus: "Prayers! The prayers of saints! The voices of young warriors! They boldly proclaim their love of God. The heart of God was then stirred at the Throne. The River has begun to flow again… until it does not.

"As for the other nations, they have given themselves over to other gods and the princes and rulers have slept with the Harlot religion. This Harlot proclaims peace and love, yet displays none. This Harlot shows no mercy or grace, only fornication and destruction.

"Remember… you know a river by the purity of the water and the clarity to see the bottom. Bad water is mirky and unclean and nothing prospers from its banks. Its tributaries come from wastelands and it is best not to work to make it clean. Unless God makes it clean, it cannot be consumed. This is the Harlot's religion. Leaders sleep in tents and defecate there and no one pays heed at all.

"Now, I gave you a dream about this many years ago…"

Me: "Yes. It was of ten tents and ten princes in London in broad daylight. They were fornicating with prostitutes for all to see."

Jesus: "You are to understand that this was prophetic."

Me: "I thought the Great Harlot was the USA."

Jesus: "It does not fit. Instead, it is a false religion, a movement, and all are in fear of it. Due to this fear, leaders fornicate and give themselves and their countries over to it."

Me: "So, the Harlot, the Beast and the False Prophet are…"

Jesus: "From the same false religion. Once you understand this then you can pray with a different focus. Call for exposure from Heaven and I promise you that the wicked will be revealed. Remember what the Great Harlot is and what she is guilty of."

Me: "Lord, this (the Black Dragon) is scary."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but it is right there in the open. Look no further. This is the opposite of the Kingdom of Heaven. So, you can now understand!"

Me: "Lord, You just revealed so much information to me. I am grateful. While I was looking for the wrong thing, there it is, right there, in the open!"

Jesus: "So, this is a good day!"

Me: "Yes, Lord, thank You! Please don't delay! Please!"

Jesus: "I won't. Remember… My Will is done on Earth as it is in Heaven… even the New Earth. Take comfort in this. Do not be afraid. I love you and I will continue to keep your River flowing. Erin, I am with you."

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-891/

891 – The Great Hate of the Black Dragon

Received on Sunday, March 23, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You! Spring was present yesterday and even my little groundhog appeared again. I then woke up to a blanket of fresh white snow this morning. I am grateful for the promises and certainty of You, Father. There is a certain constant rhythm You place us in. It is a special Holy Spirit Frequency that we are covered under by Your hands, Jesus.

I must emphasize that this is not a New Age Concept. Instead, it is one that sets many of us apart as Christians. I have noticed some or even all of the following common elements are present in those who follow You, our Almighty God…

- People stare at us for no reason at all.
- Children and babies gravitate to us.
- Animals tend to gather around us, wait for us and feel safe on our property.
- We are hated, unreasonably so, even though our neighbors and others do not even know us.
- At the same time, people we barely know tell us their life stories.
- We are attracted to and feel energized by others who are the same as us.
- We often find ourselves in the middle of tragic events where we feel called by You, Father, to pray or You suddenly grant us a keen sense of awareness of our surroundings.
- When called by You, we have supernatural endurance to do things we normally couldn’t under our own strength.
- You even grant us a double portion of knowledge of things we couldn’t possibly know to aid others.

I know that this is because You set us apart as children of God. I feel this strongly when I am around people who clearly hate You and me. They even voice things like curses or play music that literally drains my energy (Holy Spirit) and then I feel tired. In contrast, listening to uplifting music with praises to our Lord energizes my Spirit in a way similar to a battery being recharged.

Lord, these years of living apart from the life I once knew has truly changed me. It has been wonderful, Father, and relatively peaceful even with the common struggles that come to every family. Before, my days were filled with drama and so busy it was difficult for me to sleep, let alone remember my dreams. That was years ago now.

You allowed a shakeup with me personally to remove the focus on my daily waking drama to instead instruct me while I slept. It has changed my life and made me appreciate each day and be present in it. However, for the last few months, my sleep has been broken.

In response, I have increased my praises and worship music to help combat this. When I wake up, often I feel in my heart that You are preparing all of us for a season which both our waking hours and our sleeping hours are disturbed. So, Father, I ask for this…

Please strengthen us for this time coming so we are able to endure it. Please help us to keep our Holy Spirit anointed frequency and the light of Your presence to remain on us in all situations. We love You, Father, and we give You our lives for Your Divine and Perfect Purposes.

I had some vivid dreams the last few nights…

Sub-dream 1 "A VW Beetle, A Steep Hill & Some Saddled Horses" begins…

I was driving late at night / early in the morning (around 3:30am). I was driving the very first car I owned… a 60s Volkswagen Beetle. It was a stick shift. I was at a crossroad stopped at a traffic light. The crossroad was a T-bone, meaning I could only go left or right. As I was waiting, the glass windows in my car fogged up. I soon could not see at all. I decided to turn up the heat because there was no defrost.

Even though I then turned on the wipers, the fog still remained. A large circle on my front windshield then cleared. I then caught the image of someone walking in the crosswalk in front of me while the light was green. I could have killed him by accident.

The fog on my window suddenly completely cleared. The windows were now perfectly clear. Somehow trying to see through a foggy window is horribly frustrating. I then noticed that there were no other cars on the road with me.

The place I was driving in looked so familiar and I just knew that I had been here before. The place looked similar to the city and the place of the Forestry Board. I put my lights on bright and there in front of me straight ahead was a sign that read 'Service Entrance'. This was a rocky service road that was covered in a coat of fresh snow. I laughed as I knew that I was to go down this road.

Once on this road, the incline soon became impossibly steep. Thankfully, my VW Beetle had a powerful engine. I revved the engine, put it into gear and let off the clutch. I miraculously climbed the service road, but made it only halfway. I abandoned my car and continued on by foot to climb the other half of the hill.

When I reached the top of the hill, there was a large and vast pasture. There were horses laying down in the grass sleeping. While many of them had saddles, they did not have any riders. It was the most curious sight I had ever seen… a bunch off saddled horses laying around sleeping out in the open pasture.

As I continued to walk, there was a very large white horse stretched out across the road in a way that made it difficult for me to pass. He was also saddled up. As I began to carefully step over the horse, he woke up. I quickly jumped over its belly. I then heard him rising up to a standing position. While I felt bad for waking him up, I kept walking. The horse followed closely behind me, so close I felt his breath on my neck.

Me: "I am so sorry I woke you!"

The horse bent his front legs down to signal for me to mount his saddle.

Me: "Thank you!"

Even though I was now sitting in his saddle, he did not allow me to steer. Instead, he was taking me somewhere important. he sun was rising. As I looked around, I saw that the other horses were waking up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "A prominent leader double-crosses the Saudis" begins…

The Lord showed me abandoned theme parks and amusement centers all over North America and Europe. People were hiding and living there. They were labeled with signs in a foreign Middle Eastern script as 'Unclean'. There was a legal order on every gate. There were no lights. I saw no children. I didn't even see any wild animals. All I could hear was the haunting sound of the wind.

The Lord then showed me beautiful churches in Europe and North America. All of them had their crosses removed and had the crescent moons there instead. I saw major cities with burn pits. There was black, black smoke everywhere. The fires never went out and were constantly burning.

The Lord then drew my attention to Saudi Arabia. I saw great palaces and beautiful gardens which rivalled the most famous of the earth. Then suddenly I saw an army from the North and South come to raid the estates. I then saw the burning of all the riches of the royal Saudi family as well as most of them being captured and killed. The vast wealth of trillions of assets was being pillaged and destroyed. All of their luxuries were destroyed and their gold stolen.

The Lord then showed me the northern rulers in a northern city of seven towers. It was the new Caliphate. They took control over Mecca, Medina and all of the oil fields. They then took over the Mediterranean Gulf and all of the shipping lanes. Leaders from the United Kingdom, as well as places I didn't recognize, came to offer their allegiance to this new Caliphate.

A mandate then went out across the nations declaring that all material wealth, all assets, be surrendered as an offering to Allah. The leaders of the east became angry and declared war against the Caliphate.

I then saw the leader of the Black Dragon arise to bring comfort. He came to reassure the world that his way was a better way and… The Only Way! He lied to the people and told them that Allah would secure their holdings so no evil would steal from them if it were in his care.

The Lord then showed me that this leader had been funding all of the regime shifts in the world using Saudi wealth. I also was shown that the taxes of Americans were funding resistance campaigns via protests and the burning of American and Canadian cities, as well as cities in Europe and Africa. Money that was designated for one thing was then moved to an untraceable source.

When the Saudis had lost their usefulness and had begun to resist, this leader then exposed their lifestyle and great wealth. There was then an overthrow as this same leader then double-crossed them.

This leader then added to his homes, all of which were near the water. This included homes in Dubai, Hawaii, Marthas Vineyard, the Mediterranean Sea and other places. While his speeches were given 'inland', his retreats were taken 'near water'.

The Lord then showed me the great distress the world would be in. There were no lights. I then heard God speak out in a loud voice…

God: Thundering. "It is time!"

I then saw seven angels descend upon the Earth with seven bowls of judgements. The end then came. I woke up to the sound of my alarm.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I was deeply distraught by this. I then prayed that You would take us long before all of this. What I saw was the world becoming so dark and scary. Lord, at the speed of all of these events, how will harvest come to be? Christians are now being silenced in so many places, even in Europe and Canada.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Remember the root of all of this. Angels fell and then man fell to sin also. The story you know of only reveals a small fraction of a much larger picture. One day, all will be revealed to you and you will stand amazed. What I showed you in your dream was the impact of the Black Dragon and the rise of their power over the Earth void of God. I did not show you Israel or even any other power opposed.

"You must understand that they have sent out their fighting men to conquer slowly and raise up their own territories in those countries willing to accommodate their rise. There is one person who has continued to open doors for this to continue. Anything at all that offends their lifestyle or religion will be removed, silenced and destroyed. They are driven by the opposite of what they claim. You therefore need to be cautious and remain in prayer. Now, you had another dream…"

Me: "Yes…

Sub-dream 3 "The Winged Black Dragon searching for us" begins…

I was standing in a long line. There was no place to run. The Black Dragon was there. With wings protruding visibly from his body, he sat on a tall steel wall. He was searching the line specifically looking for us. However, he was prevented from seeing us and supernaturally skipped right over us in line.

I felt strongly that You were cloaking us or something. It was scary at first because his breath had a horrible stench of death. His eyes were green. I then saw him devour any person that he didn't like just randomly and violently.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Jesus: "Why did I allow such a nightmare?"

Me: "To show me that Your hand of protection conceals us against the enemy."

Jesus: "Yes. But even more than this, you were no longer of this world. You were sealed by My hand."

Me: Smiling. "Do You mean 'con-sealed'?"

Jesus: "Good observation! Now, do not worry about all of the bad news. Focus in on Me and My Good News and remember that all things are in the control of the God who loves you. You are witnessing great corruption as the enemy hurries to fortify his army's positions. This is because the enemy knows the times that are coming. Do not be afraid. Remember that I AM who I say I AM.

"When you are concerned, bring this before Me. When you have sinned or even when you are concerned about something, bring this to Me and allow Me to be God over this situation. Confess your sins to Me. I don't expect perfection, but instead require honesty. The days are perilous and the enemy wants you to be ashamed and in hiding.

"The longer you are away, the more difficult the return. Just come instead. Come to Me, all those who are tired and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Come to Me before you sleep and in the morning before you rise. Give your days and nights to Me for My Will to be done and I will take your burdens and give you rest and peace. I will meet you where you are. I love you."

Me: “Thank You, Lord. There are so many of us that need this reassurance right now. Please strengthen us.”

Jesus: “I will. You will be amazed. Now, rejoice! I am with you!”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-892/

892 – The Lord Will Guide us to Help in the Darkness

Received on Sunday, March 30, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! At some point, every life here concludes and we know You hold our days. We are grateful You hold them. Each day holds a new challenge. Each day, my patience is tested. Each day, I grow older and not always wiser. Each day is one day closer to You, Father. Blessed be Your Name. Blessed be Your Works. Blessed be our service. Blessed be our endurance in adversity.

With all of the bad news in this world, it is difficult to focus on the positive. There is so much injustice and wars waged in courts against those that desire to make all that is corrupt be exposed by the light. There is such a divide between that which is good vs evil that I am in shock by all of it.

I saw something recently that had to be CGI. A well-known Jewish man was giving his praises to Allah and to the celebration of the end of Ramadan. It was so real that it made me feel disheartened. These things are detestable to God. It is easy to become discouraged when lies are spread and truth is deemed as disinformation. All of this is truly heartbreaking.

I had a couple of disturbing dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Our address is 460 Summerset Circle, not 480" begins…

We had recently moved to a place surrounded by vast wheat fields. We lived at the end of a cul-de-sac with vacant lots all around us. These lots had not even been excavated or prepared for building yet. We lived in a medium-sized home with a lot of light from every corner of the home.

In this dream, all three of my children lived there with us temporarily while they were situated. Our home was brick and beautifully landscaped. Our address there was 460 Summerset Circle (a fictional address). On one of our days there, we received a knock on our front door from some apparent government FBI officials.

FBI: "Hello, ma'am. Your sons have been detained for questioning."

Me: Trying not to panic. "What did they do?"

FBI: "It is what they didn't do."

Me: "What was that? You must be mistaken."

FBI: "This is 480 Summerset Circle, right?"

Me: "No. The address here is 460, not 480."

FBI: "Well, it says 480."

Me: "That is impossible!"

I went to the front of my home to look. The middle number of 6 had been removed.

Me: "That's okay. I have it on film. Let's see who removed the 6."

FBI: "Ma'am, we will need to seize that camera."

Me: "No. I want you to return my sons right now."

FBI: "We will be back."

I then phoned my sons. They were both fine and at their places of work. However, I now didn't feel safe. I phoned the police and told them what had happened.

Police: "You were likely the victim of an attempted scam."

After getting off of the phone with the police, I went outside to replace the missing 6. As I did, drones came up out of the fields surrounding us. The drones were quite frightening. I woke up suddenly from my dream when a drone startled me from behind a bush.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "Another Holocaust Arrives" begins...

I was walking in an abandoned Walmart warehouse. Some disaster had happened and all of the locals were bringing household metals to this warehouse voluntarily. Some items were weighed and people given tokens to exchange for food and supplies. Many people were turned away because certain metals could not be used. There was a long line and people looked dirty as if there had been fire, mud or something like this.

I was young (around 25) in my dream and I was only there to look for certain people. One of the chief foremen then came over to me and gave me a horrible assignment in the far corner of the building. There was a big walk-in oven normally used for bread. My job was to remove metals from the ashes. I was reluctant to do this.

Foreman: "Death is a part of life. You can see here that no one can take anything with them when they die, these were the lucky ones."

I looked over to the side and saw gold teeth, jewelry and other metals in the ashes. My stomach became ill. The foreman left before I looked overly nauseated.

I turned back to the area and prayed. All of the items in the ash were then separated and categorized in an instant. I then left the area and walked into a business office. There were long lines of people waiting for shots. I walked up to a man that was in line.

Me: "Excuse me, but what are these shots for?"

Man: "Nothing. They claim it will allow us to die within three days, but no one is dying."

I suddenly realized that this had to be after the Rapture!

A woman dressed as a nurse then came up to me. She reached over for my hand. She then tried to drive a needle into me. However, the needle bent upon itself and was unable to penetrate my skin.

Woman: "What the *? Okay, come with me."

I followed her to an office area. She pulled out a metal tray and opened one end. She then squeezed out the contents. It looked like rotten pork infested cake with worms.

Woman: "Eat this! This should kill you."

It was absolutely putrid. I pretended to pick it up, but then I instantly disappeared on her. An alarm then sounded. I had now been transported back to the ovens just as the foreman came back.

Foreman: "Are you already done?" He seemed in shock as he looked around. "How is this even possible? Amazing! This will please 'god'."

Me: "What do you mean by 'god'?"

Foreman: "You do not know? Have you not been marked?"

Me: "I am marked by Jesus."

Foreman: "No! He is the devil… the devil."

He lunged at me and I instantly woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Father, these dreams are so disturbing. Please take us Home before we experience what is coming. This is awful.

This is the time of the year when some days are like spring… warm and beautiful… but then followed by snowstorms and ice. It is an extreme push and pull here. The snow begins today at 3:00pm and it turns to freezing rain tonight and all day tomorrow. Please watch over us. Our children must go to work in this. Please also protect my older son as he is visiting in Central Oregon right now.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are not at peace. You are unsettled in your spirit."

Me: "Yes, Lord. The rise in evil and anger against all things good is overwhelming. Has everyone given up on You? Could You consider strengthening and healing us soon so we can be Your Army here on Earth as we are in Heaven? The crimes against children are horrific worldwide. The persecution of Christians is rarely reported on and it seems even more widespread. Europe is falling."

Jesus: "I am God and I am aware of all of it. I see all that is done in the open places, as well as the secret rooms. Each act of evil will be judged. Erin, it is much worse than you see. Anything set up to expose evil and fight against it is met with even more evil. The enemy and his army know the time that has come and fights against the Army of Heaven."

Me: "Lord, it seems like our leaders are having so much trouble taking down evil."

Jesus: "Erin, I know this is discouraging. You have now gone from an unshakeable faith to weariness. You question your own place. Well, do not question this. Your place is with Me. It is already finished and done. When you wonder about these dreams, you think, 'Am I left here alone in this great darkness?'

"No, you are not! Erin, you are only a visitor here… an observer… a reporter for those who remain. However, there is still Good News even in this great darkness of Tribulation. The Good News is that some of those who remain will still choose Me."

Me: "Lord, as for right now, do all of these liars here actually believe their outlandish lies? If repeated enough, do they believe their lies will then become truth?"

Jesus: "The demonic presence in them is the architect. They have been given over to a liar's tongue. They bear false witness and do all things possible to hide their deeds. However, they cannot hide. Truth is troubling for those who cannot imagine a better way than to follow righteousness and Me. Instead, it is much easier to erase history and reshape it to fit a certain narrative. However, this is evil. Because of this, God is shaking up the nations and the 'gods' they follow."

Me: "Lord, earthquakes have increased!"

Jesus: "Yes, but these are small in comparison (to the earthquakes that are to come). My people, My lambs, are being led to slaughter for lack of a shepherd by those who are appointed to lead in righteousness. There will soon be a great turning back to God. You will witness even great men fall to their knees and confess. After this great redeeming then will be the ingathering. The lost will be found and great will be the celebration. Now, do not be discouraged."

Me: "Lord, my children are depressed. They are barely hanging on. We are in need of some miracles. Please don't make me out to be a liar. Please let me see fruit from all of the seeds we planted. I know I expected fruit immediately after planting years ago. However, we are now in the 13th year of these dreams. Perhaps You could send miracles, signs and wonders to us?

"Forgive me for planting a seed and expecting fruit immediately. I know my walk has been a process of growth. My tree has grown with branches and now it is bearing fruit that isn't quite ripe. My stomach is hungry, but the fruit will not be the sweetest until it reaches its fullness. Please help me, Lord. I see it taking shape, but I will not be able to lift my hand to pick it off the branch soon."

Jesus: "Then leave all of this to Me, tiny wise Sparrow. I know you are becoming weary of waiting and watching, but don't. I will place a new song in you and a skip in your step too."

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for Your patience. This means so much to me. If you would, could you remove the coming ice storm and send it out to sea? That would be awesome. Lord, I am also hated by so many around us, especially our neighbors. Could You help us here?"

Jesus: "I can and I will. I love you. Pray!"

I decided to pray for all of us here and for our embattled leaders…

Dear Almighty Father,

Please bless us and all of our friends here on the Nest , those with us here on our long journey. So many are experiencing difficulties and could use divine rest. We lost another Sparrow as well, but we just know she is up there with you. You do everything perfectly and therefore know that You give us events in our life that perfectly forge us for our service to You.

Please also comfort, bless and strengthen our leaders, especially President Trump, his 'Tech Support' Elon Musk and all of those in his cabinet that toil against evil every day. The lies spewed against these servants You sent are just horrendous. Protect and bring their labor to fruition to bless us with a peaceful and prosperous Nation, a Nation they wish to dedicate fully back to You.

We thank You for Your Divine Power to grant our prayers as they align with Your Perfect Will. We pray for all of this in Your Great Name, in Jesus' Name, AMEN!!!

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-893/

893 – Choreographing a Great Dance with our Groom

Received on Thursday, April 3, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and care. Thank You for Your provision daily even when things seem so dark and hopeless. We love You and keep You always before us. You are always faithful in Your wise counsel and instruction. On some days, I think I am knowledgeable about certain things and then quickly something happens and I realize I didn't know much about those things after all.

Lord, You keep me in check and remind me that I am better off to stay as a child in wonder. You remind me daily to keep my eyes fixed on You and on what You are doing. You are my Greatest Hope. Apart from You, I am nothing. With You, I have all I need. I watch for Your instructions daily. I long to learn more and more from You. I desire to be a good Bride for my Groom.

I was given a sign yesterday. My husband and I drove to donate some items to charity. On the way, we saw a beautiful Bald Eagle fly over us while we were enroute to our destination. We never grow tired of this sign. I mentioned to my husband that I was donating a beautiful porcelain Golden Eagle that was signed and numbered. While this eagle had two talons broken off, I knew that this would still be happily accepted.

As background, I found this Golden Eagle statuette at Goodwill in 2018. It now seemed like the right time to pass it on to someone else. As my husband was taking the items out for donation, he accidentally broke the 10" wing in two. This meant that we could no longer donate this. I then went out to see if I could repair it. While I was inspecting the break, I accidentally brushed my left index finger and cut it.

After realizing all of the work a repair would entail, we decided to throw it away. It was then that I noticed that other parts had also broken off and had been previously repaired. While right now it would only fetch around $25 if fixed as best as it could, had it been in perfect shape, it would have been worth around $800. I still felt sad though as this item was around 70 years old and I had no doubt it had a great background story.

I was bleeding from the cut on my index finger and realized I needed a band-aid, so we drove to the drug store. What an adventure! I then became grateful that, when we are broken and in disrepair, we become even more valuable to You, Lord. I am thankful that even though we are sick, old and broken here that You still find us of great worth!

We never lose our value in Your eyes. I'm grateful that You are patient and never give-up on us. I worry about our situation when things seem impossible to cover in our current state and, no matter what, You somehow still make a way for us! I am thankful to You, Lord, that my name is written on the palm of Your hand (Isaiah 49:16).

Lord, You value us as priceless even in our cracked and broken state. While the sign of this 'broken winged Golden Eagle' had not been revealed by You yet, I woke up suddenly from a dream last night and heard Your Voice in the silence and darkness of the night…

Voice of the Lord: "For I will clip the wings of the Golden Eagle and break the pride of the nations who come against My land and people!"

I knew that the tariffs that were declared yesterday define being against 'many nations'. I also realized that this is a war unlike any other. It is a global war, even though it is a trade war with 'no shots fired'.

I then fell back to sleep and had a vivid dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Dancing with our Groom, Jesus!" begins…

My background on when I was still in dance class back in 1983…

It has been over 40 years since I was in dance classes. I worked so hard on this body of mine to be visibly perfect for the audience. It took major sacrifice. My wants and cravings, my thoughts and desires, all had to be removed – these were self-serving. Even my needs were distractions. I wanted to be a professional dancer so badly that I was sacrificing my health to obtain it.

I was serving the dance company. I was serving the idea that I could somehow be the greatest of dancers. I longed to be perfect, so I judged myself. I shamed myself when I was criticized by my instructor. I punished myself with exercise and withholding food. I was dancing for the devil and any gains were soon to lead to my early death. No matter how hard I worked, it was never good enough.

I felt like I was not worthy of good. Perfection was unattainable. Really, it was truly impossible. Many of the dancers encouraged me to take up smoking to lose weight. However, I just couldn't do it. I instead did ridiculous things. I virtually never slept. I was on a diet of two eggs with spinach for breakfast and a protein for lunch.

I would never eat any food past 2:00pm other than Diet Pepsi. My body was breaking at 11% body fat. I received compliments from people outside of dance on my appearance, but I never accepted these because they did not understand what was required to obtain that appearance.

I also ran over five miles every other day and at least 15 miles of cycling on the days I wasn't running. I had dance for five hours per day, plus two hours of choreography. I also practiced on my own time and went to the gym. I also somehow managed classes in between this and while working towards my Bachelor of Fine Arts degree (BFA).

One morning, I was in the Boise State Library and I couldn't focus. My thoughts were racing. I suddenly heard a Voice: "Be still, Erin, be still!" It was foreign to me at the time as I wasn't yet a Christian, but I now know it was You, Lord. I dismissed it as crazy talk until I was writing down my lesson plans for an education course. God then took control of my pen and had me write: "Be still and know I am God!"

I dropped my pen. I was shaking. I knew that I looked as if I had just seen a ghost. I gathered my things and left abruptly. Even though I was certain that this was a supernatural encounter, I said nothing to anyone. This happened in September 1983 and I knew deep down that my life was no longer my own. However, it would still be years before I acknowledged that You, Lord, held me in Your Mighty Hands.

Now, back to the dream…

I was at dance class again. I began to dance and was with others together like a dance company. We were choreographing together a great dance to please our Groom. It was a Wedding Dance. As I was dancing, my eyes closed. I was imagining dancing with the Lord one day soon. I then opened my eyes and there He was, right there in front of me, smiling…

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. We are dancing together and we are in sync."

This was so real. I was young again and back in school, but this time I was preparing a Wedding Dance with my Groom. While I was only 20 in 1983, here I was around 25 and so much more healthy. I woke up suddenly, but didn't want to.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Thank You, Lord, for dreams and visions! Today is a good day to begin practicing my Wedding Dance with You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. We are dancing together and in sync. Your life has been choreographed by Me. You once danced apart from Me, but now we are as one."

Me: "Lord, I feel out of sorts. I am forgetting things now. I think I have done something and I am sure, but then I realize I hadn't. Please don't let me forget who I am. Please continue to keep me sharp. I never want to forget anything. This life, though painful, has been an incredible dance. I don't want it to end with a diminished memory."

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin, as I am here. Come to Me daily and I will give you wisdom, knowledge and a keen wit. Do not worry. Now, there is a reason that I allowed all of this with the broken Golden Eagle as a sign."

Me: "Even my cut?"

Jesus: "Yes. The cut was a reminder to come back to Me for a Word."

Me: "This morning, an entire flock of American Robins landed in our yard. It was amazing. I felt as if there were around 50 of them. I then spotted a young Pileated Woodpecker. It was an active morning with another ice storm here too."

Jesus: "Okay, Erin. Again, what did you just say was in your yard?"

Me: "Around 50 American Robins and a young Pileated Woodpecker."

Jesus: "These represent your nation and over them is the Bald Eagle. These too are signs."

Note: It seems possible that the 50 Robins may symbolize the 50 States of the USA.

Me: "But, Lord, even though You are referencing the USA with these American Robins, the USA is still being hammered with so many storms."

Jesus: "Understood. This is so people are humbled and look to God to relent and not to man. I am in the midst of storms.

"Now, the appointed leader for this time (President Trump) has angered the nations because he is exposing unfair weights and measures and vowing the same against them. Instead of asking what can be done, many leaders instead have become puffed up and angry, making vows, declarations and publicly cursing. This will not go well for them.

"Within America, My leader is exposing the corruption and it is shocking to so many. However, others refuse to see what has happened. I will continue to send calamities until the nation turns back to Me and the evil are held up in plain view for their deeds against the children of God. Erin, it is much worse than you know. However, I will not share My land with those who practice all types of evil, especially against innocents.

"Erin, you now see the nations giving themselves over to the false religion (the Black Dragon) who enslaves and places hooks in the mouths of the leaders in foreign nations. These are the same evil ones who ask for a woman's child and then tries to take them with his hand of evil. In fear of retribution, the courts then side with this evil.

"This is how they have conquered a land and its people… slowly and over time. They do this by using force through fear. Because the people are then silenced, there is no justice. They are then crushed. This is happening now. However, their plan is to kill all Christians (as well as the Jews). Well, I have a clear message on this…

"Wake up, Nations! Your Savior is soon to be visible!"

Me: "Lord, please don't wait long. Please! Does the rare Pileated Woodpecker also represent You right now? Please make Yourself known. This Woodpecker seems to also represent Transformation."

Jesus: "Hmm, interesting. Do not worry as I am here and I am with you. I see the wicked. They will be unable to hide from My judgment. I will bring My Saints to carry this out. The fear they (the people of the Black Dragon) inflicted on others will fall upon them. Erin, My recompense is with Me.

"Now, do not worry. I love you. I will continue to watch over you and care for you and your house. There are still fields to harvest and it won't be long. Continue to dance! Erin, I am with you as your Choreographer and Groom.”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-894/

894 – No Mercy on Those who Cut off My Flock

Received on Sunday, April 6, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Father, I am grateful for each breath. I am grateful for each memory with You. My memories have begun to fade. There are days I forget such simple things. However, I never forget the love You have given me, my children, my family and my friends. When I am in Your presence, my heart flutters. I feel young and fully alive with You. You care for me and I am so grateful.

In my dreams over the last few years, perhaps even in the majority of these dreams, I am separated from my family and my house. I am carried to unknown regions of the world, regions that are foreign to me. I am present in places that I would never normally go. However, I am often not noticed by anyone. It is as if I don't exist.

In these dreams, I am just observing the desecrations, the evil and the extreme loneliness of those who are left here. It is like I have traveled in visions to the future and witnessed what was coming to all of those who turn away from You. Father, this is so painful. There are too many of these dreams to count that are similar to this.

As for yesterday, I became sick to my stomach. It became increasingly worse as the day continued. This was followed by dizziness and heaviness. I was not well. This continued until I woke up at 1:00am. I had a horrible metallic taste in my mouth and went to rinse the taste away. After going back to bed, I heard Your Voice so clearly…

The Voice of the Lord: "Woe to the Chaldeans!"

Later this morning, I then went to my Bible to look at the Book of Matthew. My hands fumbled the Bible and it dropped on my lap and opened to Habakkuk 2 titled, "Woe to the Chaldeans". This just cannot be a coincidence as my Bible has over 1300 pages and 'just happened' to drop open to this particular phrase. I then asked You to help me to understand this. I once again heard Your Voice so clearly…

The Voice of the Lord: "Read Habakkuk's prayer in the 3rd Chapter. Erin, this prayer is prophetic and will come to pass."

Interestingly, the Book following this is Zephaniah. The Book of Zephaniah is truly incredible and again shows the character of You, Father, and how much You love us and will fight for us. It is so hopeful.

As for the 2nd Chapter of Habakkuk, it shows the Chaldeans to be blood thirsty invaders. In Habakkuk 2:6-8, the Lord says Chaldea also gathers to himself all nations and collects to himself all peoples. We know that the sole mission of Islam is to destroy all of western culture for their Mahadi.

There are no options here… either convert or die. However, even converting doesn't guarantee mercy as there is no grace in this culture towards us, the infidels. There is no courtesy given. Even afterwards, there is no remorse on their part for what they do.

Father, You have allowed this punishing rod to infiltrate the USA and so much of the world. This is so disheartening. Even so, I know this means Your judgment is soon to come. I just never thought that, especially in the last ten years or so, this swarming would be so prevalent. There is such hatred toward Christians and Jews, but really towards any who dare oppose their beliefs.

Despite the times of Habakkuk and Zephaniah, they both end their chapters with hope. Habakkuk rejoices in You in Habakkuk 3:17-19. Then there is Zephaniah 3:14-20 that outlines that joy and restoration comes to those whose hope is in You.

I had quite the dream last night.

Sub-dream 1 "A Journey up a steep set of Stairs" begins…

I started off by climbing a flight of steps. At first, I had energy. I skipped up with ease, assurance and great joy. I felt so happy and confident in my mission. The fog then began to descend on me like a cloud and the steps became more difficult. The higher I climbed, the more steep the incline became.

I was losing my confidence that I was going in the right direction. Then what seemed like the last step was actually the first of five steps. With these, the stair tread was extended like a long platform. I was in a cloud and

I could not see. I began to cry. Instead of wandering around aimlessly looking for the next step to climb, I sat down and stubbornly crossed my legs and rested my hands on my bent over head.

I suddenly became extremely tired. This journey seemed to take so much out of me. I turned my head to look behind me as I thought about possibly going back down the stairs. However, when I looked back down, I realized I could never go back down without falling. I was now terrified. I was in some place that I did not recognize.

Me: "Father, are You here? God? Lord? I need help. Where do I go now? Please lift this fog."

The fog then lifted, but only high enough for me to see the next step. As I stepped up, the platform went even further. I started to panic. I did not feel any peace. I then felt a hand on my shoulder and I was startled. It was the Lord! I could barely see His smiling face, but I knew by His touch that it was Him.

Jesus: "I am here. Erin, I am here. I promise you that it will not be much longer. Erin, I have not abandoned you. Now, would you like to continue?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, could You carry me the rest of the way? I can't do this on my own. I can't do this alone."

Jesus: "I will. However, you are still strong enough to walk with Me right now. However, when things become uncertain and you become too tired and weak, I will then carry you. I am here. Now, come with Me."

He reached for my hand and I instantly woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, does this mean longer to wait? Please don't wait long! Please!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: "Lord, five more steps?"

Jesus: "No, Erin, four more. However, you must now allow Me to take your hand through them. Evil has increased throughout the nations. A world war is here, a war unlike any other. Woe to him who increases what is not his and makes himself rich with loans. His day will come. He steals and takes over what is not his and charges interest on loans from stolen money. I see it. I see the unfair scales, the unfair measures."

Me: "Are You speaking of money?"

Jesus: "Money is the spoils of injustice. Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who turn darkness to light and light to darkness, who puts bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter. They are liars and wicked. Do not believe them when they say, 'I come in peace', as they do not."

Me: "Lord, You seem angry!"

Jesus: "They are responsible for separating My flock from the fold, cutting them off so they are left alone and exposed to wolves in sheep's clothing."

Me: "Lord, are You speaking of false prophets?"

Jesus: "While there are many false prophets, I am speaking of one false prophet in particular (the Black Dragon) and he has an army. He plots and says…

"I will invade a land of unwalled villages. I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people, all of them living without walls and without gates and locks. I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the peoples."

"Erin, there are great plans in place to destroy the nation and take hold from fear all of the nations. There are plans in place to destroy Israel and Judah and annihilate God's children.

"Well, Erin, I Am Mighty to Save! I will have no mercy on those who cut off My Flock. I will have no mercy on those who plan to isolate and attack to destroy them all."

Me: "The USA is unwalled. However, there are so many nations that are unwalled. Lord, are attacks like October 7, 2023 against Israel planned on our soil?"

Jesus: "Yes, but even more than this."

Me: "But, Lord, revival hasn't happened yet… the harvest when…"

Jesus: "Erin, do not worry. I tell you these things so that you are aware of the plots of the wicked against the righteous of God. I am your Defender and your Deliverer, but, more than this, I am your Groom and I am jealous for My Bride. I do not share.

"Now, nations are in an uproar as you can now see. This is because I have used My Jehu (President Trump) to weigh and measure the land. I am using him to expose hidden plots, agendas and the great theft. This great theft has made wealthy the wicked from the nations who cut off and destroy the children of God."

Me: "Oh Lord, please hurry. They (the followers of the Black Dragon) are spreading out rapidly. The world is incapable to stop them without Your Divine Help."

Jesus: "Do not worry, Erin, as the Black Rock (in Mecca) they worship will be used for a headwound. As for right now, they see this stone as a miracle from their 'god'. However, I will make this rock a punishing stone and, by their worship of 'moon gods', it will be their millstone."

Me: "Lord, I am not used to You speaking like this."

Jesus: "I love you, Erin, and I am jealous for My flock. I hate… no, I detest… those who harm My little ones. When I return, I am no longer a rider on a donkey. I am instead your King coming on the clouds riding a horse with thousands of Saints to wage war. I will administer justice and establish My Kingdom.

"Now, you see that these times are unlike any other before them, so take time to pray and know that I love you and these things must come to pass so that the Words of the Prophets are fulfilled. Now, rejoice, Erin, as there are only four more steps to go."

Note: We are unaware of what these 4 steps are or how long they will take. However, based on the urgency of these most recent dreams, it feels like our wait can't be much longer. For example, perhaps the 1st step, the next step, will be our long-awaited Transformation? This would match the urgency currently in the world, especially with the nations now turning against the USA because of their April 2, 2025 tariffs.

Me: "But, Lord, I could walk a long time before I see another step."

Jesus: "Then rejoice because I am walking with you on your journey. I will keep you focused on Me. Take comfort in this. Now, are you ready?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "Then come with Me and trust Me. I have never forsaken you."

Me: "Lord, I am better off with You than anywhere else."

Jesus: "Good! Then this is established."

Me: "One other thing… Lord, I am forgetful these days. I feel like I am disappointing my family and friends. Please heal me. Please remove any poison that may be left over from the (Covid) vaccines. I want to live. My family needs healing too, as well as others. Please help all of us here on the Nest that love You so much."

Jesus: "Erin, you are a measure and you will be healed. Keep your hand in Mine and your eyes fixed on Me and I will take you to unbelievable places. You will be young and strong and full of life everlasting. I love you. I created you. I also chose you for a time such as this and great will be your joy. Do not worry."

He reached for my hand and gently squeezed it.

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-895/

895 – The Times are Increasingly Uncertain and Scary

Received on Sunday, April 13, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! I am so grateful for You, Father. You are kind and generous. You love us. You never give up on us even when we give up on ourselves at times. Our struggles here have increased as clearly the enemy of God and man knows the late hour we are in.

My new medication makes me feel like I have car sickness or pregnancy, two things I clearly cannot be. My doctors have told me that I need to focus on getting through this difficult part and to not get discouraged and give up. Based on this, I continue. Thank You, Father, for sending wise counsel.

You remind me that, when I pray and ask for breakthroughs and even blossoms in springtime, You first send the rain. When I ask for relief in my struggles, You often send more difficulties right before You remove it all. It is never about the thing I pray and ask for, it is about my journey to get there where You need me to be in order to grant the very thing that I have prayed for.

Adversity and resilience comes before answered prayers. You see the value in me and, since You are my Good Father, You will take the time to do what is necessary to get me to where You want me to be. If I were in control, I would ask for instant answers to prayers because I know You, Father, are capable of doing this. However, You instead are building something in me that sustains my faith in the long-term.

This journey has been difficult. My husband and I have been discussing a need to sell and downsize our home somehow. In the natural, this is how we would need to move in order to go out where You are calling us. However, in the supernatural, we need an impossible miracle! In order to sell our home, it still needs some work to even pass inspection. However, if we move forward with all of the fixes, we will incur debt.

For now, we are slowly fixing things that we must repair whether we stay or go. For now, we are keeping this home, but this could change. We are blessed as where we live is very special and God reigns here in our home. It is a place of beauty and peace and a reminder of His kindness towards us. Both of us feel that all of this is temporary. As such, we wait on You, Father. Your Will be done!

As for where we are now, winters are harsh, springs are extremely wet and summers are hot. While fall is beautiful, it is way too short. In the meantime, we will bloom here where You have planted us. Lord, You have built a house for me where I could raise my children in peace. This is a place where we have weathered many storms and great enemy attacks. Even so, You have kept us secure here. Thank You, Father.

As for tomorrow, my husband leaves to travel to visit family for the week. I must stay here for the good of the house. My health makes me a bad traveling companion. Please protect my husband as he travels, Father, and bring him home safely. The one thing that is certain is that every journey begins and concludes. There is a starting point and a destination. Father, may all of our life's journeys always be for Your Glory alone.

I had a disturbingly vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Golfing after the Great Disappearance" begins…

In this dream, I was an observer, not a participant. In this, I could see over an area of a golf resort. It was lush with greenery. It could have been in Hawaii or even somewhere in California. I did not recognize the resort. There were very few vacationers. Each room faced the golf course. These were very fancy standalone cabins. Each of them were quite modern and had western facing glass walls.

I watched a group come to the resort and receive keycards to these modern cabins. However, when they went to the cabins, they found out that they were all unclean from the previous guest reservation. The sheets and bedspreads were dirty, as were the bathrooms, kitchenettes and pretty well everything else.

When the guests complained, the manager told them they had very few workers. They were then given the option of a free golf round while their rooms were being cleaned or they could clean their own rooms in return for a discounted room rate. Without exception, the guests took the golf option instead of the discounted room rate option.

When they went to the first tee box, it was facing west. You could barely see the fairway as it was all overgrown with vines and high grass. They walked over to one of the workers to find out what had happened to the normally pristine course.

Golfer: "How are we supposed to golf when we can barely see the fairway?"

Worker: "If you can get past the first three holes, things open up. We are short on ground crews right now."

Golfer: "Where are they?"

Worker: "We don't know. They were part of the 'Great Disappearance'. Others call it a needed separation, but who really knows what this was? This just happened a few days ago. So many people disappeared, including some of our guests and all of our Golf Pro Shop staff."

Golfer: "Where did they go? Was there an alien abduction?"

Worker: "There were big gatherings and celebrations followed by fantastical stories, but no one knows for certain. Oh yes, you need to be careful in these three overgrown holes as there are some strange people over there."

The golfers then teed off facing into the overgrown fairways. Just after the last one teed off, there was a sudden bright white light flash to the west. It looked like a nuclear bomb detonating. The reflection of the mushroom cloud then reflected in the windows and in the people's sunglasses. Even though we were probably a safe distance from the blast, all of the golfers dropped their things and started running back to their cabins.

Golfer: "The radiation will kill us."

Another golfer: "We have no one to save us. God help us."

Even though this golfer mentioned God, his words somehow felt completely absent of God. These men were terrified. I woke up suddenly. This all felt so real.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, we are experiencing attacks here and ask for Your help once again. Please protect my husband and our household, as well as our Nest friends and their households, from the enemy. So many people are under attack. As for Christians and Jews all over the world, it is Holy Week for both religions. Please keep all of us safe.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Now, I have a very specific purpose for your husband on his journey, so this is good. Truth and reconciliation is good. You too recently had this also (with a family member). It is a very important time in the world as I continue to weigh and measure the hearts upon the Earth. Erin, My judgment is coming. You know this. You have felt this."

Me: "I have been so sick and dizzy lately. I am scared, Lord. I still believe that the USA will be attacked or drawn into battle. So many countries like China, Canada and the European Union are offended by the tariff war and could join forces."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. They are lying to their people about the truth of this matter. This is about fair and balanced scales. If you look for information on this issue (from the mainstream media) that is fair in truth, you will not find it. The news is based on lies and is a (propaganda) branch of the enemy."

Me: "Lord, when I go to search for information, the top news sources are praising China using words I know are not from good sources."

Jesus: "Remember, Erin, I return as a King riding on the clouds with a Crown and a Sword from My mouth. My tongue will cut through the thickets of lies and the overgrowth of deception throughout the nations. Many nations are under siege right now and their leaders do not care.

"They turn a blind eye to the evil against their own people and protect those sent to do harm. Why? This is because many nations have removed God and all that is Holy. Demonic strongholds have come over them. Since they have prostituted themselves with other gods, they are then a conquered people. It can only be reversed and the land healed by My Hand."

Me: "Please help, Lord. Christians and Jews are being slaughtered."

Jesus: "I am aware and I see it. Erin, remember your journey. I first called you by name and you answered My call. However, your journey was difficult and filled with adversity to test your resilience and faith. I even revealed your destination so one day you would make this known in greater measure.

"I had a plan for you from the beginning, but it required difficulty and even suffering for My sake. Erin, you now understand that resilience comes from testing and that burdens are often extremely heavy prior to My removing them. In order for people to turn back to God, they must see no other option. You understand this. It is not easy."

Me: "Yes, Lord, but it still makes me so sad. It might get worse, but I pray it doesn't. Lord, Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Could You try revival first? People are on 'spiritual life support' right now and could use the breath of Heaven."

Jesus: "I will do a Good Work. Do not worry. I have you. Continue to press into Me. The enemy attacks and the proud either goes willingly to fight along with them or they are humbled and turn back. Pray, Erin. Pray in all things. Those who are able are to fast and pray as this breaks strongholds and sets prisoners free.

"In all things, remain steadfast and confident in Me. My promises written in the Words of the Prophets will all be fulfilled and you will see it. Know that I go before you in every battle. I am with you and I love you. I have heard your cries and I will answer these. I will strengthen and heal you and great will be your joy. It will even be said of your children, 'Whose are these?'

"You will no longer remember the shame of your youth and the afflictions of your widowhood as you were a wife abandoned. Those who treated you unfairly did so to Me also. Though you forget, I remember. I do not forget, so take comfort. I have given over your enemies to their own pride and madness. They are without God and they will come to nothing apart from Me.

"Now, remember this… I have never forgotten. I am preparing My Army. You are resting before the day I call you. Yes, this is like sleeping, like you are in a lull. However, you are awake to the schemes of the wicked. Be ready as I come soon to gather you unto Me for My purposes. Great will be your joy. Do not forget Me as I have not forgotten you."

Me: "Lord, I could never forget You! Just this week in our yard, I saw three turkeys, a sparrowhawk and several eagles. Thank You for these sightings that delight me so. I love You."

Jesus: "These are signs for you now. I love you too."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-896/

896 – Good Friday 2025

Received on Friday, April 18, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your love and care for us. Without You, we are like sheep without a shepherd. You do so much for us and I just know there must be even more than we know behind the scenes.

You are precise and perfect and Your plans never fail. Your plans never fail even when we feel as if we have failed You. Father, You have done all that You have promised You would do 25 years ago, but even more than I could imagine.

Maybe some things were not how I would have imagined they would turn out, but they have turned out much better in the long run. Life is not supposed to be easy here. Our struggles sometimes seem like they will never end. Even so, no matter what comes our way, we know what this day, Good Friday, represents and I don't have words to describe what an amazing God You are.

On Tuesday evening, I took a very hard fall. I was carrying some water and missed the top step. I fell forward so fast and hard that I had no time to react. Both of my knees hit the step directly. I instinctively dropped the water in order to use my hand to stop myself from planting my face. I knew without a doubt that I was in trouble.

I went to the bench inside our entryway and prayed. I had a lump on my right hand about the size of a golf ball. While my knees weren't bleeding, my right knee had a lump that looked like an egg had been inserted under my skin. I placed my head in my hands and I prayed…

Dear Father, I love You. I am sorry if I was overconfident in my abilities to carry this awkward case of water. Only You grant me the ability to move around. I need this body You have built for me. I need my knees and my hands to function. While the water is safe, I am not. Please consider a healing miracle. While I know the enemy has asked for my destruction, could

You instead make his plans come to nothing? I ask this in Your Mighty Name, in Jesus' Name, AMEN!

Come to think about it, I had been attacked all day long in so many various ways. I even burned my baked chicken because I accidentally set the oven to roast instead of bake. I have never done this before as I am normally so careful when setting the temperature of the oven. I also had a nauseous stomach that caused a feeling of motion sickness. Even so, I also now have a Good News report…

When I turned into bed and looked at my knee and hand, the golf ball bruise in my hand and the egg bruise in my knee were both completely gone. It was truly a miracle. While I was still stiff and sore all over my body, my knees were still functioning, as were my hands. The only swollen part remaining was my right thumb, which also had a small cut. I will get my knees checked later if the pain persists.

For now, You, Father, answered my prayers and immediately! Thank You! I praise You and Your Mighty Ways!

My sleeps have been deep and I have had many vivid dreams. One of these vivid dreams came on the night before last…

Sub-dream 1 "A Long Hot Tumultuous Summer" begins…

The enemy had called up his generals against the citizens of Heaven here on Earth. I could see demons manifesting in people openly and striking out boldly with no fear of recourse. I then saw into a beautiful home in a nice neighborhood. I saw children in their teens striking their parents. I then looked over to the television…

I could somehow tell from the footage that it was either the July 2nd or July 3rd prior to July 4th. The newscaster was predicting a long hot tumultuous summer. A certain orchestrated event then erupted into chaos. This chaos then changed into the form of massive protests that were even worse than in 2020. I saw protestors hunting down specific people, but mainly Christians, whites, Jews and Republicans.

Warnings were going out to the public to 'shelter in place'. While an army of demons then appeared, it was soon followed by an even worse group. There were so many attacks and killings that there was no feasible way to stop them. I woke up suddenly to the following words being shouted out…

"Incoming! Duck!

Sub-dream 1 over…

This dream was so depressing. We are already witnessing the great rise in evil.

I then had another dream last night. It was another one of several 'carnival-related dreams' I have been having lately…

Sub-dream 2 "Whacking the Nine Whack-a-moles" begins…

I walked over to the Chinese Carnival Exhibition. This carnival was to be in town for three days. It was beautifully done with paper lanterns, lights and drone exhibits. There was also an exhibit that featured handbags. The objective was to guess the fake handbag from the real thing and win. I was intrigued. I walked over to the attendant and paid $5 to examine the two identical purses.

Attendant: "Guess which one is made in Italy and which one is made in China."

I looked carefully and saw that they appeared to be exact duplicates.

Attendant: Handing me a magnifying glass. "Here, this should help your investigation."

I immediately prayed about this. The Lord's Voice welled up in me and told me what was happening. It was a trick! After listening to His Voice, I replied.

Me: "This is a trick question. Even though both of these bags were made in China, they were both labelled as being 'Handmade in Italy'."

Attendant: He was now very angry. "This is impossible. You use tricks to win."

Me: "Oh, so this is true. I will yell loudly so that the crowd will know."

Attendant: "No, no, no! Here is your free handbag…"

He reached down into a trinket bag and handed me a purse keychain.

Me: "Your sign says, 'Guess correctly and win a Birkin Bag'. Well, I now want the bag that is up there in the photo."

Attendant: "But you weren't supposed to guess correctly."

Me: "Then I will tell everyone so they too can get their free Birkin Bag."

Attendant: He was getting even angrier with me. "Okay, okay. However, don't tell anyone. After all, this is a carnival."

Me: "Okay, I will stay silent."

He then brought out the purses I had been guessing with.

Attendant: "Here, you take this one."

The Lord then told me to take the other one.

Me: "No. I will take that other one instead."

Attendant: "You can't!"

Me: "Why?"

Attendant: "Fine. Take it and never come back."

Me: "That is fine with me!"

I took the purse and started to walk away. Even though I really didn't want the handbag, I did this so that the man would have to be fair. I then saw a 'whack-a-mole' game being played. This was also looked after by the same attendant. The game clearly mocked the USA. The attendant must have noticed that I looked perturbed about this.

Attendant: "China controls all things now. China is the wealthiest nation. Can you predict what comes next? Use the hammer to predict the sequence of events."

I looked over and there were nine moles in total. Each were labeled. The nine labels included Tariffs, War, Poverty, Slavery, Starvation, Plagues, Invasion, New Government and Infestations.

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, they are missing My Return. Now, play along and I will guide your hand and your words."

I raised the hammer and suddenly knew the exact order of the moles I should hit. As I hit each mole in sequence, I called out the title, along with the meaning of each, to the attendant, all relayed to me by the Lord…

Me: "Okay, here we go…

- 1st hit – Invasion: Saturating the markets with goods.
- 2nd hit – Infestations: Sending invasive species and diseases to kill our food, farming, forests and rivers.
- 3rd hit – Plagues: Diseases, viruses, drugs and poisons in all of our medicines, as well as airborne.
- 4th Hit – New Government: Former administrations selling out to China.

- 5th Hit – Poverty: Businesses and factories closed. Manufacturing facilities being moved out to China.
- 6th Hit – Slavery: Slave to Chinese government as they own the goods and control the medicines.
- 7th Hit – Starvation: Purchase the farmlands. Kill off the chickens, cows, pigs and any other 'protein commodities'.
- 8th Hit – Tariffs: Tariffs used to strike against corruption and stop the destruction of America.
- 9th Hit – War: The Great War.

Attendant: "Impossible! Guards! Guards!"

Several guards then suddenly came out from seemingly nowhere and rushed towards me in order to arrest me. However, an angel of the Lord then came and struck down the entire Chinese Carnival. There was nothing left. The angel then made a loud declaration:

"God reigns over the Earth!"

I woke up to the sounds of fireworks in the dream.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, You reign! You are in complete control. Please don't let the USA and Israel fall without a fight. Please step in right away. Save us!"

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you."

Me: "Lord, I need more of You. I need help. I am growing old and tired. This world has nothing for me. I don't want a fancy handbag. To own anything like that, and even jewelry, is a risk as these times are so scary now. Blending in is better than standing out. This is just the way it is now."

Jesus: "True. However, a time comes… a day… when you will stand out and nothing can strike out against you. I know right now you are witnessing great corruption. This is so the Earth realizes the fullness of evil that the Prophets had scribed for this time. It is lawless and the opposite of good. It is a time and times of Great Rebellion and the Falling Away…

- A man will say, 'I come in peace', yet plans to slaughter.

- One says, ‘come to me in love’ and it truly means hate.
- One waits for their victims and then robs them and kills them in cold blood for no reason.
- Another calls for all with fair skin to be struck down, along with their ‘Jewish friends’.
- Another poisons animals and birds.
- Another burns things down.
- Another calls for the death of babies.
- Yet another desecrates My churches.

Me: “This is awful. Please put an end to this.”

Jesus: “It is coming, Erin. I am coming. Evil has increased and armies controlled by demons are coming out in full force. So, pray! I see and know the hidden things. The world will be unprepared for what comes – Me and My Army. Do not worry as I come at the Perfect Time to bring My Justice and Truth. I will not delay. I promise you.

“While I know you are discouraged right now, I am with you! You were created for such a time as this. I love you. I will continue to watch over you in all you do. I will bless you with miracles. Those who bless you in love I will send them a double portion as their hope is in Me. I do not forget. I have prepared a Great Place for you and great will be your joy.”

Dream over.

Vídeo: https://osmisteriosdedeus.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/04/Erin897.mp4

897 – Domingo de Páscoa de 2025

Título: Dream 897 – Easter Sunday 2025

Recebido em domingo, 20 de abril de 2025

Comunhão

Querido Pai,

Obrigado por mais um dia aqui! Sou grata por mais uma chance de fazer a Tua Vontade e de viver a serviço do meu Rei Jesus.

Enquanto meu marido esteve fora na semana passada, me mantive ocupada. Fiquei sozinha enquanto meus filhos trabalhavam. Enquanto andava pela casa planejando meu dia, ouvi Sua Voz dizer: 'Me Dê os seus dias'. Então, na terça-feira, quando fui à cidade fazer compras e fazer tarefas gerais, ouvi Sua Voz dizer: 'Nos momentos de silêncio, Eu estou aqui.'

Bem, eu não estava nada quieto enquanto aumentava minha música de louvor. Pouco depois, meus dias decaíram. Houve um item perdido, uma queda feia em casa e um jantar queimado para completar. Eu não tinha energia e sentia muita dor. Minha cama agora chamava meu nome!

No dia seguinte, fiquei ainda mais humilhado. Recebi um telefonema do meu médico em Houlton ME informando que meus exames revelaram uma contagem alta de glóbulos brancos e que eles precisavam me prescrever antibióticos. Parei para orar. Quando o fiz, ouvi a Tua Voz:

Voz do Senhor: "Erin, vá devagar. Eu estou aqui em sua solidão tranquila. Fique em paz."

Deus só queria passar um tempo comigo para me instruir, me tranquilizar e me encorajar. Em vez disso, eu estava preocupada em ser preguiçosa e não cuidar de nossa casa. Eu tive que me arrepender. Tive que parar, largar e orar. Você, Pai, tem algo a dizer e eu não tenho lhe dado o devido tempo para fazê-lo. Por favor, me perdoe.

Quanto a esta manhã, acordei abalada por causa dos fortes ventos lá fora. Foi assustador hoje. Tenho orado para que as nossas árvores não sejam arrancadas por causa da chuva. Quando o solo está úmido, as árvores tombam com mais facilidade.

Então caí num sono profundo e tive um sonho.

Sub-Sonho 1 "O Senhor Resgata Aqueles Presos no Caos"

Voz do Senhor: "Erin, Eu tenho recebido toda a autoridade no Céu e na Terra."

Eu então vi as nações da Terra. Um decreto global foi emitido para erradicar todos os cristãos e judeus da Terra. Vi um líder acusando-os de roubo e blasfêmia. Recompensas globais foram então colocadas sobre as suas cabeças.

Propriedades foram apreendidas, assim como contas bancárias. Igrejas e sinagogas foram incendiadas. Houve perseguições nas praças da cidade, muitas das quais foram então televisionadas. Vi milhares de pessoas presas em currais como ovelhas.

Um anjo do Senhor então tocou um shofar. Todo o chão tremeu e todos os campanários, mesmo os das igrejas em chamas, soavam e não paravam.

Então vi demônios possuindo milhões de pessoas. Eles estavam agitados e gritando. Eles começaram a atacar um ao outro. Eles então até se massacraram.

Os filhos de Deus foram então reunidos Àquele que estava sobre a Terra. Enquanto acordei ao som da Voz do Senhor, eu não consegui me lembrar do que Ele disse desta vez.

O Sub-Sonho 1 terminou.

Pai, este foi um sonho horrível. Não tenho certeza se isso já aconteceu em algum lugar ou se está prestes a acontecer.

Na noite anterior, acordei com a Voz do Senhor.

Voz do Senhor: "Eu estou separando o bem do mal!"

Então tive outro sonho.

Sub-Sonho 2 "Animais Doentes Misturados com Animais Saudáveis"

Não me lembro totalmente desse sonho. No entanto, vi animais doentes e abertamente feridos apresentando sinais de doença. Eles estavam escondidos no meio das ovelhas saudáveis. Os animais doentes tornaram as ovelhas impuras com a sua presença.

O Sub-Sonho 2 terminou.

Acordei enjoada. Fiquei deitada na minha cama orando. Pensei em todos os casos de cristãos saudáveis em chamas pelo Senhor, tornando-se complacentes com o tempo e permitindo que as coisas deste mundo corroam seu zelo e grande amor por Jesus.

Um casal cristão que conhecemos gosta até de astrologia e cannabis. Eles fazem isso e depois racionalizam afirmando que foram trazidos à Terra por Deus. Também ouvi de outra cristã que ela gosta de Goat Yoga.

Bem, aqui é onde estou em todas essas questões. Eu vim de uma experiência de prática pagã da nova era. Eu digo que precisamos apenas dizer não a tudo isso, ponto final, pois não é de Deus. Baseia-se no que os anjos caídos trouxeram do seu conhecimento para instruir e corromper o homem. Eles podem então apresentar o homem a Deus em todo o seu pecado, com a mancha do pecado e manchado, esperando que Deus rejeite completamente a Sua criação do homem.

Precisamos lembrar que o pecado nos separa de Deus. O inimigo quer que nos separemos do Reino de Deus. O homem fornica com as coisas deste mundo, coisas que são detestáveis para Deus. O homem exibe abertamente o pecado e a nudez para que todos vejam.

Vejamos aquelas virgens da festa de casamento, mas com um toque moderno. Algumas das virgens (cristãs) foram tolas e correram para a aldeia para fazer Botox, tatuagens e Goat Yoga. Eles fizeram isso porque estavam cansados de esperar. Mesmo que eles tenham pegado um pouco de óleo casualmente, eles estavam atrasados para a festa. Como resultado, eles não puderam participar. Uma vez que os demônios entraram no homem, alguns foram enviados também às virgens tolas.

Pai, antes que tudo isso aconteça, por favor, envie avivamento por todo o mundo. Depois de orar por isso, você me deu um sonho relacionado a esse futuro avivamento.

Sub-Sonho 3 “Vem Uma Grande Cura”

Você me mostrou que todos aqueles que se voltaram do mundo para você serão mudados. Eu vi pessoas passarem de um estado de ser para usarem branco, sem manchas na pele ou mesmo piercings ou tatuagens. Observei enquanto as tatuagens simplesmente se descolavam desses crentes como se estivessem enrolando um pergaminho.

As pessoas na presença de Deus então confessaram e se arrependeram e, como resultado, tornaram-se totalmente novas. Vi então pessoas com ferimentos e câncer, todas curadas. Vi pessoas com sobrepeso ficarem magras e novinhas em folha.

Sub-Sonho 3 terminou.

Pai, por favor, não se esqueça do Seu povo!

Jesus: "Erin, suba!"

Ele mais uma vez falou comigo enquanto eu estava sentado em minha cadeira devocional. Sua voz era muito clara.

Jesus: "Erin, Eu estou aqui e Eu estou com você. Entenda que os mesmos espíritos malignos e demônios existem hoje. Eles eram os mesmos de 2.000 anos atrás e até muito mais tempo do que isso. Você está em tempos de ilegalidade.

"Uma religião (o Dragão Negro) acredita ter justificação para matar e substituir toda a cultura ocidental em grande número. Eles estão destruindo tudo o que é sagrado e santo. Os líderes estão fechando os olhos aos seus planos por autopreservação e medo. Eles são orgulhosos e arrogantes, por isso estas invasões continuam a ser bem sucedidas.

"Depois que eles chegam ao poder pelos números, então vêm as suas leis punitivas. Sua ascensão ao poder imitou a Alemanha de menos de um século atrás. Você está testemunhando o bem como o mal e o mal como o bem. Há um grande preconceito. As guerras raciais começarão logo depois. Há uma grande corrupção e injustiça. No entanto, você deve lembrar que estou acima de todas as coisas. Embora pareça que Eu estou em silêncio, Eu não estou. Eu vejo tudo.

Eu: "Nesse ritmo, Senhor, muito poucos conseguirão."

Jesus: "Parece assim agora porque você está falando com aqueles que conhece e os ouve repetir mentiras e acusações que são falsas. Eles são tão fortes em suas convicções que você não diz nada."

Notas: Jesus está se referindo à nossa família e amigos próximos, NÃO aos amigos do Ninho.

Eu: "Bem, por que discutir com eles? Por que tentar convencer as pessoas de que isso também aconteceu na Alemanha nazista? Ninguém parece realmente se importar."

Jesus: "Então dê isso para Mim. Agora, lembre-se de que Eu fui reverenciado no 'Dia dos Ramos' e fui abatido pelos Meus acusadores dias depois."

Nota: O Dia dos Ramos refere-se ao dia em que Jesus entrou em Jerusalém montado num jumento, poucos dias antes de Sua morte. Muitas pessoas celebraram a Sua entrada em Jerusalém espalhando folhas de palmeira na estrada à sua frente. Eles então celebraram a Sua entrada com altos gritos de louvor e adoração.

Eu: "Eu simplesmente acho isso tão confuso."

Jesus: "Eu fiz milagres, falei com verdade e amor e eles não viram. Eu era o Cordeiro de Deus enviado para o sacrifício. A Minha presença era um problema para os fariseus. Eu falei a verdade. A verdade em um mar de mentiras é inconveniente. Eles me fizeram um exemplo público.

"Fui enviado para libertar o mundo do pecado. Meu sangue foi a expiação do pecado. O mesmo mal com as mesmas circunstâncias estão aqui agora. Então, ore! Seus padrões são os mesmos e eles criam os opostos de todas as coisas boas e sagradas."

Eu: "Senhor, o que aconteceu contigo durante a Semana Santa está se manifestando em toda a Terra agora e exatamente no mesmo padrão."

Jesus: "Sim. Não há nada de novo sob o sol. Lembre-se de que não há inspiração divina em nenhum deles. Não há boa criatividade. Tudo o que você testemunha é copiado, falsificado, roubado, renomeado, refeito e/ou chamado de 'nostálgico'."

Eu: "Oh, isso é engraçado, Senhor."

Jesus: "Nações e povos abençoados por Deus dão frutos e isso é bom. Falsas religiões e governos que não estão sob Deus no Trono e Minha Palavra não são abençoados. Por causa disso, eles devem tomar o que não é deles. Eles matam, roubam e destroem. Isso é tudo o que sabem fazer. A Grande Separação está se tornando mais clara a cada dia, mas nem tudo está perdido ainda. Então, ore!"

Eu: "Senhor, eu esperava uma mensagem edificante de Páscoa hoje."

Jesus: "Isso é fácil. EU ESTOU Vivo. Eu Tenho ressuscitado. EU ESTOU Aqui. EU ESTOU Trabalhando. O Meu exército de anjos está trabalhando. Agora, um líder corrupto está prestes a subir para o norte. Então, ore! Ore e não pare!"

Eu: "Senhor, sinto que tenho estado chata ultimamente. Tenho estado doente, cansada e desanimada. Tivemos muitas portas fechadas e estou triste. Não há nada neste mundo que eu esteja perseguindo. É cansativo."

Jesus: É por isso que você precisa de Mim em seus planos. Enquanto Eu estou sempre com você, você esquece alguns dias."

Eu: "Sim. Estou esquecendo cada vez mais agora. Estou tendo problemas para lembrar. Às vezes tenho medo."

Jesus: "Na terça-feira, você sofreu uma queda feia enquanto carregava água fresca. No entanto, você não estava sozinha e se lembrou de Mim.

"Você orou e Eu removi seu ferimento. No entanto, Eu deixei um lembrete na forma de seus hematomas. Eu permiti isso para lembrá-la de que, mesmo às vezes, quando você faz o bem, coisas ruins acontecem. No entanto, quando isso acontece, lembre-se de Mim. Eu estou aqui. Deixe-Me carregar a sua água e refrescar a sua alma."

Eu: "Bem, então, lhe agradeço pela minha queda, Senhor, assim como posso lhe agradecer pelo lembrete."

Jesus: "Este é o momento de orar. Todos os filhos de Deus devem orar. É como o som dos sinos nas torres das igrejas. Esses sons fazem com que legiões de demônios sejam confundidas.

"Erin, seja forte em Mim e tenha coragem em tudo que fizer. Mesmo quando você receber más notícias – ore!

"O inimigo trolla [cria comportamento entre as pessoas cuja consequência tende sistematicamente a desestabilizar uma discussão] os filhos de Deus.

"Lembre-se que Eu tenho ressuscitado e que também Eu sou o Cordeiro Pascal. Os dois são os mesmos.

"Quando você orar, lembre-se da Minha Oração (Oração do Pai Nosso).

"Venha o Teu Reino, seja feita a Tua Vontade, assim na Terra como é no céu."

Eu: "Com Você me fortalecendo, farei o que Você me pede."

Jesus: "Bom. Agora, não se preocupe. Permita-Me fazer o resto.

"Alegre-se e lembre-se de que Eu Tenho ressuscitado. Eu não estou na sepultura, entendeu?"

Só então, com o vento, um enorme Gavião passou voando. Ele estava cavalgando no vento.

Eu: Então pensei o pior. "Oh não…"

Jesus: "Erin, nem sempre considere esses sinais como negativos. Quando mudado, um Pardal não ora para ser como o Falcão... forte, rápido e cheio de beleza? Deus fez os dois e Ele ama a Sua Criação."

Eu: "Nunca pensei na Transformação do ponto de vista de um Pequeno Pardal. Alguns podem até querer ser pavões."

Jesus: "Ah, sim… este é um pedido popular."

Eu: "Mal posso esperar pelo Céu. Senhor, adormeci na minha cadeira há alguns dias e tive um sonho vívido. Não queria que isso acabasse.

Sub-Sonho 4 "Um Parque na Cidade Dourada"

Eu estava cochilando embaixo de uma árvore em um parque na Cidade Dourada. Quando acordei, olhei para cima e vi uma abundância de lindos frutos na árvore. No começo fiquei preocupada que a fruta pudesse cair em mim, mas depois lembrei que a fruta não cai do galho ali a menos que mandemos. Não há frutas podres no chão. Nada apodrece ali.

Então sentei e olhei em volta. Comecei a chorar ao ver como tudo estava lindamente projetado. Eu podia ver edifícios, casas e jardins. Eu podia ver ruas de paralelepípedos da Pedra dourada de Jerusalém. A fragrância das flores encheu o ar. A visão dos pássaros coloridos foi incrível.

A temperatura estava perfeita e como em nenhum lugar da Terra. Havia até uma brisa suave que parecia perfeita. É absolutamente um paraíso lá o tempo todo. As pessoas acenavam para mim e sabiam meu nome. Eu não disse nada em troca e apenas sorri e acenei de volta. Haviam fontes e cafés onde as pessoas se reuniam. Foi tudo tão impressionante.

Então acordei com alguém chamando meu nome. No entanto, nunca vi quem era.

O Sub-sonho 4 terminou.

Eu: "Senhor, quem foi que chamou meu nome?"

Jesus: "Isso é um mistério por enquanto.

"Agora, Eu estou feliz que você gostou da Cidade. Ela é linda e diferente de tudo aqui na Terra. As janelas estão abertas (o que significa que não há necessidade de telas para impedir a entrada de insetos e outras criaturas). As portas estão destrancadas (o que significa que não há necessidade de segurança, pois não há crime ali).

"Não somente isso, mas Eu te visito lá em corpo.

"Erin, Eu visito.

"Você também tem muitos amigos e familiares lá. Eu te dei esse sonho para que você fosse revivida e se lembrasse do que Eu tenho preparado para você.

"Você ainda tem um propósito. Fique totalmente presente Comigo.

"Eu te amo!"

Eu: "Senhor, eu também te amo!"

O sonho acabou.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-898/

898 – The Evil Leaders vs The Lord's Great Power

Received on Sunday, April 27, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! While each day brings challenges, You bring my days. Bless You, Father, as You are the Day Bringer.

Father, please never grow tired of me even though I often grow tired of myself. I grow tired of asking things of You. I grow tired of asking for things You promised years ago that I trust You will deliver one day soon. You are a Big God and I feel I constantly gnaw at You with my repeated question of 'When, Lord?'

In the last few months since Zoey passed, I stopped the things that brought me no peace. I went to my tech screens less and less and listened for You instead. I wanted to hear from You and have You lead me in the ways I should go. However, in my new habits, I was constantly praying, but seldom then waited to hear from You. Lord, I need to stop talking and start listening more.

One thing that I know for sure is that You know our needs before we even know we have needs (Matthew 6:8). Even though I know this (or really should know this at all times), I was desperately pursuing You as if I had run out of time or as if I was not certain if You were aware of the things I was seeing. I sometimes still do this despite You telling me You know and see everything and are in control over all things.

Yes, when You told me to pray and never cease, I obeyed. However, I then never paused for Your answer. Father, Your Voice is the still small quiet one (1 Kings 19). Forgive me, Father, for praying and not learning to pause and wait and listen between requests. I have had so much personal drama and such amazing revelation from You as we approach the very times You have prepared us for.

I am excited, scared and anxious at the same time about what is coming. As a result, I still ask You questions that may not reflect how much I trust You in all things…

- Wow, Lord… did You just see that?
- Oh no, Lord, this is bad… what do I do now?
- Where does cancer fit into this when the hour is late? Can't You just heal me?
- How will we make it? Are You hearing me, Lord?
- We need help, Father. I need healing. There is no other way.
- We are hated and my children are under attack. Why?
- Lord, did You see what is happening in the world?
- Father, Christians are being slaughtered all over the world. Are we next?

These are just the prayers of my panic to You in the past. As for the last few months, I have tried to resign myself fully to Your Will. I needed to hear from You more and not as much from myself. I then waited on You. You then began to place different things and people on my heart to pray for. I would then pray until You said, 'Well done!' I took the time to pray for those You brought me to, then I waited.

Well, I am in a weakened state right now. Even so, my dreams have become clearer and I am grateful. I chuckle because I recall a meme where a man is in a severe storm trying to enjoy his dinner as the rain floods his plate and the area. Lightning then strikes as he tries to focus on his task. Shortly after, an army tank drives behind him and he is unaware. I laughed at this because I know a lot of Christians like this.

Lord, so many Christians are unaware. I would find myself holding up signs in the background while the storms and wars hit which say things such as 'lightning is coming', 'war is imminent' or 'the end is near'. I would then probably run over to that table in order to grab a quick bite to eat before heading back out there with one of these signs. However, God's directive for me right now is simple: "Pray, listen for Me, wait, be quiet and be at peace!"

Over the last couple of nights, I have had at least four very vivid dreams…

Sub-dream 1 "Massive Black Horses and an Eruption of Oil" begins…

A great storm had come and riverbeds had been created where there were none. There were streams of mud in the cities. As these storms pounded the nations, they knocked out communications globally. I then saw an entire city washed away. Larger hills had collapsed and were levelled. I somehow was standing on the opposite side of this mud riverbed. I watched as people were swept away in the debris and so quickly.

I then saw the sun peak through the clouds and the rain stopped. I could hear screams behind me of people who were cutoff and surrounded by rivers of mud and debris. I then heard a haunting sound. It was the loud blowing of a war horn. It sounded similar to the Celtic Carnyx. I then turned and saw six massive black work horses. The horses were easily 12 feet tall, black and muscular.

The horses were pulling a massive object. While I am not certain what this object was, it appeared to be a type of bronze drill bit, but more like an auger. The horses were boxed in by a strange bumper frame that cleared all of the debris from their path. I then saw them enter the mud river. Their sheer strength and size and the weight of their load caused the mud to go around them as if they travelled on dry flat ground. In the natural, this would be impossible.

They were now coming right at me. However, I then realized that I was there observing and not there in a physical way. The horses came to a dry plateau area and I saw the ground open. The auger head then went to a hydraulic platform that received it on a massive piece of equipment. It then retreated into the ground.

The horses then came back the way they had come. While people were hoping to catch a ride with them, the horses would not allow anyone to ride them. I then heard a huge explosion where the auger had gone into the ground. Thick and black oil then blew out like an eruption from a volcano.

Man: Yelling. "Save the oil! Oh no, not the oil!"

The river then turned black.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Sub-dream 2 "Terrorists cutting down the Fruit Trees" begins…

I saw terrorists cutting down fruit trees. They knew it would take years to grow back.

Man: Yelling. "Is there no good fruit left?"

Just then, I saw a citron tree being cut down.

Woman: Screaming. "That was the last one! The fruit is destroyed!"

I woke up suddenly and felt heartbroken about this. This dream was so real it really bothered me throughout the day.

Sub-dream 2 over.

Sub-dream 3 "An Evil Coworker steals my Wallet" begins…

I was out for dinner with a bunch of my coworkers from a place I used to work at. I placed my wallet on the table above my plate so that I could guard it. At one point, I was distracted and one of my coworkers (the one that always harassed me in real life) stole my wallet. All of my important documentation was in that wallet, including… driver's license, bank card, money, passport and so on.

Me: Asking the one I knew did it. "Could you please give me my wallet back?"

This coworker then acted like I was crazy. He then stormed out in an indignant huff. Another coworker who was more like a good friend to me had some good suggestions.

Good coworker: "First, let us call in the police. They can then have the restaurant show them security footage as to what happened."

The police then showed up and we reviewed the security footage together. Sure enough, my evil coworker had clearly stolen my wallet. The police then agreed to go with me to retrieve my wallet. We went to my evil coworker's house and knocked on the door. He came and answered it, but did not look pleased.

Policeman: "We need you to give Erin back her wallet and all of its contents."

Evil coworker: "I don't have her wallet and I never did."

Policeman: "Well, that is not what the security footage showed. We have you on film. This is a felony. If you return it now, complete and nothing is missing, then charges against you will be dropped. If not, we will take you in."

He once again left in an indignant huff. However, he then returned with my wallet shortly after. I could tell that he was very angry about this unexpected turn of events.

Me: "Why would you even take my wallet in the first place?"

Evil coworker: "Because you don't deserve a good life. I hate you."

Policeman: "Okay, we are done here. Haters gonna hate. Ignore him."

Sub-dream 3 over…

Sub-dream 4 "The Gathering of Thousands and Thousands of Children" begins…

I was in a beautiful northern area. It was nighttime. The sky was illuminated with the most incredible Aurora Borealis. I was there alone with my dog and I had a small bonfire. As I sat there watching the sky, my campfire started to really smoke. A massive white cloud was then formed from this and collected over the horizon like on the mountains. The cloud was bright white and illuminated from within like a lamp.

I could then see Jesus standing on the cloud. I then saw thousands upon thousands of little children standing there with Him. I then saw angels appearing with even more children being gathered. After adding to the number of children there, the angels would disappear. Jesus had in His right hand a Shepherd's Hook. My mouth gaped open in shock at what I was seeing. He then turned to me…

Jesus: "Theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven!"

Jesus then turned away and gathered them closely to Himself. I then saw angels of the Lord rolling up the cloud like rolling up a carpet. They then all disappeared. My dog was barking at the sight. Instead of still creating a lot of smoke, my bonfire suddenly reignited into a strong flame. I stood there and continued to admire the Northern Lights.

Sub-dream 4 over…

Father, these dreams were very vivid. Will Jesus be gathering all of us into groups? What were these dreams all about?

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. There are those who say the little children are not Mine. They are, Erin. Those who hinder them from coming to Me will pay a price. By My own Words truly I tell you… unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

"Those who take the lowly position of a child in their love, wonder and faith will be the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. It is important to remember this, Erin. Your love and laughter, your joy and faith in Me, this is being fearless like a child. Delight in Me and the things I send you as I delight in you. Though you are old and full of years, you still remember Me."

Me: "Lord, how could I ever forget You? You have saved me. You found me and rescued me. You have never forgotten me. You have been merciful."

Jesus: "I am not finished yet. I have not retired you. I still have adventures planned for you and promises to fulfill."

Me: "Yes, please, Lord. I want so much to be here for the Great Harvest. I want to see people revived and overjoyed at Your Goodness. This is so exciting. However, I just can't imagine being as I am now doing much of anything. Lord, my cancer is back on my leg. Nothing I do to be healthy seems to cure it."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, give this to Me. I have you. Do not worry. Thank you for staying with Me. I know that this is not easy."

Me: "Lord, where would I be without You? I have no place I would rather be than with You. Thank You for helping my younger son find joy. He has been so happy. My daughter is enjoying her job and podcast. However, my older son is struggling and he needs healing. My husband also needs healing, along with a job, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I know your needs before you even ask. My favor has never left you. I will still continue if you are willing."

Me: "Of course, Lord. However, I thought things in the world are changing and everything would stop soon."

Jesus: "There will be no 'stop' as the world is changing rapidly. Heaven is expanding and so too is the place I have prepared for all those who love Me. You will be overjoyed.As time continues, so too does the great divide between good vs evil and truth vs lies. I have struck down the plans of the enemy to destroy the 'New Order'. This 'New Way' would have meant a swift end to all that is of God. However, it has now been tamped down from Heaven."

Me: Laughing. "Hmm, You must have rained on their 'parade'?"

Jesus: "Yes, but make no mistake… they are now 'rebranding'! However, you would probably call this simply giving new packaging to the very same evil plans. While I have delayed and shaken up their order, it is temporary as they work on more evil plans to destroy the people. Remember that fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. A good leader fears God, not man, and does what is right in My eyes.

"I have removed leaders that had no fear of God. These leaders only goals were to appease man and the will of popular culture. All of this is leading back to the worship of a great false religion (the Black Dragon) where mothers train their sons to die and they have no idea what they do. I will expose them so the righteous see it."

Me: "Lord, this is so scary."

Jesus: "I know. However, you are to always remember that I am in complete control!"

Me: "Lord, what is the dream of the great work horses all about?"

Jesus: "These work horses are large and similar to a draft horse."

Me: "I looked up the largest horse and it was a Shire horse named Mammoth. What an amazing horse! However, I still don't understand where these horses came from in my dream and why. Why not use heavy equipment instead of these horses?"

Jesus: "In your dream, there was a severe oil shortage. In order to drill, they had to do this in a certain way. The oil was needed to fuel a war. These work horses were also war horses. The sound of the war horn sounded before they appeared in your dream. Cities were leveled and great rains swept the debris up in mud. It was a mess. The oil spilled out and was of no use. However, the horses were safe."

Me: "This is a curious dream."

Jesus: "Erin, you were observing in the spirit, not in body."

Me: "It was so real."

Jesus: "Once the veil has lifted as the Bride is being removed and caught up with her Groom, all will be visible and nothing will be hidden. Great will be the agony of those who were called and did not come. Great will be the agony of those who were invited and did not come when I called. However, they will still have another chance, an extremely difficult one though.

"Erin, I raise up leaders. Those who fear the Lord will be taken Home. Those who remain here will have a more difficult position. Leaders can be part of the Bride because they are redeemed and speak boldly about the things of God in truth. Remember to pray! Pray that My Will be done here on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Me: "That is my prayer, Lord."

Jesus: "Right now with events happening all over the world, it is about separating My True Church from those who are of this world. Revival will be one last call to bring in more to that number."

Me: "Lord, there are more elections occurring throughout the Earth. One election ends tomorrow in Canada and the leading candidate appears to be a globalist."

Jesus: "Reports are not truthful. Make no mistake that there are evil schemes spreading lies to the people. There are plans in place to destroy Canada. So, pray! Pray that those who have been deceived discover truth as the Red Dragon has his eyes set on the resources there. America would be invaded from the north, so pray."

Me: "I will. This would be awful."

Jesus: "Do not worry. I am over all things. If all seems dark at first, then I am at work. Canada is Mine, but they have forgotten Me and are more in fear of the people who have invaded and their moon god (the Black Dragon). So, yes… PRAY!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-899/

899 – The Sandcastle Architect

Received on Sunday, May 4, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have done for us. Everyday is a new one with blessings from You on high. Everyday we face opposition and You, Father, send us armor. Bless You in all of Your works. Despite our failures, You correct us and bring us a way that is good. You lead us to victory.

As for where we live now, we feel isolated here. I know this is by Your hand for Your purposes for us. However, it is difficult to wait and see the enemy claim victory after victory all around us. Father, please don't keep us here long before Your Mighty Hand removes us to the place You promised us long ago.

I went to the grocery store just Friday and there walking across my path at the cart return was an MS-13 gang member wearing a Bulls hat. Tattoos were over all of his skin. He walked with confidence, as if he owned everything here. I went back to the car where my husband was waiting. I was visibly upset.

Me: "They are here. Highway 95 is the highway they use for trafficking."

Husband: "They are everywhere now, Erin. Do not worry though as God knows."

This affected me. This made me sad for what is coming. Father, so many young people are on the missing list up here. Drugs are legal, crime is increasing and not many of us feel safe anymore. This isn't a surprise to You because You see and know all things.

We are also seeing a huge rise in anti-Semitic propaganda and pro-Palestine/Hamas protests against Israel. Evil is rising in power. We see the signs of the times and it is frightening. However, despite these things, You send us signs to encourage us even as we grow weary in the waiting.

My younger son was driving home from work on Thursday and a Red Cardinal flew alongside his truck. The Cardinal did this for about a mile and then it flew across the front of his windshield and into the woods. He said it was incredible to see.

My daughter was on her way to work. She turned the corner of a farm road near us and there, right in front of her, was a large Bald Eagle staring at her off to the side of the road. It just sat there unafraid and stared. She isn't much of a birder and neither is my son, but suddenly You, Father, used these birds to get their attention in a divine way.

Then there is the lone wild turkey that has been wandering into our yard every morning at around 7:30 am. It has been going on like this for almost a month now. Then my Sap Sucker bird has returned and has been tapping on our downspouts and making a loud commotion that sounds like a machine gun. It is funny. Then yesterday my little King Bird returned to nest here. I am so excited for its return.

All of these sightings seem like signs from You. Thank You, Father, for Your gift of birds and animals. They are wonderful and bring us great joy.

Father, please protect Your children from the enemy's schemes. We are hated and targeted even among those who claim to be Christian. Please strengthen us until the day You well up in us and change us for Your Glory.

In the meantime, my younger son is encountering extremely offensive talk about Israel at work. There is also a culture of open racism there. He works with dangerous chemicals and is paid very little for the nature of the work. He makes barely $18 per hour. He had taken this position based on the potential growth within the company.

On Friday, he stood up to the hate speech and now I worry he angered the wrong people. One of his coworkers is a Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) instructor. I am concerned. I have warned all of our children about what You showed me about demons going into around half of the population. You told us to increase our prayers.

Please, Father, help us! I am growing tired. I am experiencing dents in my armor. I even gossiped about someone yesterday. I can't believe I would do that. It immediately left me depressed. It was about someone who wronged me, but I could not remember specifically what this person had done. It was foolish talk and elevated no one.

Father, You remove things in our lives that have no benefit. Blessed are Your Works in us to get us where You need us to be.

I had an incredibly vivid dream last night…

I was at a beach in a peaceful cove area. I was alone. The sky was hazy, so there was no blue sky. There was no clear line where the sky met the ocean, so I could not really see where the horizon was with definition. It was a lukewarm day; neither hot nor cold.

I was on the beach alone and decided to build myself a sandcastle. At first, the sand was perfect for this. I built a strong foundation and it looked more and more promising as I went. However, the sand then became overly wet as the tide rolled in. Every time I went to build any architectural features, the sand collapsed into piles. I soon had to stop as nothing at all was now working.

I went over and sat on my towel. I started to mope. I was waiting for my ride home, but I still had hours to wait. I watched as the water then overcame my sandcastle. Wave after wave then destroyed my foundation. All I could do was sit there and watch. I felt lonely and began to tear up.

Me: "Father, something is missing in me. Please forgive me. I have failed You. In my waiting, I have become bored. I am no longer who I was years ago. I am different now. I feel weak. I need You. I don't want to be lukewarm. I look to Your promises. I grow sick at church as I am judged there. There is no passion there. There's no U in Church! Please don't forget me. I still have hours to wait and the tides are coming in."

I then felt a hand on my shoulder. The sky then suddenly cleared and became a vibrant blue. I looked up at the figure of He who had just touched my shoulder. However, I couldn't see His features as the sun shined too brightly from behind Him.

Me: "Lord, is that You?"

Jesus: "Yes, it is Me. I am here."

He was wearing a white linen tunic and pants. His sleeves were rolled up. His hair was white and just below His shoulders. His skin was a dark honey or bronze color and His eyes were blue green. When He smiled, I could see that His teeth were as white as snow. He was perfect in all ways!

Jesus: "Erin, can I sit beside you?"

Me: "Please, Lord!"

I quickly made a place for Him and He sat next to me.

Jesus: "I see that you are building a castle."

Me: "Only the foundation, Lord. It was the only thing that was stable."

Jesus: "That is good, Erin, as I am your Foundation. Remember that My promises are always true. Never forget this."

Tears streamed down my cheeks. I looked over at Him. I then noticed that His arms were resting on His knees.

Me: "Oh Lord, I am growing old very quickly. I am forgetting things. I used to be so smart. I could handle multiple tasks. Now I forget simple things. My kids are catching me on this. Lord, please help me. Please bring back my faculties. Flood me with more of You. Your Voice is in Me. Could You go in and rework the wires in my brain?"

Jesus: Laughing. "Yes, of course I can. Erin, do you think you were the cause of the wet sand to build your castle? Did you cause the tides to rise or even the haze to cover the sun?"

Me: "No, of course not. But, Lord, it is You who determines our course and our way. I am worried that, in my waiting, I have lost my abilities and Your favor upon me. I see the enemy closing in like waves of the ocean coming at high tide. The waves inch closer and closer and we are helpless to do anything at all but to watch. Anything we build here is done in vain unless You allow for it."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, I am here now and I am with you. Your sins are forgiven. I am your Healer. Your Foundation is firm."

Me: "Lord, can I say something to You?"

Jesus: "Yes. Speak in truth."

Me: "Lord, I feel You are holding back from punishing the wicked. It is difficult to watch the hopelessness of our children."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. I hear you. Blessed are those who I rebuke during this time as surely they are blessed to have this time to make amends. Erin, you should be encouraged that I am working on something much larger that you cannot see. Now, do you trust Me, Erin?"

Me: "Yes, of course."

Jesus: "No. Look into My eyes." I did. "Erin, do you fully trust Me?"

As I looked into His eyes, I saw myself kneeling next to my round ottoman. It was in the middle of the night when I had almost lost everything. I looked at the scene in His eyes and started to tear-up again.

Me: "Lord, I give You all of me. I have nothing without You. It is myself I do not always trust. However, I love You. No matter what, I love You!"

Jesus: "I have delivered you from the hands of the enemy at every turn on your path and I will not stop. Even though evil has increased, I am God over all things and the enemy has already been defeated.

"Now, I know what you are faced with. I know the plans I have for you. I know the promises I still have yet to deliver to you. It is for you and your house and those I place in your life who are not cursing you. I am not finished yet. My hand of blessing is upon you.

"Now, I want to show you something… a vision within your dream. Look out upon the waters."

Vision: I saw two distant land masses. I then saw two massive trees spring from them, one on each land mass. The trees then grew and grew until their branches touched together over the water that was separating the two land masses.

Me: "Do the two trees represent the Two Witnesses?"

Jesus: "Well, yes, but look more closely. The land to the right is Judah and the land to the left is those lost of Israel, those who were scattered amongst the nations. My Spirit is upon the leaders in these lands and those who pray for them. I am against ALL who prey on them.

"Now, I am the River of Life who is in them and flows through them. Through them, the Goodness of God will be the Light to those who are in darkness. Those who are against them will be no more as I know the plots they hatch in secret rooms. There is a great plan to lay waste to Jerusalem so that all of the world will see it.

"However, do not fear, Erin, as I am greater and so too is My army of angels."

Me: "Lord, I was reading the 21st and 22nd chapters of Jeremiah and wondered if this was for now."

Jesus: "These lands are Mine. I take back what is Mine. No one takes them from Me. Mine is Israel, Lebanon to the north, Jordan and even to the east and south. This is God's and all will soon know this.

"As for there (the Americas), none knew of this land until I made it known. This too is Mine. This is to the north, to the west, to the east and to the south. I will also take this back as this too is Mine. One day, all will know and see and agree that this is Mine.

"Now, I am humbling the nations to prepare for what is coming. Be encouraged, Erin, as this is Good News!"

Me: "Lord, my husband and I took a drive to the coast on Friday and we saw so many container ships offshore. It was a scary sight."

Jesus: "Do not be afraid as the ocean is deep and I am God over it."

Me: "You seem so different now, Lord."

Jesus: "Erin, I am returning soon, but not as before. This time I will come to administer justice. I see what is occurring. The people have been given over to their oppressors and their tongues to lies… so, the people stumble around in darkness for they lack a shepherd… so it is the manifestation of evil throughout the nations of the Earth. However, when I arrive with My army of saints… what a day this shall be. Justice is coming. Truth is coming. My measure of judgment is coming.

"Now, do not worry as I have not left you nor will I. When you are anxious, press into Me and I will give you fresh revelation, wisdom and knowledge. There is no need for you to worry as I am here and I am at work.

"Now, come, as I have something to show you."

As we stood up together, He reached for my hand. We walked down a small path together through some sand and seagrass to another sandy cove. My jaw dropped and I was in awe. There before me was a perfectly precise sandcastle. I ran over to it. I was laughing and clapping with glee.

Me: "Lord, this is incredible. It has round turrets, a roof and many rooms. How did You do this? Even though we were talking, You were still able to build this castle for me. This is so much better than I even imagined. This is impossible. In fact, where did this cove even come from? All of this is so beautiful!"

Jesus: "Ah, a mystery! Well, I am glad you like it. Here, there is no fear of the tides consuming your work."

Me: "Are we somewhere else, Lord?"

Jesus: "Another mystery. Erin, just know that I am always working. Whatever was lost or destroyed, just know that I am working on something greater for you. I am the Restorer of Dreams and the Promise Keeper. Stay with Me. Nothing compares to what I will build you. I love you!"

I turned towards Him and ran into His arms.

Me: "I love You, Lord. Don't ever leave me!"

Jesus: "I will not leave you! Now, rejoice, Erin, as I send signs and wonders. I call out to those who are discouraged and have lost hope. I am here. I see the evil done in secret. I will reveal truth and heal the land. Even better, I have prepared a place for you and for all of those who love Me. All will be made brand new. Rejoice! I am coming!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-897/

900 – O Canada, we stand on guard

Received on Wednesday, May 7, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do for Your children, both in the big things and in the small things. You are so brilliant in Your ways. You spare no evil that stands as a stumbling block to You. I am grateful that, in our long wait, when we grow tired and weary and begin to nod off asleep, You quickly jolt us back. You are then quick to alert us again to pray.

While my children have had struggles lately, You answered all of our prayers in less than 24 hours. With my youngest son, who works a job involving chemical agents, he had been seeking the promised wage he was told he would have at this marker in his employment. The promised month for a meager $1 per hour increase was to start in April of this year. His boss had been making excuses about continued delays.

Just yesterday, he was continuing these excuses after avoiding both him and his co-worker in this high turnover position. While the boss continued to tell my son there would be no raise without ever giving a good reason, the main joist in the exact area the two of them usually worked suddenly snapped. This happened at the very moment his boss was yet again backing out of his promise.

This joist breaking is no small deal. This will cost the company possibly weeks of scheduled contract work to the tune of thousands and thousands of dollars. His boss had just finished telling my son they had other expenses to incur before they got their promised raises. These were silly expenses like an espresso machine and a snack bar. My son, but really all of us, just knew that this was You, Father, and with zero doubt.

My daughter also had a supernatural experience yesterday. She has been dealing with a very lazy employee who did the opposite of what she was instructed to do. This worker had the attitude (really, hubris) that she should be safe in her position no matter what because she claimed to be a Christian to my daughter.

Well, my daughter still terminated this wicked employee despite her 'hubris'. Instantly, the store's morale shot up and sales increased to more than double. Just like the joist snapping, this increase in sales happened right after this employee was terminated.

Two days ago, we had all prayed at the dinner table for all of this to happen the next day and, thank You, Lord, that is exactly what happened. We have also been praying over our Nest Sparrows and other various thing. It has been wonderful to see so many breakthroughs occurring. Thank You, Father, for answered prayers!

You then sent honest workers to repair a dangerous exterior stairway. While we knew it was bad, it wasn't until they removed the treads and risers that we knew just how bad. The rot was almost through the risers. This could have collapsed on us, leading to serious injury. Thank You, Father, as their quote was very reasonable and they will finish this by the end of today.

Lord, You know what we need before we even know what we need. These stairs had been a lower priority in our prayers, but You then straight out alerted us to not wait on it. When the contractor was showing us the extent of the danger, he told us that it would never have passed inspection. We are just so grateful and thankful that no one was injured. Thank You, Father!

My older son also had a breakthrough yesterday. He was accepted into a wonderful Christian university. Thank You. It is just so incredible to have answers to our children's prayers. It has strengthened all of our faith.

You then warned us to keep our screentime to a minimum during this season (with the exception of the Nest, of course). It has helped to put our focus back onto You. I also haven't been as sick the last few days. Thank You yet again for answered prayers.

Last night, I had two very vivid and disturbing dreams …

Sub-dream 1 "A Conference on 'End Time Today'" begins…

I was in a distant city, but I was not certain which one. Sprague Avenue in Spokane WA comes to mind, but I am not sure. The area was also somewhat similar to an area near the Boston Airport where you drive down an endless commercial district for miles and miles outside of the main city.

Where I was, I was there for a convention that was themed 'The End Today'. The convention had prominent keynote speakers from various areas of expertise…

- One was about geographic phenomena titled 'The Ever-Changing Landscape'. He addressed Earth events, such as volcanoes and earthquakes.
- There was another one that overlapped with him titled 'Meteorology – Weather Events'. He described that it was very possible that golf ball sized hail could soon graduate to basketball sized. He didn't seem at all concerned by this even though hail of this size would kill anyone it struck.
- There was another one and this one really stood out. This one was titled 'The Hidden Threat to the North'. I had no other details other than the intriguing title.
- There were also quite a few other topics with interesting titles…

Note: This dream was a bit confusing at times because people were in business attire for one session and very serious and then in the next session people were very casual and acted as if they were on vacation.

I decided to drive a small rental car back to the hotel I was staying at. While the address was programmed in my GPS, the map kept leading me over and over to the same dead-end loop. After fiddling with the GPS, it finally brought me to a dark parking lot that wasn't anywhere near my hotel. I checked my surroundings and felt safe.

Right there in front of me was a giant sign that suddenly lit up. It had the appearance of a 50s or 60s style script and simply said "Trump." However, the period was extremely large. The sign was massive in comparison to the other signs that were around me. It was the size of a large billboard and, surprisingly, seemed to be 'State of the Art'. As I sat in my car, I wondered why a business would use an odd name like 'Trump.'

As I looked closer at the business, I saw that it offered 'Cloud Services'. It then had a caption below it in slightly smaller letters that read 'Secure… like, Fort Knox Secure!' I laughed at this and wondered if they were overcompensating and if it was actually as secure as they were advertising.

I then decided that my GPS was not going to be of any use to me on this particular trip, so I turned it off. I was then able to find my hotel by using my memory, my 'intuition' and some of the landmarks that I somehow recognized. Just as I was about to arrive at the hotel, my son woke me up as he left for work.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "A Dangerous Leader rises to the North" begins…

I could see the continents of North America and Europe. I then saw a group from Central Europe that seemed to represent the World Economic Forum (WEF). This group had become mobilized and seemed to have a core of around eight leaders in various sectors. A few visible ones were suddenly retired, three were to rise up immediately and one was to rise up at a later date.

I then saw a massive red line drawn from Europe to Canada and then to China. It was a type of wall or like a wall and meant to fend off against a common enemy (Trump). I then saw a hall of mirrors move from Central Europe to Canada. I then saw the new leader there in Canada, a short angry man, shatter this hall of mirrors. He had taken a sledgehammer to the mirrors.

He then began to destroy the nation for the 'Greater Good'. The Great Reset had a new look, but he still somehow kept shifting. One minute he could be seen in one place, but then he quickly moved to another. He was sent to bring in the New World Order and give it a new look. He quickly installed filters on all information and consulted directly with the global leadership.

Starting with the rural areas, electricity was regulated with energy savings periods or planned blackouts. These were meant to drive people into apartments in the cities. Anyone remaining in the country lost their driving privileges and/or were subject to such high gas prices or no gas available that they had no choice but to move into the cities.

The new leader had plans that there would only be ten cities. There would be no travel allowed. He would demand zero emissions. It was then implemented very quickly in response to Trump's rise.

They had created a rise in nationalism temporarily so no one would question his installation as the leader of the North. He was then used as an instrument of the New World Order to implement attacks on the USA. The plans of globalists (mainly the Red Dragon and the Black Dragon) continued to be to destroy the USA completely, as well as Israel.

I started trying to figure out where this new leader of Canada was at any given time. He was somehow digitally in one place, then another place and then another place, somehow often seemingly at the same time. After a while, I simply could not tell which one was the real one. I became quite puzzled in the dream and I continued to feel puzzled as I woke up from this dream.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these dreams disturbed me. If all this land is yours and Canada too, then please step in. Things will become scary again. The borders are virtually vacant because of fear of the USA from Canada's propaganda-driven press. The people are angry and insulted by Trump. While border businesses were starting to come back after the Covid shutdowns, this will surely complete their closing.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. My people perish for lack of knowledge. The nations have forgotten the God Who Saves. They instead turn to the enemy. Make no mistake… the leader to the North has ill-intent for the nation he governs. He is much worse than any before him and his sights are set on the world.

"This leader thinks himself smarter than even God. His plans are to transform the landscape. You must remember to believe a man over the course of his life based on his fruits and his principles. He has no use for people who serve no purpose. He destroyed one country (the UK) and now he goes on to the next.

"Now, about the dream of the sign and the cloud… this was to remind you that a cloud is above the Earth and that I am above the clouds. In this instance, this cloud holds divine information."

Me: "I use a cloud for my information. We also use a cloud for our Nest."

Jesus: "Yes, a different cloud. Either way, I am over it all and I have appointed your leader (Trump) to disrupt the Great Reset of the enemy. The world has not encountered anything like this before. As a result, these leaders and their secret agendas are being rattled like the tails of vipers. They are quickly moving and shifting. The little things they implement are meant to be huge in their agenda."

Me: "Like what, Lord?"

Jesus: "Like monitoring your worthiness. It starts small, like a personal rating or credit score, then suddenly it is the means by which you live and even breathe. It is a level of evil that signals the time of the end. Your freedom is removed, along with your abilities, and then even your existence. To resist means your demise. Make no mistake… control is their goal.

"Even though they hate My leader, My Favor is with him to disrupt them. I have seen the evil done in secret. The people to the North were so angry at the proposition of My hated leader that they failed to see that they were manipulated to bring in an even more evil leader."

Me: "But, Lord, You love the people of Canada."

Jesus: "Yes, but very few there look to Me now, Erin. However, I am here. I will not forsake them, so do not worry. I will expose the evil and make right the wrongs done to them. I will show them directly the plans of the wicked. I will well up in their governors and the people will make a great decision. This will take a hammer to this wicked leader's plans! They will be unable to stop it!

"Now, remember… in your life, do not continue to circle back again and again when you know the first time that you did not find what you were looking for. Do not be led by outside influences. Rely instead on the God you love, the God who saves you from these things and the God who loves you."

Me: "I do sometimes stay to old patterns when I need to move on. I am sorry, Lord!"

Jesus: "You are not alone. While you don't like to give up, sometimes it is okay to give in, let go and give everything to Me. I have you. I have the perfect place that I am soon to send you to. I love you!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-901/

901 – Happy Mother's Day 2025

Received on Sunday, May 11, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers on our Nest! Lord, please bless this day for all of us. Thank You for all You do for us as we continue to raise our young… smiles!

Thank You for another day! It is a beautiful spring day. The leaves up here are just beginning to open from their buds. Everything will soon be in full bloom. When I walked outside this morning, I looked up. The sky was blue with small white puffy clouds. It was stunning. I could see places where there were nests and songbirds on various branches. Thank You for spring, Father. For us, it seems as if spring has come early.

We have a forecast calling for quite hot conditions coming this week. Summer will then appear and everything will change. The nests will soon be safely hidden in the branches. Thank You, Father, for remaining the same. Thank You for bringing our seasons. Thank You for preparing our hearts for changes. When You do move us, You will do so with great wonder! When You make a way, there is no mistaking Your hand in it. You are awesome and mighty!

I am proud of my children that You have given me… well, really, borrowed to me. I am grateful. They are not perfect. They aren't doctors or lawyers or in other prestigious positions. Instead, they are children with a heart for God. I am confident that whatever path You continue to lead them down, it will be a good road. Thank You, Father!

Two nights ago, I had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Surfing on the coast of Northern California" begins…

I was young again. I was enrolled in a surfing competition off of the cliffs of the California Coast. It was northern California. We had to hike with our equipment through the woods to Agate Beach. While I remembered doing something similar to this when I was little, I realized that I hadn't thought of this memory in years.

As for this dream, my daughter was also there with me. While she knew who I was, no one else recognized me. We were given numbers to pin on our neoprene wetsuits so that spotters on the beach could see us. I don't recall the number because it kept changing. It would shift between the three numbers of 22, 23 and 24. My daughter's numbers did the same and I couldn't tell what number we both ended up with.

As I was waiting for my daughter to finish, I felt a tap on my shoulder. I turned and there in front of me was a beautiful young woman in a red wetsuit over a red swimsuit holding a surfboard. She had long curly honey colored hair and bright green eyes and white teeth. I did not recognize her.

Woman: "I thought you might be here! I am so glad to be surfing beside you."

After this, I still didn't recognize her, but I somehow knew I had known her from my past. When she went to give me a hug, I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "A Red Cardinal gets my husband's attention" begins…

My husband and I were driving somewhere. It was a sunny day and my husband had the driver side window down around 6". A Red Cardinal then suddenly appeared. The Red Cardinal was fluttering and diving at my husband through his open window to get his attention. After doing just that, the Red Cardinal flew away.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Lord, thank You for dreams. As I prayed today, I reached over for my Bible. I accidentally dropped the Bible to the floor from my armchair. This was totally my fault as I did this without having my complete attention. I then looked to see what it opened to. It had opened to Acts 2 pertaining to the very first Pentecost.

When this type of thing happened in the past, it was usually because I have something marking the page, meaning it would naturally open to where the marker was. However, this time, there was nothing marking this page. Well, Father, I must admit that I don't read the Book of Acts enough. For the Bible to open to this particular section today was/is a clear sign for me to review it today.

The following is a paraphrasing of Acts 2 (ESV) that the Bible opened to…

Verses 1-4: When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. They then began to speak in other tongues / languages as per the giftings of the Holy Spirit.

Verses 5-13: Each of those who received the Holy Spirit were able to speak in languages they didn't know. This amazed and perplexed some, but brought on mocking from others (claiming they were actually drunk).

Verses 14-36: These verses contain what is known as Peter's 'Sermon at Pentecost'! Peter then pinpoints the exact time the Holy Spirit arrived in Jerusalem as 'the third hour of the day' (which is 9:00 am Israel time to us). Peter then highlights Joel 2, speaking of gifts given to us 'in the last days', gifts such as prophesy, visions and dreams. It also speaks of supernatural events to occur on Earth and below and in the heavens above. Peter then points to the words of King David speaking of that time being a time that Jesus will save those who call out to Him with all of their hearts.

Verses 37-47: After they heard Peter's Pentecost Sermon, those who had scoffed were convicted and felt guilty for scoffing. About three thousand souls were then baptized and saved on that very day. This was the beginning and then more and more came to learn about Jesus and how to follow Him over the following days.

Lord, this entire 2nd chapter of Acts is just so powerful. I am so thankful to You for this gift today, Father. I encourage all Sparrows to read this chapter in whole. It really does feel like encouragement for all of us who are tired of all of this continued waiting.

Lord, this world we live in is in swift decline. The Pew Report says that over 380 million Christians have been/are being persecuted/killed and there is no end in sight. Father, please help as this is soon to come to all of us who love You. This will happen to all of us unless You soon step in and save us. The news is really bad right now. Lord, please make things right!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am preparing you for changes. I send you signs and I change hearts so you are not caught unaware. Your (younger) son had a Red Cardinal fly alongside him and across his car and into the woods. This is a sign that I send help from My angel army to come alongside him. I also send help before him. Help is never far. This is good as I am with him in all he does.

"Now, the dream with your husband… a Red Cardinal was attacking him, but not to harm him. The Red Cardinal was instead alerting him to prepare for a Great Change. While this Great Change will be uncomfortable to imagine, it will be great when it unfolds."

Me: "Lord, this is the Year of the Open Window!"

Jesus: "Yes, it is. This is also a time of greater revelation as I have called you. Now, I know you have been down and that all things seem dark. Even your daughter feels My favor may not be upon her. However, it is! Breakthroughs are coming, as well as clarity and understanding. I recently started preparing your hearts for changes.

"You are now waiting and, in these days of evaluation, you are weighing and measuring your worthiness and wondering if I have forgotten you. You also receive messages from others experiencing the same things and you then cry out to Me. Well, Erin, I hear and I answer. However, My promises will unfold before you very soon and great will be your joy. Do not worry.

"Now, I will restore broken hearts and dreams. I will not forsake you. Remember this… when you look to the sky and you see storm clouds gather, what do you do?"

Me: "I prepare for the storm and take cover. I become focused and quickly make decisions to avoid troubles. I think like the storm and wind! I then do things like moving objects that could fly into our windows, including the feeders. I then go inside and wait for the storm to hit."

Jesus: "Yes, but you are to remember first to pray!"

Me: "Well, as I walk around and gather objects, I say, 'Lord, please let this storm pass and come to nothing!' Is this a kind of prayer?"

Jesus: "Well, yes. However, you should instead focus your prayers and ask Me to quell the storm and have it come to nothing because I am your Cover and I am with you. I cannot be moved and nothing will keep Me from you; no threat of storm nor threat of man. Erin, nothing can keep Me from you.

"So, when you see the storm clouds gather, then call upon Me and I will answer. I breathe life into you. My Spirit is upon you and all those I cover. Where My Spirit is, there is life ever after. So, remember, for as lightning flashes from the east and shines to the west, so it will be with the coming of the Son of Man. You will see Me and know you will not be deceived.

"Erin, the spirit of death now dwells in this land. Remember this… when there is a carcass and death nearby, there is the gathering of vultures in the sky. These are signs that indicate that the end is near. Right now, you look to Me for signs. Well, there are so many, so pray, Erin!"

Me: "Lord, please help me to continue with my daily routines. When we go to the market and other places, we are now seeing a clear distinction between those with demonic strongholds and those with none."

Jesus: "I showed you that an army of demons have gone into those who hate God and His Children. It is prevalent now throughout the Earth. While attacks have increased, this will only be for a short while as changes are coming. All this trouble will soon come to nothing. All those who come against you first came against Me. It will not go well for them! Now, this is meant to be encouraging to you!"

Me: "I am sorry, Lord, but we are all growing tired now. After all these years of battles, I now grow weary and wonder."

Jesus: "I know. I know because I am with you and I hear and I see. However, you will soon notice just how quickly the enemy is brought low and exposed."

Me: "I see glimpses of this even now and it is instant. You tell me what is happening and then I am relieved. Thank You!"

Jesus: "You are welcome. Do not worry. I have you, your family and your friends."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-902/

902 – Three Weird Sculptures of Three Left Feet

Received on Sunday, May 18, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Spring has sprung and signs are everywhere. Bless You, Father, in all of Your works as all around us are new created things. The flora and fauna are turning from being asleep to fully awake. Trees, grass and flowers have blossomed and all in the last week. Some other events have also occurred.

On Tuesday morning, I spotted a Bald Eagle swooping into our yard. Its wing had clipped our tower and a large feather fell to the ground before the eagle flew away. It happened at 9:00am. I was so excited to finally have a photo of such an event. However, it was poor quality. This eagle was no doubt either going after a squirrel or a crow. I was not sure though.

Then a few nights ago, I was awakened by a noise outside and assumed it was a racoon. It was around 3:30am. I went back to sleep and then woke up at around 7:00 am. Outside right next to our tower was my birdfeeder. Everything was destroyed, but not by a racoon. I went to put the pole back and I was in shock at the sheer strength of whatever did this.

I knew then that it just had to be a bear. I went to look at my camera and, sure enough, for the first time in all of these years, a bear had obliterated the feeders on our property. He was a small black bear and no doubt hungry. He didn't finish though. On the camera, the light turned on and he hid standing on his hind legs behind a tree. I didn't spot him though. This was actually quite comical.

I determined that this was a one-time occurrence because the bear hasn't returned since. Then yesterday, all of my little animals and birds seemed to return all at once. It seemed to happen all in one day. My hummingbirds came. The groundhog too. The little chipmunks. There were also five turkeys. Shocking. Then there were our regular crew…

- Male & female sapsuckers.
- Harry woodpeckers.
- Downy woodpeckers.
- White-breasted nuthatches.
- Red-breasted nuthatches.
- A variety of sparrows everywhere.
- About 25 yellow finches.
- Some chickadees.
- Quite a few Bluejays.

They had all returned on this same day. They all came back despite the fact that I have barely been feeding them anymore. It was such a fun surprise. The floodgates have opened and the wildlife is now back.

It has also been a difficult time for me. God, You are preparing me for big changes. However, I am not certain as to what these changes will exactly be. We have been attacked here. While these attacks are not surprising, these attacks have mostly come to nothing. We are as prepared as we can possibly be for whatever comes our way.

As for the visiting bear, this felt like an enemy sign. It attacked the Sparrow feeders. It broke items apart with unintentional power. It was shocking and scary too. However, right before the sign of the bear and just a few hours earlier, You sent a massive eagle and left me a very long feather. To me, feathers are a sign of Your covering over us.

Father, we know that, at some point, You will open the door for us to move. We are waiting for the right time, Your Appointed Time.

Every spring, I am reminded of Your great miracle in our yard. Our home had a beautiful unobstructed meadow in front of us with trees. Then a male couple built a home in full view of our home. While I am not homophobic nor do I judge other's lifestyles (this is God's job as I have my own problems to fix), it was in full view of my devotional room. It was very easy to see them daily and impossible not to.

Because of this, I asked You to give us a hedge so high that I couldn't see their home at all. I first phoned a nursery to see what it would cost for tall hedges. It was way too expensive (over $12,000) and would still take years to fully block our view. After pouting for a while, I did the most logical thing I know… pray to You for a miracle.

A miracle soon came. One year after they built, a flood came. The road was washed out and the runoff from the hill and down our road was like a river. It was quite scary. It was on April Fool's Day. Well, all that flooding had a positive effect. The couple decided they might move and, after a mast year of trees the year before, You planted a magnificent hedge where I asked it to be.

This hedge was a beautiful thick long strip of trees right at our property line. There are now birch trees, maple, sumac and others. At the base lining them as if somehow we planted them (which we didn't) were beautiful raspberry bushes. This male couple then moved out that year in the fall and now this tree fence You planted has grown.

This hedge is now around 16' to 20' high (it varies between these heights). The perfection of their plantings tells me You planted this for us. You are truly our Master Landscape Artist. Thank You, Father, as this was a true miracle! Thank You! These trees all grew supernaturally fast and in just a few short years. We won't be able to even see the roofline of their home this summer. Thank You for doing this for us!

As for last night, I had an extremely strange dream…

Sub-dream 1 "Three Weird Sculptures of Three Left Feet" begins...

An artist was commissioned by three countries to make statues that best exemplify each country. They were to be made of bronze cast. Instead of fashioning after a man or leader or the accomplishments of each country, the artist made molds of three large feet. I then noticed that they were all left feet.

The 1st Left Foot: Instead of making the mold out of a sand base, he made it of plastic and paper mâché. When the molten bronze was poured into it, it melted and created a strange pile of bronze over what looked like a wad of paper.

Artist: After finishing this. "This is good!"

The 2nd Left Foot: The artist cast this from 'green' materials, including straw, wheat, soy paste and a mix of sand. When the bronze was poured into it, the straw and wheat were immediately burned up by the heat. However, the paste with sand created a foot that was severely deformed. It was like a club foot with no toes.

Artist: After polishing this. "It is good!"

The 3rd Left Foot: The artist cast in a type of sand and clay, but he dumped ants into the material first. He then went away for a few days. When he returned, an ant colony had formed around the shape of the foot. He then poured the molten bronze into the cast. When it cooled, the foot of bronze had complex tentacles. It looked like a Medusa hair effect on this foot.

Artist: After polishing this. "I declare this good!"

The artist then presented the pieces in front of these countries. Each of the three sculptures were covered with muslin cloth. This cloth was plain and quite crude. The artist then started to present each left foot in order.

Artist: About the 1st Left Foot. "This represents a foot that has no power at all. It cannot move or do anything but sit and do nothing. It has no industry and it has no value."

As I looked over the sculpture, I noticed that it had the appearance of a veined leaf that was shriveled up in the fall. The leaders of this country then became angry and left.

Reporter: Addressing the artist. "You have angered the ones who commissioned you."

Artist: "I was commissioned to build a representation of the countries as they are today. This is my interpretation and this is my artwork."

The crowd continued to murmur as he removed the muslin cloth off of the second sculpture.

Artist: About the 2nd Left Foot. "This country has lost its footing. It has forsaken God. It is deformed. It is not made in God's image even though this country was once dedicated to Him. Because they have gone their own way, this nation will be broken apart and deformed."

The leaders of the second sculpture were furious. However, they soon changed their minds when they decided that it instead represented a diverse cultural landscape of inclusion for all. The artist shook his head at this. A reporter noted the artist's disgust.

Reporter: "You are an artist, yet you are acting as a judge."

Artist: "No, I am a sculpturer commissioned to make a bronze sculpture based on their 'green' policies, policies that have destroyed what God has given them dominion over; their country. As a result, God has given their nation to foreigners and has destroyed the vast land they once had. They were powerful, but now they cannot even walk right. They are a deformed left foot, but minus their five toes."

There were gasps. Despite this great insult, they cheered the work and accepted their sculpture. The crowd continued to cheer as the artist removed the muslin cloth off of the third sculpture.

Artist: About the 3rd Left Foot. "Here is the third!"

He unveiled a bronze left foot with strange tentacles. There were gasps.

Artist: "This country has many arms, but really many countries within one. This is the New World Order. Apart from God, this is a nation forcing others to comply with their New Way. It is beautiful at first, but wicked at its core. Millions died creating this one, all working ants considered to be expendable. There is no greater evil than this one. It rises to power after God's favor has left the world. His power comes now!"

The crowd all cheered. However, someone there was not as impressed.

Heckler: "God is dead! There is no God but our god. There is no Savior but our savior. The way of life is our way."

The artist turned and picked up the heavy Medusa-foot and took it to his studio. He then threw the sculpture into his furnace. The sculpture made a loud scream as it was burned up in the furnace.

Artist: "It must be destroyed! It is no good!"

The crowd rushed to the artist's studio, but he had vanished. They then destroyed everything and burned down the building.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up. This was such a strange dream. The three statues of the left feet were all so gross and ugly. Father, I know this dream had significance. I think of Jesus being represented with bronze feet in Revelation. I like His feet. However, this felt like something very bad is being formed right now. There was also the Mexican Clipper Ship that recently crashed into the Brooklyn Bridge. This also seemed like a sign of something soon to come.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I see plots planned in secret by leaders who rule in corruption. I see and they will be held accountable. Unfortunately, the people they rule over suffer at their hands. Right now, justice is unbalanced and fear has governed. The airways are filled with lies. There is now a call for uprisings. These uprisings are usually seen in late spring and in the summer.

"Now, your dream… three corrupt countries were there, each thinking themselves higher and virtuous above all others. They believed themselves to be like gods. They have destroyed their own nations by allowing foreigners in. These are wicked rulers."

Me: "Are they globalists? I thought the bronze feet represented Arab nations."

Jesus: "No. They would commission in gold, not bronze. While many of their nations prosper, they have sent out millions of 'missionaries' to migrate their news of 'salvation' through their god and forcibly change governments."

Me: "Is it China? Is one of them China?"

Jesus: "No. They are their own Medusa and much, much larger."

Me: "Is it the USA?"

Jesus: "Because of the prayers of the people, I sent them help. I am reversing the corruption and sending justice. However, it is slow because evil has taken root for so long. I still have a Great Plan here. Now, who do you think these are?"

Me: "Hmm, perhaps Canada, Europe and/or Australia? Perhaps the UK? Were they not once South Africa too?"

Jesus: "Erin, continue to pray. I know you are worried about many things, but don't be. I will move you and your household at the proper time. You will be relieved and strengthened. When My favor is removed from this world, darkness will descend and judgment will come. However, you will not be here for this. Do not worry.

"Now, it is important to get your houses in order. When I make this statement, I mean all that is in disorder give to Me and make it right. Prepare as Noah was called to. Prepare even though you are not clear on just what or when, but, if I sent you out to leave what you have come to be secure in, could you go? Are you truly ready?"

Me: "Lord, You are a mystery. I can be ready. However, unless I am healed and we are financially made able, we go by way of a miracle by Your supernatural hand and not on our own. On our own, it would be a great struggle."

Jesus: "Prepare your home as if you were soon to leave."

Me: "Lord, I am scared. How do I do this?"

Jesus: "As you have done many times before. Means and an offer are soon to come. You will see. Do not worry. Great will be your joy. I love you!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-903/

903 – These are the Seasons of New Beginnings!

Received on Sunday, May 25, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your love and affection. With all of the rain we have had, the area around us is more green than I can remember. It is beautiful. It is such a gift to be given the beauty of spring. Bless You, Father, for Your promises to us are represented in signs throughout the natural world around us.

For the first time since eons ago, I spotted a male and female cardinal sitting next to each other on our seed tray. They were so skittish that, by the time I went to retrieve my camera, they were gone. This was on Friday. This weekend, I saw flashes of cardinals in the trees. I pray that they will stay here and nest this year. On Tuesday, I spotted a Coopers Hawk hunting the Mourning Doves.

The hawk had taken down at least two doves before it flew off. While it makes me happy for the hawk to find food, it makes me sad for the young doves in its talons. The young doves have been courting each other and pairing up. It made for a sad sight to see other doves all alone without their mates. Of course, I have no way to know if any couples were actually taken down.

A lone Evening Grossbeak has also been lingering here for the last few days, joined by a noisy Grackle (my older son's favorite bird). However, the saddest and sweetest commentary in our feeding area has been a young male turkey with a broken leg. This turkey has been shielded and protected by the head male turkey. This head turkey then follows the injured turkey to our feeder so it can eat. This time though our dog scared both of them back up the hill before they could eat.

I pray the injured young turkey lives another day. However, with the size of the chief turkey and its plumed feathers, I am sure it will. We have also had three hummingbirds visiting our nectar feeders so far. They seem at home here, so I am glad they found their way home to us despite all they have to endure to return. God, all of these sightings are parables.

The month of May has been the most active month of bird parables we have ever had in our yard. This is You speaking to us. Another thing my son and I encountered when stopped for road construction was a massive flock of swallows. They were all going in so many directions that it was entertaining. It was so beautiful and within just a few feet of our car. I then heard Your clear Voice speaking to me…

"Now comes the Seasons of Changes!"

I have heard Your Voice several times whispering to me so clearly. It is so clear that, when I wake up from my deep sleep, I question if I was awake or still asleep when You spoke to me. I then realized it was a dream… or was it?

This week, I have been going through old papers and records. For the first time, my husband and I are in full agreement that this is the year to make changes or at least begin them. We have so many things that our kids have stored here. We are now figuring out how to get all of this to them so my husband and I can sort out our own items.

It is amazing how a family of seven can amass so much over just 11 years. However, it is also a time to focus on helping them streamline and let go as my husband and I already started to do this last year. It doesn't mean that we are selling, just that we are doing what the Lord has asked of us. To get our houses in order means good management. It means to be good stewards over what the Lord has given us.

To me, so much of what I cling to is a stronghold. In the beginning of my dreams, I was an interior designer and illustrator. Anyone who knows a designer knows they carry remnants of jobs, such as fabric, books, tools of the trade, architectural pieces and other accumulated items of value. Most of my high valued items were sold and auctioned years ago, so items I now have are well loved and have a good story.

Now though, through these dreams, I have told my stories. I have had my adventures and now it is time to remove the things from my profession. I am now retired from this, which means closing a chapter, a book of my life, I once held dear. There is my drafting table and other tools of the trade. These are often now things that remind me of my shortcomings. Why hold on to them when I know they will be blessings to others?

Our kids no longer use my crafting bench and sewing supplies. Creativity has now been given over to their jobs and other activities. Gone are the afternoons with projects and dioramas due for school. It is time to let go of these supplies and memories as they are not returning to them. During Covid, these things kept our crew busy and sharp. However, they now seem like grim reminders of a very sad time. All is electronic now.

I found myself over the years stocking up in case of shortages. We live in the country and me doing this over the years has saved us so many times. Even if there were shortages again, You, Father, have always provided. You always have a new way. I will now keep things that I know I will use or do use and the rest can go. I am turning over my 'just in case' to my 'let go, let God' case. How can the enemy short us when I trust in You to provide for all things?

Worrying and always planning ahead for disasters served a purpose at times, but now it is useless. It has at times shackled me. You then whisper to me, 'Forget the former things, Erin, for I am doing a new thing here.' I then cling to Your Words. You are also preparing me to paint again on canvas. I am excited about this. It has been many years… a lifetime ago. I will finally make peace with my brush. This will be a journey!

Now I find myself thinking about what exactly the term 'stronghold' means. It is like the talons of a Coopers Hawk. It is a stronghold in us in which only You can create a way out for us. It is a way in which the enemy robs us of our full freedom and potential in God's Kingdom… that is, His purpose in our lives.

Pressure and worry create in us such weakness that we often can't even see that we are firmly in the sights of the enemy and then finally in his grip. This leads to distractions, anxiety, sleeplessness, depression and harmful choices that create compounding problems. The enemy can even convince us to ignore our problems.

The enemy can also manipulate us into being lazy, neglecting God and/or being led to other sinful missteps. Before we know it, the hawk is consuming us while we are in its grips. Well, now is the time to be free! We are to let go and realize we are free and in Your loving arms. Father, we want to be firmly in Your 'grasp' and no one else's.

I had quite the vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "A Long-Lost Diamond" begins…

I had gone to visit a friend of ours with my daughter. He was living alone and we had not heard from him for a while. When we arrived, he was working in his carpentry shop. I had no idea he was a carpenter at all. He was making furniture. However, something odd then happened. In front of us was an old Breakfront Cupboard of mine.

He had removed the top and created a chest with ten drawers of various sizes. It was beautiful. He had sandblasted or stripped it of its finish and the grain was slightly raised. It was a bleached light oak. The drawers were dovetailed and flush with the frame. I was able to suddenly see beauty in something that I had once let go of.

Me: "I can't believe this. You brought this back to life. It is a whole new piece."

Friend: "Well, I have something I found in the back of one of the drawers. It was jammed and in a small envelope with your name on it."

My daughter: "Oh mom, this is exciting."

Me: "What is it?"

He handed me the tiny manilla envelope. It had a string looped around a paper disc. It was old and it looked like my grandmother's handwriting. The envelope had something large in it. I unraveled the string and opened it. It was a large teardrop diamond. I couldn't speak.

Daughter: Gasping. "Oh mom, it is beautiful."

Friend: "Here, I found this behind three rows of drawers below it. It think it is the appraisal, but part of it is damaged, so you will likely need to see its worth."

Me: "I have never seen this before. I would have known."

Friend: "Given the size of this diamond, you should sell it, pay your debts and then find a new home."

Me: "Do you think it is real?"

Friend: "An appraisal report was made and the carats listed make this quite valuable."

Daughter: "Oh mom, it looks like a 100-carat diamond!"

Me: Still in shock. "My grandparents were simple. My parents were not rich. They had very little. They were slightly better off than we are now"

Friend: "Well, your name is on this. It is yours."

Daughter: "God created a way for you, mom! Celebrate!"

Me: To my friend. "But I owe you something!"

Friend: "No, you don't. I owe you."

Me: "No, you don't."

He then offered me back my restored furniture piece.

Friend: "This is for you too. Do you like it?"

Daughter: "It is so cool now. It wasn't very nice before, but I now love it. Mom, take it!"

When I placed my hand on the chest, I woke up suddenly.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, You have done everything for me and my family. You are my Greatest Gift. You are my Treasure and my Diamond. I am thankful for You. In my dream, the envelope had my grandmother's handwriting. This is because she taught me the Lord's Prayer and took us to church when we were little. She helped lead me to You and I am so grateful to her.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I found you. I called you. You are My treasure."

Me: Crying. "You are mine, Lord."

Jesus: "As you can see, Erin, I send signs ahead of your path so you know if anything might be rocky or with many twists or turns ahead. This is similar to a country road with road signs of what is to come and what to watch for. It is the same here. Your dream is of a lost treasure you didn't even realize was handed down to you. Your worries were gone! This was transformative and all of your burdens were removed in an instant.

"Erin, this is the time of New Beginnings. A Change, a Great Change, is coming to you. It will impact so many. It is a break in the frontline!"

Me: "Lord, what was the meaning of the Breakfront Cabinet. The complete top, or Breakfront, was removed, leaving the cabinet or chest."

Jesus: "You are currently facing a stronghold of the enemy. It is subtle, but it holds you where you are. While you are on the frontline holding off the attacks daily, you are not advancing. You are depressed in the trenches and you have accepted your lot until there is a breakthrough to advance. You are tired, weak, discouraged and entrenched in the darkness surrounding you.

"However, you have held the line and have not allowed the enemy to overcome you. Well, I am telling you this… there will be a Breaking of the Dawn. This 'Break' is coming and, through this, you will break out forward and chase down your adversary. You will not relent and great will be your advancement. Erin, I am after the hearts… the 'chest'."

Me: "Oh Lord, You are so brilliant and wise. Darkness is closing in now. We see it daily. Foreigners with cultures that oppose Christianity is now flooding the nations. Our hands are tied and we remain entrenched in enemy territories. Please help us, Lord, as all of this is so discouraging."

Jesus: "I have you. Do not worry. I will send help and you will be set free. I know it has been difficult and I know your husband can't find work. However, you have only to see how quickly I move concerning your children to understand that it is I who makes a way when there seems to be none. Erin, do you recall your favorite Psalm for this?"

Me: "Yes. It is Psalm 46!"

Jesus: "Then understand that whatever happens all around you, remember My Spirit is in you and with you and you will not fall. I will help you at 'The Break of Day'. Continue on your course. This is a year of New Beginnings for you and your house. You are free. You are Mine. You are loved by the King… Me! Now rejoice as you will have energy again. Whatever you pray for in My Name will be granted to you. Your faith will increase day-by-day and great will be your joy. I have you."

Me: "What do we do next?"

Jesus: "Well, in your dream, you were blessed beyond measure just visiting a friend. You went about your daily works and found a treasure you never knew you had all along."

Me: "Does this mean that I have something somewhere that could move us?"

Jesus: "Yes, Erin… Me! I am the One you come to. Let Me work out your miracles."

Me: Happily. "Of course, Lord! Sorry I didn't say that right away."

Jesus: "Erin, rejoice! These are the Seasons of New Beginnings! One other thing to remember… the turkey who was wounded was shielded by a very large protector and nothing could harm it. Though you are injured and in great pain at times, remember that I am over you and I have sent angels concerning you to guard you in all you do. You are Mine, understand?”

Me: “Thank You, Lord!”

Jesus: “You are welcome. I am here. Now, let’s get our hearts ready for New Beginnings!”

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-904/

904 – We are cared for when the darkness descends

Received on Sunday, June 1, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and affection. Thank You for answering our prayers for our children and our friends. There have been so many urgent needs. Thank You for hearing our requests and granting our petitions. We boast in Your greatness, Father, as we are unable to do anything apart from You. Great are You, Father, and worthy of all of our praises.

It has been an amazing week of signs and wonders. Thank You, Father! On Wednesday evening, May 28, 2025, during supper and again last night, the big turkey came to our yard with its feathers plumed so the small, injured turkey could eat with no danger.

This is truly a sign, Father, that You protect us, the meek, the weakened, the sick and those unable to defend themselves. You meet our needs and care for us. You feed us. You are amazing!

Then on Thursday night, May 29, 2025, at supper as we all ate and right in front of our window, nine eagles soared over our yard. There were four older Bald Eagles and five younger eagles. It was amazing. This was a clear sign. It was nine gifts from You. We all witnessed this miracle.

Then on Friday night, May 30, 2025, during supper again, a miracle, but more for me as the family focused instead on food and eating as I grabbed my camera to take photos. There outside on the dead branches of the porcupine-ravaged tree sat a Cedar Waxwing and a hummingbird in shadow, silhouetted against the beautiful sky. This was an amazing once-in-a-lifetime photo for me. Another gift from You, Father!

The rain then came as I was out on Friday in town for an appointment. While out, my husband took quite a fall while hauling gravel up a hill. He said that, when he fell, it felt like he had been cushioned in slow motion by an angel. I believe it because he fell back and could have easily hit his head on a rock and no one would have been there to help him. Thank You, Father, for sending help! We are grateful he is okay, even though he is bruised and scraped up a touch…

In my heart and in my Spirit, I feel this is the year of changes for us. My husband, daughter and younger son all have poor opportunities here. My husband is entering the time in a normal career where companies look to retire the older employees for younger ones. It has been a difficult last few years of closed doors for him.

Father, You have kept us hanging on in a supernatural way. We have not run out, yet we do not have excess. It is balanced perfectly. We are so grateful for Your personal care. Now though we have felt a strong push by You to finally get our affairs in order for great changes. For the first time, my husband and I are in complete alignment that this is the year. We both feel great changes will come no later than this September.

Even so, neither of us are capable of too much physically. The thought of an actual move turns my stomach. However, we just know that we will need to move sometime this year and soon. Every time You have moved us, Father, You have made things increasingly obvious and often even painfully so. This time it is the same again. Wait times for medical care have been more difficult. One of my major doctors has retired and there has been no replacement.

I have also begun to see gang members in $100K+ pickup trucks in the city going about their daily routines. This is pretty frightening since there are so many cannabis farms nearby. To see young kids in very expensive cars here in the north country where there are very few jobs that pay more than minimum… well, then you just know.

Father, please provide us with another series of miracles. You answer our prayers which are good. We know that, when we move out west, we will barely have much of a home. However, to live and see our children thrive and be happy and not feel lonely… well, this would be wonderful. My husband and I would also be near our families again, as well as a great church.

We will miss the home You have built for us here though. Perhaps by a miracle, we will keep it. Maybe instead it will be a blessed place for a new family. We definitely need Your Divine Wisdom here, Father. Please make all of this obvious and perfect. We love You and we are blessed by Your Goodness.

I must admit that I am afraid to move as I am. I don't have the energy I once had. We will likely leave the majority of everything behind this time as, last time, it cost us way too much and we had a bad moving company who damaged so much of our things. It was just awful.

Over the years, I have not been attached to that much. Other than a few personal pieces, such as a small table that was a gift from my mom on my 40th birthday or a few other irreplaceable items, we can let go of a great deal here. This feels like we are now fine with preparing to let go.

Even so, Father, part of my heart will remain here. This is where You ministered to me and met me here. It is where I raised our children and met with angels. It is where the birds and animals came to visit. It is where You kept me far away from my enemies… and there were many of them. You tucked us away here in the wilderness in the land of the trees. You once told me that we were like arrows in Your quiver here.

That being said, we are really of no significance to those around us at all. People instead just dislike us here and for no real reason. They wave at us, but then murmur under their breath after we pass. It is sad. You have begun to slam doors shut for us here and we know You are preparing us. However, we are facing an impossible journey on our own. We need a miracle.

I had three quite vivid dreams last night…

Sub-dream 1 "We are cared for when the darkness descends" begins…

I was sitting on the grassy hill in our yard. I was watching two crowned sparrows gathering sticks and different items. They then flew with them back into the bushes. They were singing and very busy as they were obviously preparing a nest. I looked up toward the sky and the cloud formations were like an animal parade. I then laid down in the grass and looked up at the clouds.

At some point, I had fallen asleep. When I woke up, I was in total blackness. I checked my eyes to make sure my eyelids were open. They were. I felt around me and could still feel the grass. I then heard my family crying out for me wondering where I was. I sat up. I then saw stars in the darkness above me. They were falling from the sky.

I yelled out to my family. However, they could not hear me as I was outside and they were inside the house. I knew that they were worried and still looking for me inside. In the blackness, I felt my way to the front porch steps and door. Everything was pitch black. Our front door then opened and my family helped me inside.

This was so odd as there was light inside our home, yet I could not see it at all even from a foot away when I was outside. This meant that our neighbors couldn't see the lights of our house either. We all hugged each other. Everyone was so relieved that I was inside the house again.

When I woke up from this dream, the feeling stayed with me. It all seemed so very real.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Sub-dream 2 "The Key and the Projector" begins…

I was visiting several native tribes in North America. I was younger. It was sad because there were very few living members in existence. They had gathered in a type of community hall that was partially underground. There was a total of thirteen tribes, but I didn't recognize the names. It looked literally like gibberish to me. I then went to a table to gather some information about each tribe.

When I went to collect some packets, I was told that only ten of the tribes were chronicled. In this envelope were ten grey parchment paper brochures. As I looked through them, I realized that this was a false operation meant to draw tourists. For some reason, as I read through the pages, a giant red X would appear. This X was translucent and confirmed to me that this page's contents were false.

I placed the packet back on the table and walked towards the lecture hall that was crafted like a planetarium. The exhibit was about to begin. A man with an Indiana Jones appearance came into the hall. He was leading the discussion. He apparently had real film of how these tribes were robbed of their rightful lost tribe status.

There was a projector there that looked like a brass ship's compass and steering column. He fed the film into one side and out the other. There was a fancy key that was gold and inlaid with gems of some kind. He turned towards me and spoke in a calm voice.

Man: "I need you to guard this projector and key until I return."

Me: "Sure, no problem."

After the man left the room, a woman kept coming towards me to take the key. Soon there were others. However, I removed the key and took it with me to look for the man. I found him in the hall and handed him the key.

Me: "They are really coming after this key!"

Man: "Yes, but just wait until the film shows the evidence that none of these are the tribes they claim to be."

Me: "It is not going to go well then."

Man: "Especially when they discover that their claim and stake is worth nothing. God already knows where the lost are. With Him, they were never lost. If I were you, I would flee this place quickly before the reveal. I will also be fleeing right after the evidence is produced."

Me: "But you will be killed!"

Man: "They can't kill me."

Me: "I don't think they can kill me either."

Man: "Yes, but do you really want to be here when they are officially exposed for fraud? They made millions for years and now they will lose even more."

Me: "No, I really don't want to be here."

Man: "Then move on now. I will catch up to you later."

I nodded in agreement just as I woke up. What a strange dream!

Sub-dream 2 over…

Sub-dream 3 "The Seven Hills of Metal " begins…

I saw seven rocks in the forested area of our property. They were lined up and about 10" x 6" in size. I noted the order of the seven rocks…

- The first one was lead.
- The second one was silver.
- The third one was gold.
- The fourth one was copper.
- The fifth one was iron.
- The sixth one was bronze.
- The seventh one was tin (or something similar).

As I stood looking at these, they became the size of small hills. For some reason, they had no value at all. They were worth nothing here. I became saddened by this as I walked away.

Sub-dream 3 over…

Father, as I wrote today, five eagles of the nine returned and flew over our area again. I took photographs of them.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. You are discouraged. This is not new. Do you not remember Me telling you to be strong and to have courage?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. However, we face a very uncertain season here… a scary one. These dreams I am having are strange. I know that, very soon, things that once held value will no longer carry any value. Nothing that a man has and no matter what the form of his wealth is, it will all soon be useless. Not even extreme wealth will be able to save the lost. This will be so scary for so many."

Jesus: "In the presence of God, no man can offer anything of value except the heart. However, and as you know, 'The Heart of Gold' is one refined in the furnace of affliction until the goldsmith finds it worthy of use to God. A heart that is void of love despite God's work in and around them is a heart of evil unsuitable for use.

"Each man is held accountable for how they lived here. This includes how they treated others, those who are less fortunate. This matters to Me. They could offer up all they have to Me, but their hearts are all that I seek. This is good. If I based salvation on a man's ability to purchase it, this would be impossible for so many."

Me: "Yes. I know that I wouldn't be here."

Jesus: "Then it is good that I love you for you and not for what you are worth monetarily. I instead look at how your heart loves Me. This is priceless to Me."

Me: "I love You, Lord. I am grateful that You look at us and see so much more than we can see in ourselves. I once read about a motorcycle gang member who looked really scary and big with tattoos, yet had a heart of gold and was so kind to others. The article was about judging a person by how they appear outwardly. The article then spoke of a beautiful angelic-looking young woman who was absolutely selfish and evil-hearted. She was not at all what was expected."

Jesus: "This is more common now than ever. Erin, you worry about many things. While you have been here, the world around you has gone into rapid decline. You have reported on this. However, I did promise to bring you out from where you are now to the place of your heart. This place is with Me. You are still with Me.

"I want you to remember that I am always with you. My angel armies are over my children wherever I send them. Last time (our move in 2014), I took care of everything for you. The impossible became possible. I will do this again. I do not want you to worry at all. I already have everything prepared and the way in which I will do this will be perfect. Do you believe Me?"

Me: "Of course, Lord. I never want to move ahead of Your Will."

Jesus: "Wonderful! Then let My Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Do not worry or be afraid. I love you. Continue on your course to remove that which you no longer need. Prepare your house and I will do the rest. I will open doors that once were shut to you. I will send help from My Sanctuary. Take My hand in yours and trust Me to deliver you to the place I have prepared for you. Your children will also be full of joy. Erin, do not worry!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-905/

905 – Pentecost Sunday 2025

Received on Sunday, June 8, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Please help me! Please help me with this dream. This dream has disturbed me greatly!

Sub-dream 1 "My son faces unclear allegations" begins...

My home was being temporarily occupied by a couple that has a ministry in the Northwest, along with their two young daughters. While in real life these daughters were old enough to babysit my sons, they were only ages 10 and 12 in this dream. I downloaded an image of my home and realized this home was not familiar to me. It looked more like a large apartment with white walls, white carpet and white ceilings.

Note: When I have a dream where everything is white and unremarkable in the background, this means that all of the emphasis is to be on the subjects or specific objects in a dream.

The phone rang. It was the woman heading this ministry.

Woman: "I need you to come by as soon as possible to discuss an important matter."

Me: "Okay. I will come over right away."

When I arrived, the woman was together with her husband. They both looked quite downcast. Their daughters were in the room with us.

Woman: Addressing her daughters. "Please go into the other room."

Once her daughters left the room, she then looked over at me with a serious look.

Woman: "Your son has done something inappropriate to my 12-year-old daughter."

Me: My stomach dropped. "What? Oh no, this is awful."

She looked at me as if I somehow was also guilty. Her husband left the room. He looked very upset as he left. She then motioned for me to follow her into the kitchen. Once there, I saw that she was cooking short ribs. They had very little meat and were mostly fat.

Woman: "Both of us are interested in how you will handle this."

For some reason, I then decided to go over to the short ribs to try some. She just looked at me, sighed, but said nothing. After I moved away from the short ribs, she then removed the five untouched ones from the pan. The remaining fat in the pan soon turned into a solid. In essence, the fry pan was now all grease about ½" thick. She moved the pan to the sink and was going to clean it.

Me: "No, just leave it. I will clean it later."

Woman: "That's great, but what exactly are you going to do about this situation?"

Me: "How bad was this? Could my son be arrested for this?"

Woman: "Yes."

Me: "In that case, I really need you to tell me exactly what happened."

Just then, my son came in wearing a scary mask with a white t-shirt and jeans.

Son: "Hey, check out this mask I made. Well, it is actually more like a helmet."

Note: This was so odd to me. My son was standing here at his current age, yet these girls were only 10 and 12. In reality, both of these girls are older than my son by a wide margin (as I previously mentioned above).

Son: "Look, I made something for (the older girl's name)."

He handed me a long three-strand cord. It was braided with five red flowers woven in. It was then that he noticed that I looked upset.

Son: "Mom, is everything okay? You seem upset."

Me: "I need you to wait outside."

My son took off his mask. He looked confused. I closed the door and turned towards the woman. She had an indignant look on her face.

Me: "What do I do?"

Woman: "The right thing. You will be judged on this."

Me: "But he is not acting guilty. Again, what exactly did he do?"

Woman: "Be careful here. You are being judged."

I sighed and decided to go outside to speak to my son to see if he could give me any answers to my questions. I sat down next to where he was sitting.

Me: "Has anything happened between you and (the older girl) that was inappropriate?"

Son: "No, nothing! She is my girlfriend."

Note: Obviously at my son's current age, it would not be appropriate to have a boyfriend / girlfriend relationship with someone only 12-years-old. However, in this dream and to my amazement, he then suddenly changed into a boy roughly the same age as the daughter right at this part of the dream.

Son: Now much younger and smiling. "Mom, I really like her! She is my girl."

Me: "They are going to call the police. What did you do?"

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up suddenly. I was deeply disturbed. It felt like a warning. Lord, please help me! I want us all to be safe in You.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I am with your family and your friends. Now, let us breakdown this dream so you understand this…

"You have a Gift. You hear from God. I am with you. My Voice is in you. As for this couple, they have their own ministry. They believe themselves closer to Me than you are. While they have looked down on you many times, your gifts have confused them and yet quieted them from speaking ill of you and your house.

"In this dream, you let them stay in your home. The walls, ceilings and floors and even the furniture were white and free from stains. Your house had no sin.

Note: I know that this is not true in real life as no house is perfect and free from sin. In other words, the Lord was specifically referring to the house in the dream as being free from sin.

"When they called you there, you heard there was an issue. However, they never disclosed to you exactly what your son had done. You then noticed that (the woman) had cooked meat that she would never consider consuming because it was mostly fat. However, all who know about the sacrifice on the Altar of God knows that God's favorite is the burnt offering of fat. The fat is reserved for God.

"In this dream, you had eaten the fat with no care at all. This is because God is with you and in you that you could consume that which was reserved for God. As for those who condemn those who are close to Me, they are far from Me. They go through the motions as a ritual to appease Me, yet are far from Me.

"In this dream, you were treated as an unclean individual in your own clean house where they were guests. Again, they never told you what had occurred, but used this false accusation to divide your house and destroy your ministry. If one of your children was inappropriate with an underage child, you could be found guilty.

"In this dream, she wanted you to trust only her and not investigate further to seek truth. She instead wanted you to go directly to the police and turn in your son. This was the only way for you to be held in their light of what salvation says. In reality though, their daughters were old enough to babysit your children and, at one point, even did."

Me: "Lord, why did I have such a dream?"

Jesus: "Yes, I know it was disturbing. However, this dream should also serve as a warning for all to be cautious of what can be seen and what the enemy can attack you with. I promise to all of you who overcome selfish desires that I will give you back way more in Recompense. Do not fall into enemy attacks or be lured into wrongdoing that are traps and snares. Now is the time! Do not delay!

"However, there is also something else to this dream. In addition, if you noticed the house this was, you thought it was like your home in California. Instead, it was a combination of all the houses of the friends you grew up with whom you always thought you were 'less than'."

Me: "Yes. We were the poor house. We were the public spectacles. We had horrible clothes and were an all-around eyesore to our neighbors."

Jesus: "You have always felt under judgment by others and it is true that you have been. However, you dream impossible dreams that have come to be. Through you, I have made the impossible possible. Erin, you are to continue to write as I instruct you to write.

"Now, dreams like this should have you examine your current days. I have called you to be still and pray. If you do not pray, you cannot then be still. It is through prayer that I will work miracles through you. While you do this for others, you struggle to ask for yourself. Erin… ask… now!"

Me: "I am sorry, Lord. I am struggling right now. We give You our lives. Troubles have been hitting us. We need some miracles. My daughter and younger son struggle at work. Everything has changed around us and even our website needs attention."

Jesus: "Yes, I understand all of this. Until I move you to where I call you, I have placed a veil over all you do. The enemy only has access if it is allowed by Me for My purposes."

Me: "Lord, I am scared and not very brave these days."

Jesus: "I have sent signs to you. Eagles are near, Erin."

Me: "Yes. You also sent a third large eagle feather into our yard. These are amazing. Thank You!"

Jesus: "This is evidence that I am here. I know you are discouraged. You see the changes around you and now you know the very times you have written about are here. I know that, on some days, you choose to deny that which you see, but you know."

Me: "Lord, almost all of our friends have moved away from here. We seem to now be left alone here."

Jesus: "Yes, but I am here. Erin, I have kept you safe. You are not held captive. You are in the hallway of doors I am about to open. When I say get your affairs, your house, in order, it means to remain vigilant. Because the enemy of My people have increased their armies, I have called down enforcements from Heaven to increase My presence visibly."

Me: "Lord, please display Your power and Your sovereignty over all things. Please! A new pandemic is rumored and is named 'Nimbus'. Nimbus means 'holy halo of light'."

Jesus: "Yes, Erin, the enemy is clever. This is meant to be a personal dig against God and My Holy Ones. However, this can easily be turned back and come to nothing, so pray! Erin, you are all to pray now!"

Me: "What about the Great Harvest? The times are scary and people are given over to their evil now."

Jesus: "Calm down. I am with you. I will not leave you, so pray and I will answer. All of your worries will come to nothing. However, make no mistake… the enemy is advancing quickly to set up his governing way that is 'one way'. All believe in 'one way' for control. They will even call you to allow a foreigner into your houses and churches.

"Soon after, the generosity is ignored only to have these foreigners turn to take all you have as theirs and then remove you from your places. The rise of the False Prophet demands all you have and even your children. They are not respecters of your rights or morals. They think of you as nothing. Many will lose all they own."

Me: "Lord, this is already happening in places. Please stop it!"

Jesus: "My judgment is coming. Do not worry. I see it. It is written: Behold, I am about to create a New Heaven and a New Earth. The former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice in what I am creating (Isaiah 65:17-18)."

Me: "Are You soon finished so we can go, Lord? Please!"

Jesus: "I have prepared for more than 2000 years and even longer for this place knowing who I was building it for. This is a place of perfection and beauty. This is a place where you can trust your produce is good and food is beneficial to your body because I have made it so. You will plant your seeds and harvest your crops from pure soil.

"You will sit and celebrate your friends' harvests and rejoice together at the appointed feasts. You will occupy your Home, not foreigners. You will each have your Home. Together, you will worship God with your whole heart. Great will be the days of your life. There will no longer be any fear of man."

Me: "Lord, I am so ready."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. Just a little longer. In the meantime, the enemy seeks to rob you of the truth, love and joy that comes from pressing into Me. The enemy loves fear, captivity and control as he rises to be like God. While he is not and will never be, he can cause great trouble throughout the nations. Now, you had another dream. Tell Me about this dream."

Me: "Yes. It was so vivid…

Sub-dream 2 "A house for me that is simply perfectly perfect!" begins...

I was at a house I had never been to before, yet it somehow still seemed so familiar. I felt at home there. Soon after this, I received an invitation to attend a housewarming party. This invitation had a beautiful wax seal and was hand delivered to me. I cleared my schedule and went to the housewarming party.

I brought a beautiful bouquet of flowers in a vase. The flowers included roses, hydrangeas and calla lilies. It was in a special cut crystal vase. When in the sunlight, this vase created prisms of rainbow colors.

When I arrived at this beautiful home, I noticed that it was newly built. What amazed me was that, even though it was newly built, the landscaping was mature and lush. I was completely in awe at how much I loved all of the features.

It had beautiful large stone pavers and a private courtyard entrance with fountains surrounded with arched open doors and beautiful vines and flowers all around. I knocked on the front door and a man was there to greet me.

Man: "Ms. Erin, we have been waiting to greet you. Welcome! Please come inside."

He waved his hand for me to come inside. Just then, I heard a familiar bark. It was Zoey! However, her coat was now healthy and a different color. Her fur was now a vibrant white and metallic gold color.

Me: "Zoey? Zoey! How can this be?" I reached down to pick her up.

Tears streamed down my cheeks as I walked into a living room that was somehow perfectly tailored for me. I couldn't even believe my eyes! All of it, every detail, was perfect. This included the flooring, the rugs, the furnishings and the artwork. All of it was perfect. I turned to the man.

Me: "Whose Home is this?"

Man: "Well, Ms. Erin, it is yours."

I was in shock! I walked out to the patio area of the yard. There were so many of my friends and relatives there. They cheered for me and we embraced. While I saw very few details of the people there, I felt in my heart that my mom, dad, grandparents and some friends I had lost were all there. I woke up when I tried harder to see what everyone looked like.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Me: "Lord this was an amazing dream! Thank You, Lord!"

Jesus:: "Erin, how lovely is the dwelling place of God?"

Me: "Lord, Your Home, Your dwelling place, is the place of my heart."

Jesus: "This reflects all that you have come to delight in over the years. This includes the homes you have worked on. This includes the showrooms where you felt a certain fabric but kept that desire to yourself. Erin, the angels over you have kept detailed records of all of these things. However, this was not an easy task as you like so many different styles. Even so, we designed a Home uniquely for you. However, you have only seen one small portion of this Home."

Me: "Oh Lord, I feel so honored that You would even think of me for such things. I guess I put things together for a client's home and never thought of myself as a potential recipient."

Jesus: "Things here (on this Earth) are not meant to last. However, I have prepared a place for you. You will have friends over and you will be happy. They will also have you over. They too will delight in all they have been given in the Homes I have built for them. No one will be homeless. All will be made new. Your pens will never run out of ink either."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. You are perfect! I love You. Please create a way for us here. We are struggling and we aren't getting younger. Our other dog, Snigglet, is dying. We are struggling with this. I feel we are on the brink of some miracles from you. We need healing and breakthroughs."

Jesus: "My Recompense is with Me. This is also for you. Time is Mine. The enemy moves so quickly that very little is reported. When confronted, liars lie, even when in the act of wrongdoing. Just remember… all of this must take place so that My Words, the prophecies, are fulfilled."

Me: "It seems almost all have or are being fulfilled now, Lord. Let this be the time. Please, Lord, let this be the time!"

Jesus: "My Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. I know you do not see this now, but you soon will… a Great Reversal! Do not worry. I am faithful and My promises are true. I give back 100-fold more than the enemy has stolen. You are My Bride in gold of Ophir. Great and shining shall you be. All will know you are Mine. I have you! Do not worry!"

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-906/

906 – Happy Father's Day 2025

Received on Sunday, June 15, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Happy Father's Day! Happy King's Day!

Thank You, Father, for Your tireless work in Your children. You never stop. In great love and wisdom, You remain God above all things and over all we see. You are worthy of it all… all of our praise and adoration! You made a beautiful place for us and added birds and animals. You paint the sky in the morning before Your sun rises. You paint our sky even after the sun has set. There is nothing beyond Your abilities.

Your abilities are too infinite to list. They are too wonderful for my brain to even comprehend. We are so humbled and small compared to Your vastness and power. Your reach goes beyond all we stand and we stand in awe of You. Your beauty and majesty leaves us breathless. You leave us with no words, only reverence for the awestruck wonder of Your Glory.

I am no one in this world. I am no one anyone would consider or notice. I have done no great deeds. I have climbed no great mountains nor will I be remembered in the generations to come. I don't care to be recognized for who I am in this life, only for the Great I AM whom I love and serve. Only You know me fully because You created me.

You determined each portion, each good thing, and each thing I would need to surrender back to You, the things I cannot change here. Even so, each day that goes by seems to rob us of our time left here. Age comes to us all. No matter what my outcome is here, I know that I have followed the Good Path that leads to You. I pray that my heart is a pleasing gift to You, my Father.

I also pray that my notes to You, along with all that I am, makes You smile. I pray You find me lovely. I pray that You might be proud of the child I have become in my older years. Father, I delight in You. I look for You in everything I do. I pray You remain with me all of my days. This is a beautiful day that You have made. I will be glad in this. I love You, Father. I am delighted that You are the best Father I could ask for!

I was given two separate dreams in which I need direction, Father. I know that these two dreams are very important…

Sub-dream 1 "Sifting through a pile of ashes" begins…

I woke up early in the morning. It was before sunrise. I walked to the front door to see grey ash covering everything that my eyes could see. All of the green grass and trees were covered in grey ash. The ash seemed like snow. The sky was darker than normal. The sunlight appeared to come from all over with no clear source. It almost seemed as if it was being filtered by a camera lens.

It then hit me! This reminded me of the landscape after Mount St. Helens blew. I was living in Northern Idaho when this happened. It was on May 18, 1980 and I was in my junior year in high school. I stopped to look at the time. It was after 10:00am. Hmm, it wasn't just before dawn after all! I walked into the kitchen and heard the Lord…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, take a sieve and come outside."

I looked in my baking drawers and soon found a flour sieve. I then went to put on my rain boots. I then decided to cover my nose and mouth with a mask in order to keep from inhaling any of the ash.

Me: "Father, what am I to do with this sieve?"

Just then, I saw an angel of the Lord in white standing by the bridge outside. The angel held out His hand and a flame burned from it. I walked toward the angel. The entirety of the angel now appeared as a flame. I became frightened and I dropped down into the grey ashes with my head down. I was trembling. The angel touched my head with the burning flame. I felt a rush of electricity and healing waves go over my entire body.

I then felt something like oil or honey being poured over my head. I kept my head down as I watched this liquid seem to dance in the ash in beads. The drops seemed to breathe and appeared alive. I have been carrying so many worries and burdens that I have been weighed down lately. I wept there in the ashes.

Angel: "Erin, you are on Holy Ground. Look up." I could see the angel direct my attention to a mound of ash. "Erin, sift!"

I went to this mound and began to sift the ash. It was difficult because the ash was even lighter than flour.

Me: "What am I doing this for?"

The angel ignored my question. I then noticed that my sifter was the kind that you press a handle to sift. I pressed the handle seven times. After the seventh press, I could finally see three stones in the bottom.

Angel: "Now, place them in My hand and repeat three times the pressing of the handle seven more times."

With every set of seven pressings, three more stones appeared. When I finished all of the pressings, I then had a total of twelve stones to present to the angel. I then heard the Lord…

Voice of the Lord: "Erin, it is time!"

Me: "Lord, is this You? I can't see You."

Lord: "Erin, God has never forgotten His promises to His people. Though the enemy seeks to destroy all things, he can never remove the things of God. These remain."

Suddenly, all of the grey was gone. I was in the grass alone. There was no ash, no stones and no signs of the Lord. As I began to walk inside, I heard a bird singing. I turned to see a grey Kingbird looking at me. It then flew away. I walked inside our house and looked out the kitchen window. All the grey ash had returned. It was raining ash. I then heard the Lord again…

Voice of the Lord: "Do not be afraid. You are inside. Remain."

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up and my stomach was sick. I had been bitten by a tick on Thursday evening and the medication I got for it has not been sitting well with me. The tick was carrying something, so I have been taking an antibiotic I have never had before. I got up momentarily and then went back to lay down. I was so bothered. I then fell back to sleep and had another dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Sifting through a sack of flour" begins…

I saw a very evil group of people. They were very wealthy and very powerful. I could somehow tell that they were now meeting to celebrate a great victory. It was clearly an unholy union. Attending this meeting was the leader of Albania. He was to be the leader over the New Muslim Order of Religion, the One World Religion.

A new type of Vatican had been built. It was massive and was a type of Vatican for this New Order of Islam. It was in Europe and open for tours. It was open for all. It was beautiful architecturally and yet frightening at the same time. Several Muslim leaders even expressed anger and opposition, but then they quickly disappeared.

This New Religion was then given a name that sounded European. Great power was given to Islam through this new way. I then saw a meeting at a large round table. There were once seven there, but three more were then added to the number. They were meeting at a very high-end building.

The lighting highlighted each speaker the moment they spoke from their chair. I could not tell where this light was coming from, but knew it was high-tech. These ten leaders governed several sectors each, including farming & food, banking, religion and other such sectors.

This was scary because the room was dimly lit except the light that shined on each speaker as they spoke. In this meeting, several countries; well, really, the entire world; had now turned against the USA and Israel. This group was organizing the poisoning of their food, water, medicine, animals, livestock and even the air itself.

At one point, they had paused to watch a great horse race. This horse race was even greater than the derbies. All in attendance put on race attendee attire and took photos of each other. One side of the room was highlighted with bright lights like a stage being set. Just then, there was a drumroll and a massive curtain dropped. There was an exact replica of the Pergamon Altar now sitting there, also known as the Seat of Satan.

Another trumpet then sounded. However, this was more like a frightening horn sound. After sounding, a beautiful white horse appeared. This horse was the best that money could buy. It was larger than most racehorses and stood three lengths higher than the man who was its trainer. The horse was muscular and looked like a workhorse. Even so, and on a separate screen, I could see it was easily faster than any other horse.

Suddenly, camera flashes were seen. Betting had begun amongst those in attendance. An announcer than came up to the podium…

Announcer: “Three more horses will be revealed by the end of the evening. This will be an exciting night.”

Everyone cheered. The meeting then reconvened as if none of that happened. One of the attending leaders then had a question for one of the other attending leaders.

Leader 1: "How long before the removal of the rest?"

Leader 2: "Do you mean life expectancy? If so, no more than four years. All will then be complete." The place cheered. "We got rid of all the religious people first, as well as the evidence that any existed. Well, we didn't technically get rid of them, we just have no evidence they exist. Even if they were in hiding, they will never last the final wave."

I stood observing and, even in the darkness, I could now see the floor moving. I heard clicking and then realized that the floor was covered in scorpions. The attending leaders seemed completely oblivious to the danger under their feet. I could then see a woman working in her kitchen. She received a knock on the door from a delivery driver. The driver delivered a small sack of flour.

Woman: "That is it? I gave up my diamond for a sack of flour?"

Driver: "Ma'am, this sack of flour contains all of the ingredients. All you need to do is add water."

The driver got back into his vehicle and quickly drove away. The woman opened the sack and instantly became suspicious. She pulled out a sifter and slowly sifted the flour into a bowl. She then saw something moving in the sack. It was large fat worms! However, she dd not throw out the flour as she was too hungry. The woman kept sifting and found a total of ten worms. She then sifted it again just in case.

Woman: Shaking her head. "I pray they didn't lay eggs. I can't sift that."

She smashed the worms and disposed of them. She then used the flour to bake some bread. On the very next day, she was now dead. The driver then came to check on her two days later. Once he realized the woman had died, he robbed her of all she had left. The driver went to his distributor. As he was clocking out, his foreman came up to him.

Foreman: "You did great work. Here is some flour for you as a bonus."

When the driver got home, he made himself some bread. He died soon after eating the bread. A few days later, a group of workers came across his dead body. They then plundered his home and took everything he had, including what he had stolen from the dead woman. This felt so morbid to me.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, these are disturbing dreams. Please shed light on them. I don't want to be here when the bad flour is distributed.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry."

Me: "Lord, I have not been feeling well from this medicine. Why allow this at all? Why did I receive this bite? It makes me not want to go for walks."

Jesus: "Erin, the winter was mild where you are and more have appeared. I did not make this life free from troubles. These are so you become more resilient and aware of hidden enemies.

"Now, you are so fixed on all the troubles in this world that you forget that I am here some days. Remember… it is the evil you can see that bothers you. While you are still shocked, if you knew of the evil you cannot see, you would be horrified. Think of the world now as if God is sifting and separating the parasites from that which is good… the pure flour from the rotten."

Me: "It is shocking to see flour that is normally clean and pure be filled with worms. I will be checking my flour from now on."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. However, this is like a parable. In your dream, the Seat of Satan had been established and then the Four Horseman of the Apocalypse had come. There was no food, only flour. The evil men sought to destroy those they thought had no purpose to them. They then poisoned the food, the water and all the resources. Many starved because they knew they would be poisoned if they ate the portions given to them. Erin, the high cost of bread at the end is written about in My Word."

Me: "Lord, please stop all of this. This year is supposed to be a Gateway Year, a Year of Changes. Please let this be transformative. We live in perilous times with many leaders who hate our country."

Jesus: "Remember… an army of evil came into the wicked revealing their position. Then there is the unseen evil over those fighting against the Children of God. It won't be long before the Kingdom of Heaven rains down. Erin, this is the year of the Open Window or Space.

"This is the time to see what great love the Father has lavished on you that you shall be called Children of God (1 John 3:1). Remember, Erin, I brought you into a spacious place before and surely then I can do this again because I delight in you (2 Samuel 22:20)."

Me: "Lord, my Spirit has not been at peace lately."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. However, you are to then commune with My Spirit. I am here, Erin. Heaven will soon join with Earth. What you have waited for is soon to come. Can you see it?"

Me: "No, I can't. I only see it in my hopes and dreams. Lord, Israel is at war and so many countries have turned against them. So many have turned against the USA."

Jesus: "Erin, I am over it all. When a child dies, injustice occurs and/or lies have replaced truth, you then say, 'God, please help!' The enemy then says to you, 'See, your God doesn't even care.' Well, I do care, but I am now doing the sifting, the separating through shaking. I know this is difficult, but My promises still remain true."

Me: "Lord, the lies are so widespread now. I can barely read any news or believe anything those who against all that is good say."

Jesus: "Did I not tell you to pray? It is good to not entertain any of it. Do not entertain liars. One day soon, they will be unable to lie. Their tongues will confess.

"Now, Erin… do not be afraid! I know the agendas of the evil ones. Remember that my angel army protects the Children of God. Those caught up in schemes of the wicked are then measures of the Kingdom of God and their crown will show this. You were created for this time. You are My Bride and I delight in you. I have not abandoned you nor would I.

"Now, you worry about many things. However, do not. I will grant you your heart's desire. I will also care for you as I have always. This has never stopped. You are Mine. I will continue to send help from My Sanctuary. I will not stop."

Me: "Thank You for helping me with medical care last week, Lord. Could You please heal our little dog also? She took a fall and has been struggling ever since."

Jesus: "She is Mine too. Hand her to Me and let My Will be done. Do not worry. Remember also the 'No Kings Movement' was a demonic attack against My Father on the Throne, the King of kings."

Me: "This is also You, Lord!"

Jesus: "Remember… during these uprisings, the enemy was attacking Israel and its right to exist. They attacked your country and tried to say the land is not yours. The same army is over it, as well as the Prince of Persia. Do not forget… God's favor is upon the righteous, those who stand for truth… and NOT the liars and thieves.

"Whatever they declare in curses will come back to them ten-fold more in troubles. Since God is over all things, it didn't rain on the parade yesterday (the Army Parade that took place in Washington DC on Saturday evening, June 14, 2025). It instead came back to rest upon the enemy.

"Now, Erin, I have a great surprise this year on the 22nd day of the 9th month!"

Me: "September 22, 2025? Will we be in Bend OR, Lord? How exciting!"

Jesus: "It will be a great time! Rejoice, Erin. I love you."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-907/

Dream 907 – Israel vs the Prince of Persia

Received on Sunday, June 22, 2025

NOTE: Thursday was a huge day in the Middle East, with many event continuing from this. Israel has been destroying Iranian targets. Just yesterday evening, the USA attacked Iran's mountain nuclear site with six 30,000-pound bunker-busters. This was a sneak attack. What some forget is that Iran was originally called Persia It was on the Persian New Year of March 21, 1935 that the name was changed from 'Persia' to 'Iran'.

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for fresh rain on a hot day. Thank You for a peaceful land in which to live. Thank You for my family and friends both near and far. Thank You that hope and faith and love abides in those who love You and are Your children. Thank You for my sleep and dreams.

Father, when I am weakened physically and unable to do things in my own strength, You hold me and keep me and give me rest. Blessed are You, God, who takes care of His children. You protect us and watch over all we do. Thank You!

Last night, the USA aided Israel by bombing three nuclear sites in Iran. Many people from the surrounding nations call Iran a 'Nazi Death Cult'. The rulers have sponsored horrible acts against our soldiers, as well as the peoples of Israel. They even sponsor unrest and mayhem in our own country. For forty years, this evil regime has continued to call for the death of the USA and for the death of Israel.

Father, please let Your Will be done so Your Great Harvest can begin. Please let this begin the years of peace before the world descends into more chaos. So many of my dreams have a common theme; confusion and grey ashes falling. Please thwart the plans of the wicked and do not let the enemy advance against the righteous. Please heal our nations and send revival in the streets. Please let the wicked retreat before Your children. Please let them run and hide. Please heal us, oh Lord!

I had a dream on the night before last…

Sub-dream 1 "Preparing a Home Fit for Royalty" begins…

I had been hired to prepare a house to be fit for a King and His Queen. The home was a guest home on a large estate. The grounds were lush with greenery and flowers. This greenery was groomed with precision. Not one of the shrubs were overgrown. Nothing around me had any sort of blemish.

When I approached this house (but really felt more like a cottage), it felt more grand than most of the homes I have ever worked on. I noticed that it was built with hewed stones. The stones were gold and white Jerusalem Stone. They were really large bricks (2ft x 2ft x 4ft) and fit perfectly. The windows were beautiful pane windows of painted wood with a beautiful patina. All of the windows were arched.

When I approached the front door, I was greeted by a worker. The door now before me was handcrafted out of wood. This door was adorned with the finest metal work. The handles were made of forged bronze. On the side of the threshold was a small bronze singing sparrow.

This bronze singing sparrow was something to behold. When you pulled the string attached to this bronze bird, its mouth opened and he sang to let everyone know that a visitor had arrived. The technology to do this, along with the sound it made, was truly like nothing on Earth.

As I entered this room, I was in complete awe. The floor was also stone. The ceiling was tall and about twelve feet all around. There was also a limestone fireplace that left me speechless. I went over to the worker after he waved me to come over.

Worker: "So, do you like it?"

Me: "Yes. Even if I could design a dream home for myself in my imagination, I am not sure I would do one thing differently. It is perfect. It is beautiful. Now I am wondering what the main home must look like!"

Worker: "You have already been there."

Me: "I have?"

Worker: "Come. You are to design the furnishings and the window treatments."

Me: "Who is the King and His Queen?"

Worker: "Well, this is more for His Bride. Her Groom will come for her here. This is for her as a gift."

Me: "Wow, He must be a multi-billionaire!"

Worker: "Wealth here is not measured monetarily. Wealth and worth have a different scale here. Now, come! These are the fabrics and designs that you can choose from."

He then took me into a room with many windows. I noticed that there were several fabrics draped here and there, as well as a large sketch pad on an easel.

Worker: "Now, you pick the fabric and the design of the furniture and it will be revealed on this sketch pad. You can then modify it or even start fresh again. Once you have completed each room, you simply then leave the room. Once you leave, the entire place will be completed just as your vision on the pad declares it."

My jaw dropped in amazement. I was left truly speechless at this incredible technology.

Worker: "Here, try it."

I proceeded to pick up a beautiful blue-green mohair fabric. It was like velvet and not at all itchy like earthly mohair. I then noticed that the weft of it shined like gold (in weaving, the weft is the crosswise threads on a loom over and under which other threads are passed to make cloth).

Sure enough, when I ran my hand over the fabric, it changed color from gold to blue-green one way and then blue-green to gold the other way. I was fascinated with this! I then recalled the most comfortable chair I ever sat in and one I could never afford. It was from the San Francisco Design Center's Kriess Collection. I had gone there years ago to work on a client's home and had ordered her one of these chairs.

Me: "I know what I want to do! I will turn this fabric into a chair."

As soon as I said this, the chair from my imagination was instantly sketched out on the pad. It was perfect. I didn't see any need to alter the chair at all.

Worker: "Now, come out to the main room."

To my surprise, the chair simply appeared in the room, complete with this amazing fabric. It looked exactly like the drawing on the sketch pad from my imagination.

Me: "I can't believe this. This is…" I was speechless again.

Worker: "Amazing, right? Now you have your work cut out for you. It will be perfect. The King specifically gave you this project for the Bride, who is also His Daughter at the same time."

Even though I was still in shock, I quickly went back to work. I completed the entire project, even the kitchen design (including counters, tiles and fixtures), all in record time. I then realized I was missing the window treatments. I hesitated even wanting window treatments based on the incredible beauty of the stone walls. I then noticed a bin that was labeled 'windows'. My heart started to pound when I saw my favorite fabric for this application.

Me: Praying to Jesus. "Lord, who is this house for? How blessed will this Bride be."

I lifted out the fabric. It was a beautiful Scalamandre fabric of linen. When I held the fabric up to the light, I decided that it seemed a bit too heavy for this house. I then wished that it was more airy and in shades of blue, green and gold. Before I could even finish my sigh, the fabric instantly changed into how I wanted it to be right there in my hands. Beautiful!

I went over to the arched windows. I put these handtied top curtains on these custom bronze bird finials on these arched windows. I used tieback to keep the beautiful windows showing. The windowsills were easily 12" deep, wide enough for someone to sit on the sill and peer out.

Me: "Maybe the Bride could sit on the windowsill while waiting for her Groom. There would be enough room for her."

I then added flowers in bowls and vases around the home. This was now the most luxurious home I had ever seen (other than Jesus' Home, of course!). When I was finally finished, there was a completeness in my heart. It was as if I had finished my last work. I sat in my chair and looked around.

Right here were all of the most beautiful things I had seen throughout my lifetime all in one place. All of the things that once were for my old clients were now here in front of me. I could hear the birds singing outside. The music then became louder and louder. There were people coming. Oh no, I didn't feel properly dressed to meet the clients!

Me: "Worker, are you here?"

Worker: Instantly appearing. "Hmm, I see that you are not dressed yet. Come! The Groom is coming!"

He took me into the design room and sketched a beautiful white gown. After I wholeheartedly approved of this gown, it was instantly on me.

Me: "I am confused. Why do I have a gown on?"

Worker: "Erin, this is your house. The Groom is coming! He is here… even at the door."

I heard knocking and woke up. I smiled with my head on my pillow… "You are Good, God!"

Sub-dream 1 over…

The following dream was from last night…

Sub-dream 2 "Interviewing for a Teaching Position" begins…

I was younger in this dream. I was right out of university and was interviewing for a teaching position. I then walked into the work studio of a famous older artist. She was very well known and a master of several genres of art.

I then noticed that I was at this interview with four other candidates for the position. The artist focused the interview on our talents and kept eliminating potential teachers when they were unable to match the talent she expected. I was soon the last one remaining.

Artist: "Well, I am finished interviewing for today."

She then began to gather her personal belongings to close up her studio for the day.

Me: "Hey! Wait! Did I get the job?"

Artist: "Well, are you a potter? Can you throw pots on a wheel?"

Me: "I am not a potter. However, I have taken pottery classes. You are looking for a teacher, yet you haven't asked me about my teaching experience or background. In fact, you didn't even ask the others either."

Artist: "At the end of the day, if you have no understanding of the medium, no abilities to perform the art, how on Earth can you instruct? Anyone can teach. However, to be a real instructor, you have to know the Journey of Creation, the pathway which leads to knowledge. The successes and the failures all make for a great teacher."

Me: "Well, I have never been really good at any of this. I know a lot about a little of all of it. However, I have never mastered just one thing. This means I would be good at helping others find their medium… their path. However, you are right… I have failed more than I have succeeded in my career. I would be instructing from a platform of failure." I began to gather up my portfolio and references. "Well, thank you for taking the time to consider me."

Artist: "Erin, wait. The job is yours. It is yours. Anyone can teach what it means to succeed, but only those who have failed many times understand the cost to the end. The richness of the medium is in the journey."

Sub-dream 2 over…

Once I woke up from this dream, I realized I had overslept. I laid there on my pillow and recalled so many disappointments. There were so many roadblocks and closed doors. I have been weak lately. I have been forgetful and tired. I have been feeling my age, but perhaps even older than I am at times.

Father, please take my failures and turn them for Your Glory. Only You can heal us and make us whole again. My heart is grieving the passage of time. While time is Yours, Father, it is not on my side. Please do not forget us. We are growing tired here. I have had a tough time recently and I need Your help. Please bring joy back to me. My heart has been grieving.

Just then as I sat in my devotional chair, a large crane flew by my window. This was an unusual sight around here. On Monday, the Red Cardinal returned, but without its mate. It stayed on and off all day. I also finished my final round of antibiotics for the tick bite and was able to keep my food down a bit easier.

Lord, with the prophetic events now unfolding, Your children are fully at Your mercy. I was reading Isaiah this morning and You brought me to the 25th Chapter, the chapter about You swallowing up death forever more. While every verse in Isaiah 25 is amazing, I found the 10th verse quite pertinent to yesterday's turbulent events in the Middle East…

Isaiah 25:10: "For the hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain and Moab shall be trampled down in his place as straw is trampled down in a dunghill."

Well, the nuclear site in Iran under a mountain was just hit with a bunker-buster, the heavier successor to the MOAB (aka the Mother Of All Bombs).

Father, You are showing Your Might. Father, please rise up and show Your favor on Your people who love You. Please protect us from evil.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Do not worry. Remember… I am over all things. There is nothing new under the heavens, understand? Very soon and in a little while, all will know that I am God. I Am who I say I Am.

"Wicked rulers will be no more. It is written and so shall it be. Take comfort in this and understand that these events are allowed so that the Words of the Prophets are made complete and God's Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

"With bad news, it is easy to become distracted and turn your attention away from that which is good and Holy. However, remember that I Am good and Holy and those who remain in Me shall not perish, but have everlasting life.

"Erin, take comfort in this. Evil leaders continue with evil schemes, but I will expose every single one of them. Even lies and illusions will not cover them. My justice is fair and true. The wicked will not escape the Hour of Judgment.

"Now, in the midst of this… PRAY! Remember to keep My statutes. Pray for the lost so that they may be found by Me. Erin, I have not forsaken you. I am still with you. Come to Me in all things and I will make right your course.

"I will walk with you in these battles and I will answer your prayers. I will continue to send you signs and wonders. I will send My angel army concerning you to fight off any enemy assignments. When you are tired in this season… REST!

"If your rest finds no relief, then PRAY! It could be that the enemy is in the realms you cannot see and is attacking you. So again… PRAY… as the enemy's schemes will then come to nothing. Be careful of all you ingest in this season.

"Be careful of anything you take in, especially if offered by strangers. Not all of these things are beneficial, so PRAY! Pray in the Spirit and pray out loud in song even and I promise you any enemy assignments will be confounded.

"Another reminder… I am here! Take comfort that, when you pray for a thing, I will answer and will send healing. This is not just for you, but others also. Bless others and you too will be blessed. I will also bless those who bless you. This is good because the enemy longs to see you cursed. However, his curses continuously fall back on him.

"Erin, My promises are true and they remain. I remain with you… therefore, My promises remain and nothing shall thwart the Will of God, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Rejoice as I am here!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-908/

908 – Bright Lights in The Darkness

Received on Sunday, June 29, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do. Thank You for cool temperatures in the summer. Thank You for fresh rain. Thank You for the blessings of family and friends. Without others experiencing these battles along with us, we would be completely disheartened. However, I do notice that it is much easier for me to pray and believe for others than to pray and believe for myself.

I am thankful to You, Father, that You are here to nudge me and direct me to also put myself in front of You. Recently, I have found myself losing physical strength. This has led me to slowly lose spiritual hope without me even realizing it. Please strengthen me physically and spiritually. Please lift my head. I have been so exhausted lately that it seems supernatural. My small and medium sized clothing are almost too large now.

I have also been so cold lately. This is not like me at all. As for my cancer (and according to the related medical tests), it has not spread. This means I am losing weight in a different way. I quite simply have had no interest in things I once loved. Father, it feels as if You are preparing my heart for a new way. Please keep me healthy and strong during this great season of change.

On Friday, You gave me a very vivid dream…

Sub-dream 1 "A Delayed Flight Finally Arrives" begins…

I was in an airport terminal in a distant city. I was on a long layover. I had been waiting for my flight to my final destination. Instead of giving a definite time of the arrival of my connecting flight, the announcer kept saying the following…

Announcer: "Passengers, we apologize for the layover. Your connecting flights should be arriving soon. Thank you for your patience."

So many of us had been waiting for so long. At one point, a person walked up to one of the attendants at our gate…

Person: "Excuse me. Do you know if this will be minutes, hours or even longer? Should I book a hotel room for the night and come back in the morning?"

The entire crowd waiting there suddenly became quiet in order to listen to the reply to these pertinent questions. We were all now looking for clues as to timing!

Gatekeeper: "Sir, it is completely your choice as to whether to leave or to stay. We don't know the time either. Unfortunately, we too are subject to the waiting. However, we have been told that the arrival for this gate is soon, if not now. Now, this is all that we have for information as of right now. However, one thing is guaranteed… the plane is coming to this gate and soon!"

You could hear the moans from the crowd. I heard a man murmuring. The frustrating thing was that we had no choice but to wait. If we left, it would be almost impossible to reach our destination and could easily take more than double the travel time. However, our frustration soon turned to joy when the gatekeeper made an announcement just twenty minutes later…

Gatekeeper: "Great news! Your flight has now arrived!"

We all cheered and hurried to the gate. It was as if all of us wanted to make sure we got on the plane in case it filled up and left.

Sub-dream 1 over…

It has been a difficult time for our house lately as so much uncertainty looms. There have been so many appointments and follow-ups. One thing I have noticed is that people are now hurting everywhere. The reports are sometimes hard to hear.

I was at the grocery store yesterday and both the woman and the man who were in front of me in line at the checkout had Cannabis leaves on their scrubs. I assumed they worked at a medicinal marijuana facility. The strange thing was that they both appeared nuts. They seemed demon possessed and anxious. They had a false sense of urgency and competitiveness about them too. They were hyper-paranoid.

I am not a fan of THC or medicinal marijuana. This is because of what I witnessed as a child around this culture. The fact that my brothers and I were the only ones alive from our friend groups is a testimonial to how we had avoided the marijuana lifestyle. I had witnessed so many stupid and psychotic episodes I would never want to relive. It affected us. It was the driving cause of so many accidents, deaths and suicides of so many people we knew.

It seems like a lifetime ago for me, one that I had hoped I would never have to deal with again. However, ever since marijuana became legal, I have seen such bizarre behaviors, especially road rage. The demons are everywhere now. I also see increases in all kinds of criminal behaviors just in our area alone. It is all so very sad. Father God, where are You? These people need help and deliverance.

I had another dream last night…

Sub-dream 2 "The Paddleboat of Sin Sails on a Dark River" begins…

I was at an overlook. The area was lush with a green landscape. It was lovely and peaceful. A very wide river was running in the center of the area. There were recreation boats in the river. It was beautiful and the water was clear. It seemed like the Mississippi River. A large riverboat then appeared traveling from south to north.

On this boat, the passengers were naked and doing vile things in the open for all to see. The music on the boat was loud and obscene. The boat had massive paddlewheels. The sin taking place on the boat was somehow turning up the mud from the river bottom involving the paddlewheel.

Hours later, the boat returned, but this time the sin was even more horrifying. The stench from the boat was so horrible that I felt my stomach become ill. The water was no longer clear in the river. The mud and sewage turned up from the paddlewheels / sins made the water a dark grey, almost black, water. As the 'sin-boat' moved down the current, the river started to become shallower and shallower.

Soon, the boat was grounded in shallow water. However, the people on the boat just didn't seem to care. They instead continued to sin right there in the open air for everyone to see. I then saw the riverbed dry up to grey dirt. It was a 'grey area'. I could then see the sun begin to scorch the greenery on one side of the river while the other side remained green.

The grey dirt then disappeared into the dying riverbank to the east (or left looking down the river). As for the right bank, it was still lush with growth. The sinful boat partiers then got off of the boat because it was too hot and they were thirsty. They went to the side that was happy to greet them – the left.

As the sinners came onto this land, that land too began to die. Looking at the area, there was a distinction between the living areas and the dead areas. There was now no longer any 'grey areas'. I then woke up to the sound of a woodpecker pecking on the one side of our home.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, when will revival begin? The churches around us are not preaching about sin and repentance. If we don't turn from our sinful nature as a nation, we will soon fall. We are watching one religion rising up throughout the world and spreading the opposite message (the Black Dragon). Please, Father, don't let us wait at the gate too long.

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. I know you are discouraged."

Me: "I would have thought by now that You would have begun the Great Revival. God is considered evil now and vice versa. Lies are spreading so quickly and people believe these. Even your children are confused about truth, Lord. It is heartbreaking."

Jesus: "Erin, I have a Great Plan. I know this is a difficult time to be here in this. You are witnessing what happens when a nation falls. It gives up its laws and principles in order to benefit and appease the sinful nature of the new inhabitants. In order to appease a foreigner, they allow them their own altars, cultures and laws.

"Instead of standing as 'One Nation Under God, Indivisible, and on My Word', they instead remove what offends the foreigner's gods, but, in particular, My Word, God's Truth. I offend anyone who has the opposing belief in holiness and righteousness under Heaven. It draws attention to sin and darkness. Remember that darkness is exposed by the light of God."

Me: "Lord, sin is in the open now for all to see, even in the daylight. It is madness. It is horrible. There is no shame, no humiliation. Even modesty is gone. There is no 'grey area' anymore. It is one or the other… God vs the devil, good vs evil and so on. It just seems hopeless."

Jesus: "Erin, please calm down. Be at peace. Right now, you only see evil advancing throughout the nations. Soon this fast-moving false religion will have spread throughout all the lands and, with it, great hatred for the things of God. To speak against it, many will face persecution… and prosecution. Many will then convert.

"However, what you do not see is the works of God in the midst of all of this. I am over all things on Earth and in Heaven. My armies are greater; our weapons are mightier. Our reach is without measure and even beyond that of the heart.

"This means that, at any given moment, I can reach in and take hold of the heart of evil and shape it, transform it and use it for good. Those who still operate in the negative fruits of the spirit will be on full display. You will know a man's heart as nothing shall be hidden."

Me: "Lord, as it stands now, I can do nothing but pray! I have no power. I am a Vessel, Your Vessel."

Jesus: "Then this is good. Erin, I showed you years ago that I filled the Vessels at the River of Live. Each one I shaped and prepared. Each one went into the furnace several times. It was then tested to see if it would be useful to carry Living Water. Do you remember this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord."

Jesus: "These Vessels were filled by My own hands and angels carried them away until I use them to pour out My glory upon the nations. As far as I know, I have not seen Living Water from the River of Life in Heaven pouring out upon the Earth. Have you?"

Me: "No. Just the opposite!"

Jesus: "Then understand that this is soon to come. Erin, the moment is near. Now, I know you are tired of waiting, but don't grow in discouragement and turn to the world for relief."

Me: "The world no longer has anything for me, Lord. The water doesn't live here. While there are things still living here, most of it is not beneficial."

Jesus: "The nations once dedicated to God have been invaded. Because of this, many have fallen away from God's statutes. Some still cling to My Commandments, but most do not. This is the moment to pray. The enemies of your land, My land, have been plotting to destroy the people who dwell there.

"The way they do this is to tell those who have lived there that they do not belong. They even try to convince you that your right to an existence under Heaven has been removed. The most blatant countries in which foreigners are claiming this right now are those living in Europe, Canada, the USA, Australia, parts of Africa and yes, even Israel.

"Israel is actually the most visible one. The enemy knows this is God's Land and that the Jewish people are called God's Chosen People, yet foreigners continue to claim that they have no right to exist. Well, all of these countries have allowed invaders in to chip away at their existence as a free people. Erin, the stage is being set for World War."

Me: "Lord, could You please have the Great Revival come first and then get us all out of here?"

Jesus: "Hmm… so you would prefer that I not fulfill My promises?"

Me: "No, of course not. It is just so hard for us to watch. Victories here are quickly followed by enemy attacks. I have been praying and praying, Lord!"

Jesus: "Erin, I hear and I answer. Instantly, I answer. I know what you need before you even ask for it. I did not say any of this would be easy. I prepared you to know the works of the enemy so you can pray. You have been on these battlefronts many times."

Me: "I am just ready to begin. I am ready for victory, Lord. Lord, I am tired of bad news. I am tired of the state of things. Please open doors of victory for Your people so that we can walk through these into Your Glory. Waiting is difficult. Miracles are few and far between."

Jesus: "Then pray! You are given miracles daily that you never see. My Voice is in you. You hear from Me, even the very moment that you ask. However, it is okay to pray for yourself. It is okay to ask for healing of the Vessel I dwell in."

Me: "I never thought about my body as Your Vessel and to pray!"

Jesus: "Really? After all of this time? After all of these dreams? You know how to treat your Vessel, your body, and to care for it, but yet you never thought to pray for strength, healing and divine miracles, even though I dwell there?"

Me: "I am so sorry, Lord. What a mess I am."

Jesus: "Stop! Wait! Are you saying I am dwelling in a mess of a Vessel. Oh no!"

Me: "Forgive me, Lord. I apologize. I repent. Please bless my Vessel."

Jesus: "Erin, speak blessings upon yourself, upon your body. Believe that, when you pray, they will be done unto you. Just as you pray and believe for others, it too can be done for you. This is because I will hear your prayer and heal you.

"Now, this is a lesson in prayers for yourself. You are not to listen to anyone who makes you feel guilty for asking for yourself. This is evil and meant to remove hope in your daily life. This is also a lesson in patience.

"The wait is long when you know your destination is soon to come. It is like a child in the car on a long trip. You as the parent know the approximate time of arrival barring any unforeseen circumstances, but a child is just focused on the destination. A child soon grows tired of a long car ride.

"Erin, you have been on a long journey and you know you are nearing your destination. You are weary. However, I am here and I love you.

"Now, pray for your leaders that I am over them and with them in all they do. Pray for any evil to be exposed. Pray that the armies of the wicked be confounded and retreat. Pray for revival. Pray for each other. Bless others and I will bless you. I will not abandon you, Erin. I am with you. Do not be afraid!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-909/

909 – Nearly Dead Plants are Brought to Life

Received on Sunday, July 6, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for a new day here! This is another day to learn more from You. This is another day of practicing trust. Thank You for not giving up on me. You are my Redeemer, my Comforter and my Best Friend. I know this to be true and I am grateful. This holds true even after all of these years of waiting for Great Change. The season has come for us to prepare and go now. A move is coming unless a miracle occurs.

We must let go of former things and start again. Everything in this life is borrowed. Everything is! Everyone in our circle of family and friends are a special gift from You, Father, and a great treasure. You know the number of our days and You assign them here for each of us to take hold of and surrender for Your Glory. We are only here for a short while and for Your Kingdom purpose.

Each one of us has a Divine Purpose and a unique footprint here to make a difference and fight the good fight. Each of us is to be a light for those falling into darkness. I am reminded after reading the reports of the devastating flood that swept through several children's Christian Camps at 4:00am on July 4, 2025 of just how precious time is here. These little girls, 8-year-olds, in two cabins, had no time to escape the rising waters.

To be so terrified after waking suddenly and the stories are horrific. I can't imagine being a parent of one of these little ones. This seems so senseless. Even so, I am reminded that with You, Father, all of these tragedies, the losses of life, all have a purpose. While I also know these little girls are with You, their families need comfort.

There were also many others who were swept away with very little warning… well, I pray that Your heavenly angels greeted them all and carried them into eternity. Passing from this life into the next one comes to all of us. It is just so difficult to be here and experience the great void of loss of our loved ones. Joy can turn to sorrow so quickly. It is then difficult to find that joy again with the heartaches.

I pray, Father, that to all those who have lost those closest to us that You would fill that void in our brokenness and make something beautiful from the wreckage. Some of my losses can only be filled by You, Lord. You are my Healer, my Reconciler and my Closest Friend. Sometimes there are no words and nothing that can replace the loss of those we love.

Sometimes there are only memories – good and some not as great – but a journey we shared with them and You gave us this. I have lost several friends recently and even two were precious Sparrows. Over the years, at least 12 sparrows from all walks of life have been carried Home in Your arms. The most difficult loss for me personally was that of a toddler.

I cried with her mother on the phone as she held her little one hoping You would bring a miracle and raise up this little one. It was not to be and I felt so horrible that I couldn't appeal to You. My petitions and prayers were not answered the way I had believed. I was angry at You, Father. You reminded me that You are God over al things and this little one is healed and one day I will see her in Heaven.

Today has been declared as a day of prayer for the people of Texas. Father, please grant some miracles and report some good news in the midst of the destruction. You have a purpose for every life. Please use us to shine a light, heal us and strengthen us. We love You.

I had a vivid dream last night…

Sub-dream 1 "Nearly Dead Plants are Brought to Life " begins…

I had gone to a plant nursery to purchase some plants. I found some blooming flowering plants for the hummingbirds in our yard. While I was checking out at the cashier, I saw two small potted plants that had been stripped of leaves and flowers and were even losing their green stalks. I chuckled at the sign in front that read:

"Last Chance for These!"

Me: "What is the story with these plants?"

Cashier: "Ahh, a challenge! Take them home and revive them and we will post your testimonial here."

She then pointed up to a bulletin board with all of these dying plants that had been purchased by customers and miraculously came back from the dead.

Me: "Wow, this is amazing."

Cashier: "The stories of revival here then wins some great prizes. Are you up for the challenge?"

Me: "Sure, why not?"

Cashier: "These are truly at the end, so if you can bring these back to life then great will be your grand prize."

I chuckled as I picked up one of the little plants. All of them then suddenly turned brown-grey while I was standing there.

Me: "Well, what if I can't bring them back."

Cashier: "It does happen. These were here because it is the last day before they go into the boneyard or plant pit that we use for mulch. So, what do you think? It is our last two that the nursery officially considers nearly living plants."

Me: "Okay, sure, I will do it!"

The cashier pulled out a camera and took photos of me with the plants and sent me on my way. When I got home, I became determined that these plants would live. However, after a few days of fertilizer, water and prayer, one of the plants never revived. However, instead of throwing this plant away, I placed it near the trash area. I left it to God. I "LET GO AND LET GOD"!

One week later the remaining plant was sprouting new leaves and, the next week, the leaves were turning yellow as more green ones came in. While it even had some parasites that I had to treat, these were minor. All in all, this took a great deal of determination and persistence as I still had only small signs of revival. It was discouraging, but I decided after a while that all my hard work might be pointless.

One morning just a little while later, I went to the trash area and the plant I thought was dead had now come back to life. I was in complete shock. I now had two living plants left. I picked the plant up and brought them next to each other. I watered them again. The very next morning when I went to check on them both, they were fully grown and healthy. A true miracle!

Me: "God, I am seeing amazing growth here! I am not sure I had anything to do with this at all. These two little dying stalks turned into lush bushes after I resigned them over to you."

I then went to phone the nursery. I suddenly woke up as my pillow fell off the bed.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I was laying in bed laughing about this plant dream. I am not very patient, so this was very humorous to me. As I laid on my pillow, I heard You three times, Father, tell me to remember and read Numbers 22. I quickly fell back to sleep and had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Angel and Some Warnings" begins…

I was walking down the road near our home. I saw a man in the road ahead that I didn't recognize as I turned back to my house. When I turned, the man was right there in front of me. I was now a bit startled.

Me: "Who are you?"

The man then smiled at me as he suddenly changed into an angel of the Lord. His face was so kind and his skin illuminated.

Angel: "I have a message for you from the Lord. It is important that You follow the Lord's instructions exactly as the enemy has sent trouble. However, the Lord has blessed you and your children. Those who go another way are like rebels who defy God's instructions. They would rather cause others to sin than to bless them.

"They would even take it to beat their animals in defiance to the Living God. Now, God is giving you specific instructions. Follow these and great will be your blessing. You need to know that someone close to you is like Balak and makes demands you cannot follow. However, even worse, someone even closer is like Balaam. However, you are not to worry as the Lord can Transform anyone."

Me: "I don't understand?"

Angel: "Then trust in the Lord and follow in His Ways. Erin, you are not to negotiate with fools!"

The angel suddenly disappeared just as I woke up.

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, please grant me wisdom and keep us from harm, in Jesus' Name!

Jesus: "Erin, come up!"

He once again spoke to me while I sat in my devotional chair. His Voice was very clear.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here and I am with you. Erin, I am about to take you to the place of your heart here during this season (Bend OR). You will be overjoyed. I realize it seems impossible, but do not worry as I am the God of the Impossible. Now, you will be removed from the land of the trees to the house I have prepared for you.

"Erin, your dream of plant revival actually means that I will plant you for revival and great will be your joy. Your sons and daughter will also thrive there and great will be your works. Do not worry. Do not be afraid. I have you. I am over all you have. I am over your property, your ministry and your very lives. Do not worry as My Favor is with you. You are greatly loved as is your Nest friends!"

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-910/

910 – My Daughter's Duties Were Just Expanded

Received on Monday, July 7, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You have given us. Wow, this was a short dream, but with so much content fit into a tight space. We feel blessed and so very thankful to You in all things. Not long ago, a hawk came to the tree outside. My feeders are full. Please protect your animals and birds that come to the feeder.

I was instantly translated to a Heavenly version of our Yard in a dream…

As I walked, Jesus was there to greet me! I immediately ran into His loving arms.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Come, I have a different path to show to you today. Come."

He reached for my hand.

Jesus: "Erin, I am creating a new path forward for you and your house. It is time to let go. Remember that My favor is upon you. My Voice is in you. While I have never left you, I have been making your stay here more and more challenging. I am making it more and more challenging for all of you. This is because it is time for a Great Change! Erin, the time to let go is now."

Me: "How, Lord? All of this seems impossible."

Jesus: "Finish your projects. Your husband is to finish his yard work and the house is to be organized."

Me: "Do we need to do this soon?"

Jesus: "Yes. Your husband must fully rely on Me right now for his strength and great will be his reward. He must focus on Me and I will direct his path. You and your husband must pray and agree together for direction."

He then showed me the final result of our labor and it was impressive.

Jesus: Smiling. "Now, you and your husband are going to be even busier than you have been. This means that he must give access to your daughter to help with the dream postings. This is so that, if he is too busy, she could then help him with the postings. This is My Nest and I need you both focused on the great task that is coming. Erin, this is a safety feature and good stewardship. Your husband will want to do this because he desires to do My Will.

"Erin, I love you. I love your husband. I love your children. I love those who reside in our Nest. I am with you. I am also with all of them. I have prepared a new way, a new path… and this won't be just for you. I have created this. Forget the former things. I am doing a new thing here. It is difficult to see it because nothing seems to be the way you imagined it. This is okay, Erin, because I am with you. Remain in Me and I will make your path straight. I will do the impossible."

Me: "It will take a miracle, Lord, but You are the God of Miracles!"

Jesus: "Yes! So, rely fully on Me! I promise that you will then be overjoyed. I will strengthen you."

Me: "I will need this, Lord."

Jesus: "Do not worry as I am with you."

Note from my husband (as written by him): Based on the Lord's Instructions, I am now training my stepdaughter to take over the posting of these dreams whenever needed. This will take at least two or three dreams for all to be seamless. Regardless, I will be looking over her shoulder as necessary and for as long as needed in order to make sure all goes how we want it to. Naturally, I have full trust in her expertise. This Nest will still be in good hands (if you don't mind me saying). Blessings to all of you and thanks in advance for your patience during this transition.

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-911/

911 – Amber's Test Posting

Received on Tuesday, July 8, 2025

Background: From Dream 910…

Jesus: Smiling. "Now, you and your husband are going to be even busier than you have been. This means that he must give access to your daughter to help with the dream postings. This is so that, if he is too busy, she could then help him with the postings. This is My Nest and I need you both focused on the great task that is coming. Erin, this is a safety feature and good stewardship. Your husband will want to do this because he desires to do My Will.

YES WE DO!!!

Take it away, Amber

Hi friends!

Thank you so much for all of your welcoming messages and for trusting me with the Nest. I love reading through the comments. I've been around my mom and Jeff throughout my life while they have worked on these so I'm excited to be a part of the process!

This post is simply for practice purposes. I apologize for the new dream notification that probably got you running off to read! Don't fret! I feel confident that a new dream is coming soon, and we'll make sure to label it as Dream 911, as I know that is a big number!! I myself can't wait to see what it's about.

I hope and pray you are having a fantastic start to the week!

Blessings,

Amber

"Dream over…" 😊 (Practice test complete!)

NOTE: This is a sample dream only. We will keep this here for fun, but when publishing, all subsequent dreams will be renumbered one back!! This is Dream 911 but only for a VERY short time 😊!!! THIS IS JUST FOR FUN

😊😊😉WHILST WE WAIT!! TO CONFIRM: The next dream will be Dream 912, but, when books are published, this Dream 911 will disappear and all subsequent Dream #s will be subtracted by 1 😊!!

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-911/

911 – Stop, Drop, and Pray!

Received on Sunday, July 13, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

You are so amazing! You care for us and love us! Everyday I can't thank You enough for my life! I can't thank You enough for my children and the kindness in their hearts. My children are incredible people and You have blessed them, thank You!

It has been one of the most difficult last few months of my life. So many things have been revealed to me and we are in shock and awe. I had hoped that a season of change meant that a great transformation was coming any day, along with healing and revival. Instead, changes have come here and faster than I ever imagined. A meeting with the real estate agent on Friday also revealed that we will not likely get what we had hoped for from the sale of our home. So, this too, Father I place in Your hands as we do everything as You instruct us to.

I was up early this morning walking our dog. I hadn't been down this end of the road in a while. Our neighbor (left side of the road) recently passed away and there has been a new in-road across his property into a new housing development there. As I walked in front of our neighbors home next to us (right side of the road) my dog decided to leave a massive gift on the gravel at the top of their driveway, right in front of their security cameras. Of course I took care of it, but this adds fuel to the fire in their judgement of us.

I looked up briefly to see the hostas on their property were bushy and whole – while ours had been eaten by deer. I chuckle because their home is pristine and so well groomed on the outside – but inside they are not nice people – at least to us. Lord, bless their home and give them all they desire in this life that they strive for. The outer appearance of the things we see do not tell the story or give us the entire picture of what is inside.

Our hearts matter the most to You, Father. Please keep us pure of heart as we possibly can be when being mistreated or even betrayed by others. Keep our tongues under Your authority and let not curses be on our lips. For the power of life and death can be determined from our lips. (Proverbs 18:21)

Let us always stand with the Sword of Truth in all things. Please help me to rely on Your godly wisdom at this time. Please strengthen and protect us Father in all we do. Wisdom is proved right by my actions – let every decision be in godly wisdom!

Father, You are amazing in all Your works. You know all things and by Your grace You grant us only that which You desire to reveal to us at the proper time.

As for me, I'm not terribly smart nor am I clueless. You have given me what I need to know to navigate this world by Your hands and for Your glory. You have kept me from danger and held my hand through difficult hairpin turns on the path You have given me. The more I trust solely on You, the easier my journey is. When I go through darkness and valley experiences, I must always remember these too are allowed by You to prepare me for what You would have for me.

I heard a commentator referring to the loss of life of the children from the flooding in Texas: He said, "You never get over it, you get through it."

During tragedies the enemy hits the rewind button and reminds us of all of our mistakes leading up to the event. You, Father, keep us focused on You and the road we need to walk today.

This last week, we experienced a traumatizing event here. I'm not sure how to navigate all of it, so, Father, I am giving everything to You. Only You can step in and rescue us.

Two evenings ago, I had a dream.

Sub-dream 1 "God & The Cliff Overlooking A Tumultuous Sea" begins…

I was standing on a very tall cliff near the ocean. Below me were jagged rocks and a very tumultuous sea. It was both beautiful and terrifying to see the immense awesomeness of what God had made, but also from the perspective of the edge of a cliff, knowing that my life could easily be lost by one bad step.

This cliff had no guardrail either, adding to my heightened awareness that I was vulnerable and subject to the will of God in this moment. As I stood out looking at the beautiful, blue-green water and the vast area where the horizon of the ocean met the sky – I became fixated on some small cumulus clouds forming. They formed rapidly until they consumed the entire sky.

Then a mist from the ocean formed into a type of fog and within seconds I was surrounded in a great cloud of fog so thick I could not see my hand when I held it up to my face. I suddenly became frightened. I hadn't shifted footsteps – so as to avoid falling off the cliff into the sea, I proceeded to sit down where I was instead. As I began to sit, I heard the voice of God.

God: "Do not sit, stand! I am here. I will not let you fall."

I still couldn't see.

Me: "Father, I'm really scared."

God: "Yes, I know, but do not be afraid. I am with you."

Just then I heard a bang and I woke up.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I had a jumpy sleep. I would then drift off and I imagined someone making decisions about me and plotting. I woke up around 4:00 AM and stayed up. I was deeply disturbed at what God had shown me but comforted by His promises.

The last few days I have watched God go before me in all things. When I have a question or I am stressing, He speaks and calms me. He ministers to me and reminds me that this is all for His glory and His Kingdom purposes.

I don't recall my dream from the evening before last, but I remember last night's dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Moving Day" begins…

I had gathered seed to feed the birds and animals for the last time here. Our home had been sold and our vehicles were loaded and ready to say goodbye to the place the Lord built. It was a beautiful day – it seemed like summertime or early fall. I closed the front door for the last time and thanked God for such a wonderful home. Tears streamed down my cheeks as I looked outside.

I could see my daughter and son in their cars pointing toward the feeder. I took the seed tray out to the yard and all the animals and birds I had come to know and feed over the years came together to say goodbye. The feeders had been removed so I scattered the last of the seeds and nuts I had. As each one took the feed, they changed and had different feathers and fur. All of what I saw struck us as so shocking – we were awestruck.

Then, one by one, they went their own way into the woods. The only one I didn't see was the red cardinal and his partner. So, we loaded into our vehicles and began to back out of our driveway. Then suddenly, on the front porch I saw the red cardinal. He looked like he was waving his wing to say goodbye.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I must have been crying in reality because I woke up to a wet pillow. I opened my eyes and I was still here. I was still in our home.

Father, I know You are preparing us to leave – this dream of the last day just made my heart break. Thank You, Father, for Your care. For sending dreams and visions in preparation for Your plans to come. Forgive us for fighting these.

Jesus: "I am here. I am with you. I know it is difficult to say goodbye to all you've come to know but remember that one day all of this will be restored back to you. All this is yours. I built this for you.

"All this so you could live and dream and write. It doesn't all make sense now, but one day the home you are in will be changed and great will be your joy. It isn't goodbye forever, it is goodbye for now. I will remove you before the home I have blessed you with becomes a burden."

Me: "Lord, I thought we would keep this home and…"

Jesus: "Erin – I am doing a new thing here. Can you trust Me?"

Me: "Of course, Lord."

Jesus: "I showed you this area in a dream years ago. The times are here so you must trust Me to move you now. I am taking you to a place of safety for your sake, this is My will be done, understand?"

Me: "Yes Lord."

Jesus: "I have made all of your children Watchers of the Wall. Walls must not be breached. I will give your children and your stepchildren wisdom and strength. Your daughter will be the guardian at the gate of My air church – the Nest – for now. I want to remind you that all throughout your communities, neighborhoods, cities, governments and all you see – there is a great separation throughout the nations. This is a final sifting as your daughter just told you.

"Do not entertain the demonic realm in any form. Let your words be few. When you are bored, don't pull back from your tasks to your screen, instead sing praises to God and the evil flees because angels have been activated. This is the time to escape back to Me fully in all things, not fall into old enemy schemes and distractions."

Me: "Yes Lord."

Jesus: "Remember all that you see around you is Mine. Don't let the enemy plant seeds of doubt on your path. These can take root and cause trouble. When you need direction – "

Me: "Stop, drop, and pray?"

Jesus: "Very good. Now I will send the right people your way. One right after the other and remember too – I built the house you are in for you before I gave you the dreams and closer fellowship to Me. This means, the land was selected, the area cleared, permits issued, and foundations laid. So, if I could do such a thing before – then what can't I do?"

Me: "Nothing, You can do anything Lord."

Jesus: "So trust Me to provide a home for You again. You are in a valley right now and it's difficult from the valley perspective to make mountainous decisions. Well, the mountain is where God is and I can tell you My view from the mountains is vast, My perspective you can't even fathom.

"From the mountaintop I see not only other mountains but I also see many valleys; where you are in one valley unable to see other valleys. You cannot plan anything because you are unable to see the whole picture. I do not expect you from your position in the valley floor to make a mountain top decision – you can't with success.

"Erin, I can. Trust Me because I can. I am with you and have never left you. This next portion of your journey will seem uncertain as if foggy, but it is only because you have come from a period of certainty to one of uncertainty. Remember though, I have you. I am with you. I will make clear your decisions and your course.

"You are in the valley of decision right now, but not only you – others I have called are facing some events they never thought possible for them, understand? So you aren't alone and many will be comforted by My words for you as they too will also have confirmation in them. Remember too, all is about to change for My glory and the Kingdom of Heaven!"

Me: "Thank You Lord, I love You."

Jesus: "I love you too, Erin. I am with you."

Me: "You've had to repeat this so many times for me Lord!"

Jesus: "When I repeat My words, it is not to remind Myself of them it is to plant these words of promise into your thoughts so you recall them. The more I repeat, "I am with you" then, this is because you will face some events coming which might make you question all you've come to know."

Me: "Oh no, Lord, please – no more."

Jesus: "You are capable Erin. I have you so do not worry. I will well up in you and nothing shall come against you! I have you! I love you. I am with you in the valley. I am your Shepherd."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-912/

912 – In The Middle of a Great Storm

Received on Sunday, July 20, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for being our perfect peace when our lives are anything but that. You remind me many times a day that You are steadfast and with us! Storm after storm has come, but You remain. I'm so thankful for all You do as a great beacon of hope to guide us.

You showed me in a dream, a few days ago, a tumultuous storm-tossed sea…

Sub-dream 1 "Uncharted Waters" begins…

I was in a wooden dinghy which had somehow been separated from a larger boat. I knew I was heading for rocks but the rain and darkness made it difficult for me to see at all. I had no steering mechanism on my own so I had to succumb fully to a very fluid situation. As the waves became more frequent and likely I would be dashed upon the rocks – I could see a light coming from the shore. It looked like a campfire.

I yelled out hoping to be heard. When I couldn't tell if anyone heard me, I decided to cry out to the Lord. I yelled, "Help me, Jesus! Jesus, help!!" Then the sea calmed and the boat landed upon a beautiful beach. I let a wave take my wooden boat in. The campfire had burned out. I had made it to the shore.

The feeling of being safe on the shore brought me great peace. I sat on the sand with my knees to my chest and my head down. I cried with such thanksgiving that the Lord had delivered me. I began to repeat, "Thank You, Jesus", over and over in gratitude for delivering me safely in uncharted waters. A difficult circumstance.

Sub-dream 1 over…

My sleeps the last few weeks have been jumpy and not deep. I've been shaken.

Father, You have prepared me in advance for this but I didn't quite understand what exactly I was being prepared for. Through prayers and fasting as well as faith in You – Well, I believed I could scale a wall like David even in my disabled condition (Psalm 18:29, 2 Samuel 22:30).

Years ago, Father, when I was in the desert, You told me You would deliver me and my children to the land of the trees. You told me there You have built a place for us where I could raise my children in peace. You let me wait on this promise for a few years as I was hammered in the desert place by one of my greatest enemies.

Then when I had finally begun to give up – You told me to write. You said,

"Dream and write what I tell you exactly. Do not veer to the left or right. Be a scribe for My Glory – never your own."

I then began to write in the fall of 2012. I quickly learned I had both friends and foes, so I tried to navigate that while working full time as a single mom.

In the beginning I typed everything on my own. I had and still to this day do have a wonderful group of friends the Lord sent to help me when things became too busy. I saw You deliver me from strength to strength against difficulties. Everything was a miracle and I'm grateful.

Then You told me You would send a helpmate to move us to the place You prepared for me. I hadn't wanted to move ahead and open my heart up again after my previous husband. You told me to give You the entire situation and You would take care of all things. It required impossible situations to line up together. I tried to imagine how You would put all these events into place.

When my accident happened at work in May of 2014, I thought my life was over. I really didn't know what would occur at all. I had been friends with MathMan in 2013 which eventually led to marriage, but he lived in Canada and I was a U.S. citizen. He was charming and smart, and a watcher and Christian. The Lord told me that he would be the man to deliver me and my children to a new home.

We met and I flew out to see him and he seemed wonderful. When my injury occurred though, I told him I wasn't the same. He, in love, said it didn't matter. Miracle after miracle happened by Your own hand. Most know the story, but You were very clear with us to keep much of this story hidden for a future time.

It wasn't an easy union. We had a blended family and my new husband was taking my sons and daughter and blending them with his two children. He worked full time and I was still navigating my injury and a new battlefront.

In 2012 through 2014 – while in the desert – I had various people show up at my home and workplace. These were people I didn't know… It scared me. Most of them were well-meaning and wanted to deliver gifts or pray over me. However, there were "others" more scary. I felt like I had been living in a fishbowl of sorts.

Looking back at everything, I watched You, Father, line up unusual circumstances to get me and my children here to this place with my husband and stepchildren. There were issues at first, as in all marriages. But we both loved the Lord and continued to work together for His purposes. God, You know I am not perfect, but You are.

My husband took us in and cared for us. There was something different and special about him. He made me laugh and he supported the dreams. Then things began to change when events unfolded which I had no power over. What I thought was quirky behavior I realize now was a hidden danger. You kept me from understanding this fully until the actual real-time event unfolded in March of 2018.

I won't go into exact details, but it was bad and my husband had lost his whole career based on one bad week. All of the kids lived with us, so we prayed, but had no idea what had all occurred until an officer showed up at our home. After all this happened, I was guided by You on every next step. I learned things I had no idea about. All of what I had come to know was different – but yet affirming some questionable behaviors.

Despite this, as well as this disease which took over and exposed a side of him that I had never seen, You used me to get him the help he needed. The medical professionals told me to take nothing he says at face value because horrible things were spoken to me… Horrible. Even my ex-husband – who was abusive, never said things like this to me. I consulted You, Father, and I knew I was dealing with troubles beyond my abilities to endure.

In one month, the Lord stripped us of our income – we had enough to last a year and then my disability came. God, You sustained us. You cared for us and blessed us. With medication and doctor monitoring – mostly prayers – my husband came back to us. When he came out of all of this he was humbled. I had been deeply hurt by what had happened to me and part of me then had built a protective wall.

Father, You continued to send miracle after miracle and showed Your love and favor. You then prepared our hearts to return back to Oregon where my goal was to have my husband receive modern treatments and medications if You, Lord, would not deliver him from all of this. You showed me in a dream that this familiar unclean spirit was a sleeping white tiger in him. It would only resurface if it was allowed to by its host.

So, You strengthened him day by day and it was my pleasure to love and care for the man You sent to me and our home. He loved the dreams and our Nest and cared for our financial affairs since he was the cover over our home. We had a system in place in case of this occurrence again and the signs in place to stop it. All the while putting our trust in You.

At some point, events became too much for him. It was slow and hidden at first, then an adjustment in medication seemed to give him more energy. Looking back, I missed signs. We had brought a new puppy home after Zoey had died. That was a lot of work, which I had forgotten about, but it seemed to bring us closer together as a family.

Our puppy's name is Caspian, and Father, You truly sent him into our lives. Caspian also brought my husband a little companion and seemed to calm him. Then he asked to visit his mom in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and we thought it would be great. We had air-miles points saved all these years, so it was perfect. He went out and seemed to report great things. I was so happy for him. When he came home, he wasn't doing well. So, when I ran errands, I let him rest at home with our dogs. The rest for me is blurred right now.

But You had us prepare our home to sell and told me things hidden would be shown. You told me,

"I conceal a matter by My own hand and then I reveal it for My glory."

So, the last month or so, I have had to pick up the pieces of our shattered lives here. You have allowed all of this for a reason and of course, Your Will be done. But I ask for You to be with us. Keep us and protect us from harm. Please heal my husband as when he finally comes through this he will look back and be horrified at what was done. Please help us navigate all of this while he is getting help. By a miracle, deliver and heal him, Father.

He put up with a lot from me. I'm a quirky person and a designer. I love conversations with people I meet and I love to learn about new things. I love second-hand stores and cooking. I love fixing broken things. He had to deal with my injury, my inability somedays to function well. While he was sick in the hospital in 2018, I was diagnosed with my brain tumor. Then Covid lockdowns came and I spent almost 6 weeks just alone in lockdown quarantined before surgery as I would drive down to Houlton, Maine, to sign some papers and pick up my mail.

Canada has begun to change locally and the economy has become worse here. Freedoms are being removed slowly, especially from Christians. My kidney cancer diagnosis meant I needed to receive fast treatment in the U.S. – Portland, Maine, and Houlton, Maine, is where my doctor is. It has been a difficult thing here for our family. It must have been even worse for my husband.

Father, this is so difficult to write about. Despite the great harm which has been done to me, I know this can't be permanent for us. You remind me to stand strong and to not act in fear – but I am afraid.

Jesus: "I am here Erin, I'm with you. I know this is difficult to understand right now. I know that it seems different from the promises you had been given originally. You are in the middle of a great storm. Events like this occur for God's glory, not for man's. A man is blessed by the hand of God when he fixes his eyes on Me. Not by his own standing does any man stand at all. If you boast of greatness, boast only of the greatness of God, understand?

"Any undertaking away from God ends in destruction. Therefore, anyone who thinks to himself, 'I will make my own path apart from God', then he shall walk in his own way. Then evil walks with him because he chose a new way. He says, 'Look at the way I have made, I will even light my own path and have my own way in it'. So, understand that these times are difficult as I have told you in advance that they would be.

"This is the season to make straight your path and walk by faith, not by sight, understand? Too many walk by what they see or don't see, what they think or don't think – all mindless as a follower of God. Don't walk by sight then sprinkle in some faith for good measure."

Me: "I'm sorry if I'm not doing this, Lord."

Jesus: "I wasn't referring to you, however, in your past as a child you experienced things by sight and others told you this is not true – don't believe your eyes. I promise you; I am God over all you do right now and always will be. The enemy creates fear and fear is a weapon against faith in God. Fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. So, fear only Me.

"What is happening to you, what you see and what has occurred is real, Erin. Do not dismiss it. The enemy has used a breach to attack in great measure. Remember too that My Word – My Story is filled with cases of a man turning to attack suddenly – without much warning. So, what you do from here is important to Me. I will take you step by step. I have not revoked My promises to you. All that I've done for you and on behalf of My Story – it will one day very soon make sense.

"I will well up in your family, in your children, in your husband's children, in your friends and the authorities. I am building a fire wall of miracles and a great testimony for all of you in the next season."

Me: "What do I do next?"

Jesus: "Continue on your course. Let your words be few and your prayers increase. I know you have been fasting but also keep up your strength as I lead you. Remember I will send help for your daughter to navigate your Nesting place of family and friends.

"Remember, the enemy can also chip away in a man over time until evil sculpts his own statue of David fully exposed. In that man he believes himself greater, smarter and with great strength can cut down anyone. Don't receive the words which come from a tongue of anger. Tongues spoken in evil leave scars. Instead, focus on your tasks as quickly as I have instructed and I will send the ones I have called to help your case and sell the home I have built for you.

"One day, I will reshape the former things and make them brand new without stains or blemishes. You will return home to the place of your heart and great will be your peace. You are Mine, Erin. I am with you and your children, as well as your husband's children."

Me: "Lord, be my Husband and Father right now so we can feel safe."

Jesus: "I am with you. You are Mine. Remember, I have had you keep things hidden for a reason. I called you to prepare your house last year but I then delayed this. This is so you would know the full measure of what the enemy had planned against you. I kept you under My care and I will reveal all that I concealed by My own hand."

Me: "Oh no… there's more, Lord? Please strengthen me and get us out quickly and without trouble. My heart is sick. I remember now in 2013, I had a prophet contact me with a personal word from You. Before I had even met my husband. It was a warning. She said:

"A man will come to gather you and your children to a distant land. There the enemy will isolate you and dismantle your dreams if you are not careful. In all you do, give this, too, to God and He will make your way a blessing."

"Was that from You, Lord?"

Jesus: "It sounds like Me, yes. Erin, I know this is difficult to understand but I allow certain events and I give warning even before these begin that trouble is possible but, in that word, the one called by Me said, 'if you are not careful'. Well, you have had 800 more dreams even though I instruct you at night with even more you haven't written.

"You have given Me your life. You have surrendered all to Me. Your life has been shared with thousands of people over many years. Not every part was permissible by Me to share because this was not the time. When you are through this, great will be My Story through each of you.

"One day, even your husband will confess his mistakes, but for now I will not let you be trampled by demons. I have you. I love you. I separated your dinghy from the boat so you would make it through the storm to the peaceful shore. The large boat you've come to know, your home and the provision I gave to your husband has been separated.

"Your children and your little animals will have peace under My care. I have you and nothing shall come against you with any success. Do not worry. I love you."

Just as I was leaving my devotional chair, He spoke again:

Jesus: "Erin, people will be confused and/or maybe upset about your location in Canada – but it is an hour from Houlton, Maine, and defined only by a line – your Nest consists of birds of a feather gathered from all over the Earth. With Me there are no borders, just souls."

Me: "So, borders are bad?"

Jesus: "No, it defines a Nation as Sovereign – what I am saying is – My Sparrows, My Sheep, are of many Nations but of one God, Me!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-913/

913 – "You Must Stand on Your Feet!"

Received on Sunday, July 27, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for the wonderful weather and cool temperatures. It has made our tasks here more pleasant. Fall is in the air – we can feel it and smell it.

We had severe storms here last week. Friday the rain was torrential and came in waves of about 15-minute intervals. After each wave would come, I would say, "Lord, is this the last one?" Then another would come and another. I told my son, "This is a day of storms, let's put off our errands for another day!" He agreed. So, we stayed and packed. I prayed and packed.

Father, You are my Bigger Picture God over all we know or see. Each day is filled with mysteries You unfold. I have watched You be gentle with me as I discover more and more. Days I have certain tasks planned, You take my day and instead fill it with more urgent tasks. I watched You care for us every step of the way. Miracle after miracle has unfolded. Each time we hit a massive roadblock it has been because You have a clearer way. So, each disappointment has actually been a blessing unfolding.

My sleep has become deeper and I have more energy upon waking hours. I should be in great pain right now physically, but You have allowed me to remain on my tasks. When I become exhausted and in great pain, You tell me to rest or redirect my focus! Thank You, Father, for Your great love. All the events we go through are for Your divine purposes.

I have had to learn a computer system I really don't know. Navigate foreign laws and terminology I know very little about. Renew expired things. Pay bills I didn't realize were there from accounts I didn't know existed. I'm sure there had been very good reasons for all of this, but it doesn't make it easy for me to navigate.

I'm thankful to You, Father, for sending help for our website – it had fallen into neglect and I had been locked out of it a long time ago. I'm grateful for my daughter and a member or two who You have sent to help, including our moderators and friends. We are so grateful!

I'm not sure what this week will bring as we have only a few more days to remove anything we plan to take with us. We are leaving the majority of everything behind. This will help sell the home if it's staged, so this is good. My hope is that a new buyer would take everything or that it would all go to a good home. I'm letting go of my old devotional chair as well as the one I've been using for the last 8 years – it won't make the trip without damage and it's not worth it.

The Lord will provide the perfect place for us and He has already selected it so we wait on this because from my limited valley view, I see only a small apartment when He might see a house and tell me to bring the devotional chair.

After the last move 11 years ago, with so much destroyed or lost – it brings me relief and comfort to start fresh. God provides all we need in His timing and a few wants too!

In my dream last night, I found myself in a hallway of doors…

Sub-dream 1 "The Hallway of Opened Doors" begins…

Each door had a number on them. All of them were locked and there were no exit signs to leave. I was stuck in this narrow hall. It had fluorescent lighting which hummed and I hated being there. I tried every door handle hoping one would open and all were locked.

I became frustrated and panic began to set in. I dropped down in discouragement and sat there with my knees to my chest and head dropped.

Me: "Jesus, please help me. I'm alone here. I'm scared. What did I do, Lord? How did I get here? Help!"

I then heard the voice of an angel:

"Stand, Erin. All these doors will open to you. One right after the other – where all were once closed. God has heard your cries and He will now go quickly. You must stand on your feet!"

As I got up from my sitting position the first door to my right opened and a bright light shined through. I praised God. Then the next opened to my left, all in a zigzag pattern – right, left, right. I felt I was marching down the (corridor) – hall.

At the end of the hallway of doors was the exiting stairway – but it went up! Not down! It exited up!

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up peacefully. I had other dreams, but more about moving and boxing. Tapeing up things and tying them down for travel.

Night before last, I had a dream about a giant war shield…

Sub-dream 2 "Giant War Shield" begins…

This shield seemed like one that would be used by an ancient warrior – but it was the size of our house. I saw an enemy army moving in the woods only in dark shadows. From the trees these soldiers shot spears, daggers and arrows but could not penetrate this mighty shield. Not one of them broke through and hit our home.

After they had left, we walked out to the front lawn and there was a massive arsenal left behind in their discouragement. We looked up at the shield and it read in giant letters, "Veritas".

Sub-dream 2 over…

I looked up what Veritas means – "verify", "truth", or "justice". So, we will stand on Your Truth, Father, in all things.

Today after recalling this dream in particular You led me to Judges 7.

Gideon crept up to the edge of the enemy camp just as a man was telling his friend about a dream he had.

Judges 7:13-14 says,

"The man said, "I had this dream, and in my dream a loaf of barley bread came tumbling down into the Midianite camp. It hit a tent, turned it over, and knocked it flat!"

His companion answered, "Your dream can mean only one thing—God has given Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite, victory over Midian and all its allies!""

When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, He worshipped God. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, "Get up! The Lord has given the Midianite camp into your hands!"

The Midianites had 135,000 fighting men, compared to Israel's 30,000. But the Lord had Gideon reduce his fighting men to only 300. He allowed Gideon to overhear a Midianite man's dream where God gave Israel the victory.

In a great turn of events based on this sign given to Gideon and his belief in God's promises, Gideon divided the 300 into 3 companies, giving each man a trumpet and an empty clay jar with a burning torch inside.

While the enemy armies slept, the 3 companies of 100 Israelite men, surrounded the encampments and upon Gideon's signal, blew their trumpets, smashed their jars, held up their torches and shouted, "A sword for the Lord and for Gideon!"

In confusion and fear, the Midianite army attacked each other and fled. God gave Israel victory.

This story is one of my favorites of His Story! Thank You, Father, for Your promises.

(Note: When Jesus doesn't say, "Erin, come up", it means that Erin is not going up to Heaven to speak with Jesus – He is speaking with her while she is in the devotional room. That is why Jesus is saying, "I am here", instead. If she goes up to Heaven to speak, it will contain, "Erin, come up".)

Jesus: "I am here, Erin. I am with you. I have promised you good things here and in your eternal home with Me and those you love. This has not changed. Though events are unfolding in an unexpected way for you – to Me they are no surprise as I knew what was to come. I allowed this.

"You are not to live your life in fear and hiding. You are instead to live free and under My care. I did not give you the spirit of fear. I prepared you for this season you are in right now. It is I who send you signs and wonders. It is I who reveals which was concealed. I allow free will in a man. Each one has the choice each day to say, 'This way is God's, I will walk in this'.

"My way is easy and My load, your burden – is light for Me. When you trust in Me to carry you – then trust that I will take you on your best way. I don't take you on the way of sin. I don't say, "This is the sinful way and it's fun, let's walk together in this". I promise you I don't walk that way.

"But if a man persists in this, then I allow them to walk alone with those whose company best satisfies their desires. Those which I and My angel army are at war with. However, if a man then realizes that his way is not a good way, then I will hear his cries and I will send help. I will send angels to show him what is good. But he must recognize his sin, his rebellion, and humble himself with a contrite heart. It is through sincere repentance that the heart is healed. I am able to do a good work in that man. Understand?"

Me: "I'm sorry, Lord. I …"

Jesus: "Erin, for now there was a fork in the road. I called you by My own voice into the unknown. I said, 'Erin, this is the way, walk in it'. Your husband went another way. Looking back, you see that there was an entirely different path he had traveled which didn't include Me or you.

"For now, I will take you to the place of your heart and there I will return your joy and peace. There I will reveal more of My mysteries. You will have a church family of friends and you will sing and dance like you did in your youth. Day by day I will bring you back to life. I will also bless all of your children, and great will be their joy.

(Note: When Jesus mentions, "all of your children", He emphasized 'all'. so that while reading, you will know that the Lord includes her stepchildren as her children also.)

"Now, do not worry about how this will come to be or why this has been. All of this will come to light and the truth shall set you free. I will increase your gifts of the Spirit and you will have dreams and visions and you will only have a fear of the Lord, not man. Do you trust Me to carry you?"

Me: "Lord, I know only You can. Only You know every door and only You can open a door no one can open and shut a door no one can shut. All glory be to You, Lord, in all things. I have no idea what any of this looks like but You already have everything in place. I love You, Lord. Strengthen us and keep us. Use us for Your glory. Especially when this doesn't seem like a glorious situation.

"Please protect us from harm and look after all of our affairs. Please let all things be for Your glory, not our own. Keep curses away from us and let no evil assignments come against us with any success. In Your Name, Jesus."

Jesus: "It is done. Do not worry. Do not be afraid. Do all things with an upright heart and fervor and watch Me deliver you. I will fulfill My promises. Keep your eyes fixed on Me. I love you."

Dream over…

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-914/

914 – Do Not Trust In Horses or Chariots

Received on Monday, August 4, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and protection! We have seen miracles in the midst of terror. Saturday evening into early Sunday morning, we witnessed Your hands of protection over all of us here! Praise You Father in all You do.

No one wants to hear, "You, your children and your dogs must turn off all of your lights in the home and find an inner room. Wait there, help is on the way! You must shelter in place, do not go outside no matter the noise. Stay on the phone with me, we are 6 minutes out!"

I always have lights on day and night. So, to sit in the darkness and even our dogs were silent – it was truly a miracle, Father.

Pings were dropped, signaling our pursuer was headed toward us. Six units of police officers descended in our area along with five units following in the city limits. It was terrifying! I had PTSD from the fateful night in March of 1975 when events could have changed the course of 4 lives and the 5th was gone all in one terror-filled night.

Father, You said we would know when it's time. The time is now. Please make a way for us quickly with no mistakes in the process. My sleeps have been jumpy. We have prayed over our home, our dogs, and of course all those who have watched over us here and we are so grateful.

Father, You said when I return one day to the place of my heart (Bend, OR), that I would return in a place of strength, not weakness! You also said we would be supernaturally delivered in a way we think not. So, we cling to this!

How is it possible to be going about your days in a normal way, laughing, calm, focused and praising You – to complete upheaval, destruction, tears, terror, focused but reactive, and questioning Your plans?

Forgive me, Lord. We don't know what comes next. Help me to remain fixed on You and watch as You deliver us to the place You prepared for us. This is impossible, but with You all things are possible.

In the midst of our troubles, yesterday morning my daughter and I filmed a fox hunting sparrow's eggs in the bush in our yard. I opened the window and yelled at it, but instead it went deeper into the bush. So, I threw the nearest things to chase it away – a banana – it was funny but it worked. My daughter and I prayed because we knew the sign of a red fox as a warning of deception and trickery.

I spent most of Sunday distracted, exhausted and still in shock over the events of the previous 24 hours. It is not a good time to make any decisions.

Then in another event, a certain woman rose up over the last 30 days, doing everything possible to get into our Nest. The Lord specifically told me in 2018 to watch for this because these kind rise up to confuse, distract and further cause despair.

This after feeling compassion for her in 2018, she led me to a link of one of her demons – her own site – which threatened my life and was set up specifically to send curses on me. It threw me completely off guard. Just as I write I received a scam phone call – again a distraction meant to keep me from exposing evil. I thought I was smart – but the Lord allowed this because I needed to be made aware of dangers which are like landmines – I call them "land minds", or ways in which the demonic threads thoughts into our heads to trip us up and doubt our directions under God!

One day soon we will tell our story. But for now, the story is still unfolding. Tears have been my drink and God's truth has been my bread!

All of God's promises are true! They can unfold in ways we don't imagine, so we cling to Jesus, our Rock and our Salvation, in all of this!

Father, You told me one day I would toss things out and think no more of them. You are right. We have to let go of so much. Things I never thought I would let go of – these are gone. I feel free. So many will be blessed and we are grateful!

All that we have here, Father, every thing is rented here. Even our bodies fade away and die, but with You we live eternally and this is where our hope is.

Last night I had a wonderful dream! I needed this! Thank You, Father.

Sub-dream 1 "Angel Armies" begins...

In my dream, I woke up at 3:20 A.M. to the sound of something at the front door. There was a light so bright and clear outside, and it had come through the door. I heard a voice come from this beautiful light.

Angel: "Erin, I was sent by God to give you a message! Look outside!"

I looked out our window and there surrounding our home was an angel army.

Angel: "Come with me!"

He took my hand and walked me through the front door. It wasn't open. My heart was racing. I had no shoes on.

Angel: "You are in the Spirit. This is what God has called down from Heaven concerning you and your house. Do not be afraid. Look!"

He raised his arm to show me regiments of heavenly soldiers.

Me: "All for us? Really?"

Angel: "There is a war in the heavens. The enemy of God and Man has increased its position. But know this, God is above all things and to Him, all things are subject to Him who sits on the throne. Give Him all glory for the victory is His! He is King over all the Earth, the heavens, and all the stars, the moon and the sun. All the armies of angels and demons are all subject to God. The Great I AM. The Creator of all things. So, be at peace knowing God is with you. Take heart, He is working even when you cannot see Him!"

Then a bright light shone and I woke up in my bed.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I walked out to the hallway. It was 4:05 A.M. – there was nothing outside. I went back to bed and prayed. I repented for acting from a platform of fear and asked for the Lord to remove this from me and grant me peace.

I got up this morning to face another difficult day. Each day I ask more questions than I receive immediate answers – but I see the Lord working so I must not get in His way.

I went to my chair and prayed, "God, You will make a way for us. This is impossible! You are the God of the impossible!"

Jesus: "I am here. I am with you. Your oldest son said to you yesterday, 'There are two types of faith – faith in knowing that you are saved by Me and have given your heart to Me, and then there is a journey of faith-driven walk in the midst of darkness'. Keep your faith in all of this. There is a walk with Me where you have the 'fear of the Lord'. This is when you understand the position of He who loves you and He who is over all you do.

"When you make a mistake, you waste no time to correct it and this is because you long to do what is right in My eyes. The fear of the Lord is to obey My commandments and do what the law says. It is a journey of the heart. A contrite heart, fears, loves and respects Me and longs to do good.

"Then there is the fear of the gods of this world, apart from Me. This fear is one which operates in darkness. There is no fear of God because they operate from a platform of evil. They work to make the children of God afraid and rob them of a relationship with Me.

"A season is coming when all you see around you will be shaken. Darkness will descend and only those who fear the Lord will be in the light and welcome it. Those who operate in darkness will see just how dark God can create it. It will be so frightening a day that many will be struck down in great fear and trembling. This event has been foretold by the prophet Isaiah, by My own words (in the New Testament), and in Revelation by John. So, fair warning and confirmation has been given."

Me: "The breaking of the 6th Seal of Seven in Revelation 6:12-17, Isaiah 29:6, Isaiah 13:9-13, and Luke 21:25-26."

Revelation 6:12-17 NLT

"I watched as the Lamb broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as dark as black cloth, and the moon became as red as blood.Then the stars of the sky fell to the earth like green figs falling from a tree shaken by a strong wind. The sky was rolled up like a scroll, and all of the mountains and islands were moved from their places.

"Then everyone—the kings of the earth, the rulers, the generals, the wealthy, the powerful, and every slave and free person—all hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. And they cried to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. For the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to survive?"

Isaiah 29:6 NKJV

"You will be punished by the Lord of hosts
With thunder and earthquake and great noise,

With storm and tempest
And the flame of devouring fire.

Isaiah 13:9-13 NLT

"For see, the day of the Lord is coming—
the terrible day of his fury and fierce anger.
The land will be made desolate,
and all the sinners destroyed with it.

The heavens will be black above them;
the stars will give no light.
The sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will provide no light.

"I, the Lord, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sin.
I will crush the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the mighty.

I will make people scarcer than gold—more rare than the fine gold of Ophir.

For I will shake the heavens.
The earth will move from its place when the Lord of Heaven's Armies displays his wrath in the day of his fierce anger."

Luke 21:25-26 NLT

"And there will be strange signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And here on earth the nations will be in turmoil, perplexed by the roaring seas and strange tides. People will be terrified at what they see coming upon the earth, for the powers in the heavens will be shaken."

Jesus: "Yes, so remember that those who know this is God – they pray but not to God in repentance, instead they pray to rocks and mountains to fall upon them. As evil has increased against the children of God, so too have the angel armies from Heaven. Many of you are experiencing troubles but take heart, I see all things and I will deliver all of you – these will come to nothing."

Me: "Lord, I still have fear, please help me be brave. What happened here was…"

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but you needed to understand the seriousness of the hour. Your circumstances are real and you're in danger right now. A Pharaoh spirit has come against your house, but I have sent an army to protect you and remove you. Focus your attention on Me and not on what you see in the natural.

"Remember, I am the supernatural King and Your Groom. Do not trust in chariots or horses, but instead trust in Me!"

Psalm 20:7

"Some nations boast of their chariots and horses, but we boast in the name of the Lord our God."

Jesus: "So, I am separating by those who trust in Me, turn to Me, and find rest. In your quiet moments and your confidence, your strength will be made manifest. So, wait on Me, as I am the God of judgement! I am with you! The enemy will not prevail against you!

"Those who choose rebellion are not led by Me and have no fear of God. They think themselves more clever and more swift. They declare a thing and converse with any one other than God, the only God which saves. So, let them be swift on their chariots. Let their horses cry out as they run into the depths. They pursue You, but I promise you it is I who will take you to the peaceful shore.

"Watch and see the hand of God cover you. You will go from strength to strength. Do not run in fear as I have not called you to run. I have however, prepared your hearts to let go of the former things and think of them no more. I promise to deliver you to a good place. I love you, Erin. Remember, I will continue to send help from My Sanctuary, counsel from My Courts and provisions from My Storehouses in Heaven.

"Nothing is too great for God. Today be in quietness and confidence that I am over all things. Peace is with you! Your name means peace. I am the Prince of Peace, and you are my bride of peace."

Me: "Quiet confidence and strength! I will, Lord. I love You."

I began to get off my chair.

Jesus: "One other thing as a caution – there are two types of watchers. Those who search for Me and My coming for you based on events as they are written. Who do not create anxiety and fear in the children of God, but are yielding always to God because no man knows when I come. Remember, only My Father in Heaven knows.

"Then there are those who operate in all the manner of the opposite of the fruits of the Spirit. They create anxiety and fear. They make bold predictions, declarations and 'thus sayeth the Lord', behind their statements! I tell you the truth, I did not give them these words as these are surely from demons. They watch for God also, but long to destroy hope, faith, and joy in the children of God. They revel in their bold predictions as if they are God and even label themselves gods – they are not.

"I have given many of these over to demons and their displays are confusing and lead to depression, not joy, when these days come and go. These are those you should not entertain. Remember, it is I, who by My own words of truth, say, 'this is the way, walk in it'. You will know them by their fruits. Stay calm and carry on. I am here with you."

Me: "Lord, help me."

Jesus: "I already am. I have never stopped. Wisdom is proved right by her actions. My Bride is set apart and reflects My character through her heart and actions. All those who are Mine know each other by My Spirit in them! I'm with you. Do not worry."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-914/

915 – Who Will You Serve Today?

Received on Sunday, August 10, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for granting us strength and focus! Thank You for continuing to watch over us during one of the most difficult periods of time I have ever experienced.

Thank You for exposing so many hidden things. We are in need of some miracles and all of these elements need to fall into place one right after the other in a very short span of time. To make matters worse, we are in a drought up here. All of our trees look like they have blight but I believe it's from lack of water.

I feel personally like these trees. My skin is dry and my bones ache. My fast lasted for 20 days and I pray, Father, for clarity and breakthrough.

The hallway of doors You presented me in my dream seemed overwhelming. None of these doors were open. Then through prayer, one, then the other, then the next, all in succession. I'm so grateful, Father, thank You. Make no mistake, though, that hallway is long and there are still so many doors which haven't opened.

Please keep my steps focused on You and doing what is right while I continue my big tasks here to prepare to leave. I look around me and see things that I thought I would never leave, that will be left. Father, You told me at some point none of it would matter to me, only leaving, and I thought You were referring to rapture – but now, here I am, prepared to leave everything I worked for, and I'm at peace. Stuff can be replaced –those we love cannot be replaced.

Our lives are determined by You, Father. Our days are declared by You. You make the call. You call us and when our time is finished, You are the one who welcomes us home! Thank You for the promised land of home with You! I so long to hear You say, "Well done, Erin!" With my response, "Sorry, Father, for all of my missteps, please forgive me."

My grief has been unbearable. At the end of each day, I break down for about 30 minutes as I pray. My emotions are like a journey – which is like a bad spinning amusement park ride going on just a little too long. When the ride stops – there goes my lunch! This is where I've been.

My dreams have become more clear lately. Thank You, Father, for my dreams. Please continue to watch over me in all I do – for Your glory!

Last night I had a dream.

Sub-dream 1 "Heavenly Portals & Stars Falling From the Sky"

I was with some friends at an outdoor market. The market was an arts and crafts festival with various artists' booths.

We walked up to a booth and I saw several doors – from those painted on canvasses, to actual dutch doors with painted art on them. I laughed with my friends. One said, "Erin, all the doors are yours!" We laughed. They moved on to the next booth as I stood there looking a bit longer. I heard the artist's voice coming from my right. He was more like an angel than a typical artist. I was sensing a God moment.

I smiled at him and then looked for my friends – but I couldn't see them in the crowd. I looked back at the artist's booth and every door in the art itself had been opened.

Me: "Wait, what is happening here?"

Angel: "Portals. These are portals. These are different from a physical door. They allow you to pass through from one place to another quickly."

Me: "Can I try this one?"

I was standing in front of a green-blue dutch door with a field of flowers at the base.

Angel: "He made that one for you specifically."

Me: "Me?"

Angel: "Yes – this will take you home."

I went to turn the handle, but I stopped.

Me: "I'm not ready for this one quite yet."

Angel: "It's not permanent, you can go and–"

Me: "How about this one? I like the stars painted around it. Can my friends come too?"

Angel: "Yes."

I opened the partially opened latch and stepped forward. Instantly, I was at the market around midnight. All the booths were closed and I was with my friends. We looked up at the stars in the sky and we couldn't believe how vivid they were.

As we stood there, others gathered to look at the night sky. We could see the galaxies in colors which would be impossible with the naked eye.

Then there was a vendor off to the side. He stood in front of a box that looked like an old upright freezer. The freezer had chains on it. The man had a bizarre look. He wore goggles and something like a gas mask. He had a light in his booth which dropped over the upright freezer box. There was steam or smoke creating the illusion of fog. He yelled out, "Troubles are coming! Run to my portal, hurry! There is no time!"

Most ignored him. Then a great earthquake came. Suddenly, as we looked up, the stars had begun to fall from the heavens. Most fell and disappeared, but some fell near the horizon and came like fireballs. It was terrifying.

Meanwhile, this man kept offering for those who were afraid to enter his portal. My friends and I refused. We began to see what looked like stars falling near us were also drones and satellites. It was as if they just fell out of the sky. We ran together and yelled out to Jesus – "Open a door, Lord!" And suddenly we were back at the arts and crafts festival.

Friends: "Erin, what did you get us into?"

We looked back at the booth with the Angel. He smiled.

Angel: "Care to try another?"

All of us: "No, we are good for now!"

We laughed.

Sub-dream 1 over.

Father, we could use a heavenly portal so we could arrive out west with our dogs and our belongings instantly! I'm tired.

Please also find the perfect buyers for our home! Or create a miracle in the extreme where we could keep it and move too. I know one day You will modify all of this and grant us a heavenly version of this home – so I am okay with whatever You decide. I have to be, because You are my Father and You know what is best for me.

Please watch over all of us. My daughter is busy watching over the opening of her new store as well as the old one. She is running the Nest for me as well as her podcast and helping me with communication. She has been applying for jobs also.

My youngest son has been helping me pack and prepare the home for sale. I have been busy dealing with an overwhelming difficult series of things I've never had to deal with before, as well as setting up help to finish and prepare our home.

I received a call on Friday afternoon that Jeff placed our home on the market. My name isn't on the papers, so I have no say. I have only a week to prepare the home You built for us so we can walk away from it.

We have also been faced with great opposition and breaches on the Nest. Please protect the safe place You made for the sparrows you sent! Our Nest should be secure against foxes. Please keep us safe!

As for me…I'm sick and I don't understand everything. But You have Your reasons. You have a plan, so I surrender all things to You. I trust You, Father.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am with you. I take hold of your right hand and I will lead you through this. Stay with Me and make no decisions out of fear. Continue on your course."

Me: "Lord, how can I do all of this? I am overwhelmed and was not prepared."

Jesus: "You have been taken off guard but Erin, every event you have endured from childhood has made you capable. You understand the situation and how to navigate the uncertainty only because I am with you in this. Let me lead you. When I place something on your heart, then go to this. Focus on this and we will complete this together. You have a clever enemy."

Me: "Why do I have this enemy? Why? What did I do?"

Jesus: "Erin, a reasonable man does what is right and fair and just. He yields to God and is after My heart first and foremost. Right now there is a great battle and for now you must stay with Me and finish your tasks. I will bring rain in the times of drought. I have always taken care of you. I will do so now and I will never stop. You are not confined by strongholds, you are free. The enemy longs to destroy you."

Me: "Lord, I was deceived so severely, so badly. Where were You?"

Jesus: "I have never left you. I know you don't understand all of this right now, but Erin, you have been faithful and loving and long to do what is right in My eyes. To all those whose heart runs to Me – runs to My Strong Shelter – there you will find peace. Let me be your shelter. Give Me all that you have. All of your loss. All of your burdens, and allow Me to carry you. Allow Me to move you. Allow Me to carry your sons and daughters and even your furry companions. Can you do this?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. At my age I shouldn't be having…"

Jesus: "You are just as strong in your mental capabilities as you were when you were young but I am here. Allow Me to be your God, your Husband, and your Father. I promise you good things, Erin."

Me: "Yes Lord."

Jesus: "Allow me to begin the healing. I will give you supernatural wisdom and knowledge. Just be cautious of a door presented which comes with attachments like chains. You are free in Me. I do not present traps with hidden conditions. I don't purposely set snares for My bride. But the enemy does, and presents them as good. All is meant to ensnare."

Me: "I had a dream a few nights ago – Wednesday. In this dream, I saw a caretaker of a cemetery. During the day, he was busy caring for the graves, then at night, I saw he didn't sleep. He couldn't sleep. He wandered at night in isolation among the graves. He was haunted by many voices and was violent."

Jesus: "This dream revealed the nature of dealing with a man who cannot be bound, even by chains. This is a man who entertains legion and cannot see himself. So, he walks amongst the tombs until the day he comes to Me and I deliver him from his chains. This man knows of Me, watches for Me, but does not run to Me and stay there with Me under My cover. He has been plagued with a curse from his forefathers."

Me: "Generational?"

Jesus: "Erin, this is My battle. For now I am taking you to a safe place, as you are Mine."

Me: "Why did You allow this, Lord?"

Jesus: "It is not My desire for evil to reign over you. One day soon, you will tell your story and many will be comforted by this. Man has free will to choose a different way other than My way. You know this from your own journey. The difference is your way redirects you back to Me because Your desire is to follow Me, and it is a better way."

Me: "Yes I have messed up many times."

Jesus: "Yes, but you proclaim it, correct it, and are unafraid to return to Me. Your mistakes are faith builders in trusting that My plans are for your benefit, not your destruction. It is a good way!

"However, some don't like My way and rebel to go their own way. So, I let them go. Think of a peaceful clear stream which flows from the throne of God. You are unafraid to dive in because you are refreshed by it! You float around as long as possible in the stream. It quenches your thirsty soul and nourishes your spirit.

"But some prefer to dip a toe in the stream – the Water of Life, then they pull it out. They make excuses, 'Now I can't enjoy what I want in life. I miss drinks of my choice. I miss what my eyes want to see and my ears to hear. I like my own music. I'm willing to sit down on the banks and watch those who desire to splash in the River, but I don't need to dive in it and swim to get the full experience. I'll make a clever work around it and do it the way which best fits me. Jesus my way. Plus, I'm mad at Him. I'm still upset over this or that. I feel jilted. Ripped off. Look at these children You gave me. This wife. It's everyone else's fault that I can't enjoy the River.'"

Me: "That makes me sad."

Jesus: "I have you. Do not worry. Each day is a choice. Who will you serve today? Joshua knew this.

Joshua 24:15 NKJV

"And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

"David knew this. Each day, choose Me because I first chose you, Erin. Your task is immense on your own, but give everything to Me. I can change hearts, as I do seasons. Remember, your story is My Story. It is a good one. I love you and I am with you.

"Continue with your tasks. I will continue to open doors for you, Erin. I plan on delivering you in a way you think not. Do not be discouraged or overwhelmed. Continue to do what is right and good and I will bless you. Do everything exactly as I instruct you and I promise you good days are here and there too. Keep a measure of joy upon your countenance. Smile – My Favor is upon you.”

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-916/

916 – "I Protect What Is Mine"

Received on Sunday, August 17, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for allowing me another day! Thank You for all You've done from the beginning! Thank You for the comfort of friends and family. Thank You for the outpouring of grace and love from people I barely even know.

Please bring me a measure of peace, Father. I'm troubled in my spirit and my grief comes in waves.

Grant me strength to continue down this dark hallway of doors and please open these easily with no resistance!

Today I must write Jeff's obituary. How he would want to be remembered by all he came into contact with. He made people laugh and he was quite dynamic. Please help me.

This week has been devastating. There were so many events leading up to the moment of Jeff's passing that I barely recall everything.

All I know is I had an event – a medical event, I couldn't possibly have an event like this, it was a major sign. I woke up in the middle of the night to a vasovagal syncope with a bradycardia response – impossible with my pacemaker. It occurred around 4:20 A.M. on Monday, August 11th. I know if I had succumbed to the event as I had been standing at the time – no one would know I had fallen, so I prayed. I heard Your voice say, "Lay down, Erin and rest." So I did, and the event passed me by.

It was exactly like my heart event in 2008 and it was scary. My right side hurt so badly prior to this and then the pain disappeared.

I won't go into every detail about all the events leading up to Jeff's passing as I feel right now I am personally unable. I am still discovering things as You, Father, unfold them. It is painful.

It will be very difficult for so many sparrows to hear as the Jeff they all knew and loved was different from the Jeff we had lived with here.

Sometimes in life – in our own journey as Christians despite how good the fight, our faith, our fasting, our prayers, our intercessions, all of it – even the miracles sent from You daily, Father, which would bring any man to his knees, despite all the signs, wonders, the miracles, a man still has a choice to whom he will serve each day.

Because of a series of bad choices kept completely private from our family, at his workplace seven years ago – in a matter of only a few days he had lost his entire career, his profession he had worked so hard at was gone in a moment. The events were so painful when they were uncovered – we as a family came together in prayers. Several businesses had to be locked down because of the threats made that I had no idea until an officer arrived at our home to bring Jeff in for an evaluation.

He was in the hospital for 3 weeks and during that time the things he said to me, I just can't forget – they were engrained in me. Horrible things. I could never do anything to change them personally. I had to deal with weeks, months, and years of fallout because of those days. These events as they unfolded forever changed our lives.

All the kids helped me. All of us were traumatized. The shame which fell on our home was humiliating. At the same time and same hospital, I went in for a CT scan and my brain tumor was discovered – so I was grappling with a husband I did not know to a potentially life ending illness in my brain.

After all of this, I was ready to go Home. I asked You, Father, if I had done a good job here because clearly I didn't. You held me and gave me the supernatural ability to forgive and deal with all the aftermath. All the fallout.

His career ended. $200,000 a year gone in a moment.

In 7 years, he barely received nibbles from hundreds of resumes sent. The corporate head hunters had stopped pursuing Jeff shortly after the events years ago. So, we as a family prayed to God and watched You, Father, sustain us! My disability funds were finally released and it was just enough to cover us all these years. A miracle of epic proportion.

He was diagnosed with late onset bi-polar disorder, triggered by lack of sleep, food, and a stressful workplace. He had been passed over as a partner of his firm, which he had worked so hard for. The company needed more women in management to meet corporate quotas – someone so junior had been risen up over Jeff and others – it was truly heartbreaking and unfair but Jeff didn't take the proper approach and it was bad.

Over the last 7 years the flare-ups had been minimal and I thought I could get Jeff modern treatments in the U.S. that could help – but deep down, I knew this was a spiritual warfare issue.

When You, Father, put an abrupt halt to our move last summer (2024) to Oregon – things began to manifest again. My kidney cancer surgery was expedited after some divine delays and Zoey had taken a turn for the worse. We began to see Jeff descend again. We had his medicine adjusted and we prayed, I battled. While I was up nights with Zoey, I would pray in the Spirit.

Things seemed to normalize – then they didn't.

Financially we were struggling and we were unable to repair things which needed repairs. God, You are so good, You gave us a blessing from my mom's estate – it was enough to repair our stairs and we couldn't build our garage to sell our home for the maximum amount but we decided to use it to build a bridge like the one in my dreams for us to cross over our creek into the woods. We also purchased some gravel as Jeff wanted to build some paths by clearing out the weeds and overgrowth. He was fixed on it, so I thought it might be fun to see him so excited.

Something happened in the midst of all this, and we lost Jeff. He finished the upper pathways and he spent 12 or more hours a day in the woods. He changed. He would wake up early, eat nothing, and continue his work. He began projects in the lower part of our property we had no money for and became angry with any opposition. Then he would disappear.

With the Nest and my dreams, the typing had to be monitored carefully, as things God had said were being changed to support Jeff's dates, events, and other things. Jeff had given himself over – we tried everything.

He had removed me off the Nest over a year ago, and kept making it so I had no access. He wouldn't update our site because he didn't want me to say anything. He would change things back as the Lord would not allow this, but it was a battle most didn't know was happening.

He then began to plan things – plot evil against all of us. Even planning to take our lives. He told us he would, while we slept. We then lived in fear. In July, You, Father, stepped in to save us.

More will come at some point, but it unfolded like a movie thriller here with horrible events. This time, instead of his workplace, it was us. I had placed an AirTag in his car to keep tabs on his whereabouts as he had broken the Judge's no contact order. In the meantime, we had only about 10 days to move out of our home because Jeff's name was on everything, and he had left me off of it, so we had to vacate in order for the home to be sold.

We were in great fear here as the police had been watching over our home and we had to alert our neighbors because of the police presence.

Jeff had rented a hotel room about 15 miles away and the AirTag showed he had been busy. His son had been communicating with him and Jeff seemed remorseful and ready to move on. He listed our home on the market with an agent, visited friends, made appointments planned for this last week with several people.

Then we saw his activities on Sunday morning and early afternoon, August 10th – then the car didn't move. His communications went dark. I phoned his son, he texted Jeff –but no response. I contacted the police, but they were delayed as a wellness check is a non-emergency call.

Then Monday evening, I received a call that the units were finally enroute to the hotel. The officers asked questions, I answered and gave them information as they were confirming with their records. Then I heard nothing and we went to sleep here.

Then at 1:30 A.M. Tuesday morning, our doorbell rang and the dogs were barking. My thought was that Jeff had been spotted out here near our home. When I opened the door – the officer said, "Erin, I'm sorry to inform you – your husband has passed away."

Jeff had taken his life in a horrific way. He left no note.

The police had to send teams to investigate for possible homicide, but they were still completing their investigation, and I received the call from the coroner on Friday with all the details.

We were told we could pick up his personal effects at the hotel room on Tuesday morning. We thought he had died from a medical event from his medication.

My daughter, my youngest son, and I went together to room #50. The door had been broken by the police so it was ajar. There are no words. No words – our Jeff was gone. We gathered his clothing. His wallet, phone and other items were with the police. My youngest son went to check the bathroom. When he saw it, he said, "Oh God… Jeff didn't die how we thought. Whatever you do, don't look in there… It's bad…Let's go!"

So we quickly left – all of us in tears. I was so upset that no one told us how bad it was, so we could've sent someone else to go in. I called the coroner on the way to the police station and she said sorry, but call Service Master. I did, and their trauma cleaning specialists went right in and repaired and cleaned everything.

Jeff's kids flew into town and we all met on Wednesday to make arrangements. His ex-wife and her new husband showed up and I was so uncomfortable knowing Jeff would not be happy. I had spent the last few hours letting family know and talking with his mom who was stricken with grief. I let her know I would take care of things and have Jeff's remains sent to her in Winnipeg. She was grateful.

I've had so much to do in such a short period of time – I'm sick. All the kids are here except my oldest son, as his passport is expired. I am not having a service here because I'm not sure many would come and it would break my heart.

Father, I'm not doing well. I really need You right now! In hindsight, You told me in advance what was coming, although shocking, it was what is best for now. You also comforted us that You met him at the end and carried him Home!

Thank You, Father!

I've had quite a few dreams lately. The one from this morning stood out the most.

Sub-dream 1 "Landing The Most Prestigious Client" begins…

I was younger and a new Interior Designer to a larger firm. I had gone to a small coffee cart in our lobby and struck up a great conversation with a woman. We laughed and spoke for about 15 minutes. She asked what I did, I told her I had just started with this firm. She received a phone call from her husband. We said goodbye and exchanged smiles and nods as I waved to go back upstairs.

I had been working in the sample room when the owner of the company came in to greet me.

Owner: "Well, you just bent the ear of our largest, most prestigious client and her husband."

He seemed upset.

Me: "What? Excuse me?"

Owner: "She wants to work with you exclusively on their next project. That will be a hefty salary increase and bonuses. Congratulations. I don't know what you said, but clearly the gods are smiling down on you."

Me: "Wow, God is smiling down!"

Owner: "Well, that's nice for you. Don't discuss any of that in the workplace."

He was upset.

I was in shock – just a 15-minute conversation changed everything.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up and said, "Going back to work? That will take a miracle healing."

I got up and again grief struck me and I had a difficult time breathing.

I went downstairs and decided to feed the birds as usual. I looked out the kitchen window and there was a scruffy juvenile red cardinal in the tray. It ate some seeds, then saw me and flew off. I went outside and put the seed out. I decided to walk the path and I paused – so surprised to see fall leaves on the ground everywhere. It has been very cool at night and the green is turning to yellow – but this area was specifically the only area with golden leaves. I walked the path and looked with a new set of eyes over all of Jeff's work. It is beautiful!

I walked the loop and was about to go in when I heard You, Father, say, "Walk the path of his descent before you go in to meet Me." I had not gone down there in a few weeks. It was dark there and long. The path was cleared, but only a portion had gravel. It was so sad. I cried – it was tough.

I turned around so I could climb up the hill by the area where the garage was, which we had renovated into a bonus room and office for him, and I continued to cry.

Me: "I did all I could. Father, I did all I could. Did I do enough?"

Jesus: "Come up to see Me."

I went up to write in my journal.

Jesus: "I am here, Erin, I'm with you. I am sorry for your pain right now, but I promise you, this was the best way for you. His plans were lofty and no good thing was coming. I know this is difficult to understand because you had hoped for a miraculous healing and great changes. You were stuck in an enemy stronghold by what had bound Jeff. It was making you weak and sick and your memory foggy. Now you will be of sound mind and eventually be in peace.

"I protect what is mine. You are mine. Your children are mine. Just as you can be a vessel to pour out good things, the enemy also uses empty vessels to pour out evil. This is a lesson in good over evil. At the end of Jeff's journey here, I met him. I carried him home. He reconciled with me and his heart is Mine. He had lost his way and had carved out his own path, but I found him there."

Me: "Why, Lord?"

Jesus: "Why does anyone go another way? It is because in this instance, one of his best dates had come and gone. All the numbers and dates added up, but it was not to be. He became angry and hopeless. Instead of coming to Me, he gave up. He surveyed all he had lost. He had been so date oriented, instead of blind faith to believe in My Plans for him – he decided he couldn't finish strong.

"He was not of sound mind. He was like a boat with no mast or rudder on a storm tossed sea. He was tormented."

Me: "Lord, he wrote down a bunch of dates…are these…?"

Jesus: "Erin, he took his own life when his final date came and left, but really I carried him Home. One day you will know more, but for now, trust Me that this was the better way for now."

Me: "Better? You're God, Lord, You could've just healed him – You could've.

Jesus: "Of course, and he is healed, just his time on Earth, his work was complete. One day you will see him changed and he will have much work to do. For now though, I watch over those I have called. Your time has not come here and the enemy works hard trying to end your life, but I am the Authority over life and death, and they have no power."

Me: "Lord, he had been looking at Tu B'AV, August 10th, the coroner believes he died August 10th or early the 11th. " (His time of death was called on August 12th at the scene by the Coroner)

Jesus: "It doesn't matter, Erin – he is free from his affliction. I have him. He sees what has happened to all of you. He knows."

Me: "I'm sorry, Lord. I didn't do enough. Maybe I could've done better."

Jesus: "Stop! If this were true, I would've told you and My Spirit (the Holy Spirit and Counsellor) would've instructed you in the way you should go. You were tired and I could not let you be treated like this. I am with you and what was done to you is also done to Me. Your daughter will be the reminder of truth from these events and will console you in your grief.

"The enemy would like to heap guilt upon you and accuse and convict you. But I will not allow this. You had no power, Erin. You did not take Jeff's life, Jeff attempted to take his life – but I was there to carry him Home. Take comfort in this. Last evening as you drove home, I sent a sign to you."

Me: "Yes, a beautiful young buck was in the middle of the road. It stopped, turned to look at me, the sun was peeking through the trees – then it ran off into a beautiful green grass field. Just as I took out my camera, it stopped, turned back to look at me, and then flew down into the trees. It was alone."

Jesus: "Focus on these things, little by little signs will come and let you know I am here with you. Now, you have a great task ahead. I promise to be with you in all of this as I open doors. I will direct you. All of your children will unite to help you finish packing. You will keep in touch, but soon won't be back this way awhile. I promise to send help and buyers for your home."

Me: "Jeff was a Pension Actuary and yet he didn't believe in pensions or insurance. He needed me for his retirement. He spent his time on dates and not the 'what if?'"

Jesus: "This is why I tell you to live each day well. Remember, because the day or the hour no one knows, not even angels in Heaven, nor Myself, but only My Father. Take comfort in this! Signs come and go, but events remain, and then all will be as it is in Heaven. It is okay to watch, but you must live!

"Don't withhold from your daily tasks or stop doing this or that, but instead, remember – God is within her, she will not fall, God will help her at the break of day! I promise you good things, Erin. I will make a way for you. Don't be afraid! I have you! I love you!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-917/

917 – Count The Cost

Received on Sunday, August 24, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! It's beautiful out this morning. Fall is in the air and the atmosphere is clear and the colors are bright. You are wonderful and perfect in all things! You take hold of our hands and lead us to a peaceful place.

I almost didn't come to You this morning. I have very little to say. I have no interest in the things which were once routine. Little things I did everyday to complete before I felt burden-free to come to You (or just general tasks to wake up the home in the morning).

I wished today was the beginning of summer but instead, summer is closing. I walked Caspian down to the water yesterday and he was discovering "falling leaves" for the first time and was chasing them. He offered me a smile and laugh. A moment of distraction away from my troubles.

Our home finally was listed on Friday. Jeff's children helped us and it was a bittersweet few days. They came over for dinner last night for one final goodbye before going west today before Jeff's memorial in Winnipeg.

It was difficult to see them say goodbye for the last time to our home. When they left I felt sick knowing that a chapter closed forever here. The home feels empty now. We are just living here as if it were a bed and breakfast while our house needs to remain ready for the real estate showings.

Father, at some point in January, You prepared me for letting go of almost everything here. I remember thinking that maybe a natural disaster was coming and I would need to let go of everything. You reminded me to look at things and count the cost. I believe You meant the movers as when we received the quotes I was shocked. But now as I look around, the furniture and decor I've owned for the majority of my life as an interior designer – can go. All of it can go. There is nothing we need which can't be replaced.

My son is taking the majority of the items. I watch him trying to gather memories in things, as if he were to let go then he would betray those who are now gone.

With our home, Jeff worked so hard for many years professionally to provide for us. When his career ended in 2018 we should've moved then and started fresh. I don't know, but we knew the Lord had built this home for us and all things were for His glory, not our comfort.

Jeff had spiralled because he kept our financial states quiet. He didn't want me to worry or become burdened with things he felt were only temporary. So, for me, I went on my happy-go-Jesus days – never concerned as life as we knew it continued to carry on. You, Father, would warn me and tell me, and then when I would inquire, Jeff would say, "Everything is fine, no worries".

Well, things weren't fine.

The aftermath is devastatingly painful. Or should I say "after-mathman". My eternal optimist husband and watcher – had an entirely different burden he carried which none of us were aware of. Only You, Father, knew. You gave us warnings of troubles, but I had no idea.

There are things missing. Retracing the steps of a man's final few weeks apart from his family is a painful thing. I've had so many appointments with various people. I've had to make arrangements. I've had to discern between truth and a different narrative. I've had to collect personal effects and begin the fight for Jeff in his death to hold accountable several professionals who failed him.

I went from being a grieving widow to now a consulting attorney to stand in the gap of a faulty system. I'm not sure I have the strength to fight this one, Father, so please continue to open the doors in the hallway of discovery. I promised Jeff's family I would do this. It's difficult and painful to be left here in the mess of things.

The only asset we have, Father, is our home. Please, by a miracle, let someone purchase it – in a recession – and quickly! We have a rental in Bend waiting for us to move there but no ability to leave yet.

Last week, I had to continue to notify Jeff's friends and sort through his belongings. I had already sorted everything for his children. I kept virtually nothing except his wedding ring and some small things from our 12 years together.

Jeff was a watcher and so convinced Jesus was returning soon he had never factored in needing to have pensions or insurance of any kind. With me, the opposite was true. I am a watcher of Jesus, but I look at the mystery of each new day as a new way to discover more of what God has to use us for here! Because I see You, Father, in great wonder and mystery, I was always careful to make sure that if You decided to take me Home early that I would leave behind blessings and gifts to those I leave behind.

This I've done – paid my debts, taken the maximum insurance, prepare for any possible scenario and left a pension to care for those I love. I know that a lot of people would say I didn't live by faith – but I do. I believe wholeheartedly that Jesus is coming, but I never wanted to leave this life with burdens.

Jeff was so optimistic, he kept thinking a miracle would come and erase all of our debts. He carried a silent burden and it became too heavy. He didn't fully give this to You, Father. Then it became too late.

So, here I am. Father, You are God above all things and none of this surprises You. It is what it is now – so please, Father – please bring us a buyer so we can be set free.

Together, we had a lot of fun preparing our home, spending time with our children and growing as a family. We never took trips or sprung for elaborate things – we instead focussed on stay-cations and activities nearby.

As we began to watch our children grow and leave, we realized that this place was more difficult for just the two of us, so we began to plan our move out west.

Even as I write, I forget that Jeff has passed away. I just now thought about him having a coffee and reading in his office area in his chair. I miss him.

I don't miss the events leading up to this, but, Father, I pray one day that You would help me remember all the good and not focus on the bad.

Watching his kids leave last night made me cry. I felt a door slamming shut – one which I hadn't expected in this way. I will see them again of course, it's just harder to stay in touch when you live so far apart.

Father, I'm broken. I have so many things to do. I have papers to sign and statements to make. I have to close accounts and open others. I have to continue on as if I know what I'm doing and I can barely breathe. I won't likely make it to Winnipeg for his memorial, but I made all the arrangements for his service and covered all of this so his mom wouldn't be burdened.

Everything I have is Yours, Lord. All things. I'm sure Jeff is on the overlook seeing all this and interceding for us here. We will have so much to catch up on one day. Some day.

I'm in stunned silence. Tears come and go in waves. I am trying to remain strong, Father, but I'm not. I'm grateful for these years as a family. I'm thankful for this home You built in the land of the trees. I would've never been able to live like this where I was from. A castle like this would be in the millions in Oregon. It has been perfect for us and the day in which we leave it and finally say our goodbyes – well I can't imagine it.

But now the silence here is deafening. I don't hear Jeff or the kids. I don't hear Zoey barking at passerby's or Jeff singing lyrics he was making up from old songs. I no longer hear Sunday morning conversations downstairs or smell the coffee for hear the laughter. It's all gone now. It's all gone.

The pain won't leave me, Father. There is still so much to do so we are able to leave,. My heart is ready to leave but I can't.

The birds outside are feeding as if they it won't be much longer. The hummingbirds are preparing to leave again soon as I have seen battles between them in their fight for nectar. This year has been a year of drought and there are very few flowers with nectar. I've seen virtually no butterflies this year and even very few bugs. It was great for Jeff's outdoor landscaping.

My dreams have consisted of general work themes recently.

A few nights ago I had a dream…

Sub-dream 1 "A Key With No Purpose" begins...

I opened a brown cardboard box, inside was another box, then another and another. All surrounded by packing material. I had become frustrated at the process of uncovering "the box" or the main item in the center of all these boxes.

Finally, I cam to the last box and opened it. There was a silver skeleton key, painstakingly packed and no lock to place it in. I set it aside and looked in the various boxes in case I missed something taking all the boxes and packing materials out created such a huge mess for such a small key.

But there it was. In my dream the key had no purpose.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Then in my dream from last night…

Sub-dream 2 "The Mysterious Affair Handler " begins…

I had been preparing to leave and pack up our last items. I heard a knock on the front door and there was a woman with a gray suit dress and grayish white hair. I opened the door.

Me: "Can I help you?"

Woman: "I am here for the final inspection."

Me: "You are the inspector?"

Woman: "No, I am the affair handler for my clients and I need to make certain you are leaving things in good order."

Me: "You should go through my agent."

Woman: "It was a private sale. She is not involved."

I was confused – the woman came inside as if she owned the home. We had all but moved out and I was just waiting for my children (my youngest son and my daughter) to come and say goodbye one last time.

She was going through cabinets and as she walked the footsteps echoed. Just then my children pulled up and we emptied the home of what was the last few boxes. We walked through the home to look one last time. We couldn't fine the woman. She had disappeared. I called out to her, but nothing. I didn't see a car either.

So, we said our last goodbye and locked the door for the last time. We couldn't figure out who the woman was.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up to someone saying, "Erin". Sigh.

Father, please take over. Please.

Jesus: "I'm here, Erin, I'm with you and have never left you. Allow Me to strengthen you. Right now, I know you have many questions and very few answers. Please understand this – remain in Me as I am in you. Continue to do good, Erin. Remain upright in your heart as you continue to walk down this hallway of doors. I promise you good things all the days of your life here.

"Although you struggle with the events as the outcome you never saw coming, please know that I sent angels concerning you to guide you and protect you in all things. I can see the beginning from the end and all which is in between. I had a different way for you and it was not the end. I sent warnings that judgement was coming, yet there was no turning back.

"You and even your children sounded the alarm. All of you told others in authority, but very few expected that there was any merit to your words until you received condolences for your loss.

"Keep your eyes fixed on Me. Continue your forward motion and complete the tasks set before you. The enemy wants you fixed on the past and wallowing in what you might have missed. The enemy is the accuser, do not allow this voice. I allowed all the events which have occurred. I have given you the strength and the means to complete the impossible concerning all of this.

"Tomorrow, continue on with your tasks to complete; one right after the other. Remember, you are strengthened by the King. Turn to see Me in the midst of your troubles and I promise to deliver you from it all. I am with you, Erin. I own the cattle on a thousand hills. Do not be afraid, nor should you worry."

Me: "Lord, I feel abandoned and the pain in my heart is almost unbearable. I thought we had plans together?"

Jesus: "I know this is difficult to understand but Jeff had plans contrary to yours or Mine. He had given himself over to other voices. You witnessed all the opposite of the fruits of the Spirit – the man you had known was no longer present – understand?

"He had left and what remained was not My will for your life. You are better alone with Me and My direction than to fall under troubles from the enemy. I told you when you would go back to Bend it would be from a position of strength and this is true because I go before you in all you do! I have you.

"Already you have been strengthened by Me and this will not stop. I have a great plan in place, Erin. You will no longer be isolated from others. You will reunite with family and friends. I am with you and great will be your joy."

Me: "Lord, please help me remember everything I need to do."

Jesus: "I will, Erin. I have sent people to help with all the details and they will be kind, do not worry. This week, count the cost of what remains – decide what is important, then leave the rest behind. All things can be replaced and it is no longer important to you to remain tied to it. I will bless and multiply what remains back to you so you need not worry any longer. You choose what is important. I am with you in your tasks.

"Finish your tasks with a new focus. You will be moving shortly, do not worry. I will provide all you need for your journey – do not worry, take courage. I am with you!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-918/

918 – ‘Tis The Season Of Change

Received on Thursday, September 4, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for keeping me and our children! Thank You for saving our lives and protecting us from unspeakable events planned against us. I’m still in shock and really have very few words.

I’ve been so busy with different agencies that I can barely remember yesterday in the light of today! I pray I am able to face tomorrow and all the appointments which are coming. Today, I meet with North American Van Lines to try to negotiate with them. The price I was given was so off the charts high. I’m doing exactly what You told me to do, Father, count the costs to keep or auction. So far, I’m letting go of things I never thought I would.

Our home is ready for us in Oregon now, it is the “getting there part” which is the challenge. One thing rests on another event first, then that event rests on one more as well as speed. I’ve been careful not to make decisions based on emotion and instead I have brought every event before You in prayer.

I see how easily it would be for someone to take advantage of me in my current situation. So far we have had only 4 showings for our home and I’m discouraged.

Worse case scenario we will auction off everything and rent our home out until sale season returns again in the spring. I’m praying I don’t have to do this, Father. Please send the perfect buyer for our home quickly.

Dealing with surprises these last two months seems to be something I’ve come to expect. Almost all the surprises have been bad.

Without me knowing much about our household situation – just surface level items. I would give Jeff my income and he distributed the proceeds where they needed to go. I fully trusted him. I have heard these stories more often than I can count and each time I thought, “wow, how did this happen for so many years and there were no red flags?" In fact, Jeff and I had these conversations. He was smarter than I was. Clever, in fact. He knew numbers and how to work spreadsheets to fit certain outcomes. I have had to deal with foreign banks and agencies I have never dealt with before. I'm scared.

I've hired professionals to help because my fear is we move and suddenly, after the sale of our home I am hit with more estate surprises. Jeff was a pension actuary who believed in the rapture in his lifetime. So, he didn't believe in things like pensions or insurance on anything. Had I passed away before Jeff, he would've been set for life. I made sure of it from my end. Because we live here now. Each day, we live under God in Heaven. We do not know time, but we can rest assured that in the event God takes us home earlier than we expect here or does another miracle, we have done all we can to care for those we leave behind unexpectedly.

I wasn't going to be able to attend Jeff's memorial in Winnipeg, Manitoba. I had made all the arrangements for his mom, family and the kids, but I wasn't sure I could physically do this. Jeff's side of the family is Roman Catholic, and his mom had told everyone that Jeff died of a heart attack. We had this discussion and it wasn't a lie – from a different perspective. I just didn't know if I could lie to people.

On Friday morning I had a meeting with our tax accountant over the estate and when I arrived, I had found that the appointment had been cancelled suddenly. I went out to my car and I felt I was to immediately drive home, get my passport and some clothing, and see if I could catch a plane to Winnipeg.

As I drove, You, Father, sent me signs I was to do this. I had less than 2 hours to make it. The memorial was the next morning at 10 A.M. The airport was about 45 minutes from our home. My daughter was at home when I arrived to pack – she was worried about me but she could see Your hand was in this. I said, "If God wills it, then nothing will stop this". We agreed.

I arrived 45 minutes from the connecting flight set to leave at noon for Toronto, Ontario. When I went up to the counter, the agent told me that the flight had been closed. I explained the situation and showed her Jeff's death certificate. She said even if she could let me on, she couldn't accept money for purchasing a ticket because this airport isn't set up for it. I thanked her anyway and began to turn away in defeat when she said, “Wait! Hold on, I will make a call.”

Well, after a series of calls and paying over the phone, I was able to catch the flight and get roundtrip tickets to return home early Sunday afternoon. I didn’t let anyone know I was coming in case a flight cancelled or something interfered, as it was Labor Day weekend.

Once I arrived, I had a very hard time finding a hotel because of the holiday. I took a taxi and phoned Jeff’s mom to let her know I would be attending in the morning along with text messages to the kids.

Saturday at Jeff’s memorial was difficult. The urn I had selected was perfect for him – graphite steel with another metal. Modern and simple. Our oldest – Jeff’s son, had Jeff’s record guitar melodies playing in the background, but it was hard for me to hear them because they were played for me during dinner clean-up every night. Father, You knew it was too much for me – suddenly the music was no longer playing on the funeral home’s speaker system. Thank You for this!

Because I was an unexpected guest, I was not part of the memorial program, but I told everyone not to worry, I was just in attendance to be there for Jeff and his family. I listened to the stories about Jeff and all those who loved him. I wonder if he knew it? I know he had to see all of this from the overlook in Heaven, I don’t believe You, Father, gave him an option not to.

After the service was a luncheon. I was struggling to keep up my strength. I had met more than 100 people and had so many hugs. At one point, I had another vasovagal episode and struggled to get air, so I had to walk toward the hall. Some people must have seen me. I quickly sat down and without warning, began to cry. I hadn’t really mourned. I had been so busy and in shock, I hadn’t wept. Jeff’s uncle sat with me as I spoke to him about Jeff. I felt I needed to leave in order to get air, so I did.

I ended up in the ladies room. One of Jeff’s cousins was there and shared with me how Jeff was during his recent visit a few months before. They all saw things which seemed off about him. It was good to know I wasn’t alone in this.

From there, we drove to the burial site, where the graveyard attendant had been waiting. It was brutal. It was sunny and hot. We said our goodbyes there, people dropped notes to him in his burial tomb. With me – “I didn’t feel it was the end, but instead the beginning of something". I know one day I will see him again.

After this, I spent some time with Jeff's mom at the home he grew up in with his close family. We visited for several hours until it was time for me to go since I had to leave at around 4:30 A.M. to catch my flight home.

People were so kind. I learned so many things and talking with the rest of the family who knew the story of what had transpired was very cathartic and healing. He had been exhibiting strange behaviors when he had visited them in the Spring. These weren't normal. They weren't Jeff.

By going on this trip, I gained a massive family I had never met and grew closer to his immediate family. I see Your hand over this, Father. You made it perfect and I arrived home on time Sunday afternoon to prepare for more house showings this week and appointments.

I've been going back and forth – a storm tossed sea experience. I need to get to shore, Father. Take me to the sandy beach on solid ground again. Settle all of this quickly, Father.

I met with a medical malpractice attorney on Tuesday morning, where I learned my case was strong on Jeff's behalf, and the hospital had admitted fault in caring for him, however – since Jeff hadn't worked in 7 years – his value in death was worth very little. In addition, I needed to gear up for a 2 to 3 year battle where Horizon Health would fight me tooth and nail to wear me down and I might be lucky to get a settlement of around $40k and many trips back and forth to Canada once I move. She said, "You need to count the cost, the toll this will take on your own well-being".

She then said she couldn't take my case because it's too complicated. After this appointment, I met with another bank to close out Jeff's affairs and collect the bill for the estate.

When I got home, I wept alone. Our home had been shown while I was away. There was a family interested, but still no offers.

I'm broken, Father.

Yesterday, I met with my doctor in Houlton, Maine. He is a Christian also, and I shared with him about the bizarre events concerning Jeff and what happened to our family. His wife ended up doing the same things Jeff did – acted very strange and spoke about the end and that God was coming to judge all of us. She did some physical things in front of their little children and was arrested and moved to Florida – he believed demons entered her when the eclipse – the path of totality came over their city. It came right over our home in New Brunswick too.

He said he had 3 other Christian marriages which ended up divided in bizarre ways involving the authorities and threats of death. He shared the details and I just couldn't believe it. Everything lined up with what You, Father, warned me about an army of demons and evil spirits descending and manifesting in thousands of people.

Please activate Your people, Father! Please show Your strength and power as the world changes. Rise up in us and strengthen us! We love You! Help us to continue to live in this moment and make good choices. Help us to keep our spirits lifted to You in some measure of hope and joy when we have very little.

Help me, Father, I need You!

Jesus: "Erin, come to Me! I am here. I know your burden is great and your heart is heavy. As you continue to walk day by day, remember that I walk with you. I am here. I have never left you. No power of darkness will prevail against you and your house. I promise to make a way for you. You will move during your favorite season. The leaves are changing, do you see it?

"I haven't forgotten you, remember, I am close to the brokenhearted and I answer the cries of the widow. I am here. I have sent angels concerning you to guide all of those you meet with to prepare the way I walk with you on. Remember to breathe and be still. If confusion sets in concerning a matter, then this is not to be for now. When you have peace, clarity of thoughts, and sudden strength in a situation – then this is because I am directing every step.

"Your trip to the West for Jeff's memorial was orchestrated by Me. You did this confidently and with the notion that if I am for you, who can be against you. You had no worry because you knew I was in this fully. You experienced a pain-free, carefree trip. Now this means physically I strengthened you, it didn't mean your sorrow and loss had not been felt. The sting of sudden death and loss continues to remain for a season and most of the time lessons over seasons to come.

"Now, today, remember I am with you! I know your burdens are great and I will take this from you. Offer up all your troubles. It is okay. I am fully aware of what has occurred. Where treasure is buried and where troubles lie."

Me: "Is treasure buried, Lord?"

Jesus: "I'm not speaking about a chest of gold in your yard! Just something unknown which will soon come to you. Do not worry. Miracles are coming, Erin. Do not be afraid, I have you, I have been with you through all of this. I knew the plots in advance and My promises to keep you are still here. I am here and I will never leave you or forsake you. I promise. I will deliver you safely to the place I prepared for you.

"I delight in you. Many are the afflictions of the Righteous, but I deliver them from it all! You take refuge in Me and I am with you. Let Me be your God and your Husband, your Savior and Friend. Those who bless you, I will bless, and the evil which has come against you, I will turn back on where it came. This is for all I call at this time.

"I am God and I will do all of this. My recompense, I bring with Me. I will repay to each one for what he has done. Remember, I am coming soon."

Me: "I love You, Lord. I'm sorry for being so busy daily. Help me to remember to worship You in all I do."

Jesus: "I love you too. Erin, you will worship with your whole heart again. You will live in peace and safety. Your worries of this life will be no more, as I am your Prince of peace and you are My bride."

Me: "I'm old now, I didn't know if You would want me after everything."

Jesus: "I am older than you are, I can assure you. But Erin, I have never stopped pursuing you, your heart is Mine. Now rejoice, doors are opening for you! 'Tis the season of change."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-919/

919 – "This Week, I Will Work…"

Received on Sunday, September 7, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Please bless this day You have made and continue to watch over us in all things. Please allow papers to be signed by these courts this week so we are able to move forward with the selling of our home.

Although really – You, Father, are in control of all things; the stroke of a pen, a signature on a page and the release of those who are waiting on You. I've had so many appointments with various institutions, creditors, banks, registrars, accountants, and others and the news has been poor and the waiting on this or that – brutal. It's not right – in fact, it's punishing.

This hallway is long and the doors remained shut. In the meantime, we have scheduled movers for the end of the month, unless a miracle happens sooner.

It's interesting how debtors descend quickly after death like vultures and any assets are held up any very slow to release to cover the costs. It's brutal. Death leaves behind destruction all around. Not only are we grieving our sudden loss and in mourning, but we have no reprieve in the process. People take advantage of a widow. I've already experienced it in different bids for work.

With Jeff around, there was a level of fear of him, which helped immensely. When speaking to workers and they discover I actually know some things – then the prices go down and adjust accordingly.

Overall, people have been gracious. Thank You, Father. Please go before me in all things as I struggle in this huge battle. As I continue to walk, I discover more and any questions I had about "why" have now had Your light shine upon each one and I realize no good thing was planned against me. Hidden plots and schemes are revealed and it feels like such a blow. My heart actually hurts.

I can't track exactly when, but I recall a quote by Jeff about the province we live in, he would say, "it is the place where dreams go to die". For years, he would declare this – mostly in joking form, but I now realize the woman who warned me with a prophecy years ago was speaking straight from You, Father. It must have been frustrating for the enemy because if anything, You increased my dreams and drew me closer to You.

In two and a half weeks the movers will come and take our things – on the date of our wedding ceremony in 2014 in front of our friends and family. We will likely be leaving that same day to Oregon.

Tomorrow I will contact the auctioneer and see if I can get this finalized quickly – but nothing is ever quick it seems. If we can't finalize the auction, I will move to an estate sale and do it myself if need be.

I don't want to handle any of it. It's exhausting. All of Jeff's belongings are now gone. I gave his kids all of it. Everything that meant something to him. I didn't hesitate at all.

Now it's time for me, Father, to do as You said, "leave things behind and what you decide to take – count the cost, I am with you in all of this". So, I'm trying to be careful and count the costs in all things.

Father, I'm scared. I'm really clueless and overwhelmed. I need Your help! Show me what to do so I can do everything right and make all things run as smoothly as my trip to Winnipeg for Jeff's memorial.

My dreams have been disturbing and a reminder that we live in a fallen world. Last night I had a few…

Sub-dream 1 "The River of Excrement" begins…

In one dream, I had to walk in human waste in order to get to the place (You promised) on the other side. In this dream, what I thought was a muddy riverbed was actually excrement. I tried to figure out another way around it, but I was running short on time. I saw the place across to the other side and it was beautiful, with mountains and green grass, but the only path was to walk straight through it.

At first, I hesitated to step, then I ran back and decided to try to leap in order to possibly only have to step into it once. I looked behind me and there were my two dogs, my purse and documents. I then heard my children say, "Wait mom, we're coming too!" I then prayed for the impossible, just as I picked up my two dogs and other things, a path formed. It was clear of human waste and went right down the center.

But it gets better, because as I walked across – the first few steps, suddenly, the excrement was completely gone and the path was fully cleared and now flush and made level with the other side, so all of us stepped into the place You made for us.

Sub-dream 1 over…

This seemed impossible.

Sub-dream 2 "Shoes Washed In Excrement" begins…

I had taken off my shoes to show respect to the owners of a home I was visiting. The owners took my shoes and washed them in human waste by accident. I told them I would walk without them when I leave.

Sub-dream 2 over…

I had one more of these dreams which to me seems like where I am now. I have to deal with things I hate. Things I really want nothing to do with, but I have no choice. So Father, I give all of this to You.

My days are filled with appointments and paperwork. I have communion with You, but I have no contact with sparrows and friends due to my lack of time. I'm so grateful for patience, but I am struggling.

I never saw Jeff dying. The warnings were there. The clear warnings from You. Please forgive me if I missed these. When You said that everything I thought I knew was about to change, You were and are right!

This week, I will go to the US border to make sure I have all my papers in order. Please help me to get things in proper order. Help me also to rid myself of even more so I can rest easier and be confident in every step I take. I love You, Lord.

Jesus: "I am here, Erin. I am with you. Do not be afraid to face these giants. Though they are many, I am with you and I am greater than all of these. All of this will pass. I know this has been one of the most difficult battles you have ever had, but I am here and ready to step in. Let Me step in for you."

Me: "Please, Lord, please."

Jesus: "Listen carefully to what I say, Erin. I am the defender of widows. I won't allow you to be trampled by schemes or cursed by anyone. My just hand is upon every situation, I promise to defend you to the detriment of anyone who comes against you.

"Though you see before you impossible human waste – I will provide a clear way for your feet to step. Because I am with you – you step on Holy Ground. Don't be afraid. Last week was filled with disappointing news as more is revealed and you quickly discover things which occurred in secret apart from you. Now you have had to clean up after this vast battle on a bloodied terrain with plunder which had already been picked over. All the best pieces are gone and you are left with removal and disposal.

"Do not worry though. Good news is coming and help is on the way. I have ordered angels to be over all transactions, in addition to My very presence in the midst of this. They will go ahead and guide those you must meet with. Do not load yourself up with more than you are able to handle."

Me: "I have so many appointments, Lord, it's exhausting because these are still reliant on the judges signature for me to complete all of the necessary documents. Why is there so much to do when someone dies? I'm treated like _ "

Jesus: "I know, but Erin, the only thing you need to remember is this – they are not in control, I am. You will settle these accounts, as soon as you can – they are at your mercy, not the other way around. So, be at peace and do not worry, be firm and I will give you strength and wisdom.

"I promise you, in just a few weeks, you will be emailing and excited to be in the place of your heart, where I have called you back. I'm sorry Jeff could not join you as you thought and prayed he would. This was not meant to be and it was his time to be in My presence. I know you have many questions and these will be revealed soon, right now you must continue moving forward and try not to dwell on the details of what has happened. There will be a time when you face this and write about it, and healing will continue, but for now, focus on Me and these doors which will be presented before you."

Me: "Yes, Lord. The kids are having dreams with Jeff appearing in them. I haven't had any."

Jesus: "There is no closure here yet and this is difficult to understand, but do not worry about this now. The tremendous barrier has been removed. You are now reconciled to family and friends. You are no longer subject to silence, shame and isolation. You are free.

"Although you still feel bound, soon all of your shackles will be removed and you will be free. I will even send angels to thwart the assignments of the enemy against you and your children. No plan or curse of evil will prosper against the children of God and My bride. Now remember to let me work on your behalf. I have you. I love you.

"I am your Husband, your Father, and you are My bride – no one comes against you with any success. Now, this week, I will work…"

Me: "Lord, You are always at work."

Jesus: "Yes, but now I will accelerate these doors opening. I can and I AM. Erin, I promise to restore all the enemy has stolen and even multiply this. Do not worry, I bring your recompense with Me."

Dream over…

In prayers this morning, the Lord gave me scriptures to remind me of who He is in my battles.

2 Chronicles 31:20-21 NLT

"In this way, King Hezekiah handled the distribution throughout all Judah, doing what was pleasing and good in the sight of the Lord his God. In all that he did in the service of the Temple of God and in his efforts to follow God's laws and commands, Hezekiah sought his God wholeheartedly. As a result, he was very successful."

2 Chronicles 32:7-8 NLT

"Be strong and courageous! Don't be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria or his mighty army, for there is a power far greater on our side! He may have a great army, but they are merely men. We have the Lord our God to help us and to fight our battles for us!" Hezekiah's words greatly encouraged the people."

Isaiah 30:18 ESV

"Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you, and therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you.
For the Lord is a God of justice;
blessed are all those who wait for him."

Isaiah 61 (I needed this reminder!)

1

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor;[a]
he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;[b]

2

to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor, and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all who mourn;

3

to grant to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit;
that they may be called oaks of righteousness,
the planting of the Lord, that he may be glorified.[c]

4

They shall build up the ancient ruins;
they shall raise up the former devastations;
they shall repair the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.

5

Strangers shall stand and tend your flocks; foreigners shall be your plowmen and vinedressers;

6

but you shall be called the priests of the Lord;
they shall speak of you as the ministers of our God;
you shall eat the wealth of the nations,
and in their glory you shall boast.

7

Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion;
instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot;
therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion;
they shall have everlasting joy.

8

For I the Lord love justice;
I hate robbery and wrong;[d]

I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9

Their offspring shall be known among the nations, and their descendants in the midst of the peoples;
all who see them shall acknowledge them,
that they are an offspring the Lord has blessed.

10

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord;
my soul shall exult in my God,
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation;
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11

For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

Zephaniah 3:5 ESV

The Lord within her is righteous;
he does no injustice;
every morning he shows forth his justice;
each dawn he does not fail;
but the unjust knows no shame.

Luke 14:25-35 ESV

25 “Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, 26 “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30 saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish.’ 31 Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. 33 So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt is good, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? 35 It is of no use either for the soil or for the manure pile. It is thrown away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-914/

920 – When You Go Forth

Received on Sunday, September 14, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day, another dawn!

The seasons are changing and You are preparing our hearts for changes! I'm so grateful to have You with me. You are with the broken in spirit and the down-hearted. It is difficult, Father, to find joy in such darkness. It's hard some days to see Your glorious signs and wonders when it seems like there is no good news.

On Wednesday morning at around dawn, I was laying in bed in prayer looking up at the blue sky through the windows. Then, all of a sudden, I couldn't believe the sight – 4 large snowy egrets with their white wings extended flew over our home – so close to the windows I could see their feathers in rows under their wings and the wings expanded the entire length of the windows. It was as if they were angels wings. It was so hard to believe my eyes! This was a gift from You, Father! I'm grateful for this beautiful sign.

The various animal and bird sightings recently have been in groupings of 4 – not sure if I recall this happening ever before. The next day there were 4 deer on the hill on our road just feet away. They had stopped to stare at me in the fog with the morning sun behind them – it was a beautiful sight. Then on Friday, 4 eagles were circling together by the water.

This last night, well, really early morning, I heard You say, "Erin, when you go forth" – and then I fell back to sleep. This morning when I woke up, I heard You say again, "When you go forth".

I've been so discouraged by the death of Charlie Kirk – what a gifted man of God! But when this happened I knew in that moment that the real reason You had named his ministry, "Turning Point", years ago was because You knew that he would be killed by an assassin at this time and it would ignite something in Your children – like a flame, flaring up in our hearts and souls – the Turning Point! This is a turning point for Christians and a great time of turning back to You, Father!

Your warriors have been asleep and quietly waiting. Now, Father, wake us up so we can go forth in truth and strength.

The area of the country we live in is heavily Pagan. There is so much occultism, witch craft, and polytheism (the belief in many gods), that as a Christian, you truly have no voice here. There is no move of God here because of a weak church. The churches operate in fear and hiding. No one wants to offend anyone. It's not a good thing. The gospel is watered down to make it more pleasing to a broader market. Father, Your word is truth – when half truths are the gospel, then really these are lies.

You have ordered us to stand down for now, until the day You "bring us out into open spaces".

You are strengthening us for the battle. You are removing things which were hindering Your plans for us.

Please forgive me for questioning all these events over the last 60 days. Really it has been occurring for years and I pray one day You will grant me greater understanding. Right now I have been so busy and the days are flying by so quickly I can scarcely gather my thoughts. Please continue to watch over us and keep us in Your wise Godly council in all things. Help calm my anxious thoughts.

My dreams have returned, so I'm excited to be 100% focused back to You, Father, although I realize at some point here, the waves of grief and the disbelief and shock over all that happened will return. Please keep my eyes on You!

Sub-dream 1 "The Lions, Eagle, and the Two Valleys" begins...

I saw an aerial view from above two valleys.

One valley was beautiful and lush with trees, fields and flowering meadows. I could see a river running through the center of it and the pastures adjacent to this river had cattle and sheep grazing peacefully. In the foothills I saw vineyards overgrown with ripe clusters of grapes ready to be harvested. There were deer further up in the hills surrounding the valley and there I saw a beautiful, massive eagle circling over the area.

As I watched, it stopped and turned toward the other valley, flapping its massive wings. It flew over a lush mountain to the other valley.

This valley had a story. There was no growth there, only brownish-red dirt. The hills consisted of rocks and dead grass. As I watched the eagle, it flew to a rocky outcropping and landed on a perch area where it waited.

Then a great wind came into the dry arid valley. It stirred it up – a massive dust devil had come across the valley floor. Then I saw a figure come out of the cloud of dust. It was a lion. This lion was large and strong, it pronounced its front legs down upon the ground and roared. The dust stopped and settled, and the wind calmed. It then began to circle the valley.

Then I saw 3 openings in the base of these hills – these were like caves, but they appeared suddenly. I saw 3 lions emerge from each of these openings.

One was old and sickly, though it was scary at first, it had no teeth. The cave that it had come from contained very old bones from prey devoured years before. It was hungry.

The next lion was large, but not muscular – it was fatty. It had no solid substance. It looked scary but had no strength to sustain itself in a battle. It sat at the opening of the cave and roared out – but its roar was weak and ineffective against the main lion.

The third lion was massive, with fangs the length of an ancient saber-toothed tiger. Its fangs were dripping fresh blood and it was strong and threatening – terrifying. Its roar sounded manufactured like a computer generated roar of 100 lions. When I looked more closely, I could see this lion was unreal, like a hologram.

I saw the main lion in the center roar in anger and all three lions submitted, bowed, and laid down in the dirt before this lion. I then saw the eagle flap its wings in flight three times and land on the back of the lion. Wherever this lion went, the eagle was there. The lion and the eagle went back and forth from the dry valley to the lush valley together.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, the beautiful valley seems like Your promised land and the dry arid valley seems like the spiritual state of the world today but I'm not sure. I love Your valley dreams because they always mean something amazing is coming. September and October have been some of my best months, but so far I don't like this season much.

It's cold outside now. The leaves are beginning to change colors rapidly. I will need to take down the hummingbird feeders shortly. It's hard for me as I watch the seasons come to a close here. Our time here is coming to an end. As I drive sometimes I forget Jeff is gone, then I begin to phone him and realize I can't. This is surreal and shocking. What happened, Father? What could I have done?

Jesus: "Erin, I'm here. I'm with you. Focus on Me right now and every day. I promise I am with you and I will keep you safe. There are things you did not know. I sheltered you from these for My purposes for a later revelation. For now, this is good. You worry about many things. Please allow Me to take these worries from you and I promise you good things."

Me: "Lord, my surgeon has scheduled a CT scan to check the area around where my kidney was removed to see if the cancer had spread. This is on Wednesday. Please let the cancer be gone, this will be difficult to take right now on top of everything."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but can you trust Me?"

Me: "Yes, of course, Lord, I give You my life. I'm just scared of the unknown. I no longer feel fearless. You said I would return home from a position of strength, but so far everything has drained from me. My strength, my abilities to know what to do, my knowledge is limited in these matters and I feel helpless and alone. What good is it to hire an expert or lawyer only to have them say, 'that's difficult, good luck!' Good luck? What is that? Lord, I'm 100% reliant on You and I need Your help – not luck. Bless me in a Jabez kind of way if You would?"

Jesus: "Jabez?"

Me: "Yes Lord, Jabez cried out to You in pain (Chronicles 4:9-10) 'Oh that You would bless me and enlarge my border, and that Your hand might be with me, and You would keep me from harm so that it might not bring me pain!' And God granted what he asked. Yes, Lord, that one – except I'm feeling the pain part right now. Maybe I should have asked sooner."

Jesus: "Oh Erin, you have no idea what was planned against you and your children. I kept you from harm, but even wars bring pain and loss with them. There is a price to follow Me in this life. I never promised you no events would shake you in these last days. There are casualties in war. In battles there are wounds and they don't always heal here – this is why you must come to Me. I am your divine Healer and Friend. You have lost so much in this life, but you have gained a great deal in the next life with Me.

"Your heart is Mine and no scheme of man or plan of evil will remove you from My hand. Be confident and take heart that when you go forth you will be blessed because I am with you! When you go in you will be blessed and you will be blessed when you go out! Find Me, Erin, in your grieving moments. Don't allow the enemy to take you backwards in moments which have passed. He wants to keep you there and stagnant in your journey.

"With Me, each day is brand new. Each moment, I am here. Tomorrow, I am there. I will go before you and make your path clear and level. You are free already. The enemy binds you with memories you cannot reconcile and thoughts which haunt you, words and curses which could consume you – this is why I say, 'when you go forth from here'. 'When' is now, Erin. 'When' is today.

"Put aside the former things, you can reflect on these when you are in a position of strength, understand? Does a warrior go into a battle sick and weak and expect a victory? The enemy sees the state of this warrior and strikes quickly to remove the threat. So, wait on this.

"I promise you, once I remove you to the new land, then after awhile you can testify to all I have done here – because what I did from beginning until the end was a miracle and many will stand amazed at the power of God and the faith you carried with you.

"Remember, remain in Me and I in you, and I promise I will deliver you in joy and blessing. Erin, you will dance again as you did in your youth. I have not forgotten the pain of your youth or the pain of your widowhood, and I love you. You are Mine and what I will do is more than even Jabez. You were named in peace and I have prepared you for battle. I will strengthen you day by day! I have you.

"Time is God's – live as each day is a gift and tomorrow is not guaranteed, but live as if there will be another day. I am with you."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-921/

921 – Letting Go Of The Former Things

Received on Monday, September 22, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for all You do! Thank You for another day! I'm scared and overwhelmed. Please open doors for us this week.

Please let someone purchase our home, so I can be relieved. Right now, I have no movers for Wednesday. Please help, Lord. These are small, easy things for You and I'm just trying to do all the right things.

Can You step up and help me?

Today a special gift is supposed to come, Lord. Please strengthen my faith because I need some 2014 like miracles right now. I'm scared.

I prayed and You answered. I opened Your living breathing Word to these words.

Jeremiah 30:10

"Then fear not, O Jacob my servant, declares the Lord, nor be dismayed, O Israel;
for behold, I will save you from far away,
and your offspring from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease,
and none shall make him afraid."

Lamentations 3:22-25

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
his mercies never come to an end;

they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

"The Lord is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in him."

The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him."

Thank You, Father!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am with you. I will go before you in all things. I haven't abandoned you. I haven't forsaken you. These things before you are too much and you are broken when facing them. These things are impossible. I am here. I am with you. When you go out, I will make a clear way for you. When you feel alone in your decisions, I will remind you that I'm here. Erin, don't forget My voice is with you in all you do.

"Wisdom is proved right by her actions and I am here, Erin. Do not worry or be afraid. I will strengthen you and I will not abandon you. Let me lead you and take hold of your hand. My love for you has never stopped and My divine favor is with you. I'm here. I'm in this room. You are Mine. You have been clearing out the former things. Burdensome yokes are being removed from you.

"You are soon to be free and the gift I am soon to bring you, I promise will make your cup runeth over with joy! You will dance like you did in your youth and you will cast out the mourning of your widowhood."

Me: "I want to stay here on Earth though Lord – please don't take me home before my time."

Jesus: "On Earth as it is in Heaven, Erin. You are here and all will know it. I am delivering you from the place I've kept you hidden and I am bringing you out. When you go out, it will be in strength. This journey has not been easy for you and the enemy longs to hold you captive and keep you stagnant. Blocking your joy and using his army to hinder your plans but I am greater than the enemy's schemes. I see them. I know every thought and I send angels to go ahead and stop this evil.

"So, take courage that I am over all things. You know this, as I stopped the evil planned against you last season. I removed the threat and the evil army had to regroup, but through it all I am victorious and nothing shall come against you with any success.

"Now, prepare your home today for your visitors. I am with you, do not worry. I love you. Thank you for coming to Me, Erin."

Dream over.

Note: On this day, we had a home showing. This was the “visitors” we were preparing for. These visitors ended up giving us an offer on our home immediately upon seeing it. This was fulfillment of the promise that the Lord gave of a surprise gift on the 22nd of September 2025. It was unlikely that we were to be given an offer so quickly after only having the home on the market for less than one month, and this offer makes it possible for us to relocate to Oregon. Praise the Lord!!

Dream over…

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-922/

922 – Turning Over A New Leaf

Received on Sunday, September 28, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Thank You!

You are wonderful and Your mercies are new everyday!

Today I need Your divine help! I need help! I can't get my blood pressure down.

I thought maybe if I just go out one last Sunday morning here and put out seed for the birds and animals and breathe the air, that maybe just gazing at the beautiful fall colors and the pond of glassy water – like a mirror reflecting the sky – then maybe my heart will be calm and I'll be okay.

There is no greater artist in all of creation who is like You, Father. None. You paint the sky differently everyday! You dot the landscape with colors so beautiful! You even add the sun to shine, highlighting the sprinkles of Your majesty in all our eyes see!

I love You, Father! I'm so grateful to You for all things.

My heart has been changed and I have been placed in the great furnace of affliction these last few months. Movers came to gather our belongings and I walked away from the majority of everything and even things which have special meaning to me. The cost of all of it, the stress, the selections, the packing, the arguing and tomorrow the bartering… I have a great decision to make. The enemy has had an army coming against us. It's been brutal and I've been unable to stand at times.

Each time, You have been there with me, Father, to say, "Erin, I'm here, I have you!" Today is my last Sabbath rest day here. It's been almost exactly 13 years to the day when You first called me – when I first heard Your voice! My greatest gift is You, Father! The treasure of my heart is the Lord! Thank You!

Moving with different emotions in those around us is and has always been a challenge. Two of us are ready for a fresh start and new beginnings, but one is clinging to what once was. Every object has a memory, an unshakeable attachment which is a stronghold.

I have been swimming against this current and I just know we will get through this because Father, You are here with me in this moment. Help me, Father, to say the right things and let go of what needs to be let go of.

I either am able to convince the movers to take less money or I offload more. You have said, "count the cost". We are 5,000 pounds overweight! So, I'm about to let go of the majority of my items. It will truly be a fresh start. Unless there are unbalanced weights and measures on these scales – then the truth lies on the reality of the measure.

There is no greater freedom than having very little or what you do have, let it be useful or fruitful to the Lord's work. Then when your heart has reconciled to what really matters in life here – then release all things to God; You, Father, and You will bless us with what we need.

If we had been able to just leave this home the way it was – furnished and in tact, then God would've made this way. Instead though, You told me to let go – "leave it behind". You instructed me in what to take and that's what I did. With my daughter, she took very little, but….. what do I do, Father?

This morning, I took more potassium as well as 2 bananas and I seem to be doing better. My blood pressure evened out! Thank You, Father, for instructing me, You are good!

Sub-dream 1 "Turkeys Chasing After Me" begins…

In my dream last night, I had gone outside to spread seed on the ground. I felt young and energetic. There were turkeys gathering and making noises all around me. Some were coming near me, but mostly they feared me.

After I finished putting down the seed, I said to them, "I've been feeding you the whole time here and you're always afraid of me. Aren't you hungry?"

I became disappointed. I set down my tray, and began to walk away up our gravel road. I could hear the turkeys behind me gathering up the seed. I giggled and shook my head.

Then, as I walked, I realized they had all followed me. They were following me up the road. I then began to jog and they began to walk faster to keep up. Then I ran, and they ran with me.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then had another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The 5 Birch Leaves" begins…

There were 5 birch leaves on the ground in front of me outside.

From left to right:

The first leaf was mostly green to yellow in color.

The second leaf was yellow to orange in color.

The third was a branch with one shrivelled leaf on it and it had frost.

The fourth was a tender shoot with leaves budding from it.

The last was a perfect green leaf.

I heard the voice of the Lord, "Erin, when you go out, you will turn over a new leaf."

Sub-dream 2 over…

My heart was racing when I woke up.

Father, help me to leave, the enemy is fighting me. It's been brutal. Every time You bless me, Father, the enemy is there to rob me of that very promise from You. One thing is certain, the enemy doesn't want me to go out from here. It's madness. It's extremely stressful and we need to finally leave this week. I need Your help to stand against the enemy here. Please give us victory.

Please remove any unclean spirits which remain and set us free from here to the place where we can be free to worship and be out of isolation. Thank You for continuing to watch over all we do. Tomorrow I will make tough choices and I must face the consequences of these. Father, please change hearts and deliver us to this new way.

Jesus: "I'm here, Erin. I'm with you. I have prepared you for these battles in advance and I know the plans I have for you – these are to prosper you and give you hope and a future. This so you will be able to publicly proclaim who I am in you. You will no longer be afraid or fear things which threaten you. You will sleep soundly and dream and you will testify to My goodness. I will speak through you and many will say surely this is the voice of God because she speaks with authority she has no ability to be this bold with.

"Erin, I am placing a new mantel upon you and great will be your joy. You will smile and laugh and dance as you did in your youth. Those who once knew you will say, "Isn't this Erin – the woman who had no hope, no future?" Many will seek Me because of your testimony. Now, I know all of this has been difficult for you. I promised you a good move. You are not to be burdened and overwhelmed, physically tired and sleepless. This is not sent from Me.

"Remember what I told you before, if there is confusion and chaos around a situation, then this is not the way. I will go before you in this matter and settle the score, do not worry. Give me this situation. Remember, I promise you good things. Rest today, I will strengthen you and give you peace of mind."

Me: "Lord, wisdom – I need wisdom here. In one dream recently, I was in my car at a stop light and a woman came to my window asking for change for food. When I went to roll down the window to help her, she pulled a gun out to my head and told me to give her my car and purse. It happened so suddenly and then I woke up."

Jesus: "This is what the enemy does, Erin. These seem innocent, but they are part of a bigger army of robbers and thieves. So, this dream instructs you to be diligent in your walk. Be aware of your surroundings. The enemy looks for opportunity to deceive. Their greatest trophy is through leading a child of God into great deception, to destroy innocence. This is what they do. Understand this and give all matters to God! Don't give out spare change in a weakened state."

Me: "Lord, what?"

Jesus: "Remember, the enemy drains you of all resources from every angle when you are too weak to fight. Pray for strength and wisdom. Go to these movers and negotiate for better."

Me: "Lord, will You do this for me? I signed papers."

Jesus: "You signed an inventory list – they can adjust. Do not worry, I am with you."

Me: "I can remove more, Lord."

Jesus: "I know you are willing, this is all I need. You will know more at the end of the day tomorrow. Do not worry. I have you."

Me: "Lord, I have to turn around after our trip and take a flight back here to finalize all of this. I can't imagine it right now."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but do not worry. I have you and these things are necessary but My plans in this are good. I'm with you. Enjoy this beautiful day I have made! I'm here.

"Oh yes, the turkeys in the dream represent those who once avoided you. They will flock together and run with you. You will be with others. The dream of the leaves are represented in seasons. The first is right now, the next is 40 days from now, and so on."

Me: "So, in 200 days (5 forty day periods), I will turn over a new spring leaf?"

Jesus: "A mystery for now…"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-923/

923 – Don’t Veer Off-Course

Received on Sunday, October 12, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your special care and grace over us. I’m burdened Father–my heart is grieving and heavy. Staying busy helps lessen the burden I feel. I can’t remember everything. Though I try, sometimes I fail.

All of this has been a lot on me and the kids. But especially me. I went back over old entries in my journals and wondered if I could’ve done better. I truly did all I know to do. Sometimes in life there are no answers to our questions until one day we meet face-to-face. Be with me, Father, and please don’t allow anyone to take advantage of me in my weakened state.

The movers are to come this week. My son kept adding things to the moving truck–so much he was sentimental about. I understand this, but I was okay to let go go the majority of everything to start fresh.

The movers were so organized and thorough. I never received a phone call from the border patrol questioning the mover of the truck. All the paperwork was in order. I don’t believe I could’ve pulled this off without a miracle from You, Father! Thank You!

I received an offer for the home after the first buyer pulled his offer during our drive across the U.S. After some negotiating, we settled on an amount and I’m praying, Father, that all goes well.

I will need to fly back to sign papers–not just for the house but also for settling more of Jeff’s affairs. Then I have to go back to our previous home to clean it. I figure it will take me a few days, then I can fly home to Bend before American thanksgiving.

It might be awhile before I can speak about everything that happened. I have been crushed and pressed like an olive and I’m so emptied. I’m still in shock. I don’t like to have any quiet time alone right now–it’s the quiet spaces of time which bring me such grief.

To make matters even more alarming–the greatest enemy I have is busy doing something to make me afraid here. He is trying to get my physical address and information. At each turn in my life he has been there to try to destroy me. Any joy–he is there to strip me. Any peace–he makes war. My kids have warned me that he is gathering information. I finally phoned him last night and asked him why he needs to know. He was stuttering and thrown off guard by my call, saying, "no reason, just curious".

I had a dream a few nights ago of three black-brown turkeys with red feet, gobblers, neck and head. They were friendly and glad to see me. Their black feathers were iridescent and beautiful.

In another dream, my two dogs had run off in a horribly dark place and I struggled to find them–but finally gathered them both safely into my car.

Father, this area has changed. So many things I still remember, but the population has increased and so many are focused on material wealth. I know You have us here for a reason which is very good, but I must admit my tolerance for most of this is very low. Pretentious, boastful mouths–it's like a mini California is here now. Not all Californians are like this, primarily the ones from Montecito, Orange County, Pebble Beach area, Monterey, etc. I spoke to one of my old friends here and she confirmed this is why she stopped being an interior designer and sold her shop.

It's also funny to see people looking at me to try to figure out how they know me. Especially several people I knew who weren't very nice to me before. When they ask I tell them I just moved here. I have been surprised to see so many faces I recognize from more than 16 years ago.

Father, I want to keep to myself until You call me to greater work. I don't want to move ahead of You.

Jesus: "Erin, I'm here. I'm with you and I will never leave you. I know this has been difficult for you, but I have guided each one of your steps."

Me: "It has truly been right, left, right. One task down, then the next. I misstep when I try to do too many things at once. Lord, when I see photos of our old home or my family at our home together–none of it seems real. When reality hits me about all that just happened, I am in disbelief. It's very painful, Lord. I still don't understand all of this."

Jesus: "Keep your focus on Me. Erin, if you only knew what was prevented here, you would not be as upset. Please understand that none of this surprised God. I was not caught unaware. In your heart you knew something was very wrong. Always remember to all those I have called, do not veer off-course–don't go right when I say go left. Don't stop and turn back when I say go forward. Do not veer off-course.

"When this happens, wisdom is proved right by stopping your actions to go your own way and correcting by turning back to Me–God. Even when you don't like how long the road is or how your own speculations on timing or the conditions of the route were.

"Last year in the summer, your home was to be listed for sale–but if you recall certain words and promises I gave were taken to frame every condition of the circumstance. Well, had you just did as I instructed then all these promises would've been fulfilled–just not as Jeff was expecting."

Me: "He was very specific. When the conditions weren't met, then Jeff pulled us back to waiting again. It was very difficult. Then came my surgery, Zoey's death, and everything else spiralled."

Jesus: "When I say do this, then do it. You will be rewarded for obeying My voice. Jeff had a time of wrestling with Me which never stopped. He was unhappy with Me."

Me: "I've been unhappy too, Lord–but I love You."

Jesus: "I love you. There are consequences to remaining stagnant from a position of fear–but this escalated, and you know the course this took. At any time he could've turned back."

Me: "I should've pushed, Lord."

Jesus: "All of this is about the heart, Erin. Not your comfort, not perfection here–just that at the end of each day, your heart remains Mine! Your heart is Mine and I am in you. The rest you can trust Me for. I promise you good things. I know it's difficult to see things now as good, but I promise you–I will never leave you.

"My favor is upon you. I have used you to measure hearts and many have said cruel things about you because of this. Your journey has been painful, but I plan to give you joy and rest. The greater things are still to come and you will be used by Me to heal hearts and point those who are lost to Me and the hope of Heaven and the New Earth.

"I know you are tired, my warrior and my Bride. I know your battles have been more than you had anticipated, but know that I am here. I will provide for you as I always have. I have never stopped My promises for you and My favor."

Me: "Lord, the 22nd day has come and gone and the gift given was removed. Did I do something wrong?"

Jesus: "No, not at all, but you will need to be patient as you will quickly see what was released for you. I will send word from My Sanctuary. Now, when you have questions or doubts, pray–I will answer you. I know you are afraid as you will be facing great giants on your path. But remember who I am. I am greater than all which is before you. I will remove all threats and I will send angels to guard you in all you do.

"I know you feel trampled and tired but I am here to carry you. I am with you. Do not be afraid, I am here and I have never removed My favor upon you! Be at peace, Erin."

Dream over.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-924/

924 – "I Am Your Answer"

Received on Saturday, October 18, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You! Thank You for Your tenderness for me. I'm very weak these days. This move has been fairly typical of moves–uncertainty and chaos. I kept things upbeat and light hearted as much as I could but I hit a breaking point.

One song kept going through my head with these lyrics, "goodbye yesterday, I'm living in the light of a new day". The former things are not finished yet and I still have so much to wrap up.

I'm a widow and I still forget this. I keep thinking I'll see Jeff in a few days or that I can phone him. His death didn't come with instructions. Father, I can testify to Your greatness–You have cared for me in uncertainty.

I had my Telehealth visit with my kidney oncologist and I'm not in the clear yet until I have a scan which was somehow left off my last visit in Houlton. I am praying I am able to get this quickly.

The home sale is not finished yet and there have been several steps involved to wrap up the home. Even though it was listed "as is", it's annoying how all of that is ignored. I pray the sale goes through quickly as I must fly back up to New Brunswick to finish paperwork and complete this chapter of a very difficult book.

This whole ordeal has left me a different person all together…

We are living in a rental currently and the people in our neighborhood have been so friendly and welcoming. I have had conversations with a few of my neighbors and they are missing You, Father. You can have the whole world but without You have nothing.

My dreams have been returning again and I'm so thankful to You. Help me to have quiet moments to hear You speak. There is no sweeter voice than Yours. When I'm scared in this storm, when thunder rolls and lightening comes, and torrential rain–I hear You whisper, "Erin, I love you, I am here, this will pass, I promise you!" Then the storm blows over me and I even forget how bad it was because You are here. I love You, Father.

I am scared but You say, "don't be afraid". So, today make me strong, brave and fearless.

There is so much to know and more than I can remember. There are days which end quickly and others which never seem to end–like a nightmare.

The good news is my children are adjusting here and seem very excited about different things. My daughter has made friends at church and she seems so happy to be here. My youngest son is adjusting to the change but the moving of things here was a difficult thing. The majority of our furniture–about 12 items–won't even be loaded on a truck until Monday and it could be another week before we receive these belongings, like our dining table and chairs. My devotional chair came with no cushions–I'm hoping it comes soon.

Father, thank You for this beautiful place. Keep me focused on what Your plan is for me here. There is much to do.

It's so difficult because I am now thrust into a new normal which is anything but. We have left behind so much. Not just material things but the beautiful land of the trees and all the birds and animals who visited me there. I will see all of them one last time and will say my final goodbyes. I have a small portion of Jeff's ashes given to me from the funeral home which was "left-over", so I will go out to the beautiful path Jeff had created and scatter the tiny amount there.

Speak to me again, Father. Strengthen me so I am able to finish the task You put before me. Whatever You decide… Who knows, maybe You will turn and have me keep our home there–like I once heard You say before things turned badly there. I don't know–You can do anything.

I feel that our home You built was special as You were there with us. But You know what is best for Your sons and daughters, so I will trust You, Father. You made my path, the way You fashioned it and I will continue to walk Your ways in it.

Sub-dream 1 "The Final Inspection" begins…

In my dream I returned to our old home and an angel of the Lord was there with me. He walked with me through each room to finish my inspection. I prayed and blessed the beautiful home.

The angels face was bright and shining but he remained silent. I think it was Breakthrough because when I went outside to walk to the feeders I heard a whistle and all the birds and animals I know came to visit one last time.

I turned to look at the angel and he was gone.

Sub-dream 1 over…

It's painful Father. Why did all this sorrow have to come? Why couldn't…never mind.

Jesus: "I'm here, Erin. I'm with you. I know you worry about many things. I know you have been in mourning and have lost so many great gains."

Me: "Lord, I am poor in spirit as well as broken. This has been so difficult just to go this far. There are giants in this land. I see them. Please continue to make a way for us–for me. I'm so uncertain navigating all of this and barely able to breathe."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. One day you will know what I have saved you from. But for now, you must allow me to carry you. I have you. I am God and above me there is no other. I own the cattle on a thousand hills and every good thing. So, I promise to remove you from the state you are in currently. Your grieving will turn to dancing.

"You will dance as you did in your youth. Remember, I am with you–you dance with Me. Though this period of darkness is long–I promise you there will be a breaking of the dawn. God is within you, you, Erin, will not fall, I will help you at the break of day.

"Your joy is coming. Forget the former things. Do not pause on the former path. I am doing a new thing. I will provide for you a new spring of living water. I will refresh you and place a new spirit in you."

Me: "This is Psalm 46 and Isaiah 43:1-21, Lord."

Jesus: "My Word is your lamp but more than this, I am your Answer. I am who I say I am. I love you, Erin. My promises are true.

"Now, do not worry! I will send you help with every need. All the advisors will be sent to take you to the right way. I will advise you on the ways you should go–do not worry!"

Dream over…

Psalm 46 ESV

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present[b] help in trouble.

2 Therefore we will not fear though the earth give way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,

3 though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Selah

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
God will help her when morning dawns.

6 The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

8 Come, behold the works of the Lord, how he has brought desolations on the earth.

9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
he burns the chariots with fire.

10 "Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!"

11 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

Isaiah 43:1-21 (ESV)

1 But now thus says the Lord,
he who created you, O Jacob,
he who formed you, O Israel:
"Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are mine.

2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you.

3 For I am the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I give Egypt as your ransom,
Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

4 Because you are precious in my eyes,
and honored, and I love you,
I give men in return for you,
peoples in exchange for your life.

5 Fear not, for I am with you;
I will bring your offspring from the east,
and from the west I will gather you.

6 I will say to the north, Give up, and to the south, Do not withhold;
bring my sons from afar
and my daughters from the end of the earth,

7 everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

8 Bring out the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears!

9 All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble.
Who among them can declare this,
and show us the former things?
Let them bring their witnesses to prove them right, and let them hear and say, It is true.

10 “You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord,
“and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he.
Before me no god was formed,
nor shall there be any after me.

11 I, I am the Lord, and besides me there is no savior.

12 I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you;
and you are my witnesses," declares the Lord, "and I am God.

13 Also henceforth I am he;
there is none who can deliver from my hand;
I work, and who can turn it back?"

14 Thus says the Lord,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I send to Babylon and bring them all down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships in which they rejoice.

15 I am the Lord, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King."

16 Thus says the Lord,
who makes a way in the sea,
a path in the mighty waters,

17 who brings forth chariot and horse,
army and warrior;
they lie down, they cannot rise,
they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

18 "Remember not the former things,
nor consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I am doing a new thing;
now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

20 The wild beasts will honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches,
for I give water in the wilderness,
rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people,

21 the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.

http://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-925/

925 – "Watch And See!"

Received on Saturday, October 25, 2025, continued into Sunday, October 26, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for bringing us to this beautiful place! Thank You for guiding my steps and making my feet sure and secure. Because You have created my path and my journey it's only by Your light that I am able to not veer off-course.

Thank You for Your love and care. I've lost many friends because of this situation surrounding Jeff and his death. If the initial loss wasn't enough then those who were once close to me have now distanced themselves. My heart is broken and time can't possibly heal anything. Only You can heal, Father.

Yesterday, October 24, was Jeff's birthday. The kids and I went to his favorite breakfast spot to eat dutch baby pancakes. Then we drove to a place he loved. All the fragrant smells were there. Jeff and I had travelled there in September of 2023 and had such a wonderful time. My daughter then had to leave for work, but my youngest son and I visited various spots Jeff liked. We shared a photo library of happier times with Jeff and then after awhile I broke down. I'm still in shock over all of this.

Father, You have made my path a difficult road which leads to You – It's narrow and treacherous with ragged terrain. My journey has, at times, been foggy and I've been afraid–even questioning if I was in Your favor. The friends I've lost have said, "if you were on a path that leads to God then your road would be easy and your burdens, light", but this is untrue. The true path of a child of God is a difficult one. The road to hell is the paved road and many find that paved road more comfortable.

Father, You never promised me a perfect, trouble-free journey, an easy path. In fact, You warned me years ago that for much of my journey I couldn't see the way because of fog–You told me it was because You would carry me in times of uncertainty. Carry me, Father.

My dream last night was prophetic.

Sub-dream 1 "The Three Roads" begins…

Before me there were 3 ways to go.

The road to the left was paved and went to a large city. There were many people on this road.

The middle road looked exactly like a road which was neither easy nor difficult. It went straight into the horizon. It was level and barren.

The road to the right was narrow, difficult, rocky and went upward into the mountains. The weather looked tumultuous on this path–I could see storms ahead. There were signs encouraging people to take the easy road.

One of the signs on the right road said, "don't go here, this is the hard road".

The middle road sign said, "boring but predictable".

I turned to the right road. Every time I take this way, I knew God would be with me and would carry me. As I walked I was tired but I knew there would be a great reward in eternity for taking the difficult way.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I choose You, Father.

I'm facing some difficult obstacles ahead and so many uncertainties. I've been abased and brought down to my knees in the lowest position I have ever been. I've watched helplessly, unable to do anything against those who have taken advantage of me and know I can do nothing to argue. I have had many losses and very few gains. I've wondered if I'm not in Your favor, Lord, when I'm experiencing the things I am.

I travel back up to Canada in a week and I must handle all the affairs concerning papers, courts, the accountants and banks. I pray what little provision that was left by Jeff won't be taken by surprise bills. Please go before me, Lord, and watch over all things.

Please strengthen me to say goodbye to the former things. Please protect me from enemy schemes and be with me. I'm scared, but I know You are here. You are God and can make my flights connect and remain on time and can keep the enemy from harming me on this difficult journey.

Today my daughter and I saw a beautiful full rainbow. Thank You, Father. I needed this reminder! You are so good, Lord and I am grateful for all You do! I had been praying for a clear word from You then out of the blue this morning I received a text from a friend I hadn't heard from in many years. She is a busy author and speaker and doesn't know anything about my walk with You, Father, or the dreams. She had met Jeff a few years ago just briefly.

While she was in prayer this morning, You gave her an urgent word. You directly said to her, "Let Erin know Jeremiah 6:16… Take My path and find rest!" This was from You, Father, 100%.

Jeremiah 6:16 (NIV)

"This is what the Lord says:

Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,
ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls."

As I've been doing what You have instructed, there have been days where I've hit great opposition and uncertainty. I left a comfort zone in a way, that I had become used to. I'm exhausted and so longed to know I was in Your Will and not veering off Your path. My friend also reminded me of this difficult journey You place us in and remind us You are here in these difficulties and that You love us.

Father, You told me when I return to the place of my heart I would come in a position of strength. I'm not sure I present this at all. I feel a lot like Gideon. I've been given an immense task and I'm least able to do all You've called me to. So, clearly You will make me strong in this battle and You will equip me!

Equip me, Father–grant me a strong spirit! Fill me with a double portion of wisdom and knowledge. You have called me to one day speak and be bold as You will flow through my empty vessel and pour out.

As I look around me here, I am out of my element. Things are scary. My provision in this battle to sustain us is waning. I have not been feeling well. But one thing I have is this; an inner joy and an inner peace in which I know You are here with us.

We left so much behind and over time You will restore anything lost. But I feel so encouraged today that I am walking the path You created for me and I am assured You will guide my steps. Please be with me when I am away in November, I love You, Father.

Jesus: "I am here, Erin, I am with you. I have called all of My people, My Bride, to walk the ancient path. Not the way of this world as no pleasures can be drawn from the paved road which leads to Sheol. Erin, I use willing vessels to send messages.

"You and your daughter had a conversation about birds–pigeons–who would send messages from the sender to the recipient and you both thought this was truly amazing! It was widely used at one time, but, Erin, who is greater to do great things and send messages from one to another with great speed and accuracy. It is I–the God who loves you and calls to you in this storm.

"You are walking the ancient path which leads to Me. Everyday you walk in it and if I need to send you messages many times each day, then I will."

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for Your love! I'm scared."

Jesus: "Yes, I know, but this message I send you confirms that you are walking the upright road despite the difficulty. Now, I never promised that you would a windfall transaction over your home sale, but I did promise it would cover the debts owed. It is My desire that you would be free from the burdens and troubles left to you. So, I will care for you and provide supernaturally.

"I want you to know that I have remembered all the things you loved about the home I created for you. You did not curse this home, instead you were so happy for all things but especially for the gift of the open Heaven over this house. Now, the enemy did his best to destroy you there. To rob you of peace. I know this–but have removed you and placed your feet in the land you love, the place of your heart.

"I want you to know that I have built a home for you like the former house but a place in the new land I have built for My Bride. You have seen it in your dreams. You have delighted in Me and I in you and I remember. So, understand that all your birds and animals will join you there and there will be a new song.

"I haven't forgotten you, not once. Jeff went his own way of the world and your struggle was never peaceful."

Me: "I still struggle, Lord."

Jesus: "Yes, but you know I am here and you know I am over you in all you do–therefore, you have peace deep within you knowing I am here. You are no longer at odds with what you see with your eyes. Your ear is circumcised and you listen for Me. You are going through a time here where you have had to release every day to Me.

"Before, you swam against the currents in a tumultuous sea. You cried out and could not always hear My voice. This is why I sent dreams to you. So, the enemy attacked you with terrors at night. So, I removed this threat to you and kept you close to Me. Right now you have many things to face ahead of you. But Erin, I am with you in all of this.

"When you come home in the 11th month to the place of your heart, you will have come full-circle with Me right beside you. I promised to carry you through difficulties and I've never stopped.

"You are My Bride in gold of Ophir. You hear Me because your ears are circumcised and you run to where I carry you."

Me: "I think I do, Lord."

Jesus: "Remain on this great journey. My Bride is going to receive great gifts from on High. The time you have waited for is coming. The latter rains. I remove that which is no longer beneficial and no longer will you lend your ear to those who call you away from Me!

"I have called all My troops, My angel armies, and those with special election to prepare for the coming days. I have called you here, Erin, do not worry. I know sometimes things do not make sense, because you do not see what I have planned–but know My plans are to prepare you and give you hope and a future. I will not allow someone to threaten the life of My Bride with any success, so I remove the threat.

"Rejoice, Erin–watch and see what I won't do for you now in greater measure. I have entrusted the gatherers to a new song and My clarion call. You will dance as you did in your youth and great will be the number of those added unto you. I am with you in every step, every portion of your journey.

"I am sorry you had to face such difficulties, but know one day you will find great joy! I love you. I am your Rescuer, your Friend in deep waters and it is I who keeps you afloat in rough seas. I am also the Light and Beacon on the hill and I deliver you safely to shore."

Me: "Lord, the enemy continues to attack us."

Jesus: "Yes, but though you are wounded and exhausted in these battles I will promise to deliver you from every enemy scheme and these will come to nothing because I am with you. I will supernaturally heal the injured in record time. Watch and see."

Me: "Thank You Lord, many need to hear this message. I am grateful for You. I love You!"

Jesus: "I love you, Erin. I take hold of your hand. I am here! Do not worry or be afraid! I am who I say I am!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-914/

Dream 926 – A House Divided Will Not Stand

Received on Sunday, November 16, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank you for another day here! Thank you for being with us every step of this journey! Of the seasons of my life, this one by far has been the the most difficult to date.

I returned on Tuesday from my week spent in New Brunswick. There was so much left to do to finalize the sale of the home You built for us there. You blessed me at the beginning of my trip and all because I shared my upcoming task with a ticket agent. Because of this, I received a series of upgrades with my plane ticket, my rental car, and the hotels in which I booked. It was seamless, so I know Your hand was in this all the way!

With one agency, I booked a rental car––a small SUV, so I had four-wheel-drive in case the weather turned. I had flown into Portland, Maine, as this was faster and cheaper overall by a few thousand dollars. When I went to the counter, the agent said, "You were automatically upgraded, hopefully you like it. The vehicle upgrade was given to you because we over-sold cars today."

Nervous about this upgrade surprise, I asked him what type of car. "A Ford Expedition."

Me: "What does it look like?"

Agent: "It's a beast, but it's brand new and in light blue."

Me: "I hope I can drive this okay, it's bigger than I need."

Agent: "Well if you hate it, bring it back." I took the keys with hesitation.

When I got out to the car, I laughed. It was beautiful, but really more than I thought I would need. Well, Father, You knew what I needed in advance. I had to use it for hauling all sorts of items from the house, both for trash disposal and donation purposes. It would've taken twice as long with any other size vehicle. You, Father, are the God of the upgrade! Although the war wages, You grant us all we need!

I spent two solid days traveling. Two more days were spent removing so much debris that the auctioneers couldn't take and then the cleaning was on the final day. Then the final four days were spent paying all the debts––meeting with the bank, the lawyers, and an accountant. I had to push hard to have these people do as they promised they would.

I had such a short window to finish everything and I had to insist that all appointments had to be met as a few were casually trying to put things off a week. So, I pushed and pushed. There were so many documents to sign and transfer. It was so difficult to just pay off everything since Tuesday was Remembrance Day and a holiday, so many had taken that day off and Monday as well. It was a bittersweet process and one in which I never want to repeat again.

For one day, there was the illusion of money and then in a few short hours after all the banks were paid, there wasn't much left. Not enough for a new home let alone even the down payment on a new home. But the freedom of removing the obligations and liens–this was priceless! Thank You, Father!

Now I pray that I have held enough in the probate account to cover anything else outstanding that Jeff might have accumulated, as well as tax debt. I pray that the government of Canada has mercy and takes no more than what is reserved for this. According to our lawyer, this process can take two years to clear Jeff.

Jeff was a man of mystery. My name was left off of everything which made things very difficult for me. You, Father, fast-tracked this process for me. What would normally take up to two years you did in two weeks. I just think Jeff might have had a different way he looked at everything and maybe he thought…?

I'm trying to think the best of everything, but there were so many secrets and at every turn even more. He didn't want to share the state of our financial affairs with me. I discovered why… When Jeff lost his job in 2018 without knowing all the details, it never occurred to us that he would never likely work again. Pride became humiliation, then he turned to You, Father, but when You didn't act fast enough, I watched him spiral downward. I couldn't do anything about it. I'm still in shock and numb over all of this.

There are days despair catches me. Father, I will never make sense of this here on earth but I know Your promises are true. It's the waiting, You require, and even prolong the agony of the wait because You are refining us in the refiner's fire! So, when our promises from You are fulfilled, we have no lack. We lack nothing. We want for nothing because You gave us the gift of waiting.

I also realize when we speak something from our lips, we speak these things into being. Our mouths have the power to manifest both good and evil–blessings and curses! But there is more, the tongue can also be an extension of the state of our heart. A deceiving tongue says what those listening want to hear versus what the deceiver believes in his heart. Maybe if the promises are repeated enough, then the speaker receives them and believes them himself? I don't know.

Please help me, Father to keep blessings upon my lips as You hold my heart and I still believe for Your wonderful miracles. I'm just sad. Jeff didn't see all of this. I know he sees everything from up there.

Father, You gave us everything! You granted us a beautiful home and property at such a low cost that we could never have anything close to this anywhere else. Before I had even met Jeff, You said to me, "I will grant you a home inside the gates of heaven and there you will be under the care of angels. Heavens will be open to you and great will be my blessings over your house until I call you back to the place of your heart one day!"

A few months later, I met Jeff, a.k.a. Mathman, through a mutual friend on five doves. It didn't appear like the relationship would ever work since we lived 3,300 miles apart. A series of miraculous events began to unfold as well as my greatest enemy signing the agreement to release my children if I waive child support.

Another truly incredible miracle was also this house. It suddenly came on the market after just being built. I came from the Pacific Northwest, USA, where the average home I had been working on for builders was about $650,000 to $1,300,000 in 2014. So, one day a huge miracle-find-of-a-home came into being, straight from You, Father!

The home was about 3,500 square feet, all concrete floors with radiant heat/warm floor throughout. The basement could be remodelled to make three bedrooms and three bedrooms were on the top floor. So, each of our five children could have their own room, which is a miracle in itself!

On top of this, so many of the features I had been familiar with from specifying for interior design projects, so I knew all the materials which went into this home. It was on two acres with two waterfalls and not far from the lake. However, it was about a 23 mile drive into town on unkept roads.

As further evidence from You, Father, the home was in a community called "Heaven's Gate". The main road leading into the community was called "Archangel Way", which led to "Raphael Road", and we were on the corner of "Gabriel Lane", so, the roads on the hill above us were Gabriel and Raphael.

Jeff had an awesome job at the time as a pension actuary so he qualified easily for the $475,000 home mortgage and I was able to provide the down payment by a miracle from You, Father. We knew that this home built anywhere else would be a $1 million home to rebuild, maybe even more.

We heard the stories of what the homeowners who built it had endured, so it became clear as to why they wanted to move. There had been a storm and a collapse of the hill between Raphael and Gabriel, which caused them to have to re-excavate the area with added culverts which created the beautiful waterfalls we had on the property.

In order to protect the home from being swept away if this ever happened again, the culverts needed to be installed. It was very expensive for the former home builder–they had to make another adjustment because the foundation of this home was built on solid rock with very little soil. So, although the house was secure, the underground, septic, pumps, and drainage features all had to be refigured a few times and relocated.

The former owner was a Geo-engineer with a brand-new baby, and he received a huge promotion to the oil fields in Alberta, Canada, so he prepared the home for a quick sale. He was so anxious to sell the home that he told the real estate agent to take the first offer.

Jeff was unsure if he would qualify quickly, but within only one week, our offer was accepted, and the mortgage secured. The inspector who went to the home, said it was worth so much more and we were very lucky buyers! Well, we were blessed!

The home came with some challenges like every new place does, like the rough winters and the gravel roads. New construction was always an issue as we were one of the first homes there. There were so many great miracles, Father! You continued to bless me with dreams, and You made these come alive with signs and wonders. When I remember everything, my heart hurts as I cherish the memories of the good things at this place.

Until Jeff had chosen a different way, You had told me You would have us keep this home and even give us another one out West one day. Now I know this home will be on the New Earth or in Heaven. I know the dreams You've given to me are true so I don't know how you will do this, but I know You will.

The difficult thing is leaving a beautiful place with a small monthly mortgage to move to a duplex in which I rent. The rent is more than our mortgage, LOL!

I know, now, though, after the inspection of our home, I would not have been able to maintain it alone. There were things coming my way, which would've made my stay there very difficult alone. Then with the kids eventually leaving there's no way I would need a home like this. It was way too much for me.

I weigh 119 pounds and have been battling kidney cancer and other health issues. I can't imagine shovelling heavy wet snow by myself or mowing the lawn alone. The taxes had been going up also, making all of this way too much.

Father, You slammed shut the door when Jeff took his life. The memories there became different and bittersweet. I knew I no longer had a choice. I was 100% and still am in Your loving arms. Thank You, Father!

Leaving was so difficult. I had a hard time being there alone. A few times I was certain I heard Zoey barking–of course she wasn't barking.

I had saved seeds and nuts and placed them in the feeders one last time. On Thursday night, November 6th, I loaded up the long SUV with the balance of the cleaning supplies and miscellaneous items. Then I walked back inside. I prayed out loud in my spirit language then I thanked God for such a gift of a home from Him!

Here I am, 62 years old and my name has never been on the deed of a property. So, it was never really mine anyway. I sang and worshipped there one last time in the great room. I had turned every single light on in the house.

Then I locked the door, walked to the car and smiled as the house was so bright with light. Jeff's path that he built was completely illuminated by the ground lights! It was beautiful!!

I got into the car and drove away. When I got up the hill, I pulled over to cry. Once I collected myself, I drove to the hotel. Then I received a text from the real estate agent, reminding me to bring the house key to the signing on Friday–the next morning. Their final property inspection was scheduled for 10 AM.

There was a problem, I had three keys, but one or two, I believe was for our new home in Oregon. So, now, I needed to go back in the morning early to try the keys in the door lock to so I wasn't handing them the wrong keys.

The next morning, I was up very early. I drove there around 7:30 AM. I laughed while driving down Gabriel Lane to see the home still lit up with lights. I pulled into the driveway and there by the feeders were the entire crew with the exception of cardinals. There were bluejays, nut hatches, woodpeckers, junkos, mourning doves, chickadees, finches, a red squirrel and a gray squirrel!!

I walked through each room in the home again just to make sure everything was okay. It was. I closed the door for the final time and I decided to drive down to the lake and come back up our road. When I did, I saw Scout, the main crow, in our driveway. I rolled down the window and he turned to look right at me, which is rare. I said, "I'll miss you Scout," he then flew up into the tree toward the bridge. That was it. He watched me drive away from the tree.

I then drove off to complete an excruciating day of business transactions as well as switching hotels. There had been a big hockey sporting event in town, so most of the hotels had been booked. The only place that had availability was a hotel in the middle of a remodel. So, not only did I get a reasonably priced room, they even upgraded my view so I could see the St. John River from my room. It was a wonderful room and I felt like a princess. A crying old princess, but still!

Thank You, Father! The next few days were very brutal, but I was grateful for everything. The auctioneers held the first auction. The second starts tomorrow and there will likely be a third. They apologized for leaving me so much to handle at the house, but I thanked them for everything and I pray that our things go to good homes.

Father, this hasn't been easy. We have lost so much, but I feel free. I'm grieving, but I am secure and knowing Your hand is over me in all I do. I'm not certain what the future holds for me personally. I have a few friends here from years ago who I've caught up with. I'm grateful to be in a familiar environment. I think it'll be a bit before I will qualify for a home, but I pray the owner at our duplex home allows us to stay as renters for a while.

You said you have prepared a place for us, Father, so I take comfort in Your words and know it will once again be impossibly perfect! A perfect home because everything You do is perfect!!

My dreams have been so interesting lately. Last night's dream was about letting go of things…

Sub-dream 1 "Pool of Junk" begins…

I was moving into a small home with a large pool. My daughter was with me to inspect the property I had just purchased. The home was perfect, except for the pool.

The pool had no water, but was filled with household belongings, preventing it from being swimmable. I looked at it and said to my daughter, "I thought we had left this behind with the auctioneers?" These belongings were things I had gotten rid of years ago.

Daughter: "Yep Mom, that is our stuff."

For a moment I was burdened.

Me: "How did this happen? I don't want it, do you?"

Daughter: "No, I don't want it."

I made a phone call and a massive crane came with a claw handle and brought all of this stuff out and into a dump truck. Whoever placed it in the empty pool destroyed the items so nothing was salvageable–nothing could be saved.

We swept the pool of all the remaining debris and dust, preparing it to be filled with water.

Daughter: "Soon we'll be able to swim in the pool, mom. We will be swimming without all that junk."

It was such a relief.

Sub-dream 1 over…

I then had a nightmare turn into a blessing of a dream.

Sub-dream 2 "Jesus's Hand In The Darkness" begins…

In this dream I had been walking on the path Jeff made. Suddenly the light went black, leaving me in the dark. I was in the lower end of the property. I thought if I could climb the embankment than I should be able to see the house lights.

I climbed, but soon realized there had been a power outage, so there were no lights anywhere. Somehow I veered too far left. I slipped on a boulder covered with leaves and found myself about to fall into the ravine, as the river raged under me. I held onto the rock, trying to figure out how to get out of this mess.

I could feel my hands slipping as the wet leaves provided no grip at all. Just then in the darkness, I heard the voice of Jesus.

Jesus: "Erin, take My hand, I am here."

Me: "But Lord, if I let go, I will fall."

Jesus: "If you don't let go and take My hand which I am offering to you, than you will definitely fall."

I let go quickly and began to slip but instead He caught me and I was in His arms. I cried.

Me: "Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "I'm here, Erin. Say goodbye to the former things. I'm here."

I heard my name being called (in the dream), "Mom!"

(I woke up)

Sub-dream 2 over…

Father, I've been overwhelmed by everything. I need help! It has been too much for me! I've been struggling and scared. I'm sorry.

Jesus: "Erin, I'm here. I'm with you. Remember, I promised you good things all the days of your life. I know you are discouraged. I know you see the hopes and dreams you once believed would go into ruin because of Jeff's journey. Now let me guide you. I will be the architect of your dreams as I have always been.

"I know you've experienced discouraging news about what you thought you might have vs. what actually came. There have been many delays and troubles but all of this was so you could let go of the former things because I am doing a new thing here. Now although you did not have the blessing under Jeff's cover that was promised, you now will have abundant blessing. The dam will break and the water will flow. No longer will you pray and believe for something and not receive the full promise!"

Me: "This had always been the case."

Jesus: "This is because there was only a partial active blessing. Erin, you believe fully in My miracles but your husband did not fully. He went through the motions and said what he ought to say instead of a prayer of divine conviction. He liked date setting as a form of worship, but the rest was noise to him.

"Your house was divided and could no longer stand. Let this be a warning for others whom I have chosen. Those who stand together and agree together in prayer than I will do abundantly more over them in all things.

"Erin, I blessed you and continued. Jeff would pray, but not really believe. He was uncomfortable with Me. He didn't take the hand I offered him many times. This does happen. Remember, you cry out to Me for help and I extend My hand. Then you take My hand. With many who cry out or say nothing but have an urgent need have no belief I will answer them with help. I'm looked at as the 'God who helps certain people or His favorites'. This is untrue. I'm the God who saves you from death, understand? I'm your only help. Your only insurance policy."

Me: "Lord, I'm so sorry."

Jesus: "Erin, what are you sorry for?"

Me: "I have asked for hundreds of prayers for certain situations we've been in. I pray to You and ask for help several times a day. I've been so overwhelmed with all of this, I really haven't had the desire to ask any more. I'm sitting here in dust and ashes and so low in my position, I have nothing more to pray for. You know every one of my needs. You know I've been in a great battle. You know what is required. You have given me strength while I was away.

"I have a little more to complete but You take care of the small things–You have watched over me. The only one who is close to watching each of my coming and going moments but not like You is Scout, the crow who would literally call out when I would leave the house or return, and of course, our dogs. Even my own kids didn't watch for me like that–most of the time it's because of their school or work."

Jesus: "There have been angels watching also. Erin, I am close to the brokenhearted, those who are low in spirit and I also care for the widow. I have compassion. I know and understand. I see all things. Those who dealt with you ruthlessly and took advantage of you, I will deal harshly with. I Am the God of justice and you will be vindicated.

"Now, the enemy has been fighting hard with the children of God to discourage them with a message of no hope. Hope is Me. I am here and your recompense I bring with Me. I don't want you to worry as you settle the former things. You are almost finished."

Me: "Lord, I wasn't enough. Jeff saw all the miracles, but turned. He began to despise me and I'm still having trouble with this."

Jesus: "He had many chances to correct his direction and take the path which leads to Me. He chose a different path. His plans were not God's–I called out to him, but he wouldn't turn to take My hand. Do not blame yourself. It is finished here. Now, one day you will see what was planned against you and your children and you will understand.

"Now, your dream of the pool."

Me: "I don't need a pool."

Jesus: "Years ago I showed you the pool, but things changed–there was a delay–that was the turning point. Changes were only made by one, not by both."

Me: "So we would've been through all of it a long time ago?"

Jesus: "Again, you had a marriage–the two of you were as one. A divided house cannot stand. The pool dream this time was symbolic of letting go of that which is no longer beneficial in your life. That which creates obstacles. You are My Vessel. I have prepared you for service to be filled with living water. You must not look back at the losses with regrets and blame yourself for things not in your control. Once you recognize this, rebuke it at the source and instead prepare your pool to be filled and to swim freely in strength and power.

"Things I'm directing you to address should not be put off as these will be costly if ignored. You are almost complete in your tasks and very soon you will begin a free flowing time of blessings beyond your abilities to understand. You will dance as you did in your youth and will do impossible things. You will no longer live in fear and sorrow. You have come through the fire, Erin, and I have been with you for every step.

"Now, your things when they arrive will not have as much luster. Whatever is no longer needed, remove it. Don't focus on the loss, but instead all you have received, with a heart of gratitude. Worship brings My glory to settle upon you and praise is when My glory moves through you in miracles. Don't forget to praise and worship the God who loves you!"

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for everything!"

Jesus: "All of this is almost over. A great season of change is coming. Rejoice, rejoice, I come riding on a white horse adorned as a King, but ready for battle. I am here, Erin. I am with you."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/thenest/forum/main-forum/hgs8-the-tribulation-current-dreams/590768-dream-927-i-am-the-god-who-answers

927 – "I Am The God Who Answers"

Received on Sunday, November 23, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for Your love and care. I'm grateful to be here. I'm thankful for both the big and the small things. My oldest son came to visit for a few weeks. I haven't seen him in two years and it's like he never left. We have a small place so he is sleeping on a pullout bed in the living room. I slept peacefully last night!

The dream I had was not a peaceful one though.

Sub-dream 1 "The Freight Yard & Spiritual Realm" begins…

I was in a freight yard, but there were no containers for shipping on trucks, nor were there any trucks in sight. The entire area was concrete. Concrete buildings the same color as the ground. Nothing but concrete gray everywhere with not one speck of color or living tree or plant. Not even a weed.

I had gone to the main office there to check on my shipment. There was a complete office staff and the same people I had been dealing with since August.

They were super friendly but fell short of any guarantee of arrival of the truck with our things. They told me to wait for answers and to not worry. (In reality it has been almost 40 days since the first half of our belongings had come).

As I stood there waiting, I could see into the spirit realm. There was an extremely organized system set up. I could see the routing of demons and the prayers over certain areas causing demons to be re-routed. This had nothing to do with waiting on my freight truck–but instead revealed an inner works of evil in which we do not see.

I forget sometimes that the demonic realm must rely on things seen in the here and now. They cannot be several places at once. So their network of evil is complex and highly organized and must rely on orders and instructions from a hierarchy of power–like a regiment army.

I saw in the natural that the trucking and shipping schedules which seemed normal and as I watched these routes, schedules and ETA's I could then see another layer or series of unseen things.

I was told years ago that a certain Indian tribe in eastern Washington proclaimed that there was an unseen spiritual highway which the demonic realm used but that God had confined them to–they could only travel on but not exit to the area below. This made sense because the area was arid and extremely hot. There were sandstorms and high wind. It wasn't desirable.

One tribe in the same valley plain called the land "sick" because illness and disease was common and the nuclear plant, Hanford, was there. Many of the tribes left the area because the land was sick.

In my dream I could see things I never thought were there, but now made sense. At one point I rubbed my eyes and said out loud, "Lord, surely Your angels are here".

Then, as I looked across this massive concrete freight yard, I saw the sky part and above all things was an army of God so vast that I felt secure knowing that God was still over all things.

I turned back and the demonic network seemed so small in comparison to the massive network and army of God above.

I then heard, "Erin, this week".

I found the guy in charge of the delivery and he said, "I have news for you–things are wrapping up this week. All is good, we apologize for the delays."

I then heard from the front office manager, "We have been praying here and it's been out of our hands once things left the country. So, all we had was prayers."

I was still upset.

Me: "Thank you for your prayers. God is in control."

Just then I heard the beeping of a truck backing up to unload.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Father, You have Your reasons for everything in this life. Please watch over us in all things. Every year I say, "this year was the most difficult", but nothing–no year compares to this one. I will be grateful for an end to this time. It's been so painful. It doesn't stop.

I've never left things behind with such boldness to begin a new chapter. Only certain things are coming or came here and all the rest were sold or given away. If my youngest son hadn't insisted on bringing so much, I would've likely started completely fresh with nothing from before except my journals and a few things I love which are personal to me only.

It's my personal items and two boxes of journals still en route as well as a winter tire for my car (three were delivered), a wooden pedestal to our dining table so we can eat, my devotional chair cushions, pillows, a sleep cover, matching ottoman, desk, a box of personal belongings, the painting I finished the day my mom passed away, as well as my other special paintings. The things which make me smile. Not that it takes physical things to brighten my mood, but these things are personal and special. Many are from Nest sparrows also.

I have a few things to complete to finalize Jeff's estate that are leftover from last week, but I'm hoping to finish this tomorrow. Then all will be subject to the courts and the Canadian government. I did what normally takes one to two years all in a little under four months. It was You, Father, lining up everything so all would be complete and that I wouldn't forget anything important!

Thank You, Father, for all You do!

I've been tired lately, but I've had peace knowing You are in control and watch over everything I do! Thank You!

Jesus: "Erin, I'm here! I'm with you! I know this great change has been difficult. Some people are kind and still show their love for you while others have turned away. I have called you for an important assignment and this has never changed.

"Your circumstances have changed and this move was a bold but necessary one. Like your daughter said, when leadership changes there is an adjustment period, then God makes the rough road smooth.

"Erin, I depose leaders and I raise others up!"

So often when God uses a term, I look up the meaning.

"Depose" – to remove from office suddenly and forcefully.

Jeff, my husband, was removed suddenly.

There is a consequence for not staying on God's course.

Me: "The trouble I have is constantly wishing I had stepped in more. I will say, Lord, I'm no longer ill like I was. I had troubles with breathing and I was in great pain. Now this is removed. I'm not a spring chicken, but I look healthier, stronger, and color has returned to my skin. Thank You, Lord."

Jesus: "You were under the covering of someone not in his right mind. He said one thing with his lips and another by his actions. He then became worse. You were dealing with something hidden and quite dangerous. I sent many signs. I sent warnings in the form of dreams directly to him–yet he did not turn back.

"I know you are grieving. I know this is difficult, but I am God! You are Mine! I am with you, Erin, and anyone who comes against you to harm you or take your life must go through Me first and My angel army.

"I know how this is still so soon for you and the shock you feel is still fresh, but you will see Me in all things! Greater will be your dreams and visions, your miracles, signs, and wonders because there are no longer any barriers preventing your blessings from Me. A day of great change is coming and I promise you good things all the days of your life! Rejoice, Erin.

"Finish your tasks and I will help you with these the next few days. Then your things will arrive and another chapter will close! I'm here and I've never left you."

Me: "I've made so many costly mistakes, Lord."

Jesus: "Do not worry, these will turn into blessings. I promise you! I'm here, Erin. I'm with you. Remember this–call upon Me in your hours of need. I am the God who answers. I love you."

Me: "I love You too, Lord!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/nestdream-914/

928 – A New Thing

Received on Sunday, November 30, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for my family and friends! I am so blessed to have love when I feel at times so alone. When I have quiet moments, I hear You say, "I am here, I am with you", and I'm comforted.

The balance of our things arrived the day before Thanksgiving. They had been in a truck for 42 days and upon delivery we discovered there had been a leak in the roof of the truck. There were damp packing blankets on all the furniture pieces. Because of this, mold permeated the wood grain, destroying several pieces.

My devotional chair which was fabric is covered in mold. So many things were/are destroyed. Many of these were gifts to me from Jeff over the years so this is heartbreaking. I don't know how long the claim process will be or if any of this is salvageable, but clearly, Father, You wanted me to have a fresh start.

You reminded me with the move to "count the cost", which doesn't always mean financial–the stress was costly to me. You told me when our things would arrive they will have lost their luster.

This is true for me right now. I want none of this. Mold is so horrible to me.

It was a heartbreaking day and because I was so sad and exhausted we went out to eat at a local grill for Thanksgiving dinner.

You told me, Father, and gave me a dream in advance of the demonic activity surrounding this cross-country shipping and now it makes sense. The good news is I had insurance–the bad news is I pray they adhere to ethical practices and do what is right concerning us!

This was a massive spiritual attack against me personally. I took very little of the former things because almost everything had good memories as well as bad. Father, You comfort me and care for me, so if there are things with unclean spirits attached to them or related to sins–then I want nothing to do with these. I must. I have no choice but to let go.

This is truly now, a fresh start.

Please help this process finish quickly and place on my heart anything which needs to be removed or that which came into contact with something else. We have separated everything we know has mold for the inspectors to assess. The moving company is one of the largest and they have been so kind to me in the midst of first the delays and now the damages.

In hindsight, if we had only moved a small trailer ourselves and taken only that which was important, then we would've been completely fine. The journals were in the first shipment, along with my letters, bibles (except for my primary bible that stays with me), and keepsakes.

Interestingly enough, there was one box #67 from the first shipment which contained items Jeff had purchased for me for birthdays or Christmases. Almost every item in this box was broken. No other box from the first shipment was broken like this except this one. Every piece of furniture Jeff got me–damaged. Important papers had to be transferred to fresh boxes because "the spines broke", they called it. I had already given almost all of Jeff's things to his kids and only kept one or two items of his personal belongings. All else remained in Canada.

I know I'm in the middle of warfare with all of this, Father. If You would have said to leave everything behind, I would have.

Please forgive me for failing to let go completely. I still haven't made peace with the events which unfolded this year. We did not receive what we had hoped overall–but maybe all of this was allowed so I could purchase new pieces not tied at all to the former things? Maybe this was a divine blessing!

Whatever it is, Father, You will make everything perfect and beautiful in its' time. I need not worry because I know You are in control. I surrender all things to You, Father, for Your glory.

You also assured me that I would return here to Bend from a position of strength. I'm not sure I am very strong but the kids have told me I seem different in a good way–so, I will cling to this. I say very little these days. I have very little to say. I'm grateful for everything we do have, all of this is a blessing. I'm grateful for the prayers of friends.

Father, if it be Your will, would You just remove the mold? If not, contain it so we can remove the pieces quickly–I want no trace of mold near me at all, nor anything unclean like this. Things like this are signs based in sin or related to it.

My dream from last night seems related to clean vs unclean.

Sub-dream 1 "God Clears the Moldy Waters" begins…

There was a big event–hundreds of people were in attendance to get baptized on the banks of the river.

The river normally flows rapidly with fresh, clear water but the river had become stagnant with green mold and algae had formed creating an odor in the heat. No one wanted to go into the stagnant mirky water.

The group of us leading the baptisms prayed to God. We heard God's voice tell us to wade into the water and to even dip our heads beneath the surface.

So, we held hands and stepped into the moldy water. As we did, suddenly the water cleared and the water had a current again. We cheered and praised God! Then hundreds of people dove into the water to be baptized!

Sub-dream 1 over.

I woke up with such joy! Thank You, Father! I had felt prior to this that I was out of favor with You.

Jesus: "Erin, I am here! I am with you! Now with this dream, I show that My favor is still upon you. I moved you out here, this is so you have a new start. Remember what I have told you, forget the former things, do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing!"

Isaiah 43:18-19

"Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old.

Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert."

Jesus: "I know it is painful leaving behind what you've come to know. When someone close to you passes from your life, you believe removing the items that person enjoyed or purchased is a form of betrayal or forgetting their value. But, Erin, these are just things. Do you really want to remember Jeff in this way? Is he remembered by a chair?"

Me: "Of course not, Lord, it's just, I'm not understanding."

Jesus: "Erin, it's not about the items, it's about what Jeff was doing at the time. There is a specific reason to let go and then be at peace. Can you do this?"

Me: "Yes, of course."

Jesus: "Remember that mold spreads quickly when the conditions are right and if left undetected it causes great harm. The same is true of sin–it can start with a small act of sin, then quickly get out of hand and permeate everything it touches to make anything which comes into contact with it also unclean.

"Mold, like sin, can go deep into the very grain of the wood, or sin–into the very foundation. It makes all things unclean–therefore it must be removed and your home purified."

Me: "Please help me, Lord, my battles never stop. It's becoming–"

Jesus: "Yes, I know what you've endured, but understand this–whatever trouble you experience, is there not a greater reward at the end for you? What if this is a much greater blessing? Can you trust me to do what is good for you in all things even when they don't make sense to you?

"I love you, Erin. I know you are grieving and your wounds are deep. Just remember that your recompense, I bring to you. I deliver your just reward. Now have you been hungry or are you sleeping with no shelter?"

Me: "No, Lord, I am full and I have a comfortable bed in which to sleep. I'm not suffering. I'm in fear of becoming out of Your favor and missing out on Your blessings."

Jesus: "I delight in you, Erin. You have never forgotten Me–you keep Me before you in all you do. You trust me to deliver you. You sing praises to Me and you are thankful! You are troubled though and your heart at times is heavy."

Me: "I'm so afraid of messing everything up, Lord. The people here are not the same ones I experienced when I lived here 17 years ago. The church we loved so much now caters to a lukewarm crowd. There is no conviction in the sermon messages–more humor. There is no call to be saved. The worship is more focused on the lead singer's vocal performance rather than connecting with You."

Jesus: "I gave you another dream, do you remember?"

Me: "Yes, some event had happened and people were scared–You had me go door-to-door and pray for people."

Jesus: "Many of these will be caught unaware because truth was withheld from them. They seek a feel-good message from a motivational speaker, not a Savior to convict them of their sins and set them free. They enjoy the offerings of this world and the area you live in."

Me: "It's so sad, Lord. Help me to be a voice for Your kingdom when the time is right. If anyone knew how great You are… Well, they would all chase You."

Jesus: "This is why I tell you to pray–your prayers avail much. Just because you don't always see the results of your prayers, I hear them and through prayer, angels are activated from the throne."

Me: "Lord, I just experienced something I don't fully understand. I had a vision of a date–spring, summer here. Suddenly, peace fell upon me and I cried because I knew summer was near. There was something happening I didn't understand. A feeling deep in my chest and the weather was beautiful. The end of something and the beginning of something else."

Jesus: "Rejoice, Erin. I have given you a vision for the coming spring. I'm here. I have never left you. I am with you in all you do. I have placed you here because you have a testimony which others need to hear."

Me: "Lord, are the dreams stopping?"

Jesus: "No–did you want them to stop?"

Me: "No, not at all! Please never stop, Lord!"

Jesus: "I'm glad we cleared this up. Now, you have come through a shaking in your walk. You still are wrestling with Me on the nature of the events which have occurred. I removed you to a safe place, Erin. I know it's difficult to understand right now, but I'm here with you. Your blessing and breakthrough is here. You have begun to change for the better."

Me: "Transform?"

Jesus: "A different transformation than what is coming, but yes, you have been changed and your heart will heal. I am here. Rejoice and remember it is I who own all you see. You are loved by Me…"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-929/

929 – A House Built On Rock

Received on Sunday, December 7, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for Your love and affection. You are such a good Father! You watch over us and make a way for us when things seem dismal!

This last week has been another brutal one. I must drive up to Canada next week to unlock one of Jeff's accounts in person and provide physical documentation that I am who I say I am, even though I've been working with people who have met me and know me, they are unable to unlock it because I am in the United States. My daughter is making the trip with me so we are praying the weather doesn't turn. I have two more bills to pay, so I am doing all that I can to honor this and close everything up by year end.

On Friday, the furniture claims representative came to our home and brought a specialist in mold. It was heartbreaking as almost everything either Jeff used or had purchased for me was completely destroyed. They warned me not to disturb the pieces in any way as they will all need to be removed by professionals and any cleaning will make the mold spread. They are coming back tomorrow to finish their report and let me know when a crew can come out to dispose of our things.

The furniture inspector was very concerned about my immune system because of my cancer. He told me that he could try to refinish certain pieces, but couldn't guarantee under these conditions that the mold wouldn't come back. He told me that this was a high dollar claim and because the company is 100% at fault, I should end up with enough to purchase new things and the old will be missed only for a moment.

I didn't say much, I was just relieved that they saw what all of us did and were going to help us. So, in addition to driving up to Canada on an eight hour journey there and then back, I pray all will go well and quickly.

My oldest son and daughter reminded me that the enemy held our things hostage since September 30th and they worked hard to destroy me.

When I was a child in Albany, California, I had a tiny room in the back corner of our home. I remember mold being along the back of the room where my bed was. I didn't like it so I shoved my bed into the corner against the mold, thinking that concealing it would make it go away–but it didn't.

I was only 11 or 12 years old, I knew nothing about how harmful it was to have mold so I just ignored it. Looking back on that tiny home, I can't believe how cursed everything was. Without having an understanding of what was happening, we were ignorant and had no defence against unseen issues, I'm just relieved You had grace for us even then.

Now I need Your help removing all things which could make us sick and I pray this didn't spread. When all this began to unfold, I truly knew there was nothing I could do to change these circumstances only to surrender myself to Your voice and Your will in all of this. If You want these things removed, then let this be! I am at peace. It is not worth clinging to a cursed item.

You would've told me if I was not to move any of this to the west. So, I know You will will have a perfect blessing in all of this and You will give us better items to replace the damaged ones. So, Father, thank You that You are God over all things and to all things let Your Glory be displayed. Let my test be an even greater testimony of Your goodness!

I've had several dreams about sweeping the floors with a grass broom. One dream was outside–around the house–and the other was inside. It's odd because this isn't a regular chore for me. I mostly vacuum. All I was doing in each dream was sweeping.

In another dream, I was gathering up clothing and clutter and placing them in boxes, taping them shut and sending them away. This was odd because I normally would donate items not send them off in the mail. In the dream, I recognized very little of what I was boxing up.

There were other dreams similar to these, so I feel You are preparing me for further removal.

My oldest son also had a dream a few nights ago that Jeff was in our current home. He had come upstairs wearing a suit. He waved and sat down next to him, but said nothing. I have had absolutely no dreams about Jeff or with him in my dreams at all since his death. It's been odd but again, I know God you are working in all of this.

I'm so glad to be here. The weather is supposed to be difficult for our drive to Canada so I pray we are okay! There is flooding in the rivers in Oregon around Portland, as well as Seattle and all the way to Vancouver, BC. This is expected to continue all week. After this week, the snow comes… So, it seems this coming week would be the safest option for travel.

Father, so many of Your sparrows have urgent needs right now. Please open the floodgates of blessings over them all so all of us experience the miracles You love to bestow upon all who love You! I also ask for perfect peace for those who struggle with anxious thoughts, and like me, worry.

When I worry, it seems that I take on the various issues myself. Finally, after I realize there are too many things out of my control, then I give up and hand all of this to You. This personal worry self-affliction process is so useless.

After releasing my worries to YouI finally feel free, because I know that I am a formidable foe of the enemy, so I am subject to attack after attack. When You reveal to me that the battles are Yours, even if I am the main recipient of the attacks, the battle is still Yours, and You do all things to work together for our good! Why worry about things I can't control?

Things in this life come and go. As You have told me things will have lost their luster for me and they definitely have. You give and take away, Father. Forgive me if I had forgotten this.

Jesus: "Erin I am here! I am with you. Your heart has been troubled and your body shaken by all that has occurred. I know you worry about many things, because what you had become secure in knowing about your husband instead was not at all what you had hoped and dreamed. This made you question your place. But, Erin I never left you.

"I have ministered to you. I have come to you in your waking hours as well as in your dreams. I'm with you in your times of solitude as well as when you go about your day. I am right beside you. You have had disappointing news once again as the enemy longs to dash your hopes, but he cannot. I am the God who gives and takes away! My favor is still with you, Erin and I will never leave you. You have been crushed in spirit and at times afraid, but turn to Me. I am here."

Me: "Thank You, Lord. It has been crushing to endure all the troubles this year. Sometimes when looking back I try to see what signs I missed and what I could've done better. I'm not certain I could've done anything. I feel so much at times like I failed Jeff."

Jesus: "Jeff failed Jeff, Erin. You were his caregiver and friend. Jeff left you long ago but kept up appearances. Did it ever occur to you that it was I who allowed the damages to the things which had memories the enemy could wield against you like a sword? Do you not think the God of all creation could've delivered your things free from mold or damage?"

Me: "Of course, Lord."

Jesus: "Then understand it was I who removed all of this in a way which you could not keep them. It was the only way, but I promise you this is a good way. Think about how quickly all of you are reminded about both the good followed by the bad and how this makes you feel. It keeps you downcast. Therefore, these things don't bring you joy instead they bring pain. This is not beneficial. These things have lost their luster."

Me: "Lord, they sat in a pool of water for days, 42 days to be exact."

Jesus: "That is one way to describe it. But Erin, I did not warn you to take nothing. I told you to count the cost. I allowed this so you would understand that I was in this. Only the items which would continue to trouble you were damaged beyond repair and must be removed permanently."

Me: "Lord, this has been humbling, but I know You have allowed this because You are right. I do have memories around all these things. It wouldn't be a fresh start as it stands now."

Jesus: "So, I want you to understand something, although you question these events, you have never doubted Me. You continue to love Me and praise Me. So, this is for you. You are a wise widow and young in My eyes.

"You have built your house on the rock. The rains came down on your home up north, the rivers rose, the winds blew and battered your house. Yet it did not fall, because your foundation was on the rock. You put My Words into practice. Jeff did not see it. He built his house on sand, Erin, and his house fell with a great crash despite My warnings."

Me: "But Lord, we were married and our home was literally built on rock. Why didn't it stand?"

Jesus: "I stepped in because I am the Capstone. I separated that which was not beneficial for My glory. One day you will understand. I believe you know in your heart why this had to be."

Me: "It is hard to have quiet moments right now. It broke my heart, Lord. Thank You for saving us! Thank you! I am so grateful but I also mourn."

Jesus: "Yes, I know. I am here. I delight in you. Do not worry Erin, you took a stand. You spoke out and prayed for Jeff and My favor was with you. Your husband created his own path, his own way, and he did not see Me standing there until I became his obstacle. I was no longer his friend, and therefore, you were the target because he heard from different voices than the God who was there to save him. He believed I was no longer beneficial to his journey.

"The road which leads to Me is a difficult one. Those who have greater callings from Heaven have an even more narrow, treacherous way. This is by design–by the hand of God. So, those who are called for greater purposes under Heaven, lack no good thing; they are fully equipped, able to endure difficulties and treacherous inclines because they cling to the promised Word of God, and pursue the One who first loved them no matter the personal cost. You have endured great personal cost!"

Me: "I've counted the cost and I will continue, Lord. I am thin and weak physically. There are days I am too exhausted to continue, so I rest. You have never left us hungry, Father, You have always provided for every one of our needs. Thank You, Lord! I will continue to pursue You all the days of my life and still hope for the great day of transformation where we will be strengthened and able to do so much more because You are working through us!"

Jesus: "I am here. I have promised you good things; a safe home, strong faith, and a new home I have built for you! I have built a house for you, Erin. The enemy will not rob you of what God has planned. Do not worry! So, when the workers come to remove the former things, do not mourn this. Instead, be grateful that I remove that which would hurt you over time. I did not give you an option. It must be removed! This Is because I know what the enemy had planned against you and I am here with you! Rejoice and be glad!"

Me: "Thank You, Lord, for everything! I love You!!"

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-930/

930 – Swans In The Mud

Received on Sunday, December 14, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day here! Thank You for all You do! Thank You for my children, my family, and my family of friends. Thank You for delivering us through these storms of troubles we have been in!

My oldest son left today for Washington State. My lease won't allow for 4 adults to live permanently here at our home so he had to return. Right now as I write, all three of my biological children are having lunch with their dad here in Bend. So, please let this turn out to be amicable. They are adults now so I trust in Your plans, Father.

This last week was a very difficult one. My daughter and I had to drive up to Surrey and Vancouver, BC, Canada, to meet with the bank and unlock our Canadian account physically there in-person. Things went well but I realize it is time to finish my business there as the drive was very difficult.

With the storm coinciding with our trip, it was scary. We had to drive separate vehicles because my daughter had some issues with her car that could only be dealt with in Canada. We encountered so many difficulties for this being only a 2-day drive, but based on the time of year it was a small window that we had no choice but to take and make this trip.

Unfortunately I have to make the trip again in the spring–but it is better than flying back out East to New Brunswick.

You sent me unusual signs when we were on our drive. The first sign was three bald eagles sitting on the branches of a barren tree, right beside the highway from Surrey, BC, to Vancouver, BC. Then, just five minutes after this, I saw something which caused me to rub my eyes. It had been misty on the drive, traffic was heavy, so I knew what I was seeing.

To my right was a muddy field with rows of mud in lines. There, in the mud, feeding off of whatever was present there were twelve trumpeter swans–or tundra swans, I couldn't tell. But after the sign of the three eagles,

I definitely took note. The beautiful sight of the swans confused me–here were these white graceful birds with mud all over them.

Both my daughter and I were ready to leave the big city and get back home. After having our car stolen in December 2023, I was extremely nervous about a repeat. After the year of battles we've had, nothing surprises me, Father.

The thing is, You create something beautiful from the ashes of our lives. With every tragedy, You bring blessings. With every major loss, You bring greater gains.

Tomorrow, the restoration company comes to remove our furniture which had been exposed to mold. Samples had been taken and a team of experts hired by the moving company had been sent in to asses the damages. The results have been depressing and things that had been next to these items will also be removed.

I have no idea when or how much they will cover because I was only insured for a certain amount, but clearly, Father, Your hand is in this and You will take care of everything. I will trust in You as this portion has been heartbreaking for me. It was one thing to deal with the events surrounding Jeff's death, the shock and deep sorrow, but then, the aftermath of this… Almost 6 months of utter hell on earth. I've never encountered so many battles, so many disappointments, so much loss, as You warned me in the beginning of this year that everything I thought I could be certain of was about to change.

I'm thankful to You, Father, that my children are here and that You spared our lives! I'm grateful for this shaking because I've seen You protect and carry us safely through deep and turbulent waters to a peaceful shore. You have been kind to me, Father. When I begin to look back at the events and pause to reflect on that which I should've seen or ways I could've been, You stop me immediately and bring my attention to Your promises and Your Words of Truth. You change my focus.

I kept that which I didn't want to replace or things I enjoyed – but most of that is even now gone or about to be removed. The auctioneer in New Brunswick still has at least three more auctions coming up with our household items from our old home in Canada. He is holding these until the spring, so this is good. To me, these items are already gone so I'll be glad to finalize this chapter.

After I left New Brunswick on November 11th, the snow came and dumped nearly two feet. I am so thankful to not have to shovel snow by myself. I miss the home You built for us, Father. It felt too wonderful for us–especially for me, but You knew in advance what I would need and You provided to the very minute detail. At first I questioned things, then as the days unfolded I never stopped thanking You for the very things I struggled with initially.

So, in all my troubles as a trumpeter swan bathing in mud–I still know You see me as special and You care for my every need. Father, You are a blessing to love us even in our messes! Create Your message of hope through our mess!

Last night I had a dream.

Sub-dream 1 "A Famous Football Player's Design Project" begins…

I had been hired as an interior designer for a famous football player. My task was to re-design his basement into a game room and personal space for him and his teammates. I didn't work with him personally–he had a handler.

As I got into the project, I realized it was a problem. The basement floor had major structural issues which needed to be addressed prior to the actual remodel. There was rotting wood and odd things which were decaying and needed to be removed. I kept sounding the alarm and the handler relayed the messages to the football player.

Then, one day, I showed up to the home and they had hired a new, younger, more inexperienced interior designer–sent to ignore the structural issues and instead focus on the finishes. She had horrible ideas that involved not fixing the core issues and instead glossing over them with fresh paint.

She became tearful and overwhelmed when despite her efforts, even she couldn't cover up the root problems. But they listened to her as I relayed important information she needed. Then I walked away from the prestigious project.

I got into my car and began to drive. It was winter and there was a mountain range in front of me that was covered in snow. It was beautiful! I then received a phone call from the football player while driving away from his housing development asking me to please come back and work on his home. He offered me double and agreed to let me work on the structural issues first, then the finish.

I agreed and asked that he allow the young designer to work with me. He agreed, so I turned the car around. When I did, I realized the snow-capped mountains were all around us and appeared pink as the sun was setting. I didn't recognize where I was.

Sub-dream 1 over.

In another dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Pheasant, the Prairie Dog & the Pine Marten" begins…

I had a yard with a fallen tree stump. It appeared to be summertime. I had just recently moved in and noticed an odd trio of animals living in the stump–one was a brown pheasant who blended into the stump and was barely noticeable, another was a small, lavender colored pine marten with a white face almost like a cartoon, and the other was a small groundhog or prairie dog.

When I would pause to look at them, the prairie dog would whistle and cry to draw my attention away from the stump. When he did this, then the pine marten would dance off to the side and the pheasant would bury its head in one of the holes of the stump. They were all fighting to protect something but I didn't disturb them.

Sub-dream 2 over…

What a specific and detailed dream–but unusual.

My oldest son had two dreams recently that stood out.

In one dream, my biological kids and I were in a small boat in a large river. Our dogs were with us when suddenly the boat began to take on water. The boat sank quickly, but we were supernaturally delivered to shore and our clothes were dry! Nothing was lost except for the boat.

In the second dream, he was at an animal preserver or a zoo. There was a snake handler holding a diamond back rattle snake. The crowd was terrified of this snake, but the had no rattler nor did it have fangs. He said, "The snake is harmless", and he picked it up.

Father, You are the granter of dreams–please bless us with more and increase our understanding!

Jesus: "I'm here, Erin, I'm with you! Remember My promises for you. Friends I sent to you revived these promises to you to remind you I am with you and will never leave you. I remove that which is no longer beneficial and bring to you that which brings life. I know this is difficult as changes are hard, but I promise you good things all the days of your life, Erin!"

Me: "I've been tired, Lord. I'm weakened and in need of a doctor here. Please heal and strengthen me, Lord. My heart has been grieving and I'm not doing well."

Jesus: "You are like a desert flower in need of water. Desert flowers endure extreme conditions and even periods of little or no water but Erin, it's time for you to bloom now."

Me: "Lord, I feel myself withering away. I'm skin and bones now and I'm not hungry."

Jesus: "Rest when I call you to rest. Eat when I call you to eat, and drink when I call you to drink. Erin, you are tired, hungry and thirsty. I'm here. I will dine with you and fill your cup."

Me: "Lord, I'm now alone with my thoughts and I feel empty when the waves of sorrow come. I have no interest in so many things which I once did. Help me to remain childlike in my heart. Please keep me."

Jesus: "Then search for Me and My thoughts–My Word is a lamp to your feet and a light to your path. My bride is like a beautiful swan in the mud of this world. You cannot avoid the mud, Erin, but even the feathers of the white swan are not stained by the mud. These feathers are designed to remain white, understand?

"You are Mine. This world is muddy, it's dirty, it's foggy and it's not Heaven, but remember, in this life you will have troubles, but take heart, I have overcome this all! Erin, I am the Light of the World. Whoever follows Me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life! A white trumpeter swan in the mud still lights up the darkness.

"The key to all of this, Erin, is to remain in Me, no matter the dark circumstances. People are attracted to you because My Light shines through you and to the enemy you are to be feared because he knows I am with you. Be not afraid, you will not suffer shame. The flame in you is Mine and will never go out, understand?"

Me: "Yes, Lord. I love You."

Jesus: "I love you. Oh yes, your tasks are almost complete, do not be afraid to continue to face them though you are tired. I will strengthen you and grant you the great wisdom you have prepared for. I am with you in all things. Do not worry! I will not leave you!"

Dream over...

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-931/

931 – The Wheat Field & The Wind

Received on Friday, December 19, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! I'm still here to live and breathe and I'm thankful. I'm grateful for the safe place You have brought us to. It's beautiful here–the snow-capped cascade mountain range is so majestic and praiseworthy. Praise You, Father, for this incredible sight.

I'm back to having more dreams and so very grateful for deep sleep again!

I had an interesting dream night before last…

Sub-dream 1 "The Avalanche" begins…

I was driving alone in my car in what seemed like a mountainous area of British Columbia or Alberta, Canada, I'm not sure. It was a beautiful sunny day with bright blue skies. The road had been winding and it was a narrow 2-lane highway. My daughter was following close behind me in her car and we lost cell service.

There was some sort of flash in time or something I can't describe, but in front of me suddenly on the same highway there were police officers or RCMP directing traffic around a huge snow drift in the road.

To my left were two white bears–they looked like brown bears, only white. One had a bloody underbelly–they were not polar bears. They seemed disoriented and struggling to stand on their four legs. Then, to my right was a massive brown bear staggering as it walked and appeared as if it were drunk.

As I drove around the white mound of snow, in the middle of the road there was what looked like a mound of light brown long grass with mud. As I began to navigate around this, it began to move. It was a some sort of long haired bear I had never seen before. It was half dead.

The officers were directing cars to a type of Amtrack station near the road. I couldn't tell if it was a border crossing or train station. An officer motioned for me to roll down my window.

Officer: "There was an avalanche so we are asking for those of you who made it through to come inside the station to warm up a bit and register your name as a survivor."

Me: "My daughter is somewhere behind me in her car."

Officer: "Ma'am we will look for her–go inside and pray she made it through."

I rolled up my window, parked my car and went inside. There were several people there. There were rows of wood benches which looked like church pews or train station benches. People were praying.

Just then, my daughter walked in. I was so glad to see her, I jumped up to hug her.

The officers remarked that this was a miracle.

Sub-dream 1 over…

Last night's dream…

Sub-dream 2 "The Wheat Field & The Wind" begins…

I was standing in a wheat field or at least observing a wheat field from that position. There were mountains surrounding the field. The sky was bright blue and the wheat stood strong in the field.

Then I saw a figure in the distance. It was Jesus praying over the wheat. He then lifted His arms to His side, outstretched over the wheat field. The wheat shifted back and forth and appeared to remain strong.

Then the breeze became a steady wind and the wheat began to bend slightly in one direction. Then came a stronger wind, and dust rose from the soil. Much of the wheat became broken from the stem and even some heads of wheat had broken off.

Then an even greater wind came. Wave after wave of winds swept through this once peaceful wheat field. The dust was flying and I couldn't see the wheat in the wind storm. Then suddenly I saw the Lord drop His arms down to His side. The wind storm blew over, but the devastation was remarkable. It was difficult to understand what I had seen.

I cried out–

Me: "Lord, why did You bring such damage to Your wheat field? All I see are broken stems and dirt."

Jesus: "The wheat lodges with Me."

Me: "What does this mean, Lord?"

Jesus: "Do you not understand what you see?"

Me: "No, Lord."

Jesus: "You see devastation because you have seen the hands of God bring the wind. This was a testing for the resilience of the wheat. This is good. Look."

Just then I saw some wheat begin to straighten up. Thousands of them. But still many were gone.

Jesus: "Usually the youngest wheat is the strongest. The taller and more mature wheat is the easiest to break off at the head when storms come. In this field I tested both the growth of the mature wheat and young wheat. It did not matter the age as some remained resilient despite the storms and battering, and some did not."

Me: "So, You are testing us still, Lord?"

Jesus: "Erin, it takes the glory of God to conceal a matter and the honor of kings to search it out. Look at this wheat and understand."

I looked across this vast field and the heads of wheat which remained appeared like cut gold, crystal or metallic in the glory of the Lord's light.

Me: "This is beautiful, Lord."

Jesus: "Changes are coming… I have prepared you. I have kept you through the storms. I have preserved your life. Though your burdens have been great, I have taken these. My shoulders are strong and My burden, light. I have sustained you and have not let you fall. The sorrow of your heart is great as you survey the aftermath of your loss–but do not stay in this state. I will make things brand new. Do you not see it, Erin?

"You are Mine. I will never leave you. The former things have passed away, so behold, I make all things new! Now it springs forth! Now is the time and season to embrace these changes and have peace with where I have brought you! Be strong in Me and take courage! I am with you!"

I then saw a flash of light. The wheat which remained strong and shimmering towered above the new wheat as it sprung up in the field. The new wheat was green and through this storm the wheat field of the Lord expanded and became strong!

Sub-dream 2 over…

I woke up to a noise on my phone but knew I had to write this immediately!

Thank You, Father for dreams and visions–these are a blessing and so many of Your saints are in storms. It is good to know You are with us!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. Remember that I am here through these difficult storms. Though you are exhausted and weak, I promise you change and healing is coming.

"I love you and I am here. Continue to pray. Rest when I call you to rest. Rise when I call you to rise. Walk when I call you to walk. Understand? Listen for My still small voice."

Me: "I will, Lord. Sometimes You whisper and sometimes You speak loudly."

Jesus: "This is so you hear Me through all things–listen and hear. I am here, Erin. Be of great courage. Be not afraid. I will carry you."

Dream over.

https://sparrowcloud9.com/heaven-dreams-interpretations/the-tribulation/excerpt-from-dreams-questions-answered/full-dreams/dream-932/

932 – Sing A New Song

Received on Thursday, December 25, 2025

Communion

Dear Father,

Thank You for another day! Thank You for all You do everyday! There are so many ways in which You show Yourself to be the God who loves us. I'm grateful. I have had so many things to occupy my time, that I have barely paused to reflect upon Your glorious grace.

Years ago I began to collect a yearly crystal snowflake ornament. I did this for 15 years starting in 1993 and then stopped when money became an issue. The crystal snowflakes were a splurge to myself which I then needed to set aside for lego sets or other toys. I packed the snowflakes away.

I tried to pull them out over the years and contemplated adding new ones to my collection, but for some reason I never did until this year. These were so beautiful and delicate that I feared I'd break some–which happened when I pulled them out in November 2015. The little crystal tree had knocked over. Then I just packed everything away. They reflected indulgence and were simply too wonderful for me.

Before Thanksgiving of this year, I had visited a local discount store where I had noticed a small box with a crystal snowflake in it. I asked the clerk if I could take a look at it. She handed it to me. "It's our last one, but it's from 2024–not the new one from 2025." I smiled, saying, "It doesn't matter". The price was shockingly low. I asked her if it was a fake, but she confirmed it was the real thing. I purchased it still not knowing if I would bring out my crystal snowflakes this year.

After this, I drove to Lowe's to look for Christmas tree toppers. They were clearing out their Christmas tree collection since it was so close to Thanksgiving. I then saw this 6-foot tall strange black metal Christmas tree. I asked the clerk in a joking manner if it had been leftover from Halloween.

Clerk: "No ma'am, this is one of our most popular Christmas trees."

Me: "It's metal and dark…Does it play music?"

Clerk: "Wait until you see the light it gives."

He began to plug in the tree nearby.

Clerk: "I promise you this light is worth the wait!"

Well, now I had to see this–but I was skeptical. Then, suddenly, the tree illuminated and I was speechless. I expected horrible LED lights, but instead it looked like thousands of lights–it was stunning. I stood in shock. A customer approached the clerk.

Customer: "Can I purchase this tree?"

The clerk turned to me.

Clerk: "I think this customer is going to purchase this one and it's our last."

The woman was very upset as if she should've had first dibs.

Me: "How much?"

Clerk: "For you, $100."

Me: "Sold."

There were no leaves on the tree, just stick branches. I've been looking for these trees since, and I can't find any–this seems like a "You" thing, Father!

I brought it home and since we had a Christmas tree already in our living room, I set it up in my bedroom. A few weeks ago I hung the crystal snowflakes on these black branches. It's not much when the lights are off, but when they're turned on I can't believe how beautiful the sight is on this side of Heaven.

This morning as I laid in bed, the sun shone through these snowflakes–17 in total–and they cast hundreds of rainbows all over the room.

God, You reminded me how You can take something unassuming and create glorious light through it. You can use anything, really. It's time to pull out my snowflakes moving forward!

As I watched this beautiful dance of rainbows on my walls and ceiling, I played my favorite Christmas song, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" by Casting Crowns.

As tears streamed down my cheeks, I heard You say, "Erin, it's time for song again."

I responded, "Lord, is this You?"

He repeated this again, “It’s time for worship again!”

I had been in silence mostly because the Lord had called me to be still and rest. This year has been filled with gut-wrenching losses–my precious dog Zoey, my husband’s sudden death, the loss of our Canadian home, our belongings in the move, my cancer and our financial hardships. It’s been a year of defeat.

But in all of this has been Your hand of love, grace, and mercy, Father. You have cared for us and kept us close. I’m grateful.

It seems as if the birds we had up in New Brunswick followed us here–they look the same. But, I have some quail feed too, so this has been fun!

I’m not sure what is coming or when, but I know I can look forward to what You will do next. Thank You, Father, for sending my best Friend, Jesus, into this dark world. Everything You do is intentional and perfect, even when we don’t see it. You are perfect!

Last night I had an incredible dream…

Sub-dream 1 “Jesus In The Snow” begins…

I was walking on a path through the snow. I could hear a choir singing in the distance. As I walked toward the singing, the snow was falling.

Then I saw a doe appear on the path in front of me. She stopped to stare at me, then turned forward and began to lead the way for me. I wasn’t cold so this seemed supernatural.

I looked ahead and could only see what looked like dense fog or white-out conditions. Then I saw a robed figure with a hood wave me forward. The deer ran to the figure. It was the Lord.

Quickly my walk turned into a run toward the Lord! The deer lay down at His feet in the snow. The Lord stretched out His arms to receive me. I ran into His arms and embraced Him and wept.

Jesus: “I’m here, Erin. Isn’t it beautiful here? Here I am. You are with Me.”

Sub-dream 1 over…

I woke up suddenly. One of my dogs became startled and I could hear them from the other room.

It is Christmas and the greatest gift of all is Jesus! There has never been a greater gift than our Lord and His Gift of salvation.

I can't begin to understand everything and why certain events had to unfold, but I can say this–He loves us and He has His reasons. I take comfort in God's plan even when I don't always see it or understand it! We are broken and on the mend here and we are safe in the arms of Jesus. We are in a perfect spot!

Jesus: "Erin, I am here. I am with you. Removing the former things–your ways and understanding in light of a new way is difficult. I know this has left you with questions, but I will reveal more as you continue to step forward in faith. The locusts have swarmed your house all these years, but the good news is My hand of restoration, joy, and glad tidings is here.

"God's servant, Job, lost everything but he didn't waiver in his faith despite great opposition from those closest to him. What had there been to gain if he had given up? Didn't God restore double what he had once had?

"I have brought you back to the land of your heart and here I plan to increase all that you lost back to you. Do not allow those with no understanding dictate what you should be doing. I will direct you on your path with signs and wonders. I remove that which is unclean or burdensome and send great breakthrough. Since I have called you, then won't I also provide for your every need?

"Many are saying, 'Why would God allow this? Why would God allow any suffering amongst His chosen, His Bride?'–to prepare for My greater glory! Erin, so you lack no good thing! I do not send in an army of soldiers with no experience in the battle or knowledge of who you are fighting against. You know your enemy and his patterns. Therefore, I will equip you with weapons beyond your abilities to understand.

"My Bride has been waiting for these weapons in order to fight the good fight. You have been subject to attacks and persecution in your silent waiting, but understand to those I call, I will also equip–and soon because I will be working through you. You will be able to do things impossible for man because I am in you."

Me: "Lord, please do this soon. Let this be soon!"

Jesus: "Continue to pray, rest and sing. Stay alert and prepare your fields. Not all the prophecies have been fulfilled and the best is yet to come! My promises are true and the seasons you've been waiting for are here. Sing a new song, Erin, and rejoice! I am with you."

Dream over.

Christmas Message from Erin…

I'm so grateful to our nest family of sparrows! Each one is special and brought together to gather near the Lord's altar in His presence. We love you and thank you for being with us for this most difficult year! The best is yet to come! I pray the gift of transformation is this year too–there are still six days left of 2025.

I just read the following poem.

"A doctor can save your body. A lawyer can save your reputation.

A fireman can save your house. A policeman can save your life.

But only God can save your soul!"

Author unknown

I pray your Christmas is wonderful with your family.

Much love and many blessings,

Erin